

BATTLESHP GOLIATH TORPEDOED

ALLIES ARE DEVELOPING BIG OFFENSIVE IN WESTERN THEATRE

BRITISH HELD LINES UNDER FEARFUL PRESSURE OF SHOT

Time and Time Again They Rebuilt Parapets That Shell Fire Had Blown Away and Waited For the Next Onslaught of Enemy Infantry to Break On the Trenches.

By 'THE EYE-WITNESS' London, May 13.—The official British eye-witness, under date of May 11, gives an account of the German attempts on Saturday and Sunday last to break the British lines around Ypres and the great advance made by the allied forces north of Arras. He says: "The calm that prevailed Thursday and Friday proved to be only the lull before the storm. Early Saturday morning it became apparent that the Germans were preparing an attack in strength against our line running east and north-east from Ypres. The enemy were concentrating under cover of a violent artillery fire, and at 10 o'clock the battle began in earnest. DETERMINED ASSAULTS "At that hour the Germans attacked our line from the Ypres-Poelcapelle road to within a short distance of the men in the high road, it being evidently their intention to engage us closely on the whole of this sector, to break our front in the vicinity of the Ypres-Roulers railway, to the north and to the south of which their strongest and most determined assaults were delivered. "Under this pressure our front was penetrated at some points around Frezenberg, and at 4.30 o'clock in the afternoon we made a counter attack between the Zonnebeke road and the railway in order to recover the lost ground. Our offensive was conducted most gallantly, but was checked before long by the fire of machine guns. "Meanwhile, the enemy launched another attack through the woods south of the Menin road, and at the same time threatened our left to the north of Ypres with fresh masses. Most desperate fighting ensued, the German infantry coming on again and again, and gradually forcing our troops back, though only for a short distance, in spite of repeated counter attacks. BROKEN AT SEVERAL POINTS. "During the night the fighting continued to rage with ever-increasing fury. It is impossible to say at exactly what hour our line was broken at different points, but it is certain that at one time the enemy's infantry pushed through along the Poelcapelle road and even got as far as Wieltje at 8 p.m. "There was also a considerable gap

Gunnery of Warships Deadly Accurate and Forces Their Lines. By Special Wire to the Courier. London, May 13.—Assertions that the towns of Chanak Kalesi, Maletos and Kilit Bahr, now are nothing but smoking ruins are contained in a series of belated despatches, dated May 5, 8 and 9, received by the Times from Moudros on the Island of Demos. Their destruction is said to have been unavoidable as they were in direct line with the fleet's fire. The despatches state that the forts in the straits gradually are being overcome and it is believed a general assault is in progress against the heights of Schi Baba, the capture of which is a necessary preliminary to a complete clearance of the straits. There are persistent reports at Moudros that these heights have been taken and the entire stretch of peninsula from Cape Helles to Kilit Bahr now is in the allies' hands. BOMBARDMENT RESUMED Paris, May 13.—A Havas despatch from Athens says: "An allied fleet re-entered the Dardanelles last night and bombarded the forts at Kilit Bahr, Chanak Kalesi and Nagara. The bombardment was interrupted at 8 o'clock, but was resumed three hours later and is being continued. "Although the Turks have been reinforced the bombardment from allied warships is causing them heavy losses and they are steadily losing ground. Turkish trenches are filled with bodies." BOTHAS GAINS ANOTHER ADVANTAGE By Special Wire to the Courier. London, May 13, 1.45 a.m.—An official statement made public at Cape Town and received by the Reuter Telegram Company says that Windhoek, capital of German South-west Africa, was captured yesterday without resistance by the Union of South Africa forces under General Botha. The population of the town consists of 3,000 Europeans and 12,000 natives. General Botha's troops took a considerable quantity of railway material and stock, and the enemy proclaimed throughout the conquered territory.

MUSICIANS REQUESTED

By advertisement elsewhere in this issue it will be seen that bandsmen are wanted at once for the 36th Battalion, under command of Lieut.-Colonel E. C. Ashton. The regiment is leaving very shortly, and a prompt response is desirable. Any applicant who is married will need to obtain the consent of his wife in writing.

PETROGRAD CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS

Statement of Official Circles Confident and Reassuring. By Special Wire to the Courier. London, May 13.—A Reuter despatch from Petrograd gives the following official statement regarding Russian military operations. "In the fighting between the Vistula and the Carpathians May 8 and 9, the Germans planned to break our front by the lightning rapidity of the blow directed at the neighborhood of Krosno by seven divisions of the flower of the German army after a heavy demonstration six more divisions appeared on this front where our army was tremendously outnumbered. "On a general front of forty miles the enemy gathered three quarters of the Austrian army, one-ninth of the German army, the first reserve, half the contingents of the second reserve, besides eight divisions from the Serbian front, several new Austrian divisions and twenty infantry divisions. Botha. The population of the town consists of 3,000 Europeans and 12,000 natives. General Botha's troops took a considerable quantity of railway material and stock, and the enemy proclaimed throughout the conquered territory. "When our troops occupied the mountainous sectors which the enemy hold to-day, the enemy's official communications declared these positions were of no importance." (Continued on page four.)

CORPORAL W. BELL WOUNDED---HE WRITES HOME

Pte. Gerentree of Paris Also on Casualty List of the Fifth Battalion. Brantford's casualty list to-day held only two names, and both reported as wounded. PTE. FRED GREENTREE, Paris, Ontario (5th Batt. Ontario). PTE. W. W. BELL, 269 Brant Ave.—Wounded. PTE. T. GREENTREE Is unknown in the city. He enlisted with the fifth Battalion and could not be traced up at the time of going to press. CORPORAL W. W. BELL Corporal Bell, who was wounded in the hand and leg, comes from an old English "war" family. He has ten relatives actively engaged at the front now, both on land and sea. He himself served the British Army faithfully and well right through the South African War, and received a medal for his services. In Brantford he was a well known member of the Dufferin Rifles Bugle Band before he went to South Africa. When he returned he entered the 25th Brant Dragoons and became a favorite in that regiment. He came to this country at the age of 17 years and has stayed here until the war commenced. He is now about 33 years of age and has a wife and two children residing at 269 Brant Avenue. He was employed at the post office before he left for the front. His wife received the following letter recently. It gives some more information about the terrible experiences the soldiers are now having. Dear Ethel—I hope you will not worry about me when you see the casualty list of the Brantford boys. They certainly did some good work and it was an awful sight to see them coming from the field wounded. I suppose before you get my letter you will know who is wounded and killed. This war is hell and murder. So sad to see the women and children driven from their homes with just what they can carry, and the Germans shooting after them. We often talk about the ones at home. This is the place for men at home. If they could see the dirty work done here on the defenceless women and children, who can do them no harm. I am writing this letter beside an old shed, out of range of the guns, and it is just like a terrific thunderstorm. I saw Steve Cara this morning and all the boys on the transport were alright then, but they have to move quite fast sometimes. I hope this war will soon end so as I can get home again. Lieut. Miller was wounded yesterday but will soon be (Continued on page four.)

Eyewitness of French Army Tells of Capture of Over 3,400 Prisoners—Despatch Indicates the French Infantry Now Keyed For Spring Campaign.

