CASUALTY LIST A LEAD / ONE AGAINST YOU

One St. John Man, Pte. Manford McNutt, Has Given His Life

Lieut. Ernest Welch is Slightly Wounded--Several More City Soldiers Among the Wounded; Maritime Province Troops Have Suffered Severely

Another of the heroes of the first contingent has followed the path trodden by so many of that gallant band--the path that leads not only to glory but to a grave. Private Manford McNutt has given his life in the service of the empire and while his loss will be mourned, his memory will be honored.

He was only a boy of nineteen when he enlisted two years ago but was one of the first to respond to the call and signed on with the 1st Field Ambulance in the first contingent. Since then he has performed gallant service at the front, many times where the fighting raged the fiercest. His death was caused by a gunshot wound in the chest.

The news of his death was received by the young soldier's sister, Miss Florence McNutt, 174 Metcalf street. Besides his sister, he is survived by two brothers, James and Albert, both of this city. Before enlisting Private McNutt was employed in the L. C. R. grain elevator here. He was prominent in local athletics and took an active interest in the East End Baseball League. The number of friends who will mourn his loss is a tribute to his popularity.

Pte. Thos. Chesworth. Thomas Chesworth, of East St. John, received official word from Ottawa on Sunday that his nephew, Pte. Thomas Chesworth, of a New Brunswick unit, had been admitted to No. 4 General Hospital in Amiens on September 21, wounded in the right leg. Pte. Chesworth's father, John, is a member of the 14th Battalion. His mother is in England, having gone there in last February. Pte. Chesworth came to this country with his parents from England when he was but five years old. He was only sixteen when he joined and has a large number of uncles and cousins serving in the king's uniform. He has nine uncles from one family in uniform.

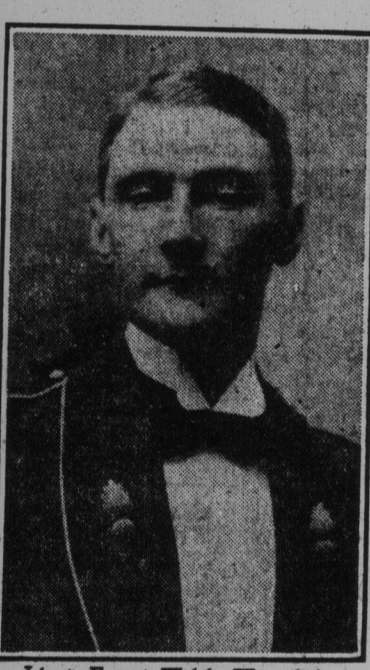

Lieut. E. H. Welch Wounded. The many friends of Lieutenant Ernest Havelock Welch of the Fighting 26th, who left Canada with the 12th Battalion two years ago, will regret to hear that his name appears on the casualty list as being slightly wounded on September 29. The official news came to his mother, Mrs. A. P. Welch, this morning. The fact that he is reported only slightly wounded will naturally give hope for a speedy recovery. Lieut. Welch today celebrates the twenty-fifth anniversary of his birth and it is also just two years ago today since he crossed over to England. He was one of the city's most popular young men.

Lieut. Welch left St. John with the first contingent as a member of the 12th Battalion. He went with the 20th later. Up to last March he was acting as a muckety officer in England. His mother received word only yesterday that he would leave England about October 31 for Canada. It is understood that he was to join the 29th Rifle Regiment now being recruited. Lieut. Welch was on the staff of W. J. Wetmore, Dock street, representative of Meins, Limited.

Lieut. Welch's wife is at Folkestone, England. Mr. Wm. H. Thompson. Word was received in the city this morning that Gunner William H. Thompson had been wounded during an engagement on September 22. No further particulars were received regarding his injuries. He left St. John with the Divisional Ammunition Column, but upon his arrival in England was transferred into an artillery unit. Prior to the outbreak of the war he belonged to a local battery. His father was killed in action during the South African war. Gunner Thompson was employed in Fennell prior to donning the khaki.

Pte. Geo. Wolfe. Mrs. George Wolfe, 144 Rockland road, received a telegram from Ottawa yesterday informing her that her husband had been wounded in the face during an engagement on September 17 and had been admitted to the Sixth Convalescent Hospital in Etaples.

Private Wolfe left St. John with a well known New Brunswick Battalion, but owing to ill health he did not get to the front with that unit. Later, however, he joined them and has since fought side by side with his former companions. While in England he was engaged baking for the troops, and owing to his long experience in T. Rankine & Sons' factory in this city, he proved himself invaluable in that respect. Fred, who was a member of the same unit, was killed on July 17, while fighting the Hun in France. Another brother, Private James, is with an Army Service Corps somewhere in France.

Lieut. Ernest Welch, Wounded.

Manford McNutt, Killed.

W. Bayard Moore, Killed.

Pte. Percy C. Saunders, Died.

late Pte. Chandler had been on the firing line for some months past. Sackville Man Wounded. A telegram on Thursday last announced the wounding of Nelson Richardson who was then in hospital at Etaples, France. His injury was a gunshot wound in the hand. He enlisted in June, 1915, immediately after his graduation from the Mount A. Academy with the C. M. R., and continued in service with them throughout.

Pte. James Harty. Mrs. Elizabeth Harty of 261 Guilford street, West End, today received word from Ottawa that her son, Private James Harty had been admitted to No. 24 General Hospital at Etaples suffering from a gunshot wound in the chest. This case the news that he was in the hospital was received as good news, as on Sunday Mrs. Harty had been notified that her boy had been reported missing between September 15 and 17. It was on September 18 that he entered the hospital. He is only seventeen years of age but he enlisted as a fighting man and went overseas more than a year ago.

Pte. Wm. Thomas. That Pte. William Thomas, who enlisted in this city with a New Brunswick regiment, is seriously wounded was the official information that reached his brother, Frederick Thomas, this morning. The dispatch said that Pte. Thomas was officially reported admitted to No. 22 General Hospital, Camiers, September 21, gunshot wound in chest, legs, penetrating and condition serious. Pte. Thomas is a native of Bristol, England. His parents are dead and he has one brother, Frederick, of St. John and one sister in the old country.

Lieut. Alvah Good Wounded. Lieut. G. Alvah Good, son of Major F. A. Good, of the New Brunswick command, is in hospital in France suffering from slight wounds. The cable contained the brief message "Bruised," and was sent by the wounded officer himself. Lieut. Good has been signaling officer with a western battalion and went to the front some months ago. He was formerly with the 61st Company of the Composite Regiment in Halifax and is a brother of Lieut. Allan W. G. Good, of the 14th Battalion.

