PETROGRAD CITY OF TERROR; FAMINE AND DESOLATION RULE

Population of City Only a Quarter of Normal CITY DESERTED Homes of Middle Class Are Being Destroyed

By Courier Leased Wire Stockholm, Dec. 5.—Fugitives from Russia, who have reached here, say that life in Petrograd is terrible. The famine there, they say, defied the imagination. Flour is selling for fifty rubles and butter and sugar for 150 rubles per kilogram (2.2 lbs.). Herring are the only food obtainable and sell for five rubles each. All middle class elements are excluded from public eating houses and are dying of starvation by thousands. Hundreds are buried each day between six and nine o'clock in the morning, no funerals being permitted later during the day. Of a normal population of 2,000,000 only 500,000 is left in Petrograd. The city looks deserted. Half of all the flats are occupied by red guards and their families. Hotels, restaurants, cafes and offices are closed. The houses of the middle class are deserted, their furniture stolen and windows smashed. Many widely known persons have been shot or have starved to death recently. Rumors of approaching Entente intervention have increased Bolshevik hatred and resulted in frenzied persecuting of the middle class elements. There is great nervousness in the neutral legations. The Polish legation has been looted, while the Swiss legation has been entered forcibly. The personnel of this legation has left Petrograd.

SLAVS ASK FOR UNION WITH SERBS

By Courier Leased Wire Paris, Thursday, Dec. 5.—(Havas Agency)—Prince Regent Alexander of Serbia has received a delegation from the southern council of the Jugo-Slav people, which presented an address demanding the union with Serbia of all Serbs, Croats and Slovans formerly under the domination of Serbia. Prince Alexander assented to the proposal, according to Belgrade advices.

CITY HAS OVERDRAFT OF NEARLY FIFTY THOUSAND

Treasurer Submitted Figures to Round Table Conference of City Council Yesterday. Afternoon; Water-works Question Broached

That the city of Brantford is facing the unpleasant prospect of an overdraft of between forty and fifty thousand dollars at the end of the present year, was the unwelcome but unavoidable information supplied at a round table conference of city council yesterday afternoon, by City treasurer A. K. Bunnell. Whether this burden should be handed over to the incoming council of 1919 was one of the chief points under discussion. Mayor MacBride expressed a wish that the public should understand clearly the financial situation before voting upon the numerous moneyed-by-laws which will be submitted at the January election and to this end at the close of the conference, requested the finance committee to prepare a concise statement for submission to the public.

TORONTO POLICE WILL NOT STRIKE

Amiable Settlement With Police Commissioners Likely to be Reached—Men Want an Investigation Into Chief's Way of Doing Business

TORONTO, Dec. 6.—Toronto will not be faced with a police strike. This was the decision arrived at by the members of the Union early this morning. According to President Charles Prescott, after hearing addresses by Mayor Church and others who advised consideration of their demands at large, it was decided to effect some amiable means of settlement between the men and board of police commissioners. No mention was made of rescinding charter from the Trades and Labor Congress, nor was it stated that the men would form an international organization. In view of the statement issued by the union this morning, it would seem as though further action in the matter of a strike had been definitely set aside for a while at least.

Most of the men seem to think that in the light of recent events in the police department, an investigation into the affairs of the department should be ordered. The men throw most of the blame on the chief, and his ways of doing business.

FORBID MORTGAGES ON GERMAN OWNED RAILWAY

Mixed Conference in Session at Spa Rules Against Alienation of Any Financial Undertakings in Which Huns are Concerned

By Courier Leased Wire. PARIS, Dec. 6.—Havas.—Alienation or mortgage of railways, mines or other undertakings in which the German nation is interested is forbidden by a decision announced by the mixed conference being held at Spa. Foreign stocks belonging to Germany, as well as the gold in the Reichs bank come under the provisions of the decision. It is announced that negotiable instruments, documents, public records, articles of art and bills of banks of France and Belgium taken by the Germans during the war will be returned. Restoration of cash and bank notes will be made to Belgium during the present month. It is also agreed that Germany will remit to the allies the gold taken out of Russia, especially 73,000,000 francs received from the Soviet government.

St. Thomas Will Boycott London

At a monster meeting of the St. Thomas Board of Trade on Wednesday night, the following resolution was passed:

"That whereas the Chamber of Commerce of London, representatives of the business interests of that city, have organized and are carrying on a determined campaign from Hamilton to Windsor in a selfish attempt to prevent St. Thomas and the towns of Elgin county to the west of the city enjoying the benefits of the new provincial highway, and whereas the business men of this city have, in a large measure, been making their purchases from the manufacturers and wholesale houses in London, be it resolved, as a protest against the selfish, unneighborly attitude of the business interests of London, we the merchants of the city of St. Thomas, pledge ourselves, so far as it lies within our power, to seek new sources of supply and to discontinue trading with business firms of a city that has shown such unrelenting antagonism towards a near neighbor, believing that the failure of the London business men to protest vigorously against St. Thomas being kept off the provincial highway shows an utter lack of appreciation of the business we are giving them.

"And be it further resolved that we will do all in our power to encourage in this city and district, the circulation of newspapers that we can count upon giving us a square deal in matters pertaining to our loyal interests."

BELGIAN ROYALTY IN PARIS

King, Queen and Prince Leopold Entertained at Banquet

PLEDGE CORDIALITY

By Courier Leased Wire Paris, Dec. 5.—(Havas Agency)—King Albert, Queen Elizabeth and Prince Leopold of Belgium were guests of honor at a banquet given by President Poincaré at Elysee Palace to-night. There were 200 guests present, including members of the French cabinet. Allied diplomats and prominent officials. During the dinner, the Republican Guard Band played. At the close the Belgian sovereigns received the guests of the evening. Poincaré, of the utmost cordiality were each greeted by President Poincaré and King Albert, the bonds of friendship forged during the four years of war by the two nations being referred to in most eloquent terms by each of the speakers.

PUNISH GUILTY IS POLICY OF LLOYD GEORGE

Premier Pledges Influence of Government to See Justice Done

PROSECUTE KAISER

By Courier Leased Wire London, Thursday, Dec. 5.—In the detailed re-statement of his policy, issued by Premier Lloyd George to-day, calling for the trial and punishment of the men responsible for the war, however high their place, he pledged the entire influence of the British Government at the peace conference to see that justice was done. In a declaration for the expulsion and exclusion of all enemy aliens from British soil, the Premier pointed out that a considerable proportion of enemy residents in the United Kingdom during the war had abused British hospitality and thus had forfeited their claims to remain. In his statement, the premier, after paying a warm tribute to the soldiers and sailors of the empire, said: "The Kaiser must be prosecuted. The war was a crime. Who does that? It was a frightful, terrible crime. It was a crime in the way in which it was planned and in the deliberate wantonness with which it was prosecuted. It was also a crime in the invasion of a helpless little state and in the wicked and most brutal treatment of that little state. Remember the treaty of neutrality, the scrap of paper! "Surely the war was a crime. The fact that all these iniquitous things were done in the name of war and under the imperial edict of an autocrat does not change their nature. The war was a hideous, abominable crime, a crime which has sent millions of the best young men of Europe to death and millions and has plunged myriads of homes into desolation. "Is no one responsible? Is no one to be called to account? Is there to be no punishment? Surely that is neither God's justice of man's. The men who are responsible for this outrage on the human race, must not be let off because their heads were crowned when they perpetrated the deed.

