

MILITANTS ARE FACING TRIAL TO-DAY

All Except Mrs. Flora Drummond Appear in English Court.

Arson Squads Are Again Active and Are Causing Damage.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, June 9.—The trial of the suffragette leaders charged with conspiracy under the Malignant Damage to Property Act, began to-day at the Central Criminal Court, Old Bailey. The accused comprised Miss Harriet Kerr, Miss Agnes Lake, Miss Rachel Barrett, Mrs. Beatrice Saunders, Miss Annie Kenny, Miss Laura Lennox and Edward Clayton, the analytical chemist, alleged to have acted as adviser to the suffragettes in their campaign. "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond, who was originally charged to-day with the other prisoners did not appear as the case against her had been postponed until July, owing to her illness.

Little interest appeared to be shown by the general public in the trial and there were only a few women in court, who like the prisoners wore black bands on their left arms as a sign of mourning for Miss Emily Wilding Davidson, the militant suffragette who died yesterday at Epsom from the effects of injuries received while trying to interfere with the King's horse when he was running at full gallop in the race for the Derby last Wednesday.

There was a big array of counsel when the case opened. Sir John Simon, the solicitor general, was the leading barrister on behalf of the government, which is acting as prosecutor, while Richard David Muir, one of the best known barristers was the lawyer for the defence.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, June 9.—The "arson squads" of the militant suffragettes have once more become very active, as the fire at the Hurst Park race course started last night, where the damage is estimated at $70,000, they destroyed this morning a boat house on the River Lea at Walthamstow, in the northeast of London, and also the grand stand at the North Middlesex cricket grounds. The fire at Hurst Park was started in the royal box, the furniture of which had been saturated with oil. The flames were not extinguished until 8 o'clock this morning.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, June 9.—The City Council meets to-night, the chief item of interest being the report of the board of works.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, June 9.—A meeting is being held this evening at the Y. M. C. A. when the holding of an inter-Sunday school athletic meet will be discussed.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD HAVE NOTABLE DAY HERE

Unveiling of Monuments Carried Out by Visiting Officers—Large Delegation in the City—Orations by Dr. Harrison and Mr. James Simpson.

Sunday, June 8 was, and will long be remembered as a memorable day in Brantford in the history of the Canadian Order of the Woodmen of the World. Over one thousand members of the order paid a great and loving tribute to the departed members of their order by erecting over their last resting place a beautiful monument as a token of their esteem in which they were held by their fellow men. They also laid beautiful bouquets of flowers on the graves of their deceased members as an exemplification of christian and brotherly love. The great and grand motto of the order "That no Woodman shall sleep in an unmarked grave" was clearly demonstrated by the solemn and impressive services held by the Woodmen in the different cemeteries yesterday afternoon. The rendering of sacred music by the Dufferin Rifles band and the singing of solos by the Brant Quartette added much to the christian spirit which was displayed. There were members of the order present from the west as far as London and St. Thomas, east as far as Toronto, south from the lake front and north from Owen Sound. Lodges in the intermediate points also sent representatives. The citizens turned out by the thousands and flocked to the cemeteries to witness the ceremonies, which were

Camp Drier Than Ever

[Canadian Press Despatch] TORONTO, June 9.—Col. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, has issued an order which will make illegal the sale of all malt liquors in Canadian militia camps, regardless of the quantity of alcohol contained in the liquor. This is expected to prevent the sale of the so-called "temperance" beers, which contain less than 2 per cent. of alcohol. Three hundred and fifty members of the Queen's Own Rifles and fifty-two members of the Royal Grenadiers left Toronto this morning for the Niagara camp.

BOWLERS ARE AT QUEBEC

Steamer Delayed, Awaiting Mail—Irish Fixtures Are Announced.

[Canadian Press Despatch] S. S. VICTORIAN, of Rimouski, Que., June 9.—The Canadian bowlers seized the opportunity to stretch their legs at Quebec when the steamer stopped at the historic port Thursday about noon, the last stopping place on this side of the Atlantic. On account of a little delay in getting the western mail, the steamer did not pull out until 5 o'clock. The entire party went ashore and thoroughly enjoyed a ramble through the quaint old city. Captain Rennie of the Canadian team sent Prince Albert a copy of the souvenir booklet and emblematic button to be presented to the opponents of the Canadian players when they reach the Old Land.

[Canadian Press Despatch] TORONTO, June 9.—The following list of dates for the Canadian Bowling team in Ireland completes the itinerary of the troupe, the dates for Scotland and England having been previously sent out.

Itinerary for Ireland—July 10, Kenilworth at Dublin; 20, in Dublin; 21, Cahill at Belfast; 22, Port Rush at Port Rush; 23, Falls at Belfast; 24, Belfast U.S. at Belfast.

[Canadian Press Despatch] TORONTO, June 9.—Charles Andrew Thompson, aged 20, committed suicide in the cellar of his home at 1028 Geoffrey street, shortly after 5 o'clock this morning by shooting himself through the body with a rifle. His mother, who was in bed, heard the shot and when she went to investigate she found the body. The boy left no explanation. He was a member of the Queen's Own Rifles and presumably had intended to go to camp with his Regiment to-day.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, June 9.—When Premier Asquith rose in the House of Commons this afternoon to move the second reading of the Home Rule for Ireland Bill the House presented an animated and crowded appearance, greatly in contrast with the lethargic condition which had characterized its recent sittings.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, June 9.—The scandal in connection with the Government's wireless contracts and ill-success of Liberal candidates at the bye-elections had created an uneasy feeling that things were going badly for the Government, and strong "calls" had been issued by all the parties in order to secure the unremitting attendance of their members in the event the Government were to fall.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, June 9.—The verdict against Cecil Chesterton on a charge of criminal libel in connection with the Marconi "deal" on Saturday to some extent rehabilitated the cabinet ministers in the eyes of their followers and silenced the attacks of the Opposition newspapers, but a large section of the Radical party is extremely dissatisfied with the lack of frankness on the part of cabinet ministers in regard to the Marconi affair, while some of them consider Asquith too lax in his attendance in Parliament.

ONE MILLION INCREASE WILL BE SHOWN IN CIVIC ASSESSMENT

That the total assessment of Brantford this year will show an increase of $1,000,000, was the statement made Saturday night by Assessment Commissioner Ludlow. Practically every foot of land in Brantford is being increased in assessment, and when the field work is concluded it is assured that there will be a much more equalized valuation throughout the city. Vacant lots particularly are being assessed higher than ever this year, and the increased assessment on these will be greater than ever. An effort is being made to get close to the actual selling value.

The assessment department this year is at work on a new scheme, which it is estimated will require three years for completion. Every house in the city is being measured, and the exterior and interior inspected, so that an accurate idea of the value of the building can be arrived at. The houses are being placed in four classes and assessed accordingly. This year the assessors hope to complete Wards One and Two in this way, and thus far the results have been more than satisfactory. The scheme was worked out last winter by Assessor Ludlow, who believes that the difficult assessors have had in arriving at the increase in value to a lot from the building erected thereon can be more readily established when the exact nature of the building is known.

As for the population of the city, this year a substantial increase is expected when the final returns are completed, but it is early to venture a prediction in this regard.

Hon. Wyndham Is Dead

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, June 9.—The death of the Right Hon. George Wyndham, who was Chief Secretary for Ireland from 1900 to 1905 in Arthur J. Balfour's Conservative Cabinet, occurred to-day in Paris, according to private despatches received here. He was in his fiftieth year and had been Conservative member of Parliament for Dover since 1889.

JOE GILLES AT IT AGAIN

Famous House Breaker Caught in the Act by Mt. Pleasant Farmer.

