

joyfully welcomed to our Province, Prince of the Royal Family, but greater yet is our joy in greeting Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise, who having in Her high position won the esteem and affections of all classes of the people now comes to dwell among us as the partner of our Governor General.

We have learned with pleasure of the enjoyment which our Provincial Forest and River scenery and sports have afforded Your Excellency and Her Royal Highness the Princess, and we trust that the warm sentiments of a devoted people, and the enjoyments of a country so richly endowed by nature, may be esteemed as in some measure compensatory for the sacrifices necessary attendant upon your Colonial residence.

We beg to assure your Excellency of the deep interest we feel in your Excellency's happiness and welfare. We pray that every blessing may attend your Excellency and Her Royal Highness, and we hope that in after years with your recollections of life in Canada may be entwined an affectionate remembrance of our people.

Dated August 11th, A. D. 1879.
GEORGE F. GREGORY, Mayor.
CHARLES W. BECKWITH, City Clerk.
[L. S.]

His Excellency made a low bow, and receiving his reply from the hands of his secretary read it in a loud voice. It is as follows:

To the Mayor and City Council of the City of Fredericton,
My Friends and Gentlemen,—

This is not the first time as you remind me that the Queen's children have visited your people, and have received at their hands the proofs of an affection for our Sovereign which makes all Her Majesty's subjects. The Queen has now reigned for a longer period than has been vouchsafed to most of our Monarchs over a prosperous and united nation, whose strength has, during her life, been greatly increased by the development and consolidation of this her great Dominion. Her Majesty possesses here the love of a people more numerous than were the English nation when they achieved the glories which the trumpet of fame spoke moved by Shakespeare's breath, and made a household word among all nations. In Canada I am able to receive with pride testimonials of respect, reverence and love, for her rule have been called the spacious times of Elizabeth.

And while we must look on this country as rapidly becoming one of the moving influences of the world we cannot forget what an advantageous variety of position and power within the sphere of the Dominion is possessed by the various provinces. In the Province of which this city is the capital, you have the great ocean highways so near you, that your brave and hardy mariners ply their trade on the great sea, and your mercantile marine with many of the best sailors in America. In the territories comprised within your limits you occupy a central position through which much of the land traffic of this part of the American Continent is likely to be conducted, and your climate gives to all those who cultivate your soil, abundance of agricultural resources in corn and pasture land.

It may not be inappropriate now when you give us your kindly and hospitable welcome to the capital of your Province to ask you to receive with our thanks the expression of our hope that the members selected as the representatives of the province, and who assemble here may be guided by wisdom by the most high to further the welfare and promote the best interests of a true and loyal people.

Three little girls named Helen Sterling, Miss Aggie Nell, Miss Allen, stood on the platform during the reading of the city address, and at the close, presented Her Highness with a bouquet with these words, "To Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise, we beg to present this bouquet." The Princess received it with a smile and thanked the little ones. The Marquis shook hands with them and then the Mayor escorted them away.

His Worship then presented Mr. C. Beckwith, City Clerk, Mr. F. M. Beane, City Auditor, Mr. J. B. Smith, Moore, Vandine, Simmonds, Ritchie, Gunter and Beck. His Excellency shook hands with each, and the Princess bowed. Mr. Warden McBean with the Sheriff on his right and Mr. Secretary, Treasurer Rainsford on his left, advanced. The Warden read the following address:

To His Excellency the Right Honourable Sir John Douglas Sutherland Campbell, F. C. S., K. T. G. C. M. G., Governor of the Dominion of Canada, etc.

WE, the Warden and Councillors of the County of York, on this, the occasion of your Excellency's visit to our County, desire to tender to your Excellency and to your illustrious consort, Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise, a sincere and hearty welcome.

