Advocate a Gasoline Tax For Upkeep of Provincial Roads

FOR ROADWORKERS CLEARING

FEDERAL AIDS A NECESSITY FOR HIGHWAYS

Interesting Addresses at the Good Roads Convention in St. Andrews.

THE GASOLINE TAX New Brunswick Roads Receive the Highest Price From Visitors.

(Special to Times-Star.) Algonquin Hotel, St. Andrews, N. B., June 25.—The program for this morning's session of the convention of the Canadian Good Roads Association consisted chiefly of papers and discussions on technical matters pertaining to the administration in connection with the road building and maintenance. Hon. C. W. Chisholm, Minister of Highways for Nova Scotia, presided. J. Lefebvre Boulanger, Deputy Minister of Highways for Quebec, read a fine paper on cost systems which, while technical, was greatly appreciated, particularly by the departmental officials of the provinces represented.

Other Addresses. Representatives are present from as far west as Winnipeg and from Washington. Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, in her address of welcome, told some of the romantic history of St. Andrews and its surroundings. The town was founded in 1783 by Loyalists, she said, and traces of their handiwork were still to be found. Passamaquoddy Bay was named by the Indians, the name meaning "smiling waters," she explained, and the River St. Croix, up which the delegates would sail tomorrow, was "the river of the holy cross," and she would show them how this stream, in its windings, forms a Latin cross.

United States System. Hon. G. S. Henry, Ontario Minister of Highways, was chairman of the evening session, and introduced Dr. L. E. Hewes, Deputy Chief Engineer, United States Bureau of Public Roads, Washington, who spoke on "Federal Aid." The United States federal aid provisions had to do with a total mileage of 197,000 miles, and $840,000,000 had been expended. Dr. Hewes outlined in detail the workings of the Federal Aid under which the Government pays 80 per cent. of the cost of road construction, except in eleven western states in which there are some 12,000 miles of highways known as "forest high ways" which pass through national forest reserves and on which the Government pays a considerable higher percentage of construction cost, bringing the rate as high as 80 per cent. in some parts of Nevada. The act was put in force in 1916.

An Ontario View. Hon. F. G. McDermid, Rodney, Ont., discussed the question of who shall pay for the roads. He said the demand for good roads comes from all classes of people and it is obvious that the people who use the roads should pay for them. The levy should be based upon the value received and the ability to pay; and that, he thought, left the Dominion Government with an obligation to discharge in the construction of highways. The Provincial Governments and civic government also had an obligation, he said, and proceeded to show how these bodies all derive direct benefits from the improvement of highways in general. A tax of gasoline was urged as one of the means of raising road-building funds.

C. A. Mullen, director of the paving department of a Montreal construction company, expressed his surprise that the gasoline tax had not been more generally developed for road maintenance. He believed, however, that if such a tax were instituted its expenditure should be supervised by motor leagues. Hon. J. A. MacDonald, Minister of Public Works in Prince Edward Island, was strongly in favor of the gasoline tax, which had been applied in his province, at the rate of two cents a gallon, the funds going toward maintenance. Referring to compliments paid by afternoon speakers to New Brunswick roads, the Premier said the praise was due to the efficient highway engineers. Regarding that part of the subject title of his address asking "who shall" (Continued on page 2, seventh column)

Maughan's Record Flight Cost $102

(United Press.) San Francisco, Cal., June 25.—Lieutenant Russell Maughan's epoch-making dawn to dusk flight from New York to San Francisco cost just $102 for gas and oil, he revealed today, after checking his log book. Maughan will fly back to Mitchell Field, Mineola, N. Y., late this week, but will not attempt a west to east actual flying time of 24 hours, as he recorded. The log book showed an actual flying time of 23 hours, 55 minutes, the latest trip ever made between the two cities. Maughan was asked to describe his flight over the radio sometime before leaving Grassy Field.

WILL INVITE ROBB TO VISIT HALIFAX

No Practical Steps Yet Taken in Regard to Grain Elevator.

Halifax, N. S., June 25.—Colonel Alexander Montgomery, president, and R. B. Colwell, vice-president, reported at the Board of Trade Council yesterday on an interview with Hon. Thomas Robb, Minister of Trade and Commerce with regard to the proposed grain elevator at Halifax. The project was recently discussed at Ottawa, and the sum of $200,000 re-voted, but, as far as could be learned, no practical steps have yet been taken towards its erection, and it was decided to invite Mr. Robb to visit Halifax either on his way to the British Exhibition, which he is planning to attend, or on his return.

BRITISH WIVES FIGHT FOOD COSTS

Organizing Buyers' Strike as Prices Are on the Up Grade.

(British United Press.) London, June 25.—British housewives are organizing a buyers' strike in protest against the rise in foodstuffs prices. Flour, butter, cheese and bacon have already risen in price, whilst sugar and other commodities are expected to follow suit. The provision merchants predict a continuation of the upward trend and expect a marked increase in living costs. The league of the new housewives' league maintain that the rise in prices is due to the manipulations of rings and cartels, and they are organizing for a national revolt against present prices. The rise in the price of cheese is said to be partly due to the growing popularity of the Canadian product in the United States market and the increasing demand from America.

Veteran Taylor Plays Great Golf

Hoylake, England, June 25.—The field of 87 golfers who qualified yesterday for play in the British open championship rested today in preparation for the two-day championship competition which will open over the Royal Liverpool links here tomorrow morning. Taylor, with a remarkable 142. The championship play is over 12 holes.

KLAN ISSUE IS LOOMING LARGE AT CONVENTION

Democrats Express a Fear That Religious Issue Will Come.

TALK WALSH NOW

Senator Gains Some Mention as Another "Dark Horse" Candidate.

