FIRE CHIEF'S SWIFT RIDE.

35 Miles in 24 Minutes to Tackle a New York City Blaze.

New York, May 26.—Seven persons were injured, one probably fatally, several hundred lives were imperilled, and $75,000 damages done by a fire that started this afternoon in the seven-story building, 628-630 West 25th-street, occupied mainly by the Zucker & Levitt and Loeb Co., manufacturers of chemicals, and spread to three adjacent buildings.

The fire was caused by an explosion of a carboy in the shipping room on the first floor, where Max E. Zealane and Fred Markwart were at work. Both were terribly burned, the former probably fatally.

The flames shot up the elevator shaft to the second floor, where about 50 girls employed by the Connecticut Dynamo and Motor Co., became panic-stricken, and attempted to jump from the windows. About 30 girls were carried down on the freight elevator, and the rest were rescued by firemen and policemen, all being unhurt except two, who were slightly burned.

Rescues and narrow escapes marked the progress of a struggle with the flames, which reached its climax with the sensational arrival of Chief Crocker, after the manner of Sheridan's ride. He had come from Westchester Village to the scene, a distance of fifteen miles, traveling in his red automobile through crowded city streets, in twenty-four minutes.

FOREIGNERS ARE SAFE.

Paris, May 27.—A semi-official note issued today relative to reports of trouble at Pointe a Pitre, Guadeloupe and Fort de France, Martinique, says there is no possibility of danger to foreigners there, who are protected by a garrison of 5000 men and two warships.

OBITUARY.

Canon Walli.—Lennoxville, Que., May 27.—Rev. Canon T. B. Walli, principal of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, died this afternoon.

Interfered With Police.—John Jackson, 69 Chestnut-street, on Saturday night saw the police arresting a drunk at Queen and Chestnut-streets. Jackson did not know enough to mind his own business and interfered with the officer. He was locked up on a disorderly charge.

Arrested.—Barcelona, May 27.—The secretary of Don Jaime de Bourbon, son of Don Carlos, the Spanish pretender, was arrested here today. The charge on which he was taken into custody was not made public.

"There's a Reason"

Hamilton, May 27.—(Special)—Earl Grey, the governor-general, accompanied by Lady Sybil Grey, Miss Howard, Col. Hanbury Williams, and Capt. Trotter, arrived shortly after midnight Saturday. This morning they were met at the Stuart-street station by Mayor Biggar and Aldermen Howard, Wallace, Sweeney, Eastwood, Clark, Lewis, Martin, Gilbert, Wright and Bailey, and escorted to Christ Church Cathedral. Rev. W. E. White conducted the service, and Bishop DuMoulin preached. A big crowd gathered about the cathedral doors. The visitors went to the home of Senator Gibson, Beamsville, this afternoon. Monday morning at 10 o'clock there will be a civic reception at the city hall. This evening his excellency called on William Hendrie, senior, who is at the point of death.

The remains of Edwin W. Briggs, Dundas, the young corporal of the 1st Regiment, who was killed by jumping off a train Friday morning on the regiment was returning from Windsor, was buried this afternoon with military honors. The 7th H. B. placed in charge of the disposal of the regiment, which went out to Dundas, about a hundred strong, under Capt. McCough. The 12th Regiment was represented by forty men. Serg. Tingle had charge of the firing party. Canon Irving, assisted by Rev. D. R. Drummond, the chaplain, officiated. Practically the whole town attended the funeral. Coroner Griffin will hold an inquest Tuesday evening at 10.30.

Miss Mary Reid, the daughter of Alfred F. Reid, Union Park, died today at the age of 20.

Rev. J. J. Shearer, the Lord's Day Alliance secretary, preached at the James-street Baptist Church this evening. He declared that one hundred and fifty thousand men in Canada were forced to work on Sunday.

P. C. Hansen was before the commissioners at noon Saturday on the charge of leaving his beat without permission. The case was adjourned, and it is believed that he will hand in his resignation.

Hon. Frank Cochrane visited the beach Saturday in company with Henry Carscallen, K.C., M.L.A., and Ald. MacLeod. He gave an indication that the government would cancel the bargain made between the city and the Toronto and Niagara Power Company.