Representing, as we do, the inhabitants of this Municipality, we are pleased to be able to say on their behalf that the appointment of one of so highly a cultivated mind, and of such parliamentary experience as your Excellency to the important and responsible position of Governor General of this Dominion, as well as the appointing of Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise, so eminently distinguished for her virtues and kindly leaning towards all classes, to the care and protection of the people of Canada, was hailed with the greatest possible satisfaction, testifying, as it did, the deep regard and interest of Her Most Gracious Majesty, our beloved Queen, towards her subjects in this portion of Her Empire, and her desire, further, to strengthen, if possible, the ties that bind us to the Mother Country.

In conclusion, we sincerely trust that your residence in Canada may be promotive of much happiness to your Excellency and Her Royal Highness, and of great and lasting benefit to the country, and that your Excellency and Her Royal Highness may long be spared to enjoy the choicest of blessings.

WILLIAM McBEAN, Warden.
HENRY B. RAINSFORD, Jr., Sec. Treas.

To which His Excellency replied as follows: To the Warden and Councillors of the Municipality of the County of York, My Friends and Gentlemen,—

We have heard much of the beauty of this part of the Province, and we are glad to find that this fertile and populous country cherishes as warm an affection, and as devoted a loyalty to our Sovereign, the Throne and person of our representative of the British Monarchy can wish or hope to find.

It is with great satisfaction I see in the reports of the Dominion Minister of Agriculture that the attractions of promising colonization in the persons of the Danish settlers who have taken up their abode among the people of New Brunswick and who in their English neighbors may find some distant cousins.

The comparative proximity of your Province to Europe will, I have no doubt, continue to command that attention in the minds of intending emigrants which is necessary if the great attractions of this part of the Dominion are to be properly appreciated and this great Maritime Province be further opened up by the enterprise of the agricultural community.

The case with which this valley can be reached from Europe suggests how the European markets are likely to know before long the excellence of your produce: for the comparative cheapness of freight to the Mother Country consequent upon your near and advantageous position will assuredly give to you a favorable opportunity to send to the home markets large supplies of beef and mutton. In England a vast and ever-open market is open to you for such products; and in thanking you for your address I cannot refrain from expressing my desire to see not only a revival of your revenues from old sources in the ship, lumber and fish trades, but that you may also enjoy a share which will be so largely and legitimately your own, in that immense commerce in live stock which is now being carried on between the Dominion and Great Britain.

LORNE.
The Warden then presented Mr. John Black, Councillors Van Wart, Close, Davidson, Johnson, Matheson, Wilson, Jewett, Grant, Hoyt, Lawson, Pinder, Oliver, Murray, Pheny, Curry, Glendenings and Fisher. Sheriff Temple then proposed three cheers for the Marquis of Lorne which were given with enthusiasm, and three others for the Princess Louise. Instead of three Her Highness got six, the assembly seeming actually mad with enthusiasm. The party were then escorted to their carriage and drove home. The Exhibition Palace looked magnificent, and the noise that at times prevailed during the ceremony was owing to the anxiety felt by parties in the rear to get a look at the platform.

Strangers in Town.
Among the many strangers in town are Mr. Ryan, M. L. C., Mr. Hannington, M. L. C., Mr. Kelly, M. L. C., Mr. McInerney, M. L. C. The members of the Government, Messrs. Beveridge, White, Leighton, Lynott, Hill, Cottrell, Marshall, McManus, P. J. Ryan, J. Covert, M. P. F., Mr. Payne and Mr. Carr, of the Sun, Mr. McDade and Mr. Mait, of the News, Mr. Wetmore, of the Globe, and Mr. Melville, of the Telegraph.

—Two ruffians attempted an indecent assault on a woman in Brunswick Street, Sunday night.

—Cool Barges have been arrested for manslaughter in New York.

—Twenty-two thousand people are rendered homeless by fire in Sarajevo.

—It is rumored H. R. H. the Princess will visit England in October, returning to Canada in the spring.

A shocking story comes from Caribou, Me. A few days ago a little girl named Kearney 10 years old, was picking berries, when a ruffian named Jerry Boniller, a tall hand at Collins & Porter's, approached and outraged her in a cruel manner. The child's father learned the description of the man, and took immediate steps for his arrest. The ruffian was overtaken in the woods near his own house by an armed party. He was running away and dared them to fire, but one man did fire and wounded Boniller in the abdomen. He is now on the point of death, and the little girl is not in a much better condition.

