MURDER, PILLAGE ABOUT CANTON

Rebels and Brigands Devastating Province of Kwang-Tung.

DEFEAT CHINESE TROOPS

Many Persons Killed in Furious Street Fighting at Canton.

[Canadian Press.]

Hong Kong, May 1.—Rebellion, brigandage and anarchy are stalking through the western half of Kwang Tung Province, murdering, pillaging and burning.

The brigand chief, Luk of Shuntak, is at the head of a horde of outlaws, whose object is robbery, accomplished by killing.

Following the standards of these men are anarchists groups to whose purpose the present outbreak lends itself most advantageously. The combined forces have thrown themselves with fanatical disregard of their own lives against the troops, and since the first outbreak Thursday night much blood has been shed.

Sedition is rife among certain of the troops, and this is a special source of alarm, as it is feared that the disaffected soldiers will desert their officers if the revolters appear to have the upper hand. Official advices and the refugees arriving from Canton confirm serious situation.

Devastating Country.

Famine prices are asked for foodstuffs, while many of the shops are closed. There have been attempts to bury the dead.

Today the revolters have withdrawn to a great extent from Canton and are devastating the country to the west along the West River. Before falling back they fought the troops from street to street, many persons being killed. They attacked the provisional arsenal and being repulsed, gathered in an immense rice store which they barricaded with bags of rice. From the building they threw bombs into the attacking troops, and were only dislodged when the building was set on fire. Many of the revolters died in the flames, while others killed themselves to avoid capture.

While the fighting was in progress Chinese gunboats, patrolling the West River, fired into several parties of rebels slaughtering 200 of them.

Retiring to the countryside, they attacked and captured Sam Shui, thirty miles west of Canton, and murdered the prefect. The troops were put to flight and the rebels moved on to Krang Chow and Wo Chow, both of while towns they took after slight resistance. Luxi's brigands, following in their wake, looted the shops of the three towns. The triumphant sweep of the revolutionaries continued westward along the West River, and reports from that district say that the movement is spreading and the revolutionary army is murdering, pillaging and burning.

EARL GREY'S RETURN FROM WINNIPEG

His Excellency Said to Have Changed Plans Owing to Mr. Bryce's Visit.

Ottawa, April 30.—Earl Grey is coming home tomorrow from Winnipeg. His Excellency is returning somewhat earlier than had been expected on account of the visit of Ambassador Bryce, who comes on Tuesday as his guest. The ambassador had arranged to come to Ottawa some weeks ago, but had to cancel his visit till now.

There is said to be no foundation for a story sent out from Winnipeg that Earl Grey had been summoned from Winnipeg by reason of the political situation here. There is no significance in the ambassador's visit. He will consult the authorities on the question of Canada's representation on the international conference on pelagic sealing at Washington May 23. The depletion of the seal and walrus is to be considered. It is understood that Mr. Joseph Pope, C. G. M., will go in Canada's interests in the matter.

BODY OF WILSON LAD FOUND FOATING IN RIVER ON SUNDAY NEAR WELLINGTON ST. BRIDGE

Little Chap Was Drowned on January 20 Last, a Few Yards From Home.

AN INQUEST WILL BE HELD TONIGHT

Remains Identified by Father of the Deceased—A Post Mortem Held.

Freddie Wilson.

The body of Freddie Wilson, the 7-year-old lad, living at 394 Nelson street, who disappeared on Jan. 20 last, was found Sunday afternoon shortly after four o'clock floating in the River Thames immediately west of Clarke's bridge at Wellington street. Coroner Maclaren was notified and ordered an inquest. The jury viewed the body last night, adjourning until this evening, when evidence will be heard.

The discovery of the remains solves a mystery that has greatly puzzled Londoners during the past three months.

On Jan. 20th Freddie Wilson asked his mother for permission to go outside and play for a few minutes. He was without mitts or overcoat, as his mother did not intend that he should remain outdoors for any length of time.

In a few minutes Mrs. Wilson went to call him. No response was given to her calls, and she started to investigate. None of the neighbors had seen the lad, and they knew nothing of him. Mrs. Wilson started over the Wellington street bridge, when she saw a collie pup, the inseparable companion of the boy, coming back over the bridge alone. After a long search he called the fire department up, and Fire Chief Aitken and some of his men commenced a search.

No Trace.

No foot prints could be discovered. It was suspected that he fell into the river, but the absence of anything that would make this fact certain, mystified those searching for him. All the holes in the river were dragged, but without result.

The police department were also notified, and for some time a thorough hunt for the boy was instituted. It was thought that possibly the youngster had caught on a sleigh, and taken a trip into the country. The disappearance was published far and wide, but no response was received.

Wild rumors soon began to circulate and all manner of theories were advanced to explain his disappearance. A large number of people, including his parents, suspected that he had been kidnapped.

Inquiries were made far and near for Freddie, but without result. The case attracted considerable interest, not only in London, but elsewhere.

Fortune-tellers soon took a hand in the search. Mayor Beattie receiving several letters from a Port Huron lady who declared that the lad was in the river.

A Reward Offered.

The council took the matter up and offered a reward of $200 for the discovery of the boy.

Months passed and nothing was heard of the lad. The river was closely watched during the spring freshet, but no trace of the body was found.

Sunday afternoon, Mr. Roger Hutchinson, of 111 High street, was crossing the Wellington street bridge, and on looking at the river, he noticed an object floating in the water He studied it for a moment, and came to the conclusion that it must be the body of a child.

Charles Mountjoy, 2 Watson avenue, happened along at this time, and Mr. Hutchinson called his attention to the object in the water

"Isn't that the body of Freddie Wilson," Hutchinson asked Mountjoy.

By this time the body had been moved a trifle by the current, and it was much easier to see it. A closer investigation was made, and it was found that the object floating in the water was the body of Freddie Wilson.

Parents Notified.

In the meantime Arthur Wheatley, 54 Beaconsfield avenue; William Yeates, 32 Front street, and Alfred Hunstridge had come along, and they went at once to the home of the lad's parents to notify them.

Mountjoy called up the police department, and Detective Down went down to take charge of the body. Wheatley and his companions could

SISTER WAS FOUND AFTER 37 YEARS

Joyful Reunion of a London Man and Long Lost Relative in Pennsylvania.

STORY OF THE SEARCH

Mr. W. H. Gallup, 87 Mamelon Street, Never Gave Up Hope and Won at Last.

After a search embracing 37 years, Mr. W. H. Gallup, 87 Mamelon street, East London, has at last found his sister, who has been parted from him all that time. She was located in Chester, Pa., and Mr. Gallup paid her a visit last week, the first time he has seen her in nearly two score years.

When they were quite young the family was broken up. Mr. Gallup came to London and his sister went to the United States in care of relatives. He did not hear from her for a time, and endeavored to locate her.

Countless letters were written by him, but to no purpose. Not long ago, he traced her to Chester, Pa. He corresponded with some officials in that city, and they were able to further trace the lady. She had married in the meantime, but her maiden name was recorded, and by that means she was located.

Two weeks ago, Mr. Gallup received absolute proof that his sister was living in Chester, and paid her a visit. It was a great surprise to her.

A Joyful Meeting.

The meeting was a joyful one. Mr. Gallup spent several days in Chester, afterwards paying a visit to Baltimore, Philadelphia and other cities.

"I had often read of such instances," declared Mr. Gallup. "I had often wondered if such a thing would happen to me. I had had no word of my sister for over thirty years, and I was anxious to see her. I wrote and wrote, but never received much encouragement. However, I at last located her at Chester, and I can assure you it was a happy reunion."

A Chester, Pa., paper has the following to say of the reunion:

"Thirty-seven years ago, W. H. Gallup, of London, Canada, parted from his sister, now Mrs. Mary Ewing, and since reaching manhood he has made unceasing efforts to locate her. He was not successful until yesterday, when he found her on Edgemont avenue, near Fourth street, where she occupies apartments.

Mr. Gallup, prior to coming here, had been in communication for some time with Chester people, who finally assisted him to find Mrs. Ewing, with whom he had parted when quite young.

PRIZE FOR DRAMATIC CLUB THOUGH EARL GREY'S BE LOST

Winnipeg People Were Charmed With the Performance—Ottawa and London Are in Line for First Place.

The London Dramatic Club will get a valuable prize even if the judges in the Earl Grey dramatic competition do not award them premier honors.

One of the members of the club, in a telegram to his family in the city today, stated that the Winnipeg citizens were so delighted with the presentation given by the London players that a subscription list has been circulated for the purpose of obtaining a suitable trophy for the club, in case the judges failed to give them first prize.

It was also stated that the trophy would be equally as valuable as that donated by the Governor-General.

The club are on their way eastward, and will arrive in London on Tuesday at noon.

A number of prominent Old Boys in Winnipeg are behind the scheme, and it is being backed up by the citizens of Winnipeg.

The latest information is to the effect that Ottawa and London are in the running, with many points in favor of the local Thespians.

$200 REWARD FOR PERSON WHO FOUND WILSON BOY'S BODY

It Looks as Though Roger Hutchinson, of High Street, Has the Best Claim to the Cash—Council Will Look Into the Matter.

Who will get the reward for finding the body of Freddie Wilson?

That question is puzzling Mayor Beattie, and it is very probable that the council tonight will have to deal with that problem.

It will also be remembered that early in February, the city council, at a special meeting, decided to offer a reward of $200 for the recovery of the lad, dead or alive. No time limit was set, and the money stands today ready to be handed over to the person finding the body.

It will also be remembered that a fortune teller from Port Huron wrote to Mayor Beattie, claiming the money on the grounds that in a dream she had seen the body of Freddie Wilson in the river.

No attention was paid to her claim at the time, and it is not at all likely that any claim will be paid to it now.

Mayor Beattie informed The Advertiser that the reward would not be paid over to her.

Who Is the Lucky Man?

Who was the first to discover the body is now the question that is agitating his worship, and it is probable that evidence will be taken to determine who is entitled to the money.

According to the information received, Mr. Roger Hutchinson, of High street, is most entitled to it.

Mr. Charles Mountjoy, who was one of those who helped get the body out of the river, stated that undoubtedly Mr. Hutchinson was entitled to the money.

"I was coming across the bridge when Mr. Hutchinson called me to see the body," Mr. Mountjoy said. "There were others on the bridge at the time, but they did not see it until Mr. Hutchinson called their attention to it. I think I saw it first after him, but Mr. Hutchinson called my attention to it. In my opinion the credit belongs to him."

"I was puzzling today as to who was entitled to the reward," Mayor Beattie explained to The Advertiser. "I am positive that the fortune teller in Port Huron has no claim to it. She stated, in a vague way, that the body was in the river, but that statement does not comply with the requirements of the motion passed in the council. Any person could have said that with as much certainty as she did. I am not in a position to say who is entitled to the reward. The council set no limit whatever on the reward, and it is just as much in force as it was the day after the council passed the motion. I have not looked into the facts of the case thoroughly as yet, but the man entitled to it will receive it. Before the money is paid over, every claim will be properly investigated. There is no reason why the party who found the body should not receive the money."

FINED $10 AND COSTS FOR STEALING GOODS

Joseph Tremblay Convicted of Petty Theft in Police Court.

Joseph Tremblay, a French-Canadian lineman, employed on the G. N. W. Telegraph Company repair gang, was arrested on Saturday evening by P. C. John Handysides on a charge of stealing articles valued at $2 60 from a local variety store.

When taken to the station it was found that Tremblay had in his pocket many articles, such as pipes, shaving brushes, cuff buttons, and other small articles.

The manager of the store stated that the goods found indicated that Tremblay must have deliberately gone from counter to counter, as the things were in different parts of the store. Tremblay was fined $10 and $7 50 costs, which he at once paid. He was allowed to go, and the stolen goods were returned.

Robert McKee, who was on remand for being drunk repeatedly, was allowed to go with the warning that if he will be severely dealt with.

Ben Goodacre, another drunk, who has been appearing frequently, was fined $10 or 10 days. He took the days.

REMOVE HIGH ST. CHURCH TO WEST

Committee Appointed by the Methodist Ministerial Alliance.

QUESTION OF DEACONESS

Matter Was Referred to the Methodist Council For Consideration—A Meeting Today.

The Methodist Ministerial Association met this morning in Wesley Hall. It was decided to refer the question of the appointment of an extra deaconess for the Methodist churches of the city to the Methodist council for consideration if possible previous to the meeting of the May church boards.

The association also suggested that the work of the deaconess be under the direction of a deaconess board, to include a representative from each Methodist church in the city.

Dr. Manning was of the opinion that the field for such work did not warrant the appointment of a deaconess.

Rev. A. K. Birks stated that Askin Street Church was considering the appointment of a deaconess of their own.

It was on motion of Rev. Mr. Whiting that the recommendation was made to the Methodist council.

The new deaconess when appointed will work among the poor and sick of London, and will also keep in touch with the young people who are strangers in the city.

High Street Church.

Rev. A. K. Birks called attention to the need of removing High Street Church further west, and advised the immediate purchase of certain lots under consideration as a site for a new church near Ridout street.

Rev. H. A. Graham and Mr. John H. Chapman were appointed a committee to secure the necessary finances to conclude the purchase of the lots in question.

The association also passed a resolution of regret at the removal of Rev. Mr. Birks to the Hamilton Conference, and expressing appreciation of his work in London.

An extremely interesting and comprehensive review of "The Faith of a Layman," by Prof. Osborne, of Wesley College, Winnipeg, was read by Rev. Chas. Moorehouse, of Bitt Methodist Church.

Church Has Failed.

In his book, as Rev. Mr. Moorehouse pointed out, Prof. Osborne makes the charge that the church has failed in the social reconstruction and betterment of mankind because of too much other-worldliness.

In reply to this charge, Rev. Dr. Manning declared that the very spirit of the New Testament was other-worldliness, and that it is impossible to regulate the affairs of this world unless you begin with other-world things. Dr. Manning also took strong exception to what he regarded as the professor's charge that the clergy as a class are an inferior body of men.

"Every class and vocation of men," declared Mr. Manning, "fits itself for its work in life in its own way. The preachers are as competent as any other class for their own work. The world does not so much need culture and rhetoric from the minister as earnest, humble service.

Not Inferior Men.

"We need to make the world respect us. We must put an end to the prevalent idea that we are an inferior class of men."

Rev. A. K. Birks stated that while the book was in some respect a conglomeration of brilliance and genius, as a piece of literature, yet when it comes down to practical commonsense, the author needs to get out into the world. The general discussion which followed Rev. Dr. Moorehouse's paper was anything but favorable to the work of the western professor.

FIRE STRICKEN IN BAD PLIGHT

Great Blaze at Bangor, Maine, Leaves Thousands Homeless and Hungry.

LOSSES REACH MILLIONS

Populace Helpless Against Flames Fanned b ya Gale.

[Cnadian Press.]

Bangor, Maine, May 1.—Homeless, hungry and exhausted by the long fight against the flames which had destroyed a third of the city of Bangor last night, thousands of persons who had spent the night in the open air, protected only by a meagre supply of blankets, today faced the problem of providing themselves with food, shelter and clothing, while city and state authorities are considering plans for the rebuilding of the city.

When dawn broke today, hundreds of groups of men, women and children, most of them stunned by the disaster, which had befallen the city, were huddled around smoldering bonfires or stretched along the edge of smoking ruins, endeavoring to derive some comfort from the warmth of the fires and to counteract the effect of the chill rain that fell throughout the night.

Downpour Stops Blaze.

Although the rain brought discomfort to the homeless, it was the means of bringing under control the great fire which spread unchecked for more than seven hours last night. At a time when the battle of the firemen and householders against the flames seemed hopeless, a providential shift of wind and a downpour of rain drove the fire back over the burned district and drowned out the flames which had just started in unburned property.

Estimates of the loss varied, and were for a large part problematical, although it was generally thought that at least $6,000,000 worth of property had been destroyed.

Two Lives Lost.

The loss of life so far as known this morning was confined to two persons and only half a dozen injured ones were in the hospital. The rain and change of wind having solved the problem of controlling the fire, the attention of the authorities was directed today towards housing the homeless and feeding the hungry. Every householder in Bangor whose house escaped, opened his doors to his less fortunate neighbor last night, but in spite of this, thousands were forced to spend the night in the streets, surrounded by the few articles of household utensils they had been able to save from the flames. Many of these suffered greatly from cold and exposure, as in most cases their only protection from the rain was a blanket, rug or coat snatched hurriedly from their burning homes.

More serious, however, than the problem of sheltering the homeless, was the matter of feeding them. Railroad trains brought food to the city, but it was some little time before the authorities could arrange for its distribution. To aid the police in the protection of the little heaps of furniture and clothing saved from the fire by individual householders one company of militia was ordered out for patrol and guard duty. The militiamen patrolled the burned district, and effectualy prevented all attempts at looting the ruins.

"That country is growing very rapidly, and I expect that this section of Canada will show a fine increase. It will mean re-distribution of course, and in consequence an additional number of seats for the west. The number will not be decided upon until after the census, but we expect that it will reach at least twenty, perhaps thirty, more seats, than they have at the present.

"Ontario will show a net gain in all probability, but it will not be very large. The cities are growing rapidly, but then the rural population shows a falling off. One will almost counterbalance the other, although from present indications the net increase will not be very large."

AN INDEPENDENT IN WEST ELGIN

Mr. F. W. Wright, Conservative, Will Oppose Mr. Macdiarmid, M. P. P.

St. Thomas, April 29. — Fred W. Wright, foreman painter in the M. C. R. shops here, has announced himself as an independent Conservative candidate in West Elgin, to oppose Mr. F. G. Macdiarmid, the present member of the Legislature. Mr. Wright, who has just completed a term as president of the West Elgin Conservative Association, has taken this step in response to repeated urging on the part of his friends. He declares that while he admires the Government of Sir James Whitney in many respects, he cannot agree with it in very many others. It is understood a convention will be called to formally place his name before the public.

Mr. Wright is at present a member of the board of education, and has served as chairman of that body, as well as president of the Ontario Educational Association. He also has served as mayor and alderman, and has always been a prominent Conservative.

The Times (Conservative) says it has it on reliable authority that Mr. Wright in taking this step has the assurance that he will be indorsed by the Liberal party, who will, in the event of his running, not place a candidate in the field.

Brussels, April 29.—The East Huron Liberal Association held its annual meeting here yesterday, and elected the following officers: President, Alex. McLaughlin, of Howick; vice-presidents, Wm. Elston, of Morris, and [illegible] Gillespie, of East Wawanosh; secretary-treasurer, F. S. Scott, of Brussels. Addresses were delivered by Hon. A. G. MacKay, Mr. W. Proudfoot, M. P. P., and Mr. Archie Hyslop, ex-M. P. P. Resolutions indorsing reciprocity and expressing confidence in the leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Mr. MacKay were adopted.

350,000 VISITORS DAILY

In New York City—Those Who Stop at the Hotel St. Regis.

It is estimated that there are more than three hundred and fifty thousand visiting strangers in New York City daily. Some of these, no doubt, are residents of nearby towns and cities, who are merely making a day trip, but there is still a very large number who come from distant places and who remain in the metropolis for several days at least. This floating population is a heterogeneous one, comprising all elements of humanity. And New York provides every sort and variety of hotels for their accommodation. To those of refined tastes whose acquaintance with New York is limited, it is not always easy to select a hotel. The attention of this class of patrons is invited to the Hotel St. Regis, at Fifth avenue and Fifty-fifth street. Here will be found a hotel of the highest class, with every detail of its design, equipment, management and service the very best of its kind, and with every comfort and luxury provided for its guests. Its atmosphere is distinctly homelike, and entirely free from the hurry and bustle inevitable in the largest city hotels. The St. Regis restaurant has no superior in all the world in quality of food, skill in preparation and perfection of service; while the charges are no higher than those of other first-class hotels. Transient guests coming to New York and stopping at the Hotel St. Regis will find accommodations of the very highest grade in every particular, and at standard rates. Single rooms are $3 and $4 a day; the same with private bath for $5 a day (or $6 for two people); while for a parlor, bedroom and private bath the rates are $12 a day and up.

