GREAT NUMBER AT FUNERAL OF FRANK L. POTTS

2 SERVICES HELD

Rev. H. C. Rice Pronounces Eloquent Eulogy—Touching Pithy Farewell Given

PASSING through the streets between a continuous gathering of the people is represented as Chief Magistrate and member of Parliament, and after solemn services in Queen Square United church, attended by a concourse that taxed the capacity of the edifice, all that was mortal of Mayor Frank L. Potts was laid at rest in the cemetery at Fernhill this afternoon while flags fluttered at half-staff and representative Saint John paid its personal respects.

It was a thoroughly comprehensive cortege that participated in the mourning ceremonies beginning with the Mayor of the province and his co-members from the constituency of Saint John city and county to the humblest citizen, for Mayor Potts was familiarly known as the "workman's friend" and a sobriquet in which he took no little pride.

The broken ranks of the Common Council, City Hall executive staff, various societies of the local administration—the police, fire department, public works, financial, water and sewerage and the harbor clerks; captains of industry, heads of leading business houses, bankers and realtors; all lent their presence to pay their last respects to the late Mayor.

Fraternally there was a large representation. Mayor Potts' young-hearted nature and disposition towards good-fellowship for nearly a quarter of a century. This large delegation marched in the procession immediately behind the mounted marshal, Police Constable Harry Bell, and were followed by Acting Mayor J. H. Ertink. The hearse came next and then the immediate family members.

In the general procession walked representative groups from Albion Lodge of Freemasons—the Mayor's own Lodge—with brother Masons of other bodies; a deputation from Loyal Temple, Mystic Shrine; Sons of Etihad, York Lodge of Orange-men, and brethren of other orders; King Edward Lodge of "Preston" Boys (West Saint John), and sister-societies, the Ella Vander Dr. E. Arthur Westrup, and other associations of Mr. Potts in his various life.

The public filed in afterwards, the whole combining in making a cortege that extended for blocks.

SERVICE AT HOUSE The short service for the bereaved household and close friends, held at 2 o'clock, was conducted by Rev. H. C. Rice, pastor of Queen Square church, assisted by Rev. R. G. Fulton. A quartet sang "God of God" and "Rock of Ages." A procession then formed and the coffin was taken to the church. Rev. Mr. Fulton officiated at the funeral. Mr. Rice, offering prayer and reading the scripture lesson. The choral hymns were "Peace, Perfect Peace" and "Abide With Me." The various organizations set in reservations.

FUNERAL ORATION Rev. H. C. Rice delivered the funeral address, which was as follows: The thoughts which find readiest utterance are not our deepest thoughts. The proudest truths and the most profound emotions that stir our hearts are the most difficult to voice in suitable language.

There are moments in every life when the burdens of grief, perplexity or disappointment which press upon the soul are too heavy to find suitable expression, and one is ready to wish that the tongue could utter the thoughts that arise within one and profoundly realize this difficulty as I address you today, when, with hearts heavy with sorrow, we gather together to perform the last sad offices of respect for our honored dead, and also to express our sympathy with those who have been most intimately associated with him in that most tender of all relationships, the home. While we would not wish to intrude upon the sacred privacy of their own grief yet we would assure them that the community mourns the loss of an intelligent and public spirited citizen.

Born in the City of Saint John, Frank Leslie Potts grew to manhood. With a natural aptitude for making friends, with more than ordinary ability, with a cheerful mind and other attributes of personal power, with an inherent love for the strife and turmoil

DECISION ON ROUTING CASE IS DEFERRED

Rail Board Hears Complaint Over C. N. R. Proposal

RATE BOOST SEEN

Slackening in Service Held Likely if Alternative Plan Cancelled.

Canadian Press. MONTREAL, Jan. 9.—Protest was registered before the Board of Railway Commissions here today by F. C. Cornell, freight expert acting on behalf of the Maritime Provinces, against the proposal of the Canadian National Railways to eliminate alternative routing via Saint John, N. B., and Sainte Rosalie Junction, Que., of west-bound traffic destined to stations on the Canadian Pacific Railway, except with an extra charge of one-half cent per hundredweight.

Mr. Cornell was supported in his presentation by George Hulebos, Bathurst, N. B. In addition to asking for the three provinces, Mr. Cornell, who is also preparing the Maritime case for presentation to the Board of Commissioners in their general consideration of the entire freight rate structure of the country, represented the Saint John, Halifax, and Sackville, N. B. Boards of Trade.

C. N. R. DEFENSE. F. J. Warren, freight traffic manager, and Arthur Fraser, counsel, replying for the C. N. R., argued that traffic originating on the Canadian National Railways was not carried as far as possible on these lines, they would be acting as feeders for the Canadian Pacific. If freight from Truro, N. S., for Toronto were handed over to the Canadian Pacific at Saint John, the National lines would lose $16 per car as against the 39 extra freight charge which might arise to the shipper from a switching charge.

The Maritime representatives said that if the Canadian National would agree to absorb the switching charge there would be no further complaint.

MUST BE UNIVERSAL. Commissioner Vien intervened to say that under the Railway Act if the concession were granted to the Maritimes it would have to be granted to all parts of Canada and further that if alternative routes in combination with the Canadian Pacific or any other railway were ordered into effect in the Maritime Provinces similar concessions would have to be granted in all parts of Canada. The commission took the matter under advisement. Hon. McKeown, chief commissioner, presided.

CASE FOR MARITIMES. For more than 30 years under the Intercolonial Railway Mr. Cornell pointed out, Maritime shippers were able to ship through to Toronto with power to switch to the Canadian Pacific at Sainte Rosalie, New Brunswick, because of the concession granted to the Intercolonial had been taken from the Canadian National system, it was not fair that the Maritime Provinces should be penalized by that consolidation by having an added charge on their freight rates in cases where it seemed desirable to switch their goods from one railway to the other. It was the withdrawal of a long established right, he said.

The Canadian National Railways, continued Mr. Cornell, across Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and 60 per cent of New Brunswick. Twenty-six of the 29 centres known to the railways as distributing points in these provinces were served by the Canadian National. Shippers sending freight from

Retail Trade Want Income Tax Abolished

Canadian Press. OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 9.—A resolution in the Federal income tax will not halt the campaign of the Retail Trade Board of Canada for its total abolition, D. M. Towne, president of the board, stated last night. A resolution is hinted at in the speech by the Hon. Mr. Towne stated that the income tax is the worst enemy of Canadian prosperity and that its abolition will result in an era of progress in Canada never before equalled.

"How about the revenue the government would lose?" he was asked. "That would be made up many times over," he said, "by the increased revenue from the business tax, sales tax and tariff."

ICE CONDITIONS IN CANSO DELAY TRAIN

Jams in Strait Said to be Worst in History For Time of Year

Canadian Press. SYDNEY, N. S., Jan. 9.—Train schedules on the Halifax-Sydney branch of the C. N. R. have been badly disrupted by ice conditions in the Strait of Canso, which are declared to be the worst in the memory of anybody for this time of the year.

Yesterday morning express was in the Strait on both the inter-provincial and local lines, which the steamer vainly tried to pass her way into the Point Tupper pier. Ice then broke up and the steamer was able to dock that it was only after the captain had resorted to the expedient of putting out ice anchors, and hauling the lines away from the pier that the steamer was at last able to discharge the train.

Shipping men declare ice conditions to be the worst ever seen. Almost throughout the length and breadth of the Strait the ice floes, drifting down from Northumberland Strait, were so closely packed as to completely block blue water was visible today.

HARD COAL STRIKE ENTERS 7TH MONTH

Deadlock Still Exists in Negotiations With Little Hope of Break

Canadian Press. NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Six months ago today, at Atlantic City, anthracite miners and operators entered a deadlock in an effort to negotiate a new wage contract and the vice-grip that each side has on the other appears as tight today as it was then.

Representatives of the two contending interests, however, are seeking a way out and renew their discussions this afternoon following an adjournment last yesterday.

Unless there is a change in policy, and there are ever present rumors, the conferees go into the meeting today without any hope of being able to insert a wedge that will break the deadlock.

LOTS OF ENGLISH CAPITAL AVAILABLE

Rush on to Loan to Germans; Millions in Bonds Are Taken up

Canadian Press. LONDON, Jan. 9.—Partly as a consequence of the depression in trade and industry, which makes difficult employment of money in trade, there are signs in the London market since the removal of the embargo on colonial and foreign loans, of almost unlimited capital waiting for investment.

As far as Germany is concerned, all the war feeling has disappeared and British capitalists are falling over one another in their haste to lend to the Germans. During the past fortnight, there have been issued on the London market, $25,000,000 of bonds for the German potato syndicate, another loan of £1,000,000 for the German textile syndicate and another £1,000,000 of Hungarian land mortgage bonds in addition to £4,000,000 Sao Paulo coffee bonds.

Statement Will Be Issued at Conclusion of Deliberations

Canadian Press. MONTREAL, Jan. 9.—Headed by four members of Parliament, a delegation from the Maritime Provinces, representatives for the most part of the Boards of Trade of Saint John and Halifax, met this morning on the invitation of Sir Henry Thornton, K. B. E., chairman and president of the Canadian National Railways, to discuss with him the question of traffic through Maritime Province ports.

The matter of opening the meeting to press representatives was broached and the delegation decided that in view of the question of "Maritime Rights" being an item on the parliamentary program, as indicated yesterday by the speech from the throne, the conference this morning, should be held "in camera." Statements, however, will be issued at the conclusion of the meeting.

FORKE CONFERS WITH CONSERVATIVE HEAD

Progressives Debate Stand on Confidence Motions Before House of Commons

Canadian Press. OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 9.—Progressives met in caucus this morning to determine their attitude towards the motions of confidence and non-confidence moved in the House yesterday.

Later, the executive of the Progressive party, headed by Robert Forke, went into conference with Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader.

There is rumor that the opposition may get some independent support, but of this there is as yet no confirmation.

Several individual Progressive questionnaires took the ground that little advantage would be gained by turning out the government at the present juncture, and putting in a Conservative administration.

HAMILTON, Ont., Mayor Suspects Manipulation in Potato Market There

HAMILTON, Ont., Jan. 9.—Mayor Treleven believes that there is some manipulation of the potato market hereabouts, and will ask the board of control to urge the government to put an embargo. Only this week 25 carloads were shipped from here to Buffalo, where they are selling at $4.50 per bag. The price here recently rose from $3 to $3.50 per bag. The Mayor fears that further exports will cause a shortage and a price that will make potatoes too dear for the average table.

