MENTAL TESTS IN BUSINESS

Business leaders often attribute their success to the ability to surround themselves with able assistants, and methods of picking the "right man" always arouse keen interest. Attention has usually centered, however, around the selection of junior executives, skilled factory workers, or salesmen. One very important group has been partly neglected, though its relation to general business efficiency is direct and far-reaching. This is the group of office workers—clerks, typists, stenographers, secretaries—through whose assistance business men do most of their work.

The use of a simple intelligence test in the selection and placement of clerical employees would increase the efficiency of the average business office by as much as 50 per cent. In less than thirty minutes a clerk in the employment office can give the test to an applicant, score it, and, by reference to standards or forms already established, discover the applicant's fitness (so far as intelligence is concerned) to hold the position applied for.

General intelligence is not the only factor to be considered in selecting office workers. But it is a most important factor and has not been given the consideration it deserves. The efficiency of any office group can be improved by establishing an intelligence standard for applicants seeking positions in the company. This programme can be carried out without disturbing the regular employment routine, without employing a professional psychologist (except, perhaps, to set up the programme at the start), and without added expense. In fact, the use of intelligence tests will reduce turnover and thus reduce the general overhead.—H. G. Kenagy, Assistant Director, the Bureau of Personnel Research, Carnegie Institute of Technology, in Forbes Magazine (N. Y.)

They Were Sentenced to Jail That Does Not Exist.

New York, May 30.—As the result of an error on the part of an attorney for Borden's Farm Products Company, Inc., in making out a jail commitment order, nine former employees of the Borden company may never serve terms averaging thirty days each, to which they were sentenced following conviction for contempt of court in violating an injunction prohibiting picketing in the recent milk strike.

The order, which was subsequently signed by Supreme Court Justice Norman S. Dike, designated the "Raymond Street Jail." There is no Raymond Street Jail, that being only a popular name for the county jail. John B. Johnson, counsel for the union to which all nine of the men belong, raised the point that they could not be sent to a jail which did not exist, and carried the point through the courts to the Court of Appeals, which sustained his point.

Arthur Corson, representing the Borden company, appeared before Justice Dike in Brookings and asked that the order

GREATER TEA CONSUMPTION IN GREAT BRITAIN

The reduction of the English duty on tea by four-pence a pound will undoubtedly result in greater consumption of the tea which is now by far the largest tea-consuming country in the world.

This increased demand will tend to raise the price of tea, and an increase in cost of tea throughout the world may be expected.

A NOTABLE ADDRESS.

The most interesting portion of the address of Rev. Dr. Gordon (Ralph Connor) before the Rotary Club yesterday was that which related to the application of the golden rule in disputes between capital and labor. He told of the Council of Industry formed in Winnipeg after the great strike and of its very effective work. He himself is the chairman and labor and capital each have two representatives. In two years seventy disputes have been brought before this council, and in not one case has it failed to arrange a settlement. Each party to the dispute is encouraged to make a clean breast of it, so that each side of the dispute may be presented from an angle in an atmosphere designed to bring the parties together so that each may get the view-point of the other, and each may be led to see that there are really two sides to the question. Getting the disputants together in such an atmosphere goes a long way toward smoothing away the difficulties, and Dr. Gordon regards the record of the Winnipeg Council of Industry as proof that industrial relations may be adjusted when passion, prejudice and self-interest are subordinated to the larger purpose of co-operation for the common good of all. The speaker extended the application of the principle to the relations between nations, as the only means of ensuring peaceful progress.

That was also a striking distinction Dr. Gordon made between the business of getting a living and the business of living. The former was incidental, and the latter was the real enterprise. Not getting and spending, but building character, is the real task. It is well that there are voices like that of the preacher-novelist to mark the distinction and direct the minds of men to the higher aspects of human responsibility and duty.

GETTING TOURISTS.

The people of New Brunswick are frequently reminded of the wealth that is poured into the neighboring state of Maine every year by tourists. The annual expenditure is now estimated at $10,000,000. It has also been pointed out that Maine has nothing in regard to climate, scenery, fish and game, and now good roads, which New Brunswick may not also offer. What we chiefly lack is hotel accommodation and better provision for visiting anglers, but even with present conditions we ought to do a much better business than in the past. Maine is not satisfied with what she has got, but is going after more. She knows that in other New England states and in Central Canada there is a host of persons with money to spend on vacation during the hot season, and she is luring them to her resorts. The Bangor Commercial tells how the thing is done, and it is worth while for New Brunswick people to read and perhaps profit by the reading. Last Friday's Commercial said:

"Remarkable returns are being received from the advertising campaign inaugurated by the State of Maine Publicity Bureau in a score or more of the leading newspapers throughout New England, eastern United States and Canada. The first advertisement appeared last Sunday, and on Monday nearly 200 letters had been received at the headquarters, Longfellow Square, asking for information about Maine and for places at which to spend vacations. On Tuesday the number of letters ran over 300, and the indications are that the 1,000 mark will be exceeded before the week is over. Next Sunday an entirely new advertisement appears, and this will undoubtedly start a new deluge of correspondence, and other large display advertisements are to be run during the next six weeks."

