

GERMANS PROBABLY PREPARING FOR OFFENSIVE; TEUTONS LOSE AGAIN IN SEVERAL ENCOUNTERS

RECLUSE MURDERS FARMER

Harry Wiley of Argyle, Carleton Co., Shot and Killed by William Glenn.

GLENN BARRICADES HIMSELF IN HOME

Surrenders to Officers After Two Hours—Preliminary Hearing this Morning.

MURDERER HAD BEEN ACTING STRANGELY

Thought That Plea of Insanity May Be Entered by Defence.

Special to The Standard.

Woodstock, June 24.—As the result of a startling tragedy enacted in the remote district of Argyle, 55 miles from Woodstock, yesterday, Harry Wiley, son of former County Councillor Edward Wiley, is dead, and William Glenn, a recluse and neighbor of the Wiley family, is locked up in the Woodstock jail charged with murder. Glenn is accused of shooting young Wiley after a slight dispute over a line fence. He had been acting strangely for sometime, and it is considered probable that the defence will put forward a plea of insanity when the case comes to trial.

A preliminary hearing has been set for tomorrow morning, but it is possible the hearing may be continued until Wednesday.

Thrilling Circumstances.

The arrest was made under thrilling circumstances, and much credit is due Sheriff A. B. Foster, of Middle Simonds; Chief Kelley and Deputy Morse, of Woodstock; Guy Welch and Archibald Campbell, who with a posse of men living in the vicinity surrounded Glenn's house. It was probably due to the care and diplomacy exercised by Sheriff Foster, the officers and the good work of the prisoner's brother, Bernard, that no further bloodshed occurred. The tragedy has caused a decided

MAN IS DROWNED WHILE SWIMMING IN ROCKY LAKES

William Munro Probably Had Attack of Heart Failure.

Special to The Standard. New Glasgow, June 24.—A very sad drowning accident occurred at the Rocky Lakes near Fifteen Mile Stream yesterday. A fishing party from Eureka consisting of William Munro, William McNaughton, Mr. McNaughton's son, Robert, and K. William Boates and Mr. Boates, son were at the lakes fishing and swimming. Mr. Munro was a splendid swimmer. He was about 100 yards away from the others swimming by himself when he was seized with a cramp. By the time the others reached him he was dead. His heart was not strong and it is possible that death was due to heart collapse. He was about 50 years of age.

MANY INJURED

Havana, June 24.—An explosion in the magazine of the Cabana fortress, across the bay from Havana, at nine o'clock last night shook the entire city. One person is known to be dead and many were injured. It is believed a bomb was exploded.

Line Fence Dispute.

The tragedy occurred yesterday morning. Harry Wiley and his brother constructed a board fence on the line between the Wiley and Glenn farms. Glenn found fault with the location of the fence and tore it down. There were some words exchanged between the Wiley boys and the recluse, but the surviving brother states that the dispute did not amount to much at the time.

A short time later Harry Wiley hitched up his team to a roller and started to roll some grain. While he was seated on the roller Glenn appeared about a rod distant with a Snyder rifle and with little or no warning pointed it at Harry and fired. The ball pierced Wiley's lung and he fell from the seat dead. Glenn immediately reloaded his rifle and went to his house. He barred the door and all the windows but one. Sheriff Foster, Deputy Morse and Chief Kelley were notified of the tragedy by telephone and at once started in an automobile from here, 55 miles distant, for the scene. Guy Welch and Archibald Campbell accompanied the officers in an automobile to the Glenn farm, and soon a large posse of neighbors assembled in the vicinity.

CANADIANS USE HEAVY ARTILLERY

Violent Exchanges with Enemy Yesterday Morning at Vimy.

INFANTRY WAS NOT DRAWN INTO ACTION

British Forces Repel Number of Raids Near Arrmentieres.

Decorate Heroes.

While the cannonade was in progress the ceremony took place behind the front of the presentation of the decorations conferred upon the heroes of the Vimy Ridge battle belonging to one of the Canadian divisions whose duties prevented their attendance at the recent investiture by His Majesty the King in London. One of the recipients was Lieut. MacDowell, who won the Victoria Cross for his gallantry in capturing machine guns and mopping up the enemy dugouts.

British Statement.

London, June 24.—Hostile raids were attempted this morning southeast of Arrmentieres and south of Arrmentieres," says the official report from British headquarters in France tonight.

"In each case the enemy troops were caught under our fire and failed to reach our trenches. The enemy's artillery was active today in the neighborhood of Havrincourt Wood, north of the Scarpe, and in the neighborhood of Messines."

Russian Statement.

Petrograd, June 24.—Lively scouting operations between the Russian and Austrian lines in the Carpathians in today's war office statement, which follows:

"In Galicia, in the region of Grabovec, an enemy scouting party attempted to gain information of our position, but was dispersed by one of our patrols. The commander of the party, Lieut. Luracev, assembled his men and by means of bayonet fighting and the use of hand grenades they succeeded in breaking through and returning to their trenches without the loss of a man. Lieut. Luracev received several serious wounds. On the remainder of the front and on the Roumanian front there were fusillades."

THE SEBASTOPOL MUTINY ENDED

Petrograd, June 23.—Rear-Admiral James H. Glenison, U. S. A., and his staff, returned to Petrograd today from a visit to the Black Sea fleet at Sebastopol. The cordiality of their reception was modified by the mutiny among the sailors of the fleet, which started just before their arrival and which is now at an end, tranquility having been restored.

WORKMEN ARE PANIC STRICKEN AT FIRE ON HALIFAX FERRY

Engineer Burned But No Lives Are Lost—Ferry is Saved.

Halifax, June 24.—Fire broke out early last night on the ferry steamer Davis McNab, which was conveying several hundred workmen from the new oil works under construction on the Dartmouth side of the harbor to Halifax. The men who were nearly all foreigners, became panic stricken and rushed to the side of the steamer. The sudden rush almost capsized the boat.

KILTIES HOPE TO GET MANY MEN IN U.S.

10,000 Set as Figure—Col. Guthrie Appointed Recruiting Officer and Pipers May Return.

Special to The Standard.

Boston, June 24.—With Sergt. Major Appleby in charge, 109 recruits left tonight for the headquarters of the Kilties at Fredericton. Col. P. A. Guthrie and Capt. J. D. Black returned today from New York, where they have been conferring with the British War Mission. Gen. A. W. White, head of the mission, was delighted with the success of the work of the Kilties in Boston, and has asked the Canadian government to send the pipe band back to the United States. Gen. Guthrie wants to have the band and Kiltie officers visit New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and all important cities of the United States.

Col. Guthrie has been placed in general charge of recruiting for Canadian and British armies in the New England States and will immediately establish headquarters in a building of 16 or 20 rooms in which the offices will be on the main floor, with the quarters for the band and recruiting staff on the other floors.

Since the campaign opened here, June 7, 1,200 men have volunteered for service in Canadian and British armies. Of these over 500 will be in Fredericton, when the 109 started for here tonight.

A TIMELY WORD.

We cannot be too thankful to those in season and out of season who demanded the creation and expansion of our armies to their present dimensions, which are none too large, who fought against the dissipation of energy in side-shows of which there are still too many, and who from the outset realized that such a situation as the present might arise in which the decision on land as well as on sea would rest mainly with us. We always bargained to bear the main naval burden, the main industrial burden, the main financial burden, of the great war. But circumstances are casting upon us in addition what we hardly expected, the main military burden, which is substantially increased. We trust this tremendous fact is fully realized throughout the dominions—Canada, Australia, South Africa, New Zealand and elsewhere—for immenses as have been their efforts, yet greater are demanded of them.

We must indeed all do much more to save ourselves, to save Europe and to save the world. At the same time we are all justly proud of what our fighting men are doing and have already been a National Review, London, June 1, 1917.

GERMANS MAY ATTEMPT AN OFFENSIVE

Significant Preparations of Some Sort on French Front.

FRENCH REGAIN THE GROUND THEY LOST

Lively Encounter in Vicinity of Mount Carnillet on Saturday.

Grand Headquarters of the French Army in France, Saturday evening.

There are signs on many parts of the French front that the Germans are either nervous concerning the French intentions or are preparing an offensive. A series of "feints" has been carried out by Field Marshal Von Hindenburg at various points, principally around the Leon plateau. One of the chief of these was an effort to cut a breach in the French line at Vauxillon, where the German "shock" units temporarily ousted the French from a short trench system on the slopes of Montky Mountain, on which it was important that both arms should possess observatories.

Ground Regained.

French counter-attacks immediately regained all the ground lost, except a salient measuring a few yards in which the German position is most precarious. On this occasion the German shock troops advanced in their shirt sleeves without packs, after a terrific bombardment, in which every yard of its adjacent ground was searched by shells.

"The German shockers," as soon as they succeeded in their determined and courageous effort, turned over the trenches they had gained to the 78th German Infantry, who, however, failed to hold them when called upon for a defensive effort. The correspondent visited the entire position in this sector today and found the French firmly established, while the Germans, on the other side of the hill, were deprived of observatories, and thus their artillery was blind.

Another lively affair occurred in the vicinity of Mont Carnillet, where the Germans and French attacked almost simultaneously, the former with the object of recovering prominent points they had lost some weeks ago, and the latter with the intention of getting free elbow room.