By ROBERT J. BENDER (United Press Staff Correspondent.) Madison Square Garden, New York, June 25.—As the issue of the Klan and League of Nations fought to emerge dominant for the coming campaign, the Democratic National Convention opened its second session with the likelihood of hearing the first ringing appeals on behalf of the presidential candidates. After waiting into the early morning hours over the platform, the Resolutions Committee appears unlikely to have its report ready for today's session. As a result, the rules committee is ready with a report favoring nominating speeches for presidential candidates. This rule, along with others to guide the Convention, will be submitted immediately after permanent organization is effected early this afternoon, and Senator Thomas Walsh, the permanent chairman, complains that the organization is in a state of confusion. No Cash? Then No Polar Airplanes

Christiania, June 25.—A despatch from Pisa states that the aeroplane factory which constructed the planes for the Amundsen expedition, has refused to deliver the ready and tested machine until the sale of 10,000 pounds on the purchase price is paid. The explorer is unable to raise the required sum within ten days, the despatch states. Italy will organize a polar air expedition under the Italian flag, using Amundsen's planes as far as possible and placing the leadership of the expedition under Lieutenant Locajelli.

BRITISHER HULK ON FLATS; FIVE DEAD

Terrific Gasoline Explosion on Freighter Brings Fearful Deaths—More May Die.

(United Press.) New York, June 25.—A heat-rusted hulk beached on Gowanus Flats today was all that remained of the British steamer Egremont Castle, following a terrific gasoline explosion on the ship yesterday. Five men are missing and six are in hospitals, possibly fatally burned. The missing men are believed to have been incinerated in the searing fire which turned the steel vessel into a red-hot cauldron as hundreds of cases of gasoline, kerosene, naphtha and oil fed the blaze. The ship, under charter of the Standard Oil Company, was loaded for the Far East when the explosion came, hurling many workers clear of the hold and trapping others. The cause of the explosion was not clear as investigators questioned men connected with loading the ship today. All the cases had been inspected for leakage before being lowered into the hold. CUMMINS FLAYS MEXICAN RULERS

Says There Can Be No British Recognition of Obregon Government.

El Paso, Texas, June 25.—Mexican authorities, by their conduct, have defeated all hope of British recognition, H. A. Cummins, British agent, who left Mexico City after having delivered an expulsion order of President Obregon, declared yesterday upon his arrival here to visit friends. "The acts of those who rule in Mexico today represent neither the character nor sentiments, nor are they worthy of the Mexican people," Mr. Cummins said. "There can be no suggestion that those acts could offend British respect or dignity. They merely demonstrate rudeness, lack of calm, and should be treated with patience and pity. The inexactitudes and deliberate exaggeration of the Government, however, know no limits, and that is more disheartening than their impulsive acts which merely show lack of restraint."

Police Must Learn To Be Fleet Footed

Los Angeles, June 25.—The police here are being put through a course in physical culture by Captain Walter Yant, former physical director of the 91st division at Camp Lewis. Explaining the need for the course, Captain Yant said: "Very few policemen can run three blocks or even two. Few can go up or down a rope. Having big muscles and being able to lift heavy weights does not mean physical fitness. Some don't know how to stand. Many don't know how to breathe."

TOMORROW WILL END DEBATE ON CHURCH UNION

It was Discussed in Commons Until the Early Morning Hours.

THE CASE REVIEWED

Dr. MacLaren and William Duff Present Arguments of Those Opposed.

Ottawa, June 25.—In the Commons last night the Church Union Bill was debated until the small hours without reaching a division, which will come on Thursday if the present programme is carried out on time. The private bills committee had amended the preamble in such a way as to provide that without killing the bill its operation be delayed two years, and then become effective only if the courts in an action now pending in Ontario should sustain its constitutionality. The Rev. Mr. Brown, M. P. of Lisgar, one of the most aggressive champions of Union, proposed to sweep out the amendment and to leave the bill in its original form, except that its general operation would be delayed one year, although the vote of the congregations may be taken after December next. He provided what proved the key note of his argument, which followed from that side of the case, the contention persistently reiterated being that the churches have a right to unite, that they have conferred to the Presbyterians church and the General Assembly should, and particularly that Parliament in other words the State, has no right to interfere with the merger of the churches. WAS BORN IN U. S.

Dumini, Who Confessed Part in Italian Kidnapping—Great Dragnet Out.

(United Press.) Rome, June 25.—Amerigo Dumini, former attaché of the press bureau of the Ministry of the Interior, who confessed to a part in the kidnapping and murder of Socialist Deputy Matteotti, was born in St. Louis, Mo., it was learned today. Dumini's parents were Italian. This information was forthcoming when the police threw a huge dragnet over the entire country, not only for the purpose of catching anyone identified with the Matteotti affair, but to apprehend intimate acquaintances of suspects in a hope of turning up fresh clues.

MAY INVESTIGATE MONTREAL POLICE

Displeasure Expressed by Mr. Justice Wilson—Will Tony Frank Speak?

Montreal, June 25.—Chief Pierre Belanger said here last night that there would be an inquiry into a statement made by Louis Morel just prior to his sentence for murder on Monday that Constable Prevost had seen him (Morel) and some of the others who attacked the Hochelaga Bank collection constables on the local force by the name of Prevost and all have been instructed to report at the chief's office tomorrow. With the expression of displeasure regarding the police department uttered by Mr. Justice Wilson in the Court of King's Bench yesterday, the next step seems to be a thorough police investigation. The latest rumor which R. L. Calder, K. C., crown prosecutor, declares without foundation as far as he is aware, is that Tony Frank, fallen monarch of the underworld, now under sentence to hang October 24, has expressed a desire to reveal a number of what are said to be astonishing crimes and to expose many persons who have played parts in crimes over a number of years in this city.

