"Kiltie" Regiment From The Maritime Provinces

Col. H. Montgomery Campbell to Command is Report Today — More Men Needed For Artillery Units and 55th

It is understood that in addition to another maritime province regiment after the 56th, a Kiltie Regiment, will be formed in the maritime provinces under command of Lieut-Colonel H. Montgomery Campbell, of Apohaqui, formerly officer commanding the 8th Hussars. Recruiting for this unit, it is believed, would be most popular, and the expectation is that the ranks could be quite easily filled. The number of the battalion would be the 64th, and it would comprise volunteers from all parts of the three maritime provinces.

More Men Lieut-Colonel B. R. Armstrong, O. C. the 3rd Regt. C. A., is in Halifax today conferring with the military authorities at headquarters. A message received from him this morning by Capt. J. R. Miller told of a call for fifty men for service in the 8th battery of artillery in Fredericton, whose ranks are now somewhat depleted. Recruits will be taken at the local offices, the preference being given to men who have had experience in artillery detail, or in housework, although there would be no objection if all other requirements were satisfactory. St. John will be asked in the near future also to furnish its quota of men of the 180 needed to fill the ranks of the heavy field battery, which will be made up in part of recruits from New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

The Campaign A brisk, energetic and short campaign is favored by some of the officers to fill the ranks of the 180 needed to fill the ranks of the heavy field battery, which will be made up in part of recruits from New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

The Honor Roll Several applications were received today by Sergt. London at the recruiting offices from men desiring to serve. Two more were sent forward to Sussex on Saturday night, James Allen of Quebec, and Joseph Brousseau of Montreal.

PRINCESS ELIZABETH OF ROUMANIA

The King of Greece is now seriously ill. His death would present a very interesting situation with the Balkan states. The Queen of Greece is a sister of the Emperor of Germany and it is believed her influence over the King has kept Greece from joining the Allies. The Crown Prince of Greece is engaged to Princess Elizabeth of Roumania, and as that country is also on the verge of completing the Allies "iron ring" around Germany, it is almost certain that if the King died it means that Greece and Roumania and the other Balkans will enter the war. As the Queen of Greece is a sister of the German Emperor, she will undoubtedly return to Germany if her husband dies.

FIELD SECRETARY FOR MOUNT ALLISON

Rev. Bradford Porter Appointed by Methodist Conference

LIQUOR IN SACKVILLE

Delegate Says Illegal Sale is Disgrace to University Town—Supernumerary Fund—Dr. Morton Urges Increase of $100,000 in Endowment

Matters relating to Mount Allison University received consideration at the morning session of the N. B. and P. E. I. Methodist conference. Dr. B. C. Borden presented his report showing among other matters, the effect of the war upon the institution. His recommendation was that a field secretary be engaged to present the claims of the university for students and financial aid during the summer, and approved by Rev. Bradford Porter appointed.

Discussion of college affairs led to an attack by a layman on social conditions in Sackville with the charge that liquor is sold freely and openly. The efforts of the college authorities to suppress the traffic were described and approved.

The proposed amalgamation of the Christian Guardian and the Wesleyan was brought up and discussed. It, therefore, will not be put into effect. In a preliminary report of the supernumerary fund Dr. A. S. Morton announced that only eighty per cent of the claims are being paid for the summer and appealed for additional endowment of $100,000.

The conference resumed at nine o'clock this morning with Rev. Richard O'Neil presiding. After devotional exercises, prayer, and the reading of the address on "The teaching of Jesus concerning His death" was given by Rev. Charles Bingham, the business of the conference was again taken up.

Rev. George Steel presented the report of the supernumerary endowment fund showing an increase in the endowment of $17,000, paid $17,000.81; promised, $10,000, and $10,000. A motion was passed approving the report of the fund and recommending that the fund be increased by $100,000.

The report of the committee on the Christian Fund was presented by Rev. George Steel, A. E. Rowley and E. R. Machum were added to the auditing committee. A communication from Rev. J. W. Bartlett was presented and placed in the hands of the committee on Sunday schools.

The report of the Parsonage Aid Committee was presented by Rev. R. J. A. Ives and adopted.

The proposed amalgamation of the Wesleyan and Guardian was then taken up. Rev. George Steel moved that "Whereas a proposal for the amalgamation of the Wesleyan and the Christian Guardian has been recommended by the eastern section of the Book Committee, this conference, having fully considered the proposition, does not believe that it would be in the interest of our work, that such an amalgamation should take place at present." The motion was carried.

The report of Dr. Borden re Mount Allison institutions was submitted. Dr. Borden gave an interesting account of the work of the institutions, showing excellent progress despite adverse circumstances. He referred to the difficulties arising from the war which had been shown in a slightly decreased attendance. Thirty of their students have volunteered for military service and 150 others took the military training course. The number of students in the university was 222, with a total of 700 in all the institutions, and more than fifty teachers. The total income was $63,311, and the expenditure was $49,942. In view of this deficit of $13,369, and in view of the fact that the university is still a deficit of $116,000, and appealed for the support of the church. He spoke of the delay in commencing the building of the new science building, owing to war conditions. He recommended that Rev. Bradford Porter be engaged for the summer to present the claims of the institutions throughout the conference. As an added reason for support and for parents sending their children he referred to the high moral tone of the institutions and of their beneficial effect upon the religious life of the students.

Rev. Bradford Porter followed Dr. Borden, also speaking of the work of the Mount Allison institutions.

Rev. Chas. W. Squires moved that the conference be heard with deep interest and pleasure Dr. Borden, representing the interests of our institutions of Mt. Allison. It deeply feels its obligation to the university and desires to express its appreciation of the work done and the plans outlined for the future, especially in regard to the appointment of Rev. B. J. Porter of the Nova Scotia conference to be field secretary in the interests of the work for the summer months." Carried.

