CARDINAL LOGUE DENOUNCES AN ASSASSINATION

Belfast, Aug. 29.—Cardinal Logue, Primate of Ireland, in a vigorous letter read in the Dundalk churches today, denounces impartially the shooting of Constable Brennan, who was assassinated at Dundalk a week ago by masked men and reprisals by the crown forces recently in Southern Ireland. He says: "The poor victim I know to have been a quiet, upright man who never gave offense to anyone in the discharge of his duties."

Am I to be told that this is an act of war? That it is lawful to shoot at sight anyone wearing a policeman's uniform and honestly discharging a policeman's duty? I prefer to call it by its true name—cold, deliberate, willful murder. Hence, anyone who plans, encourages, abets or even sympathizes with such an act participates in the guilt before God."

ASSASSINATION OF CZAR CONFIRMED

London, Aug. 29.—All possible doubts that former Emperor Nicholas of Russia and his family were assassinated in the basement of their prison house at Ekaterinburg, on the night of July 16, 1918, seem to be dispelled by the accounts of two independent investigators which are published here. One is printed by the London Times and was written by its former Petrograd correspondent, Robert Wilton. The other appears in the magazine, Nineteenth Century and After, and is from the pen of Capt. Francis McCullagh of the army, who, before the war, was a widely known newspaper correspondent. Both speak several weeks at Ekaterinburg and talked with natives and soldiers who witnessed the affair through the win-

CAR STRUCK CHILDREN.

A car driven by John Portons struck two little girls in Union street on Saturday afternoon at 2.15, knocking them down. The little girls were Rhoda Epstein, aged nine years, and her little sister, Esther, aged three years. The older girl suffered severe bruises and had her face badly cut, while her little sister's face was bruised and she was badly shaken up. Luckily, no bones were broken and Dr. Addy, who was summoned, said that neither of them had suffered any serious injury, although both had received a severe shock to their nervous system. Eye-witnesses of the accident said that it appeared to be quite accidental.

TRUST THE PEOPLE.

Canada should be regarded by the Saturday Evening Post as more or less of a political paradise. Not only goes that journal see great and commanding merits in the two-party system, but it regards as equally meritorious the United States system under which a cabinet remains in power four years, regardless of popular sentiment. How much more desirable should be the present Canadian system, under which one cabinet may succeed another without the formality of consulting the people. The Post finds arguments to support its views concerning the four-year cabinet in present conditions in Europe, where in certain countries with many parties "the governments have literally spent more time in hunting cabinets than in using them." A little while ago, it says, five European countries were without cabinets, because the block system, where there are many parties, prevents even a strong coalition, and one cabinet after another was quickly defeated by some new combination. The inevitable result was the holding up of important legislation, and frequent changes of policy. The cabinets were responsible to the legislative bodies, whereas in the United States the cabinet is responsible only to the executive. Of course in Canada the cabinet is responsible to parliament, but by a shrewd manipulation, which cannot but excite the admiration of the Post, a new cabinet has been formed and there is no political disturbance or "policy of legislation." But why not go a step further and make cabinets perpetual? Why give the people a vote at all?

The Canadian Courier has also been impressed by the troubles in Europe and the East. As the Saturday Evening Post finds comfort at home so does the Canadian Journal, which expresses the hope that "Hon. Mr. Meighen will not have to go to the country with his new cabinet until people in general get weary of turning out governments just to be doing it." This is the doctrine of the Conservative, who fears change of any sort. There is always friction in a transition period, but in the end the people may be trusted. In the European countries, to which the Saturday Evening Post refers, the people are facing new conditions and problems, and adjusting themselves to these by slow degrees, making, no doubt, many blunders in the process. But they are not going back. They may go too fast at times, or get on the main track, but they will go through. They may be trusted to find a system of government more democratic and quite as effective as prevails under the two-party system. Political systems are in the melting pot. The people of today and of the future will be found quite as competent to advance along the lines of democratic government as were those of the past. The people may be trusted, and politicians who refuse to trust them or evade their judgment will in due time discover their mistake.

WHY GET AN EDUCATION?

There is an impressive lesson for the parents of girls and for the public at large in some condensed advertisements in a recent issue of the Daily Telegraph. One of these calls for a first or second class female teacher, offering $60 per month, and adding that her board would cost $4.75 per week. Another calls for a cook, and offers $60 per month, in addition to board. Thus the cook would have a clear financial advantage over the teacher of more than $10. per month. Another advertisement calls for a second class female teacher at $60 per month, or after paying board, about $20 per month less than the cook's salary. Still another advertisement is for a third class female teacher for a small district at $350 a year, with board reasonable. For a table maid in a suburban house $400 and board is offered, with free railway tickets to the city. Why get an education? It is not at all surprising that this question is being asked by school teachers of both sexes, and by the majority of those who are engaged in other than manual labor; for there is as much or more difference between the pay of the unskilled workman and the average school teacher or clerk than is shown in the cases cited. Since the earning of enough money to ensure a fairly good standard of living is a first essential, there must either be a readjustment of parents, and especially ignorant parents, will come to regard education as a handicap; and people will have little inducement to seek more than the rudiments of learning, unless along purely vocational lines designed to increase their earning capacity.

THE BLUEBERRY.