Capt. Wandless Wounded. Capt. John H. Wandless, son of Thomas Wandless, Fredericton, is reported from a wound in the leg. He has been on the firing line in France with an Ontario battalion for the last six months. He went overseas with the 24th Battalion, mobilized in Toronto, as a captain and a few weeks ago was recommended for promotion to the rank of major. Captain Wandless is a South African war veteran. He left Fredericton about fifteen years ago, and since that time has resided in Toronto, where he has been prominent in military affairs. He has two brothers, I. Khaki, one brother, Lorne, being on the firing line, with the 4th Pioneer Battalion, while another, Gunner Holly, is in the pay office in London after spending some time in France.

Pte. Robert Ellis. A. W. Petch has received a field service card from Private Robert Ellis, giving the information that he has been admitted to a hospital, wounded. The young soldier is a native of Liverpool, England, and spent last winter in St. John as a member of the English company of the 68th Battalion. While here he made many friends. He has been in the trenches only about a month. (Continued on Page 12, fourth column.)

London, Oct. 3.—Field Marshal Von Mackensen has ordered the evacuation of the Danube fortresses of Siliaria and Turtukai recently captured by the Teutonic Allies, says a dispatch from Rome. The reason given is that he is in danger of being enveloped by the Russian and Rumanian troops which have crossed the Danube.

INSPECTION TODAY. Colonel Sharpes, O. C. Military Hospital Commission: Colonel Thompson, O. C. medical military hospital commission; Captain Bruce of the discharge depot, St. John; Charles Robinson, secretary of the Returned Soldiers Commission, St. John, and H. S. Mayes, chairman of the Soldiers Reception Committee, this morning made an inspection of the discharge depot in West St. John and other facilities connected with this branch of the work.

This afternoon they will inspect the Parks' Convalescent Home. Colonel Thompson and Mr. Robinson will leave for the front in France with an Ontario battalion for the last six months. He went overseas with the 24th Battalion, mobilized in Toronto, as a captain and a few weeks ago was recommended

CANADIANS FIGHTING SINCE LAST FRIDAY; OTTAWA HEARS THE CASUALTIES ARE LIGHT

(Special to Times.) Ottawa, Oct. 3.—Information received by the Militia Department, is that Canadian troops have been engaged at the front since last Friday. The casualties are stated to have been light. No details of the fighting have been given.

Heavy Fighting in Balkans And On Russian Front; It's Quieter On The Somme

London, Oct. 3.—Brief announcements from both Bucharest and Berlin that Rumanians had crossed the Danube south of their capital and invaded Bulgaria was the only news of this important move that reached the north here last night. The morning newspapers, however, had the misfortune as a dramatic counter stroke against the Bulgarians for the defeat of the Rumanians suffered at Hermannstadt.

Several Battalions. Sofia, Oct. 2.—(Via London, Oct. 3.) The number of Rumanians who have invaded Bulgaria is placed at several battalions by the Bulgarian war office. A statement announcing the passage of the Danube by the invaders says: "On the Danube 'near' Limos, between Rastouk and Turtukai the enemy conveyed to our banks in boats several battalions. Measures have been taken to attack this force."

Bulgars Retreat. Sofia, Oct. 3.—A retreat by the Bulgarians under heavy Serbian artillery fire is reported in an official statement referring to the Macedonian front. Both Defeat Bulgarians. Paris, Oct. 3.—The Serbians fighting in the Kaimakanian region on the Macedonian front have made further progress, according to today's announcements. They have captured several battalions and capturing another battery.

Bulgarian attacks on British positions on the left bank of the Struma were repulsed, the Bulgarians sustaining heavy losses, according to an official statement. GUNNARIES NOW A FRIEND OF THE ALLIES? Paris, Oct. 3.—A new political party, favouring intervention on the side of the Allies.

THREE BIG GAMES IN THE NATIONAL TODAY; SOME OF THE "IFS" New York, Oct. 3.—Settlement of the championship title in the National League today is a possibility, but in order to bring about this result Brooklyn must win from New York and Philadelphia must lose two games to Boston. This result would give Brooklyn ninety-three victories and fifty-nine defeats to ninety victories and sixty-one defeats for Philadelphia. By winning their two remaining games, the champions would still be short, even if Brooklyn lost two. Should Brooklyn win the next three games there would be no chance for Philadelphia to catch up.

Brooklyn has three more games with New York and Philadelphia four with Boston. From a percentage standpoint if either team wins all of its games, Brooklyn will lead by one point. If Brooklyn loses three games, Philadelphia will have to break even to take the lead. If each team loses two games, Brooklyn will lead by three points.

Today's Games. National League: New York at Brooklyn, clear, 8 p. m.; Boston at Philadelphia, clear, (2) first 1.30 p. m. No others scheduled. American League: Washington at New York, clear, 8 p. m.; Philadelphia at Boston, clear, (2) first 1 p. m. No others scheduled.

JURORS FINED BUT YORK JUDGE THEN REMITS. Fredericton, Oct. 3.—Judge Wilson presided at the York County Court here this morning. The docket consisted of Hallet vs. Bank of Montreal and Peck vs. Peck. RECOMMENDS A NEW CITY OFFICIAL. Authority Given For Engagement of Electrical Engineer.

CLARENDON STREET AGAIN. Commissioner Fisher Reports That He is Not Carrying Out Instructions of Council But Report Ruled Out of Order—Common Council in Session.

Authority was given to Commissioner McLellan at a meeting of the common council this morning, to conduct negotiations for the engagement of an electrical engineer for the city, any appointment to be approved by the council before taking effect. The need for such an official to oversee all electrical work in the city, as a measure of public protection, and also to exercise the calling for tenders for the work ordered by the council, giving his reasons. This section of his report was ruled out of order and was eliminated. The greater portion of the business before the meeting was the confirmation of recommendations arising from previous committee meetings. All members of the council were present.

PURVES P. LOGGIE IS DEAD IN ENGLAND. Son of Deputy Minister of Lands and Mines.

Had Gone Across to Join Royal Flying Corps and Was Employed in Vickers-Maxim Works. Fredericton, Oct. 3.—The sad news came today in a cable from Col. T. G. Loggie, deputy minister of lands and mines, who is now in England, that his son, Purves P. Loggie, had passed away at Bexley Heath, Kent. He had been in failing health for some weeks but news of his death came as a great shock to friends here. He was twenty-four years old and graduated in science from McGill. After completing a course in aviation at Toronto, he went to England with the intention of enlisting in the Royal Flying Corps. At the time of his death he was in the employ of the Vickers-Maxim concern at Bexley Heath. Besides his parents he leaves one brother, Capt. Gerald Loggie of the Canadian ordnance department, Calgary.

A meeting of the provincial government postponed from last week will be held here this evening.