Burglar Prefers Longer Term To Pleading Guilty Before Son

John Bernauer, who was caught in the home of J. P. Morgan in 1912, was arraigned before Judge Talley in General Sessions last week under an arrangement by which he was to plead guilty as a first offender and receive a light sentence. But just as he was about to plead his wife came into the court room with their twelve-year-old son, and for the first time in his life Bernauer saw the boy who bears his name. Bernauer stopped when his wife and the boy came in. Then he started to plead. But his voice broke; he heaved, and finally he lifted his head and said firmly that he had changed his mind and would plead not guilty. "I couldn't stand there in front of him and say that I had been robbing people." Because Bernauer would not admit his guilt in front of the son he had never seen before he will probably go to prison for many more years than he would have received had he gone through with the arrangement made by his counsel. Judge Talley immediately remanded Bernauer to jail, and directed that new indictments be sought against him as a second offender. The specific charge on which he was arraigned was the robbery of the apartment of Langdon Harris, in 303 West 103rd street, where he was found three weeks after he had been released from prison last May. Bernauer first appeared in the police records when he was caught in the Morgan home by a servant. He was sent to prison, and shortly afterward his son was born. In 1918 he was released, but was arrested again and sent away for two years before he could see his family. Other arrests and convictions kept him in prison until last May. Mrs. Bernauer learned that her husband was to be arraigned again, and decided to take her son to court to see him. He was arraigned yesterday, and the judge said he would be examined by the judge to see if he should go to a hospital again.

Close Co-operation. Regarding the conversations an official communique says:—"They give hope of close co-operation between Great Britain, France, Italy and Belgium, with the view of assuring the application of the experts' plan." ANOTHER CHURCH FOR EAST ST. JOHN

Action in Matter is Taken at a Meeting of the Presbytery.

At its quarterly meeting in St. Andrew's church yesterday the St. John Presbytery approved the purchase of a manse and a site for a church in East St. John, where it is proposed to carry on co-operative work with the Methodist denomination. Rev. W. W. Malcolm, of St. Stephen, the moderator, was presiding and Rev. Dr. J. S. Sutherland, of Fredericton, carried out his duties as clerk.

Religious education for the young was discussed at length and a report was given of the successful operation of week-day religious instruction classes in Chipman. A report was also brought in with regard to the use of school buildings for religious instruction. The need of greater encouragement of Sunday school work was specially stressed in view of the fact that attendance at Sunday schools had dropped although the enrollment had increased.

Attention was drawn to the fact that only two-thirds of the budget allocated had been subscribed by the St. John Presbytery during the last year and in order to stimulate giving it was decided to ask Rev. Dr. A. S. Fraser, of Trinidad, to make a visitation of the congregations and also to have a conference on the budget giving at the September meeting of the Presbytery.

With great regret the Presbytery accepted the resignation of Rev. C. Younger Lewis from the charge at Buctouche, voicing appreciation of his sterling qualities. Rev. A. L. Knox of Ontario, was welcomed to presbytery and is appointed to South Richmond, and arrangements were made for the ordination of W. H. Patterson at Prince William on July 8.

Permission was asked for the sale of the church at Milltown, and the request was granted provisionally. Rev. J. A. Ramsay, of Moncton, was appointed interim-moderator for Buctouche for which district it was hoped some plan of re-arrangement could be formed. Rev. Dr. J. S. Sutherland was nominated for election as moderator of the Maritime Synod, which meets at New Glasgow in October. Mrs. James was appointed deaconess at Minto, succeeding Miss Murphy, who resigned because of ill health.

The Home Mission committee presented a recommendation of the committee on co-operation, composed of Methodists and Presbyterians, that a site in East St. John be purchased for a church and manse. The site consists of a lot 50 by 100 feet on the corner of Park and Belgrave avenues which has on it a well built house with electric lighting and an artesian well, and another lot adjoining of the same size. The Methodist congregation in Little River would combine with the congregation in East St. John.

This recommendation was approved as was the further recommendation that application be made to the Home Mission Board for a free grant of $2,000 towards the purchase of a manse and the erection of a church in East St. John and for a loan of $2,000 for this purpose from the church and manse fund.

Mr. Bentley spoke on church union. The committee on union was to be continued, he said, and he made an earnest appeal against the splitting of congregations when the vote on union was taken.

Dr. Munro, a former moderator of the Maritime synod, moved that Rev. Dr. J. S. Sutherland be nominated as moderator of the Maritime Synod which meets in New Glasgow in October. The motion was carried with applause. Dr. Sutherland thanked presbytery for the nomination.

Ian McKinnon, student supply at St. Martins, received special greeting as he is the son of the moderator of the General Assembly. The resignation of Rev. C. Younger Lewis, of Buctouche, was received. On behalf of the congregation, Rev. J. A. Ramsay spoke of their sincere regard for Mr. Lewis and deep regret at losing him. Mr. Lewis explained that his wife's health was the cause of his resignation. He voiced the congregation's wish that Mr. Ramsay be appointed interim-moderator. His resignation, to take effect on June 30, was accepted regretfully.

The memorial will not be limited to community and diocesan service. As the old parish house was used for various national conferences of the church, so will the new building, with its large auditorium, be offered to the national council for conventions and conferences when desired.	25c

It will also contain conference rooms, a large gymnasium, swimming pool, library and a radio station for broadcasting.	25c

JOCKEYING FOR POSITION.

How to get the wet vote without losing the dry one, how to condemn the Ku Klux Klan without losing the States in which that organization is influential, how to damn the Republican foreign policy without committing the Democrats to anything real in that line—these are among the Democratic preliminaries. A great many of the leading Democrats who have come to the convention and who have already expressed their views, act like men who are walking among eggs, and who are desperately afraid that others will succeed in framing a platform which goes beyond mere generalities.

The Republican platform was over-cautious and that of their opponents seems likely to be even more remarkable for its vagueness. Mr. McAdoo, one of the foremost candidates for the nomination, who predicts his own selection but who is not likely to be getting very heavily upon it, has already defined what he says are the outstanding issues of the campaign and what he believes should be the party's action in regard to them.

He has made public a sort of platform which no doubt bears some resemblance to that which the convention will adopt. It begins with a declaration that the federal government must be cured of the evils of special privilege, corruption and graft, and that all persons guilty of conspiracy to defraud the government should be prosecuted.

