Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

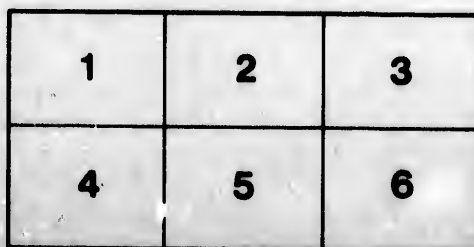

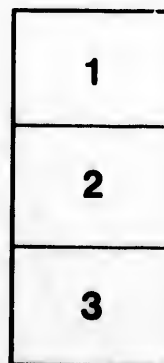

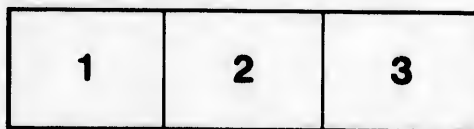

Library Division
Provincial Archives of British Columbia

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Library Division
Provincial Archives of British Columbia

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

H., NYP. + [Same imprint.] [185-?] 16mo, pp. (2), 5-56. 6 plates. AAS., C. 89539

Dedication signed, Ziba Sproule.

Pp. 53-56 contain testimonials. Title of the second edition in 55 pp. is supplied from the NYP. catalogue card, that copy not being available. In the Boston directories, Wm. White is listed as printing without Potter from 1854 to 1861, so the last two issues must have appeared sometime within that period.

This work is included in the list of writings of L. M. Sargent in Sargent's "Epes Sargent . . . and his Descendants," 1923, and in our brief entry, no. 77005, vol. 18. Cushing attributes the work to Rev. George Trask.

SPITZBERGEN.

As the connection of Spitzbergen with American history is not close, there are here listed only a few anonymous titles.

Description of a view of the North Coast of Spitzbergen, now exhibiting in the large Rotunda of H. A. Barker's Panorama . . . ; painted from drawings taken by Lieut. Beechey, . . . London. 1819. 8vo. BM. 89540

Description of Messrs. Marshall's Grand Peristrepic Panorama of the Polar Regions; which displays the North Coast of Spitzbergen, Baffin's Bay, Arctic Highlands, &c. now exhibiting in the Masonic Hall, York Street, Bath. Painted from Drawings taken by Lieut. Beechey, who accompanied the Polar Expedition in 1818; and Messrs. Ross and Saccheuse, who accompanied the expedition to discover a North West Passage. . . . Shrewsbury: Printed by William Eddowes, Salopian Journal Office. 1822. To be had at the Panorama. 8vo, pp. 28. CAN.ARCH. 89541

Histoire du Pays nommé Spitsberghe. See no. 32028, vol. 8.

Narrative of a Voyage to Spitzbergen in the Year 1613, at the charge of the fellowship of English merchants for the discovery of new trades; commonly called the Muscovy Company: with a Description of the Country, and the Operations of the Whale-Fishery. Now first Printed from the Original Manuscript. With an Introduction and Notes, by Samuel F. Haven. From American Antiquarian Society's Transactions, Vol. IV. Fifty Copies privately

Printed. Boston: Printed by John Wilson and Son. 1860. 8vo, pp. (4), 74. Folded map. AAS. 89542

Printed from a manuscript in the possession of the society. Haven attributes the narrative to Robert Fotherby, because of the similarity of passages therein to descriptions included by Purchas in his "Pilgrimes," which he says he has taken from Fotherby. See the introduction, pp. 35 ff.

A | Narrative | of the | Extraordinary | Adventures | of four | Russian Sailors, | Who were cast away, and lived six Years, | on the | Desert Island of East-Spitzbergen. | As related by themselves. | Norwich: Printed and sold by John Trumbull. | M. DCC. LXXXV. | 8vo, pp. 16. AAS. 89543

For French and Dutch editions, see Le Roy (Petr Ludovick), nos. 40145 and 40146, vol. 10.

NYP. 89549

One or other of the issues are located at C., CU., H., HISP. SOC. AMER., PEAB., Y.

Improved title of no. 44996, vol. 11.

Some copies are on large paper.

The first part of the titles of vols. 2 and 3, varies slightly, and they continue respectively as follows:

Zweiter Theil, bearbeitet und herausgegeben von Dr. C. F. P. von Martius. Mit vier Charten und vier und zwanzig Abbildungen. München, 1828. Gedruckt bei I. J. Lentner. Pp. 559 and 707 are mispaged respectively 596 and 507, and signature 72, pp. 561-568, is mispaged 563-570. The final pp. 15 contain "Brasilianische Volkslieder und Indianische Melodien, Musikbeilage zu Dr. v. Spix und Dr. v. Martius Reise in Brasilien." This may also have been issued separately. B.

Dritter und letzter Theil, bearbeitet und herausgegeben von Dr. C. F. P. von Martius. Mit sieben Blättern Charten und zwei Tafeln Abbildungen. München, 1831, bei dem Verfasser. Leipzig, in Comm. bei Friedr. Fleischer. The final pp. 40 contain a "Geographischer Anhang."

Many copies lack the Atlas, which is larger than the book, and has an engraved title page as follows:

Atlas zur Reise in Brasilien von Dr. v. Spix und Dr. v. Martius. Stilke inv. et del. P. Cornelius dir. I. Paringer sculp. [n. p. n. d.] Oblong folio.

There appear to have been several issues of the atlas. Collations with variations have been supplied as follows:

a. Engraved title, 41 plates, 6 maps, one of which is on four leaves and one is folded, and folded diagram.

c. Engraved title, 41 plates, portrait, 7 maps, one of which is folded, and folded diagram.

h. Engraved title, 40 plates, 7 maps, one of which is on four leaves and one is folded, and folded diagram. Inserted plate.

y. Engraved title, plates numbered 2-28, 29 (incorrectly numbered 28)-37, 38a, 39-40, one unnumbered plate, 2 folded maps, 8 maps and folded diagram.

v. Another issue of the atlas at y. has 36 unnumbered plates and no engraved title or maps.

Several series of almanacs by this maker were issued in various states, with different titles and with necessary variations in the tables, but with the issues for the same year bearing the same series number. These are here arranged first alphabetically by states, and chronologically under the states.

Where the titles are similar for a number of years, they are summarized under the earliest. We have not attempted to locate the individual issues so summarized.

The most complete sets are at AAS.

ILLINOIS.

SPOFFORD. No. III. An Astronomical Diary, or Almanack, for . . . 1819. . . . Calculated for the Meridian of Andover, (Mass.) . . . but will serve . . . for any of the New-England States. . . . By Thomas Spofford. Boston: Printed by Hews & Goss, Congress Street, (Second Room over the Post-Office.) [1818.] 12mo, pp. (36). AAS. 89576

AAS. has also a later issue of this number, which has on the verso of the 17th leaf, the correction of an error in the earlier issue.

Nos. 4 to 6 of this series, for the years 1820-22, were printed and published in Exeter, N. H. In the issue for 1822, the name was changed to "The Farmer's Almanack; or an Astronomical Diary." Nos. 7 and 8, for the years 1823-24, with the title, "The Farmer's Almanack; and Annual Register," were also printed in Exeter but published in Andover.

SPOFFORD. Vol. II. No. 2. Whole No. X. The Farmer's Almanack, and Annual Register, for . . . 1826. . . . Calculated for the meridian of Boston, Mass. . . . but will serve . . . for any of the New-England States. . . . By Thomas Spofford. . . . Haverhill, Mass. Published by Thomas Carey; sold by him; sold also by the principal Booksellers, and Country Traders in the New-England States. . . . [1825.] 12mo, pp. (36). AAS. 89577

Nichols states that it is probable that Spofford may have issued an almanac for 1825, though he has not seen one for that year or for 1827.

SPOFFORD. An Astronomical Diary for 1828. Vol. 2. No. 4. The Yankee. Whole No. 12. The Farmer's Almanack, and Annual Register, for . . . 1828. . . . Calculated for the Meridian of Boston, Mass. . . . but will serve for any of the New-England States. . . . By Thomas Spofford. . . . Boston: Published by David Felt & Co. No. 82 State-street, sold by them; sold also, by the principal Booksellers and Country Merchants in the New-England States. . . . [1827.] 12mo, pp. (36). AAS. 89578

This series was continued with slightly varying titles through the number for 1844, vol. 4, no. 4, whole no. 28. The word "Yankee" is dropped from the title in the issues for 1841 and 1843. In 1843, the words "United States" are also added before "Farmers' Almanac." The numbers for 1843 and 1844 are calculated for the whole United States, British Provinces, and Texas. Nichols does not list any Spofford almanac for 1845.

SPOFFORD. Astronomical Diary for 1840. Pocket Almanack, for . . . 1840. For New England, New York, and Michigan. . . . By Thomas Spofford. . . . Boston. Thomas Groom & Co., 82 State St. . . . [1839.] 32mo, pp. (32). AAS. 89579

Interleaved. Continued with slightly varying titles until 1847 at least, AAS. having all the issues except that for 1846.

SPOFFORD. Spofford's United States Farmers' Almanac, for . . . 1846. By Thomas Spofford. . . . Boston: Published by Thomas

SPOFFORD. Vol. V., No. 1. Whole No. 33. Spofford's Political Register and U. S. Farmers' Almanac for . . . 1849. . . Fitted to Five different Meridians, and calculated for all the United States, British Provinces, and Mexico. Containing, besides its usual matter, a List of the Executive Officers and Governors of the States, &c. Election Information and Votes for President, &c., since 1789. . . By Thomas Spofford. . . Boston: Published by Thomas Groom, 82 State Street. Sold also by the Principal Booksellers and Country Merchants in the Union. [1848.] 12mo, pp. (36).

AAS., HSP. 89581

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

SPOFFORD. No. IV. An Astronomical Diary, or Almanack for . . . 1820 . . . Calculated for the Meridian of Andover, (Mass.) . . . but will serve . . . for any of the New-England States. . . By Thomas Spofford. . . Exeter:—Publish'd by Nath'l Boardman. Sold wholesale and retail at the Exeter Bookstore, sold also by the principal Booksellers and Country Traders in New-England. . . J. J. Williams, Printer. [1819.] 12mo, pp. (36). AAS. 89582

Nos. 5-6 of this series, for the years 1821-1822, were also printed and published in Exeter, the latter having the title: "The Farmer's Almanack; or an Astronomical Diary." Nos. 7-8, for the years 1823-1824, have the title: "The Farmer's Almanack; and Annual Register," and were also printed in Exeter but published in Andover. These New Hampshire issues take the place of any in Massachusetts for these years.

NEW YORK.

SPOFFORD. An Astronomical Diary for 1828. The New-York Almanack, for . . . 1828. . . Calculated for the Meridian of New-York, . . . but will serve for any of the adjacent States. . . By Thomas Spofford. . . New-York: Published by David Felt, No. 245 Pearl-street, sold by him, and also by the principal Booksellers and Country Traders. . . [1827.] 12mo, pp. (36). AAS. 89583

The series of Spofford's almanacs published in New York has many variations in the titles. Those for 1828, 1829, 1830, 1833, and 1836 have "New-York" prominent in the titles. That for 1830 was calculated for the meridian of Boston. From 1831 to 1840, with the exception of the number for 1833, they are called almanacs for the middle states.

SPOFFORD. The Long-Island Almanack, for . . . 1828 . . . By Thomas Spofford. New-York: Published by David Felt, No. 345 Pearl-street . . . 12mo, pp. (36). 89584

Title from Wall. From a copy in the Morton Pennypacker collection in the East Hampton, New York, Free Library.

SPOFFORD. An Astronomical Diary for 1829. Vol. 2. No. 5. For Long-Island. Whole No. 13. The Farmer's Almanack, and Annual Register, for . . . 1829. . . Calculated for the Meridian of New-York, . . . but will serve for the States of New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois. . . By Thomas Spofford. . . New-York: Published by David Felt, 245 Pearl-street; sold by him, and also by the principal Booksellers and Country Traders. [1828.] 12mo, pp. (36). AAS., H. 89585

From the same type as the New York issue.

The Long Island issue for 1830 has a varying title and is calculated for the Meridian of Boston . . . AAS., H.

SPOFFORD. Vol. 2. No. 7. An Astronomical Diary for 1831. Whole No. 15. Farmer's Almanack, for the Middle States, for . . . 1831. . . Calculated for the Meridian of New-York City, . . . but will serve for any of the adjacent States, and Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. . . By Thomas Spofford. . . New-York: Published by David Felt, 245 Pearl-st; sold by him, and by William Felt, & Co. 82 State-st. Boston; sold also by the principal Booksellers and Country Traders. [1830.] 12mo, pp. (36). AAS. 89586

The almanacs were issued with somewhat similar titles through the number for 1840, except that the issue for 1833 has the title: ". . . The New-York Farmer's Almanack." In some years, the same almanac is issued with different imprints.

SPOFFORD. Stationers' Hall Almanack, for . . . 1835. . . Calculated for New York, . . . but will serve for any of the Middle States, and Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois. Astronomical Calculations by Thomas Spofford. . . New York: Published at Stationers' Hall, 245 Pearl-st., by David Felt & Co. Sold also by the principal Booksellers and Country Merchants in the Union. [1834.] 12mo, pp. (36). AAS. 89587

SPOFFORD. Astronomical Diary for 1839. Pocket Almanack, for . . . 1839. For New York, New-England, and Michigan. . . By Thomas Spofford. . . New York: David Felt & Co., 245 Pearl-St. . . [1838.] 32mo, pp. (32). AAS. 89588

There is an issue of this almanac for 1840 with a similar title. AAS.

SPOFFORD. Vol. 4. No. 1. An Astronomical Diary for 1841. Whole No. 25. The Farmer's Almanac, for . . . 1841. . . Calculated for New-York, . . . but will serve for all the Middle States, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. . . By Thomas Spofford. . . New-York, Published by David Felt & Co., Stationers' Hall, 245 Pearl, and 34 Wall Streets. [1840.] 12mo, pp. (36). AAS. 89589

The almanac for 1842 bears the same title. In both 1841 and 1842 there were issues in which the imprints vary.

SPOFFORD. Vol. 4. No. 3. An Astronomical Diary for 1843. Whole No. 27. The United States Farmers' Almanac, for . . . 1843. . . . Fitted to Five different Meridians; and calculated for the whole United States, the British Provinces, and Texas. . . . By Thomas Spofford. . . . New-York: Published by David Felt & Co. Stationers' Hall, 245 Pearl and 34 Wall-Street. Sold also by the Principal Booksellers and Country Merchants in the Union. [1842.] 12mo, pp. (36). AAS., H. 89590

AAS. has an almanac for 1844 with this title.

SPOFFORD. Vol. 4. No. 5. An Astronomical Diary for 1845. Whole No. 29. Spofford's United States Farmers' Almanac, for . . . 1845. . . . Fitted to Five different Meridians; and calculated for the whole United States, the British Provinces and Texas. . . . By Thomas Spofford. . . . New-York: Published by Nafis & Cornish. 278 Pearl St. Sold also by the Principal Booksellers and Country Merchants in the Union. [1844.] 12mo, pp. (36).

B., M. 89591

The issue for 1846, numbered vol. 4, no. 6, omits Spofford's name, B., but there was an issue for that year beginning, Spofford's United States Farmers' Almanac. H. AAS. has two issues for 1847, and one for 1848, with similar titles.

Spofford's Political Register. See Spofford (Thomas), no. 89581.

On the title page of the AAS. copy of the second edition is the ms. inscription, "By C. Bell." We have found no authority for this attribution.

Announced in the "Royal Gazette," New York, Wednesday, February 5, 1783, no. 664, as follows: "To be Published by Subscription, at One Dollar per Volume, at Messrs. Robertsons, Mills and Hicks, No. 2, Queen-street, and now ready for the Press. . . . This essay may be confidently affirmed the fullest and most complete Thing of the Kind ever published; and What adds to its Value is the Work's being chiefly founded on Observations made by long Experience by the Writer, and on the Practice of the most eminent Sportsmen." Another notice in the "Gazette," issue of April 26, 1783, no. 687, adds to the Queen-street address of the publishers that of "No. 9, Cliff-street," and says that "there are but a few Copies of the first Edition unsold."

The Sportsman's Companion or an Essay on Shooting: illustriously shewing in what manner to fire at birds of game, in various directions and situations. And, directions to gentlemen for the treatment and breaking their own pointers and spaniels, and the necessary precautions, to guard against many accidents that attend this pleasant diversion: with several other useful and interesting particulars relative thereto. By a Gentleman, who has made shooting his favorite amusement upwards of twenty-six years, in Great-Britain, Ireland, and North-America. Third edition. Philadelphia: Printed for the purchasers. [1792.] 89639

Title from Evans, a copy being located at c. This is now missing.

Gee, in his reprint of the work, 1930, stated that in 1793 a third edition was issued in Philadelphia, and that he "believed" that there was a copy in the Sheldon collection at Yale. This, however, was not the case in March, 1932.

The second edition was reprinted for Ernest R. Gee in New York in 1930, by Eugene V. Connett at the Derrydale Press, in an edition of two hundred copies. According to Gee's note on p. iii, "The Sportsman's Companion is in all probability the rarest of the early American books on sport. It is of particular interest to the sportsman, being the first book on shooting to be published in America . . . It is not an Americanized version of an English book, but treats of American birds and American shooting conditions as they have seldom been treated since, and is as valuable to the shooting man of today, as it was to those for whom it was written."

The Sportsman's Portfolio of American Field Sports. Boston:
M. M. Ballou, corner of Tremont and Bromfield streets. 1855.

Title from a copy in the possession of Ernest R. Gee.

The verso of each leaf, after the title, contains a full page illustration, that on the verso of p. 43 being smaller than the others.

