BRIDGETOWN, JUNE 9th, 1880.

CONSTANTINOPLE.

The rapid declension of the Turkish Empire is now apparent to all the world. It will soon be numbered among the earth's extinct nationalities.

In our present remarks it is not our intention to say much of the history of Constantinople - or of the various phases that characterized it from the days of Constantine until 1453, when the Byzantine Empire fell, and the Turks were in the ascendant on the banks of the Hellespont.

The downfall and dismemberment of the Ottoman Empire, it is generally believed, are inevitable. Its utter overthrow, ere long, is regarded as a certainty; its doom cannot be averted.

Thinking minds, then, cannot well avoid speculating upon the probable, if not possible, future of Constantinople. Geographically considered, the Golden Horn - the site on which it stands - is one of the most interesting spots in the eastern hemisphere.

No humorist has ever been more successful in evoking mirth than was Dickens in the irresistible laughable scenes which he has drawn in Pickwick.

LOCAL AND GENERAL EDITORIAL ITEMS.

Nearly 36,000 copies of the Toronto "Globe," were sold on the Monday following the death of the Hon. Geo. Brown.

Blossoming orchards have greatly beautified the aspects of the surrounding country during the last few days, and scented the air with fragrance.

The Court next week will of course draw quite a number of outsiders into Bridgetown. We expect a business call from some of them.

Bradlaugh, the impious new elected radical, finds his atheism a practical inconvenience on attempting to fill his place in Parliament.

manners, customs and passing events of his own age. He wandered back clambering over intervening centuries, and depicted the long ago of Scotland, and its semi-civilized peoples, who were divided into communities that were held together by no other tie than the bonds of claniship.

General News.

Edenburgh has made week.
Potato bugs have made their appearance in large numbers in Charlotte Co., N. B.

Hallstones measuring about two inches in length are said to have fallen in Guysborough last week.

CHANGE OF NAME.—The Settlement formerly known as Middle Perreux, in Kings County, had its name changed by act of Legislature to Delhaven.

Mr. Angus McLean, a farmer, 76 years of age, of Bear Settlement, South River, Antigonish, accidentally fell off his wagon on Wednesday last week, and falling on his temple was so severely injured that he died in a few minutes.

On Saturday an Ottawa merchant, a creditor of an insolvent estate, received a bill for $29 as his contribution to the assignee's expenses. The estate failed by five cents on the dollar to meet the expenses of the assignee!

VALUABLE PRIZE.—Brig Kilborn, of Pictou, 272 tons, from Barrow, May 8, 24th. Crow taken off by steamer Helvetia, and landed at Queenstown 26th. The abandoned vessel was taken by the ship Kilmurray of Yarmouth, which put on board a prize crew, under the mate, Mr. George B. McConnell, who succeeded in getting her into Crookhaven on Tuesday last.

HANDSOME OFFER.—It is understood that Josiah Wood, Esq. of Sackville, who is one of the richest men in the Province, has offered the managers of the Mount Allison Educational Institutions a sum of $10,000, as a contribution to an Endowment Fund for the Institutions, on condition that the managers raise from other quarters Fifty Thousand Dollars more. The proposition is under consideration.—St. John Sun.

The rage of the season is—dots. There is big dots, little dots, French dots, Chinese dots, Japanese dots, polka dots, printed dots, brocaded dots, woven dots, dotted dresses, dotted stockings, dotted straws, dotted laces, dotted curtains, dotted this, dotted that, and dotted the other, till it would take the dot of an ant to indurate in all the pretty goods that display dots.

The dwelling house of Messrs. Bray, Wyatt, and Joudry, and coach stable of H. Kilcup, situate on the road between Liverpool and Bridgewater, were totally destroyed by fire on Friday night, the inmates losing all their effects and barely escaping with their lives. A full report of the fire, which originated in the trunk of land, came to hand too late for this issue.—Liverpool Advertiser.

