HUN SUBMARINE WAITING FOR HOSPITAL SHIP.

London, June 17—The British admiralty announces that the area, within five miles of where the Dutch hospital ship Koningin Regentes was sunk has been searched and no mines have been found; but between June 2 and 7 nine newly moored German mines were swept in the track used only by Dutch shipping in repatriating British and German prisoners. "It seems clear" says the statement of the admiralty "that the mines were laid to catch repatriating vessels on their passage west and that the submarine, which laid them, remained in the route to sink the ships on the eastern journey, if not already sunk with British repatriated prisoners. It is remarkable that there were no German prisoners on the Koningin Regentes on this trip.

The Deadly Sex.

(Kansas City Star.) Seymour Seitz, the traffic cop, has been doing guard duty this week, and says the female of the brick throwing species is more accurate than the male.

GERMANS SATISFIED WITH BRITISH FLAG.

Pietermaritzburg, South Africa, June 18—Finance Minister Orra, in a speech here yesterday, said the political position of South Africa was far better than it was two months ago. The people were beginning to see that the British flag is the best.

WILL NOT RECOGNIZE GOVTS. UNDER HUN INFLUENCE.

London, June 18—In the House of Commons yesterday Hon A. J. Balfour said that the Government did not propose for the present to recognize the Finnish government, which seemed undoubtedly to be under German influence. He also stated that as far as he was aware, none of the Allies recognized the independence of Ukraine, which had no assistance from the Allies, since it became completely subservient to Germany.

WILL DISCUSS PROCLAMATION.

London, June 18—In the House of Commons yesterday Sir Edward Carson asked for an opportunity to discuss Lord French's Proclamation and the government's policy in regard to it. Mr. Bonar Law agreed to the request and fixed June 25 as the date.

GREAT WORK BY BRITISH BILDERS.

London, June 18—A fine piece of repair work has just been done by men of mercantile drydock company at Jarow. A steamer, torpedoed, Sunday, was brought to the Tyne the following day with a forty foot rent in her side near the engine room. Early Tuesday she was placed on the admiralty pontoon and the men worked night and day, until Friday carrying out the work. This constitutes a record for the time, men worked forty three hours at a stretch, while others put in four consecutive shifts without a break. Harland and Wolff will probably break their own record of thirty keels last Monday. The firm completed an eight thousand ton oil carrier, which was on the ways, only ten weeks. Her sistership has already been commended and it is expected her launching will take place in from eight to nine weeks.

AUSTRIANS STOPPED EVERYWHERE.

Rome, June 18—In their attacks between Zenson and Fossalta along the Piave, the Austrians have been stopped everywhere, says an official statement issued last night by the war office. In the mountain region and around Montello there have been no infantry attached by the enemy. The Allied troops have taken several hundred additional prisoners and machine guns.

GALLANT FRENCHMEN HELPING ITALIANS.

Paris, June 18—French troops have played a magnificent part in stemming the Austrian offensive. Despite heavy attacks the French lost but four men while they accomplished numerous unusual feats, including the capture of 163 Austrians by twelve grenadiers. That the French are holding new positions is indicated, by the statement that their artillery on the Aigo plateau was master of the Austrians batteries and the decimated the Austrian infantry when it was attacked.

THAT'S THE STUFF.

Sydney, Australia, June 18—A large number of soldiers, including some returned from France, interrupted pacifist meeting at Domain Park and trades hall; only intervention by the police prevented serious riots.

GOOD CHARACTER OF CANADIAN SOLDIERS.

Toronto, June 18—In an address before the Canadian Club here yesterday, Colonel H. A. Bruce, the distinguished Canadian surgeon and members of a British mission to the United States, paid a high tribute to the fighting qualities of Canadian soldiers and indignantly rejected the stories of drunkenness among the Dominion troops.

GERMANS DECEIVED AND DISHEARTENED OVER WAR NEWS.

Geneva, June 18—The enthusiasm created by the first German offensive has past and a feeling of profound deception reigns among the German people, according to an interview, with a neutral diplomat who has just arrived in Geneva from Berlin, in La Suisse. The People at home expected a quick victory from the early reports in the official bulletins and above all, a quick peace. The principal question asked in Berlin last week was "Have we entered Paris?" The Economic situation in the interior of Germany the diplomat declared is becoming more and more serious. Germans, both military and civilian now realize and virtually admit that the constant arrivals of fresh American troops will turn the tide of the war. The diplomat concluded his interview with a statement that during a recent secret sitting of the Reichstag the question for Autonomy for Alsace-Lorraine was discussed officially for the first time since the beginning of the war.

FEEL CONFIDENT OF VICTORY.

Paris, June 18—That the Austrian after three days of furious fighting have not gained any really important success confirms the newspapers in their opinion that the offensive has failed. L'Homme Libre says that the Italian resistance to every attack encouraged the best hopes and is convinced that an Italian victory is assured owing to the excellent spirit of the Italian troops.

THE FRENCH NIBBLING AWAY IN THE WEST.

Paris, June 18—In a local operation south of the Aisne last night the French captured a hundred prisoners, it is announced. The operation was carried out by the 1st Army in patrol encounters.

HUNS AND BOLSHEVIKI IN A STIFF FIGHT IN SOUTH RUSSIA.

London, June 18—German troops in Southern Russia began an offensive eastward of the Veroness front on June 15, says a Russian government wireless message. The Germans are advancing in the Varniska, Rostov and Veltuis regions and foreign minister Tchitcherin has informed ambassador Joffe at Berlin of the latest developments. The ambassador also was advised that the German commander on the Veroness front had proposed a new boundary line to the Russian commander. The Bolshevik war department has ordered the mobilization of all workmen and peasants born from 1893 to 1897 in a large number of provinces. The men are called for six months active service and those refusing to serve will be punished severely by revolutionary tribunals.

LISTEN TO THE GALL OF THE LYING KAISER.

Amsterdam, June 18—The war is not a matter of strategical campaign but a struggle of two world views wrestling with one another Emperor William declared on Saturday at the celebration of the anniversary of his accession at German main headquarters. "Either German principle of right, freedom, honor and morality must be upheld," he added "Of Anglo-Saxon principles with their idolatry of Maimon must be victorious." The Anglo-Saxons, he asserted aimed at making the peoples of the world work as slaves for the Anglo Saxon ruling race and such a matter could not be decided in days or weeks, or even in a year. The Emperor emphasized the fact that from the first he had realized that the trials of war would be great. The first outbreak of enthusiasm had not deceived him. Great Britain's intervention had meant a world struggle, whether he desired it or not. He said he was thankful that Field Marshal Von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff had been placed at his side as counsellors

AUSTRIA HAS 1,000,000 SOLDIERS AGAINST THE ITALIANS.

Paris, June 18—Ninety two Austrians Divisions, consisting of 80 divisions of infantry and twelve of Cavalry have been hurled into the greatest battle that Italy has yet fought. Seventy one of these Divisions have already been identified. The forces engaged comprise three fourths of the whole Austrian army and the choicest troops under the command of Field Marshal Boroevic. The number of men in an Austrian division is not exactly known, but the number of Divisions engaged would indicate that approximately one million Austrians soldiers have been thrown into the battle.

Papers found on officers show that, after forcing the passage of the Piave, the first day's objective, was the Treviso Monte and Belluna railway. In two days of fighting the enemy column had succeeded only in realizing the minimum assigned for the first day. But one single allied aviator has been lost during the Austrian offensive while 44 enemy machines have been brought down.

THE ITALIANS.

Paris, June 18—The reports from the Italian fighting front is encouraging and the newspapers believe that the enemy will be checked. The Echo de Paris says the Austrians may get a repulse which might be turned into a defeat. The Matin declares the present battle is an unquestionable success for the Italians because the Austrians appear to have failed. Almost all the newspapers insist that serious political consequences in Austria-Hungary will follow a check to the Austrian offensive.

FRENCH IMPROVE POSITION—GOT 100 PRISONERS.

Paris, July 17—The French troops improved their positions north and north west of Hautebraye, between the Oise and the Aisne, in a local operation early today. One hundred prisoners and some machine guns were captured, says the official statement issued today. One hundred prisoners and some machine guns were captured, says the official statement issued today. German attacks were repulsed in the Cavieres Wood and in the Vosges.

A SPLENDID ACHIEVEMENT.

The Truro Red Cross Society gratefully acknowledges the splendid donation of five hundred dollars from the local Junior Red Cross. This makes an aggregate of one thousand dollars from these enterprising Juniors since their organization last November and such figures speak for themselves.

The members of this society belong to no leisure class of slackers, but on the contrary they are young ladies who have achieved the above result in face of the fact that their time is almost fully employed in various busy and useful pursuits, some of them doing work which would ordinarily fall to young men who have thus been relieved for active service in France.

If you are asked to guess the one enemy of the Truro Junior Red Cross you may answer, "The Kaiser."

| Valley Station | 5.00 |

This makes a total of about $1620.00 from the Victoria Day Self-Denial for the Red Cross. Well done.

AT THE WAR FRONTS.

The great interest is on the Italian front at present.

For nearly 100 miles, from the Adige to the Adriatic Sea the attack by the Austro-Germans has been most severe; and on the most of this line the enemy has been either held in check or hurled back. It is called a "severe defeat" for the enemy.

Hard fighting is still going on and the enemy in his "massed foundation" is being cut down like grain.

The Allies on the Italian front have captured over 5000 prisoners; and now the fighting has died down a bit to give the enemy a chance to again reorganize. It is a serious failure for the on-rushing enemy, because if he had any chance of a victory, even temporary, it should have been at the first big onset; he failed there, and has been held ever since.

On the Western front there is comparatively lull for the present; and the Hun is preparing for another big offensive; and another big defeat the greatest yet.

Costiveness and Its Cure—When the excretory organs refuse to perform their functions properly the intestines become clogged. This is known as costiveness and if neglected gives rise to dangerous complications. Par-melee's Vegetable Pills will effect a speedy cure. At the first intimation of this ailment the sufferer should procure a packet of the pills and put himself under a course of treatment. The good effects of the pills will be almost immediately evident.

BREAKING THE SUBMARINE REIGN OF TERROR.

Everything points to a decided break in the "reign of terror" that enemy submarines have held out over the commerce of the world to and from British ports.

We agree with Mr. C. E. Bentley, when he says the submarine situation on the other side, has, to a large extent, been conquered, and he gives us strong facts to support his idea. For a long time he says we have been paying $30 per $500 war risk. Insurance yet shipping papers received yesterday show that Lloyds have reduced the war risk insurance to $12; and Insurance Companies do not reduce insurance except for valid reasons. In this shipment of about $6000, the difference in this insurance will be about $140.00.

We want no stronger proof of the Victory over Hun undersea devilishness than such a record as above.

A WELL-MERITED HONOR

The long service of J. T. Fisher, with the C. P. R., will be fittingly commemorated by having engine 2640 named after him. The engine is now in the roundhouse having the newly adopted insignia of the company with the engineer's name incorporated in it painted on the cab and will be again in service on train No. 2 next Sunday morning with Engineer Fisher in charge.

Mr. Fisher is the oldest C. P. R. engineer on the Western division. He came to Medicine Hat in 1882 during construction work and ago passed through the site of the future city in the spring of '83. In '84 he settled in Medicine Hat and has resided here ever since. Popularly known as "Jim" he has long enjoyed the respect and esteem of the company and his fellow engineers, and the latter are delighted to see this mark of appreciation which is being bestowed upon him—Medicine Hat, News.

The passenger traffic on the C. G. R. and Midland Railways at Truro is reported excellent these days.

On Saturday night burglars entered Messrs. Will Spencer and Alfred Jackson's barber shops. From Mr. Spencer's shop on the Esplanade eight razors and some hair dressing were stolen. From Mr. Jackson's place of business on Prince Street, a quantity of hair tonic was taken. There is no trace as yet of the thief.

British cruiser Patra, 6,103 tons, was torpedoed and sunk June 13. One officer and 15 men lost their lives.

A large German U-boat struck a mine and out of a crew of 40 only two survived on Coming to the Surface. The men in this boat for ninety minutes in 100 feet of water struggled for life; 20 reached the surface alive, when the air pressure burst their lungs and they sank like stones; a pretty sad end for these common Hun sea-murderers.

There have been 70,000 men secured in Canada for Military service and the 30,000 additional will be obtained before the Fall.

FRIENDS THOUGHT HE WOULD DIE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Conquered Dyspepsia and Restored His Health.

MR. ROBERT NEWTON.

