WANT AD HOROSCOPE JULY 18.

Boys and girls born on this date should receive every advantage of education. Education and good surroundings mean more to people of this birthdate than to any other in the Zodiac. Unless they are developed they are lazy, selfish, vain, jealous and do anything to get money to indulge their taste for display.

Women born on this date, unless curbed by pride, love dress, jewelry and will go to any extremes to get them. They love publicity and are always trying to set their names in print. They are apt to be fickle and inconstant and are not happily married.

It will be seen how necessary it is that people of this birthdate should recognize their faults and try to improve themselves in every way.

While astrology gives people their good qualities and tells them of their governing traits, it must also point out their faults if it is to be really helpful. The Want Ads this week will find good opportunities for work in every line that has to do with merchandise, with factories and offices.

TENDERS WANTED Sealed Tenders addressed to the Brantford Hydro-Electric System, 8 Commercial Chambers, Brantford, Ont., and endorsed "Tenders for Substation Building," will be received until 12 o'clock noon on Wednesday, the 30th of July, 1913, for the construction of a concrete and brick substation building.

Drawings, specifications and form of tender may be obtained on application to the above address. The lowest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

Royal Templars Brantford Council No. 24, Royal Templars of Temperance held their usual weekly meeting last evening. After the usual business had been gone through, arrangements were made for the annual picnic, which takes place to-morrow (Saturday) at Court's Grove. The car leaves the Grand Valley office on Colborne St. at 2 o'clock. Splendid sports, etc., have been arranged, and a good time is being anticipated by the members and their friends. Home Circle Home Circle No. 16 held their regular meeting on Thursday, July 17. After regular business was transacted, a letter from the Supreme Circle was read relative to having an organizer to help in that work. After some discussion it was decided to withdraw the meetings for August and make a special effort for the first meeting in September, and prepare for an organizer to come early in October.

Wave Graduated Six young ladies, who have been training for nurses at the local hospital, have passed their final examinations. The young ladies are Misses Margaret Hall, Annie McGillob, Jean Sharpe, Kathleen Martin, Jessie McGregor and Margaret Tait. The graduating exercises will take place about the middle of September in connection with the opening of the nurses' home, when medals and diplomas will be presented by the Board of Governors.

Bank Building The Bank of Montreal has taken quarters from Mr. J. Milton, for temporary bank purposes in the store on Market Street, hitherto used as a shooting gallery. The premises are now under a course of refitting. It is expected that the present bank building will be torn down and the new structure started on Monday week.

Boat Refloated ST JOHN, Nfld., July 18.—The Donald B. McMillan, Arctic exploring ship, Diana, which stranded on Barge Point on the southern coast of Labrador Wednesday night was refloated last evening, according to a message received by Job Brothers, the owners, here from the telegraph operator at Red Bay in the Straits of Belle Isle to-day.

Alleging False Arrest, Sues. GALT, July 18.—Frank Steffan Baden who was arrested on June 13, near Bluebeare, charged with a serious offense, and who after being charged before Judge Reade, Waterloo County Criminal Court, was found not guilty, has instructed counsel, Mr. Graham, New Hamburg, to issue a writ claiming $2,000 damages for false arrest and imprisonment. The action will be tried before a judge and jury at the fall assizes.

Fireman To the Rescue. RACINE, Wis., July 18.—A large automobile driven by Walter Bassinger, with Thomas McGeehan as a passenger, crashed through a bridge and plunged into Root River, yesterday. Charles Doo, of the city fire department, jumped into the river and rescued Bassinger.

CHICAGO, July 17.—Huge receipts at primary markets today acted as an offset for bullish sentiment in the wheat pit. Accordingly the market closed steady at a shade to 1-8c under last night. Corn finished with a gain of a shade to 1/2 to 3-8c, oats up 1/4 to 3-8c, and propositions showing an advance of 1/4 to 2-8c. The Liverpool market closed 1/4c lower to 1/2c higher on wheat and 1/4c lower on corn.

ITALIANS START STABBING AT PARIS

Serious Affair Outside Hotel Happened in the Town Last Night.

PARIS, July 18.—A serious stabbing affray took place about 8 o'clock last night among a gang of Italians at the Arlington corner. Most of the Italians who have been employed at No. 1 Mill dam went on strike yesterday morning and went among their countrymen on other work in town, bringing out as many as they could. In the evening a number of them visited the hotels, and while in the Arlington row broke out among them during which one had his nose badly flattened. They were ejected from the hotel and as they left the doorway a big Italian made a grab for a smaller one, who ran away and ducked among the rows of the William St. bridge. The big one came back crying and screaming one inch long through the muscles of his left arm and another wound between his ribs on the left side. No constable could be found for some time and the man who did the stabbing got clear away. The big Italian claimed he was stabbed at the Arlington before he chased the little one, and all the information that could be gathered from the gang was that No. 23 did it. No. 23 lived up to his appellation and skidded. Dr. Lovett sewed up the man's wounds and no serious results are anticipated, though he lost a large quantity of blood.

Echo Place Improvements

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Echo Place Improvement Association held in Mohawk Park School. President J. J. Burke was in the chair. Reported Progress The association's solicitor, Mr. A. L. Baird, K. C., was present and reported progress in the several matters pending between the association and the Township Council. Ex-Ald. Richard Waddington was also present and spoke concerning the sidewalk matter.

Will Band Together

It is quite probable that the several associations in the suburban districts will join together on several matters in order to further their interests, but will continue to be separate associations. Ex-Alderman Billo of Eagle Place attended the meeting last night and spoke with reference to the union. There is a feeling that this is done and action will likely be taken next meeting night. The picnic committee reported that everything was well in hand for a mammoth picnic, Saturday afternoon

WHITNEY'S HOLD

"It's going to take a long time to put that Whitney Government out," remarked a well known local Liberal to the Courier, and without any doubt he correctly sized up the situation.