French Statement.

Paris, June 24.—The war office issued the following communication tonight:

WORKMEN WANT DUMA ABOLISHED

Petrograd, June 24.—Dissolution of the Council of the Empire is declared for in a resolution passed Saturday by the Pan-Russian Congress of Councils of deputies of soldiers and workmen, after prolonged debate. The elimination of the Duma also is asked.

BERLIN WORKMEN IN THE RAILWAY SHOPS STRIKE

Serious Situation Develops on Prussian State Lines.

Copenhagen, June 23.—Two-thirds of the workmen in the great Berlin shops of the Prussian state railroads stopped work and walked out at five o'clock yesterday afternoon to enforce their demands for a nine-hour day, according to advices received here today. The men, who had been compelled to work eleven hours daily during the war, declared it was impossible for flesh and blood to continue such overtime labor on inadequate food.

According to Vorwaerts the other third of the employees are expected to join the movement. The German railroad unions are said to have voted to support the car shop employees in their demand for a shorter day, and also for a wage increase in proportion to the high cost of living.

CANADIAN ARMY CALLS FOR MEN

Significant Cable Received by Premier Borden from Sir Arthur Currie.

Ottawa, June 24.—(Leased wire)—The prime minister has received the following cable from Gen. Sir Arthur Currie, in response to Sir Robert Borden's message of congratulation sent last week on General Currie's assumption of the command of the Canadian army corps.

"I sincerely appreciated and am deeply grateful for the kind message of congratulation from yourself and colleagues. My pride in commanding the Canadian corps is surpassed only by my determination to serve it in such a manner as will ensure its splendid reputation being maintained, and as will merit the approval of my countrymen. I note with special gratification your assurance that the troops in the field can rely upon Canada giving them all necessary support. They have given their blood freely to maintain their nation's honor, and now confidently expect that the full fruits of their sacrifice will not be precluded. It is an imperative and urgent necessity that steps be immediately taken to ensure that sufficient drafts of officers and men are sent from Canada to keep the corps at its full strength."

THE PORTUGUESE CAPTURE GERMANS

RECTOR RESIGNS.

Richibucto, June 24.—Rev. F. W. M. Bacon, Anglican clergyman at Richibucto, has tendered his resignation, to take effect June 30. Rev. Mr. Bacon was formerly attached to parishes in St. John and Musquash.

"In the course of patrol encounters last night south of Arrmentieres, Portuguese troops killed or captured a whole German patrol."

The open defection of Hugh Guthrie from the ranks of the Liberal party, was the first step in the direction of clarifying a complicated situation, also the movement of Mr. Barrett to give the conscription measure the six months halt, really to throw it out of parliament and the acclaim with which Surprising Strength of Government's Conscription Policy One Reason.

LIBERALS DISUNITED FEAR SEVERE DEFEAT

Leaders Likely to Agree to Extension of Life of Parliament.

COMPULSION DEBATE CONTINUES TODAY

Measure Will Win by Larger Majority Than Expected Week Ago.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, June 24.—Tomorrow commences what is expected to be the closing week of the conscription bill debate in the House of Commons, and as the stampede of Ontario and western Liberals has made its passage certain, interest in the situation is already commencing to wane.

To say that the government has ever seriously doubted that the bill would pass would probably be to overstate the case, but it must be admitted that during the first days of last week, following Sir Wilfrid Laurier's proposal of a referendum, the opinion was that the vote would be close, as it was felt in some quarters that the suggestion of George P. Graham that the government should take steps to appoint a food controller and also to levy more heavily upon the accumulated wealth of the country, might meet the views of some of the Ontario Liberals and keep them in line with the party until such legislation had been introduced by the government as a supplement to its conscription bill.

Probably Avoided Election.

Election talk was plentiful and tonight the best unofficial information is that had the conscription measure failed of its passage the government would proceed with the work of reconstruction and an election would probably have followed within a few weeks. Sir Robert Borden and his followers feel that the most important issue before the Canadian people today is that of securing men to fill the armies at the front and if defeated in the House the government would have had ample excuse for deciding to lay the case before the tribunal of the electorate.

The open defection of Hugh Guthrie from the ranks of the Liberal party, was the first step in the direction of clarifying a complicated situation, also the movement of Mr. Barrett to give the conscription measure the six months halt, really to throw it out of parliament and the acclaim with which

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD

The St. John Standard will pay One Hundred Dollars to any person or persons producing evidence which will lead to the conviction of those responsible for the murder of Robert Harris.

THE CROSS-COUNTRY FOX CHASE IN NEW BRUNSWICK

AFTER fourteen days hunted in the City of St. John, then captured by Mr. John A. Warwick, the foreman painter employed by the St. John Railway Co., Fox the Fugitive now invites a chase through the town of New Brunswick.

Many readers of The Standard in different towns and villages are desirous of engaging in this interesting and unique hide-and-seek game. It attracted so much attention in the city that The Standard cheerfully engaged Mr. E. L. Welch, the originator, creator and producer who put it on in the city, to continue it at large in the province.

Never has any feature similar to this been given the public here. As a mystery it incites remarkable interest. Those who do not engage in the hunt for the Fugitive read his stories for their local color, their harmless and amusing personalities and striking novelties. This feature as Mr. Welch produces it is clean and educational in testing the capabilities for remembering faces and incidents. Nothing about it is faded.

The Standard pays nominal rewards in the towns where he is captured, according to conditions, and the Fugitive goes through the province regardless of the captures.

ELECTION IS NOT LIKELY THIS YEAR

Continued from page one. It was hailed by French members proved most embarrassing to the Liberal party, as it illustrated beyond question that on this point Quebec and Ontario Liberals could never meet. Then came Mr. Pardon's announcement that he too would support the conscription measure.

More Follow. This was followed by Hon. Mr. Graham and E. W. Nesbitt, both of whom, while seemingly at a loss for a reason to explain their attitude to the satisfaction of themselves, stated definitely that they would vote against Laurier. That was the end so far as Liberal opposition is concerned, and incidentally an end to the real leadership of Laurier. If he were to press for a vote on his amendment tomorrow it is not believed that Sir Wilfrid would command a majority of his own party. What support he would obtain outside of Quebec would come from the Maritime Provinces. In Nova Scotia E. M. MacDonald, Sinclair of Guysboro, Kys of Richmond, and "Smooth-bore" MacKenzie of Cape Breton, are about all he can count on. A. K. McLean of Halifax, since the defeat of Mr. Fielding, the fiscal critic of the opposition, will support the conscription measure.

In New Brunswick it is believed Mr. Pugsley will stick to Laurier, who will also receive the support of P. Michaud and O. Turpen of Victoria-Madawaska and Gloucester respectively. W. S. Loggie and A. B. Copp of Northumberland and Westmorland are classed as doubtful, although it is believed Mr. Copp will stick to the machine. P. B. Carvell and General McLean, if the latter is in the House when the division is taken, which is regarded as doubtful, will probably vote with the government.

Ontario About Bold. In Ontario it is doubtful if Laurier will secure more than three votes, and in that case it will be of members in whose constituencies there is large French influence. From British Columbia he will not receive a vote, while from Alberta the influence of Mr. W. A. Buchanan of Letouche, who delivered one of the best speeches of the debate is expected to have a big influence in bringing English Liberal votes to the side of the government.

Manitoba and Saskatchewan will also show government majorities. Dr. Michael Clark, who is still to speak, is expected to drive the nail in the coffin of Liberal opposition and the measure will pass with a satisfying majority, clearly proving that patriotic Canada, irresponsive of the Liberal, is solidly behind the government method of supporting the boys at the front.

Bad Time for Laurier. Altogether it is a bad time for Laurier. If an election were held this summer there is no question but that the government would be handsomely returned and realization of this fact will probably induce the Liberals to agree to any reasonable proposition for the extension of the parliamentary term. Consequently it now looks as if an election would not take place this year at any rate. Of course, the government may change overnight. To pick political winners is as uncertain as betting on horse races and many young Ottawans who sent their money to Connaught Park last week where a Canadian racing meet was the centre of attraction are in a position to contribute expert evidence on the uncertainty of that proposition. But it looks now as if the conscription bill would go through flying. The government would then deal with the railway situation, reorganization would be proceeded with, the extension bill passed and all would get away from the capital before the torrid days of July and early August, a probability which members who have spent years here declare to be most desirable.

Mr. Buchanan. In his address in the House W. A. Buchanan of Lethbridge delivered the best speech of Friday from the Liberal side. His effort was a distinct return to the high conscientious patriotism started by Messrs. Guthrie and Pardon. He made no criticism of the government or of its war conduct. He simply announced that he could not conscientiously take any other course except support the bill as it stands. The duty of the entire country was to support this measure as it afforded the best and most practical means of reinforcing the boys at the front. From his own constituency 7,000 men had gone overseas, some of them as the result of the speaker's urging from the recruiting platforms. He could not betray these men even though it should be necessary to break with his party and his leader. As a member of this Canadian parliament he felt he owed a duty to his country before his party.

To Take Consequences. He was prepared to do that duty

SINN FEINERS HOIST THE RED FLAG

Smash Windows and Commit Other Acts of Violence at Cork.