One of the clearest possible cases of housebreaking was heard this morning in police court when Edwin Gibbens, a farmer from Mt. Pleasant, told of how yesterday his home was entered and robbed by Joseph Gilles. Gibbens was alone at his house yesterday, and at eleven o'clock he looked in the bundle under his arm and his father saw if all his fences were in good shape. As he came back towards the house he saw the defendant come away from the side door with a parcel under his arm. Mr. Gibbens at once became suspicious and gave chase, when the prisoner would not stop when called to. The two men ran down a lane and on to the road, and when Gilles saw that he was being overtaken he dropped the bundle from under his arm and then began to throw articles from his pockets. When overtaken, Gilles laughed and tried to act out what he called a good joke. Gibbens went back along the road with the prisoner and picked up a suit of clothes, which the complainant was wearing in a coat, a pair of boots, three gold rings, a gold watch, a gold watch chain, and a gold watch chain. Besides the articles which Gibbens identified, there is a $2 and a silver watch fob missing, the whole being valued at $60.

The defendant pleaded not guilty, but could not tell where he got the goods which he was seen to throw away. He held that there was no evidence to convict him, as the evidence was only given by the complainant. He stated that in his opinion the evidence would have to be corroborated. "You ought to know better than that by this time, said His Worship, "you have been here often enough that you ought to be nearly a lawyer." The case was adjourned until to-morrow morning.

Joseph Gilles is well known to the police, he having served several terms in the penitentiary.

[Canadian Press Despatch] LONDON, June 9.—The case of J. Maldover was charged with fraud by Mike Corvonski, both local rag and metal collectors. The defendant bought rubber and copper, but alleged that they were not as required and hence he instructed the Bank not to honor the check that he had given the complainant. After arguing the case for over two hours the magistrate called a halt and as the defendant acknowledged that he owed the complainant $176.91, this amount was ordered to be paid and the case dismissed as it was shown that the action was purely a civil one and one which the division court will have to decide.

It's Snowing In Montreal

[Canadian Press Despatch] MONTREAL, June 9.—Snow fell for a short time on the streets to-day, while the temperatures recorded reached from a minimum of 35 in positions exposed to the cold wind prevailing to 55 in the sheltered spots. The bleak conditions are practically without a precedent in the past fifty years.

WILL REMAIN IN BRANTFORD

Rev. C. W. Rose Has Declined Call to Fredericton, N. B.

Although receiving a call a few weeks ago to the Brunswick Street Baptist church, Fredericton, N. B., Rev. C. W. Rose, pastor of the Park Baptist church, has decided to remain pastor of Park church.

At a congregational meeting held yesterday morning after the regular service Rev. Mr. Rose announced his decision to the congregation. The opportunities in view of the church being a larger one than his present charge and in view of the large number of students, who were connected with the church made it a very inviting proposition. Rev. Mr. Rose believes there is a good opportunity for service here and is quite satisfied to remain with his present congregation. During his pastorate over 200 new members have been received into the church.

Weather clear, track fast.

Not Even a Squeak. Some time during Saturday night thieves broke into the chicken coop of R. M. Devereaux, Hamilton road, and stole 20 chickens, some of which were prize hens. The thieves must have been experts at the business for none of the household ever heard a being transferred from the roost to the bag. The case is in the hands of the police who will endeavor to recover the stolen chickens.

LITTLE GIRL MAY BE LOST

Disappeared From Her Home on Brighton Row Saturday Afternoon.

Florence Brooks, 9 years old, disappeared from her home, 85 Brighton Row on Saturday afternoon, and her parents are to-day greatly concerned over her whereabouts. When last seen the little girl was going west over Lorne Bridge. She wore a grey sweater jacket and blue overalls and white pinafore. The girl was hatless but wore odd shoes, one being buttoned and the other laced. She had a miniature to her playmates that she intended to go to Stratford. Florence was bright witted, and it is believed that she just decided to see the big world. Parties who have any trace of the little one would do a kindly act if they communicated with the parents. The little one also carried a small scar on one cheek.

World's Record Fire Fighting

[Canadian Press Despatch] NEW YORK, June 9.—A world's record in fire protection was established by the success of an experiment made yesterday in shooting high pressure streams of water from the fifty-fourth floor of New York's highest building. This was from a height of 776 feet, the test being made from the building's independent fire stand-pipe system, the city's high service not being tried. Of the 350 pounds pressure given the water at the pump in the basement, over twenty pounds was retained at the nozzle of two lines of hose on the fifty-fourth floor.

GERMAN TRIP TO BRANTFORD IS POSTPONED

Bow Park Farm People Receive a Letter From Leipzig.

War Scare Has Had a Most Depressing Effect All Over Europe.

That the Balkan war situation has kept Europe in a state bordering on panic for months, and has had a depressing effect on business, extending even around the world to Canada, is fully evident in the following letter received at Bow Park farm, Brantford. The trip of the German business men to Canada, it will be seen has been postponed. The letter, which will be read with interest, is as follows:—

Sirs.—As you certainly have learned from the papers, the politics in Europe were so bad during the first four months of the year on account of the Balkan trouble, that the fear, that the whole of Europe might have been set on fire, has only been released during the last two weeks. The financial, economic, and business conditions consequently have been so terribly tied up, that not only money has been very scarce but many business men, especially in Austria, have been brought almost to ruin, and no one able to think of extending his business to foreign countries, and people are glad to be able to recover gradually from the present troubles. This crisis has very heavily affected our plans regarding bringing over the party of German business and financial men. When I had the pleasure of meeting you personally, I told you that over seventy people had subscribed to the party, and when I returned from Canada, there were almost two hundred would-be partakers. Nearly all of them have urged me to postpone the party until next year, as they are all so heavily affected by the European situation, that they are unable to bring over to your country this year a party of about 30 to 40, but as we think that the first time that ever a German party will come over to your country, this must be very effective, both as to number and standard, we thought it wise to comply with the wishes of the would-be partakers and in view of the high purposes of the party, we only want to bring over such representative men, as are able to influence the mutual relations between Germany and Canada in the most friendly and effective way, and bring about an increased trade between the two countries.

DUFFERINS OFF FOR NIAGARA

Regiment Looked Pretty Good This Morning When it Left For Camp

The 38th Dufferin Rifles under command of Lieut.-Col. F. Howard left for the military camp at Niagara this morning. The men made a fine appearance on parade this morning and were all in the best of spirits looking forward to a good outing at camp.

Colonel Howard addressed the regiment before leaving the Armouries, and requested them to keep up the reputation of the corps while at camp. "This" he said, "I know you will do." The Brass and Bugle Bands were out in nearly full force and their playing along the line of march to the T. H. and B. station was very favorably commented upon by those who heard them. The regiment went away 264 strong made up as follows: A 40; B 27; C 9; D 13; F 19; G 13; H 23; Signallers 17; Streetcher Bearers 3; Buglers 24; Brass Band 25; Staff Sergeants 4; Staff Officers 5; Field Officers 3. Total 264.

The advance guard preceded the regiment on Saturday and will have everything ready for the boys when they arrive at camp.

May Go Up to Wednesday. Lieut.-Col. Howard stated this morning that any member of the regiment who was unable to go to camp this morning can secure transportation from the ticket agent at the T. H. and B. Ry station up to and including Wednesday morning, but not later.

Officer in Trouble. A despatch from Regina to the Toronto Sunday World states that the Police Commissioners have dismissed senior sergeant David Kerr from the force, on the grounds of neglect of duty. A charge of drunkenness was preferred but was not sustained on evidence. Mr. Kerr was formerly a member of the Brantford force, and it is believed that his troubles at the Regina force were due to internal dissensions. He was always regarded in Brantford as a most efficient officer.

LARGE ASSEMBLY ATTENDED ALEXANDRA CHURCH SUNDAY

Eloquent Sermon Delivered By Rev. Dr. Clark, of Westmount—Day Proved a Happy One to Alexandra Congregation

The dedicatory services at Alexandra Presbyterian church yesterday were marked by excellent music and sermons and an attendance which could not be accommodated in the enlarged capacity of the church.

At the morning service it was possible to accommodate all but at the evening service easily one hundred were turned away. Rev. D. T. McIntock the pastor of the church presided at both services, assisted by Rev. W. J. Clark, D. D. of Westmount, Montreal, who delivered two strong sermons. Truly has it been said that Dr. Clark is one of the eloquent men in the Canadian church. The services were of a high order.

