WILLIAM J. BRYAN EXPLAINS HIS AND ROOSEVELT'S POLICIES

Great Democrat, Who May Be a Candidate Against the Rough Rider, Tells in Special Article Where He and the Colonel Agree and Disagree.

The possibilty that Theodore Roosevelt will be nominated at Chicago has forced a vital question on the Democratic party. Can they beat him? What Democrat has the best chance to do it? From thousands of Democrats comes an answer: "Yes, with Bryan."

The Chicago convention, therefore, is likely to determine the nominee at Baltimore. There's no cloud on Bryan's title as a progressive. Many Republicans and most Democrats say there is on Roosevelt's. They also charge Roosevelt with having stolen the "Bryan policies." Has he done it? Is he

The following was the resolution on temperance presented to the Your committee rejoices to know that the Provincial Government is making a noticeable effort to administer and enforce the liquor law. but notwithstanding all the vigilance used the law is still violated. We are of the opinion that in addition to the fines now imposed, the strongest deterrent to the violations of the law would be to cancel the license on the first wilful infraction of the law. While we know that men cannot be made sober by law, we fully realize that it is the duty of the state to curtail the liquor traffic in whatever way will be in the best interests of the citizens generally. Both political parties in this province are now pledged to such a course of action. Twenty-Two Applications of Ministers To Be Received by Church.

Edmonton, June 12. - Dr. C. W. Gordon presented his report, as convener of the committee for the supply of student missionaries and ministers. Mr. Alex. Saunders, of Goderich, spoke of the order of recruits in Knox Church in that town in connection with the reference to recruiting men for the ministry.

The proposal to make an option for theological students to learn Hebrew brought up a big battle between Dr. Forrest, Dr. Kelley, Principal Murray, Dr. Robert Campbell, Dr. C. W. Gordon, Professor Laird, and not a few more. The moderator confessed that he was unacquainted with the alphabet, and felt that he was not crippled as a minister by the ack of it. The recommendation that Hebrew and Greek be optional was Dr. Forrest asked to have his dissent from the finding recorded for reasons he will give later.

Pastoral Supervision. Professor Laird reported for a committee appointed to consider the question of supervising pastors in presbyteries. The committee recommended that the assembly recognize right of presbyteries to make such appointments, but declare that ministers without charge cannot be given full status as members of presbytery without special permission of the assembly. The presbyteries mus be wholly responsible for their financial support. In view of the admin-Istrative difficulties arising from the fact that such Presbyterian supervisions do not come under the control of the assembly's home mission committee, and that serious misunderstanding may thus result, the assembly is recommended to declare it inadvisable that such appointment be

High-Priced Books

Experts Do Not Agree on Their Authenticity, But the Value Is There.

To the ordinary buyer a book is just book. If it be the average novel of oday, one may agree with the lady who buys only the books that are bound in blue, without any consideration for the text.

Not that all modern fiction is bad, but, as the fellow said of fountain pens, most of them are worse than others.

The famous Hoe library sale caused the indifferent public to stop and take some notice. Several of the Hoe vol umes brought prices away up into the thousands of dollars, and the Gutten-berg Bible, from this wonderful library brought the record price of $50,000. So the average buyer and reader of every-day books is wondering if the prices of books are going up with the cost of living.

It now appears that a question arises as to the genuineness of some of the Hoe books. Experts do not all agree that they are originals. This should be of slight consequence these that have paid their thousands for them, Such books are not bought for their text matter. Even though they be not genuine, they are "rare," and as it is this feature that is sought by collectors, possessors of these rare volumes should be satisfied.

It is the ordinary buyer of books that must be careful and guard against ounterfeits. The London Advertiser is distributing Webster's New Illustrated Dictionary. The object is to put an authentic and authoritative reference into every home reached by The the London Advertiser, and to encourage educatios. As there are dictionaries on the market that are not all they are That a board of finance be apclaimed to be, it behooves the average book buyer to be careful. Not Always Rare AN IMPORTANT SHORT STORY ABOUT 384 LAWN WAISTS

ON SALE 796 Worth Up to FRIDAY AT 796 $2.00 Each $2.00 Each

A very long story might be written, but if we told you all the superior merits we know these 384 Waists to possess, you would think it an exaggeration, but we will give you the story as concisely as possible, or as the saying goes, will give it in a nutshell.