FREDERICTON, AUGUST 12, 1879

A Second Edition of The "Star" will be published this Evening about SIX o'clock containing the list of the judgments to-day on the Liquor Question.

ULTRA VIRES.
At half-past 2 o'clock this afternoon, the doom of the Canada Temperance Act became known. Four judges, viz: Chief Justice Allen, Justice Wetmore, Weldon and Fisher, declared in lengthy and logical documents, for reasons therein expressed, the law was ultra vires. This is a little more than we had expected all along; for while always believing the absurd law would be declared unconstitutional, we did not think the decision would be unanimous. We have every faith in the integrity and ability of our Bench, and hence respect their judgment; and in their averse decision to Dominion statute we recognize more, namely, a fearlessness of faction directed by a sense of high duty that not even a law passed by the majority of our Dominion magistrates can sway.

PASSED AWAY LIKE A FLEETING DREAM.

The glory of the summer's morning is succeeded by the shades of evening, and vernal spring and balmy summer are followed by the icy breath of frothing winter. Like everything in this nether world, the visit of the Marquis and the Princess has passed away and we reflect upon it just as we might on some high colored dream. Still there is a pleasure too in the reflection.

When one comes to think that the broad and liberalizing spirit of the age has so far prevailed that ordinary folk are vouchsafed in their lives the high honor of sitting down to table with royalty, it is a pleasure and much of that divinity "which doth hedge in a king" is proven to be mere poetical bosh. Dynasties nor monarchs are the power in themselves; it is the "power behind the throne," that moves the springs of the nation, and that power is the people. The Marquis of Lorne, all honor to him for his high and successful venture, is the first subject in our knowledge of history that has spanned that huge gulf that had hitherto separated the ruler from the subject. And note the effects of this step: The Marquis is sent out to govern us, and his wife comes with him and takes the same place as the Countess of Dufferin filled. The circle has grown wider and wider. The daughter of the Queen comes down to our cities, is introduced to our aldermen and county councillors, and eats, and drinks and makes merry with honest farmers who can just write M. P. P. after their names. So that the Marquis of Lorne is the Cæsar who has passed the Rubicon dividing royalty from baser nature, and uncrossed through the centuries of British rule.

Our visitors have been treated "right royally," and have appreciated their treatment. They say the city arrangements they have never seen excelled, and will carry away pleasing and grateful remembrances of Fredericton. They have expressed their obligations to the members of the Government in ample language. On saying good-bye to that body to-day the Marquis assured them that he could scarce find words to express his thanks for their untiring attention to them since their visit to the Province; and for the excellent manner they had arranged for their comfort in every matter that came under their jurisdiction. His Excellency also undertook to speak for Her Highness who however came forward to our Government members and in her own sweet way, in bidding good-bye, thanked them collectively and individually; assuring them one and all that she should ever feel a debt of gratitude.

We are especially proud of Fredericton who has proven that her loyalty is as undimmed as ever, and that those who think our close contact with the Great Republic, and our reading of annexation newspapers beget indifference in us for the Throne and household of Her Majesty, are sadly mistaken. We must compliment our Mayor and Corporation particularly for the very creditable manner in which they performed their rather embarrassing duties.

THE BUCTOUCHE CYCLONE.
The Monteur Acadien gives the following account of the "breaking" and course of the cyclone:—