The musical numbers were all rendered in good voice and excellent style. Too much cannot be said of the good work of the choir and its leader, Mrs. Edward Barton and the organist Mrs. George Cromart.

Morning Service. At the morning service Dr. Clark, previous to introducing his sermon, congratulated the pastor and congregation upon the erection of such a beautiful and commodious house of worship and wished them many days of usefulness together. It was just 25 years ago yesterday that Dr. Clark opened a ministry of a few months at the Zion Presbyterian church in this city, in the absence of the late Dr. Cochran, who was in Europe. He spoke of having very kindly thoughts of the citizens of Brantford and great joy it gave him to respond to the request to occupy the pulpit at Alexandra church.

An unexpected difficulty has been encountered by the Godalming Committee, entrusted with the task of erecting a suitable memorial to their noble fellow townsman, Jack Phillips, the wireless operator of the Titanic who continued to send out signals for help on the sinking ship for some time after he was told by Captain Smith to look after himself. From all parts of the world subscriptions, amounting to nearly £700, have come in, but the selection of a site seems to be an obstacle.

The premises are underground and about a quarter-past nine smoke was seen issuing from the windows, which are on a level with the footpath. The fire brigade, in charge of Chief Officer Bayliss, were soon on the scene, and they discovered that the cooking stove had become overheated and ignited. There was practically no flames, but there was a pungent odour caused by the burning fat. The damage was not serious.

Dressing in another inmate's clothes during the night, an elderly woman inmate of the Grimsby workhouse lowered herself to the ground from a third floor window by means of an improvised rope of sheets and blankets. After a search in all directions she was overtaken at Lacey's five miles away.

Much excitement was caused in the centre of Manchester by the report that a fire had occurred at the Grotto Cafe in Todd-street, near Victoria Station. As holiday-makers were returning to the station a crowd of a few thousand people assembled, but soon dispersed when it was ascertained that the outbreak was of little moment.

Bath towels can be dyed and ornamented so as to make good table scarves for the boys' den.

thousand wonders and novelties. It has great value as a world's exposition. It presents all types of the human race, together with their costumes, tapestries, banners, flags, weapons, engines of warfare, statuary and paintings, carriages of state, mythology and idols.

For the children there are fete days and kermis scenes, fairyland tableaux, depicting all the characters from Mother Goose, Alice in Wonderland, the Arabian Nights, the Water Babies and Robinson Crusoe.

The show grounds of this big circus are a city in themselves. Here will be found an immense dynamo plant, generating power for all kinds of shops and supplying current for 7,000 electric globes, arcs and beacons.

Making a Flat World Round

When Columbus set out to reach India by sailing westward, he met with opposition and ridicule. He believed the earth to be round. Wise men held that it was flat—that Columbus was mad—and that he'd fall off somewhere if he departed from established beliefs.

The Business World is flat to some men. Their profit-bearing shores of Opportunity stretch only so far as their grandfathers' trod. Custom, superstition and apathy have set them confines which they may not pass.

They confine their activities to a Spring trade and to a Fall trade. To them there is no intervening continent with stores of waiting wealth. Their world is flat. They have not explored the mid-year months of Summer trade.

The modern Columbus has discovered this Summer trade—this golden West lying between the known continents of old beliefs. Departing from established habit, many have made their energies and their Advertising an all-year-round proposition.

Keeping up Advertising during the Summer months not only links your Spring and Fall, but produces rich harvests from the Summer months themselves.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 405 Lansden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

THE SUPFRAGETTE VICTIM

Miss Davidson, the militant suffragette who foolishly ran in for the horses contesting for the Derby, has passed to the Great Beyond.

There is always—and very properly so—a hush in the presence of death, no matter how caused, and it is not desirable to preach a homily upon the fate of this clever but mistaken woman, who held the degree of B.A. and was known as an accomplished speaker.

However, when the suffragettes themselves seek to make capital out of the incident, and one of the leaders exclaims that the event will "kindle a flame in the souls of men which will end the present awful situation," it is time to protest.

Well, who has instituted the said "awful situation" if not the militant suffragettes themselves, with assaults, and incendiarism, and window-smashing, letter-destroying, picture-destroying, house-destroying, bombs, and every dubious device that ingenuity can contrive?

If somebody has not met with death at the hands of the militants it is not their fault, for more than one of their acts might easily have cost human life.

If so, in whose souls would the flame of wrath be kindly kindled? And let it be remembered that the attempted victims of suffragette devices have not been deliberately looking for trouble, while the suffragettes have.

Take this case of Miss Davidson. She not only, with set purpose, risked her own life, but also that of others, for her act might have caused the death of more than one jockey, and perhaps caused the horses to dash into a crowd of innocent spectators, with other fatal results.

Pity there may be for this violent fanatic, who had already become estranged from her own people by her overt acts, but maidenly sympathy will not be justified.

The truth is that by their violent acts the Pankhurst crowd have thrown back a cause which even now, under constitutional methods, would probably have triumphed.

THE PROPER COURSE

Premier Borden, in announcing that at the next session of the Dominion House a bill will be introduced providing for the reimbursement of the unfortunate depositors of the Farmers Bank, was most emphatically right in the adoption of such a course.

It is not desirable that all bank wrecks should thus be relieved, because bad management might wreck either one of them even if started on a proper basis, but in this instance the scheme was foisted under circumstances of gross carelessness by the Laurier Government.

Hon. Mr. Fielding, then Finance Minister, was warned by Mr. Osler and other leading financiers that the institution was on an unbusinesslike and fraudulent foundation, but he paid no heed, and thus a Government certificate was issued declaring the bank to be sound, when it was rotten right from the start.

It is only fair that the people thus grossly deceived on the basis of a Government guarantee should receive relief.

THE CADET SYSTEM

During the recent stormy session of the Dominion House there was one incident which had the right tone about it.

A few of the members of the Opposition sought to criticize the total of proposed military expenditure, and Hon. Mr. Graham, former Minister of Railways and Canals, made these remarks when the vote for cadets was under consideration:

"I am a peaceful man myself, but still I have had some experience in my own family, and I am prepared to testify that the training the boys get in these cadet corps is a mighty good thing for the boys, even if they should never have to defend their homes. I am speaking from experience. My son went through the cadet corps and became a captain in his regiment before he died."

"He took his examination in Toronto. I never begrudged the money he cost, because it developed him physically to start with. He was not what you would call a robust-looking boy at first, but after training in the cadet corps he developed into a very strong man. "I am in favor of that training if there never was any war-like attitude to it at all, on account of the improvement it makes in many ways. As to the regimental life in the army, I think it is a very good thing for the young men even when they get on into that. I speak from experience from the regiment at Brockville. The members of that regiment spend a great many of their evenings at the army. They have their indoor baseball and such games organized among themselves, and make it a source of entertainment to themselves and to others; they are improving themselves, and while they are there we know where they are. At the same time, they are being developed physically."

And parents and others who have noted the splendid outcome of the Cadet and Boy Scout movements will most heartily endorse Mr. Graham's statements.

THE PREPONDERANCE OF FEMALES IN GREAT BRITAIN

Recent figures show that there is an excess of 1,340,814 females over males in the United Kingdom. It is said that the reasons which deter more women and girls from leaving the country are the feminine lack of initiative, the fear of the dangers of the unknown, and the dislike of leaving home. Girls also regard their employment as a temporary measure until they get married, whereas lads and young men generally go to the overseas dominions with the intention of making better provision for their future families.

This is shown by the circumstance that there is a countervailing excess of 759,624 male whites in the Dominions. Of these 437,296 are in Canada, 171,065 in Australia, 94,086 in South Africa, and 57,177 in New Zealand. The number of males to each 100 females in England and Wales is 93.67; in Scotland 94.12, and in Ireland 99.62. Overseas, however, we have in South Africa 115.92, in New Zealand 111.61, in Australia 107.99, and in Canada 105.04 males to each 100 females.

