EASTER VESTRY.

The Easter Vestry meeting was held on Monday, 15th April. There were present the Rector, in the chair; Rev. C. B. Kenrick, and Messrs. L. S. McMurray, H. W. M. Murray, G. C. Biggar, S. Bruce Harman, G. F. Harman, H. Winsor, F. F. Payne, R. Renshaw, H. L. M. Weller, J. E. Cameron, G. P. Reid, R. C. Bourne, D. Graham, Fred. Allsopp, Jos. Allsopp, Butterworth, G. Horlock, and A. Smith.

After reading the minutes, Mr. McMurray submitted the report of the Churchwardens for the year ending 31st March. As our readers have already seen the financial statement, we need only express satisfaction at its favorable summary of the year's proceedings, which is chiefly due to the energetic work of the ladies of the congregation.

Before proceeding to the business of the meeting the Rector gave a brief summary of the church's history of progress during the past year; the increase in the number of pew-holders and congregation, the gratifying numbers of the young men's Bible Class under Mr. Kenrick, and of the young women's under Miss Boulton; the offerings from the two classes amounting to $70, for the general purposes of the church; frequent meetings for work, bringing out the social side of church life. Then there were the much needed improvements effected during the past year, chiefly by the energy, zeal and hard work of the church women, including the young women—the new motor for the organ, provided by the musical services, initiated by Mr. Stewart Houston—the new furnaces, lavatory, improvements in vestries, guild room and kitchen, effected by the sale of work last December, not forgetting the reduction of the floating debt by $250.

The sale of work suggested the Parish Guild, a permanent institution, having two main objects in view (1) Giving practical effect to the church ideal, "many members yet one body," one in common work for the church, as well as in common worship; (2) Church improvements from time to time as needed, such as e.g., new matting provided last year, perhaps also some fresh painting.

The Rector also summarized other work in the parish, not new, but rather old in work, and representing solid value in money, e.g., the W.A., $232; the Sanctuary Guild, $100; St. Agatha's Guild, $58; the Sunday School, $128; the Poor's Fund, $82.

The Rector then in the name of the congregation expressed hearty thanks to the Wardens and other officers of the church for their valuable work in the past year, and nominated Mr. L. S. McMurray as Warden for 1906. On motion of Mr. Weller, seconded by Mr. Harman, Mr. George C. Biggar was elected Warden, to the general satisfaction of all present. Mr. Charles Heath was then reappointed Vestry Clerk. On motion of Mr. Murray, the following gentlemen were appointed sidesmen: H. W. M. Murray, S. Bruce Harman, G. F. Harman, C. D. Heath, Allen Baines, M.D.; F. F. Payne, G. P. Reid, R. B. Street, R. C. Street, H. L. M. Weller, H. Winsor, R. Renshaw, J. E. Cameron, R. C. Bourne, C. Wilkinson, Capt. Strong, A. R. Smith, R. Crashley, Godfrey Horlock, Fred. Allsopp, J. Allsopp.

Appreciation of the work done by the various organizations of the Parish was expressed by members present. Special mention being made of the present efficiency of the choir, it was voted that Mr. Phillips' salary be increased by one hundred dollars. Votes of thanks were then passed to the Wardens for their efficient and valuable services during the past year, to Mr. Phillips and the members of the choir, to the Woman's Auxiliary, to St. Agatha's Guild, to the Sunday School Teachers and Officers, to the Sanctuary Guild, to the Chairman and Sidesmen, and warm appreciation expressed of their valuable work by which the efficiency of the church is maintained and increased.

The meeting then adjourned. All present then assembled as electors of Lay Delegates to Synod. On motion of Mr. L. S. McMurray, seconded by Mr. Cameron, Messrs. Huson Murray, Geo. F. Harman and E. Douglas Armour were appointed Lay Representatives from this Parish.

SANCTUARY GUILD NOTES.

The treasurer gratefully acknowledges the following contributions for Easter flowers: From Mr. Gosling and Mrs. Eveson, $5.00, "In Memoriam"; Mrs. Morson $2.00, "In Memoriam"; Mrs. William Clark, Easter lilies; Mrs. da Costa, Easter lilies; Miss Cayley, Spiraea.

The Guild is busy working on the new festal frontal, and finishing a linen surplice for Mr. Eccleston. The three cushion covers designed some time ago for the sedilia have been finished and the cushions upholstered by the Misses Tincombe, for many years worshippers in this church, and formerly parishioners of the Rector in Whitby.

W. A. NOTES.

The collection at the annual meeting, amounting to $4.55, was devoted towards the purchasing of a small communion service for the Rev. W. J. Eccleston, of Horning's Mills, who formerly worked in this parish as a Church Army officer.

