European Intelligence.

From Liverpool papers to the 22d Sep.

IRELAND.

The political outrages which have recommenced in Ireland since the 22d Sep. have attracted public attention, and keep the whole of the British Islands in a state of alarm. We are quite unable to give a full account of the outrages in the present state of things, but it is quite obvious that the state of the country is becoming more and more dangerous, and it would be wrong to conceal that the outrages are generally gaining ground, and that if they are not checked they will inevitably and immediately suffer the extreme penalty of the law.
The special commission opened at Clonmel on Thursday. Chief Justice Blackburne charged the grand jury, after which they retired, and late in the day brought in true bills against Messrs Smith, O'Brien, M. Manus, O' Connell, and O'Donnell. These prisoners were then placed at the bar and on application, copies of the indictment were granted to them.
There is not the slightest excitement thro' the town, nor are there a dozen persons assembled in the neighbourhood of the courthouse.
The European Times says—England and Scotland continue to enjoy a state of profound tranquillity. Several more arrests of Charlist leaders have taken place in the metropoli-and in the manufacturing districts, and they have been committed for trial. True bills have been found against the chartists committed to London some weeks ago and their trials were fixed for yesterday. Some verdicts for sedition, misde-meanors have been already obtained, but the public attention is scarcely even directed to the fact. The Char-lists apprehended and in prison for offences in the manufacturing districts will be chiefly brought to trial at the assizes in our town.
All excitement upon the subject appears to have subsided.
In the absence of parliamentary news, domestic politics are almost wholly without interest. The Court remains in happy seclusion at Balmoral, except when the Queen joins in the rural sports got up especially for her amusement in the Highlands, which contrast not a little with the occupations of some of the unhappy and persecuted sovereigns on the continent. If it were not for the smouldering rebellion in Ireland, domestic politics would scarcely furnish a single subject for political comment.

Denmark and Prussia.—The Assembly at Frankfort have voted that the armistice between the Danes and the Prussians should be ratified. This vote caused a frightful riot, and subsequent accounts from Frankfort state that a serious insurrection had broken out, barricades had been erected, cannon shots were firing, great numbers had been killed, and the victory was still doubtful when the express left.
At Vienna, Berlin, Potsdam and Posen, revolutionary disturbances have taken place.
The news of the taking of Messina by the Neapolitan troops has been confirmed. The bombardment was of a most devastating character, and the country around Messina, after the night, an aspect of great desolation. Approximately 10,000 persons escaped on board the French and English shipping, and were afterwards conveyed to the other parts of Sicily.
The Neapolitan forces amount to 15 or 20,000 men, and are scarcely strong enough to advance. The Sicilians will fight for every inch of their territory. The bloodshed, burning, and pillage which have taken place are described as almost unexampled in atrocity.
We believe that the united efforts of both the French and English naval and diplomatic authorities are being employed to bring about a suspension of hostilities.

The Cholera.—A letter from Paris, dated Monday evening, says—Yesterday, and today several cases have appeared, which are said to have all the symptoms of Asiatic cholera, but in a mild shape. A medical gentleman informs me that he has two cases of what he calls cholera asphyria, and that in both cases the patients are likely to recover.
A letter from Hamburg of the 15th instant says—A number of violent cases of Asiatic cholera have already occurred, principally among the lower orders of the people.
Altogether there have been about 250 cases within a period of fourteen days since the disease made its first appearance. About half that number are convalescent. Every precaution has been taken by the authorities to prevent, as much as possible, the spread of the contagion.

Accounts from Constantinople of the 31st ult., state that the cholera was still raging.

The cholera continues to spread at Berlin.
There have been upwards of 1300 cases since its first appearance.

COMMERCIAL.

Trade in all departments remains in much the same position as at the departure of the America. In some respects there is not so much activity. The Colonial Produce markets are still depressed.

In the early part of the week the Corn markets of the United Kingdom continued firm, but we cannot note any change worthy of remark on the prices current. Flour fully supported the rates current last week.

From the New Brunswick Oct. 5.

OUR PROSPECTS.

The tide of emigration from this Province so far from decreasing, appears to increase weekly, if we may judge from the numbers who departed last Tuesday morning, in the steamer Senator and Maid of Erin. We noticed among those who were leaving for the West, many whose faces have been long familiar to us, and others well known to us by name and reputation, all casting a last long lingering look upon our Province, to which they expect to return no more. To many, the separation appeared painful; while to others, young, ardent and full of hope, the change was animating. They were rejoiced to leave a land in which there was no field for their industry, and little reward for their toil. One of the worst features of this emigration is, the amount of capital which is taken away by those who are deserting. There are many who take considerable sums, and all have something, greater or less, in ready money. This produces a constant drain upon our circulating medium, and adds to the pressure under which the Province now labours.