It is this overplus of the fair sex in the Old Land which relieves employers from the domestic service and other female help problems, and has largely given them the shrieking suffragettes. On the other hand, in Canada, Australia and elsewhere we have the domestic service and the feminine help problems, and are without the militants.

Which do you think is the more preferable situation? And to think that most of us have our winter thimblings in camphor!

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Up to date most of the June brides have been booked for a fur-on honeymoon trip.

It was Russell Lowell who wrote, "And what is so rare as a day in June." If he had penned the sentiment this year he would have made it read "raw."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier sneers at "Three empty ships." What he should do is to give a hitch to his sunny smile and think about the fifty empty boats of his own career—of how he made Canada, and a lot more nonsense of that kind.

The members of Alexandra Church deserve to be heartily congratulated upon the auspicious opening of their new edifice. The record in the advancement and the good work of the parish has been phenomenal. May they proceed to still further achievement, is the hearty wish of this paper.

And now the sapient Globe rises to put the Homeric query: "Has the change from Laurier to Borden made you rich?"

"What the Liberals are asking is: 'Has the Globe any more foolish advocacies to help still further wreck the Grit party?'"

Full many of the winsome sex—Ladies there were both great and small—Arranged some taps, called solar plex. Gathering cash from each and all.

Deserving was the cause in hand, Allied they stood—a noble band; You gave, of course, with smile quite bland.

WHAT CORNELIA SAYS

Playing the fool is not likely to become a lost art. The palmist is ever ready to grasp the hand of fortune.

A chronic borrower usually keeps everything but his word. After falling in love the average young man drops into poetry.

All women are stuck up—judging by the number of pins they use. A lazy man's feet leave their imprint on the path of least resistance.

More investigation in the end means less disappointment in the end. Shout an original idea strike some men it would give them headache.

You can live comfortable without being extravagant. Extravagance is not comfort. Don't worry about what the other fellow is going to do. Let the superior activities worry him.

The man who tells the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth at all times can never hope to be popular in human society.

In ironing embroidery, especially handwork, the embroidery should be laid face down on a thick cloth or towel and pressed on the wrong side.

German Trip

(Continued from Page 1) We trust that you appreciate our reasons for postponing the party and that your company will be kind enough to extend to us next year the same courtesies which you so kindly offered to us for this year.

Because we want to take up immediately the organization for next year, and the greatest inducement for going over to your country was of course for the majority of the party, the fact that they would be welcomed by the officials of your fine country and the generous way which through your courtesy would be presented, could not be met with by the individual.

I sincerely hope that the postponement of the party in no way causes you any trouble, and I remain my dear sir,

Yours faithfully, J. J. WEBBER (Sgd.) Leipzig, May 24.

Old World Notes.

William Dunn, a young miner who had been remanded on a charge of being the worse for drink, sacrificed his life in a fit of despair on Monday at Ferryhill Station, near Durham, after escaping from his escort. He jumped from the railway platform at Ferryhill station and laid his head in front of an incoming express. At great risk to his own life, Police Constable Pattison, jumped after him and tried to pull him aside. Dunn died soon after being taken to the Durham County Hospital.

During salvaging operations on the steamer Ulstermore, which was wrecked at the mouth of the Mersey several weeks ago, three men employed by the Mersey Dock Board were rendered unconscious on Tuesday by inhaling fumes from fermenting grain in the vessel's hold. One of the men, John Slack, junior, died shortly after landing. His father soon recovered but the third man, William Meazor, was seriously affected.

Two men were poisoned on a vessel in the Trestle Dock, Liverpool, by fumes from a cargo of grain, one of them, William Brown, losing his life. John Weedon, the mate, went into the hold to examine a cargo of Indian corn that had just been loaded. As he did not return, Brown, one of the crew, went in search of him. Neither of them reappeared, and on a search of them made both were found unconscious. They were brought out, but Brown died without regaining consciousness. Weedon recovered.

Later a local band arrived in the square, and the students, declaring that they would "beat the band" proceeded to shout down the instrument-rehearsals until the latter discreetly retreated. In fining one of the students £10 and costs and another one £2 and costs, the chairman of the magistrats declared that the behaviour of the whole party was a "perfect disgrace," and could not be tolerated.

Ever since 1728 a lecture has been delivered according to the desire and provision of Thomas Fairchild, a gardener, in Shoreditch parish church on Whit Tuesday on the subject of the religious lessons taught by the Rev. Mr. Galt, in the future on a different date under a new scheme of the Charity Commissioners.

For disobeying the orders of Captain Hinton and refusing to aid in putting out a fire on the steamship Manchester, Impositor at Philadelphia, on April 21, 1898, members of the crew were each fined 5s. and costs at Salford, on Tuesday. The presiding magistrate observed that the men all bore excellent characters, and that the good feeling which appeared to have existed on board the ship.

The proposal to construct a cliff railway from the town through Babacombe Beach, Devon Beauty spot, to Oodcombe Beach, has been approved by a resolution of the Torquay Town Council. Communication at present is possible only by means of a steep and winding road. A scheme of his nature, proposed by the late Sir George Nevnes twenty years ago, was withdrawn owing to local opposition.

Elizabeth Bentley, a woman of forty-two, was charged at Bradford with attempting to death Edith Partington, four-and-a-half-year-old daughter of the man with whom she lived. Throughout the proceedings she wept bitterly, and sobs were frequently heard among the spectators in court. On being remanded she threw kisses to her friends, and cried, "Give my love to little John Willie and William Ernest, and say mummy wishes them good-bye."

"A combination of a thunderstorm and a volcano in the throes of eruption—a fiendish row," was the description of noise of a local traction engine train by Admiral-of-the-fleet Lord John Hay read at a meeting of the Eaton Rural District Council at Slough. The council's surveyor said that such a train could damage public roads to the extent of from £200 to £300 on only a five-mile journey.

What the Other Fellow Thinks.

Worthy of Praise Farmers Advocate: All things considered, we believe the Budget is deserving of praise.

The Rotten Senate Action Montreal Star: But we still hold the championship belt for singing the National Anthem, and no one can beat us at "Rule Britannia."

And it is highly fitting that we should vociferously call upon the Deity to "save the King;" for we are taking no steps toward doing it ourselves. We are in the position of the very little man in the storm-tossed boat whom they set apart to "do the praying" because he was of no use at the oars. As for "Rule Britannia," that sounds well on the lips of a people who, in real life, permit themselves to be "ruled" by eighty old gentlemen who are not at all in a hurry!

Give Them a Chance. Hamilton Herald: Although baseball is getting to be our national game, it is a significant fact that in the teams composing the Canadian baseball league there are only two or three Canadian players. Why don't the team managers give our own boys a chance to show what they can do?

Laurier's Neat Walloping London Free Press: The Premier of Canada placed Sir Wilfrid Laurier hors de combat upon the navy situation in the House of Commons. The leader of the Opposition could but weakly attempt a defence of the Senate, and enter a denial that the men who had obtained their seats in the Upper Chamber had acted as his servants and according to his dictation. The facts were all against Sir Wilfrid, and the incident but forecasts what will happen to him when called upon to face an indignant and misrepresented Canadian public.

Housing Companies Galt Reporter: Housing companies have been formed in many cities in Great Britain and on the continent for the express purpose of rehousing the workers, and in this way bettering industrial conditions. The Toronto City Council has shown itself awake to the necessity of providing comfortable houses for workmen by agreeing to guarantee the bonds of a Housing Company to the extent of $850,000, this privilege being accorded it under the Act of last session passed by the Provincial Secretary. A similar company with a capital of $100,000, is being organized in Galt, and it will ask for a guarantee of $85,000.

Music and Drama

Grand Opera. The Franklin Stock Co. now playing at the Grand offers for the first half of the week an exceptionally good play entitled, "Young Mrs. Winthrop." It is a dramatization of the book by the same name, which most everyone has read. Manager Weever has given the play a beautiful setting and anticipates a large attendance, as it is a foregone conclusion that it will give the best general satisfaction of any play yet produced by this company.

