

NEW BRUNSWICK IS BETTER OFF THAN OTHER PARTS OF DOMINION

F. P. Robinson Speaks of Conditions Here and Elsewhere in Canada

"New Brunswick seems to be in a singularly good position at present, while other parts of the dominion are suffering from hard times," said F. P. Robinson, of Fredericton, who is in the city today.

"I have just returned after a trip extending from one end of the province to the other and everywhere I went business seemed to be very nearly normal. In different towns the hotels were so crowded that I had difficulty in getting accommodations, most of the other people were commercial men. Several of the travelers told that they were getting almost as much business as usual for this time of the year."

"Conditions here were in striking contrast to those in the west, from which I returned about ten days ago. In Winnipeg in one week while I was there 1,800 tractors were taken out of business offices, which had closed down. A contractor inserted one advertisement for sixty laborers and the police had to be called out to handle the 3,000 who replied. Many stenographers have been thrown out of work and have not money enough to even pay their fares to their homes, if they have any, are going out to the ranches to work without wages simply for their keep. In the cities destitution is showing, and serious problems of the care of those without money or work must be faced—and this is before winter has really commenced."

COLONEL TUCKER BURIED WITH MILITARY HONORS

The esteem in which Col. J. J. Tucker was held by the citizens of St. John was shown late afternoon when, at his funeral, a very large number attended. Services in Trinity church were conducted by Rev. Ralph Sherman, carried out to the church. The body was taken to Fernhill for interment, and a firing party from the 62nd regiment, St. John Fusiliers, under Capt. D. McArthur accompanied the body and gave the last salute over the grave.

NOVA SCOTIA CONTINGENT NOW MORE THAN 800 MEN

Last night more than 800 volunteers for the 26th Nova Scotia regiment slept at the Halifax armories. Members of the medical staff are working hard to catch up to the number of recruits continuously arriving. The Chronicle says: "This is no time for selfishness or weakness of any sort. It is a time for noble, unflinching duty. Our national life, our hearthstones, the freedom of ourselves and our children are immediately at stake. Every true Nova Scotian should awake."

MURRAY COWAN IS POSTMASTER FOR COLUMN AT SALISBURY PLAIN

A letter received yesterday from Murray Cowan, formerly in the employ of Yassie & Co., in St. John, told of his enjoying himself at Salisbury Plain, where he is a member of the divisional ammunition column from Canada. He says all the North End boys who went away with the contingent are in good health and much contented.

Mr. Cowan is postmaster for the column, and thus has a little more time to himself than he would have in other duties, and because of his being the distributor of the mail from home, he is a welcome presence in the column. The papers and letters from St. John are most eagerly read, he says, and the lads in camp are quite well in touch with what is going on in their old home town.

PURE BLOOD MAKES HEALTHY PEOPLE

Hood's Sarsaparilla removes scrofula, sores, boils and other eruptions, because it drives out of the blood the humors that cause them. Eruptions cannot be successfully treated with external applications, because these cannot purify the blood.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes rich, red blood, perfects the digestion, and builds up the whole system. Insist on having Hood's. Get it now.

FRIDAY NIGHT'S MEETING

For men only, a stirring military meeting has been arranged for the Opera House, Friday evening, through the kindness of the Thompson-Woods Company, Lescault, Carter, Hillman and Bullcock. Refreshments were served and the gathering dispersed about midnight.

JOHN WILLIS, FORMERLY OF ST. JOHN, DEAD IN AMHERST

John Willis died of his home in Amherst this morning after a short illness. Mr. Willis was born in St. John sixty years ago and was a son of Mrs. Rebecca Willis of this city. He moved to Amherst several years ago and had successfully conducted an extensive business in stone cutting. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Annie Duncan of St. John, and two sons and two daughters, his mother and three brothers, Charles, James and Samuel, all of St. John. The funeral will be held in Amherst on Friday.

STEAMER GRAND MANAN TOWED INTO HARBOR

About 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the steamer John L. Cann towed the steamer Grand Manan into port, apparently disabled. Both steamers cleared from here yesterday afternoon and were not due back today.

The Grand Manan broke her shaft while off Lepraux.

BURIED TODAY

The funeral of Patrick J. Mitchell, which was held this morning from the residence of his niece, Mrs. Catherine McGowan, 188 Chesley street, was attended by a large number of friends. The friends of Rev. J. A. Ford of Winnipeg, will regret to learn that he has been obliged to undergo a serious operation in St. Boniface Hospital.

Rev. Perry J. Stackhouse, who less than three months ago became pastor of the Tabernacle church, Uxue, N. Y., is making a most favorable impression in his new sphere of labor.

THE WHEAT MARKET

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Estimates that Argentina exportable surplus would be as much as 120,000,000 bushels counted against the bulls today in wheat. There were also reports indicating that the world's winter crop for 1915 would be the largest ever sowed. It was said that Italy alone would show an increase of 1,000,000 acres. Opening prices, which ranged from 3/4 to 1/2 lower, were followed by a decided further decline.

ANGELIC MISSION

The special meetings held in St. George's church are being attended by large numbers. There are three meetings held each day. Rev. Mr. Newton, of Sarnia, is the missionary, and is a very eloquent are for children, who are very much interested in the way that the preacher conducts the service. Singing at all the meetings is both general and hearty. Last evening the subject of the address was "Repentance," and was treated by Mr. Newton in a bold, strong manner, which left an impression which will not easily be forgotten by those who heard him. The church was well filled.

TONIGHT'S BRITISH PLAY AT IMPERIAL
 One of the most successful military dramas ever produced was Edward E. Kidder's "Shannon of the Sixth," a story of the Sepoy Revolt at Meerut, India, in 1857. Like hundreds of other memorabilia in history, this has also been reproduced for the motion picture screen and the successful Kalem studio has made a wonderful thing of it. "Shannon of the Sixth," filmed in five parts, will send thrill through every true Britisher's heart. While it deals with a period in British history when relations were not friendly with our Indian fellow-subjects, the picture will only go to prove how good a mother, England has proved to be far-eastern people and it throws the light upon the reasons for the faithful support of these brown men in the present European struggle.

"PATRIOTIC ACRE" SCHEME
Regina, Nov. 25—The Grain Growers of Saskatchewan have adopted a novel scheme to support the patriotic movement. The central organization has recommended that the various units discuss the question of whether or not each member should give the crop off one acre of land each year to the patriotic fund and without exception so far as can be learned, the ideas of the central organization are being followed out. In addition to the "patriotic acre" scheme, the farmers are being requested to make cash donations, and are responding readily.

