BRITISH OFFICIAL Gains Recorded By Haig's Forces; Enemy Driven Back

By Courier Leased Wire
Paris, July 17.—German troops made a strong attack on the French positions in the vicinity of the Teton, but were driven back, leaving a number dead, according to a statement issued by the war office today.

The statement follows:
"Intermittent cannonading occurred on the Alsne front, quite spirited in the regions of Cerny, Cavaliers, and Courcy."
"In the Champagne the Germans made another serious effort on the Teton. Their assaulting waves caught under our fire, were compelled to return in disorder to their departing trenches, leaving a number of dead. We maintained our gains of Saturday."

"On the left bank of the Meuse our troops this morning made a spirited attack west of Hill 304. According to news thus far received, all our positions which have remained in the hands of the Germans following the actions of June 28 and 29, were entirely reconquered by us. We captured prisoners whose number is not yet known."

"Enemy attacks on our small posts in Argonne near Douaumont and in Woivre, near Regneville, were without result."

British Official

London, July 17.—"We gained ground slightly during the night northwest of Wirnemon," says a statement of the British war office today. "In the northern sector, the communication adds, 'one of our raiding parties encountered a large party of the enemy in front of the German positions. After a sharp fight our troops drove the enemy back to their lines and bombarded them in their trenches.'"

Foe Official

Berlin, July 16.—via London, July 17.—"Our aerial squadrons carried out bombing attacks on harbor installations at Arensburg and Russian aerial stations at Apenholm on Oesel Island (in the Gulf of Riga)," says an official announcement today. "All the machines returned safely."

Incurable Prisoners

Paris, July 17.—German officers and men aggregating 825, who are suffering from incurable maladies, left Swiss hospitals today for Germany. The transfer was arranged by the German and French governments, Germany agreeing to the transfer to France of an equal number of incapacitated French soldiers interned in Switzerland.

"Zimmie"

Successor to Zimmermann not Yet Selected, Despite Claims and Counter Claims Advance by Various Factions; Bernstorff Eliminated From the Field; Dr. Michaelis New Imperial Chancellor, a Man of Deep Religious Belief and Principle

By Courier Leased Wire.
Copenhagen, July 17.—The selection of a successor to Foreign Secretary Zimmermann was still unsettled yesterday. Pressure was being brought from two directions to block first the proposed nomination of Count Brockdorff-Rantzau, the German minister at Copenhagen and to substitute Admiral von Hintze, minister of Norway, or Count von Bernstorff, former Ambassador to Washington. The present minister to Christiania is greatly desired by pan-Germans and advocates of a super-vigorous policy, not only on account of his high diplomatic qualifications, but chiefly on account of his antecedents.

Apparently it is felt that a former naval officer particularly one who played such a prominent role at Manila in the events of 1898, will offer the necessary guarantee that the German foreign policy in regard to peace negotiations will be afterwards conducted along desired energetic lines. The Emperor is said to favor von Hintze.

The Bernstorff party, which sprung up since the return of the ex-ambassador, is endeavoring to organize a boom for him. George Bernhard, the political writer, enthusiastically recommends Bernstorff to Chancellor Michaelis, not only as a capable and experienced diplomat, but as a person of the necessary calibre and qualifications whom the Chancellor will need as coadjutor and adviser in the coming peace negotiations.

Bernstorff Eliminated

Paris, July 17.—A Zurich despatch to The Petit Parisien says Count von Bernstorff has been appointed German Minister at Copenhagen in the place of Count Brockdorff-Rantzau.

Michaelis D. reply Religious

Copenhagen, July 17.—A strong strain of religious devotion, verging on religious mysticism, is one of the outstanding characteristics of Dr. Michaelis. According to those acquainted with him the new Chancellor believes in the direct guidance and inspiration of the deity in daily affairs and endeavors to base his actions and policy upon his interpretation of the Divine will. Dr. Michaelis' firmness of purpose is said to be due largely to his conviction. This view of life is partly hereditary. His brother became a clergyman of the most devout school and his sister married a clergyman. Newspapers of Evangelical trend, like The Tagelische Rundschau, emphasize this characteristic.

