

driven off—a long line of dead and wounded marks their retreat. This manoeuvre is repeated over and over again, varied by counter assaults in which Tommy Atkins has so far more than held his own.

As indicated in the war office statement the French have met with excellent success on their centre and extreme right. The situation improves steadily around Verdun.

GERMANS WITHDRAWING FROM WEST The correspondent of The Amsterdam Tijd at Antwerp says: "The movement of German troops from the western theatre of the war on a big scale is now progressing. A large number appear to have been withdrawn from the Yser."

"Long military trains filled with men and ammunitions are moving into Germany by way of Brussels and Lovain."

BRITISH SHIPS IN ACTION A despatch from Berlin received last night by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co. says: "Main headquarters reports that several of the enemy's ships again attacked our right wing yesterday afternoon but were rapidly driven off by our artillery."

OFFENSIVE IS RENEWED Canadian Press Despatch. The Germans have renewed their offensive in the vicinity of Ypres and Dixmude, where several previous attempts to break through the allied lines and gain the coast of France have been repulsed after the most severe fighting of the war.

Despite the reverses which the Austro-German armies have suffered in the east where the Russians have now set their feet in German territory, both in East Prussia and Posen, the Germans are said to be still sending reinforcements to the west in an endeavor to break down the resistance of the French, British and Belgians who have been holding their positions and have in places made small but important advances.

There has, however, as yet been no decisive action fought along the whole front, but each side is making gains, which may count when the crisis is at hand. With the tremendous forces opposing each other, any progress must necessarily be slow in these days of siege battles, but both the allies and the Germans express satisfaction with the way in which the battle has gone thus far.

GERMAN PLANS CHANGED In the east the Russian advance guards are now fighting on both the east Prussian and Posen borders, and it is believed that the Germans have given up their first plan of offering resistance to the Russian advance on the positions which they had prepared along the Warthe river.

According to the German report, the Russians have suffered a reverse on the east Prussian frontier, where they lost 4000 men and some machine guns but of the fighting elsewhere in this region, Berlin says nothing.

There have been no developments in the near east, the engagements fought being between Russian and Turkish frontier guards in the Caucasus or the bombardment of ports.

RECRUITING IS BETTER The slackness in the recruiting in England has been given a fillip by the marching of some crack territorial regiments and today's procession through the streets of London in connection with the inauguration of the lord mayor in which the Canadians and other Dominion troops took part. From all sections of the country come reports of an increasing number of young men offering themselves for service.

FRENCH AEROPLANE BUSY The published report that French aeroplanes are never seen except above the French lines is refuted in an official statement which says: "In spite of obstinate resistance, our attacks on Ypres are progressing slowly, but steadily."

"The hostile counter attacks southwest of Ypres have been repulsed and several hundred men taken prisoners. In the eastern war theatre an attack by strong Russian forces north of Wysztyer Lake has been repulsed with severe Russian losses. Four thousand Russians and 10 machine guns were captured."

MUST NOT FIGHT GERMANS The German military administration of Belgium has issued an order requiring all members of the Garde Civique to take an oath never to fight against Germany or suffer imprisonment. Nov. 15 is the final date for such an alternative.

SERBIA RECOGNIZES ITALY. It is understood that negotiations are under way between Serbia and Italy which provide for the occupation of Dalmatia by Italy, allowing a treaty to recognize Italian sovereignty in the Adriatic.

ATTACHES TO THE FRONT. Military attaches of neutral countries who have been waiting here for many weeks hoping to procure just a little glimpse of the fighting, issued by the government. They will leave Fontainebleau Tuesday or Wednesday and go to the Marne battlefield first. Their trip is expected to cover a period of 15 to 20 days.

BOMBARDED STRAITS. The Russian protected cruisers Kagul and Pamiat Merkouria, of the Black Sea fleet, bombarded the straits of the Bosphorus and the coal depot Eregli 128 miles northeast of Constantinople.

A number of ships in the port were destroyed and, it is said, the Turkish fleet at that point went out as if to give battle to the Russians, but soon returned.

GERMAN TROOPS TRANSFERRED. Direct, Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World. COPENHAGEN, Nov. 9.—Private advices from Berlin confirm the report that the Germans are transferring a considerable number of troops from the west to the east.

The German newspapers have not published the news of the great Russian advance to the Silesian frontier. The news has been confirmed that the crown prince, in person, is commanding the central army on the eastern front of battle.

Another Berlin report declares that the Germans most decidedly have not abandoned their project of reaching Calais. The report adds that the main object of the western operations is still to open a road to the French coast.

The Berlinke Tageszeitung says the town of Przemysl is ready for a second siege and that the fortifications have been greatly strengthened, while every one not possessing three months' provisions has been ordered to leave the place.

It is anticipated that the Russians will be ready to begin the bombardment of Przemysl with heavy artillery within a few days. The fall of Tsingtau has produced in Berlin the most painful impression, as well as unbounded hatred for Japan.

DOCTOR'S BIG BILL FOUND EXCESSIVE

Dr. Griffin of Hamilton Gets Little More Than Third Sued For.

ALDERMEN WAX ANGRY Many, Peaved Over Controller's Appointments, Threaten to Cause Trouble.

By a Staff Reporter. HAMILTON, Nov. 10.—In the assize court yesterday afternoon Mr. Justice Kelly gave a verdict of $700 in favor of Dr. H. S. Griffin, who was sued for $10,000 for the services rendered to Mrs. Somerville for the treatment of her infant child, which was born in April, 1913. The defendant will have to pay the costs of the county court with no set-off.

W. Staples Won Case. In the case of W. Staples against the United Fuel and Gas Company for damages caused by an explosion of the company's main the plaintiff was given $5000 damages, but a motion for non-suit was entered by the company.

For the wrongful seizure of furniture in the case of Messrs. W. Budget, who for which $1000 damages were asked, a verdict of $400 was allowed.

Foreigners Applying for Naturalization papers were granted them, with the exception of three Austrians and two Germans, Justice Kelly refusing them because their countries are at war with Great Britain.

Aldermen to Raise Rate. Troubles are expected at the council meeting tonight over the appointment of a building inspector and assistant. The board of works department for the chief position, and William Whitlock for the position of assistant, were recommended. The Builders' Exchange, it is said, is also opposed to the controller's recommendation, in favor of the appointment of a high-salaried man.

Another interesting item on the council agenda is a petition from the Citizens' Association, which asks for the appointment of John Jess, who supplies the city with coal, to the position of city engineer. The petition is supported by the city council on the recent city investigation is received.

Not to Follow Lead. Although the committee in charge of the election of the city engineer are expected to make up the difference between the amount of pension allowed by the law and the actual value of the pension of the actual living expenses of that family, no such action is expected to be taken.