400 copies of a facsimile reprint were printed by Eugene V. Connett for E. R. Gee, at the Derrydale Press, in 1929. In the facsimile two preliminary leaves are added and the verso of p. 43 is blank. According to Gee, the wood engravings were originally published in "Gleason's Pictorial Drawing Room Companion."

AAS., B., BA., C., CU., H., HEH., M., NYH., NYP., P., WHS., Y. 89659

According to S. G. Drake's "Catalogue" no. 13 in the quarto series, September, 1873, p. 7, some copies were issued with J. Quincy's "Address . . . on the . . . close of the second century from the first settlement of the city," 1830, and H. G. Otis' "Address . . . on the removal of the municipal government," 1830. "These three rare tracts are seldom found together in one printed cover, as but few were put up in this way, and these few for the accomodation of the city authorities."

SPRAGUE. By Charles Sprague. . . . Boston: True and Greene — City Printers. 1825. 8vo, pp. 31. M. + [Second edition.] [Same imprint, date, and collation.] AAS., M. + [Third edition.] [Same imprint, date, and collation.] AAS., H. + [Fourth edition.] [Same imprint, date, and collation.] AAS., H. + Fifth edition. Boston: True and Greene. 1826. 8vo, pp. 58. BA., BM. 89660

The Boston, 1825, issues are distinguishable only by edition notes on covers lacking in many copies. The first edition located at M. has its printed cover. Copies of this date are located also at B., BA., C., CU., H., HEH., MINNHS., NYH., NYP., P., UTS., WHS., Y.

SPRAGUE. Oration of Charles Sprague, esq. delivered at Boston, Massachusetts, on July 4th, 1825. Cincinnati: John H. Wood, Printer. 1825. 8vo, pp. 19. HEH. 89661

SPRAGUE. An Oration: pronounced before the Inhabitants of Boston, July the Fourth, 1825, in commemoration of American Independence. By Charles Sprague. Boston: Printed by order of the City Council, 1825. Reprinted by John H. Eastburn, 1831. (Sixth edition.) 8vo, pp. 30. BA., H., M., NYH., NYP., Y. 89662

SPRAGUE. The Poetical and Prose Writings of Charles Sprague. New and Revised Edition. New-York: C. S. Francis & Co. 252 Broadway. 1850. 12mo, pp. (4), iii-iv, (2), 9-130, 58, advertisements 2. Frontispiece portrait. AAS., B., BA., H., NYH. 89663

In the main from the stereotype plates of the 1841 "Writings," with two poems added, and a slip with the copyright of that year is pasted on the verso of the title.

Publishers' Notice: "The first collected edition of the Writings of Charles Sprague was stereotyped, and issued in a handsome form, with the assent of the Author, in the year 1841, by the Publishers of the present volume. Its publication was somewhat hastened by the printing of an inferior copy in New-York, without the Author's knowledge, the sheets of which were purchased and destroyed by the Publishers of this edition . . . A new and revised edition is now offered . . . including all the acknowledged productions of the writer . . ."

The portrait is engraved by G. Parker from a painting by C. Harding.

SPRAGUE. The Poetical and Prose Writings of Charles Sprague. New and Revised Edition. Boston: Ticknor, Reed, and Fields. M DCCC L. [Verso of title:] Stereotyped by Hobart & Robbins; New England Type and Stereotype Foundry, Boston. 12mo, pp. (2), v-vi, (4), 205. Frontispiece portrait. AAS.

Copyrighted by Charles Sprague in 1849. The portrait is engraved, from a daguerreotype, by J. Andrews.

This edition was also issued with a more elaborate binding, with added engraved title page and a woodcut illustration on the verso of p. 205, and without the stereotyper's imprint. AAS., CU., M., NYP.

A third issue has the stereotyper's imprint, is without the portrait and the engraved title page, and has the woodcut illustration as a frontispiece. Of this third issue there are two variants. One has four numbered pages of advertisements at the beginning. AAS., M. The other is without these advertising pages. AAS.

All of these issues in AAS. are in original binding.

B., BA., H., HEH., UTEX. and Y. have copies of issues of this edition.

+ New and Revised Edition. Boston: Ticknor, Reed, and Fields. M DCCC LI. 12mo, added engraved title, and pp. (2), v-vi, (4), 205. (1). Frontispiece portrait. B., CU., H., NYH., NYP.

On verso of title of vol. 9: Cambridge: Presswork by John Wilson and Son.

Contents: vols. 1-2, Trinitarian Congregational; vols. 3-4, Presbyterian; vol. 5, Episcopalian; vol. 6, Baptist; vol. 7, Methodist; vol. 8, Unitarian Congregational; vol. 9, Lutheran, Reformed Dutch, Associate, Associate Reformed, and Reformed Presbyterian.

The individual volumes were apparently reissued separately at various dates according to the demand. For example, the AAS. copy of vol. 7 is dated 1856, while copies of the same volume at NYP. are dated 1861 and 1865.

Beside the separate issues of volumes with the general title page, several, if not all, of the parts relating to different churches were also issued separately with individual title pages, e. g. "Annals of the American Presbyterian Pulpit." Copies of these independent volumes have been located as follows: Presbyterian, H.; Episcopal, H., NYP.; Baptist, H.; Methodist, H.; Unitarian, NYP.; Reformed Dutch, NYP. "Annals of the Lutheran Pulpit," and a volume for the Associate, Associate Reformed, and Reformed Presbyterian denominations have been advertised in booksellers' catalogues.

In the American Catalogue, 1876, are listed a new edition, 1865-73, in 9 volumes, and one in 11 volumes, both published by Carter.

NYP. + [Same title and imprint without colophon, the author's initials appearing on the title correctly as "M. C." instead of "C. M."] [1784.] 24mo, engraved title, and pp. (8), 182. 18 plates and folded map.

B., C., H., HEH., NYP., WLC. 89755

"Vorrede" signed: "M. C. Sprengel, Professor der Geschichte. Halle den 30sten October 1783."

The engraved title reads "historisch genealogischer Calender oder Jahrbuch . . ." The pp. 74 in the first edition, which do not appear in the second, contain "Genealogie der regierenden hohen Häupter und anderer fürstlichen Personen in Europa." Plate 13 is dated 1783 in the first edition, but in the second, 1784. The Lenox copy of the first edition in NYP. now lacks the map, although this copy formerly had it, according to Mr. Lenox's note in his copy of Rich.

For later editions, see "Geschichte der Revolution," below.

Sprengel evidently issued later handbooks in this series. BM. lists his "Allgemeines historisches Taschenbuch . . . für 1787, die Geschichte der wichtigsten Staats- und Handelsveränderungen von Ostindien."

[SPRENGEL.] Briefe | den | gegenwärtigen Zustand | von | Nord America | betreffend. | Erste Samlung. | Göttingen, | bey Johann Christian Dieterich | 1777. | 12mo, pp. (8), 118, (1).

B., BA., C., HEH., JCB., M., NYP., WLC., Y. 89758

With heading: "M. C. Sprengel, ordentlichen Lehrers der Geschichte in Halle."

According to the series title, which precedes the title page in the 1785 edition, see NYH. and WLC. copies, the Geschichte forms vol. 18 of "Sammlung der besten Schriftsteller, welche die Geschichte, besondere Rechten, Sitten, und Gewohnheiten der Völker . . . abgehandlet haben." This series title may have been cancelled in some copies, leaving only five preliminary leaves. JCB., NYP. One of the NYP. copies has the binder's title, "Schmidt Geschichte der Deutschen 18. Band."

In the 1785 edition pp. 54, 118, 125, 129 and 133 are mispagged respectively 53, 108, 123, 229 and 113. In the 1788 edition p. 129 is mispagged 229.

Spring, D.D. Newburyport: from the Press of E. W. Allen. 1809. 8vo, pp. 31. AAS., BA., C., HEH., M., NYP., UTS., Y. + . . . And a Letter, addressed by the Rev. Solomon Aiken, A.M. Pastor of a Church in Dracutt, to the Rev. Samuel Spring, D.D. . . . on the subject of his Sermons, delivered April the 6th, 1809. Newburyport, Printed for Subscribers, by W. & J. Gilman, Printers, Booksellers, and Stationers, Middle-street — Sept. 1809. 8vo, pp. 36. AAS., C., H., HEH., M., NYH., NYP. + [Same title as the first edition.] Elizabethtown, (N.J.) Printed by Shepard Kollock, nearly opposite the Academy. — 1810. 8vo, pp. 52. NYH., NYP. 89813

The edition printed by Allen is dedicated to "Christian Friends and Fellow Citizens," and this dedication is quoted in the Gilman issue as that of the "First Edition." Aiken's letter is included in the Elizabethtown edition, although it is not mentioned in the title. This letter was also issued separately: Haverhill, 1809, AAS., BA., HEH., NYP.; and, Utica, 1810, UTS.

Spring was also the author of other sermons printed after 1800, which are omitted from the above list because of the lack of other than religious interest.

See also, "A Vindication of the Result of the late Council at Ipswich." Spring was a member of this Council, and his name is the first of those signed to the "Vindication."

SPRINGER (C[ornelius]). A Review of the late decision of the Supreme Court of Ohio, which has went [sic] virtually to incorporate the Methodist Episcopal Church in the U. S.: or in other words, to incorporate eighteen hundred itinerant preachers, with the privilege of holding within this State, property to an extensive and indefinite amount: and which gives these Itinerant preachers, virtually, full power to wrest away at pleasure, by ecclesiastical and legal processes, all the Church property of their membership in Ohio, amounting in valuation to $350,000, more or less. The whole giving a development of the Principles of the Government of the M. E. Church — showing that the creation of such a corporation, holding such a vast amount of property, is a dangerous engine in a free government. By C. AAS. 89892

"Presbytery of Springfield." Observations on Church Government, by the Presbytery of Springfield. To which is added, the Last

Will and Testament of that Reverend Body: with a preface and notes, by the editor. . . . Cincinnati: From the Press of John W. Browne, Office of Liberty Hall. 1807. 12mo, pp. 23. BM., C., NYP. + Cincinnati — Printed: Albany: Re-Printed by E. and E. Hosford. 1808. 12mo, pp. 23, and errata slip. AAS., BM., C., NYH., NYP. + Pittsfield: Re-Printed by Phineas Allen. 1808. 12mo, pp. 28. BA., C., NYH. 89893

Improved title of nos. 43606, vol. 11, and 56493, vol. 13.

Prepared by Barton W. Stone, Richard M'Nemar, John Dunlavy, and three others, whose names are signed to the "Last Will and Testament." These men had separated from the Presbyterian Synod of Kentucky in 1803, and formed the so-called "Presbytery of Springfield," which acknowledged no authority but that of the Bible. Although this organization broke up in 1804, M'Nemar, the editor, stated in the preface, dated Turtle-Creek, June 15, 1807, that the "Observations" had already been prepared, and were now published without change. M'Nemar and Dunlavy had become Shakers, and Stone joined with Alexander Campbell to form the church of "Disciples of Christ." See Rusk's "Literature of the Middle Western Frontier," 1925, vol. 1, p. 223.

The above editions of the "Observations" have separate signatures and some copies may have been issued separately. However, they are usually found with the Cincinnati, 1807, Albany, 1808, and Pittsfield, 1808, editions, respectively, of M'Nemar's "Kentucky Revival." The Albany edition must have been so issued as the errata slip on the verso of the last page of the "Observations" corrects errors in the Revival as well. The "Kentucky Revival," Union Village, 1837, was reprinted from the Albany edition, but the incomplete copy at c. lacks the final pages. A reprint of the "Observations" with a separate title page and imprint, forms pp. 133-156 of the New York, 1846, edition of the "Kentucky Revival." AAS., BA., BM., C., NYP.

Also: The Last Will and Testament of Springfield Presbytery. . . . From a copy reprinted in Albany. [n. p.] 1808. 12mo, pp. (2), [21]-22. NYP.

With copyright notice. In the sale catalogue of Frank Maier, part 2, Nov. 22-23, 1909, no. 2299, this pamphlet is catalogued, probably incorrectly, under John Woodworth, as author. The poem is a satire on the quarrel between Matthew Lyon and Roger Griswold in the U. S. House of Representatives Jan. 31, and Feb. 15, 1798, for an account of which, see the "Historical Magazine," vol. 8, 1864, pp. 9-12.

The Spur of Monmouth; or, Washington in Arms. A historical and centennial romance of the Revolution, from personal relations and documents never before made public. SPURRIER (Caleb). Copy of a Letter from Mr. Caleb Spurrier to his Correspondent in Cornwall. [n. p. 17—.] Folio, pp. 2. 89929

An "account of his discovery of large silver mines in New England, obtaining grants from the proprietors in whose hands they are, the bringing over of 350 tons of ore with the results of the assays, &c. Spurrier is asking his friends to take shares in the venture." Title and note from Dobell's catalogue no. 116, April 1932, no. 249.

SPURRIER (John). The Practical Farmer: being a New and Compendious System of Husbandry, adapted to the different soils and climates of America. Containing the Mechanical, Chemical and Philosophical Elements of Agriculture. With many other useful and interesting subjects By John Spurrier, an old experienced farmer, late of the County of Herts, in Great-Britain: and now of Brandywine Hundred, County of New-Castle, and State of Delaware. | Wilmington: Printed by Brynberg and Andrews. | M,DCC,XCIII. | 8vo, pp. 360, index xv, subscribers names x. AAS., BA., HEH., NYH., NYP., P. 39930

P. 213 is mispaged 113.

Advertisements of what purported to be a Worcester edition of 1792 appeared in two unidentified catalogues, clippings from which have been seen. The first cutting is from an auction catalogue, and notes an imprint partially supplied in facsimile. The second from a bookseller's list undoubtedly describes the same copy, but mentions a list of subscribers including Washington and Jefferson. This identifies the book as being the Wilmington edition. Iraiah Thomas never advertised an edition of Spurrier, in the "Massachusetts Spy," and it is not in his Catalogue of Books, 1793. Information from Clarence S. Brigham.

SPUYTEN (Henry von), pseud. A Few Thoughts for tax payers and voters in the City of New York. Collected by Henry von Spuyten. *New York: Charles B. Y. 89954

The first issue forms vol. 1, 1848, of the "Smithsonian Contributions to Knowledge," the special title appearing on p. [xvii]. The title page of the authors' edition has the heading, "From the Smithsonian Contributions to Knowledge." In some copies a slip is inserted which reads, "The Smithsonian Institution having printed an edition of the following Memoir for their own distribution, permit the authors to strike off from the same type and plates, a small edition for their own benefit." Most copies of this issue seem to have the "authors'" title substituted for the general series title, but in some copies the general title is included as well, preceding the "authors'" title. The title page of the official issue also appears in this issue.

In the official issue a blank leaf forms pp. [xv]-[xvi], but in the authors' edition, this leaf contains the official title page, and a dedication to Albert Gallatin appears on p. [xvii], the verso being blank.

Though the above imprint contains the address of the Philadelphia bookseller, the work was printed in Europe, no doubt in Germany. For this reason it is not included in the bibliographies of Hildeburn and Seidensticker. Heinsius lists an octavo edition in 7 vols. published by Koppe in Rostock, 1755-1764, of which this might be a reissue with a new title page.

STADEN (Hans).

The editions of Staden's narrative here entered are arranged in the following order: German, Dutch, French, English and Portuguese, those in each language having a chronological arrangement. For other editions which form the first of the accounts included in the Latin and German versions of the third part of De Bry's Great Voyages, see our vol. 3, pp. 33-36, and 51-52. A condensation in German is also found in "Historia Antipodum," Frankfurt, 1631, which is an abridgment of De Bry.

B., BM., HEH., JCB., NYP. 90036

The preface is dated at "Marpurg," on St. Thomas' day, 1556.

The work is in two sections, the first describing Staden's voyages and adventures, and nine months' captivity in Brazil, and the second giving an account of the manners and customs of the Tupi Indians, whose prisoner he was.

A facsimile reprint with notes by R. N. Wegner was published by the Frankfurter Gesellschaft für Anthropologie, Ethnologie und Urgeschichte, Frankfurt, 1925, c., and again in 1927, NYP.

This edition is sometimes regarded as the first. However, since the preface was dated at Marpurg, it seems probable that the work was first printed there. The first Frankfurt edition was probably printed before the second Marpurg edition of 1557, since the title is more like that of the first.

The woodcuts in this edition, which are the same as those used in the Frankfurt, 1548, edition of Varthema's travels in Africa and Asia, are repeated frequently throughout the text. They have no connection with it.

Another issue of this edition follows:

A reprint of the first Frankfurt edition entered here, edited by Karl Klüpfel, appears in the "Bibliothek des litterarischen Vereins," vol. 47, Stuttgart, 1859, pp. 87-197. B., BA., BM., c., CU., NYP., Y.

Detailed descriptions of the two Marburg and two Frankfurt editions of 1557 are included in Dommer's "Die ältesten Drucke aus Marburg in Hessen," 1892.

H. J. Wynkelmann gives a paraphrase of Staden's narrative in his "Americanischen Neuen Welt Beschreibung," Oldenberg, 1664, pp. 132-228, in which he includes thirty-four of the original woodcuts of the Marburg editions, the blocks for which he found at Cassel. A doubtful portrait of Staden is also included. BM., c., JCB., NYP.

The JCB. copy lacks the leaf H1.

The woodcuts, which are frequently repeated throughout the text, are not the same as those used in either the Marpur or Frankfurt editions, but seem to have been suggested by the originals in the Marpur issues.

The second part, which begins on the 76th leaf, has a special title page beginning, "Een Warachtich cort bericht vanden handel ende zeden der Tuppin Imbas . . ." In all of the Dutch editions, except the dated and undated editions of 1706, the second part has likewise a title page with imprint.

