Dense Russian Columns in General Retreat, Setting Fire to Villages.

Petrograd, Sept. 3.—The Russians have abandoned Riga, the war office announces. The statement says an order has been given for the abandonment of the Riga region on account of the threatening situation.

Petrograd Probably Next. Washington, Sept. 3.—Abandonment of Riga in the face of the new German drive into Russia and even the evacuation of Petrograd itself, have been forecasted as possibilities in confidential advice to the American government during the last two weeks. Such a development is not regarded with so much alarm as might be supposed. With Riga abandoned and German occupation of Petrograd in prospect, the seat of the Russian provisional government undoubtedly will be moved to Moscow. Much as they may regret seeing the Russian capital occupied by a German army, the forward thinking men of Russia, working to set up a government, may regard it as a blessing in disguise.

Capital at Moscow. There are many advantages in moving the Russian capital to Moscow. It is the centre of the conservative group and commands the sentimental—almost religious—regard of the Russian populace as the ancient capital of the old empire, surrounded with traditions of Russia's greatness, the triumphs of Alexander, Catherine and Peter the Great. Furthermore some Russians of the new government are said to think that a German occupation of Riga and even Petrograd, might be a wholesome object lesson for the radical element which has been hampering the new government and that an experience under the military heel of Germany might convince them of the need of supporting the government as now constituted, to save their fatherland for Russia. As a military achievement, the capture of Riga and Petrograd amounts to almost nothing. With support of the German fleet in the Baltic, a German army can take Riga almost without an effort. Between Riga and Petrograd are many miles of swamp wastes, but admittedly the German army could traverse them, although not easily. (Continued on page 2)

Three Master Adam B. McKay Goes Into Water—Four Master to Be Built—Another Launching Sept. 8.

Special to The Standard. Parabero, N. S., Sept. 3.—The tern schooner Adam B. McKay was successfully launched this afternoon from the wharf of H. Elderkin & Co., Fort Greville, in the presence of a large number of spectators. The new vessel is owned by Adam B. McKay of Hamilton, Ontario, who with his wife was present at the launching. She was built under the supervision of the well known shipbuilder, Mr. Wagstaff. She will register about four hundred tons, is fitted with all the latest improvements and is highly classed. She will be commanded by Captain Butler of Halifax and will load in this vicinity for the United States. Her builders will immediately lay the keel for a large four-masted schooner to be launched this fall or early next year. The Port Greville branch of the Red Cross served refreshments for the visitors today and realized a handsome sum. On Saturday next Leander E. Graham will launch at Port Greville the tern schooner Khaki Lad, which was built for local parties, but was recently sold at a big price to parties in Newfoundland. Labor Day was very quiet here for a large part of the population was out of town.

AN ALLEGED DYNAMITER A SUICIDE

Joseph Leduc, Alias Hanfield, Kills Himself as He Was About to Be Taken.

EXCITING CHASE NEAR LACHUTE

Two Others Said to Be Members of Dynamite Band Hotly Pursued.

OPEN FIRE ON THE PURSUING POSSE

Dead Man Was Shot in Arm Before Turning Gun on Himself.

Montreal, Sept. 3.—Information reached here today that Joseph Leduc, alias Hanfield, alleged to be a principal in recent dynamite and other outrages, which have occurred in the vicinity of Montreal, shot and killed himself on Saturday when about to be captured in the neighborhood of Lachute, Que., about fifteen miles from Ottawa. Henri Monette, alias Girard, another alleged principal and J. A. Tremblay, also declared to be a dynamiter, according to this information, were this afternoon being pursued by a posse of special police from Lachute and were said to be headed toward the Laurentians.

THE CHASE BEGINS.

The story was to the effect that the police at Lachute were informed on Saturday by the authorities at St. Andrews that three men thought to be the auto bandits were on the way to Lachute. Mayor Lavigne of that city was requested to keep them under surveillance. Six special constables were sworn in. Early Saturday morning one of the special constables investigated when he saw an unknown automobile standing at a corner in front of a branch of the Molson's Bank, halting the occupants but the latter hurriedly drove away toward St. Casie. A posse was then sworn in by the mayor and followed the strangers in a high powered motor car, and just outside Lachute came upon three unknown pedestrians. When ordered to explain their presence there, two of the strangers fled across the fields, firing at the officers with their revolvers and the third man now declared to be Leduc, made off to the river which he attempted to swim. A bullet from the gun of a member of the posse hit him in the arm and he turned back and climbed the bank. When the posse was almost upon him a shot rang out and he was found on the point of expiring. He had put his revolver in his mouth and pulled the trigger.

TEUTONIC ARMY CAPTURES THE CITY OF RIGA

London, Sept. 3.—The evacuation of Riga by the Russians recalls the statement of General Korniloff, Commander-in-chief of the Russian armies at the Moscow conference: "If our army does not help us to hold the shore of the Gulf of Riga, the road to Petrograd will be open wide."

While few believe that the Germans will undertake to penetrate to the Russian capital over an inhospitable road, 350 miles in length through bleak territory almost impassable for armies nevertheless, the news is considered serious, for it shows that the Russian army is far from the recovery which has been so often predicted.

The abandonment of the city of Riga became necessary when through the instability of Russian regiments, the Germans were able to cross the Dvina River at Uxkull, thus threatening the road to Petrograd from the southwest, while another army advanced across the Tivul Marshes and along the shore of the Gulf of Riga toward the town. The penetration of the Russian positions at Uxkull is similarly likely to make necessary a rearrangement of a part of the remaining Russian lines. The abandonment of the Gulf gives to the Germans another necessary rearrangement of a part of the remaining Russian lines. The abandonment of the Gulf gives to the Germans another necessary rearrangement of a part of the remaining Russian lines.

Interesting Programme of Sporting Events and Parade at Stellarton.

Special to The Standard. New Glasgow, N. S., Sept. 3.—The Labor Day celebration at Stellarton attracted an enormous crowd and proved one of the most successful celebrations ever held in Pictou county. Early in the morning visitors began to arrive and at ten a.m. the different unions paraded the streets, which were crowded with sightseers. The immense procession with its canopy and decorated wagons was one of the best ever witnessed in Stellarton. Shortly after two p.m. the sports began and the different athletic events were keenly contested. In the wrestling match Roy McKay of Halifax was easily the victor. Roy proved himself an adept on the mat. The entire celebration was carried out without a hitch, it being one of the most orderly and successful Labor Day celebrations ever held in the county. Ideal weather conditions held the front lines to forty days each. The French now occupy the northern edge of the Hurkshles Plateau and hold all the observation points. The French infantry engaged in the victorious attack advanced with irresistible dash. The airman particular style.

VIOLENT COUNTER-ATTACK REPULSED

British Drive Back German Attack Near Havrin-court.

Teutons Attempt Vainly All Day to Dislodge French at Hurtebise.

Rome, Sept. 3.—Italian troops have fought their way further forward in the Brestoviazza Valley, in the district south of Gorizia, and repulsed a violent Austrian counter-attack on their new positions, the war office announced today. The text of the statement reads: "On the front, as a whole, the activity was mainly confined to artillery. The firing was more intense east of Gorizia and on the Carso Plateau.

"In the Brestoviazza Valley, after a very bitter struggle, we succeeded in capturing some prisoners. A violent counter-attack by the enemy was broken up by our fire.

"The number of prisoners captured on Sunday and Saturday on the Julian front was eight officers and 329 men.

"In recapturing the advanced position in the Zebra Valley, as reported yesterday, our Alpi captured one gun and three machine guns."

British Statement. London, Sept. 3.—"Early last night," says today's official statement on the Franco-Belgian front operations, "the enemy made his third attempt to capture our advanced posts southwest of Havrin-court. His attack, which was preceded by a heavy bombardment, was again repulsed.

"We carried out a successful raid yesterday, southeast of Monchyle-Preux. Our troops took the enemy completely by surprise and after destroying his dugouts and machine guns returned with 18 prisoners."

The official report from British Headquarters in France tonight reads: "A hostile raiding party which attempted to approach our lines early this morning southwest of La Bassee, was driven back by our fire before reaching our trenches. The enemy's artillery has shown considerable activity during the day north of Ypres.

