PRIVATE CHAPLAIN IN LIFE INSURANCE.

Our respected and able fellow editor, Patrick F. Cronin, of The Catholic Register of this city, deals in his leader of this week with "Dishonesty and Modern Ideas."

By the admissions of the officers of the Equitable Life and the New York Life, the fiduciary character of modern insurance is branded with prostitution, and these companies and other great corporations are set in their fallen state as manipulating and speculative centres of the money power, bartering with parties and politicians and scheming with brokers and bankers for ends that are concerned with anything but the interests of the policyholders.

Here in Canada some newspaper phrases are strikingly characteristic of the modern insurance industry. In their fallen state as manipulating and speculative centres of the money power, bartering with parties and politicians and scheming with brokers and bankers for ends that are concerned with anything but the interests of the policyholders.

The evil lies in the spread and development of materialism and religion are banned from schools in England, the United States and Canada, and men and women take their place in the modern world without ever having heard of the words for every educated and conscientious person—moral and good.

We do not pretend to say that the mere profession of morality and religion are much better than their denial. Some of the biggest thieves of the present are self-confessed professors of a religious life by their own design.

It is in his last paragraph that Mr. Cronin makes his main point, that which we consider to be this, that secular education, public schools, are largely to blame for the dishonesty exposed in connection with insurance and many other things, and by inference his pressed conclusion is that secular schools with religious training would do a lot toward curing the evil.

That reverend gentleman is much in need of an excuse to offer to his fellow clergymen of the Presbyterian Church, who are getting somewhat restive toward him. We might also point out to Mr. Cronin that some of "the bad men" connected with the current dishonesty were educated in separate schools and regularly confessed. And even in countries which have had nothing but religious schools are producing their full share of rascality.

We agree with Mr. Cronin that things are bad in spots, that we are in all probability making a mistake if we hastily rush to the conclusion that they are any better here than in the States, and that there is a good deal of hypocrisy behind some religious and philanthropic professions. But that is as far as we can go at present.

There is rather a surprising "editorial note" following Mr. Cronin's editorial above referred to. It is this: Mr. T. F. Ryan, the new financial manager of the Equitable Life, has chosen as his private chaplain Father J. M. White, formerly of St. John's, N.B., who has suffered a good deal from ill-health.

Does Mr. Cronin ask his readers to put their policies with Mr. Ryan on the strength of this announcement, or is he throwing out the bait that Senator Cox should get a chaplain like Mr. Ryan, instead of his present clerical editor?

THE PRESBYTERIAN VOTE. The main part played by The Globe in the plot against the educational freedom of the two new provinces in the west was to handle the Presbyterian vote, to steer it away from revolt, to persuade it that what Sir Wilfrid Laurier proposed was reasonable, that "peace" was more than "principle," and that the Liberal party anyway had always been in favor of doing the very thing that was proposed—coercion.

and elsewhere within the empire, expanded, as they give promise of doing, the matter of an imperial preference will become much simpler and easier of adjustment.

There was a day now and then that The Globe has dreamed and said it was for provincial rights, and that coercion was wrong, but these days were far apart and ceased altogether when coercion had become a fact.

The Globe was uncertain, or even if it were open to the charge of betraying its past, it was good and strong on the Bible Society, on the great part the Bible had played in the uplifting of sinful mankind, and it had a column article, the novelist "stood for" in connection with the Presbyterianism of Scotland.

EAST ENDERS SHOW CAUSE WHY SCHOOLS ARE REQUIRED

Board of Education Hears a Deputation—First Ward Getting the Money This Year.

East end residents to the number of about fifty invaded the board of education last night and not by their presence but by their oratory sought to impress upon the board the urgent need for more school accommodation in Riverdale.

In presenting the deputation, A. E. Kemp, M.P., urged the necessity of making provision for the educational future of the east end. Rev. J. M. Peck, S.D., declared that the present school accommodation was greatly overtaxed, and the only remedy was the erection of a new school.

A number of statistics were given, showing that the present school room capacity of the registered attendance of 200, the registered attendance of 200, the registered attendance of 200.

Chairman Brown assured the members of the board of the sympathy of the board. The expenditure in Ward One would this year be larger than in any other ward in the city.

SHOWS NEED OF A FIREBOAT HYDRANTS ARE FAR AWAY

Blaze on Niagara Navigation Co's Pier Yesterday Morning Makes Marine Men Think Some

A small fire broke out yesterday on the Niagara Navigation Co. dock, which impressed on the navigation men the necessity of having a fire boat.

The alarming thought of the size which a fire might attain brought the idea home to them with a new meaning.

Fortunately, yesterday's fire, which occurred about half past four, was discovered within a short time of its outbreak, and was put out.

At assistance of the fire department. At that time, however, it was blazing with fury and eating thru the wood rapidly.

If it had not been discovered for a quarter of an hour a serious conflagration would have been imminent.

The fire department would have been working under the disadvantage that no hydrants are within a couple of hundred yards from the end of the pier.