Michaelis' Policy

Copenhagen, July 17.—A late edition of The Lokal Anzeiger received here claims that Chancellor Michaelis is for the foreign policy and peace terms expounded by Field Marshal von Hindenburg and the pan-German camp. It quotes Conservatives and National Liberal members of the reichstag who attended the conference with von Hindenburg, General Ludendorff, first quartermaster-general, and Dr. Michaelis, as being most favorably impressed with the results of the conference.

The Lokal Anzeiger asserts of its own knowledge that Dr. Michaelis already has established relations of absolute unanimity and co-operation with these military-political chiefs. This newspaper strongly recommends to Dr. Michaelis and parliament the postponement until the end of the war of the settlement of all contentious internal questions, including, naturally, Prussian suffrage reform, thereby properly rebuking what it terms impertinent interference from enemy countries in the internal German affairs and demonstrating the harmonious unity of the country.

The Berlin Boersen Courier understands that Chancellor Michaelis will accept the reichstag majority peace resolution.

Chancellor Michaelis informed the reichstag members that his speech on Thursday would deal with his foreign and internal policy.

Vienna, via Amsterdam, July 17.—Austria-Hungary's idea on peace were made known to the constitution committee of the reichsrath in an address by the premier, Dr. von Seydler. After referring to the unbreakable unity between Austria and her allies, Dr. von Seydler declared parliament would work for "the firm co-operation between front and

Fresh Cabinet Crisis Arisen in Petrograd

Division Take Takes Place Following Disagreement on Question of Ukraine District, Three Cabinet Members Resign, and Situation Grows Very Serious

By Courier Leased Wire.
Petrograd, July 17.—Three members of the cabinet have resigned and a special session of the Council of ministers has been convoked in an effort to avert a crisis. Their names are A. I. Shingoroff, minister of finance; Professor Manuiloff, minister of education, and Prince Shakovskiy, head of the department of public aid.

These resignations of these Cadet Ministers followed a sharp disagreement over questions involving the Ukraine, an extensive region in Russia, embracing part of the territories of the old kingdom of Poland. Premier Lvoff has requested the ministers to meet at his private residence when the cause of the dispute will be considered. It is known he will attempt to prevail on them to withdraw their resignations. The split in the ministry occurred at a ministerial conference called to consider a report submitted by M. Tereschenko, minister of foreign affairs and M. Tseretelli, minister of posts and telegraphs, as a result of their negotiations concerning the Ukrainians.

After the report the cadet ministers promptly took exception to the form of a declaration drawn up by M. Tereschenko and Tseretelli and agreed to the fact that these ministers without authorization of the Government took it on themselves to commit the Government to a definite policy regarding the Ukraine.

Tereschenko and Tseretelli, the cadets maintained, simply had been chosen delegates to find a possible basis of an agreement in the Ukraine but had not been given the power of making a declaration in the name of the Government.

In addition to this cause of complaint the cadet ministers criticized the text of the Ukraine declaration, first because it abolishes all power of the temporary government in the Ukraine; second, because it did not specify of what territories the Ukraine consists or make clear how it shall be governed.

The opposition members of the cabinet assert that only the legislative body has a right to determine the future form of the government of the Ukraine, whereas, according to

By Courier Leased Wire

THE SITUATION. The Teutons are hurrying reinforcements to their sorely pressed troops in Galicia, but that fact has not served to stop the Russians.

Second, and perhaps even much more important, the money resources of the leading nations and the bond-absorbing capacity of our own country should be conserved for the most necessary work; and an independent, impartial board should be the judge of the relative necessity.

INSULTING ONTARIO. It may seem incredible, but it is nevertheless obvious that the French-Canadian element opposed to conscription, believe that in this course they have the backing of Ontario.

REGULATION OF PUBLIC EXPENDITURES. The following is from The Canadian Engineer. Brantford's Board of Trade has appointed a national service committee, and that committee has forwarded to the Dominion government a number of recommendations, at least one of which appears to bear the germ of an excellent idea.

acute depression owing to extensive unemployment. Former soldiers living in all parts of the country should be given somewhat uniform chance of employment without being required to leave their homes and relatives.