There has been a steady growth in the number of farmers co-operative associations in Saskatchewan, during the last few months. The number now is 103.

A Smooth, White Skin That Defies Weather

During the coming months of biting winds and intense cold, you who want to keep your skin smooth, white and velvety, should turn your attention to a new skin-wash. Nothing else will so effectively remove a deep-seated blemish or impurity on the surface. By gradually absorbing the beauty of soap, you appear more prominently. If your skin be blotchy, pimply, or covered with a redness, a few applications will completely transform the most unsightly complexion into that of a beautiful woman. Use the wax nightly, like cold cream, washing it off mornings.
If weather, age or poor health has mottled your face with wrinkles, have your skin treated with the new skin-wash by using a harmless, refreshing lotion prepared by dissolving a few face-powder particles in a pt. of water. Apply another skin, the more youthful appearance, even after one application, will be yours.

Free Advice About Your Manly Strength

TO MY READER:
Whether or not you lack an abundant vigor, here is a free offer which will surely interest you, and through which you may easily profit from now on to the end of a ripe, healthy, advanced age. I have compiled a little treatise for self help (book form) which I am pleased to send absolutely free by mail in a perfectly plain, sealed envelope to any man anywhere who writes for it. Over a million copies have already been thus distributed to those who wrote for them from all over the world. There is no obligation whatsoever involved in this offer, nothing which you are required to buy, nothing which you are required to pay for in any way, either now or in the future. It is just simply an out-and-out free proposal. In this little book of 72 pages, 6,000 words and 20 half-tone photo reproductions, I have endeavored to give a straightforward talk to men, young and elderly, single and married, a concise compendium for self-reference, a perfectly plain discourse upon those important personal matters relating to vital strength of men, the preservation of virility, its possible self restoration, its legitimate uses and its wanton abuses. Every man should be in possession of this book. One part describes a little the mechanical vibrator, which I make and distribute, but whether or not you wish to use one of these vibrators is your own affair to determine. However, aside from anything it contains in reference to my vibrator, the book should be read by all for its own real worth. Therefore, please use free coupon below.

SANDEN, Author of the book, the whole world of today alive to the importance of a better understanding of sex hygiene. The much discussed science of eugenics is teaching the great mass of people that strong, healthy, rugged parents beget equally sturdy children. Manhood, no matter where or in what condition of life we find it, is a single power that most fascinates both men and women. The one who regulates this manly influence, this result of a vigorous, sturdy nerve force, is the one who forges to the front, while weaker people stand aside.
In my opinion that any man may hope for a complete restoration of his manhood and vigor if he but make up his mind that he WILL conquer Men's 4 to 6.

Let Me Send You This Book FREE
If you live too far to call, or if you cannot call, please fill in the coupon below and send it to me. You will receive free, sealed, by return mail, my 72-page illustrated book, containing 6,000 words, a complete compendium of useful information for men young or elderly, single or married, who want the truth about the subject of vital strength, its preservation, its possible self-restoration and its legitimate uses and wanton abuses. You get it all, free.

Doctor Said She Had Bright's Disease.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED HER.

Bright's disease is a term applied to one of the most serious of all diseases of the urinary organs which are often of a severe character. Severe pains in the back appear at first and are followed by disturbances of the urinary organs which show that the urine contains a large amount of albumen. Dropsy is also another forerunner of the disease. Bright's disease. The first sign of any kidney trouble you should at once put the kidneys right by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. The pills that cure kidney troubles only.
Mrs. C. A. Heistand, Mooswa, Alta., writes: "Last May I was taken down sick. The doctor told me I had Bright's disease. My kidneys got so bad I could not rest day or night. The doctor's medicine did not give me any relief. I used four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, and they put me in good shape again."

THE WAR NEWS

Yesterday's news told of the failure of the German attempt to break through the Russian lines in the direction of Warsaw. Today's news tells of a desperate effort on the part of the Germans, with heavy reinforcement and more guns, to break through the French and British lines on the road to Calais. One of last night's cables declares that the battle has already been in progress for forty-eight hours, and that thus far the Allies have succeeded in checking every assault. It is estimated that the Germans have half a million men engaged, and any correspondence observers think within the next few days probably one-fifth of these will lay down their lives in the desperate effort to obey the Kaiser's command and win through to the French coast. There is no note of apprehension in the French and British reports. Evidently there is a confident feeling that the efforts of the Germans are again to be completely defeated.

A FORWARD STEP

A very important decision was arrived at by the Germain Street Brotherhood last evening, when a resolution was adopted in favor of a federation of church brotherhoods in the city and a strong committee was appointed to take the matter up at once with the other brotherhoods. This question was discussed last winter, but no action taken. That the movement is taking shape thus early in the season means that we are getting much closer to the time when the united Christian manhood of the city will make its influence more strongly felt in regard to important questions relating to community welfare. This breaking down of the barriers is a great forward step and will mean much for St. John. There are questions concerning which there are no differences of opinion in the various churches, and which would be solved much more easily and quickly by organized effort having behind it the driving force of the churches. The matters concerning which members of different denominations are of one mind are of infinitely greater importance than their points of difference. The realization of this fact is leading to co-operation, and such united action as must be of immense benefit to the whole community.

THE TWO CHAPLAINS

The announcement that Rev. G. A. Kühring and Rev. Dr. J. H. MacDonald had been accepted as chaplains to go with the second contingent, will intensify local interest in the fortunes of the Canadian soldiers. In the years he has lived in St. John Mr. Kühring had won for himself a very warm place in the affections of the citizens. He has been deeply interested at all times in all that pertained to the city's welfare, and has contributed much to the advancement of causes related to the moral and social welfare of the whole city. He has always shown an intense interest in Canadian national development, and a sincere devotion to the Empire. He will be missed not only by his congregation but by citizens of every creed who have been associated with him in good work during the period of his residence in St. John.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS

Do the members of the legislature who have supported the Flemming government believe that Mr. Flemming deserves a continuation of their support? If not, why do they not insist upon his retirement?

Do the colleagues of Mr. Flemming feel that after the report of the Royal Commission they are justified in following his leadership any longer? If not, why do they not demand his retirement?

