

For Brewster and Good Government South Brant Conservatives Are Solid

Mr. W. S. Brewster, K. C., M. P. P., Received Unanimous Endorsation of South Brant Conservatives Last Night - Stalwarts Out in Full Force, and Enthusiasm Ran High - Mayor Spence Paid Striking Tribute to Brant Member.

W. S. Brewster, K.C., M.P.P., last night received the unanimous endorsement of the stalwarts of the Conservative party of South Brant as the people's candidate of the approaching Provincial election.

policy, saving millions of dollars every year to the householders of this province. Its legislation for the benefit of labor was in striking contrast to the inactivity of the Liberals during their tenure of office for over 30 years, and it remained for Sir James Whitney to abolish prison labor contracts, left as a heritage of the Liberal regime. Mr. Brewster showed truth, by making the temperance question a political football, set back the dial of temperance in Ontario by 20 years. Under the Whitney Government 40 amendments, all restrictive, had been made to the Liquor Act, and steady progress was being made. In closing his speech the candidate received a splendid ovation. Splendid addresses were delivered by Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., A. E. Watts, K.C., F. D. Reville, and by the several gentlemen who were nominated, but who retired in favor of Mr. Brewster.

W. F. COCKSHUTT, M.P.

Who congratulated the delegates on the re-nomination of Mr. W. S. Brewster.

The nomination of Mr. Brewster marks his fourth straight candidature. On his first occasion he made a splendid run, reducing the Liberal majority almost to the vanishing point, and on the next occasion he was returned as victor with a splendid majority, making the first time since Confederation that South Brant returned a Conservative. On the third occasion Mr. Brewster's election followed by a greatly increased majority. South Brant Conservative stalwarts like a winner, and their continued confidence in Mr. W. S. Brewster and the spirit in which it was manifested augurs well for one more victory for Good Government in this historic riding.

The member for South Brant, in accepting the nomination, rewarded those present with one of the best speeches he has delivered since he entered public life. It was one of those fighting kind of speeches, and was a clear, logical exposition of the record of the progressive Government of Sir James Whitney. The candidate dealt with the leading issues of the day in breezy style. The Government of Sir James Whitney was, by its Hydro-Electric that the Whitney policy had been one to uphold this province. What had Mr. Rowell to offer? Nothing but his "Abolish the Bar" plank, a specious political battle-cry, adopted because the Liberals were in the Slough of Despond. Mr. Rowell had in Dennis Hogan will be missed by a wide circle of friends. He was a whole-hearted Irishman and a man of great fidelity to his family, his church, his party and to all with whom he was associated. As an official in the Brantford jail his term of office was marked by pleasant associations with all whom he came in contact with, and his treatment of prisoners was kindly but firm, and won for him a place in the hearts of many an unfortunate one. To the bereaved family the most sincere sympathy will be extended.

TURNKEY HOGAN PASSED AWAY LAST EVENING

Popular Official at Brantford Jail Succumbs to Severe Illness.

Dennis Hogan, Turnkey of the Brantford jail, passed away last night. The end came peacefully at ten minutes past eleven o'clock, and the last moments were comforted by the presence of the family who had been summoned when the end was thought to be approaching.

The deceased was in his 65th year and leaves to mourn his sad loss besides his wife Nora, two sons, Gus and Tim at home; and three daughters, Kathleen of this city; Mrs. Wm. Haines of Oakland, and Mrs. James Graham of Brantford. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. John Hurley of this city, and two brothers, John of Rochester and Michael of the Northwest.

The late gentleman was a life-long Conservative, and an ardent, earnest worker for his party. He came to Brantford from Eramosa township in Wellington County, where he was born, to follow his occupation as a blacksmith, and was employed for some years at the Massey-Harris Works, which he left to become a foreman at the Gould-Beyer works. He had also worked at the Cockshutt Plow works. Four years ago he was appointed turnkey at the county jail and he held this position at the time of his death. He was an athlete in younger days and was one of the old Maple Leaf Baseball team, and he was proud of his athletic achievements.

An accident which happened to him during the late fall while riding a bicycle may have to some extent accelerated the death for shortly after the occurrence he took to his bed and never recovered. Always a staunch Roman Catholic, the deceased was buried with Catholic rites to-morrow morning in St. Joseph's cemetery. After services have been conducted by Rev. Dean Brady at St. Basil church,

HE WAS GALLANT

Rev. Mr. Saunders Stopped a Runaway and Saved Little Boy.

A runaway which might have resulted seriously, but for the prompt action of a clergyman, took place yesterday. A rig had been left by a young man while he called at a house at the corner of Murray and Nelson Streets. While he was away a little boy got into the rig and the horse started wildly and before the young fellow could rush and stop it, it was making a bee line for the canal. The little boy was badly frightened and shouting loudly. Rev. C. W. Saunders who was on a wheel, had his attention attracted and he gallantly started after the runaway, which he caught up to and eventually brought to a stop just before it reached canal banks. No body was injured and the rig and horse were unharmed. His services not required further, the clergyman retired, but not before his heroic action had been noted.

TWAS EVER THUS.

VERNON, B.C., May 22.—Dave Cameron, a full-blooded Indian of Okanagan, bought an automobile for his wife, who, while learning to drive it, steered the machine over a bank. She and her stepdaughter were dangerously injured.

Spirit is Weak.

"I thought you all was gineter git married to 'Rastus Pinkley.'" "I was thinking about," replied Miss Miami Brown, "but when I los' my temper an' slammed him with a skillet an' he never come back at me, I says to myself 'Dat ain' no man to put in charge of family discipline.'"

Candidate For Good Government

MR. W. S. BREWSTER, K.C. Who again received the confidence of South Brant Conservatives last night.

Mr. Brewster's re-nomination, a speech that was greeted with cheers, and was full of the fighting spirit, known to be part and parcel of the make-up of Brantford's chief executive head.

Mayor Spence

When the Mayor succeeded, after rounds of applause in making himself heard, he declared that he would not be a candidate, although he felt highly honored by the compliment. He was out and out for the nomination of the present member of South Brant, Mr. W. S. Brewster. (Applause.) It had been his privilege to attend civic business at Toronto recently, on several occasions, and in connection with questions vital to every citizen of Brantford. He had, after visiting the Provincial House a few times come to the conclusion that South Brant, in the person of W. S. Brewster, had a strong man to represent its interests. Mr. Brewster, said the Mayor, held a strong hand with the government, and was looked upon as one of its most capable members. In this connection he referred to the gas bill, recently put through. The Brantford Gas Company, said the Mayor, was controlled by the Doherty interests, who in turn were part and parcel of the Standard Oil Company, the big Octopus of America. In the fight to get pure gas for Brantford and other places, the manipulators hired by this great monopoly, swarmed in the city of Toronto, and did their best to force on the people the natural or unnatural gas from Tilbury. Mr. Brewster, after a clever presentation of the facts, was able in spite of all this opposition, to get the bill through and it demonstrated clearly, the strong hand he held with his fellow members.

Continuing, the Mayor pointed out that it was probable there would be a re-organization of the Ontario Cabinet after the next election. "I feel satisfied," he declared, "from what I saw and heard, that Mr. Brewster will be a member of that cabinet when it is re-organized." In years gone by, it had always been considered that we were not in the running unless Brantford had a Cabinet representative. In view of all the circumstances on this occasion, every Conservative in Brantford, should put his shoulder to the wheel to re-elect Mr. Brewster, and if they do it will not be W. S. Brewster, M. P. P., but Hon. W. S. Brewster, M. P. P., will be the man to represent this riding. (Loud cheers.)

President W. M. Charlton was next to retire. He had been through several campaigns with Mr. Brewster and knew him to be a fighter. South Brant could not afford to lose such a man, and he willingly retired in his favor. Ald. S. P. Fitcher substantiated the statement of Mayor Spence. Mr. Brewster not only held the respect and confidence of his own party but of members of the Opposition as well. Certainly he retired in favor of the sitting member.

Mr. R. E. Ryerson made a happy speech. He had no intention of accepting the nomination, because he believed it was NO TIME FOR A CHANGE. Mr. Brewster had carried the party to victory in two campaigns. His worth as a fighter for the interests of city and country was known to all. Mr. Ryerson wished to point out, however, to all Conservatives who were not on the lists in January last, that it would be necessary for them to register, and when registration started (the date will be announced later) they will have to attend personally.

A Temperance Pioneer

Mr. A. L. Baird, K.C., well-known as one of Brantford's temperance pioneers, was the next speaker. He was proud to nominate Mr. W. S. Brewster, K.C., as the Whitney candidate. He had known him a long while, and there was no man in the constituency who could represent the riding so faithfully. In the prime of life, vigorous, and with his heart in the work, ready to serve the people, no better man than Mr. Brewster could be selected. In order to accomplish things as a legislator, a man had to have patience, ability and a give and take spirit. In the personality of Mr. Brewster, all these were combined, and he did not believe that Mayor Spence went out of the way in mentioning Mr. Brewster as a strong Cabinet possibility. Mr. Brewster in the past, may not have voted to suit all individuals. No man could, because legislation was a matter of compromise, a matter of general interest, and a government party had to be broad and look for the other fellow's and the general good at all times. There was no doubt but that South Brant's member had acted conscientiously, and had certainly pleased the majority of the people of Brant. He, for one, would do his best, declared the speaker, to see that Mr. Brewster went back to represent this constituency.

Labor's View

Mr. Fred Eastman, who seconded Mr. Brewster's nomination, was the next speaker. His reasons for backing the Whitney Government were for things done, not promised. Not long ago, under contracts of the old Liberal Government, products of prison labor competed against those of free labor. Sir James Whitney had put the kibosh on this. Government ownership of public utilities had also been inaugurated, and Mr. Eastman said it was a matter of pride to every resident of Ontario to think that the power ring had been smashed to pieces and the workman was now paying cost for his light and power instead of contributing to dividends on watered stock in the big power monopoly. Woman Dropped Roll Of $540 In a Local Store on Friday Last

A foreign woman was shopping in Knox's store on Friday last, when she purchased a small article and, putting her hand into her pocket, discovered she had lost a roll of $540. She looked around, but saw no sign of the missing money, and then she went home to brood over her loss. Not once did she think of advertising the loss, or giving the police notification, or letting the foreign missionary know of the matter. She kept her loss a secret and has quietly endeavored to trace the money on her own accord, but with little success, for she still mounts the loss of her savings. The police think it is the work of pickpockets, and are following the matter up diligently, but the chances of success are considerably diminished by the lapse of time.

ITALIAN WAS KILLED BY A L.E.&N. TRAIN

He Attempted to Board a Slow Moving Car Near Judge Hardy's Farm.

While trying to board the work train on the Lake Erie and Northern this morning, Louie Cergecetti, an Italian laborer in the employ of Johnson Bros. contractors, in some way slipped and fell and was pulled under the wheels of the train, which was moving slowly. The unfortunate man had his head, his left arm and the toes of his right foot taken off. The accident occurred shortly before 7 o'clock at the gravel pit, just beyond the overhead bridge, north of Judge Hardy's farm. The work train every morning comes into the city about 6.30 o'clock and takes out the men to the pit where they are working. This morning, the train stopped a little short of the usual place of stopping and all the men got off, including Cergecetti, and started for the pit. Just then the train started up again and the unfortunate man attempted to board it in order to ride two or three car lengths. In some way or other his foot slipped and the wheels ran over the toes of his right foot, severing them completely from the foot. At the same time the man was pulled under the wheels, which were over his left shoulder and neck, severing both members. The cries of the unfortunate man attracted the attention of his fellow employees, but their assistance was of no avail. At the time of the accident, the train was barely moving. Coroner Dr. Fissette was called and decided that an inquest was necessary. He then ordered the body to be removed to Beckett's Undertaking parlors. Has Relatives Here. Cergecetti boarded at 17 Main St., in this city, and he has a brother in Bright, Ont. Pete Cancelli took charge of the body at the undertaking parlors and immediately telephoned to the brother in Bright. The deceased was about 21 years of age and a man of medium size. He has been in the employ of Johnson Bros. for some time and was a good worker. REBELS ENVOY. NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 22.—Confronted with the announcement from Washington that the Constitutionists were planning to send a representative here, the mediators as well as the Mexican and American delegates awaited with much interest to-day some definite word of his mission.

HANGED TODAY FOR MURDER AT MONTREAL

An Italian Went to Gallows With Expression of Penitence.