Cork, Ireland, June 24.—The Sinn Feiners were active here early this morning, when they smashed the windows in a number of recruiting offices and by means of a fire escape hoisted the republican flag on the court house flag staff and smashed the scales held by the figure of Justice over the court house. They committed many other acts of violence. The Sinn Feiners at a big meeting this afternoon passed resolutions denouncing the national convention as a diplomatic attempt on the part of the government to place Ireland in a false position and prevent the fulfillment of Ireland's claim to sovereign independence. The resolutions demanded that the executive convene the council to express the opinions of the people and elect representatives to a peace conference.

THE U. S. CONGRESS PASSED FOOD BILL

Washington, June 24.—The administration food control bill, giving the president broad authority to control the distribution of food, feed and fuel for war purposes, and appropriating $152,500,000 for its enforcement and administration, was passed by the House late last night, after far-reaching prohibition provisions had been written into it.

The prohibition provisions adopted would prohibit the use of foodstuffs for the manufacture of alcoholic beverages, and would give the president authority to take over, for war purposes, all liquor now on hand.

AUSTRALIA CONTROLS HER WHEAT SUPPLY

London, June 24.—W. A. Holman, the premier of New South Wales, announced that Australia has taken the whole wheat product under government control. The movement of this produce, he declared, promises to be expedited by the new efforts being made by Great Britain and the United States to make sea traffic less perilous.

BUELOW WANTS PEACE

Paris, June 23.—The Zurich correspondent of the Petit Parisien quotes Prince Buelow, former German Chancellor, as saying in reply to birthday greetings from the city of Bromberg, Prussia, that he hoped this year would bring to the German people the longed for peace, a peace with compensations for their sufferings and sacrifices and an indemnity which would permit Germany immediately to resume the position she occupied before the war.

This is the first time Prince von Buelow has expressed himself on the subject of Germany's war aims.

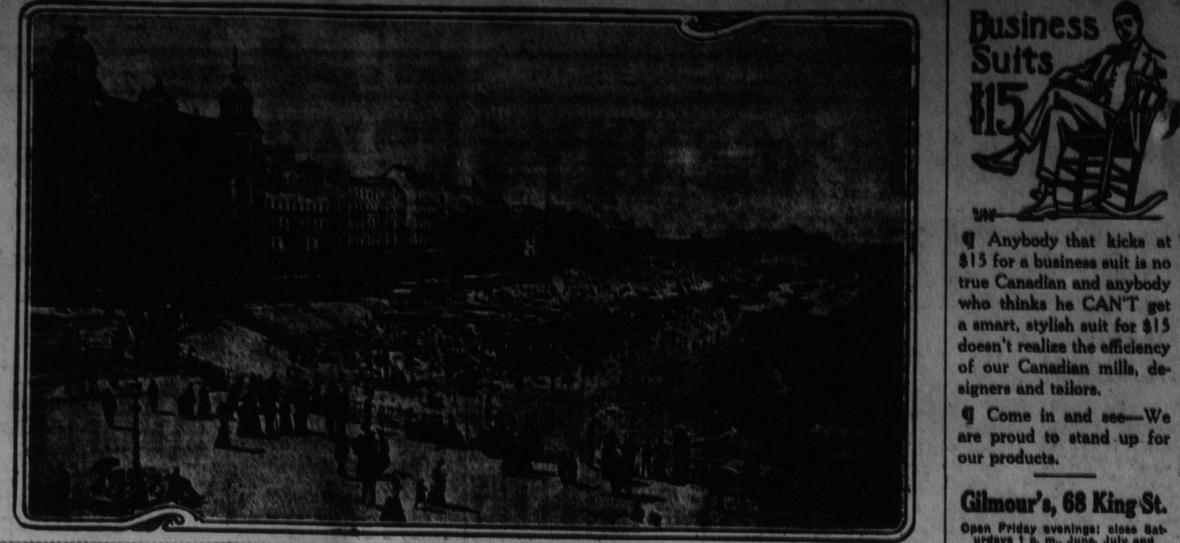

HAMPTON CALLS RECTOR

Hampton, June 24.—The Anglican parish of Hampton has unanimously asked the Rev. C. G. Lawrence, chaplain at the front in France, to become its rector, to succeed Archdeacon Croftfoot, rector of St. Paul's church, St. John.

and go back to his constituency and take the consequences. He assured the government that the great heart of the Canadian west was solidly determined to prosecute this war to the finish. There was no room in the west for slackers. In closing Mr. Buchanan made an eloquent plea for swifter taxation of the Canadian people. He advised the Minister of Finance that if he decided to "tax the people until it hurts" the west would be behind him. Many Canadians today were making money out of the war and this was the time to provide for the payment of the war bills. He would support any measure the Minister of Finance saw fit to adopt to bring the financial stricken to realize their duty. He suggested that the government should have a real representative of the labor interests and the agriculturists. Such a government would have the confidence of the whole people and should be continued for the period of the war.

Oliver Wilson, Conservative, of North Essex, will resume the debate Monday afternoon.

HUN MUNITION PLANTS GONE

Big Arsenal at Spandau, Near Berlin, Explodes and Several Other Plants Burned.

Paris, June 24.—Several disasters have recently occurred in munition plants in Germany, according to the Zurich correspondent of the Matin. The correspondent telegraphs that he has learned from private German sources that the hand grenade arsenal at Spandau exploded on June 16 and that seven ammunition shops at Marienhal were destroyed by fire on the 18th. Some ammunition factories at Nuremberg also have been burned down, according to this authority.

Spandau is nine miles west of Berlin. Large government munition works are there. Nuremberg, rich in historic traditions, is more noted for varied industrial plants than as a munition-making centre. By Marienhal, Marthal in Saxony may be meant.

MANY MASONS CELEBRATE

Opportunity of Craft After War Outlined by Bishop of Birmingham.

London, June 24.—(Montreal Gazette Cable)—The Duke of Connaught was the central figure at huge gatherings at Royal Albert Hall yesterday and today, when eight thousand Free Masons assembled from all parts of the British Isles and overseas to celebrate the bi-centenary of the Grand Lodge of England. Canadian Masonry was represented at both gatherings by Sir Edward Leitchworth, Grand Secretary, on behalf of the Quebec Grand Lodge, and Col. Obed Smith for the Saskatchewan and Nova Scotia Grand Lodges. Many other Canadian craft also attended.

At divine services today the Bishop of Birmingham pictured the period of reconstruction after war in which, he said, the principles of the craft would have a splendid opportunity for developing the well-being of the nation on a higher plane than before the war.

According to the newspaper the infernal machines were to be put aboard Norwegian ships, in the coal bunkers.

THROUGH THE YELLOWHEAD PASS

By Edwin Palmer. Author of "Barakatta," "Via Wireless," "Council for the Defence," etc. The route of the Grand Trunk Pacific from Edmonton west to the coast runs about as closely as a railway can to an imaginary line once famous about the world as "Pity-tous Fort." To make that line a northern boundary, and to win the rich and wonderful country below that line, the United States once was ready to go to war. But the British have too much to grant that demand away and the international boundary finally was fixed far to the south; so since the time of "Pity-tous Fort, or Fight," that country, in the opinion of the average American, has become undesirable, a wild waste. You may recall that the fox took to astonishing some similar sentiments towards those traps which hung too high.

"THE SEVEN SISTERS"

Rockies of the Yellowhead merely because you may have crossed mountains of the same name through other passes. The Yellowhead Pass—the French version, "Les Sept Sœurs," still clings as the name of a station there—shows strange details and stretches of scenery all its own. It is an interesting but yet a minor matter that Mount Robson, which towers above the track of the new railway, is the giant of the mountains of Canada. It is not the few hundred feet of superiority in height which adds so greatly to the grandeur at that point, nor is it directly the circumstances that the new transcontinental road has found a pass of so slight elevation that the traveler on the train is treated to almost the entire height of these gigantic ranges.

A remarkable group of peaks on the Grand Trunk Pacific's Yellowhead Pass routes between Edmonton and Prince Rupert. The river in the foreground of the picture is the Skeena, one of the most capricious and turbulent streams on the Continent. The new transcontinental runs along its banks for nearly two hundred miles before reaching the Pacific terminal of the line.

entire height of these gigantic ranges. There seems to be a breadth and sweep to the slopes below the snow-capped summits about "Les Sept Sœurs" that catches the traveler's breath as he looks down their terrific vistas. There is something of the same effect in the mighty mountains rising beyond Mexico City. Beside the track, in the train runs through these mountains of the south, long lanes of shimmering in the sun, little after mile as the cars speed by. Beside them, the track is level; beyond them, the track does not seem to climb. And as you view these cones of the wild unpopulated mountains, you receive the sense that these views are not only unspoiled to you, but new to others—that few have been through the pass before you.

A Series of "BUY IN ST. JOHN" Editorials - No. 3

ST. JOHN CAN SERVE YOU BEST

Recently the firms listed below joined with The Standard to promote a deeper civic spirit in St. John—to remind our people by continued and persistent statement of fact that it pays—without exception—to trade at home.

Wherever you live in this city or within its marketing radius, your interests are best served by giving St. John firms an opportunity to fill your needs. And their ability to do so depends in a very large measure on the opportunities you afford.