CRUELTY IN PRISON CAMPS.

By Courier Leased Wire Paris, Dec. 5.—Instances of serious gravity occurred within the last few days in a prison camp in Saxony, where Allied prisoners are confined. The Echo de Paris declares. The Allied Governments, it adds, are reported to have decided to act determinedly.

After declaring that protests come from all parts of France against the terrible treatment of French and other Allied prisoners by the Germans, the paper says that Marshal Foch and the Allied Governments doubtless will be able to take all necessary measures.

BERLIN AND MANNHEIM BOTH TO BE ENTERED BY ALLIES

GERMAN COLONIES WANT BRITISH RULE

Colonial Secretary Speaks at Westminster—Baden Seeks Incorporation in Switzerland—Prince Adalbert Joins Berlin Government

By Courier Leased Wire. LONDON, Dec. 6.—Natives of Germany's colonies want to come under British rule, said Walter Hume Long, secretary of state for colonies, speaking at Westminster last night. "Our representatives at the peace conference should see that the case for our retention of those colonies is put forward in full strength. It will be a gross injustice to our great dominions to tell them that these colonies, which, in a large measure, they conquered by their blood and valor are to pass under the control of anybody but the empire to which they belong.

BADEN WOULD BE SWISS. LONDON, Dec. 6.—Southern Baden is seeking incorporation in Switzerland, according to Baden newspapers, says a Copenhagen dispatch to The Daily Telegraph.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—Prince Adalbert, third son of the former German emperor, has joined the present government, according to a Berlin dispatch to The Express. He is now at Potsdam, it is said.

AIRPLANE AND ZEPPELIN TO CROSS THE ATLANTIC

Germans Reported to be Constructing Aircraft Which Will Fly Over Ocean—Have Engines of 3000 Horse Power

By Courier Leased Wire. LONDON, Dec. 6.—The Germans are building an airplane with which they intend trying a trip across the Atlantic, and have a Zeppelin under construction with the same idea in view, according to the correspondent at Berlin of The Daily Express. The correspondent says he learned this when being shown over an aircraft factory at Staaken, a suburb of Berlin, by Managing Director Raasch, a former naval officer.

The Staaken works, built during the war, covers hundreds of acres, employs 3,000 workers. The machines employed in the later raids on London and Paris were built there. The machine being constructed there for the trans-Atlantic flight, says the correspondent, has a wing spread of 198 feet, and engines of 3,000 horse power.

PTE. W. J. JONES KILLED SEPT. 30

Letter of Condolence is Received by His Foster-Mother, Mrs. W. H. Lane

The following letter was received by Mrs. W. H. Lane, 175 Drummond street, regarding the death of her foster son, Pte. W. J. Jones, Pte. Jones went overseas with the 25th battalion, but was transferred to the 87th before leaving for France. (France, Nov. 12, 1918. Mrs. W. H. Lane, 175 Drummond St., Brantford, Ont. Dear Mrs. Lane.—You will have been officially notified some time ago of the death of your foster son, Pte. W. J. Jones, No. 270095 of the 87th battalion. I should have written you some time ago, but I have been away for several weeks. Your foster son was killed on September 30th, in the heavy fighting near Cambrai. He was buried in Marchoing Line cemetery, Plot 1, Row C, Grave 3. It will be a source of consolation to you in your sorrow to know that when your foster son made supreme sacrifice he was heroically doing his part in one of the big battles that finally broke the enemy's power and has freed France and Belgium and brought peace to the whole world. Honored indeed is he who has assisted in the great and glorious cause to drive the cruel invaders from these lands they

Brutality in Prison Camp is Reason for Action

THREE MEN SHOT

American Advance Into Germany is Uneventful

PROGRESS MADE

By Courier Leased Wire Copenhagen, Dec. 6.—Allied and American forces will temporarily occupy Berlin as exercising police supervision, according to The Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung of Berlin, which says that an American wireless despatch to this effect has been intercepted by the Germans. The newspaper says that Mannheim will be similarly occupied. The reason for this action on the part of the Allies is a regrettable incident during which a supervisor of a prisoners' camp shot three Frenchmen.

German Indifferent. With the American Army of Occupation, Monday, Dec. 2.—(By the Associated Press)—Studied indifference again characterized the German reception of American troops on their way to the Rhine to-day. General Dickman's army renewed its advance at daylight and by to-night had reached the line approximately 12 miles to the eastward. Scores of additional villages and small towns were brought under the domination of the Allies, but none of them are of great importance.

At American headquarters in Treves, General Brown, as military governor and General Smith, who is in charge of civil affairs, have begun the work of administration. Local authorities in virtually every community have agreed to retain their posts and co-operate in the maintenance of order. General Pershing has issued a proclamation calling on the people to return to their normal pursuits and assuring them that if the conduct of military affairs is not molested and if good order is kept they will not be interfered with. The proclamation gives information of the places the American forces will occupy under the terms of the armistice and explains in detail which towns will be garrisoned and which will be merely included in occupied territory.

This proclamation, posted on walls in different places, has been read carefully by crowds, but there has been no sign of emotion evident. The towns through which the troops passed to-day presented an appearance similar to those entered on Sunday. Blinds were drawn in many places and most of the inhabitants remained indoors rather than countenance the invasion by witnessing it. The children in towns occupied on the first day of the advance and to-day failed to restrain their childish enthusiasm, but the attitude of the adults' population was unaltered. Thirty airplanes were found ready for delivery to the Allies. Reports made to General Smith indicate that while foodstuffs are limited as to variety, there is apparently enough to meet the needs of the people. Prices, however, are very high.

SHIPPING OUTPUT IS IN EXCESS OF LOSSES

In the Last Seven Months More Than 1,000,000 Tons Above Total Losses, Were Constructed

By Courier Leased Wire London, Dec. 6.—British merchant tonnage losses were 9,811,325 gross tons from the beginning of the war to October 31, 1918, according to an official statement issued to-night. New construction in the United Kingdom in the same period was 10,849,527 tons were constructed, and 2,392,675 tons of enemy vessels captured. This makes the net loss of tonnage during the war 1,311,584 tons.

THE WIFE

BY JANE PHELPS, AUTHOR OF "MARGARET GARRETT'S HUSBAND," AND OTHER NOTABLE STORIES.

