ROJESTEVSKI'S BALTIC FLEET GOING HOME

Japan Announces That Czar's Admiral Fears a Conflict With Admiral Togo's Battleships

Tokyo, Jan. 9.—The secret service department of the Japanese navy has definitely informed the government that the Russian Baltic fleet is on its way back to Europe. This information, posted tonight in the imperial navy board, explains the prolonged stay here of Admiral Togo and Vice-Admiral Kamimura. From the beginning it has been known that the Russian Baltic fleet, and is now able to announce that the warships are returning.

They will go thru the Suez Canal in three divisions, the first led by Admiral Botrovsky on the battleship Oleg. He has with him three cruisers, two colliers and a small torpedo boat flotilla. There was some hope here that the Baltic squadron would sail as far as the South China Sea, in which event its return would be regarded as doubtful. Admiral Rojesteveski's division of warships was south of Diego Suarez Bay yesterday for the last time. His return thru the canal could be cut off by Jan. 20. It is expected here that he will not sail later than Wednesday for Port Said. The belief now is that the warships will set out in March, reinforced by the new ships of the Baltic squadron. They could not arrive in the Sea of Japan before June. Before that period Japan will have three new armoured cruisers built at home, and, undoubtedly, some of the battleships in Port Arthur harbor. That these sunken war vessels can be raised is regarded here as most likely. The government's opinion is best expressed by the departure for Port Arthur of Vice-Admiral Shibayama, chief of the Kure navy yard.

RUSSIANS IN MARCHING OUT MAKE PATHETIC SPECTACLE

Staff Officers Wear Swords and Go by Selves, But Regimental Officers Stay With Men.

Headquarters of the third Japanese army at Port Arthur, Jan. 6, via Kinok and Tientsin.—Five thousand men of the Russian garrison at Port Arthur today were marched from Yalu to Changlingtan, and the other detachments followed soon after. Each detachment was accompanied by six loaded transport carts. The Russians during the night will be taken on special trains or open trucks to Dalny, and they will immediately embark for Japan.

The marching procession of remnants of the gallant Russian garrison was a pathetic spectacle. The first arrivals at Changlingtan were four drookies drawn by sorry looking horses. They contained the staff officers who had refused to give their parole. All wore their swords, as they were allowed to under the terms of the capitulation compact.

Officers March With Men. A few minutes later the first detachment arrived. The regimental officers marched with their men, their heads bowed and their faces seamed with grief, showing the result of the mental and physical strain they had undergone during the long defence. As the Japanese soldiers crowded about them with curious interest, the faces of the Russian officers appeared to feel their humiliating position keenly and so some seemed to be resigned to their situation, others were resentful, and still others were full of petty spite. The men looked to be well fed, but their faces, like those of the officers, indicated the awful physical strain they had undergone. The officers were clean and well clothed, but the men were clad in dirty looking sheepskin boots and appeared to be resigned and glad that the end had come.

See Foreigners. The horses drawing the transport carts were suffering with fatigue, the loads were small. They were led by the carts and led by orderlies. In the procession were many lean looking pet dogs belonging to the officers. In many cases officers refused to wear their swords, but had them carried behind them by orderlies. The officers saluted the European and the American correspondents with the Japanese army and appeared to be both pleased and astonished at seeing the Europeans and the Americans there.

NEWSPAPERS BY KITES. Huanan, Jan. 9, via Mukden.—The news of the fall of Port Arthur was received here first unofficially from the Japanese, who let loose numerous paper kites bearing letters and triumphal inscriptions. These kites were picked up by Russian soldiers, who received the announcement doggedly, regret being expressed.

JUMPING THE TRACK COACH TURNS TURTLE ROLLING DOWN BANK

Fifteen Passengers Jumbled About as Peas in a Can in Wreck on Brookville, West of Toronto

Brookville, Jan. 9.—(Special).—The wreck of a passenger coach in the history of the Westport & Northern Railway occurred about 5 o'clock this evening at a point half a mile west of Lyn, and was caused by the spreading of the rails while a mixed train was running about twenty miles an hour en route to Brookville. The train was made up principally of freight cars, with a combination passenger and baggage car at the rear, said to contain about fifteen passengers, mostly women and children.

Suddenly the passengers were startled by the wheels of the coach jumping the ties, indicating that it had left the track. Efforts were made to signal the engineer, but all in vain, and finally the coach plunged over the embankment and rolled to the bottom a distance of several feet. The passengers were thrown promiscuously from their seats and while not one escaped from a cut or a bruise, none related, none sustained serious injuries. They managed to extricate themselves from the coach in the darkness, the lamps having been extinguished. Conductor Horton was severely injured about the head, but pluckily stuck to his post, directing operations with blood streaming down his face. He would not leave the scene until all others had been cared for. Horton will recover. Among those severely cut or bruised were: J. C. Ross of Athens, Miss Laisley of Chaffey's Locks, a little daughter of A. E. Shaver of Brookville, and Harry Johnson of Delta.

