BASEBALL NOTES AND JOTTINGS

LC.R. Pull off Two Games Running—Malcolm Makes First Appearance

Last Friday evening the LC.R. and Mechanics locked horns at the bawling yard. The teams were both under strength; Malcolm being on the mound for the LC.R. and Dave Slipp for the Mechanics. The machine boys batted first and with two out Malcolm overthrew to first bringing in two runs, four runs in all coming before the side was retired. At the end of the third the score read Mechanics 7, LC.R. 0. In the railway boys half of the fourth they scored three runs with darkness coming on, and in the fifth six runs came across the game being called with two out and the score 9 to 7 for the LC.R.

On Wednesday evening the Mechanics and Victorias provided the entertainment which was viewed by the usual assemblage. During the progress of the game a foul fly into the grand stand caused some consternation, but Tom wasn't hit.
The usual following around third base was there but Hedley wasn't present with his smile. Wall in spite of the knock on the eye by a ball at practise the other night was able to connect with one of Diamond's offerings in the first sending a hum-mer out to right field. Haymaking has not yet begun at the bawling yard, so Wall was able to complete the circuit ere the pill was recovered.
At the end of the second round the score stood Mechanics 1, Victorias 3, third, with the kind assistance of a bunch of errors got five men over,

while the Vics could only pinch one

GASPE REGATTA ON LAST THURSDAY

Ideal Weather Brings Large Crowd to The Town—List of The Winners

Amid ideal weather conditions, the tenth annual Regatta, was pulled off Thursday, and from every standpoint was a decided success. The water was very calm, making racing, both swimming and canoe, very practicable. There were hundreds of visitors from all over the Gaspé Peninsula, as well as many American tourists who have summer homes at different points along the line. The course was kept clear of the traffic during the races by a patrol and certainly added much to the comfort of those participating. An excursion train came down from New Carlisle and there were some 5 coaches litterally packed. On this train also came the New Carlisle band, who furnished music at different intervals throughout the day. It might be noted that considering the size of New Carlisle, they are certainly to be congratulated on turning out such a fine musical organization.
The town of Gaspé was in holiday attire, every building in the place being decorated with flags and bunting. The harbour also presented a striking appearance, practically every ship in port being dressed in holiday regalia. Particularly attractive was the Canadian Government Steamship, "Laurentian," being covered with bunting from stem to stern. The hotels and cafes experienced the busiest day in years.

The Committee in charge of the programme consisted of Dr. Macarney, Chairman; H. Orvis, Secretary;
E. P. Suddard, S. G. Leonard, Leo LeBoutillier, Bert LeBoutillier; Chas.
Lindse, S. Miller, Chas. Annet, and
A. D. Valpey. The judges were Messrs John F. Davis, Capt. May, of the Laurentian, Samuel Veit, and Mr. Sutton LaBoutillier.

There were two minor accidents
throughout the day, one being a boy in the swimming contest, who became exhausted and had to be picked up. The other was in the Ladies' Tandem Canoe Race. When Miss D. McCall was rounding the buoy, the canoe upset and both occupants thrown into the water.
They clung to the upturned canoe and were rescued by the gasoline patrol. A list of the races with the results are as follows:—

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. J. A. THEBERGE

With Apoplexy on Wed- nesday Morning

In a small community death at all times comes as a shock, but it was with feelings almost of fear that the news was received on Wednesday of the sudden death of Mr. J. A. Theberge; the LC.R. freight agent here.
Mr. Theberge had been in his usual health and on Wednesday morning prepared for work as usual.
After partaking of his breakfast he complained to his wife of feeling unwell and lay down for a little while.
The family becoming alarmed hurriedly called Drs. Murray and Martin, while Dr. Pinault hearing of the sickness of his friend also called, but Mr. Theberge was beyond medical skill and he passed away about ten o'clock. The cause of his death was apoplexy.

Not many men were held in higher esteem than was the late gentleman, and those who were privileged to have his friendship are feeling his loss very keenly. He was always quiet and reserved enjoying a degree of respect and esteem from all classes in this community rarely attained.

Joseph A. Theberge was born at Simon, County of Rimouski, in 1867 and was the son of the late Philip Theberge. He graduated from Rimouski College and entered the employ of the Intercolonial Railway as a telegraph operator. After holding various positions he was promoted to be Freight Agent here five years ago. He was a member of various societies, and was general secretary of the Telegraphers' Union, acting as delegate from that union on many occasions. His wife, one daughter and three sons mourn his loss and they have the deep sympathy of the whole community in their sudden bereavement.

The funeral will be held tomorrow,
Saturday, at 8 a.m., Rev. Fr. Wallace, officiating. Many beautiful floral tributes have been received and it is expected that the societies of which he was an honored member will attend officially at the funeral.

SUPERIOR COURT AT NEW CARLISLE

Judgement Rendered in Case of Main vs. Quebec Oriental Railway Co.

On the 22nd of August, 1912,
Arthur Maine, son of Amasa Maine, of New Carlisle, was working in the employ of the Quebec Oriental Railway Company.