Ruth finds Brian's message to Molly Chapter XXIII.
Tears filled Ruth's eyes as she threw her arms around her old mammy.
"I was going to surprise him, mammy. I thought he would be so pleased."
"Don't yo go fer to sprise him no time, honey. He ain't comin' home much when yo's away. He sholy ain't."
Ruth wanted to ask mammy about the number of evenings Brian had spent out while she was away, but bit her lip to keep questions back. Not even to old mammy, who had known her and loved her all her life, would she express curiosity about her husband, or seem to pry into his actions.
"Go tak yo things off, honey. I'll git yo some dinner in a jiffy."
Ruth did as Rachel told her. But she could eat very little of the tempting dinner Rachel brought her. She was so disappointed that she could scarcely keep the tears back; yet Brian might come in at any moment and he must not find her crying.
Her dinner finished, she could set herself at nothing, altho she tried to read. But her thoughts were constantly straying, always Brian-ward. "I'll write Aunt Louisa," she said aloud and moved over to her desk. Idly she fingered the blotter, then her attention was arrested by the heavy lines blotted upon it. She smiled as she thought. Brian has been using my desk to write—perhaps he wrote me again last night.
Brian's lavish use of ink had allured her rather amused Ruth. His bold chirography with the heavy shaded lines was unmistakable. Now she looked closely at the blotter. At first she only made out a word here and there—"dear" and "Rachel"

and "trouble."
"He was writing me," Ruth said aloud. "I wish I had telegraphed him. Perhaps he was so lonely he went to the nearest theatre or movie."
Again she bent over the blotter. This time more carefully. Without much trouble, she finally had the entire note Brian had written not underhand, but the "not" was undecipherable. "Who could this note be intended for?" Ruth asked herself, the answer already in her mind; Molly King.
But what was it that Rachel would understand, and make trouble about? And he had called her "dear"—had warned her not to call the house because of this fear that old mammy might understand something he didn't want her—Ruth—to know. Of course she would be apt to repeat to Ruth anything her young mistress should know, of what went on while she was away.
"What can I do?" Ruth moaned, resting her head on her hand while slow tears dropped upon the blotter which had told her so much. "What shall I do? Oh, Brian, I love you, so, and you care—for her."
Ruth really considered what she had read, proof that Brian was doing something of which she would disapprove—that would make trouble between them if she knew. What could it be save that he was fond of someone else—Molly probably. Ruth never had objected to anything else he did; never once found fault with him. And only once had she spoken of his intimacy with Molly.

"Oh, Brian," laying her head down on her folded arms, she sobbed until Rachel, hearing, came in to comfort her.
"Don't cry, honey, he'll be home soon, he sholy will."
"I can't help it, Rachel, I am so disappointed. I wanted to surprise and please him. And"—she broke out afresh.
"Thar honey, yo member what ole Rachel tells yo 'Don' sprise folkses. Taint de ting to do, honey." "I never shall again," Ruth returned. "I am going to take a bath and go to bed. You go to bed, Rachel. I won't cry any more."
Rachel drew the bath for Ruth made her bed ready, then went to her own room muttering things, which could Brian have heard, he would have found anything but complimentary. In fact she called down all sorts of punishments on his head for making "misery Ruth" cry.
Ruth was tired with her journey and the excitement caused by giving way to her emotion. She dropped off to sleep about midnight. But when the clock struck four it wakened her. She lighted the light to be sure she had heard aright. Yes, it was four o'clock, and Brian had not yet come in.
In agony, she said the sentence she had found on the blotter, over and over. Then again weeping bitterly, she arose and sat in a chair by the window to watch for his coming.
To-morrow—Brian Remains Out all Night—Ruth is Anxious.

WELLINGTON ST. CHURCH BAZAAR

Ladies' Annual Sale of Work Was Well Patronized Yesterday

Despite the inclement weather of yesterday, there was a large attendance at the Wellington Street Methodist Church bazaar. Mrs. Detwiler with Miss Hilda Hurley and Miss Helen Cunningham received numerous callers in the Japanese tea room, which was illuminated by many pretty shaded lights. Misses Hurley and Cunningham wore handsome Oriental costumes, and the splendid program given by these young ladies was a delightful treat for all who were musically inclined. Tickets for the six o'clock dinner were sold by a was one of the principal preparations of the bazaar, which came in group of the younger girls. This for a large share of patronage. There was the usual display of all kinds of fancy work on sale, suggesting a great choice of Christmas gifts. In the evening a program was given by Mr. Tom Darwin, Misses Cunningham and Hurley.

oppose the increase, and also to ask the city council to take action. The second resolution reads as follows, and defines the attitude of the committee:

"That the transportation committee of the Board of Trade, having considered the application of the Express Traffic Association of Canada to the Board of Railway Commissioners for increased express rates, and having requested Mr. John F. Ellis, a member of this committee to appear before the Board of Railway Commissioners to oppose such increase in express rates, and with this end in view, to act in co-operation with the Toronto Board of Trade.

As such increase in express rates affects the interests of the city at large, the question be submitted to the attention of the Brantford City Council, with the request that the council take no table action."

THE BABY ACT.
 The members of the St. Thomas Board of Trade did themselves little credit when in mass meeting they decided to boycott London in a business way because that city favored the central route for the provincial highway, and did not back up the saints in their effort to secure the southern location.

The Forest City did not possess the deciding voice in the matter which was settled on the lines of the greatest good for the greatest number, together with the best physical aspect, and the proposal to make London a scapegoat is as childish as it is unworthy.

TORONTO AND THE THREATENED POLICE STRIKE.

The members of the Toronto Police force recently formed a union. No one in any line of work thus combining together on behalf of their mutual interests, and it does not appear that the members of the police commission of the Queen City had any fault to find in connection with the action named. They did object, however, to the proposed affiliation of said union with the Trades and Labor Council, and thus becoming part and parcel of the general labor movement throughout Canada.

Chief Grasset, when asked the reason for the attitude of the commissioners in thus opposing the affiliation of the police organizations with outside Labor Unions, replied:

"It is so perfectly obvious that I had hardly expected to be called upon by anyone to explain it. The men came to the commissioners and produced a charter from the Federated Trade and Labor Congress, showing they had been organized under their regulations, and were affiliated with them. In other words, they were part of the Labor organization. The police, in order to be independent, and in a position to do their duty under all circumstances, must not be affiliated with any outside body. Suppose there were to be a strike by some branch of the labor organization, and the police were called upon by the commissioners to act in connection with maintaining order in respect to the strike. It is conceivable that they might receive orders to the opposite effect from the Federated Council. Which would they obey? They would be serving under two masters."

However, word from Toronto today is that the threatened strike has been averted, on what basis has not yet been announced.

THE BRITISH ELECTIONS.

Speaking at Dundee, Winston Churchill made three important announcements on behalf of the government. One was to the effect that the British representatives at the Peace conference will demand the general and absolute abolition of conscription throughout Europe. This proposal will be generally endorsed. The enforced military training of every male undoubtedly tends to foster the belligerent spirit, a fact abundantly illustrated by the manner in which the Germans for many long years used to drink to "The Day." Said day proved good night to them and their aspirations, but without citizen training there would never have been any such toast, or aspiration.

The second announcement that the Teutons are to be allowed to retain Heligoland will most decidedly not be received with equal favor. The island, which was taken by the English from the Danes in 1807, was relinquished by Great Britain to Germany, in 1890, and most people regard the incident as the one big blot upon Lord Salisbury's record as foreign minister. Its acquisition enabled the Huns to construct the Kiel canal in which their navy skulked in order to avoid annihilation, and by the expenditure of many millions they transformed it into a strong naval base. To allow them to maintain retention will not be a popular move.