MISSING FOOTING FROM HOIST FALLS 3 FLATS; IS KILLED

George Stacey Victim of His Own In-Discretion at T. Kinnear & Co. Warehouse.

A three storey plunge down an elevator shaft at the warehouse of T. Kinnear & Co. yesterday afternoon resulted in the death of George Stacey of 152 Broadview avenue. Stacey, who had been for some time in the employ of the firm, was on his way in the freight hoist to the third storey, which is known as the tea flat. He stepped off without stopping the hoist, which continued the ascent. How the unfortunate young man happened to fall will never be known, but it is thought he did not get a stable footing when he stepped on to the floor. He plunged backward down the shaft to the basement, alighting on his head and shoulders. He was picked up and hurried to the emergency hospital, but in a few minutes, without regaining consciousness, he expired.

This Man, May Die. W. Weesey, a plumber, while employed by Keith and Fitzsimons, sustained what may prove to be fatal injuries from a fall while working on the roof of the Hendrie stables yesterday afternoon. Weesey, along with some others, was working on the roof when the hoist, which was being used to transport material, fell through the scaffolding and plunged to the ground, some 40 feet below. He was taken to the emergency hospital, where it was found that he had injured his skull. He lapsed into unconsciousness, and his case is critical.

Lord Rosebery a Farmer. Lord Rosebery's estates at Dalmeiy extend over 35,000 acres, of which he farms 2,000 acres himself. These latter are worked as two distinct farms, one known as the Home Farm and the other as Craigie Mains. The farm accounts at Dalmeiy are, says a writer in The County Gentleman, kept with minute accuracy, and where any branch of the business is operated above a loss, the system of work is altered. The farms are worked in the best possible method, economy is carefully studied, even in the smallest details, a matter too frequently neglected by farmers all over the county. The writer adds that the general idea of the extent of their profits or losses at the end of the year.

The Love of Sport. A regular attendant at pug scraps in Sydney is a man who has been totally blind from birth. He sits with the onlookers and gathers the trend of events from their excited comment. Possibly he gets, in his imagination, better value for his money than anyone else. He may depict the two scaly little bruffers in torn coats as heroes over 10 ft. high who fall each other till the air is full of ears and hair, and make the building stagger with the fury of their concussion.

Roberts of Kokuk, Ind., captain of the University of Illinois baseball team, was killed and a dozen persons including several students were injured, six severely, in a wreck today at the Cleveland, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad at Rising. The wreck was caused by a dining car leaving the track. Roberts was returning to the university after his holiday vacation.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable). London, Jan. 9.—The Right Hon. Charles Booth is sending Holman Hunt's great picture "The Light of the World," to be exhibited in the principal cities of Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, after which he will offer it as a gift to the national council of the Y. M. C. A. of the Dominion of Canada. The picture, which is a reproduction of the original by Holman Hunt, is a masterpiece of art, and is one of the most beautiful and inspiring works of the English school. It is a picture of a poor fisherman, who has spent his life in the service of his fellow men, and who has found in the light of the world the true meaning of life. MUNICIPALITIES TO PETITION FOR GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

Parliament to Be Implored to Take Over Long Distance Phone Lines and Ensure Control of Streets

Following upon the resolutions adopted at the last annual meeting of the Union of Canadian Municipalities, relative to the government ownership of long distance telephone lines, the city clerk is forwarding to every municipal corporation in Canada, from sea to sea, blank copies of the following petition: To the governor-general: "Your petitioners are of the opinion that the long distance telephone business of the Dominion of Canada should be owned and operated by the government of the Dominion of Canada in the same or similar manner to that which the postal service is now carried on in England, and that the business in England is managed, wholly, carried on by the government, and that your petitioners believe the same should be done here. Where your petitioners humbly pray that your excellency in council may be pleased to recommend the passing of an act for the purposes above mentioned."

Get at the Facts. Sir Robert Finlay, attorney-general, referring to the proposed conference at Inverness, said that both sides had entered it absolutely free, pledged to nothing. Any recommendation of the conference made would be submitted to the directors at the general election. Before any action could be taken the country ought to have the proper facts placed before it. The proposed conference, which would give the colonies a desirable non-practicable, but they should have the facts.

Speaking at York, Lord Durham said the Liberals' defence of free trade involved no attack on the colonies. It was merely a foolish cry of protectionists to discredit the Liberals. It was the most cherished privilege of self-government. Liberals recognized the loyalty of the colonies, and the importance of the colonies. Even if there were a few Liberals who were not sound on the matter, they were not the majority. The Liberals regarded the empire as based upon a far different basis, upon the freedom of government, religion and commerce.

