"Brevity is the Soul of Wit."

Wit is wisdom. Blood is life. Impure blood is living death. Health depends on good blood. Disease is due to bad blood. The blood can be purified. Legions say Hood's Sarsaparilla, America's Greatest Blood Medicine, purifies it. A brief story tells the tale.

Nervous Weakness—"I suffered from nervous weakness and loss of appetite. My blood was impure, my stomach disordered and I could not sleep. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me entirely." Mrs. E. Lockwood, Belleville, Ont.

Champlain Summer School,

Cliff Haven, N. Y., August, 1900.

PROGRAMME OF SIXTH WEEK.

HIGH WATER MARK OF ATTENDANCE AT CLIFF HAVEN.

The high-water mark of attendance for the session of 1900 was reached this week at Cliff Haven. Nearly every room on the grounds is filled, and all are engaged long in advance. There will be no cessation, it seems, until the close on the 31st of August.

For the second time during the present session, Pontifical Mass was celebrated in the new chapel. The officiating prelate was Rt. Rev. John M. Farley, D. D., Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of New York. He was assisted by Rev. Gabriel Holy as assistant priest, Rev. J. J. Donah, of Brooklyn, as deacon, Rev. W. Courtney, of New York as sub-deacon, Don McKenna of New York and Rev. Fr. O'Brien, S. J., of Montreal, as deacons of honor. The Reverend President Father Lavelle, served as Master-of-Ceremonies.

The scheduled preacher Rt. Rev. Mgr. Mooney, V. G., LL. D., of New York, was unable to be present on account of the death of one of his fellow-priests, in his place he sent one of his assistants, Rev. John D. Roach, of the Sacred Heart Church, New York city. By this act, the students at Cliff Haven were not only not allowed to suffer disappointment, but were also privileged to listen to one of the most brilliant of the young priests of the Archdiocese. Father Roach took the text of his sermon from the Gospel of the day, and drew from it lessons that were particularly applicable to the congregation. The beauty of his thoughts and the fervor which he imparted to his words appealed directly and forcefully to his hearers. It was an eloquent and powerful sermon that made a deep impression on all fortunate enough to hear it.

Every person at present at Cliff Haven is not only willing, but eager to acknowledge the fact that the sixth week of the session of 1900 is unsurpassed in the history of the School in all ways, but particularly in regard to its intellectual attractions. During the week, five splendid courses of study have been offered, one in Shakespeare's Macbeth, one in Dante's Paradiso, one in the Philosophy of Thales, one in Logic and one in French and Italian Art. To decide which one or ones are the best is a wholly impossible task, for each is worthy of high commendation for its individuality and intellectual value.

The third fortnightly period in the Shakespeare and Dante classes began this week, the former getting Very Rev. Herbert F. Farrell, V. F., of Westbury, L. I., and the latter Rev. Joseph Dalaney, D. D., of New York as instructors.

Both of these courses are of exceptional worth. Father Farrell possesses keen literary instinct and the power of successfully imparting knowledge, so that he makes the most of his opportunities and leads his class to get out of the great tragedy that which is most essential. Because of lack of time, he does not spend any long period on minor details, but confines himself to those points which best develop in the student the love for literature.

As a Dantean scholar, Dr. Dalaney has won a high place in the regard of Summer School people. He is gifted with a poetic temperament that enables him to see and to bring others to see the unparalleled beauties of thought and style that lie in is the baking powder of general use, its sale exceeding that of all other baking powders combined.

Royal Baking Powder has not its counterpart at home or abroad. Its qualities, which make the bread more healthful and the cake of finer appearance and flavor, are peculiar to itself and are not constituent in other leavening agents.