In Jealous Rage Husband Slays Wife and Three Kiddies With Baseball Bat, Then Kills Self

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Five bodies, the entire family of Thomas King, a young chauffeur, were found lying on a bed in his apartment yesterday under circumstances that neatly outlined an unusual tragedy.

The last time members of the family were seen alive was Wednesday night, when King returned home. Police said he found his wife flinging with another man, who left. Neighbors then heard a great racket. Marks on the walls of the home, showed that King chased his wife and children from room to room. He killed them all with a baseball bat, and cut his throat. An autopsy last night disclosed that King died from gas poisoning and not from the self-inflicted wound.

The fire was prevented from assuming more dangerous proportions by the strenuous work of the firemen and the fact that it was located in by fireproof buildings. The losers are Alex. Ice scenery about Niagara Falls is at its height. Trees and shrubs are covered with frozen spray from the cataracts, and the river below the falls is choked with ice floes. PROBE OF MARITIME CASE PROMISED

QUESTION OF CONFIDENCE RAISED AS SESSION OPENS

Baron Byng Reveals Instructions to Rail Board to Delve Into Causes for Diversion of Grain, etc. to Other Than Canadian Harbors

LAPOINTE ASKS CABINET BE SUSTAINED

Meighen Raises Point of Order, and Liberal Motion Goes to Speaker for Ruling; Conservatives Press No-confidence Amendment; Lower Taxation Indicated in Gov.-Gen's. Address

OTTAWA, Jan. 8.—The session of Canada's 15th Parliament opened in a storm. First day in the house, usually little more than frills and formality, saw issue between government and opposition sharply joined.

Motions of confidence and non-confidence in the government swept across the stage so rapidly that even old parliamentary on-lookers were bewildered and confused. Galleries were packed. Long rows of evening gowns told how guests from the opening had hurried from the placid atmosphere of the senate to the troubled scenes of the house.

Members wildly cheered their leaders again and again as point after point was made. It was such an opening day as the Canadian Parliament has probably never seen before.

BYNG'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

His Excellency the Governor-General in the Speech from the Throne, read right at the opening this afternoon announced:

- 1.—Substantial reductions in taxation.
2.—Consolidation of certain public departments.
3.—Measures to retain agricultural population on the land, to encourage return to land of urban dwellers and repatriation of Canadians.
4.—Rural credit scheme.
5.—Tariff advisory board, (for which provision was made last session), to be appointed forthwith.

GRAIN DIVERSION INQUIRY

6.—Board of Railway Commissioners is instructed to include in its general rate investigation, now in progress, a special inquiry into the causes of diversion of Canadian grain and other products through other than Canadian ports. Board also to take such action under railway act as it may deem efficient to ensure utilization of Canadian ports for Canadian traffic.

7.—Completion forthwith of Hudson Bay Railway.

8.—Royal Commission on Maritime Rights.

9.—Bill to transfer natural resources to Alberta and to amend Dominion Elections Act.

MOVES CONFIDENCE VOTE.

Members of the Commons had returned to their own chamber, after the formal opening of Parliament in the Senate, when Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice and acting House leader, moved a vote of confidence in the government.

"The House," he said, "is now properly organized, and in view of the peculiar circumstances under which this parliament is meeting, which circumstances have necessitated this early summoning of honorable members, the government thinks it its duty as an act of government in this parliament, to submit the following motion, which I make, seconded by the Hon. Mr. MacDonald, Minister of National Defence:—

TEXT OF MOTION.

"That in the opinion of this House, in view of the general election, the government was justified in retaining office and in summoning parliament, and the government is entitled to retain office unless defeated by a vote of this House equivalent to a vote of want of confidence."

RIGHT OF COMMONS.

Constitutionally, said the Minister of Justice, the Commons had the right to consider matters of public importance before the Speech from the Throne was taken up. For this reason the famous Durney Bill number one was put through the House before the Speech from the Throne was considered each day.

Robert Forke, Progressive Leader, rose to his feet, at the conclusion of Mr. Lapointe's words, to suggest that in view of its importance of the resolution and the significance of the decision to be reached, it might be well to accept the resolution merely as a motion and give it further consideration on Monday.

Mr. Meighen took the stand that an adjournment debate on a point of order could not be made on the motion of a private member. Such an adjournment could only be made by the speaker.

BOURASSA MOVE FAILS

At the request of the speaker, Mr. Bourassa introduced his motion for adjournment of the debate. Speaker LeBlond then announced he would defer his ruling on the point of order till Monday.

Hon. Ernest Lapointe then moved that the address be given precedence. Mr. Meighen described the motion as a contempt of parliament.

Robert Forke, Progressive leader, got to his feet in the middle of Mr. Meighen's speech.

Speech From The Throne

OTTAWA, Jan. 8.—His Excellency Baron Byng said in the speech from the Throne this afternoon: "Honorable Members of the Senate: "Members of the House of Commons: "It gives me pleasure to welcome you to your important duties in this first session of the Fifteenth Parliament of Canada. "Since our last meeting the Empire has been called on to lament the demise of Queen Alexandra. In our Dominion, the memory of the late Queen will ever be held in affectionate remembrance. At the earliest opportunity a resolution will be submitted to you expressing the deep sympathy of the parliament and people of Canada, with His Majesty the King, and other members of the Royal Family in their bereavement. "Canada has been signally honored by the selection of a member of its government as president of the sixth assembly of the League of Nations."

"I congratulate you on the growing prosperity of this favored land. The products of our agricultural and other basic industries have greatly increased. Our export trade shows remarkable expansion. Our manufacturing and related industries throughout the Dominion, have experienced a development not enjoyed in many years. Further evidence of industrial progress is reflected in the greatly improved earnings of the railways."

"This increased prosperity and advancement have been aided by the policies of the Government, and the reductions in expenditures and taxation made from time to time. In the opinion of my ministers, the improved conditions warrant further substantial reductions in taxation."

"Every effort will be made further to reduce expenditures. To aid in the reduction of expenditures in administration, certain of the departments of the public service will be consolidated with others and Government services more effectively co-ordinated."

"Our revenue is derived partly from taxes made necessary by the war and partly from other sources. In order that the people of the Dominion may have an exact knowledge of the sources of their revenue, and the objects of its expenditure simplified forms of account will be issued periodically."

"WITH the improvement of conditions throughout the country, the government have formulated and put into operation a comprehensive immigration plan. My ministers desire it to be known that the Dominion welcomes settlers of the classes which can be absorbed into our population. Regulations have been simplified, transportation rates greatly reduced and the care of settlers to destination and during early settlement given every attention. Measures will be taken to further the retention on the land of our existing agricultural population, to encourage the return to rural parts of urban dwellers possessed of agricultural experience and the repatriation of Canadians now living in other countries. Special arrangements will be proposed for settlement on Crown Lands."

"An agreement has been made between the government and the railroad companies providing a larger measure of co-operation in immigration activities in the British Isles and on the continent of Europe. An agreement entered into with the British government has already been instrumental in stimulating immigration from Great Britain."

"While it is of importance to attract new settlers, it is equally, if not more important to assist those who are already established on the land by reducing the cost of agricultural production. To this end a measure will be introduced offering wide facilities for rural credits."

"MY MINISTERS are of the opinion that a general increase in the customs tariff would prove detrimental to the country's continued prosperity and prejudicial to national unity. In their view the incidence of this form of taxation should be as light as possible upon the necessities of life, and on agriculture and other primary industries. They believe that in the interest of industrial development every effort should be made to eliminate the element of uncertainty with regard to tariff changes; that changes in the tariff should be made only after the fullest examination of their bearing on primary and manufacturing industries and that representations requesting increase or decrease of duties should be made the subject of the most careful investigation and report by a body possessing the necessary qualifications to advise the ministry with respect thereto."

"A tariff advisory board will accordingly be appointed forthwith. This board will be expected to make a careful study of the customs tariff, the revenue to be derived therefrom and the effect of the tariff and allied factors on industry and agriculture."

"WHILE recognizing the importance of the Canadian home market the great value of markets in other countries, for our natural and manufactured products, must also be considered. In particular our trade within the Empire should be encouraged by all means consistent with our national welfare. In this connection a trade agreement entered into with the British West Indies, Bermuda, British Guiana and British Honduras, will be submitted for your approval."

"IN PURSUANCE of the fixed policy of the Government to encourage the movement of grain and other Canadian products through Canadian ports, the Board of Railway Commissioners has been instructed to include in the general rate investigation now in progress, a special inquiry into the causes of diversion of Canadian grain and other products through other than Canadian ports, and to take such action under the Railway Act, as it may deem efficient to ensure as far as possible the utilization of Canadian ports for Canadian traffic. "My Government propose to submit provisions for the completion forthwith of the Hudson Bay Railway."

"WITH a view to affording such remedies as may appear to be practical and appropriate, the Government also proposes to appoint a Royal Commission to inquire fully into the claims that the rights of the Maritime Provinces in regard to the operation of the Intercolonial Railway have not been observed and that in regard to transportation, immigration and other economic factors, these provinces have suffered prejudicially in their position under Confederation. "Your attention will be invited, among other measures to a bill to provide for the transfer to the Province of Alberta, of its natural resources, and to a bill amending the Dominion Elections Act."

"MEMBERS of the House of Commons: "The accounts of the last fiscal year and the estimates for the coming year, will be submitted for your consideration. "Honorable Members of the Senate: "Members of the House of Commons: "In the policies and measures I have outlined, a sincere effort has been made to take into account the diversified conditions and interests of our Dominion in a manner which will promote mutual understanding and closer co-operation between all parts. It is believed that these measures, which, taken together, form a co-ordinated plan of national progress, will ensure our common aim of a prosperous and united Canada. "In their consideration and in other of your public duties, may Divine Providence guide and bless your deliberations."

amendment of non-confidence he had read earlier in the afternoon. While the Meighen amendment was being carried to the chair, Mr. Lapointe interjected that the amendment was a pure negative of the motion before the house. Mr. Meighen: "The point is revealing. The motion is not a motion and is not before the house." Mr. Speaker ruled that the Meighen amendment was in order as an amendment to the motion that the Speech from the Throne should have precedence.

MEIGHEN RESUMES FLOOR Mr. Meighen then resumed the floor: "We have enjoyed," he said, "the rather ludicrous performance which the late administration have staged this afternoon." He went on to review the political alignment of the house of commons following the last general election.