New York, Oct. 3.—An Associated Press dispatch from Watertown, N.Y., says: After having been held a prisoner in Fort Henry, Kingston, Ont. for a year, L. W. Repton of Johnsonville, N.Y., has been released and is now here. He was a student at Albany Medical College and enlisted in the medical department of a Canadian regiment in June, 1915, on suspicion that he was a German spy. He made representations to the American consular authorities stating that he was an American citizen. He traces his ancestry back to early Dutch settlers in New York. His case was investigated by Canadian authorities and he was released. He came under militia escort as far as Cape Vincent, N.Y.

RELATIONS OF BRITAIN AND SWEDEN A BIT STRAINED. London, Sept. 22.—(A. P. correspondent)—The relations between Sweden and the Entente Powers are attaining unusual attention here, and there is every indication that the situation threatens to become acute. With the dispute as to mail seizures still unsettled, there has now arisen the charge by the allies that the neutrality of Sweden is not so loyal and impartial as it should be.

Nervy British Patrol Work But Mile Away

FIGHTING MORE IN OPEN. Daring Business Scouting for Information But it is Successfully Accomplished—German Officers Astounded as Horsemen Appear.

With the British Armies in France, Oct. 2.—Bapaume is now only two miles beyond the British advance line. Soldiers charging in yesterday's attack speak of their amazement at finding themselves crossing a field of sugar beets. They had at last fought their way out of the desert so created by the shell fire into the region where peasants have grown their crops and evacuated their homes only when the battle front drew near.

Cavalry Patrols. Looking toward Bapaume behind the Vickers' rich farming country with the villages largely intact, it appears almost as normal as that ten miles back of the old trench line on the British side. So open has the fighting become now in the centre that cavalry patrols have been used. It is during sickish business riding that might be aroused to action. Though some of the riders had their horses shot from under them and some horses foundered in the abandoned trenches, others carried their scouts nearly a mile beyond the infantry advanced line and brought back valuable information.

Most of those who lost their horses managed to return on foot, with their reports. Others brought in prisoners including an officer tethered among the German outposts in the shell craters, who was surrounded at the sight of men on horse back looting out of the night on the western front, where the cavalry has had so little to do. The troopers were jubilant over the results of their adventure, which old trench warriors prophesied would mean certain death.

The British are on the southern edge of Lesard and around Eaucourt L'Abbaye, where Germans still hold forth in the cellars of the old Abbaye buildings.

WOULD HAVE THIS THE LAST OF WARS. Viscount Bryce Against Hate and Lasting Trade War.

AMERICA'S POSITION. Waiting and Watching to See if She Will Bear Part in Securing a Permanent Alliance For Peace.

Birmingham, Eng., Oct. 3.—Viscount Bryce, former ambassador at Washington, addressing the Congressional Union today declared the spirit of hate against the Germans and the talk of a lasting trade war. He advocated a league to restrain aggression and compel arbitration.

"If there is to be a reassurance of war becoming more terrible with the unceasing advance of science," he said, "we may well despair of the future." Lord Bryce recalled that Premier Asquith, Viscount Grey and Mr. Balfour had expressed energetically and sincerely the need of such machinery and said that several groups of thinkers were working out the plans.

LIVELY BOUT AT GLACE BAY; McDONALD AND UVANNI

Glance Bay, N. S., Oct. 3.—Last night a bout here between Roddie McDonald and Joe Uvanni went the full two rounds and Referee Sergeant Francis awarded McDonald the decision. Many thought Uvanni should have got a draw after the great bout he put up. It was one of the hardest ever seen here. McDonald, who figured on stopping the Italian in short order, got a big surprise as Uvanni put up a great defense as well as doing a lot of leading. Roddie scored the only knock down. Both men showed the effects of the cutting and were both marked.

BRITAIN CAN MATCH RAIDING ZEPPELINS

New Aeroplane With Puts Chances at Ten to One Against the Child Slayers

New York, Oct. 3.—A cable to the Herald from London says: "A new Zeppelin chaser," aeroplane employed by the British home defence is one of the most formidable air fighting machines yet invented. The machine is a tractor biplane of powerful construction, with a high-powered fixed motor. Its stability is remarkable to a point of being practically automatic. Landing can be made by this machine at relatively low speed. As for the form and volume of the armament, it is decided that they are not to be known until it has been signed. I shall only add in this connection that if the Prussians continue to send Zeppelins over London, it is ten to one that the day will come when their home sheds will see them no more. It was with one of these machines that Lieut. William L. C. Robinson destroyed the Zeppelin on Sept. 2, for which feat King George conferred on him the Victoria Cross.

The girl, who lives in North Shields, had received a statement by Dr. DuVigneaud, one of the most foremost oculists in France, that it was possible to save the sight of a man wounded in the eye by grafting a portion of the cornea of another person. She says: "If you believe that there is one chance of success in a million, I will give you one of my eyes for a soldier to whom I would prefer to give my eye to one who is not to be especially useful, such as an inventor or an officer of high office." "If my offer is accepted I shall consider myself under an obligation to you for permitting me to be of use to my country in the only way possible to me."

MILK PRICE AGAIN

Will They Go Higher?—What Mr. Prime Says

While, just at present, milk is selling at eight cents a quart to the public, how long this price will hold is something of a question. L. C. Prime, manager for Prime's Farms, referring to last night's meeting of the milk producers at Medley Hall, Sussex, when it was suggested to stop shipping milk to St. John and to market butter and cheese which they consider as more profitable than shipping the raw product, pointed out that this would, in all likelihood, cause a shortage which would result in a higher price of milk to the consumer. The manager of the Government Farms will, however, receive orders for 8c milk for, at least, the next ten days.

KILTIES' CAMPAIGN HAS BROUGHT SO FAR MORE THAN 150

Fredericton, Oct. 3.—The number of recruits for New Brunswick Kilties at last night's meetings in fifteen parts of the province was nineteen. This brought the total for eight days up to 157. The reason for the discrepancy between the 138 for the week and the number given out in the official recruiting returns for last week is explained by the fact that the Kilties' recruiting campaign began on Monday night and Monday instead of from Saturday to Saturday as do the recruiting officers' reports.

LOCAL NEWS

Exchange for permission to place an air pump for run of their premises in Marsh road was referred to the commissioner of public works.

Commissioner McLaughlin said that the report of finances submitted by the commissioner of public works was not what was wanted. He had asked for a statement of the amount of money available when the present commissioner took office and of the way in which it had been expended.

Commissioner Fisher said that he had given this information verbally, but promised to submit a written statement.

The application of the N. B. Fruit Growers' Association for a grant towards their exhibition was referred to the commissioner of public works.

