TRAIN CRASHES TO DEPOT, KILLING FOUR AND INJURING MANY

MONTREAL, Mar. 17.—Four people were killed and thirty others were more or less seriously injured as the result of the blowing out of a washout plug on the locomotive hauling the Boston express due at the Windsor street station on the C. P. R. at 8:35 this morning. Three miles out from the station, scalding steam filled the cab and the engineer and fireman jumped. The train, without a guiding hand at the throttle, rushed on for three miles, and dashed into the Windsor station, through the ladies' waiting room, and then into the rotunda, where the locomotive, after demolishing one massive stone pillar, was brought to a stop by colliding with another. The four who were killed were seated in the ladies' waiting room. An investigation of the cause of the wreck made by General Manager McNicoll, disclosed that the break in the boiler was on the fireman's side. The latter, Louis Craig, jumped at once and landed in a snow drift, practically unharmed, and rushed to the conductor, where the locomotive lay further on by the side of the track. His skull had been fractured when he jumped. Why, before jumping, he failed to bring his train to a standstill by shutting off the steam and applying the brakes, is not yet known, and may never be, for Cunningham is still unconscious and is not expected to live. The trainman had no idea there was anything wrong until the train was nearing the station. Then the conductor, seeing the excessive speed of this point, applied the air-brakes. They were not strong enough to hold the train with the locomotive pulling against them, but they did check the speed, or otherwise the train would have crashed through the second wall of the station and into Windsor street, a drop of thirty feet. A dead feature of the crash was W. J. Nixon and her son and daughter. Nixon is a train dispatcher on the C. P. R. at Medicine Hat, Alberta. He was on the train at the time it crashed into Montreal to get his family, and they were all at the station to greet him after six months' separation. Nixon's train was late, arriving a few minutes after his little family had been hurried into eternity. The wreckage of his wife and daughter was almost the first thing that met him as he stepped from the train. The body of the boy was not found till afternoon lying under a heap of debris in the basement of the station.

The dead are Mrs. W. J. Nixon, Montreal, her son, aged 13, and daughter, aged 9; Elsie Villiers, 12 years. At the conclusion of the investigation D. McNicoll, vice-president of the C. P. R., gave the following statement, based upon the statements of the witnesses examined: "While the night express from Boston was approaching Montreal this morning a plug blew out of the engine boiler between Montreal Junction and Westmount station with a loud report. The plug was on the side of the cab where the fireman sat, and he was at once enveloped in scalding steam. The fireman at once concluded that something serious had happened to the boiler, and without a second thought rolled out of the cab window, falling almost unharmed into a snow bank. He then got up and followed the train, walking along the track, and found that Engineer Cunningham had also jumped from the cab about half a mile further on. He, however, found that the engineer had not been so fortunate as himself in jumping and that he was lying unconscious behind the track with a fractured skull. The engine was remained for a few minutes, so that it has not been possible to discover what happened on the engine after the fireman jumped. The train then naturally gained great speed on the down grade approaching Montreal, but the train crew did not observe that it was going too fast until it was approaching Guy street. Then it was seen that something was wrong and one of the train crew applied the emergency brakes, which slowed the train down, but not sufficiently to stop it in time to prevent it plunging through the ladies' waiting room, and into the general waiting room at the station."

"We do not know exactly what happened on the engine," said Mr. McNicoll, "but from the evidence of the fireman it is concluded that it was what is known as a washout-plug. The engine is so badly wrecked that it is impossible to guess what happened to it. But from the evidence of the fireman, Louis Craig, that is the inference gathered. In his statement, Fireman Craig said: 'Something blew out with a bang. I thought it was a sheet in the fire-box, and jumped without turning to see what was the matter when I felt the hot steam coming around me.' The steam was evidently flying in the fireman's direction," said Mr. McNicoll, "and he was enveloped in it and had to jump from the window."

With regard to the damage that had been caused, Mr. McNicoll said that he could not say yet, even he guessed at it, could it be until the damage to the building had been arrived at. The engine was totally wrecked and is not expected to be repaired. The baggage car, as also was the baggage car, but the rest of the train had not even left the rails, and was absolutely unharmed. Active work was already going on for the repair of the building and the removal of the rolling stock, but until a thorough survey of the building had been made, it would, he said, be impossible to estimate the total losses.