"Last night our airplanes dropped over three tons of bombs on the enemy's airbases with good results. In the air fighting one German machine was brought down and one was driven down out of control. One of ours is missing."

French Statement. On the French Front in France, Sept. 3. (By the Associated Press)—All day today the Germans tried vainly to dislodge the French from the positions at Hurtebise captured on Friday night, but their incessant efforts resulted in only increasing their already heavy casualty lists. The French, who displayed such dash in their successful attack on this strong point, proved themselves equally the masters in its defense. They subjected the raiding vigorous bombardment while consolidating their gains and remain unshaken in morale by the thousands of shells which are continuing tonight to fall on the conquered terrain.

During the operation 300 Germans were captured, including seven officers. Eight machine guns also were taken. The prisoners declare the French artillery preparation reduced the effectiveness of the German companies holding the front lines to forty days each.

The French now occupy the northern edge of the Hurkshles Plateau and hold all the observation points. The French infantry engaged in the victorious attack advanced with irresistible dash. The airman particular style.

REFORMS ARE DEMANDED BY LABOR MEN

Parliamentary Committee Not in Favor of Conference at Stockholm.

Blackpool, Eng., Sept. 3.—The Trade Union Congress was opened today with record attendance of 700 delegates. John Hill of the Bootmakers' and Shipbuilders' Union, said in his opening address that something more than resolutions were required to obtain reforms and that worn-out methods and going cap in hand to ministers should be buried with the battle axes and bow and arrows of the England of the Plantagenets.

The congress received the report of the parliamentary committee regarding the Stockholm conference. The committee came to the conclusion that a conference at Stockholm at the present moment could not be successful and recommended that an attempt should be made to secure a general agreement among the working classes of the Allied nations as a fundamental condition of a successful international conference. WAS RAILROAD MAN KILLED?

Sensational Story Develops After Finding of Body of Railroad Man on N. T. R. Near Bantalar.

Special to The Standard. Moncton, Sept. 3.—A sensational story of suspected murder comes from Bantalar, about twenty miles above Chipman. Last Friday a man named Oliver Cassie, C. G. R. section man of Rogersville, was found cut to pieces on the track. The story goes that it was first taken for granted that Cassie had been killed by a train but investigation by a doctor tended to give rise to a suspicion of foul play.

From what can be learned Cassie had been sent to Bantalar to help repair the N. T. R. roadbed which had been torn up by a bad freight wreck Wednesday last. It was said the doctor's examination of the body after it had been found on the track showed marks of foul play.

FRANCHISE MEASURE TOMORROW

House of Commons Spends Practically Whole Day in Supply.

HON. FRANK OLIVER POSES AS CRITIC

Has Sharp Argument with the Minister of Finance Over G. T. P. Rails.

HOUSE RESUMES SUPPLY TODAY

Objection Made to Vote of $10,000 for Art Gallery.

Ottawa, Sept. 3.—The house spent practically the whole of Monday in supply. Topics waited from a loan of $1,500,000 to the Grand Trunk Pacific to some homely remarks on Canadian art. Beyond a sharp argument between the Minister of Finance and Hon. Frank Oliver over the removal of G.T.P. rails in the west for use in France, the loan passed with little discussion. But votes for public works brought the supplementary estimates which the items had been included in view of a pending general election.

The Art Question. Mr. Murphy gave some stimulus to the debate with his views on art. It was a proposed vote of $10,000 to the National Gallery of Canada. He was against the vote, he said, if it was to encourage artists to paint flower beds and orchards and Hon. Frank Oliver amused the house with the suggestion that artists should be given a pension on the basis of total disablement—"providing they paint no more pictures during the war. Mr. Oliver was specially critical of an artist whose paintings of war scenes were on view—"Is he still at large?" Mr. Oliver asked.

The house again takes up supply on Tuesday. It is expected that the franchise bill will be brought down Wednesday.

Mr. Kyte asked if it was the intention of the government to amend the military service act so as to provide for the exemption of those engaged in agriculture or other work in providing material for the war.

In reply Sir Robert Borden said that it was believed that the military service act was adequate arrangement for the retention of all persons necessarily required for agriculture and other essential industries.

Mail Clerks Appointed. Dr. Edwards asked if it were correct that the places of from twenty-five to thirty English-speaking mail clerks in Ontario who had enlisted had been filled by French-Canadians.

Hon. Mr. Doherty replied: "No. Only one French-Canadian has been employed in Ontario to replace mail clerks who have enlisted and he has been discharged as medically unfit."

In reply to Mr. DeLisle, Sir Edward Kemp said that Col. Langton, deputy inspector general, had, at the beginning of the year, made an investigation concerning matters of pay, canteen and regimental funds of the 167th Battalion. "This investigation," said Sir Edward, "disclosed grave irregularities. The matter was accordingly referred to the department of justice in order that it might take the necessary action." The investigation was asked for by the officer commanding the 167th and also by the pay department and branch of the inspector general.

Wants Potatoes Free. Mr. Frank Carvell suggested that potatoes should be treated in the same way as wheat in regard to being placed on the free list. The idea, he said, was to give the Canadian farmer a chance of selling his potatoes in the United States market.

Sir Robert Borden promised consideration and an early announcement. Hon. J. D. Hazen informed A. K. McLean that the patrol service on the coast of Nova Scotia was partly Canadian and partly Imperial. There was mixed control.

THE CITY OF RIGA ABANDONED TO THE GERMANS

CHIEF OF POLICE D. W. SIMPSON REPLIES TO RECENT CRITICISM

Scores Lawyer Who Criticized Police in Address to Jury in the Harris Murder Case.

To the Editor of The Standard:

Sir,—Who is this eminent "modern Daniel" who comes forward with severe judgment upon the police department in terms and expressions of wrath and unbounded vehemence for their human short-comings? In some of the largest cities less than 50 per cent. of crimes committed are detected, notwithstanding the amount paid for the brainiest men to be found as detectives.

The police are entrusted with the guardianship of the lives and property of law-abiding citizens, yet probably no one of our "modern" critics secretly more sincerely than the police themselves the imperfections in their service and guardianship, or the occasional delays in the detection and capture of fugitives from justice. But, perhaps, even our critics might find that they too were human and liable to err if they were entrusted with the charge of guarding society instead of the congenial task of scoring its defenders for their so-called short-comings. And if we, the police, should become critics by such a miracle of transformation, we may humbly trust that our former opponents would dispose of us to be more patient than acid if a criminal should occasionally elude the new police officers, even should one of these be the eminent counsel himself. Yes, even he whose marvelous intelligence prompted him to say in his address to the jury before the supreme court—"A brick has been put in evidence; where are the finger print photographs?" Just imagine such a statement issuing from the mouth of such an eminent counsel.

How could fingerprints be photographed on the rough surface of an ordinary brick? If this modern prophet was properly quoted what wonderful results could be achieved through his advanced ideas of the fingerprint system. Well in this wild expression we may well forgive him. It is lack of knowledge, and not one essential "brilliance" which harboured in his weak mind such illusions. Then this same "modern Daniel" strongly criticized the police for not effecting his case on a "theory" was advanced. It emanated from headquarters, and was that Harry Williams had committed suicide. The Chief of Police was quoted as saying the revolver in this: The Chief of Police never made any statement, that a friend of Harry Williams had taken the revolver, neither to the press or anyone else. It is the issue of such unfounded lies thrown broadcast that tends to lessen the cordial co-operation of the good citizens and reflects on the vigilance of the police.

No one regrets more than the Chief of Police and the men working on the case that facts sufficient to clear the matter up are wanting. The police have been continuously on the case, and although we have new evidence to establish what may lead to the clearing up of the mystery, we have not sufficient to establish whether it was a murder or suicide.

