The Concert given by the organ committee was a model one. The vestry was crowded. The committee have placed the standard high in the opening concert, and they intend to maintain it throughout. The fame of this literary and musical treat will spread through the city. The north church is to be congratulated on the abundance and quality of its talent, and its ability to secure the best.

The first lesson in the sacred literature course appears in the Baptist Union, Sept. 17. The general subject for the year is "The Doctrines of our Faith." Lesson 1 deals with "Religious Beliefs and how we come by Them." Prof. E. C. Dargan, D. D., of the Louisville, Kentucky Baptist Seminary, is the writer. What a splendid opportunity for all the members of the North church to study our foundation principles. The "Baptist Union," $1.00 a year, provides all the necessary material for study. It is a good investment. What a fine showing we made last year in the examinations, 38 B. R. C., 40 C. M. C., 60 S. L. C. That makes us the banner Union of the Maritime Provinces.

Mission Band Concert this afternoon at 2.45. Fill the vestry fuller than usual and encourage the workers. Collection for Mission Band work.

The Halifax County Sunday School Association held a most interesting convention at the First Baptist Church, Tuesday, Sept. 20th. Everyone of our S. S. workers ought to have been there. We wish the church members and parents who never attend the S. S. could have heard the addresses and discussions. There would be less inclination to make excuses. "All the church in the S. S., and all the S. S. in the church" is a good motto. S. School work is making great progress, and we must wake up or fall behind. An up-to-date worker cannot stay away from these gatherings. What about a normal class this winter?

Mr. Gladstone looked with disapproval on those who only attended church once on Sunday. In his opinion they were starving their souls. He called them "ONCERS."

The B. Y. P. U. intend holding a parlor concert, Monday evening, Oct. 3, at the home of Mrs. N. B. Smith, 279 Brunswick St. The proceeds will go towards the salary of our county missionary, Rev. P. G. McGregor. We are all interested in this. An excellent programme is in preparation.

Special Plebiscite Note.

SEPTEMBER 29TH. PROHIBITION FOREVER.

“ENGLAND EXPECTS EVERY MAN TO DO HIS DUTY.”

UNDER THE WORD “YES” IN THE BALLOT, MARK X THUS.

September 29th is a crucial day in the history of our loved Canada. Every voter has placed in his hands a mighty weapon—the ballot—with which he can strike to death the enemy of prosperity, morality and religion. The saloon must go. This is what the Royal Commission says about it:—“The licensing of saloons, the only business of which is the sale by retail of intoxicants, the commissioners consider should be put an end to. There is no justification for their existence, founded upon necessity, and it is certain that most of the evils which arise out of the immoderate use of intoxicants have their origin in, or encouragement by the existence of these saloons.” Christian voters must vote “YES” on September 29. Let nothing keep you.
