POLICY OF NFCUS

Editorial and advertising policy will be dictated by NFCUS while UBC will handle screening of material and technical production.

A special French-language contributing editor will be appointed by NFCUS to edit contributions in French. Local NFCUS Committees will handle the collection of articles on the individual campuses and the distribution of the printed magazine.

The decision to give the mandate to UBC came after the Congress decided it could not financially undertake a similar scheme proposed by McGill University. McGill suggested that NFCUS make two-year interest-free loan of $3,000, putting up another $2,000 for the project. McGill would have printed 8,000 copies.

"Hobo Hat" latest fad

MONTREAL (CUP) - The Mc-Gill Daily, student newspaper at McGill University has predicted the next Canadian Campus fad the Hobo Hat.

The hat made its appearance last week on American campuses when football stars at Louisiana State started wearing versatile creations.

"Brim up, crown down, porkpie or Fireman style, the Hobo has a personality all its own," the Daily says.

The hat is completely "shap-able" and can be rolled up and stowed away in pocket, glove compartment or purse. It will go on sale in Montreal this week, "for 'It will not be more than 25 cents less than five dollars.'

UBC Secretary and NFCUS President fight it out NFCUS no good Scott no good

VANCOUVER (CUP) — The University of British Columbia should pull out of the National Federation of Canadian University Students unless the organization proves itself in the coming year, student treasurer Malcolm Scott told the Ubyssey.

"I see no point in staying in an anachronism," Scott told the student newspaper. "NFCUS is operating merely to perpetuate NFCUS."

Scott proposed UBC be given the mandate to produce a national magazine while attending the 26 NFCUS Congress in Sherbrooke

The student treasurer said NFCUS has done little in the way of gaining government concessions for students or welding them into a united body.

Scott said UBC took the only positive action of the Congress in volunteering to produce a national student magazine. He did not say, however, that the original proposal for a magazine came from Mc-Gill.

At its organizational meeting Friday, Delta Gamma decided to hold the Blood Drive during the first term this year.

The date has been changed so as not to interfere with medical examinations. Committees were formed to deal with publicity and registration for the drive.

At the meeting Dale Sullivan was elected as freshman representative and Marie Zinc and Sonia for the debating team.

Janet Renouf will be in charge of the Delta Gamma entry in the Connelly Shield Competition next term, and urges all interested in acting in the presentation to contact her.

At the close of the meeting Delta Gamma president, Joan Stewart who volunteered for various committees.

"It looks like a good year. Delta Gamma seems to have a greater participation and interest in cam-pus life than previously," she said.

OTTAWA (CUP) President of NFCUS, Stewart Goodings says UBC student treasurer Malcolm Scott suffers from a crisis mentality, "an attitude of mind which sees each issue, each situation as a pretext for creating a crisis."

Goodings was interviewed after a story in UBC's student newspaper in which Scott said NFCUS had to "shape up this year or else."

" 'Produce now or else' - using such logic we would probably have disbanded Confederation years ago," the new president said.

"Scott claims that NFCUS is operating merely to perpetuate NFCUS - this conjures up images of some mysterious secret cult whose aim is merely to maintain the status quo," Goodings

"Obviously, this is false. NFCUS at UBC is the AMS. It is also the student councils at 38 other Canadian Universities."

"It is the student councils which determine the Federation's policy and it is up to these councils, individually and collectively to guard over the Federation's actions."

"The sooner each council starts to think of NFCUS as 'we' in-stead of 'they', the better for all concerned,''' Goodings said.

NICKEL IN WORLD MARKETS...JOBS FOR CANADIANS

How Canadian Nickel helps make seawater drinkable in Kuwait

It wasn't so long ago that Kuwait's drinking water had to be imported in goatskin bags; the natural sources of water being particularly foul and brackish. Today, however, the world's largest seawater evaporation plant supplies six million gallons of fresh water daily. Nickel alloys helped make this plant possible, just as they help in similar ways in other countries. Why nickel? Because nickel alloys can best withstand the punishing effects of corrosive salt water. The growth of nickel markets at home and abroad helps strengthen Canada's economy and helps provide more jobs for Canadians.

DISCRIMINATION BY HALIFAX LANDLORDS

The problem of colored students facing discrimination while looking for accommodation in Halifax is an old one, but no less serious for all that. The recent events at the University of Mississippi have tended to make Canadians sit back with smug disapproval, often saying such a thing could never happen here.

