CLOSURE WORKED
AND ESTIMATES
ARE ADOPTED

Noisy in Commons As Time Limit Reached

Progressives Spring Surprise
in Final Swing to Support of Government—Civil Service
Bonus—Reciprocity
Motion Defeated.

(Special to The Times).

Ottawa, April 14.—The closure was worked successfully last night in the House of Commons. By adopting this parliamentary device, which was framed originally in the naval debate eight years ago the minister of marine got his estimate for slightly more than eight million dollars through committee of the whole. Talk kept on right up to two o'clock, the time at which discussion stopped automatically under the rules of closure. A vote followed in which the government was sustained by 103 to 79 a majority of 24.

Mr. Duff who made a four hour speech on the estimate and was one of the main actors in the all-night session, closed the discussion, quitting at two o'clock. He protested against the closure. As it drew near 2 o'clock the house became noisy and Mr. Duff was interrupted frequently. The chairman was obliged to call for order several times. The gallery at 2 o'clock were still filled waiting for the final scene in the closure vote.

The last words of Mr. Duff were that the government should resign if it would not give information. His last words were lost in the roar.

Mr. Deane, a liberal member, rose to speak after two o'clock. He could not be heard above the roar but eventually made known that he had risen before 2 o'clock but gave way to another.
He was judged out of order and could not speak.

The committee then voted the estimate amounting to $71,000,000 and an amendment thereto striking an item for salaries for a purchase commission.
The vote was taken on the amendment which was defeated by 133 to 71, a majority of 58. The main motion was carried by a vote of 117 to 65 a majority of 52. The progressives this time voted solidly for the government, which came as a tremendous surprise to the house.

(Canadian Press)
Ottawa, April 14.—Yesterday in the House of Commons, Premier Meighen, said the question of restoring the full bonus to civil servants might be debated when the estimates for the bonus was under consideration.

Sir Henry Dration said the interest on the Canadian loan to Roumania had not yet been paid.

First reading was given a bill to extend the time for the completion of the St. John and Quebec railways.

Second reading was given an act to define Canadian Nationalities; a bill to amend the law relating to copyright;
a bill respecting the Lake of the Woods
control board, and a bill relating to corrupt practices in elections.

A motion to go into supply, Hon. W.
S. Fielding moved in amendment the adoption of the reciprocity pact with the United States. The time he considered opportune view of the possibility of adoption of the Fordney bill in the United States. The debate on this lasted all afternoon and was continued during the evening.

The vote on Mr. Fielding's amendment taken at 11:30, stood 79 for and 100
against, a government majority of 21.
In the senate the finance caused considerable damage to the 173 year old structure, but relics that were invaluable, such as Benjamin Franklin's first printing press, photographs, maps, manuscripts and John Hancock's knee
breeches and small coat were saved.

THE CASE OF A SOLDIER'S PENSION

Ottawa, April 14.—While Sgt. James J. Walsh lies in a critical condition in St. Anne de Bellevue Hospital, Quebec City, the G. W. V. A. is endeavoring to have the pensions board reconsider his case.

Sgt. Walsh joined the Imperial Army in 1914. Wounded in France, he was discharged from the army in 1916 with a medical record showing 100 per cent disability. He still felt that he could help to win the war, however, so coming to Canada, he re-enlisted in the contingent of 1916 and served with the Canadian forces until the end of the war. He then was discharged with a medical record of fifty per cent disability. An effort is now being made to have Walsh's pension based on the original 100 per cent record.

LEFT LARGE SUM TO HIS NATIVE COUNTY

Hon. Sydney Fisher Encourages Agriculture and Education—Estate Near Half Million.

Sherbrooke, Que., April 14.—The Hon.
Sydney Fisher has generously remembered in his will the county of Bromfield, where he so long resided and which he represented for many years in the House of Commons. It is understood that a residue of his estate, amounting to about $100,000, under Mr. Fisher's will, becomes a fund to be known as the Fisher Trust Fund, administered by four trustees, as an aid to agriculture and education in Bromfield. This splendid gift will yield some $5,000 or $6,000 a year. It is understood that Mr. Fisher has in his will suggested the lines along which the revenues from this fund shall be applied.
It is understood that Alva Hous, at Knowlton, the home of Mr. Fisher, is bequeathed to his nephew, Philip Fisher,
and his Ottawa residence to his nephew, Eric Fisher. Alva farm is bequeathed to Arthur Carter.

Mr. Fisher's estate, it is understood, amounts to between $400,000 and $500,000.

MOTHER OF COUNTLESS DONESAL DEAD

Mrs. Ada L. T. Twining of Halifax Passed Away in England on Saturday.

Halifax, N. S., April 14.—Cable advices announce the death of Mrs. Ada
L. T. Twining at Kingston Hill, London, on Saturday, April 9. She was a daughter of Halifax, and was the widow of H. St.
George Twining, who died here some years ago, and mother of the Countess of Donegal.

GIFTS FROM THE TOWER OF LONDON

Suggestion That Cloak on Which Wolfe Died Might Come to Canada.

London, April 14.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The presentation of exhibits of armor from the Tower of London, made recently to the Chateau de Ramey Museum at Montreal, coincides with similar gifts made to the museum in Melbourne, Australia, and to three museums in South Africa. The incident is an interesting reminder that the only exhibit in the Tower of London having direct associations with the overseas dominions is the cloak on which General
Wolfe expired after his victory over Montcalm on the Plains above Quebec.

EMPIRE STEEL

Montreal, April 14.—The British Empire Steel Corporation announces that on April 16, it will deposit with the National Trust Company, Montreal, its fully paid cumulative seven per cent
second preference and its common shares,
amounting to $40,850,000 and $17,200,000
respectively, for exchange into the $43-000,000 Dominion Steel Corporation stock.
Holders of Dominion Steel common will transfer their holdings on and after that date.

SALES ABOVE
MILLION MARK

First Half of New York Auction—Beaver and Mink Yesterday.

New York, April 14.—(Canadian Press)—Sales during the first half of the spring auction of raw furs here passed the million dollar mark yesterday when the pelts that passed under the hammer realized approximately $295,000. The two most important collections sold yesterday were beaver and mink. Active bidding for the latter featured the day.
More than 6,000 beaver skins were sold at prices which averaged twenty per cent above the winter sale figures. The mink offerings, which totalled about 47, 000 were not fully sold, and the unsold
pelts will be auctioned today.

The best prices were paid for fine eastern Canadian skins. Cat skins did not do as well as usual. The best blue and black pelts brought only 48 cents each, and the general run of prices was fifteen per cent below those paid at the January sale of the New York Fur Auction Sales Corporation.

With the exception of persian lamb
and marmot, most of the less important furs sold were lower than in January.
Minknet ran 10 per cent above winter
prices, with the better grades of persian lamb unchanged. The low grade persians were neglected.

POOR RESULTS
IF BONUS CUT?

A Statement in Civil Service
Memorial to Federal Government.

Ottawa, April 14.—"The reduction of twenty-five per cent in the cost of living bonus will 'save' scarcely more than three million dollars, while the resulting slackening of attention to duty of employees affected could easily result in losses of ten times greater value," says a second joint memorial of four civil service organizations which has been sent to the prime minister, members of the ministry and parliament.

It is signed by J. C. O'Connor, president of the Civil Service Federation of Canada; W. J. Cantwell, president of the Canadian Federation of Postal Employees; T. D. Maclean, Civil Service Association of Ottawa, and R. Colvin, president Dominion Customs Officers Association, and makes further representations on the question of the 1921 bonus. It declares that any cut in income is calculated to undermine the morale of the service and also for recommended.

BY-ELECTION ON MAY 28; IT IS DEFINITE NOW

Fredericton, N. B., April 14.—Sheriff
John B. Hawthorne received a telegram this morning from C. M. Biggar, chief electoral officer of Canada, of Ottawa, instructing him that the writ for the by-election in York-Sunbury had been mailed to him from Ottawa yesterday with full instructions. The date set for polling is Saturday, May 28, and Sheriff Hawthorne has been named as returning officer. This morning he appointed Harris
G. Penry of this city to act as his election clerk, and he will be sworn in as such as soon as the writ is actually received.

ST. COLUMBA WINS.

A very close and exciting game was played last evening in the Fairville Baptist Gymnasium when the St. Columba
Seniors defeated the Fairville Baptist Seniors at basketball by a score of 20 to 10. The line up was as follows:

GAMES OF THE OPENING DAY
DREW 155,000

Fine Send Off For Season of
"Come-back" of Baseball.

Chicago, April 14.—The umpire's cry
"play ball" was heard by more than 155-000 in seven major league parks yesterday in what officials of the National pastime heralded as the "come-back of baseball."

The figures, which are unofficial estimates, included two records for opening day attendance at the Chicago National League park, where nearly 25,000 saw the game, and at the home of the New York Yankees, who played before 37,000.
Washington, Americans—15,000.
Philadelphia, Nationals—15,000.
St. Louis, Americans—15,000.

Unofficial figures for other cities were:
Cincinnati, Reds—30,000.
Boston, Nationals—19,000.
Washington, Nationals—18,000.
Philadelphia, Nationals—18,000.
St. Louis, Americans—15,000.

APPLAUS IN COURT; HE GETS
HOURS IN CELL

Ottawa, April 14.—When Wm. Pettley, a visitor at Hull, from Winnipeg, appeared yesterday afternoon during the trial of Philip Konowal, V. C., charged with the murder of Wm. Artick, he earned for himself two hours in solitary confinement in the Hull jail. Pettley was released at five o'clock and left the city.
He vigorously applauded a report made by a witness, Henry Smaard, to Alban Gorman, K. C. counsel for the defence. The witness clapped his hands loudly and the court ordered that he be taken away and placed in a cell.

On his release, the man declared it was the first time he had ever been in a court of justice. He thought it was quite right to applaud as freely as is done in a motion picture.

The whole day was taken with the evidence of Smaard, who swore that he saw Konowal thrust a knife through a panel in the Artick door, behind which the victim was standing.

As Hiram Sees It

"As I said to the bishop" said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam—
"Hold on there," said Hiram—"don't go too far in your horn like that to me. What I'd like to know is what the bishop said to you."

"He said you fellows
out in the Settlement
didn't pay your mind
to a living salary,"
promptly replied the reporter.

"Mister," said Hiram,
"he never said a truer thing. The Lord said
"The poor ye have
with you"—and in order that the Scripture may be fulfilled we have a minister. Now if he was a plumber or a carpenter he wouldn't her lot and be thankful always for small mercies. We kin make fun of the preachers an' say the church ain't no good—but if you an' me an' everybody else took their advice about how to live among the neighbors this 'ud be a better world—yes, sir. Now you take that there man from Toronto that's been out goin Australia an' be an archbishop, Cansady orto be proud of him. I been read-in his speeches, an' he hits the nail on the head every time. There ain't none of 'em—don't care what church they belong to—that ain't sowing' good seed in the minds an' hearts of the young folks
—whether they kin do anything with a hardbilled live you or not."

"The bishop said—" been the reporter.

"Look-a-here!" said Hiram. "I don't believe you ever seen the bishop at all-You're like old Zeke Taylor out to the Settlement. He seen the governor one time at the exhibition, an' if you was to stand talkin' about a cure for the heaves he'd bring it around so he could tell what he heard the gov'nor say at the exhibition. The first time I see the bishop I'll ask him what he thinks of reporters."

"Excuse me," said the reporter—"I said to the bishop—
But Hiram was gone.

COMMISSION
TO HANDLE B. C.
LIQUOR NAMED

Chairman to Get $6,500 a
Year and Members $5,500
Each.

Victoria, B. C., April 14.—Appointment of the three commissioners of the liquor board under the government control act were announced by Attorney-General Farris yesterday as follows:
Archibald M. Johnson, K. C., Victoria,
chairman; Lieut. Col. W. N. Winsby, Victoria; J. Falconer, Vancouver. Mr.
Johnson, as chairman, will receive $6,500
a year. The other members of the board will receive $5,500 each. The headquarters of the board will be in Victoria.

The board will start work at once, as the government has been given power to appoint the officials before the act comes into operation.

Actual operation of government liquor stores under the board will not be started until the middle of May or perhaps June 1.