MANY CITIES ARE DEATH TRAPS

Dr. Hewitt Calls Them Whited Sepulchres Where Disease Is Spread Through Neglect.

DANGERS OF HOUSE-FLY

Insect Is a Menace to the People and It Should Be Stamped Out in Every Community.

"Many of our cities are nothing more or less than whited sepulchres," said Dr. Hewitt, Dominion entomologist, in a lecture before the Women's Canadian Club in the Normal School on Friday afternoon. "The men who are responsible for the insanitary conditions in these cities should be held criminally responsible for the outbreaks of disease and death which result from such conditions."

For over an hour a crowded audience listened in one of the lecture rooms of the school with rapt attention while Dr. Hewitt condemned the house-fly as the great menace of public life and health of the present day. The lecture was a frank statement of scientific facts and discoveries relating to the germ-breeding, germ-carrying propensities of the insect in question. Much of the subject matter of the lecture was of a decidedly unpleasant nature, but Mr. Hewitt treated it in as pleasant and interesting a manner as possible.

"Convince a man and you convince an individual," he said in beginning. "Convince a woman and you convince a generation."

A Deadly Insect.

Compared with house-fly, the mosquito in town life, according to the speaker, is a comparatively harmless insect. The house-fly, he declared, touches the bed-rock of scientific sanitation. The study of the house-fly in its relation to the spreading of disease is only of recent development. The editor of a London (England) paper a couple of years ago declared that with scientific men like Dr. Hewitt spending their time in a crusade against the house-fly, it was no wonder the number of lunatic asylums was increasing. He would have one large asylum built for the confinement of all such scientific investigators, along with the new theologians, and other crank reformers.

The lecturer repeated the significant fact that in the recent war in South Africa and the Philippines enteric fever and typhoid carried away more men than the bullets of the enemy. The hairy character of the fly's legs and body are excellently adapted to the transmission of germs and filth upon which the fly feeds. The eggs of the fly are deposited and hatched in filth and refuse.

Germs Carried.

The germs which are carried by the fly are so infinitesimally minute that 25,000 of them could be placed end to end in a straight line one inch in length. The bactria developing from these germs increase so rapidly, however, that colonies of them with which a plate of jelly has been infected, will multiply so that they can be seen with the naked eye. It is impossible to find a single fly that is not carrying germs of some kind.

A fly caught in a dwelling-house carried germs which produced thirty colonies of bacteria of six different kinds, and six colonies of fungi of four kinds. A fly from the street produced 46 colonies of bacteria of eight kinds, and seven colonies of fungi of four kinds. A garbage can fly gave rise to 116 colonies of bacteria and ten colonies of fungi. The flies are born with germs, from which they are never free. Milk is one of the best germ breeders. When milk is kept covered, it develops 50 per cent. less bacteria than when exposed to the air. The flies carry germs inside their bodies as well as on their exteriors. Even the germ of anthrax is transmitted by the house-fly. Great numbers of bacteria are found in the intestines of the house-fly. Flies can retain typhoid germs in their bodies for 23 days in a living condition, capable of causing infection. Tuberculosis is also carried by the house-fly.

Dr. Hewitt cited a case near Denver, Col., where through the medium of flies which carried typhoid germs to the milkcans of a dairy farmer, 144 people on his milk route contracted typhoid, and 55 of them died.

Infantile Mortality.

Infantile mortality, according to Dr. Hewitt, can be largely traced to the germ-carrying proclivities of the house-fly. He pointed out as a significant fact that Ontario has a far larger rate of infant mortality than the much denser populated countries of England and Wales. Probably the greatest cause of infant mortality is summer diarrhoea. It has been conclusively proved that the number of deaths from this disease varies directly in proportion to the number of flies which abound in the different months of summer.

One of the great causes of the fly nuisance is the lack of a proper system of sewage disposal, and the presence instead in some of our eastern cities of Canada of insanitary and mediaeval conveniences. The presence of such conveniences next to the treatment of the garbage problem, indicates clearly the sanitary status and condition of a city.

In the South.

In Havana and the Panama the Americans have abolished respectively the yellow fever and malaria by the destruction of the mosquito nuisance, and in like manner, other diseases can be stamped out by the destruction of the fly nuisance.

The three chief breeding places of the housefly are stable refuse, garbage, and old-fashioned insanitary conveniences. At one sitting the fly deposits some 600 eggs; in a lifetime thousands of eggs are deposited by a single fly. The progeny of one fly in a single season if placed end to end would reach from Canada to Great Britain. In hot weather the eggs hatch in eight or nine days, and in ten to fourteen days the young flies commence to deposit eggs. Thus one generation follows another in about three weeks' time.

Killing Flies.

Large numbers of flies are killed off by a fungus disease in the late summer, but enough remain to propagate their species the following summer after hibernating through the winter.

The great function of the fly is that of a danger signal. The presence of the fly is proof of insanitary conditions.

Food materials should be covered with netting in the summer months. A serious menace to health lurks in the little candy shop and small confectionery store, where fruit and other foodstuffs are exposed for sale. In Saskatchewan a law has been enacted which forbids the open exposure of fruit and food products for sale.

"Abolish the breeding-places of the fly," said Dr. Hewitt. "Stable refuse should be removed from the city limits regularly, and should never be exposed in the open. If it is treated with chloride of lime the fly nuisance is mitigated largely.

"The conservation of public health is of greater importance than any other conservation scheme. The garbage question divides itself into the two problems of garbage collection and garbage disposal. The only proper system of garbage disposal is the incinerator system. Berlin, Germany, has the most perfect system of garbage disposal. Two sets of garbage cans are provided by the city. Empty cans are left when the full cans are collected, and the latter are never opened until the incinerator is reached.

Remedy Conditions.

"The only way to reduce infantile mortality is to remedy insanitary conditions. We must have a proper system of garbage disposal. It is incumbent upon the sanitary authorities of every city to provide such a system."

PREMIERS TO KNOW OF WAR PLANS

Over Seas Dominions Will Be Consulted in All by Empire Moves.

IMPORTANT CONCESSION

Hereafter Colonial Heads Will Be Admitted to Imperial Defence Meetings.

London, April 30. — The important announcement is made by the colonial office that henceforth the colonial prime ministers are to be admitted to the meetings of the committee on national defence and are to be fully informed of the most secret and vital matters relating to foreign relations and the war plans of the Empire.

This very striking and important concession to the standing of the colonies and dominions as co-partners in the British Empire has been made by the Government at the direct instance of Norton Griffiths, M. P., who in a very telling speech in Parliament a few days ago urged upon the Government the absolute necessity of seeking the closest co-operation of the heads of the colonial governments in all matters of imperial moment if it was desired to maintain the supremacy of the British race.

"I approach this question," said Mr. Griffiths, "as one who has lived and worked amongst those in the overseas dominions and I unhesitatingly affirm that without their co-operation you are not going to maintain British supremacy as it has been maintained in the past."

Loyalty Unquestioned.

Interviewed on the subject yesterday, Mr. Griffiths said, "Nobody can question for a moment the extraordinary devotion and loyalty which exists in our overseas dominions, but they have a natural desire to have a hand in the discussion of foreign affairs which affect every unit of the self-governing dominions, and in my opinion it is the bounden duty of the home Government to take them into its counsel and ask what their opinions are and what their ideas are as to the best action to take on imperial questions.

"If the home Government would only extend to Britishers overseas a whole-hearted welcome whenever they express an opinion or offer advice on questions which affect the prosperity of the British race, I am convinced that one and all would jump at the opportunity.

"Unless we give the colonial Governments a voice in the management of the navy, it is not to be expected that they will be willing to contribute towards its upkeep. But if, through the approaching Imperial Conference, some sort of imperial council can be created as a real and genuine stepping-stone to ultimate imperial unity I am certain we shall find every desire on the part of those Britishers who live overseas to join the people of this country in paying for and maintaining the navy and taking good care that it shall remain supreme over all other nations.

"I trust, too, that the day is not far distant when we shall have here a permanent consul, advisory or executive as the case may be, representing every colonial government."

MAN FOR EVERY PLACE; PLACE FOR EVERY MAN

Interesting Discussion in the Auditorium on Sunday Afternoon.

"A Man and His Money" was the subject of an animated discussion in the Auditorium yesterday afternoon, led by Mr. W. G. Young. "Usefulness is the basis of man's success in life," said Mr. Young. "There is a man for every place, and a place for every man in this world."

Referring to the varying regard in which the Bible is held today, he declared that some of the teachings of the Bible, no matter in what light we hold it, are absolutely essential for success in life.

In beginning his address, with a reference to human foibles, he hit good-naturedly at the dress of the present day. "Some young men," he remarked, "dress themselves up like rowdies, and yet they look just like the advertisements, with hats several sizes too large, and their trousers turned very high. Then there are the hobble skirts which look very much like potato bags but we don't need to object.

"Success to some men," he continued, "is an eminence from which they can look down upon their peers. But the basis of real success is the capacity to serve, the ability to do something useful.

Study Contentment.

"Contentment is another element of success. Some people have the conception that this is a strenuous age, and all we need to do is to keep moving without stopping to think. But after all the days when old men sat in the village grocery and kicked their heels on the side of a barrel, were in some respects better than these latter days. There is a disease abroad today. It is the disease of "more." The fever increases as the object of desire is nearer attained to. We have got to be satisfied now or we will never be satisfied, no matter how much we obtain.

"One of the common sins of the day is ungratefulness. What we have, God has given in trust to us. Money is condensed life. It represents so many hours of life. No man can be successful in life unless he gives himself for others. Giving is a [illegible] of our development. I don't believe in a collection plate. It is very often demoralizing.

"Some men haven't more money because God can't trust them with it."

Mr. Young's address provoked a storm of discussion, notably from the Socialist part of his audience, and which was fast and furious for some time. Among those who took a decided objection to his stand, were Messrs Lerner, Charles Hill, Appleton, and Morrison.

Mr. J. M. Gunn said: "The present system is undoubtedly wrong in that it allows great masses of wealth to accumulate in a few hands. But the root of the evil is the inherent selfishness of human nature."

Others who participated in the discussion were Messrs. Fleming, A. V. Wilson, H. D. Ashplant, and Johnston.

DELICATE CHILDREN

"I wish I could induce every mother who has a delicate, sickly child, to try your delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol.

"It restored our little daughter to health and strength after everything else had failed. It tastes so good she loved to take it—not a bit of cod liver oil taste.—Mrs. C. W. Stump, Canton, Ohio. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

The reason Vinol is so successful in building up puny, delicate, ailing children is because it is a combination of the two most world-famed tonics — the medicinal, body-building elements of cod liver oil, added by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron. It contains no oil, and children love to take it, and it cannot harm the most delicate child.

If we can induce you to try a bottle of Vinol as a body-builder and strength creator for your child, and you do not find it is all we claim, we will return your money on demand.

REBELS ASSASSINATE CHINESE GOVERNOR

Hundred Perish in Fighting Following An Uprising at Canton.

Hong Kong, April 29. — Li, the taotai of Canton, has been assassinated by the rebels, who are again strong. The gates of the city have been closed some length.

The loyalty of the troops is doubted, and this fear has caused much excitement among the peaceful inhabitants of Canton.

Refugees arriving here confirm late reports of the uprising at Canton, which appears to have been instigated by anti-Manchus, who went to that city from Macao and Hong Kong, and spread the revolutionary propaganda among the troops at a time when they were nursing several grievances.

Hundreds of rebels have been killed or wounded in the fighting which began with the attack upon the viceroy's palace on Thursday. Brigadier-General Chung was mortally wounded while attempting to suppress the revolt and died yesterday. Two British torpedo boat destroyers have been sent to Canton from here.

MONSTER MOGULS ON GRAND TRUNK

First of the Class Passed Through London on Friday.

The first of the monster new moguls that the Grand Trunk are putting on the passenger service between New York, Toronto, and Chicago, arrived in the city from Toronto on express No. 1 Saturdy. It is No. 210, and was in charge of Engineer Sayler, of Sarnia, with W. Rowell as fireman. The train was in charge of Conductor Williams, of Toronto, and came in ahead of time. The new mogul is of the Pacific type, and is built to maintain a high rate of speed, with a maximum number of cars. With the new engines the need of a pilot engine on the grade west of Hamilton is done away with entirely.

"This engine will haul fourteen big coaches just as easily as one of the old engines will haul three," said Travelling Engineer Fysh, who was also in the cab with the regular engineer. "She will make tremendous speed, and when the fifteen engines of this type, which are nearly ready, are in service, we will be able to make a big cut in our time from New York to Chicago. We can haul heavy trains and make the time."

TALK OF RAISING RATES

Hotelmen Hold a Meeting to Discuss It.

The Hotelkeepers' Association of the city held a largely attended meeting Friday night in the Duffield Block when the question of increasing the rates, not only for rooms and board but also for liquors, was discussed at some length.

This is the second meeting held lately. Some time ago the matter was taken up, and it was practically agreed that all the large hotels downtown should go on the European plan but some of them backed out, and the second meeting resulted. The question was not finally settled last night, and another session will be held on Wednesday evening next to settle it.

Two hotels will adopt the European plan on Monday. If the proposal goes through there will be an increase of 25 per cent all round on rooms and board, together with an increase in the price of liquors.

BRYAN FOR BRANTFORD.

Brantford, Ont., April 29. — William Jennings Bryan has been secured for an address here early in the month of May in behalf of the campaign to raise $100,000 for the new Young Men's Christian Association. Dr. J. A. Macdonald, of the Toronto Globe, will also speak during the campaign, delivering the only address which he will make in Canada before leaving in the course of the month for England on a peace mission.

QUIET AT FEZ.

Fez, April 29. — The city is calm. Horsemen to the number of 1,500 have arrived here from Taza, to assist the forces of the Sultan against the revolting tribesmen.

FEDERATION TO BACK THE BOMB SUSPECTS

Will Take Charge of Defense Fund To Be Raised by Labor.

Indianapolis, May 1.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, arrived Saturday, and immediately went into secret conference with 40 labor leaders of national and state organizations. After the conference Mr. Gompers said the McNamara case was discussed, and that the executive council of the American Federation of Labor would take charge of a defence fund, which would be raised by contribution from the various labor organizations of the country.

A meeting of the executive council is to be called soon by Mr. Gompers, who said the session probably would be held in this city. Further than this, Mr. Gompers would not talk regarding the action of the labor leaders.

Beside the local labor men present, William J. Spencer, secretary of the building trades department of the federation, and Frank L. Mulholland, of Toledo, attended. Mr. Mulholland is an attorney for the national organization and probably will be one of the lawyers for the defence of the three labor men now in jail in Los Angeles, Cal., for the explosion in the Times building.

Detective Burns, who brought about the arrest of the three men, is still in Indianapolis, seeking evidence against the men. He said there were no developments, and that he expected to start for Los Angeles today.

DICKENS TESTIMONIAL IS CAUSE OF A CLASH

The Great Author Himself Forbade Any Such Action.

London, April 30. — The opposition to the Dickens testimonial has lately been rather bitter, and a large number of letters has been sent to the press maintaining that such a testimonial is against the expressed wishes of the great novelist. The battleground on which the controversy has raged is the proviso Dickens inserted in his will forbidding any public testimonial to his memory or the erection of any statue of himself.

The question is whether this proviso was intended to hold good a century after it was written, and even in the face of the need of some of the author's descendants.

Stamps to Raise Fund.

The British Dickens centenary committee is a marvellous body of distinguished men, and they think the proviso should not now hold good. The method by which the committee, at the head of which is Lord Rosebery, hope to create the testimonial fund for the benefit of Dickens' descendants, who are badly off, is by the sale of the Dickens stamps, which they expect every Dickens lover to place in the copies of Dickens' books which he possesses. It is reckoned that there are 48,000,000 copies of the author's works extant in Great Britain and America, and if the Dickens penny stamp is put in a quarter of these the committee will have accomplished what they desire.

To ascertain whether the attacks by those who believe that the promoters of the scheme are running counter to Dickens' wishes have produced any effect upon the committee, a correspondent called upon Beckles Wilson, the secretary, who expressed the belief that the testimonial movement will outlive all opposition.

Dickens Aided Many.

"Dickens," he said, "literally wore himself out in order to make provision for those he loved, and we are doing this for his descendants because, through undeserved misfortune, they have not retained the position in which Dickens believed he had placed them.

"Lord Rosebery has bought 1,200 Dickens stamps, and he writes: 'It would be terrible if my books were found without stamps in them.'"

Stamps have been placed in the King's books at Windsor Castle and Buckingham Palace, and Queen Alexandra has placed 250 stamps in her books.

As to the future, Mr. Wilson is full of plans. Committees have been formed abroad. At the Festival of the Empire there is to be a Peggotty's hut, with all the people who lived there. At the coronation exhibition there will be an Old Curiosity Shop. Further, Sir Herbert Tree is to run a series of Dickens plays and at the Albert Hall there will be a Dickens ball with thousands of dancers.

WEDS A MOHAMMEDAN

English Girl Must Wear Veil If She Adopts Moslem Faith.

London, May 1.—The marriage of Miss Ola Humphrey to Prince Ibrahim Hassan, a relative of the Khedive, has raised many questions as to whether such a ceremony between a Mohammedan and a Christian celebrated in an English registry office would be considered legal in the Ottoman Empire.

A correspondent visited the Turkish embassy in Portland Place, where one of the secretaries said:

"The marriage will be held as legal both in Turkey and Egypt. There is no question as to that. The only thing is that the wife of Prince Hassan becomes a Turkish subject.

"Whether the princess will be recognized in Turkish and Egyptian society depends entirely upon the attitude of Prince Hassan's family. It is a personal matter which will be decided by the head of the family.

"As to the princess going into seclusion upon her arrival in Mohammedan countries, that depends entirely upon the wife's religion. If she remains a Christian, she will find no difference in her life, being free to move about in society as she does in European countries. If she changes her religion and becomes a Mohammedan, then, of course, she will be obliged to wear the veil and conform to the customs of Mohammedan wives."

EXTRA TROOPS RUSHED TO PARIS

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, May 1. — As the general confederation of labor is persisting in its intention to carry out a monster demonstration in face of the Government's prohibition, the authorities have drafted ten thousand additional troops to supplement the Paris garrison of 25,000. M. Lepine, prefect of Paris, has been given absolute control of the city.

At a meeting of the civil and military chiefs last night measures were devised to prevent disturbances.

LONDON, MONDAY, MAY 1.

AN ECHO FROM THE PAST.

In his well-earned retirement Sir Charles Tupper periodically breaks the silence to prove that he is still in touch with current events. He has been a great figure in Canadian political history for so long a period—over 60 years—that around him has gathered something of the public sentiment that attaches to a time-honored institution. A letter which he has written to the Montreal Gazette shows the old spirit of combativeness, but if time has not mellowed the veteran, it has taken the sting from what he chooses to say. He accuses Mr. Fielding of having favored annexation because "in 1868, after Joseph Howe had exhausted every means of defeating Confederation, and decided to make the best of it, Mr. Armand, then proprietor of the Halifax Chronicle, proposed to Mr. Howe to apply to the United States. Mr. Howe rejected the proposal with scorn, but Mr. Fielding remained with Mr. Armand and supported those who hounded Howe to his deathbed and drove him to an untimely grave."