Because the spring weather has been so unspringlike, makers find themselves overstocked, for their plants must run steadily on even though the stocks are not moving out, and we are glad to co-operate in the movement along the lines indicated by the prices in above headline.

Not until you have yourself inspected the quality, style and workmanship of these blouses will you fully realize how very unusual they really are.

This pretty Blouse is trimmed with torchon insertion and

Panel front of shadow embroidery, edged on both sides with very fine shadow insertion, rows of insertion down front complete the effect, high collar trimmed with insertion and fine lawn, 34 sleeve with pretty cuff of insertion and lawn, sizes 34 to 42.

On the purchase of this lot we have saved a few hundred dollars, and the entire amount will be distributed to purchasers of these Waists tomorrow, early in the month of June, the great purchasing month for Summer Waists. In Dundas street window will be seen a few of the models, and each one tells an interesting story of real economy. A few partial descriptions will help you to better realize their value:

Pretty Waist With Embroidery Panels

Lace and Insertion

This Blouse has two very pretty panels of embroidery edged with lace forming the front, high collar of fine lace insertion, edged with piping of white lawn, 3/4 set-in sleeve, finished with cuff of insertion with fine piping of white lawn, sizes 34 to Imagine such Waists as above descriptions represent, which are only a few of the many styles represented in this special purchase to be sold at such a ridiculously low price as 79¢, but it is the result of special distribution of merchandise and cooperation of this store with the manufacturers in the quick disposal of large quantities which we made mention of a few days ago. Wise people will not pass this Blouse Sale tomorrow, but come in the morning. There are only 32 dozen, and many will take two to half a dozen Waists at this price. Mail and phone orders will be filled by mail order buyers while they last.

AN ANALYSIS OF KING EDWARD.

Some of the British newspapers are, curiously enough, attacking the sketch of the late King Edward, written by Sir Sidney Lee for his National Biography Supplement. They are sorry to learn that Asquith's wickedness was not the cause of the King's death, and they quarrel with the information that he did not influence British toreign policy except by his charm of manner and general popularity. They are not content to think that the "peacemaker" lacked political vision while possessing political tact. Sir Sidney Lee says, in summing up the charcater of King Edward:

King Edward cannot be credited with the greatness that comes of statesmanship and makes for the molding of history. Neither the confluencing political affairs,

Are we here told anything really lifferent from sober estimates already published? Most people in fact have thought that Edward VII. made no pretence to statecraft initiative or to higher expert knowledge. Who is surprised to hear that he was "a man of the world" rather than of the office or study, "eager for varied information" rather than a speecialist in anything, tactful gentleman rather than a theming diplomatist? He furnished he oil of diplomacy, leaving its machinery to his expert ministers of ce under a constitutional monarchy.

Where Kings Had A Hard Time

[By Special Arrangement With the Winnipeg Telegram.]

When a king is not removed from the throne altogether, he fares better under modern democratic conditions than he did in those ancient times when the people looked upon him as a son of the gods. I have been moved to compassion for the kings of savage nations as I have read the new edition of that famous book, "The Golden Bough," by Professor J. G. Frazer, of Cambridge. The Macmillan Company have just issued the third volume which bears the euphonious title, "The Dying God." It must be said that kingship was a dismal office in most parts of the world, even up to quite recent times. Among most civilized tribes the monarch held his place on very insecure tenure, In Zululand, for instance, a slight bedily blemish, such as the loss of a tooth, or the appearance of silver threads among the gold, was considered a sufficient cause for putting one of these god-men to death. If the king was unlucky enough to catch the measles of any other infectious disease he was obliged to take poison. The king had to keep himself free from every blemish, if not it was better for his honor that he should die and seek another life where he would be made whole, for in the other world everything was supposed to be perfect. This custom of doing away with the king, or expecting him On the cost of things each morning. to make his exit as soon as his constitution began to fail, or even when ne lost an eye, or broke a leg, has prerailed widely in different continents.