But are we to submit to this? Are we to stand by, with folded hands, to view the "going out" of the very life-blood of the Country, and the departure of its real wealth? It must not be. If we have an Executive too supine to do the least thing, let public meetings be called, and let something be suggested which may tend to open up the Country, by rendering the Crown lands more easy of acquisition than under the present absurd regulations.

If our Executive were not in a position which betrays neither the animation of life, nor the repose of death, they would assume some responsibility in this crisis. They would lay out new Settlements, and abrogate some of the useless forms and delay in acquiring land —they would apply the proceeds of sales to the construction of roads and the formation of compact settlements. We are aware that the stereotyped answer of the Executive to any proposition of this kind is—"Oh! we have no power to do this!" Assume the power then—and the Country will sustain you in every effort for the public good, and praise you for your acts. If there ever was a time in which the Government of this Colony was called upon to act, it is the present.
The Ministry of England on an emergency last year, authorised the Bank of England to violate the law, and that stroke saved the commercial community from utter ruin. Let our Government exhibit equal firmness, and sagacity, and the Country and the people may yet be saved.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

Emigration of Poor Persons.—By an act which passed on the 4th ult., it is provided by the fifth section (11 and 12 Vic. cap. 110) that the guardians of any union or parish may, with the order of the Poor Law Board, and in conformity with the regulations they make respecting the emigration of poor persons, render assistance in the emigration of such poor persons, irremovable and chargeable, and charge the cost upon the common fund of the union or parish, where there is no union.

The Pope has put his veto on the diplomatic relations bill.

Reports have been current that several deaths have occurred at Leeds from Asiatic cholera.—The stories were false.

A letter from St Petersburg announces the marriage of the second son of the Emperor, and the increase of the army by 215,000 men.

A vessel which has arrived in London from Rotterdam has brought 2,900 gunstocks consigned to the British government.

John Frederick Stanton, Esq., of Foley house London, has forwarded to Mr. Neilson a very handsome silver tankard for Jerome, who so nobly rescued seventeen lives from the wreck of the Ocean Monarch.

Preparations are already making by the Dissenters of the Metropolis for organizing an effective opposition to the anticipated measure of Government for the endowment of the Irish Roman Catholic clergy.

BUCKINGHAM ESTATES.—It is said that the property of the Duke of Buckingham, to the amount of £18,000 a year, cannot be sold. Neither the Duke nor his son has the power of cutting off the Chandos entail, and by the proper sale of the other portion of the property and consequent saving of interest and insurance, it is declared by persons competent to judge, that £12,000 a year can be saved to the family during the Duke's life.

An old man named Cayzer, who had long been receiving 3s. a week from the parish of Plymouth, died the other day, and was found to have £50 in the Savings Bank, besides twenty sovereigns in his box.

ANOTHER SIGN OF THE TIMES.—We have heard with considerable surprise that the N. 11 Prins sittings in Carleton, which should have commenced the last Tuesday in September, have been adjourned to some time in the month of December. Judge, Jury, Lawyers, Clients, and Witnesses were summarily compelled to go to their "respectable homes," and the whole administration of Justice was thus suspended. We learn that some of the witnesses had come from Canada East, and these parties will be compelled to sustain the fatigue and expense of another journey, some hundreds of miles in the extreme cold of winter. The whole difficulty was caused by the new Clerk of the Crown on the Circuit not having forwarded the necessary precept, or commission. This functionary has certainly magnified his office. We never heard of such a deplorable neglect of duty in the Courts of Law in this Country before. It is positively too bad to be endured. When our public officers are so well paid, the public ought to be protected from such "tom-follery." It is said that Sir Edmund Head has had a legal education; several clever members of the Bar also are among his advisers; will this deplorable affair be suffered to pass off without some decided action on the part of the Government?—We shall see.—[New-Brunswick.]

THE COPYRIGHT ACT.—The last Royal Gazette contains an order of the Queen in Council which brings into operation the act relating to Copyright, which passed the Legislature of this Province at its last Session. Reprints of British copyright works instead of being prohibited as heretofore, may now be imported from the United States on payment of a duty of twenty per cent. on the cost price of such reprints, which duty is to be paid over to the author or registered proprietor of such Copyright.

We sincerely congratulate the people of this Province upon this most desirable arrangement being at length effected, as it will enable the public to enjoy all the current literature of the day, by bringing it within the reach of persons of the smallest means.

THE AGRICULTURAL FAIR AND CATTLE

Snow was held on Thursday last. We are glad to be able to report that this Show has far superseded any that have before been held here. The young Stock exhibited were quite superior, and from the number of thorough bred Ayrshire and Alderney Bulls that are now being distributed through the County, we may expect a rapid improvement. The Oats and Barley were very prime specimens of what our climate can do—two of the samples of Oats weighed 47 lbs. each per bushel, and two of Barley, 54 lbs. each.