Little Bras d'Or, C. B. "I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches, and did not sleep well at night. I lost so much weight—going from 185 pounds to 146 pounds—that I became alarmed and saw several doctors who, however, did me no good. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'.

In a week, there was improvement. The constipation was corrected; and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous". ROBERT NEWTON.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

BEAUTIFY OUR CEMETERIES.

Messrs. William Dorrington an Charles Little are doing good work in the Truro Cemetery, Robie Street; and on every side there is improvement, that is making this resting place of our sainted ded more attractive each season.

The adjoining Roman Catholic Cemetery is not so attractively by any means. It needs the skill hands of the expert to greatly improve these grounds, that are rank with shubbery, weeds and that every annoying Moose-grass. Let those in authority get the services, of these in any spare time, of Messrs. Dorrington and Little and a few days extra labor will much improve the appearance of this Cemetery that has a particularly fine natural position.

22ND JUNE AN IMPERIAL DAY

How Canaba will celebrate this year's anniversary of Queen Victoria's accession to the Throne.

On 22nd June 1897 the Diamond Jubilee of Queen Victoria was celebrated throuot the wide Empire which she had done so much to consolidate. 22nd June 1918, will be marked by an event of no less historical importance to Canada. On that day the free people of Canada will pledge anew their devotion to the Allied cause by registering their names and furnishing the Government with all the information essential to a scientific use of their capabilities as a whole. They will do this as a privilege as well as a duty. Canada yields to no nation in its determination to prosecute the war to a successful conclusion, be that happy consummation near, or far removed. The Canadian people have suffered too keenly and fought too valiantly to do other than press on until in the words of Mr. Asquith "the military domination of Prussia is wholly and finally destroyed."

It is to enable Canada to take an even greater part in the conflict than she has heretofore taken that the registration of every resident of the Dominion, male and female of sixteen years and over, has been decided upon. This for the reason that the information obtained on Registration Day will be employed in speeding up essential production directing the flow of labor to the things that really count and generally bringing Canada's participation up to the point of maximum effort.

STRIKE IS OFF.

Te strike at New Glasgow is off; and the 3000 idle men went to work this morning. Wages have been increased as they should have been, and the "recognition of Unions" has waived for the present by the men.

Both employers and employees have learned that these are "war times"; and they must live and work and act accordingly.

ANOTHER HORDE HELD.

The Hun pincers did not work on the western battle front in any offensive, especially between Noyon and Mont Didier in the latest drive; and now the Germans squeezed Austro-Hungarian pincers are not coming together as was ordered and was expected.

With a terrific offensive the Austro-Hungarians made their drive. In places, in masses they crossed the Piave river, but the latest news is that they are being well held by the Italians and their Allies. The charge is terrific, Rome announces the enemy held everywhere.

The Austrians conceded no victory to the Allies, say they have taken 30,000 prisoners and 120 guns; but the Austrian lies oftentimes like the Hun.

DO NOT FAIL TO REGISTER.

81ST BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY AT ECONOMY.

"Aunt Mary" Was the Honored Lady.

On June 1st, a most enjoyable afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. Mary Marsh, Pleasant Street, Economy, the occasion being the 81st birthday of "Aunt Mary" as she is called.

The guests who numbered about forty, included "Aunt Mary" Simpson, another old lady of 90 years; Mrs. W. B. Moore of more than 80 years—both remarkably active ladies; and several mere girls in their seventies—all life-long friends of the hostess.

The afternoon was spent in pleasant talk, singing etc., and a delicious supper was served by the ladies.

The many guests, who came to pay their respects to "Aunt Mary" and the loving wishes and messages show the esteem in which this dear old lady is held in the community in which she has spent all her long, busy life.

Hers was always been a brave, cheerful spirit; and though she was had more than her share of sorrow and hardships, no one has heard Aunt Mary in a complaining word; in other words she is "a real sport."

We join her numerous friends in wishing "Aunt Mary" other, peaceful happy years—Bless her dear, brave heart

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURE'S DIPHTHERIA.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A HUN AND A DECENT MAN.

Captured German Shoots Australian, Yet Hungry Huns Were Fed by Victors.

A Press correspondent, writing from the British battlefield on May 21 says. In the last thirty-six hours we have taken between 700 and 800 prisoners which, for a quiet day, is not bad. Of this number more than 300 were taken by the French in the neighborhood of Loere, in the Kemmel area and the others in the Australian attack, which was a gallant operation because the enemy had all the advantage of position.

He was strongly entrenched along a winding sunken road running north and south across the line of attack from the southern side and the position had to be cleared by bombing. On the northern part of the attack there were places where the Australians had to wade knee-deep in water and the dikes, with the commanding high ground beyond, gave the Germans a very strong defensive position. The whole Australian objective, however, was thoroughly effected.

It is characteristic of the spirit of the two armies that while one German after he had surrendered shot an Australian Corporal, the rest of the German prisoners were treated with the usual kindness. They were extremely hungry, and the Australians immediately turned in and fed them. One German machine gunner, who wore an Iron Cross, arrived at the cages with a notice pinned to him by his captors saying he had fought very bravely and that no one should attempt to take his cross as some of the souvenir hunters might do.

Through the recent fine days and moonlight nights the aircraft has been extremely active, and while no amount of superiority can prevent some of the enemy machines crossing our lines, especially for raiding at night, our airmen are unquestionably the better men.

THE HUNS AND MITTEL-EUROPE.

The Huns have certainly made good their dream to Mittel-Europa.

They have gained by some kind of treaties alliances;

Austria—Hungary.
Turkey.
Bulgaria.

They have taken by force;

Belgium.
Serbia.
Montenegro.
Albania.

Roumania.
Ukraine.
The Crimea

Poland.
Lithuania.
Coulrland.
Livonia.

Estonia.
Finland.

They have become masters and cowards.

Sweden.
Denmark.
Holland.

Their hold on these possessions can only be broken by a defeat in the field, such as the Allies must administer to them, no matter how long the warfare to accomplish this.

ALL RIGHT ALONG THE FRONT

The Germans are defeated on the Mont Didier-Noyon drive front in their drive thru Compeigne, which they did not reach by six miles, and for six days have suffered losses almost as great as they met at the hands of the French before Verdun in that historic six-month struggle of more than a year ago.

This last fight proves that the boast picked soldiers of Germany are not "in it" with the invincible Poilus of the great Republic of France. The Hun died in heaps lie unburied on the battle fields before the advancing French soldiers.

For the present on the Western front in this special offensive the enemy is held. Where will he drive next? Probably against the British. If so Haig is ready; and just as well prepared to meet these fiendish fighters, so reckless of human life in battle, as was General Petain with his brave French forces.

In the meantime, to get the Allies to weaken their troops in the West by sending men to Italy, the Austrians have commenced a drive at places on a front of nearly 100 miles against the Italian and other Allied armies; and so far all is well; but to keep Austria in the War with any kind of heart there must be another successful drive against the Italians.

No one can explain the subtle power that Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil possesses. The originator was himself surprised by the wonderful qualities that his compound possessed. That he was the benefactor of humanity is shown by the myriads that rise in praise of this wonderful Oil. So familiar is everyone with it that it is prized as a household medicine everywhere.

MISS MACDONALD'S RECITAL.

The musical recital given on Thursday evening in Normal College Hall calls for special notice. It is nearly a year since Miss Macdonald's last appearance in concert here, and the program of Thursday evening gave an opportunity to the critical venture comparisons. The audience was of generous size and so warmly appreciative as to make criticism difficult. Still, it was obvious that nature and a year of study had wrought good results, which were evident in copiousness and flexibility of voice, and in purity and restraint of tone. Besides, the singer essayed some numbers of greater character than in former programs, and certain of these call for particular commendation.

Three selections from great master were of such melodic beauty and was rendered with such sentiment and such wealth and dignity of expression as to surpass in emotional effect upon a mixed audience songs chosen for their avowed popularity. The first was an air which has survived from Handel's opera, Rinaldo; the second, O Don Fatalo, from Verdis Don Carlo; the other the beautiful love song from Samson and Delila, My Hart at Thy Sweet Voice.

Other numbers that merited and received all round applause were White Throat, Japanese Deth Song, I'm Wearin Awa Jean, and the pretty French Lyric, Il Neige, whose words, music and lilt were peculiarly captivating.

As encores, Miss Macdonald sang with no less finish and beauty The Last Rose of Summer, and Believe Me if All. Mr. Wellard accompanied throughout, as he always does, with accuracy, confidence and sympathy.

The program comprised also three piano numbers by Miss Anna Macdonald, one of them a MacDowell double number, interestingly and well rendered the others, a Valse and a Polonaise of Wieniawski and Liszt, respectively, both played with ease and charm.

THE HABIT OF HAPPINESS.

How are we to get the habit of happiness into our life? The answer is very simple—just as we get any other habit wrought into our life. There are some persons to whom the lesson does not seem hard, for they are naturally cheerful. There are others who seem to be predisposed to unhappiness, and who find it difficult to train themselves into joyful mood. But there is no Christian who cannot learn the lesson. The very purpose of divine grace is to make us over again, to give us a new heart. A man who has formed the habit of untruthfulness, and then becomes a Christian, may not say that he never can learn now to be truthful—that untruthfulness is fixed too obdurately in his being. No evil can be so stained into the soul's texture that grace cannot wash it white. The love of Christ in one makes him a new man; and whatsoever the old is, it must give way. So, though we have allowed ourselves to drift into the habit of gloom and sadness, there is no reason why we should not get our heart attuned to a different key and learn to sing new songs.

DR. J. R. MILLER.

TRANSMIGRATION

In New Jersey one morning Perkins looked over his fence and said to his neighbor:

"What are you burying in that hole?"
"I'm just replanting some of my seeds, that's all," was the response.
"Seeds!" exclaimed Perkins angrily. "It looks more like one of my hens."
"That's all right," came from the man on the other side of the fence. "The seeds are inside."

DETH OF ARCHDEACON MARTELL.

(Hants County Journal June 12th.)

The whole community was shocked at the news of the death of Archdeacon Martell, which occurred at the Halifax Infirmary on Friday morning.

It is now a little more than five months since the Archdeacon's illness began, and it was six weeks ago, that at the advice of our local doctors he was taken to Halifax for treatment. On Tuesday of last week he was obliged to undergo a very serious operation, and though at first he seemed to rally, it proved too much for his strength.

Dr. Martell was not only beloved by the members of his own congregation but during his residence in Windsor, he had won the esteem and affection of all who knew him. He was a public spirited citizen, and was interested in everything which tended to the welfare of the town. He was emphatically a man's man, strong, hopeful, encouraging, and sympathetic, to all with whom he was brought in contact, and was particularly active and useful, up to the time that his health gave way, in the administration of the Patriotic Fund.

When the 112th Battalion was formed he acted as their Chaplain as long as they remained in Windsor, fulfilling his duties faithfully, though refusing to take the remuneration to which he was entitled.

The Archdeacon was born in Cape Breton, and came to Windsor first as a boy to attend the Collegiate School under Dr. Willets. He entered King's College in 1879, and graduated in 1883 and was ordained the same year by Bishop Binney. In 1884 he became rector of Maitland, where he spent 24 years of devoted work. In 1908 he was elected rector of Windsor, and in 1912, after the death of Archdeacon Kaulbach, he was appointed by Bishop Worrell to the Archdeaconry of Nova Scotia. The honorary degree of D. C. L. was conferred upon him one year by King's College.

He was for many years a member of the Board of Governors of King's College, and of the Board of Directors of the church School for Girls, in both of which institutions he took the deepest interest.

He is survived by his wife and one son, the Rev. W. R. Martell, rector of Bridgewater, to whom we extend our sincere sympathy.

The funeral was held on Tuesday. Following the service in Christ Church the remains were conveyed to the depot and taken to Maitland, where interment took place the same afternoon.

A large number of clergymen from various sections of the province were in attendance, and the service at the church, took place at 4 o'clock.

The edifice was thronged. The service was of a most impressive character, and many of the congregation were in tears.

The casket containing the remains was placed in the chancel, where during Monday and Tuesday many of the citizens entered the sanctuary to look upon the face of the loved Rector. Many floral evidences of esteem were on and about the casket, and on either side of the chancel steps.

Psalms 39 was chanted, and hymns 219 and 280 were sung. Rev. Dr. Morris, of Middleton, read the lesson, and Rev. Dr. Vroom said the prayers. A beautiful address was given by Archbishop Worrell who paid a glowing tribute to the worth of the departed; Rev. Dr. Willets played the Dead March in Saul, all the congregation standing.

