...That... Preposterous ..Will.. BY L. G. MOBERLY.

(Continued.) "We are poor compared not only to people like Miranda Hume, but even to moderately well-to-do people, dear. I have always tried—I have always tried not to spoil your bright young life by talking of social attempts to make two ends meet, but sometimes their meeting has been very hard work."

"Stella's mother did not, even now, consider it necessary to reveal to her daughter what a heavy load of debt loomed before her, over and above the ordinary expenses of every day. "Poor mother," the girl said gently, stooping quickly to kiss the troubled brow of Mrs. Bedeworth's forehead.

"I wish you would try not to be half-faithful and ridiculous, Stella," he said, "I had taught you not to exaggerate and take absurd views of things. My reason for asking this girl to come and stay with us was quite unconnected with a question of payment."

"Then you mean to take her money?" "I had not suggested doing so either to Miranda or to Mr. Bray," was the cold rejoinder. "I simply invited her here as my guest. But Mr. Bray insisted upon her taking a suitable sum for her maintenance, and she herself, low though her opinion is, had the good taste to say that she could not accept my hospitality without a return."

NEW MODEL FOR LINGERIE BLOUSE. In the accompanying outfit is shown one of the new blouse models, the little plaid skirt down the back in the center front and on the cuffs and stiff turnover collar being one of the newest fancies.

"When I'm married, oh that ain't going to be very easy, the poor little hearse explained with another of those odd laughs, half amused, half pathetic: "if anybody ever thinks they'd like to marry me, I'll come and get my clothes out of you, that I'll safely promise. And I won't wear pink," she added, "not but what I'm partial to pink roses too."

"Your flowers must always be white or the palest green and mauve," she answered; "come to me whenever you want advice, I shall be so pleased to give it you." Miranda looked long and gratefully into her new friend's face. "It ain't very easy, what I'm doing," she said suddenly, putting out her hand to the tall elegant woman; "I'm going to try to be a lady, and I don't seem to know the way to start at it."

"Perhaps at the moment the words that came out of her mouth were busy in their own way to help to mould her future. By one of those strokes of ill luck which the blind goddess will occasionally bestow upon unfortunate mortals, it chanced that upon Miranda's arrival at Mrs. Bedeworth's to pay an afternoon call, his visit was an unexpected one and as he explained to Mrs. Bedeworth, who was sitting alone in the drawing-room, he had only just been sent in for him that same evening. His face fell considerably when he learned that Stella Hume was having tea with her and his chapin would certainly not have diminished had Mrs. Bedeworth found an opportunity to inform him that his suppers prevented his hostess from imparting this item of news to him and he remained of chatting to the other guests in the hope that Stella would presently return."

Sick all the Time with Kidney Trouble 4 BOXES CURED HIM Mr. Whellam was a mighty ill man this spring. He had been ailing for almost a year. Sharp pains in the back and through the hips. Dull headaches and dizzy spells. Appetite poor—nothing seemed to taste right. Finally, an old friend told him about a friend who was in just that condition and who was cured by GIN PILLS. Mr. Whellam tried them. And you would not know him for the same man now. That worried, strained look about the face is gone. His eyes are bright—his complexion rosy. He enjoys what he eats—has gained in weight—and sleeps like a top.

GIN PILLS are sold by dealers everywhere at 50c a box—6c boxes for $3.50.

HAMILTON MacCARTHY Will Address Every Day Club Tonight --- Active Organization Meeting Last Night.

At the Every Day Club last evening Edwin Bonnell sang his brother playing the accompaniment; Mr. Stokes played flute solos, and there were several very interesting impromptu numbers, but the most important business was the formation of a very strong room committee, of more than twenty-five men, to assist the chairman in getting the club down to a good working basis.

The location of the kidneys, close as it is to the small of the back, which is not afforded materially by other organs, renders the detection of kidney trouble a simple matter.

Financial and Commercial COMMENT ON THE NEW YORK MARKET

It is Dull and Narrow--An Enormous Amount of Money Wanted for Railroad Building--There is Some Monetary Improvement.

The market for securities is a dull and narrow one. Speculative sentiment was confined by the hoisting movement. The fact became known yesterday that a syndicate which underwrote the last issue of Erie convertible bonds had been dissolved. The general belief was that the largest part of the issue had proved unsalable, and had been distributed to the members of the syndicate, with some sales as a result of the wide concessions from the price of the underwriting.

TWO MEN DROWNED

Capt. Karney and D. M. Connolly Lost Their Lives in the Wreck of Schooner Horace G. Morse.

The American schooner Horace G. Morse, which was wrecked on Bliss Island in last Saturday night's storm, was in command of Captain John Karney, a native of Parrishboro, who recently made his home at Delaware Breakwater. He and one of the crew, named D. M. Connolly, were drowned.

The Horace G. Morse cleared from this port for Philadelphia on the 18th inst. with 2,200,000 lbs. of fish, equipped by J. H. Stannell & Co., but did not leave this port until some days after on account of the storm along the coast, and having a new gasoline engine installed to heat her stoves. The mate, H. W. Calhoun, who went to Back Bay to see to the schooner's owners here, gives the following details of the disaster:

He said that when the storm came upon the vessel she was in the harbor at Beaver Harbor. Unfortunately he mistook the Bliss Point light for that at Beaver Harbor. He hauled down his after sails to go by the point, and a moment after she struck with great force. The vessel was in a very bad position, with seas breaking over her, and it was seen that she could not stay on her. Mate Calhoun and one sailor, whose name he did not know, agreed to remain on board while Captain Karney and four others got into the boat and made for the land. On the trip to the shore, Captain Karney was knocked overboard by a big wave and drowned.