Further down he comes to one of two rather explicit statements. Mr. McAdoo would repeal the Fordney-McCumber tariff law in which Canada has a very direct interest.

He describes the law as one which taxes the common people for the benefit of special interests. He proposes to substitute a tariff bill which will help to reduce the cost of living "and do justice to all interests." Here, at least, he directly challenges the Republican tariff policy.

In the event of Democratic victory it is fairly probable that Canada's natural products would be effected to some extent from the evil effects of more or less prohibitory duties levied against them by a Republican Congress for the avowed purpose of protecting the American farmer.

The nearest approach to a declaration on foreign policy and the duties towards world peace and tranquillity is this paragraph in Mr. McAdoo's platform:

"To end the era of isolation and begin the era of co-operation in foreign affairs, to promote peace and further reduce the burden of both land and sea armaments to the lowest point compatible with national safety."

All of which might mean much or little. It conspicuously lacks any direct reference to the League of Nations.

Other planks deal with conservation of national resources, lower freight rates, and the abolition of child labor. Following the Republican example, Mr. McAdoo makes no reference to prohibition as such. Like the Republicans, he would pledge himself to enforce all laws, but he goes a very short step in advance of the Republican platform by declaring: "To say that all laws cannot be enforced is not only to confess government impotence, but the failure of democratic institutions."

This is obviously intended to be a sort of intimation that the Volstead law ought to be and can be enforced, and, weak as this proposed plank is, it is all too probable that other candidates and the platform committee will consider it dangerous.

The Democrats are not to be out-done by the Republicans in the business of striving to ride two horses.

Canadian interest in the Democratic platform will be confined mainly to the tariff plank and the one defining American foreign policy. So far as the tariff goes, our markets would probably be improved by Democratic success. So far as international relations are concerned, neither of the parties across the line seems disposed to commit itself to any very real co-operation in bringing about peace and stability in Europe, but so far as the platform is concerned the Democrats may be expected to take ground somewhat in advance of that occupied by their opponents.

The convention is stoutly urged by the New York Times to avoid hedging and give the American people evidence of courage and bold adherence to high principles. It says the United States should join the League of Nations and that the Democrats should say so with all possible vigor. It tells them that their only chance of success lies in the selection of a man of outstanding character and ability and the adoption of a definite platform displaying courage and high ideals. But the hedging which marks American national conventions, and which is the great weakness of the American parties at campaign times, is not to be cured by good counsel, however disinterested.

PROTECTING IMMIGRANT CHILDREN.

Additional protection for immigrant children was provided in a carefully drawn piece of legislation passed at the last session of the Ontario Legislature. Some of the provisions in this act have elicited no little favorable comment in other provinces.

In future every agent or society bringing immigrant children into Ontario will be under the supervision of a provincial inspector, and in addition there will be active co-operation by Children's Aid Societies in seeking to establish a proper environment for the children. One of the inspector's duties is to insist that every child shall be visited by an officer or member of a Children's Aid Society at regular intervals, in order to ascertain whether the treatment given is both kind and reasonable. If the visitor discovers cause for complaint it will be his duty to lodge information against the offender. The inspector is instructed under the law to assure himself that every immigrant child is not only properly fed, clothed and educated, but that it is paid fairly for work done and provided to a reasonable extent with suitable companionship. In every case it is to be insisted that there shall be steady communication with the child on the part of the society or agent which brought it into the province. The help of churches, community associations and school boards is to be enlisted in the work of protection, in addition to the help provided by the Children's Aid Societies.

Immigrant children are not to be brought into the province in any case until it is shown that suitable places are waiting for them. A mere application will not be sufficient, for the law places upon the inspector the duty of personally satisfying himself that the applicant is of good character and able to provide a good home for the child. Under the law fair wages may be recovered by proceedings before a judge or magistrate. Of course cruelty or similar offences are punishable under the criminal law, but the recent legislation goes beyond that. Any person who causes the illness of a child by neglect or cruelty, or by failure to provide proper shelter, food or clothing, becomes liable for all expenses incurred for medicine, for medical treatment, or for hospital or other expenses found necessary in restoring the child to health.

Ontario, so far as legislation goes at least, is evidently determined to give immigrant children not only protection from ill treatment but a reasonable degree of comfort and opportunity. It is a humane and thoroughly commendable attitude. And in Ontario and elsewhere, it is not only the immigrant child which requires such protection. Communities which do not develop agencies to safeguard poor and helpless children against cruelty and squalor, against evil and hopeless environment, have much cause for self-reproach.

THAT INVITATION.

The Prime Minister of Great Britain does not believe that world events should await the conclusion of the American presidential campaign, and, quite naturally, following his conference with the French Premier he has announced that he has invited the United States to participate in an inter-allied conference in London in the middle of July to agree upon plans for carrying the Dawes report into operation.

As General Dawes is an American, and as there has been a widespread approval of his plan for reparations among his own countrymen, it might be supposed that the announcement from London would be most welcome, but to politicians it presents certain embarrassments, coming as it does, just when the presidential campaign is warming up and when each of the great parties is ready to charge the other with "undemocratic" and "un-American" interest or participation in the affairs of Europe. General Dawes is the Republican candidate for the vice-presidency, and the prospect that the plan with which his name is associated will be accepted and carried into effect looks like a good Republican campaign argument, but American representation at a conference of the Allies is regarded with distrust by cautious politicians just now.

The American Government, of course, should rise superior to any such narrow considerations. Acceptance of the invitation could not involve the United States in any dangerous enterprise if the conference is to be confined to the method of carrying out the Dawes plan, but some Americans are disposed to fear that the question of international debts might be raised, or that some modification of the expert report may be proposed, of a nature which would involve some supervision by the League of Nations.

Such fears are unworthy of a great nation, and those who express them are thinking more of domestic politics than of world peace and stability.

President Coolidge has officially expressed complete approval of the Dawes plan, and he would gain in public esteem by a prompt acceptance of the British invitation to be represented at the London conference. What his real attitude will be shown in some degree by the nature of his reply to the British Premier.