"Executive Secretary and Treasurer John C. Scates, in charge of the Bureau, is having great difficulty to keep up with the correspondence, even with two assistants, but is, however, successfully taking care of each inquiry. The new headquarters in Longfellow Square, Portland, is rapidly being fitted up, and it will be officially opened just as soon as its furnishing is completed. The lower floor, or main office, will have counters for the giving out of information, individual desks so that visitors may write souvenir cards, or letters, a large stationary seat for those obliged to wait, racks for pamphlets, and various other features of up-to-date equipment. The State Fish and Game Commission has agreed to assist in decorating the interior of this office, and the department is now preparing at Augusta, an elaborate display of mounted fish and wild game for this purpose."

The main floor of the Bureau has five large show windows, which are being appropriately lettered, and some artistic signs are being constructed for the outside of the building.

"On the second floor the front office, located on the corner of State and Pine streets, is being used by the clerical force of the Bureau, while the next room beyond, on State street will be conducted artistically fitted up as a ladies' rest room for tourists and those who visit the Bureau. The adjoining room has most valuable company work."

been taken over by the Maine Automobile Association in order to be conveniently located so that its sources of information may be utilized to the fullest extent by the Bureau. It is expected that the headquarters will be ready for the official opening early in June, and a state-wide committee has been appointed to arrange a programme for this event.

"The Bureau will be open every day in the year for the purpose for which it has been established, and frequent publicity and advertising campaigns will be conducted in advance of the various seasons, which include the summer tourist, fall hunting, winter sports and spring fishing. In addition, every effort will be made by the Bureau to extend Maine's summer tourist season by including people from away to come earlier in the summer and stay later."

Maine is looking to Canada for tourists, and deems it worth while to advertise for them in this country as well as in the United States. What pays so well in Maine as to warrant the Bureau described by the Commercial would pay equally well in this province. Our climate and scenic attractions, our fish and game, are not affected by tariffs, and with the methodized rates or western competition. They represent a perennial source of wealth that only calls for accommodation for visitors and such publicity as Maine gives. Why not exploit this source of wealth to the utmost?

Sir George Foster is a great Canadian, than whom none is better qualified to discuss the League of Nations. It is a subject worthy of the finest brain and the most fervent oratory. The Dominion of Canada is a member of the League of Nations. The war brought about that result. The whole aspect of our relations to the world at large has been changed. Mr. Lloyd George was proud to be able to tell parliament last week that the representatives of the Dominions sat with him at Genoa, and were one with the methodized rates or western competition. They represent a perennial source of wealth that only calls for accommodation for visitors and such publicity as Maine gives. Why not exploit this source of wealth to the utmost?

Never before has there been so good a prospect for the organization of a vigorous Improvement League in West St. John as now exists. There is need of a thoroughly representative group of citizens pledged to community welfare work with special reference to the needs of the young people. The presence of west side members of the Rotary Club at last night's meeting is a hopeful indication. The League has good officers, under the chairmanship of Mr. W. E. Scully, M. P., and deserves universal support. The work of the three other Improvement Leagues sets a good pace and a worthy goal.

Horatio Bottomley has been sentenced to seven years penal servitude for misappropriating very large sums of money which people, mostly poor, invested in the Victory Bond Club. This man traded on the sympathies of the people. As a journalist he was ever ready to pour ridicule upon the rich and the poor alike, and to pose as the friend of the poor and oppressed. Men of his type are found everywhere. He was even able to gain a seat in parliament. In the end has come exposure and punishment. The story is not without its moral.

The Standard fears that somebody will be "duped" by the Times. This journal has no such estimate of its own powers, even if it had the inclination to dupe anybody, nor does it stringing off the words of the glibest sort. It believes they will not fall for the blandishments of the New Brunswick Power Company, or be frightened by imaginary terrors conjured up for a purpose that is very clear.

St. John has a Gyro Club. This is an international association, and in all cities where established, it is doing a valuable community work. The Gyro Club of Halifax has interested itself in the welfare of boys who do not enjoy the same privileges as the boys of well-to-do parents.

Canada's revised tariff has attracted a great deal of attention in the United States. The prospect of losing a good deal of trade with their best customer does not make the tariff bill now before congress quite as attractive as it was, even to the hard-bored Republicans.

An Ottawa rumor is to the effect that Mr. George B. Jones, M. P., is mentioned as a possible Conservative leader in New Brunswick. Now what is the matter with Leader Palmer? And why Mr. Jones?

The Victorian Order of Nurses in this city is doing splendid work. Among its varied activities it now conducts day clinics in four sections of the city for tourists and those who visit the Bureau. The adjoining room has most valuable company work."

