DOUBLE CONVENTION NOW IS POSSIBILITY

One of Four Things The Situation In Chicago

THE ROOSEVELT BOLT

Forecast of the Colonel's Plans in Fight for Nomination — The Riot Looked for Yesterday Did Not Develop, But There Was Talk, Talk, Talk

(Canadian Press)

Chicago, Ill., June 19.—The second day of the fifteenth republican national convention opened with ten hours of stultifying fighting, and the outcome of the contest for the presidential nomination no nearer the eye than it was yesterday.

Four major possibilities loomed large in the foreground. These were the re-nomination of President Taft, the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt, nomination of a third candidate, and possibility of a second or double convention.

Scores of men could be found in the convention crowds who would back any one of these possibilities with hard cash.

Taft, Roosevelt and third candidate partisans each claimed the strategic advantage, as a result of yesterday's selection of United States Senator Root of New York reasons—because The Terrible Theodore got cold feet and because the Taft machine threw cold water on it, drowned it out with two hours of talk and a four hour voting contest that kept the audience busy talking. The good old steam roller has a springing attachment which does great work laying the dust.

The original Roosevelt plan was a sort of massacre of St. Bartholomew, which Governor Hatley or Senator Borah was to start by scragging the chairman, Victor Rosewater, after which the western rough riders would toll in with the gun play and the colored troops with their banners.

The 200 police were all set for this. They threw a cordon of six forties around the speakers' platform. They kept everybody in the aisles moving. They allowed no suspicious looking people, not even newspaper reporters, near the delegates or the alternates. There was no chance for murder in any part of the building. All that happened was words, words, words. From the opening prayer, which was a good prayer because it was short and clear and had carrying power, to the keynote speech in 15 flat, because it stated nothing but platitudes, the thing went as merrily as a game wren's singing. Only by a great effort of the mind could one picture the bull moose bellowing and gnashing his teeth in the Empire Hotel, a few blocks away, so decausous were the hostile proceedings.

NOT IN IT WITH A BOURASSA MEETING

A score of lawyers disguised as state governors and delegates split hairs about parliamentary procedure all of an afternoon, quoted precedent each to his own purpose, twisted facts and talked law, order and constitutional liberty. He looked just as pleasant at seven p.m. when the shouting was over as he did when the convention had his picture taken six hours before. Time, as we know, heals all wounds, but those of love, and it was time, assisted by a flood of rhetoric, that the Taft men used to put the Roosevelt fire out.

DEBATE DID NOT WORK ANY CHANGE

To begin with Victor Rosewater gave the rival Taft and Roosevelt orators twenty minutes a side, forty minutes in all, to thrash out the standing of the delegates. The forty minutes, stretched by indulgence into an hour, and then some. Much straw was chopped but nothing new developed except Governor Hatley's claim of eighty tainted delegates, which in some few less than the 235 Colonel Roosevelt has been hollering about.

Governor Hatley, who is from Missouri, waved his long arms and shook his long hair and almost jerked himself to pieces with dislocating and adjectives. So did others, but they said nothing to change Victor Rosewater's mind. Governor Hatley's motion was as much out of order at the end of an hour of debate as it was at the beginning. The talk was a little overwrought for Canadians, but not so much so as at democratic conventions, where the spread eagle speaker feels more at home. The only purpose it served was to put the Roosevelt riot that much further behind.

Having ruled everything that did not suit him out of order, Chairman Rosewater put in nomination for temporary chairman of the convention, the name of Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin, the Taft choice. Close on his heels Henry Cochrane, of Milwaukee, put in the name of Governor McDevore, of Wisconsin, the

Fleming Plays the Game to The Limit in St. John — Two Glaring Cases

Some of the trickery being practiced by government officials in endeavoring to appease the aversion of the hungry swarms of camp followers clamoring for positions, is not apt to be productive of large gains in the way of election day support. An act which will cause many good Conservatives to cast opposition votes tomorrow came to light this week in the county when in east St. John, James Lee, county assessor and polling clerk for years, lost his place, not because of anything which could be said against him, but because his brother-in-law was voted in.

Another instance of this kind is reported from Cape Breton where the same reason was given in the case of John E. Collins, who had capably performed his duties as keeper of the log alarm and Black Rock lighthouse, and who had the charge of the lighthouse empty since the day he was put in a strong position of the opposition party. A member of the faithful throng was selected to take his place.

No charge of partisanship, however, or any other nature could be laid against Mr. Collins, as he had been known as a faithful and capable official. The government in its dismissal from the post of light keeper has lost many friends. It is recom-

The campaign closes with every indication pointing to a tremendous Liberal victory at the polls tomorrow. The opposition has put up a clean-cut vigorous fight on the issues before the people, and the character of the candidates, the policies put forward by them, and the way in which they have conducted the campaign have earned for them the confident anticipation

CONSERVATIVES WILL HELP TURN THEM OUT

Many in Westmorland Will Vote for Mr. A. B. Copp and His Colleagues—A Rousing Meeting

Dorchester, N. B., June 18.—On Monday evening Hickman's Hall, Dorchester, was well filled by a most attentive audience to hear the issues of the day discussed by Joseph A. McQueen, J. A. Doherty, and Hon. H. B. Emmons, M.P., and John S. Dinkie, a prominent farmer of Dorchester, and a Conservative and former supporter of the Fleming party, proceeded to the withdrawal. He gave as his chief reason for his withdrawal, that they ignored the right of the farmers to representation, and the general mismanagement of the carrying on of the business of the province; broken pledges, etc., and predicted that on the 20th inst. the Fleming government would get it where the "ben god" was the matter. The speeches were most enjoyed, and most carefully listened to and generously applauded.

Hon. Mr. Emmons was in great form, and delivered a powerful and eloquent address. Many considered it one of the most effective ever given by him, and his as temporary chairman of the convention. But one thing seemed certain and that was that Governor Hatley, of Missouri, would take up the fight for the Roosevelt forces by moving his motion to strike from the temporary roll of the convention the names of ninety-two Taft delegates selected by the national committee in contested election cases and substitute those of the Roosevelt cases.

It seemed equally certain the Taft leaders would move to refer Governor Hatley's expurgated list to the committee and that on this motion there would be a roll call of all delegates individually.