The commissioner recommended payment for the following departmental accounts: Treasury department, $288.88; public safety, $94.02; public works, $1,288.84; water and sewerage, $2,761.98; harbors and public lands, $2,160.18, and these were approved.

He also reported payments for the month of September amounting to $84,969.75.

Electrical Engineer

In moving for authority to negotiate the appointment of an electrical engineer by the city, Commissioner McLaughlin said that it is possible that the report of the insurance investigators on the condition of the wiring in St. John may show them to be the worst in America. He spoke of carelessness shown by the electricians and the employment of unqualified men and boys for the work of installing.

For the protection of persons who are employing electricians and for the protection of citizens generally against fire, he said, there should be restrictions regarding methods of wiring, and it would be the duty of the engineer to examine the workmen and inspect the wiring which would also be placed in charge of the city fire alarm system where the services of an expert were most needed.

Commissioners Wigmore and Russell vigorously supported the motion.

Lieut. Col. Guthrie is at Moncton today, being scheduled for two meetings, one at noon at the I. O. R. shops and another in the city hall this evening.

Commissioner Fisher withdrew his opposition and the motion was adopted.

Commissioner McLaughlin reported on the request of the mayor for an appointment for his office, said that it might be possible to arrange this by the action of the council.

The mayor said that nothing would be decided upon without the authority of the council.

Commissioner Fisher reported that he is not proceeding with the preparation of specifications and the calling for tenders for the rock cutting, grading, curbing, sidewalks, etc., in Clarendon street.

Commissioner McLaughlin said that the council had given an order and it should be complied with. He said there was no reason for delay.

Commissioner Wigmore remarked that the motion was out of order.

Commissioner Russell thought the work should go ahead, but if the road engineer did not approve of letting the work by contract, the day's work plan might be adopted.

Commissioner McLaughlin asked if the engineer had submitted estimates with incomplete surveys, and was informed that the estimates were not supposed to be definite.

The mayor ruled the motion out of order, unless the previous motions were rescinded or reconsidered, and it was dropped.

Commissioner McLaughlin—"Then it is understood that the work is to proceed?" He added that it might simplify matters if he moved that all city work be done by the public.

The commissioner of public works submitted an opinion of the city solicitor to the effect that the city was not liable for injuries received by Miss A. K. One from falling in the street. The letter from her solicitor was ordered filed.

Good Old Home-Made Family Cough Remedy

Much Better than the Ready-Made Kind—Easier and Cheaper Prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you would hardly have in them all the curative power that lies in this simple "home-made" cough syrup which takes only a few minutes to prepare.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 54 cents and gives you 16 ounces of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50.

Tastes pleasant and sugar syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes that line the throat, chest and bronchial tubes, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and, for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract combined with guaiaccol and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, be sure to ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

THE WAR NEWS

Once more the chief interest in the war shifts to the Balkans, following the announcement that Bulgaria has been invaded and that a Russo-Rumanian army may make a drive toward Constantinople.

French colonizer, and St. John cherishes the name and the memory of Madame Da Tour. Time and fortune have changed the world, and last evening saw a battalion of men who are the descendants of the early Acadians marching past Champlain's monument in the uniform of the British army, preparing to cross to old France to fight in the British ranks, side by side with the gallant soldiers of France, in the cause of righteousness.

A PARAMOUNT DUTY

The North Shore Leader says:—"The opposition forces are accusing the government forces of using a large amount of money and run in the Carleton county by-election, and the government press vice-versa. Both parties are on a par in this respect. It is time the press was displaying better judgment in matters of this kind."

Does the Leader mean to say that both parties are on a par in using run and money? If so, and if it believes what it says, its duty is obvious. Neither party should use liquor or money, and it is the duty of an honest and fearless newspaper to condemn the practice.

Electoral campaigns can be conducted without run or money. The people would welcome an agreement between the responsible leaders of the parties not to use any undue influences. The opposition party won in Westmorland without using run or money.

The reply of Mr. Lloyd George to the German chancellor and to those who talk of a premature peace is a clarion call that echoes throughout the Empire and all the countries of the Allies. There is to be no peace until Prussian militarism is utterly crushed. The way may be long and the sacrifice great, but there will be no faltering. No peace is served upon neutral nations that they are to stand aside from what by their conduct they have declared to be none of their business.

The news from the Somme front tells of further successes by the British and French, and the fact is revealed that the enemy now finds it necessary to rush army divisions from one point to another—a sure evidence that his forces are dwindling or that he has withdrawn men from the western front to meet the more formidable menace in the east and south. The Canadians are in the thick of the fight on the Somme, and are winning fresh laurels by their courage, endurance and resourcefulness.

Whether invasion of Bulgaria is the beginning of a successful drive toward Constantinople or whether it is still too soon to begin a general campaign in that direction, it will at least hasten the elimination of Bulgaria as a fighting force. "It may cut off the retreat of the enemy from Dobroja. The Rumanians are making a valuable contribution to the cause of the Allies. If their stroke was delayed it certainly does not lack force."

THE ACADIAN SOLDIERS

St. John extends a cordial welcome to the Acadian soldiers. They are a fine body of men, and show the results of their training in military life. It may be hoped the battalion will be brought up to full strength before it goes overseas. Such a battalion would rank high among the fighting forces of Canada, and bring a lasting heritage of pride and glory to the Acadians of the maritime provinces. There are many Acadians in other battalions, and some of them have died for Canada and the Empire, while others are bearing honorable scars. The citizens of St. John owe it to themselves to make the stay of this battalion of their defenders as pleasant as possible. Last evening's welcome should be followed by continued evidences of good feeling which the lads in khaki will not be slow to appreciate and reciprocate. They have the advantage of most of us, for they can speak two languages. The statue of Champlain on Queen Square bears testimony to our regard for the great

Men's Fall Shoes

The new Fall lines of Men's Boots contracted for months ago are now on our shelves at practically old time prices. That prices are going to be much higher is as sure as that two and two make four. The Weekly Bulletin issued by the Department of Trade and Commerce says: "In the first 20 months of the war fifty-seven times as many pairs of shoes were used as for a corresponding period before the war." When one thinks of the boots, harness and other things needed for the armies, one can dimly realize a reason for the scarcity of leather. A well known Canadian tanner in conversation with a leading manufacturer recently said: "The man who thinks that shoes are high today will wonder why in the name of goodness he did not buy when he had an opportunity to get normal prices."

Germs Come Out After British Advance and Shoot in Back

Amazing Tunnels Found—Village Destroyed by One Regiment For Two Years as Token of Special Honor

(By Philip Gibb in N. Y. Times.)

