THE HERALD.
FREDERICTON, MAY 15, 1895.

THE MEN HE SNEERED AT.

Mr. Foster attempted to make light of the opposition attack on the Fredericton and St. Marys railway bridge deal, and announced that when the charges came from men of more weight and respectability he would answer them. But let us see who were the gentlemen leading the attack and whom Mr. Foster would dispose of with a sneer. First there was Mr. McMullen who has represented North Wellington in the House of Commons since 1878 nearly twenty years without interruption and whose majority in the last general election was 186. Mr. McMullen has long been recognized as one of the most fearless and effective members of the opposition, a gentleman who watches with tireless energy the public interest in Parliament. Was he to be wiped out by one of Mr. Foster's sneers? The Toronto Globe which is familiar with Mr. McMullen's character and career, observes that "Mr. McMullen is as able as Mr. Foster, as honest as Mr. Foster, as gentlemanly as Mr. Foster, and it is sheer egotism and impudence for the Minister to sneer at the men he sneered at."

Next on the list is J. F. Lister of West Lambton, who has represented North Wellington in the House of Commons since 1878, and has been honored by his sovereign with a title which Mr. Foster has so far failed to obtain. Does Mr. Foster regard Sir Richard Cartwright as a man without weight, or influence? Sir Richard's majority in South Oxford in the last general election reached the enormous figure of 734, yet we suppose like Mr. McMullen and Mr. Lister, he represents nobody in this country and is without weight or respectability.

Then there is Mr. Mulock of North York, another gentleman who effectively backed up his friends in the debate. Mr. Mulock is a lawyer who is considered able enough to lecture to Toronto University students, and is the vice-chancellor of that institution. He has been in Parliament since 1878 and his last majority was 363. Perhaps Mr. Mulock is a man of such small calibre that when measured alongside of such mental giants as Thomas Temple and Alexander Gibson and George Eulas Foster he sinks into utter insignificance, and he should never raise his voice in Parliament when there are abuses to correct.

The fact that all the answer Mr. Foster could make to the attack was abuse and belittling of the opposition speakers, and a slop over eulogy on Mr. Gibson, shows that the Government's action in the bridge matter is entirely indefensible. Mr. Foster who squeezed into Parliament last election by the slight majority of seventy-three, corruptly obtained, is not the man to sneer at McMullen, Lister, Cartwright and Mulock, who represent by overwhelming majorities the constituencies for which they sit. Mr. Foster, who is afraid to face the electors of his native county and seeks to be pitchedforked in for York through the influence of Alex. Gibson, should hesitate before casting his reproaches at gentlemen, who without exception are quite his equal in and out of Parliament.

NICHOLAS FLOOD DAVIN, the bald-headed bachelor representative from the North West, moved his resolution in Parliament, Thursday, in favor of woman suffrage, but met with very sturdy opposition, mostly from the Government ranks. Mr. L'Amour moved an amendment that the whole franchise business should be left to the provincial authorities after a preliminary discussion the debate was adjourned, and will probably not be resumed this session. Mr. Davin's anxiety on behalf of the women is explained by the fact that in his constituency of West Assiniboia, there are no less than 135 widows, who, if the franchise was extended to women, might deposit their ballots for the polished orator from Regina.

GOVERNOR SCHULTZ of Manitoba is in hot water. When at Ottawa the other day he got the written opinion of Dr. Bourdoin, clerk of the Commons, bearing on the Government's action in the school question and had it published in the Government organs. For this he was hauled over the coals in Parliament, Thursday, by Dalton McCarthy, Hon. David Mills and other Liberal speakers. The charge is made that the governor is in collision with the Federal authorities and that an attempt will be made to coerce the Manitoba government into some settlement of the school difficulty that will remove the responsibility of further dealing with it at Ottawa.

The King's county penitentiary, in New York state, shelters a distinguished lot of prisoners, including no less than sixty-eight bank officials who are serving out their sentences in that institution. Seven of them, convicted of embezzling depository funds, were presidents of National banks. Twelve of the convicts were cashiers of national banks, while the remaining forty-nine were tellers and trusted clerks in banks of the same class.