Why should an acre which produces an immense crop of blueberries be called a barren? The name is a misnomer. Prolific is the word to describe the source of delectable pies, dumplings and preserves. Of course there are blueberries and blueberries. There are the field variety, the bog variety and the hill or mountain variety. The last named has the finest flavor. Then there are the small, round berry, the large round, the elongated, and the almost black variety which some call the huckleberry, and whose flavor is altogether delicious. On the Nerepis road one day recently, I man trudged along with a large reticule filled with blueberries, strapped like a knapsack on his back, and in each hand a large pail full to the brim. Others with full pails were seen. In a short, side road beside the red bridge near Blagden, which marks the boundary between Kings and Queens counties, three handsome cars were parked. There were also a hayrick and other vehicles in the neighborhood. The occupants of these were out on the Nerepis hills, to return presently with pails and baskets of berries, and perhaps a coat of tan for the sun shines hot on those rocky hills, up which, and through deep ravines one must go to get the best fruit. It was very easy to gather a large pail of berries in three hours. But there was an added pleasure in viewing scenery than which none more picturesque may be found in New Brunswick. Whether it be the lovely little valley of the Nerepis, the bold front of Eagle Rock and the cliffs opposite, the deep and narrow gorge through which the railway runs, the tumbled ledges of rock on the blueberry hills, or the view one gets from them down the valley to Grand Bay and Bear's Head, the eye is enchanted by the picture. Many hundreds of people have viewed it in recent weeks, for not only has the rich crop of blueberries attracted them from the country for many miles, but others from St. John and suburban points to Westfield have gone in their cars to spend a happy day and bring home the fruits of their pleasant labor. All that country behind the Nerepis has blueberry fields, and good picking grounds is said to be found all over the peninsula from the coast to the coast, and when so pleasant an outing can be had, it is not surprising that the motor car this year has found its way in greatly increased numbers to the base of the Nerepis hills.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

Noting the fact that the Union Theological Seminary has founded an assistant professorship to teach students for the ministry how to play, Leslie's Weekly observes that "the church has a wonderful opportunity and responsibility in this connection." How heartening it would be for the Improvement Leagues in St. John if they had the active support of the churches and their pastors; and what an impetus it would give to clean athletics. Leslie's Weekly further observes that "the church will enter a new era when pastors are competent to organize and direct the play life of their parishes."

It is announced that Dalhousie University proposes to establish a commerce course. Such a course would be of great practical value to students aiming to qualify for a successful business career. The knowledge gained and the training brings results in an age when fit, in preparation for the real test of actual business along any chosen line. In commerce as in mechanics, specialized training brings results in an age when competition is so keen. He who is to achieve marked success must have a wide general knowledge of principles and conditions governing the business world.

The Maritime Merchant fears that the promoter of the scheme to develop the oil shales of Pictou county is again on the ground and that developments are anticipated. The Merchant regards this as good news, and says: "We have about come to the time when the world will have to depend very largely upon shales for its oil supply." Oil shales are profitably developed in Scotland and in some parts of the United States. New Brunswick has enormous deposits. When the day of development comes here, these shales will be the basis of a great industry. The day of oil wells is passing next will come the shales.

"Observer," in the Maritime Merchant, wonders if the sailing ship will not have another chance, and become far less of a novelty in Halifax and St. John harbors than she is today. He is moved to speculate along this line by the price of coal. Not so long ago bunker coal could be got at $2. Now it is $12. Why not freight ships, with auxiliary motors for the navigation of canals, rivers and narrow channels? For many decades the delay would not be a very serious matter, and there would be saving in cost of transportation. When one thinks of it, the suggestion does not seem at all unreasonable.

At the morning service yesterday in the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. J. A. Morrison preached a forceful sermon on child welfare work, and during the course of his address stated that the present provincial government, through its inauguration of a public health department, is placing New Brunswick in a premier place among the Canadian provinces. Dr. Morrison also paid a glowing tribute to Dr. W. F. Roberts, minister of health, who, he said, was doing a work of incalculable benefit to future generations.

At St. John the Baptist mission church yesterday, Rev. Father Lindsay of Valfield, Quebec, who was the guest of Rev. J. V. Young, rector of the church, was the celebrant at the high celebration of the Holy Eucharist. The sacring bell

RED YEARS.

It is a strange and savage time; there is a carnival of crime, that never stops or rests; the slayer to his victim wends, and voters kill their lady friends and ship them off in chests. Assassinations fill the land; we find dead gentles in every hand, they clutter up the news, and prelers and detectives toil, and vainly burn the midnight oil to thrash out stacks of clews. Here where Pacific billows roar—three hundred guys, were washed ashore within two weeks or one; and inland other chaps were slain, and no one offered to explain just why the deeds were done. These heathen crimes we all abhor are but the outcome of the war, the years of nature's cheapest thing is stuff called human life. For years we talked of doom and death and every time we drew a breath it seemed to taste of gore; we read of dead men piled in ricks, and all the boats upon the Styx were freighted corpses o'er. The peoples all have learned to slay, and now, if some one's in their way, they see that some one's; they may as well see time again when gent's won't wait their fellowmen, as they would wait the flies!

THE SELKIRK SETTLERS.

Lord Selkirk's settlers in the Canadian North West, who had arrived there in 1812 and 1813, in the little colony at Red River met with frigid reception from parts of the north. The North West Traders were the controlling power in the district, the Hudson's Bay Co. were, of course, their friends. The Indians were silent spectators under the circumstances, and they took their side to favor at the time. But on the whole they were friendly to the newcomers. The winter of 1812-13 and the following year were spent at Pembina, a point about sixty miles farther up the Red River than the settlement. The land was fairly well wooded and so gave them plenty of fuel but it prevented the vast herds of buffalo from coming within their reach and so cut off one source of abundant food. The settlers were often forced to live on pemmican which he gave the name of Fort Daer—after one of the titles Lord Selkirk bore. This gave shelter and protection to the little band of colonists. But their life there was a hard one. The buffalo was speedier than the quickest horse and the colony possessed no horses. So the only way they could get a buffalo for meat was by the painful process of stalking an animal in the deep snow. Even this was made more difficult by the fact that the North West Traders and the Indians were often bribed to drive the buffalo out of the country and into the colony of from all buffalo meat cut the colony of from all buffalo meat. So great was the scarcity of food at times that the settlers of Scottish and Irish birth were often forced to live on the roots of a wild parsnip that grew in the district. But in 1814 conditions looked brighter, for the colony was able to sow small quantities of wheat in the fields which they had prepared with Rastus had indulged in a dice game that had ended in a free-for-all cycling scrap. "Why didn't you run away when you saw trouble coming?" one of Rastus's white acquaintances inquired.