If a king mismanaged things or entravened the customs of his nation he was also in jeopardy of his life. In the kingdom of Eyeo in Africa, when the people got it into their heads that the king was not giving them good government they were in the habit of sending to him a deputation with a present of parrots' eggs to represent to him that the burden of government must have fatigued aim that they considered it time for him to repose from his cares and indulge himself with a little sleep. The king, of course, knew what this polite intimation meant. He thanked his subjects for their attention to his were always obliging enough to man pretty rough usage, but he is forced to admire the courtesy with

After surveying the whole field, am disposed to think that the Shilluk king had about the most difficult position to fill and to hold of which history holds record. He was not only subjected to the age and accident test, could not only be deposed for having a white moustache or a dislocated place by choice. As a matter of fact shoulder, but he was also obliged to "What we have 'we'll hold!" Even and worked on the farm. It would while yet in the prime of health and have been no disgrace if he had strength, he was liable to be attacked at any time by a rival, or even by one of his own sons, and if the subject who attacked him could kill him his crown man of his ability. If the doctrine would go to the victor. The assault on the Free Press were to apply Hon. him could only take place with any prospect of success at night, for in the daytime the king was surrounded by his bodyguard. At night, however, the though he is a citizen of London, and guards were dismissed and the king was alone in his inclosure with his favorite wives, and custom ordained that no man could remain near him to defend him. Under these conditions full of great schemes. A valued cornight was the time perilous for the sovereign of the Shilluks. The Letter Received. The announcement has created much egret among the board of governors

Rumors of Understandings Between Various Powers Puzzling the Public.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, June 13.-A London cable says: The King of Montenegro's visit to Vienna, the King of Bulgaria's visit to Berlin, the movements of the British and French warships on the Mediterranean, and the renewal of the German Navy League agitation-all these movements are occasioning much speculation and some apprehensions of serious changes in the European map.

The policy of Russia and Italy is puzzling most people. There are rumors of a German-Austrian-Russian understanding, and rumors also of an Italian-French-British understanding. The general public, however, is und! turbed. The resignation of Lord Chan-cellor Loreburn and the succession to the office of Lord Haldane are not believed to have any international significance.

CITIZENS' PLEDGE DAY

London Ladies Will Hold One in Aid of Playgrounds on Wednesday Next. Several of London's leading women have taken the establishing of supervised playgrounds for London children very much to heart, and met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. P. Betts, Queen's avenue, to consider ways and means of raising funds to further the plan. Dr. Curtis the playground organizer, was present, and made a strong appeal to the ladies to work for the movement. It was urged that the more members joining the association, the greater would be the weight brought to bear with the council and board of education. It was a matter of good citizenship, Dr. Curtis said, and affected regretted that Chandler, the British Columbia distance man who was dropped out owing to lack of funds, in favor of Decoteau, the Albertan, left so suddenly for home, as otherwise he might have been selected to go along in place of Kerr, it being conceded that he would have had at least as good a chance in the distances as Beasley will have in the sprints.

Newspapers supporting the "Progressive" wing of the Republican party greeted the delegation with editorials urging them to support a third party movement if Roosevelt should not be nominated, and the resolutions pledged the delegates "to go the limit" against "those who are putting through the anti-Roosevelt putting through the anti-Roosevelt should be a sprints. programme at Chicago."

Working Daily. Knox has such members of the team as are already here working out daily on the M. A. A. grounds. The weather, however, has been cold and damp, and little hard work has been indulged in. The head coach finds most of the men easy to handle, but is having trouble with the pick of the lot, Army Howard, the colored sprinter. Doctor Tells How to Shed Bad Complexion

We cannot restore degenerated facial tissue any more than we can restore a lost limb. It is useless to attempt to convert a worn-out complexion into a new one. The rational procedure is to remove the complexion instead-remove the devitalized cuticle. Not by surgical means, however, as the underlying cutis is too thin, too tender, to withstand immediate exposure. Applying ordinary mercolized wax will gradually absorb the offending cuticle. By degrees, a new. youthful skin appears; a skin soft and delicately tinted as a rose petal.

No lady need hesitate to try this. Procure an ounce of mercolized wax of the druggist. Spread on a thin layer before retiring, removing this in the morning with soap and water. In from one to two weeks the complexion is completely transformed. An approved treatment for wrinkles is provided by dissolving an ounce of Rupert Mackenzie in Popular Medi- girl. CAPTAIN BECHER GAZETTED MAJOR

[Canadian Press.] Montreal June 12.-The decision of ish his paper, Le Pays, along the same liberal lines notwithstanding the reprimand administered by the Roman Catholic authorities, is arousing a lot of speculation as to what wil happen next. Friends of M. Langlois, who approve of his fight for better school conditions, are warmly supporting him, and they announce that n the event of the Archbishop of Montreal placing Le Pays under the ban. they will urge him to take the matter into the courts and secure a decision as to whether the church has legal power to thus attempt to injure the business of a man it disapproves

MONTREAL MURDERER SENT TO GALLOWS

Foreigner Killed Woman With Whom He Boarded.