In the third place, Mr. Churchill made the statement that the nationalization of all British railways is now the government policy. In this regard he asserted that the experience of war time operation had proved the expediency of the step which he stated was in the public interest. Thus another most important move is pressed in behalf of the state ownership movement.

Last night Hon. Mr. Long, secretary of state for the colonies, also mentioned a trenchant truth when he said that John Bull should retain Germany's colonies whose inhabitants want to come under British rule. The public will certainly expect this, and it is only right and just that such should be the case.

A. J. Balfour, Austen Chamberlain, R. I. Clynes (Labor), T. P. O'Connor and other less notable men have been elected without opposition. One of the remarkable features of the conflict is that at the request of Lloyd George Major Thompson, coalition unionist candidate in the Smethwick division of Birmingham, has retired in favor of Miss Christobel Pankhurst, the militant Suffragette. Miss Pankhurst is a most effective public speaker, and possesses many of the clever attributes of her mother.

CITY HAS OVERDRAFT

tion Army, $250; Women's Patriotic League, $500; Emergency Hospital, $17,500; Flood damage, $417; Foulds property purchased, $1700; Gilkison property purchased, $1,977; Motor Trucks for Board of Works, $1,560; Purchase of Paris toll road, $1,000; Estimated loss of wood, $18.

The city's total appropriation for the year was $752,258, and total expenditures, estimated to the end of December $802,582.

Mayor MacBride asked why the waterworks had not paid over the sum of $1,053, which it owed the city for the sinking fund. He expressed the opinion that the city should subdivide and sell the waterworks property in the Holmedales, some 100 acres in all, as a means of deriving revenue to wipe out the indebtedness of the waterworks system and to provide a fund with which to go ahead and provide a proper supply of pure water. His Worship suggested that the finance committee hold a conference with the waterworks commission on the subject.

Ald. Chacecraft, asked whether the city had no recourse to obtain better garbage collection. The Mayor replied that it had not in the past, because of the shortage of labor.

"There are some people who did not have their garbage collected for five weeks," declared Ald. Harp.

The Mayor was confident that conditions would be improved in the near future. Mr. Tutt, the contractor had gone to considerable expense to change his collection systems.

Those present were the Mayor, Ald. Harp, English, Kelly, Mellin, Chacecraft, H. P. Leonard, city clerk, A. K. Bunnell, treasurer, and A. G. Ludlow, assessor.

Mayor MacBride addressed the meeting at its opening, as follows:

In view of certain misleading reports as to Brantford's financial position, it has been deemed advisable to call this conference of the Finance Committee and the chairman of the several standing committees. It is a duty we owe to the public and to the fair name of our city that the true position of our affairs both financial and otherwise should be given the widest publicity.

I am sure we all are most deeply interested in everything pertaining to the welfare of our citizens and the progress of our city as an industrial centre.

To permit a false impression of our financial standing to go abroad would be a serious neglect of our duty to the electors, and might result in retarding our progress and prosperity.

Brantford, in common with other industrial centres, is now looking forward to the period of reconstruction and it behooves us to be optimistic as to our future. From statements which will be shown you, I am quite sure we have every reason to look to the future with every confidence.

I wish to be most emphatic on one point, and that is with regard to our tax rate for next year. In this connection our Finance Committee is deserving of congratulation in that, throughout the war period they have pursued a policy of "pay as you go," and this policy in a great measure is responsible for the very favorable position in which we find ourselves to-day. With reasonable care on the part of the incoming Council there is every prospect that our tax rate will be lower next year than it has been in the year now drawing to a close.

Throughout the years of the war you have been called upon to make many grants and contributions of a patriotic nature. I am particularly glad to state that you have at all times responded whole-heartedly to all such appeals. Surely now that the war is over and our brave men are about to return to us from the battlefields of freedom we should be glad to say we have never failed them.

I, for one, would not care to be asked to meet them on behalf of this city if it could be shown that we had permitted a matter of a few paltry dollars to stand between them and any comfort we might have extended.

The city had also suffered from the recent influenza epidemic, and the city has in consequence been put to considerable expense. It was a service on behalf of humanity and criticism levelled at this expenditure is nothing short of sacrilege when it is considered that several of the nurses gave something of priceless value—yes, their very lives. The helpers and volunteers also are deserving of our highest commendation.

Surely there are very few citizens who would stoop to criticize our acts in this regard. It cannot be possible that the great principles involved in the war have so soon been forgotten.

TERRORISM IN BERLIN?

Paris, Dec. 5.—(Havas Agency.)—A terrorist revolution under the leadership of Dr. Liebknecht, the Radical Socialist, will break out in Berlin Friday evening, according to advice received by the Zurich correspondent of The Journal. Liebknecht, the report says, has 15,000 men well armed.

The population of Berlin, according to reports, is at the mercy of gangs of marauders and there appears to be no authority there.

PREMIER READY TO QUIT.

By Courier Leased Wire. Amsterdam, Wednesday, Dec. 4.—Kurt Eisner, the Bavarian premier, is reported to have privately declared himself ready to resign when the National assembly had regulated the country's affairs, according to a Munich dispatch. Addressing the Soldiers' and Workmen's council, Premier Eisner declared the Bavarian government was opposed to any idea of a separation from Germany as a whole, the security of which he regarded as obtainable only by the creation of a federal state.

HOW FOOLSCAP GOT ITS NAME.

There may be some who use it and do not know how foolscap, as applied to a certain class of paper, derived its name. Charles I, to augment his diminishing revenues granted certain monopolistic privileges to paper-makers, who by command water-marked their product with the royal arms. Cromwell's parliament made jest of this requirement and ordered that the watermarking of the paper be with a fool's cap and bells.

JUST AS GOOD.

The man who has helped to win the war by eating at restaurants lifts up his voice and rejoices. "At last, at long last," he says, "I can butter a slice of bread with a calm confidence that its bruttish complexion is caused not by patriotic substitutes but by being rolled in the good clean dust on the restaurant floor."

BURNED IN EXPLOSION.

Mrs. A. Brandon, of 17 Dufferin avenue, was severely burned yesterday at the noon hour, from an explosion which was due to the mis-understanding of the workings of a draft in a recently purchased combination gas, wood and coal stove. The oven filled with gas fumes and caused the explosion to take place, upon the opening of the stove door, with the result that Mrs. Brandon received painful burns about the face.

BOUNDARY EXTENSION.

The original Board of Trade committee which met last night on the Boundary extension question made arrangements for the city and Board of Trade and Board of Education, to meet in the Board of Trade rooms, next Wednesday night for the purpose of deciding the Boundary extension. ## OBITUARY

H. JOHNSON.
One of the city's best known residents died in Hamilton at noon today, in the person of Mr. Herbert Johnson, the Queen street tobacconist. The late Mr. Johnson was born in England, but came to Canada in his youth, and kept a small store on Queen street for years. Last year he was struck by an automobile, and never fully recovered from the accident. He was taken ill with influenza while the epidemic was on here, and was removed to a Hamilton hospital a short time ago. Many friends will regret to learn of his demise. The late Mr. Johnson was a member of the Sons of England. He leaves a wife and one daughter.