Toronto has been reviewing some of the advantages arising from the holding there of the International Rotary Convention. The Globe estimates that, incidentally, the visiting Rotarians left about half a million dollars in the city, which gave a considerable impetus to local business. It expresses confidence that Toronto will receive much excellent advertising from members who attended the Convention, "the cumulative effect of which one hesitates to estimate."

Sir Henry Thornton, in addressing the New York Bankers' Association at Montreal yesterday, directed attention to Canada's vast natural resources and commended this country as an inviting field for investment. He added a word on international relations, saying that "when the British Empire and the United States joined hands for the prevention of wars, there will be no more wars."

New Brunswick, says "Good Roads" Campbell at the St. Andrew's Convention, has the best gravel roads in Canada. It is a tribute from a man who speaks with authority.

Last night's meeting in Fairville seems to have raised questions of which more or less will be heard hereafter. The predicted fireworks were much in evidence. What's next?

The vote on Church union is expected tomorrow at Ottawa, and prorogation is at last in sight.

Press Comment

STATES AND CHILD LABOR.

(Forbes Magazine.) Child labor is worse than the twelve-hour day. Neither has any place in the United States of today. Judge Gary and other steel leaders long argued that the twelve-hour day was necessary. That which is wrong is never necessary. Congress has done its duty by authorizing the States to vote upon an amendment to the Constitution which would allow the passing of effective Federal laws to regulate the hours and working conditions of children under eighteen. Business should not block such a desirable, humane reform. Business men, in fact, should take the leadership in arousing State legislatures to act favorably. Private enterprise will not be allowed to continue indefinitely unless it commends itself to the endowment of the rank and file of Americans.

KIPLING WEEK.

(Ottawa Journal.) It has been uncharitably suggested in some quarters that "Kipling Week" in the United States is merely a device for one of those periodical rallies of public sentiment round certain dates in the calendar which appeal so strongly to the American love for celebration. But whatever may be said of the form and character of the tribute to England's most popular poet, there is no reason to suppose that it is inspired by any other feeling than that of genuine admiration of his works.

Indeed, the claim is made that American admirers of Kipling are likely to have even a truer appreciation of his finer qualities than perhaps many of his own countrymen. The supposition is that to some kinds of minds the strident patriotism of the bard of Empires is more appealing than the more subtle balladist appeal most of them do not much recognize in him the artist in words and a master of metre, who can portray a character in fewer strokes than are required by any other living poet, who finds romance in the present, rather than the past, and the ordinary level of life and even in the apparatus of modern civilization; and who in his higher moods can probe the tenor of humanity with a sureness of touch unequalled in contemporary letters. And it is imagined that the latter is not the case of Kipling, that "the man in the street" is more likely to be an Englishman, than an American. Mention of the poet's name to this sort of admirer, and he will at once proceed to recite with fine fervor "O, Tommy this, and 'Tommy that' or 'The Line' or 'The long banter shall praise, but thou, Heart of my heart, have I done well? The story is told that once, when passing through British Columbia, Kipling was informed by an admiral in Vancouver that there the young men seemed to know no poetry, but his "Yes," drily replied the poet, "and I expect my brassiest."

Kipling Week may savour somewhat of the ordinary, but it will serve a good purpose if it calls attention to the greater qualities of the English poet whose popularity has tended to polish unduly the brass.

"SUN" BUILDING TO BE HYDRO HOME

City Council Authorizes Its Purchase—School Matters Discussed.

The city council yesterday afternoon authorized the purchase of the Sun building by the Civic Hydro Commission, but refused to authorize the making of the necessary repairs as part of the sales proposition. The offer submitted was $14,400 for the building remodelled or $8,000 for the building as it stands. The city engineer and building inspector reported that the building was structurally sound but needed some minor repairs.

The recommendation of Commissioner Wigmore to extend the water system to East St. John, at an estimated cost of $26,000, was approved, and this work will be proceeded with as soon as the municipal council has authorized the sewerage system, which is estimated to cost $85,000, bonds for which will be issued by the sewerage district.

The vocational committee of the Board of School Trustees wrote that it was their intention, following the result of the plebiscite on vocational education, to erect the vocational school. Commissioner Frink said he did not think the vote was a fair expression of public opinion as 2,483 of those who voted in the civic election did not take the trouble to vote on this question.

A motion to place the letter on file was carried. Councillors Campbell and O'Brien and William Stockford presented a request that the water services be extended in Pleasant street and Fairville Plateau. Consideration was promised by the council.

Commissioner Bullock suggested that the parish lay its own water mains and buy water from the city.

How Things Do Change "Those honeymoon days sure were lovely, I had my wife on my knee all the time."

"And now?" "Now she sits on my neck most of the time."

Great Boston Names "Yes, I had a brother in Boston once," said a Chicago woman to a New England visitor. "He was in some great musical society, but I forgot the name."

"Hazel and Hayden society, perhaps," suggested the other. "Well, probably. Hazel and Hayden were Boston men, weren't they?"

With Thanks Laboring mightily, a little lad was pushing a hand-cart loaded with broken stone, and ten times too big for him. A 'vinder passed by put his shoulder to the wheel and helped him.

When they arrived at the top of the hill he said to the boy, in front of the crowd of idlers that had collected: "I call it an outrage to give a kid like you a job like that! Why didn't you tell your employer it was too heavy for you?"

"I did." "And what did the big bully say?" "Well, he said, 'Go ahead with it, you're sure to find some fool loafer on the way to give you a hand.'"—Le Journal Amusant (Paris).

Doctoring a Horse. Toledo Blade: A man in the midlands owns a number of horses, and has a great reputation for skill in the treatment of them. One day a farmer approached the horse owner's little boy and said: "Look here, my little man, when one of your father's horses is ill, what does he do?"

"You mean slightly ill or seriously ill?" asked the boy, cautiously. "Because," said the child, "if a horse is only slightly ill, he gives it medicine; but if it is seriously ill, he sells it!"