Mr. Fielding was 20 years of age in 1868, and cannot fairly be held responsible for anything done by the owner of a journal on which he was then working as a cub reporter. He inherited, like many leading Nova Scotians, a resentment of the illiberal methods employed to force Nova Scotia into Confederation, but this historic protest, led at first by Joseph Howe, was never tarnished by treason to British connection. Sir Charles naturally lives in the past, and his mind dwells largely on issues which were once the breath of his political life, though now almost forgotten. But the question of trade relations with the United States has been always with us. Sir Charles himself more than once journeyed to Washington to ask for what Washington now gives without asking. He says he is opposed to the present agreement because he was assured in 1886 that the Democratic party would grant, as soon as it had the power, what a Republican president grants today. But five years after 1886, Sir John Macdonald's government was still knocking at Washington's doors, and seven years afterwards the Democrats got control of all branches of government, with no great advantage to Canadian producers.

Sir Charles' letter is welcome as a proof that at 90 years of age he is still interested in public affairs, but it contributes nothing of value to the present controversy.

THE NEWEST BACONIAN ENTERPRISE.

A new turn has been lately given to the "Baconian theory" of Shakespeare. Dr. Orville Owen, of Detroit, one of the "Baconian" enthusiasts who seem to grow like weeds in the neighboring republic, is making use of some of his overplus of wealth in digging up the bed of the River Wye in England. Infected by the idea of Mrs. Gallup and others that Bacon left his authorship of a number of works such as Shakespeare's plays, Sidney's Arcadia, etc., certain proofs, embodied in cipher in the texts of those works, Dr. Owen expects to find, according to his reading of the "cipher," "boxes like eels in the mud, boxes swathed in camlet and covered with tar," buried under the Wye. These boxes are to yield the final and irrefragable proofs that Bacon wrote not only the works of Shakespeare, but of Marlow, Greene, Spencer, Peele and Burton, and that he was the son of Queen Elizabeth. It is believed that Dr. Owen thinks that these proofs, which by the way make one think of Dr. Cook and his "proofs," will include the original MSS. of the plays. For some months a gang of men has been engaged in excavating holes, a work which proceeds slowly, in periods of 50 minutes, by reason of the tides.

There twice a day the Severn fills,
The salt sea-water passes by,
And brushes half the babbling Wye,
And makes a silence in the hills.

How Dr. Owen must hate that defying silence that Tennyson wrote of! Something seems now to have been found, a stone structure thought by the explorer to contain the cache which he seeks. The archaeologists, however, say that it is merely the foundation of a Roman bridge. It will not take long to show who is right about this. In the meantime Dr. Owen sets off one more crashing firework, his finale of conjecture, that the head of Shakespeare will be found entombed in these stones. If you compare Dr. Owen with Dr. Cook, the difference is that a little further and comparatively easy investigation of the find in the Wye will quickly reveal the truth, whereas it would take a long time and much dangerous hardship to get to the Pole, or the top of Mount McKinley, in order to test the New York fakir's reports. And yet Dr. Owen will easily come off too, supposing that the stones do prove to be merely part of a Roman bridge, on the plea that the bed of the river is a large affair and that he may not have struck the right spot.

Excavation seems to be the order of the day. England, Wales and Scotland, not to speak of Germany, Italy and Greece, Turkey in Asia, Egypt and the islands of the sea, are humming with archaeological activity. Dig anywhere, almost, in England and Southern Scotland, and you come on traces of the ancient Romans. Treasure hunts are in full swing on the Scottish coast, in the North Sea, in the Pacific Ocean, etc. Dr. Owen's activities may after all end in the discovery of valuable Roman or Celtic remains. Who knows? He may very probably find some Roman or prehistoric skull; plenty of those are turning up. But it is to be feared that he will not find Shakespeare's head.

What do the other "Baconians" think of Dr. Owen? Does his quest appear to them reasonable or as a caricature of their own ideas? Macaulay says that a tendency is to be judged by its extremes.

A PRINCE OF HUMBUGS.

"Mr. Prince, Republican, says annexation is the inevitable consequence of reciprocity. It is not so much because Mr. Prince says it that it seems to be so."

The saner and cooler heads in the Conservative party have advised taking the annexation bogey off the stage, but the foregoing paragraph in a local contemporary shows a reluctance to part with a contrivance which is an easy substitute for argument.

Why summon Congressman Prince in this instance? He is a bad witness for the Canadian case against reciprocity. He is savagely opposed to it on the ground that it is wholly favorable to Canada. He calls the agreement "the worst bargain ever driven by one nation with another," meaning of course, from the point of view of the United States. The United States farmers are to be sacrificed to this country. To quote him:

"If this bill does not reduce the prices for the farmer why are we seeking to pass it? What is the purpose of this extra session if this measure gives no relief? Does it leave the price of the farmers' products exactly as it is under the other legislation? It does not. The Canadian commissioners know it did not. They declined to let in manufactured products on the free list because it was not in their interest to do so. We have given to Canada the free market of the United States with its $20,000,000,000 of trade."

It is Congressman Prince's theory that the United States' market is to sag under the weight of Canadian farm produce thrown on it. His fellow-opponents of reciprocity on this side of the line say that Canadian prices are to break under the weight of surplus American farm products, thrown on the Canadian market. There is no common ground for the opponents of the agreement in both countries, but Mr. Prince is so anxious to defeat it that he appeals to its enemies in Canada by a pretence that it is the wedge of annexation. If he believed what he said, he would favor the pact as a patriotic American. His exhibition of humbug is only exceeded by that of Canadians who affect to attach importance to his remarks.

The hobble skirt has been barred from court functions. The good sense of the Queen is no doubt behind the ruling. She ought to proscribe the fashions in headgear next.

The Y. M. C. A. is to be commended for giving citizens an opportunity to hear the most eloquent voice in the United States, that of W. J. Bryan. The silver issue is dead, but the silver tongue of its protagonist still delights.

If the Opposition is to obstruct business all summer, the city of Ottawa should profit by the performance. Why not advertise it and run excursions to enable electors to see and hear some of the farceurs they have sent to parliament.

The Toronto Telegram printed a fac-simile of a supposed page of an Imperial Bank ledger, showing a cabinet minister's account with a $50,000 entry. The president of the Imperial Bank says the reproduction is not even a fac-simile, and bears no resemblance in figures or otherwise to the account. It's the Telegram's move.

NO SQUIRMING THERE.
[Hamilton Herald.]

The Moncton, N. B., Times remarks that Sir Wilfrid would like to drop reciprocity, "but, like the man with the live wire, he can't let go." But really, Sir Wilfrid hasn't yet done any conspicuous squirming. He appears to be tolerably well satisfied with the situation.

SIXES AND SEVENS.
[Toronto Star.]

Conservative cliques at Ottawa seem to go by sixes. There are six who refused to sign the petition begging R. L. Borden to continue his leadership. Six got into hot water by voting for the Sealey amendment. And the Opposition itself is at sixes and sevens.

"I saw Peckham today," remarked Nagget, "and he was very drunk."

"Well, there's some excuse for him," replied Mrs. Nagget. "He lost his wife last week."

"I know that, but a man should be able to celebrate without making a hog of himself."

SELF-SACRIFICE.
[Cleveland Leader.]

A story is told of a Rangelly lakes guide who, while working on a log drive, fell into the water.

He struggled for a while and at last dizzy and nearly exhausted, managed to grasp a big log and hold on to it.

The current was so strong and swift that it carried his body under the log until his feet stuck out on the other side.

Just as a comrade grabbed him by the shoulders, he caught sight of his own feet protruding on the other side of the log.

"I can hold on a bit longer," he gasped. "Save the poor fellow that's in headfirst, if you can."

ABROAD-THOUGHTS, FROM HOME.
[E. F. Benson, in the Westminster Gazette.]

Oh, to fly from England,
Now that April's here;
And whoever wakes in England
Is each morning quite aware
That his bedroom water and his basin, too,
Are covered thick with ice, compact and blue,
And the chaffinch is frozen on the orchard bough,
In England, now.

And after April, when May follows,
And the robins are dead, and all the swallows,
Hark where the snow lies thick in St. James' Park
(Boys snowball you as you pass), the wolf-packs bark!
There's a dead thrush; he sang his song once over
And then expired; he never will recapture
Any kind of careful or of careless rapture.
And though sometimes the streets are wet with dew,
All will be ice, ere noontide wakes anew
The sound of skates upon the Serpentine,
And nips the foolish buds of eglantine.

HITS HIS POCKET.
[Hamilton Times.]

The Duke of Manchester, who has been visiting New York, declared that the income tax was "the curse of England." Doubtless the Duke of Manchester and all the great landowners would be glad to see the taxes of Great Britain raised in any way that would not touch land and income.

THE HOUSE FLY.
[Ottawa Free Press.]

Apropos of the campaign in Ottawa urged by his Excellency against the common house fly, it should be noted that the Local Council of Women has already done splendid work in arousing the public to the danger of the pest.

REFLECTIONS.
[Atchison Globe.]

The only thing some people will borrow is trouble.

Some men are a long time getting anywhere, no matter where.

When people are struggling to keep up appearances everyone knows about it.

You are not as good as you think or as bad as your enemies consider you.

Homely men are often flattered by being told that they have good profiles.

WHERE ANGELS FEAR.
[Vancouver Province.]

A New York actress has applied for a divorce, claiming that her husband criticised her new hat. At this particular season of the year the prudent man cannot be too diplomatic in expressing his views on feminine headgear.

THE SUNSHINE SPREADER.
[S. E. Kiser.]

A man who kicked and a man who didn't together set out one day,
And the man who kicked could be heard complaining forever along the way;
The people frowned when they watched him coming, and gladly they saw him go,
But he carried away the things he wanted, for letting the people know.

The man who never was heard complaining was given the people's praise,
And they gladly smiled when they saw him coming, because of his cheerful ways;
But they let him pass with his pockets empty, for the public is still inclined
To forget the need of the patient people who never appear to mind.

If you have a mind to look for the moral this little rhyme contains,
The time you spend will be merely wasted, you'll have nothing for your pains;
There's no such thing as a moral in it, but this is as plain as day,
It isn't always the sunshine spreader who's drawing the biggest pay.

FORTUNE FOUND IN DILAPIDATED SHANTY

Woman Enigma of Wall Street Placed in Insane Asylum.

New York, May 1.—In a dilapidated shanty at No. 452 Prospect avenue, Brooklyn, agents of the state lunacy commission today found stocks, bonds and mortgages, valued at nearly $1,000,000 scattered about like so much waste paper.

The wealth belongs to Jane Perkins Williams, "the woman enigma of Wall street," who since 1875 has been a daring, but wise speculator in stocks. Miss Williams, now in her 75th year, has been removed to the Long Island State Hospital for the Insane for observation. Her actions, always eccentric, became so strange recently that friends caused her removal to the institution.

A special agent of the lunacy commission is on guard at the rickety shanty where the woman had lived for twenty years in the depths of squalor. Rubbish and old bottles heaped the floors and she cooked what little food she ate on a stove that was almost falling to pieces.

Yet every day she went to Wall street and visited brokers, banks and business houses. Her bankers are Henry Clews Company.

In the shanty were found great heaps of letters, most of which had never been opened. Many of these contained evidences of her large investments.

It seems she did not like to collect dividends or interest, for some of the letters urged her to claim accumulations of money which had been running for years.

It is believed, besides the fortune represented by the papers in her home, Miss Williams had as much again deposited in banking institutions.

YORK STREET LADY DIED VERY SUDDENLY

Mrs. Ann Burns Succumbed While Eating Breakfast in Her Home.

Death came most unexpectedly Sunday morning to Mrs. Ann Burns, as she was sitting eating her breakfast at her home, 85 York street. Mrs. Burns was apparently in her usual good health when she arose and got breakfast for herself and her son Frank. While eating it she suddenly fell over and died almost immediately from heart failure.

Throughout last week Mrs. Burns was one of the hardest workers in connection with the bazaar for St. Martin's Church, and on Saturday evening last she went up with her little grandchildren to show them the decorations and assist in some other work which she was doing.

Mrs. Burns was 78 years of age, and had resided in London ever since, as a very small child, she came with her parents from County Wicklow, Ireland. Sixty years ago she was married to the late James Burns, who died here some eight years ago. Mrs. Burns leaves six sons and four daughters: William P., of the city post-office; Louis, Thomas and Frank, of this city; Edward and James, in Detroit; Mrs. D. Collins, of West London; Mrs. P. J. Quinn, of Napinka, Man.; Mrs. Joseph Redmond, of Richmond, Alberta, and Mrs. Jas. Friar, of Grand Rapids, Mich.

A WOMAN'S BACK

Not One Woman in Twenty Has a Strong Back.

The kidneys are to blame nine times out of ten.

Mrs. A. H. Hutton, Jr., McCreary, Man., writes: "Two years ago last spring I had a very severe pain in the small of my back. When I would rise it seemed as if my back would break. My kidneys were very badly out of order, and I would have to get up three or four times during the night. I took one box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they effected a cure."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 for $1 25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by the T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

If ordering direct specify "Doan's."

When the blood isn't properly filtered the poisons that ought to be carried off by the kidneys are sent back through the system, and it's hardly to be wondered that backaches and lame backs come to make life miserable.

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles. They begin by expelling all the poisonous matter from the kidneys, and then heal the delicate membranes and make their action regular and natural.

SCOTLAND YARD READY TO CARE FOR CROOKS

Has Plans to Guard Coronation Visitors From Swarm of Grafters.

London, May 1.—The hundreds of international crooks and grafters who intend visiting London this summer and are hopeful of reaping a bumper harvest during the coronation time will be annoyed to learn that Scotland Yard has prepared extensive plans for their care and reception.

Every device of the English law will be employed to keep them out of the country, and if they should happen to slip in, every device to harry and prevent them from doing business will be enforced.

Information which Scotland Yard has received leads it to believe that a perfect locust-like swarm of crooks from all lands intend to descend upon London this year. Superintendent F. Forest, the head of the criminal department of Scotland Yard, is fully cognizant of the situation and is arranging the most effective deposition of his 800 detectives to cope with the unwelcome invasion.

Arrivals at every English port, including Liverpool, Plymouth, Southampton, Fishguard, Dover, Folkestone and others, will be subjected to a scrutiny by experienced detectives from the yard and any recognized crook will be detained and rejected under the alien act. But this port precaution is only the skirmishing line of the campaign, so to speak. A large force of detectives will be set aside to spend their time at the leading hotels and restaurants watching for crooks and harrying them away if no real definite charge can be brought against them. The hotels will be most anxious to co-operate with Scotland Yard, not only prompted by the desire to rid their hostelries of undesirables, and to protect their guests, but for their own protection as well, as under the English law a hotel that harbors thieves is liable to lose its license.

Periodical raids and round-ups will be made at the various night resorts where these criminal petrels are sure to congregate. The section of the metropolitan police act which gives the police power to arrest anyone on suspicion of loitering about the streets for the purpose of committing a crime will be rigorously enforced.

Men with records, or known to the police, will be generally judged by the English magistrates to be loitering about for no good purpose, unless they can definitely show to the contrary, and be sentenced to three months' imprisonment. At the end of that time, under the new alien criminal act, which has been introduced, they will be deported, and if they show their noses again in England a two years' term will be the penalty.

THE DOLLAR PRINCESS COMPANY IN LONDON

One of the Largest That Ever Played the Grand—A Big Attraction.

A special train bearing "The Dollar Princess" company arrived in London late yesterday afternoon over the G. T. R. from Detroit.

They will present this musical offering at the Grand Opera House tonight, and judging from present indications one of the largest audiences of the season will witness the play.

The company is one of the largest that has appeared in London this season, 93 people being carried.

There is a great deal of scenery in connection with the production, no less than 42 people being required to handle it tonight.

According to critics, the offering is an excellent one. It is the best type of English musical comedy, and as such cannot fail to be pleasing to Londoners. A pleasing vein of satire runs through the piece.

The company presenting it is the original one, with Mr. Donald Brian, who was the original Danillo in "The Merry Widow," in the leading role.

Margaret Anglin Thursday.

The engagement of Margaret Anglin at the Grand Opera House on Thursday, May 4, is fraught with more than ordinary interest; first, by reason of the very favorable impression she left last season in "The Awakening of Helena Richie," and secondly, because in "Green Stockings," the new play by A. E. W. Mason and George Fleming, in which the Liebler & Co., are presenting her, she has, for the first time in her career, a leading comedy role with which she is expected to give her admirers an admirable exposition of her powers as a comedienne. It is not so very long ago since the public was shocked by alarming reports of the health of the distinguished actress, and it is therefore welcome news that she has so rapidly recovered her normal condition and is now in perfect health. There are too few good actresses like Miss Anglin for the stage to spare them.

An Interesting Drama.

The appearance of "The House of a Thousand Candles" at the Grand next Saturday, matinee and night, promises to be an event decidedly out of the ordinary. The play is a powerful dramatization of the novel of the same name, and contains all its interesting episodes and strange characters. There is the mysterious Bates, the man with a past, which will be enacted by Wayne Lyter, and who is said to be the ideal artist for the part. Then there is the vanishing Glenarm, the daring and spirited young Glenarm, the villainous Pickering, the bright Irishman, Larry Donovan, and the fun-loving schoolgirl, Marion Devereaux, and her equally port companion, Gladys Armstrong.

IN the pre-Semi-ready days, some 15 years ago, when a man was in a hurry, he bought a suit at the ready-made store, and he expressed himself about it afterwards.

Nowadays, whether in leisure or in haste, he knows that its the suit he wants, and he's just as proud of the suit's parentage as are its makers.

Classy, kingly and critical folk who are good judges of just what is correct in clothes, know now that Semi-ready is "better than the best tailor's best," even though it does cost less. The extravagant rich have no monopoly of taste and culture.

Semi-ready Suits from $15 to $25 and $30

ANOTHER BAD FIRE AT CREWE HOUSE

Mysterious Blaze During the Absence of Lord Crewe.

[Canadian Press.]

London, April 29.—Suspicion is aroused by a mysterious fire which occurred early this morning at Crewe House, the residence of Lord and Lady Crewe, who are in Italy. Servants extinguished the flames.

Recently, just after Lady Crewe's accouchement, Crewe House was partly destroyed by fire, Lady Crewe and her child being removed while the blaze was at its height, to Lord Rosebery's home.

A NEW YORK TRAGEDY

Foreigner Shoots Driver Who Killed Boy and Is Himself Killed by a Mob.

New York, May 1.—Guiseppi Bongicci, an Italian cigarmaker, who saw his three-year-old boy trampled beneath the hoofs of truck horses, took summary vengeance upon the driver, Wm. Krugman, by pouring four bullets from a revolver into his body. The driver fell dead from his seat almost into the arms of a policeman who had halted him, and a mob of 2,000 bent on punishing the driver, first stood aghast at the shooting, then set furiously upon the slayer.

The lone policeman fought the crowd valiantly for the slayer, but they were not to be denied. Reserves who charged the mob on the double-quick found the prisoner unconscious, with blood flowing from a dozen wounds. He was taken to a hospital, then lodged in jail. He died on an operating table an hour later.

SIX NEW BRIDGES

Tenders Will Be Called for at Once by the County Council

Tenders for the erection of six more bridges in the county have been called for by County Engineer Talbot. HOME HINTS FOR HOUSEKEEPERS

If grease is spilt on the kitchen table, cover the spot at once with salt, which will prevent the grease soaking into the wood.

In sweeping a carpet it is sometimes difficult to get up long hairs or threads of stuff. The best way is to brush lightly around and round instead of straight along. All threads will then be forced in a sort of ball, and can be easily picked off the broom.