The Hamilton Bridge Works Company has decided to fight the structural workers who quit work because the non-union men were employed. The company claims it will replace the strikers Monday.

It has been notified that a statue of Hermes is being forwarded to him by a Greek firm. He realized some $1000 at the demolition of the Toronto St. Catharines and Gait, and has handed it all over to the trustees of the local fund.

TO TAX CORPORATIONS.
Should Pay Added 12 Per Cent. to Equal Private Taxpayers.

Washington, May 26.—Taxation at the rate of 12 per cent. of the net earnings of the street car, gas and telephone companies doing business in the District of Columbia is the leading feature of a bill reported favorably to the senate by the committee on the district.

Senator Hansbrough, chairman of the sub-committee which prepared this measure, says that his committee made a most searching examination of the records of these companies and of similar companies in other cities, and determined that 12 per cent. tax on the net earnings of Washington companies would result in their paying almost the same rate of taxation as is now paid by private individuals. There are six railroad companies and one gas and one telephone company involved, and taking their net earnings for 1905 as a basis, it is found that had the proposed law been in operation then they would have paid $400,000 into the district treasury.

The committee in its investigations found that the municipal car companies of Baltimore paid taxes amounting to 20 per cent. of their gross receipts. In addition to the regular tax on all real and personal property.

TRY TO DRAW COLOR LINE IN PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY

General Assembly Committee Recommended the Isolation of Three Negro Presbyteries.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 26.—The color line was sharply drawn and the negro question came squarely to the surface in the Presbyterian general assembly here for the first time today. The committee on church polity submitted a report, recommending the erection of a synod in Alabama, to include the Presbyteries of Birmingham, Leve and Rogersville, to be known as the Synod of Chattanooga. The Presbyteries are now included in the Synod of Tennessee. The other Presbyteries in the synod are French, Broad, Holston, Kingston and Union.

The Presbyteries of Birmingham, Leve and Rogersville are composed of negro churches. The others are composed of white churches. The purpose of the committee was to divide the races.

No sooner had the report been submitted than Russell Taylor, a negro minister of Leve and one of the commissioners to the assembly from that Presbytery took the floor. He violently ground that the three Presbyteries specified were not numerically strong enough or well enough versed in the law to assume the functions and duty of a synod, carefully avoiding the race question and emphasizing the claim that each of the three Presbyteries had asked such action.

After spirited discussion it was unanimously voted to refer the whole subject to the assembly of 1907. The committee on church polity today submitted a report recommending that any member of the Presbyteries Church ratifying any property for intermarriage uses be disciplined by the church. To the question, "Has a lawyer, a member of the church, a right to declare a view of temperance law?" no answer was given.

The proposition to amend the Westminster confession of faith by striking the clause "Cast into eternal torment" was rejected by the assembly.

AMERICAN HENLEY RACES.

Wood Best Shepherd in Single Sculls—Big Crowd Present.

Philadelphia, May 26.—The eyes of the rowing world were turned towards this city today when the fourth annual regatta of the American Rowing Association-American Single Sculls place, well at Schuylkill River. The magnitude of the event can be gauged in a measure from the extremely long program, which included entries, not only from Philadelphia, New York, Boston and Baltimore Boat Clubs, but also from Yale, Pennsylvania, Harvard, Syracuse and other colleges as well as the Toronto, St. Catharines and Gait, and has handed it all over to the trustees of the local fund.

Some members of the Sons of England Benevolent Society attended a special service this afternoon at St. Mark's Church, where Rev. Canon Sutherland preached.

Herbie Barr says that he is not satisfied with the settlement of his troubles with the city clerk, and will ask the court to change the contract under which the city clerk was given power to discharge him if he did not prove satisfactory.

AS WE SEEM IN LONDON.

The Canadian Associated Press has cabled some facts about the dinner of the Canadian Society in London on Empire night, which suggests that the function must have been a rather far-fetched affair—solemn enough, in truth, to lower the spirits of that most jovial of Canadian statesmen who was in the chair, Hamar Greenwood, M.P. for York.

The unrepresented story of the dinner would not have disquieted a single home-staying patriot. There was the customary array of toasts, apparently done justice to by the customary band of talk. We told ourselves it is good to know that our countrymen in the world's metropolises were glorifying their identity in the good old English fashion of roast beef and plum pudding.