The war may materially change the situation for some years to come. It has changed it already; in fact, the change started even slightly before the declaration of war.

Seventeen of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's followers, who voted against his referendum proposal, held a caucus yesterday. They formed a new party with Mr. Pardoe, former Liberal Whip as spokesman.

PARIS, July 17.—(From our own correspondent) Saturday afternoon a very pretty wedding took place at the Baptist parsonage, when Rev. W. H. Langton united in marriage Miss Hannah May Wimmer to Mr. William Percy Hooten.

THE Paris pupils of Mr. Kenneth Tennant, were very successful in their recent music examinations. In the Western University exam, Miss Mary Knill passed grade 3 piano, and Miss Ella Disher passed grade 2, theory, with honors.

Before Six O'clock Arrived Strong Feeling Expressed Regarding the Man Henderson

In last evening's Courier there was a despatch from Montreal, stating that the Mayor of that city had read a communication from a Brantford man, C. F. Henderson, in which the latter denounced conscription and approved of French-Canadian opposition.

Henderson is a machinist and has been in the employ of the local plant of the Steel Company, situated in West Brantford.

He has been talking quite a lot in the strain indicated, and sending letters to the press, which were ignored, but no one thought that he would go so far as indicated.

The foreman called Henderson aside and told him that he could get what money was coming to him. Henderson evidently realized that he had better make himself scarce...

Did it ever occur to you that all teas are not "Just tea?" In reality, there is as much difference in teas as there is in silks.

There are many varieties of tea: Indian teas, Ceylon teas, Java teas, China teas, etc.—Indians and Ceylons being the choicest of all.

These teas are all just ordinary garden teas, while Red Rose tea is a blend of teas selected from as many as sixteen different gardens, using largely Assam-Indian teas skilfully blended with Ceylons. The result is that rich strength and smooth flavor that has made Red Rose Tea so popular.

One level teaspoonful of Red Rose Tea goes as far as a heaping teaspoonful of ordinary tea—that proves the true quality and economy of Red Rose.

RED ROSE TEA is good tea

White Sox Have Hit Stride, Now Look out

Chicago Americans Now a Well Balanced Team, Says Rowland; Enthusiastic Over Their Chance For Pennant

The White Sox's great spurt for the pennant has given Manager Clarence Rowland a fine chance to discuss his managerial policies. He speaks as follows: They say Comiskey spent a fortune to build up the White Sox—

But I believe it is but fair to admit that the White Sox last year were not a well-balanced ball club. We were not dependable at first base and third was a source of much worry. Two of my best pitchers faltered in the pinch. Faber was incapacitated by sickness when he was going great and I needed him most.

On paper we were a wonderful team but there are two fallacies at work in a paper reputation. First you don't play with the stars of east year and you don't see the batting averages they gained in the previous season on to-day's ball field.

Another point to be remembered is this with reference to a team of stars. If I am the greatest pitcher in the game and I go to a club which also numbers the greatest outfielder, I have some faith in my own opinion.

Sporting Comment

The Giants behind Christy Mathewson, one day at the Polo grounds, had outfitted the Chicago Cubs, with Lew Ritchie pitching, by about two to one, but had lost the game.

You can't take stars and make them over into a well balanced club in a minute or ten minutes. It takes time. I have not a shadow of criticism of any one of my men in making this statement.

The White Sox failed to win the pennant in 1914 and surprised some people. But they didn't surprise me and they didn't surprise Mr. Comiskey.

LEAFS BEATEN IN ONE BAD FRAME

Had Three Pitchers In Box In First Inning Yesterday

Toronto, July 17.—About everything disastrous that could happen did happen in the first inning of yesterday's Toronto-Providencia game at the Island Stadium, and the Leafs took down eight runs. The Leafs made valiant efforts to overcome the lead, and did fairly well in that respect, but as the sailormen say, "a stern chase is a long chase."