BOURASSA WILL BRING GRAHAM-RUSSELL CASE BEFORE THE COMMONS

It is Expected That the Member for Labelle Will Ask for an Inquiry Into the Sale of La Presse Newspaper.

Montreal, Que., Jan. 9.—(Special).—All kinds of explanations are given to-day as to the Nationalist's exposure of Hugh Graham's share in the handling of the Conservative electoral scheme, and the details of signing and endorsing of cheques. Such knowledge is very simple to explain. Hugh Graham's agency is considered proven up to the hilt.

It is expected, with very good appearance of certainty, that H. Bourassa is the man who will bring the La Presse conspiracy business before the house of commons at an early moment and ask for an inquiry. The exposure is put in Montreal on La Presse's story about Lord Strathcona's connection with D. Russell. It is said the paper plainly asserted in its Sunday issue that D. Russell showed to a well-known person, named M. Poirer, now of the Levee foundry at Montreal, late of St. John, N.B., as late as September last a cheque for $50,000.

CANADIANS SUE FOR $25,000

Claim That a Village in New York State Broke Contract.

Ogdensburg, N.Y., Jan. 9.—Canadian capitalists have begun suit in the supreme court against the Village of Washington, St. Lawrence County, for $25,000 for breach of contract. The village recently voted to sell the water power, which supplies the place with light and water, for $4000. Before the property was transferred the Hamilton Paper Co. of Watertown obtained an option on it at $1000, intending to build a railroad from Washington to connect with a road at Norfolk to carry Canadian pulpwood to the mills at Racquette. The village directors had decided to control their own light and water service, and unanimously rescinded their previous action.

Hamilton, Jan. 9. (Special).—The first meeting of the new council was held this morning, and it got down to real business this evening. The committee chairmen and appointments were put thru just as agreed upon.

There was a little hitch over the appointment of collegiate institute trustees to take the place of Thomas Fanning and James Chisholm. Ald. Eastwood urged the council not to drop Mr. Chisholm from the board, and he moved that Mr. Chisholm and John E. Wodeell should get the appointments.

Richard Mackay was re-appointed as a member of the court of revision, and Ald. Col. Moore was appointed to the board by Mayor Biggar.

Frank Quinn and J. Dowling were re-appointed as members of the board of health. Ald. Clark sent in his resignation as a member of the public library board, but his successor will not be appointed till the next meeting of the council.

Alexander Hayes was re-appointed to the library board. Ald. Stewart introduced a bylaw which was given one reading appointing a committee to be known as the claims committee, and its work will be to deal with claims for damages.

A committee was named to buy the city's supply of fuel, with power to close contracts before reporting back to council. Street Car Service.

Ald. Church found fault because he thought the city was not prepared to build a street railway for a better service, but he was told that the matter would come before the assize court here in a few days.

The city solicitor would like all those who have grievances against the poor services given by the company to send their names and addresses to him. Hon. Charles D. Haines, president of the Hamilton, Ancaster & Brantford Railway, has applied for a franchise, and the finance committee will give him a hearing.

KNIFE IS THE ONLY CURE FOR CANCER SAY DOCTORS

Commission of Harvard College Arrives at This Conclusion After Experimenting Four Years

Boston, Mass., Jan. 9.—Cancer is not contagious nor hereditary and can be cured by the knife, according to the conclusions arrived at by the cancer commission of Harvard Medical College, composed of seven physicians who have been experimenting on the disease for the past four years, and whose report is now in the hands of the printer.

Just one thing can be done for cancer, and that is to cut it out early and quickly. It is completely cured if the patient is operated on early and completely. Drugs have never cured cancer.

One Came Out After The Other

Suffered with Boils for Six Months.

Mr. Elie Braizeau, Meadows Station, Ont., tells of his experience with Boils and Burdock Blood Bitters.

He says:—"In the Spring of 1889 I was continually troubled with boils—coming after another for about six months. I suffered terribly, and was in a very bad condition. In August I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and began to feel better after taking it. I kept on until I had used five bottles, and can truthfully say that I was cured, and have remained so ever since. I have not had the least sign of a boil."

There is nothing like Burdock Blood Bitters for bad blood, boils, pimples, dyspepsia, indigestion, or any trouble arising from the Stomach, Liver, Bowels or Blood.

Downeyville School Case

The Downeyville school case, in which it is claimed that a public school has illegally been converted into a separate school, will come up at Osgoode Hall on Monday next.

Miss Rose Hennessy, well known as a poetess and elocutionist, of Lexington, Ky., tells how she was cured of uterine inflammation and ovaritis by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For years I enjoyed the best of health and thought that I would always do so. I attended parties and receptions thinly clad, and would be suddenly chilled, but I did not think of the results. I caught a bad cold eighteen months ago while menstruating, and this caused inflammation of the womb and congested ovaries. I suffered excruciating pains and kept getting worse. My attention was called to your Vegetable Compound and the wonderful cures it had performed, and I made up my mind to try it for two months and see what it would do for me. Within one month I felt much better, and at the close of the second I was entirely well."