Both men who stayed on the schooner were swept into the sea, and the schooner perished, but the mate, by clinging to two bunches of laths, was able to reach shore. Captain Karney was very well known to St. John shipping men. He was about forty years of age, and resided at Delaware Breakwater, where he was understood to have had a wife and one child.

The Horace G. Morse was 388 tons register. Under a voyage from Savannah to Amherst last October with pitch pine, she got into trouble at Machias, Me., and had to be towed to her destination. After discharging she came to St. John. Her officers and crew were: John Karney, of Delaware Breakwater, master; H. W. Calhoun, of Maine, mate; George Phillips, of Annapolis, N. S., steward; Michael Damgaard, Denmark; G. J. Jones, Amherst; George Smith, Parrishboro, N. S.,

AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Robinson Opera Company Scores Big Success in "The Wizard of the Nile."

"An instantaneous success" can best describe the production of "The Wizard of the Nile," by the Robinson Opera Company in the Opera House last night, and the excellence of the company and the excellence of the production were heard after the performance.

Personally, I think the Robinson Opera Company, as at present constituted and conducted, and judging from last evening's performance, is the best organized organization heard in St. John since the days of Grand. One can hardly recognize it as the same company which appeared here a couple of seasons ago under the name of the "Theatricals."

It was a most successful evening, and the company was highly appreciated by the audience. The production was a most successful one, and the company was highly appreciated by the audience.

THE SHOW AT KEITH'S

Rattling Good Vaudeville Programme Presented to Large Audiences.

The new bill which opened at Keith's Theatre yesterday drew good houses at both afternoon and evening performances. The show is better in many respects than last week.

Monsieur and Russell's double trapeze act is very much along circus lines, and is certainly very clever work. Mr. Russell's trapeze feats are undoubtedly among the best that have been seen here for many years.

Moran and Weiser present a clever turn in comedy juggling and had no difficulty in making the approval of the house. Mildred Egan sang and danced very acceptably, and Allen and Keller did a comedy sketch.

C. W. Williams is one of the best ventriloquists that have ever visited St. John, and his sketch, introducing a doctor's office, was most amusing.

Cameras and Polly, in their black face sketch, kept the audience in shouts of laughter. Their sketch is bright and crisp and this coupled with good dancing, makes up a rattling good double turn.

The travel pictures were varied and interesting. The sketches were bright and crisp and this coupled with good dancing, makes up a rattling good double turn.

COMING TO CANADA

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 22 (Special)--The governor of Newfoundland has sent the following telegram to Earl Grey: "Captain Snow, of the Lads' Brigade Amateurs Band, is just starting for Ottawa to represent the Dominion in the musical contest."

I feel sure our boys will receive a hearty welcome in the Dominion, and whether victorious or not, they will do credit to this colony, our country and its people. May I hope that the summer will bring us further into colonial unity.

NOTES OF THE STAGE

It is announced that Mr. Forbes Robinson and Miss Gertrude Elliott will appear in Philadelphia for one week only, beginning January 28, when they will appear in a repertoire of extraordinary interest, and consisting of "Caesar and Cleopatra," "The Merchant of Venice," "Mice and Men," and "Hamlet."

The judges have been selected for the Governor-General's Musical and Theatrical Competition, to take place at the Russell Theatre, Ottawa, Jan. 28-29. For the musical competition, there will be one judge only, namely, George White, and for the theatrical competition, the judges will be two, namely, Mrs. George Riggs, better known as "Mrs. Riggs," and Mrs. W. A. Wiggins, and Langdon Elynn Mitchell, the well-known American playwright.

Arrangements are under way for the production of "The Student King" in Germany, with Miss Lina Abrahams in the principal role. The translation of the piece is being made by Herr Karl Schmidt, manager of Henry W. Savage's engagement department.

THE CAPTURE OF COLLINS

Frank Kehoe Tells of the Capture of the Prisoner--Other Witnesses.

HOPEWELL CAPE, Jan. 22--Little important evidence was advanced at yesterday's session of the Collins murder trial. Joseph McCann, Daniel Lynch, Mary Goan and Daniel Buckley, were seen to the prisoner at different points between Fairville and Musquash, Lynch and Goan woman said Collins had shown a gold watch in John Martin's house on Aug. 22. Martin's house is about 3 miles from Musquash.

Charles Leaman swore the prisoner was at his mother's house in Albert county on the night of the murder. He said he saw the prisoner at the house of his mother, who lives about 3 miles from Musquash.

Thomas Heffernan swore he saw the prisoner at a hotel at Musquash on the night of the murder. He said he saw the prisoner at the hotel on the night of the murder.

Charles Kehoe, who lives at Second Falls, Charlevoix county, came to the witness stand at 10 o'clock. He said he saw the prisoner at the house of his mother, who lives about 3 miles from Musquash.

THE NEW BERTH

In connection with the proposed new wharf on the west side, for which the tenders close this week, the question of dredging is one of great importance. The whole of the material from the present work out to the harbor line should be dredged out.

THE MONUMENT

Those citizens who have been interviewed by Mayor Sears and Mr. Hamilton MacCarthy, relative to the Champlain monument, have given them much encouragement and substantial aid. The amount to be raised, however, is quite large, even with a considerable grant from the city and province, which may fairly be expected.

THE NEED FOR SETTLERS

The need of securing desirable settlers from the old country to take the places of Ontario farmers and young men who are going west was set forth very clearly last week by President Macpherson of the Molson's Bank.

There has been in some quarters more or less criticism of Mr. Mayes, the contractor for the dredging of the site of the wharf now under construction, that he did the work in such a way as to delay the wharf building. That this is not fair criticism is clear when it is remembered that the plans were amended late in September and new work not contemplated in the original contract was added.