Satan Is Back. The large number who were disappointed at not being able to see "Satan," the great drama of humanity, at its last appearance here, will be glad to know that the Apollo management has brought it back for a special three days' return engagement, commencing to-day. This wonderful picture has created more favorable talk than all other big features combined, and has been strongly endorsed by press and clergy everywhere. Two operators and two machines will do away with all waits between reels.

Brantford is becoming more of a metropolitan city every day. The latest is a taxi service which will be given by the Brantford Garage. The taxi has arrived. It is expected the stations will be visited and a general taxi cab business conducted.

Leafs Won.
The Maple Leaf ball team downed the Massey-Harris nine at Tuttle Park on Saturday by the score 15 to 8. The winners played more consistent ball and won easily. The battery for the winners was Cleator and Crowley.

Information Wanted.
A determined effort is being made by the secretaries of the local Y. W. C. A. to locate a Miss Molly Cooper, supposed to be an English girl who left England about two years ago. She has a sister Sarah Cooper living in Ontario who is anxious to locate her. This is one of the fields of work taken up by the "C. W."

Closes To-morrow Night.
There has been little change in the standing of the candidates in The Courier square deal subscription contest since last Monday and for that reason the standing isn't published to-day. It is evident that some of the contestants are holding back some of their subscriptions till the 11th hour. The contest closes to-morrow night at 9:30. On Wednesday the winners will be announced.

Died at Hospital.
The death occurred at the hospital on Saturday of Mrs. Mabel Pearl Lambert, in her 26th year. The late Mrs. Lambert was a daughter of Mr. David Spence of Waterford. The funeral service will be held this afternoon in the undertaking parlors of Mr. H. S. Pearce to the T. H. & B. 4 o'clock train, for interment at Waterford on Wednesday.

An Athletic Club.
At a joint meeting held yesterday afternoon, the bible class taught by Mr. W. J. Veray, and the S. P. class, both of Colborne St. Methodist church, decided to form themselves into an athletic club to be known as the Colborne St. Athletic Club. The following officers were elected: Hon. Pres., W. J. Veray, Pres., P. E. Veray, vice-pres., G. Farley, and Sec.-Treas., Fred Youmans. The committees will be selected next Sunday.

Market St. Crossing.
Chief Slemm, who has been investigating complaints that have been made against the Grand Trunk railway regarding the blocking of traffic at the Market street crossing, in a communication to the city clerk states that he took the matter up with the railway company, who informed him that on account of a recent landslide near Harrisburg all traffic was sent the same very heavy. As the tracks via Harrisburg have been put in first-class condition, the company state that they do not anticipate any further trouble at this crossing.

Delegates to C.O.F. High Court.
The annual High Court convention of the Canadian Order of Foresters will be held in London this week. Besides the High Court officers, the following delegates from Brantford will attend the convention: Court Clerk—C. Tucker, A. Shultis, A. Hollinrake, A. Dowling, Court Telephone City—B. Simmons, E. A. Danby, W. W. Simpson, C. R. Stiles, A. Aitken, W. A. Stiles, H. E. Howell, Court Southern City—Major H. F. Leonard, A. D. Perley, Court Brant—H. Whiston, J. Wakely, A. Gibson.

A Good Move.
Citizens in general will appreciate the efforts of the members of the Board of Works who in conjunction with the Township Council will have the road on West Street leading to the Hope cemetery fixed up. A new five foot cement sidewalk will be laid from the top of George street to the cemetery gate. The new sidewalk is something that is wanted and has been wanted for years. Many of those who wended their way to Mt. Hope cemetery yesterday would have appreciated it had it been laid down before.

Won the Rifle.
In the Boy Scout rifle shooting competition for the rifle given by the Brant Chapter I. O. D. E., in which several troops of the city competed, the headquarters patrol won the rifle and the Wesley church patrol took second place. The headquarters was composed of Scouts Jas. G. Matthews, D. Andrews, A. A. Beckett, George Matthews, R. R. Deagle, and Lloyd Colquhoun. An average of 86 per cent was made by the patrol. Scout Jas. G. Matthews made the highest score. Arrangements are being made to have the rifle presented by the donors at the Y. M. C. A. on Friday night.

Woodstock Gets Assembly

[Canadian Press Despatch]
TORONTO, June 9.—The city of Woodstock, Ontario, will receive the favor of entertaining the Presbyterian General Assembly in June, 1914. It was decided at this morning's session of the present Assembly by practically unanimous vote. "Woodstock," stated the advocate of the Oxford county centre, Rev. R. B. Cochrane, of Knox Church, that city, "is the home of Presbyterianism; the county of Oxford has more Presbyterians than any other county in the country." This is the argument that decided the Assembly. Dr. A. S. Grant supported Woodstock as the next place of meeting and presented a motion accepting the invitation of the Oxford county Presbyterians. "If Woodstock is the home of Presbyterianism, it is time the home was shaken up," said Dr. Grant in moving his motion. An invitation was also extended by the session of St. David's Church, St. John, N.B., through the Rev. J. McKeaghan. No motion favoring St. John was introduced, however.

Church Notes

Wellington Street.
Yesterday was Children's Day. The Pastor, Rev. R. D. Hamilton, was in the pulpit and delivered two very appropriate sermons. At the morning service the "Sunlight" choir, composed of fifty children, sang two choruses besides leading in the hymn-singing. Their work was fine. The Sunday school session was very interesting. Several of the classes gave special numbers on the program. The singing was good and the attendances and collection better than ever. The regular choir was in place at evening service and sang the anthem, "O Gladsome Light" (Sullivan), with fine effect. A male quartet, Messrs. W. C. Valentine, G. Granville, N. McLeod and C. E. Hanson, sang "The Wayside Cross" capitolly.

The First Baptist.
Yesterday was fittingly observed at the First Baptist Church as "Flower Day and Children's Day." The attendance at the three services was large. In the morning a platform meeting was held in the interests of the work of the Sunday school. The pastor was assisted in this service by the superintendent of the Sunday school, Mr. Fred Chalcraft, who spoke on some of the needs of the school, emphasizing the need of more teachers and increased accommodation to meet the demands of the growing school. The pastor in his address called attention to the importance of the work of the school, to the gift often fixed between the youth and the church and suggested some of the ways in which this lack from the school can be stopped. The moral deportment provided by the classes of the school in the form of bouquets and potted plants were indeed beautiful and were distributed among the sick and shut-in ones. The evening service was largely attended and a splendid audience that completely filled the auditorium and the gallery. The choir sang "Savior, breathe an evening blessing." The hymns, "Dare to be a Daniel," "Whosoever Heareth," "Jesus, I am Reeling, Resting," and "Coronation" were sung with great zest. The address on Turkey and the causes that led up to the war by Rev. T. Maffarji was delivered in clear English and was of special interest. The illustrations from his native land were excellent and showed

Golf Notes

In the competition for the June cup which took place on Saturday afternoon Mr. Stanley Schell won with the net score of 82. The following players qualified for the Cocksbutt Cup: S. Schell 82, R. H. Reville 86, L. Champion 86, F. M. Ellis 86, R. Wilkes 90, W. H. Webling 91, N. D. Neill 91, and H. McKay 94.

The following is the result of the four home and home matches which includes the competition for the Webling Shield. On Saturday the 21st inst., Brantford will go to Hamilton and play the first of the two home and home matches with that club. The original date was the 18th but as the circus will be there on that date, Capt. Paterson has requested an alteration so that he can have a good representative team to meet the Brantford players.

At the Ranges

There was a poor attendance at the ranges on Saturday, owing probably to the unsettled weather, and the fact of the Regiment going to camp on Monday.

The wind was very tricky and gave considerable trouble to the "budding enthusiasts." The following are the best scores:

Major Genet, Staff	200	500	600	T
Pte Bennett, Sig.	28	26	26	80
Sgt. Scanlon, E.	21	26	30	77

Sad Death

H. Oliver Ashbury, Former Brantford Boy, Died Out West

Word was received in the city Saturday afternoon, of the death of Mr. H. Oliver Ashbury of Portland, Oregon, at the hospital, in Walla Walla, Washington.