(By Special Wire to the Courier) MONTREAL, May 22.—Tomasso Bernardi was hanged at six minutes to eight at Bordeaux jail this morning for the murder of Luigi Scholli, committed over a year ago. As Ellis, the executioner, pulled down the black cap, the condemned man shouted three words in Italian as meaning "Grace, grace, pardon." Rev. Father Garieu, the priest of the jail, who had been with Bernardi all night stood by him on the scaffold. Just as Ellis was adjusting the noose, the condemned man "courage brother," then Ellis commenced his work, and the slipknot was placed beneath the left ear. Immediately afterwards the trap was sprung and Bernardi was dropped to his death. The priest remained standing by the vacant space in the floor where a live man had stood a moment before, and murmured a last prayer for the departed. Bernardi spent a troubled night, frequently starting up. This morning he asked for an egg and a cup of tea, and after breakfasting he prayed. Then, contrary to general custom, his feet were tied in the cell and he was carried by guards to the scaffold, two yards away from his door. It was feared he would collapse and make a scene. Bernardi's crime was a brutal and daring one, committed on one of the busiest thoroughfares in the city, during the lunch hour, at the corner of McGill and Notre Dame streets. Scrolli and an Italian woman, Angela Regiani, with whom Bernardi had formerly been living, were walking quietly along the street, when Bernardi ran up and shot both. The man died almost immediately, while the woman, after several months in the hospital, recovered and appeared as the principal crown witness against the slayer. Miss Regiani said she had come from Italy on money sent by Bernardi, who promised to marry her. He had taken her to his boarding house, but after a few days she became convinced that he did not intend to marry her. She left him.

DOWN WENT CANDY

An Amusing Incident on a Crowded Street Yesterday Afternoon.

An amusing scene occurred on the Market and Colborne street corner yesterday afternoon, when a group of colored people enjoyed themselves at somebody else's expense to their heart's content. A wagon contained over half a ton of candies was passing through the city from Paris, when the rough jolting of the vehicle on the crossings at this corner caused a bag containing about sixty pounds of chocolates, to fall and break open, causing many of the sweets to be badly damaged. No sooner had the bag dropped than a bunch of people rushed up and pockets began to swell, and in a short time the carter was only able to redeem a small portion of the fallen goods. Big-lipped mouths were seen wearing a broad typical grin, and showing the darlings' appreciation of this unexpected feast. Those chocolates disappeared faster than it is possible to write about it, and supper did not appeal to many of those candy eating coons.

COUNSEL GAVE ADDRESS WITH STING IN IT

Becker's Revolvers, He Said, Hissed a Challenge at American Civilization

(By Special Wire to The Courier) NEW YORK, May 22.—The charge of Justice Searby, as to the law in the case, remained to be heard by the twelve men, who for two weeks have listened to the evidence for and against Charles E. Becker before they retired to-day to determine whether or not he is guilty of having instigated the murder of Herman Rosenthal. With the instructions of the court, the jurors carried with them the final pleas of Martin T. Manton of Becker's counsel, and District Attorney Charles S. Whitman, the former asking that no compromise verdict be reached, but that the accused former lieutenant be acquitted or condemned to die, and the prosecutors demand of a life for a life. A quick verdict is expected. Many who have followed the course of the trial predicting that Becker would know his fate within a few hours, probably late to-day. Nineteen months ago, it took the jury eight hours to reach its verdict of guilty. This was set aside by the Court of Appeals, necessitating the present trial. In the trial, now drawing to a close, the state put 33 witnesses on the stand to establish the guilt of Becker; the defense produced 26 to controvert this evidence. Becker did not appear on the stand, having been dissuaded from testifying by his counsel. A prominent witness for the state at the first trial, who did not appear this time was Sam Schepps, whose testimony was discredited in the court of appeals opinion, reversing the verdict of guilty. The trial was brought to a close last night, so far as the defense and prosecution was concerned, with two of the most dramatic appeals for the life and for the death of a man on

The next meeting to be held in Mohawk School house, June 20th, when the June delegate will give an address.

Living on a prominent corner and sleeping with all windows open leads one to believe that the most popular "last line" any time between 6 p.m. and 6 a.m. is, "Good-bye. Be sure and call me up." It averages fifty per night; but the most seasonable "last line" at present seems, "Got your rubbers on? Don't forget your umbrella." On second thought that might also be a liner, double-header as it were.

PERFORMANCE AT Y. W. C. A. WAS CLEVER

A Foreign Pageant Was Very Prettily Staged Last Evening.

As in all things attempted at the Y. W. C. A., the programme was well arranged and excellently carried out when the Foreign Association Pageant given by the members of the "I Will Trust Club" was presented in the Victoria Hall last evening.

The word pageant was perhaps a misnomer for the entertainment was not a pompous show, but rather a series of sketches, giving a splendid and reliable review of the work accomplished by the association and its secretaries in various far off lands including China, India, South America and Japan. The work performed in these places was emulated as far as a stage will allow, to the delight of a large audience, who were thoroughly interested. Each of the four playlets was taken from episodes in the ordinary every day course of the secretaries and they were instructive in the first degree. Besides providing a superb entertainment, the pageant also marked the close of the ten days effort to raise money to send delegates representing the club to the summer conference at Muskoka.

The characters were portrayed quite up to the usual high repute of the Y. W. C. A. impersonations and among such a galaxy of talent it is somewhat difficult to discriminate. Miss Cora Gould was distinctly clever with her Spirit of Womanhood in which she represented the entire prologue, while Miss Marion Veigh as the centre figure in an imposing epilogue, when she was The Spirit of the Association, added to her laurels with her finale. The scenes throughout were suited to the various countries represented and the costumes were equally appropriate and gave the peculiar Oriental atmosphere which is so difficult to effect.

The sketch of South America dealt with the trials of the association secretary of that frivolous city, Buenos Ayres in dealing with immigrant girls who are enticed to the gay centre with little or no knowledge of the Argentine reputation. Among the many taking part in the worthy production were the following Miss Gould, Dorothy Hagey, Bessie Johnson, Clara Walton, Grace Struthers, Florence Walker, Mrs. D. L. Wright, Eva Wilma Jones, Elsie Wilmont, Irene Todd, Miss Travis, Evelyn Fenn, May Rose, Eva Walker, Hazel Byers, Pearl Kent, Elizabeth Allen and Marion Peigh.

The National Anthem ended the pageant which was an undoubted success.

Military Notes

A squadron of the 25th Dragoons held an enjoyable sing-song and supper at the Teapot Inn last night under Major Smith, while D squadron attended the Brant theatre under Capt. Towers. On Sunday they hold their church parade. The dress will be brass helmets, red serge, blue pants and "jinglers" (spurs). A smart parade is looked for.

The first match in the Canadian Military Rifle League series will be fired at the Mohawk ranges on Saturday, May 30th. Two teams, as usual have been entered, and it is expected that the local shots will give a good account of themselves in this competition. On account of the short time which has been available for practice, it has been decided to open air ranges on Monday morning as well as on Saturday afternoon, which will give the members an extra practice before firing the first match.

Golf Notes

The team to play the London Hunt Club in London, Monday 25th, will be selected from the following players, Messrs Schell, Revile, Champion, Large, C. J. Watt, H. McKay, G. Caudwell, Orr, F. M. Ellis, Thornburn, Bunnell, Jones, Miller, Neill, Webbling, Mabon, Paterson, R. Scarfe, Cly Ellis, Fitton, F. Large, and Forsyth. The train leaves the G. T. Junior Hospital Aid Meeting

The regular meeting of the J. H. A. was held in the Trust Club room of the Y. W. C. A. on Wednesday, May 20th.

The secretary's and Treasurer's reports were read and adopted; also the reports of "The Blues" and "The Reds," the former having completed their campaign, and the latter gratefully acknowledged receipts from "The Mile of Coppers," all of which are asked to be in by next Monday, May 25th.

The visiting committee reported weekly visits to the hospital during the month and the taking of fruit, journals and magazines and picture cards for the children in the Isolation hospital. Miss Sarah Raymond and Miss Gertrude Macfarland were appointed visitors for the ensuing month.

It was decided to order two new bassinets for the maternity ward.

The secretary was asked to appoint visiting committees for July and August.

The meeting then adjourned until the third Wednesday in September, although a special meeting of the executive and captains will be held at the close of the campaign on June 1.

Brant Theatre. If the programme for the first half of this week at the Brant Theatre could be improved on, then it was; the second half bill giving as great variety in the acts as could be wished. The performance was good and last night in spite of the warm weather, a crowded house sat in comfort in a delightfully cool atmosphere, showing their appreciation of the acts and of the ventilation system.

Jimmy Wall is another of those black-faced comedians who are so popular at the present time and he worthily upheld the name of his tribe. The feats performed by the Lavelle Dogs are almost incredible, and they are seen. These members of the canine family have been trained to a high pitch of perfection and they act knowingly, causing many a laugh with their comic tricks.

The Tango Fiends in a stage sense are new to Brantford and every modern dance, whether it resembles a dance or not, comes within their ken, and they can transform the Tango into a thing of beauty and grace. They know the difference between a high and a low, and they were encored, by Barron and Staunton furnished the musical comedy of the show and they delighted all with their happy knack of running these two ingredients together. They made a hit.

Photo plays of the usual interesting character complete a good bill. At the Colonial. Another splendid audience greeted William O'Clare and company last night at the Colonial theatre. This company, which has delighted large audiences all this week, has been retained for the last three days, and their act is completely changed. A very clever comedy sketch was put on. Deloss and Pearl presented a change of act in the singing and talking sketch which was even better than the first half of the week. Barney Stone and the Desmond sisters, who have been seen at the Colonial previous to this weeks engagement, again delighted the crowd with their clever dancing. Wm. O'Clare and Madeline McDonald delighted the crowd with their quiet Irish manners and songs, the former bringing the house down by his yodling. Four reels of high-class picture plays complete a splendid show. The great mp production, "Absinthe," one of the best pictures ever issued, is announced for the first part of next week.

FARMERS SEND MONEY TO CITY

Catalog Houses Drain Cash of Small Towns—Sowing Seed of Discord.

Dollar Spent With Home Merchant Upbuilds Community in Which You Live—in the End It's More Satisfactory to Buy of Local Tradesman.

Men are seldom more innocently employed than when they are honestly making money.

The value of a dollar is to buy just things. A dollar goes on increasing in value with all the genius and all the virtue of the world.

The lack of money has brought many a community to a state of oblivion, and the community's pauperism is invariably the result of unparitric residents sending their money away to the large cities for supplies.

Catalogue Houses Sow Discord. The retail mail order houses, as leeches in the side of rural commercialism, work day and night, in fair weather and in foul.

They bind industry with their film as fly is bound with a spider's web. They sow a crazy kind of discord, and the harvesters reap thistles instead of dollars.

Mail order buying builds up the large cities at the expense of the smaller cities and towns. Every dollar used in this way by the residents of a community that is out of circulation at home and puts it into circulation many miles away.

Result of Violated Contracts. The dollar spent with the home grocer, dry goods dealer, hardware merchant, druggist or other business man upbuilds the community in which you live.

These merchants pay taxes to support your town, repair your streets, maintain your schools and build up and sustain your churches and maintain your markets.

If the people must order inferior goods, such as many mail order houses carry, the local merchant no longer can arrange his stock to correspond with their wants, both in quality and prices.

In some instances the lower prices quoted by the mail order houses are the result of violated contracts and chicanery, which have no place in an honest merchant's business.

Adopts in the Art. The mail order houses are adepts in the art and science of preparing interesting and readable catalogues.

When a purchaser goes to his retailer he can examine what he wishes to buy. He can look it over carefully, and if he wishes to receive a guarantee from the merchant that the article is satisfactory, the guarantee is good because the retailer intends to remain in business among his friends and he cannot afford to deceive.

Substitute Goods as Original. The catalogue houses, however, may offer to replace unsatisfactory goods, but there is the annoyance of writing claim letters, packing the goods found not satisfactory and shipping them back and waiting for the new shipment.

And there is the chance that the substitute goods will prove to be no more satisfactory than the original, and all the trouble will have to be experienced again.

When the consumer learns that it is not only easier, but much more satisfactory, to buy of the home merchant than of the catalogue house then the latter will have a much more stony path to travel than today, and it is being coming more rough with the passing of each day because the consumer is becoming educated to its ways and methods of business.

Cash Versus Credit Business. All that has been said is predicated on the theory that the farmer wants to do a cash business. He can do no other kind of business with the mail order houses.

Any man who accepts common decency as a standard will tell him that he has no right to send his cash to the big cities and ask for credit at the small local store.

That is not business. While such a practice is not forbidden by statute law, it is nevertheless immoral, unjust, mean. No fair minded man would have the consummate impudence to attempt a defense of such conduct.

Entitled to Cash Business. If the local dealer is good enough to deserve the credit trade of his community he is entitled to the cash business as well. If he is not honest enough to entitle him to the patronage of the cash customer he will take advantage of the credit customer.

But if you deal honestly and fairly with him by giving him both your cash and credit trade the chances are that he will deal fairly by you.

COUNSEL GAVE STINGING ADDRESS

trial, ever heard in the criminal courts building. The crush to hear the closing argument was not exceeded even when Evelyn Thaw was giving her testimony in defense of Harry Thaw for the murder of Stanford White.

District Attorney Whitman spoke for three hours at the night session, taking out of the mouth of Jack Sullivan, witness for the defense, whom Mr. Mantion had lauded as a man deserving of the jury's commendation the words of his testimony that "Whitman wants Becker," and shouting "of course I want Becker. I want the big criminal. I want the man back of it all. I want the man who inspired and engineered this whole monstrous crime."

Sullivan, sometimes known as the "king of newshoys," whose real name is Jacob Reich, then came in for a scathing denunciation at the hands of the district attorney.