When a Riding like North Grey, for whatever reason, changes a Liberal majority of 471 two years ago, to one of nearly 300 the other way, it is clear that the great majority of the people like the ideals, and the aims and the achievements of the present Administration. It is all very well to attribute the outcome to this, and the other reason, but the half-and general fact remains of a notable endorsement of the men now, and for some years, in power in this province.

And it is well that this should be so. Liberals, for far too long a period dominated the affairs of Ontario—some thirty years in all—and the last period of their term was one of profligacy and degeneracy.

Sir James and his associates have given a clean and progressive administration, and the average man likes such characteristics in public life, just as much as he does in private and business relationships.

MR. BORDEN'S POSITION

Certain Grit papers are apparently still harboring the fool belief that there will be an early Dominion election. They won't get it, for the simple reason that it is not necessary.

Under the act of Confederation, the successful side in a Dominion contest, can hold office for five years, but the full term has very seldom been taken. The writer can only recall two such instances, that of Mackenzie, whose Liberal administration went under in 1878, and of Sir Charles Tupper, whose Conservative Cabinet went under in 1896. In each case defeat was sensed by those who took the trouble to size up public opinion.

Four years of power, before again appealing to the people, has been the usual custom, and the indications are that a like procedure will obtain in the case of the Borden outfit. If so, there will not be another general contest until 1915, and there is no valid reason why there should be.

The present Government has been alert, and progressive, and the fact that the Senate has thrown out the Navy and other bills has only constituted a blockade which, in the natural course of events, will be remedied in a short time.

Borden is not the kind of man to be stampeded, nor should he be. The four years will be fulfilled, and then, according to present indications, he and his colleagues are likely to remain at Ottawa with as large, and perhaps even larger majority.

JUSTICE HALTS

Uncle Sam is pretty active in most things, but not, far too frequently, in the matter of the administration of justice. That condition of affairs must, to a large extent, needs be when so many judges have to go before the people at stated periods for reelection.

In this regard there was one notorious case quite recently when a violator of the law had so strong a pull in the district that it was not wise for the Judge to convict if he wished to hold his job.

sentence to life imprisonment within a few weeks, of some men from the other side who sought to dynamite the Canadian Welland Canal works and you get some idea of the superiority of Canadian justice as compared with that of our esteemed neighbors.

UNCLE SAM AND MEXICO

President Wilson has summoned the U. S. Consul in Mexico to Washington. This does not mean that he has been instructed to withdraw prior to the commencement of hostilities, but that the head of the Republic wishes to have a heart to heart talk with reference to the condition of affairs in said country.

That they are exceedingly bad, in fact menacingly so not only to the people themselves, but also to foreigners residing and having interests there, everyone is aware who has followed recent events.

It is generally felt that the one power to intervene should be the United States. There is the Monroe doctrine, that policy enunciated by a President of that name, who in a message of Dec. 2, 1823, declared that Uncle Sam would regard as an unfriendly act, any attempt on the part of European powers to extend their systems on any portion of this Continent, or to interfere in any way with American peoples, such as Mexico, whose independence had been acknowledged at the U. S. Capital. That, of course, was an exceedingly bold, not to say decidedly chocky attempt to declare a suzerainty over so vast a region of the globe, without anyone else's consent, but as a matter of fact, without any such declaration, it is very doubtful if any of the powers desire to seize some of those South American horrets.

The real impetus for the anxiety of the States at this time, is that there are thousands of her sons and daughters in Mexico, and millions of dollars of investment, moreover it is bounded on the north by the States.

Mexico is a beautiful country, none more so, with an area of 744,000 square miles. The great mass of her territory consists of an elevated plateau with terraced slopes towards the Atlantic on the East and the Pacific on the West. This vast tract comprises one of the richest and most varied zones in the world, for while it enjoys a tropical vegetation, the rapid differences of elevation afford all the advantages of temperate climates. In short, it presents an almost unparalleled exuberance in the multiplicity of natural products. Under normal conditions of peace and contentment, and order among the people, the possibilities would be enormous, but unfortunately such conditions have very seldom obtained there, and certainly not for very many years past.

That the restraining and guiding hand of Uncle Sam would be just as beneficial there, as John Bull's hand in Egypt, is unquestioned, but Mexicans greatly value their independence—they showed that when long ago they threw off the French yoke—and they are splendid fighters, in fact are prone to be at that game among themselves without intermission.

Our neighbors would certainly hesitate a long time before a resort to force, but it maybe that they can evolve some diplomatic scheme which would prove acceptable and remove the present undesirable situation. For the sake of decency and humanity, it is to be devoutly hoped that such a may prove to be the case.

So Prof. Graham Bell expects to teach animals to talk. As to that, there is too much gabbling in the world right now.

John Bull has to fill the battleship gap created by the Grit majority in our irresponsible Upper Chamber. It is to be hoped that Liberals are proud of the spectacle.

Punctuality of the few continues to be the chief of time for them in connection with far too many committees and other meetings in this neck of the woods.

It is announced that a brand of wheat has been developed without the aid of rain. That's nothing, for in most communities, there are watering carts which don't do it.

With the Balkans turned into a cockpit, China threatening to go to war with Russia, and Mexicans stabbing and shooting each other for early morning exercise, the dove of peace must feel that it is out of a job.

In the British House, Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, formally told the members that Great Britain was compelled to rush work on three new war ships because of the rejection by the Canadian Senate of the Borden naval bill. And this is the deep and deplorable humiliation brought upon the Dominion, at the behest of that disgraced and petulant politician, Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

The following despatch is sent out from Galt—

For the first six months of the year, as announced to-day in building returns, Galt has issued permits to the extent of $266,737, as against $260,032 last year, an increase of 2.5 per cent. The growth of this town is ahead of that of St. Catharines, St. Thomas, Chatham, and Welland, and the prospects were never so bright.