Mr. Ashbury, when taken ill, was on an extended business trip in the interests of the firm of Lang and Co., of which he has been a valued representative for some years. He was taken to the hospital at Walla Walla last Tuesday, but passed away Friday evening. He was a son of the late William Ashbury of this city, and left here when a boy, and located in Spokane, Wash, where he carried on a successful business for years. Some years ago he moved to Portland, Oregon, where he resided at the time of his death. He has been connected with Lang and Co., and D. B. Scully Syrup Co. as representative for some years and had at one time been interested in fruit ranching in the Hood River district.

These items are as far as available. The entire list will be published in full later. Word from the county is also to the effect that the county is well supported.

Dog Nuisance Vexatious

Help! Police! Get out the dog wagon!

From a lady resident at the corner of Sheridan street and Park avenue came a distressing appeal to-day, indicating that the dog nuisance had broke out again in the city.

"This place is just swarming, again with dogs," said the lady. "For several nights the barking, howling and fighting of these canine pests in this neighborhood has been tremendous. Can nothing be done? There is a big vagrant hound down here, who makes more noise than a hundred animals in a circus." And thus expostulated our lady complainant who further remarked that if the police didn't start something the neighbors would—on those dogs.

Mrs. (Rev.) W. B. Caswell and little, son Norman, of Toronto, are week end guests of Mrs. H. B. Hutcheson, Sorthumberland St. Mrs. Caswell is saying good-bye to Brantford friends, preparing to leaving in two weeks for Winnipeg where Mr. Caswell will be pastor of Broadway Methodist church.

HOSPITAL DAY A BIG SUCCESS

They Are Still Counting The Money—Ladies Much Pleased.

All day a bunch of busy Women's Hospital Aid Workers have been counting the contents of the boxes in connection with "Flag Day."

The total outcome will not be ascertained until late this afternoon, but the proceeds look like $2,000 or so.

From the manufacturers as firms, $974 has been reported, with some promises not yet fulfilled. The entire list will be given later.

At the Pratt and Letchworth works the men turned in a total of $45.00. These items are as far as available. The entire list will be published in full later. Word from the county is also to the effect that the county is well supported.

DAILY FASHION HINT.

This neat little frock is closed in front and has a three piece skirt. This is attached beneath a belt to the blouse, which has inset sleeves, seamed on the outside and a round cut neck finished with a hand.

These dresses are made of calico, cambric, gingham, pique, linen and serge and poplin.

The dress pattern, No. 6221, is cut in sizes 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. Medium size requires 2 1/4 yards of 38 inch material.

This pattern can be obtained by sending 10 cents to the office of this paper.

Eight day must be allowed for receipt of pattern.

Wild Bill Baker Only Brantford Lost, 4- Tragic Ninth-Inning Not There.

St. Thomas won the third game of the series from the at the ball park on Saturday by playing better havoc with bats.

The Saints deserved to win they played the most consistent and that is what wins game for the golden opportunity to take the game, but threw the winds.

St. Thomas on one occasion had the game to Brantford, had not the courtesy to accept St. Thomas seeing that they would not partake of their defeat can be attributed to the of the team as a whole to hitting at the critical time, at times only require a single the game, but a single in the need on Saturday was as a feathers on a road. Donovan good enough ball to win his received poor support at the with the team not hitting it was unable to win. It was of Donovan's that he lost it "Wild Bill" Baker from Brantford served up the best of the Saints. Bill may be well was good enough to cap game and that was all that quired of him. The Saints had time of it, winning three from Brantford.

St. Thomas has a well team, a fine outfield, a fast infield. They have some go in the aggregation, and showing the last three day best team seen in Brantford. If the Saints pitchers right the rest of the find them a hard nut to a stumbling block in the pennant. The visitors have leader in George (one day) Umpire Black was very had and received a severe from the crowd. His wretched and the sooner Fitzgerald gets rid of him the Game.

Donovan opened up by Kopp with a wild pitch, doubled due to the poor play. Sluening Donovan made a hit a hot grounder from Kopp threw him out at first. W. Ed. Ort sent a high fly to Kopp scored on the third plate.

Saints Secure Another in the The visitors scored another half of the third. Alvin E. Inker beat out an infield hit hit up a fly back of short went for a hit. The hit a been an out, but a piece headed playing on the part and Burrill allowed the fly away from them and Ort.

The Fourth—Red Sox The Red Sox came across run in the latter half of Brundage fanned wind. Sluening hit but Sluening second. A passed ball allowed a high fly to Kopp in which the fielder let set him and Burrill scored.

Wild Bill Baker Only Allowed Three Hits on Saturday—Brantford Lost, 4-3—There Might Have Been Another Tragic Ninth-Inning Rally But the Final Punch Was Not There.

St. Thomas won the third and final game of the series from the Red Sox at the ball park on Saturday afternoon. The playing bette havoc with their bats.

The Saints deserved to win because they played the most consistent ball and that is what wins games. Brantford had golden opportunities to capture the game, but threw them to the winds.

St. Thomas on one occasion handed the game to Brantford but they had not the courtesy to accept it. St. Thomas seeing that the Brants would not partake of their hospitality took the game themselves. Brantford's defeat can be attributed to the inability of the team as a whole to do some hitting at the critical time.

St. Thomas has a well balanced team, a fine outfield, a fast and clever infield. They have some good hitters in the aggregation and by their showing the last three days are the best team seen in Brantford this season.

St. Thomas had an easy time of it winning three straight from Brantford. St. Thomas has a well balanced team, a fine outfield, a fast and clever infield. They have some good hitters in the aggregation and by their showing the last three days are the best team seen in Brantford this season.

St. Thomas scored another in the third. The visitors scored another in their half of the third. After right struck Ort, Gurney flew out. Forgue set up a fly back of short stop which went for a hit. The hit should have been an out, but a piece of bone-headed playing on the part of Tesch and Burrill allowed the ball to get away from them and Ort scored.

London Dropped One at Ottawa... OTTAWA.—London dropped the final game of their series here on Saturday when the Senators clutched a 13 to 9 victory from them after a sensational game.

Hams Make it Two out of Three... HAMILTON.—Hamilton defeated Peterboro here on Saturday by a score of 7 to 2, and by so doing took two out of three games from Davy Rowan's Petes.

Bradshaw Does Big Business in Strikeouts... GUELPH.—Guelph made it two out of three from Berlin Saturday afternoon, defeating the Dutchmen by a score of eight to five before a big crowd.

Two On, Nobody Down. With two on and nobody down, the crowd in the stands let loose and looked for what they did not get—enough runs to win the game.

Ninth—Over Went the Brants' Apple Cart. The Saints went at it hammer and tongs in their half of the ninth and pulled the game out of the fire. Kustus fanned, Wright laced out a double, Ort flew out to Slemm. With two down, Gurney cracked out a single scoring Wright. Inker was an easy out.

Closing Exercises. The fans had hopes of a grand rally but they were soon dashed to the ground. Lamond flew out, Donovan grounded out and Tesch flew out, and it was all over.

Our Mail Bag Answers to Sport Queries

Anxious One.—"Is the Brantford Ball Club financially embarrassed or has the season thus far been a success?"

Ubiquitous One.—"If the Brantford Club wins two games in a row you will be the first one over there yelling your head off again. Don't ask us any more questions like that."

Lady Fan.—"Can you tell me if the Brantford players get as much salary as St. Thomas?"

Cockshutt Shop.—"Can you give complete list of Red Sox injured this year?"

DO YOU BELCH GAS. This is a disagreeable result of food fermentation that Nerviline stops at once. Take ten drops of Nerviline in sweetened water.

TIPS TO HOUSEWIVES... An easy way to find a puncture is to pour a little bluing water into the tube. The bluing will indicate the spot on the outside.

WHY CATARRH IS DANGEROUS... Usually it comes with a cold. Being slight it is neglected—but the seed is sown for a dangerous harvest, perhaps consumption.

BRANTFORD TIED THE SCORE. Brantford came back strong in the third period, and on a pass from Ions, who took the ball from the Brantford defense line, Slattery scored.