As now laid down by leaders, the convention will be organized to proceed to business on Thursday morning. It is expected by them that the credentials committee will report on Thursday night. At this time the Roosevelt followers can remove their demands for a "purging" of the roll of the convention and have another individual roll call on the question. Then, if the Roosevelt partisans are beaten, may come the much talked of double convention.

Also it was said that the Roosevelt forces would refuse to recognize Senator Root as the legally elected temporary chairman of the convention.

POSSIBILITY OF A BOLT

U. S. Senator Miles Poindexter, of Washington, was among the Roosevelt leaders who intimated that the possibility of a bolt by their forces was imminent.

Another fact which became evident as the day wore on, was that most of the compromise or third candidate talk was being done by the delegates themselves, and not by the leaders. No great weight was attached to the compromise talk by the leaders on either the Roosevelt or Taft side.

Men of shrewd observation and experience in many national political conventions, declared that two points in today's deliberations could be depended upon: 1st—That no contests will be decided, as Governor Hatley desires, until the matter of contents has gone into and returned from the committee on credentials. 2nd—That there will be no compromise candidate until the Taft and Roosevelt forces have tested their strength further on roll call.

good healthy disturbance gave me a party. So what do you think of that? For Bourassa-Lemieux joint meeting in sleepy old Quebec.

As a matter of fact, nothing occurred that Victor Rosewater could not have met single handed. You must understand Victor Rosewater's position. He is chairman of the national committee. Also he is temporary chairman of the convention until his elected substitute comes along and takes over the job.

Victor Rosewater is as mild as his name, he is a little man with a head of hair. We have three boy wonders at the piano who wear it the same way. His voice is thin, and when he roars the sucking dove has it on him at least five points in the sub-base. His rulings cannot be heard three rows away, so he makes use of a deputy with a megaphone. Victor is so small that you get him with a microscope, Roosevelt candidates. This was mostly politics on the part of Colonel Roosevelt, who, by setting up a progressive from LaFollette who was not allied with either candidate, cornered the Cummins and LaFollette solid forty-six for himself. It was such a bitter pill for the LaFollette delegation to swallow that another Wisconsin got up subsequently and explained that it was done without the authority of Senator LaFollette, who was a dark horse to the last ditch, to which Cochrane responded that he would like to see the Wisconsin man who would vote for Elihu Root and go back to his state for re-election. The test case is the election of the election of one Liberal, which means that two will be elected, if the premier himself is not elected to defeat. The Liberals are confident of carrying their whole ticket.

P. B. Carvell and Cole Dugan addressed a great audience last night in Centreville, where the people are up in arms against the government because of the failure to provide for the construction of the Grand Falls section of the Valley Railway. Mr. Carvell, in a powerful address, that was applauded again and again, arraigned the government for its duplicity in regard to the railway and for its violation of the pledges made prior to 1908.

Many Conservatives in this county will vote the Liberal ticket.

STRONG FOR OPPOSITION

Nauwigawank, Kings Co., N. B., June 18.—Even the wet weather and bad roads did not prevent a large crowd from assembling in the public hall here last night to hear the able address of S. H. Flewelling and Dr. G. M. Pearson.

Alex. Gilliland presided, and in a few brief remarks introduced the speakers, who were given a splendid reception as they scored point after point against the Fleming government for their broken pledges. It takes no political expert to see that the end of Hampton parish is tired of the grafters and will stand solid on June 20 for Pearson, Flewelling, Wetmore and honest government.

Halifax, N. S., June 19.—(Special)—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Richard Elliott has been solved. Divers found his body in the Furness-Wilby dock this morning. He was a seaman on the cableship Mina and sixty-three years of age. He disappeared on the evening of May 18. The presumption is that he fell overboard when about to board the ship.

Woodstock, May 19.—(Special)—Carleton County is all right. The Tories concede the election of one Liberal, which means that two will be elected, if the premier himself is not elected to defeat. The Liberals are confident of carrying their whole ticket.

of triumph and there is optimism all over the province.

The Fleming administration has been doomed by its own record, and the free and shameless use of "inducements" will not be sufficient to turn the electors from their purpose of defeating an inefficient and dishonest government and replacing it with a capable and honest Liberal administration.

The electors are already looking forward eagerly to the reforms and the introduction of new policies promised by Mr.

my present letter as they did the one I sent them a week ago. I write you a similar one. I am led to do so because of one appearing from C. T. Wetmore of Kings Co., in the Standard of today's date.

I will first, in reply, to give the Good Templar platform on which we, as the largest temperance organization on earth, have stood since 1830.

1.—Total abstinence from all intoxicating liquors as a beverage.

2.—No license, in any form or under any circumstances, for the sale of such liquors, to be used as a beverage.

3.—The absolute prohibition of the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors for such purposes—prohibition by the will of the people expressed in due form of law, with the penalties deserved for a crime of such enormity.

4.—The creation of a healthy public opinion appeal to his hearers to condemn the government on its giving away of the Central railway, together with its lack of business principles and management generally was most keenly applauded.

After the meeting some who have been supporters of the Fleming government came forward and expressed their determination to vote on this occasion for Mr. Copp and his party and several were able to report of others who were "doing likewise."

There is no doubt the sentiment of the country is very strong against the government, and Westmorland will send a worthy five members, amongst them our popular and aggressive leader Arthur B. Copp.

WHERE DID THIS MONEY GO TO?

Auditor's Report Gives $55,877 For Certain Work; Right Man Received Only $10

To the Editor of the Times: Sir—In looking over the auditor-general's report for the year 1909, I noticed among the items of expenditure in connection with the rebuilding of the Middlesex Bridge in the Parish of Coverdale, in the county of Albert, a charge of $55,877. (See auditor's report, page 70) for land damages.

The item appeared unreasonable both as to the amount, as well as the odd cents, in such a charge.

I called upon Mr. Stiles and asked him in reference to it and he states that he received but $10 for damages.

He volunteered to make an affidavit or solemn declaration to that effect and did so, making a solemn declaration, a copy of which I enclose herewith, which speaks for itself.

I think it is important that the people should know where the extra $55,877 has gone to and would ask you to kindly publish this affidavit.

Yours truly,
ELECTOR OF THE PARISH OF COVERDALE,
Coverdale, N. B., June 17,
The Affidavit.