Lesson No. 13.

The previous lesson explained the manner in which the expanding or contracting lines of force in a coil of wire induced electromotive force and current in another closed coil of wire placed in close proximity to the first. This property is known as MUTUAL INDUCTION and is an important factor in the transfer of electrical energy between coils which have no electrical connection.

There is another phenomenon which takes place in a circuit when there is an increase or decrease of current in a coil of wire. This property is known as SELF INDUCTION and may be explained as follows: When current flows in the turns of a coil of wire, it creates a magnetic field about each turn. If the current increases, the magnetic lines of force in each turn expand and cut the adjacent turns of the coil. The cutting of these turns generates in them an electromotive force which opposes the original current. In other words, a counter electromotive force is induced which tends to prevent the increase of the original current. If, on the other hand, the original current in the coil diminishes and the lines of force in the magnetic field about each turn contract, this contraction causes the lines of force to cut the adjacent turns and induce an electromotive force which opposes the reduction of the original current.

In both cases, therefore, the effect of self-induction is to oppose a change in the strength of the current either when it tends to increase or decrease.

Due to the fact that a direct current is normally steady, self-induction causes principally at the beginning or end of the flow of current. In alternating current circuits, however, through which the current flows back and forth, the property of self-induction is very prominent.

The self-induction of a coil of wire is much greater than that of a straight conductor and if the coil of wire is provided with a soft iron core instead of an air core, the lines of force find a much easier path through the iron and the self-induction is greatly increased.

The following lesson will explain how the principle of electromagnetic induction is made use of in the alternating current transformer of the radio transmitter.

HOMESICKNESS.

(Rev. George Scott.)

Oh, some time my feet will follow
Where my heart goes out today,
Down the pathway through the hollow
Where the sparkling waters play,
In the stillness of the morning,
When the skies are gold and gray.

For the breezy days are calling,
Come ye back across the seas,
And the daisies on the leas,
And the thistles in the planting
Raise their gladness to the sun,
And the sweet primroses grow.

To the days of childish pleasures,
And the dulcet Doric speech,
And the lulling homely measures,
All the long long strains that reach
Through the weary years of exile
And seductive yearnings teach.

Yes, some day I mean to follow
Where my heart shall be at rest,
I shall leave the world behind me,
All these years of idle quest,
All the strain of fierce endeavor
In the land that I love best.

BARGAIN BASEMENT AT THE OAK HALL OPENS THURSDAY

Oak Hall definitely announces that their new bargain basement department will open Thursday. Although all their new merchandise has not arrived, still there are so many excellent bargains now available, that they are not supposed to deprive the public of these fine opportunities any longer.

On the opening day there will be wonderful assortments of gingham dresses, Normandy dresses, dresses of silk and other materials; sport skirts that will be a revelation at their low prices; blouses in great array; coats of superior values at low prices; undershirts and bloomers. These are the lines that have so far arrived for women. Such lines and values they do not arrive, unfortunately they have been delayed in transit. They may be here for the opening; but even if they are not, the public values that will be offered in the larger garments, fully warrant Oak Hall throughout this department open to the public. Besides the women's wear, there will be offered kiddies' coats, boys' caps, boys' suits, men's pants, shirts, hosiery, pyjamas.

Altogether this will be an attractive department that will save considerable money to its patrons, and the various lines that will be offered Thursday will be so attractive that one must assuredly should plan to visit this bargain basement department early in the morning and stay until the night is bound to be a heavy afternoon rush. Announcements will be made by Oak Hall in Wednesday evening papers.

MACDONALDS FIX CIGARETTE PRICE AT EIGHTEEN CENTS

Company to Maintain Quality Standard Absorbing New Sales Tax Itself and Increasing Only the Three-cent Increase in "Stamp" Tax to Former Price.

Montreal, May 29—W. C. MacDonald, Reg'd. In Canada, Montreal, manufacturer of MacDonald's Cigarettes announce that from now on the consumer will pay eighteen cents per pack of ten "MacDonald's."

By absorbing the new sales tax the firm has paid the latest price of the increased taxation to which cigarettes have been subjected.

When a few months ago, the house of MacDonald entered the cigarette field, it established a quality standard at a popular price—fifteen cents, which standard is being maintained today giving the consumer the benefit of the firm's absorption of all the increased taxation save the increase in "stamp" tax which amounts to three cents per package.

Keeping the price to trade and consumer at a level of pre-budget standards, except the increased stamp duty, is the policy of the firm. It is giving the consumer every possible concession, recognizing as it does the hardship the new tax is being maintained today giving the consumer the benefit of the firm's absorption of all the increased taxation save the increase in "stamp" tax which amounts to three cents per package.