About four o'clock in the afternoon, (Wednesday) the sky was covered with dark thick clouds, and heavy thunder claps were heard in the distance. This presaged a tempest, but nobody expected the terrific one that plunged the people of the north in terror. Some thick clouds ploughed the sky, and two especially enormous large and black approached each other from opposite directions and came into collision at Rich Cove, about two miles above St. Mary's Church. The shock was terrible and formed a waterspout, conical in shape and of a frightful size. Many of the inhabitants of the south bank witnessed the spectacle, and say that what they saw resembled an enormous cylinder emitting fire and steam with a tremendous noise. The cyclone moving toward the east traversed a small wood, uprooting and raising everything in the course of its passage for a width of two acres. After describing a circle towards the north the waterspout rushed upon the barn belonging to Rev. Mr. Ouellet, at a quarter of a mile behind the Presbytery, which it demolished almost completely, leaving only a part of the gable end standing. The zigzag course saved St. Mary's Church, the Presbytery and their dependencies, which thus by good fortune escaped certain destruction. Advancing toward the east in a zigzag and circular fashion, the waterspout came in the twinkling of an eye to the Buctouche Church, where it wrought its last destruction on this side of the frith, and from which, after crossing the bay and the shore, it lost itself in the sea.

Houses destroyed are: Alex's Bay, Oliver Marie Girouard, Narcisse Chesse, Meunier, Simeon Allain, Pierce S. Allain, Philip Cornier, Clement Cormier, Hypolite Boucher, H. B. Smith, F. S. Bastieche, V. V. Célphore Henri, Thos. Ward, Wm. Ward, Edward Cormier, D. H. Cormier, Edward Landry, Aus Flo Allain, Oliver LeBlanc, Jos. Bastache, Pierre Ed. Landry, Jos. LeBlanc, Aime Robicheau, L. B. Allain, Anselme LeBlanc, D. H. Cormier, Dennis Cormier, John Morrison, H. Sutton, Mr. Powell's Tannery, Rev. Mr. Michand, Catholic Convent.

The killed are: Mrs. F. Duplessis, who was sick and was killed by the debris of the falling house. An Indian female, Jeanne, wife of T. Nicolas, skull fractured by a falling chimney. A child of Alexis Roy, 2 years old. Alexis Roy, Mrs. Girouard, Narcisse Chesse, Ambrose Allen, in daughter of Philip Cormier, two little sons of Thomas Ward, and Indian Nicholas, two young Indians, and a child of Vital Girouard, more or less injured, some fatally. Drs. Landry and Lamontagne are in attendance on the sufferers.

Local Matters.

The Vice-Regal Party.

EARLY yesterday evening the bustle again commenced about the streets, some illuminating their dwellings and stores, others preparing for the torch-light procession. Towards 9 o'clock carriages began to roll up to Government House, with those who were to attend the levee, which was announced to open at 9 sharp. Earlier in the evening a dinner party had been given by their Excellencies, at which were all our M. P.'s and M. P.'s, M. L. C.'s and Senators in town; our city functionaries and two or three others. After the ladies had retired to the drawing room headed by the Princess, Hon. John A. Beckwith proposed the health of the Queen, which was drunk with the honors.

The levee was held in the Drawing Room, the Marquis on the right dressed in uniform, and wearing his orders. On the left was Her Royal Highness who wore a white brocade silk dress, with a gold thread running through the front, trimmed with white satin, lace and gold and silver head dress, wreath of gold marsh myrtle, the Campbell badge, orders of Victoria and Albert and India order, gold ornaments, with diamonds and pearls. Those who were presented left a card at the entrance to the presence chamber, and another with an Aide-de-Camp (Major de Winton), who read the name. The party so announced bowed first to the Marquis, passed a couple of paces and then bowed to Her Royal Highness, thence going into the Ball Room. It was a subject of much remark that in a few cases the Princess did not bow as those presented passed her. This was because the parties so slighted had departed from the etiquette by making only one bow. As the Marquis was nearest, the first bow belonged to him and Her Royal Highness was merely returning the slight. More than half of the fashionable assembly were strangers who had come hundreds of miles from thousands of miles for a Vice-Regal and a Regal salutation. When the levee was about half-ended, the torch light procession with its accompaniment of Calithumpeans filed in through the gate of Government House, and headed by the bag pipers and the bands drew up at the entrance. The effect of the torch-light procession was magnificent, but it is very much to be questioned indeed if people did not allow their loyalty to carry them a little too far, when they organized their calithumpan brigade. To some, at least to us, it would seem to invest the character of not alone the torch-light procession, but the ceremonies inside with the burlesque. However, it was not meant, and the least we can say is that it was in bad taste. The Marquis and her Royal Highness, after the presentation, went to a window, and viewed the whole display. The band played "God save the Queen," and to a quickstep all marched off.