"Of what was at that time the Opposition in the house," he said that 116 members had been returned. But in the government ranks there were only 101 "including independents," some of whom must have enjoyed an excess of votes because of their independent label. On the part of the "party known as the Progressives," only 20 odd had been elected, and the result was that supporters of the "late government are in a large minority in this house."

"We find 138 members elected by the people of this country against candidates of the government. The significance of this surely the whole of this Dominion comprehends."

"The Government's own candidates were returned to the number of 100, yet the Government had the assurance for a vote of confidence. Mr. Meighen reviewed the popular vote, pointing out that Government candidates had received 1,266,000 votes, while Conservative candidates had received 1,466,000 votes. There was an excess of 200,000 votes in favor of the Conservative party. "Mr. Bourassa interrupted—"Does the honorable member include votes given to Patenaude candidates?" This was followed by Government applause. "I ask this simply as a matter of fact, not to raise applause," added Mr. Bourassa. ACTION UNPRECEDENTED. Mr. Meighen continued that no Prime Minister without a seat in either House could act in the House of Commons; that a Government with 101 seats out of 245 should seek to hold office was unprecedented. Never in the history of British Parliaments had a government, returned from an election held under its own auspices, ventured, as a minority group, to hold office. Meighen referred to "rare precedents" in which defeated governments had endeavored to meet parliament. The Government was asking the House to vote confidence, which was marked time so far as the country was concerned.

All proceedings instituted by their members were "null and void," and an assertion of power which they did not possess. "The government long ago lost the confidence of the country but it has now earned its contempt," Mr. Meighen declared. "Surely we believe in constitutional government," he concluded. "We want the voice of the people to rule in this country, the voice of the people to be obeyed." Hon. Ernest Lapointe replied: "The leader of the Opposition has given his challenge and I am rising to take it up." The government, Mr. Lapointe said, invited the discussion which was now in progress. It wanted to show the country that it was not usurping office and that it wished to place itself in the judgment of the House of Commons. "The result of the election was not as decisive as some of us on both sides of the House would like to see," Mr. Lapointe went on, while members in all parts of the chamber laughed.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., JANUARY 9, 1926

THE GOVERNMENT AND CANADIAN PORTS

The effect of an aroused public opinion which has found forceful expression in many parts of Canada in recent months is seen in several paragraphs in the Speech from the Throne, notably in the references to the diversion of grain and other traffic to American ports, and the Government's decision to appoint a Royal Commission to inquire into the claims of the Maritime Provinces.

The Government, and undoubtedly Parliament, too, has recognized that it would never do to rest content with Henry Thornton's dictum that neither he nor Parliament can take any effective action relative to the routing of Canadian export traffic.

The fact that a commission is appointed must not be accepted as meaning that Parliament must await its decision before dealing with questions of Maritime interest. Parliament is in itself a commission fully equipped to deal with the issues of the day, and its duty to the Maritimes is in no sense suspended or weakened by reason of the Government's proposal.

The announcement of the Commission is one response to the Maritimes demands for fair treatment, and its practical utility can better be judged as events develop. It is a sign, however, that the campaign for Maritime betterment is bearing fruit, and that Parliament is awake to the necessity for action.

The Provincial Governments of these provinces, which have not been particularly active officially in pressing for a recognition of the Maritime case, may see in the new developments an opportunity for united and effective action. In this respect the governments of the western provinces have set them many an example. The tide of public sentiment in Canada is favorable to the Maritimes to-day, and no chance to take the tide on the flood should be neglected.

Technically, there should be a by-election to fill the Mayor's chair, but the Commissioners have taken the right course in asking the local government to enable them to carry on until the regular civic election date in April. There is no reason why any public interest should suffer in the interval, and this plan will have both trouble and expense. Commissioner Frink is a natural choice for acting Mayor under the circumstances, having himself for a long period been the city's Chief Magistrate.

In its shipping notes a few days ago, the Boston Globe reported that the steamer Hallmouth had just left that port for Liverpool, carrying 220,000 bushels of Canadian wheat—the fourth full cargo of grain within the last three weeks. Boston is not a Canadian port, but it is a Canadian wheat port, like Portland, New York, New London, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Norfolk. Ottawa has begun to take notice—and to act.

The Duncan report on the coal troubles in Nova Scotia is now in the hands of the Rhodes government, and it is expected it will be made public on Monday. The recent disturbances in the mining area intensify public interest in the commission's findings. The problem is a most troublesome one, and upon its solution the industrial future of Nova Scotia in a great measure depends.

to appoint the commission and set it to work almost at once, in which case it would make its inquiry and submit its report before the House rises. If this course were adopted it would at least afford evidence that the Government recognized the matter as urgent and one requiring action rather than debate. The disturbance in the Maritimes is not a one-alarm fire, nor will it subside merely upon the expression of a desire, however sincere, to do justice. Much will depend, necessarily, upon the personnel of such a commission, and much, too, upon the character of the debate which the Government's plan elicits in the House, and just here the twenty-nine members from the Maritimes have an opportunity to give free and forcible expression to the sentiment which prevails in their constituencies.

The fact that a commission is appointed must not be accepted as meaning that Parliament must await its decision before dealing with questions of Maritime interest. Parliament is in itself a commission fully equipped to deal with the issues of the day, and its duty to the Maritimes is in no sense suspended or weakened by reason of the Government's proposal.

Be What You Are, Says Dean Inge (Bystander in Toronto Globe)

It does undoubtedly send a cold chill through a man when it is first brought home to him that he has done his best work and must henceforth be content to be "old So-and-so," a prophet whose message has become too familiar, an obstructive who does not sympathize with the living ideas of the younger generation, a fog, a fossil, and a back number, writes Dean Inge in The Morning Post.

When a man finds that these things are being said of him, it is best for him to retire gracefully and to be a spectator of life for the remainder of his time, rather than an actor lagging superfluous on the stage. The mind of the old man may be impervious to new ideas, but it does not follow that there can be no further growth in his character.

The leisure life which he denied himself in his prime may teach him lessons of wisdom; meditation, which is so much neglected in our hurrying modern life, may in old age bear fruit in knowledge of self and the knowledge of God which comes with it. There is a brave sentence in Sir Thomas Overbury about the old man who feels the advance of age rather by the strength of his soul than by the weakness of his body.

We have met old people of whom this seems to be true; and many must have taken comfort from the words of St. Paul: "Through our outward man falleth, yet the inward man is renewed day by day." The way to live to extreme old age is to make one day exactly like another, and to avoid giving any jolts

Dinner Stories

"DID I understand you to say this lad voluntarily confessed to playing truant?" asked a school attendance officer, addressing the mother of a small and dirty boy. "Yes, sir, he did," the woman responded. "I just had to persuade him a little, and then he told me the whole thing voluntarily." "How did you persuade him?" inquired the officer.

"Well, first I gave him a good hiding," said the parent, "and then I put him to bed without supper, and I took his clothes away and told him he'd stay in bed until he confessed what he'd done, if 'twas the rest of his days, and that I should punish him again in the morning. And in less than half an hour he told me the whole story of his own accord."

MARK TWAIN once told this story: "In my early lecturing days I went to Squaw to lecture in Temperance Hall, arriving in the afternoon. The town seemed very poorly billed. I thought I'd find out if the people knew anything at all about what was in store for them. So I turned in at the general store. 'Good afternoon, friend,' I said to the general storekeeper. 'Any entertainment here tonight to help a stranger while away his evening?' The general storekeeper, who was sorting mackerels, straightened up, wiped his briny hands on his apron, and said: 'I believe there's going to be a lecture. I've been sellin' eggs all day.'"

TALKING ABOUT DANCING. (Overseas Daily Mail.) A certain lack of animation in the most ballroom puts the question, on which opinion is much divided, whether women should talk while dancing. Professional dancers never do, of course. Princess Arthur of Connaught, who takes her dancing seriously and gave such a lead in it in South Africa during her husband's governor-generalship, hardly ever speaks; nor does Lady Louis Mountbatten. The Duchess of York always contrives to look animated and smiling, though not very conversational. On the other hand, the Prince of Wales and his brothers talk the whole time when dancing. But they are rather exceptionally "good players" alike at field sports and in the dance room. On the whole, one must say that the intricacies of present-day dancing allow few of the votaries either the breath or the mental detachment which

THE REAL CHRISTMAS. (Stratford Beacon-Herald.) Christmas, the real Christmas, has not yet arrived, but it is in process of coming. Peace does not yet reign on earth. The echoes of the greatest war the world has ever known are still ringing in our ears, and the nations are still preparing for war. That is but part of the truth, however. According to one version of the angel's message, the peace on earth will come to men of good will. And there never was a time in the world's history when there were so many men of good will—and women, too—working sincerely and persistently for peace. That in itself may be accepted as an evidence of the activity of the Christmas spirit. And the power of the spirit will continue to grow as men and women of good will continue to multiply throughout the world.

Imitative Infant. (Boston Transcript.) Betty, aged six, was watching the baby lying in his crib kicking strenuously and waving his arms. "Oh, mamma," exclaimed Betty, "isn't that cute? He's seen you doing your reducing exercises."

BY CLARK KINNAIRD The Role of Ancestors. IT IS true enough that EXPERIENCE is the mother of wisdom. It ought always to be added, however, that THOUGHT is the obstetrician, the midwife.

In general, of course, the older we have more experience than the young. But it isn't true that older individuals always are wiser than younger ones. Some persons never learn their lessons, and others acquire them easily, while they're young.

A LONG time ago Sydney Smith, a wit of his time in England, observed that INDIVIDUALS living at the same period, the oldest has, of course, the greatest experience, but among GENERATIONS of men the reverse of this is true.

SMITH did not dispute with our ancestors the palm of talent, in which they may or may not be our superiors, but the palm of experience, in which it is impossible they can be our superiors.

OBVIOUSLY, it cannot be maintained that our more recent ancestors say those five thousand years back, wanted wisdom, or that they were necessarily mistaken in their institutions, because their means of information were more limited than ours.

TRADITION is a great stumbling block in man's progress. China is beginning to move forward.

RECORD OF POOR CASES IN CITY TO BE SECURED

Relief Organization Representatives Hear Unemployment Here is Less

VARIOUS PHASES ARE DISCUSSED

Mothers' Pensions to Be Advocated—Prison Farm—Free Maternity Ward

The conference of representatives of the relief organizations of the city, which held its second session yesterday afternoon in the Bible House, received a report that practically all the larger industries of the city are running on full time and employing considerably more men than they were last year.

As other factors in relieving conditions of poverty and distress the meeting strongly advocated the establishment of a prison farm, the opening of a free maternity ward in the hospital and a general understanding that those cases which could not care for themselves must be received in the Municipal Home.