While the train on which he was working, was approaching the Intercolonial railway track at the siding, at Matapedia, young Maine was seen stepping from the front of the engine, and a few seconds afterwards was picked up dead, the engine having passed over his body.
The father of the deceased entered action against the Quebec Oriental Railway Company for the sum of $2,500.00, claiming damages for the death of his son, setting up that the accident was due to carelessness and neglect of the railway Company.
Among other things, it was contended that it was the usual custom when the train was arriving at Mata-pedia, for the men working thereon and who have to turn the switch, to go ahead and ride on the locomotive.

It was also claimed that in the general running of its trains, the Railway Company was exceedingly negligent, and this to the knowledge of the Officials of the Company.
A large number of witnesses were heard, at the last term of the Superior Court, and judgment was rendered Tuesday morning by Honorable Justice Tessier, Judge of the Supreme Court, exonerating the Company from all blame, and dismissing the plaintiff's action with costs.

Mr. John Hall Kelly, M.P.P., was acting for the Railway Company and Mr. Francis Maguire was acting for the plaintiff, Mr. Maine.

Previous to the taking of the action against the Company, Mr. C. R.
Scales, the General Manager had asked the father of the deceased to go and see him, and that he would do something to assist him in his loss. This, however, Mr. Main failed to do, and entered action against the Company.

BRUTAL ATTACK ON MAINE WOMAN

Three Ex-Circus Employees Two of the Negroes are Held for Trial

Houlton, Aug. 8.—Four drunken brutes, two of them southern negroes, attacked Mrs. Alice Luretta, a white woman who lives at Keegan, a mile and a half below Van Buren, at her home on the night of July 25, according to the Van Buren authorities, who placed three of the men under arrest the next day.

The prisoners, Robert Ellis, Harvey Slynmiest Albert Boridom, two of whom are negroes, were arranged before Trial Justice Thomas H. Pelletier at Van Buren on the serious charge. Probable cause was found and they were brought to Houlton and locked up in the jail here.

The fourth man is said also to be in jail here for drunkenness. It is understood that he will later be arraigned on a charge similar to that upon which the trio has been held.

The four men came to northern Maine with Dowie & Wheeler's circus. When the show reached Van Buren they left it and secured work in one of the mills there. On July 25 they were paid off, and according to the testimony brought out at the hearing, they started to drink heavily. They fell in with the husband of the woman it is charged they afterward assaulted and, it is alleged that he, too, became intoxicated while in their company. Then the entire party went home with Luretta.

There was trouble at the house soon after the circus men arrived there. In the fight which ensued, Luretta was dragged out of doors, according to his story, after which the four men attacked his wife.

The Luretta children, the oldest of whom is but 11 years old, were sleeping upstairs and were awakened by the noise of the struggle in the room below. They managed to slip out of the house unobserved and stumbling through the darkness to the home of a neighbor, a short distance away, they gave the alarm.

News of the assault was telephoned to the police authorities at Van Buren, who hastened to respond to the call. Ellis, Slynmiest and Boridom were found on the premises, and placed under arrest. Mrs. Luretta was unconscious and in a critical condition.

BACK TO N. B. FOR HIS BRIDE

For one of the delegates to the International Railroad Engineers' Convention, Mr. John R. McNaughton, of Austin, Texas, the trip to Canada is more than railway fellowship.

In Campbellton, N. B., Mr. McNaughton used to be a fireman on the I.C.R. He went away and finally became a full fledged engineer, after drifting to the Empire State. Back in Campbellton his girl is still waiting, but she won't wait long.

"Yes, that's right," said the young engineer, after a group of his chaffing friends had put a reporter "onto him."

"The little girl wouldn't listen to me when I wanted her to come down and get married in Texas. She said she would be married at home or not at all, so it was up to me to come north."

"I'm leaving for Campbellton at noon today and will be married to-morrow and come back to Montreal to start our honeymoon with the boys."

"Her name?"

"Oh, never mind; you know enough about it now."

CHEAP FARES TO TORONTO EXHIBITION

In connection with the Canadian national exhibition at Toronto, which will be held this year from August 23rd until September 8th, the Intercolonial Railway will give very low excursion rates which will give the opportunity to many to visit the Queen City on the occasion of its great annual fair.

The Toronto fair is the largest and most attractive of annual exhibitions in America, and this year new permanent buildings have been constructed and its extensive boundaries enlarged by new boulevards. Aside from the attractions of the exhibition a visit to Toronto at this season is sure to be enjoyable especially in view of the very low rates prevailing.

From Campbellton the round trip will be $21.20 good going August 21, 23, 25, 26 and 27 and Sept. 3 and 4. A special rate of $16.45 will prevail on August 22 and 23 and on Sept. 2. All tickets are good to return September 10. Maritime Province travellers will have their choice of two through vestibuled trains, the Ocean Limited and the Maritime Express, both of which connect at Bonaventure union station, Montreal, with the through Grand Trunk trains for Toronto. It will be well for intending travellers to apply early for reservations.

VICTIMS FUNERAL HELD LAST MONDAY

Large Crowd Gather to Pay Their Last Tribute of Respect to Deceased

The funeral of Miss Effie Fifth and of Mr. J. Wilson Thomas, the victims of last Saturday evening's sad beating accident on the Upsalquitch, took place last Monday. Services were held at the house of both the deceased, at one and one-third p.m. respectively, after which the bodies were conveyed to the Dawsonville cemetery for interment, where a large crowd gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to the dead. The services were conducted by Mr. G. W. Fisher, student in charge of St. Paul's Church, Dawsonville.