MacDonald's is a branch of the firm of T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd. The English office has been opened up at 115 Queen Victoria street, London, and a competent staff was selected by Mr. McAvity to look after the firm's interest in the mother country. It will be the headquarters for the handling and distribution of the standard brass and foundry products of the company which for years have been on the English market, being handled hitherto by an English representative of the local manufacturers. It is the intention of Mr. McAvity to establish eight or more agencies in Manchester and other important centres of England to take care of the sale and distribution of the McAvity products.

NEW OIL TANK FOR COURTENAY BAY

Allan G. McAvity, who returned to the city on Saturday night from Montreal, said that plans were practically completed for the construction of a new oil tank at Courtenay Bay to have the same capacity as the present one, 55,000 barrels, and to be erected before the opening of the winter port season.

In connection with the extension of the Negro Point breakwater, Mr. McAvity said he suggested to government engineers in Ottawa the purchase of some obsolete concrete ships which the U. S. government was trying to get rid of and sink them in line with the end of the breakwater after filling them with stone or concrete. They had seemed interested in this plan, he said.

Rev. Charles W. Gordon, D.D., spoke yesterday to the boys of Robesley Collegiate school on the ideals of citizenship.

Trans Canada Limited.

Effective May 21 from Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver, the "Trans-Canada Limited" train service will be re-established by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company.

This splendid train, carrying standard sleeping car equipment only and making the fastest time between terminals of any transcontinental in America, leaves Montreal, Windsor street station, at 8 p. m., and Toronto, Union station, at 9 p. m., Eastern Standard Time, daily, consuming eighty-eight hours between Toronto and Vancouver, and ninety-two hours between Montreal and Vancouver, also reaching Winnipeg in forty-one, Regina in fifty-one, and Calgary in sixty-five hours.

The schedules are so arranged that train passes through all important points (commercial or tourist) at most convenient hours for training or detouring and during the portion of the trip through the Canadian Rockies, open observation cars from Field to Revelstoke are a special feature. There is no extra charge made for this feature by Canadian Pacific.

Although this is the only de-luxe train run in Canada in which sleeping car passengers only are carried, there is no special fare required to travel on same.

With the resumption of the full summer transcontinental service, the Canadian Pacific will leave at 8 a. m. every day, thirty-six transcontinental trains moving on its rails at various points between Montreal and Vancouver, among which are included eight "Trans-Canada" trains—of all this vast fleet of

The celebration of the fortieth anniversary of the Hampton Methodist church was concluded last night with a concert. Among those who took part were DeWitt Cairns and Mrs. R. L. Winter.

Six months in jail was the sentence imposed on the two men who were found guilty in Woodstock yesterday of stealing cigars and cigarettes from two firms there. They gave the names of W. E. Scott and Robert Irwin of Montreal.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King announced in the house yesterday that the government does not consider the present an opportune time for the negotiations of a treaty with the United States on the St. Lawrence Waterway scheme.

Robert Laidlaw, of Dartmouth, aged fifty, was picked up in a doorway in Montreal yesterday in a serious condition from wounds and died without regaining consciousness. Money was found in his pocket so the police do not think the case one of murder. Cliff Blanchard's Scotch ancestry came to the surface as soon as he donned the kilt and his pronunciation in the songs and dialogue was so realistic that one would readily believe that he was fresh from the Highlands.

The story is allegorical and deals with the adventures of a youth who goes to the city to make his fortune and who meets with temptation, ignores opportunity and giving way to pleasure, fails miserably. But love who has followed him, beckons him home again where he finds happiness and the love he had ignored.

GET UPPER HAND IN A LONG FIGHT

Babies' Sore Eyes the Chief Cause of Blindness in Childhood—Percentage Smaller.

New York, May 30.—The combined forces of medicine, legislation, the press, and other educational agencies are at it getting the upper hand in the age-long fight against the principal cause of blindness in childhood—babies' sore eyes, or "O. N." among doctors, Edward M. Van Cleave, managing director of the National Committee for the Prevention of Blindness, made public the general office of the committee in the Russell Sage Foundation Building. Discussing ophthalmia neonatorum, more commonly known as "babies' sore eyes," or "O. N." among doctors, Edward M. Van Cleave, managing director of the National Committee for the Prevention of Blindness, said—

Now we turn to a study of the statistics as respects this disease, which destroys at birth the vision of thousands of babies, we find new evidence of the effectiveness of a constant educational propaganda on the subject. For more than fifteen years public attention has been drawn to this cause of needless blindness. Statistics gathered during the last year show a smaller percentage of these cases among newly admitted pupils in special schools for the blind throughout America than in any previous year.

A large user of gasoline, (name on request), after a careful and extended test, told us that the mileage from his car was increased more than a mile per gallon by using Imperial Premier Gasoline exclusively.

Whereas two years ago 23.2 per cent. of new admissions to these special schools for the blind were cases of pupils blind from "O. N.," the 1922 report of the committee shows that in the last year this percentage dropped to 13.5 per cent., a reduction of almost fifty per cent.

European Fishing Fleets for Cod Off Coasts of Canada and Newfoundland.