Do the citizens of New Brunswick who have supported the Flemming government in the past believe that this government is the best they can produce? If not, why do they not demand the retirement of these gentlemen, so that the administration of public affairs may be placed in the hands of men more worthy of confidence?

To say that we must go on with the same discredited outfit at the capital because somebody hates Mr. Carvell or somebody else has no love for Dr. Pugsley is surely a very weak argument, for unless a change is made it will be a tacit confession of belief that there are not in the province of New Brunswick any men more worthy of confidence than those who have been so utterly condemned by the report of the Royal Commission. Any attempt to limit the responsibility to Mr. Flemming, and to assert that all the other members of the government are innocent and ought to be made with any hope of success, since Mr. Flemming's colleagues have not insisted upon his retirement and therefore condone and accept responsibility for his acts.

No thinking person pays any attention whatever to such idle pleas as that Mr. Berry was appointed by a former gov-

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR.

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advanced age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Do not stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyle's Sage and Sulphur Compound"

Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Wash it every day.

It makes the hair grow thicker and smoother, and keeps it from falling out.

It keeps the scalp cool and moist, and prevents itching and dandruff.

It keeps the hair from becoming brittle and falling out.

CHEAP MEALS FOR MEN BY SALVATION ARMY

New Hotel in Bangor—Stew, Coffee and Bread Ten Cents

(Bangor Commercial)
Meals are to be served at the new Salvation Army hotel commencing Wednesday, announced Adj. A. E. Armstrong, Monday. The meals will be of the simplest sort, but will be nourishing and wholesome. It is the aim of the proprietors to furnish a meal that will be as cheap as possible, and still have plenty of food value. A typical meal will consist of meat stew and two cups of coffee with bread, for the small sum of ten cents.

Another departure that will prove of use to charitably disposed Bangor people who are frequently asked for a "dime to get a plate of beans" by members of the unemployed army, will be tickets to be issued by the Salvation Army, good for a meal at the building. In this way one can be sure that the recipient of the alms really gets a meal instead of something that is not so valuable as food. The tickets must be issued and in that way the amount given by each donor will be known. The tickets will be issued for beds, also.

Since the hotel was opened on Oct. 31, 1069 men have been accommodated at night, commencing with an average of 82 for the first few days, then gradually climbing to 45 and 46 and the average for the past few days would show that about 60 a night. The capacity of the building is 60 so it can be seen that it is meeting with a good patronage.

Although the men who patronized the building are to a large extent workmen and others of the floating labor class, they are often subjected to the temptations of the saloon. Adj. Armstrong points with pride to the fact that of the 1069 men who have been at the hotel during the past 28 days, only three have been taken into the toils of the police for intoxication. One man who had been a hard drinker is having his home paid there by a relative. Since staying at the hotel he has not touched liquor. Other instances of the same nature could be mentioned.

In the dormitory where each man has a strong steel lock at his bedside, twenty-seven beds are provided for 20 cents a night or $1 a week. Twelve beds are sold in rooms at twenty-five cents a night, or $1.25 a week. Twenty-two beds at 35 cents or $1.50 a week, and four beds at fifty cents a night or $2 a week are provided.

Of the 1069 men about forty did not have the wherewithal to pay their room rent, and were registered as charity. Others who promised to pay were registered on the books as "standoffs." Some of these will pay and some will not. On one night recently out of about sixty men registered, four were charity and sixteen were standoffs.

After dinner he discovered one of the men stowing away bottles of champagne into a bag, and, highly indignant, he demanded to know what he meant by such conduct.

Lulu Fado—Newest of Dances—Taught In Pictures and Words

Miss Neill of Pavlov's Imperial Ballet Describes The Steps of The Picturesque Spanish Dance and Poses For The Pictures

Posed by Miss Edna Neill. Miss Neill posing for third step position. Smaller picture (above) shows same position. Lady with partner; lower picture shows fourth step position.

Here's the newest dance step. It's the Lulu Fado. It's one of six new dances brought over from Europe by Miss Edna Neill, a pupil of the greatest of all dancers, Pavlova.

Miss Neill was a member of the Imperial Russian ballet for two years; she understood Pavlova, and took instruction from her too. She knows how to dance; she knows the new dances, and she knows how to teach them—on paper—to other folks.

With her dancing partner Paul Armand she has posed for the following brand new dances, Lulu Fado, Brazilian Polka, Fox Trot, Roulé-Roulé, Two and Four, Ta-Ta.

The other five will follow.

BY EDNA NEILL
Formerly with Pavlova in Imperial Russian Ballet

The first step in the Lulu Fado is two slow walking steps and four fast walking steps. The lady going backward and gentleman forward in a regular one-step position. This is continued four times. The count is 1, 2—1, 2, 3, 4—1, 2—1, 2, 3, 4.

Second step—Lady polkas backward—the gentleman forward, keeping the same position with the arm in first step.

Third step—This is the characteristic step of the Lulu Fado which shows its Spanish origin. The couple separate—

Fourth step—The turn is now made which may be called the pivot turn and is unlike any other turn used in the other dances.

The right foot is used as a pivot, the left foot moving or used to make the turn. The left foot touching the floor turns on a complete turn. The pivot is done two or three turns with a great deal of swing.

Now begin with the first step again and repeat the whole series.

If there are several couples dancing together the lady may change partners on the third step. That is instead of returning to her original partners at the end of the circle she may go forward to the next man, who is next to the left of her original partner.

This is the way the Lulu Fado is danced in the rural districts of Spain.

FEDERATION OF BROTHERHOODS
Important Movement Launched in Germain Street Institute

COMMUNITY WELFARE WORK

A Whirlwind Campaign Proposed to Raise $2,000 For Free Kindergarten Association—Home Guard Movement Advocated—Interesting Addresses.

A meeting that should have far-reaching consequences was the second annual banquet of the Germain Street Brotherhood last evening, in the spacious rooms of their new institute building. Action was taken to bring about a federation of church brotherhoods, and also to unite these brotherhoods behind the Kindergarten Association, so that for the current year its finances would be looked after; while the movement to have the kindergarten system incorporated in the public schools will also be promoted.

The presence of representatives of two greeting from a third, showed that the other brotherhoods, and a message of time is ripe for a closer organization to promote important movements for community welfare.

