HEAVY FIGHTING MARKS SIEGE OF TAMPICO

Reports of City's Fall Not Confirmed, But Federal Gunboats Are Having Great Difficulty in Repelling Attacks--Shells Near American Warships.

VERA CRUZ, April 9.—The U. S. consulate has received word from the consulate agent at Tampico that grave rumors are current there that Tampico has fallen. While there is no confirmation of this, it is known that there has been serious fighting between the federals and rebels around that port.

Late reports from Tampico say that the Mexican gunboats are successfully defending the town, but are doing much damage by bad marksmanship. The Waters-Pierce oil storage tank at Adol Grande was set on fire and many other tanks were hit, large quantities of oil flowing into the river.

Many shells from the Mexican warships Vera Cruz and Zaragoza have fallen near the American warships in the river, the federals are reported to be so hard pressed that all the jefe politicians throughout the country have been ordered to force enlistments to the utmost.

Sending Reinforcements. The gunboat Bravo is being made ready for sailing from here to Tampico, with 200 troops and ammunition, which have been urgently requested by the Tampico garrison.

The warehouses of the Agulla Oil Co. was destroyed in the fighting at Tampico, according to a wireless despatch received here tonight. It caught fire from the shells of the Zaragoza. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Tampico is reported to be enveloped in smoke from the burning oil tanks. Gen. Maas, the commandant of Vera Cruz, has received an urgent call from the Bravo and ammunition.

KING OF SWEDEN HAS UNDERGONE OPERATION

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, April 9.—A bulletin issued at 7 o'clock this evening from the bedside of King Gustav of Sweden, who was operated on today for ulceration of the stomach, said:

"The king slept several hours and then experienced the usual discomforts following an operation. His temperature is 99.5, and his condition is as satisfactory as possible."

TEN MEMBERS FOR TORONTO

Two Additional Seats in the Legislature With Alphabetical Designation Abolished in New Plan.

Through the redistribution bill before the legislature, it is understood that the City of Toronto will gain two additional seats. Nothing definite was announced during the meeting of the special committee yesterday, but it was learned that this city will return ten members hereafter if the present plans of the government materialize.

There is a strong possibility that the "A" and "B" system now used will be abandoned, and that the ordinary method of naming the seats will be followed here as elsewhere. The present plan has given rise to confusion, and perhaps a little unnecessary rivalry among the sitting members.

HAYDE WAS MURDERED BY UNKNOWN PERSON

MIDLAND, April 9.—"That Robert Hayde met his death at the hands of a person or persons unknown to the coroner's jury" was the verdict returned at Port Severn tonight.

No clue has been found since the discovery of Hayde's body near his stable at Tomahawk Point several days ago.

DEATH SENTENCE PASSED UPON KRAFCHENKO

Murderer of Bank Manager to Pay Penalty on July Ninth—Krafchenko Maintains That Fatal Shot Was Fired by Accomplice in Robbery at Plum Coulee.

MORDEX, Man., April 9.—Three months from today, on July 9, John Krafchenko is to be hanged at Winnipeg, for the murder, on Dec. 3, of last year, of H. M. Arnold, manager of the Bank of Montreal, at Plum Coulee, Man. The close of a long and sensational trial came at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when the court met after a two-hour intermission, which followed the jury's verdict of guilty. When the court resumed Krafchenko made a statement to the court, in which he did not deny that he had been concerned in the hold-up of the bank, but in which he asserted positively that he was not the man who killed Arnold.

BANDIT LEADER STILL AT LARGE

Chief of Bank Looters at New Hazelton, B.C., May Have Died in the Woods.

NEW HAZELTON, B.C., April 9.—A second suspect in the case of robbery of the Union Bank of Canada on Wednesday was arrested last night. He confessed that there were Russians in the gang. They overtook him as he was walking along the track and he received a bullet wound in the calf of the leg. He did not know the names of any of the robbers, but he declared that it is the leader who is still at large.

Posses of citizens and police are still hot looking for the ring-leader. It is believed that he may have died in the woods, as he was wounded.

BRITISH OFFICIAL WAS ENVOY OF GEN. VILLA IN DEMANDING FEDERAL GENERAL'S SURRENDER

Cunard - Cummins, Acting Vice - Consul, Unwillingly Consented to Convey Message at Torreon Thru Influence of U.S. Consular Agent—Official Report is Made.

EL PASO, Texas, April 9.—H. S. Cunard Cummins, acting British vice-consul at Gomez Palacio, was used by Gen. Villa to carry a demand to Gen. Velasco, on March 27, in the course of the battle of Torreon, that the latter surrender. According to the newspaper correspondents who reached here from the front tonight, Mr. Cunard-Cummins performed the mission under protest, and was subjected to rifle fire on his return toward the rebel lines.

George C. Carothers, special agent of the state department at the battle, in the report of the incident that he has made to Washington, however, does not indicate that Mr. Cunard-Cummins was coerced into becoming Gen. Villa's messenger, but states that he did so with some reluctance after first refusing.

RECKLESS PARTY POLITICIAN IS CRITICISM OF CHURCHILL

"He Has Eaten Solemn Pledges and Embroidered the Fleet in Party Politics," Says Naval and Military Gazette, Which Says Ulster Demolition Impaired His Prestige

LONDON, April 9.—The current number of The Naval and Military Gazette, the most popular service paper on this side of the Atlantic, has the following comment on Winston Churchill and the Ulster situation: "No minister has been treated more generously by the naval services than the present first lord of the admiralty, and therefore the regret of the navy is all the more keen now that Churchill has been exhibiting himself on more than one occasion as a reckless party politician. He has eaten some at least of the most solemn pledges which he gave to the navy; and then he has proceeded to embroil the fleet in party politics."

"The series of orders which were given for naval concentration against Ulster has seriously impaired the prestige of the first lord and of the board of admiralty. It may be said that Churchill himself was mainly responsible for these decisions, but responsibility must rest with the whole board of admiralty, and in particular with the first sea lord, who has to do especially with the disposition of the fleet."

"If in time of danger from a foreign enemy the board of admiralty is going to lose its head in this way and send wild wireless orders overboard, to be canceled almost immediately afterwards, there can be little doubt as to what fate will overtake us."

HOME RULE BILL SPELLS DEFEAT TO LIBERALS

Sir Robert Perks, Ex-Radical M.P., Declares English Non-Conformists Have Never Been Consulted—Coercion of Ulster Would Lose Thousands of Government Votes.

A former Liberal member of the British house of commons who is opposed to the Irish Home Rule Bill in its present form, Sir Robert Perks, who is passing thru Toronto on his way to the west, gave his reasons for taking this stand when interviewed by The World at the King Edward Hotel last night. He was a Liberal M.P. for twenty years, retiring in 1910.

The former chairman of the Non-conformist members of the British house said that Canadians were not properly informed as to the stand the Nonconformists of England take on the question. He had been asked by prominent Methodists and Presbyterians of Canada why it was that the Nonconformists of England are quietly standing by and allowing to pass thru parliament a scheme that is being re-jected by a man by the name of Ulster.

His answer to this was that the English Nonconformists have never yet been consulted about the Irish home rule bill, but that he was perfectly sure that if any attempt is made by force of arms against Ulster, the government will lose multitudes of its Nonconformist and Protestant Liberal votes when the elections come.

"I do not object to Ireland having such powers of local government as confer upon the provinces in Canada," said Sir Robert, "but to compel Ulster, which is Protestant and Catholic, to submit to one government as absurd as to expect Ontario and Quebec to go under one form of provincial government."

"Then again, under this bill you not only give Ireland complete self-government, but you maintain at Westminster 42 Irish members of parliament, who may vote not only on questions affecting Ireland, but on all and any questions before the British parliament, evenly divided having the balance of power."

Carelessly Prepared. "The fact that Mr. Asquith is finding it impossible in practice to work the tariff and customs clauses of his home rule bill and also the postoffice and telegraph clauses, shows that the bill has been hurriedly and carelessly prepared."

"Any attempt to shoot down the Protestants of Ulster will create such a revolution of feeling in England against the government that it would be better for the government to agree to a reasonable compromise. I know Redmond and John Dillon very well indeed, but I think it would be making a grave mistake to start the govern-

C.P.R. PRESIDENT AT CONFERENCE

Shaughnessy Understood to Have Discussed Rates Decision With Cabinet Ministers.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, April 9.—Considerable gossip has followed upon the recent visit of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy to the capital. The C.P.R. president arrived here on the heels of the judgment of the western freight rates case and gave out an interview stating that his road could stand the cut but he doubted if the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Canadian Northern could do so. He also talked freely respecting the decision which he thought had been hastily arrived at and the publication at this time he regarded as most injurious.