A soft cloth dipped in spirits of wine and rubbed on soiled leather will remove every spot.

Four or five drops of castor oil allowed to trickle down into the heart of a palm will remove the scales. Apply the dose about once a week. Lukewarm soapsuds should be used to wash off the dead scales. Then rinse in cold water. This is said to be an excellent remedy by those who have tried it.

To make thin curtains hang evenly when finished, make the casing for the curtain rod first, insert the rod and hang the material from the fixtures, now draw down the window shade as far as you wish the curtains to come when finished. With the bottom of the shade as a guide you may baste or carefully pin the hem, and when it is finished the curtains will look straight.

Try kerosene dusters or "dustless dusters"" when housecleaning. Dampen two cheesecloth dusters with the oil and shut them up in a tin pail with a cover on it for 24 hours; then they will be ready for use. Use one for furniture, etc., the other for hardwood, linoleum and such things. They will take up dust without spreading it again and will not leave streaks, like a freshly-dampened cloth.

To improve oilcloth dissolve a pound of glue in a quart of water over the fire, then rub it lightly over the oilcloth with a piece of flannel. Don't walk on the oilcloth until it is dry.

When cooking in a gas oven a basin of water should always be kept in the oven.

Suede shoes that have become worn and shiny may be freshened by rubbing them lightly with emery paper.

To clean velvet scrape a little pipe clay on it, then brush off lightly with a stiff brush.

Comforts and quilts should be dried in a good stiff breeze, so that they may be as light and fluffy as when new.

Flannelette may be rendered non-inflammable by rinsing it after washing in alum water. Dissolve two ounces of alum in a gallon of cold water.

Frequent dusting saves sweeping. A room that is dusted often and thoroughly will not require such constant sweeping as one that is dusted carelessly and seldom.

For mildew, salt water and sunshine will remove the worst mildew stains. Wet often when the sun is bright, and persevere until the garment is clear and white.

Patent leather shoes should have the dirt removed from them with a damp sponge. Dry with a duster and then apply a very little vaseline and polish with a silk handkerchief.

Dishcloths do not get the attention they should, and in many houses are dirty and quite unfit for use. After washing up, always soap the dishcloth well, and then rinse in hot water with soda in it. Rinse again in hot water and hang it in the air to dry.

To remove the smell of onions from knives place them in the earth for a few minutes. Earth will also sweeten pickle jars, etc., that washing seems powerless to render fit for use, but in that case the jars, etc., should be filled with earth and allowed to remain 24 hours or so.

THE CABLEMAN

BY WEATHERBY CHESNEY.

He went on to explain that last night, when Muriel came in to say that she had met Mr. Page, and that he seemed to have recovered from his gout, the news surprised him, for he had called at the Chinelas a few hours before, and had been told that the gout was very bad. He went out, therefore, to see the phenomenon for himself, and if possible to persuade Mr. Page to come back to supper. He did not succeed in giving this invitation, because, though he caught sight of Mr. Page in the distance, he could not get near to him. He shouted, and was heard, for he got a wave of the hand in reply, but that was all.

"He hurried on," said the pine-grower, "as though he thought I was chasing him. In a sense, of course, I was; but what I mean is that I got the impression that he had some strong reason for avoiding me, so I turned back. It was then that I met the woman."

Scarborough and Varney exchanged glances. The same thought had occurred to them both. Was the woman, after all, Mona de la Mar?

"What was she like?" asked Scarborough.

"I don't know. She didn't give me a chance to see."

"What! Did she run away from you, too?" exclaimed Varney.

"Or bicycle?" said Scarborough.

"Neither. She walked—pretty fast, too. But it wasn't her speed that prevented me from seeing what she was like. I met her face to face, as one might say, without being able to get a glimpse of a feature. She was dressed in capote and capello."

"What are they?" asked Varney.

"The capello is a long blue cloak, and the capote is a hood made of cardboard and whalebone, and covered with cloth," explained Scarborough. "Some of them stick out a yard in front of the face."

"And the edges flap together and hide everything, unless the wearer keeps them open with her hand," added Davis. "This wearer didn't. She even took particular care to keep them shut. I wondered at the time if she was troubled with excess of modesty, but in the light of our later knowledge I'm pretty sure it wasn't that. So you see, Muriel," he added, turning to his daughter, "I had some reason besides prejudice for saying that there was a woman in it."

"Muriel shook her head. "I don't see the reason," she said obstinately, "but I admit that you had more ground than usual for your usual fancy."

"More ground than usual! My usual fancy! Why, I saw her! Anyway, I saw the capote and capello."

"And imagined all the rest." She was walking in the same direction as Mr. Page. What possible reason have you for supposing that she was pursuing him?"

Scarborough cut in quickly with a remark.

"That," he said, "is what we shall have to inquire into. Ready, Phil?"

"Yes," said Varney. "By Jove! we shall have to hurry if I am to be in time for the performance!"

Muriel opened her eyes rather wide. "You are going to the circus?" she asked. She did not object to circuses; she would have liked to go herself; but—was this exactly a suitable time when——? Her eyes plainly suggested a rebuke.

"Oh," explained Varney, "I have to. I'm one of he performers, you know."

"Oh!" said Muriel. Her tone this time suggested a sudden and entire lack of interest, and during the few minutes longer that the young men stayed, she said nothing more.

"I say," said Varney, when he and Scarborough had put a mile between them and the Casa Davis, "I like that girl."

Scarborough laughed.

"Do you?" he said. "Then you shouldn't have told her that you were a circus man."

"Why not?"

"Because she is very earnest, very young and very bigoted. Didn't you see how she froze?"

"She did, rather."

"Quite so. She has notions about the whole duty of man, and I expect she thinks you've missed it by a good bit. Bet you five mil she's already told her father that you are on no account to be asked to go and see them."

"That so?" said Varney. "Well, I mean to go."

"You'll be snubbed."

"Can't help it! But isn't there a chance that she might like to convert me?" said Varney with a grin. "What's the father?"

"Grows pineapples for Covent Garden. Was an army crammer in London, doing pretty well. Lungs went wrong, so he came out here. Doing pretty well here, too. He's smart, and I should call him the best-read Englishman in the island. Muriel is a nice girl, too, or will be when she lives down a few of her crochets. At present she is just a little bit of a prig."

"Then I'll convert her," said Varney.

"I thought the programme was that she was to convert you," commented Scarborough in some amusement.

"Oh, we'll make it mutual! It will be a fair exchange. By the way, you didn't tell them that Page was Carrington."

"No. What was the use? They'll know soon enough. Meanwhile I've a notion that Elsa wouldn't care for the news to be bruited about more than necessary. She still believes in her father's innocence."

"I wonder," said Varney, after a short pause, "whether she really does?"

Scarborough did not reply. In his own mind the same doubt had risen more than once, only to be steadily crushed down. It seemed difficult to believe that Elsa's faith could have withstood unshaken the various shocks to which it had in these last two days been subjected; but apparently it had. He remembered, too, that she had said that there were proofs, and that the murderer had not succeeded in destroying those. But what proofs could there be? He was quite unable to guess at what she meant; but he could not but think that if she was, as he feared, pinning her faith on documents that her father had told her contained his vindication, there could only be another bitter disappointment in store for her.

"Are you going to tell her about the pencilled stone?" asked Varney.

"I don't think so."

"Or about the hooded woman?"

"No, not at present. What's your theory about the hooded woman?"

"Haven't got one," said Varney, "unless it's that Miss Davis is right, and that her father is making a great deal out of nothing. By the way, I got the impression that he wasn't fond of Carrington."

"What made you think so?"

"Well, he didn't express any sort of grief at his death, and he seemed very ready to believe that he was running away from that woman. When a man fears a woman so much that he runs from her, the most usual theory is that the man has something to be ashamed of. It struck me that that was the theory that had occurred to Davis."

"Very likely," said Scarborough. "I believe he didn't like Carrington."

"On general grounds? Or did he know anything?"

"I don't think so."

Presently Scarborough returned again to the subject of the hooded woman, and Varney said sharply:

"I see what you are driving at, of course, but you're wrong. I think it was Mona."

"I don't."

"Well, anyway, you are prepared to believe that it may have been. I tell you the idea is absurd, but you don't seem to be inclined to believe me."

"I want to hear what she has to say," Scarborough returned steadily.

"Exactly! You suspect her! I promised to introduce you, and I'll do it; but I'm more than half sorry I promised, and I'm altogether sorry I ever told you about that vow business. It's that that's sticking in your throat all the time, I know. You can't understand that it was all a piece of highfalutin' nonsense, which she has forgotten long ago. She's a rare good sort, and plucky; but you want to make her out a fool!"

Varney spoke with some heat. He and this girl had been comrades for nearly two years, and he resented suspicion as an insult to her.

"If was you who suggested," Scarborough reminded him, "that she refused to perform last night because she had business with Carrington."

"Great Scott, yes! But things have happened since then that she can have had no hand in. Her business wasn't murder!"

"I don't suggest that it was."

"But you won't take it for granted that she had nothing to do with it—could have nothing to do with it, being the girl I know her to be."

"No," said Scarborough.

Varney laughed, but there was vexation in the laugh.

"Then," he said, "the only cure for you is to meet the girl herself. If you're not a hopeless fool you'll see in five minutes that you've been insulting her. Hurry up, and let's get there as soon as possible."

Twenty minutes later they dismounted at the door of the circus building. Val B. Montague was standing looking out into the road.

"Where's Miss Ryan?" asked Varney.

Val B. Montague turned a straw, by a dextrous movement of his tongue, from one corner of his mouth to the other, and held out his hand to Scorborough, saying:

To Be Continued.

FAMILY MEALS FOR A WEEK

Breakfast.

Prunes with California raisins, finnan haddie, toast, coffee.

Luncheon.

Hungarian goulash, noodles, grape fruit with apple.

Dinner.

Strained chicken soup in cups, broiled steak with green peppers stuffed with spinach, baked potatoes, beet and lettuce salad, plain rice pudding, and black coffee.

Stewed Prunes and California Raisins.

Soak half a pound of prunes over night in cold water; rinse in cold water and put into a saucepan with half a pound of California raisins; 2 ounces of sugar; 1 bayleaf; a stick of cinnamon, and the rind of a lemon. Cook gently for twenty-five minutes, and set aside to cool without uncovering. Serve with cream.

You may, if you like, discard the bayleaf and lemon rind.

The quantity here prescribed will be enough for four mornings. It will keep well.

Finnan Haddie.

Remove all the meat from a smoked haddock, and tear it into 2-inch pieces. Plunge into a bowl of boiling water; cover, and let it stand 5 minutes. In the meantime, rub together a tablespoonful of butter and a teaspoonful of flour and add half a pint of milk. Set over the fire and bring to a boil, stirring to prevent scorching. When it bubbles, turn off the gas.

Drain the fish and add to the cream sauce, but do not cook any more. Serve in a deep dish and pass toast with it.

Hungarian Goulash.

Remove all the fat from 2 pounds of beef, and cut the lean meat into 2-inch squares. Put an iron kettle on the range to heat. When it is hot, add the fat; fry out all the grease, being careful not to burn it. Add, then, 3 sliced onions and keep stirring with a wooden spoon until the onions are light brown. Add the meat, which should have been washed and drained (not dried!). Stir in the meat and cover tightly. Simmer for two hours. At the end of that time, if the meat be cooked tender, season with half a teaspoonful of salt and the same of sweet Hungarian red pepper.

Serve upon a platter with plain boiled noodles.

Grape Fruit and Apple.

Separate and serve 2 parts of grape fruit and half as much apple upon a crisp lettuce leaf. Sprinkle with powdered sugar and squeeze the juice of a quarter of a lemon over it.

Green Peppers Stuffed With Spinach.

Stuff 5 large peppers with cold spinach left from yesterday. Arrange them in order in the lower part of the broiler, and while the steak is broiling baste the peppers in the fat and gravy that drip upon them from the meat.

Serve in the same platter with the steak.

Lettuce and Beet Salad.

Serve the cold boiled beets whole upon the lettuce. Make a dressing of oil, vinegar and English mustard and pepper. Cover the beets with a generous spoonful of finely minced parsley and onion.

Put a quarter of a teaspoonful of mustard in a bowl; add a pinch of salt, pepper and paprika; 3 teaspoonfuls of vinegar and 1 brimming tablespoonful of pure salad oil—the best brand—and beat to an emulsion with a silver fork. If you like, you may add a teaspoonful of very fine chopped chives instead of onion.

Correspondence

Edited by Cynthia Grey.

The Proper Thing.

Dear Miss Grey: I have taken great interest in reading your correspondence column. Kindly answer these questions:

1. Is it proper for a schoolboy to put his arm around a schoolgirl when having their pictures taken?

2. Is it proper for a young girl of 16 to visit at the home of her boy friend?

3. Is it proper for a married man to accompany a young girl home from church when his wife is not in the town?

4. When your parents object to admit your gentleman friend, of whom you are very fond, into your home, is it proper to walk about the streets with him?

5. When you don't prefer a gentleman's company, how should you make known your objections?

6. When you wish to go to the theatre with your boy friend, and your mother objects, and your father gives his consent, whose advice should you follow? DIMPLED DARLING.

A.—1. No.

2. If his sister or mother invite her. Not otherwise.

3. Ordinarily speaking, yes.

4. You should respect your parents' wishes. If they do not approve of your friend there is doubtless some good reason for it. Better be guided by them for a few years.

5. If you refuse to accompany him any place, he will soon take the hint.

6. Little girl, my advice is to be guided by your mother. It is quite possible she has studied your nature more than your father has and knows what is best for you. Do not think mothers fail to sympathize with their girls for wanting some fun. They have all been girls themselves. But mothers have the best interests of their daughters at heart, and often in later years these one-time "16-year-olds" rise up and bless their maternal parents for having restrained them a little when they were young.

Dear Miss Grey: Will you please tell me, is it proper for the bride to wear her veil while at the wedding breakfast? BRIDE-TO-BE.

A.—Yes. She remains in wedding garb until the breakfast is over, and then leaves the room quietly to don her travelling suit.

Dear Miss Grey—Will you kindly answer the following questions: (1) Which is nicer for a wee girl of two years, slippers, sandals or high shoes? (2) Would you advise me to get black patent leather for her? She has been given presents of dresses of different colors, and I cannot get shoes to match each dress, and in a country place white shoes soon get soiled. (3) Would a hat be nice for her this summer? Thanking you in advance, I am, A YOUNG MOTHER.

A.—(1) Slippers are best for warm weather. (2) Yes, get the black patent leather, and colored stockings to match her dresses. (3) The dainty little straw bonnets one sees in the shops are very popular for children's wear at present. Why not get one of them?

Dear Miss Grey—Please answer the following questions through The Advertiser:

(1) Please tell me, in detail, the duties of the lady who receives the guests at the home of the bride's parents after a church wedding, and what she should say, as they enter the door, and also should she lead the way through the doors and hallways, or step aside and let them pass in front of her? (2) What is the most up-to-date way of serving wedding cake when boxes are not used? (3) How should the bride and groom, her parents and his parents, the bridesmaid and groomsman, the minister and his wife, and two little flower girls be seated at the table of the wedding dinner? (4) Are stockings that match the dress to be worn this summer? (5) What would be a most up-to-date way for a girl of 21 to wear her hair? CINDERELLA.

A.—(1) When the bride's father and mother are present they usually meet and welcome the guests as they enter the house. One or two men friends of the family are in waiting to escort the guests to the drawing-room, where the bride and groom should stand to receive congratulations. This same rule should apply to whoever is acting as hostess. (2) Wrap small squares in a double piece of fine white linen paper, and tie with dainty ribbon. Have these piled on a side table for the guests to receive when passing out. (3) The bride and groom occupy the head of the table; next to the bride are her father and the groom's mother; next to the groom sit the bride's mother and the groom's father; the minister and his wife may come next, with the bridesmaid and her attendant opposite. (4) Yes; very popular. (5) Best get a hairdresser to do your hair in some becoming way, and try to follow the style when dressing it yourself.

GALA DAYS IN LONDON

King and Queen Assume Social Leadership of British Capital.

London, May 1—The King and Queen are making many engagements, assuming all the obligations of social leadership and giving a fillip to the season which this year really opens in May. They have visited the academy, Covent Garden, dined with Lord and Countess Granard, and have been constantly seen during the gala month with its four courts, its unveiling of the Victoria memorial, and its costume balls and town shows.

The German Emperor and Empress and several Hohenlohe and Leneingen princes and princesses will be guests at the palace about the middle of May.

Queen Alexandra will be back from the Mediterranean next week and will attend the ceremonial of the unveiling of the Victoria memorial and the memorial service for King Edward at Windsor. She will entertain the German Emperor and Empress at Marlborough House during coronation month.

She will probably remain at Sandringham and start for Norway and Denmark at the end of the summer.

TALK OF CHANGES IN PRAYER BOOK

Episcopal Clergy Urge Shortening Version of Commandments in Public Use.

Washington, April 30. — "Revise the Ten Commandments," urged Rev. Dr. George A. Douglas, canon of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York, in speaking at the 29th congress of the Protestant Episcopal Church on 'The Need for Prayer Book Revision to Meet Present Day Conditions."

"Let us have the courage," he said, "to restore our prayer book version of the Ten Commandments to what scholars are pretty generally agreed was the original and shorter form."

He said that with prayer book revision in line with the movement for church unity, the Roman, Greek and Anglican churches ultimately must be able to come together in public worship. "In revision," he suggested, "we must not snap the links that bind us to these ancient churches." He regarded the present book of common prayer as "unsuitable for working people and so-called socialists," who have been attracted to the Christian churches. The revised prayer book should give ministers the right on occasion to "pray extempore without appearing to be either rampant or radical."

Rev. Dr. Henry R. Gummey, of Haddonfield, N. J., opposed revision pending careful study by an international council representing all the branches of the Anglican Church.

Rev. Dr. Percy S. Grant, of New York, urged prompt action in shortening the church service.

Rev. Dr Cyrus Townsend Brady, of Kansas City, Mo., declared he would oppose any revision which would take away anything from the ancient truth or the beauty of the prayer book.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured Her Eczema when All Else had Failed

"Some nine years ago I noticed small pimples breaking out on the back of my hands. They became very irritating, and gradually became worse, so that I could not sleep at night. I consulted a physician who treated me a long time, but it got worse, and I could not put my hands in water. I was treated at the hospital, and it was just the same. I was told that it was a very bad case of eczema. Well, I just kept on using everything that I could for nearly eight years until I was advised to try Cuticura Ointment. I did so, and I found after a few applications that the burning sensations were disappearing, I could sleep well, and did not have any itching during the night. I began after a while to use Cuticura Soap. I stuck to the Cuticura treatment, and thought if I could use other remedies for over seven years with no result, and after only having a few applications and finding ease from Cuticura Ointment, it deserved a fair trial with a severe and stubborn case. I used the Cuticura Ointment and Soap for nearly six months, and I am glad to say that I have hands as clear as anyone.

"It is my wish that you publish this letter to all the world, and if anyone doubts it, let them write me." (Signed) Miss Mary A. Bentley, 93 University St., Montreal, Sept. 14, 1910.

You Can Try Them Yourself Without Cost

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment have afforded the speediest and most economical treatment for torturing, disfiguring skin and scalp humors of young and old. The Reason

For years it has been a serious question with Piano Manufacturers where advertising money could be placed to the greatest advantage, and we have finally decided to place our factory advertising appropriation for this season with The Piano Manufacturers' Publicity Bureau, of Toronto, Ont., and use this publicity money where it will do piano buyers, for whose benefit it is conducted, the most good. In other words, instead of spending a large sum in expensive magazine advertising, we are going to give this amount of money directly to the people in this territory, and distribute the above prizes as stated. Start today and try for one of the capital prizes. There is no catch.