However, in making a contract for the dredging yet to be done, it should be expressly stipulated that, so that there should be no possibility of criticism. It may be noted, in connection with the talk about delay, that although the site for the present berth has been finished for some time the crabs are not all sunk. It is most important that the dredging for the next berth be undertaken as soon as possible, and the city council should press upon the government the urgency of the case.

A CANADIAN CLUB

Mr. W. E. Earle must have been somewhat surprised himself at the response to his suggestion that a Canadian Club be organized in St. John. All who were present at the meeting in the board of trade rooms favored the plan, and he had assurances of support from many others. The response may be said to be universally favorable.

The development of a broad Canadian spirit is most desirable, and never so much so as in this era of great material growth and growing population. A Canadian Club, conducted on the lines of those of Ottawa, Toronto and Winnipeg, would also do much to bring men together, and break down partisan prejudices.

The reports from Kingston relative to the amount of aid needed for the earthquake sufferers are very conflicting. Apparently, however, the need is not so great as at first supposed. One cynical person remarks that the colored population, who were the chief sufferers, will live better in the next few months than ever before in their lives.

TEACHERS SALARIES

The school system of the city of Kalamazoo, Michigan, was discussed by the Congregational Men's Club of that city last week, and among other things the question of the salaries of teachers was brought up. Supt. Hartwell said:

"There is another side of the question which I believe needs careful thought and that is the financial side. To get the best teachers you have got to pay the prices. The minimum wage of teachers about five years ago was about $32 and the maximum about $40. During the past five years the salaries have increased until the maximum is about $60 a month. But the expenses of the teacher have also greatly increased so that the net salary has not increased so much as it appears. We find it just as hard now to get a teacher at $60 a month as we did five years ago at $40 a month. There are many things which are confronting us in Kalamazoo; the city is growing rapidly and the demands on the school facilities are all the time increasing. It only means that some one has got to pay for it if we have what we need." He spoke of the need of more manual training schools and said that "the manual training in Kalamazoo only had a start but that it must grow if the end which is desired is accomplished." The manual training and the commercial course are two things which had not yet been brought to perfection in that city.

The figures show that the city continues in its expenditure for harbor improvements to make special contributions for the development of national trade. The government should recognize this public spirited action in its treatment of the wharf as presented on behalf of the port.

PRESENTATION TO FR. HOLLAND St. Joseph's Society Remember Their Chaplain at Social Last Evening.

The members of St. Joseph's Society congregated in their rooms last night in large numbers to enjoy a social evening, and the occasion was marked by the society's chaplain, Rev. J. W. Holland, in gold. The presentation was made by the president of the society, John A. Barry, who extended to Fr. Holland the society's best wishes for his happiness during the year of 1907.

In replying the society's chaplain thanked the members for their kind consideration and gave them some good practical advice. During the evening the following programme was enjoyed: Piano selection, F. Hamilton; solo, E. Fitzgerald; solo, J. Keeler; solo, Fred. Joyce; solo, N. Bourque.

During the meeting it was decided that Fr. Hamilton and J. O'Neill would be delegates at a meeting tonight in connection with the forming of a city hockey league.

It was decided to hold an "at home" in the hall in April at which the Father Mathew, St. Rose's and St. Peter's societies will be present.

BOARD OF WORKS At a special meeting of the board of works yesterday afternoon the arbitrator's award on the west side properties was sent to a special committee with the request to draw up a resolution of acceptance. The chairman and Ald. Pickett, Baxter, Willet and Bullock were appointed on the committee. At the suggestion of the mayor the recent heroic action of William Daley from drowning in the harbor will be recognized by the presentation to each of $25 in gold and an address before the full council.

On motion of Ald. Baxter the St. John Railway Company were given permission to their proposed west side barn on condition that they lay out the street to the satisfaction of the director from the barn to the main tracks. The object of the application by the company was understood to be that they desired to move the site of the car barn 30 feet back to give space for switches on their own ground in front instead of in the building.

A private discussion of the authority of the harbor master followed. During the conversation Ald. Bullock in referring to the entrance to the ferry approaches mentioned that the Ludlow had that afternoon burnt one of the cylinder heads in their steering apparatus and would not likely cause any anxiety for some time to come.

Ald. Willet after a whispered consultation with the last speaker said he gathered that the Ludlow had just left the city for another $500. He could not at that board move any resolution but he would give notice that he would move at the next meeting of the council tenders be called for to take the boat off the city's hands. It would, he added amid much laughter, pay the city to give away if anyone would take her.

The matter of allowing stone to be moved from Carleton place was discussed and the harbor master and director were instructed to consider the question of permitting it or not.

FAMINE IN CHINA
Simply Appalling

Four Millions in Actual Want--Area Afflicted is 40,000 Square Miles.

(Victoria Colonist.)

Steamer Shinano Maru, which arrived Wednesday morning from the Orient, brought further advice regarding the appalling famine in Central China. The extent of the famine area is bounded on the south by a line drawn from the sea through Hainan and along Hwai river in North Anhui, on the west by a line drawn from Pochon to Kweichow, north from the eastern coast of Hwai to the sea which bounds the eastern side. The worst conditions are expected to set in after Chinese New Year in mid-February. The population affected is set at ten millions, of which Victery Tuan Fang estimates that four millions are in actual want, mostly starving. The famine area is about 40,000 square miles, embracing between 20 and 30 large walled cities, besides the scattered rural population. The figures given from nine large cities show 800,000 starving refugees have already collected, this taking no count of those who have migrated south or congregated in walled cities outside the famine area. To give some idea of the magnitude of the famine, says all these refugees must perish from starvation unless fed by government or public charity. He estimated 1-1/2 cents will keep each individual alive for one day, the daily expenditure to feed four millions being estimated at $20,000, while the period of relief must be extended over some months. With tens of thousands of starving huddled in the walled cities it is feared epidemics will add to the horrors of famine.