Yesterday morning Sir Thomas attended a hastily summoned cabinet meeting, held at Mr. Borden's office in the east block. Nearly all the ministers then in the city were present, including the prime minister, the minister of justice, Hon. Mr. Rogers and the postmaster-general. Several unsuccessful attempts were made to reach Hon. Mr. Reid by telephone at Toronto.

At the prime minister's office no information was vouchsafed beyond the statement that a conference was being held, but it is generally surmised that the business in hand had to do with the recent judgment of the railway commission. From that judgment it is thought that the government-in-council which would have the effect of suspending its operation until the appeal is decided.

NOTE MAY SAVE GUNMEN'S LIVES

Few Words on Scrap of Paper Regarded as of Vital Importance.

ALBANY, N.Y., April 9.—Eleven words written on a slip of white paper today was found in a bundle of old correspondence by L. B. M. Brown, of New York, may prove the means of obtaining a stay of execution for the four gunmen.

According to Mr. Brown, the note, which contains a warning against giving credence to statements of Morris Luban and Max Margolis, who were witnesses against the gunmen, was written by a former assistant to District Attorney Whitman. It was intended, says Brown, for the guidance of former Governor Sulzer, in whose behalf it was reported at the time communication was indited, Luban would appear as a witness at the governor's impeachment trial. The note bears no date nor signature. Brown said it was written early last fall.

This is what the note says: "Be very careful as to anything given by Luban or Margolis." Upon discovering the note, Brown took it to Governor Glyn James L. Delehanty, an assistant of District Attorney Whitman, agreed to waive legal formalities and go before a supreme court justice and permit Mr. Brown to tell his story under oath.

SEAL STEAMER STILL MISSING

Searchers Sent Wireless Report That No Traces of Southern Cross Can Be Found.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., April 9.—The steamer Kyle and the Canadian cruiser Fiona, which are searching for the missing sealer Southern Cross, reported by wireless tonight that they had no news of the vessel.

Officers of the coastal steamer Portia, which was the last ship to sight the Southern Cross, just before the blizzard of last Tuesday, believe she foundered in that storm. The Portia returned here today from a western trip.

SAYS OFFICIALS HAVE GRAFTED

Reeve Menard Prefers Serious Charges Against Certain Councillors of Russell Township.

EMBRUN, Ont., April 9.—Serious charges of graft were made against several officials and ex-officials of the Township of Russell by Reeve Menard at a special meeting of the council this evening.

The township faced a deficit of $50,000, part of which Reeve Menard alleges has been practically stolen by certain officials and ex-officials. In this connection former Township Clerk W. J. Lowrie is now facing a charge of embezzlement. Reeve Menard will apply for a judicial investigation.

NEWS FROM THE CITY HALL

TRY TO ABOLISH TAX EXEMPTIONS

Board of Control May Consider It Soon — Want Union Label on Uniforms.

"We should consider applying for legislation to abolish all exemptions of property from assessment and taxation," Mayor Hocken remarked in the board of control yesterday, and the other members approved. The matter will be taken up in the near future.

Controller McCarthy stated that 41 nationalities were represented among the people who registered at the civic employment bureau this year.

Commissioner Chisholm reported that St. Patrick's Market building was completed on March 15, the date set in the contract.

City Solicitor Johnston advised that it would be illegal to insist that the union label be on clothing supplied to the carmen on the civic car lines.

"That means that the law intervenes to make the worst conditions for workmen," Controller Simpson said.

"Not all non-union shops are unsanitary," Mayor Hocken said.

"But it's the great majority of union shops that are sanitary and that influence better sanitation in non-union shops," Controller Simpson contended.

"The ideal practice would be to work five days, have the sixth for recreation and the seventh for attending church," Controller McCarthy said.

Controller Simpson put thru a motion that contracts for clothing stipulate that union wages must be paid.

The local council of women were granted the use of a room in the hall on Oct. 23 for the celebration of the twenty-first anniversary of the organization.

"We will have to hurry the construction of the additional filtration plant," Mayor Hocken said, and the other members acquiesced.

DEPARTMENT HEADS TO PAY ACCOUNTS

Opposition to Purchasing Department Responsible for Suggested Amendment.

As an indication of the antagonism in the city council to the establishment of a purchasing department this year, the works committee yesterday advocated the policy of giving the head of each department authority to pay cash for supplies, and thus save the discounts.

Ald. Cameron put thru a motion that the council amend the bylaw so as to permit Commissioners Harris and Wilson to expend up to $2000 for an article for supplies, the accounts to be passed forthwith by the city auditor and paid by the city treasurer, so as to save the discounts. The accounts would afterwards go on to council.

Plans for a three-span bridge for Crawford street, south of College, to cost $29,000, were adopted.

Where the roads in North Toronto are impassable, a plank paving, on the local improvement plan, was promised a deputation. Permanent paving will not be permissible for two years, as it will take that time to construct the drainage system recommended by Commissioner Harris.

A plan for street extensions and connections for all of North Toronto was submitted by Mr. Le May and approved. Mr. Le May, at the invitation of D. D. Reid, will explain the plan at a meeting in the town hall in North Toronto tomorrow evening.

A pedestrian subway under the G. T. R. tracks at Innis avenue, to cost $5400, was approved.

EXTEND PAYMENTS OVER TWENTY YEARS

Works Committee Adopts North Toronto Drainage Scheme With Proviso.

AN INTERCEPTER SEWER

Area Covered by System Extends From Dufferin St. to Don Valley.

The recommended drainage system for North Toronto was adopted by the works committee yesterday and sent on to the board of control with a request to extend the payments over twenty years, instead of ten.

In submitting one of the greatest sewer projects of this city, Commissioner Harris stated that the planning had been done by William R. Worthington, engineer of the sewer section of the works department.

The plans showed that the basis is an interceptor sewer paralleling at a higher level the present high level interceptor. For this higher level interceptor there will be two outlets, both at the Don River, and far apart. At each outlet will be a sewage disposal plant, guaranteed to make no nuisance. The effluent, well purified, from the disposal works will flow into the Don River. The interceptor and disposal works will have to be completed before a drainage system is operative. Three years will be required to complete the interceptor and outlets.

The area for which this system provides drainage extends from Dufferin street to the Don valley and up to York Mills.

Ald. McEbride persisted until he got the committee to recommend the extension of the payments over twenty years. Then Commissioner Harris was pressed for a reply to queries as to the proportion of the present sewers in North Toronto that can be used in the projected system.

"The least said the better," the commissioner replied, and when urged to a fuller statement, he said: "The lateral sewers will be used as far as possible as sanitary sewers, but there is eight-inch pipe laid and there is six-inch pipe laid, and connecting those pipes means cutting into the larger to receive the smaller, which is not desirable. The North Toronto system that is in use is suitable for dry weather flow only. There is no provision for carrying off the rainfall and the water just soaks into the ground." Humber and Don.

The plans for the projected system for North Toronto show that the area west of Dufferin street will drain into the Humber and the area east of Dufferin street drain into the Don River. The higher level interceptor to be constructed will provide an outlet for a drainage system for the area up to York Mills and from Dufferin street to the Don River. As the territory assessed per front foot by the works committee requires sewerage the system will be extended. The sites for the disposal works at the Don River were not announced at the meeting in the town hall.

Ald. Riskin explained the plans to the people of North Toronto tomorrow night at a meeting in the town hall. He will then state the reduction in assessment per front foot by extending payments over twenty years instead of ten years. The board of control will deal with the committee's recommendation next week, and will send it on to the council for the meeting on the 20th of this month.

WELL-WORN GAME IS TRIED AGAIN

Resident of Ward Four Receives Communication From the "Spanish Prisoner."

Ald. Cameron had turned over to him by a resident of ward four a letter received from Madrid, Spain, which is evidently a get-rich-quick scheme. The alderman suspects that many more citizens have received similar letters.

The letter, written with a pen, contains a newspaper clipping, detailing the arrest and imprisonment of a banker who absconded with five millions of rubles, and afterwards fatally shot a man in a quarrel.

In the letter, supposed to be written in the prison, the citizen of ward four, who never heard of the prisoner, is urged to cable enough money to a friend in Madrid, who will recover the baggage of the prisoner. The baggage is said to be in New York, to which place the banker was going when arrested. The baggage is said to con-

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

WOMEN MUST WEAR STRING OF BEADS

No Spring Costume Will Be Complete Without These Adornments.

No Easter costume will be complete without the necklace of beads. It may be a simple, unpretentious little string of graduating pink pearls, a longer one of the popular white "starch" beads, or a five-foot rope of magnificent multi-colored crystal wonders. But it will be the string of beads. There will be long strings and short strings, costly and inexpensive, large as eggs and very tiny, mottled and clear. The variety of color, style, length and weight is endless.