Commissioner Wigmore, the president of the brotherhood, was in the chair, and the invited guests were Rev. W. H. Barraclough, Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, Rev. Dr. MacDonald, Rev. D. J. McPherson, Rev. P. R. Hayward and A. M. Belding. There were nearly seventy men present. Dinner was served by a very efficient corps of young ladies in white.

President Wigmore extended a hearty welcome to the guests of the evening, thanked the brotherhood for having elected him president, and expressed the hope that they would be able to do even better work than last year.

After a solo by Dr. Percival Bonnell, Rev. P. S. Porter, brought up the question of a federation of church brotherhoods, and said that while Rev. P. S. McKim of St. Luke's was unable to be present he was heartily in sympathy with a movement of closer co-operation among church brotherhoods. Rev. Mr. Barraclough and Rev. Mr. MacKeigan were there to speak for Centenary and St. David's Brotherhoods. Mr. Porter said that the Germain Street Brotherhood was very heartily in favor of this movement.

Rev. W. H. Barraclough delivered a very strong address in support of greater unity of action among church organizations, and especially in brotherhoods. Referring to the prevalence of graft in politics in Canada, the speaker took very strong grounds, declaring that the evil could be overcome if the members of the churches would place public honor before party gain or personal considerations of profit. He had been assured by leading men in both political parties that the evil could be overcome, and the task should be undertaken by the men of the churches. Mr. Barraclough, speaking for Centenary Brotherhood, said he was sure they would be very glad if a federation of brotherhoods could be accomplished, even if it were only to the extent of forming a sort of central board composed of a few delegates from each. He outlined many ways in which united action would benefit the community.

Rev. J. A. MacKeigan said that St. David's Brotherhood, if small in number, had been giving very earnest study to social questions and would be glad to co-operate with other brotherhoods. He said very emphatically that the motto "business as usual" should be adopted by the churches. In St. David's after the war broke out some members felt that a projected campaign should not be carried out, as there was a fear it would not succeed because there were so many other calls upon the people at this time. They went ahead with the campaign, however, with the result that the financial position of the church is very much stronger than it was last year. Mr. MacKeigan said that the church is wrongfully criticized, and charged with failure to do this or that work which ought to be done. He stoutly defended the institution, pointing out that the church is really responsible for what he termed the "holly discontent" which prompts society to seek ever higher ideals of life and conduct.

Dr. Bonnell moved that the Germain Street Brotherhood declare itself in favor of federation and that a committee be appointed to bring the question before the other brotherhoods. This was unanimously adopted and the president and vice-presidents with several other members were appointed on the committee.

After a solo by Elmer A. Belding, W. F. Burditt presented the report of the committee on community work. He dealt in a very interesting way with the various phases of community work, including palliative, preventive and constructive work, and said that the committee had decided to confine themselves for the present to supporting the Free Kindergarten, dealing a little later with better housing, taking up also the work of boy scouts, and he hoped they might also be able to do something in the way of social centre work.

Mrs. F. E. Holman, Mrs. W. Frank Halshaw and Mrs. W. C. Matthews, representing the Free Kindergarten Association, were then introduced, and Mrs. Matthews told of the work that had been done during the last twelve years, the extent of the present work with four kindergartens in operation, the need of an extension of the work, the special needs that have arisen as a result of the war, and the great problem of getting enough money to carry on the work successfully.

A. M. Belding observed that there was plenty of money in St. John to look after all the local institutions, as well as the various patriotic funds. He congratulated the brotherhood on the federation movement, and advised the Germain Street Brotherhood to stick to this kindergarten question until the necessary funds had been provided.

After discussion by T. H. Estabrooks, R. G. Haley, Mr. Burditt, R. Inglis and others, it was decided to launch a campaign to raise at least two thousand dollars for the Free Kindergarten Association. Mr. Estabrooks suggested that the city be divided into six districts and the canvassing be done by six brotherhoods.

The committee which is to present the question of federation will also lay file matter before the other brotherhoods and it will be done with the least possible delay.

In the absence of Mayor Frink, who was to have spoken on the Home Guard, T. H. Estabrooks gave full particulars concerning that movement, urged its importance, and invited any who were not debarrred by the age limit to join the ranks, so that if possible half a dozen companies might be organized.

Brief addresses were delivered by the Rev. Mr. McPherson and Rev. Mr. Hayward, who declared that it was an inspiration to them to see this large body of men taking so deep an interest in community welfare. Mr. Hayward referred to the Fairville brotherhoods, and expressed the hope that eventually they also would have a federation. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

WITH WORLD AT WAR IS THIS A TIME TO MAKE PROFITS AND TO FILL ONE'S POCKETS?

Striking Letter of London Firm to Its Correspondents Shows English Feeling in Crisis

The London manufacturing firm of Simmons & Co. has issued the following letter to their correspondents everywhere, and it is an interesting illustration of the feeling of the English people in this crisis. Under the heading: "War! No price raised, guaranteed quality maintained," the letter is as follows:—

Dear Sirs:— Whatever destiny may await us, splendid or disastrous, we should prepare for and await it with the greater calmness, confidence and strength if we know we are following the best way for the best purpose.

To some it falls to fight, to suffer, or to make; to others to follow. To others their daily duty performed in the most selfless spirit, and unselfishly. So that when they are in earnestness of purpose for the good of all.

With the world at war is this a time to make profits and fill one's pockets? In our attitude toward the German government and people, surely we should follow the same principles or should be dealing with individuals. Suppose a man at large with a knife and revolver is locked in a Lunatic Asylum where he would be kept from doing himself or his neighbors harm. We should not hate him. We should try to cure his disease. We should try to cure his disease. We should try to cure his disease.

Surely that is how we should deal with Germany. Not hate the German, but cure his disease. Not plunder and devastate, but seek to restore to a normal condition. It is the only one that will most of all. It is the only one that will most of all. It is the only one that will most of all.

How to Stop Stomach Torment

Sound Advice From A Well-Known Physician

Men and women who suffer from what they call Dyspepsia, indigestion or just plain "stomach trouble" usually seek the regular relief in the form of some peptic pill or tablet, or other artificial digestant. This, experience teaches me, is a serious error.

If all the great army of people who suffer after nearly every meal would make it a point to take a teaspoonful of Bisulphate of Magnesia in a quarter glass of water after each meal, there would be no formation of acidity and consequently no distress or discomfort.