Liquor at Sackville An attack on conditions in the town of Sackville was made by A. C. M. Lawson, who charged that liquor is being sold openly and that the university authorities and the Methodist church is at fault in not putting an end to this situation.

Other delegates spoke as strongly defending the college and church leaders, pointing out how much had been done in the face of the opposition or indifference of other elements. A motion expressing approval of the efforts of Dr. Borden and the university staff in this connection was adopted.

Rev. Thomas Marshall spoke of the work of the supernumerary fund and moved that "This conference approves of the proposition to increase the number of members of the committee from eight to twelve, and that, if a majority of the members of the fund approve of

HAS MESSAGES FROM LONDON TO PRESIDENT

British Destroyers Conveyed Wilson's Personal Representative Through War Zone

New York, June 14.—Today's New York Tribune says: "Great Britain made certain by a conveyance of destroyers that Col. E. M. House president Wilson's personal representative, would not be molested on his way out of the war zone and his arrival here yesterday on the American liner St. Paul was likewise safeguarded by Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port."

"It was said that these precautions were due to the fact that Colonel House was an important messenger for President Wilson from London and the British foreign office was determined they should not go awry through German undersea interference."

The personal representative, however, has dispatches from Berlin also, and it is reasonably sure that Germany would not do anything to prevent their delivery. Moreover, the St. Paul is an American ship. She carried about a hundred Americans and the possibility of her being torpedoed was unlikely."

It was the first time in a generation that all street cars in Chicago were completely tied up.

Orders to strike were issued after an all day conference of union leaders, transportation officials, and Mayor Thompson yesterday in a vain attempt to bring about arbitration. The Zouave and German Kill Each Other in Bayonet Fight

Boulogne, France, June 14—The story of a duel with bayonets in which both contestants were killed, is told in a Red Cross report.

"Two miles south of the hospital," says the writer, "a French Zouave became separated from his two missing comrades after an unsuccessful effort to take a German trench. A German soldier leaped out of a trench and charged the Zouave, bayonet fixed. The Zouave met his foe in the man's hand and landed a blow on the forehead. It was about nine at night, and the moon illuminated the grim combat. The contest lasted for nearly five minutes, when suddenly both gave desperate lunges which went home. For a second the opponents each stood fixed by the others bayonet. Then they fell dead."

ATTRACTIVE HOMES FOR THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS

The Eastmount Building Company is Providing Attractive, Comfortable and Modern Eight-room Houses, and Selling at Prices and Terms Within Reach of All

During the last two years, home building has become most popular than ever before, and it is indeed a pleasing sight to see in all parts of the city, and more particularly in the suburbs, new houses continually springing up, representing various styles of architecture, but all modern and attractive.

Of the several companies engaged in this work, none probably have succeeded in meeting the requirements more successfully than the Eastmount Home Building Company which is confining its attention entirely to a most attractive site on Rothesay Avenue, about twelve minutes' ride on the cars from the court house, which is usually referred to as the very centre of the city.

From Eastmount, which is about two-thirds situated on a hill, an excellent view of the city is obtainable and if one spent an hour yesterday on the veranda of any one of the dozen well situated houses of the house already built, one would find as much of life and interest on Rothesay Avenue as at the same hour on Douglas Avenue, which for years has been one of the main residential streets.

The Eastmount Home Building Company is a recent organization, those interested having associated themselves for the purpose of building desirable houses in a desirable locality, at desirable prices and on desirable terms, a company having chartered hundreds of special vehicles to make the voyage from St. John to Moncton, where most of the houses were taken. William F. G. Spencer as president, F. S. Thomas, treasurer and A. M. D. & Co., managers, are responsible for the Eastmount Home Building Co. and that they are invariably ready upon want, and at the price they can afford to pay, is readily indicated by the fact that the houses of the house already built, or before. And this is not surprising to those who have inspected the houses, with both room, electric lights, and every convenience that one could expect in an expensive house, which are procurable for $300 cash, on payment of which one is in possession of their own home, built on their own lot, and ready to be let or to deal with hereafter.

The balance of the payments are arranged in such a way that in the most moderate circumstances can afford to pay in lieu of rent. During the progress of the building, the company has been addressed to our local papers, asking why attractive, modern, and such houses, which can be built at prices that the average earner could afford to pay in other parts of the city, but apparently not in St. John. If this was a problem, the Eastmount Home Building Co. has solved it, and such letters to the company never again be written. For every family that is without a home of their very own, the company has a plan, and it has a message of interest, and if all such will call immediately at the office, or purchase a bicycle that is not a Raleigh, sold in St. John, by Taylor Bros., 31 King square; sole agents. GRIM TALE OF A BATTLEFIELD DUEL

Zouave and German Kill Each Other in Bayonet Fight

Boulogne, France, June 14—The story of a duel with bayonets in which both contestants were killed, is told in a Red Cross report.

"Two miles south of the hospital," says the writer, "a French Zouave became separated from his two missing comrades after an unsuccessful effort to take a German trench. A German soldier leaped out of a trench and charged the Zouave, bayonet fixed. The Zouave met his foe in the man's hand and landed a blow on the forehead. It was about nine at night, and the moon illuminated the grim combat. The contest lasted for nearly five minutes, when suddenly both gave desperate lunges which went home. For a second the opponents each stood fixed by the others bayonet. Then they fell dead."

ATTRACTIVE HOMES FOR THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS

The Eastmount Building Company is Providing Attractive, Comfortable and Modern Eight-room Houses, and Selling at Prices and Terms Within Reach of All

During the last two years, home building has become most popular than ever before, and it is indeed a pleasing sight to see in all parts of the city, and more particularly in the suburbs, new houses continually springing up, representing various styles of architecture, but all modern and attractive.