J. P. Bell, treasurer of the local fund, stated that between $8000 and $10,000 was being handed out each month, and that it was not expected that the total of $180,000 would be sufficient to carry on the work.

Failed to Upset Will. The attempt of several to overthrow the will of their late father, Thos. Branton of Ancaster, fell thru yesterday when the court refused to set aside and that no undue influence was made upon the father when the will was made.

It was announced at the assize court yesterday that the Ontario Power Commission had made a settlement with the relatives of Leonard T. Stewart, who was killed in the explosion of the City Hall, and $500 will be paid to Mary Stewart, his mother.

Mayor Allen's Meeting. At the Twentieth Century Club last evening there was a meeting of the Hamilton Conservatives, A. C. Gordon spoke in favor of Mayor Allen's candidature. Mayor Allen was also present, and Wm. Crockett, reeve of Barton Township, and J. A. MacFarlane also spoke.

Mrs. Elizabeth Munder, Gage avenue, was seriously burned in the explosion of her home, which was taken to the City Hospital, and is in a critical condition.

Labrets Holds Meeting. An open air meeting was held at the corner of Mulberry and King streets yesterday afternoon, when the candidates for the Independent Labor Party, Rollo, the Independent Labor Party, and Wm. Crockett, reeve of Barton Township, and J. A. MacFarlane also spoke.

Examined a Number. Judge Snider held a short session in his private chambers at the court house yesterday morning in connection with the civic investigation. W. C. Brennan was the only witness who was examined, and an opportunity of explaining the alleged Mr. Brennan stated that he had been told by James Weeden to get the lumber and blame that might be placed on it. Any transaction he placed on Wedell, foreman of the mill, and he was given a check for $1000 for working at his house, but admitted giving Mr. Weeden a Christmas present for doing odd jobs around the mill.

To Insure Soldiers. At yesterday afternoon's session of the Wentworth County council the insurance of the soldiers of the county was being discussed, and it was decided to insure them at the same rate as those who wear with the first contingent.

Hamilton's Mounted Quota. Official reports yesterday stated that 119 men and four officers from the Second Dragoon Regiment were taken for the mounted brigade, which includes about 30 men and four officers from C Squadron of Hamilton. Major Farmer, Toronto, Hamilton and supply lists picked from the 19th and 12th regiments will be promoted to the rank of major, and Capt. Lewis will be promoted to the rank of captain.

To Hold Belgian Flag Quota. Preliminary reports of the holding of a Belgian flag day by the members of the committee yesterday. It is proposed to hold a flag day on the 15th of the month, and a number of small Belgian flags and a number of small Belgian flags will be distributed to the public.

The National Automobile Car. The National Automobile Car Co. is constructing a company of this car to be used in the war. The car will be presented to the military authorities to be given to imperial war officials.

Japan Soon May Send An Army Into France

Considerable Number of Men Available and Force Could Be Sent to Aid the Allies.

Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World. TOKIO, Nov. 9.—Talk of sending a Japanese army to France is growing steadily. Now that Tsingtau has fallen, a considerable force of men is available and as many more as necessary can be mustered. It is believed the offer of such a force would strike a popular chord in England and not improbably in France.

There is a great good feeling here over the success of the Japanese and British armies in China. The English and Japanese admiralties have exchanged felicitations and the municipality of Tokio sent a message of congratulation to King George. The part of Great Britain in the victory is fully recognized and through the city the flags of the two countries are everywhere twined. The past few days have been given over almost completely to festal and rejoicing. German threats of reprisals, cabled here from Europe, are laughed at.

Canada's Contingent is Given Warm Praise by Kitchener. Fine Body of Men Vanguard of Dominion's Forces Which Germany Must Reckon—Asquith Declares War Must End in Complete Crushing of Military Autocracy.

(Continued From Page 1.) would be a long one, but said that nothing would daunt their hopes or DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS. The introduction of the bill would not mean the sword until Belgium had recovered all that she had sacrificed, until France had been secured, until the military domination of Prussia had been destroyed.

Scenes of extraordinary enthusiasm were witnessed. Added interest attached to the gathering by reason of the special circumstances of the times and the presence of the principal ministers of the crown responsible for the conduct of the war and the diplomatic representatives of the allied nations.

A Notable Assembly. Guildhall has been the scene of many civic and national functions in the past 500 years, but seldom has there been one which so strongly appealed to the popular imagination. The guests, who numbered a thousand, and included the leading statesmen, diplomats and financiers, entered the civic headquarters of London between two lines of khaki-clad riflemen. As each dignitary entered the reception hall he was greeted with rounds of cheers, but the real outburst was reserved for Premier Asquith, Earl Kitchener, secretary of war, Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, the Japanese, Russian and French ambassadors, the Belgian minister and the commander of the Canadian contingent.

As the entered the hall which was decorated with the flags and coats-of-arms of the allied nations, the enthusiasm of the guests was such that the military men, including Lord Kitchener, first lord of the admiralty, and other dignitaries were in the brilliant uniforms of their rank.

Confidence in the ultimate success of the allied arms was expressed by Earl Kitchener, who pointed out the splendid deeds of the gallant Belgian army and the gallantry of the Japanese forces. Continuing, Lord Kitchener said:

"The British Empire is now fighting for its existence. I want every citizen to understand this cardinal fact, and to understand this cardinal fact, only from a clear conception of the vast importance of the issue at stake can come the great national moral impulse without which the government's war ministers, or even their bravest, can do but little. We have enormous resources, but we have not the moral spirit of ours which has never understood the meaning of defeat. All these are great assets, but they must be used judiciously and effectively. I have no complaint to make whatever about the response to my appeals for men. The progress in the military training of those who already are enlisted is most remarkable and the country may well be proud of them; but I shall want more men, and still more, until the enemy's military machine is completely broken down."

Hardships Diminished. "Armies cannot be called together as with the magician's wand, and in the process of formation there may be some discomforts and inconveniences in some cases—even downright suffering. I cannot promise that these conditions will wholly cease, but I can give you every assurance that they have been and are being greatly diminished and everything that administrative energy can do to bring them to an end as speedily as possible. The men who have come forward must remember that they are enduring for their country's sake. Just as their country are in the shell front trenches. The introduction of the bill would not mean the sword until Belgium had recovered all that she had sacrificed, until France had been secured, until the military domination of Prussia had been destroyed.

"So far as we are concerned we are clearly open to no similar suspicion. This development of armaments has modified the application of old principles of strategy and tactics and reduced the present warfare to something that is more like a chess game. Our losses in the trenches have been severe, but such casualties are far from deterring the British nation from seeing that the British army has proved itself to be not so contemptible an engine of war as some were disposed to consider it."