Included in vol. 1 of Pieter vander Aa's "De Aanmerkens-waardige Voyagien door Francoisen, Italiaanen, Deenen, Hoogduytsen," which is one of the four parts of a rearrangement of the "Naaukeurige Versameling," grouped by nationality, printed in 1706 and 1707, each part in two volumes. There is also a reissue of the four parts with a general title dated 1727.

This edition of "De voorname Scheeps-togten" was printed from the same setting of type as the preceding octavo edition, rearranged to make two columns to a page, the columns numbered 1-76, beside two preliminary leaves at the beginning and leaf at the end. All but one of the copper plates in the octavo edition are included as illustrations in the text of the folio. The map is printed on the same sheet with one of the other maps for this volume.

In the ninth line of the 1736 title, "Wayganna" is spelled "Waygauna." Title of the 1736 edition supplied by Ernest Kletsch.

Wegner in his notes included in the facsimile reprint, of the first edition, published in 1927, p. 23, mentions Amsterdam editions of 1706 and 1727, which we have not located. It seems possible that they may be confused with the Leyden issue of 1706, and the folio reissue of the same published at about the same time and again in 1727.

Translated by C. Heydinger, and revised by Matthew Maty.

The "Account" occupies the first 20 pages. Pp. 21-39 have the following half-title: "Extract of the Report made to the Directing Senate, from the Chanceries of the Government of Irkuzk, Kamtschatka & Bolscherezk; shewing What Islands have been discovered by the Promyschleniki, or Commercial Company, on their Trading Voyage beyond Kamtschatka; what People inhabit those Islands and what Animals and Productions were found there." Then follows Le Roy's story of the shipwreck, pp. 41-118, with the half-title: "A Narrative of the singular Adventures of Four Russian Sailors, Who were cast away on the desert Island of East-Spitzbergen. Together with Some Observations on the Productions of that Island, &c." By Mr. P. L. Le Roy, Professor of History, and Member of the Imperial Academy of Sciences at St. Petersburg. Translated from the German Original, At the desire of several Members of the Royal Society." For other English, French and Dutch editions of this last narrative, see Le Roy (P. . . . Stage Register. Boston, Mass. September 6, 1825. No. II. The Stage Register, is published once in two months by Badger & Porter, No. 72 Market-street, (corner of Market and Cour[t] streets) and being connected with the American Traveller, will in no case be issued separate from it. . . [Boston. 1825.] 8vo, pp. 16.

AAS., BA. 90084

Caption title, with heading: "Supplement to the American Traveller." Cover title: Badger & Porter's Stage Register; containing a full account of the principal lines of Stages, Steamboats and Canal Packets, in the New England States and the State of New-York: their hours of departure and arrival—towns through which they pass—proprietors' names—fare—distance of routes, &c. No. II. Boston: Jonathan Parmenter, printer. 1825.

Apparently the first number of the Stage Register was issued in a larger size, as there is a statement in the "American Traveller" for September 6, mentioning the more convenient form of the new number of the Register.

The best set we have located is at BA. and is complete up to vol. 7, no. 6, May, 1832. M. has the latest no. located, vol. 10, no. 5, March, 1835.

Improved title of no. 2707, vol. 1.

Magistri Colloniens' | Anno nostre salutis .1.50. & .8. die .z. mensis May. zc. [i.e., 1508]. | Folio, 3 unnumbered leaves, leaves numbered II-XXXII, index 2 unnumbered leaves, the verso of the last blank. a-f in sixes. BM., C., HEH., JCB., NEWBERRY, NYP. 90127*

We have not attempted to reproduce exactly all the archaic symbols for abbreviations.

A dramatic composition relating to the religions of the Tartars, Saracens, Turks, Jews and others, and their confutation. The American interest is found on the verso of the third leaf, in a letter from Stamler to Joseph Lorcher, dated, "13. klas Iunii Anno. 6." which is translated by HARRISSE as follows: "I do not make any mention of the newly discovered islands, but of Christopher Colom, the discoverer of a world, and of Albericus Vespuccius: On the discovery of the new world (to whom our age is chiefly indebted) behold what treatise I send you." See HARRISSE, B. A. V., no. 51.

The elaborate woodcut title page was engraved by Hans Burgkmaier, and is reproduced on the reverse of the leaf. Reduced facsimiles are found in the Church Catalogue, no. 26, and in Maggs' "Bibliotheca Americana," pt. 1, 1922, no. 22.

STAMLER. Dialogo | Di Giovanni | Stamlerno Au | gustense de le sette diuerse | genti, e de le religio- | ni del mondo. | [Colophon:] Stampata in Vinegia per Giouanni Pa- | douano, del mese di Feb- | rario. | [1508.] 8vo, pp. (8), 151. * in four, A-T in fours.

BM., NYP. 90128

An Italian translation of the preceding. The title as reproduced by HARRISSE gives no hyphen after "Pa" in the first line of the colophon, and has "Febraio" in the date.

THE STAMP ACT.

Most works relating to the Stamp Act are entered under their authors, or if anonymous, under title. Only a few new, or improved titles are given here. We take this opportunity to list titles of editions of the act, itself, not previously entered under title, our no. 1606, vol. 1. These are arranged alphabetically according to the place of printing, and are followed by the anonymous entries.

BA. 90152

In seven numbers, dated from December 21, 1819, to August 14, 1820. BA. has the second edition of no. 1, and lacks no. 6. At the end of no. 7, "Finis." The numbers are in plain paper wrappers, except that the front cover of no. 5 has the following note: "Whereas, by report, several Booksellers have had the credit for publishing the Stand, we state for the information of the Public, that no Bookseller ever did or ever shall publish it." Includes humorous pieces in prose and verse intended to counteract the spirit of chivalry and to check vanity and ambition in women.

STANDFAST. A Dialogue between a Blind-Man and Death. By Richard Standfast, late minister of the Gospel in Bristol. London; Printed: Boston: Re-printed, (at the earnest request of a number of well disposed christians) by E. Russell, next Liberty-Street, for T. Grant, of Chelmsford; 1793. 16mo, pp. 16. + Windsor? Printed by Alden Spooner? 1794? + [Colophon:] Printed and sold at the Printing-Office, Fairhaven, [Vt.] at the earnest request of a number of Christian Friends, for the good of precious and immortal souls; And sold very low, wholesale or retail, by the Traveling Booksellers. 1797. 16mo, pp. 8. 90159

Title of the Boston, Chelmsford, edition, from Evans. The following issue may be one of the editions printed by Russell, but it was advertised for sale in "Spooner's Vermont Journal" for October 20, 1794. Information concerning the Fairhaven edition from a description of the Sweet copy, in the imprint catalogue at NYF.

STANDFAST. A Little handful of cordial comforts for fainting souls: intended chiefly for the good of those that walk mournfully with God. Boston: Printed [by Samuel Green] for and sold by Benj. Harris. 1690. 8vo. 90160

Advertised at the end of Mather's "Companion for Communicants," 1690, printed by Samuel Green, for Harris, as printed for and sold by Benj. Harris. The above is evidently the same work as the following editions of the New-Years-Gift. An issue lacking its title is in the Thomas Prince collection at B. This has pp. 45, but the first has the signature mark A2, so that one leaf must be missing. The caption on p. 1 is as follows: "A Little Handful of Cordial Comforts for a Fainting Soul, Scattered throughout several Questions and Objections following." According to a ms. note by Prince, quoted in the Catalogue of the collection, 1868, "Mr. B. Green says—This was Print^d at Boston by his Br. Samuel." It is probable that this is a copy of the edition printed for Harris.

STANDFAST. A New-Years-Gift for Fainting Souls. | Or, A Little Handful of | Cordial Comforts | Scattered throughout several Answers, | to Sixteen Questions and Objections: | As also Doubting Christians invited | to Christ. | Intended chiefly for the good of those | that walk Mournfully before God | And are worthy to be gathered up | and regarded of all such as wish well | to their own Peace. | By Richard Standfast Minister of the | Gospel in Bristol. | . . . | Boston, in N. E. Printed by T. Green, | for Nicholas Buttolph, at his Shop, at | the Corner of Gutteridges Coffe-house, | 1702. 24mo, pp. 56+. AAS., B. 90161

AAS. copy lacks all after p. 50, and B. copy all after 56. A comparison with the 1733 edition shows that probably two pages only are lacking in the latter. For an earlier edition, see preceding title and note.

STANDFAST. A New-Years-Gift | for | Fainting Souls, | Or a Little Handful of | Cordial Comforts | Scattered throughout several Answers, | to sixteen Questions and Objections: | As also Doubting Christians invited | to Christ; | Intended chiefly for the good of those | that Walk Mournfully before God, | And are worthy to be gathered up, and | regarded of all such as wish well to | their own Peace. | By Richard Standfast, | Minister of the Gospel in Bristol. | . . . | The Seventh Edition. | Boston: Printed & Sold by S. Kneeland & T. Green, in Queen-street. | M.DCC,XXXIII. | 12mo, pp. (2), 31. B. 90162

Probably a complete collation would include a half title, the first leaf of sig. A lacking in the B. copy, making (4) preliminary pages.

STANDIFORD (Elisha D[avid]). Freedman's Saving and Trust Company. Speech of Hon. Elisha D. Standiford, of Kentucky, in the House of Representatives, June 16, 1874. Washington: Government Printing Office 1874. 8vo, pp. 5. C. 90163

Titles from Evans.

First published in London in 1740. Usually attributed to Robert Dodsley in whose "Trifles" it was reprinted in 1745. See Ralph Straus's "Robert Dodsley," 1910, p. 79, for a competent statement of the arguments in support of the theory. However, as some writers have ascribed the work to Lord Chesterfield, we include editions omitted under Dodsley.

For brief entries of other American editions, see Dodsley (Robert), no. 20517, vol. 5, and Saggi (Nathan Ben), vol. 18, p. 220. For fuller information on some issues, see Evans.

A prospectus of the following edition, subscriptions to be received not only by the publishers, but by John Mycall in Newbury-Port, M. Williams in Salem, J. Carter and Southwick and Wheeler in Providence, J. Trumbull in Norwich, N. Pattin and G. Goodwin and Company in Hartford. The prospectus was reprinted in part in the "American Journal" of Providence, for May 7, 1779, and the work itself was advertised in the issue for November 4, as "Lately published, and now selling at the Printing-Office in the Main Street." The advertisement continued in most issues up to January 13, 1780, but it is nowhere stated that Wheeler is the printer. It seems probable that the Providence issue entered by Evans was taken from one of the later of the advertisements, as B. Wheeler's name then appears alone in the imprint of the paper. In the list of subscribers found in some copies of the work as printed, Wheeler was down for six copies.

[STANHOPE?] The Œconomy of Human Life.

Although usually ascribed to Robert Dodsley, as in Ralph Straus's "Robert Dodsley," 1910, pp. 176-180, it is possible that the first part was written by Lord Chesterfield. See "Notes and Queries," 1st ser., vol. 10, 1854, pp. 8, 74, 318. The second part, which appears in many of the editions, has been attributed to John Hill, see Dict. Nat. Biog. The following list of early American editions is arranged chronologically. See also, James Bowdoin's anonymous "Paraphrase on part of the Œconomy of Human Life," Boston, 1759. AAS., BA., CHS., M., NYP.

[STANHOPE.] The Family Companion; or the Œconomy of Human Life, on the perusal of which, and following the instructions laid down therein, all persons may be healthy, wealthy and wise, even from the crown'd head to the meanest subject. Every man will be here instructed in the true methods of attaining wisdom and happiness in whatever situation of life the Almighty has been pleased to place him. Containing the sentiments of an ancient Bramin and translated from an Indian manuscript, found amongst the archives deposited in the Grand Temple, in the Province of Lasa, in the County of Thibet. [STANLEY (Charles)], 8th earl of Derby. The | Jesuites Policy | to | Suppress Monarchy, | Proving out of their Writings | that the | Protestant Religion | is | a sure Foundation | and | Principle | of | a | True Christian. | Written by a Person of Honor. | London, | Printed for William Cademan, at the Pope's Head in the Lower Walk | of the New-Exchange, 1678. | Square 8vo, pp. (8), 27.

HEH., JCB. 90296

According to a letter of Henry N. Stevens, dated March 21, 1922, "This very rare piece is known to have been written by Charles Stanley eighth Earl of Derby, because part of the matter was included in a book entitled "The Protestant Religion is a sure foundation" which he published under his own name in 1671. The Jesuites Policy seems to be quite unknown as an item of Americana. . . . It contains a translation of the famous Bull of Pope Alexander addressed to Ferdinand and Isabella dated Rome 4th day of the Nones of May 1493. This Bull refers to the discoveries lately made by Christopher Columbus, and grants to Ferdinand and Isabella all firm lands and islands discovered, or to be discovered, west of a line drawn from Pole to Pole one hundred leagues west from the Islands commonly called De los Azores. The pamphlet also relates much to the idolatry secretly practised by the Indians in Mexico notwithstanding the efforts made to convert them to Christianity."

Information supplied by Catherine C. Quinn.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

As only one late edition of the Star Spangled Banner was entered in this dictionary under the author, Francis Scott Key, and as the song was first issued anonymously, it may be helpful here to refer to Sonneck's "The Star Spangled Banner." From this report on the history of both words and music which was first published by the Library of Congress in 1909, and in a revised and enlarged edition in 1914, the following notes are chiefly taken. An undated broadside issue of the song, then in the possession of Henry Walters of Baltimore, is considered by Sonneck as the first edition, and it is reproduced as plate 25 of his appendix. This may have been issued as early as September 15, 1814, and was without title except the caption, "Defence of Fort M^cHenry." It contained an account of the writing of the poem, and the indication "Tune—Anacreon in Heaven." This English tune was probably composed by John Stafford Smith about the year 1775 for a poem by Ralph Tomlinson, and has become our national air.

The earliest dated publication of Key's song was in the "Baltimore Patriot" of September 20, 1814, and it was also printed in the "Baltimore American" of the following day, and in other newspapers and broadsides of the time. An issue of the song, possibly the first edition with title, "Star Spangled Banner," was advertised with another song in the Washington "Daily National Intelligencer," for January 6, 1815, as for sale by Richards & Mallory, Bridge street, Geo. Town. Descriptions of some of the rare early editions with music follow:

The Star Spangled Banner. New York: Published by Geib & Co No 23 Maiden Lane. [1816?] 4to, blank recto, music beginning on verso, recto numbered 3, verso blank. B. 90497

Caption title. "Geib & Co." as a firm name appears in the New York city directories for 1816 and 1817 only, though the Geib music store continued at the same address for a number of years.

Engraved music. According to Sonneck, this is probably the first issue of the national anthem in sheet music form, with the tune, "To Anacreon in Heaven."

The Star Spangled Banner, sung by Messrs Darley & Nicholls. Composed by J[ames] Hewitt. New-York: Published by, J. A. & W. Geib 23 Maiden Lane. [At foot of p. 1:] Engraved by T. Birch 38. Vesey St N. Y. [1818?] 4to, pp. 3. 90498 ories for the years from 1818-1821. Birch's name does not appear in the 1818 or 1819 directories, and in 1820 and 1821 he was at a different address.

Another issue, with title as above, but not of the same printing, was reproduced in facsimile with the following note on p. 1: "Fac-simile copy of the recently discovered American tune to 'The Star Spangled Banner.' Presentation copy No. — . . . The original copy is in the possession of Clinton A. Strong and Charles J. Nagy, 5022 Cedar Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa. Copyright, 1930 . . ." B., NYP.

. . . Star Spangled Banner. Written by B. [sic] Key, Esqr. Written during the Bombardment of Fort McHenry on the 12 & 13th. Sept. 1814. Published and Sold by T. Carr, Music Store, Baltimore. [1818?] 4to? pp. (2). 90499

Title from a reduced facsimile at AAS, with inscription "c 1914 Wm M Hayden." Caption title, with heading, "New Edition." At end: "Arranged for the P. F. by T. C. the original publisher." This edition is also set to the tune "To Anacreon in Heaven." Sonneck does not list any edition published by Carr. It seems possible that his earlier edition might precede that published by Geib & Co. in New York.

The Star Spangled Banner illustrated from drawings by F. O. C. Darley. Music adapted from A. W. Berg's arrangement, by permission of Firth, Pond & Co., by Francis H. Brown. New York: Published by James G. Gregory, No. 46 Walker Street. [cop. 1861.] [Verso of back cover:] C. A. Alvord printer. 4to, cover title and pp. (12). CU., NYP. 90500 [STARKE (Mrs. Mariana)]? The Poor Soldier. See no. 64088, vol. 15. First edition. HEH., NYP. Second edition. C., H.

According to Cushing, the author was probably Mrs. Starke.

STARKE. The | Widow | of | Malabar. | A | Tragedy. | As it is performed at the | Theatre-Royal, Covent-Garden. | Written by | Mariana Starke. | Philadelphia. | Printed and sold by E. Story, in Fourth, be- | tween Market and Chesnut-streets. (No. 36.) | [1791?] 8vo, pp. (8), 33, (3). AAS., C., NYP. 90520

Dedication dated, "Epsom, Jan. 24, 1791," in which year the first edition was printed in London.

The AAS. copy is bound with other plays printed by Story, and originally issued separately. In this volume remaining copies were reissued with a general title page as follows: The | American Theatre. | Being a Collection of Plays, taken | fr . . . Bell's Theatre, | and performed by the old American | Company, Philadelphia. | . . . | Vol. I. | Printed and Sold by Enoch Story, Fourth street, | (No. 36.) nearly opposite the Indian Queen.—1792. |

See Evans no. 24049, for other plays in this volume.

Adapted from LeMierre's "La Veuve Du Malabar," according to the advertisement on p. 4. The epilogue was "written in America."