Following is the official list of killed and injured:

Last of dead: Elsie Villiers, 1009 Marquette street, Montreal, 12 years; Mrs. Nixon, 148 Ash Avenue, Montreal, about 32 years; Nixon (daughter), about 13 years; Nixon (son), about 13 years.

List of injured: Louis Craig, fireman, taken to Notre Dame Hospital; John Carthy, 28 Montclair street, Montreal, broken leg; Wm. ## STREET CARS FOR MONCTON

MONCTON, Mar. 17.—The committee representing the city council and representatives of the Moncton Street Railway Company tonight practically agreed on all important points of difference in reference to the charter to be asked for by the company at the coming session of legislature. It was agreed that for the first twenty years the company pay no revenue to the city, the next ten years the company to pay one per cent. on gross earnings and the next forty years two per cent. The company is to complete the road three years from the day of charter. The question of the city taking over the road at the expiration of forty years was not considered.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE FORESHADOWS VERY LITTLE OF ANY IMPORTANCE

FREDERICTON, N. B., March 18.—The second session of the fifth Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick was opened by Lieutenant Governor Tweedie this afternoon with imposing ceremony. Notwithstanding the cloudy and threatening weather there was an enormous crowd in attendance. All seats on the floor of the house were taken up, the wives of the Lieutenant Governor and members of the government having post of honor to the right of the speaker's dais.

The Lieutenant Governor drove to Parliament Building in company with Col. White, G. C., Col. McKinnley, A. D. C., and his private secretary. He was received by a guard of honor from the Royal Regiment, and a detachment from Moncton Field Battery fired a salute of fifteen guns.

The house met shortly before three o'clock and unanimously elected George J. Clark, of Charlotte, speaker. In succession to Mr. Morrison, resigned. The nomination was made by Mr. Hasen, seconded by Mr. Fleming, and they escorted him to the chair.

Immediately afterwards, George W. Upham, the new member for Carleton, was introduced by Messrs. Robinson and McKinnley. A great deal of seat amid hearty opposition against the moment later the Lieutenant Governor accompanied by his staff entered the chamber and after applying the choice of speaker, opened the session with the following speech:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly:

It affords me great pleasure to welcome you on again assembling for the discharge of your Legislative duties. Our thanks are due to Divine Providence for the prosperity which the Province has enjoyed during the past year. The prices obtained for farm products have been good, there has been employment at remunerative wages for all who are willing to work, and while some of the sister Provinces and many of the States of the American Union suffered very severely from forest fires New Brunswick was exempt from great material disaster. The celebration of the 80th anniversary of the landing of Champlain at Quebec was one of the principal events of the year. The presence of the Prince of Wales, the Vice-President of the United States and of representatives of the French Republic and the British possessions, made the gathering a notable one and served to emphasize the friendly feeling which exists between Great Britain and the other nations; represented as well as between the different provinces of Canada, and the two greatest nations of which most of her population are descended.

During the summer New Brunswick was visited by a delegation of Scotch farmers and while it is to be regretted that their visit was a brief one it is pleasing to note that they expressed themselves as being greatly impressed with the agricultural possibilities of the Province and the advantages and attractions it possesses for settlers from the Motherland.

A fire occurred at the Provincial Hospital in St. John during the month of January last, but I am pleased to be able to say that largely in consequence of the good judgment and coolness displayed by the officials of the institution and of the efforts of the fire departments of St. John and Miramichi no lives were lost, none of the patients were in any way injured and the damage to the asylum building was confined largely to the contents of the institution. A great calamity and disaster was averted for which the people of the Province have every reason to be thankful.

I regret deeply the fact that at Miramichi recently destroyed by fire, this institution was erected through

BIG DAY ENDS WITH DINNER

The Hibernians Hosts. Wednesday Night. A JOLLY AFFAIR. Many Interesting Speeches. Are Made—A Musical Programme.

As a climax to the celebration of St. Patrick's Day the dinner given last night by the Ancient Order of Hibernians for their friends and the Ladies' Auxiliary was a pronounced success. The elaborate decorations gave the quarters of the order a warty appearance. Shields adorned the walls, while flags and bunting were also displayed. A portion of the St. Patrick occupied a prominent position.

About 150 persons were in attendance. After a splendid dinner had been justly the dinner present listened to some stirring addresses.

On account of the day being a fast one a fish dinner had to be served. On the cover of the menu a harp was shown.