Good for our neighbors, but Brantford still continues to lead the procession in this heretofore. Up to the end of June, 352 building permits had been issued here, representing a total of $604,906, and the last had evidently gone to keep up that splendid gait.

What the Other Fellow Thinks.

As to Foxes Toronto Star: A Ridgely farmer has just paid $14000 for two black foxes. No price at all. We have right here in Toronto several old black foxes on the silver grey side who must be worth more than a million dollars each.

Where Indeed Peterboro Review: Last year Canada sold $167,110,382 worth of goods to the United States and bought from the United States goods worth $441,155,855, and this with a tariff wall for the yankee to get over. Where would we be under reciprocity.

The Flag on Foreign Soil New York Telegraph: "Canadians trampled the American flag and mobbed the men who raised the emblem on Canadian soil. Sorry about it, but the Americans can't blame foreign folk for not appreciating their patriotism—on foreign soil."

Good Crops and Prosperity Dundas Star: Recent rains all over the country, together with the splendid growing weather, have had the effect of renewing confidence in the people generally regarding the prosperity of the country. With good crops of grain, fruit, etc., the people are bound to enjoy a season of prosperity at least.

Keeping the German at Home London Free Press: Not since the formation of the German empire in 1871 did so few German citizens emigrate to foreign parts as in 1912, according to a report by the United States consul-general at Berlin. The number was 18,545, compared with 22,690 in 1911, 25,531 in 1910, and 220,902 in 1881—the high-water mark of German emigration within the period mentioned. The average annual exodus for the whole decade of the eighties was 134,242, for that of the nineties 52,987, and for the first decade of the new century 27,064.

German protectionist policy is credited with effecting the reduction in emigrant figures. The trade of the German empire has made great strides not only in statistical figures of foreign trade but in the profitable employment of the German people.

The net migration of people from free trade Britain last year was fourteen times that of Germany, or 268,486. This is to be read in connection with the fact that Germany's population is one-fourth greater than is that of Great Britain.

Chautauqua and Mexico (Toronto Star) The statement that Europe is looking to the United States to guarantee the safety of European interests in Mexico, is no more than a plain deduction from the Monroe Doctrine. But it would be one thing to give such a guarantee, and quite another to fill it. No wonder that Secretary of State Bryan prefers the pacific and familiar atmosphere of the Chautauqua circle. The United States would take over a task of enormous difficulty and incalculable cost if it attempted to bring Mexico to terms by force of arms. This is perfectly well understood, and so is exceedingly shy about committing itself to any definite policy toward that perturbed country.

"Why did that picture cost so much?" "Well, to tell you the honest truth, I have an idea it's because the dealer who sold it to me is a good business man."

With the City Police

Acting Magistrate Charlton again held down the magisterial chair this morning, and the way he rushed through the cases was worth witnessing.

Antole Karsch, who yesterday pleaded not guilty to purloining a considerable quantity of coal from the Grand Trunk, and who was remanded until to-day, changed his plea to guilty. He said he had been accompanied by two of his friends, but could not remember their names. He was fined $15.00 or 30 days in jail, and was warned that if he was caught taking coal again, it would mean six months at Guelph.

George Kowalick, a young lad only 13 years of age, charged Joseph Zaborski with assaulting and kicking him, without any provocation whatever. Zaborski, on the other hand, stated that the boy had thrown stones at his dog, and when remonstrated with, had thrown them at him. Two other witnesses corroborated this evidence, and the case was dismissed. In discharging Zaborski, his Worship said that the boy deserved all he got, and that if a youngster threw stones at him, he would have done exactly the same thing.

John and Emily Lewis, two Indians living at the corner of Bridge and Centre streets, were charged with having liquor on the premises, contrary to the Liquor Act. They both pleaded guilty and were fined $5 each or one month. Chief Slemm has had many complaints regarding this house, and the people of that vicinity will be glad to hear that there will be no trouble in future.

Frank Turner was also charged with being drunk. It is just one year and twelve hours since Turner was put on the Indian list. He apparently went on a spree as soon as the time was up, but it is likely he will be put on the list for another year. At any rate, the case was adjourned till to-morrow in order to secure the evidence of Mr. Everett, the License Inspector.

THE PROBS

TORONTO, July 18.—The shallow barometric depression, which was over the Lower Lakes yesterday morning, now gives indication of developing into an important disturbance near the Atlantic coast. Showers occurred yesterday forenoon near Lake Erie, and during the night at the Lower St. Lawrence Valley. The weather continues fine and warm throughout the Western Provinces.

FORECASTS:
Fresh north and northwest winds fair and moderately warm to-day and on Saturday.

Temperature
Temperature for the last 24 hours. Highest 82, lowest 61. For the same date last year, highest 85, lowest 57.

Military Notes
Capt. J. S. Brown, R.C.R., will assume the duties of general staff of the second division, during leave of absence of Major J. H. Emsley, from July 18th until August 31st.

The Shovel
The new steam shovel recently purchased by the board of works department, will be put into action some time to-day at the upper end of West street, where improvements to the sidewalk and road will be made.

Colborne Street Picnic
The annual picnic of the Colborne Street Methodist Church Sunday School is being held to-day at Grimby Beach. The picnicers numbering nearly three hundred left by radial at 10:45 this morning.

Tenders Called for Tenders are being called for for the erection of the branch factory for the A. J. Reach Co., sporting goods manufacturers which will be erected at the corner of Gordon and Edward Streets, Eagle Place.

Pay or Be Fined
As summonses have been issued for those who have neglected to pay their Poll Taxes, those who have neglected to pay their Dog Taxes will be the next to receive "an invitation" to appear before His Worship. Take this tip if you have not settled.

A Lengthy Task
The steel work on the new public building in course of erection on Dalhousie street, will take some time yet for completion. Another set of girders has to be put in position and also some of the same kind of work for a tower. A number of expert workers are now on the job.