"Boss, Ah did run away," asserted Rastus.

"Then you didn't run fast enough. I take it the acquaintance."

"Yes, sah, I done run fast enough 'till I received the acquaintance."

"I calculate I have," said the countryman.

"How do you sell it, by the glass or the spoonful?" asked Freshlight.

"Well, that all depends, mister," was the calm reply. "Mostly I sell it by the day, but when some gold-darned jackass from the city comes along and wants it by the glass, I generally accommodate him. How many glasses do you want?"

SATURDAY NIGHT DANCES.

With a special orchestra from the city and a large number of visitors attending, the Saturday night dance of the Renforth Outing Association at the club-house at the week-end was a very successful one. The music was particularly good and it received the enthusiastic applause of the dancers, who were reluctant to go when the programme was completed. The Fair Vale Outing Club held its regular Saturday night dance in the club rooms, music being furnished by an orchestra from the city.

It is announced in Paris that Sarah Bernhardt is ill and not able to begin a London engagement which was to begin next week.

Ex-Soldiers Returned to Civil Ways Yearn for Excitement of Battlefield.

Recently the following advertisement appeared in the London Daily News: "Young ex-soldier, three times wounded, wish his life for £2000—medical of life and all alone—Write Box 9944, 67 Fleet street, E. C. The News tells the story of the advertiser: "The writer of the above advertisement is an ex-stretcher bearer of the A. M. C. He was awarded the Military Medal in 1916 at Martiniup and later at Ypres in 1917. He won a bar to the medal for bravery in assisting his captain. "They were together when a shell burst close to them, wounding both severely. The stretcher-bearer, though wounded in four places and weak from loss of blood, helped his officer to safety. "He was in a hospital with his wounds and shell shock, he found himself discharged with a 50 per cent disability pension, which was later reduced to 40 per cent, making $6 a week. "He was recommended to try light outdoor work, and the local sub-committee suggested his becoming a groom. But as the work of a groom is the reserve of light, he accepted the suggestion of a relative in the R. A. F. and became a civilian clerk there. "I am paid $1 a week by them," he told the Daily News representative yesterday, "and I am ashamed to take it. "I have been in the R. A. F. for two weeks past, we have not done a stroke. "I find the enforced idleness telling on me, and I can stand it. "I was in France, although I had been told it was aseptic and would never see France. I found the hardship and the danger brought out the best there was in me. I paid rise to the occasion but not more. "I want a chance, and that's made me send along this advertisement. Perhaps some fine firm might want someone for a particularly risky job. Whatever it is, I'm ready!"

LIBERAL LEADER

AT BROCKVILLE

Brockville, Ont., Aug. 28—Addressing an open air meeting held under the auspices of the Leeds and Brockville Liberal assembly Saturday afternoon, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal opposition in the federal house, made a strong bid for the rallying of farmers and labor to the ranks of the Liberal party on the plea that it would be better for democratic forces of all classes and shades of opinion to unite against what he termed reactionary Toryism.

In laying down the Liberal platform Mr. King stressed his claim that the Liberal party alone stands for the right of the people to govern themselves. He contended that at the present time there is neither a representative parliament nor a responsible ministry.

At the Central Liberal play grounds, where the teachers are the Misses Tentovsky and McDade, there was a novelty rally-bug drill, flag drills, circle games and other stunts. Any Williams won the prize for general efficiency. Through the kindness of Miss Heffer, general superintendent of the play grounds, the first prize for general proficiency was given in each of the six grounds. She will have charge of the Playgrounds Association exhibit at the exhibition. She will be assisted by Miss Edna Colwell.

ENJOYED OTTING

The "Golden Rule" class of the Pleasant Point Sunday school and their teacher, Miss Ella Hamm, enjoyed their class picnic at Seaside Park last week. A good time was spent by all, the boys especially enjoying the supper on the beach.

It is announced in Paris that Sarah Bernhardt is ill and not able to begin a London engagement which was to begin next week.

MAKING NEW MOVE FOR LOWER RENTS

Effort Will Be Made in Montreal to Establish Body Like Mayor's Committee in New York.

(Montreal Gazette.)

With a view to obtaining moderate rents, a movement has been set on foot for the formation of a civic committee somewhat similar to the Mayor's Committee in New York City.

Mr. Kenneth Mayer, formerly chief legal counsel of the New York Committee, and now a member of that body, was in Montreal yesterday and had a lengthy conference with John MacNaughton, president and legal counsel of the Tenants' Protective Association of this city.

As a result of this conference, efforts will be made to have a civic committee of prominent men appointed. Mr. Mayer will return to Montreal at an early date, when it is expected that he will address a number of meetings of business bodies, including the Civic Improvement League.

When interviewed by a Gazette representative, Mr. Mayer grew very enthusiastic as to the results achieved by the committee of which he was the legal adviser. In outlining the scope of the committee he declared that Mayor John F. Hyland, of New York, had appointed the committee on rent profiteering on April 14th, 1919, when the seriousness of the housing problem in that city began to manifest itself.

Many Cases Settled.

Since that date the committee has handled and disposed of 100,000 cases, settling approximately 87,000 cases, exclusive of 1,000 cases which are presently pending. The committee was a purely voluntary one, and had been appointed because of necessity.

There was no law, ordinance or statute authorizing the creation of such a body, and the work of the committee was accomplished by means of the power and influence of the press and the support of the Bench and Bar of New York, and the co-operation of the various other municipal departments of New York city.

The New York committee has spacious offices in the New York municipal building, where victims of the rent profiteers gather daily seeking the committee's advice, and availing themselves of the aid of the committee's lawyers, all of which is rendered gratuitously to the residents.

Committees similar to Mayor Hyland's committee have been organized in other American cities, patterning their work after the New York group.

During his stay in the city, Mr. Mayer was the guest of Mr. MacNaughton at the Old Colony Club, Windsor Hotel.