THE LOYALISTS.

In its account of the U. E. Loyalist celebration at Belleville, Ont., on June 17, the Toronto Mail and Empire says: An interested spectator was Col. G. A. Shaw of Toronto, one of the founders of the United Empire Loyalist Association 28 years ago and a life honorary member. Col. Shaw is 84 years of age and is descended from a family who have made rich contributions to the Empire and to Canada. He is a grandson of Col. Aeneas Shaw, who made a historic water march from Fredericton, N. B., to Newark, later Niagara in 1792. In the following year he was commissioned by Governor Simcoe to establish a garrison on the site of what was to become the town of York, later the city of Toronto. General Shaw, as he had now become, erected the first log house in Toronto in 1788 on the east side of Garrison Creek. Later he entertained the Duke of Kent, Queen Victoria's father, at his York residence. For his services he was given a grant of five hundred acres in the vicinity of Shaw street and Trinity College grounds, Toronto.

DEATHS

The Late Mrs. W. E. Thompson. Of the late Mrs. W. E. Thompson of Moncton, whose death, in Portland, Me., was reported a few days ago, the Moncton Times says: "On the evening of her death Mrs. Thompson had supper with her husband about 5 o'clock and, after she had cleared away the dishes, it appears that she had lain down on a couch to rest. When Mr. Thompson returned home about 9 o'clock he found his wife apparently asleep on the couch. He was unable to arouse her and immediately summoned medical aid. While there was an odor of escaping gas in the room, he did not think it sufficient to seriously affect her, and thought that the cat had brushed on the jet, as it had done on previous occasions, or that Mrs. Thompson had touched the jet with her dress while she was tidying up after supper. Upon the arrival of medical aid Dr. J. R. Hamel gave first aid and also summoned a pulmonologist."

They were won as follows: Grade I, James McCaskill, 96 per cent. Grade II, Cavell Lewis, 93. Grade III, Mary Boyle, 90.5. Grade IV, Hazel Lawton, 96, and David Mitchell, 91. The prizes for perfect attendance presented by Miss G. McCaskill was won by Viola McCaskill and the prize for highest marks in history, presented by Mr. Lawson, was won by Marion McCaskill. Short addresses were given by the trustees. A pleasing programme was given at the closing exercises in the school at the Municipal Home yesterday under the direction of the teacher, Miss Lunt. The visitors at the closing were W. L. Walsh, one of the commissioners, and Dr. E. J. Ryan. The teacher and pupils were commended for the fine presentation of the appropriate exercises. After the programme a treat of fruit was distributed to the children. There are 18 pupils in the school. The closing exercises at Silver Falls school were held yesterday under the direction of Miss Blanche Adams, teacher, and consisted of a review of the year's work and a pleasing programme of drills, songs and recitations. He pointed out that a gas jet on the gas stove in the kitchen of the apartment had been only slightly turned on. Dr. Hamel said that he was of the opinion that the jet had possibly been accidentally turned on when Mrs. Thompson's skirt brushed against it, or she might have believed she had cut off the gas supply in the stove.

CANADA'S BIRTHDAY — AND OURS!

In a few days Canada will celebrate its 57th Birthday—and Canadian-Made Goodrich Tires will celebrate their first. Just a year ago, Canadian-Made Goodrich Tires were offered to Canadian car owners. The response was enthusiastic. And no wonder! For years Canadians had been willing to pay higher prices for Goodrich Tires imported from the United States—because Goodrich Tires are "best in the long run".

With the advent of Goodrich Made-in-Canada Tires, higher prices were wiped out and car owners can now buy the same quality of Goodrich Tires, that formerly were imported, at prices no higher than any other make of tire.

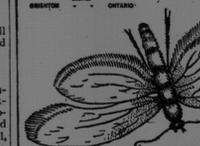

More than 1,500 tire dealers in Canada are selling:

- Goodrich Silvertown Cord Tires
- Goodrich Commander Cord Tires
- Goodrich Ballon Cord Tires
- Goodrich "SS" Fabric Tire for small cars
- Goodrich Heavy Duty Tires for trucks

The reputation of Goodrich Tires was well established in Canada before they were made here. Now that price differences are levelled, there is no reason why you should not equip your car or truck with the best tires that money can buy. Get your order in to the nearest Goodrich dealer quickly!

A tooth is as old as it looks and feels. Tooth-cleaning methods have something to do with the age of teeth. Harsh, gritty dentifrices can shorten their life by scratching the enamel.

Be Careful of Sweets

Good, substantial food served—and yet the children just nibble at it. And it isn't the children alone. Elders are in the same frame of appetite. Inquiry results in discovery that a feast of candy preceded the dinner hour by but a short time. In how many families does this situation arise! Probably no food is more abused than sweets. Sweets have a definite value, but when they are allowed to dull the edge of appetite, or are eaten out of all proper relation to other foods, there is a definite danger.

Soaking takes the place of rubbing

JUST by soaking the clothes in the suds of this new soap, dirt is gently loosened and dissolved. Even the dirt that is ground in at neckbands and cuff-edges yields to a light rubbing with dry Rinso. Not a thread is weakened. The mild Rinso suds work thoroughly through and through the clothes without injury to a single fabric.

LOSE WEIGHT.

One whole orange, 1 cup consommé, 1 maple cup custard, 1/2 cup combination vegetable salad, 2 lamb chops, 1 cup dandelion greens with lemon juice, 2 tablespoons diced carrots, 1 pint skimmed milk, 2 pieces crisp gluten toast, 1 tablespoon gluten crotons, 1 bran roll.

Total calories, 1090. Protein, 238; fat, 239; carbohydrate, 618. Iron, .0207 gram.

Milk is especially acceptable in a high protein diet because of its non-acid ash after oxidation in the body. Don't neglect your pint of milk daily. Skimmed milk is quite as valuable with the exception of the vitamins found in the butter fat as whole milk. Your fresh fruits and vegetables will supply this need.