STARKE (Richard). The | Office and Authority | of a | Justice of Peace | explained and digested, | Under proper Titles. | To which are added, | Full and correct Precedents of all Kinds of Process | necessary to be used by Magistrates; in which also the Duty of | Sheriffs, and other publick Officers, is properly discussed. | By Richard Starke, Esquire. | Williamsburg: | Printed by Alexander Purdie and John Dixon. | M,DCC,LXXIV. | 8vo, pp. (4), 353, (2). AAS., C., JCB., VA.STATE LIB. 90521

Running title: The Virginia Justice.

The author was probably Richard Starke whose death was announced in the "Virginia Gazette" for July 30, 1772, and who was "attorney at law and clerk to two committees of the House of Burgesses." According to the preface of the book, the author died before the work was completed, and it was continued by "some benevolent Gentlemen of the Law . . . for the Benefit of a numerous and distressed family." See "William and Mary College Quarterly," vol. 4, 1896, p. 272.

A Williamsburg, 1784, edition was listed as lot no. 566 in the catalogue of E. W. Very sale at the Merwin-Clayton Company's rooms, May 4-5, 1912. This may be an error for the above.

A State of the Earl | of Stirling's Title, to that Part | of New-England, now commonly called | Sagadahook. | [Woodbridge? 1768.] Folio broadside. | 90611

From a photostat in AAS. of the original in the Massachusetts MSS. Archives, vol. 118, p. 378. James Parker was printing at this date at Woodbridge, near Baskinridge, where the "Earl of Stirling's Office" was located.

Also, in the Massachusetts Archives, vol. 118, p. 379: To be sold, | A Tract of Land of One Hundred Thousand Acres, situate on the | East Side of Penobscot-River, in the Eastern Part of New-Eng- | land, on the following Conditions, viz. | [Woodbridge? 1768.] Folio broadside. Dated: July 20, 1768. From a photostat in AAS. also at NYP. It is stated that "A Map of the whole, with a State of the Title, is to be seen at the Earl of Stirling's Office, at Baskinridge, in Somerset County;" and at various other places in New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, and Massachusetts-Bay.

These two broadsides were forwarded to Governor Bernard of Massachusetts with a letter signed "Stirling," and dated "Baskinridge August 10th 1768" which was written by William Alexander, who claimed to be the Earl of Stirling. He asked for encouragement to the settlers whom he expected to send the following spring. Instead, the Governor at the advice of a Committee of Council, issued a proclamation dated Sept. 7, 1768, declaring that the "persons claiming under the said first Earl of Stirling have no right or title whatsoever to the said Country or any part thereof . . ." See "Documentary History of the State of Maine," published by the Maine Historical Society, vol. 14, 1910, pp. 85-91. Information from Clarence S. Brigham. See also nos. 740 and 741, vol. 1.

On p. iii of the introduction of the work entered below, generally considered to be by John Carteret, Earl Granville, the writer states that "Before the State of the Nation is entered upon for the current Year, it may be extremely necessary to form a brief Recapitulation of what we remarked under the same Title the last Year . . ." This refers evidently to the above tract.

plete view of their intercourse with other nations. [Boston. T. B. Wait and Sons. 1814.] 8vo, pp. 2. AAS. 90636

Caption title.

"Our country is now involved in war with one nation, and it has most interesting relations with other European states; and yet to what volume, or what collection of different works, can an inquiring man resort, to ascertain the progress and causes of the existing relations of the United States? . . . It is proposed by the publishers to print all the publick documents relating to our intercourse with foreign nations, commencing with the accession of Mr. Jefferson . . . Nothing will be omitted, and no political remarks will be made." It is stated that proposals for printing the public documents of the period prior to the administration of Jefferson will be issued immediately after the completion of the present work. "The motives for commencing with Mr. Jefferson's administration are, that the more recent events are much the most interesting." Dated: Boston, Jan. 1814.

According to the Checklist of United States Public Documents, 1911, "though only one document, and that unimportant, relating to Wait's collection . . . has been found in the Congressional series, it is well known that Congress bought numerous copies of the several editions . . . That this series is much less known and less used than Gales & Seaton's later and larger one under the name American state papers is no doubt due to the several facts that Wait covers but one subject, foreign relations, that its arrangement is chronological, with no classification, under countries or otherwise, and that it is insufficiently indexed. None of Wait's 30 volumes is included in the numbered Congressional series."

State Papers and Publick Documents of the United States from the accession of Thomas Jefferson to the Presidency, exhibiting a complete view of our foreign relations since that time. 1801-1815]. *Boston: Printed and published by T. B., C., H., NYP., Y. 90637

Volume numbers are not given on the title pages, but appear in the signature marks and index references.

Running title: "American State Papers."

Two folded tables form pp. [xv]-[xviii] in vol. [5].

Though published before the first edition of "State Papers . . . from the accession of George Washington," the above covers the period following, and is often cited as vols. 4-8 of that compilation. Together they form the first edition of Wait's "State Papers."

See the prospectus entered above, no. 90636, for information as to the compilation.

In the 1815 edition, volume numbers are not given on the title pages, but appear in the signature marks and index references. This edition, together with the "State Papers . . . from the accession of Thomas Jefferson," covering the following period but published previously, forms the first edition of Wait's "State Papers."

Running title in all editions: "American State Papers."

According to the "Advertisement" in vol. 1 of the third edition, "The two preceding editions of this work contained the State Papers and Publick Documents from the adoption of the Federal Constitution to the close of the thirteenth Congress, in March, 1815 . . . The present edition contains the abovementioned ten volumes; to which are added, two volumes, continuing the work from the thirteenth to the end of the first session of the fifteenth Congress, in April, 1818."

A Statement of the Measures Contemplated against Samuel Bryan, Esquire, Register-General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Unparalleled in the United States, and without a Precedent Even in the Corrupt Parliament of Great-Britain, where merely the Solemn Mockery of Popular Representation exists; and what Forms a High Aggravation of the Arbitrary and Vindictive Measures Contemplated against Mr. Bryan, is that the Evident Motive for them, was his Spirited Prosecution of Francis Johnston, Esquire, Late Receiver-General, for Great Abuses in the said Office, at a Time and under Circumstances peculiarly Unfavourable, when nothing but a Disinterested and Impressive Sense of Duty would have Induced him to Persevere therein; on the one hand having to Combat a Host of Enemies, and on the other not being Supported as he had Reason to Expect, a Full Account Whereof is Re-published Herewith, also a Summary Account of the late Disgraceful Fracas by the Friends of Good Order and Regular Government in the Chamber of the House of Representatives—Every Citizen who Values his Public Rights, and Who is Desirous to Form an Accurate Opinion of the Principles and designs of the Leaders of the Party who ostentatiously assume the name of Federalists and Friends of Good Order and Regular Government, Morals and Religion, ought to read this Pamphlet. Philadelphia: Printed by Francis and Robert Bailey. 1800. 8vo, pp. 62.

errata list of the latter almanac includes corrections of errors in both the Universal and the Navigator's Kalendar, the two were issued in connection if not always together. See also the following, quoted in Stearns' Short History, p. 21-22: "Whilst the Doctor lived in New-York, he did not engage in the war, but followed the practice of physick and surgery, and his mathematical, philosophical and physical studies; and in 1783, he published, under his own name, a universal kalender, with a nautical almanack [sic] . . . This is said to be the first nautical almanack that ever was calculated in America."

AAS., BM., JCB., M., NYP., P. 90961

Preface dated, New-York, Sept. 12, 1791. Only the title page and the other preliminary leaves were printed in America, the rest of the work being from the same setting of type as the London edition, above.

STEARNS. Dr. Stearns's | Petition | to His Excellency the | Governour, | and the Honourable | Council: | exhibiting | The Troubles he has met with, by Reason of | the Appearance of False Evidence | against him. | Presented to the members of the | Honourable | General Court, | of the | Commonwealth of Massachusetts, | for their Information. | Printed at Worcester, Massachusetts, | by Isaiah Thomas. | MDCCCLXXXV. | 8vo, pp. 12.

AAS., BA., C., NYP. 90962

A letter on the verso of the title, recommending the petition to members of the General Court, is signed in ms. in both the AAS. and NYP. copies by O. Holman and W. Shaw.

STEARNS. The Mystery | of | Animal Magnetism | revealed to the World, | containing | Philosophical Reflections | on the Publication of a Pamphlet | entitled, | A True and Genuine Discovery of Animal | Electricity and Magnetism; | also, | An Exhibition of the Advantages and Disadvantages that may | arise in Consequence of said Publication. | And | Many other curious Observations never before Published. | By Samuel Stearns, LL.D. | and Doctor of Physic; | Astronomer to His Majesty's Provinces of Quebec | and New Brunswic [sic]; | also, to the | Commonwealth of Massachusetts, | and the State of Vermont, in America. | . . . | London: | Sold by Mr. Parsons, No. 21, Pater-Noster-Row. 1791. | (Price two shillings.) | 8vo, pp. (4), 58, (5). AAS. 90965

The final pages contain Proposals for printing the American Oracle, and an advertisement of Doctor Stearns's Tour.

An account of the "Shaking Quakers" of America forms pp. 43-51.

An edition of this work listed by Evans as sold by Isaac Beers of New Haven in 1791, was no doubt the above, as Beers was a large importer of English books.

STEARNS. The Northamerican's Almanack. See above, in the chronological arrangement of Stearns' Almanacs.

STEARNS. The New-England Farmer's Almanack. See above, under Almanacs.

Stedman's History is generally considered the best contemporary account of the Revolution written from the British side. See "The Royal Commission on the Losses and Services of American Loyalists," 1915, edited by H. E. Egerton, p. 344; Channing, vol. 3, 1918, p. 240; and Winsor, vol. 6, p. 518. As some authorities give William Thomson as the author of the work, the following notes may be of interest.

The author was apparently the American loyalist, who was born in Philadelphia, served as Commissary of Prisoners under Howe, etc., was retired as colonel on half-pay, was appointed to examine the claims of American loyalists, and died when deputy-comptroller of the Stamp-office in June, 1812. A memorial from him to Sir Henry Clinton, in about December, 1779, is in the Clinton Papers, now the property of William L. Clements, according to his librarian, Jane Clark. The obituary notice of Stedman in the "Gentleman's Magazine," 1812, pt. 2, p. 91, mentions his authorship of the History. The sketch in Dict. Nat. Biog. is based chiefly on the "Memoir of the Family of Barton, continued through that of Stedman" by the historian's son, John Stedman, privately printed in 1857, and throws no doubt on his authorship.

Probably on the authority of Lowndes' statement that the work was compiled by William Thomson, LL.D., the entries in the British Museum Catalogue under Thomson, in Cushing, and in Halkett and Laing, suggest that Thomson and not Stedman was the author of the work. However, the sketch of the former writer in Dict. Nat. Biog. does not mention the History, and does note that Thomson edited John G. Stedman's "Narrative" of an expedition against the revolted negroes of Surinam. As in Lowndes the latter title follows immediately after Charles Stedman's History, it seems possible that by a typographical error the notes on the two titles were confused.

Apparently Sir Henry Clinton did not doubt Stedman's authorship. His copy of the London edition, now JCB., contains his ms. notes, many of which he published later in his "Observations on Mr. Stedman's History," our no. 13753, vol. 4. In some of these, Clinton refers to the author as "Mr. Stedman." Information from L. C. Wroth. The ms. notes have been copied into one of the sets of the History at NYPL.

In both editions there are slight errors in the pagination which do not affect the total. The title of vol. 2 of the Dublin edition has a variation in the lining off.

The "Plan of the Action at Bunker Hill" in the London edition was printed from the same plate as an undated map with the title: "A Plan of the Action at Bunkers Hill . . . by Lieu: Page of the Engineers . . . from an Actual Survey by Capt: Montresor." According to Frothingham in Mass. Hist. Soc. "Proceedings" for 1875-1876, p. 56, this had been published in 1777. In Stedman's map the title is altered slightly and the names of Page and Montresor are omitted. In both of these maps a smaller plan covering part of the same region is pasted at the edge of the larger one, is marked No. 1, and falls on the corresponding part of the latter which is called No. 2. This is to bring out changes in the military works, etc.

Dublin editions of 1795 and 1796, are listed in the Rice Catalogue, and an early American auction catalogue, respectively. A clipping of the latter was filed by Joseph Sabin without identification. Both these editions are doubtful.

S[TEERE] (R[ichard]). The Daniel Catcher. | The | Life | Of the Prophet | Daniel: | in a | Poem. | To which is Added, | Earth's Felicities, Heaven's Allowances, | A Blank Poem. | With several other Poems. | By R. S. | [Boston.] Printed in the Year 1713. 8vo, pp. (2), 90. AAS., B., H. 91182

Littlefield in his "Early Massachusetts Press," 1907, vol. 2, pp. 61-62, calls attention to the fact that in the "Boston News-Letter" of the week of August 17-24, 1713, the work was advertised as Sold by Nicholas Boone at the Sign of the Bible in Cornhill. Littlefield also states that a typographical comparison with many publications issued by various printers during that year seems to show that the printer was John Allen who is known to have printed for Boone.

In the B. copy, which forms part of Thomas Prince's New-England Library, there is an inscription in Prince's handwriting on verso of title: "This Book was wrote by Mr. R— Steer of — on Long Island, & Printed at — in New England."

A facimile reprinted appears in Littlefield's "Early Massachusetts Press."

STEFFEL (Matthäus). Tarahumarisches Wörterbuch, nebst einigen Nachrichten von den Sitten und Gebräuchen der Tarahumaren in Neu-Biscaya in der Audiencia Guadalaxara im Vicekönigreiche Alt-Mexico oder Neu Spanien. Brünn. 1791. 8vo. 91187

A doubtful title from Ludewig's "Literature of American Aboriginal Languages," 1858, pp. 181-182, and Trübner's "Catalogue of Dictionaries and Grammars." Both may refer to the issue, with half title as above, with the exception of one hyphen, found in von Murr's "Nachrichten von verschiedenen Ländern des Spanischen Amerika," vol. 1, 1809, pp. 293-374. In this is an introductory letter from Steffel dated, "Brünn, den 28 März, 1791." The latest edition of Backer gives the title with the word "Tarahumarisches" spelled "Trarahumarisches" and notes that it was "inseré" in von Murr's compilation.

STEIN (C[hristian] G[ottfried] D[aniel]). Handbuch der Geographie und Statistik für die gebildeten Stände begründet durch Dr. C. G. D. Stein und Dr. Ferd. Hörschelmann. Neu bearbeitet unter Mitwirkung mehrerer Gelehrten von Dr. J. E. Wappäus. Siebente Auflage. . . . Leipzig, Verlag der J. C. Hinrich'schen Buchhandlung. 1855[-1871]. 4 vols. in 9, 8vo. Tables.

BM., C., NYP., PEAB., Y. 91197

The earlier editions of this Handbuch contain relatively small sections relating to America. In this seventh edition the parts with American interest are found in the first volume. The first and second parts of that volume were printed by E. A. Huth at the Universitätsbuchdruckerei in Göttingen, except for the titles and index which were printed by C. P. Melzer in Leipzig; the third and fourth parts were printed by Ackerman and Glaser in Leipzig.

Each part has the general title printed on the verso of the first leaf, facing an individual one.

Collation of vol. 1: 4 parts, 8vo, pp. (4), iii-vi, 222; (4), vii-xiv, 223-1049, (1), ix, (1), 894, 891-1246; xiv, 1201-1898, (2), 1841-2164.

Contents of vol. 1: 1. Abth. Handbuch der allgemeinen Geographie und Statistik. Von Dr. J. E. Wappäus. 1855; 2. Abth. Handbuch der Geographie und Statistik von Nord-Amerika. Nebst einer allgemeinen Uebersicht von Amerika. Von Dr. J. E. Wappäus. 1855; 3. Abth. Handbuch der Geographie und Statistik des ehemaligen spanischen Mittel- und Süd-Amerika nebst den europäischen Besitzungen. Von Dr. J. E. Wappäus. 1863-70; 4. Abth. Handbuch der Geographie und Statistik. Brasilien, bearbeitet von Dr. J. E. Wappäus . . . Westindien und die Südpolarländer, bearbeitet von Dr. O. Delitsch. 1871.

STEIN (Oswald). Nach dreissig Jahren! Aus den Papieren eines jungen Amerikaners. Ein Familien-Roman ... Leipzig. 1859. 2 vols., 8vo. BM. 91198

Both volumes contain two parts, each with a separate title-page and pagination.

STEINBACHER (N.). Discussion held in Lebanon, Pa. on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, the 17th, 18th, and 19th of October, 1842; between N. Steinbacher, of the Roman Catholic and J. F. Berg, of the Reformed Church. Philadelphia. 1842. 8vo, pp. 123, (1). UTS. 91199

This version was evidently prepared by Berg, who stated in a final note that an earlier one had been issued previously by Steinbacher.

STEINEFER (J.). Florilegio Medicinal. Amsterdam, 1712. See Esteyneffer (H. J. de), no. 23051, vol. 6.

The initial "H" was an error, the author being Hermano [sic. "Brother?"] Juan de Esteyneffer, or rather Jean or Johann Steinefer. Medina doubts the existence of an Amsterdam edition of 1712, though listed in Puttick & Simpson's catalogue for the sale of June 1-9, 1869, lot no. 580. The following brief title of the first edition is abridged from Medina's description of his own copy in his "Imprenta en Mexico," no. 2317.

Florilegio medicinal de todas las enfermedades, sacado de varios, y Clasicos Autores, para bien de los Pobres, y de los que tienen falta de Medicos, en particular para las Provincias Remotas, en donde administran los RR. PP. Misioneros de la Compañia de Jesus. Reducido à tres Libros: ... Escrito por el Hermano Juan de Esteyneffer, Coadjutor Reformado de la Sagrada Compañia de Jesus, y natural de Silesia en el Reyno de Bohemia. Con licencia: En Mexico por los Herederos de Juan Joseph Guillerma Carrascoso, en el Empedradillo. Año de 1712. 4to, pp. (34), 457, verso blank, 458-522.