Representatives from local newspapers will act as judges, and their decision will be final. All prize-winners will be notified by mail, and a list of capital prize-winners will be published in the daily papers.

FINDS NEW MOVE FOR ROOSEVELT

Strong Effort to Force Nomination Next Year, Says Writer for New York Paper.

New York, April 28.—The Washington correspondent of the Globe telegraphs his paper this afternoon:

"That a strong movement is on foot to force the nomination of Col. Theodore Roosevelt for President in 1912 is the highly interesting information that has developed here. Back of this movement are some of the leading Republicans in Congress. As yet the movement has not taken any organized form so far as can be learned. But it has gone far enough so that within recent days Col. Roosevelt has been consulted about it by men high in the councils of the Republican party.

"Not only is this the case, but it is known that Col. Roosevelt though refusing to get into the race and become an avowed candidate for the Republican nomination has made it plain he would not refuse the nomination if it came to him. In other words, his attitude as described here is that he would regard a nomination by the Republican party as a call to duty and he would not shrink from it.

"That some of the leading progressives in Congress, and some of the leading regulars as well, want Col. Roosevelt to be the nominee, is positively known. They declare frankly that he is the only man in sight who can save the Republican party in 1912 from a sweeping defeat. One of the most prominent regulars in the Senate declared this today."

ENRAGED ELEPHANT KILLS ITS TRAINER

Animal Became Infuriated While Being Put in Car For Shipment.

[Canadian Press.]

Dixon, Mo., April 29.—Hundreds of persons yesterday saw an infuriated elephant hurl its trainer into the air and then, after crushing him with its weight, repeatedly pierce the body with its tusks. The tragedy came while James Hildebrand, the trainer, was endeavoring to put the animal, which belonged to a Wild West show, into a car. Hildebrand was adjusting the chains which bound the animal to its mate. Without warning the elephant became enraged, and wrapping its trunk around the trainer's body, lifted him high into the air, then dashed him to the ground. It is believed he was killed instantly.

With its rage still unsatisfied, the elephant dragged the body thirty feet along the railroad tracks in the yard and repeatedly thrust its tusks into it. Attaches of the show ran to the rescue with pitchforks and drove the elephant from its victim. Later it was shot.

Hildebrand had been the trainer for years and frequently slept beside the elephant.

DEATH OF JAMES OGILVIE.

Montreal, April 29.—Mr. James A. Ogilvie, sen., one of Montreal's foremost and most energetic businessmen, is dead. The deceased was 76 years old. Mr. Ogilvie has had a long and successful career, being the founder of the well-known drygoods firm of Jas. Ogilvie & Sons. He was a member of Stanly Street Presbyterian Church, and a life member of the St. Andrew's and Caledonia Societies.

EXIT HOBBLE AND THE HAREM

Also the Pasha and Perhaps Big Hats Are Doomed.

BANNED BY QUEEN MARY

Extremes of Fashion To Be Excluded From All Court Functions.

[Canadian Press.]

London, April 29.—The general opinion of the English press on the lord chamberlain's order that the hobble skirt be banned at all court functions is that it means the disappearance of the dress.

In court circles it is whispered that Queen Mary positively abhors the hobble skirt; in fact, she discountenances all extremes of fashion, such as tight skirts, enormous hats and exaggerated coiffures.

The disappearance of the hobble, of course, also means the end of the pasha or harem skirt. Fashionable dressmakers apparently are glad that these skirts are to be banned. The manager of one dressmaking firm voiced the opinion of all when she said:

"We have ceased to make tight skirts unless specially ordered. I sincerely hope we have heard the last of the detestable 'hobble.' It was forced on us. I think we shall all be glad to see the last of it. I saw no merit in it from beginning to end. Not one hobble in ten fitted properly."

Exit Hobble

Another leading dressmaker admitted that many gowns for the first court on May 9, had been designed as "hobbles." These have been entirely remodelled.

The careful manner in which any approach to a royal command has been avoided in the matter is evidenced by the fact that no written message has been sent to dressmakers, but an official from the lord chamberlain's office personally called and requested the managers to convey to their clients the information that it was undesirable that tight skirts should be worn at court.

The Queen's position is approved by many women and all men. The hope is expressed that the lord chamberlain's office will next convey a hint to milliners that big hats must go, too.

Two sisters receive $500 each and the remainder of the estate, the total value of which was about $52,000, is divided equally among the sons and daughters.

TRAIN JUMPS TRACK SIDE-SWIPES OIL TANK

Three Dead and Eight Missing in Wreck of an Excursion Train.

Easton, Pa., April 30.—Three persons lost their lives, eight are missing and believed to be dead, and half a hundred others were injured on Saturday at Martin's Creek, N. J., in a wreck of an excursion train carrying 170 school teachers and friends from Utica and Syracuse, N. Y., and vicinity to Washington for a week's outing.

The train was one furnished the teachers by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, and the accident occurred while it was travelling at a high rate of speed over a stretch of track controlled by the Pennsylvania Railroad. The locomotive jumped the track, the cars toppled over, and were set on fire by exploding oil, the wrecked coaches having side-swiped an oil tank along the track when they left the rails.

The entire train was quickly enveloped in flames and completely consumed by the fire. The eight missing persons, seven of whom were women, and lived in Utica, are believed to have been burned to death in the wreckage. The finding of charred bones led the railroad wrecking crews to the conclusion that they are dead.

The most seriously injured were removed to the Easton Hospital, where two of them, Miss Eleanore E. Rutherford, a Utica teacher, and Charles M. Person, of Stroudsburg, Pa., a Pennsylvania Railroad conductor, died last night, while W. M. Vancy, of Trenton, N. J., engineer of the train, succumbed early this morning.

The physicians at the hospital said late tonight that most of those in the hospital will get well.

Those not injured, and who were willing to return at once to their homes, left Martin's Creek late on Saturday night. The cause of the wreck has not yet been discovered. The point where the accident occurred has been undergoing repairs, and unfinished work may have been responsible for the train leaving the track. Vice-President Sherman was to have given a reception for the teachers in Washington, and it was reported that he was on the ill-fated train. Later, however, it was learned that he had remained at his home in Utica, and would leave for Washington tonight.

STANDPATTERS DYING

Never Going Forward, Always Backward, Says Democratic Critic.

Washington, May 1.—Right-of-way for the "farmers' free list bill" in the House next week was provided for when the House voted in effect to put aside the "discharge calendar" on Monday and to meet an hour earlier each day until the bill is voted upon.

The contest of party leaders at the close of Saturday had been preceded by five hours' general debate on the "farmers' free list bill."

Representative Crumpacker, of Indiana, opposed the bill, while Representative Hammond, of Minnesota, Representative Martin, of South Dakota, and Representative Cline, of Indiana, expressed intention of voting for it.

The final speech of the day was by Representative Heflin, of Alabama, who took the floor to "say something about the Republican party," to the insurgents, who, he said, "did not insure long enough." He extended an invitation from the Democratic party to "come ye out from among them, and be ye separate from them." He described the standpatters as a dying race, never going forward, but always backward. He likened the "new Nationalists" to a dog "that smelt game, but couldn't quite locate it."

TWO MONSTER LINERS FOR C. P. R. ON PACIFIC

Fifteen Thousand Ton Vessels To Be Placed on Oriental Route.

Montreal, May 1.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, who arrived home from England Saturday, announced that contracts for two new 15,000-ton steamers for the Canadian Pacific Oriental route would be given out soon.

The ships will be larger than the Atlantic Empresses, and are to be completed in 18 months. Sir Thomas denied the rumor that the Atlantic Empresses would be transferred to the Pacific service and replaced by the vessels on their completion. Sir Thomas also said that the Canadian Pacific would not extend its line through the Yellow Head Pass.

He announced that the Dominion Atlantic line from Yarmouth to Halifax would be shortly taken over by the Canadian Pacific.

HAYWOOD'S NOVEL PLAN TO HELP M'NAMARA

Proposes That All Union Men Strike on Day Trial Opens.

St. Louis, Mo., April 30.—A general strike of every laboring man in the United States to be called on the day of the trial of J. J. McNamara, now in jail in Los Angeles, Cal., in connection with the blowing up of the Times' building last winter, is to be labor's protest against the alleged kidnapping of McNamara, according to a circular prepared by the Industrial Workers of the World, a Chicago organization, controlling 50,000 men.

This circular, which will be sent all over the United States in a few days, was read here this afternoon by Wm. D. Haywood to a mass meeting of 1,000 Socialists and labor unionists who packed Aschenbroedel Hall to hear Haywood, who five years ago with Moyer and Pettibone was "kidnapped" in Denver and rushed by special train to Boise City, Idaho, on a similar charge to that which McNamara must face.

According to Haywood's plan as outlined in the circular and for which he stands sponsor, the Socialists are expected to organize the workers outside of the labor unions and persuade them to quit their jobs on the day McNamara comes to trial, while the union men are expected to join in the movement.

LAID CORNER-STONE.

Dr. McIntosh, past district deputy of Carleton Place, presented the grand master with a silver trowel on behalf of St. John's Lodge. District Deputy Ross, of Ottawa, presided over the lodge of instruction after the ceremony.

NINTH ROUND RALLY WIN FOR TIGERS

Ty Cobb's Bingle Ties Score and Starts Detroit to 5 to 4 Victory.

FOUR PLAYERS BREAK IN

Schmidt, Donovan, Drake and Schaller Had Not Appeared Before.

Detroit, May 1.—Four Tigers—two veterans and a pair of recruits—were given their first taste of major league ball this season in the ninth inning of yesterday's game at Bennett Park. Two of them got hits, and two of them scored runs, and their work resulted in a ninth inning rally that defeated Cleveland, 5 to 4.

It was Ty Cobb's hit with two men on bases after two others had scored that brought in the tallies that tied and won the game. Twice before Cobb had chances to bring in runners with a hit, but was unable to land safely. In the ninth with Bill Donovan on third and O'Leary on second, Ty smashed a hot grounder to the right of first base. Stovall tried for the ball. He reached it with one hand, but it rolled to the outfield and Donovan and O'Leary trotted across the plate, ending the game.

A Great Rally.

In that rally in the ninth, Charlie Schmidt, Bill Donovan, Del Drake and Walter Schaller broke into the Tiger line-up for the first time this year. Schmidt and Drake had greater responsibility placed upon them than the other pair. They were sent up as pinch hitters and delivered the goods, each rapping out clean singles to the outfield. Donovan and O'Leary merely were used as substitute base runners. The score:

Cleveland, April 29.—Joe Jackson today is the hero of Napland. LONGBOAT PROVES A GREAT MUDDER

Indian Beats Ljungstrom Two Laps in Race Run in Sun and Rain.

Buffalo, May 1.—Tom Longboat literally ran away from Gusta Ljunstrom, the Swedish crack, in the fifteen-mile race yesterday afternoon. The Indian gave added proof to his race of last Sunday that he is back to his form of five years ago, when he was the king of all long distance runners. When they pulled off their clothes and donner racing togs yesterday the sun was shining brilliantly, but they had scarcely travelled four miles before the sky was darkened by lowering clouds and the early sprinkle changed to a real downpour. Ten miles of the race were run in a driving rain, and it did not improve the state of mind of runners and spectators that as the contest drew near a conclusion that Old Sol again began peeping through the clouds.

Pirates Start Off With Two in First Period, But Are Held Until the Ninth.

AND IN THE MEANTIME

Chicago Tallied Six Large Ones and Copped the Contest by Strong Batting Bee.

Chicago, April 30.—Chicago defeated Pittsburg today in an exciting batting bee, 6 to 4. The visitors took the lead with a base on balls, a double and single in the first inning. Camnitz held the locals safe until the sixth, when three doubles, a sacrifice, an error and a single made four runs. A single and a home run gave Chicago two more in the seventh, and Camnitz retired after Archer followed with a double. Pittsburg started a rally in the ninth, two doubles, a single and error giving two runs. The excitement was so high that one of the spectators fainted, and had to be carried from the grounds. GIANTS TAKE FIRST FROM BROOKLYN 7---3

Brooklyn, April 29.—The biggest crowd of the season saw the opening game of the year between the Brooklyn and New York Nationals here today. The Giants won, 7 to 3. The game was practically decided in the first inning, when ten of the visitors faced Barger, and four of them crossed the plate on a combination of hits and errors. The Brooklyns batted Mathewson hard, but threw away runs by reckless base-running. Score:

BUFFALO SLAUGHTERS M'GINNITY'S INDIANS

Bisons Make It Three in a Row in Camp of Newark Crew.

Newark, April 30.—For the third successive time in as many days, the Herd ruthlessly slaughtered the Indians at Weidenmayer's Park this afternoon. The score, 9 to 2, but half tells the tale of the manner in which the triumphant Bisons made the proteges of the famous "Iron Man" look like a bunch of selling platers. The stage was set amid a downpour of rain that threatened to disrupt the plans of the 6,000 fans that had gathered and send them scurrying to their homes in a downpour of rain. Score:

KEENAN TO MANAGE LONDON BALL CLUB

Local Player Accepts Terms and Will Report Here This Evening.

BRINGS MEN FROM FLINT

"Jo-Jo" Is a Londoner, and Has Enviable Record—Played in Marathon Game.

Manager Minhinnick, of the London Baseball Club, this morning closed with "Joe Joe" Keenan to act as playing manager and captain of the London club in the newly-organized Canadian Baseball League.

Keenan is at present with the Flint team in the South Michigan League, but will report here tonight, bringing with him a couple of men for the local squad.

Keenan is a London boy, and spends his winters in this city. His home is at 41 Mount Pleasant avenue, West London.

"Joe Joe" has an enviable record in professional baseball, and first made his appearance in this city in the old league with Pete Lohman. In 1910 he was with Bloomington, and worked on the team in the world's record twenty-six inning match against Decatur in the "Three Eye" League on May 31. Keenan played 141 games, went to bat 553 times, scored 62 runs, swatted 124 bingles, made 19 two-baggers, and a dozen triple sackers, had a total of 167 bases, 39 sacrifice hits, and 19 stolen bases. He batted .224 per cent, and led the third basemen of the league in individual fielding, his record showing 135 games, 162 put-outs, 232 assists, 7 errors, and an average of .936.

Last Year's Record.

Last year with the same club Keenan showed this batting record: Games 131, at bat 489, runs 35, hits 100, sacrifice hits 31, stolen bases 10, average .204.

"Jo Jo's" individual fielding record is also an enviable one. It follows: Games 131, put-outs 156, assists 279, errors 40, average .912.

Manager Minhinnick on Saturday received telegrams and long distance telephone messages from a number of players whose fate will be decided, so far as the London club is concerned, shortly after the arrival here of Keenan.

The committees sent out to solicit subscriptions report a very fine reception among the businessmen. The finances were rather bad, as no serious effort had been made to raise money, but the club has now a pleasant outlook.

Going to Guelph.

Manager Minhinnick and League President Donald Ferguson will go to Guelph tomorrow morning to attend the schedule meeting of the league, which will be held there at 1 o'clock. They expect to secure the dates London is after, as the smaller towns realize there is more money here on a holiday than at home.

JOHNSON WILL RACE BROUARD ON MAY 30

Champion and Frenchman Sign Articles for 15-Mile Auto Contest in Chicago.

JACK STARTS TRAINING

Says He Will Do Much Better Than He Did When Barney Oldfield Beat Him.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Chicago, May 1.—Emile Brouard is the new white hope.

The Frenchman and Jack Johnson have signed articles to drive a 15-mile automobile race on May 30 for the heavyweight championship of the world.

The Frenchman has beaten all the other "hopes," such as Carrol Morris, and Con O'Kelly, to a match with the champion, and perhaps after their meeting there will be no further need of looking for a hope.

Johnson and Brouard are to race three heats of five miles each, best 2 in 3. They will wager $5,000 on the side. Cal Harris, who is promoting the race, says it will be run off on one of the local tracks and expects to select the course within a few days.

The drivers are to get 75 per cent of the gross gate and are guaranteed $4,500. The winner will take 75 per cent of the purse and the loser the remainder.

"I am going into training at once," said Johnson last night. "I intend to show the auto race public that I can drive. I was beaten by Oldfield, but it was my first try at auto competition and I was rather new to the game. But I am learning fast and will demonstrate this time that Jack Johnson can drive a racing auto just about as well as he can fight."

Brouard is one of the best drivers in America at present and he has a big crowd of followers in Chicago who will back him to the limit to beat Johnson.

Already a bid of $2,800 has been made for the exclusive moving picture privilege on the race.

HAYWOOD'S NOVEL PLAN TO HELP M'NAMARA

Proposes That All Union Men Strike on Day Trial Opens.

St. Louis, Mo., April 30.—A general strike of every laboring man in the United States to be called on the day of the trial of J. J. McNamara, now in jail in Los Angeles, Cal., in connection with the blowing up of the Times' building last winter, is to be labor's protest against the alleged kidnapping of McNamara, according to a circular prepared by the Industrial Workers of the World, a Chicago organization, controlling 50,000 men.

This circular, which will be sent all over the United States in a few days, was read here this afternoon by Wm. D. Haywood to a mass meeting of 1,000 Socialists and labor unionists who packed Aschenbroedel Hall to hear Haywood, who five years ago with Moyer and Pettibone was "kidnapped" in Denver and rushed by special train to Boise City, Idaho, on a similar charge to that which McNamara must face.

According to Haywood's plan as outlined in the circular and for which he stands sponsor, the Socialists are expected to organize the workers outside of the labor unions and persuade them to quit their jobs on the day McNamara comes to trial, while the union men are expected to join in the movement.

LAID CORNER-STONE.

Ottawa, April 29.—Judge Macwatt, of Sarnia, grand master, yesterday afternoon laid the corner-stone of the new Masonic Temple at Carleton Place. The building replaces one destroyed by fire a year ago. The ceremony took place at 2 p.m., representatives being present from Ottawa and all over Eastern Ontario. Dr. McIntosh, past district deputy of Carleton Place, presented the grand master with a silver trowel on behalf of St. John's Lodge. District Deputy Ross, of Ottawa, presided over the lodge of instruction after the ceremony.

FINDS NEW MOVE FOR ROOSEVELT

Strong Effort to Force Nomination Next Year, Says Writer for New York Paper.

New York, April 28.—The Washington correspondent of the Globe telegraphs his paper this afternoon:

"That a strong movement is on foot to force the nomination of Col. Theodore Roosevelt for President in 1912 is the highly interesting information that has developed here. Back of this movement are some of the leading Republicans in Congress. As yet the movement has not taken any organized form so far as can be learned. But it has gone far enough so that within recent days Col. Roosevelt has been consulted about it by men high in the councils of the Republican party.

"Not only is this the case, but it is known that Col. Roosevelt though refusing to get into the race and become an avowed candidate for the Republican nomination has made it plain he would not refuse the nomination if it came to him. In other words, his attitude as described here is that he would regard a nomination by the Republican party as a call to duty and he would not shrink from it.

"That some of the leading progressives in Congress, and some of the leading regulars as well, want Col. Roosevelt to be the nominee, is positively known. They declare frankly that he is the only man in sight who can save the Republican party in 1912 from a sweeping defeat. One of the most prominent regulars in the Senate declared this today."

ENRAGED ELEPHANT KILLS ITS TRAINER

Animal Became Infuriated While Being Put in Car For Shipment.

[Canadian Press.]