With the British Armies in the Field, Wednesday, Sept. 27.—(Dispatch to The London Chronicle).—The doom of Thiepval in the past, that place upon the ridge, with its thirty-four black tree stumps, which has been harrowed, ploughed and cratered under incessant storms of high explosive, fell into British hands last evening, all but one corner to the northwest, which was taken today.

Weeks ago I said the garrison there must know their doom was creeping nearer, and sooner or later they must surrender or die. It was long reaching them with a series of expected when I watched the attack on the Hohenzollern trench and the defenses running up to the Wandewerk and Mouquet Farm on the east side the British lines would close in and put a strangle grip upon the place. It has taken longer than I expected. The storms of shells, more splendid lives to win the stronghold, and the wonder to me is, now that I know the full strength of the place, the resistance of its underground fortifications and the fighting spirit of the troops holding it, that the British captured it yesterday and today with such little loss. The loss was amazingly light considering the long, stubborn fighting there and the machine gun fire which swept upon the British from many hidden places and the desperation of the garrison, who defended themselves with great gallantry. Let us give them honor in saying that, for they were the fighting men. In the defense the advantage was all with them, but for the power of the British guns and the way in which the British troops fight, meaning to win whatever the cost, they were in an impregnable position.

Mouquet Farm a Stronghold

The taking of Mouquet Farm by the Canadians was the worst menace to them, including the right, but the astounding episode which happened yesterday will show most clearly the difficulties of the British troops and the cunning of the German earthworks. It is many days since I reported the final capture of Mouquet Farm and since saw its ruins from High ridge. These bits of broken brick work were the remains of a place more important once than the ordinary French farmstead. It was a series of buildings such as one finds in France attached to a big chateau, with barns and outhouses and stables. The British troops, which trenches struck through the middle of the place, having two bits of the ruin to the north of the trench and one to the south behind the line.

Hunt Germans Like Rabbits

The Germans seemed to be well away to the northward in the shell-craters beyond the British parapet and nobody suspected Broche Beche was near at hand. It was with great surprise a few days ago that one of the English officers saw two Germans rise suddenly from a hole behind the British line near the southern ruin of bricks. One of them beckoned to him.

"Be careful," said a sentry, but the officer imagined the two Germans had strayed into the British lines and wanted to be taken prisoners. He went forward slowly until quite close to them then he fell dead, shot by the machine gunner who beckoned to him with his comrade.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to use EMERY'S DANDRUFF REMOVER. Do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most, if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, fluffy, lustreous, soft and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

Thiepval Defenders Under Ground

It was only a small episode in the rear of the assault on Thiepval, but it was extraordinary and not without importance for men do not like to go forward with machine-gun fire from behind. It shows the way in which the ground all about here has been used for subterranean fighting.

So it was in Thiepval. Above ground there was nothing to see today, and for long time, but the black and broken tree trunks, with their lopped branches. No one could have remained alive above ground yesterday when the British guns hurled upon it a stream of heavy shells, which burst all over the village with violent upheavals of earth and vast clouds of curly black smoke followed with death.

The German garrison kept below in a long series of vaults and tunnels, which they had strengthened and linked up and dug deeper in a way that would have surprised the old French farmers who used to keep their wine and stores down three centuries ago. They had made many exits so they could pop up with rifle and machine gun at many spots between the four corners of the village and they were ready for another British attack. I know these things because I have been talking with the survivors of the garrison. They are nearly disappeared immediately into some hole which could not be found.

A day or two later a working party digging in the neighborhood broke through a deep tunnel. Instead of searching for the Germans they found themselves being sniped at from other holes in the ground. It came into the heads of the British officers that beneath the ground even behind the lines were nests of Germans who might turn upon them at any moment or blow them up by a charge of gunpowder. Orders were given to draw back a little from Mouquet Farm, and the guns were turned on it again, firing high explosives and shrapnel over the place as in the old days. Then some soldiers were sent forward to clear the trenches if they could find them. They came back without success, so the place remained one of our "mystery corners" until yesterday.

When the attack was to begin on Thiepval from the trenches to the south and swinging to the left from Mouquet it was dangerous, but it was decided to carry out the attacks without worrying the underground inhabitants. The attacks on Thiepval began, and instantly the British troops on the right had advanced beyond the farm to Zollern. French parties of graycoats came out of the tunnels of Mouquet and began firing machine guns into the backs of the British soldiers. By good luck there was a young British head and had a quick way of dealing with a situation of this kind. He was in charge of a working party, but he saw his chance of a scrap.

"Come on, boys," he shouted. "Never mind your shovels."

His men threw down their tools and followed him. I don't know how many there were of them, but only thirteen came back. They brought with them one German officer and fifty-five men as prisoners, and there were no living men left at 6 o'clock last night in the tunnels of Mouquet.

Prisoners Fine Specimens

Before telling the narrative of the British attack and the adventures of their life underground. When I talked with them this morning they had just been captured. I was struck by the superior drilling and intelligence of them all. They certainly were the best type of Germans I had seen on this front. Wurtembergers all and handsome fellows who had kept their spirits, which was continuous for twenty-four hours, arising to infernal heights of fight against the British in the early

IT'S HERE

FOR the past few weeks we have been favored with delightful weather; in fact, it might almost have been called extended summer. Now October is here with its accompaniment of brisk winds and chilly evenings. The light, airy fabrics of summer have been replaced by the more substantial materials for fall and early winter.

Most people take the seasons as they come — but mercantile houses work by the calendar. And knowing the vagaries of the rigorous Canadian climate make their preparations months ahead.

Cold weather outer garments for men, women and children as well as heavier undergarments, are being shown. Furs in the modish shapes and popular skins are being kept conspicuously forward. Blankets and puffs are much in evidence. Dress materials and coatings in the new weaves and colorings as well as the staple patterns are heavier and warmer in texture. Even in millinery the desire is for the snug shape of heavier fabric.

Just as surely as the russet of the falling leaves presages the season to come, so the different departments with their cosy, comfortable wares put on their winter garb.

all men of the Tenth Regiment, and they held Thiepval for two years.

It belonged so much to this regiment that instead of being relieved in the ordinary way like other troops and sent off to different parts of the front they received the honor of defending Thiepval since the beginning of the battle of the Somme. The regiment has arranged its own relief, company by company, Bapaume being their rest camp.

The men I met today had been actually at Thiepval only seven days without relief and had guessed it would be their turn to defend the place against the Great English assault. They had pledged themselves to defend it to the death.

They were weary of this war, like all their troops. They laughed when I asked, "Will England win?" and would not pretend that Germany would still be victorious. They had heard of the downfall of two Zeppelins in England, and had all the news that is given to the German people by the newspapers, which they had every day, even yesterday, in their underground dwelling place at Thiepval, but they were not dupes of false news.