The matter of a central bureau, to deal with relief, was not definitely discussed and the meeting adjourned for ten days, or until such time as the information regarding the cases of poverty and unemployment in the city had been secured.

Those Present: W. Shives Fisher, president of the Associated Charities, was chairman of the conference and those present included, A. M. Rowan, Rev. James Cloran, C. S. H. L., Rev. William Duke, Miss H. Dyson, Miss F. Stetson, Mrs. Bert Gordon, Miss Stella Payson, Mrs. Grace O. Robertson, Mrs. I. F. Longley, Miss H. MacKay, Mrs. Margaret Lawrence and Rev. A. L. Tedford.

Mr. Fisher submitted the report regarding the industries of the city. "Father Cloran said that he had never once been able to secure work for any man for whom he had tried to get work."

It was said that outsiders were getting work which should be given to Saint John residents and that for some of the part work men were brought in from other places, because they were considered more reliable and competent.

With reference to the statement of the industries that they were employing so many more men than last year, Father Cloran said that the fact that last year was a disastrous one and that times could be 25 per cent. better than last year and not be very prosperous. The contractors and building trades, he knew were experiencing a hard season.

Miss Payson spoke of the great poverty among deserted wives and widows and in the homes of the sick, which poverty could not be relieved by providing work for men. Miss Robertson again stated that it was very hard to get work for women at the present time.

Father Cloran spoke of the very successful operation of the Mothers' Allowance Act in Ontario where it was found actually to save money. He thought some such concerted action towards obtaining this legislation for New Brunswick, as Mr. Belding had secured for the Maritimes, should be striven for.

Father Cloran raised the question whether it would be possible for the Associated Charities to be an employment bureau but this was not thought feasible and it was believed the Labor Bureau covered this field as far as it could be covered.

From one of the large industries of the city the information was obtained that there have been fewer men applying for work and many less refused employment this winter.

When the need of a free maternity ward was spoken of, the feeling of

QUESTION OF CONFERENCE RAISED AS SESSION OPENS

Governor-General, had taken the responsibility of advising him to summon Parliament at the earliest possible opportunity. This advice was accepted and the opening date set for Dec. 10. Later it was found that returns from certain constituencies could not reach Ottawa until the early days of January. Consequently the date was set for Jan. 7. Meanwhile the Government had expressed the intention of making no important appointments or indeed taking any action of importance until Parliament met.

DELEGATES KING. "I rise today to defend the honor of the leader of the Government and to say that not only was he right in doing what he did but that it was his duty to do so. Any other course would have been a breach of trust and an infringement on the rights of Parliament."

Parliament must be the judge of the Government's position, Mr. Lapointe contended. The people of Canada were represented in the House of Commons and their representatives must decide on the action of the country. He quoted authorities to show that the executive must be selected by Parliament. When the House overthrew a Government, it must be in order to select another Government which would better represent the will of the people. It was for the House of Commons to say if another party could better represent the people.

MISTAKEN SUGGESTION. "The suggestion that the Progressives should not take part in the decision was a mistaken one," declared Mr. Lapointe. It was the duty of every member to express his views on the matter. When the House resumed at 8 p. m. Mr. Lapointe asked why Mr. Meighen was so anxious to force his motion of non-confidence if he was anxious to assume power that he could not wait for a vote of the Commons in the usual way. In any case the Government was going to be voted out of office in the vote of the chamber and the present action of the Conservatives would be ineffectual.

Mr. Lapointe proceeded to quote precedents in British parliamentary practice for the continuance of a Government in office which had not a clear majority over all in the House. "It is also true," stated Mr. Lapointe, "that Ministers have been defeated in Ontario and New Brunswick." This had, however, he said, happened before with both parties. Furthermore, it should not be forgotten that Mr. Meighen had practically no following in the Province of Quebec or Saskatchewan.

RIGHT OF PARLIAMENT. There was no question of the right of Parliament to decide this issue, which should be determined with moderation and coolness and conscientiousness of mind. What step could be more in accord with the spirit of representative government or representative constitution? Canadian democracy was on trial in the matter and parliament should not be fretted away with petty squabbles. By the verdict and the decision of Parliament, concluded Mr. Lapointe, "I state that the government is willing to stand and abide."

WOODSWORTH SPEAKS. J. S. Woodsworth (Labor, Winnipeg-North Centre) recalled that "in this struggle for office between two old parties" it might be well for one in a more independent position to voice his views. In the first place, the fact that he was sitting on the government side of the House had no political significance. The established fact was that the electorate was represented by a number of groups and Parliament must adapt itself to that condition. Mr. Woodsworth could not recognize as the important thing was the continuance in power of one group or another. He was prepared to suggest that Parliament demand that the Government be responsible not to its party but to the House and would even go so far as to propose an executive committee of the whole Parliament to control affairs. By this executive committee, he said, he did not mean a coalition, "a sort of amorphous something which will leave nobody knows where."

CARMICHAEL OBJECTS. A. M. Carmichael (Progressive, the meeting was that this matter should be taken up by the women's organizations of the city. Mr. Rowan said that the General Public Hospital over-expanded its warrant and took the biggest share of municipal taxes, but everybody who went to the hospital had to pay. Mr. Tedford understood that the former nurses' home was to have been made into a maternity wing when the new nurses' home was built. It was suggested that the Women's Council, or the Hospital Aid, might take up the matter of a maternity ward and it was estimated that the community required a 25-bed ward of this nature.

BETTER LEFT ALONE, HE SAYS. With reference to some of the relief work in the city, Mr. Rowan said he thought things were dug up which might be better left alone and that in some cases it would be wiser to let sleeping dogs lie. Father Cloran agreed that there were some cases which no amount of charity would help, but Miss MacKay said that this very thing was what the Red Cross and other organizations were trying to combat from the viewpoint of health, if for no other reason. Mrs. Lawrence said that the full almshouse did not seem to bear out the statement regarding greater prosperity in the city. Mr. Tedford thought there was a better understanding regarding the Municipal Home and less reluctance to go there on the part of those who needed its care. Mr. Rowan admitted that many more in the city should be in the Home rather than seeking charity. After passing the resolution in favor of mothers' allowances and making arrangements to secure statistics on unemployment and poverty the conference was adjourned to meet again when the information had been secured.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 9.—Debate on an amendment moved by Right Hon. Arthur Meighen expressing non-confidence in the government will be resumed. The Senate will not sit.

Kindereley, had the same objection to make to the two motions before the House. He submitted that it was impossible for a member who had not yet had a chance to study the Speech from the Throne to vote intelligently on an amendment which challenged it. He, therefore, proposed that the debate be adjourned to give the members opportunity to study the whole matter.

Deaths

Mrs. Teresa A. Hansen. Mrs. Teresa A. Hansen, a resident of the North End held in high esteem by all who knew her, passed away yesterday afternoon at her home, 28 Douglas avenue, after an illness of one week with pneumonia. The news caused expressions of great regret on all sides as it spread, for the family enjoys a large connection of friends in all parts of the city.

Mrs. Hansen was in her 63th year. She had been enjoying her usual health until pneumonia developed following a similar attack a few days before upon her son, Guy C. He has passed the crisis but is still quite ill at home, while the mother was not able to withstand the ravages of the disease. Mrs. Hansen was the widow of Emil Hansen, in his day an esteemed resident of the North End, who died in 1906. She was a daughter of the late Samuel and Mary Williams. A woman of the best motherly instincts, kindly and friendly nature, of high principle and accomplished in music and art, Mrs. Hansen made for her children a home in which the highest principles ruled and where it was always a pleasure for friends to gather. Her work in landscape painting has been seen at several of the Saint John exhibitions and was awarded prizes on various occasions.

Mrs. Hansen is survived by four sons: Guy C. and Selma, at home; E. Raymond, of the Traders' Finance Corporation, Ltd., and for years on the Times-Star reporting staff, and prominent in baseball; and Edward S. C., manager of the William Thomson and Son, Ltd., insurance business. There also are four daughters: Misses Marie, Dorothy and Gwynne, at home, and Mrs. Frank Killen, Lansdowne avenue. Two of her nieces, Mrs. W. E. Daley (May Nannary) and Genevieve Blinn, it will be remembered, won much fame on the U. S. stage.

Mrs. Hansen was a devout member of St. Peter's church, and the funeral mass will be there on Monday morning at 9 o'clock, funeral to leave the house at 8.45.

Mrs. Robt. S. Crisp. Mrs. Matilda Elisabeth Crisp, wife of Rev. Robert S. Crisp, died at her home, 1 Brunswick Place, on Jan. 8, 1926, after a short illness and throughout the province there will be very many friends who will learn of her passing with keen regret and will extend deepest sympathy to the bereaved. Mrs. Crisp was a daughter of Rev. William Wilson, of Halifax, and on Oct. 19, 1875, she married Rev. Robert Crisp, the young Methodist minister who has since held many of the important pastorates throughout the Maritime Provinces, and a few years ago retired from the active list of clergy.

Wherever her husband was stationed Mrs. Crisp quickly endeared herself, not only to the members of the congregation of her own church, but to all with whom she came in contact. She was an able helpmeet for Mr. Crisp and took an active part in church work. Since Mr. Crisp's retirement they have made their home in Saint John and have attended the Portland United church, the church of which Mr. Crisp was pastor 40 years ago. Mrs. Crisp has been a faithful and devoted member for a number of years. Her health gave much concern to her friends early this spring but she had apparently made a full recovery and her death after a very short illness came as a great shock to her friends. Besides her husband Mrs. Crisp is survived by one daughter, Mrs. A. W. Esley, president of the Women's Council, in Saint John, an done granddaughter, Margaret Williams, now making her home with her grandfather and aunt in this city. One brother, E. A. Wilson, of Halifax, also survives. Mrs. Crisp was predeceased by her daughter, Mrs. F. T. Williams, of Moncton exactly one year ago. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 from her late residence. Rev. H. A. Goodwin will officiate and interment will be made in Fernhill cemetery.

Mrs. John Line. SACKVILLE, Jan. 8.—Prof. John Line, of Mount Allison University faculty, has just received word of the death of his mother, Mrs. John Line, who died at her home, High Wycombe, England, Jan. 5, 1926, aged 71. Besides her husband, she leaves four sons and two daughters. The sons are Prof. John Line, Mount Allison University faculty; Bert, builder and contractor, London, Eng.; Walter, headmaster of Frome Wesleyan schools, Somerset, Eng., and William, now on the staff of Wesley College, Winnipeg. The daughters are Mrs. Bailey, High Wycombe, Eng., and Mrs. Robertson, London, Eng.