(We can add but little to the above kindly words concerning the deeply lamented Archdeacon of Nova Scotia Dr. Martell had hosts of warm friends in Truro, and St. John's church was always crowded, when it was known he was the preacher of the day. After the death of Archdeacon Kaulbach, Dr. Martell was suggested the Rectorship of St. John's but he would not leave his pleasant work, with Christ Church, Windsor. It will be long before we shall see his like again—Ed. News.)

NATIONAL REGISTRATION.

On June 22nd, 1918, every person in Canada, man or woman of 16 years, of age or over will be required by law to answer a set of important questions for the information of the Government.

This is national registration. What does it mean?

It means a national inventory of our man power and woman power—A Dominion-wide stocktaking. No unit of human energy must be missed.

We already know the output of our factories and farms. We know the possibilities of our mines and forests but we have never found out what capacity for national service is represented by our men and women and our boys and girls. This National Registration will tell us.

How is National Registration to be accomplished?

Registration means that five millions of people will each have to answer more than a score of questions in a single day.

It means that 25,000 places of registration will have to be found. It means that an army of 150,000 registrars five times the size of the 1st. Canadian Contingent, will be required on this day. As many of these as possible should be volunteers.

National Registration is a tremendous task no matter how long the time is given to it, in New York State a registration like ours took two weeks, but in Canada it is going to be done in 15 hours. It is the biggest single job that Canada has ever undertaken.

Registration is compulsory—It is enforced by law.

It is an easy law to obey. You can register at the booth most convenient to you. Once you have registered you will get a certificate which how that you have complied with the regulations.

But not those who do take the law seriously, who fail to register will find it very inconvenient to live in Canada. After the 22nd of June no one can lawfully draw wages or salary who has no registration certificate in his possession.

No one who has not registered can lawfully employ labor.

A person who cannot produce a registration certificate is liable to be refused a meal or room in a restaurant or hotel, or prevented from travelling on a railway or steamboat.

The right thing and wise thing is to register.

HAND AND GLOVE WITH ENEMY.

Jassy, Rumania, June 19—The opening of parliament in the national theatre Monday passed off in quiet and dignity. The Queen and the Princess did not appear and the diplomatic corps was not invited to attend. King Ferdinand was loudly cheered as he entered the building and his reference to peace having been forced on the country evoked a storm of applause which lasted several minutes. A passage in his address concerning the resumption of friendship with the Central Powers also was applauded.

CHEER ITALIAN ARMY.

Rome, June 17—There were scenes of great enthusiasm in the Chamber of Deputies today when the minister of war, General Aupelli, announced the success of the Italian troops and the repulse of the enemy, despite his numerical superiority on the greater part of the front. The whole House rose and applauded. The war minister said that the capture of the three thousand prisoners was proof that the Italian troops were truly heroic.

AUSTRIANS VERY STRONG— BUT WELL HELD BY ITALIANS.

Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy, June 16. In their attempt to cross the Piave in Great force Saturday the Austrians had the city of Treviso as their objective. In getting across the Piave the Austrians paid a tremendous sacrifice before the machine gun fire of the Italian defenders of the western bank. Counter-attacks by Italian infantry and heavy Italian artillery fire have forced the enemy to retire from most of his gains along the Piave.

An order found in the pocket of prisoners was to the effect that the Austrians were to be at Praegnaio, south of Treviso, on Sunday night.

The situation on the Italian front, in its entirety, seems very reassuring, says a semi-official note issued last night. It is added that the great battle, which broke out Saturday has but begun. Altho having a strength of 100 Divisions the enemy attacking forces have not succeeded in passing the Italian advanced area at any point. Austrian pressure continues very strong along the entire front. The enemy is concentrating most powerful and fierce attacks astride the Brenta and across the Piave line it is still possible for the fight in and to flow backwards or forwards

HUN AUSTRIAN OFFENSIVE IS VIEWED IN LONDON.

London, June 17—The Outcome of the Austrian Offensive is viewed hopefully, even confidently, by the newspapers here. This view is based on the staunch resistance of the Allied defensive and the failure of the enemy to make anything like a big success in his initial advance. It is admitted that some days must pass before the results of fighting on such a great scale can correctly be judged, but the conviction is firmly expressed in several quarters that the failure of the enemy to succeed in his attempt to cross the Piave "on the first day of these attacks as conducted on the modern German plan has hitherto been fatal as in the case of Vimy Ridge and in the present case of the fact of failure can hardly be doubted." The newspaper cites the opinion of its correspondent on the Italian front that no enemy offensive up to this time has begun so badly and adds "There is strong ground for believing that an enemy failure is imminent." The opinion is expressed by several papers that there is a direct connection between the initiation of the offensive and internal conditions in Austria-Hungary.

PARIS HAS A BREATHING SPELL.

Paris, June 19—Reports of the Austrian repulse on the Italian front, the comparative quiet of the French and British lines, silence on the part of the long range guns for six days and the inability of the Hothas to cross the terrific defensive barrage in their last three attempts to reach Paris, only one German having succeeded in flying over the city, have caused the taut nerves of Paris to relax. The city was assumed an appearance nearer that of before the War than at any time since the opening of hostilities

RAIN WANTED.

Winnipeg, June 19—"Western Canada needs rain from Winnipeg to the mountains and weather conditions for the next two weeks will largely determine what the 1918 wheat crop will be", said J.S. McGrager, Manitob director for the food board, on his return yesterday from an extended inspection.

BLACK-EYE FOR WOODEN SHIPS.

Victoria, June 19—Dr. S. F. Tolmie, M.P., is in receipt of a telegram from the deputy minister of marine and fisheries stating that the Imperial Munitions Board will let no more contracts for wooden ships in Canada, pending the receipt of word regarding the British government's future policy in the construction of such vessels.

WHERE THE NEXT BLOW?

Paris, June 19—The lull in fighting activity prevails on the western front but military critics expect another battle will be begun soon by the Germans. The Petite Journal thinks that the Germans will strike either the road to Calais or in the direction of Paris, perhaps on both fronts simultaneously. The Echo Paris believes that the next German effort will come between Mont Didier and Chateau Thierry, across the Oise and Aisne to the Marne.

HEVY HUN HOWL

Amsterdam, June 19—"When reports that ten thousand Germans have been expelled from China and interned in Australia are proved", says the Deutsche Tages Zeitung of Berlin, "The German government will collect ten thousand inhabitants of French occupied districts and send them to prison until the Germans are returned to China and compensated for their losses"

POLES IN THE FIGHT ON THE WEST—AN ANSWER TO GERMANY.

Paris, June 19—Fighting under the general flag Poland the First Polish Regiment of the First Polish Division entered the front line trenches opposite the Germans yesterday. Within the sound of the roar of cannons and in the presence of military and civil authorities, the regiment received its battle flag and entered the war on the side of the Allied. "It is a reply to Germany's contention that the Polish question is settled," said Genl. Archinard, chief of the Polish military mission to France. Poles, who have escaped from Germany and Poland or who have succeeded in leaving America and other countries, form the bulk of the Polish legion, which may shed its blood tomorrow against German autocracy in the defence of liberty and the Autonomy of Poland.

Amid an impressiv silence the chaplain of the regiment, facing the troops and raising both hands above his head gave them this oath, "I swear before God, before the Holy Trinity that in-allegiance to my country I am ready to give up my life to the last drop of blood in the service of the holy cause Poland. To obey my chiefs and to remain true to Poland and one indivisible. The Polish officers and soldiers cheered as they repeated the oath.

Paris, June 19—The front of the new German attack is the semi-circle drawn by the enemy at the city of Rheims in the recent offensiv on the Aisne front. The Rheims region comprised the left flank of the German attack. Ground was given by the French on both sides of the cathedral city, but the town itself and the nearby protecting forts were held against the German onslaughts and have since, remained in French possession. Rheims, however, was hemmed in on three sides by the enemy, and it has been considered only a question of time when the Germans would make a concerted movement to oust its defenders. The front of the present attack from Trigny, west of the city, to La Pompelle around the semi-circle to the east, is approximately 14 miles.

The French are resisting the German blow with entire success.

HUN WILL BREAK DOWN FIRST.

London June 18th—"After three days of attack the Austrian offensiv has not secured the objectives hoped for on the first day", said Andrew Bonar Law in the House of Commons today. He added that there was reason to believe the initiative for the Austrian offensiv had come from Berlin. Mr. Bonar Law read extracts from the minutes of the last supreme war council which was held at Versailles. They stated that thanks to the prompt and cordial cooperation of America it would be impossible for the enemy to gain a victory by wearing down the allied reserves before exhausting his own.

FAIRY ROSABEL.

Alda tossed the moist curls away from her flushed face. The sunshine was very hot. Baby Brother was cross, and Alda was tired of amusing him. Now he had gone sound asleep in his carriage. "Now I can do as I please," she thought. "I will take my new book and go out in the hammock."

In the kitchen she found her mother bathing her aching head. The sink was full of dirty dishes, and the living-room floor was strewn with baby's toys.

"I am glad baby is asleep," said mamma. "for now you can wash these dishes. I must lie down a little while, but perhaps I shall feel able to finish the work."

Alda wanted to pout. The kitchen was hot, and there was a nice cool breeze swaying the hammock under the apple trees. But she felt sorry for poor mamma. Suddenly she remembered one day at grandma's when she had played fairy. It had been a happy day, though a busy one. She decided to try it again. "O yes, mamma," she said cheerfully, "you must have a nap, and then you will feel rested. I am going to be your fairy helper this morning. My name is Fairy Rosabel, and you'll see how pretty my wand will make everything look."

Mamma went smilingly up to her quiet room.

Alda ran out to the garden and chose two lovely blush roses, which she fastened above her curls. She found a broom and dust cloth and began her fairy work.

Fairy Rosabel brushed the crumbs from the dining table and swept the carpet. After she had dusted, she went out to the garden again and picked a bowlful of pansies for the table. When she had picked up the blocks, toy auto, horse and cart, and other playthings which belonged to Baby Alan, opened the windows to let the cool breezes in, and lowered the shades to shut out the warm sunbeams, it really seemed as if a fairy had been at work. It took longer to make the kitchen tidy and neat. The dirty dishes were placed in their hot, soapy bath, rubbed dry, and put away in the pantry. At last Alda saw nothing more that she could do indoors. "Mother was going to pick some peas," she remembered. So she found a basket and went out into the vegetable garden.

"Hello, Alda," called Grandpa Pratt who was hoeing his garden across the fence. "Busy as a bee, aren't you?"

"I'm Fairy Rosabel, grandpa," replied Alda. "Mamma isn't very well, so I'm helping her. It's lots more fun when you're a fairy."

"Fairy Rosabel? Ah, yes, yes," said grandpa. "Seem's to me I've met you before. Didn't you visit gramma and me one day? If I remember you found my specs, ran some errands, and helped gramma till we were real sorry when Fairy Rosabel had to go home. I never believed much in fairies, but I must say I have taken quite a notion to Fairy Rosabel."

"Perhaps I'll come again some day," laughed Alda as she pulled the crisp, green pods from the vines. Soon her basket was brimful.

Then Baby Alan awoke and began to cry. He was smiling and ready for a frolic when she took him gently up.

Mamma came downstairs a little later rested and with more color in her pale face. From the window she saw Alda and Alan playing under the trees. She went out and joined them. There was a dishful of plump green peas which Alda had shelled. Alan was shouting gleefully as he pushed the empty pods through the wire netting of the poultry yard for the hens to eat. Fairy Rosabel's roses were wilted, her curls were tumbling about her face; but it was a smiling, happy face.

"Well, my dear Fairy Rosabel," began mamma, "I see you have been waving your wand while I slept. The house looks very nice. I think I am fortunate to live with such a helpful little fairy. 'Are you very tired, dear?'"

Alda shook her head. "You're forgetting, mamma. Fairies don't get tired. Alap and I had a nice time. Now let's get the luncheon, for I'm hungry as a bear."

Mamma looked surprised. "I didn't suppose that fairies ever got hungry," she laughed.

Alda tossed away her withered roses. "You see, Fairy Rosabel is gone away now, she said roguishly, "until next time."
Nellie M. Lennard, in Epsworth Herald.

CANADIANS WILLING FOR ANY WAR WORK—ALLIES FACING SERIOUS PROBLEM.

London, June 13—Sir Edward Kemp gave a dinner in honor of Premier Borden and his colleagues, last night, the guests including Gen. Sir Arthur Currie, who made a remarkable impression in the address made.