By Special Wire to the Courier. PARIS, May 13.—The official eye-witness with the French army gives supplementary details of the French success at Carency and Neuville, north of Arras. More than 3,400 prisoners, including forty officers, have been taken in this region since Sunday. The village of Carency is a heap of ruins, but these have been strongly fortified, rendering the fighting extremely difficult. The heights above the town are commanded by the road leading from Givenchy to Bethune. Referring to "Sunday's victory" the eye-witness says: CAPTURED BY ASSAULT. "An assault was made against La Targette and half of Neuville. We took possession of German works east of the Arras-Bethune road, and also this road itself, in the neighborhood of Souchez, and three-quarters of the roads between Neuville and Givenchy. To the north the trenches protecting this road were captured. To the east Carency was attacked and captured by assault. "Our gain in the various actions varied from two to four kilometres. Three heavily-fortified centres were taken." At La Targette, west of Neuville and east of Carency, from three to five lines of trenches were captured. In this one section alone more than 1,900 prisoners were taken, together with thirty quick-firers and six cannon. DISPLAYED GREAT DASH. "La Targette was taken by an army corps which displayed remarkable courage," says the chronicler. "Our artillery destroyed a large portion of the enemy's fortifications. The infantry, covered by artillery, at a single charge attained the outskirts, but were raked by a flank fire. "Soon the attack began again, and shortly afterwards the whole of La Targette was ours. Three hundred and fifty Germans were taken prisoners, and we also captured several '77 guns and a few quick-firers." FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE. "Of the capture of Neuville the eye-witness says: "About three o'clock in the afternoon we attacked the enemy who fired from all possible positions, crumbling walls, ruined houses and cellars. The battle raged from house to house, and was of particular violence, as the enemy counter-attacked many times." In conclusion, after giving details of the morale and bravery of the troops, the eye-witness says: "It was a glorious page in our history, and the number of prisoners is being augmented hour by hour."

SUCCESS OF FRENCH ARMY BEING MAINTAINED IN FURTHER HEAVY FIGHTING

German Resistance North of Carency is Smashed—French are Masters of New Section—German Regiments Wiped Out. By Special Wire to the Courier. Paris, May 13, 2.31 p.m.—The French War Office this afternoon issued the following statement of the progress of the war. "We won brilliant successes Wednesday evening and Wednesday night to the north of Arras. At Notre Dame de Lorette we are masters of the fort, as well as the chapel. "In the vast quadrilateral of trenches and earthworks which is to the south of the chapel of Notre Dame de Lorette we have been subjected to a very violent counter attack. A ferocious combat which lasted all night long developed in this quadrilateral. In the morning we were complete masters of the situation, having inflicted very heavy losses on the enemy. DESPERATE RESISTANCE. "During Wednesday night we also took by assault all of the village of Carency as well as the forest to the

BRITISH BATTLESHP GOLIATH TORPEDOED IN DARDANELLES

LONDON, May 13, 3 p.m.—The British battleship Goliath has been torpedoed in the Dardanelles. It is feared 500 lives have been lost. IN HOUSE OF COMMONS Announcement of the loss of the Goliath was made in the House of Commons this afternoon by Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty. While no definite information apparently had been received as to the number of lives lost, Mr. Churchill said he feared it would reach 500. The Goliath was one of the older British battleships, of the pre-dreadnought type. She was built in 1898. Her complement was 750 men. She was 400 feet long on the water-line and 74 feet beam. Her displacement was 12,950 tons. She was armed with four 12-inch and twelve 6-inch guns, twelve 12-pounders, six 3-pounders and two machine guns. She had four torpedo tubes. ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY SAVED. Twenty officers and 160 men of the Goliath's crew were saved. BRITISH TORPEDO BOAT SUNK FOUR SHIPS. Mr. Churchill also announced that the British submarine E-14 had penetrated through the Dardanelles and into the Sea of Marmora, sinking two Turkish gunboats and a Turkish transport. OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT. Mr. Churchill, on announcing the loss of the Goliath, said: "The Goliath was torpedoed last night in a torpedo attack by destroyers while protecting the French flank just inside the straits. "Twenty officers and 160 men were saved, which I fear means that over 500 were lost. "The admiral commanding at the Dardanelles also telegraphs that the submarine E-14, which, with so much daring, penetrated to the Sea of Marmora, has reported that she sank two Turkish gunboats and a large Turkish transport.

ENTIRE PENINSULA IS NOW UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE ALLIED INVADERS

London is Cheered by This Despatch, Though it is Not Verified by the Government. By Special Wire to the Courier. London, May 14.—London was cheered to-day by the publication of a despatch from Athens recording a decided advance of the British and French troops along the Gallipoli peninsula. Some reports even claimed the occupation of certain heights which would mean that the entire peninsula was under the control of the invaders. At two points on the western line of operations offensive movements are under way. The first, initiated by the Germans, is against the British, French and Belgian forces near Ypres, while the second is the pushing of French troops against the Germans to the north of Arras. For the moment, however, both of these attacks would appear to have been checked. On the Bukovina frontier Petrograd reports a brilliant success won by the Russian Cossack cavalry over the Austrian infantry. The Russian horsemen, forcing their way through a series of barbed wire entanglements, dislodged the Austrians from three lines of trenches and captured 2,000 prisoners, a battery of quick firing guns, several searchlights, and a whole string of caissons. Russia admits that the Austro-German offensive is still proceeding in Western Galicia, while Vienna claims that the Russian retreat is fast becoming a rout, with the invaders suffering enormous losses. The anti-German rioting is dying down in England, but it is reported as continuing with great violence in South Africa. The London Daily News, which is a government organ, asserts that the cabinet is prepared to order the internment of all male alien enemies in Great Britain, but that women and children and naturalized aliens will not be interned. Some positive action on the part of the United States as well as on the part of Italy is awaited with the keenest impatience. Christopher Shoup, a wealthy miller and farmer of North Walsingham, near Simcoe, Ont., was murdered by a stranger, while plowing.

Johannesburg Has Some Violent Hours

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Johannesburg, Union of South Africa, May 13.—There have been a series of violent anti-German demonstrations in Johannesburg, which culminated yesterday in the wrecking of a number of German and Austrian establishments. The police intervened to quell the disturbance but they were virtually powerless.

Altogether over fifty buildings have been wholly or partly wrecked and their contents either burned or reduced to matchwood. The establishments cleaned out include ten large warehouses, ten saloons, three hotels, and over twenty shops.

The mob destroyed the German Liederkranz Club and pillaged the offices of the General Mining Corporation. This concern has an international board of directors, including some Germans. The crowd burned all the books records and accessible papers of the company.

The offices of Sir George Albus, near the stock exchange, were raided and a bonfire was made of the furniture. The crowd also fired the premises of a well known German firm, Gundelfinger and Company, general merchants. The damage here alone was not less than $250,000, and the total losses from the rioting, which continued far into the night, are placed well over $1,000,000.

ARMIES GATHERING ON THE FRONTIER

State of Austria and Italy is Virtual Preparation for War.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Udine, Italy, May 13.—Every preparation has been made for proclamation of a state of war in all Austrian territory which borders on Italy. The government already is in the hands of the police and military.

Italians whose home are in Austria already have fled for safety across the frontier in great numbers. It is estimated that forty thousand have left Trieste alone, while the total will aggregate 120,000. Large contingents of Austrian troops are constantly arriving at Trieste and points in Gorz and Gradisca. It is asserted in military circles here that Austria has been quickly gathering this new army for possible operations against Italy.