Of the several companies engaged in this work, none probably have succeeded in meeting the requirements more successfully than the Eastmount Home Building Company which is confining its attention entirely to a most attractive site on Rothesay Avenue, about twelve minutes' ride on the cars from the court house, which is usually referred to as the very centre of the city.

From Eastmount, which is about two-thirds situated on a hill, an excellent view of the city is obtainable and if one spent an hour yesterday on the veranda of any one of the dozen well situated houses of the house already built, or before. And this is not surprising to those who have inspected the houses, with both room, electric lights, and every convenience that one could expect in an expensive house, which are procurable for $300 cash, on payment of which one is in possession of their own home, built on their own lot, and ready to be let or to deal with hereafter.

ANOTHER OF THESE DEADLY GAMES Suffering remorse after their recent defeat at the hands of a professional baseball aggregation masquerading under the guise of actors, the newspapermen are anxiously looking forward to Thursday for a chance to "come back." They used to know how to play ball, but this was in the long ago. Now they are seeking to revive their lost proficiency and to wield the bat as well as they can wield the pencil. So, on with the fray! This time they will compete with a team of the "Chocobats" from "The Chocolate Soldiers," who have sent to Oromocto for an imported battery. In the meantime they intend to study the game, and any donations of rule books, baseball dictionaries, almanacs or Ring Lardner's bush-league stories, will be gratefully received by Frank Boyle, who used to live near a baseball park, and for the reason has been elected manager of the Chocolate Soldiers.

Logan 460 Main St. M. 2175-41 FATALITY IN JOGGINS MINE THE LADY MINSTRELS St. John, N. B., June 14. To the Editor of the Times: May the Loyalist Chapter, I. O. O. E., publicly express through your paper their appreciation of the services of L. S. Ford, and E. M. Olive in their recent minstrel performance. It was Mrs. Ford's offer to become musical director, though he realized the work such an undertaking always means. It meant much more than a sacrifice of much time for many weeks—surely this was a patriotic donation and a generous one. Only those who have taken part in minstrel performances will realize how much is due to Mr. Olive for accepting the responsibilities of stage manager, as well as chief end man. It is expected that the proceeds of the minstrel show will amount to $970. The Loyalist Chapter are deeply grateful to Messrs. Ford and Olive, and feel that their part in this patriotic donation has indeed, been a large one. Thanking you for your kind paper, I remain, sincerely yours, (Signed) EDITH M. SCHOFIELD. Sec. pro tem Loyalist Chapter.

PRESENTATION AND FAREWELL The home of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Brien of Johnville, was the scene of a pleasant gathering recently, when friends assembled to bid farewell to one who had been popular with them, Miss Alice McGinley, who has entered St. Vincent's Convent here as a novitiate. In behalf of the gathering, Rev. R. J. Coughlan presented to her a handsome silver watch, and in behalf of the Altar Society, a valuable fountain pen, as tokens of esteem. Miss McGinley was the recipient of heartfelt wishes from those assembled. She has been an active member of the church of St. John the Evangelist, an efficient Sunday school teacher, prominent in the Altar Society, and president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the A. O. H. She also took a popular part in amateur theatricals where her rich native Irish tongue added to the pleasure of her auditors.

The profanity of an employe in a Worcester office jarred the girl stenographer, who spoke to the head of the establishment. He directed her to put up a small box into which she was to drop a dime whenever the offender swore. At the end of the month the money was to be sent to charity, while an equal sum was to be deducted from the man's wages and returned to the girl. Since the box was put up a few days ago, the man has sworn once.

Dental authorities agree that man's saliva in healthy quality and flow is the one best friend to the teeth.

They also agree that modern diet too often depresses the normal moist condition of the mouth.

It is here that the chewing of Sterling Gum steps in as a right-hand assistant to oral hygiene. It stimulates the healthy flow of saliva, neutralizing the acids of the mouth, and keeping the mouth moist, cool and healthy.

No; it is not necessary that you chew Sterling Gum all day long. Twenty minutes or even less after each meal will be about right.

THE PARAMOUNT DUTY.

What is the Canadian government doing to encourage Canadian manufacturers to put in more plant for the manufacture of munitions of war? What is it doing to organize Canada industrially for war, and thus to increase our national efficiency? No other subject should be permitted to thrust itself upon the attention of the government...

STILL FIDDLING

The Standard this morning boasts of the great work done by Major General Hughes in organizing Canada for the production of munitions of war. This is on the editorial page. On another page stands out in big black type the heading—"Canada Can Make Ten Times As Many Shells."

Mildred—"Don't you think Miss Eddy looks much younger in her new hat?"

Helem—"Indeed I do. Why, Mildred, it makes her look but very little older than she says she is."

A Suitable Name

"What shall we name our new submarine?" asked the head of the Submarine Force.

"U" names seem to be the favorites. There's the U-29 and the U-14, you know."

Teacher—"Name one thing of importance that did not exist a hundred years ago."

Pupil—"Me."

"When you proposed to Miss Jenkins," asked Jack, "did you tell her you were unworthy of her?"

"No, I didn't," replied Tom. "I was going to do so, but she told me first."

Chairman (at friendly meeting, proposing toast to the performers)—"All the artists have given their services free, and I think you'll agree with me, gentlemen, that the laborers are worthy of their hire."

"And so you are married?"

"I told you it was going to be."

"But I thought it was a job."

"It isn't."

Comfort and Cure For Baby's Skin Troubles

Dr. Chase's Ointment Cured When Baby's Body Was Covered With Distressing Eczema

If every mother could try Dr. Chase's Ointment for the chafing, skin irritation and resulting eczema which tortures so many babies, what a blessing it would be for the little ones.