CANDIDATES FOR ULSTER HOUSE

Sinn Fein and Nationalists Carry Out Compact in Making Selections.

Belfast, April 14.—Eamonn De Valera,
Dr. Moore of Strangford and Patrick Lavery, interned in Ballykinlar, have been selected as the Sinn Fein candidates to represent County Down in the Ulster parliament.

This is in accordance with the Sinn Fein-Nationalist compact, whereby each party will nominate three candidates for the eight seats.

The Nationalist convention nominated candidates for Belfast at the Ulster parliament, including Jos. Devlin.

WHITE PLAGUE FIGHT

Ottawa, Ont., April 14.—(Canadian Press)—Sub-standard shops, an efficient nursing system, sheltered employment,
the establishment of industrial colonies
and the development of clinics in all centres throughout Canada, were recommended as efficient aids in the fight against tuberculosis by Col. Wm. H.
Hart, tubercular expert of the D. S. C.
before the parliamentary committee yesterday afternoon. He presented the report of the Board of Tuberculosis Senatorial consultants, which was compiled after an extended examination of the whole problem, both among the soldier and civil populations throughout the dominion.

Gloomy Outlook
In The Industrial
Crisis In Britain

Nothing Comes of Conference Today of Lloyd George and Alliance Delegation—Labor M. P.'s and Others to Take up Situation as Last Hope.

London, April 14.—Officials of the "triple alliance" of labor, visited Premier Lloyd George at his residence in Downing street this morning and began a conference which may have a vital bearing on the industrial crisis.

Newspaper men were told by J. H.
Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, that the call of the labor men was at the invitation of Lloyd George, but the public was left to speculate whether this might indicate a new move toward a settlement of the labor controversy, or whether the triple alliance was merely delivering it answer to the premier's letter, asking the grounds on which the labor forces had decided to call a strike on Friday. This letter, which was delivered yesterday, was considered as an effort on the part of Lloyd George to keep the door open for further negotiations.

The labor delegation left the premier's residence after a two hour conference.
Mr. Thomas said he saw no prospect for reopening pour parties for an adjustment of the strike situation.

It was reported from the conference
that the premier made a long statement, appealing strongly to the railwaymen and transport workers, who with the miners
made up the triple alliance, asking them to exercise restraint and not precipitate a crisis. This plea, however, does not appear to have had effect.

On the government side it was said
the labor men were unable to present new arguments giving the government any different view of their case, while the government, it was understood, did not indicate that it was prepared to make any further concessions.

This situation early this afternoon appeared unchanged and the outlook gloomy.

The Last Hope.
London, April 14.—Labor members of the British House of Commons, the national executive of the labor party and leaders of the trades union congress met here today to discuss the situation resulting from the call of the strike by the "triple alliance of labor" which is to be started tonight at ten o'clock on Friday night.

Heads of the triple alliance have consented to send representatives to the meeting, which was considered here today to afford the solitary ray of hope that the great strike might yet be averted. Labor members of parliament, however, are quoted by the London Times
as expressing over-optimistic hopes.

The house prepared today to discuss the reply to the king's proclamation regarding the recruiting of reserve forces to set about a great strike develop. The labor party had given notice that it would move the following amendment to the reply—

"The house regrets His Majesty has been advised to take such costly and warlike measures, which are calculated to provoke public feeling, and are directed against loyal citizens who are exercising their legal right to resist encroachment upon the standard of living of themselves or their fellow-workers."

Whether the call for a strike, issued by the triple alliance, will be universally obeyed remains doubtful. The Daily Mail, which has canvassed several respondents, expresses confidence there will not be complete stoppage of traffic.
Edinburgh reports there is in that city
"no strike enthusiasm," while Glasgow says that "certain areas are doubtful".
In other centres, including the big London terminals, it is said that train service will be reduced, but not stopped.

"Experience is conclusive proof," declares the Mail in commenting on the situation, "that a general strike cannot be expected to succeed, as the majority will not surrender to the minority. Will labor risk the commission of so fearful a mistake? Shall it be peace or the sword?"

Figures printed by the Daily Graphic purport to show that if the triple alliance strike should actually result and should last three weeks, it will result in 8,000,000 persons being thrown out of employment. Another result of such a strike, it is said, would be that the national census, fixed for next week, would be postponed. Such an action would be without precedent.

Government Statement.
London, April 14.—An authorized statement in behalf of the government was issued last night with the object of removing misunderstandings said to exist among the miners on the interpretation of the government proposals. The statement emphasizes the national character of the proposed wage adjustment and says that every district adjustment
is to be made on national principles, nationally determined, and that if there is any dispute it shall be referred to a national committee of owners and miners.

"It will be seen, therefore," says the statement, "that the proposal carries out in all its stages the principle of a national wage basis."

The statement further describes as a fallacy the miners' contention that a national settlement of wages depends on a national pool of profits.

RETURNING THE CASH STOLEN FROM OCEAN LIMITED

Quebec, April 14.—(Canadian Press)—
At the opening of the criminal court yesterday, Alfred Savard, K. C., announced that proceeds containing $67,000,
which were stolen from the Ocean
Limited, near Harlake, more than a year ago, had been identified and the crown,
he understood, was satisfied.

Alme Marchand, for the crown, confirmed this, and it was agreed that the money would be returned with orders from the court to dispose of it in accordance with claims.

The Banque Nationale and the Mol-sons Bank have respectively received their shares from the insurance com-pans.

BRINGS A NEW
"WIFE" HOME AND LIVES WITH BOTH

Case of New York Broker
Brought to Light Yesterday.

Jersey City, N. J., April 14.—The strange case of a man who lived with two wives in the same apartment was revealed here yesterday. He is Herbert Thornton Andrews, 30 years of age, a stock broker. The women are Mrs.
Maud Augusta Haynes Andrews, 45, whom he married in Portland, Maine, on June 17, 1912, and by whom he has two children, and Mrs. Esther Mary T. Andrews, 25, who went through a marriage ceremony with him in Greenwich, Conn., on Jan. 26, 1921.

Mr. Andrews is head of the stock brokerage firm of H. T. Andrews and Co., with principal offices in Broad street,
New York, and branches in New London, Conn., Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Chicago and Cleveland. The second Mrs.
Andrews is reported to be a member of a reputable Pittsburg family.

The first Andrews declared last night that the younger woman was brought to the banker's home here on the day of the Greenwich ceremony, and formerly introduced to her as Mrs. Andrews by Mr. Andrews as his "wife."

She told friends that she continued to live in the same apartment, occupying an apartment for the sake of her children, and because she felt confident that her husband would soon tire of the younger woman.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Andrews say that there is nothing illegal in his action.
No prosecution for bigamy may be brought in the state of Connecticut, they say, unless it be accomplished by evidence of the actual consummation of the marriage within the boundaries of the state.

Mr. Andrews and Mrs. Esther Mary Andrews, they added, came here directly after the ceremony and have since lived in Mr. Andrews' home here.

CRITICIZE THE AMBASSADOR

French Papers Rake Jesse-
rond for Alleged Failure
at Washington.

Paris, April 14.—Criticism of Jules J.
Jusserand, French ambassador to the U. S. for his alleged failure to keep the French public informed as to the state of affairs in Washington, appeared in editorials published here today relative to the message of President Harding to congress. Some newspapers, notably L'Homme Libre and the Gaulois, joined the Temps in deploring this state of affairs.

The Cablegram, a new daily representing important business interests said:
"M. Jusserand was not kept informed as to what was going on at the White House and in the lobbies of the senate.
Under the pretext of not wanting to offend American opinion, he has discouraged all initiative to prompt our interests and has left us recently in prodigious ignorance of things over there.
It pains us that we must speak thus of such a man as M. Jusserand, but we are at a point where success in the past cannot compensate for failure in the present."

REDUCE PAY OF
"LONGSHOREMEN"
15 TO 20 P. C.

Montreal, April 14.—Formal notification of a reduction of the wages of longshoremen and other port workers effective with the opening of navigation here next week, was sent by the local shipping federation to the Montreal
longshoremen's union last evening.
While the shipping men's offer was not made public, it is understood to involve reductions on last year's rates, compensable to the recent reductions of 15
to 20 per cent in American ports.

Officials of the longshoremen expressed surprise at the extent of the proposed reductions, and have called a special meeting of the union for Friday night to consider the situation. The union has a membership of more than 8,000 men.

C. N. R. OFFICIALS ARE TRANSFERRED

Edmundston, April 13—Many friends here heard with regret of the transfer of William Atkinson, superintendent of this division of the C. N. R., to a division on the railway west of Quebec city with headquarters at Cochrane (Ont.) Mr. Atkinson has already gone to his new field of work, and Mrs. Atkinson and family will remove shortly to Quebec city where they will reside for the present. Mr. Atkinson will be succeeded here by Mr. Griffin, who with Mrs. Griffin will occupy the house recently occupied by Mr. Atkinson and family.

PAID DEBTS FIRST.

Magistrate on Priority of the Income Tax.

London, April 14—Summoned at London Guildhall to a judgment summons for the non-payment of 18s. 11d. income tax, a printer's laborer, G. Lubell, told the magistrate he was not in a position to pay now. He was only doing casual work, some weeks only earning 17s., and others perhaps 12. He was a widower, with three children, two of whom were in a home. Aid. Sir David Burnett: Why did you not pay this tax when you were earning the money? Defendant: I had been out of work for some time, and incurred a lot of debts, and when I got the money I paid them off. Sir David: You paid your debts, but you did not pay the most important of all, the government debt, which comes first. I have no sympathy for you. You will have to go to prison for thirty days. If you pay, or get someone else to pay tomorrow morning you will be released. That is the alternative. Defendant, who appeared thunder struck, was removed to the cells.

DISCOVERS BENEFITS OF LIME TO ACID SOIL.

Rhode Island Expert Finds It Neutralizes Aluminum Prejudicial to Plant Life.

Providence, R. I., April 12—Farmers have long made practical use of the knowledge that the application of lime to acid soils will make the correction necessary to insure the growing of good crops, but it has remained for the experimental station of the Rhode Island State College at Kingston to explain the real reason for this. Dr. B. L. Hartwell, director of the station, announced today that a series of experiments had fully confirmed the fact that it is not the sweetening of the soil by the lime that helps, but its neutralization of an aluminum compound prejudicial to plant growth.

As a matter of fact, he said, the addition of certain acids, such as acid phosphate, making the soil more acid than ever, will produce the same beneficial results as the sweetening by lime, as they also will neutralize the poison. All soils he explained, contain quantities of aluminum in a more or less insoluble state. The development of soil acidity changes the aluminum compounds to an active form which is intensely poisonous to many cultivated plants.

The discovery will not lead to any new method of treating soil acidity, as it is shown that lime is the least expensive single material for the purpose. In many cases the experiment station has found that lime and phosphate may be used together very effectively.

Farewell Party For The Sussex Regiment

The No. 7 district garrison N. C. O.'s gave a farewell party for the men of the Sussex regiment at the armories last night and between 150 and 200 men were present. A concert of high merit and which met with the entire approval of the audience was given and both the hosts and the guests took part. Colonel Snow, in a neat address, gave cordial welcome to the Sussex regiment and Colonel Burcher, in replying for the guests of the evening, thanked the garrison members for their hospitality and kindness during their stay in the city. The St. John Fuziliers Band was in attendance and provided several heartily applauded selections. Refreshments were served and the entire evening was voted a great success.

A UNIVERSITY AT JERUSALEM

Speaking in New York last week, Prof. Einstein, the eminent scientist and Zionist, said: "I am lending my whole energies at present to the founding of a university at Jerusalem. The work was begun even during the war. A building, far inferior in size for our ultimate purposes, has been obtained and an incomplete library secured. But the bulk of the work remains to be done. "The university is necessary for two reasons. First, to establish a cultural and spiritual centre for the Jewish people in Jerusalem, and, second, because the need of such an institution is keenly felt by the younger people of Palestine. All over the world the Jewry are contributing their efforts and money. Currency has so depreciated in most countries, with the exception of England and America, that their contributions can be of no great moment, but it is the people of these countries who are giving their actual physical aid, and to the Jewry of England and America we must look for the other half of the collective contribution, the financial half. With the present unsettled world economic conditions we look to the half million Jews in England and the three million in America for funds, and to those of the other countries for the physical labor, the actual building and breaking of ground." A special fund has been created, he said, separate from the general fund of the Zionist World Organization, for the purpose of setting up this university. Prof. Einstein's efforts will not cease with the completion of this university. He will continue his connection, he said, perhaps in the capacity of a visiting lecturer, or he may even occupy a permanent chair.