Yesterday morning fire did $25,000 damage at Eddy's grocery store, 365 Yonge Street.

At 11 p.m. an alarm from box 234 took the firemen to McKay's general store, East Queen-street, where a small blaze in the front window caused excitement.

PRESIDENT RECALIBRATED INSURANCE LAW CHANGE

Congress Will Be Asked to Provide for National Supervision and Control

Oyster Bay, Sept. 21.—Secretary of State Elihu Root, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and Joseph H. Choate, former American ambassador to Great Britain, who spent last night at Sagamore Hill as guests of President Roosevelt, left Oyster Bay this forenoon.

It is learned that the most important question discussed at the conference was that relating to the second conference to be held at The Hague.

The president explained that the Ambassador Roosevelt had informed him of the desire of Emperor Nicholas to call a peace conference at The Hague.

As indicated in these despatches last night, one topic of discussion was the recent disclosure in the investigation of the conduct of the life insurance companies of New York, being made by a committee of the New York legislature. The president is preparing his annual message to congress, and he proposes to discuss the insurance question in that message with special reference to federal legislation for the regulation of insurance.

Under the law as it now stands the bureau of corporations and labor has no control over life insurance corporations. Practically it can only make an enquiry into their business for the purpose of gaining information.

The president has urged strongly the enactment of such legislation as will give the federal government supervisory control of insurance companies.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY IN SESSION. Thank Offerings of Over $5500 Are Contributed.

The six hundred members of the Women's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada were busily occupied yesterday.

In the morning they received holy communion in St. Luke's Church. The clergy present included Archbishop McTavish of Athabasca and Mackenzie River, Bishop Thornhill of Algoma, Dr. Tucker of the U.S.C.C., Archdeacon Penrith of New Westminster, Rev. C. J. James, Rev. Mr. Beatty, Canon Pollard of Ottawa and Canon Sweeney.

Who are passing thru the city on their return from the general synod mainly composed the choir.

The sermon was preached by Bishop Thornhill, who, for his text, chose the motto of the auxiliary, "The love of Christ constraineth us." The spirit of love in woman's work, he said, is the theme of the bishop's discourse.

The general thank-offering, taken at the close of the service, amounted to over $5500.

A gathering was held in St. Luke's schoolhouse in the afternoon, the Bishop of Toronto extending a hearty welcome to the guests.

Addresses were given by the Rev. Mr. Dobie of the diocese of Qu'Appelle and the Rev. J. R. Mathison of Ontario Lake Simcoe. A statement by Mrs. Grisdley, convener of the hospitality committee, showed that the hundred delegates brought letters from all parts of the Dominion.

A largely attended reception last night was given by the officers and members of the four parochial branches of St. James' cathedral, on behalf of the diocesan board, the visiting bishops and clergy from the Northwest, as well as the delegates.

Narrowest Portion of Gulf of Tartary to Remain Neutral—Affairs at Tokio.

Vladivostok, Wednesday, Sept. 20.—The Russian and Japanese squadrons, commanded respectively by Rear-Admiral Essen and Vice-Admiral Kamimura, met in the Kourile Bay, Sept. 19, and the admirals arranged the terms of the naval armistice.

The conference, which lasted the hours determined, established a line of demarcation beyond which military control shall not be carried.

Confirmed in Tokio. Tokio, Sept. 21.—The navy department today confirmed the Vladivostok report announcing the conclusion of a naval armistice between Rear-Admiral Essen, representing Russia, and Admiral Kamimura, in behalf of Japan.

The narrowest portion of the Gulf of Tartary remains neutral. Rear-Admiral Essen requested permission to send provisions to Kamchatka, to which Admiral Kamimura is willing to agree.

A powerful pump has arrived at Vladivostok from Port Arthur to be used in floating the battleship Mikasa. It is expected to refloat the Mikasa within three months.

Admiral Aulic, who defeated the Russian cruiser Variaz, was given an audience by the emperor at Seoul, and decorated before he sailed for Japan on Tuesday last.

A prolonged meeting of the cabinet and elder statesmen took place today, but the subject of the conference has not yet been made public.

The public is daily becoming more impatient for the withdrawal of the troops proclaiming the city under martial law.

The expression of dissatisfaction over the terms of the armistice, which is not so frequent as they were some time ago, is the subject of the papers.

At the time of the outbreak of popular indignation occurred in the city, the cabinet of three European powers at the close of the war between Japan and China, the cabinet of papers, which exceeded two hundred, ten of which were in Tokio.

Home Sweet Home. Seattle, Wash., Sept. 21.—Seven members of the Japanese embassy, who are passing thru the city on their return from the general synod mainly composed the choir.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

There are many new and original features and incidents in Charles E. Blaney's production of the melodrama, "The Curse of Drink," which is announced for presentation at the Majestic Theatre next week, with a matinee every day. As the title suggests, the theme of the piece is temperance, but Mr. Blaney has evolved a new and interesting story. The play is new and interesting story. The temperance lesson is taught without making the spectator shudder.