But there was a puzzling addendum to the catalog of toasts. We were invited to contemplate the unexampled generosity of the Canadians in London. Of 119 persons present at the dinner, 75 were honored guests. It was clear that the Canadian Society has become very select and very, very hospitable. Still, the intelligence was a little disquieting.

Next day came a message, behind which you could see woe-begone faces amid the ruins of a feast, and could hear reproachful discussions about notable absences. Lord Strathcona didn't come, and, mirabile dictu, didn't send his excuses. Mr. Holden worked like an automaton to get the folks together, but somehow or other they didn't come. Some inquisitive fool on this side will be wanting to see a list of the guests and will be anxious to know whether, touching the formidable 75, it was not somebody's task to compel them to come in.

WORRYING LORD STRATHCONA.

Lord Strathcona's silence is remarkable. He is the most particular correspondent in London. He goes to as many places as he can, and has always been famous for the promptness and urbanity of his replies to all and sundry. His failure to write the Canadian Society must be due to the presence of his faithful secretary, Griffith, in Ottawa, to answer the charges brought against him by Mr. Preston.

Lord Strathcona is obviously vexed by the disclosures made by Mr. Preston and others about the North Atlantic Trading Company. He has issued some statements, which look somewhat like flat denials of knowledge of what was being done, but which may mean anything or nothing at all. It is very exasperating in connection with name mentioned in connection with such an episode, even the no accusation is made. The government's case is that the North Atlantic Trading Company was begotten in the underbelly of immigration, that it is not and had not been a grafting instrument, and that, therefore, nobody is compromised.

Still, the cables which some correspondents have sent from Ottawa are not favorably read in Britain, it seems. Mr. Mooney, an Irish Nationalist, will ask to-day in the house of commons, whether, in view of the evidence given at Ottawa, the British government will decline to hold communication with the high commissioner for Canada. Mr. Mooney's question is an insult to this country, which the Canadians in the house of commons will, no doubt, avenge when it is put. So far as we know, this is Mr. Mooney's first serious bid for parliamentary eminence. His serious occupation is running a long string of public houses in London—he is the chief barkeeper in parliament.

His question is a reflection upon the good taste of the profession to which he really belongs. It is intolerable in that into which he has unaccountably strayed.

There is a serious side, too, to this outburst of the unparliamentary Mooney. It is an illustration of the injury that is being inflicted on Canada's name through the miserable inpolitics of the Ottawa government. They are expert in making muzzes. They are so incompetent in clearing them up that the mud splashes right across the Atlantic and goes splattering thru the corridors of St. Stephen's. What imperialists they are who serve us thus!

ABOUT ALFONSO AND ENA.

Would the Bishop of Ripon's School for engaged couples have a place in it for King Alfonso and Princess Ena? Royal marriages are made in heaven even to a less degree than those of more fortunate people. Most princesses go to the altar in sacrificial guise.

The camera cannot lie, although photographs do not always tell the truth. The pictures of the King of Spain and his fiancée taken together show him to be an extremely happy young gentleman. In the face of the princess you can read anything you please. Alfonso is dark, but not handsome. He is only a boy. His Castilian blood has nourished him into a bigger shape than at one time seemed likely. But at best, he is only a royal weakling. Princess Ena may be in love with the Spanish throne, but her photographs do not suggest that she is fascinated by him who sits upon it. The throne itself has a sinister record—which is to say that Alfonso has a unique opportunity.

Spain is Roman Catholic. Since George Borrow wrote his fascinating book, "The Bible in Spain," there has been no perceptible advance of religious liberalism in the kingdom. Protestant missionaries work in a few places, but they do not appear to affect the main current of the national life. The English-bred girl who will be queen of Spain before this week is out, has become a Roman Catholic and has abjured the faith in which she was nurtured and admonished in language which reminds one of the condemnation of the Roman belief which the British monarch makes on assuming regal authority.

Ultra-Protestants have raised a great outcry against this formal apostasy. Nobody delights in it, least of all perhaps the bridegroom-elect. In its way it is perhaps as bad as the recital of the creed in episcopal churches by preachers like Dr. Crapsey, who deride the virgin birth and pour scorn upon the resurrection of the body.