Aid From Overseas. He concluded: "Altho our thoughts are constantly directed towards the front and the great tasks they have in hand, it is well to remember that the enemy will have to reckon with the forces of the great British Empire, the vastness of which already have welcomed in this country, in the very fine body of men forming the contingents from Canada and Newfoundland, while from Australia, New Zealand and other parts are coming in quick succession soldiers to defend the imperial cause. And besides all these there are training in this country over 1,500,000 men eagerly waiting for a call to bear their part in the great struggle."

"As each soldier takes his place in the field he will stand forward to do his duty, and in doing that duty will maintain neutral the empire should not suffer in integrity or authority. The Turkish statesmen, vacillating in council from day to day, allowed their true interests to be undermined by German threats; by German ships and German gold they were tempted to a futile outbreak after another, the lawless bombardment of Russian open ports, the equally lawless invasion of Egean territory, and the extension of the Turkish empire until the allies, after observing unimpeded patience in the face of veiled menace and impudent equivocations, were compelled to yield to the logic of facts and recognize the Turk as an open enemy. It is not the Turkish people, it is the Ottoman Government that has drawn the sword, and I do not hesitate to predict that that government will perish by the sword, as they and not we who have rung the death knell of the Ottoman dominions, not only in Europe but in Asia."

Blight Will Disappear. "With this disappearance of Turkey will disappear, as I hope and believe, the blight which has weighed so heavily on the destinies of the world. We have no quarrel with the Turkish people, which has been a sovereign claims among his most loyal subjects millions of men of the Moslem faith. Nothing is further from our thoughts than to encourage a crusade against their creed. Their holy places are prepared to defend, should the need arise, against all invaders, and to maintain them inviolate, but the Turkish empire has committed suicide and dug with its own hands its own grave."

Unparalleled Gold Reserve. Turning to financial and economic questions, Mr. Asquith explained the measures taken by the government to deal with the abnormal situation at the beginning of the war. He thought that the results were very satisfactory. Foreign exchanges were working in the case of most countries, quite satisfactorily. The gold reserves of the Bank of England, which were forty millions sterling on July 22nd, and which had fallen on Aug. 7th, to twenty-seven millions, now stand at the unprecedented figure of sixty-nine and a half millions (Cheques). The central gold reserve, after three months of war, exactly twice the amount at which it stood at the level at which it stood at this time last year. Food prices had been kept on a fairly normal level, and the trade had been curtailed in no direction, unemployment had been rather below than above the average. In this connection Mr. Asquith contributed to the Corporation of City Finance for relieving the situation. He announced that he had conferred a peerage on Sir Walter Cunliffe, governor of the Bank of England.

The Turkish divisions pursued a vigorous offensive, turning movement, striving to surround a right wing of the Russian troops. Our artillery opened a murderous fire on the Turkish troops, and the Turks, who they attacked again and again, were finally compelled to take to flight. First their left wing retired and then the whole front was broken. They are seeking refuge in the obscurity of the broken and uneven ground to the west of the scene of their attack."

Wounded Belgian Tells The World Correspondent of Some He Saw.

BRIDGE MADE OF DEAD

Kessel Fort Taken After
Thousands of the Enemy
Were Killed.

By D. Douglas Roper, one of the World's Correspondents with the Canadian Evolutionary Force.

Scattered through the forest and breadth
of England—and of Scotland and Ireland
—are hundreds of private houses which have been turned over to the war office to be utilized as hospitals. Some of these are mansions; others are small residences, but whatever their capacity for Red Cross work at the time of their conversion, they have lost all quota of patients.

It was at one of these "house hospitals," near the village of Hayes, in Kent, that the World representative gained his first experience of the sterner side of this war. Also, he was told a tale of German atrocities
which would seem unbelievable were it not corroborated
by the testimony of thousands of other sufferers.

In this little hospital, when the World called in company with another
Canadian officer, were 10 wounded Belgians. The billiard-room and drawing-room had been converted into wards, and here in comfortable beds
lay some of the defenders of Antwerp. Eight of the ten had been hit by shrapnel, one by a fragment of a bullet and one only by rifle fire. One man had been struck in the jaw, the bullet passing out behind the spinal column. One of them had defended Fort Kessel until defence was no longer possible, and then, with the Germans
a few hundred yards off, he had crawled into the city and joined the frantic throng who were on the march to the east.

It was from Corporal G. H. Filippe of the 11th Belgian Infantry that the most detailed and graphic account of the heroic defence of the last Belgian stronghold.

Bitter Criticism.
Nursing a wound in his forearm and crippled with rheumatism as the result of days and nights in the water-soaked trenches, he told his account of the fighting he had seen since the war commenced. He spoke fair English, but at times when the recollection of all he had suffered came to him, he broke into impassioned French. These were the times when he broke off his narrative to indulge in bitter criticism of the Germans. His sole anxiety seem to be to get well again and to return to his country. Three times in a few months, if the doctor is to be believed.

"I came up to service the day the Germans invaded our country," said the corporal. "My wife and child I have not seen since. Perhaps, like hundreds of other women and children, they have met their death at the hands of the butchered.

Terrible Atrocities.
Here he caught a look of surprise
on the face of the Canadian officer raising himself up with difficulty and saying: "Ah, monsieur, you do not know the German soldiers are guilty of atrocities. Let me tell you what I have seen men, and boys, too, with knives cut off and their ears cut off. Not Belgian soldiers but peaceful citizens. Why was this done? I do not know, unless because the barbarians thought they were dealing with people who had furnished the Belgian fellow-countrymen with information. I have seen worse. I have seen the body of a little baby, a three-year-old boy, who had been bayoneted by a brave Prussian and then pitched into the mother arms. I know worse things, but they cannot be written about. Do you know that they took the right hand? You will not fight against us," they said, "even if you are showing the English the way to the front."

They Are Barbarians.
By his time several of the other patients were sitting up listening to their corporal's story. "That's true,"
said two in unison, and others nodded
their heads. "They are barbarians.
Better that a Belgian should shoot himself than fall into their hands."

The corporal went on to describe the bombardment of the forts on the southwest of Antwerp. The first Kessel and the approach of the invaders was the explosion of a shell which wrecked part of the fortification. It had been fired from a 16-inch howitzer at a distance of not less than 18 miles. Not a German was in sight and yet within an hour following the salvo of the big shells the fort was untenable.

The defenders went to the trenches and here awaited the onslaught of the German infantry. Three times the Prussians sought to bridge a shallow stream which lay between them and their objective; and three times the Belgians with field guns, machine guns and rifle fire drove them back. The loss was enormous.