NO WORD OF NEW BRUNSWICK IN THE PIT PROP BUSINESS

Forecast of Report of Commissioners Who Made Visit to Canada

London, Nov. 25.—The report of a special commission which visited Canada and Newfoundland to investigate the timber pit props matter is still withheld, but it is said that their recommendations mainly favor Newfoundland and Nova Scotia, Quebec has favorable points but the district evidently is in the consideration given by the commissioners that they did not pay a personal visit. It is further gathered that the question of the differences in prices asked by the Canadian producers and those hitherto paid present an obstacle for a temporary supply only.

CANADIAN VOLUNTEERS AMONG THE BEST THAT BRITAIN POSSESSES

No English Troops Except the Finest London Regiments Equal Them—Bank Presidents, Business Men, and Ex-Mayors Found With Cowboys and Woodsmen on Salisbury Plain

We rode toward a little fire that glowed in the dusk. The scent of warm, dried horses was in the air, writes Herbert Corey, special correspondent of the New York Globe, from Salisbury Plain, England, Nov. 1. From this hollow and the hills rose before us in long, even swells, and dropped into depressions in which a bunch of cattle might hide against a storm. Here and there tree plantations at great distances from each other, might have been cottonwoods, nestling in the elbow of a creek in Alberta.

"Look it over," said the colonel of the Canadian contingent; "isn't it just like some?" That was precisely it. That was what made this camp of 30,000 Canadian volunteers so unutterably good to look at. That is why—or in part why—they are contented and happy. Those rolling hills might be in Alberta or North Dakota or in any other portion of that great west which the little man opened and the wheat growers seized.

British writers have referred to the Canadian contingent as "more English than the English." That's pure humor. They are British in their loyalty to the empire and in their anxiety to get to the front where the fighting is going on. But if an American from anywhere in that territory which stretches from Galveston to Hudson's Bay were to drop in to that camp from an airship, totally ignorant of his whereabouts, his first expression would be: "Home at last!"

Just Like Our Prairies. Everything adds to the illusion. Mounted men gallop over the Salisbury Plains, which are like our rolling prairie in every respect except that the bushes of grass have become turf and the sages brush is lacking. They sit their horses in that easy fashion that the cattle business teaches. Their reins hang loose, but at a touch the horses stop and what as though they were charging yearling steers. The horses have that choppy, mile-anhaling gallop of western horses. They are western horses. One sees an army wagon on the road. The driver hasn't the air of Thomas Atkins set to driving a team. He poses himself differently. A martinet would say that his lines hang slack. His horses do not wear that aspect of dignity and conservatism that distinguishes the horses of the British Isles. That driver can drive those horses along the comb of Westminster Abbey and never turn a hair.

There is a certain amount of grunting among the men, of course. There always is in every camp. It is an article of faith with them that Valcartier Camp in Canada is the model upon which all other permanent camps should be built. The English army diet does not correspond to the "grab pile" of the round-up and the wild of the mites, or to "refined table board" one can find in the tree-shaded back streets of Canadian cities. There is no butter, and there are too many vegetables, and the ration is scientifically adapted to the needs of thousands, and therefore sometimes fails to fit the appetite of one.

"We can't expect the grub we got at home," they say. "Anyhow, the War Office has a mighty big job to put a million new men in the field. Some little thing is mighty apt to go wrong." It is only fair to say that the Canadians seem to be the fair-haired boys with the War Office. The Canadians have three blankets and a rubber sheet, and a straw tick to each man. They sleep eight to a tent, whereas in some of the British camps the tents are made to sleep twice that many. Attacks have been made on the food contractors at other camps.

"They're all right here," the men say. "We get the grub we're entitled to. Now that we're used to it, it's all right." London papers have charged that coffee bar contractors have made undue "profits out of poor food at other camps."

Each Canadian is given four pence a day food commutation to permit him to vary the military ration. The men agree that the food at the coffee bars is plentiful and good.

Equal to the Best British. In London there are various volunteer organizations made up of bank clerks and young lawyers and artists and sportsmen and the like. Their material is magnificent. The men are clean cut, alert, wide shouldered, thin flanked, with intelligence and ginger and courage showing all over them. It is generally reputed that those men are destined for non-commissioned rank as soon as they have learned to discharge the N. C. duties. Many of them will go higher. These are the only English volunteer organizations I have seen—mark the qualification—that can sustain comparison with the Canadians. I have no hesitation in declaring my conviction that the Canadians are the equal company by company, of the best of the English volunteers. I do not believe there is a body of 30,000 English volunteer troops that can be compared to them. It isn't any wonder. These men are Canada's first line.

"Did you ever hear of Reddick, Alberta?" asked a captain named Daniels. The colonel in the carriage said he had. "It's a mighty progressive little town," said he. "It's my town," said Daniels. "I'm an ex-mayor of it. Four of us went down from Minneapolis and started it." The Canadians are full of fellows like that. In my first half hour I ran across a bank president—he explained that it was a rather small bank, but sound—and three or four lawyers and a few reporters, and innumerable hussies who own their own farms. Some of them are privates and some are officers. Off duty, the difference in rank didn't seem to bother any one except the British officers. On duty, the men marched like veterans and drilled almost like circus Zelevs. They discussed the events of the war with an intelligence you never could find in the British regulars, even if they did run short sometimes in technical knowledge.

Getting Into Shape. Salisbury Camp consists of four separate encampments, several miles apart, and about twenty miles from Salisbury Station. The camp itself is on the famed English downs. In off seasons these hills are covered with black-faced sheep where today the Canadians do their six or eight hours a day of training.

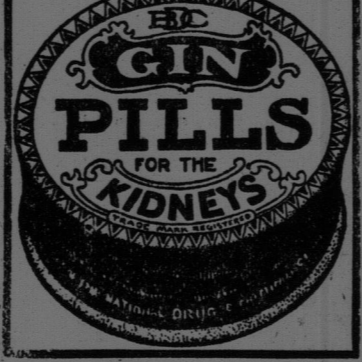

They are working hard. Three weeks on the steamships—because of a much criticized hitch in arrangements—left men and horses "soft." A horse couldn't walk a mile without panting. The men could hardly shoulder arms without a grunt. But they have been well handled for a foot of soft turf covers the chalk rock that underlies all this section and makes an ideal cushion for the marching feet. The camp is supplied with piped water, the sanitary arrangements are excellent, and it is fairly evident that the ground selected will be very healthy. It is true that the roads betray a weak-minded unwillingness to dissolve in mud under heavy transports and the frequent rains that have accompanied the artillery practice. The turf does not dry out as rapidly as could be asked. But the men are fit as fighting cocks.