Though we may mourn
Those in life the dearest,
They shall return,
Christ, when thou appearest;
Soon shall thy voice
Comfort those now weeping,
Bidding rejoice:
All in Jesus sleeping.

FAMOUS REFEREE

Corri Needed the Wisdom of a Solomon on One Occasion

Best known of all referees in pugilistic circles, Eugene Corri, the great English arbitrator of boxing, whose name is as familiar to followers of the game on this side of the Atlantic as it is across the water. Corri is the last word in the sport in England and referees all the bouts at the National Sporting Club.

"I have had 'hot times' in the ring frequently," said Corri to a newspaper man when discussing ring affairs in general and the refereeing angle in particular. "Perhaps the most unpleasant moment and the one requiring the quickest action of mind was when two young fellows were fighting at the old club in London, some years ago. There was a great deal of beating on the outside. I don't remember the names of the boxers, but they were called Jack and Bill. They had been fighting like two wildcats for 13 rounds and it was a case-up as to which had the better of it.

EUGENE CORRI

First one would score a knockdown and then the other. The crowd was wild with excitement and the betting continued furious. In the thirteenth, Jack began to pile up points and had away the best of it. I did not see how the fight could go another round. "The climax came in the fourteenth. They rushed and let go rights at the same time. Both landed on the point of the jaw and both went to the floor for the count of 10.

"The excitement was of the wildest. The crowd demanding a draw, but when the men were brought to their senses, I gave the decision to the one who was leading on points at the time of the double knockout."

W.C.T.U. COLUMN

This department is conducted by the local Union, and is under the charge of an Editor appointed by them. This Editor assumes the responsibility for the statements and articles which appear in this column.

In a recent magazine article, Mrs. Schoff writes of the organization of the National Congress of Mothers, and says:

"The mother of today has a broader outlook on life than the mothers of past centuries. Educational opportunities, interest in public affairs, and study of the cause present-day conditions have made many mothers realize as never before the far-reaching effect that home and mother exert on the life, home and moral standards of the world. Women who appreciate relative values recently began to ask questions whether their own lack of knowledge as mothers was in part responsible for many blighted lives, and for many of the evils in the world today. They saw many of the little children journeying earthward with no welcome from father or mother. They saw little children in reformatories, prisons and jails all through the land, imbibing the lessons in crime which are an inevitable part of such surroundings: orphan asylums full of little children, starving for mother-love, the babies dying for want of it, and they saw childless homes which could be enriched if only a little child could be in each of them; a school system becoming more arbitrary year by year in its requirements; they saw the child's brain crammed with knowledge that it was not ready to assimilate, while the hand was untrained. They saw the children at a tender age going by thousands into trades and workshops, working under conditions prejudicial to life and health. They saw boys and girls graduating from school and college with no preparation for home-making. They saw the flower of the nation's manhood blighted by the social evil; yet the mothers shut their eyes to the dangers that menaced their boys and girls and rarely gave them the protection which knowledge of sex hygiene and God's law of life would afford. They realized the corruption in business and politics, and that the boy who grows up without training in honesty and regard for the rights of others becomes the corrupt business man or corrupt politician. They saw hospitals and prisons full, and began to ask: 'How far are we mothers responsible for this?' 'Are we not the children's keepers?' 'Why should I expect my child to live and be healthy when I know nothing affecting his physical and moral needs?' 'Wherein have we failed where all these things exist?'

Mothers of today are awakening to a consciousness of the fact that the education which the world most needs is that which fits them to be mothers in the highest sense of the word. It was this realization which impelled one mother to call together the mothers of America and to organize them for more earnest, scientific study of child development. So was born the National Congress of Mothers. But the benefits, privileges and blessings of such organized effort come nearer home to the mothers of the country wherever the Woman's Christian Temperance Union has found its way, for its world-wide organization, with its 'Do-Everything' policy for the uplifting of humanity, seeing childhood's need of an educated motherhood, introduced among its departments of work that of Mothers' Meetings, which has for its aim the instruction of those who have the care of children, in all that relates to the best interest of the child physically, mentally, and spiritually. It is a department of paramount importance for 'to form well in early life prevents the necessity for reform in later life.' To the thinking woman it seems strange that this 'phase of our questions should ever need discussion. Yet we are confronted with the fact that while thousands

"I ATTRIBUTE MY CURE SOLELY And Entirely To Taking 'Fruit-a-lives'"

HULL, QUE., DEC. 24th, 1909
"For the past twelve years, I had painful attacks of Dyspepsia. I could not digest my food and everything caused the most agonizing pain in my stomach. I also had a fearful attack of Constipation and at times, I had no movement of the bowels for two weeks. Three doctors attended me for two years and gave me all kinds of medicine but did me no good. My weight came to only 80 pounds and everyone thought I was going to die. Finally, I had the good fortune to try 'Fruit-a-lives' and as soon as I began to take them, I felt better. I persisted in the treatment and to my great joy, I steadily improved. Now I feel very well, weigh 115 pounds, and this is more than I ever weighed even before my illness. I attribute my cure solely and entirely to 'Fruit-a-lives' and can never praise them too much for saving my life. To all who suffer from Dyspepsia and Constipation, I recommend 'Fruit-a-lives' as a miraculous remedy."