GAIN WEIGHT.

One whole orange, 4 tablespoons creamed potatoes, 2 ounces sausage, 1 cup consommé, 1/2 cup combination vegetable salad with 2 tablespoons French dressing, 2 tablespoons baked macaroni with cheese, 1 maple cup custard, 1 cup tomato soup with rice, 2 lamb chops, 3 new potatoes in cream sauce, 1 cup dandelion greens with 1 tablespoon butter and lemon juice, 2 tablespoons diced carrots with butter, 1 fried banana, 2 tablespoons graham pudding with 1 tablespoon whipped cream, 1 pint whole milk, 2 cornmeal muffins with 2 tablespoons maple syrup, 2 tablespoons crotons, 1 bran roll, 3 tablespoons butter.

Total calories, 3974. Protein, 401; fat, 1626; carbohydrate, 1947. Iron, .02 gram.

The normal diet should be in the proportion of one-tenth protein, three-tenths fat and six-tenths carbohydrate. In a gaining diet the amount of fat is increased but the fat must be easily digested.

Carbohydrates which consist of starch, sugar, dextrin and the acids of fruits and vegetables are the most easily digested and absorbed. Consequently any diet contains more carbohydrate calories than protein or fat.

MEETING OVER PAVING PROVES SPIRITED ONE

Bribery Charged and Denied and Suit Threatened at Fairville Session.

Charges of attempted bribery in connection with the awarding a paving contract in Lancaster, were made last evening at the meeting in Temperance Hall, Fairville, and denied. The charges brought out a threat that a suit for libel would be started. A statement of Councillor Campbell that he had been after his colleagues for the last four years but was now satisfied they were men of honesty and he was proud to work with them, was a feature of the meeting. The hall was crowded. Robert Catherwood presided.

Vote of Confidence Before adjournment 400 ratepayers passed a vote of confidence in the councillors, the Highway Board and the Provincial Government. There were some dissenters, but when they were invited to take the floor and state their objections they failed to go forward.

He said that the meeting had been called by Thomas Stephen, for the purpose of finding out why the tender of the Stephen Construction Company for the Lancaster paving job had been returned unopened by the Highway Board, and the contract awarded to the Maritime Construction Company, whose tender, about $26,500, was $10,000 more than the Stephen tender. Hayden McCurdy, book-keeper for the Stephen Company, put the case for the company in much the same terms as the chairman. He said that the company had protested in the public press against the action of the Highway Board and that, as they had received no explanation through the press from the board, they had arranged for the meeting to get that explanation, and inquire if the people of Lancaster were going to allow the action of the board to carry, whether the tender that had been accepted was $10,000 higher than was the Stephen tender. They wanted an explanation. Considerable applause followed the conclusion of his remarks. Thomas Stephen, in denying that he had made the alleged offer to Mr. O'Brien, asked how it was that he had offered a $6,000 bribe, when he figured at only $16,000 for the job.

Says Two in Firm. He said that he would not have very much left out of the full tender if he had given the $6,000 to Mr. O'Brien. Later still in the meeting, when Mr. Campbell had said that he also had been offered a bribe by a member of the Stephen Company, Mr. Stephen asked Mr. Campbell who had offered him the money. The firm consisted of his brother and himself, he said. Mr. Campbell said it was Mr. Corey who made him the offer during a conversation in front of the Opera House.

Mr. O'Brien presented the case of the highway board. In view of the fact that the number of automobiles in the city and county of St. John had reached 2,800, he said, he realized that the road from the bridge to Man-cheater's Corner was not of the proper construction, and that only a paved road would answer the purpose. In view of the fact that the automobilists of the city and county were paying so much money into the provincial treasury and that Lancaster was not getting any of it, he had taken up the matter with the Government, and they promised that in 1925 they would take over that section of the road from the bridge to Manchester's Corner as part of their main trunk road system. He said this offer was a free gift of the Government to the people of Fairville.

The Road to be Paved. During the legislative session, he said, a bill had been passed authorizing the construction not only of that piece of permanent road but also along Lancaster avenue to City Line, including Prince and Duke streets and Dufferin Row. The Municipal Council had guaranteed the bonds necessary for the construction. The reason tenders had been called for only 11,000 yards of the road, was because there had to be a cross section made of every 15 feet, and it would take too long if everything was prepared before tenders were called. The employment of the highway board also entered into the situation. He wanted work for the men of Fairville.

Tenders had been received from B. Mooney & Sons; Kane & Parker; the Maritime Construction Co., and the Stephen Construction Co. At the highway board meeting he had objected to the opening of the Stephen Construction Company tender, because he did not care to deal with a dishonest party. He had hoped at the time that nothing would be said about it, and that it would be dropped. Mr. O'Brien said that he had hoped the Monday following the highway board meeting, and Mr. Stephen had asked him why his tender was not considered. By the company. The chairman read Mr. Campbell's motion. The motion was adopted. The meeting then adjourned.

Mr. Campbell: "There is a trail of corruption from the North Shore to St. John, but it is going to end at the other end of the bridge, for you can't bribe the councillors of Lancaster." Cheers.

Mr. Campbell said that often it had been put up to him: "You have a very nice home, Councillor O'Brien has a very nice home. Neither of you had them before you were on the council." He did not mind saying that he had a $4,000 mortgage on his home, he said.

Mr. Campbell said that he was proud to work on the same council with Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Golding for his suspicions were all wrong; his colleagues were proven to be honest, straightforward men.