No time could be more opportune than the present for consideration of this question. Preparedness is the watchword of Canada, and preparedness to be effective should begin at home. We must be ready for any eventuality the war may produce during its continuation or afterwards and our greatest safeguard against disaster will be found in establishing our own commercial prosperity upon the sound foundation of co-operative support. By resolving to buy in St. John, you not only benefit the merchants whose success benefits you, but you aid the manufacturer, the jobber, the farmer, in outlying districts, and you keep your money in the community from which your livelihood is gained.

What do you owe to Toronto? What do you owe to Montreal? Or Boston? Or New York? Why should you help the mail order houses of those cities to pay their taxes, their insurance, to maintain such corporate advantages as they enjoy while your own home firms and your own home town suffer through your thoughtlessness? Maybe you think that at times you save a few cents by purchasing a much-advertised article elsewhere. Do you really save? Is not the loss to your general prosperity in St. John much greater than the insignificant economy seemingly apparent in mail-order catalogues. This series of editorials is no selfish propaganda arranged by a group of merchants who seek larger business. It is a presentation of facts of value to you, set forth for your own advantage even more than theirs and published in the hope that you will tell your friends what you read.

ST. JOHN CAN SERVE YOU BEST

Because St. John firms not only provide the goods you want at the prices you want, but enable you to earn the salary or wages with which to maintain yourself and family.

Paris, June 22.—Heavy attacks by the Germans north of the Aisne have been repulsed by the French troops with severe casualties, according to the official communication issued to-night.

In the attack, which was along a front of about one and one-quarter miles, the Germans only at one point succeeded in penetrating the French trenches. The communication says:

"On the Chemin Des Dames the bombardment of our positions to the south of Pillias and in the region of Braye-en-Laonnois continued up to this morning and was followed by a series of very violent attacks on a front of more than two kilometers, extending from the west of the La Rooyere Farm to Epinechevregny.

"The Germans used large forces, composed of special troops, which attacked with stubbornness, despite the heavy losses which were inflicted on them by our fire.

Montreal, June 22.—Struck by a light engine in the C. P. R. yards near Notre Dame and Delorimier this evening John Collins, aged 22 years, a car checker in the employ of C.P.R., was so badly injured that his life is despaired-of. He was removed to the Notre Dame hospital where his spine and right leg were found to be fractured.

"We are fighting for a worthy purpose, and we shall not lay down our arms until that purpose has been fully achieved."—H. M. The King. TO THE PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE—Every fighting unit we can send to the front means one step nearer peace.

A CAREER OF FAILURE.

The people of New Brunswick will recall the campaign of vilification, slander and abuse which was waged against the present Opposition party in the recent provincial elections. Charges of the most reckless character were made, facts were misrepresented and everything conceivable was done to discredit the members and supporters of the late administration. The eminent jurist of the new government held up his hands in holy horror at the shocking conditions they alleged existed under the late regime. They openly declared that investigation would disclose such conditions as would operate to drive several members of the late administration from public life.

The first session of the provincial house closed on Friday, and notwithstanding the wild vapors of the Carterites the Opposition party is still intact. In fact not one member of the late administration was even damaged. The most searching investigations carried on by the government and their auditors have failed to reveal one transaction in the innumerable matters of public business under the late government that reflects in the slightest on any of its members. And the fact that no irregularities were discovered is proof positive that they did not exist, as the electors will be unanimous in the opinion that the investigations were most thorough.

The most the government can make out of the investigations which have been carried on is that a different mode of book-keeping of the accounts of the province would be desirable. That the auditors would advise changes is only natural, as no two firms can be found who can agree on any one system, each claiming that their own methods are the best to follow. But it is evident that there are no outstanding liabilities of the province, and that the late administration after discharging all accounts, were able to show a tidy surplus on ordinary account. As to carrying out the auditors' recommendations the new government themselves cannot agree and it was thought wiser to stand the matter over until next session.

The one significant thing, however, is the absence of even a suggestion that one dollar of the public moneys was stolen or misappropriated under the late administration, which fact after the canvasses that were employed by the present government and the press supporting them, is a complete vindication of Hon. Mr. Murray and his colleagues. This state of affairs is in marked contrast to the chaotic conditions revealed in 1908, when the report of the independent auditors was made public. The people of New Brunswick will remember the many cases of members of the government keeping the provincial moneys in their own private bank accounts, and using funds from the public chest for their own accommodation and at their own will.

Also in marked contrast to the Hazen Government is the weakness of the present administration, which was clearly manifest every day during the session. For their failure to present a programme of constructive legislation, the government gave the poor excuse that they did not have sufficient time to make preparation. But when the Hazen Government met the house in 1908 they had their legislative programme already prepared and they carried it through in much less time, yet not a single member of that administration had any previous cabinet experience. Mr. Foster had the advantage of the assistance of Hon. C. W. Robinson, a former premier. Without Mr. Robinson's assistance the people are wondering what the government would have done. They point out the frequent delays of legislation being brought down not only before the government supporters were consulted, but even without members of the executive themselves being familiar with it—legislation which had to be withdrawn and brought up later when the conflicting views of the administration and its supporters had been harmonized.

The government seemed to be possessed with the idea that it was necessary to have a large number of measures introduced without stopping to consider their character or their preparation, with the result that many undigested measures were brought down in the dying days of the session.

The country under the present government was treated with the spectacle of a leader who could not lead, but who had to rely on other members of the administration to present practically every measure of importance that came before the house.

It was stated that the provincial secretary-treasurer was prevented from taking an active part in the proceedings of the Assembly by reason of the state of his health, which was rather a fortunate thing for the administration, as no one can imagine that gentleman presenting any statement of finance which would be received otherwise than as a jest.

The government supporters themselves have expressed the view that if the administration is to go on, it will be necessary to make changes in the office of attorney-general and minister of agriculture, while of the forecaste members, neither Dr. Roberts nor Mr. Dugal has been of the slightest assistance to the administration, while it has been evident throughout that Mr. Robinson was doing just so much as was necessary in order to get the business through the house, making no exertion which would be incompatible with his personal comfort. Even the redoubtable Mr. Veniot took good care to shew off and not meet his predecessor in debate. As minister of lands and mines, Mr. Smith has confined his explanation of legislation he introduced to type-written memoranda which had been prepared for him in the department and beyond which he dared not venture for fear he would be lost in a sea of incompetency.

The general expression from the galleries has been that of wonder why really able men like Mr. Magee and Mr. King were not entrusted with a share of the administration of the country, and that a man of Mr. Sweeney's parliamentary experience was not at least entrusted with the position of Speaker, so that the voice of the promoter might not be heard in the land. It was evident to all that the weight of ability and legislative experience was entirely with the Opposition, to whose assistance, not only the government but the country is indebted for putting many of the measures presented into workable shape. The general verdict is that the "one business man's administration" has started on a career of failure.

THE HARRIS MURDER.

Chief of Police Simpson is quoted in the Globe of Saturday as stating "the police department will take no action in the case of Robert Harris until the finding of the jury is made known." As Mr. Simpson enjoys the reputation—so far not challenged—of being always on the job, this report of his remarks must be erroneous. It is inconceivable that an officer in his position, charged with the enforcement of the law, should permit the agencies at his command to remain idle until a purely formal enquiry has taken place. The verdict of the jury in this case can be only a crystallization of facts now generally known, a summing up of what everybody has learned. And any delay on the part of the police at such a time may render far more difficult the task of fixing the crime on those responsible for its commission. It is to be hoped, and The Standard believes it true, that the police are busy, if not, they ought to be, and not one moment should be lost in bringing to justice the man or men who murdered Robert Harris.

There is an ugly suspicion—so far as is now known, without any foundation in fact—that members of a striking union or their sympathizers know something of this affair. Now is the time for organized labor to prove its real worth to the community. So long as suspicion rests upon any organized labor, so long will all organized labor suffer in public esteem. Let the members of the plumbers' union take hold of this affair, and prove that they, individually and collectively, have no connection with the crime. If—and this would be a matter of very sincere regret—it is found that sympathizers with that body have erred, then let the labor men repudiate such conduct and do their utmost toward bringing the criminals to justice. Let other unions urge this policy, especially those bodies which have formally expressed their sympathy with the striking plumbers. For so long as this suspicion continues, just so long will organized labor suffer in public esteem. And the reputation enjoyed by all unions in St. John is too valuable an asset to be allowed to suffer because of an act perpetrated no doubt by some irresponsible individual.

Somebody killed Robert Harris. St. John wants to know without any waste of time, who that person is.

LITTLE KNIGHT OF THE BLACK PLUME WARMS UP.

For some little space of time recent, by the good folks of Moncton and other places have been enjoying a restful calm, but it was only one of those lulls which presage dirty weather. The evident reason was that the editor of the Transcript went to On-ton and took all his newspaper with him.

But Mr. Hawke has returned to the battle once more and is busy churning up the atmosphere of "The Head" with fearful attacks on all things Tory and the Conservative newspapers of the province in particular. He has almost persuaded himself to be a rabid anti-conscriptor. Indeed, we believe if the Moncton Times is correct, he wrote of revolution or some odd thing several months ago.