At some points on the frontier, Austrian and Italian troops are in such close contact that they can see each other. The Austrians have occupied strongly fortified entrenchments. The bridge leading to Pontebba, just across the Italian frontier, has been mined, as have the bridges across the Isonzo River. Trains and automobiles which cross these bridges are compelled to travel at a snail's pace. Many German officers are with the Austrian troops camped near Gorz and Trieste.

Rome, May 13.—Dowager Queen Margherita, mother of King Victor Emmanuel, has given orders that the second floor of her palace be transformed into a hospital for wounded in case of war.

PUBLISH STATEMENT
Rome, May 13.—Former Premier Giolitti, regarded as the leader of the party opposed to the intervention of Italy in the war, has published in The Tribune a letter in which he declares he came to Rome because he was summoned here to express his views. He says his convictions have not changed since he expressed them in a speech before parliament. Discussing the demonstrations against him, he professes not to understand how persons who claim to be inspired by principles of complete liberty have so little respect for other people's opinions.

ing work to the people, and also English people.

There are about 12 Turks in the city and they are all working and the Turks will never become Christians. Many Armenians are out of work and down and out. They have impoverished themselves to help each other. I want to bring this matter to the attention of the public. Armenians are suffering all kinds of atrocities at the hands of the Turks and Germans because of their sympathy for the allies, and because they are fighting against the Turks and their German allies. Suppose Canada is attacked to-morrow, who is going to do the fighting for the protection of the Canadian people? The Turks, Hungarians, Germans, or Austrians? No, they will fight against Canadians from inside, and it is the Armenian who will come out to fight for Canada.

But, I am sorry to say, in the factories, on the railway, in buildings, where ever you go, there is no work for the Armenian. And I don't understand why! I want to bring this matter to the public attention, and let the people judge.

THE SITUATION.

The story of the "eye-witness" with reference to the fighting around Ypres is such as to again thrill the hearts of everyone with the pride of Empire and her brave sons.

Late reports are that the troops of the Czar are holding the enemy in Western Galicia, and a tremendous battle is manifestly to be expected at this point, as both sides are hurrying up very large reinforcements.

The Courier's leased wire to-day conveys the statement that a British battleship, the Goliath, has been torpedoed in the Dardanelles, with heavy loss of life.

THE LIBERAL CANDIDATE IN NORTH BRANT.

After prating about a party truce during this war period, and dwelling in common with Liberals generally, upon the enormity of the "crime" of bringing political issues and contests to the front at such a period, the Grits of North Brant under the manipulations of Hon. George P. Graham, have held a convention and placed a man in the field.

It will be the role of himself and friends, of course, to at once get busy among the electors. To buttonhole and argue and in general to stir up the very feelings which with great sanctimoniousness and unctuousness, it has been alleged should not be aroused.

The Grits in this riding are also ready and anxious to do the same thing, and would be right in the stirring-up game themselves if they could find a man to carry the party banner. Meanwhile both constituencies have been flooded with party campaign literature from headquarters.

So much for Liberal professions and Liberal practice in this matter the Dominion over.

Mr. John Harold, personally, bears a good name in the community in which he resides, but it is to be regretted that he should have lent himself at this time to party turmoil.

The Conservatives of the riding on the other hand have not thought of holding a convention. It is a surety when they do, Mr. J. H. Fisher, M. P., will again be the candidate, and his success is unquestioned. In 1911 he defeated the late Hon. Mr. Patterson, one of the strongest and best known of the Liberal stalwarts and his hold on the constituency has since been deservedly strengthened. At Ottawa he has also taken a very high place in government ranks, and in fact, wherever he goes it is the same story of the respect and high regard of all with whom he comes in contact. His friends, and they are legion, have no doubt whatever that he will retain the seat and that, too, by a largely increased majority.

A UNITED STATES VIEW.

The Detroit Free Press is one of the papers across the border which has kept a very cool head in its comments upon the progress of the war, and for this reason the Courier reproduces the following leading editorial from that paper.

"The early successes of the Germans indicated superior readiness in mobilization and a careful and clever scheme of operations with capacity for striking a powerful initial blow, but the present successes reveal in addition an immense staying power and a resource of men and supplies and inventive ability which was generally unsuspected last autumn. The Germans are putting up a great fight; this must be acknowledged both by friends and foes. At times their efficiency and their ability to develop new engines of offense to meet special emergencies seem almost uncanny.

But this does not mean that the Germans have won the war, or that they are even beginning to win it. They are resorting to tactics no modern nation would adopt except under supreme trial and in a desperate struggle against odds. Nor are any of their successes necessarily final victories. The Russians have been whipped before and have come back. The Germans were once many miles nearer Paris than they are to-day, and the French line, so far the steadiest factor in the war, remains unbroken. The Teutons are only making a magnificent offensive defense, and human endurance, which must sooner or later reach its limit, may force them to pause before many days are gone. The German military leaders themselves recognize their position and deprecate extravagant and early rejoicings.

After all the spring campaign is just at its opening. Lord Kitchener said the war would begin in May. It appears that he knew what he was talking about. The struggle between the Teutons and the Allies is at its commencement rather than approaching its end."

THE BELGIUM ATROCITIES.

The British commission appointed under Viscount Bryce, former Minister at Washington, to officially report regarding German atrocities has confirmed to the full, after taking the testimony of hundreds of witnesses, the ghastly stories previously published. Arson, rape, mutilation, murder, and a number of other crimes too bestial to be mentioned in detail, have been practised everywhere. The committee freely admit that men in certain instances get out of hand when the war lust is upon them, but they reach the conclusion that the crimes against persons and property were so general that they "were due to a calculated policy, carried out scientifically, and deliberately, not merely with the sanction, but under the direction, of higher military authorities, and were not due to any provocation or resistance by the civilian population."

They further record, from the proof of diaries found on bodies and otherwise, some of the officers who carried out the devilish work did so "reluctantly," but had to obey "the directions of their chiefs."

The indictment once more brings forcibly home the undoubted fact that the Kaiser and his associates are a set of cut-throats and pirates, the worst of whom the world has any record, the Huns not even excepted.

Elijah Donnell, town clerk of Brantford for 17 years, is dead at the age of 70.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Liberal manipulators in the two Brants don't want political feeling stirred up at this time, eh? No doubt that's why they have chosen a candidate in the North Riding and are out gunning for a standard bearer in this.

The Expositor says that "cheer after cheer" resounded through the Paris town hall at the Grit nomination there. As a matter of fact, the gathering did not take place in the hall at all, but in the Liberal Club rooms. As to spontaneity, why the whole thing was fixed before a delegate arrived.

Honestly now, does Mr. Harold really want reciprocity with the States, and yet this is what his party still stands for.

The local Grit organ talks of the "Grymandering work" of the Conservatives in connection with the two Brants. As a matter of fact, both of them are just as they were left by the Liberals, who moreover, had the name of this Riding changed to "Brantford", thus ignoring and flouting the rural sections which help to make up the constituency.

BRITISH-GERMANS SHOCKED AT LATEST OUTRAGE

Many Prominent Citizens Write to the London Times.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

London, May 13.—"It is not likely even now that the government will take the bold course of internment every male alien enemy at large" says The Times, which declares the cases will be considered on their merits, and it is understood that no measures will be taken against naturalized Germans and Austrians.

"The position of many of these men, some highly placed, is the crux of a new situation with which the nation is confronted," continues The Times. "Changes in law would be needed to discriminate against those who are legally British citizens and the government does not intend to introduce any fresh legislation on this subject."