YESTERDAY IN CITY CHURCHES

Professor Allen Hobbs, M. A., Ph. D., of Chicago, was in the city over the week-end visiting his sister, Mrs. W. R. Robinson, and on Sunday delivered a powerful address on the subject of child welfare in the Ludlow street Baptist church. During his sermon he asked that the test of a city's civilization is the way in which it treats its children, but the church has fallen down in her own specialty and parental ownership is going by the board. Professor Hobbs is an eloquent speaker and has a distinguished career, occupying the chair of sociology in Chicago University and in Cabot College, Miss. He is M. A. of the University of New Brunswick, Ph. D. of Chicago, and B. D. of Princeton University. He is also an official in many important organizations.

Rev. J. A. MacKeigan of St. David's church, conducted the Sunday service yesterday in Fair Vale. Miss Blenda Thompson rendered a solo during the service.

Rev. Dr. Liddy, of Mount Allison College, occupied the pulpit of the Carleton Methodist church at both services in the absence of Rev. J. Heaney, who is spending his vacation in Prince Edward Island.

At St. David's Presbyterian church Rev. J. A. MacKeigan conducted the services for the first time since his return from his home in Cape Breton where he has spent his summer holidays.

Rev. David Hutchinson, pastor of the Main street Baptist church, preached to large congregations and his people welcomed him after an absence of six weeks spent in Winnipeg visiting his son.

RECENT WEDDINGS

A wedding of much local interest was solemnized on Saturday, August 28, in the Ludlow street Baptist church, West St. John, when Miss Ermie Gertrude Cochrane was united in marriage to Hansen A. Hamilton, both of West St. John. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Robinson, pastor of the church, of which both bride and bridegroom are valued members. The bride was becomingly gowned in a traveling suit of navy blue serge with hat to match. She was given away by her uncle, Andrew Harned. The wedding march was played by Miss M. E. Mallin. The church was artistically decorated with autumn flowers. The bride was the recipient of many valuable gifts; among them were a silver cake basket from the Sunday school, where she is a valued teacher; an umbrella stand from the Young People's Society, of which she is secretary. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a substantial check. The groom received a silk umbrella from the men's Bible class and a purse of gold from the Union Foundry Company, where he is a popular employee. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton left for a short wedding tour of the provinces, after which they will reside at 88 Ludlow street, West End.

At Summersville, N. B., on Thursday last, Rev. E. Ramsay united in marriage Ethel M. Hughes of that place and Walter R. Barlow of this city. Miss Jean Hughes, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow will reside in St. John.

Shoots at Man, Kills Himself

Woodstock, Aug. 29.—Benjamin Bull, of River de Chute, after attempting to shoot a man, committed suicide recently at that place. Bull had been undergoing treatment in the provincial hospital in Lancaster and was discharged several weeks ago. He was apparently normal for a time until one day he seized a shotgun and attempted to shoot a young man who was working on the Bull premises. The shots went wide. Then the unfortunate man turned the weapon on himself and with a bent stick was able to push the trigger, a bullet entering his body and causing instant death. He was a highly respected resident.

LIQUOR IN CUSTODY, DRIVERS ARE FINED

The sixty cases of liquor which were seized near Lepreau on Friday night by Inspectors Merryfield and White have been removed to a place of safety and the Reo truck which was carrying the liquor is now in the yard next the police station. The two occupants of the truck, Howard McCurdy and E. J. Hyatt, on whom liquor was found, besides that in the truck, were taken to St. Stephen on Saturday by Merryfield and were tried before Magistrate Vroom, who fined McCurdy $150 and costs, while Hyatt was fined $80 and costs.

E. J. Hyatt, who was brought before Magistrate Vroom, pleaded guilty to the charge of having liquor in his possession other than in his private dwelling and was fined $80 and costs, while McCurdy was fined $150 and costs. The sixty cases of liquor which were being transported by the liquor inspectors were being transferred by a licensed wholesale vendor of this city to one of the retail vendors at Milltown, Mrs. Mary Haley.

MAY CONTINUE AIR FLIGHT TO COAST

Ottawa, Aug. 29.—The Halifax-Ottawa hydroplane flight, probably the longest of flights yet tried in Canada ended satisfactorily Saturday evening about 7 o'clock when Captain H. Allen Wilson, of Montreal, the pilot, made a graceful landing on the Ottawa river at Rockcliffe.

Captain Wilson stated that the trip was a safe and pleasant one. The weather generally was favorable.

While the planned flight was only from Halifax to Ottawa, it is now stated that in a short time the trip may be continued further west. Some officials believe that the trip may ultimately be extended through to Victoria (B. C.). It is stated that the matter is now before the air board and that a decision to cross the country may be reached in a day or two.

ADDRESS AND PURSE FOR THEIR PASTOR

The parishioners of St. John the Baptist church here presented the Most Blessed Sacrament, last evening, through their spokesman, Thomas L. Killen, presented an illuminated address and a purse to their pastor, Rev. A. W. Meahan, D.D., who returned last week from Boston, after having spent considerable time in hospital there undergoing treatment for his illness. The address expressed the pleasure of the parishioners at having their pastor among them again and able to carry on his priestly duties. It expressed also the hope that he would soon be restored to his old time vigor and health and paid a glowing tribute to his seal for the church and the example which he had always been to his flock.

After Mr. Killen had read the address and presented the purse Father Meahan replied, thanking the congregation for their kindly thought and expressing his surprise and pleasure at being so remembered after a short absence. He afterward celebrated Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Vespers was celebrated by Rev. Raymond McCarthy.

The members of the committee whose names were signed to the address on behalf of the congregation were Thomas L. Killen, Daniel B. Griffith and John E. Elmore.