In a terrifying discharge from one of his heavy guns, we find "With the thermometer soaring upwards, it would be well for some people in the Dominion of Canada, at the present moment to keep cool. This advice is especially commended to Liberals."

For once Editor Hawke is eternally right, but then he should not let this advice go wholly away from the corner of Main and Westmorland streets.

WESLEY MACDONALD'S BRAVERY WON THE D. C. M.

Gunner Herbert Morrell of Newcastle in Letter to Mother Tells How MacDonald Took Desperate Chance and Won Honors.

Newcastle, June 22.—Mrs. Walter Morrell has received the following letter from her son Gunner Herbert Morrell in which he tells how Gunner Wesley MacDonald a Newcastle boy won the D. C. M.

Gunner MacDonald is a son of Pte. James MacDonald of the wireless garrison.

France, May 27, 1917

Dear Mother,

I haven't had a letter from you for a couple of weeks, but there will probably be some mail in to night. Sometime I get a letter several months old, but nevertheless I am always glad to get it. I was up to see Fred a few nights ago. He is still at the "advanced" dump.

Horrie has been attached to the Battery and was transferred a few days ago as a wheeler. We are having it pretty easy now as far as work is concerned. All our equipment is polished and cleaned so it isn't very hard to keep it so. I was quite surprised the other night to meet Frank Craik, Wallace Smallwood, and George McInerney, and last night a bunch of the boys from the 6th draft were over to see us. They came to France a few days ago. I suppose that you have heard that Wesley MacDonald has been recommended for the D. C. M. He saved several thousand rounds of ammunition (18 pounder and 4.5 Howitzer shells) from a dump which had caught fire from one of Fritz's fire shells. He carried out the burning box full of shells and stopped the fire from spreading. He certainly took a big chance on being blown to atoms.

There was a concert last night over in a big tent erected for the purpose. It was splendid, and was quite a change for us too. A few nights ago we saw an "air" duel. It was just getting dark when Fritz came over. Our machine went after him and after a couple of hours he was shot down. It was very interesting to watch them. We have started a base ball league and the first game will be pulled off Thursday the 1st. Since we got Horrie over here we are putting in a team, but we may be away from it a team, but before long. We are having such nice weather and are having such a good time. We will be rather hard to go to work again. As I have nothing more in the way of news to write I will close for this time. Love all from Herb.

INSPECTOR WILSON TALKS

When seen by a Standard reporter Inspector Wilson states that the amendments of the act for the regulation of liquor had been passed and had now become law in New Brunswick. He pointed out three sections which were of prime importance, and he stated that all those connected with or who intend to be connected with the sale of liquor, whether traffic should study the last two sections very closely.

Section 38 reads as follows: No person shall upon any vehicle of transportation or at any public place of resort, or upon any sign or bill board, or in any newspaper, periodical or other publication printed or published in this province, or upon any circular, poster or price list, or otherwise advertise the manufacture, sale or furnishing of liquor, or the person from whom or place where, or the price of which, or the method by which liquor may be obtained, and no person shall sell or distribute any such matter. No person, whether owner or occupant, shall permit any sign or bill board containing such advertisement to be or remain upon his premises, provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the publishing of the name and place of business of licensees under this act.

Sections 180 and 181 of the amended act are of particular interest to those engaged in the sale of temperance beers and read as follows: Sec. 180.—Upon application to the Chief Inspector by any person, the Chief Inspector may upon payment of such fee as may be fixed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council issue a license to such person for the sale of such drinkable liquids as are non-intoxicating, that is, having less percentage of alcohol than two per centum of proof spirits such as hop beer, root beer, and similar liquids or beverages that contain alcohol, and are classed under sub-section (A) of section 2 hereof as non-intoxicating, such license to be known as a beer license, and shall be in force until the first day of May next succeeding the issue thereof.

Sec. 181.—A beer license shall be construed to mean a license for selling, bartering or trafficking by retail

Little Benny's Note Book.

I was sucking on an orange, and Puds Blenkins came up, saying, Hey, Benny, lets go in partnership, you can have half of everything I have good to eat, and you give me half of everything you have good to eat.

Wait! I said taking 8 big sucks out of the orange. And Puds said it all over again, and said, Well, Ill go in with you after I finish this orange, its not fair to come up and want to go in partnership while im eating an orange.

And I finished the orange all but the skin, saying, Now everything I get after this is half yours and everything you get is half mine, is that a go?

Aman, said Puds. And he went home for supper, and after supper I was setting on my front step waiting for something to happen, and Puds came up, saying, Are you still in partnership, Benny?

Sure we are, I said.

All rite, that suits me all rite, because you always have more candy and things than wat I have, I bet youd half to give me twice as much as wat Ill half to give you, said Puds.

Which I thart about it a wile, and then I said, Well, if you want to go out of partnership, Ill go out with you, lets go out, is it a go?

Aman, said Puds. And he reached in his pocket and took out a big apple and started to eat it.

Aw, G, I said. And I sat there watching him eat it, and after a wile I said, Save us the core, Puds?

Wen I eat a apple there aint even eny seeds left, much less a core, said Puds.

And he finished it, and there wasnt.

THE POLICE COURT.

The preliminary hearing of Joseph O'Brien and John J. Hughes, charged with the burning of W. J. Crawford's summer house, Loch Lomond, was resumed in the police court Saturday morning.

Fred R. Taylor asked for a further adjournment of the case until Monday after a few witnesses had been heard. Three boys who had acted in a disorderly manner on Brussels street, were warned and let go.

The case of a ten year old boy for stealing from a Union street store was postponed.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Ronald J. Coll was held Saturday morning from the residence of his grandmother, Mrs. Delaney, 50 Douglas Avenue, and was largely attended. The boy's classmates from St. Malch's Hall walked before the hearse. The pallbearers were Schoolmates Louis Comans, Frank Lawson, Edward Bohan, Walter Kinella, Gerald Buckley and Maurice Lestin. Rev. Peter Costello, C. S. R. celebrated the requiem mass, and interment in the new Catholic cemetery.

The Foresighted Man and His Glasses

The difference between failure and success is often only foresight—being prepared for things that are likely to happen.

The foresighted man always has an extra pair of glasses. He knows he may break a lens any hour of the day. He is most particular to have the extra pair with him when he leaves town on business or pleasure. He knows that then he can't phone to Sharpe's and get the new lens in an hour or two as he can when in St. John. Order your reserve glasses at Sharpe's today.

CAUSED DEATH OF HARRIS

Several Witnesses Gave Evidence at Inquest Saturday Night—Post Mortem Showed Fractured Skull, Broken Nose and Other Injuries.

The first session of the inquest into the death of Robert Harris was held Saturday night at the Court House, Coroner Kenney presiding. F. R. Taylor was present, representing the Master Plumbers' Association and J. A. Sinclair representing the Plumbers' Union.

According to the evidence submitted death was caused by fracture of the skull, complicated with hemorrhage and meningitis and the fracture was caused by a blow on the back of the head from some blunt instrument.

Harris made the statement that some person had come behind him and hit him but did not mention plumb lines or any other object.

The inquest will be resumed tonight at eight o'clock.

John M. Wilson.

The first witness examined was John M. Wilson, who saw Harris on the ground and got the coach in which he was removed to his home. Mr. Wilson is 17 years of age and is not working just at present. On the night of the inquest he said he had been attending an auction sale at Robertson's grocery store on Main street and left there between 11 and 11.45 o'clock for his home on Park street extension. He was accompanied by two other boys who left him at Kitchener street, while he proceeded along Rockland Road. When he reached the top of the hill near McIntyre's, he noticed Harris lying on the grass. This would be near Cranston avenue. He saw no person on the street except one man, whom he met about 200 feet away from where he found Harris, and he pointed out Wm. Murphy as the man to the coroner. This man was coming from the place where he found Harris. When he got where Harris was lying on the grass, he (Harris) asked him to help him home. He assisted him to walk a short distance and then on Harris's request got a coach and went with the injured man to his home on Pine street. He went to the depot for the coach. Harris told him that two fellows came up behind him and hit him with a club or iron bar over the head and that he thought he knew who did it. The witness did not see any person striking away or noise of any kind and the only person he saw was the man he had pointed out to the coroner. It was quite dark at this point and Harris was lying about five feet away from an alleyway. He did not groan nor did he say anything about the plumb line.

To Juror Heane—"The place where I found him was between Taylor's and Adam McIntyre's at the head of what was known as 'gallows hill' and was on the right hand side of Rockland Road, about 11 o'clock or a little later, and when he got near McIntyre's he saw a man and he met him about 200 feet away from where he found Harris. It was very foggy and dark. He did not look up the alleyway."

Wm. Murphy.

The next witness was Wm. Murphy, who lives at 29 Somerset street. On the night of the inquest he was coming along Rockland Road about 11 o'clock or a little later, and when he got near McIntyre's he saw a man and he met him about 200 feet away from where he found Harris. It was very foggy and dark. He did not look up the alleyway."

Francis S. Walker.