Reverting to the murder, the District Attorney characterized the killing of Rosenthal with dramatic emphasis.

"The crack of those pistols in Forty Third street was a defiance of our American institutions," he declared. "And the bullets from those pistols hissed a challenge to our civilization."

Becker appeared in court a few minutes after the jury had been selected. He looked hopefully at the twelve men picked to decide his fate, then smiled at his wife sitting at the side of the jury, out of the range of vision of the court.

Mrs. Becker returned the smile and her husband dropped into his chair. He fixed his eyes on the jury box and waited for Justice Seabury to begin.

With Mrs. Becker were her brother and her husband's brothers, Jackson and John, the latter a lieutenant of detectives.

This defendant, began Justice Seabury, is charged with murder in the first degree. The people do not claim that he killed Rosenthal.

"If this defendant as a lieutenant of police, had a murder done, justice demanded that he be convicted and punished by being sentenced to death, but he must be proved guilty beyond reasonable doubt."

"The law says the defendant is entitled to reasonable doubt, not all doubt."

SOUTH BRANT CONVENTION.

In the natural course of events, Mr. W. S. Brewster, M.P.P., has again received the nomination as the standard-bearer for the Conservative party in South Brant in connection with the approaching Ontario contest.

He well deserved this unanimous tribute, for he has made an excellent member, and in Toronto is regarded as in the forefront on the Ministerial side. He is a member of three important committees—Private Bills, Legal and Privileges of Election—and in more than one instance has been called upon to take a leading part in debate.

AN INNOVATION IN ENGLAND

The city of Leeds, England, has been having so much trouble with its civic administration that it has decided to adopt the general manager plan. This will be the first English city to embark upon the experiment. What Leeds has decided to have is an efficient administration, not only of the public utilities but also of the various departments and offices.

IN BAD SHAPE.

In a leading editorial this morning the Toronto Globe pleads with Ontario Liberals to pinch themselves and see if they are awake. Here are some extracts from the article, which should more properly have been placed in the agony column:

"The Liberals of Ontario do not seem to understand that a general election is in progress, although the date on which the polling will be held has not yet been announced."

"The outstanding fact in the situation is that there are eighty or more Conservative members in the present Legislature who anticipate little or no trouble in securing a re-nomination from their supporters. The man in possession has a strong political alliance in the convention and in the constituency. There are only twenty Liberals at that position. It is of the utmost importance, therefore, if Liberalism is not to be badly handicapped at the outset, that Liberal candidates be put in the field at the earliest moment, so that they may have as long a period as possible in which to make the acquaintance of the electors."

Meanwhile, the task of securing Grit candidates is largely a hopeless job. In Guelph the Liberals had to adjourn because they couldn't agree, and now Mayor Carter is out for that riding, no matter what the adjourned convention may do. In West Wellington eighteen men were nominated, but no one would accept, and here is another sample illustration from the Globe columns of current date:

"Welland, May 21.—Though a considerable section of the Liberal convention, held here this afternoon, contended strongly for the nomination of a candidate for Welland riding for the coming Provincial election, others were just as decidedly of the opposite view, and the question was deferred, to be taken up if thought best at a convention of the Welland riding to be called later."

The truth of the matter is that the Ontario Liberals, as such, are thoroughly disgruntled and thoroughly disheartened. They have nothing within sight to fight for, and just now have no fight left in them.

AN INDEPENDENT VIEW.

Says the Hamilton Herald (Independent). "Most of the Liberal members of parliament who have spoken on the subject of the C.N.R. bond-guarantee agreement have admitted that government aid must be given to the C.N.R.—that it would be disastrous to allow that railway system to go into the hands of a receiver before its completion. Sir Wilfred Laurier and Hon. George P. Graham were very emphatic in their expression of this opinion. They did not approve of the form of aid proposed by the government, but as to the need of speedy aid they were agreed."

Yesterday, however, the opposition members with a single exception voted in favor of E. M. Macdonald's motion for the six-months' hoist, which, if it had carried, would have put over the whole question of aid to the C.N.R. to the next session. It is doubtful if the C.N.R. could be financed for another year without the government credit, enabling the company to float its bonds. For a year there could be no construction; contractors and an army of other creditors would have to go unpaid; it is very probable that the company would have to confess bankruptcy and put its system into the hands of a receiver. It is agreed on all hands that such an outcome would seriously affect Canadian credit in the world's money market. It would be little short of a national disaster.

And yet, the opposition members, with the exception of W. A. Charlton of Norfolk, voted to have the whole matter referred to the next session. Fortunately the only government supporters who voted with the opposition were two who had already put themselves on record against the agreement, and the majority against Mr. Macdonald's motion was 47. It is hardly probable that there will be much further obstruction to the government's plan of aid. But for the expediency of playing the party game "for all it's worth," there are, doubtless, many Liberals who would cheerfully support the bond-guarantee.

Birthdays of Note

FRIDAY, MAY TWENTY-SECOND

Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, president of Cornell University, who is sixty years of age to-day, is a Canadian who has made a name for himself in the United States. He was born and nurtured in Prince Edward Island, where the Schurman family is still prominent, and obtained his early education at Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown, and Acadia University, winning a scholarship, he went to the University of London, where he distinguished himself by gaining numerous scholastic honors. Later he studied on the continent for several years and won several degrees. In 1880 he returned to Acadia as a professor, going two years later to Dalhousie and in 1886 entering Cornell as Sage professor of philosophy. He became president of the University in 1892 and now ranks as one of the foremost university heads in America.

LEMONADE

It is a helpful, soothing drink when flies are bad and days are hot; and whether it is white or pink it always seems to hit the spot. I drink it with the lovely damess where druggist clerks take in the kale; I drink it at the baseball games, at home I sip it by the pail. Of all soft drinks it is the best, as every learned physician knows; it always soothes my savage breast, and gives my warlike soul repose. It takes the fungus from my tongue, and kills the toadstools in my throat; and I feel brave and gay and young, when all my innards are afloat; when they're afloat in lemonade, my head is clear, my nerve is strong; I face my duties unafraid, and put up hay the whole day long. And when the cool, gray morning breaks, I do not see, beside my bed, a bunch of hydra-headed snakes with peagreen antlers on each head. I rise refreshed, so full of vim, and of aggressive strength so full, that when I've sung my morning hymn, I go I go out doors and whip a bull.

WALT MASON

WELCOMING THE NEXT GOVERNOR-GENERAL

London Advertiser (Lib.)

Canada is again given a gracious compliment by the motherland. Prince Alexander of Teck, brother of Our Majesty the Queen, is to succeed the Duke of Connaught. A young soldier, who has had no experience with governments, he is set the task of winning his administrative spurs in a country which will welcome every word he utters, every kindly nod to watching crowds.

Guelph Herald (Cons.)

Canadians will appreciate the compliment which is paid this country by the appointment of Prince Alexander of Teck as the successor of the Duke of Connaught in the governor-generalship.

It is evident that this Dominion is regarded as the gem of the British colonies by the spirit which prompts royalty succeeding royalty as the representatives of His Majesty King George in Canada.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

Regarding C. P. R. Change of Time, May 31st

In connection with the coming change of time on the Canadian Pacific Railway, effective May 31st, many improvements in train service have been made, notable among these being the inauguration of solid de luxe trains, carrying compartment-library-observation car, electric-lighted standard sleepers, together with standard dining car service between Montreal-Toronto-Detroit-Chicago, via Canadian Pacific and Michigan Central Railroad, commencing westbound May 31st and eastbound June 1st.

These new trains will be known as No. 19 and No. 22, the former leaving Montreal at 8.45 a.m., arriving Toronto 5.40 p.m., London 9.23 p.m., arriving Windsor 12.10 a.m., leaving Windsor 12.25 a.m., arriving Detroit 11.35 p.m., (central time), leaving Detroit 11.55 p.m., arriving Chicago 7.45 p.m.

Train No. 22 will leave Chicago at 9.30 a.m. (central time), arrive Detroit 3.55 p.m., leave Detroit 5.05 p.m. (eastern time), arrive Windsor 5.15 p.m., leave Windsor 5.25 p.m., arrive London 8.10 p.m., leave London 8.18 p.m., arrive Toronto 11.20 p.m., leave Toronto 11.40 p.m., arriving Montreal 9.00 a.m. These trains will be operated through the Michigan Central tunnel between Windsor and Detroit.

The new Toronto-Winnipeg-Vancouver service should be greatly appreciated by the travelling public. No. 3 now leaving Toronto 10.20 p.m., will leave at 5.40 p.m., running through solid to Winnipeg and Vancouver, carrying only the highest class equipment.

New Train known as No. 7, will leave Toronto 10.50 p.m., running through solid to Winnipeg, carrying standard sleeping car, dining car, tourist sleeping cars, colonist cars, first-class coaches, etc. Equally good service returning from the west. Particulars from Canadian Pacific agents or M. G. Murphy district passenger agent Toronto.

Must Be Sluggish

John L. Sullivan, who broke up the old ball game at the Island with his triple off Bell, is the young man who was drafted from Hughie Duffy's Portland team as a pitcher. On the Southern training trip he was used a couple of times in the box, but did not show to any great advantage. But how he did seem able to hit. It was his appearance and actions with the war club that convinced Manager Kelley that probably he would be useful as a substitute outfielder and Joseph worked him in all the practices in the rural patches. But he did not look any too good out there and Kelley was despairing of his ever developing sufficient claim to entitle him to look over a Toronto pay cheque twice monthly.

He figured on making a deal for him with Hughie Duffy when the club reached Portland on the training trip and as a matter of fact opened negotiations for the sale of the player, who looked at this stage as he had been drafted by mistake. Fortunately Bill O'Hara had missed the train that morning and Manager Kelley was compelled to use Sullivan in the outfield. He promptly came through with a home run a mile over the right field fence and a few other batting 240.

beats. When Duffy came around to talk over the player's future after the game he was told that Sullivan would for the time being at least remain with the Leafs. Since that time Kelley has coached him continually and when he walked on the field yesterday he gave every proof that he is a most apt student. He conducted himself like a veteran in the field, while at the bat he—well he acted just like he did last year in the New England league, where he hit .450. As a pitcher his a question a question whether he will ever attain to fame or baseball fortune, but as an outfielder he should do. The annual meeting of the Poster Advertising Association will be held in Brantford, Monday, May 25th. Victoria Hall has been engaged for their business meeting. In the evening a banquet will be held at the Kerby House.

Col. Howard's Lecture

In the men's institute Thursday evening, Lieut.-Col. Howard of the Dufferin Rifles, gave a lecture on his trip last year to the British, French and Swiss army movements. Col. Harry Cockshutt occupied the chair and about 75 officers and non-commissioned officers were present. The Colonel described in detail the organization of the Swiss army, said to be the most efficient army for its size in Europe. The audience was taken over the Franco-Prussian war ground, and description and figures of the French army were given. The lecture lasted for an hour and a half, and proved most interesting and instructive.

To-day's worry—AI vaccination mark must be shown before a marriage license will be issued in Norway.

METHODISTS OF THIS DISTRICT MAKE PROGRESS

Annual Meeting Was Held Yesterday in Sydenham Street Church.

The annual meeting of the Brantford District of the Hamilton Methodist conference took place yesterday at the Sydenham street Methodist church when two sessions were held.

Rev. A. E. Lavell before a large and representative gathering comprised of delegates from each of the 16 churches in the district.

Among the more interesting items of the ministerial business of the morning were the following recommendations: Roy Balmer Liddy, M.A., B.D., son of the Rev. J. J. Liddy for ministry candidate; W. A. Cook and Howard Roberts for ordination.

A vote of condolence was passed after a notice of the death of the Rev. A. Kennedy had been read. The general session commenced at 11.30, and the Rev. Mr. Brandon of Paris acting as secretary, read the minutes of the ministerial session, which were then confirmed.

Rev. T. E. Holling presented a resolution passed by the members of the Marlboro street church, who request a minister, and it was decided that such will be recommended to the Hamilton conference. Echo Place Mission showed great progress but they did not yet ask for a minister.

The missionary contributions by the district this year totalled $12,641, while last year they totalled $11,245, which showed a very satisfactory increase of $1,396.

The membership in the same time had increased by 169 to 9,075. This is also satisfactory.

Great progress had been made in the Sunday Schools and this was looked upon as one of the most successful sides of Methodist church life. In all branches splendid progress was recorded.

The election of the different committees was the principal business of the afternoon session, and it resulted as follows:

Epworth League and Young People's Society—Rev. L. Werner, A. Westbrook, G. Ranton.

Contingency—Rev. C. R. Morrow and Fred Mann.

Temperance and Moral Reform—Rev. T. E. Holling, T. H. Preston, F. Sumner, Vansickle, F. Robb, Jamieson and E. Howell.

Sustenance—Rev. O. E. Marshall and B. Shepperson.

Memorials—Rev. Keefer, Rev. R. D. Hamilton, Sutton and Wood.

State of Work—Rev. J. H. Ibbott and T. H. Preston.

Church Property—Rev. D. Mason and Elwood Howell.

Sabbath Observance—Rev. J. R. Isaacs and R. E. Lambkin.

Class Leadership—Rev. W. J. Brandon and L. Maus.