The crowd was of larger proportions than the usual wash day assemblage, and it got a lot for its money. For those who like "fireworks" in their baseball that first inning was enough and more. It was a pyrotechnic debut.

BRAVES TAKE DOUBLE BILL

Annex Both Games From Pirates Yesterday, First Eleven Innings

Boston, July 16.—Boston started its second home series with Pittsburg to-day by taking two games, the first in eleven innings by the score of 8 to 7 and the second 7 to 2. In the opener, which was a slam-bang affair, the Braves won by a score of 8 to 7.

DOUBLE LOSS FOR ORIOLES

Montreal Took Brace Of One Run Victories From Falling Birds

Montreal, July 17.—Montreal took two games from the Baltimore Birds yesterday afternoon by a score of 10 to 9 and 3 to 2. Montreal collected eighteen hits in the first game, and Zimmerman's scored home run in the ninth inning with a man on base won back the game after it was seemingly lost.

HORNSBY IN LIMELIGHT

Cardinals' Young Phenom Figures In Defeat of Brooklyn

Brooklyn, July 17.—St. Louis took the first game of the series with Brooklyn to-day by a score of 3 to 1. The score was tied up to the eighth, when, with two out, Hornsby singled to centre. Cruise followed with another to right. Pfeffer intercepted the toss to third and threw into right field in an attempt to catch Cruise advancing to second.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE STAGE AND SCREEN

THE BRANT One of the strongest all-star casts ever assembled in the production of one motion picture is that to be seen in support of Sessue Hayakawa, at the Brant theatre the first of this week in the gripping drama of Mexican border life, "The Jaguar's Claws." Tom Moore, Tom Forman, Fritz Brunette, Marjorie Daw and Mabel Van Buren appear in support of the noted Japanese actor, who in the role of El Jaguar, Mexican outlaw and bandit, achieves probably the greatest triumph of his brilliant screen career, portraying with historic genius a character such as typified by the notorious Pancho Villa, Francis G. Bushman and Beverly Bayne co-star once more in the 8th episode of the Metro Mystery serial, "The Great Secret." The two Rosarys appear in a sensational acrobatic number, offering a high class trapeze performance of unique and original ability, while Marie Evans and her Banjo Boys have a clever musical and singing offering which is a sure favorite with all.

THE ROSARY "The Rosary" was the attraction at the Grand Opera House last evening, the Roma Reade Players giving a splendid presentation of that old but ever-popular favorite, the play telling one of the sweetest stories ever told, a powerful and stirring drama of real life, with an appeal to all and many a tug at the heart strings. In the dual roles of the twin sisters, Alice and Vera, Miss Reade discharged probably the most exacting characterizations in which she has been seen in this city, and carrying the two parts throughout with unusual success and her usual histrionic ability. Another notable success was scored by Mr. Edward Keene in his portrayal of the role of Father Brian Kelly, while the other parts in the production were excellently handled by the various performers. Mr. Fred G. Brown, an old Brantford boy, and a new member of the company, was introduced to the audience during the evening, favoring them with two of his latest patriotic song compositions, "The Rosary" will be repeated to-night and to-morrow, while for the week-end an elaborate production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be staged.

KOLB IN DUTCH It was during rehearsal for the big suffragette demonstration, held in the production of "A Peck O' Pickles," starring Kolb and Dill, that William Kolb made a dumb speech. Dill had been asked to give his ideas on the subject, but Mrs. Max, better known as Josephine Clark, who is an ardent suffragette, was standing near him and he quietly turned the job over to his partner. Kolb then gave in part a speech he had heard given by a German one night in New York. "Ladies and gentlemen, My wife, she just got through telling you that you all should ought to be for woman suffrage. You should be. In fact we all are for that thing. I now am going to open a campaign

When You Market Consider Your Less Fortunate Neighbor.