The North China Daily News of Shanghai publishes many telegrams from missionaries in the famine area. A typical one from Houchoufu says: "Half the people actually without provisions. Daily many die; many leave country. Numberless brigandages and murders. No local relief hoped."

In a letter from this city a special correspondent, T. B. Grafton, describes a fatal stampede for relief. He writes: "This morning four women were crushed to death in the rush for the famine relief grain. On arriving at the scene I found great excitement prevailing both among the officials in charge and the bystanders who blocked the street. Soldiers cleared the way, and on entering the famine I found one woman already dead, two badly bruised and one already carried away, said to be dead, although the official in charge said she was still breathing when she was carried out. Later we heard of her death.

"From all I could learn from the excited people, the crush occurred just as the gates were thrown open. The soldiers were utterly unable to stop the rush, some of the leaders (all women at this famine) lost their footing and were crushed by the others rushing in. The fall on the stones probably stunned them and the trampling finished it. And all for what purpose? To save three cash per catty or therabouts on four or five catties of flour."

Among a large number of cablegrams sent by the relief committee seeking aid were the following: To President Roosevelt: "Famine relief committees appeal through you to American people for a ship load of flour." To Messrs. Carlegis and Rockefeller: "Famine relief committee appeal your generous assistance relieve terrible famine prevailing." Similar messages were sent to Lord Mayors of London, Liverpool, Birmingham and Manchester. Sir Robert Hart has detached a number of members of the customs staff who speak Chinese to assist in the distribution of relief.

JAMAICA'S MAN AT THE HELM

Tall, but with a slight stoop that detracts from his height, possessing well-marked, aquiline features and a pair of particularly penetrating eyes, twinkling beneath heavy eyebrows that matched the drooping moustache which conceals all most entirely the firm lines of his mouth, Sir James Alexander Swettenham, Captain General and Governor of Jamaica, has a personality which would attract attention almost anywhere, while his administrative ability is such as peculiarly fits him to the duties of his office. As that which has arisen in Kingston through the catastrophe which has visited the capital of the largest of the British West Indian Islands.

Born in the county of Derbyshire, England, in 1846, and educated at Caius College, Cambridge, Sir James spent all his life in the colonial civil service of Great Britain, first entering it as a writer in Ceylon, where, from 1881 to 1885, he afterwards became auditor-general. From Ceylon he passed to Singapore as colonial secretary, and was acting governor of the Straits Settlements when appointed to governorship of British Guiana in 1901. It was in Great Britain's only colony in South America that the subject of this sketch particularly distinguished himself as an administrator, although he had previously been knighted for colonial services in 1896. At the time of his taking office in Jamaica, Sir James was in the person of Miss Mary Copeland, a daughter of R. P. Copeland, of Kibblesworth Hall, Staffordshire, who was visiting the island. In his marriage Sir James was as usual his dislike for public display, the ceremony being celebrated at a country Jamaican church one day and concluded long before the inhabitants of Kingston knew what was happening.

MAN, SURPRISED TO LEARN HE HAD TWO WIVES, GETS DIVORCE

(Boston Post.)

Endeavoring to unscramble one of the strangest matrimonial snarls yet brought before the attention of a Massachusetts divorce court, in which was involved the happiness of two families and the legitimacy of two innocent children, Judge Aiken late yesterday afternoon granted a divorce to Charles Burns, of South Boston from his first wife, Margaret E. Burns of Dorchester.

A recent case of misunderstanding and fate was told by Burns in court yesterday. Burns was married to his first wife more than 19 years ago, in South Boston. She was a pretty clerk in a department store and he was a healthy, vigorous young man of 33, with the best of his before him. According to the testimony offered by the libellant, the bride got sick of matrimony about ten minutes after the ceremony was performed and disappeared from the house after securing a loan of $20 from the husband.

Burns testified that he had correspondence with his wife after that and finally learned from her sister and mother that she had died in Chicago.

Acting on the theory that his first wife had died, he took for a second wife, 14 years ago, a charming little English woman, who resided in Liverpool, Eng. They lived happily together in England for a year and then removed to Boston, where two children were born to them.

Everything went happily with Burns, and he had almost forgotten the trials and tribulations of his first marriage when his matrimonial snarl was jarred by the information that his first wife, Margaret, was alive and married to a man by the name of Anderson, in Dorchester.

Almost paralyzed by the blow, and wishing, he testified, to test the truth of the statement with his own eyes he sought out the address in Dorchester given him and rang the doorbell. He says, rendered speechless when the door opened and the woman whom he supposed long since dead and buried stood before him.

"I thought you were dead," he at last stammered, as if he had seen a ghost.

"So I thought you were, too," Margaret replied, white to the lips and her eyes bulging.

Burns sought Alexander R. Kelly, who represented him in court yesterday, and the only other witness was a sister of the first wife.

Judge Aiken said he would try to help out matters a little by divorcing Burns from his first wife. Attorney Kelly suggested that it probably would be necessary to have the second marriage annulled and have another marriage take place, so that it would be legalized and the libellant's children made legitimate.

A SCHOOLBOY'S FALL TO DEATH

Lloyd Corkery Killed by Falling in St. Peter's School Grounds Yesterday Afternoon.

While playing about St. Peter's school grounds yesterday afternoon Lloyd, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Corkery, 122 Doughty Avenue, recently died of injuries that resulted in his death last night.

The boy was sliding down the railing that leads up to the steps of the school shortly before 1.30 p. m. when he fell a distance of about five feet and his head struck the ice. When picked up he did not seem to be badly injured, but complained of a headache when he went into school. He was taken home and put to bed, where he appeared to rest very comfortably during the afternoon. About six o'clock, however, he appeared to change in condition and Dr. J. P. McInerney was summoned but before he arrived at 8.21

TO ORGANIZE A CANADIAN CLUB

Meeting Called by W. E. Earle Discusses Plan for St. John.