The emergency boxes were all brought in this month, and showed a total of $32.11. This fund is most useful in meeting any sudden demands for money, and is used in that way, any balance over being added to the pledges.

The spring bale has just been despatched by Miss Street, and contains complete outfitts for four boys, and much good clothing, medicines, and groceries. Mrs. George Harman is thanked for a trunkful of good things, and many other ladies for contributions of groceries, etc.

We are sending out a spare harmonium, by permission of the Rector, to Mr. Lawrence, of Pincher Creek, who has appealed for one to help him in his mission. It has been put in good order and ought to have a long and useful career before it.

The following annual subscribers are thanked by the treasurer: Mesdames Faines, H. Eaines, Biggar, Burton, Fate, Foulton, Cowan, Crease, Daltry, Elliott, Greening, Gardner, Hagarty, Harper, Heath, Hibbard, Ireland, Jones, Kenrick, Martin, McKean, A. A. Macdonald, D. Macdonald, MacPeth, McCulloch, Reid, Sinclair, Spragge, Street, Weller, Watt, Wilson, Winsor, Wright, the Misses Cayley, Street, Wyatt, and Messrs. R. B. and C. Street.

THE PARISH GUILD.

The fourth meeting of the Guild was held on April 27, when 49 members were present as well as the Rector and Mr. Kenrick. This is the last meeting till the autumn, and many details were settled as to the November sale. The following resolutions were passed: That members should in future be allowed to bring friends to the meetings on payment of 10c. to the tea manager. That $10.00 should be advanced from the Guild's funds to Mrs. Phillips, who has offered to pick up trifles and novelties in London for the sale. That the Churchwardens be authorized to have the doors and steps of the Church painted, at a cost not exceeding $35.00, to be paid for by the Guild at Christmas.

The following tables are arranged for the sale: Fancy work and handkerchief tables, Mrs. Bruce Harman, Mrs. H. D. P. Armstrong, and Mrs. Crease, etc.

Apron table, Mrs. McMurray, Mrs. MacBeth, etc.

Christmas tree and doll land, Mrs. Burton, Mrs. Biggar, and Mrs. Elliott.

Paper table, St. Agatha's Guild.

Candy table, Miss Greening, Miss Street, etc.

Ice Cream table, Mrs. Hagarty and Miss Moore.

The next meeting of the Guild will be held (D.V.) on Sept. 27, and between this and then we hope many ideas, many articles and much interest will have been gathered for St. George's sale in November.

The Guild wishes to record its thanks to Mrs. John Foyd for getting up the excellent musical programme, and to her and Mr. and Mrs. Wood and Mr. Wiseman, for kindly singing.

THE MAY FÊTE.

On May 15, 16 and 17 at St. James' school-house will be held a May fêté in aid of the building fund of the Church Home. We hope all St. George's people will lunch there and meet their friends at tea and generally help to make it the centre of attraction. Tickets may be had at the rectory at 25 cents apiece, which includes admittance and lunch, tea or high tea on any day. Mrs. Phillips represents St. George's on the Executive, and not only presides over the salad department, but has induced the T. Eaton Company to dress and cook all meats purchased there and to cut up all the hams. St. George's special table is undertaken by the St. Agatha's Guild, who have acquired a civic reputation in the art of manufacturing things out of paper. Be sure and visit the Paper table.

THE CONFIRMATION.

On Sunday evening, April 1, a confirmation was held here by the Lord Bishop of the diocese. The following were confirmed, 29 in all: Mrs. Boehm, Mrs. E. Raymond, Dorothea Torrance Beardmore, Alice Brown, Jennie Irene Prown, Winnifred Bull, Ethel Maude Cotton, Margaret Sara Cotton, Louise Bulkeley Crisfield, Ethel Vivienne Da Costa, Stephanie Jarvis, Edna Caroline Reid, Gertrude Rice, Annie Beatrice Sinclair, Aileen Sinclair, Irene Stuttaford, Nellie Thornton, H. V. Andrews, Loring Connelly, Rochfort Connelly, J. H. Cotton, W. H. Curtis, William da Costa, A. Victor Gardner, Ralph Graham, H. M. Harman, R. G. Miller, John Richardson, George Way.

CHILDREN'S LENT OFFERINGS.

The Rector wishes to thank all those young people who during Lent sent in special offerings for the Indian Homes. The total received was $52.56.

From the children of the Sunday School, $37.06. From the children outside the Sunday School, $12.50. From Miss Helen Baines' School, $3.00.