"Every citizen who uses more in his household than his house-hold actually needs is increasing the cost of living for those less fortunate, and he is hindering the prosecution of the war." Sir Thomas White, Minister of Finance. THE well-to-do woman who sits at her phone and orders provisions lavishly, regardless of price, is abusing the power of money as a bully abuses brute strength! No longer can we help ourselves as we see fit from an unlimited food supply—we are either limiting our buying to our own real needs or "hogging" someone else's share. Extravagant buying by those who can afford it, with waste in some kitchens, and excess at some tables, will inevitably bring still greater hardships to those who cannot afford the prices, and hunger to those who must live on less. Buy for your household as carefully and economically as your husband buys for his factory, store or office. Study food values as well as prices—make it a point to know just what you are getting—eliminate waste—and you'll find that you can feed your family well on far less than you spend now. Invest the saving in Canadian War Savings Certificates and you will be doubling your service to the nation. War Savings Certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $50 and $100, to be repaid in three years at full face value. They cost $21.50, $43 and $86 respectively, at all Money Order Post Offices and Banks, thus yielding over 5% interest.

Little Trojans' Debut With Phillis 1-0 Win For Alexander

Philadelphia, July 17.—Wonderful fielding, especially by Baneroff, featured the game in which Philadelphia defeated Cincinnati yesterday 1 to 0. Alexander and Regan had a twirling duel, which was finished in the remarkably fast time of one hour and ten minutes. The lone tally was scored in the seventh inning. Whitted then led off with a double and took third when Roush muffed Cravath's fly. Regan threw Stock out and Whitted was caught at the plate when Paskert hit to McKechnie. Luderus' single scored Cravath. Johnny Evers made his debut with the Phillies and was presented with a big floral horseshoe. The score: Philadelphia . . . 00000000—0 6 1 Philadelphia . . . 00010101—1 5 6 Regan and Wingo; Alexander and Killifer.

WILD PITCHES SAVE NEWARK Rochester's New Twirler Was Wild and Threw Away Game

BAKER AIDED CLEVELAND RED SOX DROP INTO SECOND

Cleveland, July 16.—Cleveland was lucky enough to-day to have Baker's two errors produce three runs, enough to defeat New York, which had scored one by hitting and one on O'Neill's error. New York out-batted Cleveland, but throws by Roth and Graney cut off runs. Baker had not been scored upon in 38 innings prior to to-day. Score:— N. BISONS WON FROM REBELS Nip and Tuck Game Taken By Buffalo From The Richmond Team

Buffalo, July 16.—Buffalo and the Richmond Rebels indulged in a battling contest this afternoon, the Bisons finally winning 9 to 8 after each club had alternated in taking the lead. Enright could not stand the strain, and was relieved by Donahue, who fared well until the eighth, when the Herd bunched hits and went to the front, where they stuck. Scores:— R. H. E. THE KID HAS GONE TO THE COLORS. THE KID HAS GONE TO THE COLORS.

The following poem has been sent to a resident of this city by a friend in Chicago, who considered it especially appropriate at the present time, typifying, as it does, the spirit of the United States in the present war, as well as in the Civil War when "Granddad" was changed by the "Flag to a man." THE KID HAS GONE TO THE COLORS. The Kid has gone to the colors And we don't know what to say; The Kid we have loved and cuddled Stepped out for the flag to-day. We thought him a child, a baby, With never a care at all. But his country called him man-size And the Kid has heard the call. He paused to watch the recruiting Where, fired by the fife and drum, He bowed his head to "Old Glory," And thought that it whispered: "Come." The Kid, not being a slacker, Stood forth with patriot joy To add his name to the roster And God, we're proud of the boy.

THE MA By Fra Late Superintendent of the Crim New Scotland

(From Saturday's Daily.) A streak of flame split the darkness and a bullet smashed against the wall. Jimmie's pistol was levelled, and almost in the same instant his shot answered. There was a groan, immediately stifled, and then a short laugh. "Bullseye—five," said Ling, in the monotonous chant of the ranges. "That's one I owe to you, Master Hallett. You've smashed my wrist. Good shooting in this tricky light." The place was filled with a vague vision of crawling forms, all of those who were not too far under the influence of the drug being anxious to get out of the way of bullets. Jimmie's muzzle was full on the dark figure of Ling. "Drop your gun—drop it, I say," he ordered peremptorily. Ling laughed again. "All right, sonny, I know when I've got enough. Don't I tell you you've smashed my wrist. I'm not worth a cent at left handed shooting. Say, your friend Menzies seems to have got his medicine."