Mr. Davies in Parliament, Friday, asked for further information regarding the negotiations with Newfoundland, but Mr. Foster refused to answer any questions, and in the discussion that followed, the Finance Minister lost his temper and made a violent attack upon the Opposition. Mr. Foster is rapidly losing his reputation for coolness and serenity, but there is some excuse for him. He has a lively lot of fellows after him.

Not a very brilliant outlook for Canada. Three deficits in succession aggregating $7,000,000, and another turn of the taxation screw.

Mr. Flint of Yarmouth, submitted his resolution for straight prohibition to the legislative committee of the Dominion Temperance Alliance, and received the endorsement of that body. It will be moved in Parliament and the temperance people are wondering what means the Government will take this time to side-track it. In 1891, when a similar resolution was made, Mr. Foster moved in amendment for the appointment of a prohibition commission, and thus avoided a direct expression of opinion on the main resolution.

The Montreal militia abandoned their intended parade and sham battle for May 24th after having learned from Ottawa that the Government will not drill pay this year for city corps. The officers and men are very indignant.

It is said that Principal Peterson of Dundee University, Scotland, has been offered the principality of the principality of McGill University, Montreal. Is there no Canadian qualified for the position?

The Monetary Times, a non-political newspaper, says that "in criticizing the budget Sir Richard Cartwright was at his best," and praises the tone of his speech.

A DEAL IN COAL.

The Water Committee's Peculiar Action in Accepting Tenders.

The water committee of the city council has placed themselves in a position which is very much condemned and criticized by the taxpayers of the city. A few days ago they advertised tenders for coal for use at the pumping station during the current year, calling for 300 tons, and specifying for Victoria and International, from the Sydney mine, Springhill, and Grand Lake coal to be screened and free from slack and shell. The tenders were received up to Monday last, when the committee met and opened them, finding tenders from Hon. J. B. Snowball, Walter McFarlane, of St. Marys, Mr. O'Leary and Mr. Slocum, of Grand Lake, F. I. Morrison, Patrick Farrell and E. H. Allen, of this city. Mark you, the advertisement called for screened coal, as opposed to run of the mine coal. The committee did not decide Monday which tender to accept, but decided to call Mr. McFarlane before them, and adjourned till yesterday afternoon. Mr. McFarlane was present with the committee yesterday, and last night it was announced that the committee had accepted his tender of $3.25 per chaldron of 2800 pounds, for unscreened coal, notwithstanding that the committee had called for tenders for screened coal only, and the gentlemen who tendered, put in their bids on that basis. Now there are several things which demand an explanation from the committee. If they intended to accept unscreened coal, why did they not give all an opportunity to tender for that kind? If they changed their mind after the call for tenders was issued, why was only Mr. McFarlane given a chance to go before the committee, and subsequently have his tender for unscreened coal accepted? The fact that Mr. O'Leary for instance, it was at the rate of $3.45 for screened Grand Lake coal, an advance of only 18 cents over Mr. McFarlane's unscreened, which the committee accepted. The HERALD has authority for stating that the electric light company of this city buys unscreened Grand Lake coal, $150 lbs. to the chaldron, for $3.25, the same figure given Mr. McFarlane per chaldron of 2800 lbs., and that everybody who buys that article receives the same weight.

The fact, too, is worth considering, that Mr. McFarlane, who receives an undue advantage over the other tenders, is not a taxpayer of the city, and we should like to know what influenced the committee to treat the other tenders in such an unfair manner as we have pointed out. All Macpherson is chairman of the committee. Had he and the Superintendent any particular axe to grind in giving Mr. McFarlane the advantage? These are questions the taxpayers are asking to-day. Talk about coal deals. It strikes us that the action of the committee in giving the coal to Mr. McFarlane for unscreened coal, after a personal interview with that gentleman, and in face of the fact that the call for tenders only named screened coal, is about as highbanded a piece of business as we have ever heard of in civic management.

The City Council will be recent to its duty if it does not fully investigate the matter, and if by which the city is suffering financially, and the rights of more than one taxpayer have been entirely disregarded.