Halifax, May 29.—The European fishing fleets coming to take cod this season on the banks off the coast of Canada and Newfoundland will, it is reported, be larger than in any year since the war. Many of the vessels of the French Metropolitan fleet are now on their way across the Atlantic, and they will be followed within a week or two by the Portuguese fleet.

The French fleet will number more than 100 sailing craft and thirty odd steam trawlers. In the six years preceding the war France sent across the Atlantic an average of 226 vessels to the fishing, while the Island of St. Pierre outfitted a local fleet averaging forty-five sail. The number of steam trawlers from France increased during the same six years from eight to twenty-five. Since the war the number of vessels crossing from France to fish on the Grand or Lesser banks have been:

Year	Sail	Steam
1919	65	44
1920	78	31
1921	96	28

While the number of steam trawlers shows a decline the total tonnage of these craft has not been greatly decreased, as small trawlers have been replaced by larger craft. The Island of St. Pierre, which some years ago owned a big fleet of sailing vessels suitable for bank fishing, has practically abandoned the old style of fishing, and now its people use motor boats, and confine their efforts to shore fishing.

While the sailing craft of the French fleet make St. Pierre their base of operation the steam trawlers call frequently at North Sydney and Louisbourg, N. S., for fuel and supplies. The favorite fishing ground of the French trawlers is the southern part of the Grand Banks, while the French sail craft favor the vicinity of the Virgin Rock.

The Portuguese fishing fleet this year will probably number about sixty sail, an increase of 100 per cent. since 1919. The Portuguese work only on the Grand Bank, mostly north of the Virgin Rock. Many of the Canadian fishing vessels are now returning from Quersau, Middle Ground, Sable Island and other lesser banks, and are fitting out for the midsummer trip to the Grand Lakes, which is their principal trip.

OIL IN VENEZUELA.

Great Increase in Production in Last Three Years.

Venezuela is feeling the stimulus of the search for oil, according to an article recently printed in the Boston Transcript. This development has been going on for several years, but only recently has it gained proportions which indicate that Venezuela will take an important place in the petroleum industry of the world. Production has increased from 180,000 barrels in 1918 to 1,078,000 in 1921.

It is pointed out that since the door was opened to enterprise in 1907, a large number of companies have undertaken exploration and development. These briefly are the Caribbean Petroleum Company, the North Venezuelan Petroleum Company, Ltd., the Standard Oil Company of Venezuela, Maracibo Oil Exploration Company, Venezuelan Sun, Limited, British Controlled Oilfields, Ltd., New England Oil Corporation, British Equatorial Oil Company, Ltd.,

the Andes Corporation and the Texas Company.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 30.—The Burning Springs house, an old landmark and a mecca for tourists, about a mile from Chippawa, has been burned down.

Last evening in the Waterloo street Baptist church the official closing of the B. Y. P. U. for the summer took place. Reports presented were very satisfactory. Those participating were Miss Margaret Hamilton, Frederick Coggins, Miss Cox, Rev. J. A. Swetnam, Misses Agnes Polley and F. Hubble. Rev. J. A. Swetnam, pastor of the church, gave a short address.

ADVISE THEM CANADA HAS NO WORK FOR THEM

Ottawa, May 30—(Canadian Press)—That foreign artisans intending to emigrate to Canada were clearly warned that there was no employment for them in this country at the present time, was stated in the commons yesterday by Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of immigration. J. S. Woodworth (Labor), Winnipeg Centre, has asked if it was agreed that the money qualification of $250 for emigrants should be removed. Mr. Stewart said that the money qualification had been removed but that the greatest care was exercised to point out the condition in this country. There tenders will be received at the office of the collector of customs, up to Monday at 4 o'clock, the 5th of June, for one Reo Automobile Speed wagon, same being now stored at the Great Eastern Garage and may be seen there upon application to the collector of customs and excise. VICTORY FOR SUN YAT SEN.

London, May 30—The army of Dr. Sun Yat Sen has captured T'ai-yang, a position considered the most important stronghold in the province of Kiangsi, says a despatch to the Times from Hong Kong.

The southern army also took forty field guns and much ammunition. Sun's army is pursuing the enemy and soon will attack Kanchow.

TRADE OF VANCOUVER.

Further innovations in extending the exports of the port of Vancouver are reported. The experiment of sending a steamer to New York, via the Panama Canal, was successful in every respect, and a second ship had left for the same market. For the first time British Columbia had an exporter who shipped from Vancouver to Europe via the Panama, and large quantities will in future go forward to Belgium and the United Kingdom.

Both Handicapped. H. Riemann Dural, president of American Beet Sugar Co., told stockholders at the annual meeting, Tuesday, that the outlook was better, and that sugar prices were more likely to advance than decline. Prospects were, he said, that there would be fifty per cent. less beet sugar produced the coming campaign than last season. Whether or not this condition prevails in the Canadian market is unknown, but if it does, it perhaps might explain the present popularity of Atlantic Sugar, which was yesterday one of most traded in issues on the local exchange, closing unchanged at 25, and having during the day sold only a half point below that figure.