Backer also lists editions as follows: Amsterdam, [1719?], JOHNCRERAR, NYP.; Madrid, [1729?], HISP.SOC.AMER.; "Quarta Impression," Madrid, 1732; Mexico, 1888-9. Leon's "Biblioteca botánico-mexicana," 1895, includes an edition of Madrid, 1715.

STEINER (Bernard Christian), ed. A History of the Plantation of Menunkatuck and of the Original Town of Guilford, Connecticut, comprising the present Towns of Guilford and Madison, written largely from the manuscripts of the Hon. Ralph Dunning Smyth, by Bernard Christian Steiner. Published by the Author. Baltimore. 1897. [Verso of title:] The Lord Baltimore Press. The Friedenwald Company. Baltimore, Md., U. S. A. 8vo, pp. 538. AAS., CU., HSP., NYP. 91200

As most of the works written or edited by B. C. Steiner fall in the period after that now covered by this dictionary, the above to which a cross reference had been made from Smyth, is the only one included.

[STEINHOWEL (Heinrich)]? Chronica Beschreibung. 1535. See no. 12957, vol. 4. HEH., NYP.

Hariſſe enters the above compilation under Steinhowel, with a query, but ſtates that he is under the impreſſion that it is a later edition of that writer's Chronicle, an edition of which was published in Frankfort in 1531. In the preface of the 1535 publication the printer, Egenolff, claims to have compiled it from the foremoſt hiſtorians.

There are many errors in the numbering of the leaves, and the total is 139, inſtead of 137 as numbered.

Stenographic Reporter. C., H. (LAW), NYBA., NYH. 91226

Because of a reference from M'Leod (Alexander), Trial, no. 43531, vol. 11, to "Stenographic Reporter," the following title is entered here:

Gould's Stenographic Reporter; published monthly, in the city of Washington, and devoted to the recording of important trials, for treason, murder, highway robbery, mail robbery, conspiracy, riot, arson, burglary, seduction, etc. also miscellaneous speeches of American statesmen, in Congress and state legislatures; lawyers and judges in the Supreme Court of the United States and individual states; political addresses, orations, lectures upon arts, sciences, literature, and morals. Vol. II. 1841. (13 Sheets, Periodical.) This work is published and sent through the mail, in monthly numbers of 64 pages,—making two volumes a year, of 384 pages each . . . Address Gould's Reporter, Washington City, D. C. 8vo, pp. 416.

Title on board covers: The Trial of Alexander McLeod, for the murder of Amos Durfee, at the burning and destruction of the steamboat Caroline, by the Canadians, December 29th, 1837. Reported by Marcus T. C. Gould, Stenographer, assisted by H. Fowler, Esq. Stenographer of Canada. Published by Gould, Banks & Co., New York, and William A. Gould & Co., Albany, Nov. 1, 1841. . . .

Caption title on p. [3]:—Stenographic Reporter. Vol. II.—1841. Nos., 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6. Prospectus to the first volume of Gould's Stenographic Reporter, a monthly periodical, published in Washington City, D. C.

No copy of vol. 1, which may have had the title beginning "Stenographic Reporter," is located in the Union List of Serials. The supplement to the latter locates copies of vol. 2.

STEPHEN. A Letter from Sir George Stephen to Sir E. F. Buxton, Bart., M.P., on the Proposed Revival of the English Slave Trade. London: Simpkin, Marshall, and Co. 1849. 8vo, pp. 16.

BM., C. 91234

An article by Stephen containing facts connected with slavery, reprinted from the "Northampton Mercury" was included in Lord Denman's "Uncle Tom's Cabin, Bleak House, Slavery and Slave Trade," London editions of 1852 and 1853. He was also the author of "A memoir of the late James Stephen," his father, Brighton, Victoria, 1875.

[STEPHEN (James)]. Buonaparte in the West Indies; or, The History of Toussaint Louverture, the African Hero. London: Printed for J. Hatchard, Bookseller to Her Majesty, No. 190, Piccadilly; of whom may be had, an extensive assortment of patri- otic publications. Printed by J. Brettell, Great Windmill Street, Haymarket. 1803. . . 8vo, pp. 16, 16, 16. B., C., H., NYP. 91235

Issued originally in three parts, each with a separate title page, on which the imprints vary slightly. Evidently there was a demand for the work during the process of publication, and there were at least three editions printed of the separate parts. Complete copies sometimes include later editions of the parts, e.g. parts 1 and 3 of the c. copy, are from the third and second editions respectively, and the nyp. copy has part 3 from the third edition.

For other editions of London, 1803, and Dublin, 1804, see under subject, Louverture (T.), no. 42349, vol. 10; also no. 42352, for an edition with title, "The History of Toussaint Louverture," London, 1814. The latter edition is located at AAS., B., C., H., and NYP. For another 1814 edition, see below, History.

The 1803 edition is attributed by Cundall to James Stephen, and that of 1814 is entered under his name in Watt. Halkett and Laing, without giving authority, attribute to M. D. Stephens.

Above are listed only the speeches delivered by Stephens in the period before the Civil War. His larger works, and later speeches fall in the period after that now covered by the Dictionary. He published several editions of "A Compendium of the History of the United States," 1872, etc.; "A Constitutional View of the Late War between the States," 1868-70, and a supplement to the latter, "The Reviewers Reviewed," 1872. "This book [Reviewers Reviewed] includes a special chapter repudiating the forged speech against secession often said to have been delivered by Stephens in the Georgia Convention, January, 1861."—De Renne Catalogue, 1931. See that catalogue for bibliographical descriptions of Stephens items in the De Renne library. "Recollections of Alexander H. Stephens" was published posthumously, with a biographical study by Myrta Lockett Avery, in 1910.

The scene of the above is laid in New York City, and it contains an interesting description of Fulton Market. It was popular at the time, there being at least three issues published in New York in 1854, NYP., and the BM. catalogue notes three London issues of that year. It was also issued in Philadelphia by Peterson and Brothers without date. A French translation is noted by F. P. O'Brien in his preface to the 1929 edition of the author's Malaeska.

The above list contains the earlier editions of works of Mrs. Stephens published up to 1860 which have local or historical interest. She was the author of other novels, and of later works, including a "Pictorial History of the War for the Union." She was also connected as editor or contributor with various magazines, the earliest being the "Portland Magazine," edited by herself and published by her husband, Edward Stephens. See F. P. O'Brien's introduction to the 1929 edition of her Malaeska.

STEPHENS (Mrs. Ellen). The Afflicted and Deserted Wife: or, Singular and surprising adventures of Mrs. Ellen Stephens, who, after having experienced much cruel treatment, was deserted by her husband, and in pursuit of whom, (and her infant child,) dressed in male attire, and obtaining a birth [sic] on board of one of the Steamers on the Mississippi River, as Cabin Boy, in that capacity made several passages up and down the Mississippi River, in 1841 and '42, without her sex being known or suspected. Annexed is the still more surprising exploits of Almira Paul, who, garbed as a male in the capacity of cook, etc., served on board several English and American vessels for the space of ten years, without betraying her sex. *New-York: Printed for C. AAS., C., HSP., NYH., WHS., Y. 91293

Originally issued in numbers, NYP. having nos. 2 and 3 in original paper wrappers, but with some plates missing.

Stephens' drawings were lithographed by L. Rosenthal, and by Rosenthal and Kraemer. In some copies the plates are in black and white, and in others they are lithographed in color, with the frontispiece elaborated.

Each figure has the head of a well-known personage or type of the period, with the body of an appropriate bird, animal, fish or insect, and is accompanied by satirical or facetious text. The writers of the text are listed in the index, the editor being presumably Stephens himself, "The Hen that hatched this Egg."

The following list of persons with whom the caricatures have been identified is chiefly taken from Joseph Jackson's "Encyclopedia of Philadelphia," 1931, vol. 2. Additional information and some corrections have been supplied by John Ashurst of the Free Library of Philadelphia, and N. F. McGirr of Ardmore, Pa. The latter states that the identifications which he gives have been supplied from copies in which the names of the subjects had been written in by previous owners, and that he can not vouch for the accuracy of all of them.

There were many reissues from the same plates, with only slight variations in the collations. London issues appeared in 1842 and 1843. Harper and Brothers, the New York publishers of the work, put out at least eleven issues of a "Twelfth Edition" between 1844 and 1871. The work was still in print in 1876, according to the American Catalogue.

Stephens wrote the text for Catherwood's "Views of Ancient Monuments," 1844, our no. 11520, vol. 3.

A pamphlet said to be translated from the Spanish of Pedro Velasquez was issued in connection with the exhibition of two supposedly "Aztec children" in a number of European and American cities. On the title of the various editions and versions of this "Memoir" the name of John L. Stephens, or "Stevens," appears, and it does include a few extracts from his "Incidents of Travel in Central America." See Velasquez (Pedro).

Thomas Stephens was the son of William Stephens, who became governor of Georgia after the departure of Oglethorpe. In spite of this relationship, Thomas Stephens became a leader of the malcontents in the province. See the Journal of his father listed below and the Journal of John Perceval, Earl of Egmont, both of which are printed in the "Colonial Records of Georgia," vol. 4 and supplement, and vol. 5, 1906-1909.

Reprinted in Ga. Hist. Soc. Coll., vol. 2, 1842, pp. 87-161, where it is stated that it "appears to have been written, after several abortive efforts, by Thomas Stephens, and Sir Richard Everhard."

In ms. on the title page of the JCB. copy: "Publish'd by Tho. Stephens, who, on his knees rec'd at the Bar of the H. of Commons the censure of being a false, scandalous and malicious fellow."

For a "State of the Province of Georgia," see [Stephens (William)], b. 671, d. 1753, below.

Caption title and running title: The History of William Stephens, Esq.

Relates to William Stephens, 1671-1753, governor of Georgia, and his career in that province, etc. Attributed to his son Thomas, by most authorities, and is in keeping with what is known of him. The Murphy catalogue on internal evidence attributes to William Stephens, a grandson.

The additional pages in the second edition contain: "Appendix to the History of William Stephens, esq; late of the Isle of Wight. With further reasons for writing it," pp. 199-257; "The vision of a child, left in a wood to be fed by the ravens," pp. 259-320. Information supplied by Elizabeth B. Steere.

[STEPHENS.] The Hard | Case | of the | Distressed People of Georgia. | [London. 1742.] Folio, pp. 4.

C., DERENNE., H. 91307

Caption title. The same printed vertically as a docket on p. 4. Signed and dated: "Thomas Stephens, Agent for the People of Georgia. London, April 26th, 1742."

According to the De Renne Catalogue, 1931, vol. 1, p. 102, the petition was published in connection with "An Account shewing what Money has been received by the Trustees," 1742, which carried the expenditures to the same date, instead of to June 9th as usual in the official annual statements.

The above was a protest against the course of the Trustees of Georgia, presented to the House of Commons. Under date of 11 June, 1742, the Earl of Egmont wrote in his Journal of the forwarding to General Oglethorpe of "that infamous Libel entitled the hard Case of the people of Georgia [sic] printed by Thomas Stephens and by him . . . deliver'd at the door of the H. of Comons." See Col. Rec. of Ga. vol. 5, 1909, p. 633. See also p. 641 for the Speaker's reprimand of Stephens, for the malicious slanders in his petition.

STEPHENS (Thomas), d. 1780? BM., DERENNE, NYP. + Boston: Sold by Edes and Gill. 1755. 91308

The NYP. copy lacks the title page. The De Renne catalogue, 1931, notes that the work is listed among new publications in the "Gentleman's Magazine" for July, 1755, vol. 25, p. 335, and "London Magazine" for August, 1755, vol. 24, p. 399.

The Boston edition was advertised as by Thomas "Stevens," in the "Boston Gazette," published by Edes and Gill, in the issue for October 27, 1755, as "This Day Publish'd, Price 2s. & 8d. Lawful Money; (And Sold by the Printers hereof.)"

According to Roberts' "Eminent Welshmen," vol. 1, 1908, the author emigrated to America in 1756 and joined Franklin and others in the purchase of the Liverpool Company's Potash Works in Philadelphia.

Lines 10-15 are omitted in the title of vol. 3.

In the Minutes of the Common Council, of the Trustees for establishing the Colony of Georgia, Jan. 12, 1740/1, is the following order, which evidently relates only to vols. 1 and 2: "That When an Index shall be made to M^r Stephens's Journal from the Beginning Seventy Copies of of [sic] the Journal be printed for the use of the Trust; And that the Press be then broken."

In the Minutes, Feb. 13, 1741/2, is a resolution, relating to vol. 3: "That One hundred Copies of M^r Stephens's Journal from September 22, 1741 to October the 28th following be printed. And that seventy five Copies of the third Volume of M^r Stephens's Journal be printed for the use of the Trust." See the "Colonial Records of Georgia," vol. 2, 1904, pp. 353 and 389.

According to the De Renne catalogue, 1931, all but 30 copies of vol. 3 were destroyed by a fire in the printing establishment, which accounts for the fact that vol. 3 is missing in so many sets, i.e. B., BM., C., NYP. and Y.

"The State of the Province" at the end of vol. 2, and pp. 348-391 of vol. 3 [the portion referred to above in the Minutes of the Common Council, as the journal from Sept. 22-Oct. 28, 1741], were also issued separately. See State, and Journal Received, below.

A reprint of the entire three vols. forms vol. 4, 1906, and Supplement to vol. 4, 1908, of the Colonial Records.

STEPHENS. Journal | received | February 4, 1741. | By the | Trustees | For Establishing the | Colony of Georgia, | in | America, | from | William Stephens, Esq; | Secretary for the Affairs of the Trust | within the said Colony | commencing | September 22, 1741, | and ending | October 28 following. | London | Printed for W. Meadows, at the Angel in Cornhill. | MDCCLXII. | 8vo, 22 unnumbered leaves.

B., C., DERENNE, JCB. 91314

Title from a reduced facsimile in the De Renne catalogue, 1931.

Another issue, from a different setting of type, of pp. 348-391 of vol. 3 of Stephens' "Journal." The Common Council ordered 100 copies printed on the same day that it ordered the printing of vol. 3. See the quotation from the Minutes of the Common Council, Feb. 13, 1742, in note on the "Journal," above.

[STEPHENS.] A | State | of the | Province of Georgia, | Attested upon Oath | in the | Court of Savannah, | November 10, 1740. | London: | Printed for W. Meadows, at the Angel in Cornhill. | MDCCLXII. | 8vo, pp. (4), 32.

AAS., B., BA., C., DERENNE, H., HEH., JCB., NYP., WLC., Y. 91315

Signed by Pat. Graham and 24 others.

Prepared by William Stephens, the secretary of the province, at the suggestion of the Trustees. Intended to counteract the agitation of the malcontent Patrick Tailfer and his associates, it was read by Stephens in court on November 10, 1740, and signed at that time by him and seventeen others under oath. Pat. Graham and six persons whose names head the list as printed "were sworn before the Magistrates out of Court." See Stephens's "Journal" in the "Colonial Records of Georgia," vol. 4, 1906, p. 597, and Supplement to vol. 4, 1908, pp. 26-27.

Improved title of no. 27113, vol. 7.

Also issued from the same setting of type differently imposed, as an appendix to vol. 2 of the author's "Journal," 1742, and included in the reprint in the "Colonial Records of Georgia." See the De Renne catalogue, 1931, vol. 1, p. 109.

[STEPHENS.] A State of the Province of Georgia, Attested upon Oath, in the Court of Savannah, November 10, 1740. London: Printed for W. Meadows, at the Angel in Cornhill, MDCCLXII. [Verso of title:] P. Force, Washington, 1835. 8vo, pp. 20.

AAS., C., HEH., NYP., Y. 91316

Issued in vol. 1, 1836, of Force's "Tracts," and sometimes found separately. Force's volume was reissued in Am. Hist. Soc. "Transactions," vol. 1, 1839.

For other editions of the tract, see Ga. Hist. Soc. "Collections," vol. 2, 1842, pp. 67-85, and "American Colonial Tracts Monthly," vol. 1, no. 3, July, 1897, the latter a reprint from Force without acknowledgment.

VOL. XXIII.

Title from Trömel's "Bibliothèque américaine," 1861, no. 313.

A Dutch translation of A Call from Death to Life, above.

It is probable that this edition is that located at AM, which there forms part of a collection of remainders of pamphlets and sheets printed from 1657-1674, for the most part at Amsterdam, which were reissued with the collective title: "Collectio, of Versamelinghe, van eenige van de Tractaten, Boeken, en Brieven, die geschreeven sijn door verscheide Vrienden der Waarhey, die van die Weereld, spotsgewijse, genaemt worden Quakers . . ." See the cross reference in the AM, printed catalogue from William Robinson, of New England, to Friends, Society of.

Title supplied by Catherine C. Quinn.

Apparently one of the works printed in Europe by the Reynier or Reinier Jansen who came to America in 1698, and was engaged to print for the Friends in Philadelphia. Wilberforce Eames states that he has seen others of Jansen's European imprints. Jansen is said to have been a Hollander by birth, a lace-maker by trade at the time of his arrival in this country, to have lived at Alkmaer, and to have had a son in business in Amsterdam. See Wallace's "Early Printing in Philadelphia," in Penn. Mag. of Hist. and Biog., vol. 4, 1880, pp. 436-44, and Pennypacker's notes in the same volume, pp. 36-37; also the Henkels catalogue for part 4 of the Pennypacker sale, April 24-25, 1907, lot no. 588.

The title for this work as lot no. 588 of the sale bears the date 1679, but the photofacsimile of the title page show the date as 1676.