The Times publishes to-day the names of a considerable number of prominent Germans who have written to express their abhorrence of German methods of warfare and their devotion to the land of their adoption.

PTE. R. CROSS.

A post card was received yesterday from Pte. Cross by his father, residing in Eagle Place stating, with official brevity of such cards, that he had been admitted to hospital, and was doing well. A letter can be expected in the near future as he is able to write.

Mrs. Steve Cara, wife of the popular Brantford police officer, has received the following letter from Pte.

Albert Hamilton, who resided at her home during his stay in the city. He was a well known local boy, and was wounded at Langemark during a charge upon the Germans.

Monday, April 26th, 1915

Dear Mrs. Cara.—Just a line to let you know I am all right. I have been wounded in the foot. It went right through, and although sore, is coming around again in a week or two I hope. We made an attack on the Germans last Friday. I suppose you know by the papers. I had a fierce time getting out, and was six hours getting to the dressing station. They shelled us out of that before I was there half an hour, and we had to get away the best we could. Steve was alright. They sent the transport back before we went to the firing line. I told one fellow to tell him if he saw him I was alright. He was wise joining the transport. You will know how hard we are hit by watching the papers. My address is E4 ward, 2 Stationary Hospital, Rouen, France. I hope you are well and the baby and your sister. Please excuse paper it is written on the back of one of your old letters. King regards to all friends.

Yours sincerely, ALBERT HAMILTON.

Success of French

very much reduced by their losses in killed, wounded and prisoners on previous days, these forces during the entire night put up a desperate resistance to our attack delivered against a maze of trenches, block-houses and narrow passages.

COMPLETE MASTERY GAINED.

"We broke down this resistance of the enemy, and at break of day we were in complete mastery of the situation. Our troops killed hundreds of Germans at the point of the bayonet. We made 1,050 prisoners of whom 30 are officers. Included in these latter is a colonel and the commandant of the battalion of chasseurs. "At the southern exit of Souchez our positions were subjected yesterday to violent attack on the part of the enemy. Nevertheless we retained them. "At Neuville our attacks on the village itself and to the north of the village made perceptible progress. To the north of Neuville we took possession of trenches several hundred yards long, and we occupied the road called the Highway Des Carrieres, which runs from Neuville to Givency. In the village itself we occupied yesterday morning, only the southern portion, the enemy still holding the centre and northern part.

A FANCY FAIR.

Under the auspices Dufferin Rifles Chapter, I.O.D.E., will be held in the armories on Tuesday evening, May 18th. Admission 10 cents. Proceeds to supply water wagon for 36th Battalion, shortly leaving for the front. A right pleasing play entitled "H. M. S. Brantford," under the direction of Miss Reding, whose talent is so widely known, included in the admission fee. "Flowers," "Candies," "Home-made Cooking," "Shrapnel Shells" for sale at the Home-made Cooking Booth. Also Ice Cream and "Hot Dogs."

Absolute Comfort Superb Health are Assured in Perfect Fitting Corsets

For a long time we have felt that it was absolutely necessary to the department to have an expert corsetiere, as most ladies would feel more confident in their purchase. Consequently Miss Limburg, who has charge of the Corset Department, has been undergoing tuition to enable her to graduate for this most important position, and left yesterday to go through her final examination, and will return to this store as an expert corsetiere, which we feel sure, will be most gratifying to the ladies of Brantford and vicinity.

Miss Limburg will be pleased to give any lady her advice on corsets at any time, and no charge will be made for fitting any corsets. Further, we guarantee to our many patrons that all fittings will be perfect.

Miss Limburg will not return to the store until next Saturday.

MORE OIL.

The city has received another account for $300 from the British American Oil Company for 5,000 gallons of kerosene oil. Scarfe's account for over 3,500 gallons of emulsified oil, costing a little over $250, was also received.

CHEQUE FOR HOSPITAL.

Mr. A. K. Bunnell, as honorary treasurer of the Brantford Hospital, has received a cheque for $500 from George Phillip Buck and William E. Buck, acting as administrators of the estate of the late Mrs. Alice Foster Buck, who left this sum to the hospital.

ON UNEMPLOYMENT.

The mayor of Winnipeg, R. D. Waugh, has taken a grip on the unemployment situation. He suggests it would be well for the mayor of each city to call a public meeting to discuss the situation as it affects each community, and if possible draft resolutions which could be placed before a mayors' conference and later presented to the Government. He has wired the Right Hon. Sir Robert Borden, suggesting that the provincial governments be represented at the conference, and awaits his reply.

As Winnipeg is seriously affected, he proposes calling a meeting there to discuss the problem. No central office is named for the mayors' conference suggested.

CONFIRMATION SOUGHT.

With regard to a report which appeared in the Courier some time ago, stating that a Hydro-Electric department had returned to the city after visiting Toronto to attend the Hydro-Electric Radial convention without actually attending the convention, because of a fee they found they would have to pay to represent the city, and which they did not approve of, Mayor Spence is in receipt of a letter from the Hydro-Electric Railway Association asking for verification. Mr. T. J. Hannigan says that none of the officers of the association had the pleasure of meeting any of the city delegates. He admits there is a $2 per 1,000 membership fee, but the inference is wrong that the city representatives were asked to pay any such fee before being allowed to attend the convention.

BRANTFORD HONORS HER VALIANT DEAD, IN ZION CHURCH LAST EVENING

United Services of All Clergymen—Rev. A. E. Lavell Delivered Address of Deep Feeling—A Solemn Service Greatly Attended.

The spirit at the memorial service in Zion Church last night for the Canadians who have fallen at the front on behalf of the right and Empire, was one of deep and solemn fervency. The address of Rev. Mr. Lavell was beautiful in thought, and soul inspiring in utterance, and all the accompanying exercises were in thorough keeping with the solemn occasion.

The edifice was crowded, and many hundreds were unable to obtain admission. In the choir seats were the various ministers of the city, Mr. Cockshutt, M.P., Mr. Fisher, M.P., Mayor Spence, aldermen and other citizens representative of various interests. Zion Church was filled to capacity last evening when the soldiers filed in and took the seats reserved for them.

The organ prelude, the "Funeral March" was perfectly played by organist D. Wright, and was followed by the opening hymn. Rev. W. E. Bowyer read the chosen passage of Scripture in a clear and sincere manner.

The Rev. Matthew Kelly, who occupied the chair, announced that the prayer to be read by Archdeacon Mackenzie, requesting everyone to repeat the Lord's Prayer first.

Rev. Mackenzie prayed that the Grace of God rest upon the soldiers, who are so nobly fighting for their King and Country at the front. May the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost rest upon those who are in sorrow through the terrible war that is now raging so furiously.

May the poor people who have been turned out of their homes and separated from their families, be comforted in this, their time of need. Let us all pray that the war will be speedily terminated and a stop be put on the horrible calamities arising from it.

Misses M. Raymond and E. Senn sang "He wipes the tear from every eye" very beautifully and their sweet voices blended into each other in the most pleasing manner.

Then the Chairman announced the address by Rev. A. E. Lavell, of Brant Avenue Church. The congregation present represented the whole city, and all were there for the purpose of expressing sympathy for those who have friends or relatives who have been wounded or killed on the battlefield or on the sea. From all the broad Dominion there have gone forth many to serve their king and Christ, and their friends will long look for their return.