Betting on Motor-car Numbers
When three men were charged with betting at Cannon's it was stated that they bet on the numbers of motor-cars as the cars passed along the road. The defendants were ordered to pay the costs of the case.
"The Fish for the People"
"God gave the fish for the people," was the defence which the mother of a Welsh girl put forward at the Holywell Sessions, when her daughter, Jane Davies, was charged by the Dee Fishery Board with setting stake nets in the estuary of the Dee near Bagillt.
Veteran's Belated Pension
An aged, feeble veteran named David Davidson, of Belfast, Ireland, late of the Royal Irish Regiment, was awarded a special campaign pension of 18 cents a day. It is thirty-one years since he left the colors after serving twelve years, during which he saw active service.
Whale in the Forth
While a party of North Berwick fishermen were engaged fishing off the Craig, a whale of the Greenland or finback species between 25 feet and 30 feet long, was seen making its way through the water on the south side of the Craig. It is a long time since a whale has been seen so near the land.

Mothers are organized for better chances and better opportunities for children, yet a larger percentage of them are standing idly by, apparently possessing the icy indifference which characterized the answer of Cain when asked concerning his brother's whereabouts. And the heart of the awakened mother is sickened as she looks about at the wrecks of young life, made so, perhaps, because, without the protection of the mother's wise training, they were led astray through ignorance. Let the mother who shall read these thoughts join the forces of organized motherhood, train her child for the time when he shall go out from home influences, strengthen him against the "undertow which lays hold of his feet," and save him now from the danger of being swept "away forever" from all hope and safety.

BRUTAL ATTACK ON MAINE WOMAN

Three Ex-Circus Employees Two of the Negroes are Held for Trial

Houlton, Aug. 8.—Four drunken brutes, two of them southern negroes, attacked Mrs. Alice Luretta, a white woman who lives at Keegan, a mile and a half below Van Buren, at her home on the night of July 25, according to the Van Buren authorities, who placed three of the men under arrest the next day.

The prisoners, Robert Ellis, Harvey Slymiest Albert Boridom, two of whom are negroes, were arranged before Trial Justice Thomas H. Pelletier at Van Buren on the serious charge. Probable cause was found and they were brought to Houlton and locked up in the jail here.

The fourth man is said also to be in jail here for drunkenness. It is understood that he will later be arraigned on a charge similar to that upon which the trio has been held.

The four men came to northern Maine with Dowie & Wheeler's circus. When the show reached Van Buren they left it and secured work in one of the mills there. On July 25 they were paid off, and, according to the testimony brought out at the hearing, they started to drink heavily. They fell in with the husband of the woman it is charged they afterward assaulted and, it is alleged that he, too, became intoxicated while in their company. Then the entire party went home with Luretta.

There was trouble at the house soon after the circus men arrived there. In the fight which ensued, Luretta was dragged out of doors, according to his story, after which the four men attacked his wife.

The Luretta children, the oldest of whom is but 11 years old, were sleeping upstairs and were awakened by the noise of the struggle in the room below. They managed to slip out of the house unobserved and stumbling through the darkness to the home of a neighbor, a short distance away, they gave the alarm.

News of the assault was telephoned to the police authorities at Van Buren, who hastened to respond to the call. Ellis, Slymiest and Boridom were found on the premises, and placed under arrest. Mrs. Luretta was unconscious and in a critical condition.

BACK TO N. B. FOR HIS BRIDE

For one of the delegates to the International Railroad Engineers' Convention, Mr. John R. McNaughton, of Austin, Texas, the trip to Canada is more than a railway fellowship.

In Campbellton, N. B., Mr. McNaughton used to be a fireman on the I.C.R. He went away and finally became a full fledged engineer, after drifting to the Empire State. Back in Campbellton his girl is still waiting, but she won't wait long.

“Yes, that's right,” said the young engineer, after a group of his chaffing friends had put a reporter “onto him.”

“The little girl wouldn't listen to me when I wanted her to come down and get married in Texas. She said she would be married at home or not at all, so it was up to me to come north.”

“I'm leaving for Campbellton at noon today and will be married to-morrow and come back to Montreal to start our honeymoon with the boys.”

“Her name?”

“Oh, never mind; you know enough about it now.”

VICTIMS FUNERAL HELD LAST MONDAY

Large Crowd Gather to Pay Their Last Tribute of Respect to Deceased

The funeral of Miss Effie Fitch and of Mr. J. Wilson Thomas, the victims of last Saturday evening's sad skating accident on the Upsalquitch, took place last Monday. Services were held at the homes of both the deceased, at one and one-half p.m. respectively, after which the bodies were conveyed to the Dawsonville cemetery for interment, where a large crowd gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to the dead. The services were conducted by Mr. G. W. Fisher, student in charge of St. Paul's Church, Dawsonville.

Though we may mourn
Those in life the dearest,
They shall return,
Christ, when thou appearest;
Soon shall thy voice
Comfort those now weeping,
Bidding rejoice
All in Jesus sleeping.