The time does not seem at hand when religious professions will not be of the essence of every monarchical contract. Alongside every throne is a state church. Men accustomed to think of their sovereign as the fountain of all honor and the repository of earthly wisdom and beneficence easily incline to the idea that Divine Wisdom is farmed out to a specified collection of human beings more or less closely associated with the monarch.

TO NORTHWARD.

To-night the legislature starts in force for Cobalt and the north of New Ontario. The expedition will return on Friday morning. It will go as far as the steel is laid on the Temiskaming Railroad. It will spy out the silver lands, the clay lands and the timber lands which belong to us all. It will show the pioneers what manner of men are the sybaritic sojourners in this metropolis. The New Ontarians cannot help being edified by what they will see of those who are their servants and masters too. Whether the legislators are advantaged depends upon themselves. He who can see a new country without profligating by the sight for all the rest of his days is worth little to his kind. It ought to be a penal offence for any man to be a member of the legislature for two sessions and not to have crossed the province of which he is supposed to be a manager.

In New Ontario the government is handling developments of capital importance—some say in a fashion which is converting the citizens of the north into advocates of provincial separation. The assertion cannot be well founded.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

The growler exists in the New Ontario as well as the old. But even he knows when he is in fair hands. We are not within measurable reach of a new autonomy bill.

The government, by declaring for public ownership and mining of the Gillies limit, has raised public expectation. It has got to produce silver in bulk as part of the provincial revenue. The sooner that is done the sooner will the government make another big score. The Cobalt excursion should hurry up the day.

BRITISH PARLIAMENTARY OUTLOOK.

Looking to the increasing bitterness of the struggle over the English Education Act and its failure to offer any basis of compromise between the positions occupied by the Church of England and the Nonconformists, little doubt exists that it will either be absolutely rejected by the house of lords or so amended as to be unacceptable to the Liberal party. In that event the provincial three courses are open to Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman—acquiescence, appeal to the country or the initiation of a political campaign for the constitutional reform of the upper house. From a speech delivered at a luncheon on Friday, the Liberal agents of the United Kingdom, by David Lloyd-George, president of the board of trade, it is made evident that the latter of these alternatives will be adopted. Mr. Lloyd-George intimated that action would be taken by the ministry with a view to curtailing the veto power of the house of lords. "The date of the next election would," he is reported to have said, "depend on the upper house. The Liberal government would not allow the will of the people to be thwarted for ever. It was possible that the time was not far distant when the Liberal government would feel compelled to place this great issue before the country."

The course of events is thus confirming the opinion offered by Joseph Chamberlain during the lingering decline of the Balfour government, but to all appearance, the Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's majority was more overwhelming than he imagined, the next general election will come even earlier than he anticipated. Meantime, plenty of proof is forthcoming that the fiscal reform movement has not received its quietus, but on the contrary, it is very much alive. It is difficult to believe that the free trade fanatics, who proposed to celebrate its obsequies, really imagined that the proposals so intimately associated with the future of the empire, could be snuffed out by the results of a general election, while the people were asked to pronounce judgment on an unpopularity administration, and on several questions whose immediate interest and urgency outweighed with many electors the claims of Mr. Chamberlain's policy. Too much can be said in favor of a reconsideration of the economic system of the United Kingdom, and the matter is too important to be disposed of in the easy fashion the free traders desired.

Speaking recently at West Hartlepool, Winston Churchill, the under secretary for the colonies, referred to the battle between free trade and protection as not at an end. It remained, he remarked, "just as ruinous and perilous as when Mr. Chamberlain raised the question. Mr. Chamberlain was not a bit discouraged, but was well prepared to continue his wrecking course." This attitude on the part of the fiscal reform leader seemed to strike Mr. Churchill as passing strange, but whatever else Mr. Chamberlain may or may not be, he is not a quitter, once he has taken up the cudgels in earnest. In the same speech, the under secretary for the colonies referred to the present opposition in the house of commons as lamentably weak and declared he had never seen a more cowed and broken-spirited crew, whether on the front or on the back benches. This is a choice specimen of Mr. Churchill's forcible feebleness, and his description is scarcely borne out by the course of the debate on the education question, which reached a high level of excellence on both sides. In his own memorable words, it may be set down as a terminological exactitude. That the pendulum has already begun its return swing, is a fact deduced from the fact that Mr. Bonar Law, one of the most ardent supporters of fiscal reform, increased the Conservative majority at the Dulwich by-election, from 27 to 1275. While too much importance need not be attached to it, the result cannot but stimulate the opposition in parliament, and the imperial preferential cause in the country.

