WRITTEN UNDER A SEASON OF PECULIAR AFFLICTION. Isaiah 40, 29th. He giveth power to the faint and to them that have no might He increaseth strength. Again to Thee, my Father, God.

The tribute of my praise I bring, Whose arm sustained beneath the rod, Thy power and faithfulness I sing. Weaker than any bruised reed, Fainting beneath my load of pain, I sought Thee in my hour of need, Nor sought thy promised aid in vain.

In vain the temper tried his power, In vain his snares were round me thrown And from the darkness of that hour, My soul escaped through Thee alone.

To Calvary's sacred mount I turned, To view my suffering Saviour there, And prostrate at His feet, I learned My weight of agony to bear.

Never until my latest hour.

May I this proof of love forget; Or doubt thy faithfulness and power, Through aught that may await me yet. And now another prayer is mine,

'Tis that the life preserved by Thee, And crown'd with Mercy, may be thine, May one continued offering be. And Oh! with my increasing cares,

May increased grace be kindly given To train these young, immortal heirs Of Glory, up for Glory's Heaven. That when the tribes of Earth shall meet,

Before the Universal Throne, We there may all our children greet And hear the welcome word, " Well done."

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. GATTIKER. Zurich, 3 Sept 1853 - I have tried DuBarry's Revalent soothing remedy has the effect not only of arresting the vomiting, which is so fearfully distressing in Cancer of of the Stomach, but also of restoring perfect digestion and assimilation. The same satisfactory influence of this excellent remedy I have found in all complaints of the digestive organs, it has also proved effectual in a most obstinate case of habitual flatisface and colic of many years standing. I look upon this delicious Food as the most excellent restorative gift of nature.

To Professor Hottoway,
Sir,—I beg to inform you that for years I was a suffeer from Chronic Rheumatism, and was often laid up for weeks together by its severe and painful attacks. I tried every thing that was recommended, and was attended received no relief whatever, and fearing that my health would be entirely broken m). I was induced to go into our County Hospital, where I had the best medical treatment the linssifution afforded, all of which proved of no avail, and I came out no better than I went in. I was then advised to try your Fills, and by persevering with them west perfectly cured, and enabled to resume my occupation, and although a considerable period has elapsed I have left no ieturn of the complaint.

I am, Sir, your obliged Servant,

The Provincial Wesleyan, from its large, increasing and general circulation, is an eligible and desirable medium for advertising. Persons will find it to their advantage to advertise in this paper. The sesential object of this treatise is to point out the fearful consequences resulting from certain habita, irregularities and excesses, which have produced more misery in Youth, degradation in Manhood, and premature decay at all stages of life, than, perhaps, any other class of disease known to modern pathologists. Its perusal is particularly recommended to persons entertaining secret doubts of their physical condition, and who are conscious of having hazarded the health, happiness, and privileges to having hazarded the health, happiness, and privileges to