Y. M. C. A. Team
The Y. M. C. A. football team to play Cookshuts Saturday evening at Agricultural Park, will be chosen from the following players: Jewell, Mason, B. Holland, A. Clark, Roberts, Goodfied, Davis, Hamilton, Poynter, J. Holland, Vipond, Hilsley, Palmer, Richeson. These players are asked to be at Agricultural Park at 5:30.

In Golf Parlance
A huge steam shovel has been placed in operation at the Golf Links by a contractor on the L. E. and N. Ry., who has a contract for construction work. The shovel has made one "big hole" and a lot more to go. The latest big hero of the Brantford links has a number of teamsters acting as "caddies." Those who knew the "strenuous" game are of the opinion that it will not take Mr. Shovel a long time to go over the links.

Will Complete Work
The Y. M. C. A. $80,000 building at Galt will be completed immediately, satisfactory arrangements have been made under which the Brantford firm of P. H. Secord and Sons, who have a Galt office, will make good on default by Contractor Faulkner, who failed recently. The remains comparatively little to do, but still sufficient to call in the services of a firm capable of rushing work. Y. M. C. A. directors are in a happy frame of mind over the prospects of an early auspicious opening.

Natural Causes
"That Mary Walker came to her death from natural causes, which confined in the county jail," was the verdict given by the jury at the inquest before Coroner Fissette in connection with the sudden death of Mrs. Mary Walker on Wednesday. Only one witness, the matron of the jail, was called. She stated that Mrs. Walker had always seemed in good health and had never complained of any trouble. The inquest was merely formal, as the law requires only in cases of death in jail. The night's affair did not last over 10 minutes. The following composed the jury: Edward James, foreman, R. J. Eacrett, T. W. Dowling, Sam Burnley, William Adams, Henry Johnston, Henry Fielden.

The list of those who failed to comply with the law and pay the required ($1) dollar was made the time limit will now have to face the music in front of the police magistrate.

He Got Left
An immigrant train, consisting of 12 cars pulled into the G. T. R. station shortly before 4 o'clock last night. One foreigner on board took a short walk down Market Street and when he returned the train was fast pulling out. He made a race up the track after the train but alas, his sprinting days were over and he was left behind. He was given transportation to his destination to-day.

Mr. Fairchild Leaves
Mr. W. H. Fairchild has received word from the Imperial Construction Co. of Vancouver, B. C., that he has been appointed to manage the work of that company in British Columbia. Mr. Fairchild will have headquarters in Vancouver and will leave shortly for the west, and expects to remove his family to the west later. His many friends will wish Mr. Fairchild success in his work.

BOARD OF WORKS HOLDS A MEETING

Complaint Received - No Oil For Market Square This Year.

A meeting of the members of the Board of Works was held in the city hall last night, when matters of importance were discussed.

The matter of oiling the market square was talked over, and when the committee came to figure out the cost of doing same, they found that it would require some $350, which amount was not at the board's disposal for any of the amount forthcoming. The scheme was abandoned for this year at any rate.

A deputation of citizens residing on Wellington street, in the vicinity of the Gould, Shapley & Muir Company, protested against that firm being allowed to carry on their work on the rear side of the boulevard. They also asked that a sidewalk be laid alongside the factory. Matters have reached the point in connection, when if the company don't cease using the streets for a workshop, the citizens and company may clash in a police court case.

A communication was received from the Parks Board, requesting that the old poultry building be removed at an early date. The board will meet this afternoon to consider what steps shall be taken in the matter.

The question of another or more centrally located municipal corporation yard will also be discussed.

Wants Damages
A communication is on file at the City Clerk's office from M. P. Murr, K. C., on behalf of his client, J. D. Norrie, who claims that one of the hose wagons of the Fire Department collided with his wagon on the Lorne Bridge one day last May while the brigade was responding to an alarm which was rung in from a box in West Brantford, and claims damages which he says were done to his wagon. Mayor Hartman looked the matter up and said it was Mr. Norrie's own fault that he did not get out of the way of the department and has instructed the City Solicitor to that effect.

The Canadian League dope has surely been upset and St. Thomas looks about due for a serious tumble.
With Ottawa and Guelph right on the heels of the Saints, apparently it is anybody's race yet, except Brantford's and Berlin's.

The policy of the Brantford Club
in building up, or hoping to build up, a team entirely composed of youngsters is wrong. Every good club we have seen here in this year has had at least three older players to steady
it. London's strength is due to this largely. If the veterans secured are the right kind, it is the best investment the club can make.

NINE IN A ROW FOR THE COCKNEYS

London Defeated St. Thomas—the Former Leaders, by 12-1.

HECK'S FINE PITCHING

LONDON, Ont., July 18.—London added to its 1913 Canadian League record yesterday by making it nine straight victories, the new leaders having defeated the deposed St. Thomas crew 12 to 1.

"Bobby" Heck was the master of the situation yesterday and pitched a masterful game. He did not allow one base on balls and was touched for but five hits. Two of these came in the seventh round and netted the visitors their only tally. His support was also good. Bierbauer alone had a double and two singles and scored a run to square matters. Neale had a big day with the stick, wallopping a three-ply swat and two singles, and scoring twice on three trips to the plate. He also filled in with a stolen base. Clements, who took the mound for St. Thomas, was inclined to wildness and could not compare with Heck. St. John, scout for the St. Louis Americans, was in the stand during the struggle.

The Duffs are to play the Beavers at Recreation Park Saturday afternoon at 3 p. m. and a hard battle is looked for, as it took 11 innings for Gern Legacy's Beavers to score a win over the soldier boys at Agricultural Park a few weeks ago. The East Warders are a hard team to beat but the Duffs think they can turn the tables this time.