Great efforts are made to sell this baking powder under the plea that they are so made as to be purer than Royal. This is a mistake that they are cheaper made in an advertisement that they are inferior. But the powder contains a corrosive poison and should not be used in food, no matter how cheap.

to the influence of the Catholic hierarchy, and that all the present trouble came from that, Cardinal Moran, of Sydney, said: "As a matter of fact, the decay of that wonderful power of Spain dates from the decline of its religious spirit. The height of Spain's glory was in the days of Charles V., when it was the most Catholic power in the world, but from the year 1700 up to the present internal dissensions and warring against the Church may be said to have been the distinctive features of the Spanish Government. Whatever Spain does there is in Spain most assigned to these political dissensions, and to constant combat against the Catholic Church. For instance, all the Church property throughout Spain has been confiscated by different political parties about half a dozen times since the year 1700. About the middle of last century a special war was directed against the religious bodies, when the Jesuits were all thrown into prison and their property seized by the government. As late as the year 1834 all the Catholic schools and seminaries were suppressed, and out of a hierarchy of 60 bishops, 50 were expelled from their sees and sent into banishment, while every penny of property belonging to the Church throughout Spain was appropriated for government purposes. That does not seem to indicate that the government of Spain is controlled by the Catholic hierarchy. To account for that spirit of hostility to the Church in the government of Spain, one has only to look to the Bourbon dynasty which occupied the Spanish throne in 1700. With this French influence in Spain the irreligious principles of the French court gained a mastery. The teachings of Voltaire guided for sixty years the policy of the Spanish government. Hence, though the people were intensely Catholic, and most fervent and devout in their Catholic exercises, the government was in open hostility to the Church. Spain has been undergoing a systematic robbery for years. When ever appropriations which would be for the betterment of the people have been made, the money, instead of being used for the purposes intended, has been pocketed by the unscrupulous, God-denying politicians. With such men at the head of a government, is it any wonder that the throne would totter?

The Western Watchman thus succinctly sums up the situation in Italy: "King Humbert met his death by the bullet of an assassin, and his only son, Victor Emmanuel, named for his grandfather, who invaded Rome, Italy is an impoverished country and it is of little consequence to the Italians who also them; but it is of great consequence to Italy and the world who rules in Rome. There the Pope, must be supreme. Humbert was a weakling and a figurehead. His queen, now a widow, Margaret of Savoy, has always been one of the best loved and most beautiful women in Europe. She is a pious Catholic. The assassin in one of a vile band of murderers without sense, patriotism or religion, who live the life and merit the death of wild animals.

"The assassination of King Humbert," says the Pittsburgh Observer, "is a retribution on the House of Savoy and the Italian government for their warfare on religion. Since they despoiled the Church of its patrimony, they have reared a generation in atheism. They put an end to religious and moral training in the state schools; they broke up the teaching Brothers and Sisters, and they hired prostitutes to rear the children of Italy. They have filled the land with anarchists, who deny the existence of God, mock at priests, ridicule morality and defy authority. They are reaping only what they themselves have sown—deliberately, maliciously and persistently sown."

Religious Events Briefly Recorded.

Canon O'Riordan, of Cahireen, Ireland, who lectured in Philadelphia and other American cities some months ago in aid of the O'Connell Memorial Church, contracted influenza during his stay, and whilst journeying home he was compelled to stop at London and place himself under the care of an eminent specialist. His many friends will be pleased to learn that he is convalescent and able to resume his homeward journey.

Rev. Mr. Harris, for thirteen years curate at St. Alban's, Holborn, England, was reappointed to the Church on July 24 by Rev. Father Hasnan, S. J., at St. Mary's, Great Yarmouth.

The work of decorating the various chapels of the Church of St. Joseph, presented to the Holy Father by subscription on the occasion of his jubilee, is going on with great activity. Each Catholic nation has had a chapel assigned to it, and the artists vie with one another in their efforts to pictorially represent the devotion and religious glories of their respective countries. One of the finest chapels is the Polish one, containing beautiful pictures of Our Lady of Czestochowa and of several Polish saints.

The scriptures are now very busy on the interior of the great dome of the basilica of Montmartre, Paris. Hammer and chisel seem to have no rest, for M. Rohault de Fleury says there are 400 strokes a minute nearly all day.

We regret to announce the death at the age of 72 of M. Henri Lasserre, the historian of Lourdes. He studied law in Paris, but under the Empire became a journalist and editor of the "Gouffier." He wrote against Rome's "Vis de Jean," and, having himself to have been carried from Lourdes by a bottle of Lourdes water, he became the patron of the Lourdes shrine, his book being translated into every known language. He also published a new French translation of the Bible, which is highly valued by the clergy of the diocese of Auch.