I, Gilbert Stiles, of the Parish of Coverdale, County of Albert, farmer, do solemnly declare that I only received $10 as land damages during the rebuilding of the Middlesex Bridge, under the supervision of E. P. Hoar, in the year 1909, and I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the Canada evidence act.

The Liberal Party in New Brunswick owes to Mr. A. B. Copp the tribute of a generous and whole hearted support for the splendid ability with which he has marshalled his forces and brought them into the field for tomorrow's battle. Make it a battle royal, all along the line.

Copp, and are anticipating a marked improvement in the progress and prosperity of the province under his leadership. The fact that Mr. Fleming has put forward no new policy in this campaign or that, after his previous failures, he has decided that it is safer not to make promises which he does not intend or cannot carry out.

The Liberals will put up a great fight for the six seats in St. John City and County, and with every prospect of success; all citizens who favor good government and a progressive administration upon the subject, by the active dissemination of truth in all the modest known to an enlightened philanthropy.

5.—The election of good, honest men to administer the laws.

6.—Persistence in efforts to save individuals and communities from so direful a scourge, against all forms of opposition and difficulty, until our success is complete and universal.

On the platform I have stood for twenty years. I have not always voted conscientiously concerning it for, in my early days, I was a short-sighted, bigoted Conservative, putting party first principle second.

At the last provincial election I took a similar stand against the government then in power, as I take today. I will take a similar stand against the government that will be in power after Thursday of this week, as expressed in the letter referred

LA MARQUISE DE FONTENAY

King Alfonso Wins and Gambling Place is Closed

The Duke of Fife's Affairs—Canadian Honored

(Copyright, 1912, by the Brentwood Co.)

King Alfonso and his mother, Queen Maria Christina have long succeeded in having their way, and in deference to their persistent pressure, the Spanish government has issued a decree for the immediate closing of the great public gambling establishment at San Sebastian.

By wholesale bribery he was able to secure a footing at San Sebastian from the royal municipality and naturally attracted to this watering-place, which for twenty years or more had been the favorite summer resort of the king and his mother.

When the gambling establishment was first instituted, the government of the day turned a deaf ear to the royal protests, assuming that political party considerations rendered it impossible for it to offend the city authorities of San Sebastian, by a rigorous enforcement of the anti-gambling laws.

As for Marquis, he is reaping so great a harvest from the tables which he was permitted to set up in the new Helipolis, suburb of Cairo, that he has not even deigned to attend to the closing of his casino at San Sebastian.

Ex-President Cyprian Castro of Venezuela is expected these days in Berlin, at the private hospital of Professor Israel, a great surgeon, where he is operated on in January, 1909, and where he is once more to be submitted to the knife.

Despite the attempts to ridicule the notion that the late Duke of Fife had left here—his only children were two daughters—to certain of his honors, it is now definitely established that his Earlship of Fife, his Viscounty of Macduff, and his Barony of Braco, all in the peerage of Ireland, have passed to a distant, one-armed cousin, known as Jekyll Duff.

These honors were bestowed chiefly in recognition of his services to the Hanoverian cause against that of the Stuarts. The first Lord Fife had six sons. The eldest predeceased him; the second, James, succeeded as second earl, and, dying without issue, left his honors to the third brother, Alexander, from whom the late Duke of Fife was descended.

The fourth brother was the Hon. George Duff, who married Frances Dalzell, daughter of General Robert Dalzell. The "Peerages" say that there was a son born to this union, named George, but do not mention what became of him. This son entered the ministry, and received the degree of doctor of divinity from the University of Edinburgh. He married Miss Ogilvy, and their son was Colonel Daniel Duff of the East India Company's service.

As the birth of his grandfather, George, is on the register of the House of Lords, all he needs to do in order to obtain the family honors is to prove the legitimacy of his own birth, and that of his father, Daniel. But according to English law the establishment of these proofs would have to be made before the committee of privileges of the House of Lords by the agency of the highest-priced members of the English bar.

A Word on Parent Managing

By RUTH CAMERON

It is often most interesting to observe how easily a clever child can manage its parents. Some of our modern children are adepts in all the branches of the art, but one particular trick which almost every child knows is that of distracting his parents' attention from a command which he does not wish to obey.

A little neighbor of mine nominally goes to bed at half past seven o'clock. I happened to be calling there the other evening at about that hour and witnessed a little drama, the like of which evidently takes place quite regularly. The clock in the hall chimed half past seven and a worried expression crossed my hostess' face.

"Come, Marjorie," she called. "It's half past seven and you know you didn't get to bed until nine last night or the night before. I want you to start promptly tonight."

"Oh, mother," from Marjorie, "please let me sit up just a few minutes more. I want to finish this chapter."

"No, Marjorie, now please don't tease. You know what you promised me last night."

Marjorie carefully marked her place; closed her book and stood up. Then she looked outside the window and caught sight of the family cat outside on the piazza.

"Well you may if you'll hurry," weakened Marjorie's mother.

It took ten minutes to bring Tom in, to show him off and finally dispose of him on the couch.

Five minutes more were used in saying good-night to her. Again my hostess reminded Marjorie that she had promised to start promptly tonight and this time she accompanied her up the stairs.

Marjorie is certainly a very clever little musician, but I should not advise having her trained for that profession. I think it would be wiser to have her prepare for a diplomatic career.

A word to the child who wants to control his parents; walking will accompany by open disobedience, but the very best trick of all when you don't want to mind, is to distract your father's or mother's attention; study his or her weaknesses, and nine times out of ten you can defer obedience indefinitely, if not altogether escape it.

Forcing laying hens with stimulants of any kind, except those nature supplies in good food, is a dangerous and costly process in the long run.

The death rate is higher in spring than at any other time of the year. For this there are two reasons: the air is laden with disease germs, the human system is in a run-down condition and not able to fight off disease.

Pure, rich blood is the greatest of germs. This fact is now generally conceded by medical experts. Get the blood rich and you afford to the body the most certain means known of fighting off disease.

COLLISION IN AIR

Two French Aviators Meet Awful Death. Doua, France, June 18—Captain Dubois and Lieutenant Albert Peigan, both officers in the French army and trained aviators, met tragic death this morning when the biplanes they were piloting round the military flying ground, collided with terrific force.

The officers were close friends. They were unable to perceive each other, while flying through the early morning haze. As they turned a curve, their machines collided with an awful impact, as they were travelling at high speed. The wire stay and canvas wings became interlocked and the two biplanes crashed to the ground where they were smashed into a mass of wreckage.