There were in all seventy articles entered for competition. After the Show, the Directors entertained the Judges to a lunch at the St John Hotel, and spent the afternoon in the discussion of Agricultural matters.—Courier.

Fredericton, Oct. 6.
The Crops in this part of the country may now be said to be secured; and the result is as follows:—Potatoes, are about half a crop in the vicinity of Fredericton, and downwards along the line of the River to St. John. By the upyard line of the St. John as far as Woodstock and the Grand Falls, they approach the usual average; and they turn out pretty well in all the back settlements. Wheat is light in general; and in some places a total failure. Corn, Buckwheat, and Oats, have yielded abundantly; and Hay is as plentiful as ever.—[Reporter.]

From the New Brunswick.
Some of our contemporaries are calling upon our new Executive to "work." While the whole Province is suffering severely from the unprecedented commercial pressure, and while hundreds of our population are weekly leaving our shores, to seek in a foreign Country the living which they cannot obtain at home, it cannot be wondered at that many are anxiously enquiring, what is to be the end of these things? For our own part, we confess ourselves unable to answer the question, and yet we are not without hope that the worst is past, and that at eventide it shall be light. In England, trade is gradually, but we think permanently, improving.—The harvest, although not an abundant one, has nevertheless so far exceeded the expectations which were at one time entertained respecting it, that a more confident feeling exists, which is sensibly affecting the whole trade of Great Britain. The markets for Colonial produce are certainly very much depressed, particularly the staple article of this Province; but we trust the depression will not continue long. The truth is, our trade here has been recklessly carried on; twice the quantity of lumber had been brought to market which was required; and the immediate consequence is, we have overstocked the English market with our Timber and Deals, and the prices have sunk ruinously low. We admit that the general prostration of trade, and the disturbances in Ireland, which have closed the Irish ports against our lumber, have contributed to the present ruinous state of things; but the real cause of depreciation is what we have stated it to be, an excessive exportation. We believe that this evil will not exist a few months hence. From all we can learn, the lumbering operations on the St. John will be suspended for the present season, except in a few particular cases. Some effort will be made to get square Timber, but we hear of no parties who design to cut Spruce Logs. Probably this last article will be got in small quantities by persons who have means of their own, but we are informed that the Country Merchants generally are suspending their supplies. A similar state of things is to exist in Canada, where commerce is equally depressed, and one year's abandonment of this business in these Provinces will let the present stock get off, and open the way for a renewal of the trade under more healthy auspices.

But it is obvious that some great remedial measure should be devised, and carried through the Legislature. We want our tariff remodelled. We want access to foreign markets for our produce. And we believe that the proposed repeal of the Navigation Laws may be made conducive to a system of reciprocity which will benefit us.

We feel that something must be done quickly, or our position, although it may be partially improved by a rise in the English markets, will not be permanently benefited. And we look to the Government to devise some measures for the protection and regulation of our trade, which will secure us against a recurrence of the present evils. This is a time when all the best talent of the Country should be exerted to save that Province from overwhelming calamity.

There is a point of most important subject which rests strongly on the minds of the people of this Province. Our expenses are entirely too great. The salaries of public officers are utterly disproportionate to the circumstances and population of the Country. Look at our Judges for instance. The Chief Justice, who, non r. travels the circuits, and who is so far superannuated that he cannot take his share of the labour, except at the sittings in Fredericton, receives about £1000 sterling per annum!! The three assistant Judges get each seven hundred and fifty pounds, and the Master of the Rolls eight hundred pounds!! Then the salary of the Clerk of the Pleas is nine hundred pounds, and the principal business of his office is said to be performed by his Clerk, who receives from this overpaid functionary the princely salary of about seventy pounds!! Then the Surveyor-General gets twelve hundred pounds sterling, and he is not required to be in his office more than two or three hours a day!! But we need proceed no farther. These salaries are altogether outrageous. They are a part of that ruinous system of expenditure which is absorbing nearly so large a portion of the Revenues of the Province. Let our new Government then devise some measure of retrenchment. We shall enter into this subject more fully hereafter.

THE STANDARD.
ST. ANDREWS, WEDNESDAY OCT. 11, 1848
ST. ANDREWS AND QUEBEC RAILROAD COMPANY.