Systematic Benevolence—Rev. T. S. Linscott, F. Humphrey and G. Jones.

Nomination—Rev. A. E. Lavell and Betzner.

Education—Rev. A. E. Lavell and E. Sweet.

District Missionary—Rev. R. D. Hamilton, Rev. A. E. Lavell, Fred Mann and George Wedlake.

Oxford Street Church extended a cordial invitation to the district to hold their next meeting at their church, and their invitation was accepted.

Rev. T. E. Holling moved that the name Temperance and Moral Reform Committee should be altered to Social Reform Committee, and his motion was carried unanimously.

Fred Mann moved that the general conference of the Methodist Church, at its next session, be memorialized to place all brotherhoods in the men's organization in the Methodist Church under the department called Temperance and Moral Reform. This was seconded by Rev. R. D. Hamilton and carried.

Several members of the meeting spoke upon abolish-the-bar lines, and a resolution was passed for the total abolition of the liquor trade.

The following gentlemen were elected to represent the laymen of this district at the Hamilton Conference to be held in St. Catharines on June 4th: J. W. Shepperson, E. Sweet, F. Mann, G. Wedlake, A. Denton, A. Goodwin, Brantford; L. Maus, Paris; F. Robb, Troy; J. Betzner, Copenstown; G. Jones, London; J. Humphrey, Troy; E. Howell, Jerseyville; O. Vansickle, Alberton; F. W. Sumner, Cainsville; A. E. Westbrooke, Brantford; W. H. Jamieson, Ohsweken; R. E. Lampkin, T. H. Preston, Brantford; W. G. Ranton, Brantford; Alternates—A. H. Brown, Brantford; A. C. Bonham, Jerseyville; E. C. Robb, Troy; Y. N. Thompson, Brantford.

After refreshments had been served by the Ladies' Aid the meeting dispersed with the singing of the hymn.

BISHOP WILLIAMS AT GRACE CHURCH

Inspiring Sermon Was Delivered Last Evening—Ascension Day Service.

A union service of the Anglican churches was held in Grace church last night. This marking Ascension Day, there were present the rectors and choirs of Grace, St. Johns, St. Jude's, St. Lukes, St. Pauls, St. James, Echo Place Mission and Trinity churches.

Bishop Williams preached from the Acts of the Apostles, 1st chapter, 9th verse. The ascension of the Saviour was the theme, and his words were marked by a singular simplicity and spiritual earnestness.

Ascension Day was not observed, he said, with the same feeling as Christmas and Easter. This was not as it ought to be. A distinct loss to the church is evident when the revelation of the ascension of Christ is lost sight of.

It was a scene that human eyes had witnessed, an event chronicled in human history, and was one of the most impressive episodes in bible stories.

The story is open to disbelief many think, but to those who knew the truth, though they cannot explain it, it is one of the easiest tests of faith. "I go to prepare a place for you," and they saw Him ascend. "It is expedient that I should be away from you," and for weeks they had watched with anxious care over his preparations to depart. "I will return to you in the spirit of the Holy Ghost," and they had written afterwards of the Spirit that passed over them at a meeting place. To form a fair and just estimate of any incident, one must allow time to elapse, and then the perspective clears away many of the things which at the moment dimmed our sight. Thus it is with the Lord Jesus—centuries have passed, and to-day we find it easy to believe and visualize the Christ and the Judean kingdom in which He labored.

It made the disciples realize, because they saw Him go—it brought home to them and thru them to us, the great divinity of man, and the truth that we are capable of rising by our own efforts towards God. "Lo, I am waiting for you," He awaits, and though unseen, His Spirit dwells among us, inspiring and guiding, and if we serve aright what have we to fear if He is with us.

"For me to live or die in Christ is gain," is the Christian's heart song, who lives to follow in His footsteps. The last words He uttered were "Go preach ye the Gospel unto all the world," and were we doing it?

Whether in a crowded city, in the North West or in China, no matter where, if the church was not following up the Master's command, it was failing in the fundamental part of Christ work.

This, the mother church of Brantford, must realize, that with the dignity and honor of such a name, it must take a forward part in the evangelization of the life around it. The suburbs of our own city will need help to build their churches; that His message be carried to the people whose distance has parted from the mother church; you have a duty to them you must not lay aside. Ascension Day commemorates His going. When He comes again

EAT LESS AND TAKE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

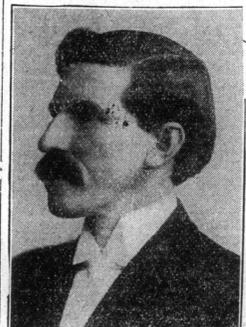

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

We must be able to answer we have tried to do His bidding, and receive the reward of "forever with the Lord."

With the City Police

Joseph Randall of Northumberland St., complained to the police this morning that W. A. Hurley and his wife had left the city and had not paid their board bill as they had been ordered to by the magistrate, who characterized Hurley as one of the constitutionally tired variety. The matter will be looked into.

Claud J. Day charged R. Feeley with non-payment of wages and said he had been employed by Feeley, who had discharged him while owing him wages. Defendant alleged that Day was a quack and could not do the job he had undertaken. He gave him chances to make good, owing to the hard luck story he had told and he found that Day had spoilt more tin than expenses allowed and therefore he dismissed him after a trial. The magistrate said it was a hard case and defendant's good heartedness had got him into a hole. He would make an order for payment of $1.13 to complainant with costs.

Carl Smidt did not appear at the court to explain why ladies of the foreign section were denied admittance to the public baths on Ladies Day. He is out of the city and will give his answer another day.

SUFFRAGETTES RAISE RUMPUS AGAIN TODAY

Valuable Pictures Destroyed
—King and Queen Har-angued at Theatre.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
LONDON, May 22.—A militant suffragette to-day slashed and damaged five pictures in the National Gallery.
Among them were four valuable paintings by Giovanni Bellini. As Friday is a student's day at the National Gallery, all the rooms were thronged with young artists engaged in copying masterpieces. Suddenly in the Venetian room a middle-aged woman drew a loaded stick from beneath her cloak and made several vic-tious slashes at all the pictures within reach. Had it not been for the numerous easels standing about the room, the damage inflicted would have been much more serious.

Students and attendants soon succeeded in overpowering the woman and taking her weapon from her.
At about the same time a picture hanging in the Royal Academy was badly damaged by another suffragette who was arrested.
The pictures damaged at the National gallery, were a "Madonna and child with infant saints," a portrait of "Girolamo Malatini," "Saint John and Christopher and the Doge," a "Landscape with the death of Saint Peter," and "Christ's agony in the garden."
Apparently they were not irreparably injured.
The painting gashed at the Royal Academy was entitled "Primavera"
by George Clausen, a royal academician. The academy was filled with a fashionable throng when a woman drew a butcher's cleaver, which she had concealed in her clothing and dashed at the picture in which she hacked several gashes. Attendants at once seized her and it was the presence of the police which prevented her from being roughly handled by the irate spectators. Both the women refused to give their names after their arrest.

The National Gallery vandal left a trail of blood behind her, she having received cuts from the broken glass of one of the pictures.

The scenes at Bow street police court when the women arrested during yesterday's battle were arraigned to-day surpassed in wildness all previous efforts of the militant party. A male suffragette sympathizer, who also had found a perch among the raiders, blew out piercing variations of the Marseillaise on a cornet and then sounded the "Charge." This was the signal for volleys of bags of flour and other missiles to be thrown at the magistrate, Sir John Dickinson.
Three policemen were required to prevent one of the prisoners from throwing herself over the rail of the enclosure. Another woman removed her shoe and hurled it at the head of the magistrate, shouting "jo jo deftly with his extended hand.
When Sir John Dickinson suspended the hearing and ordered the court to be cleared there was a free fight.
Subsequently the women were again brought in, and most of them were bound over to keep the peace for six months, but they unanimously refused to find sureties.

Listened to Harangue.
King George and Queen Mary listened to the harangue of a militant suffragette this afternoon while they were attending a matinee at His Majesty's Theatre. A woman rose in the stalls and began to address the King.
"You Russian Czar," she shrieked, and then the attendants rushed in and tried to get her, but found that she was chained to the seat, and they had to cut through a link before she could be removed.

While this was in progress half a dozen women in different parts of the theatre started shouting at His Majesty. One of them jumped on the stage and commenced to speak, and when she had been thrown out others began.
Eventually all the disturbers were ejected, and the police on duty outside had a hard struggle to rescue them from the hostile crowd.
The author of the suffragette outrage at the Royal Academy, when brought up at the police court, gave the name of Mary Spencer. She was committed for trial at the sessions.

SWEDISH CROWN PRINCE, WHO MAY ATTEND PANAMA-PACIFIC EXPOSITION

PRINCE GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS OF SWEDEN

Word comes from Stockholm, Sweden, that Crown Prince Gustave Adolphus may attend the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco. He is very desirous of visiting the United States and will do so unless the health of his father or the political situation should prevent.

Addressing the magistrate as a "bumptious old Pontius Pilate," the accused kept the proceedings lively with an abusive tirade.

WATER SCARCE.

FREDERICTON, May 22.—John Kilbur's lumber drive of five million feet for Murray and Gregory of St.
John, has been abandoned because of the scarcity of water to float the logs out. Some four million feet of one drive for Randolph and Baker, St.
John, are stranded, but three million feet of it, is considered safe, also 2,500,000 feet of another drive.

A UNUSUAL DROP.

MONTREAL, May 22.—An unusual drop of over three feet in the normal depth of the St. Lawrence has alarmed shipping authorities here. The depth is now 32 feet, 11 inches.
Up to date the rainfall for May has been just about one twentieth of the average for this month, as shown by the figures for the past 32 years.
There may have been drier Mays, but the records do not indicate them. This dry spell is one cause of the lowering of the river level, though a small drop has been recorded for a year past.

VERY BUSY IN OIL FIELD NEAR CALGARY

[By Special Wire to The Courier]
CALGARY, May 22.—One hundred strings of drilling tools will be at work and night and day in the Calgary oil district within the next three months. That is the estimate of A.
Phillips of the International Supply Company, which firm has contracts in various sections of Southern Alberta to drill 61 wells. One hundred rigs means several hundred wells. Excitement here continues intense and yesterday was a busy day with stock-brokers. Capitalists are pouring into the city, new companies being floated and prices of shares of several leading companies continue to advance. A movement is on foot for forming a stock exchange, which is required to supervise oil transactions.
Chief of Police Curry is to keep a sharp lookout for "wild catters" and will prosecute anyone doing shady business.

THEY PLEADED GUILTY.

LONDON, May 22.—A plea of guilty was handed in by seven of the nine British army officers and all the eight civilians charged in January last with receiving and giving illicit commissions in order to influence the allotment of contracts for supplying army canteens. All the officers except Lieut.-Colonel Whittaker were connected with the quartermaster's department of the army and had risen from the ranks. The civilians accused were employees of the firm of Liptons Limited. The bribery had been going on for years. Sentence was deferred by the judge until May 25.

HAD A RELAPSE.

LONDON, Ont., May 22.—Senator Coffey rallied last night from his attack of disease, but later he suffered a further relapse and this morning he is reported to be much weaker. The end is expected at any time.

NIAGARA PEACH CROP LOOKS LIKE FAILURE

Pears and Plums, However, are Fairly Promising.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
GUELPH, May 22.—Prof. J. E. Howitt, of the Ontario Agricultural College, took a trip through the Niagara District yesterday, and he says the alarmist stories about the failure of the peach crop are not one whit exaggerated. Everywhere the crop has been cut down. Mr. Howitt was talking to one grower who has sixty acres of trees under cultivation. He was asked if he had been offered a dollar a bushel for his crop, and replied that he would ask considerably less, as he had only about four on the whole place. The peach growers will undoubtedly suffer heavy losses this year. Prof. Howitt says the pear crop looks like being a good one. Plums in the fancy varieties look fairly promising.
It is too soon to say much about grapes, while strawberries may be a good crop, but will fetch high prices.
Canners are offering $2 a crate already.

ST. KITTS EDITOR SUED FOR DAMAGES

Dr. Jessop, M.P.P., Claims He Was Libelled in the Journal

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
ST. CATHARINES, May 22.—
This morning Messrs Ingersoll and Kingstone, acting on behalf of Dr.
Jessop, M.P.P., issued notification to J. M. Elson, editor of the evening Journal that a writ for damages for libel was to be issued, and naming articles which appeared in the Journal of May 15 and 16 which attacked Dr. Jessop for an alleged repudiation of an agreement made at the last provincial election, that if he was allowed to be elected without opposition from the Reformers he would again be a candidate for the Provincial House.

SOME LIGHT THIS

Globe Filled With Nitrogen
Has Very Powerful Effect.

Citizens who were in the vicinity of the Hydro Electric store on George street last night, commented on the bright light which was shining in front of the building. Enquiry this morning brought out the fact that it is the only light of its kind in Brantford, Engineer L. G. Ireland of the Hydro Electric Commission, explained the difference between that light and the ordinary tungsten light.
The new light is known as the Nitrogen filled tungsten, and is filled with nitrogen gas. It is a large spherical globe with a capacity of 1-500 candle power, or 750 watts. It has twice the efficiency of the tungsten lamp, in that it only absorbs one half the current of the ordinary tungsten light, but gives twice the light. At present the lamps are made only in large sizes, but in the course of time they will be made smaller.
The price of the new lamp, according to Mr. Ireland, will not be very much dearer than the ordinary tungsten.