The nation is to-day facing a great task—an awful task—a fearful task, which we hope it will never have to face in the future. But the empire will overcome it and it will ultimately make us stronger and more able to

The official opening of the Golf Club will take place Saturday afternoon, when the president and officers of the Ladies' Club will entertain members and their friends. Two separate putting competitions have been arranged for players and non-players, prizes for which have been kindly donated by the lady president, Mrs. Herbert R. Yates, and the hon. secretary, Miss Corinne Jones.

For the men a most attractive program of events will take place. First there will be a competition, medal score for a box of balls very generously presented by Mr. C. G. Ellis. These will be divided as follows: First prize, lowest score, five balls. Second prize, lowest score, three balls; third prize, lowest score, two balls. A special prize has been offered by Mr. K. V. Bunnell, to be specially competed for by players handicapped at eleven strokes to twenty-four strokes. Other events will include a putting and approaching contest. Prizes are to be very kindly presented by Messrs. A. S. Towers, D. S. Large and C. J. Harris.

Thus the official opening under favorable weather conditions, should prove a day of sport, pleasure and entertainment for all, besides assisting, incidentally, to provide that Field Kitchen that our good Colonel Ashton so urgently needs for the comfort and convenience of the men under his command.

Welland has organized a Home Guard. J. E. Armstrong, M.P., has been nominated by East Lambton Conservatives as Federal candidate. The Cunarder Saxonia was the last liner to exchange greetings with the torpedoesd Leviathan.

DETROIT IS HELD UP BY STRIKE

Tramway Men Walk Out Over Grievance.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Detroit, Mich., May 13—Not a city street car was being operated in Detroit at 7 o'clock this morning as the result of a strike called by Detroit United Railway conductors and motormen, because of the company's refusal to reinstate a motorman who had been discharged for alleged careless handling of his car. The strike vote was taken during the early morning hours and was practically unanimous.

Although the walkout had been threatened for twenty-four hours, thousands of factory employees and downtown workmen who had depended on the street cars, were from one to three hours late in reporting at their work. No disorder was in evidence when the men took their cars to the barns on the final run. Extra squads of police were called out, however, and steps taken to quell any disturbance which might arise.

Early to-day the D. U. R. officials refused to make any statement as to what action they would take. They declared, however, the men had violated terms of their working agreement with the company in that they had not first submitted their case for arbitration. The men, on the other hand claim that the company has repeatedly violated its side of the working agreement, and that while the case of the discharged motorman led directly to the strike, other factors including unsatisfactory working conditions induced them to walk out.

Aliens are to be Segregated in England

London, May 13—The government proposes to segregate "all adult male enemies for their own safety and for the safety of the country." Premier Asquith told the House of Commons. In announcing the alien policy of the government, the Premier said: "At this moment some 40,000 unnaturalized aliens, of whom 24,000 are men, are at large in this country. The government proposes that all adult males of this class should, for their own safety and menace be segregated and interned. If over the military age they should be repatriated. The government recognizes there may be cases calling for exceptional treatment. Women and children in suitable cases should be repatriated."

Tennis Folks Line Up For the Season

The Brantford Tennis Association was formed at the Y.M.C.A. last evening. Representatives from ten tennis clubs were present and elected the following officers: President, W. D. Ansell; vice-president, Gordon Berry; secretary-treasurer, W. J. Phillips.

The teams represented were: St. Mary's, St. Jude's, Bellview, two Y.M.C.A. teams, two Dufferin teams, T. H. and B. Echo Place and Paris Road. A meeting has been called for Monday night when a schedule for the season will be drawn up.

The next business meeting is to be held on Wednesday, May 19th. The rules and regulations governing the members of the association will be brought before the members for approval. The association will greatly enjoy the fascinating summer game in the city, especially as the entrance fee is only one dollar. Most of the teams already in the association are good players and the final games of the schedule will be hard-fought ones, especially if a silver trophy were presented.

Bring Bodies to Queenstown Without Inquest

Queenstown, May 13.—Lord Winborne, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has issued an order in Dublin that hereafter any bodies of persons drowned on board the Lusitania found along the Irish coast shall be brought direct to Queenstown without the formality of an inquest in small towns where they might happen to be landed. This order, it is believed here, should greatly expedite the identification of many bodies which it is believed will yet be found. A fishing boat reported last night having sighted no less than 100 bodies floating ten miles south of Glandore, which is situated on the southwest coast of County Cork, a fact which upsets the contention that the current, wind and tides had so scattered the bodies of victims as to make the recovery of any considerable number of them questionable. The news of the sighting of these bodies was conveyed to Webb Ware, secretary of Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, who has been most vigil-

DUNLOP IS SETTING A FAST PACE FOR THE REST

Once again the Brants, with Rube Deneau sizing things up, were out on the diamond yesterday at the Park.

Rabbit Fried was not up to scratch. Several times he fozzled. He was over anxious. Wanted to get them over too quick. More haste less speed.

On the first sack, 'Wag' did duty and he handled himself well, although he was evidently putting all he knew into it.

With six players in Cahill, Cooper, Carey, Sweeney, Wilson and Kuhn released, the green did not appear so swarmed as hitherto and a regular infield and outfield practice was the order of the day.

PITCHERS. Coming in on "spec" Varlett made a fair impression upon the big guns yesterday. He hits and fields and pitches fairly well, but he has not shown enough to justify him buying a meal ticket in the city.

CAN'T BUNK PUBLIC UNDER COMMISSION

Boxers Ordered Out of Ring—Right Idea in New York. New York, May 13.—It was about one minute after the eighth round started between Jimmy Clabby of Hammond, Ind., and George Chip of Newcastle, Pa., last night that referee Billy Roche threw up both hands and said: "Boys, that's all that I am going to stand for. Get out. And out they got. The action taken by Roche was greatly appreciated by the folks in attendance, for these gentlemen had been beseeching Roche for the two previous rounds to "throw them out of the ring."

BASEBALL COMMENT. The Brants had two good workouts yesterday. The boys showed more pep in the morning practice than during the afternoon workout, the infield again showing to advantage.

GREEN, BROOKS AND BURRILL ARE LIKELY TO BE IN THE OUTFIELD POSITIONS OPENING DAY, although Manager Deneau has an experienced outfielder signed up in case any of the three present fielders fail to make good.

DUNLOP IS SETTING A FAST PACE FOR THE REST

Once again the Brants, with Rube Deneau sizing things up, were out on the diamond yesterday at the Park. They were watched by a good crowd of fans, who showed their appreciation of the new stands by liberally patronizing them.

Taken in general the form displayed was encouraging and with a little polish, judiciously applied, the old Red Sox should be able to scrap and conquer anything that shows up along by the dyke.

Summed up in a few words the conclusion is, that the infield was the best of years, the outfield of moderate ability and the pitchers not in trim.

The actual composition of the team is yet a matter of speculation, although several of the positions are already booked. There is little doubt at the present moment of the weakness which lies in the pitchers. Of course, it is too early to judge the slabsmen for the simple reason they have not yet got their muscles limbered up. That they will get into some sort of shape within the next few days is certain, but as yet they are not by any means putting the sphere in the right atmosphere.

To be candid they try to put too much "scuff" on them and consequently they get wild. Quite noticeable too, was the way in which the boys could connect. Homers were remarkably scarce, but the lesser contacts were often made.