After the toast to the King "The Day We Celebrate" was proposed. Major Rickham in response made a splendid address. He declared that the order had most fittingly observed the great day. In the morning Mass had been heard, and a splendid procession held. Nearly 500 persons wore shamrocks and none had been ashamed to wear them.

Mr. Rickham stated that it was absolutely necessary to keep alive the Irish spirit and the Hibernians should strive with this end in view. The claims of Ireland had been made known by her great statesman, County President William L. Williams paid a fitting response to the toast, the "Ancient Order of Hibernians" in which he lauded the members for their parade.

"Ireland: The Land of the Shamrock," brought forth an eloquent address from James McHugh.

The remaining toasts on the programme were also responded to in an excellent manner.

The toasts were: "Canada, Our Home"—J. J. Donovan. "The Parliament of Canada." James McCarthy. "The City of St. John"—Ex-Ald. T. Lanthorn.

"The Ladies' Auxiliary"—County President Mrs. M. J. Cavanaugh and Mrs. J. T. Sheehan, president of the local auxiliary.

"The Ladies"—Captain E. J. McLaughlin.

A short musical programme helped to make the evening enjoyable.

Mrs. R. C. Campbell and Miss Agnes Campbell rendered a pleasing duet entitled "Beautiful Isle of the Sea." They were forced to respond to an encore.

Miss Walsh was loudly applauded in her Irish solo.

Doody, Mrs. Verinder and J. George McDermott, which were well received. M. J. Kelly acted as accompanist throughout the evening.

PARIS, March 14.—Paris is now threatened with a general strike of the telegraph and telephone operators employed in the Bureau of Post Offices. As a result of the energetic measure of the authorities in suppressing the strike of the telegraph operators which isolated Paris for four hours yesterday, forty of the ringleaders, including ten railway mail clerks, who refused to board their trains, have been suspended, pending dismissal from the service. Eight of those who took part in the riot in the central telegraph bureau of the post office on Friday night were under arrest. The president of the General Association of Postal Telegraph Employees, M. Subra, is among those under suspension.

NICARAGUA IS STORM CENTRE OF WORLD NOW

WASHINGTON, March 15.—In so far as official dispatches were concerned there were no developments today in the Central American situation. It was announced at the state department that word had come from Nicaragua or elsewhere bearing the fact that after waiting all day for a reply to his dispatch of last night, the British minister at the capital, Mr. G. W. R. Henderson, had had nothing to communicate. In the meantime, after conferences between Mr. Knox, Secretary of State, and Mr. Philbrick, chief of the British legation, the ships now in Nicaraguan waters and on their way there were assigned to stations. Thousands in the province. In fact he stated that several mills in the province were covered on account of the absence of labor.

That Mr. Duff-Miller enjoys extreme popularity on the other side is evidenced from the various newspaper articles. We quote from a recent edition of the Imperial Review: "He has represented this province in London for more than twelve years, and during all that time has devoted himself unremittingly to the study of Imperial questions and to the furtherance of every possible means of making the unity between the colonies and the Mother Country a reality and a mutual source of strength and happiness."

MONTREAL, March 14.—There was a great scurrying among the officials of the Intercolonial last evening over the report that a long series of irregularities had been discovered on the line during the past few days, the statement being made that many cases of underweight have been reported to the head officials both here and at Montreal. It is understood, in fact, that thousands and thousands of dollars have been lost to the revenues of the government road and that now that the proper authorities are naturally accused it is more than likely that suspensions and arrests may be in order as soon as further investigations will have taken place.

"New Brunswick has her advantages and it is not too late to begin systematically a campaign to encourage immigration to her shores," were the remarks of Hon. Charles A. Duff-Miller, agent general for New Brunswick, to a representative of the Sun last evening.

Mr. Duff-Miller is here at present in an endeavor to have the local government take up the matter of immigration. Yesterday he met Premier Hazen. It is reported that Mr. Duff-Miller will proceed with the preliminary Fredericton today. During the week he will consult with the government on the matter.

His troops now occupy strategic points along San Juan River and the lake shore at Puerto and Naranja.