When he had concluded Mr. Stephen asked him who it was that had offered him $25,000. Mr. Campbell: "Mr. Corey." William Golding, councillor, confirmed everything that had been said as regards the meeting of the Highway Board. Mr. Stephen, he said, had never offered him any money and he was greatly amazed at the confession of Mr. Campbell. A. W. Carton, a member of the Highway Board, said that when the board was considering the tenders the first to be opened was Kane and Parker; the second, Maritime Construction Co.; the third, B. Mooney & Sons. The figures in each case were jotted down by the members. At this point, he said, Mr. O'Brien, who was chairman, arose and said that the four tenders were opened in the order of the Stephen Construction Co. Before it was opened he asked that the board consider what he had to say. He had then told about being offered a bribe of $6,000, if that company would get the contract. On hearing this, said Mr. Carton, Councillor Campbell moved and Mr. Golding seconded a motion that the tender be returned to the Stephen Company unopened. The motion was adopted. The meeting then adjourned.

intended, no doubt, to make those who failed to heed its moral lesson just a little bit ashamed of themselves. It read as follows: "The rules of golf committee hope that golfers, before making use of abnormal methods of play or of abnormal implements, will earnestly consider whether they are acting in conformity with the spirit of the rules of golf, and in particular with the regulations governing the form and make of golf clubs.

The committee considers it to be deplorable that players, instead of trying to master the use of golf clubs, should endeavor to overcome the difficulties of the game by using implements which have never been associated with it." At the time of its appearance, the people at St. Andrews interpreted the notice as a bid to H. D. Gillies, a well-known British amateur, to give up the "Eifel Tower" tees, some six to ten inches high, which have excited much comment ever since he began using them last winter. Mr. Gillies took the hint and fell back upon the ordinary little clots of wet sand for his tees the next morning. Anyone who has loved the discussion by British golfers and sport writers upon every American change in the game, knows that the notice is meant for them also.

PHONE MATTER IS BEFORE BOARD

Utilities Hears Report on Business House Record—Revenues.

Notice from the New Brunswick Telephone Company that, acting under order of the board, they would have to put on measured service about one-half of the business houses not now so listed was received this morning by the New Brunswick Board of Public Utilities.

Applications from the Bath, Bristol and Florenceville Hydro Electric Co. for fixing of rate, and from the Ontario Equitable Life Assurance Co. of Waterloo, Ont., for permission to sell stock, were heard.

The applications of the cities of Fredericton and Moncton for increase in electric rates and of the Oil Field, Ltd., for increase in rates were, by consent, laid over until the September meeting of the board.

J. M. Trueman, chairman, presided, and Commissioners T. C. Burpee and F. LeBlanc were present.

L. A. Noble, for the Bath, Bristol and Florenceville Hydro Electric Company, made application to have the rate for that district fixed at 10 cents per k. w. h. net, with a meter rental charge of 25 cents a month and a minimum charge of $1 a month. This was agreed to by the board.

O. J. Fraser and F. J. Nisbel, for the New Brunswick Telephone Company, reported that, after keeping the record ordered by the board, they found that about one-half of the business houses on the unlimited service had exceeded the limit of 15 calls a day and would have to be placed on measured service. It was pointed out that this did not in all cases mean an increase for the subscriber, as it tended to cut out unnecessary calls and in some instances had proved to be cheaper for the user. It was stated by the board's expert S. H. Midram, that St. John had the cheapest exchange service of any city that he knew of, as in most cities it did not get below three cents a call, while here it was down to two cents a call.

An application of the Ontario Equitable Life Assurance Co. of Waterloo, Ont., for permission to sell stock in the province was referred to the chairman of the board, with power to act.

Utility Gross Revenue.

It was reported by the secretary that there had been an increase of $19,000 in the gross revenue of the public utility companies of the province and that the rate for this year would be slightly higher owing to the increased number of meetings which it had been necessary to hold. The gross revenue for 1923 was $2,288,610, as compared with $2,269,552. The amounts reported by the companies were: Canadian Northern Electric, $111,000, an increase of $11,000 over 1922; New Brunswick Power, $48,123; $91,994.22; 1922, $1,068,481.23; New Brunswick Telephone Co., $1,122,426.84; 1922, $1,078,092.74; Moncton Tramways, 1923, $371,776; 1922, $384,668.

At the meeting this morning, Mayor Potts, Commissioner Bullock, F. M. Ross and Hon. W. E. Foster were appointed the delegates to meet Sir Henry and they will go to Montreal just as soon as a date for the meeting has been named by the president of the C. N. R.

LIBEL CASE IS ON IN CIRCUIT

Prosecution Closed and Defence Begun—Scoville Found Guilty.

The case of John L. Jacobson, charged with criminal libel was taken up in the circuit court this morning before Mr. Justice Barry. There was some question as to the admissibility of evidence and discussion took place between the opposing counties as to whether or not the alleged libel was justified.

The witnesses for the prosecution were Mrs. Ida Meahan, Mrs. Annette Nairn and Joseph Meahan, who were recipients of the alleged defamatory letters from the defendant relative to Mrs. Florence McLellan. Their evidence was similar to that given in the police court. Dr. Calnek was placed on the stand by the defence. He testified that he did not recognize Mrs. McLellan as a patient attended by him.

The court adjourned until 2:30 this afternoon. W. M. Ryan appeared for the prosecution and S. H. Hunton for the defence.

Scoville Found Guilty

Edward Scoville was yesterday afternoon found guilty of a serious crime. The jury were out but a few minutes before Mr. Justice Barry rendered the verdict. Mr. Ryan appeared for the prosecution and C. R. Mercereau, who was assigned to the case by the court, appeared for the prisoner.

AS HIRAM SEES IT

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "as I gazed yesterday on the happy high school graduates my thoughts went back to some I knew many years ago. If they are living now their hair is gray and their outlook on life quite different from that of the happy youth of yesterday. But it was a wonderful world into which they went clear-eyed and joyous from the class-room. And some of them had dreams. I know these have never been fulfilled, but they are dreaming still. What would life be without its dreams? A mere animal existence and no more. I was glad to see the light in young eyes yesterday—the lift of the chin and self-reliance. May the fates be kind to them. They are the hope of the world."

"For them that ain't sassy an' lazy," said Hiram, "I'll say Amen right off."

"Ah!" said the reporter, "but life itself will punish them."

"It will so," said Hiram. "The mills 'o' the gods is grindin' jist as they was in Adam's time—yes, sir."
