TAMMANY HEELER SAID TO HAVE CONFESSED

Eight More Indictments Monday for Election Frauds

Board of Aldermen Will Canvass Returns Today and Declare the Mayoralty Winner, Although Their Decision for McClellan is a Foregone Conclusion—Hearst's Real Fight Will Be in the Courts—Money Loans at 25 Per Cent in Wall Street, and Stock Market Crumbles Hegeman's Syndicate Profits.

From Our Own Correspondent. New York, Nov. 13.—The first stage in Hearst's fight for the mayoralty will be reached tomorrow when the aldermen sitting on boards of county canvassers will meet to begin the work of going over the vote preliminary to declaring the winner. Hearst's center in the courts necessarily awa to the decision of the canvassers, which, of course, will be that McClellan is elected.

The investigation into the charges of fraud is going on steadily. The grand jury today filed eight indictments for fraudulent voting. The more important indictments will come later, after very careful inquiry into the acts of Tammany election officers.

Something of a stir was made by a statement that a man named Krup, under arrest for illegal voting in Charley Murphy's district, had "blown" it was said that he had, under pressure, given full information regarding the men who hired him to vote illegally and that these men came near to Murphy.

Jerome's men kept Krup sweating ever since his arrest election day. It came to the Tammany leaders in some way that Krup was in danger of "blowing," and they made vigorous efforts to get at him. This morning application was made in the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus, all signs that Krup was held prisoner without having been committed by any court. As the writ was being used out, Krup was taken before Recorder Goff and committed on an indictment.

Attorney-General Mayer succeeded in getting a confession from another man who voted six times, implicating more or less prominent Tammany lights.

Murphy dodges pertinent questions. Charles F. Murphy appeared at Tammany headquarters this morning. It was his first visit there since the election. This interview followed:

"What do you think of the general result of the election?" "A—I do not care to discuss that phase of the situation at present."

"To what do you attribute the close vote?" "Excuse me from answering that question."

"Who is elected, McClellan or Hearst?" "A.—McClellan."

"What is the law committee doing in regard to the contest instituted by Hearst?" "A.—The law committee will represent the organization in everything and everywhere where the interests of the organization require it."

"What do you think of the Hearst-Odd combination on the aldermen by which they gain a working majority of the board?" "A.—I do not care to discuss that question."

"Have you seen Senator McCarren since the election?" "Murphy indulged in a broad smile, chuckled silently, and replied: "No, I haven't seen McCarren."

McCarren's downfall seems to be the only thing connected with the election that pleases Murphy.

240,000 GEORGIANS HOLD RUSSIAN SOLDIERS AT BAY

Armed With Modern Rifles They Defy the Caucasian Authorities—Banished Leader of Socialists Returns to St. Petersburg—Eight Hour Day to Be Insisted On—Jews Placated in Odessa—Agrarian Uprising Threatens Much Trouble for Witte.

London, Nov. 14.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Mail says that 240,000 Georgians, armed with modern rifles, hold Georgia (in Transcaucasia), despite the three important Russian forces converging thereon, and that, except for runners, Georgia has been completely isolated for many days.

Better Pay for Russian Soldiers. St. Petersburg, Nov. 13.—The Ruskoye Slovo prints a despatch from Warsaw depicting a conversation which Governor General Scaula had with a deputation of prominent Poles during which the governor general warned the deputation that he was prepared to deal with the situation should any agitation be communicated to the masses.

In addition to increasing the pay of the rank and file of the army, the war department has decided to reduce the term of service by one year. The present pay of the infantry is eleven cents per month and the cavalry fourteen cents per month.

On October 27th the Russian government murdered of the Jews and intelligence by the "Black Hundred" have not entirely disappeared although the strictest precautions have been taken against possible outbreaks. Two students were beaten to death last night, three horses were murdered at their doors and many domestic servants left their work anxious to return to their mistresses that labor was no longer necessary, as "now everybody was on an equality, having become citizens," and would receive government pensions.

Ossocks Out Down Children. The American Embassy has received an interesting report from the consular agent at Warsaw, concerning the events of the last ten days, and beginning with the tragedy at the town hall November 2. He thinks that there is a dozen American policemen who have dealt with the crowd on that occasion, but a squadron of Cossacks with drawn sabres charged on the unarmed police, cutting the people down with impunity, and the scene was a most ghastly one.