The base ball diamond at Tutela Park has recently been put into excellent shape. The members of the Eagle Place team had earth drawn to the park at their own expense and the steam roller was put to work on the diamond. The Tutela grounds are now the best ball grounds in the city.

GREAT FIELDING BEAT ROCHESTER

Hustlers Twice Were Retired With the Bases Loaded.

THE SCORE WAS 5 TO 4

TORONTO, July 18.—Frenzied finance at its worst had nothing on the ding-dong battle the Leafs and Hustlers provided yesterday at the Stadium. Truly, it was no place for people with weak hearts or a nervous disposition, as the many exciting and heart-breaking moments would fill a book and then some. The game fairly bristled with spectacular plays, heady and daring base-running, pitching of the A1 brand the one moment and then of the bush league calibre the next, while errors were injected into the game just to make things more interesting. Summing it up, pretty nearly everything in the baseball book was thrown in, and when the Leafs got the verdict of a 5 to 4 count the 2,900 fans simply went crazy with delight.

ST. THOMAS WILL PROTEST LONDON'S WIN FROM RED SOX

Claim There is No Authority for Cutting Game at End of Seventh Inning.

(St. Thomas Times)

The Cockneys had the Red Sox beaten so badly in the first game yesterday that it was only a seven inning affair, the second game going the full nine innings. Now the fact that the first game only went seven frames shocked, and probably will, cost the Cockneys the double-header yesterday, as the rules on this matter are very clear. Rule 22, in Spalding's official rule book, under the heading "A Regulation Game," says: "Every championship game must be commenced not later than two hours before sunset, and shall continue until each team has had nine innings," etc.

Now, in the Canadian League terms have been agreed to whereby the second games of double-headers are allowed to go only seven innings, but the rule does not say that the first game shall be a chopped off affair; in fact the rule very plainly says that the game shall have to go nine innings. In this case the first game is void, as it did not go nine innings, while the second game is the same, as it was started before the first game was completed.

On the strength of this rule, and the rule book should be the best authority in the country, President Stanley intends to protest the Brantford-London games yesterday, and if a fair decision is given, both games should be thrown out. Remember 1898. The transaction in Brantford re-

CHICKEN, WATERMELON BROKE HUNGER-STRIKE

Negro Prisoner Could Not
 Withstand Appetizing
 Dishes Before Him

(Canadian Press Despatch)
 ELIZABETH, N.J., July 18.—The prisoner in which Warden Charles of the county jail broke up a hunger-strike yesterday may set a good example, he thinks, to the hundreds of English prisoners who believe in the means of suffragettes who won their liberty by refusing to eat. William Turner, a negro prisoner incarcerated last Sunday,

 sought to gain his liberty in a simple manner. This morning the negro had been 48 hours without food when Warden Dodd appeared at the door of his cell with a steaming plate of fried chicken and a large section of juicy watermelon. Turner sniffed, and his hunger-strike came to an abrupt end.

Soft Mud Saved Him

WOODSTOCK, Ont., July 18.—A remarkable escape from death is reported from Innerkip village, where the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs.
 Thomas Matheson fell twenty-six feet into a disused and empty well,
 and was rescued by neighbors uninjured. Soft mud at the bottom saved the child.

MOST ABUSED IS MR. M'KENNA

He Hasn't Anybody Except Asquith to Stand Up
 for Him.

LONDON.—Who is the most abused man in Britain? Reginald Mc-Kenna. Lloyd George isn't it for a moment with McKenna, for the Welshman has plenty of people to stand up for him, whereas his fellow cabinet minister hasn't much of anybody, except maybe his chum, Asquith.

Nearly everything important and significant that has happened in England lately has happened in the department of the secretary of state for home affairs, the equivalent to some extent of the American secretary of the interior. But where Franklin Knight Lane, of California, started in with a comparatively clean slate, the McKenna slate is scribbled over by militant suffragettes with bombs in their skirt pocket-ets, by railway unions who are again
 figuring on schemes for starving
 London by colossal railway strikes,
 and by all sorts of other victims of arm and bomb makers of normal troubles that are too much for McKenna, and may be for anybody else.

The queer thing about it is that this hapless secretary, who has somehow kept tumbling up from high office to high office, each more important than the last, is now being talked of seriously as the successor to the premiership. Asquith having intimated plainly that he can't stand the strain much longer.
 Will McKenna get it?
 Quite a lot of people would like to know the answer to this question,
 most of all, perhaps, the militant suffragettes, whose previous mild contempt for McKenna has turned to implacable hatred now that he actually has taken steps to suppress them. Not to mention George Bernard Shaw, who recently suggested that the home secretary be examined
 by a commission of medical experts, on the ground that he is laboring under the delusion that he is the czar, and Sir Victor Horsley, the famous scientist, who has us accused McKenna of first attacking his veracity, and then declining to come into the open and substantiate his charges, and finally of intriguing against him at the Royal College of Surgeons.

Mr. McKenna's remarkable success as a failure is the more surprising because, prior to his admission to the cabinet, he had given every sign of being the possessor of a lot of resolution, if not courage. To begin with, he came of stern stock, his father being one of a brilliant group of brothers, of mixed Irish and English blood, each of whom rose from humble beginnings to a prominent place in the world of commerce, and his mother was an Englishwoman of unusual character, in whose veins ran the blood of Fox, who wrote the famous "Book of Martyrs." Reginald McKenna. Moreover, in his younger days was a mighty athlete, who rowed "bow" in the famous Cambridge eight of 1887, and won both the Grand and the Stewards Cup at Henley. Exactly so today, he never has allowed himself to get out of condition, and always has practiced stern self-discipline. Afflicted in his early days, with a slight stammer, which even now returns when he is moved, he read aloud for an hour
 every day, and gradually conquered the impediment in his speech. He is practically a teetotaler and a glutton
 for work.