THE OLD FORT.

Regret has often been expressed in the old world over the destruction of places and buildings associated with more primitive times or important historical circumstances. If that is in the case where many venerated relics of the past still remain, it should be all the more a warning for the new world, where there is no such abundant store of material to satisfy the natural craving for some tangible memorial of recorded events dating back to the dawn of a nation and marking notable stages in its annals. Unfortunately there are always unromantic and unimaginative persons to whom the utilitarian is everything and who regard the careful preservation of what has only antiquarian value as mere sentimental weakness. Toronto possesses a relic of exceptional historical value in the shape of

About 15 families of immigrants arrived on Saturday in a practically penniless condition. They were sent out by the corporation of Brentwood, England. Some 50 families sent out by the Church Army were also in financial straits.

The Ontario government will probably appoint R. L. Joyce, ex-M. L. A. for Grenville, and Mr. Leitch, K. C., to the municipal and railway board. The premier is averse to appointing members of the legislature, hence the fact that H. Caracallen of Hamilton will be passed over.

The old fort, dating back to Aug. 27, 1783, when Governor Simcoe inaugurated the new capital of Upper Canada. Just now its integrity, already impaired, is more seriously threatened by the proposal to intersect it by a double track line. That the rich interest attached to the old fort may be better appreciated, Miss Jean Earle Gesson has published a sketch of its origin and history, which should be read by every citizen. Nothing but the most imperative necessity can justify interference with a spot so closely bound up in the bundle of the city's life. No such necessity has been shown to exist, and the plain duty of the city council is to turn the proposal down once and for all.

FAIR EXCULPATES FAIR.

Editor World: The evidence as reported in your paper of the 24th inst. regarding the Birch policy issued by the North American Life Assurance Company is misleading, and not strictly in accordance with the facts. I enclose you a copy of a letter received from Mr. Birch this morning, which completely upholds me in my dealings with him in connection with this matter. I have also sent a copy of same to Judge McTavish, chairman of the royal insurance commission.

I have had the honor to represent the North American Life Assurance Company in Canada, to the extent of millions of dollars, and if there is one thing more than another that I am proud of during my insurance career, it is the large and responsive clientele I have of personal friends, who are prepared to endorse my every act in connection with their dealings with me, and I think under the circumstances and in justice to myself, I am entitled to the publication of Mr. Birch's letter in your valuable paper. Treating you will extend to me this privilege.

N. J. Fair, Kingston, May 25.

Kingston, May 25, 1906. To the chairman of the royal insurance commission, Toronto, Ont.: Dear sir—The evidence conducted before your commission on Wednesday last regarding policy 22318 on the life of myself, and my dealings with the late Mr. Fair's business integrity, and my dealings with him at the present time are perfectly satisfactory.

(Signed) S. Birch. Much is excusable in a man in Mr. Fair's position. It is foolish of me to change the newspapers with publishing misleading reports of Mr. Goldman's evidence. Mr. Goldman was asked if he approved of Mr. Fair's conduct. He replied "I do not approve of it." Editor.

A TRIBUTE TO THE PREMIER.

United Canada, the independent weekly Catholic Journal of Ottawa, writes: The mantle of the first minister of the greatest province in the empire, rests easily and gracefully on Premier Whitney. We recall how United Canada was so fiercely denounced by friends and foes when we, four years ago, in the public interest, as we conceived it, renounced further allegiance to a thirty-year-old Liberal government. The Conservative opposition was at low tide then. Tremendous pressure was put on to deplore Mr. F. E. Powell from the leadership, and his opponents, in his own party, repeatedly came to this office and expressed the belief that new and independent supporters coming over to the party should open the propaganda against Whitney's leadership, but we declined to be a party to any such treacherous conspiracy, for we always had confidence in Mr. Whitney, notwithstanding his blunt and serious disposition. Now it is conceded that Premier Whitney is more progressive and courageous than Sir Oliver Mowat ever was, and that Ontario probably never had a more capable first minister, never had a more capable first minister.