FAST START BY SEAPLANE.

Norfolk, Va., May 30—A speed of sixty miles an hour was attained in one and four-fifths seconds by a spotting seaplane after it was launched at Yorktown by the flagship Maryland. The catapult was a modification of the mechanism used by the navy since 1911, and required only sixty feet to develop the speed of sixty miles.

Obliging. "I beg your pardon," said the lady collector today, "would you please help the Working Girls' Home?" "Certainly," said the man, "but where are they?"

A SPECTACULAR BATTLE FOR LIFE

Seaplane Dives Into Ocean to Rescue Drowning Girl—Life Guard Saves Three Who Attempted to Save Her.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 29—Caught in an undertow and swept far out in the surf, Edna Bowers, 12 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bowers, 444 Hewson street, Philadelphia, was drowned off Maryland avenue despite heroic efforts of five men, one fully clothed, and two occupants of a seaplane which swooped down over the ocean from the sky.

Three visitors nearly lost their lives in the attempted rescue which was one of the most spectacular battles for life ever witnessed along the beach front. Two are still in the City Hospital but will recover. These men probably all owe their lives to the bravery of Nicholas Derago, former all-around Atlantic City high school athlete and beach guard during the summer, who jumped off the Garden Pier after hesitating only to discard his coat, shoes and unloose his necktie.

The little girl, who was with her mother, visiting at 27 South Presbyterian avenue, has been going into the surf off Maryland avenue with Miss Betty Ryan, 19 years old, of this city, each day for a week. Shortly before 2 o'clock today they entered the water in this section. The older girl went for a swim and instructed Edna to remain close to the beach. When Miss Ryan returned to the child was missing. She saw her out in the current a moment later and screamed.

Jack Goodwin, of Camden; William McGranachan, of Boston; and Carroll Brenner, a World War veteran of Lancaster, Pa., were in bathing suits sunning themselves near Maryland avenue. They heard the young woman's call for help and immediately dashed into the combers. Unacquainted with the sweep of the currents, the three would-be rescuers themselves soon were in difficulties. They fought strenuously but were unable to reach the girl, although Brenner fought to reach the child until exhausted.

Derago, captain-in-command of the life guards in the Chelsea section during the summer, was working in overalls and heavy shoes over some of the beach equipment near New Jersey avenue, two squares away. He was attracted by the excitement and saw the three men struggling in the undertow. Taking advantage of the currents there, he plunged into the ocean from the Garden Pier. The men were semi-conscious when Derago, who was not aware of the child's peril, got them shore.

In the meantime Roger McKenna, another summer guard, reached the vicinity and saw the girl floating some distance out. Just as he caught up with the body, A. Livingston Allen and James Drummond, his mechanic, flying in a seaplane, were attracted by the excitement and swooping down, lifted the life guard and the body into the flying machine.

A pulmotor was used in an effort to revive the girl. Two hours' work by experts directed by Dr. Charles L. Bessert, chief of the beach patrol, proved unavailing. It was the first bathing fatality this year.

Brenner and McGranachan were taken to the City Hospital, where they remained in a serious condition for several hours. Tonight they were out of danger.

THE GRAND PRE MEMORIAL.
Halifax Chronicle—Work on the Grand Pre memorial started on the 10th inst. The exterior is to be completed on the 15th of August next. The contract price was $17,000. In the summer of 1922 it is the intention to complete this memorial, which will be a landmark of some attraction in the Land of Evangeline. Subscriptions from all over America continue to come in, sent not only by Acadians, but also from some of their sympathetic friends of other races, who wish to thereby show their appreciation of the project.

The British mails here will close at 4 p. m. on Thursday and Friday for steamships Montcalm and Canada to Quebec.

Another Budget of Bargain Startlers

When we threw our doors open last Thursday morning, we never realized that the public would respond so greatly and heartily to this great—the biggest selling event of the season. Neither did we realize in its full measure the public's confidence in this store's daily efforts. It seemed as though everyone in St. John was determined to reap real benefit from this important event.

WHY WE ARE GETTING THE CROWDS
We don't just tell you we're giving you values that can't be duplicated elsewhere. We prove it by an actual comparison with what the retail market outside of this store is doing. If another store sells a certain style, and make of footwear at a certain price, it is our policy to beat that price enough to convince you that when you buy here you're getting a bargain. That's the way we're revolutionizing things at this store, and that's why Fine's Expansion Sale is drawing the crowds.

This is one of the most unusual savings that you've had the good fortune to see for a long, long time.

Stylish two-strap shoes, smartly designed and are much in vogue this season. The regular sale price was $3.87, but in order to close them out quickly we've reduced the price again to $2.97. Cuban or Louis heels. Sizes 2 1-2 to 7.