JUMPS FROM CAR

Newcastle, Aug. 29.—Mrs. John Aylward, wife of the manager of the Lonsbury Company of Blackville, lies at the Miramichi hospital here with a fractured skull and internal injuries, and little hope is held for her recovery. Mrs. Aylward, while motoring with her husband and two children to Fredericton, jumped from the car while it was going at the rate of about twenty-five miles an hour. The fall occurred near her home. Mrs. Aylward was formerly Miss Murphy, of Barnaby River.

CLOSING OF THE A. M. E. CONFERENCE

Details of Proceedings at Yarmouth Meetings — Rev. Claude A. Stewart at St. John.

On Friday, Aug. 20, 1920, 10.30 a. m. the annual conference of the A. M. E. church re-assembled at Yarmouth and Rev. E. J. C. Macpherson conducted devotional service. The bishop made some helpful remarks, and emphasized the need of earnest worship in the churches. The bishop's talk was well received. It was followed by a short address on ecclesiastical law by the presiding elder. The minutes of the former session were adopted. After the distribution of certificates to the registration committee, and the singing of the doxology the benediction brought the session to a close.

At 8 p. m. the session was opened by the bishop. The disciplinary questions asked during which Rev. W. B. Hill was placed on the supernumerary list as a leaver, so to speak. On resolution of the presiding elder, Rev. J. H. Layton, the conference endorsed the Union of the A. M. E. churches in the province. The education sermon was preached by Rev. E. J. C. Macpherson. He spoke on the woods, and emphasized the need of location in the threefold departments of man's nature, i. e., the physical, intellectual and spiritual. He pleaded that it should aspire to greater efficiency in each department.

The bishop made some forceful remarks on race deficiency and efficiency, and that they did. An offering to the amount of $7.50 was taken up. On Saturday morning the bishop gave practical and interesting lecture on ecclesiastical law, putting stress on the necessity of the ministers adhering closely to the rules of African Methodism.

Various committees reported, and reports were received and adopted. Among the reports brought in was that on Sunday schools. The bishop read out the need of installing into the system the church's own curriculum, thereby building them up in their doctrines.

In the afternoon the women's mission meeting was opened by the presiding elder, Mrs. Cecil A. Stewart. The jubilee solo was sung by Mrs. Donagan. The president then delivered her address, followed by a duet by Mrs. A. Raynor and Mrs. J. Allen. The bishop then gave a forceful address on the subject of "The Women's Mission."

After the customary resolutions were read and passed, the conference adjourned sine die.

HAVE TO GIVE UP

Mrs. Kenny Had Suffered Eight Years Before Taking Tanlac—Is Now Well and Happy.

"I'll never stop praising Tanlac since it's helped me so much and I just feel like going out and telling everybody about it," declared Mrs. O. R. Kenny of 75 Dresden Row, Halifax (N.S.). "For the past eight years I have suffered dreadfully with a very bad case of stomach trouble and chronic indigestion. My appetite is so poor that I don't think I ate a good hearty meal. The little bits of food on my stomach and caused gas to press up into my stomach and throat until I could hardly breathe. I had awful headaches that kept me confined to my bed for days at a time, and left me in a terribly weakened condition. At night I was so nervous that I had awful headaches all the time, and I could scarcely sleep, and would just get up and walk the floor. When morning came I had no energy to do my housework, and I thought I was going to have to give up altogether as I was getting worse all the time in spite of everything I could do.

"In my search for something to help me I got a bottle of Tanlac one day, and it gave me so much relief I kept on taking it until I had finished my seventh bottle and my troubles had disappeared. My appetite is just splendid, and I no longer suffer from indigestion or gas on my stomach. My breathing is free and easy, and I never have a sign of a headache. At night I sleep like a child, and I've regained all my strength and energy so that my housework is a real pleasure to me. I've also gained ten pounds in weight, and am feeling just fine in every way. Tanlac is simply the grandest medicine I've ever taken, and I hope others suffering like I did will try it."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by the Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro; by G. W. McKay, Beaver Harbor; Willard J. Caldwell, Evans; C. V. Parsons, Highland; John F. Meagher, Debec; O. D. Hanson, Lepreau; E. L. Conley, Leonardville; N. H. Johnson, Clarendon; and by the leading druggists in every town.—(Advt.)

BIG HALIFAX PAGEANT

Halifax, Aug. 29.—Hardly a more impressive tribute could have been paid to the Canadian Red Cross Society and the importance and far-reaching effects of its invaluable service toward the public world than the gathering this afternoon of thousands of Halifaxians on the slope of Citadel Hill, where there was a service of almost two hours' duration. The speakers were Lieut.-Governor Grant and Major-General Foster.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 30.—Pulp reserves in northeastern Manitoba will remain undeveloped until means of transportation are established, said F. H. He reports a good quality of spruce which would make excellent pulp, but there is no outlet for the finished product, the rivers being navigable except by canoe.

C., Aug. 30.—The general McArthur rose was formally chosen as the official bloom for Vancouver at a joint meeting of committees representing the board of park commissioners and the Kiwanis Club, which has in hand an ambitious scheme for making Vancouver the rose city of the Pacific coast. The "General McArthur" is a very hardy variety, and has a deep, carmine bloom, almost cardinal. Besides being distinctive it will combine well with any other flower or decoration.

"Pip-Pip, Toot-Toot, Good-Bye-ee"

Letters have been received from London and New York in which the phrase "Pip-Pip, Toot-Toot, Good-Bye-ee" is mentioned. This catchy song has been "sung" on the streets of London and New York. Considerable curiosity has been aroused among the Londoners as to the origin of the phrase. London music dealers report the receipt of a sample copy. The snappy, irresistible melody of the ditty has a wealth of close harmonies, and makes a novelty song that is something new for America. It will, no doubt, be very popular with all the boys who served overseas. The song is "Pip-Pip, Toot-Toot, Good-Bye-ee."