The Holy Spirit Hospital subsequently telegraphing to Count Witte, that among fifty-three persons treated were children, several of them being under eight years of age. The demonstration of November 3 consisted of a procession of Jews and Christians, carrying banners and numbering not less than 250,000 persons, representing all parties favorable to the reform.

To the magnitude of the enthusiasm was impressive, but was far more so to men who never before had seen openly displayed the flag of their country. The American consul at St. Petersburg, General Scaula, issued a proclamation declaring that the intelligent classes failed to appreciate the fact that the demonstration was a patriotic one, and announcing that any action would only result in a revolution and anarchy.

Consequently he forbade meetings in the streets, and also strict prohibitions against adding that and also strict prohibitions against adding that and also strict prohibitions against adding that.

On November 7, the National Democratic party, which is organizing the movement for autonomy, held a large meeting and summoned all the parties to join in the struggle for a separate parliament and a separate constitution for Poland, based on the principle of self-determination.

The American Consul at Warsaw adds that the Jewish population of that city are greatly frightened and have obtained large quantities of arms with which to resist. While there is mutual prejudice among the Jews and Christians, there is no evidence, the consul points out, of mutual hatred, though the Jewish merchants undoubtedly are obliged to contribute largely to the funds of the various parties.

Russian Peasants' Revolt Remitted. St. Petersburg, Nov. 13.—The council of the empire this afternoon decided to remit a portion of the land payments due next year by the peasants in the provinces affected by the famine. The peasants since the emancipation in 1861 have been paying instalments on lands allotted them. The council also decided to remit entirely the payments for 1906 due on land held by peasants killed during the war. The amount remitted totals $13,000,000.

Peasant Uprising Feared. St. Petersburg, Nov. 13.—Disquieting reports of the progress of the Agrarian disorders were received tonight. The military authorities are rushing troops and machine guns into the affected areas. Inhabitants of Karsk and Taganok are organizing for the protection of their respective towns. The village of Ial in the government of Saratoff, has been fired by peasants.

Soldiers' Revolt Remedies Grievances. Helsinki, Finland, Nov. 13.—A revolt broke out yesterday in the garrison of Sveaborg. Hundreds of the men claim they have been retained with the colors from two or three years beyond the legal period of service, and also complain of their conditions of life.

The mutineers refused to obey orders, expelled the civilians from the precincts of the fortress and in several of the barracks threw beds, chairs and kitchen apparatus out of the windows. They then opened negotiations with General Kisgareff and Governor Elyand, who promised to remedy their grievances, and to give them easier terms of service. There was no bloodshed.

Witte's New Cabinet in Session. St. Petersburg, Nov. 13.—The second session of Count Witte's new cabinet was held this afternoon. One of the matters under consideration was the project for placing the deal with the situation in the upper house of the national assembly, to a certain extent on an elective basis, which Count Witte insisted upon before accepting the premiership and which was one of the principal causes of the long delay in issuing the imperial manifesto of Oct. 30th.

BRITISH TARS GUESTS OF AMERICAN COUSINS

Twenty-five Hundred Ate Dinner at Coney Island Monday Night

Prince Louis and Other Notables Attended and Were Mightily Pleased at Their Reception "Blood is Thicker Than Water" Adorned the Menu Card—Special Steamers and Trains Carried the Crowd—His Highness Had a Busy Day.

New York, Nov. 13.—Prince Louis of Battenberg passed today in a fashion that would have tested the stamina of a political candidate engaged in a campaign of the whirlwind order, and stood the strain with a fortitude worthy of a British admiral. He began the round of entertainments with a reception at the chamber of commerce where he was greeted by a representative gathering of captains of commerce and finance.

After a brief breathing spell he was whirled down to Coney Island where he and the officers of his fleet, with Admiral Evans and other representatives of the navy attended a great banquet given by the blue jackets of the American warships to their British guests.

From the banquet a special train bore the prince and his suite back to New York in time to appear at the horse show where his entrance was the signal for a tumultuous welcome from a great assembly representative of the fashion and wealth not only of the metropolis, but of all the principal cities of the union.

From the horse show the prince proceeded to the Lambs Club where he was the central figure of a gambol attended by the most prominent Lambs of the United States, which was continued until the small hours of the morning.