With six players in Cahill, Cooper, Carey, Sweeney, Wilson and Kuhn released, the team did not appear so swarmed as hitherto and a regular infield and outfield practice was the order of the day.

AN ARTIST.

If every member of the team was up to the class of excellence of Dunlop, the shortstop, then Brantford would land the pennant without a thought of the opposition, and old Rube could sit back among the elite and smile. But every man is not and that is why Manager Deneau will find it necessary to get down to hard necessity.

With speed, and an air of elegance, combined with the inevitable pep, Dunlop is all there and he eats up all that comes his way. His catches on the run are spectacular while his pegging is a lesson in marksmanship. He is a good one and if any position is held fast, it's the short.

need comment. Being in possession of the goods he keeps them in reserve. His wife at home to all that struck anywhere around third yesterday and his work was well done. Mike is safe.

ERRATIC

Rabbit Fried was not up to scratch. Several times he fozzled. He was over anxious. Wanted to get them too quick. More haste less speed. His eyes travelled faster than his hands and the ball was the fastest of the three. However he can do better he says and will prove it later.

A WORKER

On the first sack, 'Wag' did duty and he handled himself well, although he was evidently putting all he knew into it. Wag wants a bag to attend to and he is trying to get it. As this is Rube's general stand the local boy may have to step aside if the boss thinks he can smother the singles better than the old first. This is the only undecided point on the infield. Apart from the first it is now formed for the experience of work.

OUTFIELDERS.

Buster Burrill has a line on the left field job. His doings yesterday created the impression that he will soon be established for the season. Green, who dropped in on Monday, looking for the President, looks good in the mid-field and if he keeps up the promise, may keep the position. He pleased with his showing, being speedy and catching like an expert.

Brooks did well and shows pretty good judgment, getting his paws to some testers, which were at least difficult.

CATCHERS

Talking of catchers, there is nothing in it. La Croix with Matty Lamond, have fixed this up and it seems as if they will have no opposition. Red Sweeney did not draw a winning hand and lost out playing with better men. He showed a likelihood, but such things can't be entertained at the Agricultural this year.

PITCHERS

Coming in on "spec" Varlett made a fair impression upon the big guns yesterday. He hits and fields and pitches fairly well, but he has not shown enough to justify him buying a meal ticket in the city. His work would be good and useful with practice.

Young Crutcher pitches a fair ball, but he has not got his arm into the pink yet. He attempted curves and curved too well, almost out of reach.

Warner is coming on in fine shape and he further advanced the idea that he would be one of the principal attackers that the team will have.

Creswell will be given a further chance to earn local fame as a twirler. Nichol is a safe bet.

The Manager is after two new pitchers who will be announced soon, and they will, it is said, be valuable additions to the roster.

There were thirteen men out on the park and they gave a sample of the goods.

An exhibition game will be played with Stratford on Saturday.

SIX PLAYERS HANDLE BALL IN DOUBLE PLAY Buffalo, May 13.—Pittsburg won another closely contested game from Buffalo yesterday, 3 to 2. A double play in which six players on the Buffalo team figured with assists or put-outs, furnished one of the many exciting features of the game. The score: R.H.E. Pittsburg . . . . . 000200100—3 8 2 Buffalo . . . . . 000000200—2 7 0

MANAGER "RUBE" DENEAU.

Who has gathered a likely lot of youngsters for his team in the Canadian League this year.

CIRCUIT CLIPPINGS

St. Thomas Times: Every man working out looks like a real ball player and is one. The infield, the outfield and battery men all look to be the best that it is possible to get together. As "Dad" says: "Gives me another week of warm weather, and then watch the results," and the fans will not be disappointed. Practices morning and afternoon with lots of work to them, are rounding the men into shape in double-quick time and all are feeling in the very best of shape and awaiting with expectancy for the call of "Play Ball" on May 19 at Pinalofe Park.

Hamilton Herald: The rattle of the Canadian leaguers is not far distant for while Manager Cristall has not even hinted at who will be released, it is a certainty that at least one-third of the aspirants now working out at Britannia Park will have to seek other fields. Meanwhile the battle for positions goes merrily on. Catchers Kearney and Pembroke will be carried along with four pitchers, including Manager Cristall. These along with seven infielders and outfielders, will make up the squad of thirteen. So far there are two men working out for each job. Tiffay and Ivers are at first. Cunningham and Harris at second. McGroarty and Swanson in short-field, and Roy Broadbent and Acheson on the danger corner.

Selecting the pitching staff will be the hardest job. Cristall will have to tackle. He has Cooley Dolan, Pfeiffer, Bravenor, Armstrong, Croft, Schroeder, Dougherty and Eccles. The latter has not yet reported. Pfeiffer will hardly do. He worked in part of yesterday's game between the two teams and appeared quite green. He has youth and size, being closer to the heavens than any other member of the squad, but it is evident that he is lacking experience. Fox is also shy on experience, and this pair can be eliminated. Bob Armstrong will be hard to keep out of the club, if his first day's showing can be taken as a criterion. He has plenty of speed, knows how to work a batter, and is always cool. His turn in the box yesterday proved that he possesses the goods. Schroeder is sure, so is Armstrong. The others will have to battle it out for the other two pitching assignments.

Guelph Mercury—Marty Killilea is going to have quite a time beating out O'Brien, the Western Canada league player for second base, if that boy sustains the pace he started against the Cubans. He takes all kinds of chances on the paths and both his hits were "Ty Cobb'd" into doubles.

Toronto World:—The Leafs will be home next Monday, and then the fans can judge for themselves as to whether Clymer's club is as bad as the record seems to indicate. President McCaffery is of the opinion they are not, and he hopes for better things when the players get the benefit of morning practice. The pitching staff, which looked to be anything but formidable before the season opened has been greatly strengthened, and on the whole it has not been the fault of the twirlers that so many defeats have been registered. What is needed is hitters who can hit. Yesterday was the first time since the second game at Richmond that the Leafs have accomplished anything with the bat, and then poor pitching tossed off the game.

London Free Press:—Baseball, good and indifferent, was played yesterday afternoon at Tecumseh Park, when Manager Reisling lined up his squad in two sections and essayed the regulars against the Yanigans. The regulars won in a rout from the Yanigans, the score being 17 to 4.

Manager Clymer refuses to discuss his little tilt with Manager Shean of Providence. Shean ought to be more considerate. Managing the Leafs at this stage of the race is enough.

Branch Rickey, manager of the Browns, refuses to manage his team on Sunday, but on a recent Lord's Day he was "pinched" for exceeding the speed limit in his automobile.

Mathewson won his first victory of the season yesterday, taking the Reus into camp by 6 to 5. Eleven hits were made off the old master, one more than the Giants could secure off Dale, but the old fadeaway still worked in the pinches.

With Newark and Buffalo Internationals fighting the Federals this season changes in the make-up of the Barrow circuit may be expected. Springfield, Worcester and Hartford are mentioned in the event of any of the teams being transferred.

Gustav Anderson, Chief of Police of Grantsburg, Wis., is 7 feet 4 inches tall and weighs 340 pounds.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

New York, May 12—Christopher Mathewson, for many years star pitcher of the New York Nationals, won his first victory of the 1915 season yesterday, defeating Cincinnati by a score of 6 to 5. Both Groh and Burns hit home runs. The score: R.H.E. Cincinnati . . . . . 5 11 3 New York . . . . . 6 9 1 Dale and Clark; Mathewson and Meyers.