Where no clue is left upon which to begin investigation as to the arrest of some fugitive it is not always possible to get the perpetrators of crime immediately if it has been committed. The police would welcome such evidence from any one, even this "Daniel" who considers himself endowed with such powers of deduction as to solve a mystery through the sensational headlines, etc., of the public press. That no fugitive has been arrested for the crime is no doubt also a matter of deep concern to our critic as well as to the police, but not because the sympathetic paragon of justice and honor. Oh no, it is safety first that this Daniel for he gets the lion's share. These remunerative cases have been rare until last recently, and fees for imaginary expert legal knowledge have now high, the recipient no doubt having discovered that agitators advertise themselves to good advantage. But agitators are grumblers, and the very people for whom they agitate are the first to leer at them when the agitation collapses. To be sure the agitator gains prominence for a time, but in due course it will surely tell against him. It takes a man all his time to mind his own business.

Chief of Police.

Pte. Myer Levine.

Mrs. Ethel Levine, 39 Lombard street has received a telegram from Ottawa stating that her son Pte. Myer Levine is officially reported dangerously ill, condition unchanged. He has been admitted to Royal Victoria Hospital August 23, suffering from gunshot wound in the left leg. Pte. Levine left here a year ago with the 140th.

Pte. N. L. Bourne.

That Pte. Norman Leavitt Bourne, son of T. Percy Bourne, of this city, has been reported wounded on August 17, was the information received by his father in a telegram from Ottawa. No particulars are given. Pte. Norman L. Bourne is the younger of two sons, both at the front, and is nineteen years of age. He went overseas with the 15th, and was later transferred to a well known New Brunswick unit at the front. He has been five months in the trenches. His brother is older than he, and has been six months fighting in the cause of king and empire.

Gunner John Morrison.

Atkinson Morrison, of 100 Leinster street, has received a telegram from Ottawa that his son, Gunner John Morrison, of the artillery has been gassed while in action on the French front. Particulars are given and further word expected soon. This is the second time that Gunner Morrison has appeared in the casualty list. He went overseas with the 15th, and has been in the trenches for nearly two years. He is a nephew of Harold Climo of this city.

Flying a Great Game.

Lieut. C. Herman McNeil, formerly of River Bourgeois, Richmond Co., N. S., a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McNeil, of that place, who went overseas with the 22nd Battalion from the West a year ago, has joined the Royal Flying Corps, and in a letter home, written this evening, when at a camp in England, he tells of his first experience in the air. (Hendon) yesterday about 2 p.m., was up this morning after four o'clock and did two flights of twenty minutes each eight miles. This evening about eight o'clock, I was up again for over forty minutes. It certainly is the greatest game yet. When coming home from the air now and although I have been here only a day I have done over one hour's flying. The view from up in the air is something map-making. This morning I was up in the clouds actually and the spectacle the sun makes shining on a cloud bank is gorgeous. When up this evening we could see clear over London, which of course, is not far south of here."

Pte. Cove.

A telegram received recently conveyed news that Sgt. Reece Cove, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cove, of Westmorland Point, was seriously ill and wounded. Private Cove went overseas with the 14th Battalion as a sergeant and took part in the famous fight at Vimy Ridge.

Kings Cove Soldiers.

Patrick McLaughlin, Hampton, has learned that his son, Daniel McLaughlin, who went overseas with the 140th Battalion, had been killed in action in France.

Mrs. Foley, Hampton, recently received a telegram informing her that her husband, Sgt. G. G. Foley, had been wounded. Sgt. Foley was awarded the D. C. M. and promoted to sergeant-major for conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty.

Crawford Bailey, brother of Mrs. Foley, is also mentioned in the casualty list, having been admitted to a

YARMOUTH OBSERVES HOLIDAY

Three Parades and Sporting Events—Thousands of Visitors in Town.

Special to The Standard.

Yarmouth, N. S., Sept. 3.—Labor Day was generally observed here as a holiday and for the first time in the history of Yarmouth was celebrated in good style. The celebration took the form of a firemen's tournament, the various companies of the town competing for the trophy offered by H. A. Carey of New York. Up to shortly after nine o'clock a dense fog prevailed but after that the weather cleared and the day was glorious.

The processions in the morning were perhaps a little disappointing, not many taking part as expected. The usual custom here is to have all the features in one procession but this time this was departed from and the morning parade was held in the afternoon. The weather was all that could be desired by the large crowds who spent the holiday out of the city and in town. There was a band at Seaside Park during the afternoon and evening. Sports were held during the afternoon, and there was a programme of fireworks last night. Thousands of people enjoyed the day at this resort.

Owing to the fact that quite a number of the racing horses were out of the province there were not enough entries to fill the A and B classes at Mooseville Park yesterday afternoon, and the meet was declared off.

Special excursions on the river carried hundreds of people who enjoyed the beautiful day as well as the day in the country. The trains were crowded to capacity with people going to and from the country, while every

Riga had a population of 283,000. It is situated on the Gulf of Riga and is approximately 200 miles from Petrograd.

In the cathedral at Riga is what is said to be the largest organ in the world.

The Russian Statement.

Petrograd, Sept. 3.—The text of the Russian official statement today is as follows: "On the left bank of the River Dvina to the west of Riga, our troops, towards the morning of Sunday, retired to the line of Bieldring-shof, Madras and Dabulis, chiefly on the direction of Uxkull, on the north bank of the Dvina, in the course of Saturday and Sunday, the Germans conducted stubborn attacks, chiefly on the Shtal-Melmuger-Skripio-Lausin and the confluence of the River Oger. Towards Sunday evening they succeeded in penetrating our positions on the River Jaugul in the region of Melmuger and Skripio.

"Some of the detachments voluntarily left their positions and are retreating to the north. Efforts to restore the position by counter-attacks gave no definite result. In view of the threatening situation created in the Riga region, the order has been given for the abandonment of this region."

The German Statement.

Berlin, Aug. 31.—(Via London)—Today's official report from the eastern front says that the German troops are making progress in accordance with the plan mapped out.

The announcement follows: "Army group Prince Leopold: After careful preparation, German divisions on Sunday morning crossed the Dvina on both sides of Uxkulla. The infantry crossing was preceded by a heavy bombardment by artillery and machine-guns. A footing was gained on the northern bank of the river, after a short fight. Where the Russians offered resistance they were driven back by vigorous attacks. The movements of our troops are in progress and proceeding according to our plans.

"The enemy gave up his positions west of the Dvina owing to our advances. Our divisions are moving forward there also, while fighting with the Russian rear guard. Dense columns of every kind are making their way hastily in a northeasterly direction along the roads leading out of Riga. Burning villages and farms mark the routes taken by the retreating west wing of the Twelfth Russian army."

TOP COATS

for cool evenings and on your vacation. All the well dressed men are wearing them.

September days are, as a rule warm, but an evening comes on you feel the need of a top coat. Then there's most of October—not cold enough for the heavy overcoat, but with the October wind blowing you'll want one of lighter weight—just heavy enough to feel comfortable.

Our ready-for-service overcoats are stylish, well fitting and of best quality in every grade.

The conservative fly front or Chesterfield, in grays and black, $15 to $30. The slip on and pinch back in grays and fancy mixtures, $12.50 to $28.

And don't overlook the fact that thousands of the best dressers in Canada are wearing Ready-for-Service Overcoats.

motor boat that was in commission, carried large numbers to the different resorts along the river.

The Great War Veterans' fair in St. Andrew's rink was attended by very large crowds both afternoon and evening, while every theatre in the city reports good business.

As far as could be ascertained Labor Day passed without an accident, although it was reported last night that a lady was somewhat injured when an automobile collided with a team on the highway near South Bay.

Has Trench Fever.

A letter received last evening from Lieut. J. Edgar March, of the Fighting 26th, formerly City Editor of The Standard tells that he is again ill in England, this time suffering from an attack of trench fever. At the time of writing Lieut. March had progressed sufficiently to appear before a medical board and expected to be sent to a reserve battalion before returning to France.

VACATION IS ENDED. CITY SCHOOLS WILL BE RE-OPENED TODAY

Between 600 and 700 New Pupils—Several Changes in the Staffs—Bentley Street Building Not Yet Ready for Occupation.

Several thousand Saint John boys and girls will resume their studies at the city schools this morning after a vacation extending over a period of two months. The schools will be opened at nine o'clock and the routine of the year commenced.