S. S. ANNIVERSARY.

Parkdale Methodist Children Enter on Series of Celebrations. One of the largest Sunday schools in Canada, namely, the Parkdale Methodist, celebrated its 27th anniversary yesterday. The services throughout the day were of a special nature, and although the church is built to seat 1800 people, it was crowded to the doors. A chorus of 1800 children ranged on the platform from the side gallery led the singing, conducted by Dr. S. L. Palmer.

In the morning the former pastor, Rev. R. J. Trevelyan, Hamilton, gave the children a talk on "banking." He used for illustration a teller's wicket. His remarks were founded on the passage "add to your faith virtue, to your virtue knowledge, to your knowledge patience, to your patience temperance, and to your temperance charity." A deposit of each of these qualities was made in the bank, whereupon there arose as by magic from behind the wicket the figure of a man, placarded "character."

W. V. Ecclestone, who has been superintendent for the past four years, and who is residing in the office, spoke briefly. Iver E. Brock will succeed him. The anniversary services will be continued to-night and to-morrow night.

BOY DROWNS WITH BROTHER

Trying to Pull Him Out, is Also Drawn in.

St. John, N.B., May 27.—(Special).—A drowning accident occurred at Millidgeville, two miles from this city, shortly before 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon, the victims being Walter and Ernest White, aged 10 and 12 years. The boys were playing on a rock on the shore of the Kennebecasis, when the younger lad fell off into deep water. His brother, leaning over, attempted to help him out, but could not recover his balance and was pulled in.

Another brother, aged four, who was with them on the rock, ran to their home, only a few rods away, but was too frightened to tell his parents where the accident occurred, and it was some time before anyone reached the spot. The bodies were recovered.

A large number of fishermen were nearby, but no one heard cries for help.

CHILD FATALLY SCALDED.

U.S. POWER FOR BROCKVILLE

Cecil B. Smith Advises That Energy Be Imported.

Brockville, May 26.—(Special).—Cecil B. Smith, engineer of the hydro-electric power commission of Ontario, paid Brockville a visit to-day on the invitation of Mayor Stewart, and discussed the possibilities of cheap power being transmitted to this place. Mr. Smith gave it as his opinion that most feasible spot from which to obtain power was Waddington, N.Y., a distance of thirty miles away, on the American side of the St. Lawrence River, where a generating plant is about to be installed. Transmission could be easily arranged to supply the Canadian frontier towns from Iroquois west to Kingston. An effort will be made to induce these places to take the preliminary steps, then the government will lend material aid towards building and equipping the line. Mr. Smith went from here to Kingston.

NIAGARA CITY WANTS POWER

Will Ask Government for Permission to Develop 10,000 h.p.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 27.—It is the intention of the City of Niagara Falls to ask the provincial government for permission to develop ten thousand horse-power, to run their waterworks pumping plant, and electric light plant, and have a necessary surplus on hand for any emergency.

When two thousand horse-power was asked for, from the Queen Victoria Park commission, it was not definitely known then what would be necessary, but the city finds now it will be ten thousand horse-power.

Victims of Joyce Shooting Give Coroner Ante-Mortem Statement.

Kingston, May 27.—Late last night Dr. Mundell, coroner, swore in a jury to investigate the death by suicide of Joyce, who shot his father-in-law and wife at Raitton on Saturday morning. After viewing the body the inquest was adjourned to Monday afternoon. Coroner Mundell found Mrs. Joyce very low, and bleeding internally. The bullet had gone thru her body. Cornelius Wood was very bad, the bullet that pierced his arm having penetrated his lung. Both were too ill to be brought to Kingston Hospital. The coroner took their ante-mortem statements.

Joyce was an English emigrant, coming to this country a year ago as a farm hand. He married a daughter of Wood. The matrimonial life was by no means happy.

On Saturday morning, after a quarrel, Joyce secured a shotgun and shot his father-in-law, and then broke into the house and shot his wife. He then went out of the house and cut his throat.

BEQUEATHS HIS BODY TO MEDICAL STUDENTS

Aged Englishman, of Good Family, Dies in Windsor, Apparently From Poisoning.

Windsor, May 27.—(Special.)—Frederick W. Salmon, an educated English gentleman, whose past is shrouded in mystery, died suddenly this morning under circumstances which point to suicide.