Letters were received by the last mail from John Wilson, Esquire, the President of the Company. Mr. Wilson was then visiting Earl Fitzwilliam, at his princely country seat, Wentworth, Sussex. Mr. W. writes that the noble Earl as well as his amiable family, among whom he mentions Lord and Lady Milford, expressed a warm interest in our Railway undertaking, and appeared very solicitous for the welfare of the Emigrants who came out the past season from his Lordship's estates. The Stock list is increasing, notwithstanding the depression of English Railway shares, arising no doubt from the fluctuating state of British and Continental matters. We are happy to state that Mr. W. appears in very good spirits, with respect to the prospects of the Company.

We quote from the London Times of Sep. 22d, the letter of Earl Grey to the Directors of the company, in answer to the Deputation which we mentioned in the Standard of the 4th inst., composed of Mr. Wilson and several London gentlemen, who waited upon his Lordship soliciting Government aid. We refer our readers to this letter, as a valuable auxiliary to the road:—

"Downing-street, Sept. 18.
"Sir,—Referring to what passed at the interview at which Lord Grey granted to the deputation from the Board of Directors of the St. Andrews and Quebec Railroad, on the 14th inst. I am directed by his Lordship to inform you, that whilst it is out of the power of her Majesty's Government, without the authority of Parliament, to grant to the promoters of that undertaking any pecuniary assistance, either directly or indirectly, and although his Lordship cannot encourage the expectation that, even when Parliament re-assembles, her Majesty's Government would feel themselves justified in recommending that such assistance should be granted, since, by doing so, applications of the same nature from the various British colonies would be encouraged to an indefinite amount, he has great pleasure in so far complying with the request made to him by the deputation as to communicate to you in a letter, which he has framed of the substance of his accordingly directed to the Lord Grey's judgment, that has been judiciously placed completed, to prove of practical value, and also that there be no reasonable ground resources of New Brunswick sufficient to enable fulfil the guarantee given for payment of the interest the company; or that both the people of the province, engaged into which Lord Grey considers the risk America to be entitled conduct to be relied upon charge of the obligations can rectify.

"This must, however, as an expression of Lord Grey's opinion, be distinctly understood, that this country who this undertaking that her most cannot become indebted for the fulfilment of which they have been in I am, Sir, your most W. Bridges, Esq."

communicate to you in writing the opinion he has formed of the undertaking. I am accordingly directed to inform you that, in Lord Grey's judgment, the projected railway has been judiciously planned, and is likely, if completed, to prove of great national importance; and also that there appears to him to be no reasonable ground for doubting that the resources of New Brunswick are far more than sufficient to enable that province to fulfil the guarantee given by the Legislature for payment of the interest on the capital of the company; or that both the Legislature and the people of the province will respect the engagements into which they have entered. Lord Grey considers the inhabitants of British America to be entitled by all their past conduct to be relied upon for a punctual discharge of the obligations which they have contracted.

This must, however, be regarded merely as an expression of Lord Grey's opinion, and it must be distinctly understood by those persons in this country who may take shares in this undertaking that her Majesty's Government cannot become in any degree responsible for the fulfilment of the expectations by which they have been induced to do so.

O'CONNELL V. THE WIDOW SOUND AND FERRY.—In Motion of Ireland, we find a record of a scolding match between O'Connell, then a young man, and one Biddy Mor, widow, who kept a huxter's the quays nearly opposite to and whose powers of elocution then from one end of Dublin to the other was the O'Connell was very confident had laid an ingenious plan, and, with all the auxiliary, waited to open the O'Connell's own party, and the place, formed an audience to witness Mrs. Moriarty, on an exhibition of her own, commenced the attack.

"What's the price of Mrs. Moriarty, sir, is my it is; and what have you and one-and-sixpence is Truth, is cheap as life. One-and-sixpence is What's! Why you are a poor old man, eighteen-pence, your price.

"Mrs. Moriarty, do you not chat the people I am Ay, impostor; and to your teeth! rejoined. "Come, cut your stick jackknaps."

"Keep a civil tongue old chaguan!" cried O'Connell. "Stop your jaw, you by this and that," cried make you go quick! and

"Don't be in a passion get with only winking."

"By the hollo, if you impudence, I'll tan you lastly common scold and my fist upon you."

"When I boys, what in; I protest as I am."

"Jintleman! Jintleman! Wishah. What your photo-lac did a Madagascarian much of common. Ch your Kerry broune."

"Easy, now easy, imperforable good self with fine language ing parallelgram."

"What's that you villian?" roared Moriarty.

"I call you, anw parallelgram; and a I say it's no lible to c."

"Och, tare-another honest woman! parrybellygrum to your parrybellygrum bird, you coward bligard!"

"Och, not you? why, I suppose y hyp themuse in y."

"It's a lie for you such a thing in thale."

"Why, sure, all well that you kee but that you have your carret, and them every Sund gon."

"Och, hear th such, there's bad wants to pass for fly away with y and make cetry you mealy-mou."

"Ah, you can arable subaulity."