After a lengthy illness Frederick Charles Beekingham, junior, died at his home, 534 Main street, yesterday afternoon. He was 24 years of age and the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Beekingham. Although under age he enlisted in the 6th Battalion and went overseas with that unit. He had been in falling health for two or three years. He is survived by his wife and two small children, a son and a daughter, by his parents and two brothers and one sister. The brothers are Earl and Byron Beekingham of Saint John and the sister is Mrs. Harold Melvin of this city. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon from his late residence.

Thanks To That Wonderful Remedy MILBURN'S HEART NERVE PILLS

Mrs. F. H. Miller, 1843-11th Ave. East, Vancouver, B.C., writes: "Five years ago my husband suffered terribly with severe attacks of palpitation of the heart and smothering spells, and two doctors stated that he could not possibly live six months."

A friend recommended Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, with the result that my husband is still enjoying life at the age of 84 years. He has improved so wonderfully that he can now climb the stairs without having those awful pains in his heart.

In Parliament Monday

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 9.—Debate on an amendment moved by Right Hon. Arthur Meighen expressing non-confidence in the government will be resumed. The Senate will not sit.

Kindereley, had the same objection to make to the two motions before the House. He submitted that it was impossible for a member who had not yet had a chance to study the Speech from the Throne to vote intelligently on an amendment which challenged it. He, therefore, proposed that the debate be adjourned to give the members opportunity to study the whole matter.

HOUSE ADJOURNS. Mr. Lapointe was willing to accept the motion to adjourn if it was understood that the present debate would have precedence on Monday, which ordinarily is a private member's day.

Mr. Meighen and Mr. Forke signified their willingness to this proposal. The Speaker then put the motion to the House, and Henri Bourassa, independent, of LaBelle, rose and said that since the other party leaders had spoken, he would say on behalf of the party that he represented in his own humble person that he, too, was willing to let the debate go on.

The motion then carried and the House adjourned until Monday.

MEIGHEN'S AMENDMENT. The full text of Rt. Hon. Mr. Meighen's amendment to the address announced last afternoon, follows: "That all the words in the word 'that' be struck out and the following substituted there: "In the late general election the candidates of His Excellency's advisers, at whose instance the appeal to the country was made, were defeated in a large majority of the constituencies. "That nine ministers of the Government, including the Premier, were rejected at the polls and have no seats in Parliament."

"The party represented in the last Parliament by His Majesty's Opposition secured in the said election by far the largest support in the popular vote and the highest percentage of number of members of any party in the present House of Commons. "That those who now assume to be His Excellency's advisers, have among their number no Prime Minister with a seat in either House of Parliament, and under such circumstances are not competent to act as, or to be, the advisers of Parliament commonly known as the government or to address Parliament through His Excellency, and their attempted continuance in office is a violation of the principles and usage of British constitutional government."

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 9.—"Broadcasting by heat by radio is only a matter of years," declared S. E. Dibble, president of the American Society of Heating and Ventilating Engineers, at the Carnegie Institute of Technology. "It is no more improbable to broadcast heat waves than it was to broadcast sound waves," Professor Dibble added. "The problem is to discover instruments to control them, especially a detector which will pick them up and hold and amplify them. The day is not far off when we will see huge heat-treated heating plants broadcasting heat to be utilized at far distant points in homes, plants and office buildings."

Introduced Rabbits Into Australia. LONDON, Jan. 9.—John R. Collison, who is said to have been the first person to introduce rabbits into Australia, has died at his home at Langley, near Maidstone. Mr. Collison, who was eighty-five years of age, was a great traveller in his early days, and owned a large ranch in Australia. The credit of introducing rabbits into Australia is a doubtful honor, and if Mr. Collison was really the pioneer, the Commonwealth is not likely to erect statues to his memory.

A Cure For the Husband Who is Fed Up on Domestic Life— Burnt Once, Shall She Try the Matrimonial Fire Again?— Will the Lonesome Widower of 60 Be Happily Wedded to Miss 23?

DEAR MISS DIX—When my husband and I were 16 we eloped and got married. For fourteen years we have been happy, and by very hard work have saved a pretty good sum of money.

But now my husband says that he wants a change, that he is tired of domesticity, and he asks me to give him a year of freedom to come and go as he pleases. He says that he will be ready at the end of the year to resume the responsibilities of a husband. Do you think if I allow him to go to another State for a year that he will return to me? When I refused to accede to this plan, he became stubborn and almost brutal.

He is very young looking and handsome, while sickness and caring for our two children have aged me terribly.

WORRIED WIFE.

ANSWER:

Your plight is indeed a desperate one, poor Worried Wife, but it seems to me that you will run less risk of losing your husband if you let him go than you do if you keep him with you against his will.

DOROTHY DIX.

Of course, he may not come back to you after his year of freedom is over. You must take that danger into consideration, but, on the other hand, there is the certainty that you will lose his love forever if you force him to become the slave of duty, and stay chained to his own fireside, when every fiber in his being cries out for change and for personal liberty.

Try to consider the situation from his standpoint. Yours was the tragedy of the too-early marriage, which falls even harder on the man than it does on the woman. Your husband married when he was a child. He never had any carefree joyous boyhood. He never had his fling. He has been burdened down with wife and children, and the anxiety of supporting them.

And now at 30 he is bored to death with domesticity. He feels his family a burden upon him, and he is crazy for all the young things that he missed. You can't argue with that frame of mind. It becomes an obsession. The more it is suppressed, the stronger it grows, and the only cure for it is to go and have a bite of the forbidden fruit, and find out by experience that it is flat and flavorless.

While your husband has this urge for pleasure, this call of youth hammering in his veins, you cannot hold him. You may possibly keep him near you, but you cannot keep him away from other women, or from the bright lights, and in your jealousy you will nag him and quarrel with him until you will be, in reality, separated from him farther than if thousands of miles parted you bodily. And from these spiritual wanderings a man seldom comes back to his wife.

But if your husband goes away from you for a year's absence, there is every chance that he will return completely cured of his wanderlust. Absence will give him a chance to get a perspective on your virtues, and to realize that his old love for you is only sleeping, not dead.

He will soon get tired of hotels and boarding houses, and the thoughts of his children will pull at his heartstrings. He will soon have enough of fasting, of mercenary kisses, of the company that has to be bought, and his heart will turn with longing to the love he knows so faithful and true.

Many men think that they are tired of their wives, and have ceased to love them merely because they are bored with domesticity. All they need is a little separation, and a little freedom to kick up their heels, to make them glad enough to come back into the matrimonial fold, and put their heads in the halter again and eat out of their wives' hands.

DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am a divorced woman, 34 years old, but my husband has been dead four years. I have two children to support, and have taken good care of them, and am still making a good living. I have a bachelor friend who is a fine man but lazy. He is the only man I have ever met that I can depend on, so far as honesty is concerned, but he criticizes my children, and is not thrifty. He is always trying me out to see how much temper I have, and he would exhaust the patience of Job. Just what would you do with him? Marry him or not? WORRIED.

ANSWER:

Evidently you don't believe in the old saying about burnt children dreading the fire. You have had one experience with a bad husband that you had to divorce, and that should have taught you to be wary of trying yourself up with another man who is difficult to get along with.

From your description I see none of the earmarks of an agreeable life companion in your bachelor. Even his honesty, if by that you mean candor of speech, does not commend him, for the chief virtue in a husband is to be a jolliter, and not a frank critic.

If this man thinks your children bad before marriage, when he is their stepfather and attempts to discipline them, you will have reactions that will make your fights with your first husband seem like echoes from a peace conference.

Nor can I think of any other one quality that gets on an energetic, competent business woman's nerves as much as laziness in a man does. It fills her with contempt to see a man too inert to make a move, too slothful to have any ambition. She could easily forgive an energetic porch-climber.

It seems to me that you will do well to think long and carefully before you give up a good job to marry a lazy man who tries your patience even as a lover. There are not many lady jobs.

DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a widower 60 years old, in love with a girl of 23. Am in good health, have a good name and prosperous business, and wish to marry her. She loves me apparently as much as I do her, and is willing to have the knot tied when I say so. Am I doing the wrong thing in marrying her with this difference in our ages? LONESOME WIDOWER.

ANSWER:

I think that you will make a very great mistake in marrying a girl who is young enough to be your granddaughter, and that you will bitterly regret it if you do so.

You are attracted by her youth and beauty, and she gives you the illusion of having renewed your own boyhood, but, believe me, this charm will soon pass, and then you will realize that you have nothing in common, and that you have different thoughts and tastes and ideals on every subject under the sun.

At your age what you need is a fireside companion. But you will be bored to death by the chatter of a girl of 23 to whom jazz and cabarets and the gossip of the other girls and boys of her age are the chief topics of interest in the world. Of the experiences that have made your life rich and full, of the great events that have taken place in your three score years, she will know nothing, and care less. You will have no memories in common, and at your age our memories are one's most priceless possessions.

And a girl of 23 would naturally want to be continually running around amusing herself, while you just as naturally will want to stay at home and rest. You cannot be her partner in any of the amusements that will appeal to her, and if there is any more forlorn creature, than the old husband who sits on the sidelines and watches his young wife playing about with boys of her own age I have yet to see it.

Marry by all means, Lonesome Widower, but pick out a woman in your own age class—somewhere between 40 and 45.

LEADERS' STUDY
CIRCLE TO START

Executive Meeting - What a Scout Must Be Able to do

The season's first meeting of the Akela Study Circle for Wolf Cub Leaders will take place on next Wednesday evening in the Health Centre when cubbing problems will be taken up and general discussion of interest to all Cub leaders will form part of the program, which will be carried out under the direction of the assistant district Cub commissioner.

EXECUTIVE TO MEET

On Wednesday at 5 p.m. the executive of the Saint John District Council will hold a business meeting in the district headquarters to complete plan for a visit by Charles Crawford Gorski, the celebrated "bird man" who will come to Saint John on Feb. 8. Dr. L. Dev. Chipman, president of the local Scout Council, will preside at Wednesday's meeting.