Title of the 1791 edition from Evans.

In the titles of the 1793 editions, "Pathetic" is spelled "Pathetick," and the lines relating to the life of Sterne are omitted.

STERNE. [sic]. The Koran, containing the life, character, and sentiments of Tria Juncta in Uno, M. N. A. or Master of No Arts. By Laurence Sterne. In two volumes. Philadelphia: Printed and sold by Robert Bell. 1778. 2 vols. 91342

Title from Hildeburn.

Originally published in London in 1770, under the title, "The Posthumous Works of a late Celebrated Genius, deceased," the work was merely an imitation of Sterne. "Its author, it should have been known, was Richard Griffith the elder, who betted with a friend that he could write a book which 'would pass current . . . as a writing of Mr. Sterne'; and won (as he said himself) the bet." See Cross's "Life and Times of Laurence Sterne," 3d ed., 1929, p. 520. The forgery was included in the Dublin, 1779, edition of Sterne's Works, and in several other editions.

(4), iii-xiv, 262, frontispiece portrait; (6), 267-522, (2); (4), 3-196, (2); 240, 240-252, 254-270, advertisement (2); 257; (8), 5-250, advertisement (1). C., NYH. + In five volumes. | ... | [Same imprint and date.] 5 vols., 12mo, pp. xiv, xii, (2), xii-331, 342-370, frontispiece portrait; 348; 240, 240-252, 254-270, advertisement (2); 257; 250, advertisement and Additional List of Subscribers (5). AAS., HEH., HSP. 91355

In the titles of all except the first two volumes in each edition, the tenth and eleventh lines, "With the Life of the Author," are omitted.

A list of subscribers forms part of the preliminary pages of vol. 1 of both editions.

The "Additional List of Subscribers" which comes at the end of the last volume in the 5-volume edition, forms part of the preliminary leaves at the beginning of the last volume in the 6-volume edition.

Besides the general title pages of the volumes, each of the works has a separate title page. The contents are the same in both editions, the "Life and Opinions of Tristram Shandy" forming vols. 1-3 in the 6-volume edition, and 1-2 in the 5-volume edition. This is followed by the "Sermons of Mr. Yorick" in two volumes; and a last volume containing the "Sentimental Journey," "A Political Romance," "Letters from Yorick to Eliza," and "Sterne's Letters to his Friends." The title of the "Letters from Yorick" has no imprint.

According to a note printed with the list of subscribers, some copies were to be printed on fine paper.

HEH. has two copies of the 5-volume edition. In vol. 3 of one, the verso of the fourth leaf is numbered vi, while in the other it is correctly numbered viii.

AAS. lacks vols. 3 and 5. Y. has a copy of one of the editions.

In the advertisement the printer stated that, as soon as Sterne's daughter should bring out another collection of his Letters, he intended to print them as a seventh volume.

STEUBEN. Regulations.

The following chronological arrangement contains not only the editions of the work as first published, but also abridgments, extracts, adaptations, and a translation. Evans enters the issues of the work under "United States," and c. under "U. S. Inspector-general's office."

According to Kapp's "Life" of Steuben, 1859, p. 199, in preparing the work the general "selected . . . Colonel Fleury and Captain Walker as his assistants, Captain de l'Enfant to draw the plans, and Mr. Duponceau as his secretary." He planned to divide his book into four parts: "1st, the service of the infantry in the field; 2d, service in garrison and on parade; 3d, service of the cavalry, and 4th, the service of light troops." Only the first part was printed, though the part relating to cavalry was finished in manuscript.

A doubtful title from Heartman's catalogue for a sale of April 23, 1921, lot no. 240. As there are typographical errors in the title and imprint, i. e. "Regulation" instead of "Regulations," "Howell" instead of "Haswell," it seems possible that the date also is an error for 1794. See below Haswell's edition of that year. An examination of the file of Haswell's "Vermont Gazette" at AAS., which contains issues in every month of the year except June, has disclosed no advertisement of an edition of 1792, nor is one included in Spargo's list of imprints of that printer in his "Anthony Haswell," 1925.

Contents: vol. 1, From the Origin of Methodism to the Death of Whitefield; vol. 2, From the Death of Whitefield to the Death of Wesley; vol. 3, From the Death of Wesley to the Centenary Jubilee of Methodism.

There were many printings from the plates of the American edition, reaching to at least twenty-seven thousand copies of vol. 1. Copies in various libraries are made up of volumes from different printings. Early issues of vol. 2 have the dates, 1859 and 1860, but most volumes have only the copyright dates.

There were several English editions with the above title.

The first two volumes were intended to form a work complete in itself, on the life and times of Wesley, and are often found without the third volume. See preface to vol. 2. In 1864 an edition of this part of the work was issued in London with the title, "History of the Life and Times of John Wesley," with an elaborate bibliographical appendix by the British editor, H[eylin].

Colophon of vol. 2 varies. AAS., B., C., HEH., NYP., WLC., Y. 91511
Binder's title: "Stevens's American Nuggets." On front cover: "... H. Stephani et Amicorum."

The chief part of the collection acquired by Stevens while preparing his Nuggets was sold by Puttick and Simpson in March, 1861, and the catalogue of the sale, with title, "Bibliotheca Americana," our no. 5199, vol. 2, was really an abridgment of the former work. AAS., NYP.

It was originally the compiler's intention to continue the Nuggets in a second alphabet, vols. 3-9, with vol. 10, an index to the whole series. See p. ix of the 1862 edition.

Only one volume of the Second Series was published, and that not until 1885. c., JCB., NYP.

[STEVENS.] Catalogue of American Books in the Library of the British Museum. Christmas, 1856. [London. Printed by Charles Whittingham at the Chiswick Press. 1857.] 8vo, pp. 628.

Caption title. AAS., B., NYP. 91512

The above is an issue without the preliminary pages, of the sheets of the edition finally published in 1866. Stevens in the "Explanatory" note, dated, London, 1865, at the beginning of the latter edition states that the "printing was finished in June, 1857, but that the publication has been unavoidably delayed." The AAS. copy is in one volume on thin paper, and the B. copy on thicker paper is in two volumes. In both cases the date "1857" appears on the back of the copies which are in original binding. The B. copy of the first volume has been rebound but the second is as issued.

With heading: "Vol. I. No. I.[-2]." Two parts only were printed.

Gilman states that the publication was withdrawn from sale in favor of the Nuggets.

The above list includes only a few of the early publications of Henry Stevens. It has not been attempted to give the main body of them printed after 1860. He was the author of several brief historical and bibliographical essays and monographs, including his "Recollections of Mr. James Lenox . . . and the Formation of his Library," and edited and printed a number of items of rare source material, either from early tracts or from manuscripts. The elaborate bibliographical catalogues which he prepared included not only those for collections for sale by him, but a number of early Puttick and Simpson catalogues, e. g. our no. 49961, vol 12. nyp. The initials "G. M. B." which Stevens playfully used after his name stand for "Green Mountain Boy," he being a native of Vermont. A list of his more important works included for this reason in Gilman's bibliography of that state should be consulted.

The work was compiled by Stevens, the well-known translator from the Spanish and Portuguese languages, and his name is signed to the introductory letter prefixed to the edition of 1711.

There is no general title page in either volume of this edition. The work was originally issued in monthly numbers, each with its own title page. The above title is taken from that of the first number, that "For the Month of December, 1708." In addition to the title pages for the monthly parts, there were also separate title pages for each of the narratives included (some of which were also issued separately), except in the case of the first three narratives in the second volume which have caption titles only. The monthly title pages were not always preserved in binding up the volumes, and they have not been included in the collation here given except in the case of the first in each volume. In the NYP. copy are also bound title pages for the following issues: Jan. 1708/9, Sept., Oct., and Nov.-Dec. 1709, the latter being a double number. A copy of the monthly title page for the issue of July, 1710, is bound in vol. 2 of the NYH. copy of the 1711 edition. The NYF. copy of the first volume also contains various leaves of "Advertisement" not included in our collation.

Title of the first monthly part in the second volume: A View of the Universe: | or, a new | Collection | of | Voyages | and | Travels, | Into all Parts of the World. | With the Geography and History of every | Country. | None of them ever before Printed in English. | To be Published Monthly. | This for January 1710. begins the Entertaining Travels of the | Sieur Mouette in Fez and Morocco, during his Eleven Years | Captivity in those Parts. With a Map of those Countries, by | Hermon Moll, Geographer. | London Printed for J. Knapton, in St. Paul's Church-yard; A. Bell, in Corn- | hill; D. Midwinter, in St. Paul's Church-yard; W. Taylor, in Pater- Noster- | Row; and Sold by J. Round, in Exchange-Alley, in Cornhill; N. Cliffe, in | Cheapside; E. Sanger, at the Posthouse., and A. Collins, at the Black-Boy, in | Fleet-street; and J. Baker, in Pater-Noster-Row, 1710. |

According to "An Advertisement Concerning this Work in general" at the beginning of the first vol., "A small number will be Printed on a large fine Paper . . . at one half more than the Price of the Common Sort."

A list of the narratives included is given on the title of vol. 1 of the edition of 1711, entered below. That edition is a reissue from the same type with general title pages for each volume prefixed. The order of the items in the work is the same as in that list except that no. 4 in both editions, follows nos. 5-7. No. 5, Travels of Sieur Mouette, is the first narrative in the second volume and begins in the issue for Jan. 1710, while no. 4, Travels of the Jesuits, begins in that for July of the same year. See the title pages of those monthly issues. The catch word at the end of no. 7 is the first word of the title of no. 4.

For information as to editions of the narratives relating to America, see Lawson (J.), nos. 39451-39453, vol. 10 and Cieça de Leon (P. de), vol. 4, pp. 73-76.

[STEVENS]. A New | Collection | of | Voyages | and | Trav- els, | Into several Parts of the World, none | of them ever before Printed in | English. | Containing, | 1. The Description, &c. of the Mo- | lucco and Philippine Islands, by | L. de Argensola. | 2. A new Account of Carolina, by | Mr. Lawson. | 3. The Travels of P. de Cieza, in | Peru. | 4. The Travels of the Jesuits in E- | thiopia. | 5. The Captivity of the Sieur Mouette | in Fez and Morocco. | 6. The Travels of P. Teixeira from | India to the Low-Countries by | Land. | 7. A Voyage to Madagascar by the | Sieur Cauche. | In Two Volumes, Illustrated with several Maps and Cuts. | London, Printed for J. Knapton, Andrew Bell, D. Midwinter, Will. | Tay- lor, A. Collins, and J. Baker. 1711. | [Same collation as that of the preceding edition.] BM., H., JCB., NYH., NYF., WHS. 91538

Title of vol. 2: A New | Collection | of | Voyages | and Travels, | Into several Parts of the | World, | None of them ever before Printed | in English. | . . . | London, Printed for J. Knapton, Andrew Bell, D. Midwinter, | Will. Taylor, A. Collins, and J. Baker. 1711. |

A reissue from the same type as the preceding edition, without the title pages for the monthly issues, and with the addition of the general titles for each volume. The unnumbered preliminary leaf in vol. 1 of the first edition, containing an "Advertisement Concerning this Work in general" is replaced by an unnumbered leaf containing an introductory letter to Edmund Poley from the compiler. In narrative no. 3, the last in vol. 1, the illustrations which occur on pp. 20, 29, 99 and 102 in the first edition are omitted, and blank spaces left in the text.

The H., NYH., and NYF. copies lack a map of Peru found in vol. 1 of the earlier edition, but it is in the WHS. copy.

In the NYH. copy of narrative no. 5, the first in vol. 2, pp. 82-83 and 86-87 are misnumbered 74-75 and 78-79, respectively. This misnumbering does not occur in the NYP. copies of either edition.

The Dictionary of National Biography lists a 1719 edition, and our no. 52577, vol. 13, evidently refers to a 1721 edition, neither of which we have located.

For translations by Stevens, see Faria y Sousa (Man. de), no. 28002, vol. 6, and Veitia Linaje (José de), "The Rule Establish'd in Spain, for the Trade in the West India."

[STEWART (James)], of London. A Letter to the Rev. Dr. Price, F.R.S. wherein his Observations on the Nature of Civil Liberty, the Principles of Government, &c. are candidly examined; His fundamental Principles refuted, and the Fallacy of his Reasoning from these Principles detected. Also the true Principles of Liberty, explained and demonstrated; the constitutional Authority of the supreme Legislature of Great Britain, Over every Part of the British Dominions, both in the Matter of Legislation and Taxation, and in every Act of Legal Authority, asserted and fully vindicated. By a Lover of Peace and good Government. London: Printed for the Author, and sold by J. Bew, No. 28, Paternoster Row, M.DCC.LXXVI. 8vo, pp. 54.

BM., HEH., JCB., WLC. 91680

In his preface to the Total Refutation, Stewart states that he is also the author of the above and that he intends the two works to be the first and second parts of the same essay.

Title supplied by Catherine C. Quinn.

This author is probably the James Stewart, "author of many political essays in the public prints," who died at Stepney in 1794 in his seventieth year. See the "European Magazine," vol. 26, 1794, p. 159.

STEWART. The Total Refutation and Political Overthrow of Doctor Price; or, Great Britain Successfully vindicated against All American Rebels, and their Advocates. In a second letter to that gentleman. Proving His Observations on Civil Liberty incompatible with Human Nature, contrary to Reason and Common Sense, and the Experience of all Ages, and diametrically opposite to the Doctrines of the Christian Religion. Also demonstrating his Calculations to be erroneous, fallacious, absurd, and contradictory; placing his System in a new and striking Light, equally curious, entertaining, and interesting, by James

Stewart. | London: | Printed for the Author, and sold at his House, |

NYP. has a Dutch translation in two numbers extracted from a Dutch publication, 8vo, pp. [1]-38, [129]-157. Each number has a half title, "Blik op den vorigen en den tegenwoordigen toestand van Jamaica . . . door J. Stewart," and they are called "No. 19" and "No. 20," respectively.

[STEWART (John)], b. 1749, d. 1822. The Moral State of Nations, or Travels over the most interesting parts of the globe, to discover the source of moral motion; communicated to lead mankind through the conviction of the senses to intellectual existence, and an enlightened state of nature . . . In the year of man's retrospective knowledge, by astronomical calculation 5000. (Year of the common era, 1790.) Granville, Middletown, N. J.: Reprinted by G. H. Evans. 1837. 12mo, pp. (10), 3-126, 122. Frontispiece. c. + [Same imprint.] 1840. 12mo, pp. (12), 3-126, 122. Folded frontispiece.

C., NYP. 91693

We include the above American reprint because it is an early imprint of Granville, which was the former name of Keansburg, in the township of Middletown, N. J.

The final 122 pp. of both editions contain the following, with a separate title page: The Revelation of Nature: wherein the source of moral motion is disclosed and a moral system established, through the evidence and conviction of the senses, to elevate man to intellectual existence, and an enlightened state of nature. . . London: Printed for J. Ridgway, York-street, No. 1, St. James' Square 1790. (From the above original edition, revised and re-printed, 1835.)

Improved entry of no. 50495, vol. 12.

JOHN MORTON MEMORIAL MUSEUM. 91724

Important for the history of Nova Suecia, because of the official documents on that subject which are among those included.

The titles of the later volumes are similar, though omitting the line relating to the dates covered, and varying somewhat, as in the lining off and the titles of the compiler. The imprints are the same except that of vol. 6, which is as follows: Stockholm, Trykt hos Peter Hesselberg. Vols. 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 were printed in 1750, 1753, 1760, 1766, and 1775, respectively.

The final pages in vol. 6 comprise a "Register" of the work, with a separate title page and imprint, and the date 1771. It was probably first issued separately in that year.

Acknowledgment should be made of the assistance furnished by Amandus Johnson, curator of the museum, and his assistant.

 ment of the Town of Bristol. See no. 8054, vol. 2.

Various authorities, as Sprague, Cushing, and H. R. Stiles, in his "Stiles Family in America," 1895, have attributed the above to Dr. Stiles. However, there is no mention of the preparation of the work in the "Literary Diary" of the latter, edited by Dexter in 1901. The Account is dated, Bristol, May 12, 1785, on which date the Diary shows Stiles to have been at Hartford and Bolton.

The Brinley copy had the inscription in an old hand, "Drawn up by Judge [Benjamin] Bourne." The Bourne family home was at Bristol, and the Judge, himself, moved there later. See Munro's "History of Bristol," 1880, pp. 258-260.

[STILES.] An Address to the Inhabitants of the New Settlements. See no. 420, vol. I. UTS.

The Address is signed by Ezra Stiles and four others, "Committee of the General Association of the State of Connecticut," and dated, New-Haven, July 2, 1793.

AAS., B., BA., BM., CHS., H., JCB., NYH., NYP., UTS., Y. 91738

Pp. 129-139 form an appendix, which contains "A list of the Ministers, Churches and religious Assemblies . . . as they lie interspersed in the four New-England Governments, taken for the Beginning of the Year 1760."

Bartlett's "Bibliography of Rhode Island," 1864, lists a Boston, 1791, edition, which is probably an error for the above.