And let me again emphasize the Americanism of the outfit. I do not mean Canadian Americanism or United States Americanism, but that Americanism that runs from the Mexican line north. They talk Texas talk and New York talk as well as Calgary talk. While the chauffeur was cranking up for the start back to town I overheard an illuminating bit of dialogue. A tall private was wagging a long finger in the face of an individual who wore an apron of sack and an air of violent innocence. "You know what I did with a cook like you one time down in the White River?" asked the tall private, his finger vibrating violently. "I just naturally made him eat his own grub. Yes, sir. He had his choice between his own biscuits and a saddle leather, and he took the biscuits."

"Gin Pills, I know from personal experience, are the sovereign remedy for Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble in any form. I was cured by them after months of suffering. I was hopeless—had several doctors and many other remedies but all failed to cure me. Then I tried Gin Pills with the result that I am well today. I heartily recommend them to any person suffering from Kidney or Bladder Trouble."

Tod Sloan Goes to War For Belgium; Drives Auto Under Fire to Save Wounded

(By Hugh S. Fullerton). CHAPTER IV. Tod Sloan, idol of the racing world, spectacular adventurer, shuttlecock of fortune, was fading from the limelight when the war storm swept over Europe. Cosmopolitan by taste, owing allegiance to none or to all nations, he found himself engulfed in the maelstrom of passion that swept the continent. He might have claimed American protection and fled; he might have avoided military service because of his size.

But Sloan's patron and friend, Meyers, a Belgian millionaire, the man who had stood by and befriended him when the racing world was against him, had taken a stand with the Belgian king. Sloan had small cause to love England even less cause to love France and, less even than that to care for Russia. But Meyers gave his fortune and his services to Belgium, and Sloan at once stepped to the front and offered his services to the Belgian army.

SUFFERED FROM BILIOUS HEADACHE. At Times Thought She Would Go Mad.

Headaches are one of the most aggravating troubles a person can have. They are many and varying, but when the headache starts you may be sure that there is some other chief cause of this most painful difficulty. The stomach may go wrong, the bowels become constipated, the blood may not circulate properly, but the presence of the headache clearly shows that there is some other bacterial disease which is liable to assert itself unless the cause of the headache is removed. Get rid of the headache and thus perhaps save yourself many years of trial and suffering.

Burdock Blood Bitters has, for the past forty years, been curing all kinds of headaches, and has also proved itself to be a remedy that cures where all others fail. It does this by removing the cause of the trouble.

COLLEGE MAN IS BEST FIGHTER SAYS JORDAN. New York, Nov. 25.—"The university man is a better fighter than his less educated brother," declared David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford University in the Broadway Tabernacle. "This was proved in the Civil War. Statistics state that in former wars the cost of killing one man was $40,000, but the modern death dealing machinery has made it possible to kill a man for about $10,000."

FOR THE EMPIRE!

BRITAIN NEEDS MEN

LORD KITCHENER SAYS:---

"TO THE PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE:—EVERY FIGHTING UNIT WE CAN SEND TO THE FRONT MEANS ONE STEP NEARER PEACE"

WHO WILL VOLUNTEER TODAY FOR OVERSEAS SERVICE

HERE ARE THE CONDITIONS

Recruiting for the New Brunswick Regiment Must be Completed Within Ten Days

THE VOLUNTEERS

THE PERIOD OF ENLISTMENT is for the duration of the war and for six months after termination if required.

THE RATE OF PAY is $1.10 per day and found for seven days a week, equal to $33.00 per month.

IF DISABLED, the soldier will receive a pension at such rates as may be fixed by the Government.

IF WOUNDED OR ILL, the soldier will be well cared for and sent back to his home at the proper time.

THEIR FAMILIES

SOLDIERS MAY ASSIGN any portion of their regular pay to wives or others, and such sums will be paid regularly to the persons so designated.

WIVES OF VOLUNTEERS will receive twenty dollars per month separation allowance from the Canadian Government over and above the soldiers pay.

THE PATRIOTIC FUND will supplement this with an additional allowance as described hereafter.

SHOULD ANY OF THE SOLDIERS BE KILLED, their wives and children will become wards of the Canadian Government, and generous provision will be made for them.

The National Patriotic Fund Committee has decided on a basis of distribution of funds among the wives and children, and other dependents of volunteers. It is estimated that a wife on her own account requires Thirty Dollars Per Month for her maintenance. The Canadian Government provides Twenty Dollars per month of this amount and the Patriotic Fund the remaining Ten Dollars, if required. Children between ten and fifteen years of age are allowed twenty-five cents per day; from five to ten years of age, fifteen cents per day; and under five years of age, ten cents per day. Thus a wife and three children of the ages of three, seven and twelve, may receive a total monthly allowance of Forty-five Dollars, of which Twenty Dollars is payable by the Canadian Government and Twenty-five Dollars by the Patriotic Fund. This is of course in addition to the Thirty-three Dollars per month paid to the soldier, and which may be assigned by him to his family.

Besides the above, provision is made for a compassionate allowance for temporary extraordinary need such as accident, sickness, etc. In short, the whole purpose of the Patriotic Fund is so to supplement the Government allowance as to provide all reasonable comfort for the families of men on service. Such provision, in each individual case, is subject to the report of local committees, who shall consider all the circumstances of families affected, with respect to the earnings of members of such families, amounts received from former employer of the soldiers, and other sources of income.

Every reasonable provision is thus made for dependent relatives, and volunteers need have no anxiety regarding the welfare of those left behind.

The 26th New Brunswick Regiment, 2nd Canadian Overseas Expeditionary Force requires Six Hundred more men at once. The full strength must be completed in ten days.

WHO WILL ENLIST?

Recruits Will Be Received By the Following Officers:—

BILLIARDS

A Challenge at 64. Chicago, Nov. 24—Byron S. Gillette, professional billiardist, last spring celebrated his 64th birthday by winning the trophy emblematic of the three-cushion championship of Los Angeles, Cal. Later "the grand old man" of billiards, trophy against aspiring challengers, and the City of Angels boasts some of the very best angle experts on the Pacific coast.