The swiftest tidal current in the world is that between the islands of Jura and Scarba, off the Scottish coast. According to the official charts, the speed of the current here is nearly eleven miles an hour. No river except a mountain torrent, runs at anything like such a pace.

IN BATTLE ARRAY.

If there had been no previous labor troubles of a threatening character in England the present outlook would be much darker than it is. The labor unions, thoroughly organized, if they could not be met by counter-organization, would wield a terrible power.

The occasional references, in the strike news from England, to the middle classes union are full of significance. This middle class union began to come into prominence only a year or two ago. It has been growing rapidly, however, and today, next to the labor unions, it represents the largest organized force in the public life of Great Britain.

The New York Times points out that the transport workers and railway men know that if they strike they will be going dead against public opinion, and adds that the resistance of the government to the pistol held to its head by the miners has not been passive.

Preparations had been made for such an emergency, and were put into effect. The strikers were given to see that they could not have their own way. The reserve forces of the nation would be rallied, not merely to withstand them, but to outfit and discomfit them.

TOO MUCH LOOSE TALK. In Montreal last week a labor orator, referring to a case where a man appears to have helped himself to a free meal, said: "That may be a crime according to law, but there is a moral law that is greater, and that is, that any able-bodied man, who is willing to give his services in exchange for production, is entitled to a meal at all times."

The climate of Canada should be made too warm for gentlemen of this character. In London last week a man speaking from a Bolshevik platform in Hyde Park said: "Now is the time to overthrow the rotten government system and the capitalist class." For this declaration he was fined twenty pounds or two months in jail.

The action taken by the Church of England Synod in relation to the Maritime Home for Girls at Truro and the projected Maritime Home for Women in Lunenburg is another pleasing evidence of interdenominational sympathy and cooperation in welfare work in this province.

REV. CANON CODY'S MESSAGE.

Friends of vocational training and of the free kindergarten as a part of the public school system are very grateful to Rev. Canon Cody, former minister of education in Ontario, for his pronounced advocacy of these forward movements in education, and his statement of what is being done in the Province of Ontario. The kindergarten is a part of the school system in Ontario, and Dr. Cody emphatically asserts that kindergarten-teaching is no hindrance to discipline in the primary schools.

With regard to vocational training, that, in Mr. Cody's view, is the greatest feature of the improved educational system which Canada must adopt to meet the changed conditions and the needs of the new era in our national life. Ontario has made rapid strides and now has in operation or projected vocational schools in all large centres. The time is at hand when that province will have four classes of high schools—classical, commercial, industrial and agricultural.

This message from Ontario should bear fruit in New Brunswick. Bishop Richardson was even forced to confess, in commenting on Dr. Cody's address, that we do not have compulsory attendance in this province. Those who heard last evening what was perhaps the most comprehensive and illuminating address for international peace that has ever been delivered in St. John will need no argument to convince them of our shortcomings and our needs in New Brunswick.

If Rev. Canon Cody of Toronto should accept the exalted position of Archbishop of Melbourne, Australia, to which he has been elected, Canada's loss of a great preacher and educator would be the gain of the sister commonwealth. If he accepts, the citizens of St. John will have a deep personal interest in his career, because they have this week learned more of the man and his work, while listening to his weighted words of true national wisdom.

In his valiant fighting for the rights of St. John the Standard appears to draw the line when it comes to the principle of protecting the navigation of the St. John river at the reversing falls. And yet this is a matter of very real importance.

The Fielding reciprocity resolution was defeated in parliament yesterday. If the reciprocity agreement had been sanctioned by the people of Canada instead of putting the Borden government in power this country would be better off today.

Why continue to exploit the fiction that the new C. P. R. bridge plans were submitted and explained to the council last spring? Why not keep to the facts?

A wise woman never gives her husband a letter to mail if she hopes to receive an early reply.

OTSSEGO HILLS.

These stationed hills loom stately still. They watch the sky, they scorn the plain. They have the might, the thwarted will To move themselves; it is in vain.

And they remain while we go on, Take summers' heat, take winters' snow; They know not what fate's hand has done Or why we pass and mourn to go.

They seem to question as they stand, They are so wise, yet know not this Why they are held along the land, Denied a warm volcano's kiss.

Perhaps when this old earth is mined, Cracks, totters, falls on ruin strange, These prisoned hills shall happily find Both death and freedom in their range. — M. L. Barnard in the New York Herald.

IN LIGHTER VEIN.

Improvement. Jones was trying hard to stop a leak in a water pipe with some pages he had torn from an old magazine. "How does it work?" asked his wife. "Pretty well," said Jones; "it only drips periodically now."

Not His Honor. A well known judge fell down a flight of stairs, recording his passage by a bump on every step until he reached the bottom. A servant ran to his assistance and, raising him up, said: "I hope your honor is not hurt?" "No," said the judge, sternly, "my honor is not hurt, but my head is."

Wanted to be a Parson. "And what, dear little boy," asked the minister, "do you intend to be when you grow up?" "A farmer, sir." "Very good indeed! To supply the natural food—most good!" "And you?" turning to the second. "Please, sir, a schoolmaster." "Even better! Filling the mind of the rising generation with mental food—yes, even better." "And you?" turning to the third. "A preacher, sir." "The better of all, my dear little boy, for filling the soul with spiritual food is far worthier than either filling the mind or body. And what bids you to become a minister?" "I hope your honor will be chicken for dinner when you come, sir," replied the boy.

Not Sure Hesseff. Mrs. De Fashion (at a children's party)—"Marie!" "Nurse, yes, ma'am." Mrs. De Fashion—"It's time for us to go home. Which of these children is mine?"—Pearson's Weekly.

Spellbound. "Why don't you go on writing my speech?" said the orator. "I am spellbound," replied his typist. "Has my eloquence such an effect?" "Yes, sir. I never worked for a man who used so many words I can't spell."—Boston Transcript.

Carnegie Endowment Aids Reconstruction In Devastated Areas World Peace Work Involves Mending of Destroyed Seats of Learning and Westminster Abbey.

While nations are devising plans to abolish war, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace is carrying on a world peace movement, involving large projects of reconstruction in the war areas, a system of intercourse with foreign offices and with leaders of political thought everywhere, and an elaborate plan of education through which libraries in many lands are being provided with collections of books.

Announcement of a gift of 10,000 pounds sterling made by the trustees of the endowment to the fund for the restoration and preservation of the fabric of Westminster Abbey has called attention to the important and little known work which the Carnegie endowment is carrying on throughout the world in laying the foundations for international peace upon international good feeling, international understanding and close international relationships.

The gift in the Westminster Abbey fund was made in recognition of the fact that Westminster Abbey is the most important and most peaceful structure associated with the history of the English-speaking peoples. It marks and typifies as does no other building, it was said, the essential unity of the English speaking race and is in effect the shrine of English speaking peoples everywhere. It was Rudyard Kipling who referred to Westminster Abbey some years ago as "The Abbey that makes us We."

While the ravages of the recent war were at their height, the trustees of the Carnegie endowment set aside a large sum of money to be expended in works of reconstruction in the devastated regions so soon as conditions might justify undertaking the work.

On the recommendation of the director of the division of intercourse and education the trustees of the endowment have begun and are now carrying forward three notable pieces of reconstruction in Europe. These are aiding in the restoration of the famous library of the University of Louvain in Belgium, destroyed by the invading Germans in the German bombardment during the war, and the erection of a library for the public and the University of Belgrade in Serbia to take the place of the one that was wrecked by the Austrian armies.

Louvain were burned and the library of the university, containing about 300,000 volumes and priceless manuscripts and incunabula were destroyed.

Another notable act of barbarity was the repeated bombardment of the city of Rheims, France, as a result of which the famous cathedral was irreparably damaged and the library founded by Cardinal Gousset, and housed in the modern building constructed for it at the expense of the state was destroyed. Formerly the kings of France were crowned in the thirteenth century cathedral. For a long period Rheims was the ecclesiastical capital of France. During more than two years it suffered from frequent bombardments, culminating in Easter week, 1917, when thousands of shells forced the few who remained of the civil population to abandon their homes on Easter morning.

The city of Rheims represents and symbolizes so much of the tradition and spirit of France and its sufferings were so cruel from bombardment by the invading armies that the endowment, with the approval of the French government authorities, has appropriated funds to erect and equip a new library building which will stand near the cathedral. In commemoration of the heroic defence by the Serbians who chose to migrate as a body from their homes rather than to submit to the iron rule of an oppressor the Carnegie endowment, with the approval of the Serbian government authorities, has undertaken to erect and equip a library building on the grounds of the university at Belgrade.

MUSIC A SUBJECT IN MANITOBA'S SCHOOLS

The story of how music has come to be recognized as a part of the educational system of Manitoba and included as an optional subject in high school curriculum, has been told by Miss Eva Clare, president of the Manitoba Music Teachers' Association. "After the provincial department of education had made a place for musical credits," says Miss Clare, "we music teachers felt that responsibility rested upon the musical profession to support the department, give assistance with examinations, and set musical standards." It was with this object in view that the Winnipeg Music Teachers' Association was formed in 1919 and the provincial body the following year.

responsibility rested upon the musical profession to support the department, give assistance with examinations, and set musical standards." It was with this object in view that the Winnipeg Music Teachers' Association was formed in 1919 and the provincial body the following year. A year ago the first examinations were held, and they were taken by almost 200 high school students. The next step will be the first annual convention of the Manitoba Music Teachers' Association in October of this year. After that they are looking forward to a normal course, for which some famous artists will be engaged. As one of the pioneers in securing credit for the study of music in the high schools of Manitoba and in raising the musical standards of her community, Miss Clare has been honored with the presidency of the Music Teachers' Association of her province.

MUSIC AS THERAPEUTIC AGENT.

A Brooklyn banker named Thomas Blake has of late become interested in the use of music in alleviating nervous disorders and in the treatment of other diseases. Recently he attended a lecture and discussion presided over by Dr. T. B. Neuman, a neurological expert at Bellevue Hospital, New York, which confirmed many things regarding the use of music as a therapeutic agent which Mr. Blake had discovered for himself. On this subject Mr. Blake says: "I have been in the banking business over twenty-five years, and I am quite sure that there are not many other lines of work more exacting, or that demand more of a constant strain on the mental and physical powers. Fortunately, I discovered this wonderful discovery, this music curative, some years ago, and it has worked like a charm. I get home in the afternoon very often tired and nervous, and the first thing I do is to start the phonograph. Perhaps I'll play a symphony, or a violin selection, or one of the old folk-songs. The result is that I need do it to close my eyes, forget all the unpleasant things that may have happened during the day, and live over again the days that are past and gone. "Among these old-time songs that somehow have woven themselves into the heart of humanity know of none finer than 'The Day' and 'The Kerry Dance.' 'Believe Me, if All the Endearing Young Charms,' 'Robin Adair,' and others of the same character. The effect of such music on a tired brain is really marvellous. I raise no question with the

U. S. NOW BEST CUSTOMER.

It is doubtful if it is realized by many people that the United States has now displaced Great Britain as Canada's best customer. Trade returns for the twelve months ended February show that exports of Canadian produce to the United States amounted to $651,678,226, compared with $322,563,091 to the United Kingdom. This compares with exports to the United States in the previous corresponding twelve months of $456,967,986, and $307,092,308 to the United Kingdom. Although the period covered by these statistics was not precisely a fiscal year, the situation will not have changed

INGS THE DAY BEFORE HE DIES

Former Well Known Baritone, 75 Years Old, Pleased That His Voice Was Still Good—Dog Gave Notice of Death.

(New York Times) Giovanni Tagliapietra, whom a past generation of music lovers may remember as a baritone who achieved success, died early yesterday morning in his home at 343 West Thirty-fourth street. He was seventy-five years old.