There was a large gathering of representative citizens at the meeting in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday, called by W. E. Earle to discuss the formation of a Canadian Club, along the lines of the organizations in Ottawa and Toronto. Mr. Earle outlined the plan, purpose and scope of the club, which, in his opinion, could be filled with profit to all by the formation of a similar club in St. John. He stated that the Toronto and Ottawa clubs gave forthrightly luncheons and occasional dinners, at which prominent visitors or well known public men were invited to speak. In this way important issues were dealt with and the members acquired valuable information at first hand. St. John being the winter port, not a few men of note passed through and the club would provide an opportunity for hearing their views on large issues. The club, he thought, should be non-partisan and on broad lines. It was a good thing to have a Canadian club, and well to foster and emphasize the Canadian spirit.

Other speeches were made and all agreed as to the advisability of forming such a club here. It is probable that the organization will be running and the first luncheon announced within a month. The lines speaker may be Chancellor Jones of the U. N. B.

Mayor Sears and Hamilton MacCarthy, the sculptor, came in toward the close of the meeting and both made addresses. Mr. MacCarthy telling of the Ottawa club, with the work of which he is personally familiar. He was sure the organization would be of great value here.

At the conclusion of the speech-making the following signed the roll of membership: Rev. Fr. Gaynor, H. B. Schofield, Rev. Dr. Snaggs, Miles E. Agar, W. J. Mahoney, D. Russell Jack, Dr. Patton, M. Smith, Charles F. Crandall, H. B. LeRoy, J. N. Harvey, Rev. Mr. Hutchinson, R. Patterson, P. D. Walker, M. D., Dr. H. S. Bridges, Ald. Bullock, I. H. Northrup, W. O. Cross, Dr. Melvin, A. M. Belding, Rev. Mr. Kuhnring, Mr. McCready, J. H. McRobbie, Rev. Mr. Graham, Mayor Sears, W. E. Earle, George A. Henderson.

Mr. Earle announced that others who were unable to be present at this first meeting had personally assured him of their interest in the movement and their intention to join. Mr. Earle, Mr. Henderson and others were appointed a committee on organization and will report to a meeting to be held in a few days, at which the business of organization will be completed.

Sinking Sensations in the Stomach

Do They Affect You?

These unpleasant feelings of weakness and collapse indicate that the sympathetic nervous system is out of order. The cause is impairment of nerve tone, arising from failure of the stomach to perform its work.

Acute indigestion follows and the natural result is mental depression, and a feeling of collapse and extreme weakness. The best, because the quickest and surest cure, is Perrozene.

It acts at once upon the digestive and assimilative organs—it fortifies the stomach—makes the blood nourishing, gives it a rich, red color, the best evidence of health.

"For ten years I suffered acutely from stomach troubles," writes Mr. Maxwell Thompson, of Toledo. "I always had a headache and dull feeling after meals. My appetite was poor, and I didn't relish food. It was all due to a weak, defective stomach. I read about Perrozene and ordered six boxes from my druggist. It was no time at all before I felt much better, and when all the Perrozene was used I really took a new lease of life. I am stronger, brighter, and feel more like work than before trying Perrozene. It is a splendid tonic, the best I ever used."

Perrozene is unrivaled in curing stomach ailments, try it and be convinced. Sold by all druggists in 50c. boxes.

Have You Got It? THE LOOSE LEAF SYSTEM

General storekeepers and dry goods merchants cannot afford to ignore the value of a simplified system of book-keeping. No business man should attempt to run his business without what has come to be known as the loose leaf or continuous ledger system. The man who has not yet introduced this system into his business should do it today.

It will be the cheapest investment he ever made. No matter if you look after your own books or employ bookkeepers it will cut down expenses and save time. In this way the system pays for itself over and over again. More general storekeepers have failed through lack of system than from any other cause—Dry Goods Record.

Write us a card or telephone 31A and we will send our expert, who will fully explain this system to you, and install one if you want it.

INTERESTING NEWS BUDGET FROM THE AMERICAN CAPITAL

Chile to Raise Washington Legation to Dignity of Embassy--The Brownville Affair--President Roosevelt's Remarkable Memory--The Panama Canal.

(From our regular correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 17--The Chilean government has decided to raise the Chilean legation in Washington to an embassy and that hereafter the Chilean envoy to this country will be an ambassador instead of a minister. Chile will be the second South American country to send an ambassador here, the first being from Brazil, which country raised its legation to ambassadorial dignity in 1865. But it will not be long before other South American governments follow suit, for there is a race among our Southern Latin-American neighbors to keep up their standing at Washington and diplomats are predicting that Argentina will not long be left outside. The European ambassadors are not enthusiastic over this tendency in South America, for it is a little hard on their pride to be associated on a common level with the men representing powers inferior to England, France, Germany and the other great European governments.

The fight over the Brownville affair goes on in the senate greatly to the obstruction of all other business. Never could man have cried out more sincerely, "Deliver me from my friends, I can protect myself against my enemies," than Senator Foraker a few days ago, when Tillman came to his "defense." To be standing shoulder to shoulder with Senator Tillman was certainly a thing that the Ohio senator never had contemplated, and the spectacle of being encouraged and upheld by the gentlemen from South Carolina was one to regulate the galleries. Temperamentally, personally and by education the men are oil and water to each other and it was just another stroke of Roosevelt luck that Senator Foraker should have his splendidly laid and boldly undertaken plans nullified in such a peculiarly irritating way. Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin, has been a warm defender of the president in the matter and has severely arraigned Senator Tillman for his attack on Mr. Roosevelt. His speech was a defense of the president's order directing the dismissal of the negro soldiers without the formality of a trial or hearing, and concluded by a severe arraignment of Senator Tillman, which brought that gentleman to his feet several times and finally to make an announcement that he would make formal reply to the Wisconsin senator. The whole affair is highly diverting here both to congress and to the public, but the matter will have a chance to see what amount of necessary legislation has been left undone when the Fourth of March concludes the session.