BRAVES' BIG SIXTH INNING. Boston, May 13—A clean single by Gilbert, a pinch hitter, scored the first two runs of five gained by the Braves in the sixth inning yesterday, making possible Boston's victory over St. Louis 6 to 2. Perdue had pitched well up to this inning, after which he was replaced by Meadows. The score: R.H.E. St. Louis . . . . . 2 9 1 Boston . . . . . 6 8 1 Perdue, Meadows and Snyder; James and Gowdy.

DODGERS OFF TO GOOD START Brooklyn, May 13—Cheney was easy in the first two innings yesterday, and Brooklyn won from Chicago by the score of 11 to 5. The game was played in the rain. The score: R.H.E. Chicago . . . . . 5 10 6 Brooklyn . . . . . 11 14 2 Cheney and Archer; Pfeiffer and McCarty.

St. Louis, May 12—Clarence Walker scored in the second inning yesterday's game between St. Louis and Philadelphia, when Schang threw wild to second base. Walsh went third on the same play, and then scored on Agnew's single. Another tally was made for the locals in the fifth, and St. Louis won 3 to 0. The score: R.H.E. Philadelphia . . . . . 0 2 4 St. Louis . . . . . 3 6 2 Pennock, Wyckoff and Schang; Weiland and Agnew.

HELPS BEAT EX-TEAM MATE. Cleveland, May 13—In a rally which Gainer, a former Tiger, led with a home run, Boston took a 4 to 1 victory over Detroit. Score: R.H.E. Boston . . . . . 4 1 3 Detroit . . . . . 1 8 3 Shore and Cady; Coveleskie and Baker, Stannage.

BABER NOT VERY LIBERAL. Chicago, May 13—Urban Faber held Washington to three hits yesterday, two of which came in the ninth inning, and saved the visitors from a shut-out, Chicago winning 4 to 1. The score: R.H.E. Washington . . . . . 1 3 2 Chicago . . . . . 4 8 1 Galla, Engel, Bentley and Henry; Ainsmith; Faber and Daly.

THE YANKEES' BIG SEVENTH. Cleveland, May 13—Woods' error, Peck's triple and a wild pitch by Walker were principal factors in New York's rally in the seventh inning, which gave New York the victory, 4 to 2. Score: R.H.E. Cleveland . . . . . 2 6 2 New York . . . . . 4 8 1 Walker, Mitchell and Egan; Warhop and Nunamaker.

George Ort Signs to Play With St. Thomas. St. Thomas, May 13.—George Ort, who managed St. Thomas in 1913 and Toronto in 1914, in the Canadian League, has signed a contract with St. Thomas, and will likely be assigned to third base. This completes Manager Stewart's team, with the exception of Left Fielder Copp, who is holding out for more pay.

SCHULTZ TAMES THE HARD-HITTING ROYALS. Providence, R.I., May 13.—Timely hitting by the home team and the ability of "Toots" Schultz to hold the Royal sluggers safe enabled the Greys to win from Montreal yesterday, 4 to 1. Score: R.H.E. Montreal . . . . . 000000100—1 3 2 Providence . . . . . 200101000—4 7 1

Grace Church Lads' Brigade is Big Success

The Grace Church Lads Brigade held an entirely successful concert and display in the school room of the church Tuesday night, when a good sized audience witnessed and appreciated the merit of the performance.

Organized last November, an absolutely new formation in Canada the Church Lads Brigade has gone ahead ever since and now Grace Church possesses a healthy looking corps. Tuesday, for the first time they donned their smart military uniforms which were cut in khaki. As the boys lined the little stage they looked exceedingly well and their soldierly conduct elicited a round of applause more than once during the evening. They would form, to-day a fitting addition to the 75,000 lads in similar organizations in Great Britain.

They gave an exhibition of their ability during the physical drill and they were admittedly a credit to their officers. Their signalling was effected with precision, those taking part being Sergeant Major Hepden, Garnet Bonny Sergeant Hutton and Sergeant Riley.

First Aid to the injured showed to some extent the valuable work done during these times among the boys. The histrionic capabilities of the boys were proved when they gave in first class manner a sketch of "Camp Life." It brought forth hearty applause. But apart from the more militant side of the evening there was a fine program of songs and instrumental which included items by Sergt. Hutton, Sergeant Collier, Pte. Biggs, Sergt.-Major Hepden, Lieutenant R. T. Hall, and a recitation by Miss Callender.

To Rev. Patterson Smythe as acting commander, much praise is due for the excellence of the evening while Color Sergeant Bolt has given great assistance. Lieutenant Jack Genet was in the first place the C.O., but now both he and Bolt are on active service. Great credit is due to Sergt. Benning, 35th, D.R.C. for his Ambulance work; Sergt. Bowtle, 32nd Battery for the Physical Drill, Mr. Pocock for the Signalling and Miss Callender of St. Andrews Ambulance Association for her recitations and help with the Red Cross work.

His Only Wish Now

By Special Wire to the Courier. Hamilton, Ont., May 13.—Constable William Smith, whose wife went down on the Lusitania, handed in his resignation to-day. He is now a member of the 36th battalion. "Those dirty hounds murdered my wife and her unborn babe. They may get me, but by God I will wipe out my score first," he said as he walked out of the station.

The American residents of Paris sent a protest to President Wilson over the sinking of the Lusitania.

¶ I want to reach every man in Brantford and vicinity, and I want a chance to prove that I can save them from nine to twelve dollars by buying one of my Fit Reform Brand Suits NOW.

¶ And when I say that I can prove it I mean just that. Every man in this city who is at all observant knows that I handle only the very highest-class of ready for service clothes, same as in everything else.

¶ And every man knows that these suits are real good value when sold for twenty-two-fifty, twenty-five and thirty dollars. I'm going to move them, and at a sacrifice!

MEN, THINK OF IT!

During the next ten days you can buy any suit in my store that originally sold for twenty-two-fifty (and don't forget they were mighty good value at that price) for just

FIFTEEN DOLLARS

¶ There are also Suits that I have been selling for thirty dollars, but there's only a few left. Act quickly and you'll be able to buy one for

EIGHTEEN DOLLARS

'nuff sed. I'm here to show you, if you're willing to be SHOWN.

¶ Just opened up a big shipment of Swell Shirts that sell from one dollar up to four dollars. Ask to see our guaranteed dollar shirt, has a detachable soft lounge collar, and is guaranteed for color, for fit and wear. My East window is a good shirt talker—let it talk to you!

¶ And Neckwear—my store is a garden of Summer Ties. For fifty cents I can show you the the kind only seen in the BIG CITIES.

¶ Bow or Batwing Ties—During the Summer months when you generally discard your vest, there's nothing neater than a BOW Tie. They come in all shapes from the wide Butterfly Bow for the young fellows to the more conservative shapes for the "stand patters"—fifty cents.

¶ Don't let your collar stock get low. I've all the smart, new kind for present wear. Soft lounge collars in point or cutaway shapes with the new colonial stripes or small figures, also plain white in laundered styles, stripes and piques, 2 for 25c and 3 for 50c.

¶ Leather Belts in greys, browns and blacks. The new Elastic Leather belt is a boon to the man who never wears suspenders, 50c, 75c and $1.00.

THE MASQUERADER

By Katherine Cecil Thurston, Author of "The Circle," Etc.