Now Mr. Gillette blazes forth with a chip on his shoulder, during Champion Alfredo de Oro, John Daly, the Cuban's most recent challenger for world's honors. John Horgan, Joe Carney, Pierre Maupome or any of the stars, to knock it off. The veteran has simply thrown down the gauntlet to all of them without discrimination, and despite his age, offers to back himself in a match at three-cushion caroms for money, marbles or chalk. Mr. Gillette began playing billiards when a child of eight. His father was a room-keeper and the prevailing table was the old 6x12 with pockets, much like the English table of today, minus the vastly improved cushions, etc. Young Gillette was a natural player and he developed rapidly, so fast in fact that in 1871, when just of age, he met and defeated George Slason, then of Chicago, in a straight rail match in Stanciliff Hall, Elmira, N. Y. Four balls were used in the contest, and the dimensions of the table were 8 1/2 x 11. The cushion-crotch shot was barred and Gillette won the match, which was at 1000 points. He averaged 50 flat and had a high run of 282. It was a hard-fought battle and Slason was beaten by a small margin. Mr. Gillette fails to recall the famous "student's" actual score. In 1868, when the late Frank Ives was at his best, Gillette beat him in an impromptu match at three-cushions in Cincinnati. Ives and the late Jacob Schaefer were giving ball-line exhibitions in "Redville" at the time, and the match grew out of a friendly argument. Ives had made the boast that he could beat anybody in the room playing three-cushions. Gillette overheard the remark and volunteered to take "Napoleon" on. Julius Baile, an innocent bystander, immediately lent interest to the affair by offering a bottle of champagne as a stake. This settled it, and Ives, pulling off his coat, jumped to the table, naming fifteen points for the string. Gillette wanted to play twenty-five, but Ives had his way. He got only four points for his pains, while Gillette ran out. Ives was mad as a hatter, and poor Jake Schaefer laughed merrily to see his great rival go down in defeat. Gillette's style of billiards were too varied for him to have become a champion at any particular game. In his long career he has played them all well. It has only been in the last few years, however, that Gillette has devoted his entire time to three-cushions, with the result that he now plays the single game like a champion. He says that in three-cushions there is less strain on the player than at ball-line, with its long runs and more delicate assemblage of play.

FOOTBALL

Football and Recruiting

London, Nov. 24—The utility of trying to carry on recruiting on a football ground was demonstrated on Saturday when Colonel Burn, M. P., an aide de camp to King George, addressed the crowd of spectators before a big match started. The kick-off interrupted his words, and although Colonel Burn tried again at half-time, and at the end of the game, the crowd of 30,000 yielded only one recruit. Similar efforts at other football fields also proved failures.

MISS JOSEPHINE FITZPATRICK
Bride of WILLIAM J. SHOWERS

An interesting wedding was solemnized this morning at nine o'clock with nuptial mass in the Cathedral, when Rev. Wm. Duke, the rector, united in marriage Miss Josephine V. Fitzpatrick, youngest daughter of Patrick Fitzpatrick of this city, and William J. Showers of Montreal, a member of the Allan Line staff. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only immediate relatives and friends. The bride, who was given away by her brother, William J. Fitzpatrick, wore a gown of Alice blue with hat to match, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. J. P. Quinn, as matron of honor. The groom's brother, Joseph A. Showers, was groomsmen. Mrs. Quinn was attired in navy blue. After the ceremony, a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, 100 Waterloo street. Mr. and Mrs. Showers will leave by the C. P. R. this evening on a short honeymoon trip to Montreal, and will make their home in St. John for the winter.

Many handsome presents were received testily to their popularity, and there are many friends, both in St. John and elsewhere, who will wish them much happiness. The groom's present to the matron of honor was a bar pin set with amethysts and pearls, and to the groomsmen, a pearl stickpin.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

St. John Man Has Finger Broken
—A Fierce Versifier

G. K. Howard, who is with the Canadian Expeditionary Force in England writes a very interesting letter to his mother, Mrs. W. T. Howard, of this city. Mr. Howard met with an unfortunate accident on his arrival in England. While he was engaged in unloading one of the boats a box of rifles fell on his hand breaking one of his fingers and jamming the other three. He was sent to the Davenport Hospital along with some of the other boys with different ailments and he has just returned to camp.

In the same hospital were three hundred wounded Germans who, he says, did not seem at all anxious to return to the firing line. They were ordered well in the hospital but the orderlies were "witty" over souvenirs, stealing his belt and stripping the buttons off his tunic. He says they are still under canvas but expect to go into barracks soon.

Mr. Howard was formerly a member of the 62nd regiment but has resided in Vancouver for the last few years and when the first call came for volunteers he was quick to enlist. He says he likes it well. He wishes to be remembered to his friends in St. John.

Mrs. George Campbell, of 42 St. John street, west, has received a letter from her son, Clarence, who is with the soldiers at Salisbury Plain. He states that he is having a pleasant time, is in good health, enjoyed the voyage across, and expects to pay a visit to his mother and visit friends in London to be remembered to all his friends in St. John, and encloses a copy of a rather gory appeal which has been printed and circulated in the mother country, beginning with the lines:

"Sound the bloody trumpet
"Beat the bloody drums."
There are eight verses of quite too sanguinary a nature for general consumption, although the author, whoever he is, suggests that it ought to stir the blood of the patriot. No St. John need have been "seeing red" to anything like the same extent as this fierce versifier on the other side.

The Man In The Street

More "horrors of war." A British M. P. suggests entire prohibition for at least six months.

And they say that some local opponents of war excused their gifts of tobacco for the soldiers by saying they hoped it would come in handy to smoke the pipe of peace with the Kaiser.

The delay in recruiting seems to prove that there are no hard times in this part of the country at present. No able-bodied man can put up a hard luck story on the ground that he cannot get a job when it is being offered to him so insistently.

Ask the Censors

The arm-chair strategists had adjourned to the street corner and were discussing the cause of war. The chairman of the conference was talking when the "bonehead" arrived on the scene.

"—and the Germans look umbrageous!" The bonehead comes forth with the howler, "Where is that place situated?"

At the present rate of travelling, the Standard by Christmas will have the entire cause of the European struggle laid at the doors of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

A young fellow, who for the best of reasons was unable to join with the conscription, said to the Man in the Street that every time he stopped to watch the boys in khaki, who have rallied to the call of King and country, he felt like a coward. How about those that are hanging off for no good reason?