"Do you believe the British fleet is destroyed?" I asked, testing them.

"The English fleet is too great to be destroyed," they said. "We did not believe all those stories, but we gave you a good fight at sea."

They gave us a good fight on land and underground, this garrison of Thiepval and with few exceptions they fought honorably, so that the British have no grudge against them, now they are prisoners.

The attack began yesterday at half past 12, after a great bombardment, which was continuous for twenty-four hours, arising to infernal heights of shell fire. The attacking troops leaped

Allied Forces Begin Drive on Constantinople

London, Oct. 3.—Events of the greatest importance are moving in the Balkans. Apart from the imminent entry of Greece into the war there is indication tonight that the Russian-Romanian drive towards Constantinople is actually begun.

Paris, Oct. 2.—Gen. Joffre under date of Sept. 29 sent the following order of the day to the armies of the north:

"The general commander-in-chief expresses great satisfaction to the troops who have been fighting unceasingly on the Somme for nearly three months. By their valor and perseverance they have given blows to the enemy from which he has discontinued recovering."

Petrograd, Oct. 2, via London.—The fighting along the southwestern front has reached another of its periodic climaxes, which has turned in favor of the Russians, yielding them a large number of prisoners, and has again threatened Lemberg from two important directions—along the main railway from Brody to Lemberg and from Brzezany.

Two Others Gone.—London, Oct. 2.—The steamers Hafnia and Heika, both Norwegian, have been sunk by a German submarine, according to a Russian despatch from Vadsoe, Norway.

Vienna, Oct. 3, via London.—The following communication from general headquarters issued today reads:

"The Carpathians there is a hull southwest of Britain fighting is progressing in our favor."

"Front of France Leopold.—On the Brody-Zlochoff road the German and Austro-Hungarian troops recaptured by counter-attacks all the ground lost Saturday. Twenty-four Russian officers and 2,906 men, together with eleven machine guns were taken.

"Italian front.—The enemy artillery developed great activity against our positions on the Carso plateau were especially violently bombarded. Fighting continued in this sector during the night."

"Balkans: Nothing of importance has occurred."

Sofia, via London, Oct. 2.—The war office today issued the following official communication:

"Sunday, west and east of Florina, our infantry repulsed enemy attacks north of the village of Armenico, near the village of Krushergal, and in the region of the village of Sevich. Stern fighting is proceeding for possession of the height of Kaimakalan.

"In the Moglicna Valley there is lively artillery fighting. Enemy attacks against the Boutschak Height failed completely."

"On the Struma front there has been lively artillery fighting, under cover of which enemy battalions advanced toward the villages of Kandjeyka and Komaniya. They were repulsed by our fire. The fighting continues."

"On the Aegean coast several enemy warships violently shelled the heights north of the village of Orfano. This bombardment set fire to and destroyed the village of Langur.

"Romanian front.—The situation is unchanged and calm. We felled an enemy aeroplane in the northern part of the village of Ighobaner in the Koutoubour region. Both men in the machine were saved."

"The Turks victorious?"

Constantinople, Sept. 30, via Berlin and Sayville, Oct. 2.—An official statement given out by the Turkish war department says:

"Russian forces in Persia, camping to the south of Sakis, thirty miles south-east of Sonbulik, were attacked and routed by the Turks. Sakis was occupied by the Turks on the night of September 29-27."

THE PATRIOTIC FUND

The receipts of the St. John branch of the Patriotic Fund, for the month of September show a total of $14,087.47 while the amount paid out is $15,086.72.

increased by the amounts made at the three patriotic fairs, held under the auspices of the Rotary Club at Hampton, Westport and Torreyburg.

Yesterday the following promotions appeared in orders: Corporal A. E. Hodges to be lance-sergeant; Lance-Sergeant Ross Flemington to be sergeant; and Private Webster and Samuel to be lance-corporals.

The 182nd North Shore Battalion under Lieut-Colonel G. W. Meseracue arrived last night in Sussex to take up winter quarters here. The battalion landed seven hundred and fifty-eight strong with thirty-three officers. This number does not include the advance party which has been in Sussex some days.

Promotions in No. 8.

Yesterday the following promotions appeared in orders: Corporal A. E. Hodges to be lance-sergeant; Lance-Sergeant Ross Flemington to be sergeant; and Private Webster and Samuel to be lance-corporals.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Corbett, of Lower Millstream, Kings county (N. B.), were recently in receipt of an official telegram stating that their eldest son, Private John S. Corbett, had been killed in action in France. Private Corbett was 27 years of age and before enlisting was a sailor, but gave up his civilian work to go on the king's business. He joined the 29th Nova Scotia Battalion, and on arrival in England was transferred to the Royal Wiltshire Fusiliers and attached to the trench mortar battery while at the front and it was during the discharge of his duties that he was killed. "Not Badly Wounded."

J. R. Robinson, of 187 Newman street, this city, is in receipt of a letter from his son, Kenneth, in part as follows: "Just a line to let you know I'm not worried very badly. I had a piece of shrapnel hit me just under the left eye, going down into my mouth. I cannot see out of my left eye on account of the swelling."

Arrival of the 165th Battalion

Acadians Welcomed to St. John: 132nd Arrives in Sussex; News of the Soldiers

Swinging along 800 strong, with thousands of enthusiastic citizens crowding the line of march and cheering wildly, the 165th French-Acadian Battalion made a triumphant entry into the city last evening about 6 o'clock.

Tanned by long exposure to wind and sun on the plains of Valcartier the boys looked fit—every one of them—and in spite of the fact that they were in heavy equipment, they were completely fresh for a long journey, they looked spry and marched along in a sprightly manner, looking a well trained unit.

Some Extra Members.

A few members of the 140th and 148th Battalions, now overseas, had been transferred to the 165th when it was medically unit when their respective units sailed overseas. These men were also the French-Acadians.

THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT FOR FERNHILL CEMETERY

That the Daughters of the Empire had decided to erect a monument upon the naval and military lot as one of their first acts after the war was the announcement made by the local chapters at the quarterly meeting of the Fernhill Cemetery Company yesterday afternoon.

Judge Forbes presided and the financial statement for the quarter was discussed and compared with that of the corresponding period last year. It was found satisfactory.

A report from the lot committee was received dealing with the work completed during the summer. It was decided to order the superintendent to continue the work now under way and endeavor to have it completed before winter sets in. It was reported that the two guns secured through the department of militia for the military and naval lot had been placed in position.

Judge Forbes tendered his resignation as president of the Fernhill Cemetery Company owing to the fact that he will be absent from the city for a considerable period this winter. His resignation was, however, not accepted and the vice-president was requested to act in the absence of the president.