FAMOUS REFEREE

Corri Needed the Wisdom of a Solomon on One Occasion

Best known of all referees is Eugene Corri, the great English arbitrator of boxing, whose name is as familiar to followers of the game on this side of the Atlantic as it is across the water. Corri is the last word in the sport in England and referees all the bouts at the National Sporting Club.

“I have had ‘hot times’ in the ring frequently,” said Corri to a newspaper man when discussing ring affairs in general and the refereeing angle in particular. “Perhaps the most unpleasant moment and the one requiring the quickest action of mind was when two young fellows were fighting at the old club in London, some years ago. There was a great deal of betting on the outcome. I don't remember the names of the boxers, but they were called Jack and Bill. They had been fighting like two wildcats for 13 rounds and it was a toss-up as to which had the better of it.

First one would score a knockdown and then the other. The crowd was wild with excitement and the betting continued furiously. In the thirteenth, Jack began to pile up points and had away the best of it. I did not see how the fight could go another round.

“The climax came in the fourteenth. They rushed and let go rights at the same time. Both landed on the point of the jaw and both went to the floor for the count of 10.

W.C.T.U. COLUMN

This department is conducted by the local Union, and is under the charge of an Editor appointed by them. This Editor assumes the responsibility for the statements and articles which appear in this column.

In a recent magazine article, Mrs. Schoff writes of the organization of the National Congress of Mothers, and says:

"The mother of today has a broader outlook on life than the mothers of past centuries. Educational opportunities, interest in public affairs, and study of the cause present-day conditions have made many mothers realize as never before the far-reaching effect that home and mother exert on the life, home and moral standards of the world. Women who appreciate relative values recently began to ask questions whether their own lack of knowledge as mothers was in part responsible for many blighted lives, and for many of the evils in the world today. They saw many of the little children journeying earthward with no welcome from father or mother. They saw little children in reformatories, prisons and jails all through the land, imbibing the lessons in crime which are an inevitable part of such surroundings: orphan asylums full of little children, starving for mother-love, the babies dying for want of it, and they saw childless homes which could be enriched if only a little child could be in each of them; a school system becoming more arbitrary year by year in its requirements; they saw the child's brain crammed with knowledge that it was not ready to assimilate, while the hand was untrained. They saw the children at a tender age going by thousands into trades and workshops, working under conditions prejudicial to life and health. They saw boys and girls graduating from school and college with no preparation for home-making. They saw the flower of the nation's manhood blighted by the social evil; yet the mothers shut their eyes to the dangers that menaced their boys and girls and rarely gave them the protection which knowledge of sex hygiene and God's law of life would afford. They realized the corruption in business and politics, and that the boy who grows up without training in honesty and regard for the rights of others becomes the corrupt business man or corrupt politician. They saw hospitals and prisons full, and began to ask: 'How far are we mothers responsible for this?' 'Are we not the children's keepers?' 'Why should I expect my child to live and be healthy when I know nothing affecting his physical and moral needs?' 'Wherein have we failed where all these things exist?'

Mothers of today are awakening to a consciousness of the fact that the education which the world most needs is that which fits them to be mothers in the highest sense of the word. It was this realization which impelled one mother to call together the mothers of America and to organize them for more earnest, scientific study of child development. So was born the National Congress of Mothers. But the benefits, privileges and blessings of such organized effort come nearer home to the mothers of the country wherever the Woman's Christian Temperance Union has found its way, for this world-wide organization, with its 'Do-Everything' policy for the uplifting of humanity, seeing childhood's need of an educated motherhood, introduced among its departments of work that of Mothers' Meetings, which has for its aim the instruction of those who have the care of children, in all that relates to the best interest of the child physically, mentally and spiritually. It is a department of paramount importance for 'to form well in early life prevents the necessity for reform in later life.' To the thinking woman it seems strange that this phase of our questions should ever need discussion. Yet we are confronted with the fact that while thousands

"I ATTRIBUTE MY CURE SOLELY

And Entirely To Taking "Fruit-a-lives"

 "For the past twelve years, I had painful attacks of Dyspepsia. I could not digest my food and everything caused the most agonizing pain in my stomach. I also had a fearful attack of Constipation and at times, I had no movement of the bowels for two weeks. Three doctors attended me for two years and gave me all kinds of medicine but did me no good. My weight came to only 50 pounds and everyone thought I was going to die. Finally, I had the good fortune to try 'Fruit-a-lives' and as soon as I began to take them, I felt better. I persisted in the treatment and to my great joy, I steadily improved. Now I feel very well, weigh 115 pounds, and this is more than I ever weighed even before my illness. I attribute my cure solely and entirely to 'Fruit-a-lives' and can never praise them too much for saving my life. To all who suffer from Dyspepsia and Constipation, I recommend 'Fruit-a-lives' as a miraculous remedy."

 While a party of North Berwick fishermen were engaged fishing off the Craig, a whale of the Greenland or finback species between 25 feet and 30 feet long, was seen making its way through the water on the south side of the Craig. It is a long time since a whale has been seen so near the land.