A SHIP SURROUNDED BY ICEBERGS.—The barque Sarah M. Smith, of St. John, N. B., Capt. Olsen, which arrived yesterday from Liverpool, G. B., reports May 28th, in lat. 43 25, lon. 49 25, after a dense fog lifted, found the ship surrounded by 45 large icebergs ranging from 150 feet to 250 feet high, and a number of smaller ones. The ship sailed about 30 miles on W. N. W. course from the time she saw the icebergs until getting the ice again in sight. Capt. Olsen states that the ship was lifted by a beautiful sight to see the immense bergs with the sun shining on them. They were in all sorts of shapes, such as castles, pyramids, arches, and with a number of tops.—Chronicle 6th.

Many people are not aware that it is the wrapper of tobacco which gives the color to the plug, and are, therefore, often deceived by a hand-ome appearance. The wrapper in a single tin of leaf wrapped round the plug, and is never good smoking tobacco. It is costly only because of its fine color, and not because of its quality. Myrtle tobacco can be made to look as well as the "Myrtle Navy," without much trouble or expense, but it may at the same time be a very inferior article.

Fire.—Queen's County, according to the Liverpool "Times" seems to have been troubled with fires in the woods to a much larger extent than usual. That journal, in speaking of the extent of the fires, says that at one time, on Sunday afternoon, it was feared that the settlement of Middle Port Jolie would be entirely destroyed; a change of wind fortunately saved the place. The destruction of property generally, is something fearful. At Port Monton, Mr. Henry Wagner had a fine new mill, and some 1800 acres of valuable timber-land totally destroyed. Mr. John E. Payant lost mill and wood land, with a considerable lot of lumber just sawn. The house of T. Smith, Mrs. D. Moody, James Burham, John Bushon and Thomas Wagner caught in different places, but were saved from destruction.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you distressed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of WINDLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it: there is no mistake about it. It is not a mercurial, and it has never been known to injure any child. It will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe in all cases, and is given to the children in the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Full directions for using with the accompanying each bottle. Price 25 cents a bottle. Beware of imitations.

The Live Stock Trade.

The Toronto Mail the other day published a report of an interview with a Mr. Deane, a gentleman well known in connection with the cattle trade. We make an extract from what Mr. Britton told the Mail reporter.

"Well-bred and well-fed cattle should turn the scale at 1,400 to 1,600 lbs. live weight, to suit the British purchaser, and for fear that the farmer should be afraid that the raising and fattening of such heavy cattle is going to prove costly to him Mr. Britton informs him that whereas our common native cattle will attain but 800 or 1,000 lbs. whilst consuming the same quantity of food and requiring a like amount of care, as well-bred cattle which will attain the weight required by the exporter. Mr. Britton, assuming as a basis that there are 340,000 agriculturists in this province alone, maintains that it would be an easy matter for one-third of them to raise six beasts, three during the pasture season and three during the winter or stall-feeding season, or at the very least, three head per annum. This season, he continued, there will be an unexceptional demand for well-bred stock, and contractors will have no little difficulty in meeting it.

"First-class cattle will bring 50 to 60 cents per lb. live weight, other grades selling at from 30 to 40 cents per lb. and not being in so great a demand for foreign markets, they will be merely required for puttering purposes and local consumption."

"The Mail closes its report of the interview with the following:—

"Mr. Britton added a few remarks about the sheep trade, which has been stirring of late, the contracts entered into by Canadian shippers for this season being very extensive, and fully double the number will be exported as compared with last year. Canadian sheep meet with growing favor in England, owing to the quantity of lambs sent they give. Cotswold and Leicester breeds are the favorites, as they produce the heaviest weights and mature rapidly. Last year the Province shipped 75,000 sheep, a number that will at least be increased two-fold this year: Prices range from 4 to 40 cents per pound live weight, and very large contracts have been made at the outside figure of 50 cents per lb.