The medium-length string of amber and jet, or white and jet, is extremely fashionable, and one lovely rope of a strange, carrot-shaped compound of red and white, with a central strand of blue and white, is being worn over a waist of carrot chiffon and Mechlin lace.

The success of many a gown depends upon the string of beads. A rope of queerly-shaped wooden beads, painted a brilliant tango hue, lent a charming touch to one three-piece suit. The do negro, and the midnight blue trimmings of a copper-shade model were reflected in the blue of transparent beads strung on a delicate gold chain.

Handbags to be carried with this spring's smart costume are distinctly new. These are fashioned in soft, colored leathers, suedes and silks, including raffia, straw and moire.

The new single strap is displayed on the most exclusive models in leather and suede, while heavy cords and silk ribbons figure prominently on other designs of expensive fabrics.

The bag made of large round beads, in blue or green, and run thru with broad satin ribbon, tied in a large bow, promises to be extremely popular.

Child Study

The present century is so far notably one of child study. Women like Maria Montessori, who have lent much of their lives to the study of children, have given us a good deal to think about in those books of theirs on a subject that not only lies close to their hearts, but which they make us feel should be close to the hearts of all. They seem to give one a renewed sense of responsibility toward little children.

The earnest study of childhood is a world-wide need, for we stand in some sort of relation to all little children in the world. The mere fact that they are grown-ups and they are little puts an obligation on us, the mere fact that we have passed through experiences that they must one day meet, the fact that they must one day take our places, the fact that they are helpless and we are grown to helpful ears, these things lay duties on us.

Yet look around in your life and count me the girls and the women you know who have given and do give a large number of their fresh and earnest hours to the study of childhood. Look along the bookshelves of the young girls you know, and in among the modern fiction how many books do you find on child study, child education? Very few generally. Yet this, mind you, more than any other is their "line" of work. Here in this direction lie our best possibilities, and here, too, our largest responsibilities.

I would not seem to ignore the splendid work of specialists, and of especially fine women along the lines of child study. There is more being done for little children today than ever before. But what I long for is a more general knowledge and love and understanding of little children among girls and women of all classes, not merely among educators and philanthropists, but among ourselves.

TEMPORARY REPAIRS.

Toronto Telegram: The Kingston road is as deep in the mud as the Lake Shore road is in the mire.

Temporary repairs, or the cost thereof, have made large holes in the city treasury without permanently filling up any holes in the Kingston road or the Lake Shore road.

R. C. Harris is to be congratulated on his decision to abandon the temporary repair foolishness and put down a concrete highway on the Lake Shore road. Let Mr. Harris do likewise with the Kingston road.

HUGE DIRIGIBLE BALLOON EXPLODED

Fifty Persons Injured at Milan—Lighted Cigar Caused Havoc.

Canadian Press Despatch. MILAN, Italy, April 9.—The dirigible balloon "Citta Di Milano," which was built by public subscription and presented to the army, was entirely destroyed today. The dirigible landed outside of Milan owing to damage to her motor. Almost immediately a crowd gathered, and notwithstanding the warnings of the officers aboard, someone imprudently lighted a cigar. A tremendous explosion resulted and fifty persons suffered injuries of various kinds, two of them being dangerously wounded. An outburst of flames completed the damage done by the explosion.

This is the first accident that has happened to any Italian dirigible. The "Citta Di Milano" had a capacity of 12,000 cubic metres.

GALT'S NEW REGIMENT.

GALT, April 9.—Tonight the new 50th Regiment mustered for drill in the Market Building. The regiment is somewhat under the required numerical strength, but recruiting prospects are good and the commanding officer looks for a full complement of men by the time the new $75,000 armories are ready for occupation.

FARMER'S FATAL FALL.

PORT HOPE, April 9.—While Wm. Dayman, a former resident near Cambridge, was in the lift moving some peas, a board in the floor gave way and he fell two or three feet to the cement floor underneath and against a stone wall. He received such injuries that he died last evening. He was about 50 years of age, and is survived by a wife and six children.

"SALUDA"

THE MOST DELICIOUS OF TEAS—GOES FURTHEST—NO DUST OR STEMS

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING BY HENRIETTA D. GRAUEL DOMESTIC SCIENCE LECTURER

Ten Dollars a Week—Not—Enough.

THIS vigorous protest is interesting and true. Women who must plan, scheme and manage to make proper connection between income and expenditures will sympathize with the writer.

Housekeeping editor: You ask how families of five live on ten dollars a week? They don't. They scarcely exist. I just want to say that newspaper articles claiming they do, are responsible for untold misery in many homes. As a wife, mother, seamstress, cook, housekeeper and washerwoman to my family, I am in a position to know.

My husband reads all the household hints, economical helps and letters from supposedly successful managers in our paper, then he recites them to me. It makes my life unbearable. These stories are only written to print, but they prove, to his satisfaction, that I am extravagant; easily cheated and wasteful. We have no relatives to send us butter and eggs in the winter, and hampers of vegetables in the summer. Our three children are little and need nourishing food; the house must be kept warm. I work just as hard as my husband and need just as much strengthening food. We do not find strength in soup, hash or meatless diet. I wish, if I am wrong in my management, that some of your perfect housekeepers would prove it.

We have no grocery bills, but we have no pleasure, no nice clothes and no bank account.

My husband's salary averages eleven dollars a week; rent is nine dollars a month, food about six dollars and a half. We take two quarts of milk a day and have meat once a day. Three mornings a week I have mush with milk and then I have it fried for supper the next day, with syrup; the cheapest of all. I bake my own bread, and last summer I put up all the fruit I could afford, but it is so high in the city. We use oats and oatmeal, barley and hominy, and have potatoes once a day.

Going to market is out of the question with three little ones and I laugh at this talk against ordering things over the telephone. I never used a telephone but three times in my life. When I need anything I put up and trudge after it and wheel it home.

This does not sound so well as some letters you get, but your editors know it is the truth.

Veritas.

This letter makes me think of a story of a man who was jailed on an uncommon charge. "Why," declared his lawyer, "you can't be arrested for that." "Just the same," said the prisoner, "I am."

Personally, I think "Veritas" is doing wonderfully well to keep out of debt, have a warm, well-fed family and a home on this small income. If any one can manage any better than she is doing I wish they would write in and tell us how they do it. The names of the writers will not be published.

Good Friday Concert.

The outstanding musical event of a popular nature in the city tonight will be Mr. Campbell's Good Friday concert in Massey Hall, besides Miss Florence Mulholland, a charming contralto from New York, Mr. Harold Jarvis and Mr. Frederick Phillips, the powerful basso of the Hamburg Concert, who will sing, and the 48th Highlanders' Band will render songs and instrumental pieces. The concert is an inspiring number, besides playing the accompaniments to two of Mr. Jarvis' songs, "The Battle of Stirling" and "The Death of Nelson." Miss Florence McKay will preside at the piano. Those who have not yet reserved their seats should do so during the day and thereby avoid crowding at night.

THE EARLY BULB BED.

The Star of Bethlehem, Ornithogalum.

We cannot leave our early bulb bed without a word or two about one especially lovely early bloomer, the Star of Bethlehem, which has not yet been dealt with.

This plant belongs to a genus of bulbous plants of which there are many and characterized by hardness of form and coloring rather than by extreme brilliancy, but all of the simplest cultivation.

Since these bulbs are hardy, and easy of cultivation, it is possible, if they are properly treated, to have posies of them for the garden.

For borders, for edgings, for massing among shrubs, for the rockery, for bare spots under trees, ornithogalum is one of our deepest considerations. But, remember, like all the other early bloomers, plant them in spots where they may remain for three or four years, without disturbing for purposes of propagation.

The commonest of the ornithogalums is the variety O. umbellatum, whose look heads of the purest white flowers, produced late in April, are very delicately beautiful. These blooms are very slightly fragrant.

Planted in a shady spot, the bulbs four inches apart and two inches deep, early in September, will give you splendid bloom in time for the noisier Ornithogalum aureum is a colored variety, one of the few colored kinds. A pale yellow, it is a dwarf, good for rock garden or in protected spots.

O. arabicum is a very beautiful and fragrant variety, but unless the bulbs can be well protected, a winter such as we have experienced would spell its death. Carefully protected with warm mulchings, which may be removed in the first week of March, they will give you a splendid display.

Those who have not yet become acquainted with these bulbs are strongly advised to try them this autumn. One cannot fail to admire the plant. And, besides their beauty, they are unobtrusive.