Men's $4.50 Grain Bluchers $2.97

Made from solid pliable grain leather, securely sewn with strong waxed thread. Extra heavy soles and bellows tongue to exclude dirt and turn water. For hard, rough wear they cannot be beaten. Sizes 6 to 11.

AMHERST TO HAVE A $15,000 TRACK

(Amherst News, Saturday.)
Tonight the track canvassers will again gather in the offices of A. W. Moffatt, Victoria St., and the weekly report of the canvass will be submitted. This morning matters were looking more than promising. Last Friday, when the subscription list had been read, a total of $8,000 had been subscribed. In the last week with the canvass double handed, more than $1,000 was secured, and all day today the subscription seekers were out after prospects, who had missed subscribing when they made their first round. Actually, the men who are staging the campaign expect to have more than $10,000 subscribed by tonight. Mr. Bradshaw has written a number of Amherst citizens who are residing outside of the town, and he expects at least a thousand dollars in the aggregate from "the particular quota." There is little doubt now but that the track is a certainty. With $15,000 well in hand, Mr. Moffatt will nearly fill the bill, while $10,000 would get matters away with a flying start.

$8,000,000 HOTEL FOR BOSTON SOON

Statler Company Buys 58,000
Square Feet for 1,200 Room
Structure in the Back Bay

Boston, May 30.—Boston is to have the largest hotel in the world outside of New York City. It will be built in the heart of the Back Bay district by the Hotel Statler Company and its estimated cost is put at $8,000,000, including land and furnishings.

Plans have been completed and ground for the structure will be broken at once. The site is located on the corner of the intersection of Providence street, St. James avenue, Arlington street and Columbus avenue. For years it was the site of the old New York, New Haven & Hartford depot, but has been vacant since the depot was put on its new site. The plot has a subway connection and is only a block from the Common and Public Gardens.

An option on the site expired recently and Mr. Statler opened negotiations to buy the site. Last Tuesday he conferred with the city and secured a number of favorable advantages than any of the many sites under consideration. Both Mr. Statler and his associates were impressed by the site and the desire of the Boston people to have our company build a large, new, modern hotel in their city.

The feeling was particularly evidenced to us at the dinner at the Algonquin Club on Saturday night, when not only Mayor Curley but prominent men from nearly every line of business expressed their interest and support of such a project.

According to tentative plans, which have been prepared by George B. Post & Sons, of New York, the hotel will contain about 1,200 rooms and the building will be as high as the city building code will permit, about ten stories above the ground.

There will be stores on the frontage along not only Providence street, but also St. James avenue and on Arlington street.

The hotel will contain a spacious lobby, a formal dining room, grill room and other restaurants; a large ball-

FIRE LOSSES IN U.S. $485,000,000

Depression Responsible for Many "Business" Blazes—
Insurance Men Declare—
Say Public is to Blame.

New York, May 30.—Despite the fact that there was no single conflagration of any magnitude during 1921, fire losses last year in the United States were $485,000,000, according to an estimate made public yesterday by John B. Morfitt, President of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, at the fifty-sixth annual meeting of the organization, held at the Hotel Pennsylvania. Statistics showed that the fire losses last year amounted to $447 per capita, or $1,400,000 a day. The loss exceeded that of 1920 by $38,000,000.

Incendiarism and arson are on the increase, it was reported by a committee, which declared that "never before in the history of fire insurance has the moral hazard been so prominent as in the past twelve months." Because of the economic depression, it was stated, business has been marked by innumerable failures and a large number of "business fires" have resulted. During the past year the committee's staff investigated 892 fires, in connection with which 988 arrests resulted. Of the 210 cases brought to trial, 139 convictions and fifty-one acquittals have been recorded. The committee investigated 1,788 suspicious fires in the last five years, and has a record of 2,200 arson convictions.

"American fire waste is excessive in amount and disastrous in its results," said President Morfitt in his address. "It costs thousands of lives and hundreds of millions of dollars each year in the highest degree until it generally impairs property; it reduces our supply of homes at a time when the housing shortage is so acute; it wastes labor of work at a time when unemployment is widespread, and, what is more deplorable, it is known to be largely preventable.

"The responsibility for this condition rests almost exclusively upon the American public, and it can be corrected only when the American public, in a general way, is aroused to the task; but the responsibility for leadership in this direction has been assumed by the fire insurance interests upon the principles that their business has grown out of fire hazards and that this fact is the moral warrant for such leadership and that the accumulated carelessness of the American people has grown a fire waste that is seriously retarding our national economic development. Now, gentlemen, in a competition for trade with the nations of the world, America, suffering as it does, an unnecessary annihilation of nearly a half billion dollars of its capital resources in a single year, may be compared to a runner starting a race with a heavy handicap. It seems to me, therefore, that one of the lessons

NAVY LEAGUE.