This letter will give you an idea of what a wonderful work this Ointment is doing in the way of bringing comfort to children who are so unfortunate as to contract eczema. It is so easy for this trouble to develop from chafing or irritation caused by the clothing and so difficult to get it cured, that Dr. Chase's Ointment is appreciated when once its healing qualities are known.

Mr. M. L. Duxlos, Postmaster, Duganville, N. B., writes "I believe it is my duty to recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for eczema. My baby was seized with eczema and his face and arms were covered with the terrible disease. After trying all sorts of ointments the disease continued to spread until it was, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

covered the entire body. When the itching became bad he would scratch himself and was sometimes found in his cradle covered with blood. Hearing about Dr. Chase's Ointment, I bought two boxes and before this was all used the child was cured. That was a year ago and there has been no trace of eczema since I recommended Dr. Chase's Ointment to all who suffer from eczema as being the best treatment in the world for itching skin diseases.

Dr. Chase's Ointment is for sale by all dealers at 60 cents a box. It is a good idea to keep it at hand along with the bath soap, to be used for roughness of the skin, chafing or irritation. Prevention is so much better than cure. Powder clog the pores, but Dr. Chase's Ointment cleanses the pores and thereby keeps the skin soft and smooth. Sample boxes free if you mention this paper. ARBITRATION HAS BEEN A SUCCESS

H. A. Powell Tells Methodist Conference of International Problems Settled—Proceedings of Church Gathering

The historical society of the Methodist conference met at the banquet table in Centenary church on Saturday evening and, after supper, proceeded with the business of the society.

In an address of unusual interest H. A. Powell, K. C., referred to the war and the causes which had led up to it. He said that he was an advocate of peace and the settlement of disputes through arbitration. As an illustration of the effectiveness of this method he said that the International Waterways Commission, of which he is a member, is continually settling international disputes, one of which settled only recently, was more weighty than that which led to the war between Great Britain and the United States a hundred years ago and comparable to that which precipitated the present war.

Other speakers included Rev. J. C. Berrie, George A. Henderson, Rev. F. H. Wightman, Rev. C. A. Ross, C. H. Sampson, John C. Weddall, Judge McKeown and Dr. J. H. Hazelwood.

The hope that a permanent museum with church records and relics might be established was expressed.

The banquet table was spread by the ladies of Centenary church with delicate taste. The younger people of the church served. The ladies were presided over by Mrs. W. G. Smith and included the following: Mesdames Snider, E. B. Nixon, Anderson, Skinner, Ferguson, Palmer, LeLacheur, Calkin, Crockett, Hennigar, Lawrence, Paul, Williams, Jenkins, Robertson, Knowles and Miss Nixon.

The following were waitresses: Misses Pauline Jenkins, Bessie Holder, Nan Powers, Julia Hennigar, Marjorie Calkin, Hazel Deinstead, Mabel Barbour, Agnes Robertson, Dorothy Mathews, Mabel Barbour, Annie Belsley (convenor), and Mrs. Thompson.

Rev. J. K. King

To his associates in the New Brunswick and P. E. Island Methodist conference, assembled in ministerial session in Centenary church on Saturday afternoon, Rev. J. K. King, of the Nashua district, stated his case, a matter of certain statements of a un-British character alleged to have been made by him, having come under discussion. His position in the ministry and the conference was considered with many members taking part in the discussion, and after he had also given his views, on the strength of his statements that he was not in good health, and in fact had not been for some time, he was placed upon the supernumerary list for the time being.

A successor will be appointed to the Nashua district.

At the morning session, Rev. Dr. Johnson of Halifax and Rev. Dr. Creighton of Toronto, spoke of the work of the church papers and the proposed amalgamation. A vote of confidence in and appreciation of the services of Rev. Mr. Johnson and F. W. Mosher was passed.

THE CHOCOLATE SOLDIER

Opening Tonight With a Big Cast and Production

"The King of all modern comic operas," "The Chocolate Soldier" tuncful, clean, free from all vulgarity and doubtful comedy too often seen in musical attractions—with a cast containing such artists as Francis J. Boyle, Tena Randall, Walter Greene, George Tallman, W. H. White, Kittle Burke and Della Nevinis, opens a week's engagement at the Opera House tonight. The attraction comes direct from New York—something of an expensive trip when one considers that there are about forty people with the company and that it required a sixty foot baggage car, packed to the doors, to transport all the company's scenery, costumes and effects. So great is the expense of the attraction it is probable that St. John, Halifax and one or two other places will be the only ones favored with a view of the company this season.

A. E. Root, the general manager of the F. C. Whitney Opera Company, who is with the company as manager, in conversation this morning said that he considered the present cast with the company to be absolutely the best he had seen with the Chocolate Soldier since the first performance. There is no question but that St. John theatre goes are in for a musical treat this week. The city has not been favored with a high class theatrical attraction this season, due to a mistaken impression among New York theatrical managers that eastern Canada had no business to give them, but if The Chocolate Soldier meets with generous patronage there is no doubt that other first class companies will come later.

The Chocolate Soldier should break all previous records on this visit for nothing has been left undone by the Whitney management to make the production high grade, even to carrying a special orchestra of picked musicians to make sure of a proper rendition of the many musical gems in the opera.

The twin towns of Dover and Foxcroft, Me., claim the record for married pairs who have enjoyed fifty years or more of married life. There are twelve such, including Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Oaks, who have been married 60 years.

DR. MCINTOSH, WHO GOES TO FRONT

(Cape Breton Observer)

Dr. L. deC. McIntosh has left Hartland for England, having been accepted as a surgeon in the Royal Army Medical Corps.