The company consisted entirely of Canadians and including many Generals on leave from the front, General Turner, and others of the High Command in England. "When first we came to England, declared General Currie, "We were not regarded as the finest soldiers in the world. We had many things unjustly said about us with the consequence that the Canadians went to France determined to prove for their own sake and for Canada's sake that Canadian's were fit to take their place beside the veteran soldiers of the British Army. I want to deny that Canadian soldiers, or overseas soldiers have been placed deliberately in the hottest part of the line, but I will say that the temper of the Canadian soldiers is that there is no position they are asked to take that they will not take."

"I never knew the Canadian soldiers to be in finer fighting fettle than tonight. The situation in France is serious. There is no use hiding it. I believe that the truth has been hidden too long. The German has struck four mighty blows with success, and it is just a question how many blows we can afford to endure. Personally I think that the great factor is that if we can stop and fight the Bosche we can kill a sufficient number that will make him sick. I believe that is the temper animating the whole army, and I know we shall never take such delight in killing him as when we next meet. It comes to a question of who can stand killing the longer."

Sir Edward Kemp, in proposing the health of Sir Robert Borden, said the ministers at Ottawa, some time ago displayed a misconception of what was going on here. The staff in England, however, were most desirous that every inquiry should be made as to what was done here.

Sir Robert Borden replying, said, amidst laughter, that there were times when the ministers in Ottawa would be very glad to be three thousand miles away. There are men in the Canadian Government today, continued the premier, "Who had been strong political opponents for many past years. I have been associated with them for more than eight months now and I can truthfully say that since the new government was formed, there has not been any purpose or intention but that of duty to their country and to you who are fighting."

"Hello, Alda," called Grandpa Pratt who was hoeing his garden across the fence. "Busy as a bee, aren't you?"

"I'm Fairy Rosabel, grandpa," replied Alda. "Mamma isn't very well, so I'm helping her. It's lots more fun when you're a fairy."

"Fairy Rosabel? Ah, yes, yes," said grandpa. "Seem's to me I've met you before. Didn't you visit gramma and me one day? advanced a short distance with little cost and a number of prisoners taken. In the latter area the French troops improved their positions in the neighborhood of the Ridge Wood and captured thirty prisoners.

GERMANS ARE HELD UP IN SOUTHEAST OF SOISSONS—A DECIDED DEFEAT.

Paris, June 13—The attack southwest of Soissons, on the front between the Aisne and the Marne, has been broken up by the violent resistance of the French. The enemy has made progress, which is absolutely insignificant at a price of heavy losses. In addition the German advance has been held up for several days and the morale of the German troops is suffering in consequence.

PIANO RECITAL.

Miss Gourley's fifth pupil's recital took place at the residence of Mrs. G. E. Bentley, Elm St., on Friday afternoon, May the thirty first when her daughter Miss Lillie assisted by members of her class, and teacher rendered the following program.

- (a) "Rondo Villageois"—Dennee.
- (b) "Tarantelle"—Sturkow. Lillie Bentley.
- (a) "March"—Schwalm. (b) "Andante" (G major symphony)—Haydn. Florence McCully-Rita Donkin.
- (a) "Slumer Song"—Salmon. (b) "Selection"—Knabel. Lillie Bentley.
- (a) "Allegro Moderato"—Schubert. (b) "The Awakening of the Lion"—A. de Kontski. Rita-Donkin - Miss Gourley.

These recitals are growing in favor with both pupils, and their friends, under the efficient management of the original, talented, and faithful teacher.

Miss Gourley possesses an unusual gift in imparting knowledge, and inspiring her pupils to do their best.

Miss Bentley's delicate touch was especially noticeable, and was well suited to the chosen compositions, which rendered by many other beginners would have been spoiled.

The piano, in this instance the "Amherst" as well as the selections, favored the pupil.

Nova Scotia is learning gradually that she can manufacture even good pianos and the "Amherst" is one of the number, which deserves mention.

In addition to the recital, songs played by Miss Bentley, the songs were much appreciated, especially those of the fourth number, which received hearty applause.

Following the program, a little box full of bird cards appeared on the table, which were soon divided among the company, and an interesting game was played, which resulted in Miss Rita Donkin capturing the largest number of books.

Mr. W. B. Murphy's anniversary week was remembered by Mrs. Bentley, in a very pleasing way for the guests. His delicious strawberry ice-cream was served, and enjoyed by all, after which the company departed, with expressions of appreciation regarding the sixth recital.

HUN SOLDIERS SMOKE BEECH LEAVES.

Amsterdam, June 13—The tobacco substitute, supplied to the German army, has proved more injurious than enemy gas attacks, Deputy Mueller, of Meiningen, declared in the Reichstag on Tuesday. Other deputies sharply criticized the army administration for supplying the army with the substitute, which is composed of beech leaves.

Paris, June 17—"Havas Agency" Premier Clemenceau spent Sunday at the front. The petit Journal says the Premier refused to talk but that he smiled when he declined to discuss the situation.

THE RULES OF THE GAME.

(By the Rev. Charles Stelzle.)

They have "studied the problems of slum-life," (A venture which brought them renown.)
Though the blood and the sweat
And the smells that they met.
Drove them back to their homes up-town.

They were seized with a fainting sensation
As they passed us in filth without name
But they thought that they knew
What "the masses" pass through,
In keeping the rules of the game.

Not a laugh did they hear on their journey,
To smile had become a lost art.
But they never drew near
To help drive away a tear
Or to cheer up a dull aching heart.

Each soul that they met as they lingered,
Seemed damned to an eternal hell.
But the aim of our strife,
And our struggle in life,
Is always to break from our cell.

If we're judged by their rules of the battle,
Or tried by their rules of the game,
We would ne'er win the fight
By the power of our might,
Nor be counted with those who o'er-came.

But the Great Referee to the Contest
Whose judgments ne'er come with a snap,
For He knows the whole game,
And He knows why we're lame,
He'll give us a big handicap.

This Is Horrid.

A Story of Crucifixion.

(From a Chicago Special to the New York Times.)

Corporal James Irving Parker of Chicago, who recently returned from the western front, where he drove an ambulance truck for the French army, but who is an enlisted man in the United States Signal Corps, relates a story of German atrocities culminating in the crucifixion of fifteen Canadian soldiers.

"We were moving forward in the Chemin des Dames drive last October on the heels of the fleeing Huns," says Corporal Parker. "A crowd of truck drivers was billeted for a few hours' sleep in one of the French chateaux which the Huns, in their flight had failed to destroy.

"We were congratulating ourselves on the excellence of our quarters when a poilu appeared and said in broken English, 'Americans come with me.' We followed him up a broad, winding staircase and entered a room that must have been thirty feet square. On the walls of that room hung fifteen crucified Canadian soldiers. Five hung on each three of the walls.

"Four spikes to a man were used in the crucifixion, one through each wrist and one through each ankle. The victims were thirteen privates and two officers, all in full uniform. There were no wounds on the bodies of the men other than those made by the spikes."

"A Canadian regiment had been placed at this point of the Chemin des Dames sector about two weeks before to relieve the war-worn poilus, Corporal Parker explained, and a few days before the drive thirty of them had mysteriously disappeared. Parker, who is home on two months' leave after being gassed, is the son of James J. Parker, a real estate broker at 69 West Washington street.

A MAN.

Denny curled one short leg a little farther underneath his small body and dropped a rosy cheek into a very plump palm. "Course," quoth he dubiously, "there is the old wood box to fill. Always is an old wood box to fill when Saturday comes. If ma only thought so, she could fill it herself and let me do something that'll make a man. Ben Lee says it's doin' stunts and goin' fishing and—athletics—makes one a man."

Then quite suddenly Dennis Jones, Jr., stood upright. His shoulders were straight as straight could be. "I'm going to do something toward being a man," declared he emphatically. "Just will. I'd like to ask pa the best thing, 'cause he'd know." His shoulders dropped a little. "S'pose," said he rather ruefully, "I might's well go full that old box."

But when he reached the kitchen he found not only his mother, but Aunt Sue there. And the very first words that his mother said were: "Denny, I wish you'd hurry with that wood" and then Aunt Sue wants some peas. "You'll have to get them for her, dear."

So when the wood box was full Denny gathered the peas and started back toward the house; but Aunt Sue saw him and came to meet him and took the pail of peas. "How good they look" she smiled. Then: "Mother's half sick, Denny boy. Try to help her all you can to-day."

Denny stood very still. He looked this way and that. Across the field the boys were doing stunts. Beyond the hill Ben was fishing. Then he swallowed twice very hard. With the back of his hand he wiped something from his eyes. But of course she was sick—Sturdily he marched up the path to the house. "Want me to pick your peas now, ma?" he asked. He was busy all morning.

After they were picked, the peas had to be shelled, and then there was a sack of baking dishes to be wiped; and after dinner, when he had about decided to saunter away over the hill, he suddenly noticed how very white his mother was, and something he couldn't help saying: "I can wash those dishes as well as wipe 'em if I am a boy. You go and lie down. I had a headache once, and I know just how they feel. I'll stay around and answer the door."

When he caught sight of the look that came into her eyes, he felt exactly as if he had won a game at ball. It seemed all at once as if he was at least two inches taller. The dishes done, he wandered into the garden and weeded awhile. "Might as well," he reasoned, "as long as I've got to stay around. Then pa won't have it to do to-night."

Before he knew it he was whistling. It seemed to him that he had never felt so good—as if the world were somehow as smooth and soft as silk—and he hadn't the least idea it was five o'clock until he heard a hearty voice just above him say: "Mother's been telling me our boy's the best thing ever."

Looking up, he saw his father—tall, handsome, eyes shining—holding out his hand. "Denny," said he—and something in his voice made Denny wink very fast—"here's my hand to a lad who's on the straight, sure road to becoming a man."—Child's Gem.

MY NEIGHBOR.

I thank Thee, Lord, that I have known
The sullen pain of care;
Have longed and waited, while men's ways
Seemed neither just nor fair.
For when I see my neighbors frown,
I know the weight they bear.

Lord, I am glad that I have had
To count each mite, and try
To plan so wisely, that my needs
Would wait for my supply
For when my neighbor darts and mends
I know the reason why.

And, Lord, I thank Thee, too, that I
Have sometimes failed; and quite
Discouraged turned to climb anew
The long hard upward flight
For when my downcast neighbor smiles
I honor him his fight.

GHOULISH HUNS PARADE THEIR PRISONERS.

A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN.

When the Blood is Out of Order the Nerves Are in a Starved Condition.

The nerve system is the governing system of the whole body, controlling the heart, lungs, digestion and brain; so it is not surprising that nervous disturbances should cause acute distress. This first stages of nervous debility are noted by irritability and restlessness, in which the victims seem to be oppressed by their nerves. The matter requires immediate attention, for nothing but suitable treatment will prevent a complete breakdown. The victim, however, need not despair for even severe nervous disorders may be cured by improving the condition of the bloods. It is because Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new, rich food that this medicine has cured extreme nervous disorders after all other treatment had failed. The nerves thrive on the new blood made by these pills; the appetite improves, digestion is better, sleeplessness no longer troubles the former nerve-shattered victim, and life generally takes on a cheerful aspect. Every sufferer from nerve trouble, no matter how slight, should lose no time in giving Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial, thus regaining their old-time health and comfort. Mrs. Victor Booth, Parry Sound, Ont., offers proof of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, in nervous troubles. She says:—"Some years ago I was taken ill with typhoid fever. The attack was not a severe one and after a few weeks I was around again. But I did not recover my former strength, my nerves began to give me trouble. The trouble went on from one stage to another until finally St. Vitus dance developed. I was under the care of our family physician but my condition appeared to be growing worse. It was at this stage I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and, after taking a couple of boxes I could see they were helping me. I continued taking the pills until I had used eight boxes when my health was fully restored, and I have since continued to enjoy that blessing. I have recommended the pills to other and I always keep them in the house, having proved their great value."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

EARLY SHIP BUILDING.

Erect on Runners Island—The Political Namesakes.

In respect to the revival of ship-building along the shores of the Cobequid Bay, some remarkable feats are told, but the feats in that respect in connection with that shore are no greater, if as great as they were more than a half century ago:

We recall that the late James McCulloch of Debert River, Colchester County, uncle of Conductor Hugh McDorman of the C.G.R., New Glasgow, and Mr. James McDorman, of the same road, Truro, built two schooners, in his mill yard, at the first named place. They were built on runners, and drawn by oxen, three miles to Masstown where they were launched into the Bay waters. The names of the crafts were the Curlew, and the Brooks, and one of Mr. McCulloch's sons, George, was lost when the Brooks was wrecked on a voyage from Boston to Masstown.