At a time when tiny orange trees are to be seen as table decorations and oranges innumerable are for sale it is not inappropriate to trace the introduction of the fruit into Europe. According to a Paris contemporary, after its introduction into Europe from China a Carthaginian conceived the idea of grafting the yellow mandarin orange upon the greener seedling of the orange tree which he had brought from the West Indies to Portugal, and the first attempt to cultivate it was made by the Count de Bourbon, but after his revolt Francis I. continued the experiments. At the time Louis IV. visited Toulon the Chevalier Paul, in compliment of the King, placed some preserved oranges on trees in the orangery. Ladies in the retinue, it is added, were under the impression that these oranges grew sugar.

CUBANS UP IN ARMS AGAINST THE NEW GOVT.

Widespread Conspiracy Unearthed GUARDS MUTINY Government Troops in Hot Pursuit—Two Arrests Made

HAVANA, March 6.—The first armed rising against the new Cuban republic occurred last night. It is more than six weeks after the inauguration of General Gomez. How serious the movement is it is impossible to determine at present, all that is known being that a sergeant of the garrison stationed at the town of Sancti Spiritus, in Sancti Clara province, with party of seven men, some other members of the garrison, and a number of peasants took to the roads and that the troops are in active pursuit. While the movement apparently is unimportant numerically, all indications point to the fact that it is the first of a widespread conspiracy the scope of which is indicated by a dispatch received here this afternoon which stated that a special train, carrying a detachment of the rural guard under command of Major General Montenegro was proceeding as quickly as possible for Vuelta. News of the rising reached the palace this morning, when, according to the first point, it appeared that a sergeant and seven of the rural guards had fled and deserted from a post near Vuelta. Later an official statement was given to the effect that Captain in the regular army, who had been an insurrectionary movement, motive for which, it was officially stated, was the refusal of the government to give Cortes a commission as captain in the regular army, which the resident Gomez declared his intention of instantly suppressing the uprising and making an example of all concerned. He ordered the rapid concentration of troops in the vicinity of Sancti Spiritus for the purpose of surrounding the fugitives. Orders were issued that troops to take no prisoners if encountered resistance and not to be pursued until all had been captured or captured. It was learned that a son of the late Gomez had been unsearched in the rural guard and that he was a captain, a former captain of the rural guard, Lavastola by name, and that he was charged with the charge of the insurrectionary movement. The district where the trouble has occurred is strongly Liberal. It is known that the home of President Gomez, who was formerly governor. All the participants in the rising are reported to be Liberals of the Miguelista faction, whom it is known that the young man has been widely dispersed. The young man is reported to be in the hands of the government, and the president's secretary, said this evening this doubtless the cause of the rising, which the government attached little importance, being satisfied that the movement was weak and sporadic and that the prompt capture of the fugitives could be regarded as certain.

GOVERNMENT DECIDES TO DEVOTE $465,000 MORE TO WORK OF DREDGING

Supplementary Estimates Tabled in the Commons Yesterday

They Total $3,521,935—Over $100,000 for Harbors and Rivers

$500,000 Asked to Meet This Year's Deficit on the I. C. R.

OTTAWA, March 12.—The supplementary estimates for the current fiscal year, totalling $3,521,935, were tabled in the commons today. They cover items provided for in the estimates passed last session and are about one and one-half million smaller than the similar estimates brought down at the close of the last fiscal year. Of the total amount, $2,977,133 is chargeable to consolidated fund account and $544,802 to capital account. The salary increases granted under the new Civil Service Act are responsible for a considerable portion of additional amount required to meet expenditures of current year. The new items of expenditure provided for in the estimates include $85,000 to cover additional cost of debates of parliament consequent upon unusual length of last session; $170,000 for pay and allowances in militia, departing in $100,000 for annual drill last year; $40,000 extra for additions and alterations to parliament buildings; $100,740 for harbors and rivers in Quebec; $97,185 in Nova Scotia; $102,918 in New Brunswick and $309,074 in Ontario, $465,000 for dredging, $235,000 for the construction of an ice breaking steamer in the Northumberland Strait and $40,000 for pay expenses of seed grain distribution in West last spring. To pay expenses of W. L. Mackenzie King, M. P., representative of Canada, at the joint-empire conference at Shanghai, China, the sum of $5,000 is asked. To meet the expense of Judge Cassidy's investigation of the Ontario and Quebec department, $40,000 is required, and the sum of $500,000 additional is asked to meet this year's deficit on the Intercolonial railway. The total actual expenditure for the current year will, of course, not be known even approximately until Mr. Fielding makes his budget speech. The expenditure will, however, be less than last session, since owing to the lateness of the season when the public works estimates were put through, many of the works contemplated had not been deferred and estimates this year contain a large portion of re-votes.