WLC. 91750

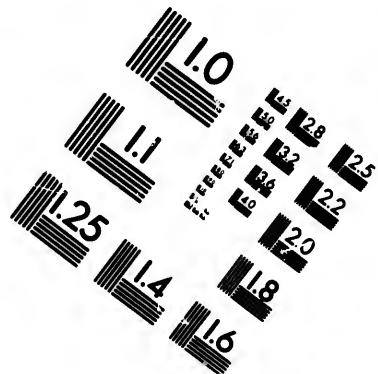

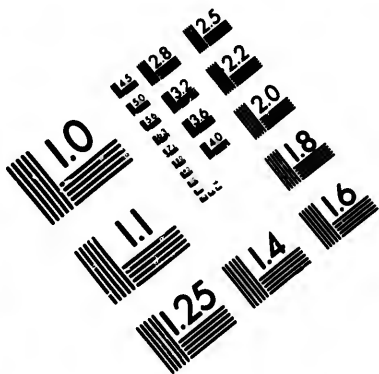

Allibone mentions a London edition on large paper.
On the half title of the NYH. copy of a "Poem, commemorative of Goffe, Whaley, & Dixwell . . . By Philagathos," Boston, 1793, no. 62417, vol. 15, AAS., B., BA., BM., BU., H., M., NYH., Y., William Kelby, a former librarian, has written "By Ezra Stiles." However, since the preface is dated "Massachusetts, February 12, 1793," and Stiles was in New Haven at this time, his authorship seems doubtful. Lemuel A. Welles, author of the "History of the Regicides in New England," 1927, in a letter to Miss Anne S. Pratt, Dec. 27, 1932, suggests Stiles' son-in-law, Rev. Abiel Holmes, as the author. It is known that Holmes wrote verse since Dexter states that he and his wife, Stiles' daughter Mary, were the principal contributors to "A Family Tablet: containing a Selection of Original Poetry," Boston, 1796. He was living in Cambridge, Mass., at this time.

According to entries in Stiles' diary, under dates of December 19, 1771, and April 9, 1772, he edited the Newport, 1772, edition of Church's "History of King Philip's War," and prepared the life of Church which is included in it.

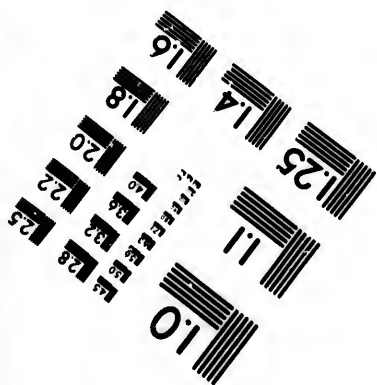

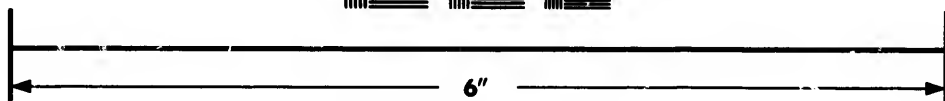

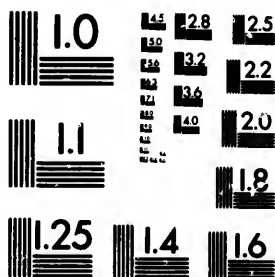

Stiles left behind many manuscripts, the main collection being in the possession of Yale University. From these were printed under the editorship of F. B. Dexter, the "Literary Diary," 3 vols., New York, 1901, and the "Extracts from the Itineraries and other Miscellanies," New Haven, 1916.

In the diary, under date of January 4, 1769, Stiles notes "I begun to write my Ecclesiastical History of New England & British America 22^d of last month." This

Also: A Supplement to the History and Genealogies of Ancient Windsor, Conn., containing corrections and additions which have accrued since the publication of that work. By Henry R. Stiles, M.D., Woodbridge, N. J. Albany: J. Munsell, 78 State Street. 1863. 8vo, pp. 134. AAS., B., BA., CU., H., HSP., M., NYH., NYP., WHS.

According to the preface of the Hartford edition, 700 copies were printed of the first edition, and 150 of the Supplement.

Later editions in 2 vols., and including the supplement, were published in Albany, 1863, HEH., M., NYH., PEAB., and in Hartford, 1891-2, AAS., CU., NVP., Y.

Several of the family genealogies and Matthew Grant's Old Church Record were reprinted separately. See Bissell (J.), no. 5635, vol. 2; Grant (M.), no. 28309, vol. 7, NYP.; Hayden (J. H.), no. 31009, vol. 8, WHS.; and nos. 91752 and 91753, above.

Stiles wrote the notes in "Letters from the Prisons and Prison-ships of the Revolution," and the notes and appendix in the "Account of the Interment of the Remains of American Patriots," which were published in 1865 as nos. 1 and 2, respectively, of the "Wallabout Prison Ship Series."

Among later historical or genealogical works written or compiled by Stiles may be mentioned especially: The Civil, Political, Professional and Ecclesiastical History, and Commercial and Industrial Record of the County of Kings and the City of Brooklyn, N. Y., New York, [1884], in which he was assisted by L. B. Proctor, and L. F. Brockett; A History of the City of Brooklyn, . . . Brooklyn, 1867-70; and The Stiles Family in America . . . Jersey City, 1895. He also edited, from the manuscript of S. W. Adams, the History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut, New York, 1904.

Folded map. A-G in fours, A1 lacking in most copies and probably blank. BM., HEH., JCB. + [Same imprint and collation.] 1625. BM., C. 91853

Improved title of no. 739, vol. 1, entered under the author's surname, Alexander. See the Church Catalogue for a facsimile of the title of the first issue. Information as to the 1625 issue supplied by Ernest Kletsch, the c. copy lacking the map.

Entered at Stationers' Hall, Sept. 7, 1624, as "An Encouragement to Coronelli [sic] by Sir William Alexander." See Arber's "Transcript of the Registers," vol. 4, 1877, p. 84.

Dedicated "To the Most Excellent Prince."

Sir William Alexander had in 1621 obtained a charter for the "lordship and barony of New Scotland, comprising the territory now known as the province of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. Under this grant he made several unsuccessful attempts at colonization . . . by the treaty of St. Germain, in 1632, Great Britain surrendered to France all the places occupied by the English within these limits." See Winsor, vol. 4, p. 142. The above tract was written to arouse interest in settling the region. It includes an introductory sketch of the explorations and settlements, chiefly in America, of the various nations, and of his own earlier attempts.

The map, which is without title, or inscription of cartographer or engraver, has in the lower left hand corner a scale with the heading: "This Scale containeth 150 English Leagues." Slafter considers that the map shows the influence of that of Lescabot, but is much more accurate. Though Alexander's map was published after the first issue of Captain John Smith's map of New England in his "Description of New England," 1616, and was possibly helped by it, the two are quite different. Alexander's map was reproduced in "Purchas his Pilgrimes," vol. 4, 1625, between pp. 1872 and 1873. Reproductions of the whole map are found in the Bannatyne Club and Prince Society reprints of Alexander's tract, mentioned below, in Amer. Antiq. Soc. "Proceedings," Oct. 1875, p. 52, and in Drake's "Result of some Researches . . . relative to the Founders of New England," 1860. Partial reproductions are in Thornton's "Landing at Cape Ann," 1854, and in Winsor, vol. 3, p. 306.

The same sheets used in the first two issues, but without the dedication, and with a new title, "The Mapp and Description of New-England," were reissued in 1630, our no. 740, vol. 1. BM., H., HEH., JCB., NYF., WLC.

The first edition was reprinted in Slafter's "Sir William Alexander and American Colonization," Prince Soc. "Publications," vol. 8, 1873. A reprint giving the dedication, but reproducing the title of the second edition, "The Mapp and Description," was included in the Bannatyne Club "Publications," vol. 114, 1867, as part of "Royal Letters, Charters, and Tracts, relating to the colonization of New Scotland," edited by Laing.

There were two editions of the sheets of the text of the book, both evidently from the same press. These may be called Editions A and B of the text, and they differ in certain line endings, in ornaments, in numbering of the pages, as noted above, and in other distinguishing peculiarities. In Edition A, for example, pp. 104 and 323 are misnumbered 410 and 223, Powhatan is misspelled "Powhdtan," on p. 134, line 28. These errors are not found in Edition B, which suggests that it may be the later edition.

These two editions were each printed on both fine and poor paper. Signature X in all issues is printed on poor paper.

Both Edition A and Edition B were issued with title pages bearing Williamsburg imprints as above, and the date, 1747. The sheets of both editions were also issued with title pages bearing a London imprint and the date, 1753.

Robinson lists Williamsburg, 1753, edition, but he had not seen a copy, nor have we been able to locate one.

The intricacies of the bibliographical problem presented by the above work have never been completely unraveled. For other notes on the variations in the editions, and reprints of the most important passages and entries relating to them in numerous bibliographical and historical works, and periodical publications, see the preface to Robinson's "Complete Index to Stith's History of Virginia," published in the Va. State Lib. "Bulletin," vol. 5, 1912, no. 1. Robinson quotes from articles in the "Historical Magazine," and the "North American Review;" also from the catalogues of the Field, Menzies, Brinley, Church and Tower collections, from Winsor, Evans, the bibliographical note in Sabin's reprint, and at length from Brown's description of the historical importance of the work, in his "English Politics in Early Virginia History," 1901.

Stith's History covered the period up to 1624. According to the preface, he intended to carry it further, but no more was published. Its value is based chiefly on the sources at his command. He says that these included copies of documents collected by his uncle, Sir John Randolph, in preparation for writing an historical "Preface" to the Laws of Virginia, and a transcript of the records of the Virginia Company lent by Colonel William Byrd, also copies of records of the Virginia courts. His printed sources were mainly the writings of Captain John Smith, Hariot, and Purchas.

A-L in fours and two inserted leaves. C., JCB., MUNICH ROYAL LIB., NYP., VIENNA IMPERIAL LIB., WLC. + [Title and colophon as in 1512 edition, but without date. 151-?] 2 unnumbered leaves, 40 numbered leaves (the last misnumbered xxxiiiij), 4 unnumbered leaves. A-L in fours and two inserted leaves.

VIENNA CITY LIB., VIENNA IMPERIAL LIB. 91866

Slight variations from the exact typography of the title have here been made to meet modern conditions, "et" in several cases, and "per" in the imprint having been substituted for the obsolete signs for those words, etc.

The undated Cracow edition is identical with that of 1512 through the fortieth leaf which, according to Harris is numbered xxxiiiij. The type for the last four leaves, signature L, of this edition has been reset. The note under Anselm in Meusel's "Bibliotheca Historica," vol. 1, part 2, 1784, pp. 80-81, evidently refers to this edition, the supplied date being given as "circa 1515."

The author's name appears at the beginning of the dedication on the verso of the title, "Reuerendissimo in christo patri et domino: Joanni dei gracia Episcopo Posnaniensi Joannes de Stob (nicza S.d.)"

Many of the leaves are misnumbered, and the misnumberings differ in the five copies examined. However, all copies of the first edition have the final leaf misnumbered xl.

The two inserted leaves have the headings "Quomodo distancia ciuitatum inueni?" and "De formatione et usu quadrantis Caput vltimum," respectively. In the c. and w.l.c. copies, the first follows D₁, and the second follows D₂, which is probably the proper place for them since they are reprinted in this order in the 1519 edition. It is certain at least that D₂ should be followed by the second inserted leaf since this contains the last chapter of the "Introductio," and "Epitoma europe Eneæ Siluij" begins on D₁. In the jcb. copy with the map, both leaves follow D₂, and in the nyp. copy they both follow D₂.

There are several references in the text to the discoveries of Americus Vesputius, and others, and to the newly found continent, which some proposed to name "America" after that explorer. Some of these passages, with English translations, are quoted in the earlier jcb. printed catalogue.

A woodcut of the armillary sphere forms the recto of B₁, and another of the Quadrant is included in the text on the second inserted leaf.

The maps in the first edition are on a folded sheet at the end, one of the Eastern Hemisphere on the recto, and another of the Western Hemisphere on the verso. The new world is shown as two continents connected by an isthmus, though the map of the northern one extends only to the latitude 50° N. The name "America" does not appear. "Bartlett in the John Carter Brown Catalogue of 1875 and Nordenskjöld in his Facsimile Atlas of 1889 (pp. 68-9) discuss them at great length, but were at a loss to explain how such a successful map of the Western hemisphere came to be printed as early as 1512 and at Cracow of all places. Through the discovery by Prof. Fischer of Waldseemüller's large World Map of 1507, so far known only in a single copy, the mystery has been explained. The two Stobnicza maps have been found to be fairly exact copies of the two small inset maps found in the top corners of Waldseemüller's huge world-map."—See E. P. Goldschmidt's catalogue no. 18, [1929], no. 172.

jcb. now owns the copy described in the Goldschmidt catalogue, which is at present the only one in this country having the original sheet with maps. The maps are also in The Munich Royal Library, and The Vienna Imperial Library copies. The other American copies have the maps supplied in facsimile.

Facsimiles of the map of the western hemisphere appear in the old jcb. catalogue, Nordenskjöld's "Facsimile Atlas," 1889, Daly's "... Early History of Cartography," 1879, Winsor, vol. 3, p. 13, and the Goldschmidt catalogue no. 18. The last three mentioned are reduced, and Winsor does not include the map of eastern Asia and the East Indies in the section reproduced.

Harrassowitz' catalogue no. 61, lot no. 56, lists a 1511 edition, which is undoubtedly an error, since in the note on a clipping mounted by Joseph Sabin, which is apparently from this catalogue, the jcb. copy and that described by Harris are referred to as "of the same date."

As in the preceding edition, the title here entered has slight typographical changes from the original to conform to modern type.

Nordenskiöld, in his "Facsimile-Atlas," 1889, pp. 68-69, notes that in this edition numerous printer's errors and the faulty orthography of the previous editions are corrected.

Leaves 14 and 15 are misnumbered 13 and 16 respectively.

This edition includes the woodcut illustrations, but is without the map.

This edition does not include the History of the Holy Land at the end. A copy is located in the library of Jagellon University in Cracow.

Information from the forthcoming vol. 29 of Estreicher's "Bibliographia Polska." Estreicher's "Bibliografia Polska," 2nd ser., vol. 1, 1882, p. 23, lists a Cracow, 1531, edition printed by Scharffenberg, which may be this n. p., n. d., edition. We have been unable to locate a copy.

Korbut's "Literature Polska," vol. 1, 1929, p. 28, lists a doubtful Vienna, [circa 1519], edition.

STOBO (Robert). Memoirs of Major Robert Stobo, of the Virginia Regiment. . . London: Printed by J. Skirven, Ratcliffe-Highway. MDCCC. 8vo, pp. 78. BM., HSP., JCB. + Pittsburgh: Published by John S. Davidson, No. 65 Market Street. Printed at the office of Kennedys' Bank Note Review, Third St. 1854. 18mo, pp. (2), v-vi, ix-xii, 13-92. Frontispiece folded plan. AAS., B., BA., BM., C., HEH., JCB., NYH., NYP., PEAB., VA. STATE LIB., WHS., WLC., Y. 91869

Title of the first edition supplied by Catherine C. Quinn.

An anonymous narrative relating to the experiences of Stobo as hostage. He was delivered to the French as surety for the carrying out of a treaty of capitulation signed by James Mackaye, G. Washington, and Coulons Villiers, July 3, 1754, after the fall of Fort Necessity, and was imprisoned at various forts from DuQuesne to Quebec. On returning to Virginia he received a vote of thanks from the House of Representatives, November 19, 1759.

The introduction of the 1854 edition, signed by N[eville] B. C[raig], states that it was republished from a MS. copy obtained from the British Museum. The appendices contain the articles of capitulation, and letters from Stobo, dated July 28, 1754, the latter from MSS. in the possession of W. M. Darlington, according to a letter from the latter to Joseph Sabin. The folded plan of "Fort DuQuesne, 1754, by Robert Stobo," was taken from a drawing on the back of one of the letters. "These letters of Stobo were published by the French government in their Précis des Faits, where his plan of the fort is called 'exact'."—Winsor, vol. 5, p. 575. Copies of the letters and of the plan as well as of the articles are also in the Pennsylvania Archives. See Col. Records, vol. 6, 1851, pp. 141-143, 161-163, and Pennsylvania Archives, vol. 2, 1853, pp. 146-147, where they are printed. There are numerous minor differences showing that they are not from the copies used for the Memoirs of Stobo.

Nead's "Some Hidden Sources of Fiction," 1909, relates to the Memoirs in connection with Parker's "Seats of the Mighty," 1905, which he shows to be based upon them.

In reply to Increase Mather's "Order of the Gospel," 1700.

An answer, signed by Increase and Cotton Mather, but written by the latter, is prefixed to the Boston, 1700, edition of John Quick's "Young Mans claim unto the Sacrament of the Lords-Supper," our no. 67164, vol. 16. See Cotton Mather's "Diary," vol. 1, 1921, p. 364 (Mass. Hist. Soc. "Collections," 7th ser., vol. 7).

For an account of the Stoddardean controversy and the publications it elicited, see Holmes' "Increase Mather, A Bibliography of His Works," vol. 2, 1931, pp. 388-397. For other works by Stoddard relating to the controversy, see "Appeal," above, and "Inexcusableness," below.

Another work relating to this controversy has sometimes erroneously been attributed to Stoddard, as in John Eliot's "Biographical Dictionary," 1809, p. 441. This was the "Gospel Order Revived," our no. 28052, vol. 7, printed anonymously, and without printer or place in the imprint, in 1700, evidently by William Bradford in New York. To this pamphlet was prefixed an advertisement stating that the "Press in Boston is so much under the aw of the Reverend Author . . . and his Friends that we could not obtain of the Printer there to print the following Sheets, which is the only true Reason why we have sent the Copy so far for its Impression." Bartholomew Green, the Boston printer replied to this charge in his "The Printer's Advertisement," 1701, AAS. reprinted in Thomas's "History of Printing," 1874, vol. 1, pp. 413-423. Green states that the anonymous pamphlet was printed in New York. In his reply he prints depositions telling of the pamphlet "The Gospel Order Revived," being brought to him to be printed, and how he had only wished to have a controversial pamphlet whose authorship was unknown to him passed upon by the Lieutenant Governor, before printing it. This proposition had been refused. A passage in one of the depositions in Green's pamphlet spoke of its being a shame that Mr. Stoddard should have to send to London to have a book printed. This has apparently been taken to mean that the "Gospel Order Revived" was by Stoddard, but a further passage shows that the book by Stoddard printed in London, which was referred to, was the "Doctrine of Instituted Churches." Sibley suggests Timothy Woodbridge, Benjamin Colman and Simon Bradstreet as the authors. Holmes, however, doubts that Woodbridge and Bradstreet were connected with it, and suggests Thomas Brattle who was one of those who took the MS. to Green, as one of the authors, while the "rest must have been among the Lev-rett, Colman, Pemberton, William Brattle, group." See Thomas's "History of Printing," 1874 edition, vol. 2, pp. 290-291, and 415-423; Holmes's "Increase Mather," 1931, vol. 2, p. 395; and Sibley's Harvard Graduates, vol. 2, p. 118.