It was about the time of the American war, and the vessel used to carry four from Boston, to Nova Scotia, which sold for fourteen dollars a barrel. About the same time two schooners, were built by Heffler Bros. at the head of Bedford Basin, and were named one the Dr. Charles Tupper, and the other the Joseph Howe, after the two great political leaders of that day, and if their voyages were attended by as big tempests as Tupper and Howe, used to stir up in the provincial building in Halifax, in debate they had a rough career of it.

CONSIGNEES MUST ACCEPT GOODS.

Ottawa, June 8—If delivery of cars containing foodstuffs be not accepted by a consignee the railways are now reporting the circumstances promptly to the Canada Food Board. To date, approximately six hundred such cases have been investigated and dealt with; and in some instances it has been found that consignees are refusing to accept shipments, because of a falling market.

DON'T WASTE FOOD.

The Order-in-Council against waste, making it an offence subject to heavy penalties, would apply if food were wasted in any of the following ways:

1. If food for human use is fully or negligently damaged or thrown away.

This applies to proprietors of hotels, clubs, restaurants, cafes, steamships, dining cars, etc., managers of institutions, church societies or lodges, private householders or other persons who destroy or discard good food; also to wasteful picnic parties or travellers; also to hunters, fishermen, etc., who neglect to save game or fish secured by them.

2. If the person having control of food omits to take any precaution which should reasonably be taken for its preservation.

This applies to persons anywhere who allow food to spoil, if it could be saved by cooking, canning or other treatment; also to careless and wasteful cooks; also to farmers, gardeners, or their producers who neglect to protect grain, produce or other food against deterioration or loss; also to merchants who allow candy, fruit or flies, dust moisture, etc.; also to persons who, through careless storage, leave food accessible to rats, mice, or other vermin also to handlers who cause waste by careless packing or shipping; also to public or private carriers, who are negligent and cause waste or deterioration.

3. If any one procures for any purpose a greater quantity than is reasonably required and any part becomes unfit for human food.

This applies to dealers and others, including private householders who hoard food, if any part of it spoils because of inadequate storage facilities or for any other reason also to persons who through careless buying, purchase more for current consumption than they require.

4. If the person who has the disposal of food unreasonably retains it until it goes bad.

This applies to producers, dealers or private individuals who fail to market or otherwise dispose of food in excess of their own requirements in time to prevent waste; also to those who refuse to sell at a loss, if current prices require, in order to avoid loss.

The penalties are a fine of not less than $100 or more than $1,000, or imprisonment for up to 3 months, or both fine and imprisonment. In the case of dealers, waste may also result in cancellation of the Canada Food Board License.

It is the duty of each municipality in Canada to enforce the regulations against waste within its municipal limits, and when a fine is imposed as a result of proceedings instituted by a Provincial or Municipal officer, such fine shall be paid into the Provincial or Municipal Treasury. It is up to every individual citizen to see that the Regulations are enforced.

GERMANS CHECKT WILL ADVANCE ELSEWHERE.

Paris, June 15—Despite a slight advance the German offensive commenced on June 9, will have been a heavy check to the enemy, says Henri Bidou in the Journal des Debats. Continuing he says "It is evident that the enemy's objectives were undoubtedly Compiegne and the Villers-Cotterets line in order to reach beyond the forest on the left wing and obtain a base for future operations against Paris. There is no doubt that the battle may be considered lost by the enemy, the Germans having only the doubtful satisfaction of a slight advance in the centre for which precious Divisions were sacrificed ruthlessly. The check however is merely momentary.

We must expect the Germans to make other attempts, as they are in a great hurry to reach their goal, which owing to the decreased forces and shortening time appears as far away as ever."

Strategy.

"Cook got the children interested in a war game this morning. She suggested they should play they were in a battle and shell their enemies." "Who were their enemies?" "The peas."

THE GIRLS TRACK MEET A GREAT SUCCESS

I. O. D. E. Defeat J. R. C. at Baseball—Athletic Events Keenly Contested.

The Field Day events and base ball watch staged by the Junior Red Cross and the Scotia Chapter Daughters of the Empire, Wednesday June 12, on the T. A. A. C. grounds, Truro, was a huge success both from a monetary stand point and from the lasting good done to the contestants from taking part in athletic events of this kind.

War Workers

are just the ones to finish right any schemes they start. The day's festivities started with a decorated automobile parade, which formed and left the Esplanade at 2.30 p. m. This parade was headed by the two girls' base ball teams in separate auto trucks and was made up of a number of decorated cars, all of which showed that the car owners had gone to considerable trouble to make their cars attractive.

Jack's Coal

Mr. John McMullen was won by Jack Learment, representative of the Dominion Cartridge Co., Montreal. This car was literally covered with stuffed animals ranging from a black bear to an owl with wings outspread. The lavish use of red, white and blue ribbon, and Dominion Cartridge signs and transparencies made up a feature that was not only very attractive but a business-getter.

Second prize was taken by the Girls Service Club car driven by Miss Mae Linton, and decorated by Mr. Keltie. This car was made up to represent a parcel post package from the Truro club girls to the boys "Over There"

Tug. O. War. I. O. D. E. Tears.

From the above on the basis of five points for first place, three for second and one point for third the I. O. D. E. girls won the aggregate silver cup with a score of 41 points to 38 scored by the Jr. Red Cross.

The above finished an afternoon of rare sports and the spectators left for home well satisfied that they had been royally entertained and had also the satisfaction of knowing that they had helped out in a good cause as the money taken at the gate over $200.00 and at the gayly decorated booth is to be used to good advantage by the Red Cross and Patriotic Societies.

The officials, who assisted in carrying out the events were:—

and, from stamps to address, was complete.

Third prize was won by Mr. Blomqvists car which was decorated with flags and bunting.

Another car, which received favorable mention was that of Mrs. Harold Putnam. In it were three returned boys and a nurse—the whole representing a Red Cross Car.

After parading the principal streets of the town the cars went to the T. A. A. C. grounds where they were reviewed by the judges.

Before giving our readers the list of events and winners we want to let them know of the Ladies Base Ball match. To those that saw it we need not speak of the good ball played but to those who missed seeing this game we want to say that they were unlucky in not seeing the this game. Both teams appeared in natty uniforms. The I. O. D. E. girls in blue and white and the Red Cross team in red and white and when they trotted out to their positions they were received with cheers. The batteries for the game were. Jr. Red Cross, Misses Bessie Fisher, and Greta Wall and for the I. O. D. E. was Misses L. Pattillo and Miss F. Churchill. All four played good ball and fielded their positions in regular big league style. The honors of the game, however, go to Miss Dorothy Holmes, who out of four times at bat drove out two home runs—a single and a double—besides fielding her position, first base, without an error.

Girls Play

The game was close throughout and see-sawed up and down first one team and the other having the most notches in the tally stick but the final score found the I. O. D. E. girls ahead with a score of 19 to 14 runs.

Mrs. W. H. Semple impired and his decisions went without more than a mild protest now and then which means that he handled the game in tip-top form.

It is to be hoped that the girls will hold another Field Day in the near future and it is safe to say the whole town will turn out, for every person that was there yesterday will be a booster, and will, we hope, tell their friends of the good afternoons sport they witnessed.

Our hats are off to the girls, who started the Meet and successfully carried it out and they are certainly deserving of every good word of praise. It was a big day and one not soon forgotten, may there be another and right soon.

At camp Travis in Texas 45 of these "conscientious objectors," who are quite willing to let their fellow countrymen fight the German to save the freedom of the world but are not inclined to endanger their own hides, and who had refused to wear army uniforms, got sentences to life imprisonment, which were later reduced to 25 years each. These fellows belong to the Mennonite faith, which evidently is not worth defending, as shown by the action of these army skulkers.

FEAR THE CANADIANS.

An American war writer says: "Of all the troops in the Allied lines, the boche most dreads the Canadians. He is well aware that Canadians and Americans are precisely the same, only that the former had more time and opportunity to develop fighting qualities."

A photographic reproduction of the will made in the trenches by her hero son, Private Lewis Nelson Allen, of the 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles who was killed in action on the western front last October, has been received from military authorities, by Mrs. Priscilla Allen, 80 Prince Street. The will was written on the perforated sheet for such a document in Pte. Allen's pay-book and names Mrs. Allen as her son's sole beneficiary. Dated November 19th, 1916, the testament reads as follows: "In the event of my death I give the whole of my property and effects to my mother, Mrs. Priscilla Allen, 80 Prince Street, Sydney N. S., Canada." The letter from Ottawa enclosing the reproduction of the will informs Mrs. Allen that her son's effects are being forwarded to her.

Pte. Allen enlisted when only 18 years of age, and was in his 21st year of age, when he gave his life for Canada and the Empire. He had served through a great deal of hot fighting, and had been spoken of by his comrades and officers as a faithful and courageous young soldier.—Sydney Post.

AN AUTO RUN THRU RAIN AND STORM.

C. H. Crowe, general merchant, Montrose, and C. W. Fletcher, Portapique, took an auto run to Truro on the 13th. There had been a heavy rain and thunder storm on the preceding night and the roads were heavy, especially with the rain pelting down for a good part of this Thursday morning's trip.

The twenty five miles were made in less than two hours; and the run, in spite of rain, heavy highway and storm was quite enjoyable.

While in town Mr. Fletcher made call on his kinsman, our venerable and respected citizen, Mr. William Autherland, Elm Street.

NO SLACKERS IN A BRITISH LINE.

At the initial meeting of the Over There Theatre league Augustus Thomas told a story of an English captain "who had to come to his company for volunteers. He wanted three. If one went thru the work would be done. He was talking to his line of fine young fellows. He told them he wanted three, and he did not disguise from them the danger. He said; 'Now, I want the men who will volunteer to step out one pace.' As he thought of what they were going into he momentarily crossed his hands over his eyes. 'Not one volunteer?' The whole line had stepped out one pace."—Chicago Paper.

NEVER NEGLECT BRONCHITIS IT MAY TURN TO PNEUMONIA.

Bronchitis comes from a neglected cold, and starts with a short, painful, dry cough, accompanied with rapid wheezing, and a feeling of oppression or tightness through the chest.

You have, no doubt, awakened up in the morning and have had to cough several times to raise the phlegm from the bronchial tubes, and have found it of a yellowish or gray, greenish color, and you have received relief right away.

This is a form of bronchitis, which if not cured immediately may turn into pneumonia or some more serious trouble. Cure the cold with Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and thereby prevent bronchitis and pneumonia taking hold on your system.

Mr. E. Jarvi, New Finland, Saak., writes:—"I was troubled, for years, with bronchitis and could not find any relief. I was especially bad on a damp day. I went to a druggist, and asked him for something to stop the cough and constant tickling in my throat. He gave me a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which I found gave me instant relief. I think it is the best medicine for bronchitis I know of. Now I take care I always have a bottle of it on hand."

Do not accept a substitute for "Dr. Wood's." It is put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c.; manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

There are, however, cogent reasons for this preference. The first is that Lipton's is the only Tea sold in Canada the quality and flavor of which is guaranteed.

We guarantee it because we grow it on our own plantations. We know the quality of our leaf, and we blend it, and pack it ourselves.

Lost Valuable Cows.

From some mysterious cause, eMr. Al Miles, of South Devon has within the last three weeks, lost three valuable cows. The third one, valued at $150 died last night. Each animal seemed to have been afflicted by the same malady. It has hit them suddenly with a stiffening of the joints and they topple over dead—Fredericton Glenaner.

HANTSPOURT AND ITS DEATH-RATE.

During the year 1917 the death rate of Hantsport was unusually low. It was a marked year in this respect perhaps almost unprecedented in its history. Only 3 deaths occurred during the past year, whilst the cold severe winter season just closed was unusually healthy.

At the dawn of spring, however the reaper death has been putting in his sickle and securing a larger harvest. More than 12, have been laid low during the past two months. So that the death list of 1917 has been increased four fold since the dawn of 1918.

The last removal over the dark waters was that of Mr. R. S. McDonald, who was only a resident of the town for a few short years. The removal from Alma, N. B. to Hantsport, about five years ago. He has left behind a widow two sons and one daughter. His sons both reside in Halifax. One is proprietor of Halifax Hotel and the other, a medical practitioner in the city. The daughter is a famed musician, a graduate of Acadia, and at present is organist of the Methodist Church.

Mr. McDonald was a quiet and respected citizen of the town of most industrious habits. A large number of people gathered on the day of the funeral to pay their last respects to the deceased. The floral offerings were most grand and profuse.