Made Bridge of Dead.
"They were lying in heaps," said Corporal Filippe, "in heaps all over the plain and in the river. And then, the next day, this time they crossed the stream. They crossed it on the bodies of their own dead, which they waded and plunged into the shallow water. Yes, that is true. Ask my comrades."

The Belgian N.C.O. narrated some of the hardships endured by the fugitive men in the retreat from Antwerp. How they had died without a chance of having their selves attended to. How women and men had fallen exhausted soldiers without sleep for a period of three days in the trenches had marched along half asleep supported by comrades.

"My country," said the corporal,
"who in civil life is an officer, is being out. The 'cultured' Germans have made of prospering Belgium a barren, desolate desert. Of my own regiment only a handful remain.
Every day will come when we will see the Prussian soldier for his work. All we ask now is revenge.
It will come."

Certainly if every Belgian is anticipating revenge.

Seventy thousand dollars will be expended during the next six months
by the board of education in the erec-

present building only contains four

for the requirements of the district.

To meet the present demands for school accommodation in the city and to get up with the natural increase of population will entail an expenditure in new school buildings and additions to present schools of fifty thousand dollars a week for the next fourteen months. The contracts entered into since last April at the fortnightly meeting of the property committee have ranged from $100,000 to $200,000.
If the war ends during the year 1915
the rate of $50,000 a week for new buildings will continue owing to the rapid growth of the city, but should the war last longer it is estimated that the school building operations will drop to about half the present rate.

The new buildings are so numerous that the architects' fees and commissions saved by the board having a salariated architect, in the building department will amount to about twice the present cost of maintaining the whole of the present building department staff.

CANADIAN TROOPS
IN LONDON PARADE

Several Battalions From Overseas in Ranks of Khaki-Clad Marchers.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, Nov. 9.—Shorn of its picturesque pageantry, but with its imperial and military features unprecedented in a century, the Lord Mayor's parade made its way thru the streets
today in the first part of the ceremonial inaugurating Sir Charles Johnston as Lord Mayor of London in succession to Sir Thomas V. Bowater.
The men were clad soberly in khaki
and there was none of the brilliant display which usually distinguishes the procession.

Enormous crowds gathered early to obtain places from which to see the men who are now fighting England's battles on the continent. One of the most popular organizations in the parade consisted of several battalions of the Canadian troops now waiting in England their opportunity to go to the front. Many of the London city regiments were represented by bands of men, and when a battalion of the London Scottish who recently distinguished themselves in France, Phlippe, it will be a black and white
to Kaiserism when the tide of war begins to change.

NO RACE SUICIDE
IN MONKEY HOUSE

Three New Members in Simian Colony at Riverdale Zoo.

THRIVE UNDER CARE
Mothers Nurse Baby Monks
and Protect Them From Cold Like Humans.

Altho not exactly situated in the torrid zone Toronto is apparently in a class by itself as a breeding place for monkeys. During the week the stork of monkeyland has been very busy at the Riverdale Zoo, and has made three different calls, and in-cludedly delighted the hearts of three female members of the tribe of Sprinkle's baboons. The first arrival made his appearance last Monday, and next on Wednesday, and the last on Sunday.

Officials of the Zoo state that as a rule monkeys are very hard to raise,
but that Toronto has proved an exception so far. During the past two years there has not been a death in the monkey house, but on the other hand
there have been no less than six births.
Pneumonia is most dreaded.

Mr. W. Ford, who has charge of the house, says that he has been particularly fortunate in keeping his charges free from it in the past, and hopes that his good luck will continue. Two of the mothers are quartered in one cage, and to say that they take care of their babies would be only putting things
subject to cold and for that reason mildly. When a World reporter called yesterday they were both huddled up in one corner desperately hugging their charges and chattering. The mothers carry the youngsters for the first six months, and at times, even longer. The youngsters are particularly subject to cold and for that reason special care is taken in keeping their quarters warm and dry. They are fed on rice and molasses, beans,
bananas and fruit bread.

The other animals in the park are all doing well. Their winter quarters are well ventilated and heated and also kept scrupulously clean. Several new buildings are nearing completion.
They will go a long way toward relieving the present cramped quarters of a number of the animals.

FINED TWENTY DOLLARS
FOR SPITTING IN FACE

Felix Loris Said He Did Not Intend to Do It, But Evidence Was Against Him.

When Felix Loris was charged in the police court yesterday
with an assault on George Wilson,
a soldier, on Sunday last, he stated that he only spoke French and admitted that he had spat in the soldier's face,
but not intentionally. Crown Attorney Corley sent for an interpreter and said
there was a possibility of the prisoner
being a German as many Germans could speak French fluently. Wilson, giving evidence, declared that with three others he was standing on the vestibule of a street car and the prisoner, in endeavoring to get off, shoved him violently aside, at the same time uttering something which he could not understand. When Loris reached the street he spat in Wilson's face and pointing to his neck shouted
"Germans," indicating that the soldiers would "get it in the neck." Other witnesses corroborated this evidence,
and Magistrate Denison fined the prisoner $20 and costs or 30 days.

GERMANY INVADIED
AT THREE POINTS

Kaiser's Hosts Are Now Placed on the Defensive
by Allies.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, Nov. 9.—At three points
in the area of hostilities, in Silesia, East Prussia, and in Alsace, forces of the allies were on German soil today,
and for the first time since the outbreak of hostilities, conditions seemed to pressage in the opinion of British military observers, reversal of the roles of the contending armies.

Up to the present time Germany has been fighting, generally speaking, in the territory of her enemies, but now
she would appear to be more or less seriously menaced from the east by the victorious armies of Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander-in-chief in the field, the advance guards of which are less than 200 miles from Berlin.

No General Retreat.
It is true that there was a brief
Russian invasion of East Prussia during the early stages of the war, while the French were for a long time held their position in Alsace, but the latest development in the Russian advance, if the interpretation placed on it in London is not all wrong, is the most important of the campaign up to the present time.

It is mere speculation, of course, to say that Germany will be forced forthwith to retire from East Prussia, or even cease her offensive in this area. In certain areas of France and Belgium
the allies are making a vigorous offensive, but it is too early yet to predict that Germany will not renew her efforts in an effort to break
thru the line and that much hard fighting around Ypres will not occur.

HERE'S A POSER

If you found a roll of bills in a shabby purse, showing that it probably represented the hard-earned wages of a working man, what would you do with it? Keep it, and so enrich yourself at the expense of some poor family's food and shelter? No, certainly not! Try to find the owner, and return it to him?
Yes, every time!

There aren't many workmen losing money on the street nowadays, but there are more than you would suppose who are losing jobs, and jobs mean money,
so it amounts to the same thing.

If it would give you real pleasure to hand a laborer back his lost money, it ought to be equally pleasing to be able to hand him back his job.

