The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

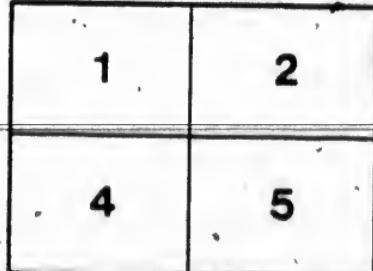

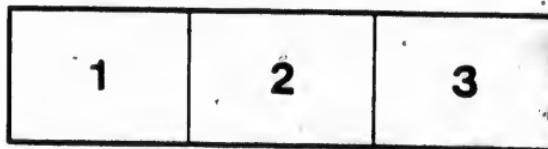

Department of Rare Books
and Special Collections,
McGill University, Montreal.

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▽ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

to the generosity of:

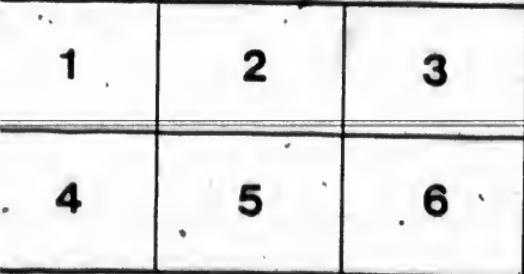

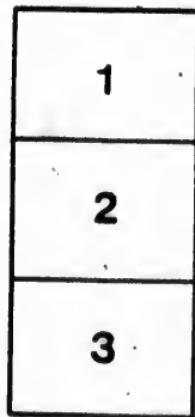

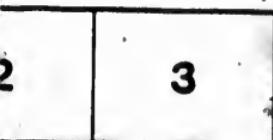

Department of Rare Books
and Special Collections,
McGill University, Montreal.

The following images were reproduced with the greatest care, taking into account the condition and clarity of the original film, and in accordance with the terms of the filming contract.

The original copies whose cover is paper are printed starting from the first page and ending with the last page which contains an impression or illustration, or from the second page, according to the case. All other original copies are printed starting from the first page which contains an impression or illustration and ending with the last page which contains such an impression.

One of the following symbols appears on the last image of each microfilm, according to the case: the symbol → means "TO FOLLOW", the symbol ▽ means "END".

The charts, drawings, tables, etc., can be filmed at different reduction rates.
When the document is too large to be reproduced in a single shot, it is filmed from the top left corner, left to right, bottom to top, in the number of images necessary. The following diagrams illustrate the method.

SIR WILFRED'S TARTES.

Oh, Sir Wilfred, it's a pity that you are not more wise
Than to attempt to swallow Tartes of such enormous size;
These Tartes will swell immensely, so just look out in time,
Before they burst your cabinet and cover you with slime.
Your flowery, flowing eloquence, your sweet and sunny smile,
Will lose their former flavour when mixed with arts so vile;
What in the world possessed you,—or were you mesmerized?
When the control of public works the Tartes monopolized.
Our Lady of the snows or our Lady of sunshine,
Will not be over-grateful for these doubtful friends of thine,
For Joseph Israel's manner is, in reference to crime,
To always turn queen's evidence, as in McGreevy's time.
Whatever Joseph meddles with, unless he comes out top,
He's sure to find out some excuse to ruin the whole shop.
You just ask Hector Langevin why Joseph Israel squealed,
And he will tell you, if he likes, " He wanted better deals."
For business is business and Joseph Israel's mind
Is always fixed on number one, the rest he leaves behind;
But what I cannot understand about the whole affair,
Is how Sir Wilfred Laurier got mixed up in the snare.
I always thought he was above such mean and dirty schemes
As Croaker, Tarte and Tammany adopt to get the cream;
I'd like to hear from Meunier of Anticosti's isle,
How much he gave La Patrie, the settlers to exile.
I now throw out the challenge and take it as you please,
That some of Laurier's cabinet were confederates of thieves.
