On Wednesday evening last Mr. Phileas Arsenault (John) Fifteen Point, met with very serious accident. While mowing one of his horses balked. He got off the machine and went around to start the horse. The team started suddenly and horse. The team started suddenly and the unfortunate man, being right in front of the cutter, had his left foot completely severed from the leg, just above the ankle. Dr. Gallant, of Wellington, was summoned as quickly as possible, and he and Dr. Secord, of Summerside, emputated the legi about midway between the ankle and the knee, and Mr. Arsenault is now doing as well as can be expected after such a terrible experience.—Summerside Agriculturist. Bloomfield Tea TEA PARTY

CELEBRATION, Saturday August 15th, 1896 On Church Grounds.

A Grand Tea Party will be held at St Ann's, Lot 65, Monday, the 17th August, in aid of the Building Fund of the new R. C. Church to be built at St. Ann's.

The Tea will be held on the Church Grounds. Provision will be made for the care of teams.

Tables groaning with the delicacies of the season, refreshment saloons, revolving swings, dancing booths, tug-of-war between married and single men, music, brass band, pipes, etc, etc.

Tea grounds are on a beautiful elevation near the church, where the branching maple trees, spreading their umbrage far, the smiling fields promising fodder and corn, and the rippling waters of Mill River gently flowing into old Cascumpee, all harmoniously combine to make it an ideal spot for sport, indeed none more picturesque, none more poetic than this inland portion of the gen of the galf. Overlooking the whole seene stands the cruciform church of St. Anthony, rearing its cross-crowned spire beavenward.

Come all and no pains will be spared

Come all and no pains will be spared to make you happy.

Reduced return rates on regular morning train from Tignish to Howlan station where teams will be in attendance to convey people to tea grounds.

Security of the control of the contr

Christ. This decision was no reached withou great pposition, but once the vote was taker, all submitted to it. In the il ventoentary a French Bi-hor, had lpi of Rouer, went to leeland and for direteen years labored as a mission-sary among the new converts and confirmed them in the faith.

Icoland's history after the estab-listment of Christianity is very in-teresting for it attained a high di-gree of refinement and civil ration, for superior, in fact, to that of other countries of the North. Nearly everything that is known of the history of Northern Europe is de-ived from the Icelandie historian-of this epoch. The scalds of Icr-land were in great demand at all the courts of the North, in Den-mark, Sweden, Norway, England and Ireland: the Icelandic litera-ture of that period is regarded as-one of the most beautiful and mos-classical of all literatures. The Et-las and Sagas, the historical and lase and Sagas, the historical and postical works of Sacro Studeor, called the Thuydides of the North, the splendid productions of the numerous Icelandic scalds, are literary monuments which are worthy of merous Icelandic scalds, are literary monuments which are worthy of the profoundest admiration. Be sides their literary occupations, the fosianders were given to long expeditions of surprising bildness: torinstance, in the year 1000 they discovered America and established flourishing colonies, which, later on, were crected into several diocess. In those times the Catholic bishops had great influence over the Icelanders. Many Benedictine and Augustinian monasteries were built ndage that Augustinian monasteries were built in the isle and the Catholic religion so base as the was not, so to speak, in the whole island, so say the Sigas, a house not family nor a community which was not devoted to some literary

The ring, as part of the insignia of the episcopal digni;, is of very early origin, and its history presents many points of interest. At the Council of Orleans, held in 511, a rescript of Clodovic is referred to, promising to leave certain captives at the disposal of the Gallican bishops, "si vestras epistolas de annulo vestro signatas epistolas de annulo vestro signatas en control disposal con

Letters come day by day telling us that this person has been cured of dysamother of Headh another of Headh ache, still another of Bal Blood, and another of Headh ache, still another of Billousness, and yet others of various complaints of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels or Blood, all through the initelligent use of Burdock Blood Bitters.

It is the voice of the people recognizing the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters cures all diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Blood. Mr. T. G. Ludlow, 33c Coltomes Street.

Brantford, Ont., says: During seven years prior to 1865, ny wife was sick all the time with violent headaches. Her head was so bot that it felt like burning up. She was weak, run down, and so feeble that she could hardly do anything, and sonerous that the least noise started her. Night or day she could not rest and life was a misery to her. I tried all kinds of medicines and treatment for her but she steadily grew worse until I bought is the state of Burdock Blood Bitters from C. Stork & Son, of Brampton, Ont., for which I paid $5.00, and it was the best investment I ever made in my life. Mrs. C. Stork & Son, of Brampton, Ont., for which I paid $5.00, and it was the best investment I ever made in my life. Mrs. Ludlow vox for the other two, for those four bottles made her a strong, healthy woman, and removed every all-ment from the four the scarced Heart.

The Episcopal Ring.

The episcopal dignity, is of very early rich the temporalities of the scarced therether was no need of the other two, for those four bottles made her a strong, healthy woman, and removed every all-ment from the scarced Heart.

The ring, as part of the insignia of the portion of the proposities of the Scriptures, in Ledword four out of the six bottles—there was no need of the other two, for those four bottles made her a strong, healthy woman, and removed every all-ment from the four the proposities of the Scripture was not need of the other two, for those four bottles made her a strong.