The following is a list of those presented last evening to the Governor General and her Royal Highness:—

The Departure.

About 8 o'clock this morning crowds began to gather at Sherman's wharf to see their Excellencies depart. Captain Cropley had his guard of honor drawn up, who on the approach of their Excellencies "presented arms." At the head of the wharf the party stopped, and Mrs. Maunsel presented the Princess with a bouquet which she accepted with thanks. The Marquis and Princess then shook hands with the Metropolitan and his lady, with his Worship the Mayor, and with Col. and Mrs. Maunsel. The Marquis was dressed in a plain shooting suit and black felt hat, her Highness in a light travelling dress, looking, it was remarked on every side, lovely. She looked her gratitude to the throngs who cheered and waved their handkerchiefs, and then stepped on board. The members of the Government then took leave of their guests, and His Excellency and Her Highness both expressed their obligations to the Government, both for the excellence of their arrangements and their attention to them during their visit. A quiver on the lip of Her Highness in telling her obligations and expressing her gratitude spoke more eloquently than words could, and well repaid those most concerned for time and trouble. Three hearty cheers were given, Her Highness and His Excellency both standing on the quarter deck acknowledging the cheers. They stood gazing at the wharf till they became unrecognizable in the distance. The boat faded away and people turned away somewhat sad, for it was then they realized that Her Highness had passed away like a greeting dream, that the daughter of our Queen was no longer in the city. His Worship the Mayor to day received the following letter from Major de Winton:—

Fredericton, Aug. 12 1879.

Dear Sir:—

I am desirous by His Excellency to enclose herewith the sum of ($200) two hundred dollars as a Government gift from himself and Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise to the poor of the city, on the occasion of their first visit here.

Faithfully yours,

F. de Winton.

Governor General's Secretary.

His Worship the Mayor.

Fredericton, 12th August, 1879.

Sir,—

I am commanded to express to you the great gratification which has been felt by His Excellency and Her Royal Highness in the warm welcome they have received during their visit to your charming city. They would gladly have been able to remain longer and regret that it is already time to bid farewell; and desire to thank, through you, all classes for their kind and cordial reception.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

F. de Winton.

Major R. A. Governor General's Secretary.

His Worship the Mayor.

[Of course His Excellency is not responsible for the style of the composition in which his thanks, &c., are conveyed.—Ed.]

Personal.

We are sorry to say that Hon. Mr. Adams has been unwell for some days, and consequently unable to attend either dinner party at Government House during the stay of their Excellencies.

Members of the government and Mr. Lynott are yet in town.

—The Local Government is in session to-day. Chief business, the Kent railroad.

—Crowds thronged about the Court this afternoon awaiting the Judge's decision on the Canada Temperance Act.

—A man from the north yesterday brought Dr. Dow a young beaver alive.

SECOND EDITION!

Canada Temperance Act Squashed.

The Judgment of the Court.

The following is a summary of the judgments delivered to-day by the Court on the Canada Temperance Act. This was a rule nisi for a certiorari obtained and argued last Trinity term before Allen, C. J., the question being the ultra vires of the Canada Temperance Act of 1878.

The judgment of the Court is as follows:—

WATSON, J.—The question is whether the Act is for the regulation of trade and commerce. If so, it is good. The preamble states it is for another purpose, but the whole act may be looked at. My opinion is the Act is for the promotion of temperance, not the regulation of trade and commerce. Parliament has no power to affect the licensing power of the local legislatures. It is said the object of the Act is a legislation against crime. It is not such an Act as is intended by the Imperial Act; it interferes with civil rights and property. Reg. vs. Justices of Kings the court said the Parliament may legislate exclusively on the subject. But this is not legislation regulating commerce but temperance. The question before the Court was not the power the Parliament had to make laws, but dealing with a law which interfered with trade and commerce. I think the rule should be made absolute.