THE HERALD

WEDNESDAY, August 22nd, 1900.
SUBSCRIPTION—$1.00 A YEAR.
PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY
JAMES McISAAC,
Editor & Proprietor.

An election petition, containing the usual charges, was served yesterday on Dr. Douglas, of Hunter River, recently elected to the Provincial Legislature. Mr. Donald W. Henderson, of North River, is the petitioner.

SOME Grit leaders and Grit journals make a pretence of sneering at Hon. Hugh John McLeod. They speak of him as the "nose" and would like to convince themselves that his "nose" is the only resemblance he bears to his distinguished father. But in their inmost souls they have a very wholesome dread of "Hugh John" for he has demonstrated that he possesses, in an eminent degree, the faculty of bringing Grit noses to the grinding stone in short order.

WHILE Laurier goes about from place to place, and with a simpering leering countenance, and the people he is the apostle of peace and unity, the Grit newspapers are at work hammer and tongs sowing the seeds of discord in different parts of the Dominion. This nefarious propaganda is carried on in Ontario by the Standard Globe and the Leader. Grit organs in the Province of Quebec work the work of rousing the most fierce racial prejudice is engaged in by LeSoleil, and especially by La Patrie, Tarte's personal organ, purchased with public money from the Drummond County Railway Steel. What an aggregation of hypocrites Laurier and his colleagues are to be sure.

SIR Charles Tupper will be in Charlottetown and address a meeting on Thursday, September 14th. It is expected that he will be accompanied by Hon. George E. Foster. The venerable Leader of the Opposition and his first lieutenant, are without doubt the two best public speakers in Canada, and on any occasion an enthusiastic reception from their political friends in this city and Province. And not only from their political friends; but from the members of both political parties will they be likely to receive an ovation. The public question of the day will be treated in a masterly manner by Sir Charles and Mr. Foster and there can be no doubt that they will be greeted by one of the largest meetings ever seen in this city.

THE Whelan monument demonstration, to be held at the athletic grounds in this city, on Monday next should attract an immense throng of visitors. In the first place, the object of the demonstration should in itself be sufficient to bring together a large gathering from different parts of the country. The name of Edward Whelan, the great champion of the peoples' rights, who rendered such valiant service with tongue and pen to secure for this Island the boon of responsible government, should be a household word from end to end of the Province. The laudable object of erecting a suitable monument to his memory should receive hearty and unanimous support. The occasion of the day, Mr. George V. McInerney, M. P., is one of Canada's most brilliant and accomplished sons, and cannot fail to be a drawing card. Add to this the other attractions of the programme and the success of the demonstration is assured.

MR. RICHARDSON, Liberal M. P. for Liger, Manitoba, elsewhere referred to, although set aside by the machine Grits, does not appear to have lost the confidence of his old-time Liberal friends, as the following despatch plainly indicates: "One of the best political receptions ever accorded any man at a Manitoba county town was given to R. L. Richardson, member for Liger, in this Southern Manitoba town on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Richardson had been invited down to meet the farmers. He was escorted to the hall by a brass band, and a resolution endorsing him was carried unanimously by the crowded meeting. Some significant speeches were made by a number of staunch old Liberals. The meeting is especially significant, as it was in Greenway's constituency, and speeches of his old-time political friends and allies show that they are not only not alienated but that they are still in the political confidence."

INDEPENDENCE is a plant that does not thrive in Grit soil under the Laurier system of cultivation. Whenever it shows itself the Laurier Grits and the steady supporters of the Government and the "Old Liberalism," the Ottawa platform and the pre-emption resolution of Laurier and his associates to the Ministry. The result was that these papers were read out of the party and burned down by the Government and the "Old Liberalism" organs, and Sir Richardson, editor of the Winnipeg Tribune, who represents Manitoba constituency in the House of Commons, was refused a re-nomination in his constituency through the influence of Mr. Sifton, Minister of the Interior. Mr. Sifton had the convention packed and had a pliable Grit after his own heart chosen instead of Richardson. But these arbitrary tactics have by no means silenced Mr. Richardson's paper, nor the Gleaner. On the contrary these papers continue to expose the political villainy of the Laurier-Sifton brand of Liberalism to the utter shagrin of the Government and the "steady support" organs. It is a pretty family quarrel. Very!