Tagliapietra and his wife, daughter of J. Townsend, once a conspicuous figure at the New York bar, occupied a single back parlor in the rooming house at a long time ago had been the Townsend mansion and one of the centres of a artistic social life of Manhattan. It is as there that the singer passed away so quietly that only the barking of the dog, Fred, aroused Mrs. Tagliapietra that her husband had died.

RECENT DEATHS

Frederick, April 13—At Frederick Junction last night Mrs. Ann McQuestion, widow of William McQuestion, died, aged seventy-four years. She is survived by one daughter, two brothers and three sisters, Mrs. Charles Ball, Michael and William Simpson, and Mrs. Simon Burns, of Frederick Junction; Mrs. J. Butler and Mrs. J. H. Butler of Ennisville, and eight grandchildren.

The death of Edward G. Parlee occurred at 12:30 o'clock yesterday at his late residence, 11 Frederick street. Mr. Parlee was in the seventy-second year of his age, and was a highly respected citizen of St. John. He was formerly employed by the public works department and of late by T. McAvity & Sons, Limited. Mr. Parlee leaves three sons and four daughters. The sons are King G. of Sussex; Charles E., of Ashburn road, and Eldon H., at home. The daughters are Mrs. Edward Tracy, Mrs. Ernest Jones and Mrs. Frank Hazen, all of this city, and Mrs. Samuel Jones, of Quaco road, St. John county. He is survived also by four brothers and seven sisters. The brothers are John of Orono (Me.); William of Nova Scotia; Hiram of Philadelphia. The sisters are Mrs. C. T. Harrison, Nova Scotia; Mrs. Maria Gulliver of Sussex; Mrs. W. J. McIwren of Corn Hill; Miss Elizabeth Parlee and Mrs. W. J. Biggar of Mount Hebron; Mrs. A. H. Woodworth of Massachusetts, and Mrs. T. H. Biggar, of Moncton.

Sussex, April 13—(Special)—After being confined to her bed through illness for seven weeks Mrs. John James Haslam passed away at her home this morning. Mrs. Haslam, who was sixty-four years of age, was a lady of splendid qualities, a staunch adherent of the Presbyterian faith and possessed of a kind and cheerful disposition. Her death will be missed by all who knew her. She is survived by her husband, John James Haslam, the well-known lumberman; two sons, Frank and James, in Beddiffe (Alta.); five daughters, Mrs. L. L. McAfee, Everett (Mass.); Mrs. H. L. Wannamaker, Moncton; Mrs. Horace Slipp, Sussex; Mrs. Robert Robinson, Sussex, and Miss Abbie, at home.

The funeral will take place from her late residence on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. A. V. Morash officiating. Interment will be in the Sussex Corner cemetery.

Word had been received of the death of Edward Daley in Roxbury (Mass.). He was born in 1861, and before removing to Boston married Miss Sutton Burtoche, by whom he is survived. No children survive. Martin Daley of Moncton, retired C. N. R. conductor, is a brother.

The death occurred last evening at his late residence, 59 Brussels street, of Edmund P. Hezard, leaving his wife and one daughter, Elizabeth of this city. The late Mr. Hezard was in the employ of the Cornwall and York Cotton Mills, (Ald.), and had been ill only for a few days previous to his death. The notice of the funeral will be given later.

The death occurred at 2 o'clock this morning of Mrs. James A. Dougherty, wife of James A. Dougherty, at her residence, 48 Cliff street. She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, nine sons, namely, John A., Daniel, William S., Albert G., Harry, Louis, Emery and Frank; also two daughters, Miss Helen M., Dougherty, R. N., and Miss Rita, both at home. Two sisters, Miss Patricia McPartland, of this city, and Mrs. James Cullen, of Montreal, also survive.

Rev. Mother St. Maurice, of the congregation De Notre Dame, Montreal, died on Sunday morning at St. Martha's Hospital, Antigonish. She was a daughter of the late A. MacIsaac of St. Andrews, N. S., and was a niece of Hon. C. F. MacIsaac, K. C., of Antigonish.

Mrs. John W. Scott, aged eighty-eight years, died yesterday at the residence of Thomas Porter, Lower Woodstocks, after a short illness. She leaves one daughter and three sons.

The death of Mrs. W. P. Duffy took place on Tuesday at her residence, 120 High street, Moncton, at the age of thirty-nine years. She leaves, besides her husband, three children, her parents and four brothers.

The death of J. Rupert Foster, at Marysville, Cal., was announced in Moncton recently. He was a native of New Brunswick. Besides his wife, he leaves one daughter.

The German St. Baptist parsonage was the scene of an interesting event on yesterday afternoon when the Pastor, Rev. S. S. Poole, united in marriage Harold W. Manning, of Norton and Lydia L. Fanjoy, of Cumberland Bay. After a short wedding trip Mr. Manning will make their home at Cumberland Bay.

Manchester Robertson Allison Limited KING STREET GERMAIN STREET MARKET SQUARE. KILLS GIRL'S FATHER. Rejected Sutor Then Hangs Himself in Up-State Father's Hayloft. Canandaigua, N. Y., April 11—Wesley Marsh, a prosperous farmer of Richmond, Ontario county, died in the Memorial Hospital here from a broken skull. Peter Grandy, who struck him with an axe, was found hanging from a clothes line tied to a rafter in a hayloft on the Marsh premises. The murder and suicide were the result of Grandy's alleged infatuation for Caroline Marsh, sixteen-year-old daughter of the farmer. The girl's mother was separated from her father and she looked after the home. There are five younger children in the family. Grandy went to the farm in January from Antioch, Pa. His attentions to Caroline recently became annoying and she complained to her father, who rebuked Grandy yesterday. Grandy declared he would quit and demanded his money today. After Marsh had retired, Grandy went to his bedroom and fractured his skull with an axe. Then he attacked Caroline in her room. Her cries aroused the children, who called neighbors, and Grandy disappeared. Marsh was hurried to Canandaigua, but died in a few hours. VICTIM OF SCANDAL. Suicide "Murdered by Evil Tongues." London, April 14—Two women were severely censured by the coroner at Egham at the close of an inquest on Ethel May Ford, thirty-seven, single, who was found dead in bed, having poisoned herself. The evidence showed that deceased, who had kept house for her father for five years, left a letter in which she stated that she had been "murdered by evil tongues," and that her life had been "hell on earth in the last five years." She wrote: "I have tried to be brave, knowing that my father was innocent, but their cruel jeers have gone too far for this. It was declared that two women, Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Fletcher, of North street, Egham, called after Miss Ford in the street, and that Mrs. Hunt made a false allegation concerning Miss Ford's father. A verdict was returned of "suicide," while temporarily insane, the jury adding a rider that deceased's act was accelerated by the scandalous remarks of two women neighbors. The coroner at the request of the jury, severely censured Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Fletcher. When a woman says that she has been better days, it means that she knows cut glass when she sees it.

Out With The Tide

(R. H. Co. in Manchester Guardian)

He must keep up. His work was to that end. Sometimes as his body rose on a wave he had a sight of the far-away bathing machines and of black dots in the heads of the other bathers "bobbing" in the water in family rings. And all the life of the beach was spread out in miniature beyond. It was like the glimpse of a dead man into the life he has left.

He had been one of them, swimming laboriously and contentedly, perfecting his simple breast-stroke and satisfied with his progress—till he gave up for a rest.

There was no bottom. It was a horrible sensation to find there was no bottom. Yet he kept his nerve, knowing that if he swam straight for the beach he would soon be in his depth again. Big waves were catching him up behind, filling his mouth and his ears so that he struck the water wildly in a panic.

Then he had only kept afloat by the full force of his will, and when he was steady again he found the beach had gone back and the bathers were smaller. He was out among the big waves.

After his first shock he had faintly cried for help, but it had seemed a weak and silly thing to do when only a few strokes would take him to safety. Now he cried out loudly, but he was too far away. He was in the current.

He would have trod water if he had dared, but he dare not. He had never done it before. He might go down. He must not go down. He must keep on moving. . . . moving with all the life that was in him! No other thought glimmered across his wild consciousness.

He who had been so careful in his swimming trials in the shallows was actually out here in the waste of waters, the little insignificant land growing less, the sky above. Once he thought: "I will give up. I will go down. I will not try."

and more cruel than all other things. He hated the monster waves to the depth of his soul. They were out to destroy him! He fought fiercely against them all—the thousands of waves! . . . . . Perhaps twenty feet of green heaving water divided him from it at the nearest. But he could not get closer and was carried past.

He did not give in, for the sight of its solid substance inspired him to a courage beyond himself. He tried to tread water to rest himself for a great effort. Failing, he went down.

He returned choking and fighting. The buoy was some thirty feet off, but he gave it up. He dare not risk the attempt to turn himself round in the current towards it. He might go down again, and at no cost, no cost whatever, would he go down again. It seemed he was in argument with someone on that point and was taking up an immovable position.

His brain burned within the walls of his head like a fire-bell.

He would continue keeping up, making the legs kick out frog-like, torturing the arms in a rhythmic backward sweep for that sole result. He pitted himself with the mind of another for being a cold little thing in agony seeking to ward off the approaching, inscrutable last act of the deep. The joints of the body, like the brain, were burning to an intense flame.

He saw no boats, though perceptor strained and kept strung, like a fiddle-string. Through it, after he had taken draught after draught from his ebbing strength in crying to the aloof sky, the distant white cliffs came into his consciousness. The current set that way. He had forgotten the beach, forgotten

all but the immeasurable waters around. But when he became aware of the cliffs a dim hope blurred the agony within the brain. He would reach the shore! Swimming still, after swimming so long, he might yet continue, somehow, across that long field of shifting surface, foam-blossoms, and changing lights. His will was stiff to salvation.

He was sure the cliffs stood a little higher, though the gulf between was so vast. Too vast for him? He strained the thought in its painful birth.

Salt water was his trouble. Long ago, before he missed the buoy, he rejected it as well as he could. But now the effort cost him too much. He drank the water that filled his mouth. It burned in his throat, but did not deflect him from his willful course shorewards. He gulped and gulped. The sea could not glut him.

The sun in the braid did not burn towards setting but towards dawn. The cliffs were bolder. They were far away, but they grew.

How immense a thing it was, he thought, to beat the sea! The shadow of exhaustion might rise and fall, but he swam still. Faint and gulping, troubled with strange boundings in the head, he willed that he should endure to this goal.

Sometimes the cliffs were lost a moment in a slight throbbing mist; sometimes his legs would stop moving, but he forced them to labor again. Heavy pains were in his side, but pain he now knew. Pain might rise to sick height, but should never break him. Was it not now half-beaten, else why did it rise and wane? Surely God, who was steadying him and soothing him by the waves of restfulness that ever and anon flooded his being, was for him and not for the sea. God would finally judge all things, and would condemn the cold and cruel sea.

Then there came color; great rose flashes, through which the far-distant shore grew for a moment near. They were God's assurance that the brave should not die; the brave who endured and conquered the merciless sea. . . . . He dipped in the swell.

. . . . . Who were mightier than the sea!

That was his thought, his great and crowning triumph, as he rose and fell in the trough of the waves.

THE BRITISH CRISIS.
(Hamilton Herald).
One is forced to the conclusion that this is not a mere fight for the retention of the high war-wages in the coal-mining industry. There is something larger, more sinister and perilous behind. Undoubtedly the extremists among the miners, railway men and transport workers aim at revolution—the overturning of the existing order and the establishment of a new one based more or less on the communist principles of the Third International. The red flag of the social revolution has already been flaunted ed by the strikers at several points. But how large a proportion of the workers has been infected with communistic doctrines remains to be seen.

Whether that extreme element is strong enough to dominate the situation we shall soon see. If it is, there will be a serious attempt at revolution. But it is quite certain that the great majority of the British people do not desire revolution and would fight rather than submit to the dictation of a group of British Lenines and Trotskys. The attempt could not succeed, but in their attempt the revolutionists might succeed in destroying the elements of British prosperity and plunging the nation into economic ruin.