FRASER, J.—Unless the Act regulates trade and commerce it is ultra vires. The term trade and commerce refers to international as well as to foreign trade. Reg. vs. Justices of Kings does not decide this point. But this Canada Temperance Act interferes with civil rights and property when the limits of which holds the power of granting liquor licenses. The law is not for the regulation of trade but for the law itself it is a summary law, the promotion of temperance, and making a distinction between the rich and poor. Without questioning the general power of the Canadian Parliament to make laws, it had no right to take away certiorari. I think the rule should be made absolute.

WELLS, J.—The Parliament has no power to deprive a man of the right to appeal—to take away certiorari. The Canada Temperance Act does not regulate trade and commerce. It interferes with the licensing power, with civil rights and property. The Act is not a commercial law, I therefore think the rule should be made absolute.

ALLEN, C. J. (Chief Justice.)—I do not agree on all the points. Is the Act a regulation of trade and commerce? I think the regulation of trade in the Province is a purely local matter with which the Parliament has nothing to do. But I do not decide on the ground that civil rights and property are affected. If the Act regulated trade and commerce, civil rights and property should give way. But I do not think it regulates trade and commerce. It does not prohibit the sale of liquor; and I am not prepared to say that the Parliament might have prohibited it entirely if it chose. But it professes to restrict the sale; a matter entirely within the jurisdiction of the local legislature. I have doubts if this case was not decided in Reg. vs. Justices of Kings. There the Parliament undertakes to prohibit, here it undertakes to restrict. I think the Act deals purely with a local matter and is therefore ultra vires. As to certiorari, I only say that the Act being bad, the clause taking away the right of appeal is very bad. My brother Duff is of the same opinion, and authorizes me so to say. Rule absolute.

We think a special meeting of the City Council ought to be called for the purpose of issuing licenses at once. If such meeting is not called applications will be made for licenses at the next regular meeting of the council.

In the matter of granting licenses, we certainly think some discrimination should be shown. The council should satisfy itself that the applicant is qualified before granting the license. We make no particular reference; but we do candidly think that men sometimes are granted licenses to sell liquor, who are not fit to deal out goods to a dog. We shall have a word again on this subject.

REGULATIONS
Respecting the Disposal of certain Dominion Lands for the purposes of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR,
Ottawa, July 9th, 1879.

"Public notice is hereby given that the following regulations are promulgated as governing the mode of disposing of the Dominion Lands situated within 110 (one hundred and ten) miles on each side of the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway:

1. "That the final survey of the said lands has been made west of the Red River, and for the purpose of these Regulations, the line of the said railway shall be assumed to be on the fourth base westerly to the intersection of the said base by the line between ranges 21 and 22 west of the first principal meridian, and thence in a direct line to the confluence of the Shell River with the river Assiniboine.
2. "The country lying on each side of the line of railway shall be respectively divided into belts as follows:
 (1) A belt of five miles on either side of the railway, and immediately adjoining the same, to be called belt A;
 (2) A belt of fifteen miles on either side of the railway adjoining belt A, to be called belt B;
 (3) A belt of twenty miles on either side of the railway, adjoining belt B, to be called belt C;
 (4) A belt of twenty miles on either side of the railway, adjoining belt C, to be called belt D; and
 (5) A belt of fifty miles on either side of the railway, adjoining belt D, to be called belt E.