Simplest thing in the world to do! All that's necessary is to remember when you go into a shop to buy anything, that the article you pick out means somebody's job. If it's an imported article, well, that's a job for a fellow in some other country, but if it's "Made in Canada", it's a job for one of your fellow Canadian citizens, who for the time being, is a little down on his luck.

Take your handkerchief out right now, and tie
a knot in it, just to remind you about there are about 25 uncalled-for Suits and 100 pairs of uncalled-for Trousers. Quite a large proportion of the Overcoats were made for men in the North-West who, after ordering, enlisted as soldiers and left for the war. Deposits were paid on all of them, so that we can afford to cut deep into the price. The man who needs a winter Overcoat will find here some rare bargains, as we are determined that every one must be sold at once.

Your Choice of About 100 Overcoats for The Sale Price of Which Ranged From $18 to $35.

They are made of this season's newest materials, including meltons, beavers, Scotch tweeds, chevots, chinchillas, single and double-breasted, Chestersfield, Balmacans, and Ulsters. Some of these are satin lined, with silk-velvet collars; worth $35. Every Overcoat is a great snap at $12.50.

THE SUITS

The Suits are made in this fall's style, of imported tweeds and worsteds. NOT SUFFICIENT TO BUILD FENCES

Germany Must Not Be Allowed to Hold Her Present Position.

OFFENSIVE NECESSARY

Enemy Cannot Be Starved Out, is Opinion of Professor Lloyd.

"If Germany can hold her present position she will have accomplished all that she set out to do. If the English population must either emigrate or starve, if the allies should be unable to gain further ground, and Germany can hold her present position, the Kaiser will be victorious." Such was the rather surprising statement made by Prof. G. H. Lloyd in his lecture on "The Economic Background" before a large audience at Convocation Hall last night.

The total cost of $1,200,000 a month was considerably augmented when the war was in progress, and the cost of the war was estimated at $1,200,000,000 a month for Germany, $125,000,000 for Austria, $150,000,000 for Britain, $25,000,000 for France, and $200,000,000 for Russia. This was exclusive of Japan, Serbia, Belgium and the smaller powers.

Plenty of Food. Germany was said to have plenty of food to last for ten or eleven months, with the possibility of making the supply last for a little longer than that time. Sugar and potatoes, which were the superfluous products, were being made to help out the deficiency of wheat, and potato flour would be mixed with wheat flour. With plenty of food within her borders, and the prospect of obtaining more from Roumania, it was thought that Germany could not solve would be to secure forage for animals. That, according to Prof. Lloyd, did not admit of solution.

North Sea power, he said, was not only a political but an economic aim. Belgium was the problem which Germany was most anxious to solve. Amsterdam and the complete control of the Rhine. The last-named port was ranked second in importance only to London as a North Sea centre. In Antwerp there was more wheat traffic than in London and Liverpool combined.

Poor Colonial System. Germany's colonial system in all its weaknesses was the cause of her relative colonies were unhealthy, and its healthy ones were unprofitable. They were never a paying proposition, and were but sparsely settled by Germans. German urban population was growing faster than that of the United States, and since 1870 Germany had from half of that of England, to very nearly an equal basis. The tremendous enterprises, such as the Kiel Canal, the Krupp plant, and other examples were pointed to as indicative of an enormous economic development. It was not on the economic side that the war must be started. The only factor to enter into the equation was men's lives and acres of land. The food question, which at present serious, but it might become so if Russia invaded East Prussia, the granary of the empire. An economic collapse would not come. Prof. Lloyd had no hope of any such occurrence.

The Newmarket corps will be the first organized outside of Toronto under the auspices of the Toronto Military Training Association. Premier Hearst has already expressed his warm sympathy with the movement.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, 144 Boon avenue, Earls Court, received notification from their son Walter, a corporal in the 4th Rifle Brigade, stationed in Dagshai, India, that the regiment has been ordered to stand by for active service. ORDERED TO BUILD FIFTY MORE CARS

New Street Railway Equipment Must Be in Operation Next Summer.

WESTERN EXTENSION

Line Must Be Built Northwest of Bloor St. and Ossington Ave.

The City of Toronto went out in their case against the Toronto Street Railway Co., according to the order handed out yesterday by the Ontario and Municipal Boards. The city demanded that 200 new double track cars be built, but the expert consulted by the board decided that only 50 would have to be ordered, which must be in operation before June 1 of next year. All the other cars asked for a wholesale extension of the present lines, the order issued by the board asks the railway company to lengthen one line and to reconstruct 1.46 miles of track. They made a recommendation that a second line be extended also. One reason why more extensions and improvements were not recommended by the board, was that the expert employed by the board, was that the railway company had only seven years left of a 30 years contract.

A month's extra time will be allowed for the completion of the line along the new line. The agreement was made that the Wilton avenue line be constructed to Pape, and the extension to the north. The cost of the report, which aggregates some $9950, will be borne equally by the city and the railway company. Corporation Counsel Geary considers that the order is a fairly satisfactory one.

WHAT DYSPEPTICS SHOULD EAT

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE. Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste, and as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so thin, anemic and lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well fed body. For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on given products, I would suggest that you should try a meal of any food or foods which you may like, in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisulphated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisulphated magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and antacid known. It has no direct action on the stomach, but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. As a physician, I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I must admit that I can do nothing but advise doing an inflamed and irritated stomach with food instead of getting rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bisulphated magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bisulphated magnesia directed above, and see if I'm not right."

A. W. Labor Was Elected President of Liberal-Conservative Association.

A. W. Labor was last night elected by acclamation as president of Ward Five Liberal-Conservative Association at one of the largest meetings ever held at the Orange Hall, Eucleda avenue. The other officers elected were: Executive, J. H. Whittaker, 1st vice-president, E. A. Dunlop, 2nd vice; W. B. Graham, 3rd vice; R. Dunlop, recording secretary; John Tyndal, treasurer; J. E. Starr, financial secretary; Norman Somerville and William Kerr, auditors. A. C. Macdonnell, M.P., in addressing the meeting dealt with the war situation. "We have seen a splendid contingent across the ocean," he said. "The largest which we have ever seen, and we are about to send another. Every dollar of expense in this connection will be borne by the Canadian Government. Nothing is being paid but what will eventually come from this country. It may cost Canada $100,000,000, but every dollar is being supplied by the British Exchequer without a question being asked until after the war. Out of this war will come a new world, and Canada will occupy a large part in this new world."

Mr. McDonald paid a high tribute to the way in which Torontonians had answered to the call of the country, for men statin ghat for every man required no less than ten had been secured.