TESTS FOR SCOUTS

It will prove interesting to know just what are some of the tests a boy must complete to become a Boy Scout. The Tenderfoot Test is as follows: To qualify as a Tenderfoot Scout a boy must be at least 12 years of age and—
(1) Know the Scout law.
(2) Know the Scout signs and salute.
(3) Know the composition of the Union Jack, and the correct way to fly it.
(4) Know the uses of the Scout staff.
(5) Be able to tie and explain the special uses of the following knots: Reef, sheetbend, clove hitch, bowline, fisherman's and sheepshank; know how to whip the ends of a rope, and
(6) Repeat the Scout promise in the presence of his Scout officers and fellow Scouts.

When the candidate for the rank of Tenderfoot Scout has passed all these tests to the satisfaction of his scoutmaster he makes the following promise in the presence of those who are to be his Scout officers and fellow Scouts: On my honor I promise that I will do my best, to do my duty to God and to the King, to help other people at all times, and to obey the Scout law. He is then a Tenderfoot Scout and is permitted to wear the Scout badge and the Scout uniform. The following reports on the work of the troops and packs have been sent in:

NO. 2-ST. PAUL'S PACK

On New Year's Eve 19 of our pack enjoyed a hobgoblin party at the golf links followed by an appetizing supper in the Sunday school. Ice cream was served and each boy received a bag of candy and an orange. No regular meeting was held and we closed with our pack yell and three hearty cheers for our rector and our lady cubmaster, Miss Ida Lyon, to whom we owe this splendid treat.

NO. 5-ST. JUDE'S PACK

Our meeting of Wednesday evening opened at 8:45 and, owing to the very wet weather, only 11 boys were present. Four games were played with great spirit, and the other features of the evening included silent signal practice, marching and other parade orders. After an excellent talk on Sportsmanship by Akela the meeting came to a close with the mousie's whisper and the pack yell. A report of each Cub's progress from September to December was sent home to each of the parents.

NO. 7-STONE CHURCH PACK

At our meeting of Tuesday evening 16 boys were present and a very good program was carried out. Following our request for assistants three boys have volunteered and have been accepted—namely, Charles Williams and George Robertson. Each will carry on as instructors in special subjects under the supervision of Cubmaster Rev. G. B. Moore. At a future meeting 12 boys are to be invested as Tenderpads Cubs. First stars are also to be presented to several successful Cubs. We hope soon to make a visit to the Cubs of No. 2 St. Paul's Pack which we understand is making very good progress. Our meeting of Tuesday evening showed vast improvement, and we are looking forward to the time when our pack will be a real trunk in every sense of the word.

NO. 17-TRINITY TROOP

On Monday evening our troop resumed its regular meetings after the holiday season, with an active meeting and the promise of a very busy and successful season. One of the features of interest was the formation of a new patrol, with Scout Walter Dunbrack as patrol leader. At the close of the meeting a court of honor was held, in which the following boys were promoted to the rank of Tenderpads: Walter Dunbrack, Walter Beckingham, passed their Tenderpad tests. We are very glad to mention that many Cubs are working hard and well on their way to winning their stars.

NO. 17-TRINITY TROOP

The pack held its regular meeting on Wednesday night. We had a good attendance and a fine meeting was held. Two boys, Murray Carson and Walter Beckingham, passed their Tenderpad tests. We are very glad to mention that many Cubs are working hard and well on their way to winning their stars.

NO. 19-ST. JAMES' PACK

Our first meeting for the year was held last Tuesday evening, with 22 Cubs present. We were very glad to see more boys in uniform. Games were played and First and Second Star work was proceeded in the district. Baldwin passed his Tenderpad. Visitors for the evening were Captain Campbell and the scoutmaster of St. James'.

NO. 13-YOUNG JUDAean TROOP

On Monday evening our meeting opened at 7 o'clock in charge of A. S. M. Wm. Edwards. Games were played and greatly enjoyed. The patrol corners, with P. L.'s in charge, have come to our troop to stay, and we find them very useful. The A. S. M. gave a very interesting explanation of the Morse code, which our troop is now taking up. The meeting adjourned at 8:15 p.m. After the meeting the Scouts went to P. L. Frank Dashwood's home, where they were entertained with a very interesting picture entitled "Money to Burn." On New Year's Day three of our Scouts went on a hike to Taylor's Island, where they had lunch and a good accounting, returning home in time for a hearty supper, to which they did full justice.

NO. 13-YOUNG JUDAean TROOP

An interesting meeting took place in our hall on Wednesday evening, when 27 boys were present. Two new members were welcomed. The regular troop business was conducted, including some lively games. The latter part of the evening was spent in a rehearsal for our troop play, which we plan to present soon. We assure you it is going to be a treat.

NO. 9-THE KIRK PACK

To all the packs we extend our greetings and sincere good wishes for the New Year. Let us all do our best to make our pack more efficient; more good turns each day in our homes and our community. After six months of active work we have a pack numbering 24. The senior sixes of nucleus pack have all passed their Tenderpad and First Star tests. One of the sixers has qualified for his Second Star. Of the latter recruits two have their First Stars and all have completed Tenderpad tests. We held our regular meeting Thursday evening. There were 22 Cubs present. The periods were spent with songs, games and in council. We took the New Year as an opportunity to renew our promise and form new plans. Many helpful suggestions were received, and an interesting inter-six contest inaugurated. We were pleased to welcome a number of Trail Rangers from the Carleton United Church group. Six months' association would, I am sure, convince the most sceptic that a real Wolf Cub is the most fascinating "animal" in existence.

NO. 8-MISSION TROOP

Our first meeting in the new year got off to a good start on Thursday evening. It was an ideal meeting; not

NEW BRUNSWICK EGGS WIN BRONZE MEDAL AT LONDON DAIRY SHOW

N. B. Poultry Exchange, Here, Receives Award for Exhibit—Advance Made in the Province is Told of

THE New Brunswick Poultry Exchange, 600 Main street, Saint John, has just received a handsome bronze medal, won recently at the dairy show in London, England, for an exhibit of eggs.

Great case was taken to make the exhibit as representative of the province as possible. The best eggs from a number of egg circles shipping to the exchange were chosen and the exhibit consisted of one 30-dozen case of brown shelled eggs.

Brown shelled eggs were chosen because Banded Plymouth Rocks, which lay a light brown egg, are the most common and most popular breed in New Brunswick.

BRINGS CREDIT TO N. B.

The selection of the eggs was done mainly by M. Peters, foreman of the New Brunswick Poultry Exchange. Mr. Peters has been many years in the egg business and has graded eggs in Prince Edward Island, in Montreal and in New York.

When the sending of an exhibit of eggs to the London Dairy Show from New Brunswick was first considered, it was thought that the expenses would be too great to warrant it. Happily, however, two friends of the exchange volunteered to assume the greater part of the expense and so the eggs were sent. When judged they took second prize, a bronze medal was awarded to them and the high quality of New Brunswick eggs was established.

BOOSTS PROVINCE

The following table gives the quantity and quality of eggs handled by counties (corrected to Dec. 1 last), also the amount of poultry shipped through the exchange:

County	No. Circles	No. Members	Total		Poultry
			Quantity	Percent
Carleton	2	27	3782-08	64.5	838
York	3	32	3180-11	68.9	2054
Albert	1	14	1122-2	63.5	412
Kings	2	26	2503-4	61.8	400
Kent	11	185	28488-8	62.88	12889
Sunbury	1	9	983-6	55.8	90
Westmorland	6	166	14454-7	55.7	36978
Victoria	3	27	2757-2	55.4	408
Gloucester	5	124	1117-8	48.4	418
Charlotte	1	9	1270-10	46.1	9012 (live)
	88	621	74815-2	55.6	86109

Kent county has the largest number of egg circles and shipped the most eggs, with Westmorland second on eggs and first on poultry. Carleton county is first in quality of eggs, with York and Albert very close. The quality of eggs from Gloucester and Charlotte (Deer Island) did not show so well, owing, partly, to the difficulty of shipping.

In all, 85 egg circles were organized and 35 became affiliated with the exchange.

SHEDIAC PEOPLE ASKING FOR HYDRO

Petition Asserts Town Light Plant Likely to be Idle For Months

SHEDIAC, Jan. 8.—A petition is being extensively signed throughout the town calling upon the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission to extend the hydro line from Moncton to Shediac, a distance of about 17 miles. The circulation of the petition is the outcome of the suspension of service last week by the Shediac Light and Power Company because of low water in the Upper Soudouac River and of previous irregularities and curtailment of service mainly due to the same reason.

THINK AGREEMENT NEEDED

The petition states that many residents occupying farms between Moncton and Shediac would probably avail themselves of an opportunity to purchase energy. The petition adds that the town is likely to be without electric power for several months.

SPUD PRICE DROPS A BIT IN AROOSTOOK

FORT FAIRFIELD, Me., Jan. 8.—The Aroostook potato market continues very dull with little trading and the price dropping slightly, $3.75 a barrel being the highest price paid today cash for Green Mountains No. 1's at landing points. Late estimates give about 14,000 carloads now in storage, of which about half is seed stock. Weather in Northern Maine was about five below zero this morning.

during the year. More than 600 members joined and became shareholders. It being a co-operative company, whatever profits there may be on the year's business are divided amongst the members on a patronage basis. Last year the expenses were high as the business was only newly started, but a small rebate is being returned to the members after the annual meeting takes place.

The New Brunswick Poultry Exchange was organized last January at the Farmers' and Dairymen's Convention at Sussex. The first annual meeting of the exchange will be held this year at the time of the Farmers' and Dairymen's Convention at Fredericton on Jan. 22.

Party To Seek Cut In N.T.R. Wheat Rate

OTTAWA, Jan. 8.—It was announced by members of the Progressive party today that a determined effort will be made in the present session to induce the Federal Government to reduce radically the present rate on wheat over the National Transcontinental from Winnipeg to Armstrong or to Quebec.

Action will be taken, it is understood, by way of a resolution. The last of moving the resolution will fall upon either Milton Campbell, M. P. for Quispelle, or John Millar, for Quispelle, or John Millar, for Quispelle, or John Millar, for Quispelle.

J. L. Brown, M. P. for Lisias, this morning pointed out that there is a 4,000,000 bushel elevator at Quebec which has only been full once. Also the government voted $500,000 last session for the improvement of the port of Quebec. The general impression is that the resolution should provide that the government bring down legislation fixing a maximum rate on wheat over the Transcontinental.

ROSS IS ELECTED LEADER IN SENATE

OTTAWA, Jan. 8.—Hon. W. B. Ross, senator for Cape Breton, was today elected leader of the Conservative party in the Senate.