It can and does in a much more insiduous

In a survey carried out over the past couple of weeks by The Gazette to determine how much discrimination there is against colored students by landlords, two reporters - one an African negro, the other a white Canadian found that out of 12 houses with rooms available, the negro student was refused accommodation in four of them - or one third of the number.

The figure four out of 12 might appear negligible at first sight. However, the houses visited were all on the list available at the Dalhousie Business Office, and there is every reason to believe that the ratio would not be changed if the sample had been much larger.

The two reporters had a late start when it comes to finding accommodation in this city, but in talking to colored students at Dalhousie we have heard of numerous other cases of discrimination.

What can be done about it? This is a hard question to answer. But if the matter is brought out into the open and recognized as an evil some good might result. The trouble is that many Haligonians do not appear to want to have the topic of discrimination discussed. The CBC Television programme "Close Up" featured the problem of the Africville residents not long ago, and a recent issue of McLean's Magazine has done the same thing. However we have heard citizens of Halifax express shock at the programme - not at the content, mind you, but at the nerve of the CBC in exposing such a distasteful sight.

6 The University student is in the unfortunate position of finding himself in a seller's market when it comes to finding lodgings in Halifax. The number of students outnumber the number of decent living quarters available. This has resulted not only in landlords practicing discrimination getting away with it, but in a tendency among the good citizens to rent out rooms at astronomical rates hardly fit for a dog to sleep in.

We suggest that the University Administration cross off from their list all landlords who practice discrimination against students on racial grounds, and also set up - perhaps in co-operation with the Students' Council committee which will be responsible for inspecting houses offering accommodation to students. We also suggest that the City of Halifax take cognizance of the situation and act accordingly.

Discrimination and poor student housing has been uncovered in Toronto and Vancouver by student surveys this year. Perhaps this survey and others we intend to carry out in the near future - landlords beware - will have the proper effect.

CHAPERONES

An item of side business during the budget meeting of the Students' Council concerned chaperones at student dances. A motion was passed by Council to the effect that all societies holding dances had to have chaperones in attendance, that the names of the chaperones should be submitted to the Council at least a week in advance and that suitable seating and refreshments be provided for them.

However, one point that cannot be legislated is the attitude of the student attending the dances to the chaperones. It is not uncommon to see a couple who have given up their evening to help a student society sitting in splendid isolation while students carefully

CUBA: WHAT NEXT?

(From The McGill Daily)

The American general elections take place less than a month from now. Gradually the Republicans have seized upon an issue with which to fight the Kennedy administration. That issue is Cuba.

Not since the McCarthy era has any one issue so inflamed the passions of the electorate. There are constant demands that the government "do" something about Cuba. The Republicans have been blasting the Administration for that old but still politically-potent charge of "being soft on Communism."

It goes without saying that the encouragement of such passions by certain American politicians can only be described as irresponsible. In fact, these passions have been fanned to such an extent that it can only be described as mass hysteria.

The foundation of the demands that something be "done" about Cuba is the Monroe Doctrine. This venerable anachronism, drafted in 1823, stated that the United States had no intention of interfering in European affairs, but expected the European powers to refrain from Western Hemisphere affairs.

It is obvious from this description that the Monroe Doctrine no longer has any validity, If indeed it ever had any in the first place. The United States is deeply committed to European affairs, and so cannot expect its opponents to refrain from concerning itself with Latin America when it is surrounded with American bases in Turkey, Japan, etc.

However, the hysteria still persists; this element of the Monroe Doctrine is calmly ignored. Last month the influential Luce publications declared war on Cuba, when Time Magazine called for a "direct U.S. invasion of Cuba, carried out with sufficient force to get the job done with surgical speed and efficiency." An even more virulent attack was made in a corresponding Life editorial, which expected us to believe that tiny Cuba "constitutes a threat to the security of the U.S."

Under these conditions it is no wonder that the American public is gripped with hysteria. It is all the more reasonable when we hear irresponsible politicians, Republicans and Democrats alike, call for a naval blockade of Cuba, something which would get the U.S. Navy directly involved in a clash with Soviet armed forces. It goes without saying such a clash could only lead to war.

The immediate stimulus of the anti-Cuban hysteria has been the increase in the level of Soviet arms shipments to Cuba. This has been interpreted even by liberals as a provocative act on the part of Mr. Khruschev. But it must be seen in the context of U.S. press, public and political opinion. The Cuban Government has been attacked once by the U.S. and it knows that it can be attacked again. We can certainly understand the Cuban Government's intention of making such an invasion as difficult as possible. The arms shipments are no more provocative than the maintenance of the the Western garrison in Berlin.