The funeral services were conducted at Hantsport, Rev. Dr. Dickie giving an address from the words, "If a man die shall he live again", and Rev. L. H. Crandall assisted in the devotional exercises. He was laid to rest in Riverside Cemetery and his recent death adds another to the unusually lengthy, neurological list of this town.

Amherst, June 12—The Methodist Conference is getting down to its work, and its most direct work is the stationing of its ministerial members for the coming year. GERMANS HELD WELL AT ALL POINTS.

After four days of simply unparalleled fighting of the most sanguinary nature, with German losses terrific beyond belief, the enemy is still held on his dash to the city of Compiègne—thence down the river valleys to Paris.

On the left the Huns, slaughtered like cattle, have been hurled back almost to the line where the attack began.

The French soldiers have proved themselves better fighters than the same number of the enemy at every point.

Heroic deeds are mentioned in every charge, and the general result is that the French have won in this massed of the Germans.

The enemy is advancing nowhere, and the Hun commences to realize that the outlook is more than serious for him.

The High Command is sending to Russia for more German troops there on guard for use in the West.

The High Command of Hunderd is commencing to say "What will they think of us at home?" The Germans on their whole Montdidier—Noyan front on the 13th launch a furious counter-attack but were cut to pieces by the Allied artillery and forced to retreat, leaving numerous dead and wounded piled up on the bloody battle field.

The outlook is more than promising and "On to Paris" is only a by-word now.

THE MAKING OF A FAMOUS MEDICINE

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Prepared For Woman's Use.

A visit to the laboratory where this successful remedy is made impresses even the casual looker-on with the reliability, accuracy, skill and cleanliness which attend the making of this great medicine for woman's ills.

Over 550,000 pounds of various herbs are used annually and all have to be gathered at the season of the year when their natural juices and medicinal substances are at their best.

The most successful solvents are used to extract the medicinal properties from these herbs.

Every utensil and tank that comes in contact with the medicine is sterilized and as a final precaution in cleanliness the medicine is pasteurized and sealed in sterile bottles.

It is the wonderful combination of roots and herbs, together with the skill and care used in its preparation which has made this famous medicine so successful in the treatment of female ills.

The letters from women who have been restored to health by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which we are continually publishing attest to its virtue.

WEDDING BELLS.

Logan Kent.

A pretty wedding took place at 10 o'clock June 12th at the residence of Mr. Arthur Kent, Lower Truro, when his youngest daughter, Kathleen Matilda, was united in marriage to Andrew B. Logan, son of E. A. Logan, of Lower Truro. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. F. C. Hartley.

The bride, who was given away by her father, entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Campbell, and looked very pretty in a gown of white silk and carrying a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Her travelling suit was of brown silk poplin with hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan left on the Midland amid showers of confetti and the good wishes for very much happiness of their friends, who gathered at the Station to see them off.

After a short trip to the Valley they will return to Lower Truro.

TWO HEROIC NEGRO LADS.

Forever on the roll of honor of their race will stand out boldly the names of Ptes. Henry Johnson and Needham Roberts, two colored American Soldiers, for their heroic deed two weeks ago near Verdun on the Western Battle front.

Their heroism is spoken of by all their companions and their skill and intelligence saved a most important position for the Americans.

Put 24 Germans to Flight.

Battling in the blackness of night with rifles hand grenades and "bolo knife" wholly deprived of the assistance of their comrades they put to flight an enemy assaulting party, at least twenty-four men strong. Roberts wounded in three places, stretched out helplessly in the mud, hurled grenades, even while the hands of a muscular German were about his throat.

Johnson did even more. Having shot one of his foemen down and clubbed another with the butt of his rifle he sprang to the aid of Roberts and with his bolo knife clove open the skull of one German and disembowelled another. As the enemy fell in to disorderly retreat, Johnson, three times wounded, sank to the ground seized a grenade alongside his prostrate body and literally blew one of the Germans to fragments.

It is the belief of their white commander that the two negroes by "their valor and intelligence frustrated a well developed plan to assail one of our most important points of resistance."

The privates have been awarded the Croix de guerre by the French General of the division under whom the unit is serving, and Johnson is scheduled to receive the much coveted gold palm of the French Army commanded as well.

An army of 100,000 men of the caliber of these lads would hurl the Huns back to the Rhine.

THE LATE ROBERT D. MALCOLM.

June 5—News of the death on Sunday morning, the 2nd inst, at his late home, Brule, of Mr. R. D. Malcolm, cast a gloom over this community as elsewhere. Although he had been in failing health for an extended period it was only on Wednesday last that the family realized the end was near.

Deceased was a Presbyterian and an elder of Sharon Church, Tatamagouche, an active helper in all good works in the community, a man of outstanding personality, being highly respected and beloved by a large circle of friends and relatives, to whom his genial manner and kind hospitality had greatly endeared him. Bordered on 58 years of age, yet the dew of youth was upon his spirit. This is evidenced from the fact that he was an active member of the church choir up to the last. As a teacher of the young men's Bible Class he gave splendid service through the years, and the influence of his work will long remain.

He was twice married, his first marriage being with Miss Lavina Outhit, of Melvern Square, Annapolis County, of which union there was an issue of five children, three of whom still survive and are as follows; Mrs. John McLeod (Agnes) of Waldegrave; Ellen and Catherine, at Montreal, who arrived home a short time before their father's death.

His second wife, who was Miss Hannah McKay of Scotsburn, and who still survives him; also two sons, Arthur and Robert, and one daughter, Jennie all at home, are left to mourn the loss of a kind husband and loving father.

At 2 p. m. Monday the funeral was held and was attended by a large and representative gathering from far and near. The impressive service was read by Rev. Mr. Forbes, of Tatamagouche, assisted by Rev. C. D. McIntosh of River John. The hymn "Some Day We'll Understand," was beautifully sung by Mr. Thomas Seiple, of Seattle. Among the beautiful floral offerings were Wreath from the family; wreath from the C. O. F.; spray, from Mrs. Jemett and Mrs. E. C. McLellan.

A lengthy concourse followed the remains from the house to the cemetery at Brule. At the grave a service was held by the Canadian Order of Foresters of which deceased was a valued member. The pall bearers were the Session of Sharon Church. To the sorrowing family the sympathy of the entire community is extended in this sad hour of their bereavement.

Among those at a distance present at the funeral, were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McKay Mr. Thos. A. McKay and daughter, Miss Vesta of Pictou; Mrs. D. Ferguson, Geo. Ferguson, and A. McKay of Scotsburn; Mrs. Robt. McKay, Garnet, and James McKay of Millsville.

THE LATE MRS. J. W. BIGELOW

The sudden death of Sarah Payzant, widow of the late J. W. Bigelow, occurred at her home in Wolfville Friday, May 31st, in the 86th year of her age.

Mrs. Bigelow was a woman beloved and highly respected and will be greatly missed in the community. She was a daughter of the late James N. Payzant. Her husband predeceased her less than a year. She is mourned by two daughters, Mrs. Graham Whidden and Mrs. Edgar Whidden also by her only brother, Dr. E. N. Payzant, 88 years of age, who is the last surviving member of the historic Payzant family. Six representatives of the family are Overseas, in the defence of the Empire—Wallace G. Whidden, Cpl. J. Edgar Whidden, Gunner Harold B. Whidden, Miss Hilda I. Whidden, Red Cross Nurse and Mrs. Bates, wife of Lieut. Bates, who with her husband is engaged in hospital work.

The funeral services were held Sunday and were very largely attended. Dr. Hartnett was the officiating clergyman assisted by Dr. Gaetz and Dr. Manning. During the service "Lead Kindly Light" a was beautiful sung by Miss Marie Wilson—Wolfville Acadian.

(From Reedy's Mirror).

WHAT THIS AUTHORITY SAID OF Y.M.C.A. OVERSEAS WORK

An American medical man, just back from the European battle-field thus speaks of the Y.M.C.A., almost at this fighting line: "With the Y.M.C.A. I was very favorably impressed, wherever I went the Y.M.C.A. is doing good work under very difficult conditions, particularly with its canteens, on the front line. I was permitted one night to visit one of these canteens. It was in the basement of a ruined house 500 yards from the front line trenches.

Midnight Food Service.

"There at midnight I found a well-known Presbyterian clergyman from America and a Y.M.C.A. worker engaged in lading out hot cocoa, which was carried in huge cans to the men in the trenches. This work can be done only at night and then practically without light. The cocoa is served free to the men, and it seems to be more easily prepared and more nourishing than either tea or coffee. While I was there a soldier came in with an enormous canvas bag to carry out supplies from the canteen to sixty men in the first line."

A NOVA SCOTIA HERO.

All friends of Premier Geo. H. Murray were greatly delighted when word came that his valiant son, Lieut. Geo. B. Murray had won the Military Cross.

The presentation was made at Government House a few days ago. In official utterance Lieut. Murray won this honor;

"For conspicuous gallantry in action. He effected a daylight relief under very heavy fire with great courage and initiative. Later he re-organized a counter-attack and successfully drove the enemy back. Although the relieving unit had 'taken over' he remained on duty for five hours.

A FINE RECITAL.

A good audience and one delighted beyond expression listened to the Recital in Normal College Hall last evening.

Much was expected from Miss Jean McDonald's previous work in Truro and that much was fully realized by a highly delighted audience.

Prof. Wellard accompanied Miss Jean MacDonald in her vocal numbers, Ital French and English with fine effect.

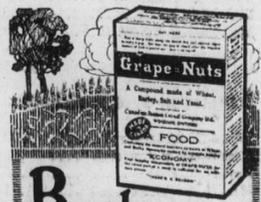

Miss Anna Macdonald, a sister of the vocal artist, rendered exceedingly pleasing piano numbers.

This music critics at this Recital speak in great praise of Miss MacDonald's singing, and of the clearness and ease with which the songstress sailed merrily among the high notes of many of her exceedingly well-chosen selections. The whole was grand and greatly enjoyed.

Deth of Mrs. L. W. Johnstone

The death occurred Monday after a brief illness at her residence at Sydney Mines, of Mrs. Johnstone, wife of Dr. W. L. Johnstone. Mrs. Johnstone, who was 49 years of age, was a daughter of R. H. Brown, of Halifax, one time general manager of the G. M. A. Besides her husband she leaves a son, Lewis, at the front, and a daughter at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown called to Sydney Mines by the serious illness of their daughter, were guests at The Rectory, Truro as they were en route East a few days ago.

HAD BOILS and PIMPLES ON FACE AND BODY.

Boils and pimples are simply evidences of bad blood that is circulating in the system coming to the surface. The only way to rid yourself of these painful and unsightly blood diseases is to have your blood purified by Burdock Blood Bitters. It removes every particle of foul material from the blood, and the skin becomes clear and smooth, and free from all eruptions. Mr. Roy A. Bovay, Trenton, Ont., writes: "Two years ago I was very much troubled with boils and pimples on my face and body. A friend advised me to take Burdock Blood Bitters. I got three bottles, and before I had finished the third one, my boils and pimples had all disappeared, and my face and body were as clear and as smooth as any baby's could be." Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over 40 years. You are not experimenting when you buy it. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE ALLIES ARE STILL HOLDING THE ENEMY.

Berlin reports all gains made by German forces, including their report of 13,000 prisoners, since this drive commenced, but their newspapers carefully hide the pronounced success of the French and other Allies. The fierce fighting goes on with the Allies holding the enemy in most places, and with decided gains in other important positions. The enemy is still attempting to get to Compiegne but the French and Americans are gallantly disputing every foot of ground and are defiantly and successfully meeting every assault. In one place the French yesterday hit the Hun heavily and captured 400 additional prisoners, cannon and machine guns. The Huns were swept and piles of German bodies strew the bloody battle field. Pretty good authorities reckon the German casualties since March 21, in this western drive at 660,000. The Allies affirm that no position of paramount importance has been lost. The Allies strength is increasing and that of the enemy is decreasing. Premier Clemenceau in the French Senate said yesterday:— That decisive results had been obtained at certain points with minimum forces and minimum losses, while the enemy losses had been enormous. He laid stress on the resources of the French army, which at certain times had crushed the German offensive. Details of the admirable American effort to despatch new forces to France were given. The Echo De Paris states that there were crack divisions from General Von Hutier's army in the enemy forces which were forced to retreat in the French Counter-attack between Roubescourt and St. Maur. In the center, divisions of the Guard commanded by General Von Schooler were repulsed. The Petit Journal calls attention to the fact that the appearance of certain elements of Prince Rupprecht's army mingled with General Von Hutier's men indicates that the German losses were heavy as the German Staff is opposed to mixing forces from two different army groups.