The chief inspector had collapsed at the first shot, and though Jimmie was too wary to take his eyes off the master crook, he had an impression of his great bulk lying motionless at the other side of the room. "Stand up," commanded Jimmie. "Put your hands up. My God, Ling, I'm only looking for a good excuse to plug you." He remembered Peggy and all she had suffered at this man's hands and his blood boiled. "Tut, tut! Let not your angry passions arise"—Ling might have been remonstrating with a petulant child, but he stood up nevertheless. "I told you I'd got a bullet in my wrist, didn't I? How can I put my hands up? I'll put one up, if that'll suit you. You're a smart boy, Hallett, but if you'd been alone I could have handled you." "Shut up," said Jimmie. "I want to think." It was a position not without its difficulties. There would have been a dozen solutions of the problem had Menzies not been laid out. That had been a piece of most execrable luck which had made all the difference. So long as he held his back to the door and his weapon on Ling Jimmie was in command. To remain like that was, however, impossible. Something had to be done, but what it was hard to decide. For all that he knew the place might be teeming with friends of Ling, only waiting for that steady muzzle to waiver before rushing him.

At the best he was confident that five out of every six of those present were crooks and blackguards, who would stick at little if it came to the point. Ling crystallized his dilemma with a sneer. "Say, bo, you've got hold of a tiger's tail, haven't you? Don't know whether to keep hold or let go. You take my advice and run home to your mummy." Jimmie never answered. His lips were firm pressed and his dogged chin resolute. Even if he had been able to rush Ling out at the point of the revolver until he found a police officer, he could not leave Menzies. Moreover, he had an idea that in any case Ling would not calmly submit to such a program. He lowered the

NEGROES READY TO AID IN WAR

Colored Citizens of U.S. Are Willing and Eager To Fight

The Negro's status in all the wars in which the United States has been engaged has been that of loyalty to the cause, and in the present war it will be the same, according to Capt. Hamilton Merriam Blunt, late of the Ninth Infantry, U. S. and the Forty-ninth United States Infantry. Capt. Blunt was one of the factors in the organization of the original New York colored regiment, now the Fifteenth National Guard Regiment, and in the Spanish-American war he was the first colored officer to command a military post in Cuba, says the New York World.

"Beginning with the American revolution," said Capt. Blunt, "the first blood shed was that of a Negro seaman, Crispus Attucks, on Boston Common. He led the charge against the British which awakened the slumbering fires of patriotism in the colonies, and this notwithstanding that quasi-slavery existed.

"In the revolutionary army were 15,000 Negro troops. Though half slaves, they fought for the independence of the colonies. Their action in battle in the Little Bocky Regiment, in 1798, though only half trained, was wonderful, and they also gave good account of themselves with Commodore Lawrence and with DeCATUR in the war with Tripoli.

"In the war of 1812, Commodore Lawrence was commanding the American warship Chesapeake. He sailed out of Boston harbor with half his crew composed of Negro sailors and attacked the British frigate Shannon off Massachusetts Bay. A Negro bugler, the orderly of Commodore Lawrence, sounded the attack, which was against tremendous odds, and he himself was killed in the struggle, though fatally wounded, to his Negro orderly that he might transmit it to the crew: 'Don't give up the ship!'

The bodies of the commodore and his Negro bugler were not sent ashore until they had been placed side by side at Halifax with military honors.

"The Native Louisiana Zouaves led the charge against the ramparts of Chalmette under Gen. Jackson at New Orleans in 1812, defeated Lord Pakenham, commander of the British forces. The victory ended the war and destroyed the last British contention of right to search and seize American merchantmen on the high seas. In the war with Mexico in 1846 six Negro soldiers were in the Alamo fort, scene of the famous massacre.