Charged with Robbery.

Lee Lint, a young man in the employ of A. E. Stey at Popouk, was arrested by Detective Roberts and brought to the city last Friday, charged with robbing Jas. S. Nell's store in January last. It appears the police procured the information which led to the arrest through Mrs. Anthony Parsons, whose husband recently left town rather suddenly after attempting his wife's life. The examination of the prisoner was commenced at the police court yesterday, and the Parsons testified that she saw the prisoner and a man named Smith exhibiting some firearms to her husband shortly after the Nell robbery was reported, and that they gave him two revolvers, rifle and hunting knife. The police found a revolver and knife in a drawer in Parsons' house after he had left the city. The case will be resumed at the police court on Friday. Mayor Van Wart appears for the prosecution and A. R. Slipp for the prisoner.

To Be Investigated.

The Fredericton & St. Marys railway bridge transaction, which was the subject of a discussion in the House of Commons a few days ago, will be investigated by the committee on public accounts. Sir Richard Cartwright has secured an order for the attendance of the Deputy Minister of Finance, with the corresponding reference to the government loan of $300,000 to the company, and in reference to the unpaid interest, amounting to $60,000. The committee, at Sir Richard's instance, request that Messrs. M. P., to appear before the committee and state his connection with the transaction, and Mr. Foster secured an order for the attendance of Ed. Ward Jack of this city. The matter was to come before the committee today.

Accident at New Maryland.

Robert Greer, a well known and respected resident of New Maryland, met with a serious accident Saturday morning. He had his team of horses harnessed to a truck wagon ready for work, one of the animals being a young and giddy colt, and when Mr. Greer's attention was off them for a moment, the colt slipped his bridle. Not noticing this, Mr. Greer jumped into the wagon and started his team. The colt, without control, plunged and reared, and soon had his more stalwart companion in a wild mood. Both animals became unmanageable and ran wildly across the fields, clearing three fences in the runaway. They brought up in the goods without injury to themselves, but Mr. Greer did not escape so easily. He was hurled from the wagon onto a pile of stones, had his arm broken and his face severely gashed, besides receiving a general staking up which will lay him by for some weeks. Mr. Greer is well known in the city which he visits every Saturday with his farm produce, and his friends are very sorry to hear of his misfortune, which is especially severe at this busy season.

St. Johns Illustrated.

Messrs. Skillings & Knowles have already disposed of a large number of copies of the book recently published by them entitled "St. John and Fredericton Illustrated." The work has been chiefly sold by subscription, the bound copies at one dollar, and in paper covers, at fifty cents. The book carries out the design expressed by the title in a very complete way, and the views from special photographs, are very finely executed. There are a great variety of them, not only of St. John and Fredericton, but of points of interest on the river St. John. Explanatory of the sketches in general, and with a particular reference to many of them, is a running sketch of the two cities and of the river. A limited number of copies have been printed, in addition to the number subscribed for, and can be obtained from the publishers, Skillings & Knowles, St. John, N. B.

THE CONSOLIDATED ELECTRIC.

Judge Hanington and Dr. Pugsley Differ on a Question of Fact.

In the Telegraph of Thursday was published a long interview with Hon. A. Blair regarding the charges made against him re the Consolidated Electric Railway funds, and the Attorney General was able to present facts which completely exonerated him from the shadow of a doubt. Blair's interview with the Hon. Blair says: "In pursuance of Judge Hanington's decree, and on the certificate of authorization of the clerk of the Supreme Court in Equity, the receiver for the Consolidated Electric Railway Company has been appointed. DEATH OF MRS. TENNANT.

Funeral Services Sunday Very Largely Attended.

The Herald very sincerely regrets to record the death of Mrs. M. Tennant which occurred at her home on York Street Thursday evening. The deceased lady had been almost an invalid for nearly a quarter of a century, enduring great suffering at times, but always with calmness and patience...