THE PLACE TO DIE.

Michael J. Barry.
How little reck it where men die,
When once the moments past
In which the dim and gazing eye
Has looked on earth its last;
Whether beneath a sculptured urn
The coffined form shall rest,
Or in its nakedness return
Back to its mother's breast.
The soldier falls mid corpses piled
Upon the battle plain,
Where reinless war steeds gallop wild
Above the gory slain;
But though his corps be grim to see,
Hoof-trampled on the sod,
What reck it when the spirit free
Has soared aloft to God?
The coward's dying eyes may close
Upon his downy bed,
And softest hands his limbs compose
Or garments o'er him spread;
But ye who shun the bloody fray
Where fell the mangled brave,
Go strip his coffin lid away,
And see him in his grave!
'Twere sweet indeed to close our eyes
With those we cherish near,
And waited upward by their sighs
Soar to some calmer sphere;
But whether on the scaffold high,
Or in the battle's van,
The fittest place for man to die
Is where he dies for man.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICE IN A TORONTO CHURCH.

—An impressive and unique service was held in Parkdale Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning, when the unveiling of a memorial tablet to 40 young men of the church who had fallen in the war, was coupled with a farewell service to the pastor, Rev. A. Logan Geggie, who took his departure later in the day for overseas. The church was filled to overflowing and the scene at the unveiling of the memorial tablet was an affecting one, the parents and relatives of the heroes being present. The service was opened with a baptism, which seemed to symbolize the rising of the new generation amid the memorial to the passing of the old one. The simple ceremony affected many of the bereaved parents to tears, some of whom had brought their hero sons to the same altar in childhood. While the congregation stood in the reverent silence, the pastor read the roll of the fallen, of whom was his own. The recital was followed by the singing of the hymn, "For all the Saints who from their labors rest." Preaching from Luke 5:19, referring to Christ setting His face toward Jerusalem, Rev. Mr. Geggie said there was only one man who knew his destiny, even the details of it, and that man was Jesus Christ. Although he saw it all, he never faltered. Although they could not see the future they did not believe that life was a tangle. To know the present duty was to understand the coming day. Rev. Dr. Robertson, who took part in the service, will conduct the services at the church for the next three months.—Presbyterian Witness, June 8.

THE HOME OF THE ROBIN.

Said little Cock Robin,
One bright day in March,
"Let's build our Spring nest,
In this beautiful larch."

Said his dear little mate,
"To this I agree,
I see nowhere around
Such a suitable tree."

Said little Cock Robin,
"Now quickly we'll work,
I'll bring some fine twigs,
And these pieces of cork."

Said his dear little mate,
"Your work I admire,
To help me mate,
I fondly aspire."

These pieces of cork
We'll weave around tight,
And fasten them firmly,
Before it is night."

Then down in the meadow,
They found some nice clay,
And plastered their walls,
On one fine sunny day.

Three bonny blue eggs,
There soon do we see,
In this nest lined with down,
On a branch in the tree.

The sun rose and set,
The days longer grew,
Peep! peep! cried the chicks,
From those bonny eggs blue.

As love ruled the parents,
Little soft downy nestlings,
In this noble larch tree.

Each took in its turn,
From its dear parents bill,
A fly, bug or worm,
Or little bread pill.

INDIA'S LOYALTY CANNOT BE QUESTIONED.

How far have the plots we have been hearing about in San Francisco any basis in fact in India? Or how large does the matter bulk in the Indian mind? The question was put to Bishop Warne in a recent interview. He has labored among the population of India for 30 years, and should be authoritative of their attitude on these questions. The Bishop pointed his statement of India's loyalty with the following story. We were up in the mountains staying at a "rest house," he said, "Now the people there had heard all sorts of reports about the war. My daughter talks the language and the people came in and wanted to know where Germany was. She made a map showing the boundaries of the war zone. One day a man came in from a distance of 20 miles to hear the story from my daughter. He sat and listened and then said, "You send word to the King that we can not all come, but every village will send a man and we will pay all the expenses. My grandfather and my father and myself and children have had peace ever since the British riots and now our property is safe. And that might all happen again if the men were to go away. But tell the King we are willing to help if he wants us. I think this story represents the sentiment, of 300 millions of people in India" was the Bishop's Oithy comment. Christian Work.

RIOT IN IRELAND.

London, June 15.—The arrest of two men at Ballygar, county Galway, Ireland, on Friday led to a prolonged conflict between a crowd of sympathizers and the police. The police used their clubs and the sympathizers any missiles that came to hand. In the meantime other sympathizers barricaded the roads by felling trees and stringing barbed wire. Some telegraph wires were cut. Later the men under arrest were arraigned in a local court on charges of illegal drilling and committed to the Sligo-jail. The rioting recurred during their removal to the jail and the police were unable to quell it. A bayonet charge was ordered and after several persons in the crowd had been injured, the sympathizers were dispersed.

THE DOG QUESTION IN A NUT SHELL.

Editor News;
As a rule, keep dogs at home.
Give them a kennel, if it is only a good box, made cool for summer, and warm for winter.

Provide a comfortable collar, to which attach a chain, and to the chain a rope of considerable length, thus giving them a degree of freedom on your own premises. Give them a little run at some time during the day, or a ride in your automobile or wagon.

Feed them well. There is as much food in our country today as there was fifty years ago, and we can greatly increase the quantity.

The only trouble is the higher prices; but if prices were kept moderate, there would be more money for war expense than there is now, as well as increased comfort at home.

Perhaps you will say: "What shall we give the dogs to eat?" Give them good porridge and milk, potato, meat, or fish cakes, a little meat or fish mixed with broken bread, flavors the whole and therefore is economical—mashed potato with little gravy—some kinds of soup-bread and milk dry pieces of bread moistened with a little water, and spread with some kind of tasty fat—some puddings or cakes—large bones with a little meat left on are much enjoyed, and keep a clean pan full of good, fresh water near all of the time.

If there must be a dog tax make it the same for all; but when dogs are kept at home, and well cared for, there should be exemption from such a tax.

Avoid to great an increase. The dog is a very noble, affectionate animal, true to his friends even to the death, if need be.

Any fault is not his; but rather that of his owner.

Be kind to him always.

The sheep will be all right; there will be no dog fights, crushed bodies, nor broken legs, no spoiled gardens, nor other damage to your neighbor if the owners of dogs observe the simple rules given above.

Use God-given common sense in the matter—keep a cool, steady head and a good heart, and if it happens because of sickness or injury your dog or your neighbor's would better die than live, don't shoot, only perhaps to miss your aim, and have him look at you with a hurt, pitiful expression; nor, chloroform, only to have him awake sicker than before; but let the veterinarian, who only understands how, put him into the dogs heaven.

SOUTH AFRICA.

A family residing in Quoddy have lately removed to South Africa, where the husband is foreman of a fish canning establishment. The lady of the home writes a friend, in Hantsport an interesting letter concerning her new home from which we glean the following extracts.

We have now been over a year in South Africa and find it nice in many ways. Paternoster where we are living is a village about 120 miles north of Cape Town. There are between 500 and 700 colored people here who are fishermen and about 7 families of white people. The farmers about us are Dutch and many of them do not speak English at all. In fact many of them are very much opposed to the English language.

The cannery is the chief business here and when it is not running other fishing is carried on. The firm employing us has a store fishery, and boat building shop also an hotel.

The liquor selling is a curse to the country. Many farmers raise grapes and make their own wine. When the farmers are busy they give their employers so many drinks of wine per day. This goes in the contract. The temperance people will have a long hard fight to close the canteen. The people have been accustomed to constantly use it and it is not easy to persuade them that it is harmful.

The cannery in which my husband is employed has about 120 employees all colored. They secure a lot of fish and are kept busy. The plant is up to date and equipped with modern machinery. They put up about 8000 or more cases a year so that it is a busy place. The Craby Fish is very much like the lobster but without claws. They are plentiful as the lobsters were 50 years ago in Nova Scotia.

Out here a custom prevails which is different in Canada. In the Dominion you speak of distances in miles. For instance, Vredenburg our nearest village is an hour and 20 minutes by car from us. The custom seemed a strange one to us at first but we have become accustomed to it.

The Dutch language is spoken by the colored people and farmers almost entirely. It is compulsory in the schools. The services in the Dutch Reformed Church are all in that language. The only church here is the Anglican and they have a colored catechist who teaches school and conducts a Sunday school and has services for the colored people. There is a small school for white children and the teacher also when possible instructs them on Sunday. Once in two months we go to the Anglican church when the minister comes. He has not less than eight churches to attend to so that he is a busy man. The Dutch Reformed is the wealthy church.

One thing we notice about the scenery is the absence of trees. There we live there are no forests and with the exception of one or two places no trees are seen except a few about the distant farm houses. The have seven around our premises principally the Tamarisk and I feel glad that we have them. The soil is very salt and most of the wells brackish so that we have tanks to catch fresh water.

The climate here is beautiful. Occasionally we have a few hot days but they do not last long and the nights, are always cool. Every day is sunshine from October to April. It is very rare to have rain during that time. We do have high winds but they do not disturb us much. The winters are rain but the fine days simply glorious. There is no frost but it becomes as cold, as October with you minus frost. Very few houses have heating apparatus beyond an open grate and many people do not even use these. No public buildings are heated. This will give you an idea of the climate.

Like every other place we have some unusual phenomena which excite wonder but require to be visited to appreciate them. On a road side not far from where we live is seen a most curious strata of rocks. You will see a group of them standing not less than 30 feet in height. They are of curious shapes and present a most remarkable sight but my knowledge of geology is so slender that I can enter into no explanation as to what formation of rocks they are or what caused their upheaval here.

What I have seen of South Africa I am delighted with but my heart strings draw me to the land of the Mayflower to which I hope to at some future time to return.

"Traction"—The Tire Beautiful—

WE hear so much about the "lines" of the automobile that we are apt to forget the "lines" of a tire.

* * * * *

Surely if beauty is an essential in automobile construction, it is likewise an essential in tire construction.

* * * * *

Examine "Traction" for beauty—no unnecessary lines, no distorted "treadlets," no ugly, unsymmetrical gouges—just one powerful, resilient, beautiful balance. And all this is extra—extra over and above the greatest road mastery ever obtained in a rubber tire.

We also make Dunlop "Special" and Dunlop "Plain"—two tires that are in great favor with motorists in general.

LOST CONTROL OF THE NERVES

Became Hysterical and Could Only Sleep When Doctor Gave Narcotic—Never Expected To Be Well Again.

Clementport, N. S., (Date)—It is possible that your experience may be somewhat like that of Miss Burrill, whose letter we publish to-day.

You will notice that Miss Burrill's statement is vouched for by Mr. Alonzo W. Daniels, J. P., so there can be no question that this case will stand the most strict investigation.

Miss Gertrude M. Burrill, Clementport, N. S., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food with splendid results. For a number of years I was afflicted with nervousness, and six years ago had a complete breakdown.

I had no control of my nerves, and had terrible hysterical spells. I could not sleep, had night sweats, awful dreams, and nightmare. My physician gave me medicine to put me to sleep every night, and another kind to take every two hours during the day, but it did not seem to do me any good only while I was taking it.

It gives me great satisfaction to vouch for the testimony of this young lady and the benefit she has received from your wonderful discovery."

ABIDE WITH US.

Adapted from the words of Eben H. Bailey's sacred song "Be Thou Nigh," by a correspondent from St. Andrew's Church, Sydney Mines, where it has been sung at several patriotic services.

Abide with us, dear Lord, our only stay;

We did not seem to need Thee on our way,

But now that war clouds lower, O Christ be near,

Bind up the broken hearts and cast out fear,

Abide with us; our Country needs Thine arm,

To help her in this hour of dread alarm.

Honor and Truth with Wisdom be our guide;

Cleanse us that Thou may with us still abide;

Abide with us; our dear land pass not by;

Unworthy as we are still stay Thou nigh,

Then shall our Nation be a place where in,

Thou Christ, the Risen One, shalt reign a King.

Abide with us in scenes so far from home;

O cheer our sick, our sad, our wounded ones;

And should those loved ones sink in death's dark night,

Guide thou their spirits in their homeward flight.

Abide with us, O Son of God, yea come Bless that dear flag that guards each sacred home,

That flag which stands for all that's fair and true—

The cross of white, or red, on loyal blue.