To several "Over the telephone," I feel sure none of you have yet had a close, a real speaking acquaintance

WILD FLOWERS

CONDUCTED BY RACHEL R. TODD

The Hepatica. Liverwort. Squirrel-cups.

"With perfect joy received the early day."—Shelley.

Like the trailing arbutus, the hepatica once seen can never be forgotten. Just as the shy blossoms of the epily arbutus creep shyly beneath concealing leaves, the joyous faces of the happy squirrel-cups lift blithely to the day. As one is sweetly shy so the other is modestly bold.

The hepatica belongs to a large and important family, the crowfoot family, a family which numbers among its members such old friends as the buttercup, the anemones, the marsh marigold, the columbine, the hawkspur and various others, each very characteristic in itself, all extremely interesting.

As a rule the hepatica is almost the first spring flower that the casual observer, wandering thru the woods, notices. Early in March, should the season be unusually early, the delicate clusters of frail pink, lavender, white or pale blue blossoms may be seen nodding gracefully above their fuzzy stems, surrounded by thick, bright-green, three-lobed leaves, of a soft grayish green, forming a pretty foil for the vari-colored flowers.

The first new leaves and buds of the hepatica that the hepatica has received its name, the lobed-leaf suggesting its peculiar shape, the liver hepatica. Since also, the plant is an herb, whose root and stems give off a certain acid watery juice, supposed to be medicinal, hepatica was believed to be useful in certain diseases of the liver.

These lobed leaves are clustered thickly around a short rootstock, and top stems, from two to four inches in length.

The flowers, half an inch across, six to ten sepals, and spreading buttercup-fashion, are borne solitary on erect stems, slender and furled. The colors range thru pinks, blues and lavenders in the most delightful fashion.

The dried new leaves and buds of hepatica are very fuzzy, being covered with long silky hairs, which disappear later in the season. No other early flower has such a characteristic appearance.

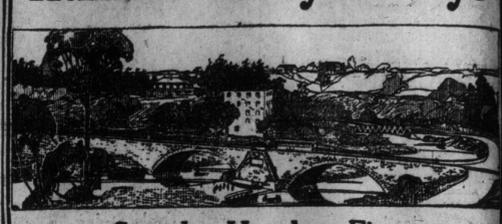

Hepatica is very hardy, very sturdy, very bold. Like the snowdrop, it loves to break the earliest snows, while waiting a sunny day. Blossoms hanging asleep today may tomorrow open sweet eyes to the wooing sun.

Except in stony swamps, one may look for hepatica on almost any slope where shines the sun. Beneath sheltering trees, on warm slopes, over level ground, in rocky crevices, and in "Sweet flowers that nestle in the humblest nooks. And yet within whose smallest bud is wrapped a world of promise."—Bryant.

"So, pray, put on your woodland dress."—Wordsworth.

"And seek some bloom that make the season suit the mind."—Lowell.

SUFF ON A RAMPAGE IN BRITISH MUSEUM

Attempt to Smash Contents of Glass Case Was Failure.

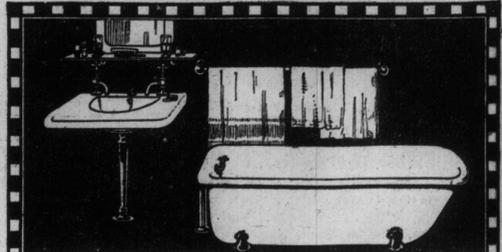

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, April 9.—With a butcher's cleaver, which she had concealed under her cloak, a suffragette started this afternoon to demolish a glass case and its contents, consisting of valuable porcelains, in the Asiatic gallery of the British Museum. At the time there were few visitors in that section, and on this the suffragette doubtless counted for long enough freedom from interruption to complete the work of destruction.

But the sound of splintering glass carried far, and before she had struck many blows two attendants reached the spot and seized her and turned her over to the police.

Hints on Beauty

Freshen the Complexion by Diet Change

By MAGGIE TEYTE

The Noted Prima-Donna

THE two magic words in the lexicon of beauty most important for us to remember at this season of the year are diet and exercise.

Halve the one and double the other, and you have the rule of application. The furnace fires in your house are burning low, aren't they?

Take it as a beauty hint. Lessen the fuel of your body when you find the fuel for the house being curtailed.

Open your ears to the call of nature and answer. Make a new routine of life and write in big letters on the schedule the new routine to the open country—and run away every chance you get.

Walk, breathe, eat fresh fruit, fresh vegetables, drink fresh water and fresh air, and the beauties of the awakened earth, and save the money you are always willing to spend for some applied beauty lotion.

That is the very best advice I can give you. I have told you in the past what foods are good medicines, but perhaps I am too late.

Onions are rich in sulphur and will cleanse your system and brighten the bloom on your cheek and the twinkle in your eye.

All the members of the cabbage family are excellent, kale, cauliflower, Brussels sprouts. And please, when you eat these very delicious vegetables, don't spoil them by mixing them up with a lot of cream sauces and pepper. Salt, a little, and some butter, or if they are eaten cold as salads, plenty of pure olive oil is seasoning sufficient.

Greens, all kinds and all you can eat of them. Dandelions in particular, and water cross and asparagus. Carrots will purify and make blood. Spinach will gather up a lot of poisons in an overfed system and carry them away.

Lettuce will rebuild your nerves, and so will celery. Onions and lettuce are better sleep producers than can be found in the drug stores, and if you form the habit, so much the better.

They never have any ill effects, unless you count the lingering odor of onion, and either a glass of milk or a sprig of parsley, or a few fennel seeds.

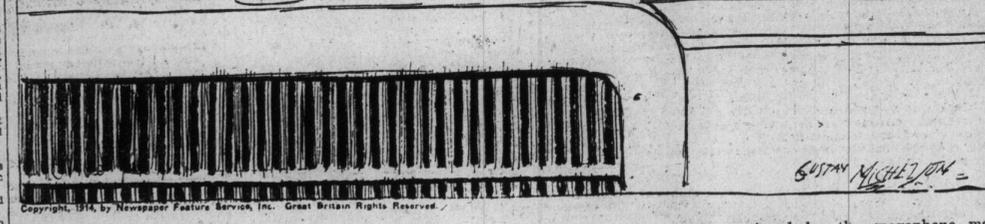

Tomatoes have an acid element which is at once a cleanser and a toner, and which has wonderful bleaching qualities.

SIGHT SEEING

By Michelson

SIGHT-SEEING CAR

YOU see here, ladies and gentlemen— Oh, yes! You see if you are LOOKING! If you twist your neck hard enough you will see all the high buildings, and a lot of wonderful sky, and the person with the lungs will tell you all about everything so clearly that you can't miss a word—if you are LISTENING!

But under some circumstances you have eyes and ears for but one fact NOT mentioned by the megaphone man. You see the height of Her color, the sky of Her eyes, the wonder of Her wondering lips. You wish the lumbering buzz-cart would go meandering on for forty miles. You know for a certainty that no one in the car is SEEING so much as you are—no one but that other chap. Lucky men, both of you!

What Flowers Mean to the "Woman from Nome"

By WINIFRED BLACK

(Copyright, 1914, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.)

Winifred Black

THE woman next door is going to sue the woman who owns the place where I live. She says she's stood it long enough and she's going to make the woman who swears this pay for it, if she has to spend the last dollar she has on earth in lawyer's fees.

It's all about the trees and the bushes and the vines and things. It is a lovely little garden, where I am lucky enough to live this winter, green and green, a smooth lawn, tall palm trees, two giant eucalyptus at the lower gate, a jumbly bush—that's what we call it for want of a better name—it's about the size of an apple tree and it's prickly and it has great yellow things that look like tomatoes on it and it spreads out over the garden, and along the walk there is a row of fragrant thistles, and there is a prickly Scotch heather all in a mist of fragrant red, and there are tall blue lilies, and along holly tree hung with berries red, and there are pink and white and yellow the slope of the hill there is a rock garden with pink and white and yellow flowers covering the ground and some yellow acacias, all foam with two geranium trees in the garden and some yellow acacias, all foam with golden lace, and roses and heliotrope, and, when you come suddenly around the corner, there is the blue, blue bay of San Francisco spread out under your feet, as blue and shiny as a Chinese platter.

It is delightful to sit in the balcony and hear the wind in the palm trees and look at the little three-cornered sails that the fishermen have brought from the Mediterranean, and wonder which boat has been for rock cod and which is piled high with gleaming silver smelt, and which carries a cargo of great California crabs.