FASHIONS IN SHOES.
Shoes are keeping step with the fall fashions for all that is bizarre, exotic and ornate. Retailers say that never before have they displayed such novel and elaborate styles as their Fifth Avenue windows are showing, says a New York despatch. Beads, silver-topped nailheads, golden buckles, chemic embroidery, hand-painting, cut-work patterns, and insets work their festive art upon milady's boots and pumps. "Going up" is the season's slogan, for the high boots are the most in vogue. These designs are of the floor de lais, ten-inch height seems to be the favorite. These come in black, taupe, golden-brown and blue. The latter color is the season's innovation and is seen everywhere. An electric and turquoise blue reigns in satin and kid evening pumps, and a mid-night blue abounds in the street boots.

Vamps are long, three inches plus being the average, and heels are the kid-covered Louis or the regular military. The very new touch, however, is given by the variety of designs and trimmings that are put upon the boots. Cut-work effects in designs of the floor de lais, the swastika, or a geometrical pattern, run riot over practically all of the high boots. These designs are placed across the toe, run ring-round-roy at the top of the boot and down the side of the lacing, or inset in the middle of the upper.

For the very modest, albeit up-to-date, the simple woman there are insets of contrasting material under the cut-out pattern. Thus, a mouse colored kid boot with a fleur de lis pattern has insets of taupe under the apertures. The oriental case is leading very deely boots with gold and silver cloths, brocades and beaded tips of many colors. The eastern flock of color is given in the low shoes, the one strap generally being of contrasting leather or suede, conspicuously adorned. The leg strap is worn over practically all of the broad new pumps. This strap is of narrow leather which closes about the calf from its diagonal fastening to the pump.

SCHOOL AFFAIR.

How Redford's Ship Could Be Made Self-Supporting.
The Bradford, England, Education Authority is not receiving much encouragement from the Board of Education in regard to its scheme for acquiring a ship to take school children for educational cruises in various parts of the world, but most of the members of the city council strongly support it. So strong is the support that the scheme has won that there is now no doubt about its being proceeded with.

Pal Moran's Victory.
East Chicago, Ind., Aug. 30.—Pal Moran of New Orleans has made the better of Charley White of Chicago, in a 10-round bout here on Saturday night. Moran carried the fight to White all the way and after a furious exchange in the final round, White fell into a clinch to which Moran agreed on Saturday. Moran carried a good exhibition of fighting, but Moran's superior footwork carried him out of danger.

WATCH YOUR GUMS—BLEEDING A SIGN OF TROUBLE

Medical science knows how serious is the sign of bleeding gums. For it knows that tender and bleeding gums are the forerunners of Pyorrhea, that dread disease which afflicts four out of five people over 40 years of age. If the disease is unchecked, the gum-line recedes, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the Pyorrhea poisons generated at their base—poisons which seep into the system and wreck the health. They cause rheumatism, nervous disorders, anaemia, and many other ills.

To avoid Pyorrhea, visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums. Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea or check its progress. If used in time and used consistently, ordinary dentifices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult your dentist immediately for special treatment.

THE BUSINESS COLUMN

EDITED BY MANSFIELD F. HOUSE

"Debts Should Be Advertised Until Paid"

If advertising can sell goods, can it induce purchasers to pay for the goods they buy?

"It can" was the answer found by the Louis D. Rubin Electrical Co. of Charlottetown.

Very real concerns that extend credit are without the private graveyard, where are buried the dead accounts charged off to profit and loss. The tragedy of it is that in numerous instances the losses, by proper and persistent "doctoring" might have been avoided.

The Louis D. Rubin Electrical Co. found that adherence to a simple, non-technical method could result in prompt collections of slow accounts, and could result in payments of accounts that would otherwise have been sent to eternal rest. And even "dead" accounts may be resurrected from the financial potters' field.

How the principals of direct mail advertising are used to collect is told by an official of the Charlottetown concern, and it can be seen that the idea can be adapted to any class of retail business. When a prospect makes an inquiry, in response to an advertisement, the wise advertiser follows the inquiry up until every avenue of direct approach has been tried. Similarly, from the moment the debt is contracted, the Charlottetown company holds the debtor is a prospect—a prospective payer. "Never let the prospective payer forget that he or she owes," is the guiding principle. "Perish" the advertising debt until the prospect is won over.

Instead of waiting until the first of the following month, many stores do not get rid of the prospect is won over, a few days after the transaction. By this method prompt payment is secured from that blessed class of customers who pay their bills promptly, and who would otherwise wait until the first of the month to settle up.

Promptly on the first of the month statements of accounts are mailed to all customers on the books, the statements that show all balances and debits and credits of the preceding month. Most stores of course, send out statements on the first, but the Charlottetown store makes it a point to mail the statements on the first day of the month and not on the second, the third, the fourth or the fifth day. In this way it keeps ahead of the competition of the statements that are mailed out later. It advertises the customer's debt before other creditors advertise.

Thereafter the debtors are regularly reminded of their debts until the accounts are paid, or it is realized that they are so hopeless and worthless that a bill would seem like a silk worm in a cocoon. This does not mean that indiscriminate and incessant dunning is employed. Not at all. Customers are Sensation!

The customer had asked for the store number and got it. Then she told the phone girl that she wanted to be connected with the department where they sold hose. No kind specified, so the phone girl plugged the customer in on the hoistery counter.

"I want some cotton hose."
"All right, what size?"
"About sixty feet I think will do." Before the thing got straightened out the hoistery clerk had accused the customer of being a centipede and the customer had accused the clerk of being an impudent upstart and the phone girl of being a congenial imbecile.

JAPANESE VERSION OF HALLOWE'EN

Festival of Welcome to the Returned Dead Still Celebrated in Rural Districts With Sacrifices and Lanterns.

Tokio, July 18.—This is the day of the Bon Matsuri. The festival always takes place in the middle of July, and has been going on for centuries unnumbered. It is in honor of the dead, who on this date are believed to return to the places of their former habitation, and must be appropriately greeted by their descendants.