Crevice With a Hammer.

DUNDAS, Ont., May 21.—George Niblock, a foreman, 50 years of age, employed by the Canada Crushed Stone Corporation, was blown to pieces at the quarries here to-day.
Niblock dropped a piece of dynamite into a rock crevice. He tried to pick it out with a hammer, and a terrific explosion followed.

City News Items

THE PROBS

TORONTO, May 22.—The area of low pressure now extends from the great lakes to the Gulf of St. Lawrence and is more pronounced than it was yesterday. Heavy showers have occurred in northwestern Ontario and are likely to be general in eastern Ontario and St. Lawrence Valley.

Forecast. Fresh to strong west and northwest winds, local showers. Saturday—Fresh northwest winds, fine and cooler.

Appointed to Committee. Chief Engineer L. G. Ireland will this afternoon attend a meeting of the rate committee of the Hydro Commission in Hamilton. Ireland was appointed to that committee only last week.

Scout Notes. All the Scouts in the city are invited to the marshmallow roast which will be held near Mt. Pleasant Road on Saturday night at 7.45. This camp fire is to give the local Scouts an opportunity of meeting the Hamilton Headquarters Patrol, which will remain in camp until Monday.

Duffs Recent Change. The Duffs have been ordered to Petawawa instead of Niagara Falls, as expected, and they are not at all kindly disposed towards the change. It is understood that life in camp at one place is much stricter in every sense than in the other.

The Jury. The following jury was empanelled to-day to enquire into the death of the Italian workman who was killed: L. Miller (foreman), John Belyea, Louis Stander, Edward James, D. H. Tattersall, Jos. Bond, Reginald Martin. The inquest will be held on Thursday evening next.

Bad Hoie to be Repaired. The Township Council yesterday visited the Hamilton road among other places yesterday, and the resolve was made to have the hole in the Hamilton road where many motors have recently been stalled. It will be drained and given a heavy coat of crushed stone, and ought to be in good condition in a few days.

Oil for Echo Place Road. Residents are planning on keeping the dust down caused by Autos.

The regular meeting of the Echo Place Improvement Association was held last night in Mohawk Park school. President Morley Myers was in the chair. In the absence of H. C. Thomas, Secretary, H. E. Craddock very kindly filled his chair. Communications were read from S. G. Read regarding opening up of May's avenue. He asked one of the members who has property on that street if he would take the matter up with the Township Council and have them attend to the opening of the street. The association took no action on this matter, as it was felt that the party who sold the lots should attend to the opening of the avenue or see that it is attended to.

A special committee was appointed, consisting of A. M. Patterson, J. L. Barnes and H. E. Craddock, to confer with the Mayor, Leavay and the Council with regard to the opening of Hamilton road from Mohawk entrance to Radial crossing. It has been reported that the West-ern Counties are desirous of furnishing light to the residents of Echo Place. F. T. Morrow, chairman of the light committee, will look into the matter and get the rates and full particulars.

A letter was received from the Agricultural Department saying that it would be impossible to send a man to lecture on gardening or poultry until the coming fall. This matter was laid over until a later date.

It was decided by the Association that during the summer months of June, July and August meetings will be held only on the first Thursday of each month.

The Best News Features. New York Evening Sun:—"Dr. Anna Shaw, speaking before the International Council at Rome, declares that women are the best news features for the daily papers. Depending, speaking in a half-tone, upon the features."

Insulted by a Look. A cat may look at the king, but apparently Prussian policemen may not look at a policeman. A local photographer who for some time had had strained relations with a policeman stationed on the Dominikaner platz considered one day that the policeman was making him pronounce official attention. So he stood still and looked straight at him "in a vexatious manner," according to the charge.

The policeman considered himself deeply insulted by the photographer's gaze and reported the affair. The offender was haled to court and a petty jury sentenced the luckless photographer to fourteen days' imprisonment for "insulting" an official.—London Express.

A Candid Opinion. Mr. Harris had been considering for some time the advisability of approaching his son's school teacher in regard to that ungrammatical student. He was sure William was not getting along as fast as he should, and this fact worried the father greatly.

He was greeted kindly by the teacher, and after a few preliminary questions the father inquired:—"What branch do you consider the most profitable for my son William, Mr. Flint?"

"I can hardly say, but I think a good, stout blue beam or a long, slender birch would do him as much good as any."

Located at Last. Drummer (settling bill in Eagle House, Hayfield)—Pardon my curiosity, sir, but what do you stuff your belts with in this hotel?

Landlord (proudly)—Best straw to be had in this hull county, b'gosh!

Drummer—Ah! That is very interesting. I know now where the straw came from that broke the camel's back!

Novels. Novels are sweets. All people with healthy literary appetite love them. Almost all well-to-do, well-bred, clear-headed men, judges, bishops, chancellors, mathematicians, are notorious novel readers, as well as young boys and sweet girls and their kind, tender mothers.—William Makepeace Thackeray.

Japanese Needle Man. Japanese men are among the best needleworkers in the world, their only equals being the women of Russia.

GETTING TIRED. The Lady—Ah, Edwin is seven hours late to the trust. If he isn't here in four more hours, doggone if I don't go home.

FLYERS' MASCOTS. Aviator Hucks Never Ascends Without a Pair of Spats On.

The big risk aviator runs keep their nerves continually on edge and for this reason the majority of well-known flyers have a somewhat erratic temperaments. Resultantly, all manner of curious fads and beliefs exist at the aerodromes.

Hucks, for instance, the well-known English flyer who recently emulated Pegoud's feat of flying upside down in the air, invariably ascends in his monoplane with a pair of immaculate spats decorating his boots.

Evidently he regards these boot decorations as mascots, for on the dullest of days Hucks, with his inevitable spats, tramps through the mire in the wake of the mechanics pushing his machine out to the starting point.

Grabme-White has a somewhat similar fad. He makes all his big flights wearing a pair of check riding breeches.

His big flying success was carried out whilst wearing breeches of this kind. He was thus garbed during his great London to Manchester flight in the race against Paulhan, and it was in a pair of check riding breeches that he flew to victory when he secured the Go long distance Flying Cup for England a short time back.

This craving for check riding breeches has affected other aviators, too, and one of the best known of those who fly in this garb is Bielewicz, the Parisian flyer, who not long back flew across the Alps in a Harriot monoplane.

On the other hand, several aviators refuse to go aloft unless accompanied by some shabby relic of early flying days. The fact that Beaumont, the famous French flyer, is very particular about the cap he wears when making long flights, has already been commented upon.

The late Col. Coisy was perhaps the least superstitious of all aviators, but even he disliked going aloft without a shabby old steering wheel which had accompanied him right through his flying career.

This strange steering device was fixed on the very first machine Coisy got off the ground on. It figured in every machine he built from that occasion, and with it he steered to success. The bipine won him the twenty-five thousand dollar prize in the military tri last year. One of the most handsome wreaths at his funeral was a perfect model of this strange-looking steering wheel, built up by choice.

Almon's fads, however, generally take the form of some peculiar emblem which acts as a mascot during their flights.

Vodrines, the French flyer, has affixed to his speedy racing monoplane a little portrait of the famous painter of the "Mona Lisa." With a machine thus decorated he recently flew at a speed of one hundred and eighty miles an hour.

Natural aviators like carrying a lion's tooth aloft as a mascot—a practice coined by the late Lieut. Parke, who always carried such a mascot during his flights, and a few men came out of so many men unscathed as he.

Another interesting fad of aviators is their aversion to flying aeroplanes built on natural stability lines. The average flyer is much happier in one of the tricky racing aeroplanes, which are completely dependent on the skill of the pilot for their balance.

RED SOX, IN WHIRLWIND FINISH, DOWN SAINT THOMAS 6 TO 5

"Gabby" Ivers, Injected Into the Fray as Pinch Hitter in the Seventh Period, Comes Across With a Single, Sending Two Runners Over the Rubber Tying Up the Fuss and Scoring the Boss With Two Gone in the Ninth With a Slashing Triple, Saving the Sox From Defeat.

Sit down, you're rocking the boat! Gabby Ivers came through with a three-bagger in the final scoring Deneau. Red Sox won their fourth straight game. Some Red Sox! Such is the story in short of the first game of a three day series with Midge Craven 'St. Thomas bunch' Some ball game from start to finish, bang-up fielding, hard hitting, and one of those games the fans like to watch.

It was a beautiful smash and Gaby sure got credit from the fans. Any old time anyone says that boy can't hit, just contradict him. But he wasn't the whole team. There were nine other men who all did their share in beating the St. Thomas bunch.

Everybody on the field played baseball. The pitching for both teams was away off the usual standard. That elongated gent who goes by the name of Connell, and who hails from Rochester, N.Y., was sent out to get his slants slammed about and they sure did slam them. He only lasted two and two-third innings and during that time one run and five hits were garnered off his delivery.

It was one heart rending old game. First one team ahead, then another; then both teams tied until the ninth. Clements started to work for the Saints and for three innings he did not allow a hit. He had a tantalizing slow ball that the batters could not hit safely, pop flies and slow rollers being in order.

the much mentioned Gabby Ivers. Gaby found his slants to his exact By this time, Deneau thought there should be something doing, and therefore the Sox got away. Again they scored a run without a hit. Raymond Clement, twirler, was this time kind enough to present the Red Sox with a tally, and he did it by presenting four passes, besides hitting Wagner which forced in a run. It was a peculiar inning. Honeck drew a pass to first to start, and went to second when Clement threw the ball past first base. Bill Roth drew a free ticket, but was forced at second by Matty Lamond, while Honeck went to third. Matty was also out on a fast double play, Forgue to Hadley to Kading. However, Gero and Burns both walked, filling the bags, and Clement showed one into Wagner's back, forcing in a run.

Again in the sixth they got another but errors figured largely in the tally. Sandusky was hit by a wild slant from Clement, and that was followed by a wild peg by Henges of Honeck's bounder. Roth proved himself a pinch hitter with a timely bingle to centre which scored Sandy.

"DAD" STEWART IS TO REPORT TO BRANTFORD --NEW PITCHER HERE

Gallagher, a southpaw pitcher from Detroit, arrived in the city early this morning and will appear with the Red Sox to-day. He has had all kinds of experience and is considered a veteran in the game. Deneau is especially anxious to strengthen up for the road trip, which the Sox will take soon, which will include nine games, all told. The Chief is aiming at bringing the club back over the .500 mark which would be considered good going. Just what the arrival here of Dad Stewart of St. Thomas will mean is hard to say, but Stewart has accepted terms and will report to Brantford Saturday. He is reported to be in fine shape. Stewart is known as a cracking good hitter and is also a good fielder. Deneau apparently is not satisfied with the hitting strength of the club, but declines to make any announcement of his plans.

home. That was enough tallies for the Saints. The Red Sox got both of them back in their half. Gero opened up with a hit to left, and Biddy Burns sacrificed him to second. Wagner went out, and Gero went to third on Deneau's hit to left. Dolan got a free ticket and the bags were doing capacity business. It was then that Gaby Ivers was sent in to hit for Sandusky, and he responded with a hard hit to left, on which both Gero and Deneau scored. It was in the ninth that the grand finish came. With Wagner gone on the strike-out route, Deneau made his second hit of the day, a single (Continued on Page 10)

Sport Comment

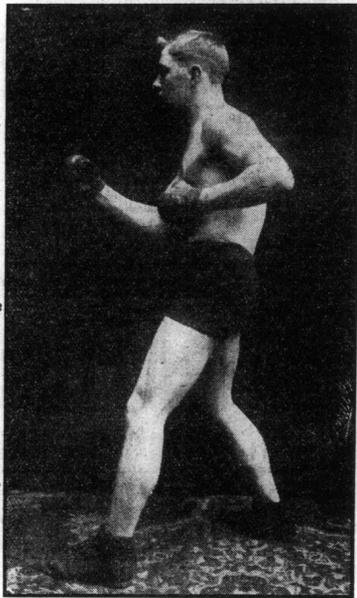

Four games already this week is pretty good picking for Brantford, and fans are naturally getting the belief that the Red Sox are a pretty fair outfit. But, as announced in this column several days ago, Deneau has no intention of standing pat on the team as at present constituted. Changes will be made until the outfit looks good in every particular.

Deneau used remarkably good judgment in replacing Sandusky with Ivers yesterday, as results showed. Sandusky is not the hitter he appears and is not sure in the pinches.

Dolan, the new outfielder, has a peculiar style, both at bat and in the field. He hits the ball hard as a rule, although his position at the plate is an awkward one.

Craven and Kopp are dangerous men on the paths, but the St. Thomas manager discovered a lot of ivory in spots on his team yesterday.

Clements, who pitched for St. Thomas yesterday, seems to have gone back a lot from last year. He had nothing on the ball. The day before the Red Sox hit good pitching

Roy ("Kit") Carson, who will meet English Tommy Ryan here on Monday.

