Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

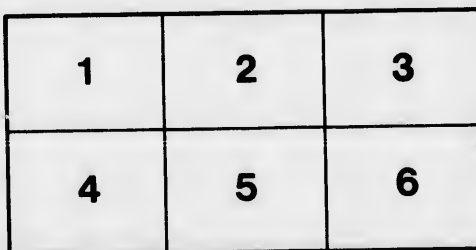

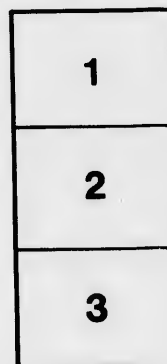

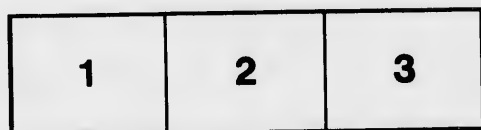

Douglas Library
Queen's University

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Douglas Library
Queen's University

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit on un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

NOTICE.

The miserably inadequate amount of the contributions to the Synod Fund, for defraying the expenses of conducting the Synod's public business, as well as the falling off of the same, makes it absolutely necessary to present the Ministers and Congregations with a Statement of the payments for a few years past. The items have been taken, with the utmost possible care, from the Treasurer's Book, and are printed opposite to the Synod Rolls for the several years. The statement will show, at a glance, which Congregations have paid and which have not, as well as the relative amount of the contributions. This last is a matter of some importance seeing that while the expenses of the Synod would require a contribution of not less than £1 10s. or £2, at the very least, from every Congregation, many Congregations have so utterly forgotten their duty, in this matter, as to send in 10s. or even 5s. And attention must be pointed to a most ingenious practice of remaining in arrears for two or three years, and thus covering the whole with one payment of a small sum, too little even for one annual contribution. The consequence of all this is, that the payments for several years back have been utterly inadequate, and that the Synod is getting yearly in debt to a very considerable amount, to say nothing of the continually increasing want of many things necessary for the accommodation and preservation of the Synod's Records, Books, and Documents, which should not be neglected, as well as the comfort and efficiency of carrying on the Synod's work. Now, on the part of those Congregations who have sent in no contributions or miserably insignificant ones, is this honest, in regard of their duty to bear an equitable share of the expense?—is it honest towards those to whom we are in debt?—is it honest towards those officers of the Synod who are required to get certain work done by parties to whom we are already deeply in debt, and to whom we can hold out no certain prospect of payment for work contracted for? It is earnestly urged that Ministers and Congregations, hinted at in this Circular, bestir themselves and raise something very considerable, for arrears. The matter should be taken up in a matter-of-fact manner at meetings of Presbyteries;—and Presbytery Clerks should use some personal activity and diligence in corresponding with members, obtaining the money, and forwarding it without delay.

Further, at the request of many members of the Church, a new Edition of the first six years Minutes, in 8vo., verbatim from the Records, has been put to press, and will soon be published. The cost will be considerable, but still, if this is followed up in another year or two, by another publication, up to the entire Minutes of the present Clerk, the advantage in having a complete history of the Proceedings of the Synod will be felt to be such that no one will, in all likelihood, complain of the expense. A proposal is made, in the way of a suggestion, but at the same time very earnestly, that, over and above all arrears, every Minister and Congregation should furnish, between now and the new year, a contribution of four or five dollars towards a Supplementary Fund. The money will be faithfully accounted for by the Treasurer or Clerk, to whomsoever it is sent.

(Signed)

ANDREW BELL,
Synod Clerk.