Lieut. Peigan was dead, but Captain Dubois was still living, although he died within an hour.

CONSERVATIVES ARE DESERTING FLEMMING UP IN YORK COUNTY

J. K. Pinder Dismally Fails to Stem the Tide—Sunbury Tory Candidate's Double Game With Temperance Men

(Special to Times) Frederickton, N. B., June 18—Ex-Warden David Cropley of North Lake, a life long Conservative, deserted the Flemming government at Fosterville last night. He told J. K. Pinder right to his face that the members for York had not carried out their promises and therefore he would not support him. Pinder was sent to North Lake to endeavor to patch things up with Cropley, but his mission was a failure.

Hon. George J. Colter and ex-Warden M. B. McNally are other prominent Conservatives who are taking no part in this election, while another, ex-Warden John McKee, is supporting the opposition candidate.

Rev. T. D. Bell, vice-president of the Sunbury Branch of the New Brunswick Temperance Federation, has a letter in the Mail today in which he charges George A. Perley, tory candidate in Sunbury, with playing a double game. He says that Perley signed the prohibition pledge, but explained to an elector soon afterwards that he did it only to get a vote, and that was as far as it would go with him.

The Reverend gentleman writes that Perley used his influence to prevent witnesses from attending a Scott Act case in Frederickton. A bond of $200 given for the witness' appearance was forfeited but, according to Mr. Bell, the attorney-general has given the inspector to understand that payment will not be enforced.

TEN THOUSAND A YEAR FOR A GIRL OF BUT SEVENTEEN

New York Court Confirms This Allowance to Eugenie Kelly at Mother's Request

New York, June 18—Miss Eugenie Kelly, five years of age, the daughter of Mrs. Helen M. Kelly, was granted $10,000 a year allowance by Supreme Court Justice Blanchard, in confirming a report of John H. Judge, referee, recommending this amount of spending money.

Miss Kelly is the sister of Mrs. Ralph H. Thomas, once the wife of Frank J. Gould, in the widow of Commodore Ed. Kelly, a wealthy banker, who died in 1901.

Miss Kelly is the recipient of the income from $500,000 trust fund, and the income each year on this fund is at least $25,000. Since 1907 the girl has been allowed to spend only $2,000 a year. There is now $800,000 surplus income in the hands of her trustee.

Mrs. Kelly, mother of Eugenie, applied for the increase in her daughter's income. She and her daughter need at least $10,000 a year to maintain her place in society. Mrs. Kelly's own income is $15,000 a year. She admitted to the court that she spends all this each year and "a little more." During her husband's lifetime she says she lived at the rate of $40,000 to $45,000 a year.

Mrs. Kelly explained that Eugenie is a student in the Sacred Heart academy and lives with her mother in the Hotel Belmont. Besides her regular studies the girl is interested in painting, singing, drawing and music. These things cost extra.

Mrs. Kelly declares she and her daughter always go abroad in the summer and that these trips cost them $2,000 each. Now her two daughters, who are both interested in social life, the petitioner said she thinks it best for them to take a private home, as she believes a house would make a better home than a hotel. She estimates it will cost about $20,000 a year to run such an establishment as she has in mind.

LAST WORD FROM THE REPUBLICAN FIGHT

Chicago, June 14—Up to the very moment the convention was called to order the Taft managers labored mightily to maintain their narrow hold on the majority. All through the night and morning delegates crowded the ante-rooms and conference rooms of Director McKinley's headquarters, while McKinley and his aides argued and pleaded with them to remain firm.

REVIEWS OF A HINDOO LADY

The Begum of Bhopal, one of the few women rulers of India, on her recent return from an extensive investigating tour of various countries, delivered a notable address before the Woman's Club of Bhopal. Her highness told the audience that she had studied many systems of government during her absence, especially that of England, and was impressed with the fact that the great qualities of the western nations and their rapid progress were due to the women of the country being well educated and thus able to impart to their children a training eminently suited to fit them for the tasks of life. She urged the members of the club to make the education and liberation of their sex in India the chief object of their lives, and declared that female education was the foundation of all national success and progress.

FATHER BYRNE OF NORTON TWENTY YEARS IN PRIESTHOOD

His twentieth anniversary as a priest was yesterday observed by Rev. E. J. Byrne, pastor of the Church of the Sacred Heart, in Norton, and he was heartily congratulated by his parishioners and many friends. For the last nineteen years he has labored among the people of Norton, and he is deeply revered by his congregation, and highly respected by those of other denominations as well.

Father Byrne was ordained in St. John's Cathedral in 1893, and was assigned to Norton as pastor by the late Bishop Sweeney, and previous to going to Norton as rector, was stationed near Sussex.

Finally confessing that he had been baffled, the expert withdrew, and then came the steel drill. They said it would be easy when they "turned the jure," but the electrical connections that had been fitted to melt the huge globe failed to show any effect upon the polished surface.

There is a newer system, however, involving acetylene gas. And by use of this contact, interspersed with clever manipulation of cold steel, chisels and files of metal temper, the great ball of resistance was pierced.

Now, as to what secrets this safe revealed that is another story, but even the reports of the executors may not reveal.

PRETTY SMART WORK

Residents in rival cities, Jones and Brown were bragging hard about the excellent results of their respective homes.

"Take our fire brigade," said Jones, after an hour's heated discussion. "Do you know, the other day a fire broke out in our town, and within three minutes the engine came along, but it was going so fast that the driver couldn't pull up till he was a mile past the burning house?"

Brown smiled in a superior fashion. "My dear fellow, that's nothing," he said. "One day two men were working on a church steeple in my city, and suddenly one of them slipped. At terrible death would have been his, only, fortunately, a spectator had the presence of mind to call the fire brigade on the telephone, and they came just in time to catch him in a blanket!"

RETIRED CLOSED

The retreat which has been in progress in the monastery of the Good Shepherd during the last few days, being conducted by Rev. Father Gunning, C. S. S. R., was closed today and a retreat for the children begun.

THE ISSUE TOMORROW The platform of the Liberal party in the present provincial contest is the most progressive of any submitted to the electors of this generation.

It means progress and prosperity for New Brunswick. Mr. Copp and the candidates of the Liberal party represent a policy which will give a tremendous impetus to the forward movement.