London Lacrosse Club Defeats Brantford, 8-3

Fine National Game Opens London Season With O. A. L. A. Victory at Tecumseh Park.

LONDON, June 9.—In the first games of lacrosse seen in this city for a number of years, and marking the opening of the O. A. L. A. season in this district, London won out from the Brantford team to the tune of 8 to 3 on Saturday afternoon at Tecumseh Park.

It only needed this game to bear out the prediction made that Manager Collins had gathered together a bunch of boys who could play the game and they rose to the occasion in great style. And that against a town which for many years was the center of lacrosse in Western Ontario and where the natives would sooner watch it than eat.

Tecumseh's Looked Strong. Manager Collins' braves certainly looked good. In every department of the game they showed up well, and two or three games more should put them into their real condition.

Doyle Referred. Frank Doyle, secretary of the O. A. L. A., referred, and he made both teams play the game. Six London players were penalized a total of 33 minutes, while eight of the Brantford players decorated the fence, aggregating 22 minutes of time.

On the draw-off, London took the ball right into Brantford territory, and after six minutes of play Anderson notched London's first score. A minute later Penny duplicated on a nice shot from the side.

FROM GREAT LAKES TO THE ROCKIES

Women Sing the Praises of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Saskatchewan Lady Adds Her Testimony To What Has Already Been Said of the Great World Dodd's Kidney Pills are Doing.

CAESARVILLE, Sask., June 9. (Special.)—The scarcity of female help in a new country subjects the women of the prairies to unusual strain, and careful observation has established the fact that this strain first makes itself felt in the kidneys. For this reason Dodd's Kidney Pills are making an enviable reputation from the Great Lakes to the foothills of the Rockies.

Everywhere you will find women singing the praises of the great Canadian kidney remedy that has banished their pains and weariness, and brought them back to health. Among the many is Mrs. Edgar Cowen, an estimable lady of this place.

"I have found Dodd's Kidney Pills very beneficial," Mrs. Cowen states. "If anything I can say will help any sufferer, I am glad to add my testimony to what has already been said." The kidneys strain all the refuse material out of the blood. If they are out of order this refuse remains in the blood, and becomes poison. That's why sound kidneys mean pure blood and good health. Dodd's Kidney Pills make sound kidneys.

"The Mystery of Agatha Webb"

By KATHARINE GREEN

Her eyes, which were all she had remaining to plead with, took on a peculiar look of quiet satisfaction and power. Seeing it, he let his hand fall and for the first time began to regard her with anything but a lover's eyes.

"I was the only person in sight at that time," she continued. "You have nothing to fear from the world at large."

"Fear?"

The word made its own echo. She had no need to emphasize it even by a smile. But she watched him as it sunk into his consciousness with an interest which took all his strength to sustain. Suddenly her hand and expression changed. The few remains of sweetness in her face vanished, and even the allurement which often lasts when the sweetness is gone disappeared in the energy which now took possession of her whole threatening and indefinable personality.

"Marry me," she cried, "or I will proclaim you to be the murderer of Agatha Webb!"

She had seen the death of love in his eyes.

CHAPTER VIII

THE HOLLOW TREE

Frederick Sutherland was a man of finer mental balance than he himself perhaps had ever realized. After the first few moments of stupefaction following the astounding alternative which had been given him he broke out with the last sentence she probably expected to hear.

"What do you hope from a marriage with me that to attain your wishes you thus sacrifice every womanly instinct?"

She met him on his own ground.

"What do I hope?" She actually glowed with the force of her secret desire. "Can you ask a poor girl like me, born in a tenement house, but with tastes and ambitions such as are usually only given to those who can gratify them? I want to be the rich Mr. Sutherland's daughter, acknowledged or unacknowledged the wife of one who can enter any house in Boston as an equal."

With a position like that, with anything. I feel that I have the natural power and aptitude. I have felt it since I was a small child."

"And for that?" she broke in, "I am quite willing to overlook any dark spot on your record. Confident that you will never repeat the risk of last night, I am ready to share the burden of your secret through life. If you treat me well, I am sure I can make it light for you."

With a quick flush, an increase of self-assurance, she had probably not anticipated, he faced her with a desperate resolution that showed how handsome he could be if his soul once got control of his body.

"Woman," he cried, "they were right. You are little less than a devil."

"Did she regard it as a compliment? Her smile would seem to say so."

"A devil that understands men," she answered with that slow dip of her dimples that made her smile so dangerous.

"You will not hesitate long over this matter a week perhaps."

"I shall not hesitate at all. Seeing you as you are makes my course easy. You will never share any burden with me as my wife."

"Still she was not abashed.

"It is a pity," she whispered. "It would have saved you such unnecessary struggle. But a week is not long to wait. I am certain of you then. This day week at 12 o'clock, Frederick."

He seized her by the arm and, lost to everything but his rage, shook her with a desperate hand.

"Do you mean it?" he cried, a sudden horror showing itself in his face, not "I mean it so much," she assured him, "that before I came home just now I paid a visit to the copse over the way. A certain hollow tree where from me while any hope remains of your doing your duty by me in the way I have suggested."

And still he did not move.

"Frederick."

Was it her voice that was thus murmuring his name? For the tiger snarl one moment and cool the next?

"Frederick, I had a final word to say, a last farewell. Up to this hour I have endured your attentions, or, let us say, accepted them, for I always found you handsome and agreeable, if not the master of my heart. But now, now it is love that I feel, love and love with me is to fancy, but a passion. Do you hear? A passion which will make life a heaven or hell for the man who has inspired it. You should have thought of this when you opposed me."

And with a look in which was blended something of the light and darkness of the two alternatives she had promised him she bent and imprinted a kiss upon his forehead. The next moment she was gone.

Or so he thought. But when, after an interval of nameless recoil, he rose and attempted to stagger from the place, he discovered that she had been detained in the hall by two or three men who had just come in by the front door.

"Is this Miss Page?" they were asking.

"Yes, I am Miss Page—Amabel Page," she replied, with suave politeness. "If you have any business with me, settle it quickly, for I am about to leave to-night."

"That is what we wish to prevent," declared a tall, thin young man who seemed to take the lead. "Until the ladies have been held over the remains of Mrs. Webb, Coroner Talbot wishes you to regard yourself as a possible witness."

"Me?" she cried, with an admirable gesture of surprise and a wide opening of her brown eyes, that made her look like an astonished child. "What have I got to do with it?"

"You pointed out a certain spot of blood on the grass, and—well, the coroner's orders have to be obeyed, Miss Page. You cannot leave the town without running the risk of arrest."

"Then I will stay in it," she smiled.

"I have no liking for arrests," and the tint of her eye rested for a moment on Frederick Sutherland, "she continued, "that gentleman appeared at the dining room door, 'I shall have to impose upon your hospitality for a few days longer. These men here inform me that my innocent interest in pointing out to you that spot of blood on the grass, had awakened some curiosity and that I am wanted as a witness by the coroner."

Mr. Sutherland with a quick stride lessened the distance between himself and these unwelcome intruders. "The coroner's right," he murmured. "But," he said, but the look he gave his son was not soon forgotten by the spectators.

CHAPTER IX

SIX LITTLE GRAVES

There was but one topic discussed in the countryside that day, and that was the life and character of Agatha Webb.

Her history had not been a happy one. She and Philemon had come from Portchester some 20 or more years before their native town. They had left behind them six small graves in Portchester churchyard, but though evidences of their affliction were always to be seen in the countenances of either they had entered with so much purpose into the life of their adopted town that day from Portchester green to the shipyards in Sutherlandland.

In Deacon Brainerd's cottage the discussion was concerning Agatha's lack of vanity, a virtue not very common at that time among the women of this busy seaport.

"For woman so handsome," the good deacon was saying, "and I think I can safely call her the finest featured woman who ever trod these streets, she showed as little interest in dress as any one I ever saw. Calico at home and calico at church, yet she looked as much of a lady in her dark sprigged gowns as Mrs. Webster in her silks or Mrs. Parsons in her $1,000 sealskin."