Discussing the changes in the staff of the Standard last evening, Dr. H. S. Bridges, superintendent of city schools, said that six or seven teachers had resigned and their positions had been filled by new appointees.

Up till Saturday between 600 and 700 school permits had been issued, the major portion of the number being for grade one. The superintendent remarked that this number showed quite a substantial increase over the number of new students enrolled at the commencement of the school term in 1916. The pupils from Saint Joseph's School and St. Peter's (girls) school who were successful in passing the High School entrance examinations, will assemble at St. Vincent's High School, while the successful students from grade eight in the other city schools will assemble at the assembly hall at the High School on Union street.

During the vacation the various school buildings in the city were thoroughly cleaned and some needed improvements were made by the board in some of the buildings. The board found it impossible to open the new school building on Bentley street at the opening of the term. The contractors were unable to secure the necessary number of workmen to complete the building, and it has been decided that the pupils from Douglas Avenue will assemble at the old Bentley street school building for the present. The Bentley street school will be in readiness for occupation about the middle of October.

FRANCHISE MEASURE TOMORROW

Third reading was then given to the supply bill introduced on Friday covering additional estimates voted by the house to an amount exceeding fifty-five million dollars.

Goos into Supply.

The house then went into supply. There was some discussion on a vote of $91,600 for the bureau of industrial and scientific research. Sir George Foster, in explaining the measure, said that it was proposed to pick up students in various universities who are particularly adapted to investigation along certain lines. They would be allowed $600 for the first year and $750 the second year.

Explaining the organization of the Council of Industrial Research, the minister stated that Dr. McCallum, of Toronto University, who receives $10,000 per annum, is the only salaried member of the council.

Has Enough Problems.

Mr. Knowles of Moosejaw was disposed to criticize the vote. The people should not be taxed at the present time to provide money for the solution of academic problems.

Sir George Foster, in reply, said that the member for Moosejaw was not doing himself justice in putting forward such an argument. If he would do a little reading and thinking, he said, he would find that all countries are putting forth efforts along these very lines.

W. F. Nickle urged the necessity of the vote. He explained what Germany and the United States had done in the encouragement of applied science and illustrated some of the problems for solution in Canada.

Replying to Mr. Ross, Sir George Foster said that the commission was not a patronage department in any sense whatever. The secretary was paid and such assistance had been taken on as was necessary to do the work. "The bureau," he said, "is absolutely devoid of patronage."

"Then," remarked Dr. Huggley, "it is a very great exception."

"Well," retorted Sir George, "it must greatly surprise my honorable friend, taking into consideration the manner in which he carried out work when he was a minister."

The item carried.

When an item of $150,000 to cover cost of administration of the business war profits tax was taken up, Mr. Thomas White stated that he proposed to expand the present staff into a larger staff for the collection of the new income tax. The collection of the income tax would require a large staff. The item was carried and the house arose for recess.

STOMACH CRAMPS COLIC

These are very painful, and their attacks are often sudden, and sometimes fatal. The principal seat is in the stomach and bowels, producing severe twisting, cramping pain, and often accompanied by vomiting. If often are troubled in this way, there is only one remedy to cure you, and that is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It has a record of cures extending over 72 years, and we have yet to hear of a case where it has failed to either relieve or cure. Beware of imitations and substitutes sold by unscrupulous dealers for the sake of greater profits, as these no-name, non-reputation, worthless preparations may prove dangerous to your health.

Mrs. H. Miller, 725 Mark street, Fort William, Ont., writes: "Last summer my husband came home from work, and could hardly straighten up for cramps. The first thing I gave him was a dose of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and I hadn't repeated it very long until he was all right again. It is the only remedy I give my children in the summer for colic or cramps in the stomach. I have never been without it in the house for the last two or three years."

ENEMY LOSSES

Losses in Artois About Same Period—Geddy to Loosen Upon Defenses of Canadian Headquarters in France (London, Sept. 3.—(By Staff Canadian Press).—The German loss suffered doggedly to loose constructive grip of our men upon the defenses of the city, but as the pass the constriction increased instead of lessening. It is on the west front that the enemy most uneasily. On the south protected by the flooded area of Valley of Souchez and by the dians, because of their greater initiative, have a distinct edge and are making steady progress toward the heart of Lens.

Enemy Uses Gas.

The enemy has been using gas in the advance, but even in this warfare they are no longer so. This (Monday) morning, two drums of gas were projected into that part of the front which the German posts are numerous and the enemy has been quiet since. In the north, along St. Laurent sector, there is still tract of open ground between most southerly posts and the of Lens. From this direction the many signs of German activity, they maintain strong forces in trenches to meet any assault.

Attempted Raids.

On Sunday morning they tried to raid our line here, but did not even the outpost on either side. Another sign of German nervousness on the St. Laurent front is their sending up of star shells at night to light up the trench area, a placing of heavy artillery and machine gun batteries on our trenches whose proceeding is an excellent example of locking the stable door after the horse is stolen. Bright and splendid visibility today has the enemy artillery to shell the far behind the battle front, but are usually the chief sufferers these venomous bombardments today's experience, so far as there were only two victims, a school children and the other a day at home for several youngsters, who were dismissed from school. When the shelling began

MORALE IN WAR.

At the Moscow conference last week General Korniloff stated that the Russian troops were well armed, well maintained and well fed. Yet, according to last night's despatches these same troops have evacuated Riga and are fleeing like sheep before the advancing Teutons. Two years ago the same soldiers, half starved, indifferently armed and with scanty supply of ammunition, fought like tigers to check the Germans and met with wonderful success. The men are the same in both cases. The indifference is in the mind with which the men approach war. Two years ago these men were unreasoning soldiers; they knew, or thought they knew, what their business was and thought they were going through with it together to death or victory. They were willing to do whatever they were asked. That was morale. Possibly it was not a very highly intelligent spirit, but it existed and it made of famished, poorly armed and poorly supplied Russians, better soldiers than the Russians of today who do not know what morale means, or, at any rate, do not possess it.

Today the Russian soldier is not sure what his business is, is not sure that he and his comrades will go through that business together and is not particular whether they do or not. The individual soldier may be just as brave, just as courageous as two years ago, but he is not certain of his comrades, so why sacrifice himself when those next to him may scuttle away at the first sign of danger? In such a case it is unnatural if he decides to scuttle first feeling the futility of individual sacrifice unless every man in the army is determined to go through with the business no matter what the cost involved?

There is no discipline in the Russian army today, consequently there can be no morale, for morale is the advantage which discipline brings over confusion, which civilized troops have over savages, which soldiers have over mobs and which enthusiasts have over slacker. Discipline is the greatest factor in creating morale, but courage, enthusiasm, principle and intelligence may serve in its place. Superiority in discipline as well as in arms has rendered the white man successful against the superb physical courage of the Zulus, the Afghans and the Sudanese. Today it is making the highly trained German troops superior to the Russians, although in point of numbers and physical strength the Russians may have the advantage. Superior discipline and confidence is telling every time British and German troops meet on anything like equal terms. The British soldier is always victorious.

The Russians are not seriously handicapped by the lack of the physical equipment for war. The men are well armed, well maintained and well fed. In physical strength they are the equal of their enemies, but they lack the discipline, the morale. Until the Russian forces are reorganized from the top to the bottom, until they have confidence in their leaders, in themselves and in each other they will not be effective against the highly trained soldiers of the Kaiser. No fighting men in the world are superior to the Japanese in discipline and morale. A half million Japs on the eastern fighting line would stiffen the Russians and put a complete check to Teuton advances. It may yet be the mission of the yellow man to save his Caucasian brother in the East.

BORDEN'S SELF-SACRIFICE.

The country has had another exhibition of the self-sacrifice of her prime minister in his endeavor to serve Canada and the nations at large. Sir Robert Borden has offered to accede to the demand that he should make way for another, as premier, in order that union government might be effected. The demand came from the Liberals of Western Canada. The premier says he believes the demand was honestly and sincerely made, and he urged this as a reason why his resignation should be accepted by the Liberal-Conservative caucus before whom he necessarily presented the situation.