In shutting down the lid of his wife's trunk, locking it and securing it with ropes and leather straps, for the purpose of making the structure capable of being thrown about in the luggage van, Mr. McSwatt had spent half an hour.

"Now," Lohelia, he said, after he had loaded the thing into the cab, "you have just three-quarters of an hour to get to the station and have your trunk checked. Got your ticket handy?"

"That's safe enough, Samuel. It's in the bottom of the trunk."

RIVER STEAMERS The river steamer will make her first trip of the season on Saturday morning to Grand Lake. The D. J. Purdy will make her first trip of the season to Fredericton on Saturday morning.

BANK CLEARINGS St. John bank clearings this week were $2,749,011. Last year $3,722,837; in 1919, $2,768,738. Halifax clearings this week were $5,508,853. In Moncton they were $978,187.

VISITED COURTENAY BAY. Rev. Dr. H. J. Cody of Toronto, who is in the city attending the Anglican Synod, accompanied Mayor Schofield on a tour of the Courtenay Bay dry dock site this morning. He was much impressed with the amount and character of the work that has been done there.

OOCONEE WAS AROUND. The river steamer Ooconee, while en route from Wickham to St. John yesterday ran aground on Long Island, but was successfully hauled off by the tug Alice R. So far as is known no damage resulted. The accident occurred quite a delay. She arrived at Indian-town this morning.

MCCARTHY-GRAHAM. St. Rose's church, Fairville, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at five o'clock this morning, when Rev. Chas. Collins, with nuptial mass, united in marriage Miss Annie Graham, daughter of Bartley Graham of Fairville, to Thomas J. McCarthy of Petersville, N. B. The bride was prettily attired in a navy blue traveling suit with picture hat, and carried a white prayer book, and was attended by Miss Mary Finton of Fairville, who was attired in gray with black hat. The groom was attended by his brother, Clarence McCarthy of Petersville. Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy left on the early train for Nova Scotia, where they will spend their honeymoon, and upon their return they will make their home in Fairville. They have the best wishes of hosts of friends.

Used His "Bean" and Solved Labor Problem

There is one chap in the city who promises one day to become a great strategist—to judge by an incident which occurred yesterday in Cliff street. At least that is the impression the performance made upon the large number of people who witnessed it.

This man, with the aid of two or three others, had the job of removing some aged trees which stood in front of the garage of the St. John Transportation, Ltd. One big gnarled trunk was located right against the front entrance. It was sawed part way through when the boys' school across the street suddenly let loose its flood of juvenile humanity at the close of the day's studies.

It was then that the man in charge of operations displayed an idea for an easy solution of the labor problem. Attaching a rope to the top of the trunk he stretched the line across the street and invited the lads, who were only too willing to join in the excitement, to test their strength. The weight of at least seventy-five young bodies was put on to the rope and although, individually almost negligible, the united effort attained the desired result. The concerted heaving of the youngsters laid the old trunk low, and with a loud cheer the lads dispersed, and the men proceeded to clear up the debris.

LEAVE FOR WEST

Man and Wife Who Were Held Here By Immigration Authorities Win Case.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leonard of Edmonton, Alberta, who were held here for deportation by the immigration authorities since the arrival of the steamer Minnedosa last month, on the grounds that they were socialists and undesirable citizens, were discharged yesterday and left for Winnipeg last night by the C. P. R. Their case was appealed to Ottawa and the minister reversed the decision of the local immigration board and allowed Mr. and Mrs. Leonard to land. Kelly & Ross appeared before the immigration board on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard.

Before leaving the city, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard, although annoyed at the detention here, spoke very highly of the treatment accorded them by J. Perley Lunney and his assistants in the immigration department.

RESUME WORK AT COURTENAY BAY ABOUT MAY 1

Carlo Carniel, manager of the Bedford Construction Co., which has the contract for the construction of the dry dock at East St. John, said today that work would commence again there about May 1. He said that the work would be started on a small scale and the crew increased as the work progressed.

CONTRACT LET FOR BIG DAIRY IN UNION STREET

The contract for one of the largest and most up-to-date dairies in this section of the country was granted this morning to John Flood & Sons, contractors, of this city. The plant will be erected in Union street for the Pacific Dairies, Ltd., and work will be commenced immediately.

The buildings which will be of concrete and brick construction will occupy the lot near No. 3 fire station and opposite Dorchester street, recently occupied by Edw. Hogan's stables. It will consist of basement and two stories. The ground floor will contain shop front with the dairy in the rear, all on a concrete block floor. The frontage is about forty feet. Electrical machinery will be used and it is understood that a refrigerating plant will be installed. The building, when completed, will cost about $25,000.

CONFERENCE AT OTTAWA ON THE BRIDGE MATTER

Letter From Minister of Public Works Dealt With by City Council—Proposal to Spend $15,000 on Strait Shore Road—Employment Situation Better.

The height of the new C. P. R. bridge across the St. John river here will be the subject of a meeting to be held in Ottawa next Tuesday, so Hon. F. B. MeCurdy announced in a letter received by Mayor Schofield this morning.

Mr. MeCurdy wrote that he had received a report on the matter from Engineer Grey, of the public works department here, and he had decided to call a meeting of all parties interested to take place in Ottawa on Tuesday, April 19, at 11 a. m. He asked the mayor to see that all the St. John interests were notified.

He explained that the object of the meeting was to arrive if possible at an amicable and reasonable settlement of the controversy with all due regards to the interests of the company and navigation.

The matter was brought before the city commissioners at a committee meeting this morning. The mayor announced that he would attend to represent the city. Commissioner Frink remarked that when the controversy arose the city solicitor had advised the city to keep out of it; he thought that the city should remain out of it, in the event of a case of damages following.

The mayor replied that it was not the intention to contest the city, but he thought that the council should know what went on at the meeting. It was not his intention to drag the city into an argument. He said that he would take the matter up with the solicitor.

The city was affected, he said, by the possibility of the change in the street levels, but of the public works department did anything in the matter, he was certain that the C. P. R. would be notified and the city would likely hear from them. On motion the letter was ordered received and referred to the mayor.

On motion of Commissioner Bullock the lease of a lot in Dulces ward to Robt. A. Logic was renewed for seven years at an annual rental of $8. Mr. Bullock said a purchase price of $800 was put on this lot.

To Sell Horse Equipment.

Mr. Jones was given permission to sell three sleighs, three dump carts, four sleds and harness and other equipment belonging to the water and sewerage department, not now required on account of the sale of the horses of the department. Commissioner Frink said some of the equipment is required by the public works department.

An application from the Western Union Telegraph Company for permission to erect an electric sign on its building in King street was referred to Commissioner Frink for a report. Replying to Commissioner Thornton, Mr. Jones said that about $2,000 worth of bond had been issued for water work in Adelaide road about two years ago but the work had not yet been done.

Employment Situation. Commissioner Frink said the outlook for employment this summer was improving. Besides the Douglas Avenue work, the crusher bins has arrived and the crusher at the Shamrock grounds would be in operation soon. He said he had $17,000 appropriated for street repairs, but he was desirous of spending about $15,000 on repairs to the Straight Shore Road and would likely ask the council soon to support the expenditure.

Commissioner Jones said that his summer programme would be ready in a week or ten days.

TRIDUUM ENDED

Bishop LeBlanc Speaks on St. Joseph—Protection of the Family.

The triduum in honor of the feast of the patronage of St. Joseph, which was commenced in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception on Monday, was brought to a close last evening. Following a recital of the rosary by Rev. Simon Oram, His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc delivered an eloquent sermon on the occasion.

His Lordship explained why St. Joseph was chosen as patron of the universal church fifty years ago by His Holiness Pope Pius IX. He outlined the trials and tribulations through which the Christian church had passed since its inception. Commencing with the martyrdom of St. Stephen, the Church had been subjected to severe persecution, but even through the 250 years of Roman oppression when St. Paul was beheaded and St. Peter crucified and every Roman bishop martyred, the Church had remained steadfast.

It was in 1870, he said, that St. Joseph was selected as the patron of the Church, and since then he had been honored as such all over the world. He was neither a theologian nor a great preacher, but a simple working man, yet, as he had been charged by God with the care of the Saviour and His mother, it was fitting that the Church should be placed under his care.

St. Joseph, he said, was also the patron saint of families. He urged that in these days of laxity of morals, when children were inclined to be disobedient, when there was apparent a great unwillingness to work and a great danger existed in the frequency of mixed marriages, that all should take example from the Holy Family. He who was the protector of this Holy Family should be interceded with for the protection of the Church and the families.

The devotion closed with the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

MARITIME STOCK EXCHANGE

Montreal, April 14.—There was little or no change on the local stock exchange during the early trading this morning, most of the principal issues remaining unchanged around their yesterday's close. Abitibi, Brompton and Laurentide were all quiet at 37, 83½ and 91½ respectively. National Breweries opened an eighth of a point lower than its close at 40. Riordon was unchanged at 107, while Wayagamack put in an appearance at 70.

Clean, Cool Reed Furniture For One Room is Ideal

It's an agreeable change to have one of your rooms furnished in clean, cool, light Reed. It makes a refreshing change from the solid wood; and the idea is fastly gaining ground.

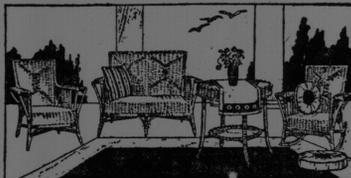

Now that the warm weather is coming it would be a good stunt to make a selection of pieces to equip one of your rooms—although Reed is by no means peculiar to summer. It's an all year 'round material. We are showing some neat pieces in Reed—in the prevailing shades and at prices that will quickly appeal.

Board of Trade Wants Falls Bridge Raised

Commercial Club Also Takes Action and Other Organizations Are Expected to Follow—No Grade Crossing.

The matter of the bridge at the falls engaged the attention of the council of the board of trade at noon today, when the following resolution was adopted and ordered to be forwarded to the authorities in Ottawa:—

Resolved, While not assuming to pronounce upon engineering problems, about which there seems to be a difference of opinion among engineers themselves, the council of the St. John board of trade is emphatically of the opinion that in order to safeguard the commercial interests of the City of St. John and the rights of the Province of New Brunswick in its navigable waters, plans for the erection of a new railway bridge over the falls at the mouth of the River St. John should be required to conform to two conditions, namely, that there shall be no greater obstruction to navigation than is caused by the present highway bridge, so as to eliminate the danger attendant upon a level crossing upon such an important traffic artery; and

Whereas, the council is informed that, in the opinion of eminent engineers, no engineering difficulties prevent compliance with the above-named conditions, be it further resolved, that the council authorities be urged to withhold their sanction for the erection of any bridge which does not comply with the foregoing conditions.

Copies of the resolution were ordered forwarded to Hon. F. B. McCurdy, minister of public works; Hon. P. B. Carvell, chairman of the board of railway commissioners, and to the members representing New Brunswick in the federal House of Commons.

The executive of the Commercial Club, with the president, C. H. Peters, in the chair, yesterday heard George Wilson, F. O. Beattie, and other members of the board of trade, present their views in regard to the raising of the C. P. R. bridge at the falls.

The executive was unanimous in its views regarding the need of action and besides writing Ottawa decided to co-operate with the Board of Trade in backing up the city council. The Retail Merchants Association and Rotary Club may also take action.

Former Ulster King-of-Arms Is Shot Dead

Sir A. E. Vicars Killed and Residence in Listowel Burned—Taxes Taken From Collectors.

Dublin, April 14.—Sir Arthur Edward Vicars, former Ulster king-of-arms, was shot dead this morning at Listowel, and his residence burned.

A tag was attached to the body, reading: "Vicars, Arthur Edward, Esq., was shot dead by a party of men who were taking a collection for the support of the Ulster Volunteers. We never forget I.R.A."

Sir Arthur Vicars was Ulster king-of-arms at Dublin Castle at the time of the famous robbery there in 1907, when the Irish crown jewels, valued at $250,000, were stolen from the castle. He afterwards won a $25,000 libel suit against London newspapers which had made reflection on him in connection with the case.

In May of last year special dispatches from Dublin reported a night raid on Sir Arthur's residence at Kilmorena, near Listowel, by 100 armed men who made a determined effort to penetrate the strong room of his home, in a search for arms. The raiders failed, however, to break into the steel-walled chamber.