LAI D AT REST

H. McCOUN.
The funeral took place yesterday morning of the late Henry McCoun from the residence of the deceased, 16 Hart street, to St. Basil's Church thence to St. Joseph's Cemetery. The services at the grave were conducted by the Rev. Dean Brady and those at the church by Rev. Father Catania. The following were the pall bearers: J. J. Kelly, J. C. Waller, Joseph Maxwell, J. McGraw, J. Cook and J. Fitzgerald.

BRITISH COLUMBIA FEELS EARTHQUAKE

Shock Recorded Shortly After Midnight on the Pacific Coast

ANOTHER IN SOUTH

By Courier Lensed Wire
Vancouver, Dec. 6.—The city was shaken violently by an earth tremor at 12.45 this morning. The tremors, which appeared to be from north to south, were felt for two minutes. A distinct rumbling was noticeable. Occupants of tall buildings were especially affected by the disturbance, many being seized with nausea. The shock was felt in all parts of the city, many persons being awakened by the shaking of furniture and rattling of dishes.

In Victoria Also.
Victoria, Dec. 6.—A pronounced earthquake of several seconds duration was felt here at 12.45 o'clock this morning. Houses shook and windows rattled all over the city. Island points in the immediate vicinity also reported noticing the disturbance.

Another Quake Southward.
Washington, Dec. 6.—An earthquake of great intensity, approximately 2,500 miles south of Washington, was recorded early to-day on the seismograph at the Georgetown University Observatory. The shocks, beginning at 3.48 o'clock and continuing one hour, were so severe that at one minute after four o'clock the needles were dislodged from the machine.

There was another sharp shock at 7.22 o'clock. It was thought at the observatory that the disturbance was in South America.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Seas Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah, how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, sniffling, blowing; no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.

HEAVY SENTENCES FOR TWO DESERTERS

London Conscripts are Given Fifteen and Ten Years by Court Martial

By Courier Lensed Wire
London, Ont., Dec. 5.—Two soldiers of the First Depot Battalion, W.O.R., found guilty of desertion, received to-day the severest sentences imposed in the military district since the outbreak of the war.

Private Aulden Charles McLean, of 12 Market Square, Windsor, found guilty of deserting his unit after being warned for draft about to proceed overseas, was sentenced by a court-martial to 15 years penal servitude, which was commuted by the authorities at Ottawa to ten years imprisonment. McLean was warned for draft which proceeded overseas on September 25 of this year. He left for his home almost immediately after being warned and did not return until apprehended by military police in Windsor.

Private Clement Brohman, of R. R. No. 2, Preston, Ontario, was also found guilty of desertion. He was at his home on harvest leave, when he received both telegraphic and postal orders to report back to his battalion to proceed overseas on draft. This he failed to do and his servitude, which should be found to ten years penal servitude.

Private Delmar Pearson, Corinth, Ontario, was also charged with desertion, but the court-martial decided that owing to extenuating circumstances he should be found guilty of the lesser crime of being absent without leave and he was sentenced to six months imprisonment.

Private Herbert Platten, Dash-wood, Ontario, was another man charged with desertion, who was found guilty of the lesser crime of being absent without leave. He was sentenced to three months imprisonment.

NO FORMAL SURRENDER.

London, Wednesday, Dec. 4.—There will be no formal surrender of German airplanes, as was at one time expected, because it has been found impracticable to assemble 2,000 airplanes at one place and it is doubtful whether Germany has a sufficient number of reliable pilots for that purpose. Hence, the first surrender in history of an air fleet is being effected by piecemeal. The Germans are shedding their wings in the course of retreat and the advancing Allies are picking them up. Don't think because you have taken many remedies in vain that your case is incurable. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured many seemingly hopeless cases of scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism, kidney complaint, dyspepsia and general debility. Take Hood's

ALL MUNITIONS WORK TO CEASE

On United States Contracts Tomorrow, on British Next Saturday

Ottawa, Dec. 6.—Saturday night all manufacturing operations for the Imperial Munitions board on United States contracts will stop. On the following Saturday night work will stop as well on British contracts, and as far as Canadians are concerned, practically all returns from war industries will then cease.

Various companies belonging to the Imperial Munitions board will be liquidated at once. The capital cost of these properties and all liabilities have been wiped off by the profits of operations, and the board is also seeking to sell the properties to be used for industrial purposes in peacetime. Some difficulty is being met with in this respect, although some tentative offers have been made. The properties owned by the Imperial Munitions board consist of the British Chemical company, Trenton; another at Nobel, near Parry Sound; a fuse company at Verdun, and two at Toronto, consisting of the British Forgings and Canadian Aeroplanes, Ltd. These are all subsidiary companies of the board, although incorporated separately as companies.

It is calculated here that this order to stop works will cut off about one hundred million dollars of work actually given out, and about two hundred millions which had been in contemplation before the armistice was signed.

BAZAAR HELD BY ST. JUDES' LADIES

Successful Sale of Women's Work in Alexandra School Room

The members of the Ladies' Guild of St. Jude's Church held a very successful bazaar in Alexandra Church schoolroom yesterday afternoon and evening. There were a busy number of workers stationed in the various circles, having Yuletide decorations. Many remained to enjoy the cafeteria supper, which proved novel and a convenience for those who came late, intending to remain for the evening's entertainment. Mrs. Bragg had charge of the cafeteria, with the following ladies assisting: Mesdames Bell, Steels, Cuff, Kilmer, Simpson and the Misses Williams, Loney, Cornelia and Lander. A circle with dolls and handkerchiefs was in charge of Mrs. Broadbent. A fine display of fancy work, which had been the summer's work of the ladies of the 4th Circle, brought forth many words of praise. Comprising this group were Mesdames Moore, Short, Abbey, Ellis, Lindsey, Ketter, Lane, Morrison, Preston, Bernard, Lee, Ward, Wisson and Holmwood. Mrs. Butterworth, convener of a booth with children's fancy dresses, aprons, etc., was assisted by Mesdames Cooper, Buller, Story, Tipper and Fair. The members of the Girls' Friendly Society, had charge of "The Wonder Well," and home-made candy. Miss Dorothy Broadbent played instrumental music during the time tea was served.

What Saved the Baby. The family were entertaining callers one afternoon, and while the grown-ups were talking, the baby crept on the floor. Suddenly there was a loud bump and wild wail. It came from the direction of the piano.

Lieut. Col. McCrae Left Few Poems to Posterity

Author of "Flanders Fields" Wrote Less Than Twenty in All, But Every One Admirable in Sentiment and in Literary Workmanship

BY C. H. GIBBONS Discriminating readers will welcome the announcement that the few maverick poems of the late Lieut. Col. John McCrae, C. A. M. C., have recently been brought together and lovingly arranged by his proud if deeply bereaved mother and are long will be issued in book form—a little volume but every page illuminated by the clear fire of true genius and exalted patriotism. It is indeed, it contained but the one outstanding contribution to the poetic literature of the new century by which the dead soldier, scholar and sterling gentleman will be known to generations as yet unborn, it would be well worth the while.

written in a scant part of a single evening, the pencilled original containing but three inconsequential alterations in the revised pen copy, the most conspicuous of these being the substitution of "blow" for "grow" in the introductory line. It was as though the clear-souled man of knights chivalry had been chosen as a worthy medium for the transmission of a divine message to the world, in terms of universal comprehension, compelling dignity and grandeur: "In Flanders' Fields the poppies blow Between the crosses row on row, That mark our place; and in the sky The larks, still bravely singing, fly. Scarce heard amidst the guns below.