The Bon festival does not attract the same outward notice as other great occasions, like the New Year, with its gay street decorations. For the Bon is mostly indoors, and at night. Gifts are exchanged and the lights on the family altars are kept brightly burning in welcome of the dear departed. The twinkling of the flame is the coming of them, and its every twinkle a shudder of emotion in gratitude for the cordial greeting.

The Japanese live in awe of their dead, which is the main inspiration of ancestor worship and the reason why every family must have a descendant to propitiate its members after death. In the denser centres of population the people are becoming too sophisticated to go in for Bon festivities in the old way. To see the Bon one must go to the more rural districts, especially to some of the seaside villages, where dead relatives live at the sea bottom. There one sees, as dusk draws on, small boats with their lights burning and incense rising from the stern, all westward to welcome back the spirits of the brave fishermen and sailors who have given their lives for their families.

The Bon Matsuri at Nagasaki is a sight never to be forgotten. There all the steep hills surrounding the city are cemeteries, and on each of these a light burns on the evening of the Bon, the myriad twinkling lanterns all reflected in the landlocked bay below. Every grave must have its light to give individual welcome to the returning spirit and guide it on its way.

Passing through a remote country district once, on the day of the Bon, I saw a tiny column of smoke rising above the long grass some distance from the road. For the moment I was unable to imagine what it could be, but on going over through the thicket there I found an old woman standing before an ancient fallen gravestone beside which she had placed a stick of lighted incense to welcome back that solitary ghost that all others had forgotten. In the same district, however, many of the gravestones had been taken by carpenters to make doorsteps for the villas of foreigners, and I wondered how the former occupants of these desecrated graves would had remembered them, but that even their tombstones had been spirited away. If the dead leave no descendants to welcome them it is unspeakably sad, from a Japanese point of view, for what anguish can be greater than to return un-greeted on the night of the Bon!

The Bon Matsuri of the old days, as it still is in some of the remoter rural villages, was a hilarious festival with much drinking of sake and promiscuous dances among the young and the wild music, and the frenzy of the dancers suggested nothing short of the Bacchantean antics of ancient Greece. These orgies are few and far between in the Bon of today, for the Bon Odori, or dance, as it is called, is now seldom seen.

For city folk, the Bon is carefully observed in their own way, very quietly, neighbors exchanging gifts and good wishes, each family making its house very clean and keeping the lamps bright for the coming of the spirits. Offerings of food, mostly in the way of fruit and vegetables, are laid before the family altars, the trays being piled up profusely with a generous heart. All gifts must be as new and as fresh as possible.

In the old days these offerings were afterward sent out, to sea, if one lived near the coast. If one did not care to go to the trouble, there was always some one willing to undertake the task for a consideration. These needy ones came to the family door and cried out: "O mukai! O mukai!" which means, "I have come to meet you! They received the offerings from the family altars, which they were supposed to take to the water; but there was a tacit understanding that the person taking them away could have the use of them if he wished.

The Bon is a time when apprentices are given a holiday, and a time for paying all outstanding debts. It is, therefore, an occasion which gives satisfaction to many besides the dead.

A Truck Tire Guarantee Without a Limit

There is an unlimited guarantee on Goodyear Solid Truck Tires. No matter how long they have been in use, or how far they have gone, they must show no defects of material or workmanship. If your tire runs 25,000 miles, and then shows defects, it will be adjusted. If it has been in use two years, and proves defective, it will be adjusted.

Contrast this with the definite mileage guarantee. The guarantee cannot be more than the average life of all tires of that make, or the manufacturer would lose money. The careless, abusive driver pulls down this average. The man who cares for his tires must accept a lower mileage guarantee than he is entitled to.

Goodyear's unlimited guarantee places no penalty on the careful truck owner.

More than this, Goodyear maintains, through Goodyear Truck Tire Service Stations, a service which lengthens the life of tires, keeps trucks in use.

Because these tires are made in Canada, they sell at a fair price—duty is paid on raw materials only. No foreign tire of competing price can compare with them in quality. Note the actual saving in price shown by this table:

Size	SOLID TRUCK TIRES
	Imported Price	Goodyear Made in Canada Price	Saving through buying at Made in Canada Price
32 x 3 1/2	$45.63	$40.80	$4.83

May Cancel Next Meet.

It was announced by the management of the Maritime Racing Association last night that there is a possibility that the meet announced for Moosepath during the exhibition period may be cancelled.
Even under the most favorable weather conditions possible, last week's meet barely earned expenses, notwithstanding reports current to the contrary, and possibility of less attractive conditions for the next meet created a situation which called for careful consideration. One of the chief handicaps is the distance of the track from the city and the lack of adequate transportation facilities. It was said by the track management that the company might do with an exhibition period of the service promised for Saturday, and they were doubtful whether the company might do with an exhibition period to look after. Local financial support had been sought, but the promoters of the meet did not regard the prospects for another as particularly attractive. Their decision will be announced in a day or two.

WHAT IS ROMANCE?

To Molly Shine, shop girl, it was an unending rainbow of air castles.
She was a simple soul, loved books and had high ideals.
Then from the sky, as in a dream, out dropped Mr.

a soul as she—only his hobby was tadpoles and he had lots of money.

Now what do you think happened to their romantic

KINDLY HELP OF WEATHER MAN ALL THAT'S NOW NEEDED.

Final arrangements have been completed by J. D. O'Connell, the elephant friend, for his annual picnic to St. John orphans tomorrow and it is hoped that the weather man will be kind. Mr. O'Connell wishes that every one kind enough to loan his automobile for conveying the little ones to Rockwood Park will call at the Royal Hotel tomorrow at one o'clock. There is to be no restrictions as to age of the children, Mr. O'Connell says, but if any society worker who knows of a group of children, would gather the little ones together so that he would know them they will be treated the same as the orphans. Unless this is done the only benefit they will get will be from the bill of fare and the penny scribble on the grounds.

The programme will even be better than that at first expected and a good time for all is guaranteed. A banner bearing the inscription "O'Connell's Picnic" with the emblem of the society to which it is presented has been given to several societies in this city and this banner will be carried by a child while the other children will each receive a flag.

