FIFTEENTH YEAR

JOSEPH TAIT DENOUNCED.

YOUNG LIBERALS HAVE NO FURTHER USE FOR HIM.

His Attempt to Defeat 15,000 Young Men Causes a Lively Discussion.

Mr. Joseph Tait, member of the Local Assembly for Toronto, was the subject of discussion at the meeting of the Young Liberals Club last night.

Within the hall of the Young Liberals Club last night the young men accused the "Oracle" of Toronto of being a "panderer," of "violating liberal principles" and a resolution was presented which expressed the hope of the club that at the next election some candidate other than Mr. Tait be selected to carry the Reform banner.

The "Oracle" perhaps taking would be a more appropriate word—was occasioned by Mr. Tait's attempt to disfranchise 15,000 of Toronto's young men by his vote on the Sunday car question in the Private Bills Committee.

Although as a rule the Young Liberal Club is busy finding fault with the speeches of the members of the House of Commons, Mr. Tait's vote was such a blow as to draw out repeated declarations that with surprising unanimity they condemned it.

Mr. Tait's words were not chosen with care, but they spoke as they thought. Their speech showed that, whatever may have been his opinion heretofore of the man who delights to know as "the Oracle" of Joseph, it had changed sadly and woefully.

Nearly every speaker denounced the attempt to shut out the manifold franchise, and even those who defended Mr. Tait's action admitted that he had been in the wrong.

Continued in Unrestrained Terms. Up to 9 o'clock Toronto business was transacted. Then R. H. Falconer laid a copy of the World on the table and announced that he had a resolution to offer.

He reviewed the bringing of the Sunday car question before the Private Bills Committee. With the question of Sunday car club had nothing to do, but the vote cast by the Liberal member for Toronto in favor of restricting the vote to young men was one of the most disgraceful.

Mr. Tait had voted in that way to bid for the support of those opposed to Sunday street cars. It was an act which would prevent young men from voting for him and which he attempted to distinguish a large proportion of his constituents.

Mr. Tait's vote was a disgraceful act. The man who is prepared to endorse such a measure is no Liberal. I therefore move this resolution: That the association of Young Liberals desire to place on record its deep regret and disapproval of the action of Mr. Joseph Tait, Liberal member for Toronto, in voting in favor of the Sunday car bill.

THE TARIFF REDUCTIONS BEYOND MR. DAVIN'S ANTICIPATIONS.

He Describes the New Bill as One of the Boldest and Sagacious Measures in the History of Canadian Tariffs—It Reduces the Cost of Living and Relieves Customs Burden.

OTTAWA, April 2.—Very little progress was made to-day in the tariff debate, nothing but the usual stump speeches, and with the exception of Mr. Davin no practical discussion of the issue. What Mr. Davin did, and he did it very well and in good parliamentary style, was to show that the new tariff bill contributes a large measure of benefit to the farmer, especially in the matter of agricultural implements, sugar and cottons. He held in his hand a list of some 60 articles, largely consumed by farmers, and the duties on which have been substantially reduced by Mr. Foster's proposal.

It is understood that some 30 or 40 honorable gentlemen still wish to address the House on the general principles of the tariff and get themselves in the harness with stump speeches. If this is the case, the House will not reach a division until some time next week.

In the meantime tariff deputations continue to come to Ottawa and to make representations to the trade ministers against some of the proposed changes. In the case of the specific duties and the substitution of ad valorem duties, it is particularly interesting to note that the trade ministers are not themselves united in this change, and that the outcome will be to restore the specific duties in a number of cases, especially in the matter of lard, ointments and hog products of all kinds.

Before the tariff debate was resumed to-day a number of questions were answered, amongst which the following were of general interest:

Mr. Broderick: Is it the intention of the Government to submit for the decision of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council the questions already submitted to the Supreme Court in relation to the subject of the Model School, and if so, in what order?

VOORHES ON THE INCOME TAX.

IT WILL REACH ONLY $5,000 OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

Were the Total Wealth of the United States Fairly Distributed Every One of the 65,000,000 Would Have a Pailful $1000—The Worst Days of Rome Recalled.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Mr. Voorhies began in the Senate to-day the discussion of the new tariff bill. His speech occupied the attention of the Senate for two hours. The orator was applauded in the galleries, and the orator was congratulated by his party friends on the floor. Speaking of the income tax, Mr. Voorhies said in part: "The wealth of this country is so unequal that if the income tax were levied on the basis of the average of the total wealth of the country, it would reach only $5,000 of the American people."

THE MONTANA STORY A FAKE.

THE NOVELTY WHO WROTE THE "AF-FIDAVIT" A TORONTO MAN.

The General Impression in Anacosta and Bozeman is That the Story of the Confession of the Murder of the Montana Story is a Creation of His Imagination.

It is safe to bet that Government Detective Greer, who left for Bozeman, Montana, Saturday night, will not bring back alleged to have made a confession to the Attorney W. J. Stevenson that he killed James Williams and his wife on the Middle-road, Toronto Township, and for the very good reason that it is believed Dutton former Toronto man wrote the alleged confession himself. The despatch from Anacosta Sunday night announcing that Dutton had been captured was incorrect. Not the slightest trace of any man answering the description of Dutton has been found in no case any person discovered, except Attorney Stevenson, who saw him. The World last evening received this despatch: "Night Like a Good Sausage."

ANACOSTA, Montana, April 2.—The report that the man Dutton had been located in the confession of the murder of the Montana Story was notified, but not a man can be found who saw anyone answering the description of the man that Stevenson called "Dutton." Stevenson is a Toronto man and might like a good sensation, and the general impression is that the "Montana Story" which Stevenson has amplified his previous statement. He claims now that Dutton unquestionably was familiar with the "Montana Story" which Stevenson has amplified his previous statement.