There are some sections of discontent with the Castro regime in Cuba. However, even the anti-Castro rebels admit that Castro is supported by the vast majority of the Cuban people. To successfully invade Cuba would require the full might of U.S. armed power. This would have to be followed up by a long occupation and a bitter guerilla war. No one wishes the United States to take upon itself the ugly stigma of Hungary.

avoid speaking to them or even looking to see who they are.

> It seems that Mr. Russell, publisher of the Coburg Sentinel-Star had a brain-wave. Wouldn't it be fun to collect the opinions of diverse Canadians on their major concerns? It might, Meharry, it might. But it depends a great deal on the Canadians selected. What you have concocted is merely a witches' brew of housewives' pet peeves sweetened with Bruce Hutchisonian syrup and larded with potfuls of platitudes.

> Take Mr. R. A. Giles, for example, who happens to be the publisher of the world-famed Lachute Watchman, Lachute, Que. What's on YOUR mind, Mr. Giles. Unions, that's what. And how they have reached "the stage where they can dictate and take command of our industry." Don't you see it all around you? Mr. Giles does. And, what is more, as the author so deftly, and so admiringly, points out, in Russia there are no strikes! Which only goes to show . . . what,

Still, the contents of the contributions is easier to stomach than the style of the contributors. It is evident that the art of writing has been no one's concern. And, as might have been expected, Mr. Russell himself is the worst offender. A few lines from his hortatory poetic epilogue, entitled Lord, Give Us Men!

Ugh! It may well be Mr. Foster Meharry Russell's concern "that Canadians do not write as much as they speak." But it's his readers misfortune that Mr. Russell does not think as much as he writes.

The editor tells us in an incoherent preface that he mailed almost four hundred to prospective contributors — and it is certain that he bothered a great many people. Indeed, by dint of extraordinary flatfootedness, Mr. Russell has included in his ill-executed book the replies of those who managed to extricate themselves from his repeated solicitations. If Mr. Russell intended to expose these prudent few as Unconcerned Canadians, he has failed miserably. Here is one reply I like especially.

Sir:

I like your last issue of The Gazette quite a lot. Only one thing puzzles me: in the information on page 2, you describe Canada off the coast of Newfoundland. WE DID NOT QUIT

This past Saturday there occurred a phenomena that has come all too regular in Dalhousie's football fortunes. Saint Francis Xavier came to play football. The score of the game was no real surprise to any realistic Dal fan. But there is something different. Coach Rutigliano, has managed by his personality to instill in his players something that has been lacking in Dalhousie football teams of recent years. That unknown quantity is difficult to describe. Possibly the best summation of it was revealed to a Gazette reporter who spoke to X coach Don Loney after the game. He said, "They didn't give up."

X IN 2 YEARS

Earlier in the season, Rutigliano made some predictions for the future. He felt that, while this season would be a building one, next year Dal would play 500 ball and the following season the St. F. X. game would be a toss-up as to the victor. This reporter was sceptical about this forecast. But after seeing what the coach has done with the limited material on hand we think that his prediction will come to pass.

DAL IS WINNING

His success to date cannot be seen in Dal's won-lost percentage. It is an intangible item wrapped up in not giving up no matter what the score or who the opponent. As far as this season goes we think that Dal will win at least one game. Who the victim will be is difficult to say, but during one game everything will break right and the desire and determination of both team and coach will be rewarded with victory

PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE

Modern warfare, while employing vast technological advances as its striking arm has another facet being employed in all walks of life today. Propaganda and psychological tricks are being used in as wide a range as the defense of the "free world" to the winning of football games. While its value is debatable it cannot be denied that some success is achieved by the use of these tricks.

In the first half of the St. Mary's game last week the Dal team played the first half in the oldest uniforms that could be found. The Coach was dressed in a poncho raincoat and pair of slacks. At half time the Dal team changed into new uniforms and coach donned his Sunday best

In the X game Dal players all had a red stripe on their helmets and were wearing red shoe laces. The Dal dressing room is plastered with slogans and mottos urging the team to greater heights. Example, "When the going gets tough, the tough get going." If these things have helped the team it is hard to say. But what it does show is that the caseh is using every means at his disposal to does show is that the coach is using every means at his disposal to

To prove the closeness of the first half defensively there was only one gained first down — by Med. In the 3rd quarter Med scored again, with Craig getting his second 6pointer. The convert attempt by Brodie Lantz failed and the score remained 13-0 till late in the fourth quarter. Then on a sleeper play Carroll combined with Bauld for the only Commerce score. The convert missed; the final score 13-6, thus Med won their third game in a row without defeat.