Mothers are organized for better chances and better opportunities for children, yet a larger percentage of them are standing idly by, apparently possessing the icy indifference which characterized the answer of Cain when asked concerning his brother's whereabouts. And the heart of the awakened mother is sickened as she looks about at the wrecks of young life, made so, perhaps, because, without the protection of the mother's wise training, they were led astray through ignorance. Let the mother who shall read these thoughts join the forces of organized motherhood, train her child for the time when he shall go out from home influences, strengthen him against the "undertow" which lays hold of his feet, and save him now from the danger of being swept "away forever" from all hope and safety.

ERNEST GALLANT

Mr. Ernest Gallant, I.R.C. brakeman, of Moncton, but formerly of Campbellton, died in the city hospital Monday morning. Mr. Gallant, who was 27 years of age, was taken suddenly ill Saturday morning with acute Bright's disease, and was removed from his hotel to the hospital, where he died. He was to have left for the home of his parents in Campbellton on Saturday afternoon's Ocean Limited, but he became ill about noon and his sickness rapidly became so serious that the ambulance was called and he was taken to the city hospital for treatment. His mother came down from Campbellton and was with him to the end. Although all that medical skill could suggest was done, he passed away early Monday morning. His other relatives were telegraphed for, but had not arrived here at the time of his death.

The lord provost of Glasgow was in Montreal this week, and the Montreal Herald said:—One wonders what the lord provost will say about Montreal when he gets home. Fancy a man visiting our city who presides over a town council which runs street cars without overcrowding its citizens; whose water system is never in danger of running short, and is so pure that spring water companies are unknown to Glasgow; which supplies gas to its citizens at a half a dollar and less a thousand cubic feet, and whose City Hall is above all suspicion of graft.

In glowing headlines a New Brunswick Tory newspaper states that the C.P.R. will help build up the East. Is that preparatory to handing the I.C.R. over to the C.P.R.? If so, let us see what the C.P.R. has done for the East. That portion of the Province of New Brunswick, through which the Intercolonial Railway runs is the portion of the Province of New Brunswick, which in two decades saved this Province from the disgrace of a decreased census return. The portion of the Province of New Brunswick through which the C.P.R. runs and which it is "building up," is that portion of the Province, which decreased in its population, says the City of St. John.—Transcript.

Chatham World:—The worst habit that boys can fall into is that of loafing around the streets at night. It is then they cast their lot in slippery places where at any moment they are likely to fall from grace. All good and noble lessons taught them by their mother are there counteracted and nullified. They learn nothing that is good—but everything bad. The boys who spend their evenings in the sacred precincts of home with good books for their companions, are the future hope of the Dominion; they will fill our legislatures halls, and sit in judgment upon men and measures, while the boys who run the streets will fill the penitentiaries, alms-houses and lunatic asylums. Parents who are responsible for these broken laws of decency will have broken hearts and bowed down heads in the awakening years that will eventually follow.

"SEVEN HOURS IN NEW YORK"

Much care has been bestowed upon the scenic and electrical equipment of the new musical play "Seven Hours in New York". The first act, showing the interior and partial exterior of Merrill Lee's home is rich in the lavish display one would expect to see in a wealthy man's home. The second act represents a summer garden belonging to an estate, with a lovely view of a summer resort in the distance. Both scenes are triumphs of the scene painter's art. Both acts are enhanced by beautiful electrical effects. "Seven Hours in New York" will be seen for the first time at the Opera House, Saturday, 23rd August, for one night only.

TO SPORTSMEN

Next Tuesday and Wednesday a big horse meet will be held at Fort Fairfield, Me., for which large entries have been made. Arrangements are being made to have excursion through rates on the I.N.R. See adv. on page 4.

AT OPERA HOUSE

It is a pleasure to announce the coming of a really worthy theatrical entertainment. We are led to believe, judging from advance reports received, that the new musical play, "Seven Hours in New York" will prove to be worthy of patronage. The play is said to be well written with a light, consistent plot. Much stress is laid on the merit of the songs which abound during the action of the play. There is a fine company, a large and well drilled chorus, and a complete scenic production. We are of the opinion that "Seven Hours in New York" will prove enjoyable to all who attend. The date here is Saturday, 23rd August, for one night only.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine causes out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Mr. John Mahoney and Mr. McDougall paid Maple Green a flying visit on Monday evening.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season took place Monday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Callahan's, the occasion being a surprise party tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Simon Mahoney. Dancing and musical selections formed the evening's entertainment. A dainty lunch was served at midnight, all doing ample justice to the number of delicacy served. The guests included a large number of Campbellton and Richardsville folks. The party came to a close in the small hall, all thanking Mr. and Mrs. Callahan for their kind hospitality.

Ice cream and cake was served at midnight. An old lady on the train had worried the brakeman pretty nearly to death with questions all the way down the line. Finally, as the train came to a stop at a little tank station she inquired:

"Say, Mr. Brakeman, how long does this train stay here?"

He saw his chance to get even, and replied: "Stops here for four minutes—from two to two to two to two."

And he wore a quiet grin as he observed the old lady trying to repeat what he had told her without whistling.

SALVATION ARMY TO RESUME WORK

Services Will be Held in The Army Hall and Opera House

The citizens of Campbellton will be interested in knowing that the Salvation Army will re-open its work here on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 23rd and 24th. The services will be conducted by Major and Mrs. Taylor, assisted by Staff Capt. Combs, Capt. Robinson and Lieut. Darbyshire, the latter two being the officers appointed to take charge of the work here.