President Roosevelt, whose mental faculties are all remarkable, is the possessor of a really remarkable memory. His recollection of names and faces is the astonishment of those who are closely associated with him, and while he makes no boast of never forgetting a face, he has once seen or a name he has heard, it is well known that he depends on his memory to an extent that few other men in

KING ALCOHOL FOUND GUILTY

Frederick, N. B., Jan. 21--Tennyson Smith closed his temperance campaign here tonight with his celebrated trial of alcohol, which was put on before an audience which packed the Opera House. Needless to say that trial resulted in a verdict of guilty and King Alcohol, which was represented by a bottle of beer, was publicly executed. Warden McFarlane officiated as judge, E. Tennyson Smith and E. A. McKay acted as counsel for the prosecution and defense respectively. Percy Guthrie was clerk of court, and Edwin Ashford constable. The witnesses called were Constable Ashford, Rev. J. C. Berry, Harry Burden, Fred J. Todd, Douglas McConaghy and Coroner McLean. Each told of cases which deprived people of their money and will power. Witness McConaghy, in telling his experience with strong drink took a violent fit and made a dash for the prisoner, overturning the chair on which he was seated. Witness had to be taken in hand by the constable, while Clerk Guthrie fought the prisoner out from among the fistfights. The jury, after an absence of ten minutes, returned a verdict of guilty and the prisoner was immediately executed. The jury was composed of C. A. Stamp, Moore, William Minus, W. J. Osborne, R. L. Black, B. H. Colter, Judson Barker, R. B. Walker, Moses Mitchell and E. Everett. Mr. Smith, in a brief address, announced

Commissioner of Publicity Department Asks for $10,000 to Spend in Advertising.

(Mail and Empire.) Commissioner Thompson, of the Publicity Department, has presented his estimates for 1907 to the board of control, and in connection with them he has given a brief outline of the work done by him last year, and at the same time has stated his views on several of the important questions with which his department is concerned, such as the reclamation of Abbridge's Bay and the housing of workmen. During his term in office Commissioner Thompson has been in negotiation with about 60 firms, representing large iron, textile, wood and other industries in Great Britain, the United States, and Canada. Of these the following have located in the city, largely through Mr. Thompson's representations: Kindel Bed and Mattress Company, St. Louis; Planchette Press Plant Company, New York City; Canada Nut and Bolt Company, Boston; De Saussaure Silk Company, St. Etienne, France; Chemical Laboratories, Limited; Dominion Carriage Works (Toronto Junction), Flint, Mich.; Berlin Electrical Manufacturing Company, Berlin, Ont.; the Dominion Radiator Company. The Sloman Cooper Company, manufacturers of gasoline engines, were considering removing from the city, but have been induced by the commissioner to remain and purchase a site. He has also secured another large industry for the city, but at present he is not at liberty to give the name. Of the remaining firms four have located outside the city and the others up to the present have not chosen locations. The work of the department has not been confined to outside manufacturers. Sixteen firms, representing some of the largest employers of labor in the city, have communicated with Mr. Thompson on business in which they were interested, and have saved considerable time and possibly also money by having an official who would make it his special business to attend to affairs which concerned the industries of the city. It is his intention to make a special effort to secure as many conventions for Toronto as possible, and with this object in view he has asked for $1,750 to be expended on an illustrated booklet and special badges and buttons. In this connection he points out the need of a convention hall, which would accommodate about 1,500 delegates, and suggests that the rebuilding of the pavilion in Allan Garden, which was destroyed by fire, would make it his special business to attend to affairs which concerned the industries of the city.

CHAMPLAIN MONUMENT

(Continued from page 1) The whole amount required is $10,000, so that a little over $4,000 is needed. The Telegraph and Times will be glad to receive and acknowledge contributions. A communication was received yesterday by the Times from Dr. A. A. Stockton, M. P., expressing his best wishes for the success of the Champlain monument and adding to his good wishes the practical feature of a contribution of $10 to the fund. The following have also promised to contribute to the fund, but as yet have not designated the amount:—Mr. J. H. Col. H. H. McLean, H. Austin, C. H. Peters, J. E. Moore, Thomas Gorman, Isaac Northrup, W. McIntyre, Emerson & Fisher, Vassie & Co., Rankine Bros., McAvity & Sons, and Raymond & Doherty. Accompanied by Mayor Sears, the designer of the monument, Hamilton MacCarthy, interviewed a number of prominent men yesterday and the subscriptions printed here, together with many promises, were the results of their efforts. Mr. MacCarthy said that evening that the reception there had been very encouraging. Nowhere had they met with a refusal or a discouraging word in connection with the project. He thought that a number who had promised would contribute large amounts. "There is every reason to believe," he said, "that we will be successful."

GOT SECRETS OF ORANGE LODGE CANADIAN PACIFIC

Workmen Got Into Lodge Room in Sydney and Learned Things. Halifax, N. S., Jan. 21--A suit has been entered in the supreme court in Sydney, in which the Orange order throughout Canada will be more or less interested. The action is brought by the Caledonia Lodge for damages, and is against a building contractor who, they allege, entered their lodge while making alterations to the building. This entrance enabled the workmen, so the Orangemen allege, to gain access to some of the secrets of the order. There has been a civil action already in connection with this matter, and a number of workmen testified that they had learned many of the secrets of the order. "You see, you big, long-legged stiff, you," this to Tenny, "Get in there and get a hit. You haven't made one since July 4. Who the hell are you?" "And so on--until the game was won--and then Jiggs threw his arms around Davis and lashed and danced with them. It was Jiggs' sparring them up that kept them playing and fighting during the blackest days of the season, and to him belongs the major part of the credit for winning that pennant."