Will this man without a backbone ever become premier? The thing seems inconceivable though a writer
 London by colossal railway strikes,
 appears to regard it as distinctly among the possibilities. Most authorities appear to agree that the Liberal party has a lengthy tenure of office still before it, and Prime Minister Asquith is notoriously anxious to lay down the burden which he has borne for several years. It is possible that, blind to all appearances, to his friend's weakness, he may regard the present home secretary as a possible residuary legatee.

Who will decide between the claims to the reversion of the premiership
 of Sir Edward Grey, Lloyd George and Winston Churchill? The rivalry between these men may constitute McKenna's chance, especially if he had the present Prime Minister's backing.

 after 15 years of litigation he has

FRENCH BIRTH RATE RISING

Population of Republic Gains 55,000
 in Year
 PARIS, July 18.—The recent tendency toward a decrease in the population of France is checked. Last year the country gained in numbers to the extent of 55,000 inhabitants, while in 1911 the population had diminished 35,000. There were 745,000 births in France in 1912, 3,000 more than in 1911. The mortality of that country fell considerably, for the number of deaths in 1912 was only 600-000, a record low figure. The death statistics for previous years had been 1,007, 792,000, 1,010, 703,000; 1911, 770-000.

GOT NEW IDEAS ON EYE TREATMENT

Dr. Charles A. Jarvis, Optometrist,
 returned yesterday from Rochester, N. Y. where he has been in attendance at the annual convention of the American Optical Association. Dr.
 Jarvis says the Convention was successful beyond his expectations, and that during the convention there were addresses and clinics of an advanced educational nature, dealing almost entirely with modern methods of eye examinations made without the use of drugs. This means the reduction of his work to a more exact science.
 He brings back with him many new ideas as to the latest improvements in eyeglass and spectacle mountings and is especially enthusiastic about improvements in Ophthalmic Lenses.
 Dr. Jarvis has attended most of the annual conventions and says he cannot help but notice the growing tendency of those who attend to study eye work and the fitting of glasses
 from the most scientific and professional standpoint.

TEMPLE BUILDING

THE MYSTERY OF AGATHA WEBB

By Anna Katharine Green, Author of "The Loamworth Case," "Lori Man's Lane," "Hand and Ring," Etc., Etc.

Copyright, 1900, BY ANNA KATHARINE GREEN.

DEAR JAMES—I am going away. I am going to leave Portchester for several months. I am going to see the world. I did not tell you this last night for fear of weakening under the treatment of which I say commands? Lately I have felt myself weakening more than once, and I want to know what it means. Absence will teach me absence and the sight of new faces. Do you quarrel with this necessity? Do you think I should know my mind without any such test? Alas, James, it is not a simple mind, and it baffles me at times. Let us then give it a chance, if the glow and glamour of elegant city life can make me forget certain snatches of talk at our old gate or that night when you drew my hand through your arm and softly kissed my cheek. Then I am no mate for you, whose love, however critical, has never wavered from the first, but has made itself felt even in rebuke, as the strongest, sweetest thing that has entered my turbulent life. Because I would be worthy of you I submit to a separation which will either be a permanent one or the last that will ever take place between you and me. John will not bear this as well, possibly because to him I am simply a superior being, while to you I am a living but imperfect woman, who wishes to do right, but can only do so under the highest guidance.

DEAR JOHN—I feel that I owe you a letter because you have been so patient. You may show it to James if you like, but I mean it for you as an old and dear friend and will one day dance at my wedding. I am living in a whirl of enjoyment. I am seeing and tasting of pleasures I have only dreamed about till now. From a farmhouse kitchen to Mrs. Andrews' drawing room is a lively change for a girl who loves dress and shop only less than daily intercourse with famous men and brilliant women. But

"Dear John," she wrote, "I am bearing it nobly and have developed tastes I did not know I possessed. And no one seems to think I am out of place, nor do I feel so, only—do not tell James—there are movements in my heart at times which make me shut my eyes when the lights are brightest and dream, if but for an instant, of home and the tumble down gateway where I have so often leaned when some one you know who it is now, John, and I shall not hurt you too deeply by mentioning him—was saying good night and calling down the blessings of heaven upon a head not worthy to receive them. Does this argue my speedy return? Perhaps, yet I do not know. There are fond hearts here also, and a life in this country's center would be a great life for me if only I could forget the touch of a certain restraining hand which has great power over me even as a memory. For the sake of that touch shall I give up the grandeur and charm of this broad life? Answer, John. You know him and me well enough now to say."

DEAR JAMES—Why must I write? Why am I not content with the memory of last night? Is it because that when the cup is quite full, a cup that has been so long filling, some few drops must escape just to show that a great joy like mine is not satisfied to be simply quiescent? I have suffered so long from uncertainty, have tried you and tried myself with so tedious an indecision, that now that I know no other man ever more my heart as you have done the ecstasy of it makes me over-communicative. I want to tell you that I love you; that I do not simply accept your love, but give you back the fullest measure all the devotion you have heaped upon me in spite of my many faults and failings. You took me to your heart last night and seemed satisfied, but it does not satisfy me that I just let you do it without telling you that I am proud and happy to be the chosen one of your heart and that I saw your smile and the proud passion which lit up your face. I felt how much sweeter was the dear, domestic bliss you promised me than the more brilliant but colder life of a statesman's wife in Washington. (To be continued.)

There is hardly a phase of life the need of which are not reflected in the Want Columns.

Queen Mary Finds Many Court Articles Loaned by Late Monarch

LONDON, July 18—Queen Mary, who is a most excellent housewife, with an innate hatred of useless waste and a pronounced love of antique furniture, has been conducting a systematic search of all the box rooms of Windsor castle, comparing the contents with the official inventory lists. She has not only unearthed a great many forgotten treasures, carelessly thrown aside under the reign of her late father-in-law, who cared nothing for antiques, but she has also discovered that a great many valuable articles of furniture were lent to personal friends of King Edward, who have never seen fit to return them. All these aristocratic borrowers have now received a note from the court asking them to return the things without delay.