The frame building erected by the Baptists after the fire has been purchased and moved to the rear of the Army lot on Main St. and this will be used until a brick or concrete building can be placed sufficiently far from the street line to meet the requirements of the fire by-law.

The building will be roofed with asbestos or metallic shingles and the outside walls also shingled. The interior will be renovated and seated with chairs, thus making a nice little hall for commencing the work.

The program of opening meetings will be as follows:—
Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 7 and 11 a.m., in the Army Hall, and 8 and 8 p.m. in the Opera House. A hearty invitation is extended to all.

TWO HUNDRED FACTORIES CLOSED

Barcelona, Spain, August 19.—The strike in the textile industry continues despite the general belief that it was over yesterday. Two thousand operatives resumed work yesterday morning, but failed to reappear at the mills after the dinner hour. It is stated officially that 20,000 men are out and that 200 factories are closed as a result of the strike.

While there have been no serious outbreaks, the authorities are increasing their precautionary measures in view of the fact that the transport workers are taking a referendum on the question whether they shall seize the occasion of the textile strike for a walkout.

VESTED CHOIR AS AID TO WORSHIP

Decision in Matter Must be Left to Individual Church

The following is from the Maritime Baptist:—It would be difficult to reach any agreement among the churches of most Protestant denominations on the subject of a vested choir. This much we might agree upon; when the preacher stands between the choir and congregation, preaching upon peace and harmony, his sermon cannot have the desired effect when behind him the greens and blues are in mortal conflict, and the pinks and reds have sworn an undying enmity to each other.

On Easter Sunday morning, when all the monotony of modern military appear suddenly among the churches of most Protestant denominations on the subject of a vested choir. This much we might agree upon; when the preacher stands between the choir and congregation, preaching upon peace and harmony, his sermon cannot have the desired effect when behind him the greens and blues are in mortal conflict, and the pinks and reds have sworn an undying enmity to each other.

This attempt all do not assent to, and we recognise the arguments against it; the decision must be left to the individual church. It would not be too much to suggest, however, that the absence of hats on the lady members of the choir would remove the principal conflict of colors and, in addition, the uniform use of white shirt waists would give all the benefits of a vested choir without any of its disadvantages. We have a right to endeavor to keep God's laws of color as well as his laws of morals.

Just after reading the above we chanced upon the following regulations concerning "The Chorister's Dress" as obtained in the Cathedral church of St. Andrews in Wells, England, in the fifteenth century:—And we further will ordain that the choristers of our said church shall, according to laudable custom and usage be clothed in cassocks reaching the ankles (togis talarius), long tunics, and short shoes, it being understood that this mode of dress was formerly introduced with reason and intent, and has served unchanged to this present, in order that the boys being so dressed may be made humble, and therefore the more disposed to good conduct."

HORSES THAT THINK

Marvellous Results in the Education of Animals

At Eberfeld, in Germany, are to be found a number of educated horses, which have aroused the wonder of the scientific world; for not only do they understand language, but they feast in spelling and the solution of difficult problems in arithmetic would put many human beings to shame. One noted scientist declared unhesitatingly that their trainer, Herr Krall, has at last succeeded in establishing a means of communication between horse and man.

The animals are taught to indicate the answers to problems in arithmetic by striking units with the right foot, tens with the left foot, and hundreds with the right foot again. The numbers to be added, subtracted, multiplied, or divided are set up on a blackboard, and the animals at once proceed to tap out their answers in such a way as to prove that individual thinking, and not a mere feat of memory, is involved.

They have been put to every possible test, not only by Dr. Ziegler, the well known zoologist, but also by many other men of science. The problems have often been put down on the blackboard in words, not figures, and sometimes even in French, yet the horses gave the result as correctly as when figures were used. They spell words also by means of hoof strokes, writing them according to sound.

AN AUSTRALIAN ROMANCE

Scotchman Got Site of New Capital For His Two Boats

The district in which the new Australian Capital City is being built is throughout associated with an Argyleshire family named Campbell. Robert Campbell was a Calcutta merchant, who went to Australia in 1799 to make acquaintance with respect to a ship which had been lost in the Bass Straits, and apparently was so pleased with Sydney that he remained in that city. He became known as "Merchant" Campbell. In the early years of last century Sydney suffered from a severe drought, and the Governor desired to send ships to India for food supplies. The only two vessels in Port Jackson suitable for such a purpose were two which Mr. Robert Campbell had in the harbor loaded with sealskins. The authorities commanded these ships, and sent them away for grain, the only compensation which Mr. Campbell received being two blocks of land, 6,000 and 4,000 acres respectively, and 1,000 ewes. The land which he selected is now part of the site for the Federal capital.

EARLY POETS LAUREATE

Office Three Centuries Old But Title Assumed Much Earlier

It is almost three hundred years since "Tate Ben Jonson" was formally appointed first Laureate, and during this lapse of time not a few of the illustrious names of English literature have been associated with the title. Jonson, Dryden, Southey, Wordsworth, and Tennyson are still names to conjure with, though many of their laureated predecessors are but pale ghosts in oblivion, and of many even the mere shadow of their names does not stand.