R. E. Armstrong, president of the New Brunswick division of the Navy League, will leave for Montreal on Monday evening to attend a meeting of the Dominion Council of the Navy League which will be held in that city on Wednesday.

THEY SHOULD NOT CLASH.

With reference to the meeting of the Municipal Council scheduled for this afternoon and the regular meeting of the common council, Mayor McLellan said that the Municipal Council should not hold meetings on Tuesday, if it interfered with the city council meeting. He said they seemed to be forgetting the fact that the city of St. John is eighty-seven and a half per cent. of the county.

PASSED EXAMINATIONS.

In connection with the civil service examinations held on May 2 and 3, three young ladies of this city took the examination for clerk stenographers. They were Miss Ethel I. Chittick and Miss Katherine Ryan, both attached to the office staff at military headquarters, and Miss Clara Boone, also employed in the city. All three were successful in passing the examination.

GOING TO ENGLAND.

On Thursday evening a group of friends of Mrs. James B. Thompson, 269 Charlotte street, met at her home and made here a surprise presentation as an evidence of their wishes for her enjoyment of a trip to Europe which she will make soon with her three sisters, Mrs. H. P. Robertson, Miss Ethel Hawker and Miss Elizabeth Hawker at the home of their father, William Hawker. Mrs. Thompson was made the recipient of a handsome leather bag, which she, though taken by surprise, thanked the gathering heartily for their kind thoughts.

Refreshments were served and a happy evening spent with music and games.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

A special meeting of the Municipal Council was scheduled for this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to receive a report from the finance committee on applications from Lancaster to advance money for the erection of fire walls in a burnt over area in Main street, Fairville, and for a loan of $6,000 for concrete sidewalk construction. The finance committee, following a meeting of the Municipal Council on May 22, recommended the loan of $6,000 to be repaid by the Parish of Lancaster in two years with current interest to be re-assessed until fully paid up.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. McRoberts of 270 King street east were the surprised host and hostess to a large number of guests who arrived at their home last evening without warning or ceremony to remind them of and celebrate with them the twenty-second anniversary of their wedding. After a very pleasant evening of games, etc., and the serving of a dainty luncheon, the gathering was called to order, and Rev. F. H. Bone, on behalf of the well-wishers, presented to Mr. and Mrs. McRoberts a silver pie holder and two pretty towels. Rev. F. J. M. Appleman, in well-expressed terms, told of his appreciation of their friendship in his four years of association with them. Both Mr. and Mrs. McRoberts responded with a brief message expressing their profound surprise and hearty thanks over the happy events of the evening.

FOR BRIDES-TO-BE.

A very pleasant event took place last evening in honor of Miss Treva Wetmore, when about forty of her girl friends in the New Brunswick Telephone Co. stormed the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Wetmore, 9 Richey street, and took possession of their home for the evening. The affair took the form of a kitchen shower. After many bright and useful gifts and their unique greeting cards were displayed, the merry party whirled away the evening with music and dancing. Refreshments were served, and the happy gathering broke up about midnight, expressing their sincerest wishes that Miss Wetmore's married life may be as bright as some of the utensils they had brought to shower her.

HAVE A STRONG ORGANIZATION IN ROTHEWAY PARISH

Excellent Meeting in Interests of Government Candidate Last Evening—Premier Speaks in Support of J. D. McKenna and A. F. Bentley.

A very representative meeting of supporters of the Provincial Government party was held in the Consolidated Assembly Hall at Rothway last evening and the work of organization was taken up and carried on very successfully. This large parish has a considerable number of voters, such as French Village and Upper Golden Grove, Quispamis, Model Farm and Hammond River, Stone Point, Fairview, Rensford, and Rothway Village, and for each of these a vice-chairman was appointed, while Roy McNeil was chosen general chairman of the parish with Richard Gilbert and Harry McMackin as secretary and assistant secretary.

After the work of organization Premier Foster, who, with his family, will be moving to Rothway this week for the summer season, dropped into the committee room and addressed those present for a half hour upon the issues of the campaign, the record of his government and reasons why he thought they should send him another supporter from the County of Kings. He congratulated them upon the choice of their candidate, Mayor McKenna of Sussex, who had in so many ways shown his interest in the county affairs for a long time. He dwelt upon the fact that not only had Mr. McKenna been chosen general chairman of the parish, but also that he was the recognized farm newspaper of the maritime provinces. He also spoke in eulogistic terms of A. F. Bentley, the government candidate for the County of St. John, and said that there were the right kind of men to send to the legislature.

Commenting briefly upon the candidature of Mr. Brooks in the County of Kings, he said that for a considerable number of years Mr. Brooks had been school inspector under the board of education. During that time if he had any fault to find with the administration of the schools and the condition of the schools in the poorer districts, he was devoted in his duty if he had not brought the attention of the board of education to these matters. On the contrary, he thought it would be found that Mr. Brooks was a man of high character and of education did not find so much fault in his capacity as school inspector as he did as a candidate for the opposition.