Would You Have Supported This!

(Toronto Mail and Empire.)

Suppose that in 1896 Laurier had made a speech like this to the electors, would you have voted for his candidates? "Gentlemen—We propose to make great reforms. Our taxes are too light; we shall increase them by $12,500,000. The Upper Government have spent but $40,730,853 this year; we shall gradually add to the expenditures until they reach $51,542,635 in 1899. The debt is altogether too small; we shall add $8,000,000 to it. We have too many markets; we shall refuse a preference in the British market; we shall give the Yankees all they want in our market so that their tariff against us may be kept up, and we shall induce the Germans to put a discriminating tariff upon Canadian products, that the United States may have the market exclusively. You are paying far too little for your coal oil; we shall sell out our oil industry to the Standard Oil monopoly, and will thus raise the price by from six to ten cents a gallon. The idea of standing by Great Britain in periods of crisis is absurd; if trouble arises, we shall refuse to help in Imperial defence until we are forced to do so, and if we do so, we shall notify the Queen not to look upon our action as a precedent. The Tories gave too little to railway corporations; we shall double the bonuses, and shall subsidize parallel lines all over the country. Too small are the amounts paid for public works; we shall introduce go-betweens to take contracts and pocket the difference between the amount the contractor charges and the larger amount that we shall pay. The elections give too much anxiety to the people; we shall see that the ballot boxes are duly stuffed, thus relieving you of the necessity of forming a judgment on public affairs. Our friends have been long out in the cold; we shall warm them with boogie, according to their deserts; the Toronto Globe shall be granted a coal mine it does not earn, and faithful politicians shall make money, even out of the food of our soldiers. If this had been the announced programme, would you have supported it?"

"The Review, as an independent Liberal paper has repeatedly protested against the mistakes of the leaders. We do so again and in this we are not alone in this constituency. During the past month scores of old time Liberals here have stated positive that they would use neither their influence nor votes to return their party to power with its present false leaders. "One leading Liberal went so far as to state that he would certainly vote against the party at the first opportunity. But with all this condemnation of the government, the Review adds that it "would not like to see the Liberal government turned down at the next election," but it declares that "if the party is to govern the country any longer, its dishonest leaders must be headed off, and that at once. What this country wants is honest government, no matter what the government is."

Commenting on the above the Halifax Herald says:—"No honest man can well dispute that last sentence. But how the present 'dishonest leaders' in office are to be headed 'off' that at once," induce the Germans to put a discriminating tariff upon Canadian products, that the United States may have the market exclusively. The Tories gave too little to railway corporations; we shall double the bonuses, and shall subsidize parallel lines all over the country. Too small are the amounts paid for public works; we shall introduce go-betweens to take contracts and pocket the difference between the amount the contractor charges and the larger amount that we shall pay. The elections give too much anxiety to the people; we shall see that the ballot boxes are duly stuffed, thus relieving you of the necessity of forming a judgment on public affairs. Our friends have been long out in the cold; we shall warm them with boogie, according to their deserts; the Toronto Globe shall be granted a coal mine it does not earn, and faithful politicians shall make money, even out of the food of our soldiers. If this had been the announced programme, would you have supported it?"