Great Development. W. D. McPherson, M.L.A., spoke of the wonderful development of Ward Five during the past twenty years. He declared that the new premier was one worthy of their support and would follow closely in the steps of their late beloved leader, Sir James Whitney. "Mr. Hearst is a man of sterling quality, and I am proud to say that he will be supported during his term of office by as large a majority as his predecessor was during the past four years, so that we may look for a continuance of that prosperity that Ontario has seen. In fact we can look for new ground being broken."

Toronto-Hamilton Road. George Gooderham, M.L.A., explained the various details of the building the new Toronto-Hamilton road, on which the first pick and shovel had been used that day, and the whole road would be completed within twelve months. He spoke of the criticism which had been given against his action of employing someone who was not a Canadian as his chief engineer. "But," he said, "I received no less than 300 applications for the position, some from engineers from Toronto and Hamilton, but there was not one among them who had the necessary qualifications for the work. Some were capable of building a 20-story building, but none were capable of laying concrete on the level."

The latter part of Mr. Gooderham's speech called for considerable criticism from Ald. Meredith. Controller Church and Ald. Meredith also spoke.

BOARD DECIDES TO PUSH APPOINTMENT

No Name Mentioned for First Commissioner at Private Session Yesterday.

NEWS FROM CITY HALL

Toronto Will Contribute Maintenance of Toronto-Hamilton Highway.

The board of control, at a special private session all day yesterday, decided to send to council at its meeting a recommendation to appoint a commissioner to have full charge of the department of Toronto. The name mentioned for the position by the board in its recommendation, in an attempt to once and for all decide the appointment of the future wage officer, the board took the method of recommending to City Engineer Johnston that he appoint Ernest Webb, whose name was already on the list of fair-wage officers. There is little doubt that the city solicitor will comply and that Webb will get the position. The board decided that as the government had absolutely refused to contribute anything for the maintenance of the Toronto-Hamilton Highway, the city would, in conjunction with the other municipalities, pay a share of the cost of upkeep in keeping with their contribution. This means Toronto pays about one-third of the maintenance.

Great Development. W. D. McPherson, M.L.A., spoke of the wonderful development of Ward Five during the past twenty years. He declared that the new premier was one worthy of their support and would follow closely in the steps of their late beloved leader, Sir James Whitney. The Kaiser's American Papers in Canada

A nation at war is liable to menace from any quarter. Canada is at war at this moment and liable to two kinds of attack: invasion by German sympathizers from the United States...

Attack by an outside press is the most serious because, if not checked, it may encourage invasion. The Canadian Government must take care of itself and the country in time of war...

A story in The Sunday World dealing with the invasion of Canada pointed out how easy it would be for a comparatively small number of men to seize some of our cities.

The Montreal Herald of a few days ago devoted a strong article to American publications that are unfriendly and which seek circulation in this country for the express purpose of sowing sedition and encouraging invasion.

The government must now know the papers doing this work and ought to prohibit their entry, now that power therefor has been given to the postmaster-general.

We in no way criticize the right of any American newspaper to take whatever policy it likes in its own country, but we assert the right to say what shall and what shall not be circulated in this country, especially in time of war and threatened attack.

Enemies will take all the rope that they can get; but it would be foolish on our part to let them have it. We notice the same counterparts carrying advertisements from these unfriendly papers, offering special inducements to Canadians to become subscribers!

Weighing Bread. The M.O.H. enquires in The Health Bulletin quite pointedly: Do you weigh your bread? There was an average shortage in small loaves of 3 1-2 ounces and in large loaves of 3 ounces.

"A Fresh Start". The Venerable Chas. Francis Adams of Massachusetts has written an open letter to President Wilson on the railway situation. He points out, as many have done before him, that the roads cannot pay interest upon their capitalization and at the same time borrow the money required for extension, upkeep, equipment and betterments.

That the situation is grave from every standpoint is beyond dispute. Travel is becoming unsafe, and service inefficient. Few companies can continue to earn interest upon their capitalization, and practically none of them are in a position either to meet the principal on maturing obligations or to get additional money for necessary renewals and betterments.

Mr. Adams says that railway rates are too low, that the operating expenses are constantly increasing, while the rates remain stationary or decrease. He thinks if passenger and freight rates were immediately and considerably advanced that the roads could get a fresh start and come thru all right.

There will have to be a fresh start, but, in our opinion, it will have to be from the bottom up. The whole fabric of railway capitalization is so interlaced with fraud of every kind that no patchwork or shoring up can save it long from downfall and ruin.

A fresh start, in our opinion, can only come thru the nationalization of all the American railways. They can be purchased cheaply by the government with low interest bonds, and un-der management like that which built the Panama Canal they should pay a handsome return upon the investment.

Mayor Hocken is back. Premier Borden will be back on the 15th. Gen. Hughes is back. It isn't a bad plan to stay at home.

The example of the nations of Europe in the great war has stimulated the aspirations of Toronto citizens for the majority. Everybody is getting into the field.

geons will be able to inoculate them for bulber.

Miss Helen M. Merrill, as her letter elsewhere indicates, is preparing an historical work on the United Empire Loyalists, and asks for the use of any documents or other material which would assist in the work, to which we are glad to direct attention.

It is said that the Germans removed the most precious manuscripts from the Louvain library before they burnt it. As the most precious were the very ancient and exceedingly valuable and irreplaceable Celtic manuscripts, no doubt the Kaiser had no desire to arouse ire in Ireland.

When a German domiciled in Toronto cannot contain himself sufficiently at the sight of a Canadian soldier without spitting in his face, he is unpleasantly reminding us of the quality of the men who committed outrages in Belgium. If he finds our appearance so disagreeable, he had better hide away somewhere himself, or the authorities will do it for him.

The Mikado has shown his grateful and generous spirit by contributing $25,000 to the new St. Luke's International Hospital at Tokio. The act is a pleasant recognition of the part of the Japanese empire of the effort to establish in the east a great institution which is expected to mark a distinct advance in research work.

Now that the city has declined to purchase the street railway the public will have to make up its mind to do without some of the conveniences that would have resulted from such a policy. The Ontario Railway Board will make it as comfortable as possible for the Street Railway Company, seeing that it has only a limited time longer to hold the franchise.

Editor Words: Kindly permit me to say to all who may be interested that I am collecting material for a genealogical and historical work on the United Empire Loyalists of Canada, and that I would much appreciate receiving from whoever may possess such old United Empire Loyalist documents, letters, militia lists, records from family Bibles, coats-of-arms, photographs of original Loyalists and houses built or inhabited by them, and other belongings such as churches, schoolhouses, mills, etc., with genealogical records or historical notes pertaining to each.