Dixon, Mo., April 29.—Hundreds of persons yesterday saw an infuriated elephant hurl its trainer into the air and then, after crushing him with its weight, repeatedly pierce the body with its tusks. The tragedy came while James Hildebrand, the trainer, was endeavoring to put the animal, which belonged to a Wild West show, into a car. Hildebrand was adjusting the chains which bound the animal to its mate. Without warning the elephant became enraged, and wrapping its trunk around the trainer's body, lifted him high into the air, then dashed him to the ground. It is believed he was killed instantly.

With its rage still unsatisfied, the elephant dragged the body thirty feet along the railroad tracks in the yard and repeatedly thrust its tusks into it. Attaches of the show ran to the rescue with pitchforks and drove the elephant from its victim. Later it was shot.

Hildebrand had been the trainer for years and frequently slept beside the elephant.

DEATH OF JAMES OGILVIE.

He was a member of Stanly Street Presbyterian Church, and a life member of the St. Andrew's and Caledonia Societies.

EXIT HOBBLE AND THE HAREM

Also the Pasha and Perhaps Big Hats Are Doomed.

BANNED BY QUEEN MARY

Extremes of Fashion To Be Excluded From All Court Functions.

[Canadian Press.]

London, April 29.—The general opinion of the English press on the lord chamberlain's order that the hobble skirt be banned at all court functions is that it means the disappearance of the dress.

In court circles it is whispered that Queen Mary positively abhors the hobble skirt; in fact, she discountenances all extremes of fashion, such as tight skirts, enormous hats, and exaggerated coiffures.

The disappearance of the hobble, of course, also means the end of the pasha or harem skirt. Fashionable dressmakers apparently are glad that these skirts are to be banned. The manager of one dressmaking firm voiced the opinion of all when she said:

"We have ceased to order tight skirts unless specially ordered. I sincerely hope we have heard the last of the detestable 'hobble.' It was forced on us. I think we shall all be glad to see the last of it. I saw no merit in it from beginning to end. No one Hobble in ten fitted properly."

Exit Hobble.

Another leading dressmaker admitted that many gowns for the first court on May 9, had been designed as "hobbles." These have been entirely remodelled.

The careful manner in which any approach to a royal command has been avoided in the matter is evidenced by the fact that no written message has been sent to dressmakers, but an official from the lord chamberlain's office personally called and requested the managers to convey to their clients the information that it was undesirable that tight skirts should be worn at court.

The Queen's position is approved by many women and all men. The hope is expressed that the lord chamberlain's office will next convey a hint to milliners that big hats must go, too.

TRAIN JUMPS TRACK SIDE-SWIPES OIL TANK

Three Dead and Eight Missing in Wreck of an Excursion Train.

Easton, Pa., April 30.—Three persons lost their lives, eight are missing, and believed to be dead, and half a hundred others were injured on Saturday, at Martin's Creek, N. J., in a wreck of an excursion train carrying 170 school teachers and friends from Utica and Syracuse, N. Y., and vicinity to Washington for a week's outing.

The train was one furnished the teachers by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, and the accident occurred while it was travelling at a high rate of speed over a stretch of track controlled by the Pennsylvania Railroad. The locomotive jumped the track, the cars toppled over, and were set on fire by exploding oil, the wrecked coaches having side-swiped an oil tank along the track when they left the rails.

The entire train was quickly enveloped in flames and completely consumed by the fire. The eight missing persons, seven of whom were women, and lived in Utica, are believed to have been burned to death in the wreckage. The finding of charred bones led the railroad wrecking crews to the conclusion that they are dead.

The most seriously injured were removed to the Easton Hospital, where two of them, Miss Eleanore E. Rutherford, a Utica teacher, and Charles M. Person, of Stroudsburg, Pa., a Pennsylvania Railroad conductor, died last night, while W. M. Vancy, of Trenton, N. J., engineer of the train, succumbed early this morning.

The physicians at the hospital said late tonight that most of those in the hospital will get well.

Those not injured, and who were willing to return at once to their homes, left Martin's Creek late on Saturday night. The cause of the wreck has not yet been discovered. The point where the accident occurred has been undergoing repairs, and unfinished work may have been responsible for the train leaving the track. Vice-President Sherman was to have given a reception for the teachers in Washington, and it was reported that he was on the ill-fated train. Later, however, it was learned that he had remained at his home in Utica, and would leave for Washington tonight.

STANDPATTERS DYING

Never Going Forward, Always Backward, Says Democratic Critic.

Washington, May 1.—Right-of-way for the "farmers' free list bill" in the House next week was provided for when the House voted in effect to put aside the "discharge calendar" on Monday and to meet an hour earlier each day until the bill is voted upon.

The contest of party leaders at the close of Saturday had been preceded by five hours' general debate on the "farmers' free list bill."

Representative Crumpacker, of Indiana, opposed the bill, while Representative Hammond, of Minnesota, Representative Martin, of South Dakota, and Representative Cline, of Indiana, expressed intention of voting for it.

The final speech of the day was by Representative Henfin, of Alabama, who took the floor to "say something about the Republican party," to the insurgents, who, he said, "did not insure long enough." He extended an invitation from the Democratic party to "come ye out from among them, and be ye separate from them." He described the standpatters as a dying race, never going forward, but always backward. He likened the "new Nationalists" to a dog "that smelt game, but couldn't quite locate it."

TWO MONSTER LINERS FOR C. P. R. ON PACIFIC

Fifteen Thousand Ton Vessels To Be Placed on Oriental Route.

Montreal, May 1.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, who arrived home from England Saturday, announced that contracts for two new 15,000-ton steamers for the Canadian Pacific Oriental route would be given out soon.

The ships will be larger than the Atlantic Empresses, and are to be completed in 18 months. Sir Thomas denied the rumor that the Atlantic Empresses would be transferred to the Pacific service and replaced by the vessels on their completion. Sir Thomas also said that the Canadian Pacific would not extend its line through the Yellow Head Pass.

He announced that the Dominion Atlantic line from Yarmouth to Halifax would be shortly taken over by the Canadian Pacific.

NINTH ROUND RALLY WIN FOR TIGERS

Ty Cobb's Bingle Ties Score and Starts Detroit to 5 to 4 Victory.

FOUR PLAYERS BREAK IN

Schmidt, Donovan, Drake and Schaller Had Not Appeared Before.

Detroit, May 1.—Four Tigers—two veterans and a pair of recruits—were given their first taste of major league ball this season in the ninth inning of yesterday's game at Bennett Park. Two of them got hits, and two of them scored runs, and their work resulted in a ninth inning rally that defeated Cleveland, 5 to 4.

It was Ty Cobb's hit with two men on bases after two others had scored that brought in the tallies that tied and won the game. Twice before Cobb had chances to bring in runners with a hit, but was unable to land safely. In the ninth with Bill Donovan on third and O'Leary on second, Ty smashed a hot grounder to the right of first base. Stovall tried for the ball. He reached it with one hand, but it rolled to the outfield and Donovan and O'Leary trotted across the plate, ending the game.

A Great Rally.

In that rally in the ninth, Charlie Schmidt, Bill Donovan, Del Drake and Walter Schaller broke into the Tiger line-up for the first time this year. Schmidt and Drake had greater responsibility placed upon them than the other pair. They were sent up as pinch hitters and delivered the goods, each rapping out clean singles to the outfield. Donovan and O'Leary merely were used as substitute base runners. The score:

Cleveland, April 29.—Joe Jackson today is the hero of Napland. The southerner was today responsible for the Naps gaining their first victory over the Tigers this year by a score of 2 to 1, and tonight he is receiving as much praise as Ty Cobb, whom he would rival, ever got for the victories he has brought to Detroit. LONGBOAT PROVES A GREAT MUDDER

Indian Beats Ljungstrom Two Laps in Race Run in Sun and Rain.

Buffalo, May 1—Tom Longboat literally ran away from Gusta Ljunstrom, the Swedish crack, in the fifteen-mile race yesterday afternoon. The Indian gave added proof to his race of last Sunday that he is back to his form of five years ago, when he was the king of all long distance runners. When they pulled off their clothes and donned racing togs yesterday the sun was shining brilliantly, but they had scarcely travelled four miles before the sky was darkened by lowering clouds and the early sprinkle changed to a real downpour. Ten miles of the race were run in a driving rain, and it did not improve the state of mind of runners and spectators that as the contest drew near a conclusion that Old Sol again began peeping through the clouds.

CUBS RETALIATE IN SUNDAY BATTLE

Pirates Start Off With Two in First Period, But Are Held Until the Ninth.

AND IN THE MEANTIME

Chicago Tallied Six Large Ones and Copped the Contest by Strong Batting Bee.

Chicago, April 30.—Chicago defeated Pittsburg today in an exciting batting bee, 6 to 4. The visitors took the lead with a base on balls, a double and single in the first inning. Camnitz held the locals safe until the sixth, when three doubles, a sacrifice, an error and a single made four runs. A single and a home run gave Chicago two more in the seventh, and Camnitz retired after Archer followed with a double. Pittsburg started a rally in the ninth, two doubles, a single and error giving two runs. The excitement was so high that one of the spectators fainted, and had to be carried from the grounds. GIANTS TAKE FIRST FROM BROOKLYN 7--3

Brooklyn, April 29.—The biggest crowd of the season saw the opening game of the year between the Brooklyn and New York Nationals here today. The Giants won, 7 to 3. The game was practically decided in the first inning, when ten of the visitors faced Barger, and four of them crossed the plate on a combination of hits and errors. The Brooklyns batted Mathewson hard, but threw away runs by reckless base-running. Score:

BUFFALO SLAUGHTERS M'GINNITY'S INDIANS

Bisons Make It Three in a Row in Camp of Newark Crew.

Newark, April 30.—For the third successive time in as many days, the Herd ruthlessly slaughtered the Indians at Weidenmayer's Park this afternoon. The score, 9 to 2, but half tells the tale of the manner in which the triumphant Bisons made the proteges of the famous "Iron Man" look like a bunch of selling platers. The stage was set amid a downpour of rain that threatened to disrupt the plans of the 6,000 fans that had gathered and send them scurrying to their homes in a downpour of rain. Score:

KEENAN TO MANAGE LONDON BALL CLUB

Local Player Accepts Terms and Will Report Here This Evening.

BRINGS MEN FROM FLINT

"Jo-Jo" Is a Londoner, and Has Enviable Record—Played in Marathon Game.

Manager Minhinnick, of the London Baseball Club, this morning closed with "Joe Joe" Keenan to act as playing manager and captain of the London club in the newly-organized Canadian Baseball League.

Keenan is at present with the Flint team in the South Michigan League, but will report here tonight, bringing with him a couple of men for the local squad.

Keenan is a London boy, and spends his winters in this city. His home is at 41 Mount Pleasant avenue, West London.

"Joe Joe" has an enviable record in professional baseball, and first made his appearance in this city in the old league with Pete Lohman. In 1910 he was with Bloomington, and worked on the team in the world's record twenty-six inning match against Decatur in the "Three Eye" League on May 31. Keenan played 141 games, went to bat 553 times, scored 62 runs, swatted 124 bingles, made 19 two-baggers, and a dozen triple sackers, had a total of 167 bases, 39 sacrifice hits, and 19 stolen bases. He batted .224 per cent, and led the third basemen of the league in individual fielding, his record showing 135 games, 162 put-outs, 232 assists, 27 errors, and an average of .936.

Last Year's Record.

Last year with the same club Keenan showed this batting record: Games 131, at bat 489, runs 35, hits 100, sacrifice hits 31, stolen bases 10, average .204.

"Jo Jo's" individual fielding record is also an enviable one. It follows: Games 131, put-outs 156, assists 279, errors 40, average .912.

Manager Minhinnick on Saturday received telegrams and long distance telephone messages from a number of players whose fate will be decided, so far as the London club is concerned, shortly after the arrival here of Keenan.

The committees sent out to solicit subscriptions report a very fine reception among the businessmen. The finances were rather bad, as no serious effort had been made to raise money, but the club has now a pleasant outlook.

Going to Guelph.

Manager Minhinnick and League President Donald Ferguson will go to Guelph tomorrow morning to attend the schedule meeting of the league, which will be held there at 1 o'clock. They expect to secure the dates London is after, as the smaller towns realize there is more money here on a holiday than at home.

JOHNSON WILL RACE BROUARD ON MAY 30

Champion and Frenchman Sign Articles for 15-Mile Auto Contest in Chicago.

JACK STARTS TRAINING

Says He Will Do Much Better Than He Did When Barney Oldfield Beat Him.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Chicago, May 1.—Emile Brouard is the new white hope.

The Frenchman and Jack Johnson have signed articles to drive a 15-mile automobile race on May 30 for the heavyweight championship of the world.

The Frenchman has beaten all the other "hopes," such as Carrol Morris, and Con O'Kelly, to a match with the champion, and perhaps after their meeting there will be no further need of looking for a hope.

Johnson and Brouard are to race three heats of five miles each, best 2 in 3. They will wager $5,000 on the side. Cal Harris, who is promoting the race, says it will be run off on one of the local tracks and expects to select the course within a few days.

The drivers are to get 75 per cent of the gross gate and are guaranteed $4,500. The winner will take 75 per cent of the purse and the loser the remainder.

"I am going into training at once," said Johnson last night. "I intend to show the auto race public that I can drive. I was beaten by Oldfield, but it was my first try at auto competition and I was rather new t othe game. But I am learning fast and will demonstrate this time that Jack Johnson can drive a racing auto just about as well as he can fight."

Brouard is one of the best drivers in America at present and he has a big crowd of followers in Chicago who will back him to the limit to beat Johnson.

Already a bid of $2,800 has been made for the exclusive moving picture privilege on the race.

WILSON LAD FOUND

not locate Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, as they were out of the city. Wheatley then got hold of some poles and towed the body to shore. There it lay until Coroner Maclaren came, and ordered it removed to Ferguson's undertaking establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were in St. Thomas over Sunday. Detective Down found their address, and sent a message to them over long distance telephone to return to the city.

They came up by the traction line, Mr. Wilson going directly to the morgue, where he identified the body as that of his son.

Inquest Ordered.

Coroner Maclaren empannelled a jury, and ordered an inquest. Mr. Wilson Brown, 113 Thames street, uncle of the lad, and Mr. Wilson, the boy's father, were the only two witnesses examined. They identified the body. It was considerably decomposed, but there was no difficulty in identification. Mr. Brown had presented the lad with the sweater he had on when he met his death, and positively identified him.

Mr. Wilson did not hesitate when he saw the body, declaring it to be that of his son. Dr. F. P. Drake and Dr. H. A. Stevenson were commissioned to perform the post-mortem examination. That was completed during the evening. It was found that death was undoubtedly due to drowning. There was much water in the stomach and lungs, clearly showing the cause of death.

When first seen the body was but a short distance from the entrance to the sewer, and it is thought that the boy when playing on the bridge, lost his balance, falling into the opening in the ice caused by the flow of sewage into the river. The body was then carried under the ice, probably becoming fastened in the debris near this point. The warm weather of late caused it to float.

The Jury.

The coroner's jury is composed of the following: James S. Luney, foreman; Samuel Thomas, William Tibbs, William Culver, William Durham, A. J. Denney, John Loney, Benjamin Tripp, Ed. Holliday, J. T. Owen, Jas. Bissett, Alf. Bottam, B. Lawrence, David McGill and L. A. Weaver.

Nerves Are Exhausted

AND NERVOUS PROSTRATION OR PARALYSIS ARE CREEPING STEADILY UPON YOU.

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

You hear of people suddenly falling victims of nervous prostration or some form of paralysis. But when you get all the fact of the case you find that they have had months or years of warning.

They haven't slept well. There has been frequent attacks of nervous headache. Digestion has failed. They have been irritable, easily worried and excited and have found memory and concentration failing.

Had they but known that these symptoms tell of exhausted nerves or had they realized their danger they would have restored the feeble, wasted nerves by use of such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

This great restorative treatment cures by forming new, rich blood and by rebuilding the wasted nerve cells. No medicine is more certain to prove beneficial, for each dose adds to the system a certain amount of rich, red blood.

Nervous diseases come on slowly and can only be overcome by patient and persistent treatment. Prevention is always better than cure, and for this reason you should endeavor to keep the system at high water mark by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food at the first sign of trouble. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2 50; at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

METHODIST CONFERENCE

Church Union Will Be One of the Matters Taken Up.

The next few weeks will be extremely busy ones for the members of the London Methodist Conference, as the various district meetings will be held. The most important business coming up will be the voting at all the meetings on the question of church union. Local ministers questioned in regard to the matter state that as nearly as they can judge there is quite a strong feeling in favor of union. It will, however, have to be voted upon at all the annual conferences, and by all departments of the church, and if any one of the departments opposes the union, that is sufficient to block it.

In addition to this important question there is a great deal of general business to be gotten in shape for the annual conference at Stratford, which will open about June 1.

The dates announced for the district conferences are:

Simcoe district, at Jarvis, May 16 and 17; Brantford, at Brantford, May 16 and 17; Palmerston, at Harriston, May 17; St. Thomas, in Grace Church, May 17 and 18; Goderich, in North Street Church, May 17 and 18; Guelph, at Acton, May 18; London, in the First Church, May 18 and 19; Strathroy, at Watford, May 17 and 18; Windsor, at Kingsville, May 18 and 19, and Stratford, at Mitchell, on May 23.

CO-OPERATION IN BRAIN EXPLAINED TO LONDONERS

Mr. W. Maxwell, of London, England, Addressed Local Canadian Club.

Mr. W. Maxwell, of London, England, president of the International Co-operative Alliance, was the guest of honor at the Canadian Club luncheon on Saturday afternoon, and gave a most interesting address on the working of the co-operative societies throughout the world. He dealt particularly with the movement in Great Britain, pointing out some of the advantages of the system.

Mr. T. J. Murphy, vice-president of the club, occupied the chair, in the absence of President Glass.

Mr. Maxwell dealt with the movement from a historic standpoint. It was adopted first in 1769 in Scotland. It was the practice then to divide the profits according to the amount of capital stock invested in the concern. Later in 1844 this method was changed, the Co-operative Society in Lancashire, England, taking the position that the profits should be paid on the basis of purchases. By this method, every man, no matter how small the purchase, profited from the scheme. It made the poor participants in the scheme. Any increase in capital is made from the profits.

In 1864 the co-operative societies in England met and formed a co-operative wholesale society. This organization made large purchases everywhere throughout the world, distributed the goods throughout the various distributing centres. This brought the producers and consumers together, abolishing entirely the middleman.

Movement Spreads.

In 1868, four years later, the movement spread to Scotland, and there was another society of the same nature organized in that country. To show the magnitude of trade handled by the society there, Mr. Maxwell stated that thirty-four million pounds sterling worth of business was done in 1910. The Co-Operative Societies throughout the world did altogether $565,000,000 worth of business, with a profit of $55,000,000. This was distributed among the people purchasing goods.

In addition to buying and selling the societies manufactured 25 per cent. of all the goods sold. They have purchasing agents in all parts of the world. Two are located in Canada. The agent in Montreal purchases all manners of goods, while the man in Winnipeg purchased wheat. Last year he bought $5,000,000 worth to be shipped to the old land, and was one of the largest individual consumers of Canadian wheat.

The Benefits.

The benefits from the system were many, he declared. Material aid is furnished all members of the society. Money to build homes is furnished the members, and in other way material benefits accrue to those who belong. Last year the societies distributed £88,000 on education, and £57,000 for charities of different sorts. They have many fruit farms throughout the world, and in Ceylon they have four tea estates, where tea for the societies is grown. Four or five convalescent homes are under the control of the society.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Maxwell on his excellent address.

Liberals in Much Better Shape for the Conflict Than the Conservatives.