Famous Last Lines

Please, Your Honor, if you give me a chance, I'll never get drunk again!

Financial hint—Rubbers are a safe buy at present.

We read a poem once wherein the passionate author said his "main delight was to sit by the roadside and watch the little snails whirling past." What a joyful time he would have watching the Kaiser's men tramping along the road to Paris.

The members of the A. C. Squad who have been telling what they would have done, now have a chance to help do something just as good. About 400 more men are needed for the 89th.

P. S.—In case they didn't recognize themselves by the letters A. C. by way of explanation, we might say it stands for arm-chair.

"For Men Only" is the slogan of those conducting the patriotic meeting on Friday night. Sounds like the best so far.

If the osteopath who says "that no man can tell a lie without raising his nose to the sky" is to be trusted, he himself, some of those Berlin correspondents must have theirs up to the top notch by this time.

Step Lively!

Mr. Pink, because of his experience in "the fight for the steps" will undoubtedly make some of the enemy get a "gate" on. They will surely become "flighty" when they know he's on our side, for he will be particularly effective in offence—ive movements.

Scots and Scotch

A well-known lady of this city is actively engaged in soliciting aid for one of the Scottish military funds, and is directing her appeal chiefly to the local institutions of the country. She met a likely prospect in the street, but was somewhat dubious about his descent, and she said to the conversation:

"Mr. Blank, I just wanted to ask if you have any Scotch in you?"

"No," was the emphatic denial with a somewhat startled air. "I haven't had a drink today."

Very Emphatic.

"If I were a rich man, said the cub reporter, "and had not been digging down good and deep for all the patriotic funds and all the local institutions that need financial assistance, I would want to take the side streets or stay home, through fear that I might meet a man in Khaki and die of shame."

The cub reporter has a very direct way of expressing his views.

Mr. Pink is in the pink of condition, and all his friends hope that he may be able to think the inventor of the German goose-step.

DISTRICT LODGE I.O.G.T. IN ANNUAL SESSION.
D. C. FISHER AT HEAD

The St. John District Lodge, I. O. G. T. met in an annual session last evening in Temple Hall with a very large attendance. Reports from the lodges showed good progress along all lines, and a great deal of enthusiasm. Twenty-seven candidates had the district degree conferred.

The election of officers for the incoming year took place with the following results: D. C. Fisher, D. C.; Geo. McKel; D. V. T. Mrs. Akerley; D. Sec, Henry McEachern; D. E. S. L. delley; Wm. B. L. Kipstrat; D. Chap. Wm. Arbo; D. Mar. Miss J. Miller; D. S. J. W. Mrs. E. N. Stockford; D. C. T. B. Stachoues.

After the regular business, refreshments were served by the ladies of Dominion Lodge.

LANCASTER MEETING ARRANGED FOR NOV. 30

Recruiting Rally in Fairville Temperance Hall—Funeral of Frederick Wolfe—The Mission

The New Brunswick Patriotic Committee have completed arrangements for the meeting to be held in Fairville Temperance Hall. The date was decided upon last evening, Nov. 30 next, Monday evening, was chosen. Speakers will be secured from St. John and a crowded house is looked for. With the boys at Valcartier in the first contingent, Lancaster is represented by about twenty-five of her sons, and it is said that seven or eight from Fairville are already signed with the 36th Battalion now being organized. Several local young men have also joined the home defence force. Impetus will be given recruiting by the proposed meeting. It should be remembered that the hall is none too large, and it would be well to see that those of the age likely to join the colors are accorded room in preference to those who could not go under any circumstances to aid in the war.

The funeral of Frederick Wolfe, who died suddenly on Sunday, took place yesterday afternoon. After a short service at his son's residence, a public service was held in the Church of the Good Shepherd by Rev. W. P. Dunham. The funeral procession was very lengthy, including employees of R. H. Bell and other many floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. Mr. Wolfe leaves, besides his son Eli at home, a daughter, Mrs. Burhill, of Boston, a brother Charles of River Hebert, N. S., and one sister, Mrs. Wm. Lasky, of Chicago.

The mission being conducted in the Church of the Good Shepherd was attended by many last evening. Rev. Mr. Crowfoot preached a powerful sermon on mission lines and at the close gave a short address of instruction. The Fairville Brotherhood were well represented at the service, their meeting having been postponed to permit them to attend the mission. It is reported that several of the other churches are waiving their services with the idea of aiding the movement carried on by the Church of England.

WILL OF JAMES KNOX

In the probate court today the will of James Knox, ship chandler, was proved. He gives his household furniture and effects to his daughter Marion C. Knox; each of his grandchildren, James W. Knox, J. Howe Knox and Muriel Knox, $100, the rest of his estate he directs to be divided into equal shares and paid to his daughter Marion C. Knox and his two sons Richard E. and John W. Knox, whom he nominates as executors. The three were sworn in as such. Power is given to his executors to continue his business of ship chandler if they desire. There is no real estate, personally, $8,800, besides life insurance. Clarence H. Ferguson is probator.

In the matter of the estate of Samuel George Kilpatrick, bookkeeper, William G. H. Kilpatrick of East Orange, N. J., manager, marine hardware agency, J. Cecil Mitchell of St. John, insurance agent, and the Eastern Trust Company, the executors and trustees filed their accounts, not final, and ask for passing of them. A citation was issued returnable December 28 at 11 a. m. Barnhill, Ewing & Sanford, probators.

Brothers to the War.

The Times a few days ago announced presentations to Bert Lloyd and Bert Cooper, Oak Hall employees going to the war. It may be added that Mr. Lloyd already has a brother at Salisbury Plain.

Hesperian Delayed

Messrs. William Thomson & Company, agents of the Allan Line, today received advice that the "Hesperian" is late in sailing from Liverpool, and will not be able to leave St. John before two p. m. on December 8.

Handsome Calendar.

The Times has received from R. F. Wright, provincial manager of the North American Life Assurance Company a very attractive wall calendar for 1915. It is illustrated by a very handsome lithograph of a painting by J. E. Samson, the well-known artist.

This is the season when merchants, anticipating heavy December sales, carry their best assorted and largest stocks.

This is the season when it is most interesting to shop.

This is the season when the newspaper advertising of merchants and manufacturers bubbles over with good news.

If you want to spend some really interesting moments run your eye over the advertising in The Telegraph and Times.

Every line of it is the message of an optimist.