Mr. Tennant, however, enjoyed better health than usual and often drove out in her carriage. As late as Tuesday of the week preceding her death, Mrs. Tennant took a drive, and on Saturday following she was able to walk on the lawn at her home. This was her last outing, and on Sunday Mr. Tennant saw unmistakable evidence that the sufferer's end was at hand. She soon relapsed into unconsciousness and breathed her last on Thursday evening, her last hours evidently being apparently free from severe suffering...

She was married to Mr. Tennant at St. John Feb. 17th, 1870, and leaves no issue. Her two brothers Charles and Geo. I. Gunter reside in the western part of the province, she was sister, Mrs. Sheppard, died years ago. An adopted daughter, Miss Bessie Tennant, daughter of Mrs. Sheppard, has lived with Mr. and Mrs. Tennant since her marriage with Mr. Tennant is quite prostrated by the blow that has fallen upon them. Mrs. Tennant was 51 years old, and her death leaves a sad blank, not only in her home, but in the large circle of friends who loved her for her many womanly traits and her beautiful Christian character. She was a devoted member of the Free Baptist church and took the warmest interest in its welfare. She possessed a most kindly heart, strong sympathies with those in trouble, and throughout her long twenty-five years of illness never murmured or complained. To Mr. Tennant she ever proved a faithful and loving wife, making his home, so far as lay in her power, a bright and happy one, and in return reciprocating her weakness, only such tender and affectionate ministrations as Mr. Tennant's manly character and benevolence could extend. The heart-felt sympathy of the community is extended to him in his bereavement, and in the general expression of grief for the loss of the dear wife of Mr. Tennant, sister of George E. Fenety of this city. The funeral took place at 3 p. m. Sunday, and all classes in the community showed their respect and sympathy by walking in the mournful cortege, which followed the remains of the deceased lady to the grave. Appropriate services were held at the house by Rev. F. C. Hartley, members of the F. B. Church being present and rendering the beautiful hymn "The Morning Star, O. I. I. Jesus." The house was completely filled with sympathizing friends. The casket was covered with beautiful floral tributes, including a large pillow from P. S. Williams and C. H. Hatt of Marystown; pillow from Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Noble, St. John; wreath from Hiram Lodge, F. & A. M.; wreath from Wm. G. A. Noble, St. John; wreath from Mr. Tennant's partner, Mr. Davies, and employes of their establishment; present from the F. B. church; bunch of lilies from Mrs. Geo. F. Atherton, and offerings from Mrs. G. I. Gunter and others. The cortege was a very long one, and at the grave in the rural cemetery above town, further services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Hartley.