And the great ships sail in and out of the Golden Gate, the fussy little ferriboats hurry back and forth from land to land again, the government boats steam smartly over to Alcatraz island to see about the prisoners there, and, sometimes, the gray fog drifts in like a veil of silvery tulle, and from below in the Italian quarter there comes a gay sound of music. What a splendid instrument the accordion is when it is played by an accustomed hand! And if you stand on tiptoe, you can see bright colors waving from the hand! And beyond them are the masts of the good ship Elliza and bright yellow; and beyond them are the masts of the good ship sunk before now, and lies there as calmly as if she had never left her dock.

It is very interesting in the California garden on the side of the steep San Francisco hill, but my neighbor does not like it. She is bored all the time.

Cannot See Nature's Beauties.

Ames Amended. "Are we our brother's keeper?" demanded the exhorter. "We are and we should be."

Different. "Is she a young woman?" "Well, er—immature."

With a Court Record. "I move to amend by inserting the word 'sister' in place of the word 'brother,'" yelled a man in the rear of the hall. "Yes, and divorced."

The One That Tells. "It is the first drink, by son," said the temperance apostle, "always the first drink that causes the trouble. Remember that."

Unsatisfied. "What is the matter with that new-comer?" asked his satanic majesty. "He is a forlorn and morose individual from Boston," answered an "imp." "He has been pining for sympathy ever since he arrived. He says this is a cold, cold world."

Secrets of Health and Happiness

You Begin to "Remember" as Soon as You Are Born

By Dr. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B. M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins)

ALMOST every one thinks he knows what memory is. Yet no one really knows. It has been called the daughter of attention, the teeming mother of wisdom, the reservoir of knowledge and the storehouse of experience.

Animal Behaviorists, as a large group of experimental psychologists now call themselves, say that memory is merely habits plus thoughts plus what you are aware that you see, hear and feel.

Thus Dr. C. H. Turner, who has just studied how the digger wasp overcomes obstacles, noticed this entertaining little insect trying to drag a spider to her nest. In her path she encountered a tall fence.

On account of a horizontal scantling the wasp found it impossible to drag her prey, the spider, across. She thereupon wisely turned about and dragged her precious burden along the fence until the corner of the yard was reached.

Then she passed through the pickets of the front fence to the outside. Now the spider was deposited on the ground a short time, and the wasp made an experimental flight to her nest.

Soon she returned. It was evident that she had plotted out a way, for she dragged the spider, after overcoming many hindrances, into her distant nest.

Dr. Turner says that this disproves Dr. Jacques Loeb's materialistic theory that the movements of insects are mechanical. It shows a memory over and above that of making a number of mistakes first before going right.

The whole behavior of this wasp shows that such lowly creatures can successfully struggle against obstacles to attain their ends.

Whether cockroaches and such tiny animals have memories of sweet summer eves, of moonlit waves and shady paths, of stars and flowers and dewy leaves of chirps and sounds, Dr. Turner and a Viennese savant, Dr. J. S. Szymanski, do not say.

They did, however, discover very recently that cockroaches have memories. They imitated the method of Prof. Yerkes and his dancing mouse.

A bottomless glass dish which had two compartments, one light and one dark, was placed so that an electric floor could be put under it.

In the well-lighted chamber roaches were placed one at a time. The instinct of roaches is to seek the dark. But these investigators prevented this by giving the roaches an electric shock.

Every time they crossed the threshold of the dark chamber the electric shock drove them back.

The men roaches soon learned to remember about their pains and aches. They never returned to the dark room. Thus they were trained to go counter to their own instincts.

Answers to Health Questions

J. J. H.—I taste my meals for an hour afterward. My stomach also feels full.

Stop all soups, teas, coffee and water with your meals. Do not eat doughnuts, pastries, puddings, tomatoes, sausage, cabbage or bulky victuals. You may eat buttermilk, stewed and raw fruits, whites of eggs, green vegetables, fish and all plain foods. A little French charcoal is good, too.

Dr. Hirshberg will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygienic and sanitation subjects; that are of general interest. He will not undertake to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. Where the subject is not of general interest letters will be answered personally if a stamped and addressed envelope is enclosed. Address all inquiries to Dr. L. K. Hirshberg, care this office.

Advice to Girls

By Annie Laurie

Dear Miss Laurie: The other night one of the girls had a few couples in for the evening. I was invited.

They asked me to play and I played a piece of classical music. At first they listened and then one girl who knows and cares nothing about music whispered to her neighbor.

"I wouldn't be cross with them for preferring rag to classical music. That's as foolish as it would be to be cross with your pretty white tabby kitten because she can't read and write."

"People shouldn't be blamed for their limitations; they should be pitied. Don't be angry with your poor friends who do not know enough to enjoy good music. Be sorry for them."

But—never play for them again, not the sort of music that you like and have worked so hard to learn.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 10

THERE MADNESS LIES.

A letter signed "Redmondie," an anonymous communication such as The Evening Telegram loves, was used in its columns the other evening, and last night made the occasion of another slander of the World to which the Telegram referred as a "Redmondie oracle." The "Redmondie" letter, if not written in The Telegram office, should have been excluded under the rule of decent newspapers, that all letters attacking a man by name should be signed by their author.

BRITISH IMMIGRATION.

No one can look over the daily press and other periodicals published in the United Kingdom, without recognizing that the time of emigration to Canada, if not absolutely halted, is going to be substantially curtailed. The time, indeed, is passing when any and every immigrant is hailed as the herald of a new era.

BRITISH POLITICS.

Quite a remarkable change has passed over the field of British politics. Instead of the wars and rumors of wars, the alarms and the noise of chambers going off, a spirit of sweet reasonableness broods over Westminster. From whatever cause arising it is evident that the recent trouble has brought home to the parliamentary opposition the fact that it has been playing with fire and a fire that cannot be confined to the commissioned officers of the army.

WAS FOUND GUILTY ON MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

Man Responsible for Fatal Scuffle, Given Five Years' Sentence. NORTH BAY, April 9.—Late last night after an all-day trial before Judge Lennox, a jury brought in a verdict of guilty of manslaughter against Miron Werenko and of not guilty against John Tomlin.

MUSEUM OPEN TODAY.

Contrary to custom the Royal Ontario Museum will be open today from 10 o'clock until 5, and visitors will have full access to the institution as on regular days.

Your Executor

Making your will is a plain business proposition. It does not shorten your life; but on the contrary, it frees you from anxiety about the distribution of your estate after you are gone.

EUROPE AND PEACE.

Scaremongers are still finding scope for their energies, although their field has been sadly curtailed. For some years they were busily employed in fomenting strife between Britain and Germany, and, on the surface, not without success.

HOW THE CANADIAN NORTHERN WILL MAKE GOOD.

Editor World: Since the appearance of my letter relating to Mackenzie, Mann and Co., Limited, and their relation to the Canadian Northern Railway, I have been repeatedly asked: "Granting that they are all you claim for as railway projectors, and they work, what is the future of the road?"

VEILS WILL BE DECKED WITH BEAUTY SPOTS

Queer Bugs and Butterflies Will Also Be in Evidence in New Designs. The shops are literally crowded with the daintiest and most fascinating neckwear conceivable. A most important accessory in the Easter costume is this mysterious combination of frillings, lace and puffings, with a touch of dashing color introduced.

KNIGHTS OF MALTA.

Annual Convocation of the Chapter-General of Canada. The annual convocation of the chapter-general of Canada of the ancient illustrious and military order of Knights of Malta opens this morning in the chapter room of Beaver Commandery in the Occident building.

MEMPHIS MAILED OUR MAPLE LEAFS

Jimmy Mullen Cleaned Up Bases With a Double—Schwab Showed Nothing.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 9.—The Leafs got a terrific wallop from the local Southern League boys today. Merritt, a young southpaw, made the International League team look exceedingly cheap, only three hits being gained off him, while the Finn outfit had no trouble finding Schwab's head for nothing but his fingers on the ball at any time. The youngster had not a single out, and was never effective, but he did extend himself. His side arm did not seem to be in the least shaky, but he was seldom called to do so. Schwab looked very poor while in the field, and it looks as if Kelley made a big play in the defeat of his team. He had three hits and cleaned up the bases with a double when he appeared in the first with three men on.

The Southern League opens the season on Tuesday, and the local club looks almost like a pennant winner. The Leafs with poor pitching and inability to hit, looked poor beside the locals. The Leafs have not extended their club reported, and is the matter of the club. They are all wondering what a really good pitcher would be like. The Leafs have shown today when he let lose a nasty-looking side arm hook that had the Memphis crowd gasping.

From a hitting standpoint the Leafs look very weak. Schultz was up as a pinch hitter for Schwab, but was an easy out. Down here he is well thought of in the Cotton States League he played a good third and hit well. With Toronto so far he has failed in both respects.