As to the sincerity of the Western Liberal agents, we may be permitted some doubt, in view of their course before the first Winnipeg convention in endorsing Laurier and a resolution from which the word "conscription" was expunged. It might further be said that the suggestion that Sir Robert stand aside smacks of insincerity. If Sir Robert was not convinced that the nation primarily requires him as the head of the Government, then no such doubt obtained among his followers, who unanimously refused to entertain the suggestion that he make way for another.

It is not surprising that the suggestion that Sir Robert stand aside smacks of insincerity.

Early treated. The country is at war and in such a time no man or organization can oppose the country's efforts. Those who speak or write in a way to hamper the operation of the Military Service Act render themselves liable to heavy penalties. Editors who offend may be imprisoned for five years and their publications suppressed. Severe punishment is provided for all others who attempt to interfere with the operation of the act. Such a clause in the measure is greatly needed for already there has been too much treason on the part of speakers and writers who, for political purposes alone, oppose the selective draft plan of filling the Canadian armies.

AN IMPROVED NEWS SERVICE FOR DOMINION

All Daily Newspapers in Canada Join Together in Movement Which Had Its Inception in St. John.

Last night for the first time in the history of the Dominion, all the daily papers in Canada were joined together by the organization of a really national news service. After several months of preparation, involving all kinds of detail, a leased wire service from Halifax to Victoria was inaugurated. This achievement is the outcome of a movement which had its inception in St. John some four or five years ago and which since that time has been working out its own transformation from a series of merely local organizations to this truly Canadian Press.

It has been found during the past few years that the existence of individual bodies created for the purpose of handling news has involved many weaknesses in editing and transmission. Realizing this the newspaper proprietors have come together and with the assistance of a fifty thousand dollar grant from the federal government they have taken a twenty four hour wire from coast to coast, have selected their own staff of editors and operators at all points, have hitched up with The Associated Press offices in New York and have appointed correspondents in practically every town and city in the Dominion. This wire, which will carry news selected especially for the district to be served, will furnish it, it is estimated, eighteen thousand words per day as a minimum. It will supply this world news to seventy four daily papers and a condensed service to forty three other dailies. The wire itself is six thousand two hundred miles, and of course there are in addition the two wires to New York as well as the cable and other connections arranged through The Associated Press. It is a Canadian service, organized by Canadians for Canadians.

MACEDONIAN CALLS.

"If support is now withheld, or even delayed, it means that additional burden will have to be borne by men already doing the seemingly impossible."—General Sir Arthur Currie.

"No draft has reached us from England for nearly a month. We hear that the fifth division is coming soon, but we cannot see how it is to be kept up except the conscription act is passed and put into force at once."—Lieut.-Col. G. W. Mesereau of New Brunswick.

While appeals like these are coming from the fighting lines young men in Canada, in civilian life, continue to live their customary lives and enjoy their usual pleasures. On the platform of a suburban railway station last evening, waiting for the train to bear them to the city, were several scores of young men and women. While they waited they sang the most popular number being heard, the war song "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall." A bystander, himself rejected for military service on account of physical unfitness, passed through the crowd of singers and later informed The Standard that of the young men who were so lustily engaged in saving the Empire by song and exhortation were at least two scores who would delight any recruiting sergeant in Canada. Some of the youths he knew and he is authorized for the statement that there were but few of these whose departure for war would bring hardship either to their homes or their employers. They had no dependents who would miss the bread and butter because they were in khaki, in business they were not indispensable. In short, they were just the type of care-free youths who have neglected the appeal of patriotism, but who will be the first to be called upon under the selective draft system.

That, after all, is the great feature in favor of the proposal for selective draft. It will gather in the physically fit, care-free young men whose contribution to the salvation of the Empire, up to the present time, has been chiefly vocal. While these young men, and thousands like them pour out their voices in patriotic song our heroes at the front who have been doing the things of which their friends at home love to sing are calling for assistance and without response.

AN END TO TREASON.

One feature of the Military Service Act which must appeal to all Canadians is the punishment it provides for men and newspapers which indulge in treasonable utterances. Under its terms there must be a speedy end to the sort of thing in which the Moncton Transcript and other sheets of that type have been indulging. In the United States members of the I. W. W. who spout treason are receiving but short shrift. Those who seek to impede and hamper the selective draft in this country should be severely treated.

Little Benny's Note Book.

THE DANGER OF "FAR SIGHT"

This defect is called Hypermetropia, and means not that one can see farther, but that the eye is adjusted to a point beyond the common one for close work. Instead of seeing best when a book is 12 or 18 inches from the eye it must be farther away.

"Far Sight" is especially common among school children, and is dangerous because of the severe eye strain it causes. Proper glasses will correct "far sight."

Have us examine your child's eyes now—before he settles down to the hard work of the new term.

KEEP THE BOYS AT SCHOOL, THE ADVICE OF REV. FR. DUKE

Cathedral Rector Points Out the Many Disadvantages Resulting from Early Leaving of School.

Large Number in Attendance Yesterday Afternoon and Evening—Pike and Concessions Good—Exhibition of War Souvenirs of Educational Value.

At the conclusion of the grand street parade, which signalled the commencement of the Great War Veterans' Monster Fair, the portals of St. Andrew's Rink were thrown open yesterday afternoon to the pleasure-hunting and fun-seeking citizens. The interior of the rink was a moving scene of enchantment. All was animation. The contagion of enjoyment, which enveloped the patrons during the early hours of the afternoon, spread like wildfire, and ere night hundreds were enveloped with an intoxicating effect of this joy epidemic.

For weeks those in charge of the carrying out of the undertaking have been busily engaged in their efforts to make the fair a success, and the first day augurs well for the attainment of their goal.

The street parade was the occasion of favorable comment, and the number of returned men who took part in the march, demonstrates clearly that the St. John branch of the U. V. A. is here to stay. Two bands rendering lively music at regular intervals, not only added greatly to the parade, but materially assisted in perfecting the march discipline of the battle-scarred men. The City Corps Band headed the parade, which moved off from the corner of Main street and Douglas avenue shortly after 1 o'clock. The Temple Band, which furnished the music yesterday afternoon was also in the parade. The members of the association, who are unable to walk without the use of the crutches, as well as those who have not the use of their limbs conveyed by automobiles, kindly loaned for the occasion.

At The Rink.

In addition to the regular pike, which is one of the best seen in the city for some time, there is an exhibition of a display of war souvenirs, which should be seen by every citizen who can possibly attend the fair. The display includes about 160 exhibits, ranging from a small ring made from the nose of a German shell, to the uniform taken from the body of a dead German. This uniform was worn yesterday by George Duplessi, who, accompanied by an escort, crossed the Atlantic in the early hours of the street. The uniform is the property of Major Johnson.

Acting in co-operation with the G. W. V. A. are the Trades and Labor Council, and the Young Women's Patriotic Association. Many of the attractive booths are graced with the presence of these energetic lady workers, who are fulfilling their pledge, "to show sympathy and interest in all returned soldiers."

A show at the rear of the rink is taken up by the minstrel staff, which drew large crowds last night. This branch of the fair was not ready for the afternoon. The boys of the 8th Field Ambulance Depot are responsible for this high class entertainment, which would do credit to professional actors.

The decorating scheme throughout the fair is a masterpiece of precision and of allied flags, adding a unique distinctiveness to the fair, at the same time, the arrangement of the booths of khaki which can be seen among the patrons.

There is an opportunity for every person entering the rink to secure the door prize, which will consist of one hundred pounds of sugar tonight.

Music is dispersed from the band stand erected in the centre of the building. This stand is artistically decorated.

The Many Booths.

Those participating in the fair yesterday expressed themselves as more than pleased with the first day. During the remainder of the week more life will be added to the different attractions, thus maintaining a spirit of freshness during the fair. The grand lottery prizes will not be awarded until the last day.

The following booths and concessions were operated as follows:

LIEUT. CHAS. BENNETT WILL COMMAND DRAFT OF LOCAL ARTILLERY

100 Men from the 9th Siege Battery Soon to Proceed Overseas — Lieutenants Likely to Revert to Sergeants' Rank to Accompany Draft.