Notes of the Game

Rube Deneau is clouting the pill at Gabby Ivers was the hero of the game.

He can sure hit when necessary. It took two hours to beat the Saints but it was worth it.

Gabby boosted his batting average considerably yesterday. The Saints had two fast double plays which cut off chances.

Clements free passes to first base are what lost the game for him. Honeck had a great day at short, accepting nine chances without a slip.

Yesterday must have been pay day. Martin Kopp, the wast left fielder of the Saints is a speed merchant on the paths. The way in which he beat out a bunt yesterday was a feature.

All the first division teams won their games yesterday, Brantford included, in Hamilton. The Athletics won a game.

Clement was as wild as a hawk, five passes and two men hit, were his contribution. Four straights are pretty good going. Here is hoping that it is a perfect week.

It was the kind of game the fans like to watch. Anybody's game up to the finish. We're up at a dizzy height, but as long as we can keep our balance all well and good.

Madge Craven is an awful crab. He gave his players an awful calling after the game. Talking to the fans in the stand is a bad habit of Manager Craven. He will get himself disliked if he keeps it up.

Gil Forgue is going good at short. He seems faster than last year and that's saying a lot.

Hamilton thought they were sticking one over on us by trouncing Toronto. Try again Doc.

Chief Nevitt is not in the same class with LeCroix or Lamond. We can see no bells on his work. Kustus sang in the last innings. "Where, Oh, Where Did that little Ball Go." He found it later.

Umpire Bedford's work was almost faultless yesterday. He can stay here as long as he likes—and is good.

What Happened On Canadian League Circuit Yesterday

The youthful pitcher, Hammond, of the local Canadian League Club, more than got his beetles hammer in his pantomime before London fans yesterday afternoon, when he shut out Peterboro by the score of 1 to 0, allowing but three widely scattered hits. But few opportunities presented themselves to the visitors throughout the whole contest where a base hit would have been disastrous for the big Ohio lad, as each time he emerged unscathed. Outside of the opening inning "Iron Man" Sterling pitched wonderful ball and held the Tecumseh intact by making his benders keep the hitters efforts distributed.

Behind the good to the Hamilton mound, the strong defensive fielding of his team mates provided the features of the best ball game staged at Tecumseh Park this season, as not a single muffed up play was charged up against them.

HAMS POUND FOUR BEAVER PITCHERS HARD. HAMILTON May 22.—The opening game of the series between the Beavers of Toronto and the Hamilton Athletics yesterday afternoon developed into a swatfest, which the locals won out by a 12 to 6 score. Both teams hit the ball hard and far, but the Athletics hit in the pinches and came through with the necessary runs. Knotty Lee was forced to use four of his pitches, and, judging from the way the Athletics hammered them, his pitching staff is weakest department of the team and will require improvement. Hamilton secured seven runs in the third, when Pitcher Kirley went up in the air, and was substituted by Schaub, who was taken out at the end of the inning. Four singles, two doubles, a sacrifice, three passes, an error, a wild pitch and a fielder's choice was the cause of the trouble, and half the Hamilton team had been at bat for the second time before three men were called out. In the fourth four more counters were carolled off of Hubert, who replaced Schaub. The feature of the game was the splendid hitting of Ort, who swatted the ball for an even 1,000, hitting four singles in as many times at bat.

KUBAT PITCHES, AND HITS WIN OVER ERIE. OTTAWA, May 22.—Ottawa beat Erie yesterday, 6 to 1, with Kubat on the mound for the Senators, while the Yankees depended upon Morse. With the exception of the second inning, when Scheffler singled and scored on Wiltse's double, Kubat was never in danger. A couple of singles and an error gave Ottawa one in the first and another error and Kubat's single resulted in another in the fourth. In the eighth a hit and two walks filled the bases and Kubat's three-bagger cleared them. Kubat got home on Nil's single. Erie played very poor ball behind Morse, giving him no support at all.

Harris Mixed Things. Harris held Lage from throwing after he was out at the plate and the same Erie player threw his bat at Kubat after the former Toronto player had hit him with a pitched ball. There is bad feeling between Harris and the veteran of the Senators.

Welsh's Abuse of Ritchie Cannot Injure Champion

If Freddie Welsh is still trying to run Willie Ritchie to his hole, as he threatened to do after disposing of Leach Cross, the Britisher's courage is to be admired. There haven't been any signs of disturbance in the champions camp since Welsh eased his mind at Ritchie's expense, as he there apt to be any uneasiness felt from all the shafts of sarcasm which may be directed to the Californian's immediate vicinity. Ritchie is about as much worried over anything Welsh and his pilot, Harry Pollack, have said as would John D. Rockefeller be were he to lose a dime through riotous living. When Ritchie gets ready to take care of Mr. Welsh, and that will be just as soon as some promoter offers sufficient inducements, he will talk business.

Determined to Dictate San Francisco's favorite fist son is a champion whose determination to dictate and not be dictated to will stand the acid test. Willie, who has set his price for meeting all challengers for his title, went on record with the announcement that he will give every contender an opportunity to win the laurels and stands ready, he repeats, to satisfy the desires of all. Since Welsh seems to be so certain of eventually forcing Ritchie into a match it isn't at all unreasonable to suggest that he find a promoter who will agree to stage it. Freddie isn't such a great gate card anyway to cause matchmakers to stampede for his services. Neither of his fights against Joe Rivers and Leach Cross created a panic for brilliancy, and the Englishman, in a measure, isn't all wool and a yard wide on the Pacific coast.

Could Pursue Other Methods Furthermore, there are other ways of going about this thing besides heaping abuse on Ritchie's courage. It can't be recalled when Willie ever showed the white feather in the face of anybody's fire, and it can't be imagined that he has any fear of Welsh's feather punching. Also it is a difficult matter for Freddie to interest the public in a claim of that sort.

As a novice Ritchie got his start up the ladder by giving the Briton a terrific battle for 20 rounds, while substituting for Ad. Wolgast at the eleventh hour. Willie came out of San Francisco cold for a train ride to Los Angeles and there carried Welsh along for the whole route. Once during the contest Ritchie dropped Freddie, a fact the latter appreciates at this late day.

Under those conditions Ritchie wasn't frightened by Welsh, so why should he, an improved champion now dread a meeting with the Briton? Freddie will have to offer a better explanation than any given so far. Also, it wouldn't be a bad idea for Welsh to wipe out that defeat Jimmy Duffy, of Lockport, N.Y., scored against him in St. Louis not so many weeks ago before he tries to hang crepe on Ritchie's door knob. The loss Freddie sustained then doesn't jibe well with his accusations against the champion.

Welsh wouldn't be an ideal titleholder were he fortunate enough to acquire the laurel wreath anyway. His ping-pong style of boxing isn't appreciated by those who support the sport. Freddie is fast as greased lightning, that's true, and he knows the game to the minutest detail, but that inspiring wallop is as foreign to the Britisher as diamonds are to tramps.

It's the fellow like Ritchie whom the critics string along with, the lad who will stand up and trade punch for punch, and, frequently, stick over the "kick" that concludes all argument. For that reason, too, Willie, when he says the word for Freddie to come on, will rate favorite with the betting element.

Football

The first encounter of the season in connection with the John Hill Cup takes place to-morrow, when the preliminary round is fought out. For this round the two teams could not be more evenly matched and the game more interesting.

It is the meeting between the Duffs and Cockshutt's. Cockshutt's are the holders of the trophy and will defend it to their uttermost. The Duffs on the other hand are the league champions and have already shown that they have not lost their old time vigor. They have, however, been put out of the Courier Cup by Tutela and it can be imagined they will be all out to remain in the running for the Hill trophy. Cockshutt's have good men and also have a fine lot of reserves. They play good football and are well managed. Duffs are not yet so sure, but have shown that they have much in hand. Can they win? This question will not be solved until the last kick of the ball on Saturday.

Tutela vs. Paris. Tutela visiting at Paris in a league fixture may be able to get the points. After their strength against the Sons it would not be surprising to see them garner all in. Paris is a hotbed of enthusiasm for their own team, and such has a heartening effect upon their men to the discomfiture of the opponents. This will possibly not count for much with the Tutela brigade but one never knows. On paper they look good enough to master the Parisians.

Wanderers v. P. S. A. Wanderers, who are weak in the forward line, somewhat ready, the weak team in P. S. A. Both combinations are rebuilding and are both equally determined to play the straight manly game and any man caught giving an ankle tap or shine rub, is politely told that his room is preferred. Therefore a most gentlemanly exhibition ought to be seen at the Agricultural Park on Saturday.

Holmedale v. S. O. E. Holmedale enter into conflict with the S. O. E. and a strong lusty exhibition of the game will be put up. Holmedale are finding their legs and are anxious to put themselves right, after their recent defeat, while the Sons are no less anxious to add to their points. A hot contest is on.

The Scots having no fixture, will hold a practice match. Will Represent Duffs The following will represent the Duffs on Saturday next at Agricultural Park when they play Cockshutt United in the preliminary round for the John Hill Cup: Knowles, Holland, Keightley, Williamson, Mercer, Biggs, Usher, Humphries, Drake, Blower, Alexander, Reserves—Evans, Coale, Palmer, Reserves—Mr. Smith.

All players and reserves are requested to report at the Armouries at 5 p.m.

The committee and players of the Dufferin Rifles F. C. congratulate Mr. Keightley on the addition to their family and trust he will be as good a "kicker" as his father.

Cockshutt's vs. Paris. The Cockshutt United team will meet Paris in a league game at Manhawk Park on Monday, May 25. Kick off at 11 a.m.

This game should prove very interesting as the Paris team intend putting up a strong fight. The Cockshutt team will be selected immediately after the match with the Dufferin Rifles on Saturday.

Cockshutt's Line-up. The Cockshutt United team will meet the Dufferin Rifles in the first round of the John Hill charity cup, on Saturday May 23rd, at Agricultural Park, with the kick off at 6 p.m.

Players are requested to be at the Armouries at 5 p.m. The Cockshutt team will turn out as follows:—Goal, H. Carey; backs, S. Howell, C. Stubbs, half backs, A. Maich, E. Clark and another. Forwards: R. Plant, R. Charlton, J. Anderson, R. Richardson and S. Hutchinson. Reserves—J. Molloy, R. Richards, J. Store.

Tutela Line-up. The following have been chosen to represent Tutela against Paris on Saturday at 6 p.m. at Tutela Park. Referee, McClair. Teams dress, Tutela Park. Goal, Sweeney, backs, T. Mason, F. Burns; half backs, N. McLeod, Captain; E. Roberts, P. McLeod; forwards, E. Hamilton, J. Hingley, C. Gore, H. Hingley, E. Fisher. Reserve, Cossells, Pining.

Wanderer's Line-up. Wanderers vs. P. S. A. at Recreation park, Saturday, May 23rd. The Wanderers will line up as follows: Goal, Whelan; backs, Johnson and Charlick; half backs, Atkinson, Little and Wallace; forwards, Mears, C. Chambers, Bonner, Duddon and A. Johnson.

Reserves, Hayes and Mockford. The team must be on the grounds at 5:45 p.m.

P. S. A. Line-up. The P. S. A. football club picked the following team to meet the Wanderers on Saturday at Recreation park: G. Giles, A. Hilsley, G. Richards, F. Westcott, Rogers, Barnett, F. Leman, F. Riches, F. Knowles, W. Holder, H. Arthur. Reserves, T. Blackburn, Sweeney, J. Bury. All players should be on the field at 5:30.

In Splawn of the 1013 freshmen eleven of Michigan university Coach Yost of the Ann Arbor institution, says he has the greatest kicker Michigan ever had enrolled among its football stars, one whom he expects to prove a match for Charles Brickley, the Harvard captain, when the eleven clash at Cambridge next October.

"I Am A Common Indian" Is Huerta's Proud Boast

Grim, silent, taciturn, distrustful and distrusting, Victoriano Huerta is standing out against the world, like the leader of a pack of northern wolves, a sign of weakness from him, a momentary relaxation of most unyielding power, and he will fall. Then every wolf in that fierce pack which has followed him will be at his throat.

Few people have trusted General Huerta. Porfirio Diaz did not trust him, and when, at Vera Cruz, the aged dictator was saying his last adieu to Mexico, he was asked why he had not sent General Huerta against Francisco Imhoff Madero in the north. Porfirio Diaz knew his people. He replied:

"Because I did not trust him."
 "That was before Huerta's star appeared on the horizon of Mexican politics."
 No one has trusted General Huerta before or since the day Porfirio Diaz took his long, last, lingering look at the bleak sand hills at Vera Cruz, Francisco Imhoff Madero did not trust him, and to-day, while the great game of politics is being played on the Mexican stage, there is not one man who has confidence in the iron man who seized and holds power in the Mexican capital.

"I am a common Indian," General Huerta has said many times. He is proud of his Indian blood.
 But there is about the man who calls himself the provisional constitutional President of Mexico more than is common to the Indian. Possessing the cruelty of the aborigine, he is without the loyalty commonly attributed to his ancestors. Crafty to a degree, a politician and a diplomatist, Huerta has achieved what no other Indian could have done, and he has flaunted his defiance in the face of the world.