Doctor Mac Intosh, of Scottish parentage, is a native of Inverness, Ont. Graduating from McGill in 1904, he first began the practice of his profession here in 1908, and has been very successful. He has also become identified with several local enterprises, among them the Farmers' Telephone Co., Hartland Cement Block Co., Gulguse Black Fox Co., Cloverbrook Stock Farm, and Carleton and Victoria Poultry Association. Not alone will he be missed by the many whose confidence and gratitude he gained in a professional way, but his business associates will find it not easy to replace his careful judgment and shrewd advice.

Soon after coming to Hartland, the doctor married Miss Dora Remley, of New York, and her untimely death occurred last October. His only child, a lad of eight years, is left in care of his sister-in-law, Miss Remley, who will look after certain details of his business.

Dr. A. F. McIntosh, of Andover, came down to bid adieu to his brother. Before returning he will visit St. John, where he will pass examination for entrance into the N. B. Medical Society. Later he may accompany Mrs. C. A. MacCormack to Montreal, where she will submit to an operation for goitre.

Before Sailing Jocosely Declined Use of Artist Friend's Invention — "Men and Nations Go Down to Death, But the Sun Shines."

The life of Elbert Hubbard, who was lost on the Lusitania, might have been saved if he had not jokingly declined the offer of a life preserver before he sailed. The head of the Roycrofters visited the studio of George Carlock, an American artist, a few days before he sailed. Carlock, who has crossed the ocean frequently, had invented a patent life preserver.

FAMOUS BRITISH FINANCIER IN NEW YORK

The picture shows Sir Edward Spayer and his wife, who arrived in New York by the American liner Philadelphia for an extended visit to James Spayer, the noted New York banker. It is believed that Sir Edward's reason for bringing his family to America at this time is due to the great agitation against influential German residents in London since the Lusitania disaster. Sir Edward at that time tendered his resignation from the Privy Council and offered to give up his title, but both were refused by the crown.

and nations go down to death and to dust, but the sun shines and the seasons come and go and the law of gravitation would never forget nor the stars lose their way if both Mexico and the United States should abdicate to death and leave the continent where it was in 1492. Nature, having infinite time, takes no thought of heart-throbs. And if that perfect race does not appear on the earth for a hundred thousand years, it will suit nature just as well. She can wait.

which tend to make one feel timidly small. In one department are all the materials for the combination of great railway cars, locomotives, rails, and switches. Still another series of shops are given over to the making of motor cars, and everywhere is the sound of enormous presses, the roar of steam hammers, the rattle of overhead cranes, while in and about the great machinery run and climb men who seem in comparison mere pigmies. — From "The Krupp's Model Town," by Robert Hunter, in the American Review of Reviews for June.

VASTNESS OF KRUPP'S ENTERPRISE

Even compared with American standards, Krupp's Works are a big concern. It would be impossible for me to give any adequate description of the various departments. Altogether the firm own, in addition to the vast steel works here, proving grounds at Meppen and Tanager. Hütte, three great coal mines, and iron-works at four different places. In their various undertakings they employ more than 70,000 people, no less than 200,000 persons being dependent upon the industry for their livelihood. The total salaries are something over fifty million dollars a year. The valuation of the stock is sixty millions, and the entire industry, with all its branches, belongs now to Franz Bertha Krupp von Bohlen, the older daughter of the late Friedrich Krupp.

"MURDERED, NOT KILLED IN ACTION"

In the East Anglian Daily News of Wednesday, May 19, appears the following letter from Canon Abney, serving at the front as a chaplain: "On April 30, when I was waiting in the hospital at Boulogne, two Canadian ladies in distress, seeing that I was a clergyman, asked me to bury Captain Sinclair Allen, who had died of gas-poisoning during the previous night. One of the ladies was his widow, and they told me that Captain Allen's last words were, 'Tell England I have been murdered, not killed in action.' I think that these words should ring throughout England, and that to follow the Archbishop of Canterbury's advice would be a crime against those brave men who are making almost superhuman efforts to save us and our families from murder and outrage worse than death. 'The Empire can offer as a sacrifice for their country, for civilization and religion, and we who play at home, especially if we have no sons in the fighting line, have no right to deprive them of the means of saving their lives from such enemies as the Germans. Not to give them the means to save themselves is to allow them to be murdered, and some of the guilt will be upon us.'

"LUNATIC PATRIOTISM"

Financial Post Comment on Matter of Shell-making in Canada

(From the Winnipeg Free Press) The editor of the Canadian Machinery and Manufacturing News, writing in the Financial Post of Toronto, says: "Shell manufacture in Canada is more or less demoralized today. Again our soldiers at the front are most exposed danger because of the absolute incapacity of the proper departmental officials to comprehend its duties. What our resources are as regards the production of the steel bars, the output of forgings and the delivery of finished shells, nobody seems to know. Our machine shops are clamoring for shell forgings, and the west is blaming the east for logging everything at sight. Our forgings are clamoring for steel bars and just here it appears the big mean-time trouble has its root. To put the matter bluntly and without circumlocution, the output of war munitions by Canadian factories and workshops is being very seriously retarded because the organization which has this work in hand is in bonds to the obsession that the raw material must be secured in Canada. Sooner than permit the importation of steel and other supplies from the United States, the factories must shut down for days at a time; and the guns go un-served at the front! Is this lunatic patriotism or cold-blooded commercial selfishness wrapping itself in the folds of the flag?"