A vote for them is a vote for better government, and for more prosperous times throughout the province.

A vote against them is a vote for stagnation and for the pledge-breakers of 1908.

Make Mr. A. B. Copp premier of New Brunswick and thus inaugurate a policy that will encourage young men to stay home and aid in building up their native province.

THE VOTER'S RESPONSIBILITY Upon the electors of the province of New Brunswick there will rest tomorrow a very grave responsibility. They are to decide whether the province is to be governed for another four years by the present administration, or whether Mr. A. B. Copp is to be called on to form a new government and carry out the broad and progressive policy laid down in the platform of the Liberal party.

The welfare of the province is in a very vital sense at stake. If the Fleming government had made an honest attempt to redeem the pledges made four years ago, it might have a colorable excuse for asking another term, but the record shows beyond question that an honest attempt was not made, nor were the pledges redeemed.

The debt of the province has not been increased. The expenditure has not been kept within the income. Liabilities amounting to over $4,000,000 have been incurred. A most improvident arrangement has been made with the Canadian Pacific Railway, practically handing over to that corporation the Central Railway; and there is the gravest suspicion that in the matter of the St. John Valley Railway the government is deliberately playing into the hands of the same corporation. With regard to the crown lands of the province, which are its chief source of revenue, and which ought to be sacredly guarded for the benefit of future generations, this government, by reducing the legal limit of size of logs cut, has introduced a policy of a ruinous character. There can no longer be any pretence that the highways of the province have been improved. Their condition is nothing short of a public scandal. With regard to the bridges, it has been shown that much money which should have been expended upon them has gone into the pockets of political partisans.

As against this record of failure and deception Mr. A. B. Copp presents a policy which, if carried out, would give New Brunswick the greatest forward movement in its history. As this journal has repeatedly pointed out, the cities and towns of the province cannot enjoy a rapid and healthy growth unless they have growing and prosperous rural communities behind them. At present there is not such growth. Some counties have lost population in the last ten years. The interests of the farmers have been neglected, while those of the corporations have flourished under tory rule. Mr. Copp, by the introduction of an agricultural credit system and cheap rural telephones, and by taking the roads out of politics, ensuring the expenditure upon them of all monies designated for that purpose, would bring prosperity within reach of the farmer, make country life more attractive, and thus lead inevitably to an increase in the number of prosperous farmers in New Brunswick.

Mr. Copp also proposes to make a re-survey and valuation of the crown lands, so that the province will know the extent and value of this great asset; and so that the government will be in a position to talk business when the present leases expire. In that connection he pledges himself to consider the interests of the people rather than of the corporations, which policy has not been pursued by the Fleming government. The big lumbermen on the Miramichi are said to be supporting the government, and the editor of the Conservative Chatham World and the other two gentlemen who are running with him in opposition to the government ticket, are outspoken in their belief that there is a deal of some kind between the lumber lords and the government.

With regard to the fisheries, Mr. Copp will guard the interests of fishermen in all matters in which large corporations may also become interested. With regard to the interests of working men generally, he promises to pursue a right policy; and certainly he could not be less helpful of their interests than the present government; and, as a witness in this case, it is only necessary to summon Mr. W. Frank Hatheway, who not only is not a government candidate but has not lifted a finger in aid of the government candidates in this campaign.

Doubtless the majority of the electors have already decided how they will vote tomorrow, but if any are still in doubt, the statements set forth in this article lead them earnestly commended.

NEITHER NOISE, POSTERS NOR BIG ADVERTISEMENTS WILL MEND THE ROADS, WIFE OUT THE DEFICIT, RE-FOREST THE DEPLETED CROWN LANDS NOR CONCEAL THAT MILLION DOLLARS ADDED IN THE PROVINCIAL DEBT.

IF ST. JOHN CITY AND COUNTY DO THEIR DUTY TOMORROW MR. A. B. COPP WILL BE THE NEXT PREMIER OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

MY PROVINCE

(An Old Home Week Poem.) New Brunswick hath a charm that's all her own, Though wander to the four points of the earth, And blest is he who calls this land his home.

And doubly blest who claims it by his birth. And thou, fair land, the first I looked upon

My ever linger longest in the eye. Thy charms from childhood come and might can serve Through all this changing life to break the tie.

Thy footling fields where list my feet afar And I behold again my native shore, And breathe again my northern native air.

I wander o'er a fertile southern strand Where pleasurable nature spreads in scenes most fair, Still must I long for thee, my native home, And every charm with thine I needs compare,

Which only serves to bind thee to my heart. And make me long for thy content the more. From thou, oh mother of my wandering feet, All time and space is measured on the chart.

For I mark only as again we meet And I behold again my native shore, And breathe again my northern native air.

My province, thou must seem of me a part, Have but their image to my longing heart, And at thy very name I feel the thrill!

"If you can't sing make a joyful noise," is the advice given to the congregation of a church in Essex by a writer in the church magazine.

A vote for the Liberal candidates in this campaign will be a vote for progressive government and for a real forward movement in New Brunswick.

CARLETON BOY DROWNED

A distressing fatality occurred at Colwell's slip, on the West Side, yesterday afternoon, when Willie Alberts, a ten-year-old colored boy, lost his life while playing with other children in the slip. The children were playing on logs near the shore with the water only two or three feet deep, and it is thought that the Alberts had rolled under a log and was caught and drowned. The other children did not see him go under, and when he was missed and the alarm given it was too late to save him.

The body was found in a few minutes and taken into Mr. Colwell's store, but life was found to be extinct. Dr. Kenney, he coroner, was called, but was out on a call and Dr. M. L. Macfarland was summoned. After examining the body and making full inquiries into the accident, he decided that an inquest was not necessary, and gave permission for the removal of the body.

THE HEAT IN BOSTON One death and five prostrations from the heat were recorded in Boston and its suburbs on Monday. The day was not exceptionally warm, but high humidity and lack of any breeze made it most uncomfortable. British automobile exports now amount to about $22,000,000 a year. Great Britain's wheat fields cover two million acres.

CHATTY NEWS OF THE GREEN ROOM

Lottie Gilson, for years known to theatre patrons as "The Little Magnet," dropped dead about half past ten Monday night at 328 West 43rd street, New York.

Christie McDonald will spend the summer in a cottage at the beautiful island of St. John's.