As this was a topic within the scope of his eldest daughter's intelligence she at once spoke up: "I never thought she needed to dress so plainly. I don't believe in such a show of poverty myself. If one is too poor to go decent, all right; but they say she had more money than most any one in town. I wonder who is going to get the benefit of it?"

"Why, Philemon of course. That is, as long as he lives. He doubtless had the making of it."

"Is it true that he's gone clean out of his head since her death?" interposed a neighbor who had happened in.

It was estimated that over one thousand people were in the procession, and was one of the largest fraternal society parades ever seen in the city of Brantford, especially on the Sabbath day.

At Mount Hope Cemetery Arriving at Mt. Hope cemetery, the ceremony of unveiling of monuments which had been erected in the memory of deceased members of the order was proceeded with. Mr. John Hill acting as master of ceremonies.

The band played "Abide With Me." Mr. Hill then read part of the ceremony for such occasions from the ritual of the Woodmen order, the ceremony taking place over the monument which had been erected to the late Sov. S. and F. Day.

The Brant Quartette composed of Messrs Kerr, Croker, Styles and Green sang "Lead Kindly Light."

Sov. Hill proceeding with the ceremony, removed the veil of the monument, and declared the same officially dedicated according to the rites of the order.

The band played another hymn, after which the Brant Quartette rendered "Crossing the Bar." The brethren then gave the Camp honors.

At Greenwood Cemetery Arriving at the Greenwood cemetery, the graves of the departed brethren of the order were decorated with flowers, the same as had been done at Mt. Hope. After this had been done, the brethren re-assembled again and marched down George St. to Dalhousie to the Woodmen Hall.

Supper Served On arriving at the lodge room the visiting brethren were taken to the banqueting room in the Masonic Temple, where supper, which had been prepared by S. Crumback of the Tea Pot Inn was served.

Returned Home The visiting brethren returned home on the evening and special trains.

Those Remembered The following graves of departed brothers were decorated:

Notes of the Day Over a thousand people in the procession, and was one of the largest fraternal society parades ever seen in the city of Brantford, especially on the Sabbath day.

The Centre Toronto Camp officers dressed in their frock coats and silk hats, looked fine.

Bandsman Johnson turned out two good bands, one led by himself and the other by Sergt. Miller.

The sidewalks were lined with people along the line of march. It is a long walk to Mt. Hope.

The Brant Quartette sang finely. The different uniformed corps made a very creditable showing and were much admired.

absence of Col. S. Hughes, who on account of duties of state, was unable to be present. Duties of state, the Doctor said, were more important than social functions, and for that reason the Minister of Militia was probably unable to be in attendance.

James Simpson James Simpson of the Board of Education of Toronto, was the next speaker. Mr. Simpson made a fine address. He reviewed the splendid objects and lessons that are taught in the Woodmen order. The monuments that had been unveiled, the speaker stated, were erected by the order as a recognition of the good work done by those who had passed away. The order, he said, "place the monuments over the graves of departed brethren so that no Woodmen shall rest in an unmarked grave." Mr. Simpson, in the course of his address, stated that all men did not rise to be great leaders or great politicians or great leaders of men and have their names enrolled on the pages of history. Continuing, the speaker said a man can do great good in doing acts of charity, relieving the distressed, helping to educate orphans and assisting to elevate his fellow man. "That the fine qualities of many men are not known or ever recognized until after they have departed, is often the case," said the speaker.

Mr. Simpson then spoke on the educational policy of different countries, stating that the better educated the people become the more brotherly love would be shown. Before closing his address, Mr. Simpson referred to the good work that is being done by the order of the W. O. W.

"Near My God to Thee" was rendered by the band, the whole assembly joining in the singing.

Rev. J. W. Hodgins The Rev. J. W. Hodgins of Stratford, was the next speaker, and he too referred at length to the great christian work that the Woodmen are doing all over the country. He stated that in the last 20 years over 10,000 monuments had been erected over the graves of deceased members of the Woodmen order. "Just the other day," said the Doctor, "the order sent a monument to a small place in the Arctic circle to mark the grave of a brother who had passed to the great beyond." Rev. Mr. Hodgins gave out some very good advice when he stated to the officers and members of the order: "Do not increase membership too rapidly at the expense of character. Keep up the standard of membership. Keep up the standard of character." In closing his address, the speaker stated that many lodges had been wrecked by being too careless in the selection of its membership.

The band played a couple of sacred selections while the decorators went to different parts of the cemetery and laid flowers on the graves of their departed brethren.

At the conclusion of this part of the ceremony, the members of the order assembled and marched to Greenwood cemetery.

The dust wasn't too bad. Seen it ten times worse. There were special trains from London and Caledonia and special department and 346 in the insurance and fraternal society city.

Thousands were very much disappointed they did not see the Honorable Colonel Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia.

Executive Meeting This was held in the Kerby House parlors Saturday evening, the Head Consul Dr. W. S. Harrison, presiding. The report of the Head Clerk for the past quarter shows an increase in membership of 620 in the insurance department and 346 in the sick and funeral benefit department.

The investments made by the order during the past quarter were: First mortgage yielding 6 per cent., $12,000; Debentures Town of Tofield, Alta., yielding per cent., $10,000; Debentures City of Vernon, B.C., yielding 6 1/2 per cent., $15,000; Debentures Town of Canora, Sask., yielding 7 per cent., $8,814; Debentures Town of Humboldt, Sask., yielding 7 1/2 per cent., $2,047. Total investments of $48,761.

This is the best rate of interest yet secured on any of the debenture holdings of the order. The total death losses paid to widows and children by the Canadian jurisdiction since its inception is $1,100,353.00.

Rev. J. W. Hodgins, chairman of the Board of Managers, reported the books and vouchers in proper shape.

Many matters of minor importance were attended to. The meeting closed with expressions of satisfaction at the continued growth of the order, particularly financially, the amount of reserve per capita being greater per $1,000 at risk than any of its competitors at the same age of existence.

John Hill, Sov. of the day and other Sovereigns of the local camp.

The meeting closed at 10.30 p.m., and the members were then entertained at the Tea Pot Inn, by Sov. John Hill, Sov. of the day and other Sovereigns of the local camp.

Alexandra Church (Continued from Page 1) Soul," the solo part taken by Miss Marshall, and "Holy Art Thou," the solo part taken by Mrs. Edward Barton. Mrs. Barton also rendered the solo, "The Broken Pinion." "Antenne" was played as a prelude and "Serenade" during the offertory.

Evening Music At the evening service, the choir rendered "Overshadow Christian Soldiers." Mrs. Leeming sang "The Lord is My Light," and the Brant Quartette rendered a number in two parts, "Near My God to Thee" and "The Shepherd True."

At an open session of the Sunday School held in the church, Rev. R. D. Hamilton of Wellington Street Methodist church, spoke to the school taking for his subject, "character building," suggested by the Rev. Mr. Marshall. Much numbers were rendered. A duet by younger members of the school and a selection by the Alexandra Trio, consisting of Misses Marlatt, Waldron and Heath were well rendered. About 400 were present.

Liberal Response The following is an itemized statement of the money, some of which was previously subscribed and placed on the collection plate at the services yesterday:

$100 REWARD $100 The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. What Cornelia Sees That striped porcelain buttons are used on some new-tailed suits. That shippers made of Irish crocheted lace are one of the fashionable fancies in England. That the era of the dragging skirt is back again with all its filth and discomfort, nevertheless it is the fashion, and no woman at Atlantic City and to walk a short skirt on Easter Sunday under pain of being laughed at.

That the pannier that only a short time since was declared to have passed to the limbo of disused fashions, is manifest in the lines of nearly every draped gown, though there is great variety in its handling, says a New York authority.

That a New York Supreme Court referee decided an allowance of $20,000 a year for the support and maintenance of a girl of sixteen is not too much to expect of a girl who has a sensible father, who succeeds in keeping her daughter unspoiled by luxury and simple and unselfish in character.