MORNING NEWS OF THE WAR

The Battle liner Lusitania was sunk off Yarmouth, England, on Saturday, she was 224 feet long, and of 3,027 tons gross. She was built in 1899 for Wm. Thomson & Co., of this city, and commanded by Captain A. J. Micaloy, of West St. John, who also made his honeymoon voyage in her in 1900. He and his wife heard with regret that she had been sunk, because of pleasant recollections of the voyage. Michael Brockley, of the government steamer Landsdowne, was first officer aboard the Lusitania at that time. Among the other craft sunk by German submarines since Saturday were the British trawler "James E. Leyman," the British bark "Crown of India," and the British schooner "Express." The Turks say that their cruiser, the Midulla, formerly the German Breslau, sank a Russian torpedo boat in the Black Sea on Friday night, while the Russian say that the torpedo boat severely damaged the Breslau. The Russians also claim to have destroyed many buildings in the Turkish port of Samson on the Black Sea. In a statement issued on Saturday, W. J. Bryan, former U. S. secretary of state, said that the American note to Germany was changed, so as to appear in milder form, after he resigned.

CANADIAN HERO

Thrilling Episode of a Battle in Flanders A DOGGED FIGHTER

Fine Tribute to Unknown Soldier Who Alone Served Maxims One After Other Till Three Were Destroyed by Shells

(W. Douglas Newton in Lloyd's Weekly News)

There is a Canadian who lies buried along the tortured British line of Flanders. We do not know his name.

He does not know where he came from or where he is buried. He is, all the same, one of the great heroes of this great war.

This Canadian whose name is unknown, but whose death will live, was serving a machine gun behind the grim trenches of the battle-line.

In his little bastion of sandbags he kept his deadly Maxim gun at its high note of slaughter, aware that the belts raced through the magazine as his fingers worked the firing mechanism at top speed.

He set firm. The Canadian set firm on the Maxim tripod and kept his belts singing the fine song of speed and death.

A shell landed near the Maxim, a vomit of fire and smoke jumped to the sky; the explosion engulfed the gun and the gunner. The gun fell to pieces under that dreadful stroke, its day was entirely done.

The gunner—The gunner was already knocking the mud flung by the explosion from him, he was up on stinky feet—looking for another gun to work.

Death had been busy; there were several life guns standing fortly with full belts hanging and empty firing seats. The Canadian saw them all, and ran to the nearest. Without stopping to find out which was the safest he had flung himself on to the nearest seat, and in a trice had the gun coughing and snarling through its heady pressure of work.

With scarce a moment's break he was pouring his lot of solid lead into the pushing crowd of grey, rolling forward on to the position. Again he was

War Vote of $150,000,000 Will Not Last Long 2ND DIVISION NOT IN FRANCE

Now 950 in 55th Battalion—Thomas Malcolm Gives Sets of Bagpipes For Construction Corps—No N. B. Men in Casualty List

Under Lieut. Colonel Cole, a heavy brigade of artillery is to be formed in Canada, of which 180 men are to be furnished from Halifax and St. John.

Hon. W. T. White, minister of finance, in an address presented on Saturday said that he did not think the $150,000,000 for war appropriation given last fall would be sufficient for expenditure until the end of the fiscal year, March 31.

The military authorities at Ottawa yesterday denied the report that the second Canadian division was now in France.

To complete the ranks of the 55th Battalion now quartered at Sussex, 200 men are needed. An energetic effort is to be made to secure them.

Thomas Malcolm of Campbellton, who has two sons in the ranks of the Canadian Construction Corps, at West St. John, has presented to the local detachment of bagpipers, the splendid gift was greatly appreciated by the corps.

In the casualty list issued yesterday Frank Borthan, of Amherst, N. S., is reported a prisoner of Germany, and John F. Chalson, of Inverness, N. S., wounded.

SAW GERMANS BAYONET WOUNDED Eugene Marshman of Petticoe, writing from Shorefield to his mother, says:

"I was talking to a Canadian doctor that had been at the front and he told me that he was in charge of some Red Cross wagons full of wounded, and the Germans ambushed them and fired on them and he closed his eyes and made believe he was dead and two came and stood over him a couple of seconds and then walked away. He managed to crawl to the British lines, and expects to go back soon.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES William Downey, mate of the coasting steamer Ruby L., was thrown overboard by the lurch of the vessel in a heavy sea while near Parker's Cove, N. S. Efforts to save him were fruitless and he was drowned. He was a native of Margareville, aged thirty years and was unmarried.

It is now believed that the body found recently in the river Fredericton, that of Deputy Sheriff Roscoe C. Hillman of Island Falls, Me., who has been missing since December 21. It was believed, at the time, that he had met foul play at the hands of those who objected to his activities in enforcing the liquor laws.

A Boy Scout Guard, with twenty-five members, was organized in Edmundton on Friday evening. Rev. T. F. Marshall was inducted as rector of the parish of St. John's, Gagetown, by Rev. Dean Neales on Thursday last.

W. Horwood, former provincial architect for Manitoba, broke down while giving evidence before the royal commission on Saturday when asked if he had not perjured himself in his evidence regarding the parliament buildings graft before the public accounts committee. He was allowed to stand aside until Monday.

THRILLING TALE OF WOUNDED SOLDIER

One of the Best Letters Yet Published Telling of the Terrible Time at Ypres

W. B. Embree of Abbot, N. S., sends the following interesting letter from W. A. Embree who called with the First Contingent and who was wounded in the battle which he so vividly describes.

The Lord Derby War Hospital, Warrington, England. Dear W. B.—As we have some time, thought I would write you and give you an idea of the battle. We came out of the trenches Wednesday night and marched to billets. Got there about four Thursday morning. Had breakfast and found out that we were in the wrong billets. Started at eight o'clock and got to a place near Ypres, and just preparing to bivouac at three p. m. when the Germans opened a fierce bombardment on the town. Then the order came to stand to. Soon the Algerians were seen running. As they passed, they shouted "All hands, come four kilometers."

Soon the Algerians were seen running. As they passed, they shouted "All hands, come four kilometers."