Francis S. Walker, master plumber, was then called. He said Harris had been in his job on and off for four or five years. He had been in his job just about out of his time. During that time he had always found Harris sober and never knew him to drink. On the night he was injured he was doing a job himself. He did not know whether Harris was a member of the union or not. Harris had told him of being approached by the request of Coroner Kenney. He had seen Carlin talking to Harris, but did not know what the conversation was about. They did not seem to be arguing about anything. The men were asking for $4 per day and the closed shop. If he ran a closed shop he would not have been able to employ Harris. Harris had been working at the armories and on one occasion he had noticed six or eight of the striking plumbers at that vicinity and they did not have any conversation with Harris on that day. On another occasion he had seen two of the strikers board a car which Harris would board further down the street. To Juror Kemp—"Harris would have been a journeyman plumber in a short time. An apprentice was not always a helper."

To Mr. Sinclair—"It was on May 16th that he saw the man walking near the armories. Harris was in the drill hall and he went back so that the strikers would not have an opportunity to talk to Harris. At the time of the strike he had in his employ two journeymen and three apprentices. Hughes was an apprentice and did not go out until a week after the strike was declared. Mr. Taylor objected to this cross-examination claiming that it had nothing to do with the inquest and Mr. Sinclair desisted.

Dr. F. T. Dunlop.

Dr. F. T. Dunlop made a post mortem on the remains of Robert Harris at Fitzpatrick's undertaking rooms at the request of Coroner Kenney. He found a fracture of the skull near the base, wounds over the right eye, on the right eyelid, and a fracture of the bridge of the nose. The wound on the back of the head was about an inch and a quarter long, straight up and down and a little below the most prominent part of the head and extended downwards. The skull was fractured, on the right side of head he also found a collection of blood and traces of meningitis. He gave as the cause of death fracture of the skull, there was always hemorrhage but not always meningitis. In his opinion the blow on the head was the cause of death.

NEWS AND COMMENT FROM THE FINANCIAL

WELL STREET IS SCHEERFUL ONCE MORE

Strength Develops in All Directions Under Guidance of Equipments and Similar War Issues.

New York, June 23.—Opening at irregular prices on relatively small operations, today's short session soon developed strength in all directions under the guidance of equipments and similar war issues. The only notable exceptions were Shippings and Saxon Motors, the latter recording an extreme decline of eight points to 15 and rally little more than half way. Baldwin Locomotive was the strongest feature at a gross gain of 6 5/8 to 72 7/8, virtually all of which was retained. American Locomotive rose almost three points, and United States Steel rushed forward in the later dealings on free absorption of large individual blocks of 130 3/4, a gain of over two points.

Bethlehem Strong.

Bethlehem Steel, new shares. Crucible, Gulf States and Midvale Steels, as well as Great Northern Ore and Colorado Fuel and Iron, finished at advances of one to two and a half points. Coppers, oils, Industrial Alcohol and Maiting preferred embraced the other prominent and strong issues at variable gains. Rails were unusually quiet, some of the better known shares of that division falling at actual quotations. New York Central and Coaling registered slight advances. Southern Pacific made only indifferent response to the publication of the May report, which showed a net gain in excess of $2,000,000. Total sales amounted to $20,000,000.

Heavy Bond Demand.

Unusually heavy dealings in the Liberty bonds at par and a slight fraction helped to create a more favorable sentiment. News from Washington bearing upon the money situation and government contracts also was more reassuring. Improvement was observed in the leading quotations for foreign exchange. As a result of the foreign movements during the week actual excess bank reserves again contracted by over $1,000,000, the total excess declining to $41,872,500, or within a million dollars of minimum established in December, 1916. Liberty bonds were more active than at any time since their listing. Large blocks being traded in at a premium par to 100, 2.50. The general bond list was heavy. Total sales, par value, aggregated $3,200,000, of which the Liberty issue contributed over half. The various old United States bonds were lower by 1 to 3 per cent. on call during the week.

SAVE AND SERVE.

The public demand for a national form of war service open to all has been met by the government's thrift and saving campaign. Some can fight. Others can work on munitions. Others again can do farm work. Still others can do none of these things, but all—every man and woman in Canada can join in the great patriotic effort to serve by saving. It touches the whole life of the Dominion—industrial, commercial, financial, professional and domestic. Factories can save by the prevention of waste and the utilization of waste product. Business men can scrutinize every expenditure. Nothing should be bought that is not essential. Domestic economy should be rigidly observed in every household. Every dollar invested in War Savings Certificates is a dollar toward the cost of maintaining the Canadian divisions in the field. Every dollar so invested is a direct contribution to victory. Save your money and serve your country by giving it to the nation for war purposes.

GOOD BUYING OF SOME STOCKS ON DECLINES

Market Developments Suggest Continuance of Bull Trading Activity, with Specialties Features.

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.)
New York, June 23.—It is declared that unless the United States government acts and puts copper producing centers under control there will be a great scarcity of copper metal before the end of the current year. The demand for this metal after the war is expected in prominent metal circles to be so large as to keep all American producers busy for a year or two. In well informed steel circles the remark is made that steel prices are the highest on record, so "why should steel men worry," even if on a small percentage of the total output the corporations must supply the government steel at greatly reduced prices under the market figures. Allis Chalmers pfd. stock is attracting attention from some sources which have gone into the financial and physical condition of the property which they say is in excellent shape. The stock is held to be too low at current levels. "Progress in Washington appears to be disappointingly slow," says a prominent house, but it must be remembered that the task is large and the machinery must be prepared to carry it through. A well known stock exchange house says, "A real basis for improving prices is apparent, that is, active business and large supplies of money. It expresses the conviction that the prospects justify a confident optimistic outlook. For the present market developments suggest a continuance of a bull trading activity with specialties still displaying a tendency to rise. Good buying opportunities will be afforded on reactions in preferred issues but until the money affairs shall be further adjusted we think profits on recoveries ought not to be neglected."

STEEL AND EQUIPMENTS MAKE SLIGHT ADVANCES

Upward Movement in Motors Checked by Further Severe Break in Saxon—War News Mildly Favorable.

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.)
New York, June 23.—The market opened with varying price changes, the Steel and Equipment issues made fractional advances in the early trading, but the coppers and rails did little. An upward movement in the motors was checked by further severe break in Saxon Motors, but later the other stocks in this group broke away from that influence. In the last half hour there was a general forward movement of some proportions. U. S. Steel advanced above 130 1/2, and showing a gain over last night. The motor's news on the war and international affairs was regarded as mildly favorable. Perhaps a more positive influence was the May earnings statement of the Southern Pacific issued, showing extraordinary gains in both gross and net for the month. Washington despatches indicated that President Wilson would shortly effect a satisfactory settlement of the quabbling over ship building, and that the prices of government steel would be referred to the federal trade commission pending the appointment of a permanent purchasing board composed of technical experts. The volume of the trading was light and the attendance in commission houses small.

BUSINESS WAS QUIET ON MONTREAL EXCHANGE

Canadian Stocks Little Influenced by Strength in New Work Industrials—Third War Loan Weak.

Special to The Standard.
Montreal, June 23.—Canadian stocks were influenced to but a slight degree by the rise in industrial issues at New York today. The undertone of the market was good with fractional improvement in a few leaders like Steamship common, Iron, Scotia and Cement, but business was again quiet and the market lacked breadth. Iron took rank as the most active stock with turnover about 700 shares, on which the price rose 1/2 to 62 1/4, and closed at the best. Steamship common on purchases of about 400 shares improved 1/2 to 44 1/2, and also closed at the best. Next to these two Civic Power was the most active with only 200 shares and the price was unchanged at 76. Cement was quiet but 3/4 higher at 63, and Scotia after changing hands in odd lots at 95, closed at 95 1/4 bid against 98 on Friday. The rest of the business was quite featureless. Detroit, Stompton Paper, Canadian Car common, McDonald and Steel of Canada were unchanged from the preceding day. Liquidation continued in the third war loan, the price falling 1/4 to 83 1/2 on sales totalling $52,800.

THE MONEY RATE IN N. Y. RESTRAINING FACTOR

Stocks Still in Strong Hands—Large Interests Held Back from Purchasing.

New York, June 23.—The restraining influence throughout the week has been the money rate, with discrimination against industrials. This, combined with increased submarine sinkings and uncertainty in Russia, brought about a reaction in the early part of the week, from which the market partially recovered later on. There has prevailed throughout, an obstinate strength, but the anticipated effect of the payment of $360,000,000 on account of the Liberty Loan installment, due June 23rd, and the enormous dividend and interest payments coming on the first of July, act as a restraining obstacle to activity. Stocks are still in strong hands, but inducement to operate from a good profit is withheld while the percentage of taxation is undecided. Large interests seem averse to taking the risk of speculation when the added handicap exists, of a possibility of having to pay back to the government 40 to 50 per cent of profits, if any are realized while taking all the risks of loss.

"MONEY THAT GOES UP IN SMOKE"
 Every puff of smoke the engine sends up means money wasted in freight transportation. This expense is eliminated when we buy better goods for less money from our own home manufacturers.
 When we buy an article produced from another section we have the article and that section has our money. On the other hand, when we buy an article of domestic production this section has both the article and the money.
 Money spent for merchandise made in some other city is lost forever, as far as its value to this community is concerned.
 Spend your money at home with home merchants and home manufacturers where its value stays with you and helps build up your interests. Make the dollars you spend development dollars, building for you, your neighbors and your children, making our community more prosperous and more contented.
 Remember that in confining your purchases to products of home manufacture you eliminate the expense of freight charges, otherwise tacked on products of home manufacture you eliminate the expense of freight charges, otherwise tacked on the price of the article you buy.