Dr. Storey of Walkerville, who was called to attend Salmon yesterday morning, found him lying in a half-conscious condition. There were indications of pneumonia and the usual treatment was given, but the man was dead 24 hours later.

Letters of recent date, left by Salmon and addressed "to whom it may concern" because he remains in the Toronto Medical College for dissection purposes. Deceased was about 69 years of age, and had resided in Windsor for several years. He made no friends and few acquaintances. He is known to have once been in Canada, and another son, a civil engineer, in Iowa.

An effort is being made to locate his relatives in order that his remains may be saved from the dissecting table. Death is believed to have resulted from morphine poisoning.

A YEAR AGO YESTERDAY.

Tokio Celebrates First Anniversary of Today's Great Victory.

Tokio, May 27.—Today the anniversary of the battle of the Sea of Japan, the navy's red letter day, was celebrated with brilliant festivities which were graced by the presence of the crown prince.

Vice-Admiral Togo, General Kuroki and Marquis Ito, with a suite of admirals and generals, will start shortly on a tour of inspection in Manchuria.

This important mission is supposed to be the outcome of the recent cabinet council, at which the details have not become known, it is understood, weighty decisions were reached respecting the Manchurian railways, which are intended to be permanently run by the government.

This naturally will necessitate the closing of another big loan. Opinions are divided as to the prospect of the railways, but a hopeful opinion prevails.

DEFEAT THE PREFERENCE!

80 Radicals in British Commons Appeal to Australia.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, May 27.—Eighty-six Radical members of the house of commons have issued an appeal to Australian electors not to support the preference. The statement says the question of preference was defeated by the most overwhelming majority in history in the recent British election, not because of lack of goodwill but because it meant a tax on food and no colonial return would compensate for such a charge. The appeal, therefore, is made in the interest of British workmen.

FISHERY OVERSEER FIRED.

Man Who Has Been Busy of Late is Suddenly Dismissed.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 27.—Fishery Overseer Sheehy, who has been seizing alleged prohibited fish by wholesale during the last few weeks, consigned to different parts in the United States, received information from the provincial fishery department, Toronto, that his services as fishery overseer had been dispensed with. The announcement caused no little surprise in the city. No reason has been given for the removal.

POPE IS OUT AGAIN.

Rome, May 27.—Although the Pope has entirely recovered from his recent illness, he appeared somewhat pale and weak this afternoon when seen in public.

Amid thousands of people he walked out from St. Peter to venerate the sixteen carmelite nuns who were martyred to-day for the martyrdom they suffered at the time of the French revolution.

MORE TROUBLE.

London, May 27.—A despatch to a news agency from Athens says that the Greek government has decided to break off diplomatic relations with Roumania, recalling its consuls and entrusting the protection of Greeks there to the Russian agents.

The despatch adds that this step is taken owing to Roumania's expulsion of Greeks.

65TH REGT. GO HOME.

A large crowd followed the 65th Regiment from the armories to the Union Station Saturday night. The sergeants-major of the Q.O.R., and some members of the permanent and other corps were of the station platform and gave the Montevideo a hearty farewell cheer. The band played the national anthem before embarking.

Two of the visiting corps were ten minutes late for the train.

Deputy Commissioner Bastedo was asked by The World if an explanation would be forthcoming, but said that a statement might be made later. He will himself go over to the "W" to-day.

Shelley has been an overseer for about three months, having had his appointment from the present government. During the last two or three weeks he has been distinguished himself by repeated seizures, totalling in all many tons.

Mr. Bastedo, however, said that his activity was not the cause of his retirement.

Death Before His Holiday. Ithaca, N.Y., May 27.—Frank J. Ens, postmaster of this city, died suddenly of heart disease, aged 89. He had been granted a three months' leave of absence on account of ill-health and was to have started for Europe in a few days.

CABINET MUST GO.

thus adroitly placing upon the shoulders of the government the responsibility for making the next move.