The Lantern Lifting Epidemic Has Broken Out Again in the City.

During that period which has now gone down into the realm of ancient history, but often referred to as the "Good Old Days," when wine flowed freely and many a tired business man was delayed in the office at spasmodic intervals during the week, it was not unusual to see a section of the city small hours of the morning wending his corkscrew way along the city streets, guided by a guttering lantern, and an uncertain and unsteady hand. These lanterns were usually lifted from the barriers surrounding some piece of work that was being done in the city streets.

However, with the advent of prohibition and the consequent reduction of long overtime office hours and circuitous homeward routes, the lantern-lifting habit declined alarmingly. But it has cropped up again and this morning Commissioner Bullock reported to the city council, that five of the lanterns, hung on the street repair job in Union street, west side, had disappeared through the still watches of the night. Commissioner Frink also reported one absentee in his light battalion.

It is not known what interpretation will be put on this new outbreak, but it is likely to cause the prohibition inspectors some little apprehension.

DELIGHTFUL SUMMER ALONG THE RIVER.

A maple tree at Public Landing is partially clad in gold and crimson. A yellowish tint is showing on the birches, and along the wayside brown and purple shades are here and there visible, the harbinger of autumn.

This has been a wonderful summer along the river. With the exception of one steady week the weather was for the most part fine, so that out-of-door life was enjoyable to an unusual degree. Now the season draws to a close. The last of this week will see the return to the city of the majority of those who summer along the river beyond Westfield. The tents are still on the shore at Bely's Point, however, and this will be a delightful week at all river points because it is virtually the last. Week-end parties will go up through September, but not in such numbers. Friday and Saturday were two of the hottest days of the summer at the Landing, but yesterday was cool. A great number of motor boats were out. There was dancing at the pavilion several evenings last week, which the glorious moonlight made most enjoyable. The Ocean brought down a large number of people this morning, calling attention to the fact that the vacancy on the board, caused by the term of George P. Day having expired, had not been filled although vacant since June 30, 1919. Mr. Day was appointed to the board in 1907 and after having filled a six year term was reappointed for another six years. The reappointment of Mr. Day was suggested and also the appointment of E. R. W. Ingraham to the vacancy, and after some discussion the council decided to leave the matter over until the next meeting.

A VARIETY OF MATTERS BEFORE COMMON COUNCIL

John Dempster appeared before the committee of the common council this morning and said that he bought twenty-five acres of land from the city, 14-16 chains, at Lech Lomond, on the southeastern end of the Raymond property in Garnettown. He said that recently when the city's lines were run, the dimensions of his property were changed so that the plot was only 7 1/2 chains wide. He paid $8 an acre. He asked that the city change the dimensions to those in the original deed. The matter was left to Commissioner Jones with power to act. Only one tender was received for lumber for the harbor department and it was referred to Commissioner Bullock. It was from J. M. Driscoll and was for spruce deals, 642.50 a thousand, and spruce boards, $47.50. Mr. Bullock reported that he had received no tenders for piling and he moved that he be given authority to purchase seventy pieces for east side work. He was asked to bring in a report as to prices. Mr. Bullock also asked for authority to purchase lumber and piling for the repairs in Union street, West St. John through the cheapest service, estimated at $8,000, and for repairs to the Pettigill shed at an estimated cost of $1,500. "These will all be charged against the harbor commission when it comes in, I suppose," remarked Commissioner Frink. The mayor said that these matters were not included in the harbor bill but an effort was made to have them included. Commissioner Bullock said the repairs should be done by the city workmen. Authority for both purchases was granted.

Regarding the First street sewer diversion, Commissioner Jones read a report from the city solicitor in which he said under the act of 1914 that the commissioner may lay down the sewer through the land referred to but must first ask permission from the land owners, though their refusal need not hold up or delay the progress of the work. The city must pay any damage done to the property.

On suggestion of Commissioner Frink, it was decided to leave the matter over until next meeting when Commissioner Jones will bring in a recommendation that the sewer be extended through the street and not through private property.

Commissioner Frink referred to a recommendation introduced by ex-Commissioner Fisher regarding a contract for 10,000 feet of granite curb with Moncton & Newlands, 5,100 feet of which had been delivered, contract for the balance, 4,900 feet, to be varied to give the contractors thirty cents a foot more than the contract price. Commissioner Frink said that there was no record of this recommendation passing council and on his recommendation the original motion was passed.

An application for permission to erect an electric sign was received from Geo. Ling, 18 King Street, and was referred to the city engineer for report.

On motion of Commissioner Frink the common clerk was instructed to obtain an assessment from D. J. Purdy to erect a retaining wall on his property in Bridge street.

Commissioner Thornton asked regarding the status of the Shamrock grounds and Armstrong & Bruce property. The mayor reported that the deeds were being prepared and the city engineer said that a change in the boundaries of the Shamrock grounds had been arranged. Metcalf Street Extension.

Commissioner Thornton said regarding the Metcalf street extension that he understood the deBury estate was willing to deed the strip to the city. The city engineer said there was a piece of the Hazen estate required which could not be obtained as one of the heirs was not of age.

Commissioner Frink asked if the engineer had made a sewerage plan or drainage for the Newman Brook area. He said that there should be room for considerable development there and he would like to have a plan prepared. He moved that, so soon as convenient, the city engineer prepare a plan of sewerage for this area—carried.

VACANCY FOR YEAR ON SCHOOL BOARD

School Trustees Ask Council to Name Successor to G. E. Day Whose Term Expired in June, 1919.

A letter was received from the Board of School Trustees by the city council this morning, calling attention to the fact that the vacancy on the board, caused by the term of George P. Day having expired, had not been filled although vacant since June 30, 1919. Mr. Day was appointed to the board in 1907 and after having filled a six year term was reappointed for another six years. The reappointment of Mr. Day was suggested and also the appointment of E. R. W.