Senator Ross succeeds the late Sir James Longheed, who died several weeks ago. The new Conservative leader in the upper chamber is a member of the Nova Scotia bar, and has successfully practised his profession at Halifax. Senator Ross was summoned to the Senate on Nov. 30, 1912. He was a member of the parliamentary delegation which under the auspices of the Empire Parliamentary Association visited Great Britain and the war area in 1916.

Explosion of Stove Starts $80,000 Fire

CARIBOU, Me., Jan. 8.—A fire loss of $80,000 resulted from an explosion of a gasoline stove in the restaurant of Thomas Hartley on the first floor of John P. Donworth's four-story wooden building in the business section this afternoon. The fire went through the building quickly and firemen had some trouble in preventing a spread. The building is almost total loss. The restaurant, Baptiste Beaulieu's barber shop, E. W. Riley's grocery store, J. B. Donworth's law office, Churchill Greenlaw's apartments and Mrs. Edith Allen's dressmaking shop had heavy losses, partially insured.

Hard Times Teaches Me. Farmers Thrift

HOULTON, Me., Jan. 8.—Aroostook county potato farmers are talking in terms of millions today for the first time in five years. They have staged a financial comeback and if the central market holds, the value of last year's crop from the "world's potato center" will be well in excess of forty million dollars. The Aroostook farmer will not get rich, but he will pay a good part of his fertilizer and local bank indebtedness.

FAMILY SHARED DRINKS

LONDON, Jan. 8.—A small boy recently admitted to a local hospital was weak and near death from hunger. He was one of a family of 12 and his father's wages amounted to about $20 a week. When the nurse gave the boy a cup of warm milk he asked appealingly, "How far down can I drink?"

SEABOARD INQUIRY UP TO NOVA SCOTIA

Province and Not Dominion Should Prepare Case, Says McCurdy

HALIFAX, Jan. 8.—Hon. F. B. McCurdy, a former Minister of Public Works in the Canadian government, who was chairman of a commission appointed last summer by the Nova Scotia government to conduct an inquiry respecting the interests of Nova Scotia in the Dominion of Canada, in accordance with an act of the provincial parliament at the last session, discussing tonight the announcement in the Speech from the Throne at the opening of the federal parliament today, said he was still of the opinion previously expressed that the provincial government was the proper authority to prepare the case and urge the just claims of Nova Scotia on the Dominion parliament.

He said that in September, 1924, he had issued a public statement advocating such course and urging the view that it was "too much to expect the defendant (the Dominion Parliament) to admit, much less to state the case of the plaintiff (the Province of Nova Scotia)." Mr. McCurdy said he was still of that opinion, but would, of course, welcome "any genuine effort to ascertain and redress our just grievances."

Dyspepsia Caused Her Agony After Every Meal

Mrs. M. Caldwell, 2335 Hamlock St., Vancouver, B.C., writes:—"After suffering for years with agony, from dyspepsia and indigestion, after every meal, I started taking and got such relief I kept right on until I had used three bottles and was completely relieved of my trouble. Now, I can eat anything I wish without having any bad after effects."

Home-made Supply of Fine Cough Syrup
Better than ready-made cough syrups, and saves about $2. Easily prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 3 1/2 ounces of Finex, pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is 16 ounces of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made and saves easily $2. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Finex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and breaks the sore irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Finex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Finex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Finex Co., Toronto, Ont.

NEVERS SIGNED

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 9.—The contest for possession of one of the most famous amateur athletes of the day, was won by the St. Louis American League team, when they signed Ernie Nevers, Pacific Coast football star. The Cincinnati and New York National League teams also were after Nevers, who was an able performer in the box and at bat in college days, in addition to gridiron achievements. While Nevers is hardly ready for major league pitching, the Browns have added three moundsmen of promise to last season's corps of hurlers who landed the club in third place in the Johnson circuit. Charlie Robertson, of the Chicago White Sox, who once pitched a no-hit game, but hasn't done much since, Claude Jonnard, of the Toledo American Association Club, and Left Brien, of the Tulsa Western League all are the Browns list of boxmen up to ten.

How To Get The Best Results From Your Want Ad.

The small cost of a "Want Ad." is a secondary consideration. The object is results.

Therefore, never cheep-pare here and there to save an odd cent or two. By doing so the value of the entire ad. may be destroyed.

When writing your "Want Ad." put yourself in the place of the reader, and answer the questions you yourself would naturally ask.

If you have a flat to rent, the home seeker wants to know more than a plain statement of the fact. He wants to know how many rooms there are; if there is hot water; bath; electric lights; garage, etc., and the amount of the rent.

Your flat may be a $60 a month home, but if you don't say so in your ad, the $60 a month tenant may not reply, thinking perhaps it is a $15 a month flat.

To get the right tenant quickly, give full information.

To rent a room quickly to the right kind of a roomer, give all particulars. Show that you are anxious to make the roomer comfortable for a reasonable rental.

If you wish to sell anything, do not omit the good selling points. It is far more economical to spend an extra few cents and make the sale, rather than to save a few cents in the cost of the ad. and make no sale.

To Make Doubly Sure of Results

To make doubly sure of the right party seeing your "Want Ad." it is a good plan to use both "The Telegraph-Journal" and the "Times-Star."

A special rate covers both morning and evening papers. The rate for your "Want Ad." in the "Times-Star" is two cents per word per day, but you can have your advertisement appear in both papers for the combined rate of three cents per word per day.

H. RADCLIFFE SCORED DECIDING GOAL FOR SUSSEX IN OVERTIME

SPEEDY YOUNG TEAM FROM THE DAIRY CENTRE DOWNS LOCALS IN THRILLING CLASH BY 6-5 SCORE

Game Comeback in Third Period by Saint John Sextette Fails to Overcome Early Advantage Obtained by the Visitors—1,200 Present.

THE "Old Grey Mare" from Sussex lifted both hind feet off the ice last evening, and when the drive was over, Saint John was sitting in a dazed position wondering how it all happened.

Man—what a game it was in those closing moments! Scintillating individual rushes, wonderful combination; poke-checking by Val Boudreau; a dogged, relentless Saint John team fighting with its back to the wall and earning the untold respect and admiration of a colorful crowd; a young and speedy Sussex team determined to maintain a win that by every right was theirs, and over it all, a master leader, cool, crafty, cunning—Harold Radcliffe.

RADCLIFFE STARS

Three times he found a weak spot in the local defence during the game, beating McPhee with rifle-like shots and then, when the crisis came in the second five-minute period of the overtime with Boudreau in the penalty box, he saw his chance, and beating Lane and Thompson and just as Hallisey was closing in, he let drive about ten yards out. It found a corner of the net, and although the locals put five men into the attack it was vain, and the bell sounded with Lane starting a final rush. Sussex deserved the victory, but if anything, the locals increased their hold on the affections of the hockey public here by their splendid rally when everything seemed lost.

GREAT TEAMWORK

In their games this year, Sussex has shown a tendency to crack in the first period, and when Percy and Harold Radcliffe scored in the opening period, the lead was not considered a great one. But when Harold and Percy scored three between them in the second period while the best Saint John could do was two by Boudreau and Hallisey, the game took on an entirely different aspect.

Saint John started out listless and Sussex skated them off their feet, Johnny Frier causing them all kinds of trouble. The visitors with Harold Radcliffe as the keystone developed an attack that had the locals continually on the jump, and only some splendid saves by McPhee kept the game from being a rout. The locals seemed unable to get going, and when they did their shots were puny efforts that caused "Bev" Roach very little concern. Lane and Brooks on the wings worked tirelessly for the visitors, while Melbourne Radcliffe and Earl Friers showed up well as reserves. But what saved Sussex was the impregnable defence put up by Percy Radcliffe and Johnny Frier. Time and again this pair broke up dangerous combination by the local forward line as they swept down the ice, and time and again they relieved the tension with rushes down the ice. Frier gives great promise, being a splendid stickhandler. The victory is going to put new heart in Sussex, and Moncton can expect plenty of trouble on Monday night when they entertain the Dairy Town boys.

Every one of the local boys played a great game in the closing stanzas. Whatever spell was cast on them in the opening periods was broken with a vengeance and they showed their stuff when it was needed. McPhee made many wonderful stops while Fraser, Hallisey and Gilbert on the defence worked hard. Temple Lane scored two of Saint John's goals, his playing in the final period bordering on the sensational. But young Val Boudreau was the real hero with his poke-checking. The youngster played a whole of a game all through the piece. Kiley showed up fast in the first period, while Thompson, a newcomer, worked hard. Monteth was only on a few minutes at a time and had got going. The defeat is quite a blow to the team's title aspirations, but the schedule is not over yet, and the locals are going to have something to say about who gets the honors before the final whistle.

THIRD PERIOD

The third session was all Saint John. Sussex dropped back to play a six man defense game. With Saint John trying desperately to even the game play became rough and M. Radcliff got two minutes for dumping Kiley. Lane made a nice run and slipped the rubber to Thompson who found the corner of the net with a shot from the side. Thompson made the same shot a moment later but Roach made a wonderful save. H. Radcliff got two minutes for tripping and was followed to the cage shortly after by Frier for the same offence. With Sussex two men short the locals swept in on the goal and Lane found the net with a shot from centre. Just after Radcliffe got back