MME. EAMES WAS GREATLY AGITATED

Calls for the House Detective When Asked to be Seen

CHICAGO, March 12.—Mrs. Emma Eames and Emilie de Gogorza, who are participating in joint song recitals throughout the country, were today the star performers in exciting scenes at the Auditorium theatre as the result of a suit brought in New York by Mrs. Elsa de Gogorza against her husband for alimony and separation, in which she mentions the name of Mme. Eames, M. S. Leonard, the press agent for the two sisters, the house detective of the Auditorium Annex and other employees of the hotel also took part in the scenes which stirred the hot, greatest anger suit 1,124, where Gogorza is staying, and suite 1,714, which Mme. Eames and her maids occupy. The excitement was precipitated by the visit of a reporter in an effort to secure the facts concerning the marital troubles in the Gogorza family, the mention of Mme. Eames' name in the suit and the present attitude of Mme. Eames and Leonard upon the subject. Mme. Eames was greatly agitated when the reporter sought to interview her. She telephoned to the hotel clerk to send up a house detective. Gogorza answered several questions and was profuse in his apologies that he could not be "more courteous and gentlemanly."

5000 ACTORS IN A BIG CHURCH PAGEANT

Rehearsing Great Event to be Held in the Archbishop's Palace, London

LONDON, March 12.—A glimpse "behind the scenes" of the organization work necessary in preparing the great church pageant which is to take place in the grounds of Fulham Palace on June 10 was given yesterday by Frank Leacelles, the master of the ceremonies. "My company," he said, "will comprise about 5000 amateur actors and actresses. The Oxford pageant was the largest held in this country before 1900. At Quebec last year we had 5000 people. But this one will, I think, establish a world's record." Counting the members of local committees and the 5000 women who are making the costumes the number of people actively interested in the pageant is over 12,000. Leacelles described how the 5000 performers will be rehearsed. "In such a scene as that representing Augustine's arrival in Britain, leaders of groups will be chosen. Say there are 200 or 300 actual performers. Fifteen of them will be group leaders, heading parties of bishops, monks, courtiers and fishermen. It is these leaders that I shall first instruct, taking them from the ground and showing them their entrances and exits. They will return to their districts and instruct their followers. By this system I shall need more than five rehearsals of the whole army of performers, two for perfecting concerted movements and three dress rehearsals. Mistakes at rehearsals I shall be able to correct by shouting through a giant megaphone. "At the actual performance I shall be perched, unseen by the audience, in a little box upon the top of the grandstand. At Quebec I controlled the entrances and exits of the host of players by means of forty-two telephones. In this case I shall probably need more. In a grand finale, which will take place after darkness has fallen, the whole of the 5000 people will be massed together to sing the Te Deum, the scene being illuminated by thirty powerful searchlights. This should be a memorable spectacle."

LOGRATIVE HIP POCKET TRADE

Inspector Vincent Rounds Up Two FAIRVILLE VIOLATORS

Inspector Reiterates His Determination to Stop Illegal Selling

For some months the illegal selling of liquor in Fairville has been flaunted before the authorities with a bravado that has been generally resented throughout the community and Chief License Inspector Vincent in announcing last night that he had run the offending parties to earth has accomplished an end that has long been the source of much worry.

Lingey and Hickey, the two men against whom informations have been laid, are alleged to have carried on what is known as a hip pocket business. They have openly acknowledged their illicit operations, it is stated, and have on repeated occasions, it is alleged, defied the inspector to enter a case against them.

Mr. Vincent has been devoting some time to the matter for months past and he views the successful disposal with much evident complacency. The men are to appear before a magistrate on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The inspector claims that he has a clear case against the pair and future developments are being awaited with interest.

The Sun last night Mr. Vincent stated that Sunday the members of all risks and at all events. He has determined that the violation of the laws shall cease and he expressed himself as determined to lend all efforts to that end.

DESIGNING WOMEN RUIN YOUNG GIRL

Esther Rawson Dying in a Hospital in Detroit, Mich.