"Well, perhaps three weeks. We mustn't make a mess of things," Chilcote shifted his position. "Three weeks," he repeated. "Couldn't you?"

"No, I couldn't." Loder spoke abruptly. "I might never want to put pen to paper; but on the other hand, I might have to sign a check one day." He laughed. "Have you ever thought of that—that I might have to, or want to, sign a check?"

"No, I don't think that escaped me."

"You risk your fortune that you may keep the place it bought for you?" Loder laughed again. "How do you know that I am not a blackguard?" he asked.

"How do you know that I will clear out one day and leave you and try? What is to prevent John Chilcote from realizing £40,000 or £50,000 and then making himself scarce?"

"You won't do that," Chilcote said, with a faint smile. "I told you my reasons last night, and it wasn't money. Money isn't the rock you'll lean on."

"Then you think I'll split upon some other man's name?"

"But that's beyond the question. It's to business again. You'll risk your signature?"

"Chilcote nodded.

"Now, then, Loder," Loder said, looking at his fingers. "I must know your names and faces of your men as far as I can. Your woman's name doesn't count. While I'm you, she will be adamant." He laughed again pleasantly. "But the men are essential—the backbone of the whole business."

"I have no men friends. I don't trust the idea of friendship. I have acquaintances, then."

"Chilcote looked up sharply. "I think you score there," he said. "I have a reputation for absentmindedness that will carry you anywhere. They tell me I can look through the most substantial man in the house as if he were glass, though I may have lunched with him the same day."

Loder smiled. "By Jove!" he exclaimed. "Fate must have been constructing this before either of us was born. It dovetails ridiculously. But I must know your colleagues, even if it's only to get them out of the way if it's only to the house."

"Impossible!"

"Not at all!" Again the tone of authority fell to Loder. "I can pull my hat over my eyes and turn up my coat collar. Nobody will notice me. We can choose the fall of the afternoon. I promise you 'twill be all right!"

"Suppose the likeness should leak out? It's a risk."

Loder laughed confidently. "Tush, man! Risk is the salt of life. I must see you at your post, and I must see the men you work with. He rose, unlocked the door and took his hat from the rack. "When I go in for a thing I like to go in over head and ears," he added as he opened his door.

His pipe filled, he resumed his seat, resting his elbows on the table in unconscious imitation of Chilcote.

"Got a match?" he said laconically, holding out his hand.

In response Chilcote drew his match box from his pocket and struck a light, as their hands touched an exclamation escaped him.

"By Jove!" he said, with a fretful expression of disappointment and surprise. "I hadn't noticed that!" His eyes were fixed in annoyed interest on Loder's extended hand.

Loder, following his glance, smiled, and that we should both have overlooked it! It clean escaped my mind. "Another ugly scar." He lifted his hand till the light fell upon the scar. Above the second joint of the finger ran a jagged furrow, the shape of a wound that had once been the bone.

"How did you come by it?" he asked.

Loder shrugged his shoulders and made no answer.

"The results are present day enough," he said, looking at his hand, didn't you notice?"

"There's only one thing that I don't like," he said. "Each wear two rings on the third finger of the left hand. Two rings ought to 'cover it'—it's a speculative measurement of the position of his pipe.

"Loder looked irritable and disturbed. "I detest rings. I never wear any."

"Loder raised his eyes calmly. "Nonsense!" he said, "but there's no reason for it."

Chilcote's irritability was starting to be pushed back his chair. "I don't like the idea," he said.

"The other eyed him amusedly. "What never began you are?" he said. "You know the danger of a man signing his checks and shy at wearing a piece of jewelry. I'll have a fair share of responsibility to study."

Chilcote moved restlessly. "Everybody knows I detest jewelry."

"Everybody knows you are capricious. It's got to be the rings or nothing so far as I make out."

Chilcote again altered his position, looking the other's eyes. At last, after a struggle with himself, he looked at Loder.

"I suppose you're right!" he said. "Have it your own way." It was the first small, tangible concession to the younger will.

Loder, looking his victory, smiled.

"To the career of John Chilcote!"

Chilcote drew a couple of tablets from his pocket and dropped them into his glass. As the other came slowly back he laughed nervously.

"Thanks. See to your own drink now. I can manage this." He took the jug unceremoniously, and, carefully guarding his glass from the light, poured in the water with excited haste.

"What shall we drink to?" he said.

Loder methodically mixed his own drink and lifted the glass. "Oh, to the career of John Chilcote!" he answered.

For an instant the other hesitated. There was something prophetic in the sound of the toast. But he shook the feeling off and held up his glass.

"To the career of John Chilcote!" he said with another unsteady laugh.

CHAPTER VII.

IT was a little less than three weeks since Chilcote and Loder had drunk their toast and again Loder was seated at his desk. His head was bent and his hand moved carefully as he traced line after line of meaningless words on a sheet of foolscap. Having covered the page with writing, he rose, moved to the center table and compared his task with an open letter that lay there. The comparison seemed to please him. He straightened his shoulders and threw back his head in an attitude of critical satisfaction. So absorbed was he that when a step sounded on the stairs outside he did not notice it, and only raised his head when the door was thrown open unceremoniously. Even then his interest was momentary. "Hello!" he said, his eyes returning to their scrutiny of his task.

Chilcote shut the door and came hastily across the room. He looked ill and harassed. As he reached Loder he put out his hand nervously and caught Loder's arm.

Loder looked up. "What is it?" he asked. "Any new development?"

Chilcote tried to smile. "Yes," he said huskily. "It's come."

Loder freed his arm. "What? The end of the world?"

"No. The end of me." The words came jerkily, the strain that had enforced them showing in every syllable.

Still Loder was uncomprehending. He could not or would not understand. Again Chilcote caught and jerked at his sleeve. "Don't you see? Can't you see?"

"No."

Chilcote dropped the sleeve and passed his handkerchief across his forehead. "It's come," he repeated. "Don't you understand? I want you." He drew away, then stepped back again anxiously. "I know I'm taking you unawares," he said. "But it's not my fault. On my soul, it's not! The thing seems to spring at me and grip me!" He stopped, sinking weakly into a chair.

For a moment Loder stood erect and immovable. Then, almost with reluctance, his glance turned to the figure beside him.

"You want me to take your place to-night, without preparation?" His voice was distinct and firm, but it was free from contempt.

"Yes; yes, I do," Chilcote spoke without looking up.

"That you may spend the night in morphia—this and other nights?"

Chilcote lifted a flushed, unsettled face. "You have no right to preach. You accepted the bargain."

Loder raised his head quickly. "Never," he began. Then both his face and voice altered. "You are quite right," he said coldly. "You won't have to complain again."

Chilcote stirred uncomfortably. "My dear chap," he said, "I meant no offense. It's merely—"

"Your nerves, I know. But come to business. What am I to do?"

Chilcote rose excitedly. "Yes, busi-

FINAL EFFORTS MADE
By Special Wire to the Courier.
Queenstown, May 12.—Final efforts are being made on a large scale to recover the Lusitania's dead. Not only are the tugs Flying Fox and Storm Cock cruising about the scene of the disaster, but a group of admiralty patrol boats is scouting a wide area. Beach patrols also are on the lookout from Queenstown to the southern tip of Ireland. One patrol boat has been designated to bring in any bodies which may be recovered, leaving all the others to continue the search.

If you haven't yet given PURITY a trial do so and you will use no other Flour again.