Montreal, June 12.-The second death sentence to be passed at the present term of the court of King's bench was delivered tonight by Judge Gervais, when after twenty minutes' deliberation a jury brought in a verdict of guilty l'eutenant: George Geddes, gentleman. of murder against Sylvio Yacovloff, who was charged with the murder of his sister-in-law, Louisa Tremblay, on March 19 last.

Following sentence the accused made statement in which he maintained his nnocence.

Summer cooking with comfort

NTO need to stew your life out over a coal range during the hot weather. Gas is a much cheaper cooking fuel than coal, and far more convenient in the summer time. Why fatigue yourself and make the house uncomfortable for the whole family when you can save money by cooking with gas. Any "McClary" Gas Range will pay for itself in a very short time by the actual cash it saves, not to say anything about its handiness.

The Model shown in the cut is a handsome Gas Range - "Mc-Clary's" 1912 Modeland considered the biggest range value on the market. You will see at a glance that the convenience and comfort of the housekeeper has been considered by the designers and makers. The Ovens are elevated - just conveniently high-so that there is no "stooping or bending" when cooking with this range.

This Model like other McClary Ranges has the bright black enamel finish-white enamelled broiler and drip pan-Ovens just the right size with proper flue construction. Also Anti-Rust linings and plain smooth nickelled finish.

Better see the McClary dealer and ask him to tell you the reasons why you should buy a McClary gas range. He will explain the exclusive features of the range suitable for your kitchen without placing you under any obligation to buy. All we want you to do is to make perfectly certain that the Gas Range you buy will pay for itself very

Summer cooking with comfort

TO need to stew your life out over a coal range during the hot weather. Gas is a much cheaper cooking fuel than coal, and far more convenient in the summer time. Why fatigue yourself and make the house uncomfortable for the whole family when you can save money by cooking with gas. Any "McClary" Gas Range will pay for itself in a very short time by the actual cash it saves, not to say anything about its handiness.

The Model shown in the cut is a handsome Gas Range - "Mc-Clary's" 1912 Modeland considered the biggest range value on the market. You will see at a glance that the convenience and comfort of the housekeeper has been considered by the designers and makers. The Ovens are elevated - just conveniently high-so that there is no "stooping or bending" when cooking with this range.

This Model like other McClary Ranges has the bright black enamel finish-white enamelled broiler and drip pan-Ovens just the right size with proper flue construction. Also Anti-Rust linings and plain smooth nickelled finish.

Better see the McClary dealer and ask him to tell you the reasons why you should buy a McClary gas range. He will explain the exclusive features of the range suitable for your kitchen without placing you under any obligation to buy. All we want you to do is to make perfectly certain that the Gas Range you buy will pay for itself very

CANON INDORSED BY SYNOD WILL MAKE SWEEPING CHANGES

New Method of Filling Vacancies Was Supported By Bishop Williams and Passed After a Long and Interesting Debate-Parochial Committee Will in Future Fill Pulpits.

The discussion of a new canon mak-gregations, and were therefore coming sweeping changes in the methods now employed in filling -vacancies and effecting changes among the clergy, occupied the full time of the Anglican Synod yesterday afternoon. The canon which provides that vacant pulpits shall be filled by a parochial committee in conference with the bishop, instead of by a vote of the congregation as has previously been the procedure was hotly contested, and it was not until the closing hour of the session that the debate was terminated and the question put to a vote. The measure, which had the support, of Bishop Williams, was sustained by a substantial majority.

The principal clause of this bew church legislation reads as follows: There shall be in every parish a committee on clerical appointment and exchange, hereinafter called the parochial committee, which shall consist of the lay members of the synod, their substitutes, and the church wardens, and which shall have full power in conference with the bishop to tepresent the parish in the selection of in incumbent, and shall exercise that power without any further reference to or consultation with, the registered veters or with the vestry."