Sir Arthur was a government trustee of the National Library of Ireland, was keenly interested in heraldry and archaeology. He was born in 1864.

Dublin, April 14.—Several rate collectors in Louth county have been compelled by armed men to hand over their collections. In one case armed men got five thousand pounds, and in another three thousand pounds.

Dublin, April 14.—Five policemen were ambushed last night at Fedamore, county Limerick, one of them being killed and three wounded.

Sinn Feiners then attacked the Fedamore barracks but were repulsed after two hours of fighting.

A Sinn Fein shoe factory here which was used as an assembling shop for bombs was raided last night and two persons in it were arrested.

At 6 o'clock a banquet will be held in the club room at the Temple Shrine at which 250 are expected to sit down.

DR. I. J. CODY AT ANGLICAN SYNOD

Appreciation of His Work for Church Expressed—Record Attendance of Lay Delegates—Much Discussion on Penalty in Assessment Matters.

Rev. Dr. H. J. Cody of Toronto, who has been invited to accept office as Archbishop of Melbourne, Australia, was present at this morning's session of the Anglican Synod and was called to the platform and tendered a vote of thanks for his attendance and for his many good works on behalf of the church.

With regard to his proffered appointment he said he had not as yet made up his mind what to do.

Bishop Richardson announced that the delegates, lay and clergy, together with their hosts and hostesses, had been invited to a reception this evening at the home of Sir Douglas and Lady Hazen.

To expedite the transaction of business to come before the Synod Canon Armstrong and Charles Coster were appointed to outline the remaining business and to designate its order.

It was announced that there were ninety laymen present at this morning's session, the highest in four years.

Rev. E. B. Spurr and Canon Morris of Nova Scotia were welcomed.

The report of the trustees of the Church School for Girls in Windsor, N. S., was adopted in the absence of R. W. Hewson.

The report of the nominating committee was presented by H. Usher Miller. The committee was to nominate members of a committee on theological study. The following were nominated: Bishop Richardson, Dean Neales, Archdeacon Crowfoot, Rev. W. R. Hibbard, Canon Sisson, Rev. J. P. Belyea, Rev. J. H. A. LeRoy, Canon R. A. Armstrong, and Rev. H. J. Montgomery.

Mr. Miller moved the adoption of the report. It was passed subject to the amendments.

The report of the board of education was read by H. J. Padgett. The report of the headmaster of Rothery Collegiate School, Rev. W. R. Hibbard, was also read. Both reports were adopted.

The report of the standing committee on constitution and canon law was accepted.

The report of the Women's Auxiliary was read and the synod expressed its appreciation of the work of the auxiliary. Canon Daniel and Rev. E. Hallstone were appointed to submit a report on the constitution to be submitted to the Bishop for approval.

Rev. R. T. McKim read the report of the Pickett memorial fund. In the thanks of the synod the bishop expressed appreciation of the work of the Rev. R. T. McKim. It was adopted and made reference to the invitation from the Anglican Forward Movement was read by J. H. A. LeRoy, weather, acting diocesan organizer, and adopted.

Mr. Richardson also moved the adoption of the report of the treasurer and auditor's reports. This was carried. Canon Armstrong made an Archdeacon Forsyth seconded a motion with respect to the report of the synod to Mr. Fairweather.

The report of the committee on credentials was read by Canon J. Smithers, who moved that it be taken up section by section. This was carried.

Dr. Cody Honored.

At this point the bishop invited Rev. Dr. Cody of Toronto to the platform and spoke appreciatively of him.

Canon Daniel moved the invitation from Australia for Dr. Cody to become Archbishop of Melbourne.

Canon Daniel spoke enthusiastically of appreciation of his work. This was seconded by Archdeacon Crowfoot. Dr. W. S. Carter spoke to the resolution.

The resolution was presented to Dr. Cody by the bishop.

Dr. Cody replied, thanking the synod for its appreciation of his work. He asked for the prayers of the ministers that he might make a wise decision he was as yet undecided as to whether to accept the invitation. He was a Canadian of Canadian blood, and it was a pleasure to him to visit the historic city of Fredericton. St. John was very interesting to him, because of the possibilities in the shipping facilities of the city. He had just been conducted about the docks by Mayor Schofield. The human factors in Canada, he said, must hold hands in every part of the country. Whether in Canada or Australia he said he would have a deep interest in the fortunes of the church in New Brunswick.

The meeting then returned to a discussion of the sections in the report of the committee on credentials.

J. P. Burchill moved that the present system of assessing parishes be continued; doing away with the penalty and every effort made to have the parishes in arrears appointed to the contingency fund.

J. H. A. LeRoy and Dr. W. S. Carter spoke against the matter being referred back to the committee on credentials.

Canon Smithers suggested organizing a strike in the matter and the drawing up of a new schedule.

Archdeacon Newnam supported the amendment to the amendment referring the matter back to the committee to report later.

Canon Armstrong said the whole thing was silly and he supported the original motion. The treasurer had gone to much trouble to frame the resolution.

LOCAL NEWS

MAKES TRAIN LATE

A freight train was derailed at an early hour this morning on the joint section of the C. P. R. and the Maine Central between Vancouver and Matamoras and as a result the Montreal train, due here at 12.20, was reported four hours late. No details of the derailment were received at local headquarters this morning.

WELL PLEASED

Captain McGiffin, shore captain of the C. P. O. S., has expressed to Commissioner Bullock his satisfaction in the harmonious way in which the vessels have been placed and berthed here this season. and he suggested that it be tried for a year.

H. A. Porter moved that the appointment be distinguished from missions. This was carried.

The section in the report of the committee on credentials which evoked so much discussion is section 2 of the report, as follows: "That in order to replace the monies would be lost if the present system were done away with the sum of $800 be added to the estimated amount required for contingencies each year and the total amounts assessed be included in the diocesan apportionment."

As approved when amended the section read: "That in order to replace the monies that would be lost if the present system were done away with a sufficient amount be added to the estimated amount required for contingencies each year and the total amounts assessed be a separate apportionment."

Discussion of the remainder of the session was left over to this afternoon.

Balloting on the names placed in nomination for clergy and lay delegates to the general synod in Hamilton, Ont., and for the provincial synod was then taken up and the scrutineers asked to report on the result at the opening of the afternoon session.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER MAKES LOWER PRICES

Reduction in Steel Declared the Cause—Profits in 1920 Were $16,655,000.

Chicago, April 14.—Basing its action upon the recent reduction in steel prices announced by the U. S. Steel Corporation, the International Harvester Company today announced a straight ten per cent. reduction effective next year, in products in which steel is the principal raw material.

"The reduction on steel came after one year's product had been provided for, and will have no bearing on the cost of machines we sell this year," the announcement explained. "It does establish a lower replacement cost, however, and serves as the basis of a price to which our customers are entitled and which we are willing to accept."

The reduction applies chiefly to harvesting machines. The company announced reductions of from ten to fifteen per cent in machines made principally of wood and iron, on March 7. The announcement of today's cut said that the new changes cover all machines which were produced after March 7. The company's annual report made public yesterday showed net profits of $16,655,000, as against $20,011,000 in 1919. The percentage of net profit to capital invested was 7.9 per cent as against 9.6 per cent the previous year.

Despite the reduction in net profits, the company's sales were the largest in its history, totalling $225,000,000.

Another Great Body Backs Up the Miners

London, April 14.—The federation of general workers, representing 1,500,000 persons in more than 100 industries outside the triple alliance, decided today to support the triple alliance in its strike in the interests of the striking miners.

LOCAL NEWS

At a meeting of the St. John Choral Society held last evening it was decided to bring two artists here from Montreal early next month to give a concert assisted by local talent.

HERE FOR BURIAL

The body of Mrs. Ralph Oulette was brought here on the Boston train on noon today from Lewiston, Maine, and was taken to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McKenna, 282 Duke street.

THE LATE E. G. PARLEE

Edward G. Parlee, an account of whose death appears elsewhere, was also survived by his wife. His funeral will take place Friday afternoon.

THE LATE F. S. PARRIS

Service in connection with the funeral of F. S. Parris was held last evening at 176 Waterloo street, and was conducted by Rev. F. H. Bone, who, in the course of his remarks, paid high tribute to the life and work of Mr. Parris. The body was taken this morning on the steamer Champlain to Jemseg for interment tomorrow.

SHOWER

About twenty-five friends of Miss Genevieve Brophy assembled at the home of Mrs. Joseph Taylor, 32 Summer street, last night, and tendered her a shower. Many beautiful gifts were presented to Miss Brophy, who received them by contact with a spike in her little sons, Ralph and Frank, who acted as pages, dressed in white sailor suits. Games and music were enjoyed in and refreshments served.

ACCIDENT

Wesley Reynolds, 106 Protection street, West St. John, was admitted to the C. P. R. emergency hospital at 1.30 this morning suffering from a lacerated wound of the right leg sustained by contact with a spike in a plank of the gangway on the steamer Bolingbroke at No. 4 berth. His wound was dressed and he was taken to his home.

SON LIVES HERE

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Kingstone, wife of John Kingstone, took place yesterday at her home in Kouchibouguac, at the age of sixty-two years. She was a highly respected resident of the community and the news of her death will be received with regret by a large circle of friends. Besides her husband, she leaves six children, Richard and John, of the United States, Harry, Samuel and Thomas, at home, and James of St. John, and two daughters, Mrs. Percy Anderson, of Kouchibouguac, and Mrs. Hugh Underwood, of Blackville, N. B. The funeral will take place on Friday from her late residence and interment will be in the family lot in the Kouchibouguac cemetery.

MRS. CATHERINE GOOD DEAD

Many friends in this city will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Catherine Good, wife of Robert Good, which took place this morning at her home, 91 Richmond street. She was seventy-six years of age and was a native of this city. Besides her husband she is survived by one son, William; two granddaughters, Mrs. Gordon McCall and Gertrude Good; one sister, Mrs. George Damery of Amherst, N. S., and two brothers, Thomas and Arthur Hasset of Boston. Her funeral will take place on Sunday at 2.30.

GALLANT SEADOG WHO INVENTED GROG

(Mall and Empire.)
Our gifted colleague who never is at a loss to explain why the point of a billiard cue is called a tip, why ice is smooth, but why nutmeg graters, on the other hand, are not, has not yet divulged the history of the word "grog," now becoming extinct. The temptation to forestall him, and make a slight flourish of erudition is irresistible, in view of the fact that the subject has recently been discussed by Col. G. C. Thorpe, of the United States Marine Corps, in the Naval Institute proceedings. Such a performance on the part of Col. Thorpe would probably have led to his court-martial when the American navy was under the jurisdiction of Josephus Daniels, but there is a supposition that the present administration is a little more tolerant. The writer says that the word was coined about the year 1740 and was an abbreviation of the word "grog-ram," meaning a boat cloak, which was always worn by Admiral Edward Vernon as he paced the deck of his flag ship in the Porto Bello expedition.

Bello the admiral introduced West Indian rum aboard ship and had a mixture of rum and water served as a ration to the crew. It was intended as a preventive against fevers that had decimated so many European expeditions to the West Indies. When the sailors of the flagship Burford first tasted the new drink they found it most palatable, and as the enthusiasm of victory still ran high, they named their favorite beverage after their favorite commander.

But as the delirium tremens expert of the New York Times points out, this does not tell the whole story. Prof. John Knox Loughton, of King's College, London, himself a sea-dog veteran of the Crimean and China wars, and the author of some stories of blood-stirring adventure, has another version. He says that it was the practice of the fleet in West Indian waters to serve to the men neat rations of rum, brandy or arrack about noon each day. The stuff was often vile, and men who contrived to get extra portions became mutinous and when ashore ran amuck to the great scandal of the admiral.

Stepping it Down.
The professor says:—
"On Aug. 4, 1740, Vernon addressed a general order to the captains and surgeons of his squadron and found it to be their unanimous opinion that the pernicious custom of the seamen drinking their allowance of rum in draughts, and often at once, is attended with many fatal effects; it impaired their health, ruined their morals, and made them slaves to every brutish passion. It was also the unanimous opinion that the best remedy was to mix the rum with water, and this was accordingly ordered."