Margaret Anglin's tour will end in Halifax, N. S., on July 6. In September she will present "Madame X" last season.

Miss Jessie Bonstette, a favorite in St. John, during her summer vacation, will be at the Star Theatre, Buffalo, N. Y.

A special "Royal Command" performance will be given at Buckingham Palace on July 4, when vaudeville artists from all over the earth will appear.

It was this friend who recommended him for the part, says the Washington Post. "Ritchie wanted an engagement very badly. He dickered with the manager for a while, and was finally made an offer, which he was about to accept when suddenly he heard a familiar sound, and discovered his silent friend was tapping a message to him with little clicks on his desk, which read: 'Hold off a minute. Ask him for $20 more.' He said he would give that for you came in."

"CURED THE PILES, THAT I KNOW"

There is no lack of evidence to prove that Dr. Chase's Ointment is a positive cure for piles. It is not pleasant to think of the dreadful disease, but it is satisfactory to know that there is a cure, for all who will avail themselves of it, in Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. Dan Stewart, Gaborone Lake, N. S., writes: "For about two years I had a large pile, but had to give up work and go home because of the suffering from piles was so great. It was two weeks in bed, and my doctor could help me very little. One night I suffered such agony that I did not know what to do. Next day I wrote for a sample of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and this did me so much good that I ordered a large box, and was entirely cured by its use. That was six months ago, and there has been no return of the trouble. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a sure cure for piles. That I know."

A WEAK, ACHING BACK CAUSED HER MUCH MISERY

Could Not Work and Had No Ambition For Anything. These who have never been troubled with kidney trouble do not know the suffering and misery which those afflicted undergo.

Weak, lame or aching back comes from the kidneys, and when the kidneys are out of order the whole system becomes deranged.

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles. Mrs. W. R. Hodge, Fielding, Sask., writes:—"A few lines highly recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. For this last year I have been troubled very much with nasty sick headaches, and a weak, aching back which caused me much misery, for I could not work and had no ambition for anything. My kidneys were very badly out of order, and kept me from sleeping at nights. I tried many kinds of pills and medicines, but it seemed almost in vain. I began to give up in despair of ever being well and strong again, when a kind neighbor advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, which I did, and am thankful for the relief I obtained from them, for now I am never in trouble with a sore back or sick headaches. I will always say Doan's Kidney Pills for mine, and can highly recommend them to any sufferers."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mail direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."

RECENT DEATHS

Young's Cove, June 17—Mrs. Edward Wilson, of Young's Cove, passed peacefully away on the 15th inst., after an illness of some months. She leaves a sorrowing husband, two small children, two step-daughters, a father and two brothers, Ben and Sydney Coope. The family have the sympathy of the entire community. The body was taken to McDonald's Corner, her former home, for burial. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. Owens.

The death occurred last evening of Mrs. Phoebe Clark, widow of George Clark. She was a highly respected resident of West St. John. Surviving are three daughters—Mrs. Lealie L. Clark, of Boston; Mrs. Joseph Stackhouse, of West St. John, and Mrs. Charles R. Clark, also of West St. John. Mrs. Clark's husband died about four years ago. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon.

The Montreal Star announces the death of Bradley Bernard at St. Michael's College, Santa Fe, New Mexico. He was a member of the Christian Brothers and was a teacher of international reputation. Brother Bernard, in the world Thomas Kelly, was born in St. John fifty-four years ago. He was a son of the late Thomas Kelly, a well known tailor, whose home was in Charlotte street.

If The Hair Root Is Not Dead, Do Not Despair

Falling hair means scanty hair, and scanty hair means baldness. The whole trouble is caused by dandruff germs that destroy the natural nourishment that is supplied to the hair root.

MONEY FOR THE VETERANS HELD UP AT OTTAWA

Ottawa, June 19—Although only about 8,000 veterans of the Fenian Raids of 1866 and 1870 are entitled to the government grant of $100, already some 25,000 applications have been received.

MR. LANCASTER SPEAKS OF THE MARRIAGE BILL

St. Catharines, June 19—E. A. Lancaster, M. P., framer of the marriage bill, and the validity of the statement yesterday afternoon.

LABOR MEN'S DEMANDS THIRTEEN ENTOMBED IN THE MINE

Chicago, June 19—Samuel Gomper, president of the American Federation of Labor, arrived in Chicago last night and began formulation of plans which they will submit to the proper committee for action in the Republican platform.

GOVERNMENT AFTER THE ATLANTIC POOL

New York, June 19—Evidence intended to show that the alleged foreign shipping combine, generally known as the "Atlantic pool," was so called "fighting ships" in an effort to destroy rivals and suppress competition, was introduced yesterday afternoon at the hearing in the federal government's suit against the alleged pool.

LATE SPORT NEWS

Salt Lake City, Utah, June 19—Alfred G. Queltz, broke the world's record for two-thirds of a mile, unpaired, at the Salt Palace bicycle track here last night, racing the distance in 1:11.15.

MAN'S MASTERY OVER LION NOW FOR OTHER SIDE

Barricade, Ont., June 19—At Allandale yesterday, a jungle lion broke from its wooden cage in an express car on the way to Bangor's circus.

Eczema 25 Years Cured by "Cuiticura"

"I have been treated by doctors for twenty-five years for a bad case of eczema on my leg. They did their best, but failed to cure it. My own doctor had advised me to have my leg cut off, but I said I would try the Cuiticura Remedies first. He said, 'try them if you like but I do not think they will do any good.' At this time my leg was soiled from the knee down, my foot was like a piece of raw flesh and I had to walk on crutches.

FIGHTING IN CUBA

Santiago, Cuba, June 19—It is reported that 600 insurgents, under command of General Estenoz, attempted to burn the Soledad plantation near Guantanamo last night. United States marines extinguished the flames and fired several volleys at the raiders, but apparently without effect.

FIRE INSURANCE RESOLUTION

Quebec, June 19—The annual meeting of the All Canada Fire Insurance Federation was held here yesterday. A resolution was passed instructing the secretary to keep a list of business concerns which, while enjoying fiscal advantages and the patronage of the Canadian public, place their insurance with unincorporated companies, so that the members be fully advised of those pursuing a course declared so detrimental to the interests of the country as a whole.

Are Standing the Pa.
Detroit, June 17.—With every game Griffith's team of youngsters seems to be improving. It is a noticeable fact that the weakness of the beginners is daily growing less, so that if the improvement continues it will only be a matter of time when Griffith will have a finished ball team.