HOT CONTEST FOR LACROSSE OFFICERS

O.A.L.A. Convention Meets This Morning in Victoria Hall—The Delegates.

It is many years since the lacrosse delegates have shown so much enthusiasm over the annual Good Friday convention and the great national game promises to come into its own again. Secretary Frank Doyle of the O.A.L.A. was a busy man at the Toronto Hotel last night, extending the glad hand, receiving fees and giving out credentials. Over a hundred delegates were on the job, and fanning bees were found in every corner. It is expected that over two hundred delegates will attend the annual convention in Victoria Hall, which opens at 10 o'clock this morning, and when the delegates are counted up over a hundred teams will make up the bill. Nine new clubs paid fees last night and at least three new districts are assured. The east will have two of these, made up of the following towns: Peterborough, Marmora, Tweed, Campbellford, Hastings and Havelock. The far north is taking the game in earnest and a new district of Copper Cliff, Sudbury, North Bay and Mattawa is assured.

Toronto will be represented in the association with at least fourteen clubs, as follows: Young Toronto in the senior; Maitland, senior, junior and juvenile; St. Simons, intermediate; Beaches, intermediate and junior; St. Helens, junior and juvenile; Elms, junior; C.G.E., junior; and it is expected that the Robert Simpson Co. will have an intermediate team.

All of last year's teams will have delegates at the meeting, while several of those present last night intimated that all the teams through Ontario have the lacrosse clubs are springing up like weeds.

The new clubs to date are: Peterboro, Campbellford, Hastings, Marmora, Gravenhurst, Tweed, Copper Cliff, Beaches (Toronto) and Havelock. Several of these clubs will have delegates arrive this morning and some surprises may be the order.

There promises to be a lively fight for the offices when the convention gets down to business, with the long argument for positions on the council. Ten councilors are to be elected and every candidate is making in some quarters a very noisy canvass. Havelock is sure to be a very hot place, it was thru Havelock's club that the new clubs in the east were lined up, and he should be remembered. A. A. Smith of Orangeville, H. Johnston of London, the champion of the school lacrosse, has consented to be the president of the convention and Jimmy Stevenson of Toronto will contest for the presidency.

The president of the convention will have plenty of support outside the city. It will be a great fight, with the chance to land the chair. Woody Regard of Toronto, W. H. Merringer of Hamilton, and Joe Hewitt of Guelph will supply the fight for second vice-president.

The big topic last night was the amendments and the delegates were of the opinion that Brown's amendment to the constitution, junior and juvenile sections, intermediate and junior, Doyle's little item to have two officials handle senior games like the Ontario and Ontario senior games, and a number of other amendments.

ANDY KYLE SLATED TO SLIDE DOWN

New Orleans to Let Him Go—May Be Sold to Canadian League Club—Notes.

Andy Kyle, the local boy, who made his debut in the Canadian League, then advanced to Columbus in the American Association and once more stepped up to slide back. Andy was turned over to the New Orleans Southern League club by the Reds, and his work in the southern league has not been satisfactory.

The Bradford Red Sox players at present under contract and from whom the 1914 team will be selected, the first named being the probable selection in each case are:

Dr. Robert Yates, manager of the Hamilton Canadian League Baseball Club, arrived in the city on Wednesday and proceeded to get a line on his material, which he will have to use this season.

Frank Kelly and Edward Flanagan of Erie, Ohio, have been ordered by Manager Blount of the Peterboro team to report at Youngstown on April 15 for the opening game at Kansas City.

training season. Kelly will work out behind the plate, while Flanagan will attempt to grab the initial sack.

Jack Coombs, who has been resting at Palestine, Texas, will leave today for Philadelphia, to assist in coaching Mack's young pitchers.

Claude Hendrix, erstwhile Pittsburgh Pirate, but now a member of the Chicago Federals, undoubtedly will be sent to the Brooklyn team.

Harry Utrecht, the Cincinnati youth, who was recently taken on by the Cubs, is said to be due for the chutes.

James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal League, announced that he will attend the opening game at Baltimore on April 12.

NORFOLK MEETING IS CALLED OFF

No Further Efforts at Racing in Virginia Until Courts Decide.

NORFOLK, Va., April 9.—After a meeting lasting well into the night of the Norfolk Jockey Club which called off the spring race meeting, which was not to have ended until April 17, this action was due to the raid made by armed men last Tuesday. Track officials declared there would be no further effort to resume racing in Virginia until the courts had passed on the right of patrons to bet on the races.

It was stated that should the courts decide that armed detectives were without authority in raiding the track, the officials would probably bring action for damages against the detective agencies. Some lawyers declare the governor has no right to send armed men into a country unless a sheriff has first appealed for assistance.

TROPELOUM TO QUALIFY FOR THE HUNTERS' CUP

The Master Buys Racer From A. E. Dymont—Timber Toppers in Training.

The hunters' flat announced for the spring meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club has created unusual interest among the owners and riders of horses that follow the hounds. An extraordinarily large entry is assured from the many timber toppers already in training for the event.

The backward conditions at Woodbine has sent the horses to the roads and high ground for early work, the the Thorncliffe qualified pair, Fair Annie and Beavre, will work out with the rest of the Davies string at the O.J.C. track.

Old Billberry, the hero of many a steeplechase, is being schooled on Commodore Jarvis' farm at Newmarket. It is stated that Burt Holland will have the mount.

Trainer Clay has J. H. McKnight's Hydro in a forward state. Trainer Mulligan is working D. Hawthorne's Voltoso.

Capt. Douglas Young's Dame Storme, by Ben Storme, should be a contender for the trophy. Lyall Scott will have the leg up on Tom Phelan's High Peak that is being trained by Charles G. Gault.

The race would not look filled without Frank Proctor, who will ride his own Hickory Stick.

Tommy Carr's Iron Duke and L. Gooderman's Onaping are already qualified for the event.

Least but not least it is said that the Master has secured from Alie Dymont, one well-known performer, Tropeolum, a contender in open events, and he will be qualified before race day.

RIVERSIDESIDE OPEN NIGHT. Riverside Athletic Club will hold an open night Monday, April 13, staging some of the former, present and coming champions.

NOTHING DRASTIC BY THE CHANGES

Redistribution Committee Proposes to Make Few Alterations in Ontario.

A NEW CONSTITUENCY

North Timiskaming Riding Will Be Formed by New Plan.

The tentative report of the special legislative committee on redistribution prepares the province for some extensive changes among the ridings, although, on the whole, nothing drastic is proposed.

In the discussion in committee, of which Hon. W. J. Hanna is chairman, and which includes members from both sides of the house, it was stated that the situation in Lennox and Addington and Frontenac gave rise to the question as to whether there should be only two members returned, where there are now three, and yet adhere to the county lines.

Hon. I. B. Lucas contended that the County of Grey was still entitled to three seats, inasmuch as each constituency held approximately 20,000 voters. A suggestion was being considered that South Grey be reinforced by the addition of the Township of Arden.

In Essex there is a population of 87,000 exclusive of Windsor, which is growing rapidly, and it is suggested that a reasonable solution would combine Windsor, Sandwich and Walkerville in a city constituency.

There are likely to be some material shifts in Bruce and Middlesex, and the question is whether there should be two or three ridings in each. It is probable that Bruce, at any rate, will be divided into two, or three ridings.

"Altho the Dominion Government is being called upon to give greater support to the railways than it had expected to give, the country is well able to stand it," said Sir Robert Perks, the British contractor who is interested in the projected Georgian Bay Canal.

He considered the Georgian Bay Canal the proper route for the grain and livestock trade between the Great Lakes and Liverpool, and that in spite of the fact that it would cost a hundred million dollars it would prove one of the best investments and greatest benefits ever experienced by the Dominion.

VAN KOUGHNET IS AGAIN PRESIDENT

Centre and South Toronto Conservatives Hear Addresses and Elect Officers.

NEED LARGER BUILDING

Incoming Executive Urged to Consider Erection of New Headquarters.

Members of the Centre and South Toronto Conservative Association thronged the Simcoe street club-rooms last night at the fifth annual meeting. President Arthur Van Koughnet, in his annual address, congratulated the membership on the past twelve months as the banner year of the association's history.

He was confident that with larger headquarters for joint meetings the membership could be worked up to over 2000. He suggested that the incoming executive consider the erection of a building with a large hall to seat 1000, with a flat for club-rooms.

The association arranged for the impressive demonstration to commemorate the 22nd anniversary of the death of Sir John A. Macdonald.

Referring to the political issue President Van Koughnet said that the by-elections showed the people's disapproval of Mr. Rowell's attempt to rush public opinion by his abolish-the-bar movement.