Thereafter before the rum was served out to each half pint of it was added a quart of water, and the men were permitted to regale themselves with this mixture twice a day. Having been accustomed to the fiery taste of the neat spirit they did not take kindly to this, and vented their displeasure in bestowings upon the drink a name that to their mind connected dislike.

Discipline Improved.
But discipline improved, vastly when the men were unable to get their neat spirits or to put it in a way more congenial to the Liberty League, the general adoption of grog a beverage resulted in a marked improvement of the morale of the fleet. The admiralty made its use compulsory on every station, and the drinkers soon forgot that they ever were permitted a drink with a swifter kick. Grog became a name signifying respect and attention, and partly because of his innovation, though more because of what every sailor knew of the character of Admiral Vernon, he became one of the most popular of admirals, just as he had long been one of the most feared by the enemy. In general temper, Vernon was not unlike Lord Charles Beresford, and their careers were in some respects parallel. A distinguished sea-fighter, he became a member of parliament and a persistent critic of the government's naval policy. On one occasion he boasted that he could take Porto Bello, the great Spanish stronghold in Panama, with six ships.

Taking Porto Bello.
The government thought that it had here an opportunity to not only temporarily rid itself of a severe critic but also to so lessen his reputation that he would cease to terrify it in future. Or so some think his ability and experience were greater than those of any other available admiral. At any rate, for one of these reasons, a rumor was told that he could have six ships and that it was his turn to take Porto Bello. Vernon did not hesitate, for though he might have been reckoned something of a boaster, he was always prepared to make good his boast and perhaps a little more. He sailed for Porto Bello, found the Spaniards unprepared, many of their guns dismounted and the fort littered with neglected equipment. The British tars, with few casualties to themselves, chased the Spaniards out. When the news reached England there was a tremendous outpouring of popular joy. Fires were lit and bells rung throughout the land and medals ashore struck bearing the rugged features of the hero of Porto Bello. Visitors to Westminster Abbey will see the monument to the memory of this great seadog. It was thus that the name grog came into currency.

DENIES THERE IS BUYERS' STRIKE

(Financial Post.)
Let us reiterate now what we have previously declared: That there is not and has not been a strike on the part of the buying public.

It may be emphasized that reliable reports from many sources in the retail trade, secured by the Financial Post and associated publications, prove conclusively that during the past three months the volume of goods passing from the retailer to the public has been greater than a year ago.

This does not mean that retailers have not sacrificed profits. Nor does it mean that wholesalers and manufacturers have been receiving orders. But it does mean that it is nothing short of libelous to blame the depression in wholesale trade and the manufacturing industries on a lack of buying by the public.

The explanation is that for many months retailers had been buying far ahead and buying all the goods that they could get in many cases placing orders which they felt would not be filled. Their experience had been that the more goods secured before the frequent advances the bigger the profits. Then the top was reached. The public did not quit buying, but price reductions in keeping with the lower values of raw materials were demanded. Lower prices kept the volume of goods moving, but profits were sacrificed and the retailer who for so long had been striving for goods on a rising and profitable market lost all desire to place orders on a declining and unprofitable one.

The situation today, therefore, is the result of over-production accounted for in inflated orders for finished products. The merchant who has been buying six months in advance is still selling from his shelves or buying on a hand to mouth basis. What is desired to stabilize the situation is a return of confidence where the public will appreciate that prices have been brought to a level in keeping with costs of raw materials and merchants can book their advance orders with reasonable assurance in the normal way.

That will never be attained by making the people think that there has been a buyers' strike and that it has been responsible for bringing prices down. The public does not buy for the good of the retailer, the wholesaler or manufacturer or of business generally; the public buys on the basis of value received. To create an unfounded idea that price reductions have been brought about by a strike would be an effective way to continue the so-called strike.

province state that the system of statute labor should be abolished, and that the abolition would come soon. He agreed. Statute labor was the greatest curse the country ever had. Last year the total tax for roads had amounted to $242,000 of which $86,000 was in statute labor. The province did not receive thirty-three per cent. of value from that labor. The blame could not be put on the supervisors. The people themselves did not take enough interest to go out and do a fair hour's work on the roads. The sooner the legislature realized this the better. He wanted the statute labor should be abolished. During recess let the matter be taken up and discussed. The people should be educated. It was a deep rooted practice, but it should be stopped. He hoped that at the next session it could be said that the people were willing to do away with it. He had been pleased to hear honorable members say that the rate of road tax was too low. The amount obtained by the province by such a tax was small. This province was the only section of North America which constructed and maintained roads out of provincial funds or bonds. In other provinces municipalities all were required to bear a share of the cost. Out of a total of $242,000 in road tax only $76,000 was collected. The province had been defrauded out of $82,000. He possessed the exact account of 686 highway districts of the province. Any honorable member could inspect the account.

Counties were in default of road tax as follows: Albert, $1,200; Carleton, $6,000; Charlotte, $3,000; Gloucester, $4,000; Kent, $2,000; Kings, $4,500; Madawaska, $3,600; Northumberland, $5,000; Restigouche, $3,000; Queens, $4,000; Westmorland, $10,000; York, $5,000.

In closing the minister referred to the immense amount of work which devolved upon his department in carrying out the roads and bridges of the province. He said that the life of an ordinary wooden bridge was not more than ten or fifteen years, while bridges with concrete or steel might last for thirty-five years. The enormous automobile traffic was disastrous to the small wooden bridges, and last year they had to repair no less than 925 of them. New Brunswick had more wooden bridges than any other province of its size in Canada, and the counties of Kings, Kent and Northumberland had more than any other counties. The roads of the province were looked after by a staff of 200 engineers, while New Scotia had twenty-one and Quebec seventy-six engaged in the same class of work. He said that all information concerning the department was available at all times to honorable members of the house.

The debate was continued by Messrs. Burlock, Fawcett and Robinson, after which the item was passed.

FORTUNES IN THE NORTHLAND

Much Activity Expected This Year—Gold As Well As Oil Will Attract Many.

Edmonton, Alta., April 14—A new era is dawning, and before long Canadians will recognize the fact that the Northland is to Canada what the Indies were to the Spaniards, is the belief of Colonel J. K. Cornwall, head of the Northern Trading Company.

There is going to be much activity in the north during the coming season and much more information regarding the valuable gold deposits which are known to exist in the neighborhood of Great Slave Lake and elsewhere should be available during the coming year.

A. M. ROWAN IS NEW CHAIRMAN

Succeeds the Late George A. Knodell as Head of Municipal Home Commissioners.

The monthly meeting of the Commissioners of the St. John Municipal Home, was held at the office of the secretary, in the Ferry Building, Water street, on the 11th inst.

During his term of thirty-six years as a member of this board thirty-one of which he was chairman, he displayed excellent business judgment and ability, being a regular attendant at all meetings, and ever having in mind the care and comforts of the inmates of the Home, of which he might be called the spooner.

ALEXANDER MARTIN FORMER M. P. DEAD

Charlottetown, April 13—Alexander Martin, aged 89, a farmer and merchant, died at his home in Valleyfield today.

Ottawa, April 13—An estate, all personal, of a total value of $23,395, was left by Baroness MacDonald of Brascliff, widow of the Right Hon. Sir John Armstrong, Whitworth, of Canada, A. MacDonald, premier of Canada.

The principal beneficiaries are the Hon. Mary MacDonald, daughter, Sir Hugh John MacDonald, stepson, T. Agnes Anastasia Pepler, and Agnes Louisa Fitzgibbon, nieces.

A building at Blackville, N. B., owned and occupied by Thomas Dunn and used as a general store, was completely destroyed by fire yesterday.

Mrs. A. Crawford Tells How Cuticura Healed Little Girl

"My little girl's trouble started with small pimples on the back of her head and they spread down her neck. The pimples were hard and red and they itched and burned terribly. She scratched and irritated them and they later developed into sore eruptions. Her hair fell out and became thin and dry, and scales fell off on her clothing.

"I used a free sample of Cuticura and the pimples commenced to dry up. I bought more and when I had used one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Alonzo Crawford, 83 Parker St., Bangor, Maine, Jan. 23, 1920.

TRUNK'S FALSE BOTTOM HID $60,000 IN DRUGS

Seizure and Arrest May Lead to Largest Narcotic Ring Operating in America.

New York, April 14—Inspectors attached to the staff of Thomas E. Rush, Surveyor of the Port, yesterday seized drugs valued at $60,000 in the false bottom of a trunk belonging to Joseph Lattieri, of Old Forge, Pa., a stevedore passenger on the President Wilson from Naples. Lattieri, who denied ownership of the drugs, was arrested.

This seizure, made in Brooklyn, was one of a series of raids in which customs officials uncovered a large quantity of drugs and liquor along the waterfront. According to an inspector 1,100 bottles containing heroin, cocaine and morphine were found in Lattieri's trunk. He had been detained on Hoffman Island for two weeks.

After questioning Lattieri, who said that he was a butcher and had been in this country twenty-one years, customs officials announced that they hoped to obtain information from him through which they could break up a narcotic ring which has been operating on a daring scale.

"Lattieri has given us valuable information," said a member of the Legal Department of the Customs Service. "As a result we hope to find the largest drug ring in America."

The customs men in their search yesterday uncovered sixty-five bottles of whiskey under the floor of the fireroom of the Japanese steamer Taiho Maru in Erie Basin. So carefully had the liquor been deposited in the cache that only one bottle had been broken on transit. The cases were securely roped together. As a result of the vigilance of customs officials and the narcotic squad of the Police Department more than $500,000 worth of drugs have been seized in the last few weeks, it was said yesterday.

PREFERRED DUSTBIN

Lad's Distaste for Sleeping At Home.

London, April 14—An amazing story of a wayward boy who preferred to sleep in a dustbin instead of returning home at night, was related at a meeting of the Falkirk Branch of the S. P. C. C. The lad was in the habit of settling himself in one particular dustbin in which he made himself as comfortable as the limited space would allow. A chum fixed the lid above his head to keep the wind and rain out, and took him his breakfast in the morning. He was somewhat criminally declined, but under the guidance of the society was now making good.

RECLUSES' LONELY END. Starved Cats Eat Their Fellows in House of Death.

London, April 14—Terrible discoveries in a silent house were described in an inquest at Mroyden on Miss Emily Hemmatt, seventy, an eccentric recluse, who was found dead in a residence at Oval road, Croydon. Her family, of whom she was the last member, had occupied the house for over forty years. As Miss Hemmatt had not been seen for several days, the police broke into the premises, and found her dead in an upstairs room. Apparently she had lain there more than a week.

A number of dead cats, and one alive, were found in the basement. Some of the bodies were partially eaten. According to the police, the dead woman's only means was a sum of 40. She was known to have lost a lot of money some years ago through a business firm's failure, and an application form for an old-age pension was found in the house. The occupant went out only at night, and never answered knocks at the door unless she expected a visitor by appointment. The windows at the back were boarded up, and the dust of years covered nearly all the furniture. A doctor stated that Miss Hemmatt's death was due to pneumonia following influenza, and a verdict of "death from natural causes" was returned.

FARMERS' HOTEL BILL

Only Two Shillings in Pocket to Meet Account of £38

London, April 14—Brought up at Bow street, John Laplan, 26, farmer, of Judith Parre, South Africa, was charged with fraudulently incurring debt at the Grand Hotel. It was stated that after defendant had stayed at the hotel for four days he was presented with a bill for 28s 12s, which included items for motor-car hire. He promised to go out and get the money, and was followed by a detective to two West End clubs, but he left without speaking to anyone there. When arrested, he remarked, "I am beaten; you will find out later." Only 2s was found upon him. Evidence was given that defendant opened an account with £20 at the London Joint City and Midland Bank, and soon afterwards, withdrew £15, leaving 5s still standing in his credit. He was not given a cheque book, as his references were not satisfactory. Defendant told the magistrate that his memory was affected as a result of a train accident. He was committed for trial.

HANGS HERSELF WITH SHIRT

Girl Worker, Nurse to Sick Sister, Found Dead in Kitchen.