To sum up briefly a two hours' talk, during which time the foregoing facts

Telegraph Notes for the Week.

Constantinople, June 4.—Mr. Goeben, British Ambassador, presented his credentials to the Sultan on Thursday. Subsequently he had a private audience with the Emperor, and was complimented on the death of the Czarina, yesterday, returned to St. Petersburg immediately from Constantinople, the Duke of Edinburgh will go to St. Petersburg to-night, to attend the funeral.—Washington, D. C., May 28, 1880.—A petition was presented to the House of Representatives by Cameron, of Wisconsin, from a person signing himself "Rev. Theodore Augustus Schatzler, bishop," who wants compensation for his station for preaching on the occasion of the Union during the late unpleasantness.—Washington, June 4.—Representative Cox, under the leadership of the Foreign Affairs Committee, is engaged in the preparation of a report upon the Fortunate Bay fishery matter to accompany the bill which the committee have agreed to report favorably to the House. The bill relates to the circumstances leading up to the Treaty of Washington, which the United States have agreed to pay the British Government $5,500,000 for the liberty of the fishery on the coast of Labrador, and also in the bay, and the New Jersey branch, and the Consular Majesty's Dominions of Canada and the island of Newfoundland, without restriction to any distance from the shore. It further recites the failure of the British Government to carry out the provisions of the Treaty of Washington, and their refusal to make redress for losses of American fishermen forced to fish upon the fishing grounds in Fortunate Bay in 1878, and that the Government of the United States has agreed to pay to the British Government $5,500,000 for the liberty of the fishery on the coast of Labrador, and also in the bay, and the New Jersey branch, and the Consular Majesty's Dominions of Canada and the island of Newfoundland, without restriction to any distance from the shore. thus, for the boat, and I can just keep it going lazily with one oar. Please unhook the basket—I have only one hand free.

'How nice!' cried Poppy as she brought forth one dainty after another. 'How thoughtful of you to bring all these good things!'

'I always take care of myself,' remarked Richard; 'I don't go anywhere unprovided. You have no idea what a cautious, far-seeing individual I am.

'What two spooly mortals we are!' he said, smiling up at her changing face with eyes so full of love that she believed his laughing words. 'And it is no end of a shame we are out here rooking on the sea in this wooden cradle!

'I'll take it out,' said Poppy. She did, and somehow it slipped into his hand and stayed there. They drank from the same glass; they ate strawberries from the same basket, and chicken sandwiches from the same improvised plates of paper.

'I am getting frightened. Jocelyn will be angry. You do not care much to hear it.'

'Don't laugh at him. Can't you guess why?' 'No,' he said lazily, smoothing his cheek against her ivory hand; 'I can't take the trouble to guess.'

'Well, I am almost afraid to tell you you will laugh. But it is because—because he is so jealous.'

'Of me?' said Richard; 'and his eyes, with cruel laughing gaze, read every quivering line and fevered blush upon her face.'

VERNON OF THE COMING WEATHER.—The Canadian Meteorologist last prediction says: 'Believe, he says, that June will be an intensely hot month on the whole, but the end of the present month, and probably the first of June, will be fall-like.'

THE STARS FORETELL FOR 1881.—Those who study the stars will have plenty of occupation in the coming year.

OCCUPATION FOR WOMEN IN NEW YORK.—In the city or suburbs we find women employed in staining and enamelling glass; in making glass signs; in cutting ivory, pearl, and tortoise-shell; working in gutta serena, gmelinac, and hair; making willow-ware and cane chairs; feeding printers' presses and setting type; making and packing candles; moulding tablets of water-colours; assisting in the manufacture of chemicals and fire-works; making clocks, enamelling dials, and painting the cases; finishing backgammon boards; making and dressing dolls and toys; stitching the cloths and making the pockets of billiard tables; painting the handles of brooms, and weaving twine into netting; making paper collars and twine; burnishing jewelry; making buttons; and many other occupations.