"Blood is Thicker Than Water." "Blood is thicker than water." Written on the frontispiece of the menu cards this famous saying of the American Naval Officer Fitzmaurice found more impressive expression than it did tonight at the dinner on the Bowery at Coney Island which the enlisted men of the first squadron of the U. S. North Atlantic fleet gave to the enlisted men of the second squadron of his Britannic majesty's navy commanded by Rear Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg. It was the keynote of the chattering with which the 2,500 British and American sailors made the great pavilion ring to the echo. It was the toast to which they drank across the long tables which stretched down the great hall beneath the overhanging British and American flags. It was the theme of the speeches that followed or rather accompanied the cigars and the twelfth round of beers of this

Other witnesses today were John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life, and Vice-President Fiske, of the same company, who were interrogated along the line of agents salaries, legal expenses of the company, real estate holdings and the methods of acquiring properties, and the fact was brought out that the fire insurance firm that places all risks on the properties of the Metropolitan Life is managed by W. E. Edinger and A. B. Dutcher, the latter of whom is a director of the Metropolitan Life.

The low rate of interest at which Mr. Hegeman secured loans for the Socialists rebates of this interest that Mr. Hegeman received from the old firm of Vermilyea & Co., bank, interest at the rate of 4 per cent and received in the personal checks of various individual members of the firm which he had a rebate of this interest at the rate of 3 per cent. The statement covered a period from June 30, 1902, until last year. Mr. Hegeman's account was transferred to W. A. Reade & Co. on the dissolution of Vermilyea & Co., Mr. Reade was one of the partners in Vermilyea & Co.

The total amount of the rebates paid to Hegeman as shown by the statement he presented was $71,930. The statement of Mr. Hegeman's syndicate participations was being looked up, George T. Hollister, who was a member of Vermilyea & Co. until its dissolution last March, was called. He remembered making payments of rebates. He said the individual checks were sent to Mr. Hegeman because his firm did not want to get into the matter of a special rate of interest which was charged a special client. He said Mr. Hegeman was given a special rate because of the volume of business he did with the Vermilyea firm. Mr. Hegeman's personal running account was about $300,000.

George W. Holmer, bookkeeper and confidential clerk for McKay & Co., who were employed in the dissolution of Vermilyea & Co., was then examined. He described the system of remitting the rebates. He said the members of the Vermilyea firm also gave their individual checks to Mr. Hegeman were Mr. Hollister, George D. McKay and W. A. Reade. Mr. Hollister drew up the checks for these individuals to sign. The books do not show according to the items that the money was actually paid to Mr. Hegeman.

Mr. Hegeman then resumed the stand and the statement of his syndicate participations was read. It covered a period of ten years and witness said the syndicates had netted him about $48,000. This amount is exclusive of $16,000 he paid into the treasury of the company on June 30, 1903. This payment was made after consulting counsel, when the Equitable Assurance Co. was formed. He said that he had done anything wrong, but he did not want to have anyone feel that he was taking advantage of the company or his associates, with it.

Twelve Attorneys to Represent Him Today in Canvassing Election Returns.

Parker, at which were present twelve attorneys, all of whom have been retained to represent Mayor McClellan tomorrow when the board of county canvassers will meet to canvass the returns in the recent elections, it was decided to rely entirely on the existing election decisions and the law as it is recorded in the statutes.

Mr. Parker pointed out that there was only one question involved and that was covered by the decision of the courts of appeals which was written by him. He also said that it was a dangerous practice to open the ballot boxes and was not within the province of the law.

MARTIAL LAW FOR POLAND

FEARS FOR SUNDAY

Jews Appeal to Authorities in Vain to Protect Them from Another Massacre—Loyalists in Danger of Secret Society Called "Black Hundred"—Witte Cabinet Nearly Complete.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 11.—2:05 a. m.—Except in the Kingdom of Poland, where the rapidly growing nationalist movement and the state of war, Russia seems for the time being, at least, generally tranquil.

Telegram from interior points report the restoration of order in nearly all cities and towns, but in many cities, notably St. Petersburg and Moscow, the better classes of the population are greatly disturbed owing to the rumors of approaching attacks by the "Black Hundred," composed of the most ignorant types of the populace, which, according to these rumors, are scheduled to take place in St. Petersburg tonight and in Moscow tomorrow.

The apprehension in St. Petersburg has become so great that the prefect of police who succeeded General Treppoff in command of the city police, has instructed his subordinates to take the utmost measures to crush any disorder in its incipient stage so as to disabuse the minds of the "Loyalists" of the idea, that the police would remain inactive. In such an emergency the strong hand of General Treppoff is being missed even by the factions which most exorcised him.