Personal. Judge and Mrs. Steadman have arrived home from Florida. A. C. Fairweather, of St. John, registered at the Queen on Monday. Probate Judge Cockburn of St. Andrews, was a guest at the Queen Friday. W. E. Cooper, of Kansas, is home visiting his father, Wm. Cooper, King street. Miss Mary Beckwith left the last of this month to visit friends in Montreal. J. D. Chipman, travelling freight agent of the C. O. R., was at the Barker yesterday. E. N. Abbott, inspector of the Dominion Express Company, is stopping at the Queen. Rev. Dean Partridge is confined to his residence by a severe attack of rheumatism. Mrs. A. S. Johnson is here from Charlottetown visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Lemont. Mrs. Leslie White, of St. John, is in the city visiting her mother, Mrs. Massie, George street. Capt. J. Ewing, paymaster of the Dominion public works department, was at the Barker yesterday. Prince McLaren, general agent of the Canada Life Insurance Co., at Halifax, was at the Queen yesterday. W. W. Hubbard of Barton, Sunbury county, has accepted a position at the Wingham, N. S. dairy. A. McN. Shaw, the popular auditor of the C. E. railway, is preparing for the erection of a new residence on the Ruel property at Gibson. Arthur W. Ebbett, barrister of Gagetown, and judge of probates for Queens, was among the guests at the Queen hotel on Monday. W. H. McGinn, the popular engineer at the electric light station, was married this morning at Stediac to Miss Polr and is expected home this evening. P. McGinn, Charles McGinn and Miss A. McGinn, brother and sister of the bridegroom, were present at the ceremony. His brother was best man, and the bride was attended by Miss Lizzie Ryan also of this city. The bride's attendant was Miss M. J. Schofield, of Schofield Bros, paper dealers, St. John, and formerly of the Merchants' Bank here, was the queen on Sunday night, and on Monday, in company with Geo. A. Hughes, of the funeral parlour, made a day trip to the upper provinces. Mr. Hughes will return before the end of the month. Charles Odell, who is a native of this city but has been absent from it almost continuously since his youth, has arrived here with his family and taken up his residence on his own property, corner Birch and Church streets, opposite the Cathedral, occupied for many years by the late Mrs. Black. Mr. Odell, who is a brother of the late Senator Odell, is a civil engineer by profession, and has recently been residing in Montreal. Quite a number of persons assembled in the gentleman's parlour of the Queen hotel, Monday evening, to witness the drawing in the lottery of five oil paintings, executed by Miss Kitcher, Westmorland street. Willard Kitcher was the lucky man, taking first prize, Miss Calkin 2nd, Dr. Conlath 3rd, Miss G. W. and Samuel Owen 5th. Miss Calkin shows considerable skill with the brush and she feels quite encouraged with the success she has met with so far in Fredericton. She belongs to St. John, but has been residing here for some months. Our esteemed friend and co-laborer, Martin Butler, has grown tired of single blessedness, and will take unto himself a wife during the last month of June. The prospective bride is Miss McLean of Kingsclear. The "banquet" was held at the place of Mr. Savage in St. Dunstan's church Sunday, and will be repeated for two more successive Sundays, though by nobody objects, Martin Mrs. Butler. A detachment from Bar Harbor, Me., says that John Haynes, of Fredericton, N. B., a mason employed in the improvements being made on the estate of Joseph Pultizer, was hit by a board which fell from a derelict, Friday afternoon, and his neck was broken. He died in about ten minutes. He was unmarried. (The deceased did not belong to this city, but it is said he hailed from Barri's Corner and was a son of Daniel Haynes.) The last militia general orders contain the promotion of Lieut. Wm. Forester of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, Toronto, formerly of this city, to the brevet rank of captain, from April 20, 1895. Capt. Forester is a son-in-law of Thos. Trevel, M.P.

A PROMISING HOLIDAY. If we have fine weather on the 24th there will be lots of amusement. Frederick. The Herald's birthday, comes on Friday of next week, and will be celebrated in the usual happy manner in this city. Indeed the programme, as it looks such a distance, will offer more, and a greater variety of amusements than have ever been hitherto afforded to the citizens of Fredericton on such an occasion. There are a great many tastes to be suited, but it seems that everybody ought to be able to pick some attractive feature out of all that is talked of and really planned for the coming holiday. In the forenoon those who do not go fishing or into the country to spend the day (and these forms of amusement will no doubt have a large number of participants) will have the pleasure of witnessing an inspection and review of the R. E. C. I. in the Officers' square say at 11 o'clock. The band of the corps will turn out for the review. About the same hour the trainmen's excursion will arrive from St. John. The last one brought 600 people up, and there is every evidence that this year's will be none the less successful. These, with the large number of visitors from adjacent villages and from the country, will swell the number of strangers in the city to a very large crowd.

CHAPTER VI.

"You know the original?" asked the invalid.
"I have seen him," faltered Gerald.
"Exactly," said the invalid. "For your father, George?"

said the doctor: "but it strikes me that the English saying is much more applicable in the present instance. Of such a man, they say that he 'cannot stand beans,' and that appears to me to be Vane's condition. Success has made him insolent, even to those who helped him on his upward path.

"All right," said Vane sullenly. "I'll take care of that. You never saw me blunder in business, and if this is put to me as a matter of business, I shall, of course, not import my private feelings into it. 'Now, I think I'll go home.'
"Stay one minute," said Delahoe, who perceived that the effects of the drink had gone off; "I find I must get a few days change of air, and there are two or three things which I want to say to you before I go.

in Vane, not quite so fast, if you please. Let me see what I can do."
As he spoke, he rose from his seat, flung the butt-end of his cigarette into the fireplace, and crossing the room, seated himself at a large old-fashioned writing table.