In speaking of the Gooderham bill respecting votes by the ratepayers on such questions as the street railway purchase, he considered the bill was a good one as it would prevent snap votes being attempted.

The address concluded with commendation of the Borden and Whitney governments and a vigorous assertion of Canada's duty to the empire to pay a fair share of the vast expenses of maintaining an effective imperial navy.

All Were Re-elected. The election was most harmonious and enthusiastic, and the whole of the retiring officers were re-elected, by acclamation as follows: President, Arthur Van Koughnet; vice-presidents, J. S. G. Connell, secretary, T. W. Close, and treasurer, Thos. E. Chapman.

Congratulatory addresses were made by A. Claude Macdonell, K.C., M.P., R. D. Fairbairn, W. J. Price and others.

QUARTER MILLION FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Plans Almost Ready for New Commercial Building on Roxton Road.

Superintendent Bishop had glad news for the advisory commercial committee yesterday afternoon. The quarter million building plans for the central commercial high school on Roxton road are almost completed, and will be ready for adoption at the next meeting of the committee.

Specifications will be published and tenders awarded at a special meeting, so that work can be started early this summer.

The commercial night classes which have just closed until the fall, proved very successful. They had a total enrolment of 780 scholars. Six hundred and twenty-nine attended the classes at the King Edward School, 109 the Queen Alexandra classes and 32 the Annette street branch.

WANTS TO RETIRE SENIOR PRINCIPAL

Trustee Shaw Would Put Dr. Embree on Allowance With Others.

A surprise was sprung on the management committee of the board of education yesterday by a report presented by Trustee W. H. Shaw, for a sub-committee to superannuate Dr. L. E. Embree, principal of Jarvis Street Collegiate Institute, on an allowance of $875 a year. Dr. Embree made a protest against this action. He said that it was absurd to fix an age limit in intellectual work, for many persons were older at 40 than others were at 70, and referred to the appointment of Lord Strathcona as high commissioner at an advanced age. If he were decrepit and feeble it would be different, but he was as fully efficient as he ever was.

It was said that a bylaw of the board of education compelled the retirement of teachers over the age of 65 years, and that it could be amended only by a two-thirds vote of the board. The report was therefore passed on to the board without debate.

Besides Dr. Embree, the following principals of public schools are recommended to be retired on $640 a year: E. A. Stevens, Thomas Parker, R. W. Hicks, F. Byfield, R. W. Dean, W. J. Hendry, A. McMillan, J. W. Harroway, A. Hendry and Miss A. A. Gray, and the following public school assistant principals, at $320 a year: Miss A. L. Sanderson, Miss E. M. Russell, Miss A. Stewart, Miss L. Robertson, Miss C. Birnie and Miss C. H. Grey. Some of these teachers have recently received promotion.

For Efficiency. A motion of Trustee Dr. Noble to eliminate the number of encroachments on the time of the pupils thru the employment of specialists, nurses, supervisors, doctors, drills and boy scouts, drew a report from R. H. Cowley, chief inspector, that the employment of medical inspectors and nurses in the schools was for the guarding of the physical welfare of the pupils and so increase the efficiency of the school.

Inspector Cowley recommended that the board at once engage 45 teachers who are leaving the normal schools. This recommendation was adopted and sent to the board for action.

Chief Inspector Cowley also recommended the division of the St. Clair school district, so that part of the pupils from there would attend the Carlton School and part of the Strathcona School. He also recommends the enlargement of the Strathcona School and the disposal of the site and building of the St. Clair School. This report was held over.

Increased office accommodation for Toronto school inspectors was recommended by Inspectors Rogers and Bruce. Their requests included two rooms and a waiting room for each inspector, and sufficient furniture, including a typewriter, telephone and stenographic help.

PRESENTATION TO MISS LIDDY. On Thursday afternoon a farewell luncheon was tendered Louise Liddy, on the occasion of severing her connection as principal's assistant at Church street school. The women teachers presented her with a pair of brass candlesticks of antique design. She was also the recipient of a handsome cut-glass berry bowl from her pupils.

TO HOLD EUCHRE PARTY. The Ladies' Aid of St. Joseph's parish will hold a euchre party and social in the Royal Canadian parlors, Broadview avenue, on Monday evening next, and a grand bazaar in aid of St. Joseph's Presbytery will be held from Monday, April 27, to May 1.

CANADA'S CONQUEST AN IMPOSSIBILITY

So Norman Angell Declares in Address on "International Relationship."

THE FUTILITY OF WAR

Wealth of Nations Intangible and Cannot Be Obtained by Conquest.

Before an audience of university students the faculty of Toronto University, and people representing almost every phase of life in Toronto, Norman Angell, the author of "The Great Illusion," delivered an address in Convocation Hall last night on "International Relationship, in which he emphasized the futility of war, and the fact that it represented inevitable economic loss. The system of modern international relations, in the realm of trade and commerce had, he maintained, made it impossible for a nation to go to war, to the end that it might secure for itself any material benefits. The wealth of nations was, he asserted, intangible and could not possibly be obtained by conquest.

Referring to the speech African war, Mr. Angell said that it took 400,000 men and one and a half billion dollars to conquer one hundred thousand people, he wondered how long it would take to conquer the eight millions of Canada. With a similar force he declared that it would take $40 years, and with an army of two millions it would take 20 years, assuming that Canadians could fight for their homes as effectively as did the Boers.

"The conquest of Canada is an impossibility. We have so constructed the British Empire that it cannot be destroyed save by ourselves. In England they are beginning to believe that the 'inevitable Anglo-German war will not come off,' exclaimed the speaker.

"The place which Canada has come to take in the councils of the world has come to be preponderous. Standing, not by your size, but by your quality, you will stand head and shoulders over the other nations, an example and an inspiration for all time," concluded Mr. Angell.

Praises President Wilson. President Falconer, who, on behalf of the International Club of the university, occupied the chair, in his remarks, said that ideas must prevail, and that it was because of the ideas of the man who up till year ago was a university professor that the United States had come to occupy a place to which it had not attained since the days of Abraham Lincoln.

TORONTO MAN IS ELECTED REGENT

Robt. McClelland Honored by Grand Council for Ontario Royal Arcanum.

Canadian Press Despatch. OTTAWA, April 9.—At the closing session of the biennial meeting here today of the Grand Council for Ontario of the Royal Arcanum, Robert M. McClelland, Toronto, was elected regent.

The next meeting of the grand council will be held in Toronto in 1916. The other officers elected were: Vice-regent, John F. Raven, Owen Sound; first supreme representative, Lyman Lee, Hamilton; second supreme representative, J. K. Dowley, Prescott; grand orator, C. H. Canfield, Ottawa; grand past regent, Lyman Lee; chairman executive staff, James Lee; grand secretary, C. F. Vanhorn, Toronto; grand treasurer, J. W. Hickson, Toronto; grand chaplain, John Macpherson, London; grand guide, William M. Brandon, Hamilton; grand warden, W. G. Bartram, London; grand scribe, W. H. Plumb, Prescott; grand trustees' chairman, Jas. Smith, (Hamilton), Thomas Green (Cobourg), J. Doyman (Cobourg); chairmen of committees: Finance, W. J. Cunningham, Hamilton; laws, J. K. Dowley, Prescott; state of the order, J. B. McKillop, Prescott.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Charges by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, that the Western Federation of Miners has not been treated fairly in the Calumet Copper strike, and criticisms of the principles of compulsory arbitration in labor disputes by representatives of both employers and employees today marked the close of the first of a series of hearings by the United States Industrial Relations Commission on collective bargaining.

The Canadian Industrial Disputes Act, under which employers and employees are forced to defer drastic action until arbitration has been tried was criticized as a form of "slavery" by Mr. Gompers. W. L. Mackenzie King, former minister of labor of Canada, defended it as an excellent method of avoiding labor troubles. Mr. King added that he favored any means of reaching labor disputes which would give publicity.

Mr. Gompers placed responsibility for most labor strikes on unorganized or newly organized men, and said that most trouble of this kind is caused by the mental attitude of employers and employees. He said he would not object to a federal mediation and conciliation board for industrial disputes, except for the danger that efforts to bring about compulsory arbitration might follow.

STRUCK BY MOTOR CAR. Eugene Felmen, age 12, of 28 Scotland street, was struck by a motor car at the corner of Yonge and Wilton avenue at 2.30 last evening, and was conveyed to St. Michael's Hospital. It is thought the lad has a broken rib.

DOWAGER EMPRESS OF JAPAN IS DEAD

Death Came Suddenly in Presence of Members of Royal Family.