Still another independent journal, the Eastern Ontario Review, calling itself Liberal, and always supporting the Liberal party in politics, is out in condemnation of the government combination at Ottawa, whom it calls "false leaders" and "dishonest leaders." Giving reasons for its protest against the conduct of the Laurier Government the Review says:—"The present Liberal government was elected on a definitely stated platform, which met with the views of honest men in both political parties. They made great promises. Here are a few of them:—"They promised us a tariff for revenue only. They have not given it to us. "They promised to reduce the expenditures of the government by several millions of dollars. They have increased it by many millions. "They promised to enormously reduce the national debt. They have enormously increased it. "They promised to clean this country of corrupt practices in elections. They have not done so, but in many cases have brought disgrace upon the party whose name they bear. "They promised to stop the practice of appointing members of parliament to positions in the government. They have followed this same practice in a most shameful manner. "They promised to bring railway corporations to their proper place and to have full control over them. They have given millions of dollars for wildcat changes and are practically at the mercy of the great railway corporations. "These are only a few promises, but enough to show that the government as it is to-day, has played false with the men who put them where they are. "No party ever started out with better prospects or had a better chance to carry out its promises than the Liberal party did in 1896. "They had a big majority in the house and the majority was on the side of the brightest commercial period in its history. "The leaders appeared to go mad with delight upon a morning office and forgot entirely the pre-ferred principles upon which they were elected. The men who elected them have not forgotten these principles and they still stand by them."

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE. DETENTIVES FROM ITALY. Fifteen Italian detectives have sailed for New York to share in the arrests of anarchists in the United States.

THE SHAH IS PROGRESSIVE. The Shah of Persia has sent an agent to the United States for a brief examination of electric trolley cars in Greater New York. The Shah proposes to establish a trolley line across the Persian Gulf, a distance of 86 miles.

RIOT IN NEW YORK. A mob of several hundred persons formed last Wednesday night in front of the home of Policeman Robert J. Thorpe, New York, to celebrate the anniversary of his death. The mob, which grew into a riot, looted the neighborhood and caused considerable damage. The police, numbering 400, were called out and, with the regular police, fought the mob. The mob of white men, which grew with great rapidity, raged through the district and negroes, regardless of age or sex, were indiscriminately attacked and injured. The mob, with the combined efforts of the reserve, with as many more policemen on regular patrol duty to restore order. Clubs were used until the policemen were almost exhausted. Revolvers were used in the riot, and several men were injured, some of them seriously. The trouble grew out of the death of Policeman Robert J. Thorpe, who was killed in a riot in the city of New York. Thorpe was attempting to arrest a negro when he was attacked by a mob of white men who attacked the policeman with razors. He died the following day.

NEGRO UPRISING IN GEORGIA. Governor Chandler has ordered out the Liberty guards, a company of the Georgia National guard to quell an uprising of negroes in Liberty county, in the south eastern portion of the state where the blacks outnumber the whites three to one. One white man was killed several days ago in a quarrel with negroes and since that time discontent has grown on both sides until now a race war seems imminent. It is reported that the negroes are buying shotguns and small arms about fifty miles from Savannah. Two negroes are reported to have been killed for robbing a train.

ANOTHER WAR CLOUD. According to the press despatches a great tension has been created in Bulgaria and was said to be imminent. Bulgarian troops are being sent to the frontier. A Bulgarian speaking to his officers on Sunday said: "Gentlemen, be ready for war. It can happen any day and we will serve our country with our lives."

Sumner for duty again. This is the record of Perry Davis Pain-Killer. A cure for rheumatism, sprains and all kinds of pains. Sold by Perry Davis, Furry Davis, etc.

IT UNDERWEAR for men—fit to wear because it's made to fit, some like it better than the others. It's made to fit, some like it better than the others. It's made to fit, some like it better than the others.

On the contrary these papers continue to expose the political villainy of the Laurier-Sifton brand of Liberalism to the utter shagrin of the Government and the "steady support" organs. It is a pretty family quarrel. Very!