WELSH AND WHITE FOUGHT TEN WHIRLWIND ROUNDS

Chicago Boxer Was Given a Draw With the Lightweight Champion in the Milwaukee Bout - White Finished Strong.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 9.—Fredie Welsh of Wales, lightweight champion of the world, was held to a draw by Charlie White of Chicago in a fiercely fought, ten-round contest here tonight.

White opened a wound over the champion's left eye, and Welsh, partially blinded by a thin stream of blood, was forced to back away in the tenth and cover up to escape White's terrific rights and lefts to the head.

When they weighed at 3 o'clock the champion stripped at 34, and White at the fighting barb weighed 135.

The first round was lively, but ineffective. White deserved a shade in the second and third rounds, landing a number of hard blows on Welsh and striving to put over his left hook, credited with being his knockout punch.

White landed a good uppercut in the third and put right and left to the body, but followed by missing with three left hooks.

Welsh began to fight like a champion in the fourth, backing White into a corner and giving him a good lacing, and in the fifth Welsh took another big lead, whaling White all around the ring and taking little punishment in return.

Chicago boy showed better in the sixth, but Welsh jarred White with lefts and took the round by a head.

White came back strong in the seventh and the round was about even. Welsh deserved the credit by a shade, the boys missed many times. White out-fought Welsh in the eighth. They traded punches at the bell, and after a hard rally in the centre of the ring the Chicago made the champion bleed.

White drove Welsh into a corner and laced him with stinging rights and lefts to the body. White landed two rights on Welsh's jaw as the round ended.

White rubbed the fight in the tenth, again driving Welsh into a corner, where he landed five times without a return. White opened up a cut over Welsh's eye and peppered him with rights and lefts to the head. Welsh swung wildly, with blood trickling into his eyes.

White put a clinch, and as they broke White put two rights to Welsh's head and a right to his jaw. The last two rounds were White's all the way. White left the ring without a mark, while Welsh was bleeding profusely.

GIBBONS IN OLD-TIME FORM. NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Mike Gibbons of St. Paul defeated Youngie Donovan of this city in a ten-round match at Madison Square Garden here tonight, the referee stopping the bout because of the sixth round to prevent a knockout.

Donovan was unable to make any impression on the referee's knock-out, who displayed his usual cleverness. Gibbons weighed 154½ pounds and Donovan 156½.

KID LEWIS' DEBUT. NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Kid Lewis, the English lightweight, made his first appearance in America in a ten-round bout with Phil Birt of New York. Lewis out-fought his opponent all the way.

Both men weighed in at 135 pounds.

VARISITY TO KEEP IN GOOD SHAPE

Will Play an Exhibition Game With Hamilton R.C.—The Rugby Situation.

The Hamilton Rowing Club will play an exhibition game next Saturday with Varsity at the stadium to keep the two teams in shape for games they are likely to play a week later.

When McGill defeats Queens, and T.R. & A.A. trims Ottawa St. Pat's, these teams will be eligible to play off the club first mentioned.

As usual, McGill wants to select Ottawa as the field. Varsity resents this suggestion, and offers to toss for Toronto territory for their combat, and the college union. Varsity will nominate Hamilton as the venue.

The showing of the Argos on Saturday has caused Ottawa fans to change their views of the Tigers as prospective Big Four champions in the capital is favoring the Argos.

The Ottawa Club has had the poorest season on record financially, and also from the standpoint of winning games.

Following next Saturday's game, a play-off will be necessary. In three weeks Varsity offered to toss with McGill and leave the matter to chance.

Hamilton and Toronto are both represented in the Big Four and O.R.F.U. tie-up, and it is likely that they will try to avoid conflict.

If Varsity go to Ottawa, it leaves practically no field for the others, unless they lose for the first time in the series.

Hamilton and Toronto are both represented in the Big Four and O.R.F.U. tie-up, and it is likely that they will try to avoid conflict.

EVERYTHING FAVORS PEACE AT OMAHA

President Barrow Arrives Today—No Major League Rating for Federals.

Special to The Toronto World. OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 9.—The board of arbitration of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues carried on its business today without the presence of E. H. Barrow, president of the International League, who is one of the members of the board of adjustment.

President Barrow, who was due in Omaha this morning, stopped over in Chicago to hold a private conference with Ban Johnson, Garry Herrmann and representatives of the Federals.

Barrow and Barrow will reach Omaha Tuesday morning, and the latter will once take up his work in the board of arbitration.

The sole representative of the International League now in Omaha is D. Flanagan of the Providence (Rhode Island) team. Half a dozen additional members of the board of adjustment are expected here Tuesday, however, when the remainder of the baseball men come in from Chicago.

Nearly 200 representatives of organized baseball are about to assemble in Omaha now on route.

"I believe the troubles of the International League have been definitely decided," said Flanagan. "It is in the air that the trouble between the majors and the Federals has been adjusted, and the announcement will probably be made here within forty-eight hours, possibly Tuesday. We don't know what the terms are, and we don't care, just so peace is desired."

But the peace will not be a recognition of the Federals as a major league. The International League will be anything of that kind. If any league in the country is to be given rank as a major league, it must be the International League.

As soon as the full international delegation arrives tomorrow, the members will probably go into a caucus to discuss the resolution which President Corish of the National Commission for the minor leagues is introducing for the minor leagues. In this move Corish is backed by a number of managers, but Mr. Flanagan could not commit the International League to a policy either for or against until he gets a conference with President Barrow and his colleagues tomorrow.

President J. P. Fitzgerald of the Canadian League, together with several other managers from that organization, are attending the conference. The Canadian League is very much interested, as it expects the board of arbitration to recognize it as a Class A organization. This will probably be taken when the matter comes up, as it is understood no protest is being made.

The arbitration board tonight announced that the Eastern Canadian League would be permitted to hold certain territory next year without placing teams therein.

GIVING UP THEIR RETAIL STORE

Semi-ready Store in This City to Be Closed Up.

One of the Directors States That the Present Shop Will Be Closed as Quickly as the Stock Can Be Disposed Of.

It has been decided to close the Semi-ready Store on Yonge street.

The Semi-ready Company opened the store several years ago as a demonstration of the best tailoring work they do, but there is a prejudice among the trade against manufacturers conducting a retail establishment.

With over five hundred wholesale customers in Canada, this prejudice has to be considered and the directors have decided to close up the store at 143 Yonge street as quickly as the stock can be disposed of.

The store will be closed as soon as the present stock has been disposed of. The store has been a success, and the directors have decided to close up the store at 143 Yonge street as quickly as the stock can be disposed of.

M'GILL TRIES TO EXPLAIN SITUATION

Paisley Tells Why He Would Not Toss the Coin With Charlie Gage.