May Have Special Meeting of M. P. B. Here During Meet

Along The Sport Trail

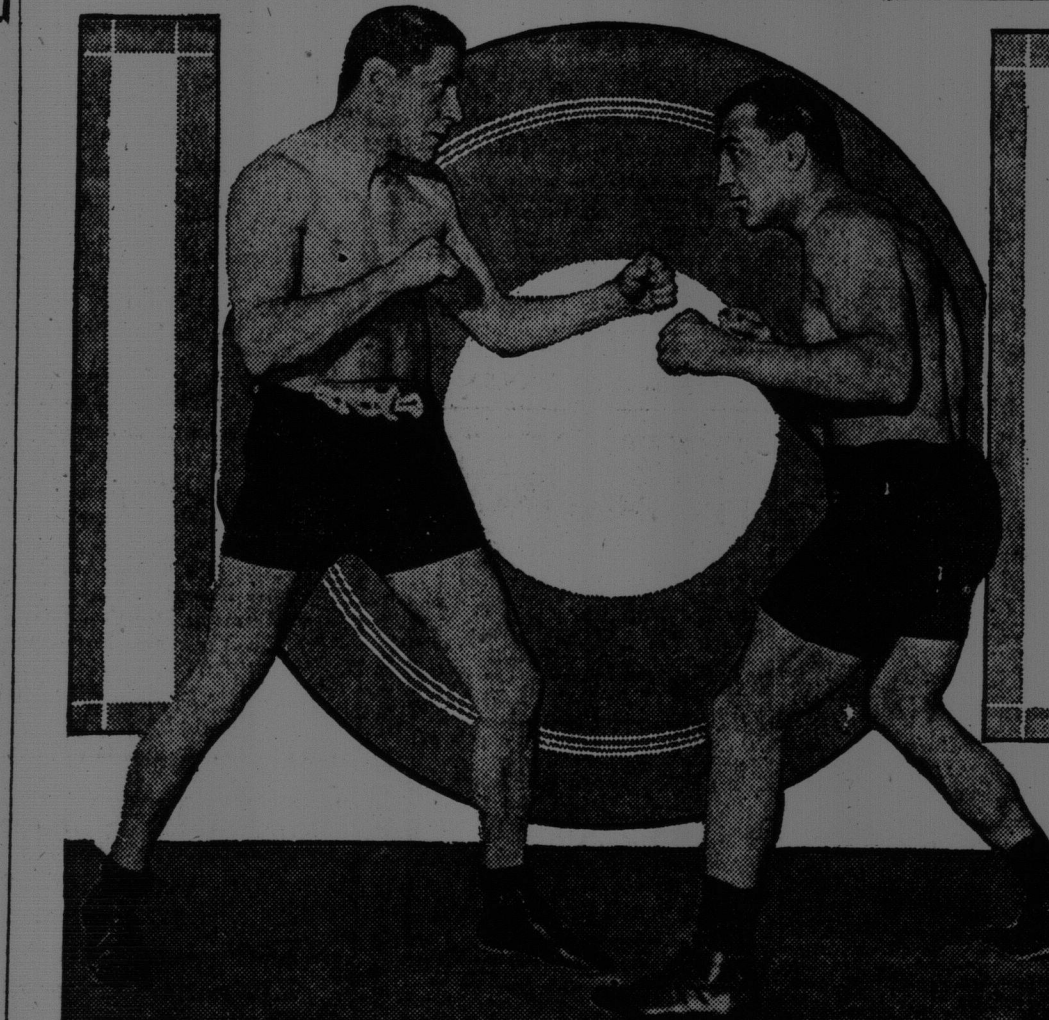

By JOHN J. DUNLOP

A TOE—and the big one at that—is causing all kinds of trouble in the welterweight ranks these days. It used to be Champion Jack Dempsey's nose and now it is Mickey Walker's big toe. Mr. Dempsey declined to fight on account of his built-up proboscis whereas Mr. Walker wants to fight but the Commission won't let him because of his big toe. The next thing will be an edict that any boxer with a cauliflower ear can't appear in Madison Square Garden and when that happy day arrives, Tex Rickard will wear a monocle and Fred Fulton will knock out Mr. Dempsey. This toe racket has developed the unusual spectacle of a champion and a challenger ready to battle for the welterweight championship of the world and the Boxing Commission holding up an august hand and saying "No." The Commission says it is because Mr. Walker's toe is not in shape but those in the know say the Commission is peeved over Mr. Walker's failure to take part in the Christmas Fud bouts and it is hinted that they do not intend to allow Mr. Walker and Mr. Kearns, his manager, to pick up any "easy money." On the latter score, the Commissioners may be on solid ground but on the first, they are way off their track. Mr. Milligan is no set-up although it is his humble idea that he is being rushed. A few more fights under his belt with some leading candidates would not have hurt him but despite his lack of experience, Mr. Walker will have plenty of fun. Just at present, however, interest centres on whether the fight will take place rather than its probable outcome. In forcing Mr. Walker to toe the mark, the Commission is setting up an unusual precedent.

JACKSON GRATTIAN, for whom the Houston Driving Club paid $12,000, may be sold. There is about $1,500 bills against him and the only way to raise the money is to sell him.

THE NEWBURGH PAPERS certainly splashed Charlie Gorman all over the sport page as a result of his wonderful work at the Newburgh meet on New Year's Day. Here is what one of them said: "No one, perhaps, was more elated over the result of the Middle Atlantic speed skating championship here yesterday than was the winner of the title, Charlie Gorman of Saint John. But while his victory was very gratifying to him what impressed him apparently more deeply was the reception he received from the spectators. 'Why all the popularity?' is the way Charlie expressed it as a smile spread over his face. There was no denying the fact that the crowd was with the Saint John speed king from the moment he set out on the ice. Perhaps his experiences of the past had something to do with the favor which Charlie held with the crowd here yesterday. On the occasion of his first appearance here a bad spill sent Charlie to the hospital. The following year his presence in the Olympics kept him out of the races. Last year had breaks held him. But yesterday nothing was in his path. He was speed personified and the remark was often made that he had the speed yesterday to beat the world. 'You can tell the Newburgh people,' said Charlie, 'that they are the finest sports I ever met.' A friend, who was here with Charlie from Saint John added to the comment Gorman was making about Newburgh and the people here by remarking that it was the finest reception he had ever seen a Canadian get in this country. Gorman, by the way, is regarded as one of the finest baseball players in the Maritime Provinces and can run 100 yards in 10 and a fraction seconds.' It must make Charlie mad to read all this stuff about him.

Actor Works Out With Boxer

Robert Warwick, well-known actor, is often referred to as the "best amateur boxer on the stage." He likes to box and opines that it helps to keep a fellow in great condition. Warwick never alights a chance with Paul Berlenbach, light heavyweight champion.

M. A. H. A. WANTS TO CLEAR UP HALIFAX TANGLE

Other Business Also to Come Before Meeting Here

A SPECIAL meeting of the Maritime Provinces branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada may be convened here during the week of the world's championship skating meet, it was reported on good authority this morning. No decision has been made on the matter yet by the executive, according to W. E. Stirling, New Brunswick vice-president of the branch. It is known, however, that President Doyle favors a meeting, and that at this meeting an effort will be made to clear up the tangle between the union and the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association with respect to the residence clause. Four Halifax boys were suspended a few days ago for appearing on the Dartmouth team. The executive, however, has made its decision on this matter and must stand by it, and just what action will be taken at the special meeting here is not disclosed. The Halifax Herald, in its news column Thursday, carried the following: "Hardly had J. Gordon Quigley, secretary-treasurer of the Maritime Provinces Branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, made his important announcement, following a day night's hockey game between the Dalhousie Tigers and Dartmouth, ordering the suspension of Tommy and Harold Ranford, Eric Smith and Harry Edwards, residents of Halifax and members of the Dartmouth Hockey Club, for violating the M. P. B. A. U. of C.'s residence ruling, than a joint committee of the executives of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association was called. The meeting was held in Halifax yesterday afternoon and was attended, among others, by Frank Wilson and I. E. Bernhill, of Truro, president and secretary-treasurer of the M. A. H. A., and A. C. Wiswell and Basil Quigley, president and secretary respectively of the local hockey association. 'After a thorough discussion of the local hockey situation, which culminated on Tuesday night with the suspension of the four Dartmouth players, it was decided to request the M. P. B. A. U. of C. to call a special meeting of that body, when the members of the Union will be asked to approve the M. A. H. A.'s stand in the matter, which would give the Halifax men the right to play on the Dartmouth Club.'

MONTREAL CURLERS ARE COMING HERE

Three Rinks of Drummond Club, With Prominent Officials to Play Locals

Three rinks, representing the Granite Curling Association of Drummond County, Montreal, will arrive in the city next week and will compete against rinks chosen by the Thistles, St. Andrew's and Carleton Clubs, and some fine curling may be expected. The three Montreal rinks are being captained by T. Howard Stewart, and in addition to games with local curlers the important reason for the visitors in coming to Saint John, is to meet Joe Ryan Lang Waugh, a noted Scotch orator who will arrive on a C. P. S. liner next Saturday or Sunday. The communication from Montreal requests local clubs not to make any particular program of entertainment on their arrival, as those on the three rinks are "Regular Curling Fellows." The Montrealers ask for games on the morning, afternoon and evening of Friday, January 15, and on the morning of Saturday, January 16. These wishes will be attended to at a meeting of representatives of the three local clubs today. The letter further states, that after games in Saint John, and the visiting curlers meet the Scotch orator, the party will journey to New Glasgow to meet Judge Patterson, the veteran Canadian curling team to visit Scotland. While in New Glasgow, it is expected that a series of games will be played with the curlers in that town. Among those on the Montreal rinks are: J. Bruce Stewart, president of the Canadian Branch of the Royal Canadian Curling Club, and also winner of the Gordie International medal last year. In addition to the president, there is James Currie, treasurer of the Canadian Branch of the Royal Canadian Curling Club; William Brown, secretary, and W. J. Kemp, the vice-president.

BOXING CARD IS NOW IN MAKING

To be Held on Tuesday Night, Jan. 26, With All-Star Cast

Including among the attractions offered sport followers during the World's Skating Championship is the boxing show scheduled for Tuesday, January 26, the opening day of the big meet. Negotiations with a view to the staging a high-class show have been going on for some time and a definite announcement is expected within a few days. It is expected that boxing will be given an important place in the list of events beginning January 26. The various officials behind the world's meet as well as the City Boxing Commission, through its secretary, have given their approval, allowing Tuesday night, January 26 for boxing. Three all-star bouts are in the making. A ten, an eight and a six rounder with the local Armoies as the scene of action. From present indications there won't be a weak spot on the card bringing to a close one to the most expensive, if not the most expensive program ever staged here. Among the boxers prominently mentioned as principals for January 26 are:

George Fifield, Canadian champion; Chris Newton, Canadian champion in his class; Frankie Quill, Johnny Harko, featherweight contender; Joe Garvey, the boxing law student; Gene Mars of Boston; Joe Irvine, K. O. Tommy Bergin of Boston; Gordon Paris, Kid Monson, Bobby Kid Smith and Willie Price of Boston. A local matchmaker is at work selecting a card from the boxers mentioned above.

Life Size Music, Song

True tone and true magnitude of Music and Song are produced at last in a gramophone. Casting aside all further effort to improve older methods, the Victor inventors took an entirely new path. They have reached the goal they've sought for thirty years. The Music and Singing of the new Orthophonic Victrola is now amplified to full volume—exactly the same volume and fine tone as when heard direct. Never before were the highest and lowest tones of every note completely reproduced. You could tell it wasn't all there. Now it is in fuller purity, clearness and emphasis. Life size and true. The new Orthophonic Victrola is now on informal exhibition at the Phonograph Salon. An open welcome is held out to all.

Orders accepted on a waiting list only. Phonograph Salon 25 KING SQUARE