Suppose that in 1896 Laurier had made a speech like this to the electors, would you have voted for his candidates? "Gentlemen—We propose to make great reforms. Our taxes are too light; we shall increase them by $12,500,000. The Upper Government have spent but $40,730,853 this year; we shall gradually add to the expenditures until they reach $51,542,635 in 1899. The debt is altogether too small; we shall add $8,000,000 to it. We have too many markets; we shall refuse a preference in the British market; we shall give the Yankees all they want in our market so that their tariff against us may be kept up, and we shall induce the Germans to put a discriminating tariff upon Canadian products, that the United States may have the market exclusively. You are paying far too little for your coal oil; we shall sell out our oil industry to the Standard Oil monopoly, and will thus raise the price by from six to ten cents a gallon. The idea of standing by Great Britain in periods of crisis is absurd; if trouble arises, we shall refuse to help in Imperial defence until we are forced to do so, and if we do so, we shall notify the Queen not to look upon our action as a precedent. The Tories gave too little to railway corporations; we shall double the bonuses, and shall subsidize parallel lines all over the country. Too small are the amounts paid for public works; we shall introduce go-betweens to take contracts and pocket the difference between the amount the contractor charges and the larger amount that we shall pay. The elections give too much anxiety to the people; we shall see that the ballot boxes are duly stuffed, thus relieving you of the necessity of forming a judgment on public affairs. Our friends have been long out in the cold; we shall warm them with boogie, according to their deserts; the Toronto Globe shall be granted a coal mine it does not earn, and faithful politicians shall make money, even out of the food of our soldiers. If this had been the announced programme, would you have supported it?"

Still another independent journal, the Eastern Ontario Review, calling itself Liberal, and always supporting the Liberal party in politics, is out in condemnation of the government combination at Ottawa, whom it calls "false leaders" and "dishonest leaders." Giving reasons for its protest against the conduct of the Laurier Government the Review says:—"The present Liberal government was elected on a definitely stated platform, which met with the views of honest men in both political parties. They made great promises. Here are a few of them:—"They promised us a tariff for revenue only. They have not given it to us. "They promised to reduce the expenditures of the government by several millions of dollars. They have increased it by many millions. "They promised to enormously reduce the national debt. They have enormously increased it. "They promised to clean this country of corrupt practices in elections. They have not done so, but in many cases have brought disgrace upon the party whose name they bear. "They promised to stop the practice of appointing members of parliament to positions in the government. They have followed this same practice in a most shameful manner. "They promised to bring railway corporations to their proper place and to have full control over them. They have given millions of dollars for wildcat changes and are practically at the mercy of the great railway corporations. "These are only a few promises, but enough to show that the government as it is to-day, has played false with the men who put them where they are. "No party ever started out with better prospects or had a better chance to carry out its promises than the Liberal party did in 1896. "They had a big majority in the house and the majority was on the side of the brightest commercial period in its history. "The leaders appeared to go mad with delight upon a morning office and forgot entirely the pre-ferred principles upon which they were elected. The men who elected them have not forgotten these principles and they still stand by them."

RIOT IN NEW YORK. A mob of several hundred persons formed last Wednesday night in front of the home of Policeman Robert J. Thorpe, New York, to celebrate the anniversary of his death. The mob, which grew into a riot, looted the neighborhood and caused considerable damage. The police, numbering 400, were called out and, with the regular police, fought the mob. The mob of white men, which grew with great rapidity, raged through the district and negroes, regardless of age or sex, were indiscriminately attacked and injured. The mob, with the combined efforts of the reserve, with as many more policemen on regular patrol duty to restore order. Clubs were used until the policemen were almost exhausted. Revolvers were used in the riot, and several men were injured, some of them seriously. The trouble grew out of the death of Policeman Robert J. Thorpe, who was killed in a riot in the city of New York. Thorpe was attempting to arrest a negro when he was attacked by a mob of white men who attacked the policeman with razors. He died the following day.

NEGRO UPRISING IN GEORGIA. Governor Chandler has ordered out the Liberty guards, a company of the Georgia National guard to quell an uprising of negroes in Liberty county, in the south eastern portion of the state where the blacks outnumber the whites three to one. One white man was killed several days ago in a quarrel with negroes and since that time discontent has grown on both sides until now a race war seems imminent. It is reported that the negroes are buying shotguns and small arms about fifty miles from Savannah. Two negroes are reported to have been killed for robbing a train.

ANOTHER WAR CLOUD. According to the press despatches a great tension has been created in Bulgaria and was said to be imminent. Bulgarian troops are being sent to the frontier. A Bulgarian speaking to his officers on Sunday said: "Gentlemen, be ready for war. It can happen any day and we will serve our country with our lives."