80 YEARS A WORKER SCORNED LIFE OF EASE

LONDON, July 18—Mark Godfrey, famous character of Nottinghamshire, is dead at Carlton, aged 92. He had completed 80 years continuous service with the firm of Messrs. L. and R. Morley, hosiery manufacturers of Leicester and Nottingham. When he reached the age of 90 the firm pressed him to retire on a pension. This he reluctantly did, but shortly afterwards he returned to the works and asked to be allowed to work again, saying he preferred being busy at his hosiery frame to leading an idle life.

LOSS OF APETITE is commonly gradual, one dish after another is set aside. It is one of the best indications that the system is running down, and there is nothing so good for it as Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best of all tonics.

POPULAR BUNGALOW, BEAUTIFUL DESIGN

Designed By Chas. S. Sedgwick, Architect

This unique and low spreading bungalow, indicated by the title given to it "Popular Bungalow" has been very much admired. It is comparatively a new design, but seems to embody all that is to be desired in a bungalow of its size, having two good bedrooms on the main floor and ample space on the second floor for two other good sleeping rooms. This bungalow will cost $3800.00 exclusive of heating and plumbing. The breadth of the front is 47 ft. 8 in. and the total depth 37 ft. 4 in. It is so designed that it is well adapted to a corner lot. Having the vestibule entrance on one street and the piazza across the end fronting on the other street. It is designed to cement the exterior with a rough "pebble dash" finish and paint all of the trimmings white with white sash and stain the roof shingles red, giving the exterior a cream tint. It has also been built of brick to every good advantage, this adds somewhat to the cost. The roof is brought down with wide projecting cornice, the rafters showing and the gables truncated. The living room has large triple windows to the front divided in small lights and on the opposite side of the roof is a wide fireplace made with one central chimney, accommodating the kitchen and heating plant. The living-room opens at the right hand side with French windows onto a wide piazza and connects with the dining-room back through wide casement opening, which also opens onto the piazza with French windows, this is a very pleasing feature of the house. The main living and dining-rooms are finished with beam ceilings. The entrance is through a small portico and vestibule into the living-room. On the left side of the house are two bedrooms with a private hallway connecting the rooms, a bathroom between and ample clothes closets. These rooms have grouped windows on two sides that open up the full height, thus affording the advantage of a sleeping porch. This private hall also connects with the kitchen and with a stairway leading to the second story. The kitchen and pantry are conveniently arranged and there is a small porch also under the main roof, with a space for refrigerator, etc. There is a full basement under the house for laundry, heating plant, etc. The inside is finished with natural hardwood floors and Washington fir, stained dark Mission.

Furnishing To-day's House

By Louise Goodloe Falconer

"To be a 'dreamer of dreams' is a very great asset to the woman making a home, for much of the real beauty must lie in the future, the gradual getting together of this piece of furniture, or that rug, that to her only who has infinite faith, and the ability to see the whole as finished is the reward great. To the home-maker, never when she plants six inch high vines at intervals of three feet around an exceedingly long porch, sees she only the house entirely covered with these same vines, and in such abundance that from the chimney tops can be seen the ends blowing and swaying with every passing breeze. Nor does she see a few sticks stuck upright into some Chinese puzzle design, which an outsider might think a child's garden but only great clumps of shrubs, blooming in rotation and seeming as well as beautifying the entire place. And so while with the outer eye she tends her garden and arranges her house she sees best with her inner one, the ultimate beauty of the whole. Thus no time to her is unprofitable, or lacking in any true essential. I have been especially asked to do gray wicker with cushions of lavender denim. The flower-boxes between each pillar can have heliotrope, ferns and daisies, the yellow centres of the latter giving the touch of yellow wanted. The floor mats should be gray and the hammock of gray cloth, but cushions and pillows should be of lavender denim. If you can afford to screen this piazza, which would more than repay in comfort the money invested, it could be used as a very charming out-door dining-room, as well as sitting-room, and the electric fans could be of gray wicker with wicker shades lined with yellow. To furnish a porch like this is not always as extravagant as it seems, for it lasts for years, and if desired the furnishings can be used in the upstairs bedrooms in winter, when you are more apt to have guests, and the pleasure and comfort you derive from a porch like this is not to be counted in dollars and cents. New Styles in Table Linen. Damask with no other design excepting a plain satin band about three inches wide is the very latest thing for table cloths, although fine damask in all designs is found in the most attractive of these cloths. When the monogram is used on the tablecloth, it should be placed eighteen inches from the center of the cloth towards the corner, and the initials should be from one to one and a half inches in size.

The front bedroom should be done as is the living-room so the curtain effect will be the same from the street. Here the furniture can be of gray or white. The second bedroom can be of the yellow, thus keeping the same tones, but in these rooms, I would use both gray wall paper and rugs. But your porch will be your joy. Here you start with the cream wall, and your furniture should be of the Tablecloths should hang over table about three inches. Dinner napkins must be twenty-six inches square and hemmed, with the monogram placed in the corner. Luncheon cloths are made of damask or linen, broader or not as desired, and of just the same size as the table. They should not hang over the edge. Luncheon napkins are likewise square, and can be either hemmed or scalloped. The favorite linen napkin is twenty inches square. The are of damask and hemmed.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

YOUNG MEN ARE WANTED TO HEAD THE BRITISH NAVY

Policy of Government Is to Get Men Yet in Prime.

YOUTH AND VIGOR VALUABLE AS ET'S

Horace L. Hood, Age 42, is Junior Ranking Officer of England's Fighters.

LONDON—There has been recently a phenomenal run of promotions to the flag list of the British navy. No fewer than 12 captains have been made rear admirals since January 1, the latest being Captain C. Pakenham, a spectator from Admiral Togo's flagship of the battles of the Russo-Japanese war and now fourth sea lord at the admiralty, whose promotion is just announced.