A. C. Snow of Yarmouth, Mass., recently removed from his house some white oak rafters that were cut from the native grove 300 years ago. They are in perfect condition.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE for the health of the family? The mother, of course! She is naturally particular to give her children only the purest of internal medicines, but she may not always know that a remedy applied to the skin enters the child's system, and is absorbed just as surely as a medicine that is swallowed. This is a fact, and the mother should therefore use only the purest tintment obtainable.

Scientific analysis has proved Zam-Buk to be absolutely pure. The great English Chemist, Mr. W. Lancelotti Scott, says: "I have made an exhaustive analysis of Zam-Buk and have no hesitation in certifying its purity and its inestimable value for skin ailments and injuries."

Although the healing powers of Zam-Buk are beyond those of other ointments, it is at the same time so refined that it agrees with the most sensitive skin—even the skin of a baby. Mothers who have once used it say they cannot do without Zam-Buk.

It is best for eczema and all skin diseases, ringworm, blood-poison, scald sores, ulcers, boils, pimples, piles, burns, scalds, cuts, etc. All druggists or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

LESSONS FROM WESTERN CITIES

St. John Needs Better Streets and More Hotels

Board of Trade Reports

Delegation Tells of Western Trip; W. F. Hatheway Reports on Imperial Trade Conference

That one of the most important needs of the city of St. John at the present time is good streets, seemed to be the consensus of opinion at the first meeting of the board of trade last night marking the opening of a new season's activities.

The streets in the cities throughout western Canada were held up as examples but as one speaker pointed out the people of those cities decided upon better streets and then borrowed the money and paid for them. The claim was made that it was the only way in which St. John could ever hope to improve the condition of its streets.

The summary of the council proceedings during the summer contained a reference to the L. C. R. elevator site and an intimation that the minister of public works would be asked to provide more sea protection at the new west side docks.

Mr. Hatheway's Report.

The report of W. Frank Hatheway, as a delegate at the convention of the chambers of commerce of the empire held in London, England, in June last, was also given. The most important question before that body—reciprocal preferential tariff within the empire—was discussed in a very interesting manner.

The fiscal policy after the war was the most important question to be discussed. A good many Canadians were present representing the different parts of this country, about six delegates in all. Men from all portions of the world were present, from India and Australia. About one hundred and ten men were assembled to study the greatest question that has arisen in the empire for centuries.

Bar Out Enemy Goods. It was the universal statement that whatever their feelings had been a few years ago now they thought that there should be some tariff arrangement to keep the enemy's goods out of the country as much as possible and allies should have encouragement and that neutrals should be called upon to pay some kind of light tariff. Some thought that there should be no tariff imposed on the colonies and everyone had definite and clear cut opinions.

All over the empire, he said, every commercial organization should stand behind these resolutions as passed by the old country boards. Bonus Law once quoted the statement of a German economist that his country had climbed to a great standing in the commercial world saying, "On the back of free trade England we have climbed to the mastery of the world." This quotation was brought out strongly by the president and urged upon those representatives present. Then Premier Asquith's statement that England must set her commercial house in order before the war is over so there could never be a recurrence of previous conditions, was also dwelt upon.

The motion as passed by the old country chambers of commerce was moved by an Englishman and Mr. Woods of the Canadian commission seconded the resolution, putting Canada immediately in line. The resolution was carried by a vote of 106 to three.

Mr. Hatheway then gave figures and traced the trade with Germany from a Canadian standpoint, which was listened to with much interest by those present. A vote of thanks was moved by those present and presented to Mr. Hatheway for his splendid address.

Western Conditions. A report of the visit of the delegates who visited western Canada was given. H. C. Schofield gave some details of the trip and what the delegates saw. Conditions are splendid in Ontario but not so good in Quebec, he said. The city splendid farms land along the National Transcontinental. The pulpwood industry is also springing up all along this line. The splendid progress of the city of Winnipeg was dealt with and also the great grain storage capacity of the elevators of the cities of Fort William and Port Arthur.

Reference was made to the poor facilities at this port for handling full cargoes of grain as compared with other ports. J. G. Harrison also supplemented the report.

He said that two things were needed in St. John to attract visitors: the first, he held, was paved streets, Winnipeg being a splendid example. These streets, he said, were also a good civic investment for any city.

The other thing he felt we needed was, he said, was added hotel accommodation and while the present accommodation is very good, still the service is perhaps not so far advanced as it might be in a city of this size.

We were impressed in Toronto and Detroit by the absence of horses and the great number of vehicles propelled by motors. In Detroit, he said, there are at cross streets as long as there is no one in front of the vehicle. If horns were blown it would make those cross streets unbearable because of the noise.

A. H. Wetmore referred to the assessment per capita in western cities as compared with St. John, and compared Winnipeg's rate with the local rate. The local improvement act was used, he said, in the western cities to assist in paving the streets.

R. B. Emerson referred to Saskatoon and its beautiful streets, some of the finest in Canada. Their bonded debt, however, is about $6,000,000 with a population of 22,000 people. In each case these cities have had to pay for their fine streets.

Secretary's Summary. The secretary submitted a summary of the work done since the last meeting, as follows:

There have been eleven meetings of the council and four special meetings of the full board since the last regular meeting. Among the subjects which have been considered at these meetings have been the routing of the Valley railway; day light saving; the West Indies molasses situation; shipbuilding; Women's Compensation act; power possibilities at the Falls; the completion of Pier 16; acceptance of guarantee bonds from contractors in lieu of certified checks; Belgian immigration possibilities; industrial prospects; the matter of landing English mails for the maritime provinces; that might be needed for port development; preparation of freights on R. M. S. P. steamers joining the West Indies; the rebuilding of the Intercolonial four shed; freight classification No. 17, and other matters.

In closing, the council would express its satisfaction with the progress that St. John has made as a port and with the promising outlook for this winter's traffic that is before it as a result of the pier extension protected by the government and of the yard and other improvements that have been made by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. The progress of the work on the West Side has been closely followed by the harbor committee of the board. The necessity of better sea protection for the new docks is recognized and will be urged upon the minister of public works when he next visits the city.

Three Directors Are St. John Men

L. P. D. Tilley, E. R. Chapman and A. L. Haining Head Registration Work in Three Provinces

Ottawa, Oct. 2.—Announcement was made today of the personnel of the government's board of directors of national service which, under Sir Thomas Tait, will undertake the work of classifying and utilizing Canada's resources in men to the best advantage during the duration of the war.