"In the civil war the Negro soldier was a factor in achieving Union victory, despite the decision of Supreme Court Chief Justice Taney in the Dred Scott case. In the wake of this decision, Lincoln issued his call for volunteers for the Union and was answered by 200,000 brave men and patriots, who gave a good account of themselves at Fort Pillow under Col. Shaw, of the Thirty-fourth Massachusetts regiment. Col. Shaw fell, and he and many of his soldiers were buried in the trenches around the fort.

A request was made that the body of Shaw be given up to the Union forces for burial. The answer was 'We have buried him with his Negroes who led the charge.' At Port Hudson, La.; at Vicksburg with Sherman in his march through Georgia; with Sheridan through the Shenandoah valley, and under Gen. Grant Richmond; the same stories were told of the Negro's valor and loyalty.

"In Spanish-American War. At the outbreak of the Spanish-American war President McKinley called for volunteers, and in answer 60,000 Negroes marched side by side with 100,000 white comrades. Two hundred and forty Negro officers were accepted and commissioned and mustered into the service to serve the United States in two hemispheres. The Ninth and Tenth cavalry regiments, the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth infantry regiments, and the Thirtieth and Thirty-first infantry regiments were formed in the United States and were sent to Cuba to fight with Gen. Sherman.

He defied the Government to muzzle him, and pledged his word to hold a meeting at Jacques Cartier square as soon as conscription was passed.

A few drops of a drug called freeze-one applied directly upon a sore corn gives quick relief and soon the entire corn root and all, lifts out without pain. Ask the drug store man for a quarter of an ounce of freeze-one, which costs very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This drug is an ether compound and dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Clip this out and pin on your wife's dresser.

ANGER PERIOD OF WOMAN'S LIFE

FROM 45 to 50

Interesting Experience of Two Women—Their Statements Worth Reading.

White Oak, Ont.—"At Change of Life when doctors could do no more and I was given up by my friends, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to the front and did wonders for me. I had been having female troubles for years, my head troubled me severely at times, I had bearing down pains and back-ache and I was very anaemic from excessive flow. I recommend your Compound highly and do all I can to advertise it as a genuine woman's medicine."—Mrs. SYLVESTER MANNING, White Oak, Ontario.

The Case of Mrs. Kirlin. Circleville, Ohio.—"I can truthfully say that I never had anything do me so much good during Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. "Before I had taken one half a bottle of it I began to feel better, and I have continued taking it. My health is better than it has been for several years. If all women would take it they would escape untold pain and misery at this time of life."—Mrs. ALICE KIRLIN, 558 W. Mill St., Circleville, Ohio.

The Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. At such times women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

LAVERGNE DEFIES THE GOVERNMENT

Suggests Means To Prevent The Enforcement of Conscription

Quebec, July 16.—Fifteen thousand people assembled at the Jacques Cartier Market Square last night to take part in an anti-conscription meeting, which was addressed by Senator Landry, Armand Lavergne, Laetare Roy, Louis Letourneau, M. P. P., and others, after which the large crowd marched through the streets with placards bearing the inscriptions: "Down with Kaiser Borden," "Long live the jail," "We want elections," and "Seize the law have you done for your brethren?"

At the foot of the Champlain monument at DuRoiin terrace they passed a resolution opposing conscription. After the demonstration the crowd on their way home smashed the windows of the Quebec Chronicle and L'Evenement, pasted printed inscriptions on the bulletin boards, "Down with conscription."

Armand Lavergne was the most violent of the speakers, and told the crowd that if the conscription law was enforced Canadians had only one choice—to die in Europe or die in Canada. So far as he was concerned, if his body was to fall in any land he wanted it to be on Canadian soil.

Among the means which he suggested to prevent the application of the law were for the labor men to proclaim strikes, for the people to withdraw their money from the banks, and encourage the newspapers which were not bought over by parties, and for city people to go out on the farms.

He defied the Government to muzzle him, and pledged his word to hold a meeting at Jacques Cartier square as soon as conscription was passed.

SURE! High Heels Cause Corns But Who Cares Now

Because style deceives that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corn grow harder. This suicidal habit may cause lock-jaw and women are warned to stop it.