Canadian Press Despatch. TOKIO, Japan, April 9.—The Dowager Empress Haruko died at the imperial villa at Namaazu today, following the usual custom in the case of the death of a member of the imperial family, the official announcement of the event will not be made until the body has been transferred to the capital, which is expected to take place tomorrow.

Her majesty passed away suddenly in the presence of Emperor Yoshihito, the empress and the other members of the royal family, who had been summoned from the capital.

The late Dowager Empress Haruko was the widow of Emperor Mutsuhito, who died on July 30, 1912. Her imperial majesty was born on May 28, 1850.

She was a daughter of a nobleman, Ichijo Tadado. In 1869 she was married to the late emperor and was declared empress.

LONDON COMMENTS ON RATES DECISION

What Would Canada Do Without Roads to Spend on? is Asked.

LONDON, April 9.—Canadian railways occupy much space in the morning papers today. The articles are especially directed at the decision of the Dominion Railway Commission in regard to the reduction of freight rates in Western Canada.

The Financial Times says that the highest authorities are of the opinion that the effect of the freight rates reduction upon the Canadian Pacific will be altogether negligible.

"Too little is known to enable a judgment of the precise effect of the decision which is not well-timed considering the large amount of money still required for railway construction in Canada," The Financial News concludes.

SANE, EXCEPT WHERE WIFE WAS CONCERNED

Dr. Arthur Jukes Johnson Gives This Opinion in Martin Will Suit

Dr. Arthur Jukes Johnson stated yesterday in the special non-jury sittings at Osogode Hall, where Chancellor Boyd is hearing Mrs. Franz J. Martin's suit to secure a share in her husband's estate of $10,000, that Mr. Martin was sane about everything except his wife. He explained that Mr. Martin was perfectly able to hold his own in a business deal, but that whenever his wife was the subject of the conversation he was bitterly charged her with infidelity, and it was impossible to argue with him.

The doctor stated that when the old gentleman was making his will, he would probably have left his wife out of it, if her name had not been mentioned, and if it had he would probably have become very bitter. The case is proceeding.

ACCUSED OF THEFT.

BELLELEVILLE, April 9.—Edgar Craddock, a young man of this city was today, by A. M. Chapman, J.P., the constable, taken on a charge of stealing money and postage stamps from Police Magistrate Masson's private law office. Craddock took care of the premises, and in this manner had a key to the office. Marked money was found in his possession.

TORONTO CHURCHES CALL NEW PASTORS

Ministerial changes were dealt with by the Methodist General Conference transfer committee yesterday.

Those affecting the Toronto conference were the acceptance by Rev. Dr. Henderson of Montreal of a call to the Timothy Eaton Memorial Methodist Church; Rev. S. W. Falls of Toronto to Central Church, Calgary, and Rev. J. R. Patterson of St. Catharines to the Centennial Church, Toronto.

ESTATE GOES TO WIDOW.

The will of the late Robert Bond, the well-known horseman, who died at Hot Springs, Ark., on March 14, was filed for probate yesterday. The whole estate, amounting to $86,713, goes to the widow, Mary Elizabeth, except a joint insurance policy of $8000, from which his sisters benefit.

The late E. G. Fitzgerald, barrister, who died on March 5, at his residence, 82 St. Joseph street, leaves an estate valued at $65,408. His widow receives $64,408, and a sister, Mrs. B. G. Molesworth, Oakville, benefits by a contingent annuity of $500.

JUDGE'S WARM CRITICISM.

Judgment was reserved by Judge Denton in the county civil court yesterday afternoon in the case in which James T. Barry is suing Jack Canuck Publishing Company for $460 back wages, alleged to be due him.

In reserving judgment, Judge Denton said: "I wish I could locate the perjurers and I would see that they would suffer for it. This is one of the cases that worry a judge in coming to a decision owing to the lies that have been told."

FINE HOLIDAY SHOW AT PARK THEATRE

The large holiday audience which is expected to attend the Park Theatre "Booze and Larders" today will not be disappointed with the show which they will see there, as the entire attraction, which began last night, is one of the best that has been presented at the popular west end play house since its opening. The headlines on this uniformly good bill are Lloyd and his talking dog, Sparkle. Some very clever stunts are executed by this pair, to the delight of the audience. Of Robinson and Brooks it may be said that as colored comedians they are second to none on the small time circuits. John Milroy is a very clever entertainer, and his work was highly appreciated by the audience. "His Wife's Sweetheart" is a delightful little sketch presented in a most pleasing manner by Griffin and Enimert. In addition to the above artists, the winners of the prizes on Wednesday (amateur) night appeared and were well received.

In order to accommodate the large holiday crowds that will pack the theatre today, two performances will be given afternoon and evening. The first afternoon performance will begin at 1:30 o'clock, while the first evening show will begin at 7 o'clock. The sixth series of "The Adventures of Kathlyn" will be shown afternoon and evening. CATHOLIC DRAMATIC CLUB. On Thursday evening next, April 23, the Catholic Dramatic Club will repeat their clever drama, "Won by Wireless" in Columbus Hall, Sherbourne street. The success will be in aid of Rosary Hall.

FATHER FALLON IS DISCIPLINED

Activity on Behalf of Irish School Board Candidates Results in Removal.

TO BE SENT WEST

Strong Protest Likely to Be Lodged With Church Authorities.

Canadian Press Despatch.
OTTAWA, April 9.—A sensational incident in connection with the bilingual issue developed here today in the announcement that Father James Fallon of Ottawa University, brother of Bishop Fallon of London, who took a prominent part on the side of the Irish ratepayers in the recent separate school trustee election in St. George Ward, bitterly contested between French and Irish candidates, had been removed from Ottawa under orders from the Provincial Order of Mary Immaculate, Rev. Father William Charlebois of Montreal to take his place. Father Fallon received his "ovidence" yesterday afternoon, instructing him to proceed not later than this morning to a parochial house under the provincial jurisdiction at Cap de la Madeleine, Que. He immediately obeyed, leaving Ottawa at 2 o'clock last night. Rev. Father Foy, rector of the university, declined to comment on the affair today, but it is learned that Father Fallon will probably be sent to a mission station in the west. The incident has created great indignation among the Irish clergy and laity of Ottawa, and it is probable that a strong protest will be lodged with the church authorities. A similar incident surrounding the removal of Bishop Fallon, then parish priest of St. Joseph's Church here, to Buffalo some years ago, caused much ill feeling in Roman Catholic circles and resulted in the withdrawal of the support of several prominent Irish Catholics from the university.

MILLIONAIRE JEKYLL-HYDE GETS EIGHTEEN YEARS

Lured Wealthy Women, Then Took Jeweled Earrings From Them

NEW YORK, April 9.—Edward Mendel, a millionaire Jekyll-Hyde, who was arrested from a steel merchant in Newark by day and a thug in New York by night, was today sentenced to spend the next 18 years of his life in Sing Sing prison. Mendel, who in Newark was a member of many fraternal orders and clubs, lured Mrs. Pauline Koebel, an upper west side freight yard in New York, and there tore her diamond earrings from her ears. He was captured as he was running from the yard. In court later three other women identified him as the thug who had similarly assaulted and robbed them. Many letters from persons in Newark clubs and associations came to the judge who sentenced Mendel. All these insisted some mistake had been made.

CURE TUBERCULOSIS WITH SULPHUROUS ACID FUMES.

CINCINNATI, April 9.—By breathing sulphurous acid fumes incipient cases of tuberculosis can be frequently cured, according to a public announcement made today in the convention of the American Chemical Society, meeting here. Dr. Edward Gudeman of Chicago, by Dr. Edward Gudeman of Chicago, stated that while this fact had been known for some time among certain physicians and chemists, yet the demonstrations along this line had not progressed far enough to make the announcement public, until today.

GOVERNMENT MAY DISSOLVE.

LONDON, April 9.—The Standard claims to be able to state that the government had definitely decided in favor of a dissolution of parliament in June, probably toward the end of the month. The general election would thus take place in July.

Random Notes on Mining Matters

Mining stocks were generally firm yesterday. Big Dome sold down to 2 1/2, but there seemed to be a good demand, and it looks as if liquidation is over for the present.

Big Dome had another active day of trading, selling down to 2 1/2. There seemed to be buying orders in the market around present figures to take all the stock pressed for sale.

Dome Lake held very strong around 4 1/2. Inside interests are evidently willing to take any quantity of this stock around present prices.

Chambers-Perland was very strong again, selling up to 2 1/2. There has been steady accumulation of this stock going on since the time it looks as if in-vestors are picking up all the stock they can around present prices.

COBALT, Ont., April 9.—The Nipissing Mine report for the month of March is as follows: During the month of March the company mined over an estimated 100 tons of silver ore, and shipped 184 tons and shipped 696,737 ounces of silver.