Thursday's action pitted the polished Law team against Arts in what was the highest scoring

On Tuesday, Oct. 9 Science defeated the Engineers 6-0. The only touchdown came on the first series of plays for Science in the 2nd half. On the first play, Science, QB Cameron dropped back for a pass and hit Jerry Clarke down the centre at about the Eng. 40 yard line. Clarke lateralled to Murray Beaton who ran the rest of the distance for the touchdown. Engineers under the field direction of Dave Mercer just couldn't pick up the mileage to reach paydirt.

Wednesday's contest between Med and Com got off to a rousing Med and Com got off to a rousing Alexander carried the ball over start. Dal Tigers lose but hold X to only 2 second-half T.D.

Take away one half of a football game and Dal Tigers scored a moral victory Saturday in their 53-0 defeat to St. Francis Xavier. The Bengals gave up 41 points in the first 30 minutes but tightened their defense in the second half to allow but 12 more points.

If one cares to dig into the files, Dalhousie gave up four more touchdowns last year while scoring three herself (77-19 in 1961).

Xavier rolled to a 21-0 lead in the first quarter and the 1400 fans were groaning and taking out the adding machines. In the second quarter, 20 more points were totalled.

With the score 41-0 at half, one might think the leading team would let up or would be instructed to ease off the opposition. This is saying nothing against Loney and his coaching methods which have given appearances of being somewhat successful. Howhe left platoon number one of his two platoon system in the game (Stop and Go teams) and this unit, was unable to count to any huge sum against the Dal de-

In the second half, (the first is forgettable) Xavier ran back the opening kickoff for a major. A couple of key blocks, the mark of any Loney team, sprung Phil St. John loose at his own 50 for a sideline run that left Dal defenders far in his wake.

Dal Defense Tightens

Then Dal tightened. From 30 second mark of the second half until there were less than five minutes to play, did not see the Dal goal line. They reached the 20 twice but could get no further until Joe Franciose smashed off 39 yards and Neil Weber clicked off the final three in a three-play

24 yard series.

The Dal offense, up against the best defense in Maritime football, again went nowhere and totalled 74 yards. The Dal defense, up against the best offense in Maritime football, allowed 564 yards total but 350 of that amount was total but 350 of that amount was in the first half.

Bright Spots

One area of play where the Tigers showed marked improvement was in the yards penalties column. In each of their first three games, that figure reached sky-high proportions but Saturday the Bengals were penalized only 60 yards.

Saints scored first but Bill Gillies evened the score for Dal. Donahee of Saint Mary's booted home two goals to hand the Dal team its first loss of the year.

However, things were different last Saturday. Before a typically small crowd, composed mainly of King's supporters, Dal led by their brilliant goaler, Dave White, vindicated their previous loss.

As the game opened, Kings seemed to monopolize the play. Their offensive play gave the Dal. netter a hard time. White proved equal to the occasion. He looked particularily impressive in batting down a well-executed Kings corner shot. Then the Dal. boys caught fire. Don Hoopie booted the ball to inside right Don Sheenan and Sheenan batted the ball in with his head.

The Dal. boys kept up the pressure. Harry Mathers booted home a pass from Colon Duerdent to give Dal. 2-0 lead at the half.

Play in the second half was also rugged. Both sides had difficulty in formulating and effecting a proper offensive pattern. This tended to make the game or Dal. broke clear from the rest of King's goal. King's

Dal wins

Dal Tigers retained their Maritime Intercollegiate Golf champ-ionship on Thanksgiving Day with a thrilling playoff victory over University of New Brunswick. The tournament, with six Maritime schools represented, was played at Antigonish.

Dal won the title last year at Ashburn Golf Club in Halifax and three of that team of four returned to defend the title. Doug Arnold a fourth year science student from Woodstock, New Brunswick. John Weatherhead a sophomore Commerce student from Edmundston, N. B., and Ted Reevey of St. John a second year commerce man all returned. A fourth New Brunswicker, John Cullen, a freshman from Edmundston, replaced Don Green as the fourth member of the Reevey and Arnold both shot 74 with Reevey turning in a one over par 35 for the back nine. Arnold fired a pair of 37's. UNB's Lionel Jardine also fired a 74. Weather-head carded 82 and Cullen 77.

Dal finished in a tie with UNB at the end of 18 but fired a "hot" two-under par 42 for the three hole playoff and beat their rivals by five strokes.