"Col. McCrae had about him few, if any of the earmarks of the poet. He was essentially a man of action—a big, handsome jovial fellow and a fighter from his youth. He was neither reclusive nor pedant. He was expected to be a conversationalist and as an essayist and in his chosen profession he quickly won very special recognition for thoroughness and skill. He was, like all big-out-lookers, a tireless horseman and, invariably attended by one or more of his faithful dogs.

delightful was his last chance, and even it fell upon the character of the McCraes. Lieut. Col. John McCrae was on his way home from Europe when the war cloud broke. He telegraphed from Halifax to his father that he felt he must be in the thick of things at once—to send his uniform on to the Nova Scotia port. And he recrossed to England almost immediately. He was with his brigade all through that critical day in April, 1915, when along the Ypres Canal to the north of Ypres the scant line of the Canadian guns woefully ill-led with ammunition alone stayed the German flood from reaching the Channel ports.

"He felt the war intensely," later wrote Lieut. Col. Adams in the British Medical Journal of McGill, "and it had changed him greatly." His memory extraordinary, Loyal and straightforward ever he was no longer the cheery, light-hearted companion, full of merry quips. In the old time he had been as apt with a good story as Abraham Lincoln. His memory was extraordinary. There was a notable journey which the late Earl Grey, when Governor-General took with a chosen few, in canoes manned by Indians from Lake Winnipeg down the Nelson River to York Factory and thence by the Government steam yacht across Hudson Bay and around Labrador to Prince Edward Island and the St. Lawrence. McCrae was of the elect. Lord Grey was wont later to recount that during the expedition he estimated that each working day Dr. McCrae poured out anecdotes and bon mots at the average rate of eight an hour, or, in all, over eight thousand; and neverless he never once heard the Doctor repeat himself.

The hand we gave the weary and the weak. The coming dawn that streaks the sky afar, Then let your mighty chorus witness To them, and Caesar, that we still make war.

"We are the dead! Short days ago We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, Loved and were loved—and now we lie In Flanders' Fields!"

Interpretor of Great War. It has often been said that Col. McCrae to date has produced the one truly epic poem of the greatest of all world wars. More fittingly might it be said that the Greatest War produced McCrae as the interpreter of its lesson and established place in the Divine scheme. For the McCrae who spoke for the hero dead, marshalled as mute crusaders beneath the crosses of Flanders, no longer the jovial, merry-hearted gentleman, jolly companion and good sportsman, the prince of story-tellers, the zealous and conscientious physician, and the loyal friend who had so entrenched himself in the affections of all who had known him as schoolboy,Varsity student and practitioner, in the care-free, irresponsible days before the war.

While in France his letters to his mother in Guelph—between whom and her soldier-son the closest bond of deep love had ever existed—were said to have been of the most charming, weaving in minor incidents of the life of everyday life at the front such as only a man of keen insight, large sympathies and deep love of humanity could see and feel. His finer poetic talents from his mother, he also inherited verily and strength of purpose from his father, Lieut. Col. David McCrae, who in his seventy-fourth year raised a battery of artillery for overseas service, took it to England himself and would unquestionably have passed on to France had not the War Office intervened to prevent an officer of his years going further in proof of his pure patriotism. The veterans' plea that he might at least be permitted to proceed to France and help in the care of the horses (his hobby and

Some clustered graves, where half our memories lie And one grim shadow creeping ever nigh, And this was Life.

Wherein we did another's burden seek, The tired feet we helped along the road.

"Till, at the upland, as we turned to go, Amid fair meadows, dusky in the night, The mists fell back upon the road below, Broke on our tired eyes the western light, The very graves were for a moment bright, And this was Death!" Authenticity is Questioned. There is another short poem that has been attributed to Col. McCrae by various literary publications, but to find conclusive evidence of either his individual style or processes of thought. Let those who have read "In Flanders' Fields," "The Poppies" and "The Anxious Dead," judge for themselves if it be no (although not lacking distinctive merit of its own), too common.

Song of the Guns.
"This is the song that our guns keep singing,
Here where the dark steel shines;
This is the song with their big shells winging
Over the German lines.

"We are taking you home by the shortest way,
We are taking you out of this blood and slime
To the land you left in an ancient day,
Where lost lanes wander at twilight time;

We are bringing you peace
In the swift release
From the grind where the gas drifts blur;
On a steel-shod track
We are taking you back,
We are taking you back to her!

"This is the song that our guns keep roaring
Out through the night and rain;
This is the song with their big shells roaring
Over the battered plain:

"We are taking you home by the only way,
By the only road that will get you back
To the dreams you left where the dusk was gray
And the night wind sang of a long-long track;
We are bringing the rest,
From the bitter test,
From the pits where the great shells whir,
From the bloody loam
We are taking you home to her!"

BABY'S BATTLES FOR HEALTH
Mothers you can win the battle for the health of your little ones if you will fight it with Baby's Own Tablets—the ideal childhood medicine. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which never fail to banish constipation, indigestion, worms, colds or simple fevers or any other of the minor ills of little ones. Concerning them Mrs. J. P. Hyppell, Causapval, Que., writes: "Baby's own Tablets are a great medicine for children. They quickly cured my baby of constipation and I can highly recommend them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"I'll Praise it the Longest Day I Live"

Mrs. Robbins Restored by Tanlac After Suffering Thirty Years.

"Talking about things that help people," said Mrs. P. H. Robbins, of 1449 South 14th street, Omaha, Neb., in an interview recently, "Tanlac is doing more good than any medicine I have ever known in my time, and I'm now past sixty years of age.

"In 1889, nearly thirty years ago now," she continued, "when the grippe first came along and so many people were having it, I had an attack of it myself and have had it in some form or other from once or twice a year ever since. The first spell left me in a badly weakened condition and I would no sooner recover from one attack than I would be pulled down again. The doctors at that time called it 'rheumatic grippe' and I had aches and pains all through my body, in all my limbs and muscles. Three years ago I had one of these spells, which was so severe that they took me to the hospital, and I nearly died. I had the worst headaches it seems anyone could have and I was 'bally rundered' and frightfully weak. I couldn't sleep well for all those thirty years. My appetite was poor, I lost twenty pounds in weight and just had to drag myself around. I was hardly ever without some kind of an ache or pain, and the next spring I was in such a bad fix that we couldn't keep house, so I went to my daughter's. My husband went to boarding and where he boarded he heard of a remarkable case like mine, that had been relieved by Tanlac.