Silent and Expressionless.

Man of Mexico," but Porfirio Diaz was never feared by Mexicans as is Victoriano Huerta.

But there is another side to the man.

No one doubts Huerta's bravery. He does not know fear. Into the muzzle of a gun he will look with the very same indifference with which he regards a plea for mercy. He is nothing more than a rough soldier, but down in his heart he has admiration and great respect for a brave man.

On the man who would run away Huerta wastes no sympathy. I have asked many men General Huerta's age, but they could only guess. Upward of sixty years old, he has spent his life in the Mexican army. He was born in Chihuahua, according to war department records and entered the army when a boy. He rose from a private in the ranks to a general of division, the highest rank in the Mexican service. If he was ever whipped no one remembers the engagement. Sometimes he ran away, but always he came back.

Fighter of Diaz School
 Huerta is a fighter of the old Porfirio Diaz school—the kind who takes few prisoners. He believes that the best place for a disturber of the peace is the grave, and it makes little difference to him if the grave be shallow. He lets nothing stand in his way or hold him from his ambitions.

Victoriano Huerta first came into notice when Porfirio Diaz quit Mexico. At the moment it seemed as if all the world was against Diaz and he had no one to whom he could turn. The old President sent for Huerta and told him to get his command and act as escort. Up to that time Huerta was an unknown.

Speeding toward Vera Cruz on the Mexican railway, President Diaz's train was attacked by bandits and Huerta was given an opportunity to fight. He directed the federal troops under his command against the attacking party and beat them back. That was the first time his name was published in the newspapers in connection with a military engagement.

Huerta again figured in the press despatches when he lined his train was attacked by bandits and Huerta was given an opportunity to fight. He directed the federal troops under his command against the attacking party and beat them back. That was the first time his name was published in the newspapers in connection with a military engagement.

Cold Blooded as Huerta.
 Huerta then returned to the capital and in a little while Francisco Imhoff Madero came and there was a new government and a democracy. Madero found that he must call on some fighter of the old Porfirio Diaz school and he selected Huerta. He was sent against Orozco. Again his name appeared in the press despatches and the story told how he had whipped the revolutionists and scattered their forces. Huerta at once became the greatest man in the Mexican army. He was recalled and again he walked the streets of the capital, a general without a command.

Bad days, lean days, followed. He was almost blind from a cataract on one of his eyes. Dr. Aureliano Urrutia, a noted Mexican surgeon, was interested in the case and consented to operate to remove the cataract. Huerta entered Dr. Urrutia's Sanitarium at Tlalpam, a suburb of Mexico city, and the operation was performed without the use of an anesthetic, it is said.

"Cut it off," Huerta told the surgeon and Dr. Urrutia, as cold blood as Huerta, proceeded to do it. It was known to all men in Mexico that Madero's power was at an end; that his democracy had failed to cure the social and political and financial evils. The country was bankrupt. His fall was inevitable and he fell.

Huerta knows that there can be no middle ground. It must be success or failure. Success would mean everything to him—honors, wealth, glory, three things dear to every Latin-American heart. Failure means death. The stakes are large; he is playing them to the ultimate.

And Huerta is a man to play a big game. Conscience he has none, or his waking moments would be a wild delirium of remorse and his nights a mad fantasy in which the spirits of thousands of slain would hover over his couch and in fearful accusation shake at him their skeleton fingers.

Strength, indomitable will, fixity of resolve, absolute ignorance of fear, cruelty, mercilessness—those are the elements the Fates gathered together and poured into the crucible where was moulded Victoriano Huerta.

On the firing line, where death dealing rapid firing guns and Mausers are pouring volleys into a swaying mass of troops, and shrieking shells are bursting overhead in the halls of Congress or in the Palacia Nacional, with his game fighting chickens or drinking cognac from a teacup in the El Glabo tea rooms, always there is that same look on Huerta's face. It never changes. And when death comes and carries him away it is said of him that he will meet it with that same expressionless countenance and ride away with the grim spectre.

"I am a common Indian," he proudly boasts.

Man of Mexico," but Porfirio Diaz was never feared by Mexicans as is Victoriano Huerta.

But there is another side to the man.

No one doubts Huerta's bravery. He does not know fear. Into the muzzle of a gun he will look with the very same indifference with which he regards a plea for mercy. He is nothing more than a rough soldier, but down in his heart he has admiration and great respect for a brave man.

Where Is the Father Who Is Not Interested In the Morals of His Child?

PARENTS, set your children a good example by GOING TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

The man of the home who bravely declares that the churches are for women folk as he lies in bed or arranges to spend the day in some ungodly way not only injures himself, but his idle, boastful words are heard by the little boy or girl at home. Children are impressionable, and they quickly accept the father's viewpoint.

WHERE IS THE FATHER WHO IS NOT INTERESTED IN THE MORALS OF HIS CHILD? AND WHERE WILL THE CHILD BE TAUGHT LESSONS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS IF NOT IN THE HOUSE OF GOD? THE EXAMPLE OF A FATHER WHO IS A REGULAR ATTENDANT AT CHURCH IS MORE POWERFUL THAN ANY SERMON THAT CAN BE PREACHED. IF YOU THINK YOU ARE TOO FAR ADVANCED IN THOUGHT, IF YOU ARE SURE THAT THE CLERGYMAN'S SERMONS ARE DRY, IF YOU MUST FOREGO AN HOUR OF YOUR SLUMBER SUNDAY, MAKE A SACRIFICE FOR YOUR LITTLE BOY OR YOUR LITTLE GIRL'S SAKE.

Recall the days when you were a child and how you watched your dear parents trudge off to church on the Sabbath. Of course the world was not as advanced then as it is today. But many of the so called advances really are recessions. In many places, thanks to this advanced thought, the name of God doesn't obtain the reverence it did when you were a child. There is no denying that "going to church" has deteriorated in many of the so called enlightened communities.

This enlightenment is only darkness. Where is the scientist or leader in advanced thought to compare with God? Churches are the houses of God. There you will hear the word of God. They should be filled to overflowing.

Help swell the attendance by GOING TO CHURCH Sunday. GO TO CHURCH next Sunday!

THE RETURN OF TARZAN

By EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

Copyright 1913 by W. G. Chapman.

"You will find lion hunting more exciting than gazelle shooting," remarked Captain Gerard, "and more dangerous."

"Even gazelle shooting has its dangers," replied Tarzan, "especially when one goes alone. I found it so today. I also found that, while the gazelle is the most timid of animals, it is not the most cowardly."

Tarzan saw a dull red creep up from beneath Gernols' collar. He was satisfied and quickly changed the subject. When the column rode south from Bou Saada the next morning there were half a dozen Arabs bringing up the rear.

"They accompany us on the road for companionship," said Gerard. Tarzan had learned enough about Arab character since he had been in Algeria to know that this was no real motive, for the Arab is never overfond of the companionship of strangers, and especially of French soldiers.

He was convinced that there were hired assassins on his trail, nor was he in great doubt but that Rokoff was at the bottom of the plot. Whether it was to be revenge or was in some way connected with his mission in the Gernols affair he could not determine. If the latter, and it seemed probable since the evidence he had had that Gernols suspected him, then he had two rather powerful enemies to contend with.

After camping at Djelfa for two days the column moved to the southwest, from whence word had come that the marauders were operating against the tribes whose dwellings were situated at the foot of the mountains.

The little band of Arabs who had accompanied them from Bou Saada disappeared suddenly the very night that orders had been given to prepare for the morrow's march from Djelfa. Tarzan had seen Gernols in conversation with one of them some half hour after Captain Gerard had issued his instructions relative to the new move. Only Gernols and Tarzan knew the direction of the proposed march.

Late that afternoon they went into camp at a little oasis in which the dome of a sheik whose flocks were being stolen and whose herdsmen were being killed. Tarzan, who by this time, with the assistance of Abdul, had picked up quite a smattering of Arabic, questioned one of the younger Arabs. No, he had seen no party of six horsemen riding from the direction of Djelfa. There were other oases scattered about. Possibly they had been journeying to one of these.

Early the next morning Captain Gerard split his command in two, giving Lieutenant Gernols command of one party, while he headed the other. They were to scour the mountains upon opposite sides of the plain.

"And with which detachment will M. Tarzan ride?" asked the captain. "Or maybe it is that monsieur does not care to hunt marauders?"

zan hastened to explain. He was wondering what excuse he could make to accompany Gernols. His embarrassment was short lived and was relieved from a most unexpected source. It was Gernols himself who spoke.

"If my captain will forego the pleasure of M. Tarzan's company for this once I shall esteem it an honor indeed to have monsieur ride with me today," he said, nor was his tone lacking in cordiality—in fact, Tarzan imagined that he had overdone it a trifle.

And so it was that Lieutenant Gernols and Tarzan rode off side by side at the head of the little detachment of sphinx. Gernols' cordiality was short lived. No sooner had they ridden out of sight of Captain Gerard and his men than he lapsed once more into his accustomed taciturnity. As they advanced the ground became rougher. Steadily it ascended toward the mountains, into which they fled through narrow canyon close to noon. By the side of a little rivulet Gernols called the mid-day halt. Here the men prepared and ate their frugal meal and refilled their canteens.

After an hour's rest they advanced again along the canyon until they presently came to a little valley, from which several rocky gorges diverged.

"We shall separate here," Gernols said, "several riding into each of these gorges." And then he commenced to detail his various squads and issue instructions to the noncommissioned officers who were to command them. When he had done he turned to Tarzan. "Monsieur will be so good as to remain here until we return."

Tarzan demurred, but the officer cut him short. "There may be fighting for one of these sections," he said, "and troops cannot be embarrassed by civilian noncombatants during action." A moment later Tarzan found himself alone in the midst of a desolate mountain fastness.

The sun was hot, so he sought the shelter of a nearby tree, where he tethered his horse and sat down upon the ground to smoke. Inwardly he swore at Gernols for the trick he had played upon him. A mean little revenge, thought Tarzan, and then suddenly it occurred to him that the man would not be such a fool as to antagonize him through a trivial annoyance of so petty a description. There must be something deeper than this behind it. With the thought he arose and removed his rifle from its boot. He looked to its bolts and saw that the magazine was full. Then he inspected his revolver. After this preliminary pro-caution he scanned the surrounding heights and the mouths of the several gorges—he was determined that he should not be caught napping.

The sun sank lower and lower, yet there was no sign of returning sphinx. At last the valley was submerged in shadow. Tarzan was too proud to go back to camp until he had given the detachment ample time to return to the valley, which he thought was to have been their rendezvous. With the closing in of night he felt safer from attack, for he was at home in the dark, and he felt asleep, with his back against the tree.

He must have slept for several hours, for when he was suddenly awakened by the frightened snorting and plunging of his horse the moon was shining full upon the little valley, and there, not ten paces before him, stood the grim cause of the terror of his mount.

Superb, majestic, his graceful tail extended and quivering, and his two eyes of fire riveted full upon his prey, stood Numa, el adrea, the black lion. A little thrill of joy tingled through Tarzan's nerves. It was like meeting an old friend after years of separation. For a moment he sat rigid to enjoy the magnificent spectacle of this lord of the wilderness.

But now Numa was crouching for the spring. Very slowly Tarzan raised his gun to his shoulder. He had never killed a large animal with a gun in all his life. Heretofore he had depended upon his spear, his poisoned arrows, his rope, his knife or his bare hands. Instinctively he wished that he had his arrows and his knife. He should have felt surer with them.

Numa was lying quite flat upon the ground now, presenting only his head. Tarzan would have preferred to fire a little from one side, for he knew what terrific damage the lion could do if he lived two minutes or even a minute after he was hit. The horse stood trembling in terror at Tarzan's back. The ape-man took a cautious step to one side. Numa but followed him with his eyes. Another step he took and then another. Numa had not moved. Now he could aim at a point between the eye and the ear.

His finger tightened upon the trigger, and as he fired Numa sprang. At the same instant the terrified horse made a last frantic effort to escape. The tether parted, and he went careening down the canyon toward the desert.

No ordinary man could have escaped these frightful claws when Numa sprang from so short a distance. But Tarzan was no ordinary man. From earliest childhood his muscles had been trained by the fierce exigencies of his existence to act with the rapidity of thought. As quick as was el adrea Tarzan of the Apes was quicker, and so the great beast crashed against a tree, where he had expected to feel the soft flesh of man, while Tarzan, a couple of paces to the right, pumped another bullet into him that brought him, clawing and roaring, to his side.

Content That Men Tire of Their Wives Before Women Tire of Their Husbands

Why do men tire first in all affairs of the heart? Why do men fall out of love with women before women fall out of love with them? Why does a man weary of a woman before she does of him? Why does domesticity so soon get on a man's nerves, while a woman can find it sweeter and sweeter every day for fifty years?

Men do, you know, says Dorothy Dix. They tire first in the love game and the marriage game, and there's no use in denying it.

It's the women who bring the breach of promise suits against men who have gotten cold feet and heart failure even before the wedding day. Even when a woman does break her engagement to marry a man, nine times out of ten it is because he has forced her to do it.