Lieut. Charles Bennett will command the next draft to go overseas from the 9th Siege Battery. This announcement was made with evident satisfaction by the gunners who will comprise the draft. It is expected that about 100 will accompany Lieut. Bennett and that the departure will be made at an early date.

Lieut. Bennett was a well known engineer with the public works department of the Dominion Government in New Brunswick. He is a graduate of the St. John High School and of the University of New Brunswick. All the gunners of the battery are in a fit condition and are awaiting with eagerness their departure overseas. It is not expected that the men of the draft will be detained in England for any considerable time.

It is rumored at Partridge Island that at least one, and possibly two local lieutenants, who have been officers in the 9th, will revert to the rank of sergeant to enable them to place in the front in any reasonable enlistment. Every draft that has left the local station has given a good account of itself at the front. The present draft will be the first to leave St. John since the order providing for no further artillery drafts was rescinded by the war office a short time ago.

ST. JOHN LOST BOTH GAMES OF BASEBALL

Amherst and Vicinity Have General Celebration of Labor Day—Daughters of Empire Made Money.

Special to The Standard. Amherst, Sept. 3.—Amherst and vicinity observed Labor Day in good fashion. Three horse races at Springfield, a mammoth picnic at Sackville and a double-header baseball match between St. John and Amherst in the afternoon. Attractions in the nearby towns drew their full quota of Amherstians, but nevertheless two thousand people were in attendance at the games, which were staged under the auspices of the Tantramar Chapter, I. O. O. F.

Amherst took both games from the visitors, winning in the morning by the score of 16-10. Hillcoat and Baldwin officiated as battery for Amherst, while Dever, Milne, Doyle and O'Connor acted for the St. John team. Howard's catch in centre was the feature of the morning game.

In the afternoon Amherst won out 7-5, after a keen fight. Hanson and Dever did the mound work for the visitors, Hanson having sixteen strikeouts to his credit. Rattray and Hillcoat formed the Amherst battery. The Daughters of the Empire raised a large sum towards soldiers comforts.

Are you blaming your tires for faults that lie other-where? Have they done those things which they ought not to have done, and left undone those things which they ought to have done, in your opinion?

Look to your tubes! Too many motorists think "a tube is a tube. It is only to hold air."

That has been an expensive thought for thousands. A tube's single duty is to hold air, but it must perform that duty honestly, loyally, or the casing suffers.

For a poor tube causes slow leaks. Slow leaks cause under-inflation. Under-inflation ruins tires.

That is why Goodyear Tubes are laminated—a quality giving Goodyear process. By rolling the pure gum out into transparently thin sheets we are able to detect sand or other foreign matter. Then the perfected sheets are built up, layer on layer, into an extra thick, extra good tube that holds air longer and better, saving trouble and tire expense.

For added protection we vulcanize the valve patch in instead of sticking it on. So Goodyear Laminated Tubes give longer, more satisfactory tube service.

—and save tires. —and it is easy to say "Goodyears" when you buy tubes.

FEMIAN RAID LEADER DEAD

David Power Had Spectacular Career During the March of Irish Brigades into Canada.

Springfield, Mass., Sept. 3.—David Power, a prominent leader in the Fenian raid on Canada just after the civil war, was found dead in bed at the Franklin County Hospital in Greenfield, yesterday.

A generation ago David Power was one of the most active and best known Democrats of the State. He could make a good speech and he counted among his personal friends practically every prominent Democrat of the State and New England, besides being on intimate terms with many of the leading men of his party in other sections of the country. He was a member of the Legislature in 1870.

Mr. Power was 62 years old. He was born in Waterford, Ire., and came to America when he was "a broth of a boy," as he would say.

In the Fenian raid upon Canada, Mr. Power was the "head center," and in that capacity went to St. Albans to direct some of the plans of the Fenians to capture Canada as a means of intimidating England and compelling that country to free Ireland. Not long ago in an interview with a Globe man, Mr. Power recalled some of the incidents in connection with his Canadian trip. When the Fenian "army" was ordered out of Canada and shipped back to the United States by order of the President, Mr. Power gave a bond of $300,000 for the Fenians, but the United States government never asked him to make good on it.

FISHERMEN AND CONSCRIPTION. To the Editor of The Standard. Sir,—I see in your paper that the enforcement of the conscription law is not intended to remove any laborer from any important industry, especially farmers.

Now what about fishermen? Fishing, as everybody knows, is one of the most important industries of our country. There is a shortage of fish in Europe on account of the submarine warfare, as most of their fishing vessels have been converted into submarine chasers. This shortage to a great extent must be made up by Canadian fishermen, so anyone can see that the fisherman is needed on his job. His calling is a dangerous one, with lots of night work and for any green hand to go at fishing to make a success of it would be the same as a farmer going into a machine shop expecting to run the machinery.

Fish are as important an article of food as vegetables, so it is necessary that the skilled fisherman should be left in his boat or vessel to produce them.

ST. JOHN LOST BOTH GAMES OF BASEBALL

Amherst and Vicinity Have General Celebration of Labor Day—Daughters of Empire Made Money.

Special to The Standard. Amherst, Sept. 3.—Amherst and vicinity observed Labor Day in good fashion. Three horse races at Springfield, a mammoth picnic at Sackville and a double-header baseball match between St. John and Amherst in the afternoon. Attractions in the nearby towns drew their full quota of Amherstians, but nevertheless two thousand people were in attendance at the games, which were staged under the auspices of the Tantramar Chapter, I. O. O. F.

Amherst took both games from the visitors, winning in the morning by the score of 16-10. Hillcoat and Baldwin officiated as battery for Amherst, while Dever, Milne, Doyle and O'Connor acted for the St. John team. Howard's catch in centre was the feature of the morning game.

In the afternoon Amherst won out 7-5, after a keen fight. Hanson and Dever did the mound work for the visitors, Hanson having sixteen strikeouts to his credit. Rattray and Hillcoat formed the Amherst battery. The Daughters of the Empire raised a large sum towards soldiers comforts.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE REPORTS THAT ARE HELPFUL.

Quite recently the Clifton W. I. held a most successful old-fashioned tea in the hall and people from far and near gathered to partake of the establish-cakes, Aunt Betsy's gingerbread, grandma's cookies, tea, coffee. Down the centre of the hall, strung on rods, were one dozen or more quilts, all over one hundred years old.

had passed her eightieth year. She was busily engaged in spinning yarn on the old-fashioned spinning wheel and her only regret in being there was that the institute did not charge a fee to see her demonstration.

FAIR VALE FAIR IN AID OF RED CROSS.

A very successful fair was held on Labor Day on the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McQuade at Fair Vale in aid of the Red Cross. There was a large attendance of the residents of Fair Vale and vicinity as well as visitors from St. John and a very substantial sum was realized for the Red Cross. The net result was $190.

The following ladies were in charge of the different tables: Mrs. A. C. Wilson, convener of tea committee; Miss Campbell, candy table; Miss Annie Dobbin, Miss Henderson, domestic science table; Miss Alice Wilson, flower table; Mrs. John E. Wilson and Mrs. E. S. Carter presided at the prettily decorated tea table.

Several children had a grab bag which brought in good results, and all the ladies of Fair Vale gave assistance in various ways. A silk umbrella, donated by A. C. Wilson, brought in $43. It was won by Mrs. Thos. Bell. A hot water kettle, donated by Mrs. John E. Wilson, was won by Mrs. Smith, and a coffee pot, donated by George Bishop, was won by Miss Mooney, St. John.

Fair Vale Children Do Good Work. Fair Vale has the welfare of the Red Cross deeply at heart as is evidenced not only in the sewing and knitting, but also by the interest taken by the children. On Friday a number of children held a sale which realized $12.00, which they are giving to the Red Cross Society.

SYRUP FOR CANNING. (Published by request.) For the canning of sweet fruits: Five quarts of water to six pounds of sugar. Boil for five minutes. This makes syrup enough to fill one dozen quart jars.

For very sour fruit: Six quarts of water to nine pounds of sugar. Boil five minutes. This makes enough syrup to fill one dozen quart jars.

LUCK. "What do you think of the sutra-ettes who made all that trouble in Washington a few days ago?" "I'm just tickled to death to think that I'm not married to one of them."