The order came "Fall in." We were told the Germans had broken the French lines, and were liable to outflank our fellows in the trenches. Then away we went at the double. We doubled most of the way for three miles. There we were drawn up and told to lie down. Then we advanced one-half a mile and lay down. As our guns were only firing an occasional shot, we were thinking it was all over, when the order came down the line to fix bayonets and prepare to advance to the charge and take two lines of trenches and recapture the guns in the woods.

We then advanced to a hedge. Between the hedge and the first trench, was an open field 600 yards across. As we started to go through this hedge, they opened fire and it was a perfect hail of lead. All their guns and machine guns were trained on the open ground. We advanced in fifty yard rushes until forty away we went. We soon had the gun, but only seven of us came back. Then we went to work on the trench again. At daylight we counted up. Of our own, the 10th and 10th Battalions, there were 244 left. When it grew light, our scouts went out and found out we were outflanked and the Germans, who were wounded told us there were 10,000 in the trench opposite us. Then they started shelling us and soon they got the range and kept thinning down our ranks. Then about noon an order came to retire. The officers passed down the trench. "Every one for himself and retire to the right."

Then came the tryout. The men refused to retire. He cursed and called them a bunch of fools, but they only laughed at him. Just then, an order came to hold the trench at all cost as reinforcements were coming. Then the cheering and a number of Germans jumped on their parapet to see if we were coming, and not a man who showed up but was killed or wounded. Then the British began to arrive. Buffs, Yorks, K. O. S. B., Argyll and Sutherland were hurled across that field. Some only got half way. Then came the Dublin Fusiliers and Connaught Rangers. Well they were regulars and had been in it since August. There were thirty Connaughts got to the trench. We were relieved that night at twelve o'clock and got to the dressing stations and half of the crowd were wounded, some in three places. They dressed us there and sent us away in motors, then to Boulogne, then to Rouen, and there to here. My arm is doing fine and will be O. Suppose We Pared This Goodyear Fortified Tire

Suppose we pared the Goodyear All-Weather Tread. There still would be a full-built tire left. For this famous tread is double-thick, and the "carcass" beneath is made extra-strong to support it.

That's what men mean when they tell you that Goodyears are built in perfect balance. For what is the good of a heavy tread that you have to discard when the tire beneath gives out prematurely? This fault, in many rival tires, is avoided in Goodyear construction.

Goodyears Rule Because—Five vital features have put these tires on top in four short years. But these five features we control. And no rival has them:

Goodyear's All-Weather Tread—now double-thick, with deep-cut, close-set, sharp-edged blocks. They grip where average tires slip. They minimize punctures and multiply mileage.

Goodyear's No-Rim-Cut Feature—that fortifies against rim-cutting in the best way science has discovered. This patented method, though widely copied, has never been equalled.

Goodyear's "On-Air" Cure—that protects against blowouts. We give each tire this second cure on bags of air. The air, super-heated, expands and "irons out" any wrinkle the fabric may contain.

No other tire maker goes to this expense. So wrinkled fabric in rival tires causes blowouts.

Goodyear's Rubber Rivets—hundreds of them vulcanized between the tread and "carcass." The exclusive use of this method cost $50,000. It reduces loose tread risk by 60 per cent.

Goodyear's Braided Wire Tape—six flat bands of 128 braided piano wires in the beads of Goodyear tires. They make it impossible to force the tire from the rim.

Prices Reduced Yet despite these extra features—despite the war tax on every particle of raw material that goes into Goodyear Fortified Tires—On February 15th we made a radical price reduction.

This was our third in less than two years, saving the user, in all, an average of 37 per cent. This saving is due to the amazing demand for Goodyear tires that multiplied our output and cut our factory cost per tire. Last year alone men bought in Canada as many Goodyear tires as there were cars in the Dominion.

Join these contented motorists. Get our new price on your size from any dealer today. The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of Canada, Limited

Attacks Giants' Scout With Piece of Gas Pipe - McGraw Says He is Through With Him

St. Louis, June 11.—"Long Larry" McLean, second string catcher for the New York Giants, staged a knock-down-drag-out fight last night in the lobby of the Buckingham Hotel, with "Sinister Dick" Kinsella, scout for the club, as his chief opponent and Manager John J. McGraw as a sort of secondary enemy. During the fracas McLean used a piece of gas pipe in an attempt to "get" Kinsella, but missed, and the Giant scout retaliated by breaking two of the hotel chairs on Larry's head.

The treasure hunters arrive in Bermuda. Harry disguises himself and secures employment aboard the yacht chartered for the expedition, but is discovered. How he and Pauline escape is depicted in two of the most thrilling reels we have yet shown.
"ERIC THE RED'S WOOING"
This two-reel Domino feature is new and different. It's a tale of ancient Norway and the hardy norsemens. Romance is given free swing and some unusual effects are achieved. It's full of interest, and some charming scenes along the rugged coast are beautifully photographed.

WELCOME AN OLD FRIEND
 Rev. Dr. Chapman Again in Fairville Methodist Pulpit
 The Fairville Methodist pulpit was occupied yesterday morning by Rev. Douglas Chapman, D. D., who is attending the conference. Years ago he was pastor of the Fairville church and a very large congregation greeted him yesterday. During his sojourn in Fairville Dr. Chapman participated in many trying experiences with the people of the community which greatly endeared him to all, and there were a good number of the older residents among his listeners yesterday.
 More than twenty-one years ago, when he was in the parsonage office, the building was destroyed by fire and he lost everything including his library. The church in Main street was burned later and under his pastorate the new church was erected on the present site. That edifice had not quite reached completion when it was burned to the ground and the fight to save the parsonage close by is well remembered. The present church building was immediately commenced, services in the meanwhile being held in the Orange Hall. Through all these trying times Doctor Chapman ministered and his occasional visits to the scene of his former labors have been looked forward to with the greatest pleasure by his old parishioners.
 Though in his eighty-first year, he preached a vigorous sermon which was attentively followed.
 In the evening Rev. G. A. Ross, former pastor, officiated, and was also warmly greeted by old friends.