HOCKEY

Kenora Capture Stanley Cup. Montreal, Jan. 21--(Special)--Kenora tonight won the second game with the Wanders and takes west the Stanley cup which was brought from Winnipeg five years ago by the Montreal club. The westerners won 8 to 6 tonight after a great battle. At half time Kenora led 4 to 2, but in the second half the Wanders made a desperate rally and the score was six all before they stopped. The Wanders had tied the score with but three minutes to play. The Stuart and Patrick were ruled off for tripping and with them on the fence the westerners put in two penalties, one on the players for tripping and the other on the referee for fouling. The referee was ruled off for fouling and the referee was ruled off for fouling.

SWETTENHAM AND DAVIS Correspondent Says That it Would be Surprising if They Had Not Clashed.

New York, Jan. 21--The action of Governor Swettenham of Jamaica in sending the American warships from Kingston and his extraordinary letter to Admiral Davis have naturally caused a great stir in this country and in England. It is hard for anybody to make even an attempt at excuse for the way in which the Jamaican governor carried out his purpose. In fact the satire and brutal essays in humor in his letter to Davis seem ghastly, under the circumstances.

It was incredible that the British press should promptly disavow, as they have done, Swettenham's coarse message, even if they approve his patriotic desire that Great Britain should take care of her own troubles. But while there can be reasonable defense of the philosophy of the governor, it is quite possible that he had great provocation, at least from his own point of view.

Both men involved, the English governor Swettenham and the American admiral, Davis, and it is safe to say that if two men were selected from all the world with a view to just such a disagreeable complication as has arisen, the choice could not have been better made to achieve the result. In brief they are two pig-headed functionaries of the extra-pompous order, each with an overwhelming idea of his own importance.

Swettenham has been in the British civil service for over forty years. He has held commissions in faraway dependencies, Ceylon, Singapore, Straits Settlements and British Guiana amongst them. His word has been law and he has acquired an imperiousness of manner and an absolute disregard for anybody but Swettenham that he got himself into trouble wherever he went. It has been his wont to disregard for anybody but Swettenham that he got himself into trouble wherever he went.

Rear Admiral Chas. H. Davis, U. S. N., is much the same type of a pompous official. He is a brother-in-law of Senator Lodge and has been pampered in the way of soft "bureau snaps" in Washington. Lodge's influence made him a member of the arbitration commission that investigated the firing on the North Sea trawlers by Rojestvensky's ships. Fourteen years ago he was the government's official representative to supervise the visit of the Infanta Eulalia of Spain to this country. Those who came in contact with him then do not need to be told anything about his personal sense of overwhelming importance. During the Spanish-American war he was in command of the auxiliary Dixie. His war record consists of receiving the surrender of the little undefended town of Ponce, Porto Rico, whose people tumbled over themselves to welcome the Americans. He is a chum of Captain Cowley, U. S. N., President Roosevelt's brother-in-law, who is another "bureau snap" of the aristocratic, bureaucratic naval officer who the navy of this country could do very well without.

THE KNOCKER. The Houston (Texas) Post, in an article dealing with ball players, claims that it is the knocker, the man who is always knocking at everything and everyone, who wins the games. The Post says: "Many wonder why the White Sox won the world's championship and the American league pennant with an inferior team and in the face of disheartening luck. We have asked scores--and not three fans who know the team intimately have picked the man who won the pennant. More than half give the credit--or the major part of it--to game little Billy Sullivan. Many claim Roth's nerve did it. Almost as many credit Jones and many pick Davis. It was Jiggs' Donohue who won the pennant for the American league, and it was that same game, scrapping, fighting

BOWLING

With a score of 123, W. Archibald won last week's prize at Black's bowling alley. This is the second time Mr. Archibald has won. Next week the four-team league will commence a series of games. Mr. Black has offered the use of his alley on some Saturday afternoon to the newspaper men of the city. A contest would prove interesting.

BASE BALL

Fredericton Bowling. Fredericton, Jan. 21--(Special)--John W. Fairley won the pin bowling match at the Queen Hotel alley tonight with a score of 408. The candlepin match at the Arctic Rink was won by H. F. McLeod.