WINDSOR, Ont., Mar. 12.—Annette Rawson, aged 24 years, who came to Detroit from Montreal three weeks ago, was taken to the hospital yesterday in a dying condition and placed in one of the city hospitals, where her death is only a matter of a few days. The unfortunate girl was without friends when she came to Detroit and fell into the hands of a couple of designing women. A few days later a United States Immigration officer took her from her home of Montreal and ordered her deported to Canada as an undesirable alien. While waiting for a return of the necessary papers from Washington and Montreal, Miss Rawson was taken down with typhoid fever of a malignant type. The papers arrived on Saturday, but when the officers went to see them they found the girl's condition too severe to move her. The only thing left was to have her placed in a hospital at the city's expense, which was done. The girl says she has relatives in Montreal, but refuses to name them.

SAYS MISS KELLERMAN SAT UP WITH HUSBAND

BOSTON, Mass., Mar. 12.—Annette Kellerman, a swimmer from Australia, flung in a divorce libel heard today by Judge Lawton, in the Suffolk Superior Court, in the case of Mrs. Mabel Pattee against Herbert S. Pattee, wife and manager of "Love's Tourney," an amusement at Wonderland Park.

Mrs. Pattee is only 20 years old, while her husband is 42. She told the judge that her husband had deceived her and insisted that Miss Kellerman should be permitted to board at their home. Mrs. Pattee related that her husband and Miss Kellerman would sit late at night in the kitchen at their house in Roxbury drinking beer and eating crackers. There was nothing very improper about this, said Mrs. Pattee, except that she thought she herself was entitled to her husband's company.

Mrs. Pattee, who was then Mabelle Symonds, a girl of 17, met Pattee while she was wandering through the beach resort. She was invited by Mr. Pattee to take a ride on "Love's Journey." They were married the following January and went to live in New York. Mrs. Pattee's mother went to live with them. There were quarrels and separations and reconciliations and then a final parting. Mr. Pattee did not appear today, and is not contesting. The case was taken under advisement.

Gamble at Will, Says Mr. Magee

MORAL REFORM

Subject of Discussion in Queen Square Church—Three Great Evils

In Queen Square church last night the Rev. H. S. Magee, field secretary of the Moral Reform Council of the Methodist Church in Canada, talked interestingly of the progress of the movement. He emphasized most strongly the great need of a more vigorous policy of social reform and exhorted its immediate prosecution as the most important factor in the development of Canada's national life.

Mr. Magee spoke more particularly of the three evils which he believed were chiefly inimical to the country's welfare. These were intemperance, gambling and prostitution. Speaking of intemperance, Mr. Magee stated that it was easily and away the most formidable curse to be met with. Its elimination, however, was merely a matter of time. The British house of commons had decided to throw out the licensing act, but the great house of the nation's brain and brawn was not done with temperance legislation. He stated that the day would come when the liquor traffic would be banished from the civilized world.

Speaking of the reverend gentleman as chairman of a vice squad which in effect to that of intemperance. The effort of Gov. Hughes of New York in stamping out the evil merited general appreciation, but the whole people must first become imbued with the magnitude and influence of the vice before lasting reforms may be attempted.

It was an inconspicuous difficult of understanding to know that street urchins may be arrested and imprisoned for shooting a pile, while so called society folk play this role unmolested by any law upon the statute books of Canada. "Are we to submit to such a state of affairs?" asked the speaker. "Do we indeed intend to allow a puffed up aristocracy to ride rough shod over all that stands for the betterment of our country?"

Concluding his talk, Mr. Magee discussed the white slave trade which he characterized as the most damnable enterprise entered into by man. Mrs. Magee stated that the traffic was thoroughly organized and extended from coast to coast and that the girls were being lured each day into dens of vice, while the enlightened people stood idly by contented to move only in spasmodic instances. He argued that greater publicity be given to the details of the traffic and appealed to his individual hearers for strenuous effort in the stamping out of the traffic.

WAS HE WASN'T MARRIED BEFORE

T. STEPHEN, March 12.—A somewhat sensational dispatch from Moncton appeared in the St. John paper today concerning a hello girl, an old maid of Moncton and a Dr. of Halifax makes about as big comedy of errors as could well be coded in one story. The young man referred to came to St. Stephen, native town, and was married in town, two miles from her home, to a woman with whom she had kept many for five years, and who spent days here among her relatives before the wedding. Going from here bride and groom spent some days with relatives of the bride in Portland and returned to Moncton, where the bride secured profitable employment. There somebody got busy with circulating rumors that caused an anxious relative of the bride to inquire in Moncton, where somebody with poor discretion gave rumors to the press.