WANTED TO DIE IN CHURCH Montreal Man Asks for Priest and Expires in a Chair. Montreal, Jan. 9.—John McNeil died yesterday in St. Anne's Church after high mass. It was about noon, and most of the congregation had left before, when he walked from his pew into the sanctuary, and told the pastor in charge he was dying and wanted a priest. As the man seemed to be very ill, Father Fortier was quickly sent for and administered the last rites of the church. He was asked if he wished to go home, and in a spirit of confidence he replied no, as he wanted to die there. He sat in a chair, and in a few minutes he lost consciousness and quietly passed away.

LOOKS TO THE YOUNG MEN TO PURSUE PUBLIC EVILS

Principal Gordon Would Like to See a Stronger Independent Electorate

Rev. Principal Gordon of Queen's University addressed the Canadian Club at luncheon yesterday on "Political Futurity." He said such a subject was worthy of consideration by any Canadian assembly. It was more than a party question, and must be viewed from a national standpoint. His address referred in general terms to the subject under discussion, for, said he, it was not necessary to point to evidence of electoral corruption, as no one in so large a gathering would deny that there is such. If empires have gone down, he said, it has not been by external attack, but from disension and corruption within. What is the prevailing evil? He asked. He would not say it was commercial immorality, for the Canadian business man is as honorable as the business man of any other country. In point of temperance, Canada stands high, but it is political immorality which the young men of Canada are asked to remedy for, and in the duty to face the evil. There was little doubt in his mind that Canada had an impure electoral element. It might be said we require stricter legislation; that we need to secure the briber as well as the bribed, and should ensure adequate punishment when it is detected and exposed. In any case our legislation might be toned down, but we must not be atoning up the moral conscience? He asked. There was a time when men looked lightly on slavery. They thought it was a thing of no account in Scripture in support of it. And yet to-day slavery is a thing of no account with duelling, smuggling and drinking.

PETTYPIECE CONTRADICTION

The London Advertiser in its report of a meeting held at Theford in East Lambton says that H. J. Pettypiece, Liberal, charged that Mr. Hanna, a spokesman for the Conservative party, had approached him (Pettypiece), and had attempted to induce him to leave the Liberal party, and thereby embarrass the Ross government, by offering to shake off the fetters of partyism. He might be considered young, but he had confidence in the young men of the country that they would devise some way for getting rid of electoral impurity.

MR. RIDDELL NOT RESIGNING

New Local Freight Claims Agent of C.P.R. Here Ready for Business. T. A. Riddell, the newly appointed local freight claims agent, arrived in the city yesterday. The post formerly held by Mr. Riddell was that of chief freight claims agent with headquarters at Montreal, in which George E. Birnes, head of the secret service department, abolished at the beginning of the new year, is now placed. In connection with the rumor brought to his notice that he intended to resign, Mr. Riddell declared yesterday that he had made no such statement, and that he knew nothing of the matter. General Superintendent Timmerman said that he understood the shift was made on account of the great increase in Ontario's freight business. Mr. Riddell and staff will occupy offices in the old Union Station building.

IMMIGRATION TO ONTARIO

Figures for the Year Will Probably Reach 24,000. Thomas Southworth, director of colonization, has received returns showing the total immigration into Ontario, exclusive of those coming from the United States, up to Dec. 1, to have been 23,298. For the full year the figures will probably reach 24,000. The number of immigrants last year was 19,000. In 1904, when the department was organized, the number was only 2000. Mr. Southworth says the province is receiving a large immigration of Russian Jews, who are fleeing from their own country to escape military service. They are being sent into New Ontario, where there is a demand for men to work in the bush and will probably take up land in the spring. There is a continued scarcity of farm laborers.

Dr. Hoskin also saw Hon. Mr. Harcourt, who advised him to put his plans in writing. The plan of financing the convocation hall includes a land grant for its upkeep.

Mrs. D. Herkimer, Hall's Bridge, Ont., was Troubled with Weak Heart and Sleeplessness.

How many women are troubled with a weak heart? How many lie, night after night, trying to sleep, and can't? Perhaps you are one of them? If so, read what Mrs. Herkimer says. It may save you years of suffering if you take her advice: "I am now enjoying the best of health, after having used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I was troubled with a weak heart, and was afraid to draw a long breath, for the pain it would cause me. I could not sleep at night, and it was impossible for me to walk ten yards without resting myself. I cannot speak too highly of your Heart and Nerve Pills; they are the greatest gift I have ever used, and can recommend them to all sufferers." The price of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills is 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25. For sale by all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price.