Ministry Hesitates. For the moment, as indicated by a communication issued by the official agency in London, the ministry is hesitating in a dilemma, being ready neither to resign itself nor to dismiss parliament. The communication says: "We intend to announce authoritatively that the rumors of a dissolution of parliament are unfounded. The parliament will sit until the middle of June, when it will take a vacation. The dismissal of the ministers is a matter exclusively for the unfettered discretion of the sovereign. The speech of the minister of justice at to-day's sitting of the house was an expression of his personal views given on his own initiative."

Want of Confidence Resolution. The text of the resolution of lack of confidence in the government adopted by the house is as follows: "Resolved, That the declaration of the premier, heard to-day by parliament, contains a decisive declaration that the government in nowise wishes to meet the demands of the people, and the expectation of a land of liberty and civil rights, and that the declaration is in violation of the solemn obligations of the office of a minister of the crown."

The lower house of parliament considers that it is its plain duty to proclaim to the country its complete distrust of an irresponsible ministry. It regards as a most necessary condition to the pacification of the country and the resumption of the normal order of affairs, the immediate resignation of the present cabinet and its replacement by a ministry possessing its confidence. Parliament thereupon voted in accordance with the regular order of the day.

It regards as a most necessary condition to the pacification of the country and the resumption of the normal order of affairs, the immediate resignation of the present cabinet and its replacement by a ministry possessing its confidence. Parliament thereupon voted in accordance with the regular order of the day.

Demands Cabinet's Retirement. The time against the house roared with sarcastic denunciations of the policy of the government.

Mr. Roddick concluded with a demand for the retirement of the bureaucratic cabinet and the creation of a responsible ministry from the people's chosen representatives.

Premier's Statement. The premier's statement was as follows: "The government, after examining the address of the lower house of parliament, in accordance with the instructions of the emperor is fully prepared to lend its entire support to the elaboration of the questions suggested by the lower house of parliament."

Special Caution must be shown by the council of ministers in regard to the raising of the lower house of parliament without delay, in the interests of the rural population, and placing the peasants on a footing of equality with other classes.

Minister is Conciliatory. Then M. Chechevitchoff, the minister of justice, addressed the house in a conciliatory position of the government, but assuring the house that the idea that the present ministry stood for the old regime was entirely unfounded.

TOWN LINE TAKES STEAMER GOOD BRITISH IMMIGRANTS SNAPS SPARS AND STACKS JUST WHAT AN EMERALD NEEDS

Howard L. Shaw Reaches the Soo After Experiencing Peculiar Accident.

Sault Ste. Marie, May 26.—(Special).—The steamer Howard L. Shaw came into port to-day after experiencing one of the most peculiar accidents that ever happened to a boat. She was coming about 10 o'clock this morning and the steamer Coralia with the bark Maia, bound up.

The three boats approached each other in such a manner that the Shaw was placed between the steamer and the bark. The steamer Coralia was on the port side of the Shaw and the Maia was on the starboard side. The Shaw was struck by the Coralia and the Maia.

Fortunately Capt. John Burns had the presence of mind to stoop as low as he could when he saw the appearance of the boats. The boat was not injured to any extent. The pilot house was not injured to any extent. The pilot house was not injured to any extent.

Both spars were broken off at their bases and the smoke stack was swept away. The boat has the appearance of a hull just after launching, but without the ornaments. It is almost a miracle that no person was injured by the falling spars and stacks. There were two holes in the starboard bow of the Shaw, but there by the anchor of the Maia when the two boats came together. The nose of the boat is also damaged to some extent. The holes in both above the water line. The anchor on her starboard side was also carried away.

THE TROUBLE IN ZULULAND.

Rebellion is attracting support of Belligerent Natives.

London, May 26.—The situation in Natal is unchanged. Little news comes there, but early in the week it seemed as if several leading chiefs would lay down their arms.

Of the five chiefs who met on Tuesday only one announced his loyalty to the government and ordered his men to disarm.

Two others have since been organizing raids in Zululand.

The rebellion continues to draw support from the natives who want to fight each other as well as those who want to fight the whites.

This adds to the difficulty of suppressing it.

Wingham's Board of Trade.

Wingham, May 26.—Wingham board of trade has been re-organized after a lapse of some years, with the following officers: President, Richard Greer; first vice-president, W. J. Greer; second vice-president, Abner Cozens; secretary, Thomas M. A. Burd; treasurer, A. E. Smith. Among the matters already taken in hand is that of securing a better insurance rate for the town.