This sermon elicited Increase Mather's "Dissertation, wherein The Strange Doctrine . . . is Examined and Confuted," 1708, to which Stoddard replied with his "Appeal to the Learned," above.

AAS., B., M., Y. 91959

A shortened form of the imprint, "Boston Printed by S. Green. 1687." has been seen in two copies, one the Prince copy in the Boston Public Library, and the other in the possession of the American Art Association in March, 1928. This imprint in irregular letters, and on an uneven line, seemed at first sight to have been put in with a pen, but on closer examination to have been cut on wood and impressed with printer's ink on the titles. Traces of the usual imprint can be detected in the Prince copy, evidently trimmed off through carelessness of the binder.

STODDARD. The Sufficiency of one good sign to prove a man to be in a state of life. Cleared up, and applied in a sermon preached at

Boston, May 30, 1703. Boston: Printed by B. Green, and J. Allen. 1703. 91963

Title from Evans. Listed in Thomas Prince's ms. catalogue at m. as printed in Boston, in 1703. Prince usually gave the number of pages in the works entered, and does not in this case. Probably he did not own a copy. None is now in his "New-England Library" at B. An edition of the sermon is advertised at the end of the author's Danger of Speedy Degeneracy, 1705, as Printed for, and Sold by Benj. Eliot, at his Shop under the West-End of the Town-House.

STODDARD. Those Taught by God | the | Father, | to know | God the Son; are Blessed. | A Sermon | Preached at Boston Lecture, | July 3d. 1712. | By Solomon Stoddard, A.M. | Pastor of the Church of Christ at Northampton. | . . . | Boston in N. E. | Printed by B. Green, for Benj. Eliot, | at his Shop in King Street. 1712. | 8vo, pp. (2), 33. B., H., JCB., M., Y. 91964

Evans lists a second edition with additions, Boston, [1712], and locates copies at n. and m. but neither library has any record of such an edition.

Improved title of no. 52376, vol. 13.

This work which was issued in parts was, to some extent, as stated in the title, a German translation of the "Lettres édifiantes et curieuses" of the Jesuit missionaries, for which see pp. 294-297 of our vol. 10, but much additional material from manuscript sources is also included.

A detailed analysis of the contents forms pp. 17-102 of the appendix to vol. 2 of the first edition of Backer. For a list of the portions relating to America, see David Nutt's "Catalogue," 1857, nos. 4754-4755, and the reprint of that summary included in the old JCB. catalogue, under the year 1726.

Stöcklein died in 1733 after completing the first 24 parts. For an account of his life, see pp. 141-154 of part 29. The work was continued successively by Carl Meyer, Petro Probst, and Francisco Keller. Backer states that Fr. Xav. Socher also assisted in the continuation.

There were two editions of vol. 1, containing the first eight parts, the title of the "Anderte Edition" being given below. Later parts were not reprinted, but are found with copies of the second edition of vol. 1 at NYP. and BM. Because of the publication in numbers through many years, complete sets are rare. The JCB. and V. sets with the first edition of vol. 1, have 32 parts each. One NYP. set has the first edition of vol. 1, and 36 parts in all, while that with the second edition of vol. 1 has 38 parts. The BM. set which has the second edition of vol. 1 has only 30 parts.

Half title of vol. 1: "Der Neue Welt-Bott Mit allerhand Nachrichten Dern Missionarium Soc. Jesu." Hence references are usually made to "Der Neue Welt-Bott," rather than to the longer title given on the title page. The half titles and titles of later volumes vary slightly. The first four volumes have rubricated title pages. We have located no copy of vol. 5 with a title page, but one of the NYP. sets (that having vol. 1 in the second edition) has a half title for that volume. This half title, which precedes part 33, was apparently intended to precede part 37, for it reads: "Tomus V. Zweyte Halbscheid, Den XXXVII. XXXVIII. XXXIX und XL Theil in sich enhaltend." Over the numbers 37, 38, 39 and 40 is pasted a contemporary printed slip reading "XXXIII. XXXIV. XXXV. und XXXVI."

The NYP. copy with the first edition of vol. 1 lacks the separate title of part 1. In this copy, the general preface which should precede part 1 is bound preceding part 5. A general title for vol. 1 from different type from the general title for vol. 1 which precedes part 1, also precedes part 5. This general title preceding part 5 has not been found in any of the other copies examined, and we have not included it in our collation. In this copy also, four of the five preliminary leaves and the frontispiece for vol. 2, which should precede part 9, are bound incorrectly preceding part 12. This and the JCB. copies lack one leaf in part 16 which begins "Zum XVI. Theil des Welt-Botts vor dem Anfang der Vorrede." It is bound at the end of part 16 in the NYP. copy with the second edition of vol. 1, but appears in the correct position in the V. copy.

Besides the volume title pages, there are title pages for the separate parts, except that parts 21-22 and 23-24 were issued together respectively, with a title page for each double number. Parts 29, 33 and 37 have rubricated titles.

The imprints of the parts vary, the first 24 having an Augsburg imprint, but some omitting Gräts. Parts 25-38 were printed in Vienna by Leopold Johann Kaliwoda.

Though Backer, in his bibliography of the Jesuits, originally only indicated 38 parts, in the new edition of his work it is stated that manuscript notes of Eglauer give the "dépeuillement des tomes 39 et 40."

On the verso of the half title of vol. 3 is a full page engraving. In the JCB. and NVP. copies with the first edition of vol. 1 there are also full page engravings on the verso of the half titles of vols. 1 and 2. In the NVP. copy which has the second edition of vol. 1, the half titles of vols. 1 and 2 are blank. This is the only variation we have found in parts 9-36 in the two NVP. copies.

The folded map in part 7 has the inscription "Zum VII Theil. Pagina 112 oder zu der Vorrede des IX Theils." It is found in part 7 in the v. copy, and in part 9 in the NVP. copy which has the second edition of vol. 1. It is lacking in the JCM. copy, and the NVP. copy which has the first edition of vol. 1.

According to Backer, a part of the work was translated into Polish.

BM., NYP. 91982

Only vol. 1, comprising the first eight parts, was reprinted. Although the collation is the same in both editions, and though some parts have the same date in both, most of the volume is from a different setting of type. The two leaves of errata for vol. 1 found at the end of the first edition of part 8 are omitted, but not all of the errors noted are corrected. The half title of vol. 1 in this issue does not have the engraving on the verso of the half title as in the earlier edition.

The NVP. copy of this edition of vol. 1 is accompanied by the same later parts as found with its copy of the first edition of vol. 1, except that that set has only 36 parts while the set with the second edition of vol. 1 has 38. It should be noted, however, that the half title of vol. 2, found with the second edition of vol. 1, like the half title of vol. 1 in that issue, is without an engraving found on the half title of vol. 2 accompanying the first edition.

The BM. set has 30 parts in all.

BM., BODLEIAN, HISP.SOC.AMER., NYP. 91983

Slight typographical changes in the above title have been made to meet modern conditions.

Leaves 16, 18, 51, 81, 92, 109, 133 and 136 are misnumbered 14, 17, 50, 74, 87, 110, 75 and 133, respectively.

The sixth leaf of signature Z is a portrait of the author.

An edition of Proclus Diadochus edited by Stoeffler, who according to Winsor, vol. 2, p. 99, "was a leading authority on the methods of defining latitude and longitude in vogue in the beginning of the new era."

The discovery of America by Columbus is mentioned on leaf 24.

Hariae in Bib. Amer. Vet. notes the title of Stoeffler's "Cosmographicæ," 1537, NYP., as likely to contain American references, however this is not the case, according to Wilberforce Eames.

DERENNE, WLC. 91992

Contains many "observations" relating to North America, particularly to Georgia, where the author had formerly been Chief Justice. Title supplied by Elizabeth B. Steere, who states that the last sentence of the preface reads: "To prevent imposition, every genuine copy of this, has the author's name, written by himself at the bottom of the Preface." This is followed in the wlc. copy by the author's autograph.

[STOKES.] Directions for the Officers of His Majesty's General Court . . . of the Province of Georgia. Compiled by the Chief Justice. See Georgia, no. 27041, vol. 7. H.

16mo. 91998

Though the author's name appears as "T. Stokes" on the title of the first issue here listed, that edition and the issue of 1832 are entered by Wegelin in his "Early American Plays," 1905, under "J. Stokes," as the name is given in the other 1821 edition.

One of the 1821 issues is located at UP.

STOKES. A Series of Sermons on some of the Internal and Distinctive Peculiarities of the Protestant Episcopal Church in America; as inculcated by, and deducible from, the observance of Her Holy Days, with an introductory sermon on Divine Decrees, delivered before the Third Presbytery of New-York, when a candidate for admission into that Church. Also, an appendix to the sermon on Divine Decrees, shewing its sentiments to be in accordance with the doctrines of the Church, and a concluding sermon on the Nature and Blessedness of True Religion. By Rev. J. O. Stokes, of St. John's Church, Medina, Orleans County, N. Y. Medina: Printed for the Author, by D. P. Adams. 1834. 8vo, pp. viii, 68. HEH. + [Same imprint and date.] 8vo, pp. viii, 76. GTS. 91999

Pp. 1-16 contain in separate stitching, with a separate title page bearing a Montgomery, 1833, imprint, the second edition of Sermon delivered before the Third Presbytery of New-York, entered below, and its appendix which probably had not been issued before forms pp. 17-20.

All of the other sermons have caption titles only.

The issue at GTS. contains on pp. 69-76, "A Further Development of some of the internal and distinctive views of the Episcopal Church, in a sermon on the scriptural doctrine of a Change of Heart." This was probably a later issue, since the "Nature and Blessedness of True Religion" which forms pp. 63-68, is called on the title page, the "concluding sermon."

STOKES. A Sermon delivered before the Third Presbytery of New-York, by the Rev. James O. Stokes, Pastor Elect of the First Presbyterian Church in the Village of Montgomery, Orange County, N. Y. which led to his Rejection by that Presbytery, on the 11th of March, 1833. . . . Montgomery: From the Press of Calvin F. S. Thomas. 1833. 8vo, pp. 16. MINNHS. + Second Edition. [Same imprint and date.] 8vo, pp. 16? 92000

Title of the first edition supplied by Elsa R. Nordin.

Copies of the second edition were also issued with separate stitching in a Series of Sermons, above. We have not located a separate copy of this edition, but it is probable that it did not include the appendix, which forms pp. 17-20 in a Series of Sermons, since those pages are not included in the separate stitching, in either the GTS. or HEH. copies.

Title of the first edition from McMurtrie's "Preliminary Check List of Early Tennessee Imprints," typed bibliography, 1932. In the second edition, p. 1 is on the verso of p. v, making the rectos of the text even numbered. This elicited Thomas Cleland's "Socini-Arian Detected: A Series of Letters to Barton W. Stone," 1815. John Dunlavy's "Manifesto," 1818, AAS., also contains a reply, pp. 439-520. Cleland renewed the discussion after the appearance of the second edition, with his "Letters to Barton W. Stone," 1822, NYH., to which Stone replied in Letters to James Blythe, below.

Campbell replied in "Vindex: or the Doctrines of the Strictures Vindicated," 1806, NYF.

STONE. The Works of Barton Warren Stone. Vol. I. Cincinnati: Moore, Wiltach, Keyes & Co. 12mo. 92031

Title from Roorbach, 1858-1861, where it is listed without date.

In November, 1826, Stone began the publication of his "Christian Messenger," a monthly, which he edited with a few intermissions in 1838-1840, 1842, and 1843, until his death in 1844. It was first issued at Georgetown, Ky., and later at Jacksonville, Ill. The College of the Bible, Lexington, Ky., has a good file. See Ware's "Barton Warren Stone," 1932, pp. 216 and 307.

According to Ware, pp. 136-137, Stone wrote "A Compendious View of the Gospel," which formed part 2 of "An Apology for Renouncing the Jurisdiction of the Synod of Kentucky," Lexington, 1804. This elicited from R. H. Bishop in the same year, an "Apology for Calvinism."

Stone was one of the members of the so-called "Presbytery of Springfield." See our no. 89893, vol. 23. Ware states that the "Last Will and Testament" of that body was prepared by Stone, and printed with the "Witnesses' Address" in 1804. For information as to Stone and his controversies, see Bishop's "Outline of the History of the Church in . . . Kentucky," 1824, pp. 130-140, Rusk's "Literature of the Middle Western Frontier," 1925, vol. 1, pp. 222-226, and Ware's "Barton Warren Stone," 1932.

BM., CU., MINNHS., NYP., WLC. + [Same imprint and collation.] 1865.

B., CU., H., NYP., WHS. 92144

The 1844 and later editions omit the initial half title in both volumes; the half title preceding the text and the facsimile of Gansevoort's letter in vol. 1; and the portrait of Red Jacket in vol. 2.

The Albany editions are from the same plates as the preceding editions, with the exception of the title pages. In these editions the engraved title and the half title of the appendix in both volumes, and the dedication leaf in vol. 1 are also omitted. The page numbering of the appendices is changed to make it continuous with the text. An index is added.

According to the Menzies catalogue, 50 copies of the 1864 edition were printed on large paper.

The Munsell catalogue does not list any edition under 1864, but under 1865 it states that 500 copies were printed, 50 of which were on large paper.

For an abridgment, see Border Wars, above.

AAS., B., BA., BM., C., CU., H., HEH., M., MINNHS., NYP., UP., Y.

The preface is signed, W. L. S.

92150

The history has a separate title page: Wyoming, and its History. . . . By William L. Stone. New-York: Wiley & Putnam. 1841.

Relates to the Wyoming Valley in Pennsylvania.

One of the NYP. copies, which has the author's book plate, is printed on heavier paper.

STONE. The Poetry and History of Wyoming: containing Campbell's Gertrude, and the History of Wyoming, from its discovery to the beginning of the present century. By William L. Stone, . . . Second Edition, enlarged. New York: Mark H. Newman. 1844 12mo, pp. xxiii, 398. B., C., H., HSP., NYP., UTEX., WHS. + Third Edition, with an Index. *Albany: J. These editions also contain the biographical sketch of Campbell by Irving.

According to the "Publisher's Note" on the second leaf in the 1864 edition, the "Third Edition" is Newman's remainder of the second edition, with an index and new title page. In all of these issues, the History has a separate title page with Newman's imprint, dated, 1844.

NYP. has two variant issues of the 1864 edition. The first two leaves are from different settings of type. In one issue the title is rubricated and the first two leaves are on heavy, glossy paper.

According to the Field catalogue, 1875, only fifty copies were printed with rubricated titles. One of the NYP. copies has Stone's bookplate, and contains many inserted newspaper clippings, letters, plates and portraits.

STONE. Wyoming, and its History. See Poetry and History of Wyoming, above.

Stone was also the author of the first seven chapters of the "Life and Times of Sir William Johnson," which was completed by his son, William Leete Stone, Jr., and published in two volumes at Albany in 1865. AAS., B., BA., BM., HEH., HSP., M., MINNHS., NYH., NYP., PEAB., WHS., WLC., Y.

W. L. Stone, Jr., in his preface to the 1866 edition of his father's Life and Times of . . . Red Jacket, stated that the original design of the author "contemplated a complete account of the great Iroquois Confederacy, from the discovery to the present time. This history was to be embraced in four distinct works: the Early History of the Iroquois from the discovery to the year 1735; the Life of Sir William Johnson, the Life of Brant, and the Life of Red Jacket." Though the son completed the life of Johnson, and contemplated the preparation of the earlier history, that work was not accomplished.

In NYP. is a pamphlet of seventeen pages containing resolutions, proceedings, testimonials, and extracts, relating to Stone, taken from different sources, without a general title page, the first page having the caption: "Proceedings of the New York Historical Society, upon the Decease of Colonel William L. Stone." The resolutions, etc., of the Society were reprinted from the "Proceedings" for 1844, pp. 160-161. As the last date mentioned in the pamphlet is 1867, that is the earliest possible date of publication. Probably a general cover title is missing.

Minutes of sessions earlier than the above were printed with those of 1845, with the half title: "Minutes of the Stonington Association, from their First Session, 1772 to 1785, as found in manuscript in possession of the Baptist Church, Stonington Borough. Note.—From 1777 to 1780, no record is found of their proceedings." HEH., UTS.

Minutes for other years previous to 1800 have been located as follows: 1790, BM.; 1793 JCB.; 1794, ABHS, BM., UTS.; 1796, BM.

In 1818 the Stonington Baptist Association merged with churches of the Groton Union Conference to form the Stonington Union Association, under the auspices of which the publications were continued. Since 1927 the minutes have been issued in the Connecticut Baptist Annual.

Among later issues of the minutes, the following have an added interest as imprints, those for 1814 being printed in Colchester by Thomas M. Skinner & Co., HEH., UTS.; those for 1831, in Wickford, R. I., by James J. Brenton, UTS.; and those for 1864, in Mystic Bridge by H. G. A. O. Adam, HEH., UTS.