PLAN COMPANY OF NEW BRUNSWICK SCHOOL TEACHERS FOR THE WAR
 The Times has received from Carleton county a copy of a circular issued to school teachers, which is as follows:
 "At the present time there are a number of school teachers of the public schools of New Brunswick who are desirous of enrolling for overseas service.
 "A company for that service has been planned, but at the present time it is only in the embryo state.
 "The following is a copy of the school teachers' volunteer roll, to which all teachers must subscribe in addition to the active service regulations:
 (a) I hereby pledge myself to enroll in a volunteer company to be raised in the Province of New Brunswick, and to be composed entirely (if feasible), of school teachers of New Brunswick.
 (b) The company to be officered by the school teachers according to the regulations of the militia department.
 (c) The understanding is that all who enroll shall serve in whatever capacity desired, whether private or officer.
 (d) It is desired that all teachers (if feasible), undergoing training at the present time in New Brunswick be transferred to this unit. God save the King.
 "All teachers desirous of enrolling, please communicate with R. B. Wilson, Coldstream Car Co., N. B.; S. W. Helton, Windsor Car Co., N. B."

NO SIGN OF THE MISSING ONES

Searching Parties Seek Girl And Little Tot

SEEN YESTERDAY AFTERNOON
 Girl Said They Were Going Out Marsh Road For Violets—Police and Boy Scouts Aid in the Search

Because of there being no session of Sunday school in Tabernacle Baptist church yesterday afternoon, Beatrice Hodgins aged fourteen years and Mary Garnett aged three years, wandered out to Rockwood Park and up to this afternoon had not returned to their home in the city. The elder girl is a daughter of Samuel Hodgins, 35 Brunswick street, and was employed with Mrs. Marie Cosman, 97 Eden street, grandmother of the little Garnett child. When night came and they did not return, there was much anxiety, and search parties scoured the park and vicinity. All through the night the search was continued. Mounted Policeman Moore lending valuable aid, but no trace of the missing children could be found.

Seen at 3:30 p.m.
 This morning there was still no trace of the children. Mr. Garnett, although worn out by his relentless search during the night again started out this morning and headed for the park. Mrs. Cosman accompanied him in a vain hope that the night might recognize some piece of garment worn by her charge.

Mrs. R. E. Bradshaw and Mrs. O. M. Reynolds, of Erin street, said to a Times reporter this morning that they had seen the children coming in Gilbert's Lane Sunday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock. They were then heading for Haymarket Square. Knowing the little girls well they were playing about their yard they are certain that they had not made any mistake.
 A little girl residing near the corner of Haymarket Square and Westmorland road said she spoke to Beatrice Hodgins yesterday afternoon. She was accompanied by a little girl and had said they were going to McDonald's field, Marsh road, to pick violets. Although a reporter made numerous enquiries along the Westmorland road nothing was heard from the children.
 The little Garnett girl when she left home was wearing a white dress, red jacket and coat and coral colored bonnet with pink strings. The Hodgins girl wore a blue dress with white dots, a coral coat and a white hat, with brass buttons. Considerable apprehension is felt for the younger child as it is felt she would be unable to stand the fatigue and exposure. The older girl seems able to take care of herself having, it is said, frequently gone off for days at a time and living about in the open.

Boy Scouts Out
 The police have been active all day doing all in their power to assist in the search for the children. Sergeants Smith and two policemen went to the park this morning and commenced a thorough search. Detective Worrell and Special Patrolman Barrett and others worked in the direction of the Marsh road. A detachment of Boy Scouts, headed by R. Ingraham and A. C. Stedman, special officers, left the Y. M. C. A. about 1:30 o'clock and commenced to scour the woods in the park and also in the vicinity of the Marsh road.
 At eight o'clock last evening in the vicinity of the cattle sheds a young woman and a little girl were seen and a man was behind them. Of course it is not known if these were the missing ones.

 In the probate court today the will of Comly Robertson, lumber surveyor, was proved. He gives to his sisters Cecilia A. Robertson and Margaret E., wife of J. Howard E. Eagles, all his personal effects, with the right to expend the income and a portion of the principal—the balance of such personalty after the death of the survivor to go to the children of Margaret E. Eagles, namely, Blanche C., Arthur H., and Harry C. Eagles. The real estate is left in like manner, and he nominates his sisters executors and trustees. They were sworn in. Real estate is $2,000; personalty $14,000. Barnhill, Ewing & Sanford are proctors.
 In the matter of the estate of Clement P. Clark, retired druggist, there was a return of citation to pass the accounts of the executors, of whom Percy A. Clark, a son, is the active executor. The accounts were gone into, found entirely correct, and were passed and allowed. Henry F. Puddington is proctor.

LOGAN-ROBERTSON WEDDING
 An interesting ceremony took place at a quarter to five o'clock this afternoon in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church when Charles Peters Logan, of the staff of Baird & Peters, was united in marriage to Miss Janet T. Robertson, daughter of Mrs. and the late George Robertson, formerly deputy receiver general of the Dominion Savings Bank. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. McKegan in the presence of a large number of spectators, and in the musical portion of the service Mr. Cochrane assisted at the organ. The bride, who looked charming in a handsome traveling costume of taupe color with a hat to correspond and who carried a bouquet of pink roses, was unattended. The bridegroom was supported by Carlton Peters. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Logan left by the C. P. R. express for a trip to Upper Canada. On their return they will make their home at 254 St. James street. Many beautiful and valuable presents were received.