Where two or more congregation are served by the same rector, provision is made for a committee comprising the church wardens and dele-

E. G. Henderson, of Windsor, thought scandal to the diocese to say that it a scandal to the diocese to say that the delegates and church wardens were the best in the congregations. "No parish is doing its duty unless it selects its best men as representatives," said be, "and if we can trust our representatives with the election of a bishop, surely they should be competent to select an incumbent in consultation with his lordship.

Many in Favor.
Others spoke in favor of the measure ontending that it safeguarded the clergy against the discussions which were a feature of congregational meetings. "We do not want the clergymen discused and their characters perhaps torn to shreds by a lot of chuch politicians," said one

Bishop Gives His Views.

After the discussion had continued without apparent result for the greater part of the afternoon, His Lordship Bishop Williams gave his view of the question. He emphasized the need of a standing committee to deal with the question of exchanges. "We need to educate the people of this diocese to the idea that there can be an exchange of prising the church wardens and delegrates of both congregations.

Opposed the Plan.

Mr. John Ransford, of Clinton, opposed the measures declaring that the people of this broad that no cne can be measured declaring that the people of this parish, and many other parishes throughout the diocese; were unalterably opposed to surrendering the right of the whole congegation to have a voice in the selection of their rectors. He questioned the intervent of the selection of their rectors. He questioned the like in the people of this diocese to the idea that there can be an exchange of incumbents which is simply an 'exchange,' said his lordship. At present the impression is abroad that no cne can be moved unless promoted without some disgrace attaching to him. You will be very foolish if you do not adopt this canon as it relates to exchanges, and 1 think it would be unwise to reject in the selection of their rectors. "BLACK SHEEF" BOY WAS SENT TO LONDON

Lorne Finch's Parents Requested That Their Son Be Returned to Them.

[Special to The Advertiser.[Sarnia, June 13. — Lorne Finch, the 15-year-old London boy, who was arrested here last Sunday, charged with trespassing on Grand Trunk property, and who claimed to be a member in good standing of the socalled "Black Sheep Club," was sent back to London at the request of his parents. His transportation was furnished by them, as well as the costs of the court connected with his case.

DILEMMA OF JUSTICE

[Canadian Press.]

Malone, N. Y., June 13 .- Two chickens flew to the north end of a room occupied by a justice court yesterday and bade defiance to the justice and his constabulary minions. Then a man accused of stealing the chickens did the same thing, and American justice was in a dilemma.

The courtroom is one-half in Canada and one half in the United States, and the prisoner, for himself and the chickens, claimed they were outside the jurisdiction of the court.

A young Malone attorney, who represented the people in the case, was summoning all his tact to coax the feathered and unfeathered bipeds back under the Stars and Stripes, when the former, unlettered in the law of jurisdiction, cackled their way across the line, followed by the defendant, who tried to shoo the chickens over into Canada again. He was unsuccessful, because he was grabbed and held to the bar on the United States side until found guilty and sentenced to 30 days in jail.

POLICE MAGISTRATE JUDD

treating" legislation. Clandestine Marriages. The amendment of Mr. Backus was ustained by a large majority. Another clause of the report which gave rise to some discussion was one relating to question of marriage. The ommittee recommended that "In order to guard against clandestine marriages, and to guard as far as possible against the evil results which cometimes follow, it would be well toconform to the prayer book rule of naving the bans published and the eremony performed in the church." It was pointed out that the Roman Catholic Church held any marriage landestine performed between its embers by anyone other than a Catholic clergyman, and after a de-bate which consumed mearly half an hour, it was decided to amend the clause to read:

'In order to secure a proper degree f publicty, and to discourage secret marriages, etc.

The accepted clauses of the report n amended form is as follows:

Marriage. 1. In the opinion of your committee many enter into the state of holy matrimony without due consideration of the causes for which matrimony was ordained. The welfare of the church and state rests upon the stability and sanctity of the home. In order to secure a proper degree of publicity and to guard against marriafes, and as far possible against the evil results, which in many cases follow, it would be well to conform to the Prayer Book rule of having the banns published and The number of transactions was of mid-number proportions on the Toronto Stock Fathers and mothers should be urged Exchange this morning, and there was to impress upon their children the very little movement in prices: Toronto Railway, 372 at 143¼ to 113½: Mackay, 59 at 85% to 86; do, preferred, 195 at 69½; Rio, 480 at 138½ to 138%; do, bonds, bring the matter before their con-