Moeller and Foster, of course, are established. There is no longer any question about their ability, but it is good to see how Moeller and Foster are coming through. It may sound like a bold statement, but it will be proved in time that there is not a better left fielder in the American League today than Howard Shankle. If there is anything hit in to that territory that he cannot get the batter is entitled to whatever his drive may net him.

Two essentials of breaking into major league baseball are naturalness and self-possession. The average young fellow is very likely to imagine that the big league is "over his head"; consequently loses his nerve, forgets everything he ever knew and does himself an injustice.

"He imagines every eye in the grand stand is on him personally. He needs to be withdrawn from the ball game and becomes centered in himself. He begins to be self-conscious.

The greatest fight a young player has on entering the major league is with himself. If he possesses sentiment on and off the ball field under all circumstances the rest will come easy, if he has the natural ability.

The 4 C's Dress-Making Dept. 68 Mecklenburg Street

Morgan is establishing quite a reputation as a hitter, and incidentally he is learning a whole lot of how to play second base.

Jean Dubuc, of Detroit, stands head and shoulders above the ordinary pitcher when it comes to hitting. He can hit when he can't do anything else.

The first impression of Dubuc is not usually a favorable one. To the uninitiated it seems as though the pitcher is throwing himself off balance when he pitches.

Dubuc is modest. He attributes his success to the editing work behind him. Talk of pitching, and Jean will tell of fielding plays that jerked him from tickle situations.

There are young pitchers who would "lose their head" were they to be asked to pitch in the big leagues.

Louis Piper, manager of the Lawrence team of the New England League, announced that the New York Club has paid $7,000 for a pitcher, Ray Keating, of the Lawrence team.

President Farrell says of the Keating deal, "We bought Keating for the price asked, because we didn't want him to develop into a wonder for some other team."

President Farrell, owner of the New York Club, has lost enough money by the postponement of his games this year to almost buy a new team.

Harold C. Jarvis, a Boston school boy who played with the Red Sox last year and who now is a member of the Jersey City International League, gives the following information to school boys desiring to break into fast company in the "Scholastic Weekly."

SOME WHO OPPOSED THE FLEMING GOVERNMENT

Mr. Fleming is opposed in this election by the farmers who do not want the state to grant a bonus to new competitors, but who do want the state to make them loans on easy terms so they can develop their farms.

By the trade unions whose demands for a fair wage clause in provincial contracts, the appointment of a fair-minded commissioner of labor, and other reforms, were refused.

By the fishermen who resent the torrid policy of granting out water powers almost unconditionally to private corporations which will render it impossible for them to secure cheap power, and develop their industries in competition with the other provinces.

By the rural ratepayers whose road taxes have been increased and put in the pockets of Mr. "Various Persons," rather than in the improvement of the roads.

By the owners of improved lands whose school taxes have been nearly doubled in the last four years while holders of wild lands all around them have escaped taxation altogether.

By the laborers who were duped into supporting him in 1908 by his promise that the government would be conducted on nonpartisan lines.

By thinking electors who realize the need of larger markets for our farm products and resent his efforts to help the "interests" and defeat reciprocity.

By all those who believe in the good old British doctrine of fair play to all and special privileges to none, and last but by no means the least.

By the temperance workers who believe the government has not kept pace with the rapidly growing temperance sentiment of the people.

By the farmers who do not want the state to grant a bonus to new competitors, but who do want the state to make them loans on easy terms so they can develop their farms.

By the fishermen who resent the torrid policy of granting out water powers almost unconditionally to private corporations which will render it impossible for them to secure cheap power, and develop their industries in competition with the other provinces.

LOCAL NEWS

PRESENTATION.
Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bonnell met at their home last evening and had a very enjoyable time. There were many expressions of good will, including substantial ones from members of the Victoria Street Brotherhood.

NOVELTY SHOWER.
Miss Beacie Harding of 88 Stanley street, was pleasantly surprised last evening when her friends called and presented to her a novelty shower, which is greatly appreciated in consequence of an event which will take place in the near future.

EAST END LEAGUE.
In the next meeting this evening the Alerts and Commercial will clash. The former will have as battery McGowan and Boston, while they will be opposed by Sproule and Garvin. Fine, snappy ball has been played in this league since its opening, and the games draw large crowds.

IN PRIVATE CAR.
Attached to the Boston express at noon today was the private car "Independence" in which were Lewis Cabot and party, of Boston, passing through the city on an annual fishing trip to lakes in the northern part of the province. They will leave for the north shore this evening.

SHOULD BE LOOKED INTO.
A young lad charged with being one of a disorderly crowd in Durham street last night and also with placing barrels on a bonfire, was in the police court today. According to the evidence he occupied a cell all last night with a man arrested for drunkenness. His mother told the court that she did not think it right that her son should have to be placed in a cell with a drunken man.

LAST NIGHT'S FIRE.
Fire in a three story brick building in Drury lane last night did damage amounting to about $100 to the furniture of Mrs. Mary Hapenny and the goods in the lower flat were considerably damaged by water. The building is owned by the Daniel Rooney estate, and occupied by Mrs. Mary Sullivan, John Beal, Mrs. Mary Hapenny, William Shannon and James Hapenny. The damage to the building is estimated at about $200.

ROVERS WON.
In an exciting evening game in the Queen Square, Carleton, last night, the Rovers defeated the Stars by a score of 3-1. The feature was a home run by three men on bases, made by Morrissey, who played centre field for the Rovers. The lineup was:

BUNNY WEDDINGS.
Doherty-Hassel.

The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception was the scene of a very pretty wedding this morning when Rev. Arthur W. Meahan united in marriage Margaret L. Hassel, daughter of Mrs. K. Hassel, of Union street, and Robert Doherty, son of Joseph Doherty, of South End. The bride was given away by her brother, Charles Hassel, and was becomingly attired in a suit of cream cloth with baby Irish trimmings, and large white picture hat trimmed with ostrich feathers. She carried a bouquet of roses. Miss Kathleen Hassel, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and was gowned in a suit of gold cloth with rattle trimmings and a large black hat trimmed with lace and cream roses. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was supported by his cousin, Frank Coster.