Ottawa, April 30. — The political situation now developed at Ottawa is the most interesting and the most illuminative of the present Parliament. The two parties have come to a deadlock on the reciprocity issue, the most important and far-reaching issue that has been before the country for many years. The minority is now attempting to dictate the policy of the majority on this issue, and unless the terms of the minority are accepted with reference to an indefinite postponement of the Government's proposals a practically complete blockade of the business of Parliament is threatened, with its immediate concomitant of preventing any Governmental representative at all at the Imperial Conference and the coronation, and with its ultimate concomitant of forcing an appeal to the country this year without a redistribution of seats, and with the Government's present mandate from the people having still over two years to run.

The attitude of the Government and of the Liberal majority in Parliament is very plain, and the issue at stake cannot be successfully disguised from the electors, despite the obvious attempts of the Opposition to lay on the Government the onus either for the non-attendance of Sir Wilfrid at the conference or for the holding up of the business of parliament.

Opposition's View.

Mr. Borden, on Friday, in the Commons, in proposing that the Government abandon reciprocity for this session, or at least for two or three months in order to allow Sir Wilfrid to attend the conference and the coronation, made it very plain that this was the only condition on which the opposition would agree to a temporary truce and a postponement of the ultimate crisis. He declared the uncompromising hostility of the Conservatives to reciprocity, and at the same time declared their belief that Canada's representation at the conference was of more importance than the question of Canada's trade relations with the United States. In support of his contention he enumerated the subjects that are to be debated at the conference, chiefly cheaper cable rates, merchant shipping and navigation laws, the "all-red" route, state-owned Atlantic cable and telegraph lines across Canada, and imperial naval and military defence co-operation. It is significant that during the present session of Parliament none of these questions have been discussed in any very tangible shape by the Opposition, and in regard to none of them is there now any very concrete proposition before the country or any very general demand for immediate action thereon. Yet Mr. Borden seriously advances the proposition that those matters are of more importance to the country than an enlargement of Canadian markets through reciprocal trade relations.

Postponement Would Not Help.

To allow the issue to go over now until next fall would practically mean a confession of failure on the part of the Government to be able to put through what it considers in the best interests of the country. Postponement would bring the question no nearer solution, and would be an admission that the majority in Parliament is unable to carry on responsible government. The Liberals have no intention of accepting any such compromise. Their position is clear. They will keep Parliament in session indefinitely on the issue, and it will not take long to leave only two questions before Parliament for consideration—namely, the ratification of the reciprocity agreement and the voting of supply to carry on the administration.

The outlook, therefore, is for an endurance test in the Commons, with reciprocity as the chief subject of debate, continued until the Opposition decide to let the matter come to a vote. Obstruction would be carried on by means of continued talk from the Opposition benches on reciprocity, and by prolonged discussion of every item of supply brought down by the Government, on which there can be any excuse for talking.

Liberals in Good Form.

This could be continued of course for months, and the Liberal members can stand the process even better than the Conservatives, since the burden of keeping the talk going would rest with the latter, while the Government could sit back and watch the show, merely being under the necessity of keeping a quorum in the House. It will probably not take more than a month or so for the Opposition to back down as gracefully as it may be possible for them to do after committing themselves with more valor than discretion to the policy on which they have embarked. It is the opinion of the most astute parliamentarians here that public opinion, the warm weather, the convenience of the members themselves, and the cessation next month of the regular monthly checks on indemnity allowance will before many weeks have elapsed bring a change over the spirit of the Opposition dream. At present they are apparently full of fight and courage, stimulated by the promise of large campaign contributions from the anti-reciprocity interests and by the loud-voiced enthusiasm of the Montreal and Toronto organizing end of the alleged alliance between the tariff reformers of Great Britain and the ultra-protectionists of Canada. The members of the Government are not at all worried over the situation.

THE ADVANTAGES OF RECIPROCITY

Mr. MacKay Explains Them to Big Audience at Goderich.

MANY FARMERS THERE

Industries in the Vicinity of Goderich Will Be Greatly Benefitted.

Goderich, April 30.—To an enthusiastic and appreciative audience Hon. A. G. MacKay last night expounded the advantages of reciprocity in a most clear-cut and convincing speech. The Saturday date unfortunately prevented local merchants from attending, but the farmers from the surrounding country were much in evidence.

Mr. Wm. Lane, chairman of the meeting, first called on Mr. Wm. Proudfoot, M. P. P., and he presented facts relative to the local effect reciprocity would produce. The salt industry, which some seven years ago had been in a prosperous condition, but had subsequently been neglected, was even now reviving with the prospect of enlargement to local plants. The industry would again be prosecuted more vigorously than ever. Notwithstanding the reports of the Manufacturers' Association, he had the assurance of the elevator interests that their business would advance rather than depreciate.

Hon. A. G. MacKay, although this was his first appearance before a Goderich audience, had heard sufficient expression of opinion already to know that it only required a clear exposition of the treaty to dispel the doubts of some misinformed residents. He reviewed the progress of reciprocity advances, from the first attempt of Sir John Macdonald in 1878, which only now were culminating in substantial form under the guidance of the most able financial ministers of Canada and the United States. He convinced the farmer of the advantages which would speedily accrue through these new United States markets for his products, and the general benefit to merchants from this expansion. Hogs, lambs and cattle could be shipped to New York markets as cheaply as from United States farms, and land would increase along the frontier at least $25 an acre. The fruit growers in the Niagara district had made contracts for their season's growth at higher prices than before, and yet the Opposition would threaten disaster. The transportation representatives of the G. T. R., C. P. R. and G. R. had already expressed no fear of competition in the carrying of western products. "We in Canada have railways constructed for the economical carrying of all products, and have within easy access unlimited sources of water power to operate these railways and the factories which are bound to locate beside the raw material. Pulp mills would be erected in Northern Ontario and Quebec, and Canadian transportation and labor would benefit enormously, to say nothing of the expansion of prosperity to other interests."

He resented the methods employed by manufacturers, canners and pork packers in their advertising campaign deprecating reciprocal trade, but pointed with pride to such unselfish national leaders as Sir Wilfrid Laurier and President Taft, whose individual aims were for peace and prosperity. Only recently have the two nationalities in North America come to know each other thoroughly, and now that these ties were becoming more securely cemented, we should cast aside any feeling of party or racial prejudices in the acceptance of a mutual benefit.

Reeve Kernighan, of Colborne, had come to find what the objections were, and was now convinced that the farming community would benefit materially under reciprocity, and as an evidence of his conviction moved a resolution expressing confidence in the Government's reciprocal trade arrangement, which was seconded by Mr. Harry Morris, who, though just retired from farm life, is still enthusiastic for the farmers' interests.

When Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Cured her Chronic Liver Complaint

Mrs. R. Smith, of Winnipeg, Man., tells an interesting story of relief from almost intolerable sufferings:

"I can hardly tell you how great my sufferings have been. Chronic liver complaint accompanied by biliousness were a daily source of trial to me. Every day I experienced the sickening effects of these ailments. I longed for some medicine that should permanently drive them away.

Hearing of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, I thought they were worthy of a trial. My surprise was indeed great. From the very first I experienced relief. Continuing with them I found my troubles were slowly but surely leaving me, and before long I once more knew what it was to be free from the harassing effects of the ailments that had long sickened and weakened me. So great is my faith in Dr. Morse's Indian Pills that I shall never on any account be without them."

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cure Bowel and Kidney as well as Liver troubles, and keep you healthy. 25c a box at your dealer's. 14

WHAT ARE YOU LIVING FOR? ASKED THIS PASTOR

To Drive Automobiles, to Build Houses or to Live Dishonestly?

Last night in the First Methodist Church, Rev. Richard Whiting preached a striking sermon on the subject, "Faithfulness Unto Convictions." Taking his text from I. Kings, xviii., 21, "If the Lord be God, follow him, but if Baal, then follow him," Rev. Mr. Whiting spoke of the antithesis between Elijah and the priests of Baal, picturing graphically the man of the desert dressed in coarse garb, lacking all the fineness of the statesman, and who yet, because he stood for the right, was mightier than Ahab, the king of Israel.

"I wonder if you have ever stood, conscious of being absolutely in the right," said the speaker. "No matter how crude your actions of life, or how ignorant of the conventionalities of the world you may be, you are omnipotent if in the right."

A Modern Application.

Then giving the story of Elijah a modern application, and referring to the struggle betwen righteousness and unrighteousness, he said: "Baal is not dead, Jehovah is not dead. In London, in Hamilton, and every other city in the empire and the whole world, is being fought out the same problem, whether we shall be servants of unrighteousness or servants of righteousness.

Here he paid a high tribute to the moral life of the Jew, stating that the high-water mark of righteousness was reached in Israel. The Jew at his highest stood for righteousness. There never was a time in Israel when there was not a man to cry out against the dishonest unrighteousnes of Baal.

"What are you living for?" asked Rev. Mr. Whiting. "To live honest, or to get rich, to build houses, to drive motor cars, to live dishonest, disgraceful lives?" I am not thanking, and do not misunderstand me, that a man cannot be honest and drive a motor car, for some of the most honest men do, and some of the greatest rascals."

Problem in London.

"Baal stood for sensuality in ways that are indescribable before a Christian audience." Here the speaker referred to the social problem at present attracting attention in London. He declared it futile to attempt to settle it in a day. The fight between purity and impurity is the fight of the centuries.

"I'm not worrying about the fight," he said, "but I am sorry for the defeats." He pictured the country boy, coming to the city, and starting on his downward course. He told a touching incident of a former friend, and said in closing:

"If impurity be God, if selfishness be God, if dishonesty be God, serve them; but, if purity, love, honesty and uprightness to God, serve them."

Earl Grey Competition at Winnipeg Is Still Unsettled.

A private telegram received in London today states that Winnipeg went wild over the performances of London amateurs in "Lady Huntworth's Experiment." If the Londoners do not win the prize there will be much disappointment and dissatisfaction amongst the Winnipegers.

It is thought that owing to the feeling displayed in Winnipeg in favor of London, the Ottawa people and their sympathizers were a little piqued, and that as a result the awarding of the prize was held over.

The London players will be home on the C. P. R. on Tuesday at noon.

BROOM TYERS GET INCREASE.

An entirely voluntary increase in wages has been granted to the broom tyers in the broom manufacturing department of the Boeckh Bros. Company, Ltd., of Toronto. For some years past the price paid for tying brooms was regulated largely by prison competition, which has now happily been done away with, and the company has after careful consideration decided to increase the wages of their workmen. In doing so, it has, however, been stipulated that every broom must be absolutely perfect, as otherwise it will be rejected by the firm's inspectors, thereby insuring to the consumer an article that will give the very best of satisfaction. The same rule has been in effect in the brush department of this company for some time, and has proved entirely satisfactory to all concerned.

CORRESPONDENCE

A Question of Church History.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

In your issue of April 24 I read the report of a sermon on St. George, the martyr, delivered by Rev. Bro. T. B. Clark, L. O. A., in St. Paul's Cathedral, this city, on the previous afternoon to the members of St. George's Society and the S. O. E.

I was very pleased to read the unstinted praise given by Mr. Clark to a Romish saint, but surprised to read that the English Church as by law established honored the saints as much as any other church, and I think that statement will be a surprise to all the readers thereof. Neither in England, Ireland, or this country, have I read or heard of saints' day being observed or honored by any kind of a religious ceremony save by the high church party in the English establishment, who are copying the Catholic Church in all things? Mr. Clark told his hearers that St. George was put to death under Diocletian for heresy. That statement was utterly false. The Catholic Church does not canonize heretics or place them in the catalogue of the saints, or give them a place in the Roman martyrology, neither is there any office in their honor. Yet in my copy of the Roman Vesperal I find April 23, St. George, martyr, rank of feast semi-double.

The Emperor Diocletian was to the Christian church one of the cruelest of persecutors, and under him and by his edict was carried out the tenth and last general persecution, and one of the most bitter and far-reaching. St. George was put to death for refusing to obey the edict and offer sacrifice to the so-called god of Rome. Mr. Clark said he did not know which church claimed St. George. How ignorant he is of church history? Was there any other Christian church in the whole world at that time but the one Holy, Catholic, Apostolic and Roman Church? Mr. Clark also told his hearers that he did not know how St. George came to be the patron saint of England. Well, the same authority that named Saint Andrew patron of Scotland, named St. George patron of England. Mr. Clark had better study a little church history, and take off his yellow glasses. I would wish to judge him kindly and put his statements to ignorance, but am afraid they proceed from spite and hatred of the one true church, the one true fold. I would advise Mr. Clark and all other non-Catholic preachers to do as follows before they go forth to teach to preach, and especially when they are about to attack the Catholic Church: If they believe in the Holy Ghost let them spend at least fifteen minutes before every sermon in praying that their spiritual and intellectual pride may be humbled, and that the spirit of truth, knowledge, wisdom and understanding, and of charity, may rule, direct, control, and govern their tongues and temper. If they will all do this they will cease to be disturbers of the peace, agitating and discord-breeding.

GASOLINE EXPLOSIONS

The fire department had two runs on Saturday night, both due to the explosion of gasoline stoves.

The first run was about 11 o'clock to the residence of Mrs. N. K. Barnes, Horn and Becher streets. The stove was lighted, and, in a moment after, exploded, setting fire to the curtains of the house. No person was near it when the accident happened.

Half an hour afterward, the brigade had to respond to an alarm from Ruddy's bakery on Carleton avenue. Here another explosion had set fire to the carpet.

Both fires were extinguished with little damage.

WEST LORNE GAINS.

Toronto, Ont., April 29. — The West Lorne Wagon Company was affiliated with the Wilkinson Plow Company of Toronto, and with it went into bankruptcy, but will be placed on a working basis again by Mr. G. T. Clarkson, of Toronto.

The works, located in the county of Elgin, Ontario, will be added to considerably, and with an enlarged staff of workmen, will once more enter the field. The works are said to be in an excellent condition, and capable of high-grade work. The creditors, through Mr. Clarkson, will carry the enterprise along in lieu of closing it down and applying whatever remains on the indebtedness.

FINANCIAL.

WALL STREET TODAY.

NEW YORK, May 1—Wall street, noon.—The market lost this morning the firm tone which characterized it with the close of last week. The amount of trade was small, and the tone was hesitating. Fluctuations were kept within narrow limits, however, by the demand, which appeared whenever prices yielded moderately. Much of the hesitation was attributed to the fact that this is supreme court's day for handing down decisions, and that there was the usual uncertainty as to whether findings in the anti-trust cases would be announced. Aside from the further demonstration of strength in the Canadian group, and the buoyancy of several minor issues, there was little interest in general trading. American Cotton Oil showed some weakness, in anticipation of possible unfavorable dividend action at the directors' meeting tomorrow. Bonds were steady.

Reported by Chas Head & Co., by private wire to J. J. Tearney.

NEW YORK, May 1.—(10 a.m.) London closed today, but the prospects favor the same backing and filling locally. Since the supreme court may hand down decisions in the Standard Oil and tobacco cases this noon, the tendency will be to go slow in the interim, though most circles look for announcement on the 15th of month. There is no denying the fact that the market has a good undertone, as the rallying trend readily indicates, and should no decree be given out, the improvement remarked last week could easily go further. The news over Sunday certainly is not of a character to materially affect prices bearishly, while there are some negatively favorable developments. Crop advices continue very satisfactory, and the west expects a revival of industrial activity to result if the outlook is maintained, or only moderate falling off is shown. Even the hand-to-mouth buying of merchandise has its good side, since this means that the countr yis getting bare o fsupplies, and once confidence is restored will hasten to replenish same. Washington does not look up so formidably a factor, the House being in a snarl on the woolen schedule, which hardly suggests any radical tariff legislation at the present session. The reciprocity measure will come up in the Senate today, and its passage seems assured, but this should not disturb the market. With money so easy, we expect to see an improving tendency, and would buy for the pull, especially the better class issues.

S. & I. WILL DEMAND SIMPLE JUSTICE FROM CITY

Firm Will Be Represented at Meeting of Council Tonight.

There will probably be a big lawsuit result if the city hall sale goes through as it stands.

It was announced today that Smallman & Ingram's would take every step to protect themselves. The company will be represented at the meeting of the council tonight, and they will protest against the city leaving them at the mercy of the Royal Bank by the sale of land at the rear of the hall.

While not admitting that the city has a legal claim to the land in question, the representatives of the company will make it plain to the council that it would be proper to draw up an agreement for the sale of the site, guaranteeing to them the right to have an entrance to the rear of the store.

"We are going to the council tonight," said Mr. J. Percy Moore, solicitor for Smallman & Ingram's. "We want simple justice, that is all. When the sale was voted on, the citizens did not consider that they were voting to dispose of anything more than the actual site of the city hall. Now we find that the city has sold much more than that. It is not fair to the company to put them to the expense and inconvenience of a lawsuit, when their rights and those of others can be protected. This space should be left open. The aldermen should consider that the big store of Smallman & Ingram's helped to make the city hall site as valuable as it is. eW have no objection whatever to selling the city hall as it stands, but we do object to the disposal of the land at the rear. We think we have certain rights there, and we hope the council will respect them."

In case the council vote the sale as originally agreed upon,: notwithstanding the protests of Smallman & Ingram's, it is quite certain that a lawsuit will follow if the bank attempts to build on the land at the rear.

NOVA SCOTIA PEOPLE ARE FOR RECIPROCITY

Former Londoner Says Agreement With U. S. Is Very Popular in East.

Mr. Walter P. Walmsley, a former Londoner, who is now in the cap manufacturing business in Truro, N. S., is a visitor in this city for a few days with his father, Mr. John Walmsley, and friends.

Mr. Walmsley declares that reciprocity would carry by a great majority if put to a vote in Nova Scotia. The people of that province are practically unanimous for the pact, as they realize that with the opening of the great markets of Maine and other Eastern States, they will become much more prosperous. Some years ago Nova Scotia provided practically all the coal for Portland, Me., and other centres across the border, being much nearer than the Pennsylvania fields, but of late the high tariff has caused the market to be oen scarcely worth catering to. In the event of the adoption of the agreement, the mines of Nova Scotia will again get this business. The lumbermen will also prosper.

Mr. Walmsley, who has a large manufacturing business, is heartily in favor of reciprocity. While the tariff has no direct effect on the majority of the manufacturers there, the general increase in prosperity that is looked for will result in the greatest benefit to all.

APRIL WEATHER

Month Was a Very Wet One Compared With Same Period of 1910.

April was very wet as compared with the same month of 1910. During the past month 3.45 inches of rain fell. This is over three times the amount that fell during April, 1910, when but 1.10 inches were recorded.

It was not so warm a month as last year. The highest temperature recorded was 76 on April 28, while the lowest was 14.5 on April 3. Last year the highest was 78.5 and the lowest 23, showing that this April was much colder and considerably wetter than last year.

NOT NEAR TROUBLE ZONE

Missionaries of This District Are Not Around Canton.

Mrs. Steven, of the China Inland Mission, stated to The Advertiser this afternoon that the society has no missionaries in the vicinity of Canton. All work in the interior some hundreds of miles from where the trouble is.

Canon Dyson Hague said that the Church of England missionary, Bishop White, of Toronto, when last heard from, was working in the northern part of Honan, which is nearer to Canton.

As far as can be learned there are no London missionaries or people from the vicinity in the district.

SALE OF CITY HALL WILL COME UP TONIGHT

It Looks as Though the Deal Will Be Ratified by the Council.

The city council will hold their regular session tonight, and, judging from the order paper, it promises to be a lengthy meeting.

The most important matter for settlement will be that of the sale of the city hall. The acceptance of the terms by the Royal Bank practically closes the deal, and it is quite probable that the council will tonight ratify the transaction. It will create a discussion, however, as some of the aldermen are not in favor of disposing of the present site.