PERSONALS. Miss Eileen Keane, of Winter street left on Saturday evening for Boston for a month's vacation. She will visit relatives. Dr. and Mrs. F. J. White and Miss Marion White, of Moncton, and Miss Jean Webster of Shediac are on an automobile trip along the St. John river, by way of this city.

The Death Report. The deaths reported by the Board of Health for the week ending Saturday, Sept. 1, total fifteen. Figure the Cost for yourself

DON'T be misled by the careless statement "Home preserving does not pay". Figure it out for yourself. Allowing six ounces of sugar to a can of peaches and adding the price of fruit and fuel you have less than half the cost of commercial canned peaches anywhere near the quality of your homemade product.

Use Lantic Sugar for PRESERVING

THE "FINE" Granulation dissolves at once giving you the full sweetening power of the sugar. The purity of Lantic insures a clear sparkling syrup. Lantic Sugar is pure cane juice, one of the most valuable and necessary foods in the diet list.

A book on Preserving, another on Cakes and Candies and another on Desserts will be sent free for a Red Ball Trademark cut from a Lantic bag or the top panel of a Lantic carton. This is the most complete collection of recipes for sweet dishes ever published. Send for it today.

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture World and on the Stage--Favorites and What They Say and Do.

THE OPERA HOUSE.

The headliner this week at the Opera House is John O'Malley, whose sweet tenor is heard in a wide range of songs. His first number was an English high class concert number, "The Trumpeter," and in this he takes some very high notes which are beautifully soft and clear. It is a dramatic song and will be appreciated by the truly musical.

Other good films were the Pathé Gazette, showing fine views of our King and Queen and some nice pictures of the Queen of Spain. The Gaumont world tour included travels in Holland, Majorca and Chartreuse.

UNIQUE. The Vulture of Skull Mountain. This is the fearsome title of the week at the Unique. It is full of suspense for this time it is "Dad" who gets in the clutches of the vulture of Skull Mountain, a most objectionable toothless person, who has a lovely maiden in duress in his cabin on the hillside. Mr. King is fastened to the side of the mountain just under a huge boulder, which like the sword of Damocles, is hanging over him by a single thread. Along comes, not "Ruth" but Madge and Larry, and after several fights, they ride down the mountain passes triumphant. It is some picture all right.

PEACE. Mrs. Vernon Castle, the Pathé star, finds that the fierce white light that beats upon the movies--if you are widely known, as she is, Director Crane of the Astra company has taken her and seventeen other players to the Adlon--places where many scenes are being taken for her next feature. Wherever Mrs. Castle goes on her picture making expeditions a throng of summer visitors are sure to go along. It is a strange coincidence that the very locations selected by Mr. Crane are, when known, the very spots where many picnic parties have been planned. "The solitude of the woods--huh, there's no such thing," says Mrs. Castle.

STRANGE THAT SHE DID NOT ACCEPT. Pearl White, the star of Pathé's "The Fatal Ring," receives many offers of marriage each week. The latest read as follows: "Dear madam I see you in the movies and I love you. I need a wife. I am a Lutheran 5 foot six ins. tall. I got a farm 160 acres and I make much money. Thousand dollars

IMPERIAL THEATRE. The Silent Master. Certainly The Silent Master is a picture out of the common and one that deserves great praise as to its presentation. Take the mere matter of effective exits and entrances of production is a lesson in that art alone.

The story is from E. Phillips Oppenheim's novel, "The Court of St. Simon," and was adapted for the screen by Leonce Perret, the director brought from France by Harry Rapf to produce the Warwick photoplays.

"The Silent Master" is a fascinating story of adventure which embraces the underworld of Paris life in the gay cafes of the French capital, and the fashionable circles of New York. The Marquis de Sombreuil, a man of great wealth, forms an alliance with the Apaches of Paris for the benevolent purpose of championing the poor and oppressed. Under the name of Valentin Simon, he presides over a mysterious Court of St. Simon, as it is known, where men who prey upon the weak in ways that the law cannot reach, are punished severely.

Valentin meets a young American, Eugene Arlen, who pretends to be bored by the gaieties of Paris, and in a moment of caprice takes him to the Court of St. Simon.

Eugene becomes involved with the Apaches against Valentin's advice and is imprisoned. The marquis goes to America and marries Eugene's sister, not knowing the relationship.

The adventures through which Valentin passes, and the manner in which the romance works out to the satisfaction of everyone concerned, combine to provide one of the most fascinating stories of the screen. Numerous remarkable settings were created for the production, including one showing a complete panorama of Paris. The subtitle scenes are remarkably fine.

Among the players supporting Mr. Warwick, are Miss Olive Tell, regarded by many as the most beautiful actress on the American stage; Miss Anna Little, a leading woman in many picture successes; Henri Valbel, from the Comedie Francaise and U'Odou; Donald Galaher, a popular American juvenile actor; George Clarke and Valentin Pett.

Mr. Warwick gives a splendid performance. Mention must be made of the orchestral effects, which were very impressive.

Other good films were the Pathé Gazette, showing fine views of our King and Queen and some nice pictures of the Queen of Spain. The Gaumont world tour included travels in Holland, Majorca and Chartreuse.

BEBE DANIELS. Bebe Daniels, who has important parts in Pathé's "Lute" comedies, is a Texas girl and has been on-stage and screen since she was a babe in arms.

After Vacation Peel Your Discolored Skin. Women returning from the seaside with browned, reddened or freckled complexions will be wise in immediately taking up the "mosaic" wax treatment. Weather-beaten skin had best come out for no amount of "beautifying" will ever make such skin pretty to look at. The "sawdust" safest, easiest way to shed the discolored cuticle is with the treatment suggested.

Put the wax on before retiring as you would cold cream, and rinse it off next morning with warm water. Minute particles of scurf skin will peel off day by day, gradually showing the healthy, youthful skin beneath.

One ounce of uncolored wax, obtainable at any drug store, is enough to make any discolored or spotted complexion clear, white and satiny soft. Its action is so gentle no harm is caused and the face shows no trace of its use.

AGITATORS IN MONTREAL ARRESTED

Elie Lalumiere Held on Charge of Having Attempted to Murder Lord Atholstan and Members of His Family.

Montreal, Sept. 2.—Elie Lalumiere, who is now held by the registrar of alien enemies, on a charge of having attempted to murder Lord and Lady Atholstan and their daughter, is not to be allowed his liberty now, even though he should want it. Yesterday Judge Monet dismissed the petition for a writ of habeas corpus asking for the release of Lalumiere on the grounds that Lalumiere had chosen to remain in the custody of the authorities. The prisoner's arrest was essential to support such a writ. His Lordship said, since Lalumiere was offered his liberty, however, a warrant has been issued and he is now being held on this warrant.

More Arrests. Although the authorities still preserve silence and profess to have no information to give out concerning their actions to anti-conscriptorials, it is learned from a thoroughly reliable source that seven more anti-conscriptorials have been placed behind the bars. The authorities are said to have complete information concerning the recent dynamite outrage and the number of their arrests are expected.

WASTED MONEY

The potential value of a dollar spent for home made goods far exceeds the 100 cents that you receive in merchandises and services. Indirectly you receive benefits that are priceless. In buying home made goods you not only get better merchandise for less money, you not only contribute to the greater prosperity of your city, but you get added dividends in the form of better living conditions, better improvements, better schools, better streets, etc.—and a prosperous city almost invariably means a prosperous individual.

Stolen Horse Still Lost. It was a week ago last Friday that a slick talking stranger hired a horse and carriage from Albert Kindred's livery stable in West St. John, since that time the whereabouts of the horse and rig has been lost to the owner. When asked about the horse last night Mr. Kindred said he sent out word all over the province for the different sheriffs to keep a watch out for the horse thief and the rig, and while he had learned that the man who stole the horse had made a clean get away into Maine, there have been no tidings received of the horse. Mr. Kindred describes the horse as a bay, weighing about pounds, sharp ears, Roman nose, low set, with the two front knees skinned. The carriage is rubber tired with a piano box. The owner states that if he does not receive word from the person who is harboring the horse and carriage in a few days he will take action against the person when found.