Abide with us, dear Lord, until the last;

Be with us ever till the war clouds pass;

Then keep this Empire 'loved a place wherein,

Thou, loving Son of God, shalt reign a King.

Laugh When People Step On Your Feet Try this yourself then pass it along to others, it works!

Such a rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain.

He says freezone is an ether compound which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissues or skin. A quart of an ounce of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.

WANT FOOD.

Geneva June 15—The Neuests Nachriastn, of Munich, a copy of which has been received here, says the Tyrol has begun to suffer from famine, both among the dillians and the troops.

The Bavarians, therefore, have sent from their food reserves 3500 tons of potatoes and 80 tons of sauer trout to the sufferers. This fact is considered in Geneva as a possible explanation of the Virtual inactivity of the Auxtrian troops on the Italian front.

Your need of a DE LAVAL CREAM SEPARATOR is greater right now than ever before

These are the days of the full milk pail.

But if you are trying to get along without any cream separator, or with an inferior or half-worn-out machine, the more milk you get the more cream you lose.

And no farmer can afford to lose even a little cream when butter-fat is selling at from 40 to 50 cents a pound.

With butter-fat at present prices, and our country begging us to stop waste, "cream slacker" methods of skimming milk must go.

Get a De Laval right away and put all the cream in the cream can.

There is no other cream separator that can compare with the De Laval in clean skimming, capacity, ease of operation, freedom from repairs and durability.

Order your De Laval now and let it begin saving cream for you right away. Remember that a De Laval may be bought for cash or on such liberal terms as to save its own cost. See the local De Laval agent, or, if you don't know him, write to the nearest De Laval office as below.

NOT GUILTY IS THE WORD.

Weighty reasons are doubtless back of President Wilson's second request to Gov. Stephens of California for the pardon of Thomas J. DAMAGE CLAIMS WILL BE SETTLED.

President Carranza of Mexico has appointed three members of the Commission that is to consider the question of the settlement of damages, claims, arising out of the revolutions of the past eight years in Mexico...

This Commission will consider impartially all claims. If any claimant is not satisfied with the award he has an appeal to an arbitration commission composed of three persons: one to be selected by the Mexican Government, one by the Government of the country of which the claimant is a citizen and the third by the two above commissioners.

This is fair action on the part of the Mexican Government; and those who have suffered loss, thru the Revolutions from 1910 to 1917, are in a sure way to have such made good.

The naval class was under signal instruction. Most of them had just come back from leave, and as a result to some of the boys in blue the instructor's voice seemed very far away, indeed.

"A ship in distress," he was saying, through the room spaces, "has several methods by means of which she can make known her condition to other vessels or shore stations. Name one, Binks!"

"The international code signal 'N. C.'" replied Binks, waking up just in time.

"Right!" said the instructor. "Jenks, name another."

"Jenks started out of a dream. 'Eh?' he ejaculated.

"What would you do if you were in distress?" repeated the signal instructor. "Why," mumbled Jenks, "pawm me watch!"

Say, Pal! I saw you sneer just now, Don't I look good to you? I'm not in your class, eh? For being in "Navy Blue."

You think I'm not fine enough For such a guy as you? Well, men that would take your hand Have worn this "Navy Blue."

You bar us from your theaters And from your ball rooms, too, There's room enough to spare for all, But not for men in blue.

We are only common sailors till Hell's war begins to brew, And then, my friend, you're the first To cheer the lad in "Navy Blue."

Take this from me, the men who serve The flag are strong and true Stout hearted, loyal, ready, brave, Not weaklings such as you.

I know I'm not a fashion plate, That's not my line, it's true, But listen, Pal! it takes a man To wear this "Navy Blue."

So when you see a sailor man I'd mind if I were you, That God can't make them better than The man in "Navy Blue."

Through one cause or another a large majority of the people are troubled, more or less with some form of heart trouble.

Little attention is paid to the slight weakness until the heart starts to beat irregularly, and they suddenly feel faint and dizzy, and feel as if they were smothering.

On the first sign of any weakness of the heart Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be taken, and thus secure prompt and permanent relief.

FIVE ANTIGONISH SCOTCH-MEN ENLIST IN NEW YORK CITY.

In the Bronx, New York there is a home with five stars in a window, showing that five members of the family are serving under Uncle Sam in this war.

These five brothers are Daniel, Charles, William, Alex., and Hugh Chisholm; all electricians; each over six feet tall and they all enlisted together, as soon as the United States was in the war.

The oldest brother Roderick, is remaining at home to look after a quite large family.

The New York Herald says these five Chisholm heroes "were born in Antigonish County, Nova Scotia, of Scotch parents, descendants of an old Scotch family which settled in Canada more than a hundred years ago. The boys, whose ages now range from twenty-two to thirty-two years, came to New York as youths and learned their trade here. They are all members of the Knights of Columbus."

Our contemporary has a good picture of this quintet of Blue Nose heroes.

LOAFERS IN NEW YORK STATE EVEN GENTEEL LOAFERS WITH INCOMES—MUST WORK OR GO TO JAIL.

Albany, May 22—Gov. Whitman announced today that on June 1 he would issue a proclamation putting into effect the Robinson Anti-Loafer Law, which hits the wealthy idler and the tattered ne'er-do-well alike.

"In these times of war and supreme sacrifice by our people" said the Governor, "there is no place for the slacker or the idle, rich or poor. The people of the State have responded nobly to the demands of the war and of the essential industries.

"There seems to be among us, however, a certain small element, who, either through indolence or worse, have failed utterly to do their part. "I have determined to put into effect on June 1 the recent law against idleness. Hereafter and during the period of the war New York state will not afford a haven to loafers or idlers. It will be incumbent upon every able-bodied male person between the ages of eighteen and fifty to perform some useful work.

"The State Industrial Commission will co-operate with the Sheriffs, the State Police and other peace officers throughout the State to find the unemployed and to assign them to jobs which they must fill.

"It will be no defense to any one seeking to avoid work to show that he has sufficient income or means to live without work. The State has a right to the productive labor of all its citizens."

COLCHESTER ACADEMY CADETS.

The examination of No. 174 Colchester Academy Cadet Corps took place Monday June 10th, at 3.30 p. m. under Capt. R. R. Black, O & I., of Cadet Corps for M.D.6. The boys were a little nervous at first but as the drill went on, they gave evidence of excellent discipline and good training. The officers, Capt. Wickwire, Lieutenants Wilson and McLean gave their commands in a good clear voice and Mr. Wilson and Mr. McLean dealt with their platoons in a very efficient manner.

The platoon composed of the older cadets was in particularly good form, and in the rifle drill and musketry exercises the boys moved as one—the whole appearance being greatly enhanced by the attractive new uniforms.

Some very flattering comments were made by Capt. Black and the spectators. A gentleman from Ontario, who happened to be in town and witnessed the drill, stated that he had never seen a platoon better disciplined and more correct in its movements, and that he intended to report it to the Toronto Press. This is, naturally, very gratifying to the boys, who drilled under adverse conditions, as the scheduled periods for instruction were necessarily broken owing to the limited time of the instructor.

The Nova Scotia Lodge of Research in connection with the Masonic Institution, had a most interesting meeting in Halifax. At this meeting a paper has read showing that St. Andrew's Lodge No. 1, Halifax, is the oldest lodge of Masonry in the British Empire overseas.

Letters of condolence were ordered to be sent to the families of the late John Ross Robertson, of Toronto, the outstanding historian of masonry in Canada, and of the late Grand Master Luther B. Archibald, of Truro. It will be remembered that Mr. Archibald two years ago, contributed to this Lodge of Research a most valuable paper on the history of Free Masonry in Colchester.

The Editor of the Daily News, St. John's Nfld, was been invited to represent the Press of that Island at a gathering of Journalists in England.

A GOOD CITIZEN GONE TO HIS REST.

Mr. James Wentworth Died at Seven o'clock this morning.

After an illness of but eight or ten days tho in poor health for a number of years, there past away at seven o'clock this morning at the home residence, Prince Street, West, our well known and greatly esteemed citizen Mr. James Wentworth.

Mr. Wentworth was at one time an active citizen of our town. Coming here many years ago from Stellarton, where he did a most successful business in his young days. Of late years he has suffered from Asthma and heart affection, that kept him almost entirely within doors, but during all these days he was the bright, genial, cheerful person, that he ever was when in the more public activities of life.

He was an exceedingly well informed man, and most interesting was his recital of the stirring events of the long ago both in his early life in Halifax and in later days in Stellarton. He was a keen clear headed man and his opinions were much valued in business circles.

Those who knew him best knew the value of the friendship of the unassuming kindly James Wentworth. He was ever ready to assist the poor and needy, and give financial support to all worthy schemes, that came before him.

He has for long years been a faithful and consistent member of the Anglican Communion; and when in good health was a regular attendant at the services of St. John's church.

His wife predeceased him eleven years. Mr. Wentworth was a native of Portsmouth, Eng., and came to this country in his boyhood days. He was 87 years of age at the time of his death and was a wonderfully well preserved man for such a great age.

A loving sister, Mrs. Wright now a nonagenarian;—remarkably bright and smart has made her home with the invalid brother for two or three years past; and to her and other relatives the News extends sincere sympathy in this bereavement.

A MILITARY BUNGLERS' OPINION.

General Von Stein says Foch has no reserves. It does not speak much for the military intelligence of a German leader to chatter thus; he is by such imputation putting Foch and his advisers, as low in the scale of Military strategists, as the High Command of Germany that has just suffered its third great defeat in the West and has bungled the Hun warfare from August 1914.

TRUE POLITENESS.

A little boy was sitting at dinner in friend's house. He was too small to cut the meat for himself and his mother was at the other end of the table, but a lady sitting next to him offered her help.

"Let me cut your steak for you," she said, "that is, if I can cut it the way you want it."

"Thank you" answered the little boy. "I shall like it the way you cut it, even if you do not cut it the way I like it."—Apples of Gold.

ELECTRIC BOLT STRUCK MR. F. L. FULLER'S FLAG POLE, QUEEN STREET.

During the violent electric storm early in the morning of the 12th a bolt of lightning struck the flagpole on Mr. F. L. Fuller's premises, Queen Street, this of town.

The electricity shattered the pole considerably; and following it to the ground tore up the earth in which were planted beans, it then ran along the ground to the garden hedge where it did some more damage.

This no doubt was the specially bolt of lightning and crash of thunder which startled many in Truro during the Wednesday mornings storm and caused many to inquire "where did the lightning strike?"

Mr. and Mrs. Fuller were in Halifax on the 12th. Their children and maid at home were quite startled by the heavy crash of lightning which landed in their garden.

VISITED AT WINDYHOLME.

Miss Jean McDonald, who was organist of Greenwood church, Baddeck, a few years ago and who has been taking private tuition in vocal music in Boston for the last three winters, is spending a short vacation in Truro, the guest of Prof. DeWolfe. Miss McDonald is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. D. McDonald of Port Hastings and will visit friends in Baddeck shortly—Sydney Post.

Miss McDonald, while a guest at "Windyholme" delighted Truro people with a most delightful recital, in the Normal College Hall, already referred to in the News.

DUTCH STEAMER ASHORE ON NOVA SCOTIA COAST.

A Canadian Atlantic port, June 13.

The 3500 ton Dutch steamer—Aeol, now flying the American flag, bound from a New England port for a transatlantic port, went ashore at a point on the southern coast of Nova Scotia in a thick fog last night and is now breaking up, according to word received by the Marine & Fisheries dept. here this morning. The Report came from the Lighthouse keeper on an island near the ledge upon which the steamer stranded. The Crew of thirty five were all saved, the message said. At present there are five feet of water in the ship's engine room and she is rapidly separating. The prevailing wind southerly affords little or no chance of saving the ship. The Lighthouse keepers reports.

HE TRUSTS GENERAL — ISSIMO FOCH IMPLICITLY.

Paris, June 13—Gustave Herve, in his newspaper La Victoire, undertakes to answer the question, which he says reach him from many readers; "Why should the remainder of the western front be inactive while the Germans are making the greatest efforts, and why should not the British make a strong attack which would relieve the pressure on the French?"

The Editor points out that General Foch as Generalissimo, disposes of all the Allied armies, British, American, French Italian and Portuguese. If he does not move the British forces, it is contended, it may be because there are still heavy concentrations of German reserves before the British front and that the Front must be held solidly. General Foch may also feel able with the French reserves to defeat the Menace toward Paris.

"Our Generalissimo" M. Herve concludes, "knows too well the vital importance, strategically and economically, of the capital to leave it at the mercy of any unfortunate chance."