The awarding of the gravel tenders will cause a debate, and there is every indication that some rather pointed things will be said. Ald. Tancock, it is expected, will lead the assault on the report of the board of works.

The appointment of Deputy Engineer Wright as city engineer will come up. There is no question but that he will be named, although it is quite possible that the appointment will create some debate.

The appointment of engineers for the road rollers will start something. The board of works have recommended Messrs. Groves and Reid for the position. However, Mr. Wasp, one of the applicants for the position, has several friends among the aldermen, and they will do their best for him.

Altogether, there is sufficient to keep the aldermen talking all evening.

PRESBYTERIANS WILL INTEREST YOUNG PEOPLE

Committee Appointed by Maintenance Association to Deal With Subject.

Following a discussion relative to the social welfare of young people in the city, the London Presbyterian Ministerial Association appointed a committee this morning to report on the most advantaegous methods for interesting young people in the church. In the light of recent investigations into social conditions in London, the ministers present were of the opinion that the churches of the city should take a more active interest in the welfare of the young people of London, particularly those who are strangers in the city.

Owing to the absence of a number of ministers the discussion of social problems was adjourned until the next meetings.

Reports will then be received on the organization of a Presbyterian Athletic League, on the Boy Scout movement, and other movements, aiming at helpfulness to young people.

The meeting was very largely an informal one.

DEPARTMENTAL EXAMS

Inspector Edwards Is Preparing Information on the Subject.

Inspector Edwards is preparing information for the department of education regarding the departmental examinations. He anticipates that between 400 and 500 candidates will try the examinations, about the same number as tried last year. The exact number cannot be definitely settled at this time.

"We expect between 400 and 500," Mr. Edwards informed The Advertiser. "This is about the average. There will be no decrease this year."

Applications for the departmental examinations must be in Inspector Edwards' hands by May 24. The fees will have to be paid by that time. The number who will try will be about the same as in 1910.

Miss Noble was assisted by Miss Edith McBride, whose solos were much enjoyed. McBride, Gilbert Coombs, Veiva Farnworth, Kathleen White, Constance Masuret, Dorothy Lettnie, K. Farnworth, and Jennie Willis.

"Elijah" at First Methodist.

Mendelssohn's "Elijah" was given last evening before an immense audience that filled the First Methodist Church. The well-balanched choir, numbering 55 well-trained voices, sang the difficult music with vigor and feeling, their enunciation and shading being especially fine. Mr. Rhynad Jamieson, of Toronto, the assisting soloist, fully lived up to all the excellent advance notices he had received from the Hamilton and Toronto papers. For a small man he has an immense, round, rich, bass voice, and sang with spirit and feeling. His enunciation was fine, every word being easily audable. A warm welcome awaits him should he again favor London with a visit. Miss Beatrice Hunt, Miss Elsie Green, contralto, and Mr. John Chapman, tenor, sang their different solos in a very pleasing and satisfactory manner. Mr. Jordan and choir are again to be congratulated.

SCOTCH EVANGELIST PREACHES IN LONDON

Interesting Addresses on Salvation on Sunday.

Mr. Alexander Marshall, the noted Scotch evangelist, preached twice on Sunday in the city hall.

"If God should offer salvation," he said, "on the condition that men should go on their knees from London to Sarnia, there would be a lot of men to start out tomorrow. But God's plan of salvation, through the blood of Christ, they reject as being too simple."

Speaking of testimony meetings he said: "Some are good, some middling and some very bad, for the reason that too much importance is attached to personal experience."

Mr. Marshall, a pleasant-faced, quiet speaker, was noticeably disturbed by people coming in late, and requested the ushers to close the doors and exclude further late-comers. His sermons drew fairly large audiences.

NEW WALKS ARE NEEDED

Engineer Wright Is Anxious to Improve Dundas anod Richmond Streets.

Engineer Wright will recommend to the city council that new walks be constructed on Richmond and Dundas streets.

"The merchants and others have been complaining so much of late regarding these walks, that I have decided to recommend to the council that new walks be laid on these streets," said Mr. Wright. "They are in bad shape. The flags are worn, and they hold the water. As a result they are an inconvenience every time it rains. It would be a good idea to have them relaid this year."

THE SCHOOL PICNIC

Some Difference of Opinion Regarding the Date.

The board of education will take up the matter of a school picnic at their regular May meeting tomorrow afternoon.

There is no doubt that a picnic will be held, as a majority of the board are in favor of it.

However, there is some division of opinion as to the date. The latest suggestion is to hold it on May 24. The reason for this is that there will be several additional holidays this year.

It has been announced that King George's birthday, June 3, has been declared a holiday. In addition, coronation day has also been declared a holiday, which, together with Victoria Day, makes a considerable number of holidays in the minds of some of the members of the board.

It is one of the reasons May 24 has been suggested, and it is quite possible that this date will be selected.

However, there is much objection to this among the school children, who are anxious to have the picnic later in June, when conditions will be more favorable for outdoor sports. In addition, it will give an extra holiday.

EAST LONDON NEWS

A PRETTY WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding took place on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Churchill, 708 Lorne avenue, when her daughter, Miss Lillian, was married to Mr. Chester J. Bone. While Mrs. Hayden was playing Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the bridegroom was led to his place by his father; then followed the bride, daintily attired, bearing carnations, leaning on the arm of her brother, Frederick Churchill; the best man and bridesmaid were Mr. Wm. Bone and Miss Lizzie Churchill. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. H. Hayden, M.A., and after the cheerful congratulations of the large company present, all sat down to the sumptuously prepared dinner, which was partaken of, while pleasing music was being discoursed. There were many beautiful presents which attracted the attention, and happy social intercourse was enjoyed at some length in the house and yard. The newly-wedded couple went to their home at 23 Blackfriars street.

Each of the latter pay $2. The inspector will turn over half the money he received to the city, and the rest goes to the Government.

Amusements

The College Singing Girls, who appeared in the Auditorium Saturday night, took all hearts by storm with their musical and dramatic ability. Without doubt they form one of the best lyceum companies which have appeared in London the past winter. College songs, Scotch songs, Dutch character songs, all enlivened the delightful programme which they rendered.

"The Dreamer," a short character sketch in which Walter Eccles appears as the old college professor, proved to be an exceedingly popular playlet.

STORK A LAZY BIRD; A FALLING IN BIRTHS

62 For Last Month as Compared With 78 in Same Month a Year Ago.

The Stork was a lazy bird during the month of April.

At least the statistics collected by City Clerk Baker as to the number of births recorded, shows that there was a decided falling off in the number of little citizens during the month, as compared with the same period of 1910.

Sixty-two births were recorded. Last April there were 78, a difference of 16. However, the previous months of the year are better than last year, so the season does not look unfavorable at this time.

Dan Cupid was the busy party. In April, there were 45 marriages, an increase of 22 over April, 1910, or 66 2-3 per cent. This promises to be a good year for marriages.

Pulmonary diseases were responsible for a large number of deaths during the month of April. Of the 73 recorded 8 were due to tuberculosis and 8 to pneumonia. The latter was responsible for the demise of several old people, and a few infants.

So far this year there have been 21 deaths from tuberculosis. This is an appaling list, and shows that the White Plague is by no means less a menace to public health than it was a few years ago. For the same period last year there were 20 deaths.

Of the deaths recorded during the month, 18 were of infants. There was no particular epidemic prevalent, the majority passing away from the usual causes.

Sixteen old people, over three score years and ten, died during April. Two were 90 and over.

The Grim Reaper was busier than during April, 1910. In that period, only 57 deaths were recorded, while April this year showed 73.

Name Omitted.

The name of Mrs. Mary Berry, 748 Princess avenue, was inadvertently omitted from the list of "Marys" who contributed towards the Queen Mary coronation presentation fund. Mrs. Berry's name was sent to Toronto, with the list of those who contributed, but in some way was omitted from the published list.

Conservatory Recital.

The recital at Conservatory Hall last Saturday afternoon was given by the following pupils: Misses Dorothy Davis, Winnifred Whetter, Rhea Harris, Hughena Young, Mildred Granger, Hilda Hooke, Margaret Coleman, Grace Sing, Ena Arscott, Margaret Sloan, Margaret Simson, Blanche Tancock and Master Gordon Stewart.

Fire Statistics.

The fire department responded to 26 alarms during last month. Of these 24 were for fires, 1 was a false alarm, and 1 was a special call to Carling's brewery, where an ammonia tank was leaking. Four of the alarms were turned in from boxes and 22 were telephone calls. The most serious fires were those at Hyman's tannery on the 6th of April, and the next at Woods' confectionery store on April 16.

Missionary Work.

Sunday next will be devoted particularly to missionary work by the Anglican churches throughout Middlesex, and arrangements have been completed for special missionary speakers to occupy the various pulpits. Canon Gould, who is in charge of the missionary work of the Church of England in Canada, will speak at St. Paul's Cathedral in the morning, and Mr. R. W. Allen, of Toronto, secretary of the Church of England Laymen's Movement, will give an address in the evening.

Will Probated.

The will of the late Mrs. Bridget Dewan, Waterloo street, who died some weeks ago, has been probated, but, contrary to expectations, little money was left to the Catholic Church. When the document was found after her death it was seen that $1,000, given to the Order of Preachers, to which her brother, Rev. Father J. D. Hoban, belonged, was all that she gave to the church. The estate amounted to only $9,500. The bequest to the order named comes out of the estate first, and the remainder is distributed among fifteen cousins, scattered thoughout Ireland, Michigan and other portions of the States. Mr. Lawrence Connolly, Bear Lake, Mich., receives about $1,000.

LINE NOT DECIDED ON FOR THE C. P. R. SWITCH

Maps Were Sent to Montreal for Approval of Officials There.

The C. P. R. engineers have surveyed five routes east of the city for their line which will run from the main line, connecting with McClarys and George White & Sons.

For some time the company's men have been very busy at Pottersburg and vicinity, taking measurements of the best possible route to the south section of the city.

Three of the routes laid out are near Pottersburg, while two are farther east.

It was thought that the connection was finally settled upon, but last week another route was laid out near the village.

The various plans have been forwarded to Montreal, and it is expected that an answer will be received this week.

NE TEMERE DECREE WAS DENOUNCED

Sermon by Rev. A. L. G. Clarke in St. James' Church, South London.

Rev. A. L. G. Clarke, in St. James' Anglican Church, South London, last evening vigorously crossed sword with the "ne temere" marriage decree of the Roman Catholic Church in Quebec. "The Roman Catholic position is absolutely impossible and intolerable," he declared. "The regulation of marriage is absolutely vital to the regulation of the state. Attack the sanctity of marriage and the home, and you attack the state and loosen its very foundations. When Rome tries to force a decree like this ne temere, she is striking at the very vitals of the state.

"The question that comes to us is this: By what right can she override our Canadian laws? It is all right for a society to make laws binding its own members, but the society, the bylaws of which require its members to traverse the laws of the state, is a traitorous society. Every country in the world, except Austria-Hungary, Germany and Italy, which ought to know the papacy, if anyone does, is submitting to this decree. We are not surprised at Canada submitting. We know who holds the reins of power. But even England, who for centuries has given the blood of martyrs to fight against Rome, is submitting. The Government of England is so busy tearing the constitution to pieces and reforming the laws that it appears likely to let the ne temere decree go through.

"It is up to you as citizens of Ontario and Canada to support whatever step your church may decide on. Rome cannot wait."

PEACE TREATY DRAFT SUBMITTED TO BRITAIN

MANY WAYS TO HELP LONDON

Members of the Board of Trade Put Forth Practical Ideas.

CIVIC GOVERNMENT

Colonel Gartshore Believes That the Present System Has Outlived Its Usefulnes—President Reason's Suggestions.

At the meeting of the board of trade Friday, all the officers nominated at the last meeting were elected. President Dr. H. T. Reason thanked the members for the honor they had done him and in his address referred to some matters of local interest.

The militia camp, he thought, could yet be secured for this city, and steps should be taken at once to have it located here permanently.

He thought something should be done towards securing a grant for the Western University. In five years the university, if aided, would have a thousand students. That would mean that the students would spend in London at least half a million a year, and that was well worth getting.

The board he said had been successful in getting work started for Port Stanley, and he had been advised that soundings were now being taken for the new $250,000 breakwater, and that tenders for the work would be called for in June.

Dr. Reason said the city should do everything possible to encourage radial roads. In reference to the matter of excursions, he reported what had been done to try and get excursions run the other way into London.

President Complimented.

Col. Gartshore complimented Dr. Reason on the work he had done during the last year. The year, he said, had been a busy one and the greatest credit was due to the untiring efforts of the president for the large amount of work that had been accomplished.

A resolution was passed encouraging the formation of a baseball team for London in the Canadian League.

The members expressed great pleasure at the report that Secretary J. A. Nelles is continuing to improve, and the hope was generally expressed that he may soon be able to be back at his work again.

The treasurer's report showed that a balance remains on hand of $1,208.

Mr. Philip Pocock moved, seconded by ex-Ald. W. H. Winnett, that Messrs Col. Gartshore, F. E. Leonard, Hon. Adam Beck, Sir George Gibbons and A. B. Greer be appointed a committee from the board to take up the question of electrifying the London and Port Stanley Railway. The motion carried.

City Government.

Col. Gartshore brought up the question of changing the government of the city.

"The present system," he said, "has outlived its usefulness. I think it is wrong, and should be amended, and made up-to-date. It may take months or years to devise a plan suitable for the needs of London, but a committee should be appointed to look into all the progress that has been made in other cities and take up the matter of a change for London. I move that the president be authorized to appoint such a committee." This was seconded by Mr. U. A. Buchner, and carried.

CHARGE AGAINST E. ZORRA TEACHER

Accused of Writing Obscene Language on the Blackboard.

Woodstock, May 1.—A rather interesting and somewhat unusual case was heard in police court Saturday morning before Magistrate A. S. Ball. The plaintiffs in the case were the trustees of school section No. 9 of East Zorra, and the defendant was Mr. Robert J. Carter, formerly the teacher in the above school section, who was charged with writing obscene language upon the blackboard, contrary to the school laws. Crown Attorney Ball had charge of the prosecution, and the accused was represented by Mr. J. G. Wallace, K.C.

Two witnesses were called by the prosecution, while the defendant Carter was the only one called for the defence.

According to the story of the plaintiffs Carter has been a teacher at the school in school section No. 9, East Zorra, since the new year. Recently the board of trustees asked him to resign, the resignation to take effect at the Easter vacation. Some days after Carter had left the school one of the trustees entered the school to assist some boys and girls to clean up, and on the blackboard were written some words. According to the story of the plaintiffs the first part of the paragraph read "Trustees, you will find the keys and the books in the upper left-hand drawer." Under these words was Carter's signature, but a little to one side were written some words which in the opinions of the witnesses called for the crown, were very impolite and obscene. These last words, the witnesses claimed, were written by the same person who wrote the previous sentence. They had no hesitancy in saying that in their opinion Carter wrote all the words on the board.

Under cross-examination, Messrs. John F. Wilson and John Hilburley for the crown admitted that the key for the school was left on the outside where everybody could get it, and they thought it quite possible that more than one might have entered the school during the Easter holidays.

On one occasion while the evidence was being taken, Mr. Wallace, acting for Carter, objected to Wilson making signs to Hilburley, who was in the box, and stated that he being a county constable ought to know better.

Carter, who was called for the defence, admitted that he wrote the instructions on the board telling the trustees where to find the keys, but emphatically denied that he added any obscene words to the message.

After hearing the evidence Magistrate Ball adjourned the case for one week when judgment will be given.

cured Mrs. C. C. Gokey, of a stubborn case of heart disease, such as thousands are now suffering with. Read what she says:

"Before I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I had been suffering from heart trouble for over five years. I had grown so weak that it was impossible for me to do thirty minutes work in a whole day. I suffered intense pains in my left side and under the left shoulder blade, I could not sleep on the left side, and was so short of breath that I thought I should never be able to take a full breath again. The least excitement would bring on the most distressing palpitation. I had scarcely taken a half-bottle of the Heart Remedy before I could see a marked change in my condition. I began to sleep well, had a good appetite, and improved so rapidly that when I had taken six bottles I was completely cured.

MRS. C. C. GOKEY, Northfield, Vt.

If you have any of the symptoms Mrs. Gokey mentions, it is your duty to protect yourself.

STREET RAILWAY CO. RUSHED ITS JOB

Gang of Men Worked All Day Sunday Putting in Special Work.

The London Street Railway Company spent a busy Sunday yesterday. It was necessary to work all Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night to put in the switches and diamonds at the corner of Richmond and Dundas streets. The task was a hard one, but the company succeeded in getting the work in place, and today the cars are running without an interruption.

Saturday afternoon, Manager C. B. King had nearly 50 workmen on the job, preparing the ground. At midnight Saturday, the number was increased, and the men kept at it until they completed the task.

Deputy Engineer Wright and Manager C. B. King were on the job all day Sunday, Mr. King remaining until late at night overseeing the work.

"We made excellent progress," Mr. King stated to The Advertiser. "The job was by no means a small one, and we were interrupted by the rain. Still we got all the steel in position, with the exception of the switch used by the Ridout line, and we can put that in any time. I was well pleased with the progress we made on Sunday, and we expect to hurry the remainder of the work through as rapidly as possible. I think we are doing first rate."

The crane built by the company to lift the steel work proved to be too light, and was of little use. It was necessary to use several teams of horses to pull the rails into place.

WOMAN TEACHERS' GUILD

An Enjoyable Banquet on Saturday—Toronto Lady Lawyer Present.

The London Woman Teachers' Guild gave a very enjoyable luncheon in the banquetting hall of the Normal School on Saturday at 1 o'clock, when the guest of honor was Miss Clara Brett Martin, B. A., LL. B., B. C. L., of Toronto.

Miss Martin is the only woman lawyer in practice for herself in Toronto, although there is another, Miss Hewson, engaged in practice with another law firm. Miss Martin also enjoyed the unique position of being the one woman trustee on the Toronto public school board, a post she was obliged to relinquish last December on account of her large legal practice.

The topic of Miss Martin's address, which held the attention of her interested audience for upwards of an hour, was "The Legal Rights of Woman." Although the speech was almost entirely extempore, it was most cleverly and thoughtfully prepared, and called forth a great deal of discussion afterwards.

Miss Grace Blackburn spoke a few words of optimistic cheer, which were greatly enjoyed by her hearers.

The new president of the guild, Miss Munro, presided for the first time, and the guests at the daintily-spread tables were waited upon by a number of winsome little maidens from Grades 7 and 8, Talbot street school.

The officers of the Woman Teachers' Guild for this year are:

President—Miss Munro.
Vice-President—Miss Boon.
Secretary—Miss Tolhurst.
Treasurer—Miss B. Graham.

CHARGE WAS DISMISSED.

Strathroy, April 29.—Robert McIntyre, proprietor of the Queen's Hotel, was dismissed when he appeared on a charge of breaking the license laws by selling liquor. It was shown that only local option beer was sold.

"PIMPLES"

Broke Out All Over Her Face.

Pimples are caused, almost entirely, by bad blood, and there is only one way to get rid of them, and that is to get at the seat of the trouble by using a good reliable blood purifying medicine.

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for 35 years, and is one of the very best blood medicines procurable. After using it you will find that the pimples have disappeared, and you will have a beautiful clear complexion.

Mrs. Robert McNab, Badjeros, Ont., writes:—"I am greatly pleased to report the benefit I have derived from the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. About a year ago I became so weak and run down I could scarcely walk, and pimples broke out all over my face. I tried one thing after another, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I was advised by a lady friend to try B.B.B., and before I had used one bottle I felt it was doing me good so I used three bottles, and I am now well and strong, and the pimples have all disappeared."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