3. "The Dominion lands in belt A shall be absolutely withdrawn from homestead entry, also from pre-emption, and shall be held exclusively for sale at six dollars per acre.
 4. "The lands in belt B shall be disposed of as follows: The even-numbered sections within the belt shall be set apart for homesteads and pre-emptions, and the odd-numbered sections shall be regarded as railway lands proper. The homesteads on the even-numbered sections, to the extent of eighty acres each, shall consist of the easterly halves of the easterly halves of such sections, and the pre-emptions on such even-numbered sections, also to the extent of eighty acres each, adjoining such eighty-acre homesteads, shall consist of the westerly halves of the easterly halves, also to the extent of eighty acres each, of the westerly halves of such sections, and shall be sold at the rate of $2.50 (two dollars and fifty cents) per acre. Railway lands to be dealt with in the same manner as above provided in respect of lands in belt B, except that the price shall be $3.50 (three dollars and fifty cents) per acre.

5. "The even-numbered sections in belt C will be set apart for homesteads and pre-emptions of eighty acres each, in manner as above described; the price of pre-emption, as provided in respect of belts B and C, but the price of pre-emption shall be at the rate of $2 (two dollars) per acre. Railway lands to be dealt with in the same manner as above provided in respect of lands in belt B, except that the price shall be $3.50 (three dollars and fifty cents) per acre.

6. "The even-numbered sections in belt D shall also be set apart for homesteads and pre-emptions of eighty acres each, as provided in respect of belts B and C, but the price of pre-emption shall be at the rate of $2 (two dollars) per acre. Railway lands to be dealt with in the same manner as above provided in respect of lands in belt B, except that the price shall be $3.50 (three dollars and fifty cents) per acre.

7. "In the belt E, the description and area of homesteads and pre-emptions, and railway lands respectively, to be as above, and the price of both pre-emption and railway lands to be at the uniform rate of $1 (one dollar) per acre.
 8. "The terms of sale of pre-emptions throughout the several belts, B, C, D and E shall be as follows, viz.: Four-tenths of the purchase money, together with interest on the latter, at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, to be paid at the end of three years from the date of entry; the remainder to be paid in six equal annual instalments from and after the said date, with interest at the rate above mentioned, on each balance of the purchase money as may from time to time remain unpaid, to be paid with each instalment.

9. "The terms of sale of railway lands to be uniformly as follows, viz.: One-tenth in cash at the time of purchase; the balance in nine equal annual instalments, with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum on the balance of purchase money from time to time remaining unpaid, to be paid with each instalment. All payments, other than pre-emptions or railway lands proper, shall be in cash, and not in scrip or bounty warrants.

10. "All entries of land shall be subject to the following provisions respecting the right of way of the Canadian Pacific Railway or any Government colonization railway connected therewith, viz.:
 a. In the case of the railway crossing lands entered as a homestead, the right of way thereon shall be free to the Government.
 b. Where the railway crosses pre-emptions or railway lands proper, the owner shall only be entitled to claim payment for the land required for right of way at the same rate per acre as he may have paid the government for the same.

11. "The above regulations shall come into force on and after the first day of August next, up to which date the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act shall continue to operate over the lands included in the several belts mentioned, excepting as relates to the belts A and B, in both of which, up to the said date, homesteads of 160 acres each, but no other entries will, as at present, be permitted.
 12. "Claims to Dominion lands arising from settlement after the date hereof, in territory unsurveyed at the time of settlement, and which may be situated within the limits affected by the above policy, or by the extension thereof in the future over additional territory, will be ultimately dealt with in accordance with the terms prescribed above for the lands in the particular belt in which such settlement may be found to be situated.
 13. "All entries after the date thereof of unoccupied lands in the Saskatchewan Agency, will be considered as provisional until the railway line is laid out; but part of the territories has been located, after which the same will be finally disposed of in accordance with the above regulations, as the same may apply to the particular belt in which such lands may be found to be situated.
 14. "The above regulations if will, of course, be understood not to affect sections 11 and 20, which are public school lands, or sections 8 and 26, Hudson's Bay Company lands.

"Any further information necessary may be obtained on application at the Dominion Lands Office, Ottawa, or from the agent of Dominion Lands, Winnipeg, or from any of the local agents in Manitoba or the Territories, who are in possession of maps showing the limits of the several belts above referred to, a supply of which maps will, as soon as possible, be placed in the hands of the said agents for general distribution."