BOTH MOTHER AND DAUGHTER
 Relieved From Pain and Suffering by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
 Brooklyn, N. Y.—"For three or four years I suffered a great deal of pain periodically, so I would have to lie down. My back would ache and I would feel very weak and miserable. I remembered how my mother had found relief from pain by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I decided to try it, and thanks to the Compound it helped me just as it did my mother, and I am free from pain, headaches and that general weakness that was so hard to bear. I am able to do my work during such times and am recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to my friends who suffer as I did."—Miss META TIEDEMANN, 1622 Jefferson Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.
 To know whether Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, just try it. For advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

YOUR LIVER IS THE BEST BEAUTY DOCTOR
 A dull, yellow, lifeless skin, or pimples and eruptions, are twin brothers to constipation. Bile, nature's own laxative, is getting into your blood instead of passing out of your system as it should. This is the treatment, in successful use for 50 years—one pill daily (more only when necessary).
Carter's Liver Pills
 Genuine Bears Signature
 Colorless faces often show the absence of iron in the blood. Carter's Iron Pills will help this condition.

Blood Food
 Right now is when you need a good blood medicine—to overcome impurities in the blood—to supply the elements that enrich the blood—to protect the system against the depressing effects of "spring fever".
 Mother Nature, the great physician, has provided this "blood food" in Herbina Bitters
 It is a simple and effective remedy, made from Nature's healing herbs—that was a favorite medicine in our grandfathers' time and is just as effective today. The best of spring tonic and blood purifier. 25c. a bottle, Family size, five times as large, $1. At most dealers or prepared on receipt of price.

 DO NOT MAKE THE RADISHES BLUSH BY STARING AT THEM
 Bulletin is issued by Rochester Bureau for Dissemination of Useful Gardening Information.
 (Rochester Post Express)
 The Rochester Bureau for the Dissemination of Useful Gardening Information has just issued a bulletin containing suggestions for over-enthusiastic gardeners of which a copy has been mailed to you. "Generally speaking, a bushy plant is about all that will be needed for a thirty-by-fifty plot of land. You have probably bought more plants this time we would suggest that see the excess of beans, peas, corn as food for the family and extra lettuce seed for the can. Pretty bags can be made by sewing a few pieces of material together. These will prove quite the thing this summer. DO NOT MAKE THE RADISHES BLUSH BY STARING AT THEM

Bulletin is issued by Rochester Bureau for Dissemination of Useful Gardening Information.

(Rochester Post Express)

The Rochester Bureau for the Dissemination of Useful Gardening Information has just issued a bulletin containing suggestions for over-enthusiastic gardeners of which a few are herewith quoted:

"Generally speaking, a bushel of seed is about all that will be needed for a thirty-by-forty plot of land. As you have probably bought more by this time we would suggest that you use the excess of beans, peas and corn as food for the family and the extra lettuce seed for the canary. Fruity bags can be made by sewing a nylon, cucumber, squash or pumpkin seeds together. These will probably be quite the thing this summer. Your extra carrot, turnip, onion and tomato seeds will keep till next year. You can have bins built in the attic to store them in. If it should happen that you have not bought your seeds yet we would suggest that a dollar's worth at the most will be plenty for your garden."

"If at this time, some of your seeds have begun to come up do not watch them too closely. It will be your tendency to stand over them all your spare time and watch them grow. But this is not good for the plants. It embarrasses the poor things, makes them nervous and is apt to cause them to forget whether they are pumpkin plants or not. Needless to say it would be embarrassing for you as well as for the vegetable itself if one of your corn plants should grow up like a pumpkin. Stranger things than that have happened. Don't annoy your young plants by staring at them."

"Another mistake sometimes made by over-enthusiastic gardeners is fussing around the plants too much. This, even more than staring at them, poves and discourages them. It is not a good plan to pull up the radishes to see how the bottoms are developing, even though you may put them back in very carefully. A radish has the right to become indignant after a few such disturbances and refuse to grow any root at all. Give your peas a week or so for the process of germination before you expect to see if they have smothered to death. They know more about sprouting than you do. And don't hill up a seedling as soon as it shows above the ground. It impresses the young thing with a false sense of its maturity and importance and it is likely to be careless thereafter about itself. Let your tenderly nurtured seedlings form the acquaintance of a few weeds; it will inculcate in their minds the proper spirit of democracy. If you find an aristocratic little spinach plant entwined in the arms of a low-brow dandelion, do not be too hard upon the dandelion. Remember they are both greens."

Miss Hegan Presents Cheque. While in New York recently Miss Edith Hegan was interviewed by a member of the firm of Harper Bros. Who's Who and What's What in the Picture World and on the Stage--Favorites and What They Say and Do.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Every performance in the Opera House was crowded with well pleased audiences on Saturday afternoon and night when this pleasing theatre presented another of its high class vaudeville programmes. There was not one idle moment; from the time the curtain went up at the opening of the show until it dropped on the last act. Every act was clean, artistic and new, and to say that every person was pleased is only putting it mildly.

Chapter-four of Gloria's Romance, with Billie Burke the star, proved more interesting than ever, was gripping with interest, and at the close of the episode left the audience wishing for more.

Roberts and Roden with their novelty singing and whistling feature presented a new act to the St. John theatre-goers. The young lady rendered a few catchy songs and had quite a new line of sayings which caught the crowd; while her partner in his whistling turns was a feature in itself.

Mary Donohue is called the "Irish Thrush." She is a pretty maiden with a rather good voice, with changes of costumes, and the professional manner in which she rendered her solos made a decided impression.

Mohr and Moffatt gave a pianole and singing novelty entitled "A Day With a Composer," which was decidedly artistic and entertaining. Both are very clever, the gentleman has a number of clever acts on the piano, and his songs caught the audience from the very start. They proved all new and catchy; while his partner, who has a good voice and who is an exceptionally neat dresser, completed a team of high class artists who were greeted with round after round of applause.

Davis and Stafford are two colored artists who made as big a hit as any couple that has yet appeared on the local stage and the audience by the numerous encores given appeared not to have had enough of them. Both were troubled with a cold, but they sang a good voice and who is an exceptionally neat dresser, completed a team of high class artists who were greeted with round after round of applause.

Very Rev. Dean and Mrs. Neales entertained at a delightful dinner on Monday evening. Among those present were His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Wood, Dr. and Mrs. King, Dr. and Mrs. Stetham, Mrs. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Dyart, Dr. Webster, Mr. Peck and others.

Changes in Toronto Office.

Important changes have taken place in a Toronto office in which many St. John theatre men will be interested. Mr. I. Soskins has been appointed general sales manager for the Famous Players' Film Co. Ltd. and will handle Artcraft and Paramount productions at the head office at Toronto. Mr. Soskins was in St. John for some time and made many friends here.

Mr. Phil Kaufman, formerly with the Famous Players' Film, has received the appointment of general sales manager for the Monarch Film Company, which handles Selznick and other "specials." Mr. Kaufman's many friends in St. John will be interested to hear of this appointment.

These changes are results of the reorganization of the Paramount and Artcraft concerns.

A. J. Mason Going To Wolfville. Mr. A. J. Mason, who for some years has been the chief electrician at the Imperial Theatre, is leaving St. John to be manager of the Opera House at Wolfville. Mr. Mason has a personal interest in the theatre and has many plans for new programmes and attractive stage settings.

The Opera House will feature Bluebird and Butterfly productions with serials. The new venture is wished much success by St. John friends. Mr. Mason will be much missed in musical circles.

ALICE FAIRWEATHER. In a battered old house with the ceiling all falling and a broken pane of glass here and there, lived a boy nine years old by the name of Bernard. With his mother and father and little sister Helen. The father had been a musician, but on account of an accident had to stay in bed. Bernard loved his home and parents. He ran errands and sold papers to pay their bills but still they got poorer and poorer. Although their house rent was small they were afraid they could not pay it.

One day Bernard heard the landlord say they would have to get out the next week. He decided to work all night selling papers, but was not very successful. As he was returning home a lady passing dropped her purse. Bernard picked it up. He thought it would be nice to have all the money in it, so he started home, but thinking it would not be home sweet home with money he did not own, ran back after the lady and gave it to her. She said "thank you" and went on, not giving him a single penny as reward. He could not help crying, so turning around he hid his face whilst standing near a shop window.

After a while not knowing a crowd was around he began to sing. How sweet home he picked it up. He heard him called him in the shop and asked about himself and his parents. She gave him more money than enough to pay the rent and said she would call the next day and see him. He went home telling his mother and father the good news.

When the lady arrived she gave them more money and asked the mother if she could train the boy's voice. He soon gained a reputation as a singer and was picked to earn sufficient to keep his much loved home together.

Mr. Culp referred to the present age as a fast age wherein the young man was rushing around trying to get all the enjoyment out of life in the briefest space of time. Some of the bad habits he touched upon were drinking, gambling, spending money recklessly, irregular habits, all tending to break down the health in young manhood. He gave as remedies good home and church surroundings, and the right instruction and supervision in early life.