Montreal Gazette: Following the victory of Varsity, Charlie Gage, who captains and manages the team, visited McGill headquarters on Saturday night and suggested to Captain Paisley of the McGill team that they toss for the choice of grounds for the play-off.

Paisley refused to entertain the proposition, stating that he had not the authority of the McGill club to take such action, and in the second place he pointed out that McGill had not the right to toss for grounds for a play-off until they defeated Queens on Saturday next.

Gage insisted that according to the following clause in the rules of competition Varsity and McGill were now tied and would have to play off at once. Paisley told the Varsity captain that the matter would be left in the hands of the union, and that they would take action on the matter as soon as the scheduled playing season is concluded.

The rule read: "In the senior series, a win shall count two points, and a draw shall count one point. The club which has at the completion of the season's schedule a majority of points shall be entitled to the championship of the union."

Varsity are no doubt anxious to bring the intercollegiate to a finish, in hopes of their winning the honors, which would give them sufficient time to play a Dominion final. It is not likely that there will be a Dominion championship played for this season, as the existing ties in the intercollegiate and a probable tie in the intercollegiate and Ontario Union will carry the season along too far for a Dominion final.

President J. M. Harriet of the Intercollegiate Union, who will be in Montreal Saturday to play with Queens against McGill, will likely call a meeting for that night, when the question of grounds will be decided should it exist. If Queens win the game the meeting will be canceled, and the championship will have been won by Varsity.

LATE MRS. RUTTAN LAST OF CAMERONS

Father Fought at Waterloo and Settled in Canada Two Years Later.

OLD HISTORIC FAMILY

House Still Stands Near Yonge Street on Upper Canada Site.

Old Mrs. Ruttan, who died in this city on Sunday, at the ripe age of 93 years, was the last member of one of the historic families of upper Yonge street. Her father was Col. Archibald Cameron of the well-known 78th, who fought at Waterloo and came to this country in 1834, and who, two years after, took up as a farm lot 12 on Yonge street, the entrance of which was from old Yonge street, near St. John's Church, to the little above Hog's Hollow. The greater part of this lot was recently acquired for St. John's Church, and is now being developed for that purpose. The old brick house of the Cameron family still stands on old Yonge street, about a quarter of a mile east of the present Yonge street, and is to be converted into a hospital as soon as the new school building is completed.

Family Burial Plot. One of the most interesting burial plots in the whole neighborhood of Toronto is the row of five tombstones in the churchyard of St. John's, in Cameron's family, several of the male members being soldiers like himself. In the early days, in the time of the rebellion, the Cameron home was one of the best known houses, and for years thereafter. When the family was broken up, however, the house and its contents and trimmings are still of great value, and are being degraded by ordinary parties.

Mrs. Ruttan was very well known in the city, and her husband had been a good many years ago. She was the widow of a man who had been a member of St. John's Church.

MIMICO COUNCIL PLANS TO INSTALL SEWERAGE

Passed Bylaw Last Night—Will Start Work When Debentures Are Sold.

Mimico Council decided last night to instruct its solicitor to prepare a by-law authorizing the construction of water and sewerage systems for the village.

A letter was received from Dr. John W. McCullough, chief officer of the provincial board of health, to the effect that the ratepayers having voted on January 5 last in favor of the expenditure of $100,000 on the work, the board would probably give approval to a request under the seal of the council, no further vote being required.

The council propose to have the by-law prepared and everything in readiness to make a market for municipal debentures improves.

Plans Ready. The plans of the system prepared by E. A. James, the village engineer, will be submitted to the provincial board of health with the proposed by-law.

The offer of C. H. Chadwick of a block of land at a price approaching $15,000, north of the library, and on the west side of Church street, as a public park, was not entertained, on the ground of being too far north for the purpose.

Asks For Damages. A complaint was received from Mr. Fetherstonhaugh regarding the state of the roadway near his residence on the Lake Shore road, and asking that damages sustained by his automobile, due to the bad condition of the roadway should be paid for by the village.

The complaint was referred to E. A. James, engineer of the highways commission, which has the Lake Shore road under its jurisdiction.

A largely signed petition for a cement sidewalk on the east side of the roadway referred to the clerk, J. A. Teifer, for report by the next meeting of the council.

FAIRBANK RATEPAYERS ENDORSE CANDIDATE

The following resolutions were passed at a meeting of the Fairbank Ratepayers' Association last night: "Resolved, That this meeting do heartily endorse the candidature of J. M. Warren for the aldermanship in ward five at the next election in testimony of his sterling worth and good work as president of the Northwest Mutual Aid Association."

"Resolved, That a vote of censure be passed on York Township Council and the county council, inasmuch as they have refused to communicate with the Fairbank Association and residents of the district."

Several complaints were recorded by members as to the action of certain residents in allowing cattle to stray in the district. This district is now too well populated with horses to scatter the newly laid gravel sidewalks and trampling down people's gardens. I even found a horse on my sidewalk the other morning. A vote of thanks was accorded the Western Association for their good work in the collection of funds for the new hall, a sum of $10 having been collected for chairs and tables recently.

EAST TORONTO. East Toronto Ratepayers' Association will begin their endorsement campaign in the interests of their candidate, W. E. East End Y. M. C. A. Gervard and Main streets, next Tuesday evening, Nov. 11.

HAD GUN ON HIM. Frank Finlay, described as a dangerous criminal, was sent to jail yesterday for 30 days, after being found guilty of carrying a loaded pistol. He was also fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

HUSBAND ASKS POLICE TO FIND MISSING WIFE

Mrs. Rose Thompson, New Toronto, Has Been Absent From Home Since Oct. 23.

Mrs. Rose Thompson, who lived on Seventh avenue, New Toronto, has been missing since Oct. 23, and her husband and relatives have asked the police to try to locate her. She left her home at 7.30 in the evening, saying she was going to the office.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yard, at the city and Woodville, comprising 2077 cattle, 988 hogs, 1886 sheep and lambs, 170 calves, and 400 ponies.

The United States having closed their gates against Canadian cattle, a stagnation to a certain extent of trade in the market for the New York stock has been noted.

Trade in cattle is very slow, with prices much lower for the choice heavy steers, such as are mentioned above; the common and medium classes were not affected as much, but trade for them also was dull and draggy.

Nothing has been heard of her since that time, and Constable Crosshall, who is her brother, has been making a searching enquiry as to her whereabouts, but has not been able to locate her. She has two children, aged 3 and 6 years, respectively.

United States Markets Are Closed Against All Canadian Cattle.

CATTLE PRICES LOWER

Sheep and Lambs Firmer, and Hogs Command Higher Figure.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yard, at the city and Woodville, comprising 2077 cattle, 988 hogs, 1886 sheep and lambs, 170 calves, and 400 ponies.