LATE LOCALS

Royal Arcanum meets tonight. Installation of officers. Frank Black and Joe Paul, will race half a mile tonight on Moore's mill pond. The Alexandria Temple of Honor will pay a fraternal visit to the Victoria Temple of Honor this evening. William Edwards is at present at Randolph where he has been engaged to repair and paint a large number of summer resorts at that place. The boy who was seen to take a squirrel skin wallet from the toilet room of the Queen's Hotel last night is advised to return it to the manager of the rink and save trouble. Tonight is "ladies' night" at the Queen's Rollaway. Gentlemen will please remember the usual rules. The rink is comfortably heated. Ladies' night still maintains its popularity. Last Tuesday night a very large crowd was present, and there were 43 more ladies than men. Manager Gorbell, of the Seaman's Mission, informed the Times today that a large number of citizens are averse to the idea of tearing down the old Chalmers house, now used as a women's institute, and he has had applications from a number of well known citizens to place in circulation a petition asking that the historic structure be preserved as a landmark of bygone days in St. John. The Perry C., a three-masted schooner of 287 tons, built at Bass River, N. S. has been purchased by Captain Hawkes, J. W. McAlary and a few others in this city and will arrive here in a short time. The schooner is at present in command of Captain Roberts and is on her way from New York where she arrived on January 4th. She is a new schooner having made but one trip and it is stated that the local men paid $18,000 for her. The Indian town ferry had a rather unpleasant experience last night about nine o'clock. While going across to Pleasant Point a large piece of cedar drift wood got entangled in her rudder and she stopped. The tide was low and the ferry drifted towards the falls. The anchor was dropped and soon the tug Daniel, owned by Taylor Bros. went out and towed her back to her wharf. WANT TO PAY ON THE INSTALLMENT PLAN Sand Point Employes Call On Mayor Sears in Reference to License Fees. The mayor was called upon this morning by a delegation of men who are working at Sand Point, regarding the payment of their license fee of $7.50. The men desired of course to escape paying it altogether if possible, but if this could not be, they wanted to arrange to pay in weekly installments. The mayor told them this could be arranged with the police. The men objected somewhat to the idea of paying the police, as they said they did not like to be arranged with the police. They were informed they could pay the amounts in to the mayor's clerk, but even in this case they would not receive a receipt every time, but would get their license when the full amount had been paid. They will probably arrange to pay in this way. PERSONALS The friends of Mrs. M. J. Wilson, 173 Paradise Row, will be glad to hear that she is able to be out again, after an illness of six weeks. Seely, nee Trueman, will receive her friends at her father's residence, 10 Dufferin Row, West St. John, on Thursday afternoon and Friday afternoon and evening, Jan. 24th and 25th. Miss McBride of Montreal is visiting Mrs. F. A. Peters, 230 Germain street. Mrs. C. H. Jackson will receive her friends Thursday, January 24, afternoon and evening, at 114 Elliott Row. Carriette arrived on the Boston train this morning. W. Pugsley, Jr. and J. D. Pollard Lewis arrived home from Montreal today. SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF At a meeting of the directors of the New Brunswick School for the Deaf, in Lancaster, yesterday afternoon, A. O. Skinner was elected president, O. H. Warwick, vice president and R. T. Hayes, secretary treasurer. O. H. Warwick, J. V. Russell and H. Colby Smith were appointed a finance and building committee and Mrs. McLean, J. Harvey Brown and R. T. Hayes, household and instruction committee. There was a general discussion about the work of the school and it was decided if it were found possible from a financial standpoint, to install electric lighting in the building.

FAVORS THE WARD SYSTEM

Ottawa Journal Comments on Methods of Electing Aldermen—Hamilton's Experiment

(Ottawa Journal) A few years ago Hamilton abolished the system of ward representation in her city council. A change was made to the plan of electing all the aldermen by a vote of the taxpayers at large. The change does not seem to have brought about improvement in Hamilton's civic administration. On the contrary, if outsiders are to judge by reports and comments in the Hamilton papers, civic affairs are less satisfactorily administered there than here. And since the recent election, two of the three Hamilton dailies have declared emphatically that a return to the ward system is desirable. The Journal is rather pleased to note this. We believe in ward representation, so far as the legislative and supervisory aspect of civic representation is concerned. A division of the city into districts, each of its needs and ideas, should ensure a better or at least a more vigorous and emphatic presentation of the various parts of the community than is likely if the city at large elects all the aldermen, in which case a disproportionately large number, possibly from one section, and some others possibly may find comparative neglect. It was hoped in Hamilton that the plan of electing the aldermen from the city at large would result in the successful candidates being well known and successful men to a greater degree than under the ward system. This is said not to have proved the case. The Journal believes that the essential point to keep in view in efforts at civic improvement is that there is a vital difference between the legislative and the administrative functions. For the administrative purposes, you can hardly have authority too concentrated or too direct, so long as proper checks are maintained against its possible abuse. For the legislative purposes, it is not desirable to have inspiration direct from the people and from all classes of people, and all parts of the city council elected on the ward principle, but with a board of control of very limited number of members, elected by the city at large to conduct the executive business of the community seems to us likely to be an improvement on any simple at our Parliaments and Legislatures. The cabinets are the Boards of Control. In a city council on the system in force either in Ottawa or Hamilton, the trouble is that there are twenty-four men all attempting to govern, merely to legislate, and to do so, they are obliged to pass from that stage to a Board of Control which will take over most of the direct management of municipal business, while the council remains effective in a legislative and supervisory capacity, with a veto over any questionable course by controllers.

N. B. TOURIST ASSOCIATION

Expected That Reports at Meeting Tomorrow Will Show a Good Year.

The annual meeting of the New Brunswick Tourist Association will be held in the board of trade rooms tomorrow, (Wednesday) evening at 8 o'clock. The reports of the secretary and treasurer will be received and addresses delivered by well known speakers interested in the work. The reports will show that the past year has been the best in the association's history. The subscription list has been larger and a big increase in the number of game licenses issued and the game secured, will be shown. As usual, at tomorrow's meeting ten members of the executive committee will be chosen, and these will meet a few days later and elect the officers and add to their number the members of the association. A. T. H. Bullock, who has been president of the association for a number of years is retiring from any position, much to the regret of the members. He has spent much of his time and energy in looking after the work and his services will be greatly missed. W. S. Fisher, who has been the treasurer for some time back and has been an active worker since the association was formed, is also retiring from office. Among those who are expected to attend the meeting are: W. H. Allen, of Pennacook, the well known guide and president of the Guide's Association; T. H. Sullivan, proprietor of the Bonny Beaver hotel and G. E. Cheateau, president of the Federation Tourist Association. Several members of the provincial government, the mayor and D. Russell Jack will address the meeting. Representatives of the railway companies will also attend. The provincial government grant this year will be $1,500 instead of $1,000 as in the past and the association is planning for a good year during 1907. It is expected that tourist travel will show a big increase this year and the association will push its work even more energetically than in the past. Tomorrow's meeting will be open to all who are in any way interested in the work of the association.