"Then he went straight to Sherman and McConnell's drug store and got two bottles. One for me and one for myself, as he was in very bad health, too. Well, I showed some improvement on the first bottle and kept on getting better slowly. My appetite came gradually, and my strength came back a little each day. My aches and pains went away and I got to sleeping better. When we would see one bottle getting low we would hurry to get another and since I finished my sixth bottle I'm feeling better and more like myself than I have in years. With all the sickness and 'flu epidemic that's going over the country I'm feeling stronger and better than I ever did. We are keeping house again now, and I eat well, sleep well, do all my housework and feel fine all the time. I am taking Tanlac with the Tanlac Tablets again now to keep in shape for the winter. It certainly is a blessing to humanity and has done so much for my husband and me that I will praise it the longest day I live."

Tanlac is sold in Brantford by Robertson's Drug Store, in York by Apps Ltd., in Mt. Vernon by A. Yomans, in Middleport by William Paddie, in Onondaga by Neil McPhadden.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath fetid and stomach sour?
"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

A laxative to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.
Look at the long, thin mother. If coated, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs." Don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.
Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully, and see that it is made by the California Fig Syrup Company.

Music and Drama

AT THE GRAND
"The Very Idea" is the right name for the comedy which comes to the Grand on Monday, Dec. 9.
It arrives here with the recommendation of a highly successful engagement in New York, where it ran for six months at the Astor Theatre, and with long runs in both Chicago and Boston.
The ramifications of the plot are many, but the story starts from the fact that little Gilbert Goodhue, a cheerful nonentity, and his amiable pretty wife were over-fond of children, but had none of their own. They might have adopted one, had not brother-in-law Alton, whose one-tracked mind was burdened by an embargo on all save eugenics ideas, on the subject, stepped in with a better solution. Why should Gilbert and his wife content themselves with an orphan child, when they might assure themselves of the quality of their little one by intelligent experiment in eugenics—in other words, by choosing not the child but its parents-to-be, and then taking over ownership in the result? They finally agree to his scheme, but all does not turn out as planned, and only the intervention of Providence brings relief to the two sets of parents.

THE REX.
"Her Country First," with pitiful Vivian Martin in the leading role, is the attraction at the Rex the last half of this week. The picture tells the story of an ultra-patriotic American girl and her adventures, comic and otherwise, in the somewhat-overcrowded field of spy-catching. A well balanced cast supports the star in this picture. The Kellogs, have a rapid-fire musical comedy, the only fault of which is that it does not leave the audience the proper breathing space between laughs. Charlie Chaplin is also seen in "Triple Trouble."

THE BRANT.

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

If your Back Hurts or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys, and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood, in 24 hours they strain from it 500 grams of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active. Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation thus, ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt, you will wonder what becomes of your kidney trouble and backache.

DEMOLISHING NAVY.

By Courier Leased Wire
Washington, Dec. 5.—Discharge of 20 per cent. of the navy's wartime personnel, about 1,000 men, has been authorized, Secretary Daniels said today the men would be released as quickly as possible with due regard to the convenience of the service.
Private yachts, motor boats and other craft taken over by the navy from the war already are being turned back to their owners. Mr.

MONTENEGRIN SITUATION.

By Courier Leased Wire
Berne, Dec. 5.—A despatch from Avram says that the National Assembly of the people of Montenegro, which deposed King Nicholas and voted in favor of uniting with Serbia, was elected by universal suffrage. Each constituency, which formerly sent one deputy to the Skupshtina, is now sending three representatives to the assembly.

FRANCE RENOUNCES TRADE TREATIES

Preferential Tariff Rates to Remain in Force Subject to 3 Months' Notice

France—By Courier Leased Wire Ottawa, Dec. 5.—France has announced her trade treaties with Canada. Provision is made, however, that the preferential tariff rates, established by the treaties shall remain in force subject to three months' notice. The French Government has taken this course to secure liberty of action in view of negotiations at the end of the war. The step has not been taken, it is pointed out, in official correspondence from any sense of distrust or desire for exclusiveness. The Dominion Government has agreed with the proposals of the French Government. Preferential rates will therefore still remain in force subject to three months' notice.

Two treaties are affected—the trade convention of 1907 and the supplemental convention of 1909. It was in connection with the former that considerable discussion arose. Negotiations for its conclusion were carried on directly with the French Government by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who was then prime minister, Hon. W. S. Fielding, then minister of finance, and Hon. L. P. Brodeur at the time minister of marine and fisheries. Under the treaties, terms any reduction in customs duties granted by either country to any other foreign country would also apply to the products of France or Canada as the case might be. There was taken to preserve freedom in regard to the French minimum tariff for its colonies and the Canadian preferential tariff for the British Empire. Excise and internal duties were made the same. Most favored nation treatment for the protection of trade marks, patents, commercial names and industrial patterns was reciprocally extended. France gave to Canada the benefit of her minimum tariff; Canada gave to

FEDERATION NOT YET SATISFIED

Civil Servants' Association Looks for Further Consideration From Govt.

By Courier Leased Wire Ottawa, Dec. 5.—Regardless of whether the average civil servant has given up hope of getting his $350 war bonus or not, the Civil Service Federation still looks for further consideration by the Government of the claims contained in its original memorial. Although no reply has yet been received to the federation's request for a board of conciliation and arbitration, officers of the federation say they have a thoroughly planned policy which they intend to follow. If a board of conciliation is granted within the next few days they feel that the civil servants would be satisfied with any award it would make. If a board of conciliation and arbitration is not appointed by the Government within a few days, the executive of the federation said there would be some action on the part of the civil service organization. All civil service organizations in Toronto have recently united with the Toronto Civil Service Association.

WILSON'S VISIT.

By Courier Leased Wire Manchester, Eng., Dec. 5.—President Wilson, the Manchester Guardian to-day says it understands, will spend a few days conferring with Colonel E. M. House in Paris and will go thence to Rome, returning from Italy to spend Christmas in London and going again to Paris for the remainder of his visit.

WILSON TO VISIT POPE.

By Courier Leased Wire Paris, Dec. 5.—It is stated in Vatican circles that Mgr. Cerretti, the papal under secretary of state, will await the arrival of President Wilson in London to arrange with him for his visit to the Pope, the Rome correspondent of The Echo de Paris says. As far as can be seen no obstacle is offered to the interview between President Wilson and the Pope, to which great political importance is attached.

EARTHQUAKE IN CHILE.

By Courier Leased Wire Buenos Aires, Wednesday, Dec. 5.—Earth tremors, supposed to be caused by the serious earthquake in northern Chile this morning were still being felt at the La Plata seismograph station at eight o'clock to-night.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

UNWISE TO SPECULATE WITH VICTORY BONDS

Unprecedented success has again attended Canada's Victory Loan. The number of individual subscribers is a credit to Canada, but the investment of savings in this way may lead to many heartburnings unless the people are fully warned of the dangers of speculation and of fake investments to which they will be exposed. Many bonds were purchased from patriotic motives; many, however, were taken for the higher interest they offered, 5-1/2 per cent, as compared with 3 per cent from the banks. This increased earning capacity of their money may make holders of bonds susceptible to the temptation of promoters and organizers. Advertisements are appearing to accept Victory Bonds in payment for real estate. In the United States many owners of Liberty Bonds have been robbed by being induced to exchange them for worthless securities supposed to carry a much higher rate of interest.