The term laureate is of heavy ancestry. It is probably as old as the art of poetry itself, for the custom of crowning the victor in a contest dates from very early times, and the wreath of the laurel tree, sacred to the god Apollo, was a trophy eagerly coveted by the poet or hero of the Greeks and Romans long years before any mention in history of our Druidic and early British forefathers. Spenser expresses aptly the idea: "The laurel, meed of mighty conquerors and poets sage," he calls it, and the word thus became closely identified with literary or military distinction. "Laureate letters" in old times were the despatches announcing a victory, and the epithet was officially bestowed by each university on the poet presenting the most brilliant Latin Ode.

The first of modern poets to be publicly crowned appears to have been the Italian poet and humanist, Petrarch, who was so honored in 1311. The office of Poet Laureate in England, however, was not legally recognized till 1616, when it was instituted by letters patent and given to Ben Jonson. Court-poets had doubtless existed before this; minstrels and versifiers were part of the royal retinue, and it is on record that Count de Lion had a special "versificator regis," Guillelmus Peregrinus by name. Chaucer is the first Englishman known to have assumed the title. This he did on his return from diplomatic missions abroad, and in 1398 he obtained the annual grant of a tun of wine for life. For the first two hundred years the appointments were irregular, this line only becoming unbroken and continuous from the creation of Richard Edwards in 1561.

When Jonson was appointed he was granted a yearly pension of $500, with the additional grant of one tierce of Canary wine out of the King's store. This latter allowance was commuted in favor of Pye for $135, but the emoluments varied considerably, as Dryden received $1,500 a year and then but $360 from the Lord Chamberlain, whose hands the appointment had been placed, and $135 from the lord steward in lieu of the Canary.

EUROPE'S Dullest COURT

Elderly Needlewomen Occupy the Time of Carmen Sylva

Court life in Roumania is perhaps the dullest in Europe, although this is hard to believe of a court over which "Carmen Sylva," the brilliant novelist and woman of letters, presides.

That the old friends of Queen Elizabeth seldom ask for an audience may be said to be due to the fact that the queen is surrounded by three old women who prefer to sit and knit and cannot understand why one should want to talk about books and art. But when the court is at Sinalia and the old ladies have gone to Wiesbaden for their annual cure, the old friends of the queen come back. But in Bucharest the queen sees none of them. Even when they ask for an audience she does not know of it, because her maids of honor refuse on the ground that her majesty is very tired.

The queen is a splendid needlewoman herself and makes many beautiful things for her invalid niece, Princess Elizabeth of Wied, who is so delicate that she lies literally wrapped up in cotton wool.

More Drinking in Italy
Till a few years ago the Italians were among the most temperate peoples in Europe; but with the growth of industrialism and social luxury an enormous development has been witnessed of the bar system.

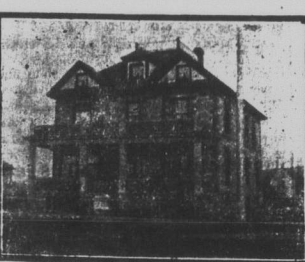

The marked increase in direct crime and insanity due to the abuse of intoxicating drink roused the attention of the Government, and a Bill for checking the evil was introduced in the Chamber of Deputies, prohibiting the sale of liquor to children and drunkards, limiting bars to two for every 500 inhabitants in the smaller towns, and one for every 600 citizens in the larger centres. The latest figures show one street bar for every 150 inhabitants.

Save One Ton of Coal in Every Six

The Economizer will do it.

While the cost of living has undoubtedly been growing greater, at the same time it is true there are some inventions that will offset this increased cost of living, and the careful housewife takes advantage of these inventions.

On every Gurney-Oxford range there is an Economizer which controls not only the drafts but also the entire combustion or burning of fuel to create heat.

This Economizer will save 1 ton of coal in every 6 that you would use with the ordinary range.

The Economizer is a simple device, absolute in its control. By merely moving the lever you can obtain any degree of even heat in the oven. This insures the satisfaction of always having light, delicately crusted bread and biscuits.

The kitchen fire ceases to be a worry if the Economizer is on your stove.

The Gurney-Oxford is the final result of experimental thought. Science has given it a Divided Flue, a new Special Grate, and a Broiler attachment.

This Gurney-Oxford range is primarily a saver of money, time, and energy.

Those who enjoyed the day mostly, were the excursionists who journeyed to the Gaspe Basin aboard the Campbellton and Gaspe S.S. Cos. boat the S.S. "Canada". This steamer is perhaps one of the most sea-worthy boats in Canada waters today. Steady at all times, even in the roughest weather, travel by this boat is indeed a pleasure. The "Canada" has three decks. The first deck is comprised of the dining saloon. The second, promenade deck and cabins and the third is the lounge and music rooms, with sight-seeing facilities aft. The service on this steamer is equal to the best hotel in the country, and the attendance accorded passengers by the stewards leaves nothing to be desired. The voyage down the "Bais De Chaleur" is one replete with beautiful scenery, and if one were to take the excursion for this alone, one would be amply repaid for his trouble. The steamer leaves Campbellton twice a week, one of the trips being made on Saturday, returning to Campbellton on Monday, and for parties planning a week end holiday, it is well worth their consideration. The town of Gaspe is an ideal summer resort, having beautiful beaches, a nice harbor, and good hotel accommodations.