To Relieve Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parment's (double strength), and add to it 3/4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noise, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is as easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

AN ESCAPED GERMAN WAS DROWNED SUNDAY AT PHINNEY'S COVE, N. S.

With Companion Escaped from Amherst Internment Camp—Attempted to Cross Bay of Fundy When Boat Capsized—One Drowned, Other Surrendered.

A passenger who arrived on the steamer Empress from Digby yesterday afternoon, brings a story how one German, lost his life and a companion had a very narrow escape from the same fate on Sunday evening.

The two Germans were imprisoned in the internment camp at Amherst, N. S., and recently made their escape, stealing rides on freight trains and walking along the highway, but mostly through the woods, to escape detection, the two men arrived at a farm house at Phinney's Cove, Sunday morning last. Phinney's Cove is about eight miles from Bridgetown, N. S. One of the escaped prisoners was older than his companion, in their broken English they requested food which was given them, and after they had parloked of the repast, they walked towards the woods. As soon as they left the farm house it was thought by the farmer and family that the two men were none other than the two who were wanted in Amherst. The men must have secreted themselves in the woods all day for they were not seen again until evening.

Sunday evening they stole a boat from the shore and started on a voyage, intending to take a chance in the small craft to cross the Bay of Fundy for some point down along the New Brunswick coast, thinking that if they landed on this side of the bay they might better their chances for escape. The men set sail in the stolen boat but had only proceeded a short distance from the shore when a heavy squall caused their boat to capsize and the men were thrown into the water. The elder of the two was unable to swim and quickly sank to his death. The younger man managed to reach the shore and gave himself up to the constable of Bridgetown, also one of the guards from the internment camp at Amherst, who shortly after arrived on the scene. The prisoner who reached the shore was pretty well exhausted and was attended by a doctor. He has been taken back to Amherst and a search was being made yesterday for the body of his companion.

MILK OUTLOOK NOT PROMISING

Very Little Milk Arrived in City Yesterday—Impossible to Purchase it Over Counter—Customers Receive Half Supply—Mayor Hayes Expresses Opinion.

It looks as though the milk situation which has become a serious problem in these days of many problems, will be passed over to the federal authorities for investigation. In conversation with Mayor Hayes last evening he told The Standard that he was of the opinion that this would be the best way to have the matter settled once and for all. It is not within the jurisdiction of the Common Council to prosecute, but they have the power to investigate and if of the opinion that milk is the cause of exploitation, or if they are not of the opinion that the price asked is reasonable, and that it is exorbitant, they can forward the report to Ottawa to be acted upon by the authorities. Mayor Hayes said that the matter of increased prices in milk would probably come up for discussion today, in the meantime the supply of milk is practically held up by the farmers.

It was a matter of anxiety among certain citizens yesterday whether the hospitals and other similar institutions had received their regular supply of milk. The Standard got in communication with both the General Public Hospital and the Infirmary and was informed that they had received their regular supply. However, housekeepers and ice cream parlors were not so fortunate. One confectionery dealer told The Standard that he expends daily for milk and cream about $10, but yesterday he did not receive much credit on the milk and cream and a quarter on the milk and cream. It was impossible last night to purchase any milk over the counter. A passenger on the train yesterday said that very little milk was shipped on that train. At noon the Maritime train brought in a small supply which was a most welcome sight on arrival in the city. Those to suffer most during the week-end were invalids and babies. It is a simple matter for children and adults to give out milk, but such is not the case with the aforementioned parties.

It is understood that the dealers are willing to pay an advance of one cent and a quarter on a quart and only increase the price one cent, but they are general in their expression as to the increase asked by the farmers.

On Saturday in place of 1200 cans, only a third of that number arrived in the city, and yesterday this number of cans was decreased to almost nothing. Fortunately some of the householders get their supply from individuals and have no dealings at all with either the dealers or outside interests, but if the increase is granted, it is also likely that they will also be asked to pay the advanced price.

So serious is the situation that unless an adjustment is effected the city will be milk dry by tomorrow night. One dealer who received daily 120 cans of milk, has completely shut off. Another dealer in the North End who daily received eighty cans, was reduced to six cans the first day of the week. He did not receive a single can. Some dealers who are trying to assist their regular patrons are supplying the old customers first and in some cases they have been obliged to cut their supply in half. Others again have promised to deliver to their regular customers three days out of the week.

A Milk Producer's View.
Norton, Sept. 3, 1917.
To the Editor of The Standard.
Sir—According to Saturday's issue of The Standard the milk dealers of St. John are struggling hard to gain for themselves the sympathy of the consumers. Last fall when the farmers found it necessary to charge at least forty-five cents per eight quart can of milk, the dealers placed the retail price of delivered milk at ten cents per quart. They were completely sold out. Another dealer in the North End who daily received eighty cans, was reduced to six cans the first day of the week. He did not receive a single can. Some dealers who are trying to assist their regular patrons are supplying the old customers first and in some cases they have been obliged to cut their supply in half. Others again have promised to deliver to their regular customers three days out of the week.

We notice the suggestion, or rather a vague threat, that the food controller will be called upon to make an investigation. If this is meant as a threat, thinking to frighten some farmers into the shipping of their milk, make no mistake, the farmer will not be so frightened. We as farmers have at our hands circumstances, prices and figures wherewith to prove our case that the price of fifty-six cents per eight quart can of milk is rather under the actual cost of production under existing conditions. We farmers will readily welcome any investigation under a man or men capable of making such investigation.
Yours very truly,
W. H. HUGGARD,
Secretary Kings Co. Milk and Cream Producers' Association.

On Saturday in place of 1200 cans, only a third of that number arrived in the city, and yesterday this number of cans was decreased to almost nothing. Fortunately some of the householders get their supply from individuals and have no dealings at all with either the dealers or outside interests, but if the increase is granted, it is also likely that they will also be asked to pay the advanced price.

So serious is the situation that unless an adjustment is effected the city will be milk dry by tomorrow night. One dealer who received daily 120 cans of milk, has completely shut off. Another dealer in the North End who daily received eighty cans, was reduced to six cans the first day of the week. He did not receive a single can. Some dealers who are trying to assist their regular patrons are supplying the old customers first and in some cases they have been obliged to cut their supply in half. Others again have promised to deliver to their regular customers three days out of the week.

A Milk Producer's View.
Norton, Sept. 3, 1917.
To the Editor of The Standard.
Sir—According to Saturday's issue of The Standard the milk dealers of St. John are struggling hard to gain for themselves the sympathy of the consumers. Last fall when the farmers found it necessary to charge at least forty-five cents per eight quart can of milk, the dealers placed the retail price of delivered milk at ten cents per quart. They were completely sold out. Another dealer in the North End who daily received eighty cans, was reduced to six cans the first day of the week. He did not receive a single can. Some dealers who are trying to assist their regular patrons are supplying the old customers first and in some cases they have been obliged to cut their supply in half. Others again have promised to deliver to their regular customers three days out of the week.

We notice the suggestion, or rather a vague threat, that the food controller will be called upon to make an investigation. If this is meant as a threat, thinking to frighten some farmers into the shipping of their milk, make no mistake, the farmer will not be so frightened. We as farmers have at our hands circumstances, prices and figures wherewith to prove our case that the price of fifty-six cents per eight quart can of milk is rather under the actual cost of production under existing conditions. We farmers will readily welcome any investigation under a man or men capable of making such investigation.
Yours very truly,
W. H. HUGGARD,
Secretary Kings Co. Milk and Cream Producers' Association.

A COMPLETE CHANGE OF STYLE

COSTUMES
Many of the new Suits are cut in that straight line effect, adding slenderness to the figure. If the model is tailored, it usually has a small collar with revers like a man's coat. The two section jacket is regarded as good style, the very wide belt is frequently featured and is specially adapted to slight figures.

COATS
The three leading characteristics of the Fall Coats are the loose straight lines, the bells of various kinds, and the nice, big, comfortable collars that may be worn several ways and always look attractive. The large collar, usually cut square in the back is popular. When buttoned up around the neck it lies in soft folds or drapes.