Monseigneur Choquette, at the annual meeting of the Committee of Conservation in 1918, speaking on this subject of speculation said: "Few days pass when farmers, young and old, are not asked to take part in financial concerns, in speculations which dangle untold riches before their eyes. The agents are clever and persevering. They have a thousand strings to their bow. Town lots, mining claims, natural gas and oil wells, patents, are all means of enticement, all the more alluring since the risk which accompanies them is hidden more or less honestly under the name of some master of finance, or by an advertisement cleverly inserted in a conspicuous place in a newspaper of wide circulation. It is a veritable scourge, a plague. One must live in the country and hear the wails of

FURTHER BOLSHEVISM.

By Courier Leased Wire. Paris, Dec. 5.—A number of formerly prominent leaders in Austria-Hungary have arrived in Switzerland with large sums of money to further a campaign of Bolshevism elsewhere than in Switzerland, the Zurich correspondent of The Journal says. Among the men are the former grand admiral of the imperial fleet, a former Austro-Hungarian foreign minister and a former member of the Hungarian cabinet. The correspondent adds that other men are to be sent to Alsace-Lorraine to spread Bolshevism.

ALLIES AGREE ON ALL QUESTIONS

Particularly That of the Kaiser's Fate, Says Premier Clemenceau of France

Paris, Dec. 5.—There is complete agreement between the Allies on all questions, particularly that concerning the former German emperor declared Premier Clemenceau on his return from London last night. His expressed deep satisfaction over the important results obtained at the conference. The premier said he had been deeply moved by the magnificent reception given him by the British.

Referring to the success of the latest French war loan, the Premier said he had always been confident of it, but never had believed that such a great result would be achieved.

Wilson Likely to Agree. London, Dec. 5.—The substance of the discussions in London early this week between the representatives of Great Britain, France and Italy with regard to the coming peace conference were cabled to the American Government and it is believed the messages reached President Wilson before he sailed for Europe yesterday thus putting him in possession of full information regarding the situation.

Referring to the success of the latest French war loan, the Premier said he had always been confident of it, but never had believed that such a great result would be achieved.

London, Dec. 5.—Winston Churchill's announcement regarding the nationalization of the railways has stirred up the greatest interest here. No details of the government's policy have yet been made public. "I am still in the dark. I know no more than the newspapers have published," a prominent railway official told the Associated Press.

What form the nationalization will take is the subject of considerable conjecture. Premier Lloyd George in opening his election campaign on November 16 said: "The problem of transportation must be taken in hand under the direct inspiration and control of the state."

Sir Albert Stanley, president of the Board of Trade, in an election speech yesterday, said: "The time is coming rapidly when the restrictions and control of the railways can be removed and all privileges restored to the people."

URGE CAREFUL DEMOBILIZATION

G. W. V. A. Wish to Prevent Labor Distress During the Winter

By Courier Leased Wire Ottawa, Dec. 5.—Col. William Hendrie, of Hamilton, and Major Andrews, M.P., of Winnipeg, today laid before Sir Thomas White the following resolution passed by the Dominion Executive of the Great War Veterans Association: "Resolved that the Great War Veterans Association through its Dominion Executive, wishes to lay the very strongest emphasis upon the vital necessity of most careful and unhurried demobilization in order that very reasonable provision and assurance of training and employment be given to the returned soldier, that distress and unrest may be prevented during the coming winter months. In arriving at this conclusion we are actuated by sincere consideration for our men and their relatives in Canada, that a further enforced absence of a few months would be fully compensated for in returning to Canada when conditions would be more favorable."

BEAUTY SPECIALIST TELLS SECRET

A Beauty Specialist Gives Simple Home Made Recipe to Darken Gray Hair.

Mrs. M. D. Gillespie, a well-known beauty specialist of Kansas City, recently gave out the following statement regarding gray hair: "Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Orlex Compound and 1-4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or the druggist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray haired person look twenty years younger. This is not a dye, it does not color the most delicate scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

MARTIAL LAW CONTINUES

By Courier Leased Wire. Paris, Dec. 5.—The time has not yet come to abolish martial law in France, Louis Nall, minister of Justice, and Jules Pams, minister of the interior, have declared in answer to inquiries made to them. They said that it was necessary to keep martial law in force because of the recrudescence of Bolshevism propaganda in certain districts.

RICH RED BLOOD RESISTS INFLUENZA

Its Victims Are Largely Among Weak, Anemic People.

In the epidemic of influenza, the germ of influenza are quick to seize their opportunity. It is therefore good policy to keep the blood always rich, red and strong and the nerves well nourished by the use of such a reliable tonic as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. People who take these pills from time to time are usually able to resist colds, influenza and other ailments and enjoy good health, while many about them are weak, ailing and miserable.

To those who have been attacked by influenza, the safest effect are more dangerous than the attack itself. They are left at the mercy of relapses and complications. There is a persistent weakness of the limbs, shortage of breath at the least exertion, poor digestion and a tendency to take cold easily. This condition will persist and will grow worse unless the blood is built up and the shattered nerves strengthened. For this purpose there is no tonic so equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from first to last does these pills. From new, rich, red blood, which reaches every organ and every nerve in the body. Thus the lingering germs are driven out, the appetite is improved, and, despite the victims of influenza are transformed into cheerful, healthy, happy men and women. If you have passed through an attack of influenza you will find Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the one thing needed to restore you to full health and strength. If the trouble has passed you, you can further strengthen yourself against its insidious advance by the use of this same tonic and medicine. Medicine dealers everywhere sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or you can procure them by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

DATE NOT YET SET FOR PARLIAMENT

Cabinet Has Not Given Serious Consideration to This Subject as Yet

By Courier Leased Wire. Ottawa, Dec. 5.—Ministers of the Crown state that the cabinet has not given serious consideration to the fixing of the date for the opening of Parliament. As there is no necessity for giving members more than thirty days notice, there is still time in which to summon the House for dispatch of business by the middle of January.

The impression appears to be growing, however, that the House may not meet until towards the end of January and perhaps not until the early part of February.

The statement made by President Wilson that he expects to remain in Europe for a period not exceeding six weeks, suggests the possibility that the Allied Governments anticipate an earlier termination of the peace negotiations than is generally thought possible. The Dominion Parliament would not be convened before Sir Robert Borden's return to Canada if it were definitely known that he would be back in the capital within six or eight weeks.

STUDY REORGANIZATION

By Courier Leased Wire. Paris, Dec. 5.—(Havas Agency).—Representatives of the Polish, Yugo-Slav, Roumanian and Czecho-Slovak national councils are in session here to study the re-organization of Central Europe. State-ments issued, declare that only through a permanent understanding between these four nations can future peace be maintained.

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS. Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Key West, Fla.—"For five years I suffered from irregularities, with terrible pains and an awful weakness in my back. The doctor gave me different medicines but they did me no good. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I found it to be the best medicine I ever tried because it made me well, and I can now do my housework. I am telling my friends about it."