Why this is thus is a problem that is up to the psychologists to solve. Certainly, to the average observer, the average woman is quite as good looking and interesting and attractive as the average man. Also it is undoubtedly true that the average woman takes ten times as much trouble, both before and after marriage, to please a man as he does to please her.

Think of how their poor heads ache with four pounds of assorted false hair pinned on it, because some man admires fluffy tresses! Think how uncomfortably their poor faces are, all beset with paint and cream complexion! Think of how their poor feet ache squeezed up in shoes two sizes too small, and perched up on French heels because men admire little tootsie wootsies! Think of the tortures they undergo from straight fronts and starvation because men admire slim and willowy figures!

Would any man put himself to all this trouble and pain to try to please a woman? Would any man do without his wanted to eat or drink because it made him fat, and therefore less attractive to women?

It is undeniably true that men get tired of love-making before women do. The real reason every engaged man hurries up his wedding day is because he wants to get out of the soft talk, and the suddenness with which he drops the billing and cooing after the marriage ceremony gives a woman the jar of her life. Her sweet tooth aches for more verbal confectionery. She still wants to have her hand held, and to be told she's the most beautiful and most wonderful darling creature on earth, but the man is nauseated with the bombons of courtship, and wants to get back to the plain roast beef and potatoes of everyday life. There is no other one thing on earth more pathetic than this—that a woman can go on being a bride to the longest day of her life, while the bridegroom wears of his sentimental robe before ever he is out of the church.

The husbands tire of their wives before their wives do of them is also too sadly true. This sad state of affairs is proven by the fact that nearly every middle aged woman is doing all sorts of stunts to keep herself looking young and attractive so that she may retain her husband's affection but you never hear of any middle-aged man making any effort to keep himself youthful and romantic-looking to his wife.

Yet, isn't a bay-windowed, bald-headed, heavy-jowled, middle-aged man just as little alluring as a stout, grizzled, middle-aged woman? And wouldn't you think there would be

BIG SALES MADE BY SUGGESTION

Local Merchants Should Make it a Study—An Art to be Acquired.

If there ever was a concern on the face of this earth that has studied the theory of suggestion it is the retail catalogue house.

In its early beginning it fooled railroad men and pinary workers, securing names and addresses in some way or another, after which it forwarded each individual a nice brass watch, finished in gold. However, it was cautious, never sending a watch to the prospective customer on credit.

The railroad man or woodsman never ordered the watch, and of course a mistake happened.

According to the mail order man, it was wrongly addressed, but the watch was there at the express office, and if he would take it and pay for it a large reduction would be made.

This suggested to the prospective purchaser that he was in need of a watch, "got him," and if he did not have the money to pay for it he would borrow the necessary amount or draw on his salary account.

The power of suggestion soon convinced the wily mail order man that he was on the right track, and he then branched out into furniture, clothing, machinery, hardware and other lines of manufacture.

Great Power of Suggestion.

It is very probable now that a large proportion of merchandise sold is through suggestion. If people bought only the bare necessities of life, only what they actually need, there would be but few business houses and civilization would halt.

The power of suggestion is what builds up great business houses and keeps the world on its progressive march.

Advertising is one of the most powerful and at the same time easiest methods of suggestion. But there are many others very much akin to the popular conception of advertising.

Therefore it behooves the merchant who would be successful and to be numbered with the progressive of his kind to study well the theory and practice of suggestion. Its ramifications are many and varied.

Make a Good Impression.

It is not alone in the preparation of copy for newspaper, circular or other printed forms for advertising that this principle of suggestion must be observed and followed out.

While it is all important to observe the rules of suggestion in getting up such copy, the idea should be carried into every feature of merchandising.

The handling of good merchandise and square dealing, accommodating store policy suggest to a customer that he has found the right place to trade, and he is not liable easily to forget his first impression.

The arrangement of stock, the window display, the attitude of proprietor and clerks toward customers, deliveries, methods of collections—in fact, every action suggests to the naturally receptive mind of a purchaser and brings him back again.

On the other hand, the neglect to observe all these things implants a suggestion in the mind of the public that cannot be overcome, even by offering glittering bargains.

Suggestion an Art.

Some of the best salesmen in the business are those who know how diplomatically to suggest to purchasers something else that would be to their advantage to buy.

This sort of suggestion is a kind of art and unless used with the finest tact and discretion is liable to make a bore of a salesman.

The retail catalogue house system is cautious. However, there is no law against exaggerating pictures when one confines himself to an actual description of the article. This is where the mail order house system covers itself.

The pictures are suggestive to the prospective buyer.

The description of the article contains Latin phrases, trade terms and language that is foreign to many consumers and is not understood by them.

As an illustration of picture book buying through mental suggestion our readers might profit by reading the following poem, which illustrates the folly of buying mail order house trash:

HE QUIT.
He owned a retail catalogue house car.
To ride in it was heaven.
He ran across a piece of glass—
Bill, $1.47.
He took his friends out for a ride.
"Twas good to be alive.
The carburetor sprang a leak—
Bill, $4.95.
He started on a little tour.
The finest sort of fun.
He stopped too quick and stripped his gears—
Bill, $30.51.
He spent his little pile of cash
And then in anguish cried,
"I'll put a mortgage on the house
And take just one more ride!"

A Cinema Paper.

"I wonder how long it will be before some enterprising firm puts forth a journal, to be sold largely in all the streets of London, giving an account of the programmes of all the best picture places."—Sphere.

Fun for the Fish.

THE HEART SONGS OF 90,000,000 PEOPLE

Many of these songs cannot be found in any other collection. They came in yellow, time-worn, tear-stained sheets—that had been sacredly treasured from childhood—others were written out from memory—some were given by titles only—or remembered verses, involving a long search to obtain the whole.

Of the thousands received it is safe to say that the several hundred selected—as having the largest number of votes and the highest endorsement—represent to-day the taste of the Canadian people in their choice of music.

We believe that the distribution of this unrivalled song collection will bring more happiness into the homes of our readers, will do more to make them attractive to young and old; do more to inculcate a love for music; to soften, elevate and refine the home life; to cultivate the nobler and higher virtues of the fireside—than any other means we could adopt.

Dental Clinic For City Schools Will be Secured

Public School Trustees Held Meeting Last Night—Closing on June 26—Other Notes of Interest.

The public school board held their regular meeting in the city hall last night, and some important business was disposed of. A number of reports were ready and accounts passed. The schools close on June 26, and Inspector Kilmer recommended that the cheques be issued on June 20th. The school management committee brought in the above recommendation which was adopted. The buildings and grounds committee reported as follows: That the contract for heating, ventilating and plumbing, for the new school on Rawdon street, be awarded to Robert H. Ballantyne. The heating system to be known as the Dominion Radiator, the consideration for the work to be: plumbing $3,700; heating and ventilating $5,010. It is understood that Brantford labor and material be used as far as it is possible, and that the Dominion Radiator Company are to stand surety for the satisfactory working of the heating and ventilating system, as per their letter dated April 23th, the work to be completed by December 31st. That a cement wall with gas pipe and wire mesh fence, be constructed on the south side of Dufferin School, the work to be done by the board of works department of the city under the superintendence of the city engineer.

Some discussion arose over the make of the boiler to be used in the furnace of the new Rawdon Street school. The Waterous Engine Works will not guarantee their boiler, but the Dominion Radiator Company must stand by their original agreement and guarantee their complete system. This was the decision of the board, and the Dominion Radiator Company will be notified to that effect.

A dental officer will commence next term to examine the teeth of all the children in the different schools. The care of the child's teeth is becoming an important feature in all the schools, and it was the opinion of the board that a dental inspector be appointed. Dr. Ballachey recently made an examination of 93 children's mouths at Mohawk Institute, and out of the 93 examined only seven were pronounced perfect. The special committee appointed to investigate this matter, brought in the following report:

Your special committee appointed to arrange for the establishment of a dental clinic in the public schools along the lines of the work now carried on in the city of Toronto, report as follows.

Having advertised in the Toronto papers and caused enquiry to be made at the School of Dental Surgeons in Toronto, we received applications for the proposed position at Brantford, and recommend that Dr. F. W. Landymore, now residing at Mt. Forest, be appointed, at the salary of $800 per annum, commencing on the first of September next, with the option of retaining Dr. Landymore's services for a second year at the same remuneration if the board so desire. The service to consist of taking full charge of the dental service of the school, each morning of every lawful day, from nine until 12 o'clock, from the 1st day of September to the 1st day of August, which latter month is to be considered as holiday season.

Dr. Landymore, we believe, will fill the position satisfactorily, as we have interviewed him personally, and have also received excellent reports as to his professional capacity.

We ask authority to purchase the necessary equipment, and make such changes as are necessary in the room at the Central school proposed to be made; such changes should be made under the direction of the buildings and grounds committee.

The resignation of Miss M. McAnnis was received and referred to the school management committee, which accepted it. Miss Fair also asked for leave of absence for the last week of school, in order that she may leave for the old country in the last week of school. Miss Fair has been engaged in this city as teacher for 35 years, and the board was unanimous in granting her leave of absence.

The members of the board will this afternoon visit the different schools at the Empire Day exercises. It was suggested by the secretary that Mr. A. Styles, the manual trainer, visit the different schools, and report to the buildings and grounds committee the various improvements that should be made in the buildings. It was also suggested that the boys of the different schools make picture frames, etc. to place in the various rooms. Mr. Styles was thoroughly in sympathy and promised to give the boys his attention in these matters. About 250 picture frames will be needed. Some new equipment will be purchased, and about one dozen frames will be undertaken.

To Utilize Rooms. Trustee Lyle asked the permission of the board for the use of the playrooms in the Central school for dining rooms for Fraternal day of Old Home week. The permission was readily granted.

He said that the citizens have asked for permission to use these rooms as they are expecting the largest crowd of the week here Fraternal day.

Those present were Chairman M. E. B. Cutcliffe, Trustees Lane, Clement, Coulbeck, Armstrong, Lyle, Day and Ballachey, Secretary A. K. Bunnell and Inspector E. E. C. Kilmer.

A DEAD FLY

May be as Dangerous as a Live One!

It is certainly more repulsive, and, if left, will breed far more disease than ever it did when alive. It is not sufficient to kill the fly. You must destroy the germs as well. Those, if allowed to multiply, will spread disease and death. Give up using the fly swatter and the unsanitary sticky fly paper.

LOHENGRIN

The "Heart Song" illustrated in today's issue of the Courier is the famous Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin. To untold thousands of people the wedding march recalls the most joyous moment of their lives.

The translation of the words used in Heart Songs is very beautiful, and match the music almost as well as if they had been written for it originally.

The Lohengrin Bridal Chorus, the wedding March, is only one of several celebrated compositions of this kind that appear in the book—and it is the completeness and accuracy that make it universally interesting and absolutely a work that no home should be without.

HEART SONGS is one of the great books of the century. It will charm, entertain and instruct every member of the family. It has five hundred selections words and music, and is now being distributed by The Courier to its friends and readers on presentation of six consecutively dated coupons clipped from the paper, and the bare cost of distribution.

Ibsen's favorite dish was, it appears, deviled devil-fish. "hch goes a long way towards explaining "Ghosts" and "The Power of Darkness."

AMERICAN WINS DERBY AT E

Durban II, Belov H. B. Duryea a Big Field

(By Special Wire to the EPSOM, May 27.—The best known of the English horse races, was won today by H. B. Duryea's Durban II, a colt bred in France, who overcame a field of 12 horses, including the favorite, Durban II, who had been laid in the clubs last night.

The public favorites were their supporters at any race. Kennymore, who had been laid in the clubs last night, had no trouble in disposing of thirty horses, the race was won by the colt, Durban II, who had been laid in the clubs last night.

The betting just before the race was 20 to 1 against Durban II, 33 to 1 against Hapsburg to 1 against Peter the Hermit.

The public favorites were their supporters at any race. Kennymore, who had been laid in the clubs last night, had no trouble in disposing of thirty horses, the race was won by the colt, Durban II, who had been laid in the clubs last night.

The past glories of the road from London to Epsom with the advent of motor cars, the high spirits usually of the crowd on Derby Day, some degree damped by the presence of an army of police on the ground and forming the course to prevent any violence such as caused the Miss Davison during last year's race, the course seemed to be as usual.

History of the Derby stakes was in 1780, but races had taken the same course as early as 1750. The stakes are valued at it is for entire colts and three years old. The course one mile and a half in length. The great of this year's race, the T. scratched a few weeks ago. Durban II, to-day's winner, was bred in France.

The last American to win the Derby was Richard Carrick in 1907. Duryea's Record H. B. Duryea, one of the most eminent American trainers, a string of victories to the chief of these was the Newmarket in 1912, who Durban II, to-day's winner, was bred in France.

Mr. Duryea had other favorites in English races. Ruryea and Harry Pay have jointly owned a number of horses. He has stables in England and France, and by Mrs. Duryea he has a fine figure at most of the races of the last ten years. Formerly Duryea was as a yachtsman. He took part in the American cup race, identified with the syndicate which helped defend the American years ago. His interest in horse racing and which he started his racing since then has spent most of his life.