Count Witte's cabinet may now be regarded as constituted as Count Lamsdorff, minister of foreign affairs and M. Mamshin, minister of justice, will represent the interior and minister of education to be filled, Dmitri Shipoff, of Moscow, who was president of the first Council of Education, has definitely declined to accept any position in the cabinet.

All Schools and Universities Closed.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 10.—The universities and high schools throughout Russia have been closed indefinitely by order of the minister of education.

Polish Deputation to Czar.

Warsaw, Nov. 10.—Representatives of all political parties in Poland, at a meeting held in the palace today, decided to send twenty leading citizens to St. Petersburg to request the emperor to grant Russian Poland full autonomy.

Reforms May Be Delayed.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 11.—A long official communication, published this morning, denies that disorders in any part of the country have been committed by the government, and promises a most careful inquiry into the outrages against life and property and the adoption of measures to prevent their recurrence.

The government will strive to fulfill the emperor's will regarding the freedom of citizens, the communication says.

The "hostile relation" of the moderate to the introduction of reforms, but the government cannot think that any considerable part of the Russian people prefer disorder to order, and internal strife to peaceful development.

The council of ministers is therefore to execute the imperial command to the utmost.

Marshal Law in Poland.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 10.—It is announced that martial law will be declared throughout Poland.

BRIDE IN ASYLUM IS DECLARED SANE

Dr. Spitzka Testifies That Mrs. Delano Deane-Reid is Not Mentally Deranged

White Plains, N. Y., Nov. 9.—The legal battle of Captain Albert V. Deane-Reid to free his bride from Bloomingdale asylum, where she is detained at the instance of her three brothers, Clarence, Victor and Frederick Delano, was begun here before County Judge Platt today.

The strictest cross-examination was conducted by counsel for the brothers on a strong effort to prevent their sister from being released.

Mrs. Reid was brought into court by an attendant from Bloomingdale, and kissed her husband affectionately. John M. Digney, who represents Captain Reid, presented as a witness Dr. Spitzka, an alienist.

Mrs. Reid testified that her brother, Frederick Delano, in September, 1904, represented to her that she was going to be taken to the Aspinwall Golf Club for lunch. He had previously sent her to two physicians to be examined without telling her his purpose.

"I was accompanied by my brother Fred, and his wife to the golf club," Mrs. Deane-Reid said. "Then it was suggested that we take a ride to Whitehall Road's place, and after that my brother asked me if I did not want to visit Bloomingdale asylum, where he said he knew a physician."

"When we got into the asylum I was held in a room by two or three nurses and I showed to leave."

"Did they allow you any commitment?" "No, I was kept there for four months."

"What did you do after your release?" "I studied art at Columbia College."

"What was the home life of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Delano?" Mr. Digney asked.

"It was anything but pleasant," was the reply. "They frequently quarreled, and my brother's wife constantly threatened to come back to the asylum. If I did not do just as she wanted me to do."

Then Mrs. Reid told how, in 1905, she visited Rye Beach with Mrs. Frederick Delano, wife of her brother, who introduced her to an actor, Charles H. Smith.

"I considered his conduct and manners vulgar, and I constantly asked my sister-in-law to come home with me," said the witness. She also stated that she went to New Haven with her sister-in-law to meet this actor, and all went bathing. At another time they went sailing, and Mrs. Reid declared that the actor's conduct was offensive.

"My brother Frederick followed his wife and myself to New Haven, and when we came back he struck me," she said. "I thought my ear drum had been broken. He threw me down and told me to get ready to go back to the asylum. Then he twisted his wife's arm."

Mrs. Reid was calm and collected while she was giving testimony. Several insanity experts from Bloomingdale asylum had their eyes on her every move.

Dr. Spitzka testified that he had examined Mrs. Reid's head and found no indication of mental derangement. The commitment filed in the asylum, Dr. Spitzka said, had showed that she was suffering from adolescence and mental retardation, but that he had found nothing to indicate such a condition.

Henry T. Dykeman, who represents the Delano brothers, asked if lunacy might not have latent intervals and not be noticeable.

"Yes," answered Dr. Spitzka, "but there is no time of insanity at any time in this instance."

West Brookfield, Mass., Nov. 12.—The West Brookfield House, said to be the oldest hotel in continuous service as such in the United States, was closed today and will not be occupied again as a public house. There is now no hotel in West Brookfield.

The house was erected in 1760 and among its guests had been Geo. Washington, Frederick John Adams, Jerome Bonaparte and General Lafayette.