In South Africa

Lord Kitchener, after a forced march, has succeeded in relieving Colonel Hear who was besieged by the Boers at Brand's River, east of Pretoria, and who has gallantly held out for more than a fortnight. During the siege the garrison lost twelve killed, and fifty-eight wounded, including Lieut.-Col. Duffell. The War Office has received a despatch from Lord Roberts expressing a fear that General DeWet has succeeded in breaking up his force into small bodies.

According to a despatch to the Daily Express, from Lorenzo Marques, it is reported that General DeWet has succeeded in breaking up his force into small bodies. According to a despatch to the Daily Express, from Lorenzo Marques, it is reported that General DeWet has succeeded in breaking up his force into small bodies.

Lincoln We, the Kaffir chief on the western border, has made a raid into the Transvaal and has captured a number of cattle. The Boers are said to have been the aggressors. Lincoln We is reported to be fighting in a civilized manner, and is treating his prisoners humanely.

A Pretoria despatch of August 18th says—General DeWet appeared yesterday at North West Cape, and, led by General Baden-Powell and sent a flag of truce asking the surrender of the British forces. General Roberts replied asking what terms DeWet was prepared to offer. DeWet is evidently making a last effort to break up his force into small bodies and to escape to the east.

Pretoria despatch dated Saturday says—The case of the defence in the trial of Lieut. Corda of the Boers, who was accused of being concerned in the plot to kidnap Lord Roberts, was concluded today. Lieut. Corda's counsel admitted that the accused was guilty of breaking his parole and of attempting to plan a conspiracy, but he contended that the attempt was a failure. Counsel also maintained that Grano was not a party to the conspiracy and that the charges against him were unfounded. The court found that DeWet is a prisoner of war and that the charges against him are unfounded. He is to be released and to return to his home.

A Stroll Through the Paris Exhibition.

(The Courtyard of the Grand Palais.)

The Paris Exhibition, as our readers know, was officially opened to the public on the 14th of April, however, the tourists who made Paris the object of their Easter holiday trip were doomed to disappointment. Instead of the wonders they expected, they found themselves stranded among half finished buildings, unopened cases, dust, noise and confusion.

Covering as it does a vast space, and containing a multitude of objects of interest—either beautiful, curious or merely amusing, the World's Fair of 1900 can not be fully described in a few pages. A complete and minute account of its attractions would be far beyond the limits of a single paper.

As we stand facing the bridge, we have on one side, on the right bank of the river, the Grand Palais, a permanent building, which is destined to take the place of the former Palais de l'Industrie that visitors to Paris will remember. This palace contains a series of French and foreign paintings, all belonging to this century.

Among Benjamin Constant's best and latest portraits is one of Queen Victoria. The aged sovereign, with her white hair and black dress, is sitting in a golden atmosphere of medieval splendor.

In front of the Grand Palais may be seen a smaller palace, also a permanent building, whose graceful proportions and architecture are pleasant to look upon. It contains a marvelous collection of artistic productions, all French.

Just opposite the Trocadero, the various attractions of the Champ-de-Mars extend round the Eiffel Tower. Here, too, may be seen the "Grand Globe Terrestre," a large sphere that stands on a pedestal eight metres high.

In another line, but on a less elevated site, are the tables, umbrellas and chairs, with gull garlands as a decorative touch, that they might almost be seen as personal ornaments; still, these are not the things that were wanted long ago by the happy tourists of Versailles.

Mr. F. L. Campbell, of Fortune Bridge, P.E.I., a great sufferer from pain in the back.

Mr. F. L. Campbell, the well-known general merchant of Fortune Bridge, P.E.I., was troubled with severe pain in his back and hips for over two years.

At length he became aware of the fact that backache was simply a symptom of kidney trouble and did not indicate anything else.

Between the Hungarian pavilion and the Belgian facade of the Hotel de Ville of Andergarde, with its Gothic windows and profuse ornaments, the British pavilion has a staid and sober aspect.

When I was young I ran away from home to sail upon the seas; but I just round the block met Pa, who bore down in a spanking breeze.