DOUBLED UP EN'S BODY FOUND IN METRE VAULT NEAR HIS FATHER'S HOME

Corpse of Little Boy Located by Father in Four Feet of Water Saturday Night—Coroner Kenney Will Hold Inquest.

After searching all over the country for a week for little Ronald Totten, his body was found on Saturday night about ten o'clock by his father in a water metre vault within a hundred feet of his own door. Coroner Kenney was notified and gave permission to have the body removed. He visited the home yesterday morning and viewed the body and will empanel a jury this morning and hold an inquest into the death. He will also have an autopsy performed today to determine if possible the cause of death. Sunday afternoon, June 17 about half past two was the last time his parents saw the little fellow alive, and it is supposed that he went across the street and while looking down into the water in this metre vault fell in and was drowned. His loss was reported to the police and they with a number of citizens and the Boy Scouts searched the woods in the vicinity of Rockwood Park where he was reported to have been seen in company with a man who gave him some money to buy ice cream. A band of cyclists were also followed from St. Martins to Sussex by Rev. W. R. Robinson, and some of the residents of that village in an effort to locate the lost boy, as it had been rumored a white child was with the band. On Saturday night the father was in the house, and thinking of the metre vault across the street, decided to go over and look into it. He had already looked in it on two previous occasions, on the Sunday the child disappeared, and on the following Monday, but did not see anything. Saturday night he went to the place, taking an electric torch with him, and when he lifted two planks, which were loose, and flashed the light down on the water, he caught a reflection on something which looked like a buckle. He then got down on his hands and knees and reaching down pulled up the body of his boy. It was quite a shock to him but he carried the little form to the house and telephoned to police headquarters, and they notified the coroner, who was at replaced the planks, as he was afraid some of them might fall in. This was between five and half past five o'clock. On Saturday when the body was recovered there was between four and five feet of water in the vault, and the body was floating just under the surface. This vault surrounds a water metre for the St. John Hide Company, and is located in the street in front of their premises. Commissioner Witmore visited the scene of the accident yesterday. He was unable to account for the planks being loose, as none of the men of the department had been working at this place, and they would not have any occasion to remove the planks in any case. It looked as though some one had pried them loose as the planks were still straight.

ANOTHER MEMORIAL SERVICE

Impressive Service Last Night in Waterloo Street Church in Honor of Gunner John Ainsley Wheaton, Killed in Action.

Another memorial service took place last night in Waterloo street United Baptist church. This service was in honor of Gunner John Ainsley Wheaton, who was killed in action May 26. He was a member of the above church and though absent for years on railway construction work he annually contributed to his home church. He was a son of Mrs. Elizabeth and the late John Wheaton of 4 Elliot Row. A golden star has been placed against his name, as with others, who from this church have fallen for their country. The pastor, Rev. F. H. Wentworth, took for his text "And they loved not their lives unto the death," Rev. 12:11. In the course of his sermon he developed the thought: "I, that there are things dearer than life on earth. For these life is held cheap by those who have the right spirit. Some of these things are the welfare of one's nation; a noble character, Jesus had fulfilled the will of his Father for Him in thirty-three years of earthly life. "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." Sacrificial service at the cost of life is dearer than life itself. 2. There are things more to be dreaded than death, such as unfaithfulness to the Highest; a life of dishonor. Many a mother would rather that her son were dead on the field of battle than that he were living the life of a reprobate. Better is it to die than to live a life of greed, profiting at the cost of others lives. John A. Wheaton turned from lawful gain and fair prospects that he might serve his country and his King. Death is not the "flick of terrors" to the Christian, rather is death a "falling to sleep," and the introduction to a fuller and more glorious life and service. 3. God gives first place to sacrificial lives. Jesus said: "He that loseth his life for My sake shall find it." Those who come out of great tribulation are arrayed in white. "The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church." Sacrificial lives quicken our consciences; awaken us to the value of the heroic; draw us to the cross of the Christ who suffered for the world, and open to us new inheritances. John A. Wheaton first gave himself to Christ, and then responded to every clear call of duty; he first being that across the seas, where brave and noble men are laying down their lives for righteousness, liberty and peace. The lines of Rupert Brook, the brilliant young poet, who lost his life at the front, closed the sermon: These laid the world away; poured out the red Sweet wine of youth; gave up the years to be Of work and joy, and that unhopéd serene. That men call age; and those who would have been, Their sons, they gave their immortal life. Blow bugles, blow; they brought us, for our dearth, Holiness, lacked so long, and love and Honor has come back, as a king, to earth. And paid his subjects with a royal wage; And nobleness walks in our ways again; And we have come into our heritage. Boy Scouts and Girl Guides assisted with flags, as in previous services of the same nature. And seven soldiers stood at attention with the pastor on the platform, while Sgt. Burr Yarwood sounded the "Last Post." The choir followed with a verse of "Nearer My God to Thee," and the whole congregation joined in the National Anthem. A pleasing feature of the service was the presentation of a fountain pen and nicely bound pocket Testament to Sgt. Burr Yarwood, by the pastor, in the name of the church, for his kindness in assisting at several memorial services. Many friends and relatives of the late Gunner J. A. Wheaton were present at the service. Fifteen Deaths. Fifteen deaths for last week are reported by the secretary of the Board of Health as follows: Tuberculosis, five; senility, two; pneumonia, two; emphysema, mal-assimilation, general paresis, mitral disease, multiple neuritis, broncho-pneumonia, one each.

THE MISSION CHURCH HAS FESTIVAL

Rev. J. S. Brewer of Quebec Diocese Preacher at Two Services Yesterday—Bequest from Lay Reader Who Fell in Battle. Large congregations yesterday attended the Mission Church of St. John the Baptist, Paradise Row, which observed its dedication and patronal festival and the feast of St. John the Baptist. There were two celebrations of the Holy Eucharist at 7 and 8 a.m. and at 10.15, a high celebration of the Holy Eucharist at 11. Children's service at 2.45 and solemn evensong at 7 p.m. The priest in charge, Rev. J. V. Young, officiated at most of the services. The preacher at the 11 o'clock and evening services was Rev. J. S. Brewer of the diocese of Quebec, who spoke in St. John for the first time on Saturday which was a quiet day for the parishioners. Father Brewer is a clear and forcible extempore speaker and his talks and sermons were all practical and helpful. At solemn evensong last night he preached from the text contained in verses 38, 39, 40, 41 and 42 of the tenth chapter of St. Luke's gospel telling of the two forms of service performed by Mary and Martha for the Lord. Fr. Brewer contrasted the service of each, that of Martha of good works and that of Mary as a service of contemplation and adoration. The ideal service was that of both combined, although he considered that of Mary the greater of the two. He deplored the selfish life in religion which so many fall into. The preacher said that although he never before had been in New Brunswick he could assure the congregation of the Church of St. John the Baptist that it was one of much influence throughout Canada. He advocated the full practice of the Catholic faith and condemned what he termed the moderation and system of compromise which existed in the English church in Canada. Speaking of the soldiers who are fighting the Empire's battles he said that active work in their behalf was not sufficient. He added that when they return there should be such a religious atmosphere in the family life that the men would be impressed for the present war has been one to impress most men with serious thoughts. The Mission church has recently become the recipient of a legacy of one hundred pounds in the will of the late Corporal A. W. Whitehead, listed for six months as missing at the front and now deceased officially to be dead. Corporal Whitehead was a branch of the National Drug and Chemical Company, and is making a holiday trip to the Maritime Provinces accompanied by Mrs. Martin.

JAMES COLLINS OF ST. JOHN WAS INJURED IN MONTREAL

Run Over in the C. P. R. Yards on Friday Night—Reports from Notre Dame Hospital Early this Morning to Effect that Injuries Will Prove Fatal. Mrs. John Campbell, of St. James street, West St. John, received a telegram on Saturday morning stating that her grandson James Collins, a C. P. R. checker, had been run over by a shunting engine in the C. P. R. freight yards in Montreal and had suffered the loss of his left leg and had a fracture of the spine. The accident happened on Friday night. Collins, who is 22 years of age, had stepped out of the way of a freight train not noticing the light engine which was approaching on the other track. A despatch received at early hour this morning from Montreal says that it is reported at Notre Dame hospital that the condition of James Collins remains the same, and indications are that his injuries will prove fatal.

PROSPECTS ARE GOOD FOR THE WESTERN CROP

Month of May Ideal for Seeding—Weather Good for Growing Crops—Wheat Acreage About Same as Last Year. Prospects for a good crop in Saskatchewan this year are excellent up to the present time, was the statement made to a Standard representative by Robert Martin of Regina. The month of May was ideal for seeding and the weather since that time has been good for the growing crops and the warm spell made the grain germinate very rapidly. The acreage to wheat this year will be about the same as last year, perhaps a little less, but not much, while a much larger acreage has been put into oats and flax. Business conditions generally are good. The west has recovered from the slump caused by over speculation and conditions are now normal. The farmers are prosperous due to the high prices received for last year's crop, and when the farmers have the money they put it into circulation and that helps out in other lines. Mr. Martin is manager of the Canada Drug and Book Company, a retail branch of the National Drug and Chemical Company, and is making a holiday trip to the Maritime Provinces accompanied by Mrs. Martin.