After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's mother in Union street, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The house was handsomely decorated with ferns, apple blossoms and plants. After breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Doherty left by boat on a honeymoon trip to Boston, New York, Philadelphia and other cities in the United States. On their return they will reside in Horsfield street.

Both the bride and groom are very popular in social circles in the city, and they received many handsome and costly presents of cut glass, silverware, etc. from friends and relatives. The groom's present to the bridesmaid was a gold watch and fob and to the groomsmen a stick pin. The groom is one of the most popular young pilots at this port. The pilot boat Howard D. Troop was decorated today with flags and bunting in honor of his wedding.

O'Keefe-McGillivuddy.

In St. Peter's church at six o'clock this morning a pretty wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Duke, C. S. R. when he united in marriage Patrick O'Keefe of Fairville, and Miss Mary Irene, daughter of Mrs. Ellen McGillivuddy of Main street. Friends gathered to witness the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Frederick, was nicely dressed in a blue traveling costume with black hat. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Nellie McGillivuddy as bridesmaid, wearing a pretty grey suit and black hat. John O'Keefe, brother of the groom, was best man.

A dainty wedding breakfast was served after the wedding, and later Mr. and Mrs. O'Keefe left on the Eastern S. S. Co's steamer for a visit to Boston and other cities. They will reside at 399 Douglas avenue. The groom presented to his bride a gold-sized watch, to the bridesmaid a locket and chain, and to the groomsmen a stick pin. They received a valued assortment of wedding remembrances, including cut glass, silverware and china.

The fellow employ of Mr. O'Keefe in the Farrington Pulp Company showed their esteem by presenting to him a handsome dining-room chair.

Jenkins-Vanwart.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Brown, of North End, and daughter, Miss Helen, and Rev. Doctor Hutchinson, pastor of Main street Baptist church left this morning on the steamer May Queen at about the wedding of Miss Maude Vanwart, daughter of John O. Vanwart, who is to be married this evening to Gert Jenkins, daughter of Rev. Doctor Hutchinson will officiate. Both bride and groom have many friends here, who will wish them every happiness. The ceremony is to be performed at Evandale, at the home of the bride.

HON. MR. MURRAY HAS DECLINED

He and Colleagues Will Not Meet Mr. Robinson in Joint Debate on Temperance Legislation of Government—Meeting at Sussex Called Off

To the Editor of the Times.
Sir—Hon. Jas. A. Murray called me up on the phone this morning, and stated that he would not meet me in joint debate on the temperance legislation of the government this evening in Sussex. As Mr. Murray spoke for his colleagues as well, they all have declined, there is no necessity for the said meeting, and I therefore call it off.

But I do not retract a single statement made in reference to the temperance legislation of the government, and I am willing and ready to meet Mr. Murray or any of his colleagues at any time and prove my case.

I also wish to emphatically deny and characterize as base slanders and lies that this or other meetings were arranged by the Liberal party, or that I am in collusion with the Liberal party. It is unfair to the Liberal party and a slander on the temperance workers, and in order to show that there is no politics in this I will postpone this and all other meetings in Kings county until after the election. I will then meet and discuss this great moral issue.

Yours sincerely,
(Rev.) W. R. ROBINSON.

THEFT CASES HEARD IN THE POLICE COURT

Two cases of theft came up in the police court this morning. The first one was against Frederick Reicker, aged sixteen years, charged with stealing $66, the property of John Hall from the Salvation Army Metropole on May 24. He belongs to this city and was boarding at the Metropole the night of May 24. Hall was also a boarder. The preliminary hearing will probably be begun on Friday morning.

Joseph Wells, arrested on suspicion of stealing six hens from James Gaynor, an all day hen resting on Charlotte street, was sentenced to three months in jail with hard labor. He pleaded not guilty to the charge.

Policeman Maxwell swore that while going his rounds of the Charlotte street alleys last night he found Wells lying in Gaynor's yard. He also found a basket containing three hens and also a bag containing three hens lying on the ground near him. He placed him under arrest.

Mr. Gaynor identified the hens as his formerly work-horse. Mr. Gaynor, but had not been into his place for more than a year. He admitted being in his yard last night, but denied stealing the hens.

Mr. Gaynor was in court and again identified his hens, which were produced in court. He asked His Honor not to send Wells to jail, as he was a hard working man.

One woman prisoner, charged with drunkenness, was sent to the Good Shepherd Home. One other woman was fined $4 or ten days in jail for drunkenness.

James Smith was fined $2 for dumping a load of wood on the sidewalk in George street.

Charles Alcorn, reported for driving a motor cycle in the streets without a license, was excused as he explained that the machine did not belong to him.

The case against Frank McDermott, charged with perjury, was resumed. William Chittick was called for the defence. He swore that several months ago he purchased a bottle of gin from Louis Fader's store in Pond street. Chittick was warned several times by the court for being impertinent.

THE PATROL SYSTEM

Commissioners Discussing it Today—Aim at a Good One While At It

The city commissioners met today in the safety board and spent an hour discussing the introduction of the police patrol system. Commissioner McLaughlin reported on the figures and other details which he has secured and on a conference which he has had with a representative of the Gannett company.

The system favored comprises a plant which includes in each box a signal horn to be pulled at intervals by each patrolman as a report that he is on his beat, another horn to summon the patrol wagon, and a telephone connecting with the central station.

INTERFERENCE WITH POLICE

Defendants in Case Today are Told That It is a Serious Matter

A case unusual in that one of the defendants is a young woman, occupied considerable time in the police court this morning. It was that of Miss Beacie Garrick and Edward Murray, reported for interfering with Police Officer O'Neill when arresting Patrick Walsh in Sydney street. Both pleaded not guilty.

Police Officer O'Neill gave evidence of arresting Walsh. Murray had stepped up to him and told him not to abuse the prisoner. He asked Murray to help him, but Murray refused. The young woman had called him a brute and had also struck him in the face.

Clarence Lambert, Joseph Matthews and two young women gave evidence for the prosecution. All four swore that the policeman did not abuse Walsh and that they saw Miss Garrick raise her hand as if to strike.

Nettie Garrick, a sister of the defendant, said that her sister did not strike the policeman.

His Honor told both defendants that they were liable to a fine of $50, as it was a serious offence to tamper with the police when they were discharging their duties. The matter was adjourned until this afternoon. The defendants were told to remain in court until they could put up a deposit for their appearance this afternoon.