COULDN'T STAND HONDURAS CLIMATE

Former Sydney Man Throws Up Good Government Job and Returns to Newfoundland.

Sydney, N. S., Nov. 10.—(Special)—Herbert C. Burchell, a native of Sydney, who last spring was appointed director of public works at British Honduras, has resigned his position and has returned to Newfoundland.

Mr. Burchell, during his administration of the public works department of Honduras, prepared a comprehensive report on the sanitary conditions of the island. Although flattering inducements were offered him to remain in the Central American colony he was obliged to venture on account of the climate.

West Brookfield, Mass., Nov. 12.—The West Brookfield House, said to be the oldest hotel in continuous service as such in the United States, was closed today and will not be occupied again as a public house. There is now no hotel in West Brookfield.

CHRIST SOON DUE, SAYS SANDFORD

Head of Shiloh Colony Gone and is Thought to Be on His Way to Jerusalem to Prepare for the Second Coming.

Shiloh, Me., Nov. 9.—Frank W. Sandford, leader of the "Holy Ghost and Us Bible school," and head of the "Church of Christ," the pillar and ground of the truth, has been prosaically for Jerusalem. The last heard from him he was in New York, and whether he has sailed for Europe or not, is not known.

Mr. Sandford stopped a few days in Boston to attend to business matters.

Shiloh has enjoyed a period of prosperity since Sandford was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs in the crucial case. Not since the period immediately following the first prosecutions against the Shiloh leader has the colony been so prosperous as now. Followers all over the world send him money to pay the fine and costs, and he has been able to meet the requirements of the case.

All of this money has been turned over to "The Kingdom," with a prayer of thanksgiving and a long prayer for the whole amount.

Shilohites believe the Lord made his influence felt in the heart of Justice Emery, causing him to inflict a fine instead of a jail sentence for punishment. Prayers asking a blessing for Justice Emery are offered with fervor.

It is understood that Sandford is intended to make his mission in Jerusalem of more importance, and that his business there will be to evangelize the world, and he would not change it. But I understand that Mr. Sandford has received some new revelation about Christ's early coming.

"Do you think he intends to stay out of the United States, so that further action in regard to the Shilohites may stand against him and cannot be taken?" "No, sir; Mr. Sandford will be in Auburn to face trial any time the court wants him."

Mr. Dewey says he is opposed to insurance companies in Sandford's case, but he does not refer to contributions to individuals.—Los Angeles Express.

MR. SHAFNER'S STATEMENT

Nova Scotia Apple Grower Writes in Reply to Inspector Vroom's Charge.

A letter has been received by a business man of this city from J. E. Shafner, of Lawrencetown (N.S.), in which Mr. Shafner asks that his explanation of Fruit Inspector G. H. Vroom's charge that Mr. Shafner has been violating the fruit marks act be made. Mr. Shafner writes that when he was cautioned by Mr. Vroom a few weeks ago for shipping his apples under the name of A. Bachlor, contrary to the law, he at once gave instructions to his employees not to use that brand again and this, he says, was carried out to the letter, but these were at that time a few barrels of greenstains in the warehouse branded "Bachlor," and these were sent along with a consignment to J. G. Willet, North wharf, St. John, by the former in Mr. Shafner's warehouse, who, he writes, thought that it would not be worth while changing the brand on those few barrels. Mr. Shafner writes also that if any apples packed by him do not turn out as marked he will make good the loss. He thinks it very unfair of Mr. Vroom to bring his name singly before the public and not to name the other four dealers, to whom he referred.

An apple merchant in conversation with a Telegraph reporter yesterday said that Mr. Shafner could not be so big aascal as was painted by Mr. Vroom, as he has been in the apple business for ten years and sells to the largest apple dealers in Nova Scotia, and this year he has consigned one of them more than 8000 barrels of apples.

Crystal Stream Gets Away Again

The steamer Crystal Stream met with an accident in the narrows Saturday, caused by a leakage of steam from the back box of the boiler. The steamer was brought back to her wharf under her own steam. Repairs were made and she left for Coles Island at 7 o'clock Sunday morning, with a good freight and passenger list.

How Is Your Cold?

Every place you go you hear the same question asked. Do you know that there is nothing so dangerous as a neglected cold? Do you know that a neglected cold will turn into Chronic Bronchitis, Pneumonia, disgusting Catarrh and the most deadly of all, the "White Plague," Consumption. Many a life history would read differently if, on the first appearance of a cough, it had been remedied with