Eleven of these 12 new flag officers owe their advancement to voluntary retirements of admirals, for at the beginning of the year it was expected that only one vacancy would occur, between January and October, this being caused by Sir Charles Hotham's retirement for age. Instead of only one, 12 vacancies have occurred by admirals following the example of Sir Percy Scott, and withdrawing from the active list at their own request.

This flow of promotion has naturally tended to reduce the average age of officers on the flag list. It is the policy of the admiralty to provide a plentiful supply of young admirals for command in case of war, and thus, although promotion to flag rank is still by seniority and not by selection, the retirement regulations for age and for non-service are calculated to ensure that officers shall not be advanced too old to give their best work.

When, as has just happened, promotion is further stimulated by voluntary retirements, it becomes of interest to note the effects, both from the admiralty point of view and from that of individual officers.

Rear Admiral at 38
The average of the 12 new rear admirals is below 50 years—to be precise, it is an average of 42 months. Rear Admiral Horace L. A. Hood, the youngest, is only 42 years of age, and is the second youngest flag officer on the list.

Rear Admiral David Betty, who is also 42, and was made a rear admiral at the age of 38, holds the record in this respect. It appears to be the general view that rear admirals should not be much, if anything, more than 50 years old when promoted.

History seems to support this view for Nelson was only 47 when he fought the battle at Trafalgar, and Drake only 48 when he defeated the Spanish armada. Of the cases where older officers were in command, the victories of Rodney and Howe, who were 63 and 60 respectively, at the battle of the Saints in 1782, and that of the First of June 1, 1794, might have been more complete had younger and more energetic admirals been engaged.

In the desire to have a young rear admiral's list, however, it is often forgotten that the advantages from the national standpoint are offset by drawbacks from the point of view of the officers concerned. Admirals and vice-admirals in the British navy have to retire at 65 and rear admirals at 60.

Promotion at 50, therefore, each officer may have from 10 to 15 years on the flag list, or, if he be fortunate enough to be made an admiral of the fleet, he need not retire until 70, and can thus have 20 years.

But there is only sufficient employment for about half the officers on the flag list at any one time, and so a large number never hoist their flags at all. Of those who do only a small proportion fly them for more than four or five years, so that they, too, have to pass 20 years or more on half pay ashore. Except to fortunate an officer as Lord Charles Beresford only flew his flag at sea for eight years.

The earlier an officer reaches the flag list the shorter his period of service as a captain. The 12 new rear admirals had each completed about 10 years in that grade, whereas 15 years was considered a short time to be on the captain's list a few years back, and both Lord Charles Beresford and Sir Arthur Wilson, were captains for 15 years.

Unlike the admirals, the captains in the British navy are nearly all employed, and it is unusual for an officer in this rank to be long on half pay except when first promoted.

DOES YOUR SIDE ACHE
When the first symptoms appear, rub with Nervilleine—rub it in deeply. It penetrates to muscles and chords that are sore—takes away stiffness—relieves all strain and inflammation. If the condition is chronic, put a Nervilleine Porous Plaster on the affected spot. This draws out any virus or neuralgic irritation, restores the tissues to their wonted healthiness, permanently cures any weakness or tenderness to pain. Nervilleine Plasters absorb all the deleterious secretions through the dilated pores and when used along with Nervilleine itself, every muscular pain or ache must go.

NERVOUS PEOPLE MADE CHEERFUL

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Rebuild Shattered Nerves.

Good blood—rich, red blood—makes all the difference between health and sickness. If the blood is thin and watery, the health of the whole body suffers. The sufferer becomes nervous and irritable; the stomach fails in strength and the appetite becomes poor. Food does not give the necessary nourishment, and the first feeling of weakness passes, as time goes on, into a general breakdown in the health. The case of Mrs. Angelique Gagnon, of St. Jerome, Que., illustrates the truth of these statements. Mrs. Gagnon says: "I am fifty years of age and up to a few months ago always enjoyed the best of health. Then I began to feel run down and weak, without patience or ambition. My appetite grew poor, and my nerves seemed to be on edge, and the least noise or worry would make me irritable and nervous. Life became an actual burden and I could no longer look after my household duties. My doctor prescribed and ordered a change, saying that I was a nervous wreck. I tried to become interested in other things but failed, and my condition was really deplorable. I continued in this condition for several months, gradually going down, and as my doctor was not helping me I was easily persuaded by a friend to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking the Pills for a few weeks I could see an improvement, and I gradually continued using them for a couple of months, when I found my health fully restored. I am more than thankful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me, and I gladly commend them to all who are weak, nervous and run-down."

"By making rich, red blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure such cases as Mrs. Gagnon's. In the same way they cure nervous headaches, neuralgia, indigestion, rheumatism, St. Virus' dance, and the ailments that come to growing girls and women of mature years. If you are at all unwell start a 10-day to cure yourself with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, what they have done for others they will surely do for you, if given a fair trial. Sold by druggists or by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

NEW UNDERGROUND LONDON IS PLANNED

Basement Shop Fronts to Be Opened on Sides of Tunnel Streets.

LONDON, July 18.—A new underground city of London is planned to relieve the congestion of traffic on the streets and before long the city probably will see the light of the sun on Sundays and holidays when not working.

The plan of the new London has been mapped out by Walter Emden, former mayor of Westminster, who proposes to construct streets in arches under existing thoroughfares. The middle of these subterranean streets he would use for vehicular traffic and more particularly for street cars. The side paths he would set aside for pedestrians. In addition he would make it possible for business men who owned the basements on either side of the underground thoroughfares to open shop fronts.

LONDON, July 18.—The Wood-end Infants' school at Shipley in Yorkshire can lay claim to an English record in having no fewer than six sets of twin twins attending school at the same time. All the children are under eight years of age, and in only one instance are the twins boys.