One of the most successful scores in Western America last season was that of Follies' Australian Juvenile Opera Company. The little troupe are again in this country on a third visit, and will be seen for the first time in Toronto at the Grand next week. The company is from Australia. They have toured the Orient, playing the large cities of China, Japan, New Zealand, Tasmania and South Africa, everywhere meeting with immense favor. Several critics agree that the children are the cleverest aggregation of youngsters seen on the stage. They have a large repertoire of the most popular musical comedies, including "The Belle of New York," "The Gaiety Girl," "The Geisha," "Pinafore" and "The Lady Slavey." They also carry complete wardrobe and scenery for each of the plays in the repertoire. During the Toronto engagement "The Belle of New York" will be given on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and Wednesday matinee. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, "A Runaway Girl," and Saturday matinee, "Pinafore."

LABOR MUST BE MOVED NOW
CAPITAL HAS PLAYED UNFAIR

Efforts to "Get Together" Have Failed Thru Uncompromising Attitude of Manufacturers.

The special committee of the Trades and Labor Congress, who conferred with representatives of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, did not get a satisfactory reception, and reported so to the congress yesterday morning. Future advances could have to be made by the manufacturers, they said. The committee emphatically recommended that the government be asked to compel the manufacturers to give statistics to the secretariat of the Trades and Labor Congress. The committee asked to be made a permanent section of the congress.

Delegates of the Trades and Labor Congress who were present at the meeting of the manufacturers' association, said that while the manufacturers invariably extended the glad hand their line of policy was far from liberal. They stated that false claims and unreasonable statements were used against the labor unions. The committee's recommendation that the Intercolonial Railway should be advised to pay a reasonable wage in the government was adopted.

The solicitor's recommendation that the government amend the Alien Act, which provides for the deportation of the alien, was also adopted. The tone of the debate showed that congress preferred an anti-foreigner labor policy. The committee's recommendation that the Intercolonial Railway should be advised to pay a reasonable wage in the government was adopted.

FURTHER BRITISH COMMENT
THE EMBARGO ON CATTLE

Real Motive for Former Declared to Be Not for Protection From Disease.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable) London, Sept. 21.—The Dundee Advertiser (Liberal) does not think the Canadian government will be satisfied with the reply of the board of agriculture to the petition of the senate on the subject of cattle importation into Canada. The Advertiser dismisses as idle the argument that disease may break out spontaneously. The real motive of the board is protection, but risk and profit are the real motives. The same newspaper in another editorial says: "The recent resolutions of the Dominion Labor Congress show how little reason Mr. Chamberlain has to speak of a colonial offer. The subject of preferential trading has not entered into the region of practical politics in the colonies in spite of the various chambers of commerce, and the pious opinion of certain statesmen that moderate action is warranted. The colonial governments are concerned with their domestic interests of our kinsmen, and are taking the notice of the fiscal controversy. Canada would be ashamed to purchase a privilege at the cost of British welfare. If preferential trade should become a burning question in the colonies, we shall kindly find out that not only the British government but all classes will rebel against the idea of a restricted market."

The Birmingham Daily Post, regarding the government's refusal to remove the cattle embargo, says: "The decision will be unpalatable to the Dominion, but there is compensation in the relief it will afford to the Dominion. It is doubtful whether Canada has anything more than a sentimental grievance, which as a precautionary measure against the introduction of cattle disease into this country."

Referring to the government memorandum regarding the cattle embargo, in a paragraph about the enormous losses the British agriculturists in the last thirty years have sustained by reason of the importation of colonial stock and foreign competition, the Westminster Gazette says: "If we say to Canada we dare not admit the risk of admitting your cattle, well and good, but if we add, especially as you are such formidable agricultural producers, that you must not import your stock until you do not definitely avowed as such."

The correspondent of the Yorkshire Post, writing from Ottawa, says there is no political party in Canada that advocates a tariff for revenue only. The general opinion is in favor of protection. Canadians are also in favor of an important restriction on the manufacturers at home are warranted in looking for more, rather than less, tariff. The tariff is a necessary result of a revision of the tariff.

BRANTFORD ON MAIN LINE

Because the city would not grant financial aid. They thought the railway would have to touch the town anyway. Railroad men say that this was one of the big blunders of the promoters of the Great Western, and since that time the T. H. & B. have profited by the G. W. B. experience by penetrating the very heart of the City of Hamilton and constructing a comparatively level road back of Dundas, obviating very heavy grades and touching Brantford.

GEORGE HATELY, Secretary, Brantford Board of Trade who was then general manager, promised that if the city would forego the penalty of $25,000 for the removal of the car shops, the new line would be built. The proposition, however, was not run only local trains over the new line, but in the meantime the Grand Trunk Railway paid the penalty of $25,000, and when Mr. Reeve was general manager he made the first definite proposition to the city, namely, that if the city paid a bonus of $50,000, the line would be built and that all passenger trains would pass thru the city.