Miss Anne Vezort, 26 years old, committed suicide by hanging herself from the steam pipes in the kitchen of her home at 422 East Seventy-seventh street, New York, the other day. Miss Vezort, who worked in a factory making gold mesh bags, had been home for a month caring for a younger sister who had been ill. The latter returned to school and her sister prepared a lunch and told her she intended to return to her work in the factory. When the younger girl return from school she found the door of the apartment locked. She waited until the arrival of a brother, John Vezort, who entered the apartment through a window by way of the fire escape. The body of the elder sister was found on the floor of the kitchen. She had hung herself by a shirt, which had apparently broken after strangulation ensued.

ELOQUENCE ADDRESS BY REV. ARGHEDEACAN CODY

The subject of "The Church and the Age" was dealt with eloquently last night in Stone church, by Rev. Dr. J. M. Cody. He described the church as a reforming body and a power for national righteousness and as an evangelizing body the church must go ahead and is most essential in dealing with the young. Rev. Canon Cody was well versed in his subject and brought out many points of literary value. The service was conducted by Rev. Canon G. A. Kuhring, Bishop Richardson, pronounced the benediction and Rev. William Armstrong was also in the chancel. D. Arnold Fox, organist of Stone church, gave an excellent recital. Mrs. W. S. Harrison, Mrs. G. K. Bell and DeWitt Cairns sang solos in an acceptable manner.

Kubelik, the famous violinist, is credited with having paid $50,000 in 1910 for the "Haddock Strad", which found its way to England from Brussels in the year of Waterloo, and had only been played in public twice in the intervening ninety-five years.

SIMMONS METAL CRIB Design 246

Do people grudge the price of a good crib

A CRIB is used only a few years anyhow—so most people save on it if they can.

But a good deal of a baby's restlessness and fretting at night is due to the creak, rattle and unsteadiness of its ordinary crib.

Give Baby a Simmons Crib—the steady crib—the noiseless crib—the sleep-inviting crib.

Let Baby get wholly relaxed, and deep sleep will follow. Sound, helpful sleep, all night long—just as Nature intends!

When you see how the Baby sleeps in its Simmons Crib—you will scarcely be content with anything but Simmons Metal Beds for yourself, the grown children and your guests. Built for Sleep.

In every room shared by two persons, Twin Beds, by all means! One sleeper does not disturb the other, or communicate colds or other infections.

TO APPLY ADOLESCENT ACT WITH MODERATION AT FIRST

Provision Will Be Made for Many Things as They Arise, Says Minister of Education. "There is no need for alarm; the Adolescent School Attendance Act will be enforced September 1, 1921, with moderation and every consideration," the Ontario minister of education informed The Toronto Globe. "Provision will be made for many things that are not now provided for, as they arise. Provision will be made for the mentally defective."

"There is no great crisis. People are unnecessarily in a blue funk. The Adolescent Act is not a new one. It was on the statute books seven years ago, before the Fisher Bill was introduced, with the compulsory clause added," said Inspector Crowley. "It is a sensible act and when carried out will adapt a course of study suitable to the mentality of each pupil. There will be a small increase in attendance of pupils at first, but the Board of Education is making provision for the mentally deficient are no more a problem than others. Industrial classes will be provided for them."

"The section which provides for the establishment of part-time class courses for boys and girls at work comes into effect in 1922, and provides for two hours' instruction for each pupil between the hours of eight and five. Thus one teacher will be able to instruct 120 pupils in relays of thirty. It will be advantageous to manufacturers to have these classes in the neighborhood of their factories and save the time of their employees. The Board of Education will probably make provision for these part-time classes by renting rooms down town."

Inspectors and teachers are meeting in conference within a few days throughout the city with the subject under discussion. The supply of teachers for the auxiliary classes is insufficient, but provision is being made for more teachers to take the required training this summer. The Lansdowne School reports success in its auxiliary classes.

"I have noted that pupils who could make no headway in academic subjects are fairly clever at hand work. There is a great need for trade schools in Toronto such as they have in London. We are bound to be a little crowded by the enforcement of the Adolescent Act. It will have to be applied with a great deal of judgment," said a principal.

WANTS IMMIGRANTS

Answering T. Toombs, Labor member for Peterboro in the Ontario legislature, Hon. Manning Doherty announced that the department of agriculture is still encouraging immigration to the province. From the first of November last year, he said, approximately 1,000 immigrants had been brought to the province distributed throughout agricultural districts in various sections.

MEETING DEMPSEY MOST IMPORTANT

Carpenter States That He is Not Thinking of Compensation From Bout

W. B. "Bat" Masterson writes in the New York Morning Telegraph: Georges Carpentier, the European heavyweight champion of the ring, had a good deal to say while in London recently about his coming battle with Jack Dempsey, and what the Frenchman said seemed to impress English sportsmen immensely. Carpentier, in discussing the issue, made it very plain that he would like to have the Dempsey matter settled one way or the other without any more talk, for, as he said, there has already been too much sense indulged in by everybody connected with the match.

But, naturally enough, Carpentier did not hold himself responsible in the slightest degree for the many turns the affair has taken since negotiations were first opened up between Dempsey, himself and the promoters.

"You know," said the European champion to "Old Campaigner," of the Winning Post, "that when I beat Beckett and challenged Dempsey, and, in fact, immediately contracted with C. B. Cochran to do so, the average American ridiculed the idea that I was in any way qualified to engage in a championship match."

"And when I visited the States to show myself I was put down as just a frog—a petty fellow, a revue fighter, a looking-glass fighter and of course, a regular guy. But, though it was insisted that Dempsey would gobble me up, he did not come to the scratch."

"I then returned to America to fight the best man they had, Battling Lerinsky, and I beat him. Nevertheless, Jack Kearns held to it that Dempsey would put me through his minding machine, even if he did demand $200,000 for the task. Meanwhile the syndicate of promoters ceased to exist and everybody interested in the battle despaired of Dempsey and myself ever deciding the question of supremacy in the ring."

"But now I have definite assurances that it has been retixed and that Dempsey will take the ring against me on July 2 in New York, and I really believe he will do so."

Carpentier laughed at the idea of fighting Frank Moran while the match with Dempsey was still pending. "I think Moran himself would put me down as a sucker if I fought him before meeting Dempsey," said the Frenchman. "However, if the match with Dempsey is again hung up I certainly will consider Moran, whom I regard as a very formidable fighting man."

Carpentier said that he would begin taking a light course of training in the early part of May and leave for New York the first of June or thereabouts. Carpentier also said that he was not considering the question of compensation, that with him it was the opportunity of fighting Dempsey for the heavyweight championship of the world that interested him most.

"But there is one thing the Americans will never be able to charge me with being guilty of, and that is running out of the match. I have been ready to fight the champion ever since I first challenged him, and I am still ready, and to show that I am sincere in the matter I'll be in the States quite a while before the date set for the battle. If Dempsey is as anxious to do battle as I am, there is going to be a fight and I hope the best man wins."

And speaking on this same subject, Eugene Corri, an eminent English referee and sporting authority, has this to say:

"It is common knowledge, I think, that Major Arnold Wilson banked upon Carpentier and Frank Moran as a certainty, and, really, from what I had been told and from what I knew, I supposed that the Frenchman, before he embarked upon his northern tour at the beginning of the week, would have given a definite promise to my gallant friend that he would in a month or so fight the big fair American."

"Instead, Descamps arrived in London with a small parcel of cables from Tex Rickard, assuring him that he had made himself responsible for the whole caboose; that the terms which he had offered Dempsey were quite satisfactory, and that the fight would positively take place in New York on July 2. Well, it might, but, after all that has gone before, I have my doubts. However, both Carpentier and Descamps feel that the way to the match is easier than at any other time, and they have replied that, subject to everything being in order, they will be in New York about the middle of June and ready to try for the title."

A CANADIAN SINGER

A young Toronto singer, Miss Marie Munro, has attracted much favorable attention in Chicago and other United States cities. Miss Munro was called to New York last February to sing before several of the experts of the Chicago Opera Company, and after a rehearsal of several arias from Italian operas, it was decided that she be sent to Italy in May, accompanying Mary Garden's party, to finish her vocal education. She is the possessor of a sweet soprano voice, is a natural actress, and a good danseuse. She is also said to be an accomplished pianist.

RUBBER MEN WIN CLERICAL LEAGUE

By winning the roll-off on the Victoria of the second series in the Clerical League the Dominion Rubber System team becomes the winner of the league as this team also won the first series. This team defeated the team from Waterbury & Rising team last night by the narrow margin of one pin.

Table with 2 columns: Team Name and Score. Includes Waterbury & Rising, Gornley, Brewer, Chealey, Featherstone, O'Connor, and Rubber Men.

The roll-off between the Railway Mail Clerks and the team from Waterbury & Rising's for second place in the league will take place next Thursday evening. The former team finished second place in the first series and the latter team second in the second series of the league.

Commercial League

The G. E. Barbour team, winner of the second series in the Commercial League, took all four points from the Harrington Nail Works team, winner of the first series in the league in the roll-off on Black's alleys last night. Summary:

Four For Sparrows

In the Y. M. C. I. House League last evening the Sparrows took all four points from the Owls and made a new alley record of 1519 for three strings. Capt. Harrington and his men were in fine fettle and at the same time caught the wise old birds evidently on an off night for the latter did not roll up to strength. But that does not detract from the fine performance of the Sparrows. Anchor man Brown came within an ace of a new three string record for the league season. He rolled 336. The season is near its close and has been one of the best yet for the Y. M. C. I. Last night's scores were:

STANDARD OIL DEAL REPORTED CLOSED

New Jersey Company to Develop Maracaibo Lands in Venezuela, Wall Street Hears—Will Supply All Funds.

(New York Times.) It was reported in the financial district yesterday that the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, either directly or through one of its subsidiary companies, had closed negotiations with the Maracaibo Oil Exploration Company, to develop the latter company's property in Venezuela. The Maracaibo company, it is said, has about 1,000,000 acres acquired about two years ago. The company is drilling two wells on its property. No details of the plan have been given out, but it is reported that the Standard will advance all funds needed for development, the Maracaibo Company paying its half share of the cost with oils as it is obtained. The movement is considered highly important in oil-producing circles, as the Standard has always been an important factor in the marketing end of the South American oil trade, where its oil production has been limited to about 7,000 barrels a day on the Peruvian property, which is controlled by the International Petroleum Company, a sub-siary of the Standard of New Jersey. The Standard is fast branching out in South America, having become interested in Colombia in a large way through its subsidiary, and it also has acquired a large interest in the De Mares concession when it took over the Tropical Oil Company through an exchange of stock. The construction of a pipe line from the properties to the coast is contemplated, but has not been started, owing to delay in the construction of roads to the interior.

Man Who Ran Into Debt On Getting $1,600 a Year.

London, April 14—When earning £400 a year he was free from debt, but when his income rose to four times that amount he fell into debt. Such was the confession made at Lincoln Bankruptcy Court by Robert Andrew Gilston, of the Manor House, Waddington, who, it was declared, after working as a clerk for a number of years, suddenly became a managing director at a salary of £1,600 a year. His statement of affairs showed gross liabilities of £4,318, of which £2,848 was expected to rank for dividend. His assets, consisting for the most part of household furniture and a life policy, were estimated at £885. There was, however, a further contingent liability of £20,000 in respect of the firm of Doughty, Son & Richardson, for whose current bank account he had entered into a joint guarantee. The inquiry was adjourned until April 17.

Somersaults Down Embankment, Misses Locomotive and Drives Away.

Windsor, April 14—A somersault in an automobile down a thirty-foot embankment and across the Grand Trunk Railway tracks ahead of a speeding train was the sensational feature of a collision of two automobiles at Hall avenue and Sandwich street east. The occupant of the acrobatic automobile, whose name and address were unascertained, was uninjured.

William Dewar, 920 Hall avenue, driver of the other machine, was thrown out of his seat by the impact, and fell down the bank, suffering bruises and lacerations of the head. His automobile, perched precariously on the edge of the bank, threatened to follow the other car down the embankment.

The driver of the car which fell down the hill immediately turned about and drove to the Windsor ferry. He crossed to Detroit before the police officers could get his name. Dewar's car was badly damaged.