The duties of the board are primarily to carry out what will be in the nature of a registration of males of military age classifying them according to the service they are most needed for, whether military, industrial, agricultural, etc. The actual work of recruiting for active service is left in charge of the director of recruiting for each military district as already appointed and now acting under the supervision of the district officer commanding.

The government turns over to Sir Thomas Tait and the new board the whole problem of bringing order out of the present chaos of haphazard war effort. There is no hint of compulsory terms; the detail as to how it is to be carried out are left for further consideration. The position of director of national service has been offered to and accepted by the following gentlemen, with the district number, headquarters, name and residence of director:

THE HISTORY OF H. P.

Every popular commodity has a history of paramount interest to somebody. Here is the history of H. P. Sauce—we think will interest you.

At Birmingham, England, there is a very large malt vinegar brewery. In fact, the largest in the world, and as malt vinegar is the essential foundation of all high class sauces, the proprietors of the vinegar brewers are constantly in touch with six kinds of sauces.

Some time ago, it occurred to them that nearly all the sauces on the market were far too thin and pungent, and too largely impregnated with the name of relishes and that if a rich sauce, of super-excellent fruity flavor, and thick, creamy consistency, were produced and placed on the market at a very moderate price per bottle its success would be assured.

They forthwith began to experiment very carefully at their great vinegar brewery. The choicest Oriental fruits and spices were judiciously blended together and skillfully vinified to produce a pure, mellow, but not until the new production had touched perfection in flavor, appearance, and consistency, was the sauce christened "H. P." (an abbreviation of the name British "House of Parliament") and sent out to make its own way in the world.

H. P. does not separate in the bottle, there is no sediment and it therefore requires no shaking, it is therefore ready to use as it is. It is a delicious flavor, and is in every respect a thoroughly good Sauce.

Under these exceptionally favorable circumstances, it is small wonder that the history of H. P. is a tale of unqualified progress.

THE PRICE OF MILK

Sussex, N. B., Oct. 2.—(Special)—The King's County Milk & Cream Producers' Union held a large and enthusiastic meeting in Medley Hall here tonight. F. E. Sharp occupied the chair. Some of the farmers present reported that the price of milk to be received by them was forty cents per can while some claimed that their dealers had notified them that they could not pay forty cents. As the milk was not retained in St. John beyond eight cents per quart, it was decided to await pay day and have the executive review the situation in their various localities and report at another meeting to be held in Sussex on October 23. The high prices for butter and cheese were considered and some advised the equipping of cheese factories.

Mr. H. Cochrane of Bloomfield had recently visited Halifax and found the farmers in that vicinity had been receiving five cents per quart for their milk for the past two years, and beginning the first of October were to receive an advance to six cents per quart. This will necessitate the Halifax consumers paying ten cents per quart.

Prince George, B. C., Sept. 29.—The British Columbia government will throw open for settlement on Oct. 9, two large tracts of land containing 400 homesteads of 160 acres each. These homesteads are in the most fertile districts of Central British Columbia. One of the tracts lies along the north side of the Nechako river, about eight miles east of Fort Fraser, while the other block is on the west side of the Stuart river, near its junction with the Nechako. These lands have been under reserve since 1911, but the progress of settlement has been so satisfactory as to make it desirable to provide additional opportunities for settlers. Application for land should be made through the office of the British Columbia government agent at Fort Fraser.

THE LIGHTS OF LONDON —WITH AN INCIDENT

(BY HOPE F. M. ROSS, OF THE MANITOBA FREE PRESS STAFF.)

London, Sept. 3.—"Anybody wouldn't think they 'dnt get no 'ans the way they don't shut them blinds."

Mr. Forster, it is said, did much for young England when he established the school boards, but he never succeeded in persuading it to use its negatives properly. Witness a fragment of a letter being overheard yesterday on a London street corner.

"Don't all think nothing of your self?"

"Why do you?"

With which may be compared the provincial matron's "No, the postman ain't never brought no letters for nobody."

The introductory fragment expresses the sentiment of the London police. We walk along Tottenham Court-lane, at night and up in the fifth story of a house there are seen three windows not properly protected. The light is shining out more strongly than the regulations allow. There is no telephone in these rooms, and there is no elevator in the building. The officer is not happy when he has climbed the stairs to order the observance of the law. Still he must go on and climb another, since no one knows when the imminent danger may recur. Down the street there are odd places where the darkness is not as deep as it might be, but on the whole it is not bad, much blacker than these white ways of the night ever dreamed that they would be.

The new law, the police sergeant explains, went into effect the previous evening, which was a Friday and the first of September. Prior to that date there had been some exceptions made in favor of the metropolises as compared with the country towns. Now all are to fare alike. We stroll at midnight down to Leicester Square where in former years the evening paper could be readily read as late as night as this. An odd street lamp throws a subdued light to the ground and only faint gleams come from shop windows.

The famous areas all the characteristics of a remote country village, but for the traffic which is still brisk. The big buses pass in an unending stream, often filled both above and below, and the moving taxis glide by at high speed.

the apartments of the hotel opposite. Officers on the street order them out, and they disappear. From the south there streams away to the north the brilliant current of the searchlight. It pierces the clouds and falls on a great floating war machine. Hundreds of guns take aim and fire. No one knew they were in readiness, least of all the Germans.

On the Hotel Roofs

The quiet hotel begins to hum. Voices are heard everywhere. In the hallways people move from window to window, anxious to see what trouble may transpire. The roof is sought, up a winding stairway. Many searchlights are seen to converge on a certain point in the northern sky, and either in fancy or reality, there is heard the throbbing and roar of the powerful engines of the Zeppelin raider.

Down below there is outspread the vast dark silent city, with its untold thousands of old and young, rich and poor. Up above there is the fleet of German war machines intent on the terrible work of destruction and death. Up still higher, thank God, are the young men of the British flying corps in British aeroplanes, co-operating with men of the guns, in the light to best of the invaders.

Is it near or is it far away? It seems near at hand and distant. It has stopped and is hovering apparently over its prey. Or is the pilot confused and has he lost his way? Suddenly there is a flash and flare in the dark night sky. "My God," shrieks the unemotional Englishman, "they have got him."

It is 3 o'clock in the morning and no one knows what has occurred. The guns cease firing and the danger, so far as this occasion is concerned, is over. At dawn there is still no information, although it is said on every hand, for the first time, a German Zeppelin has been shot down on British soil.

Anxious to know, I started off as early as possible on Sunday to learn the truth. I knew the general direction in which the event must have transpired, and was certain that the nearer I got to the site the more information there would be. I went north on the Tottenham Court road to Boston road, and took the tram from that point still going north to Camden. Before reaching the railway a soldier from Canada mentioned to me the name "Cuffley."

I bought a ticket at Cuffley and alighted at that station amid typical English scenery. We went up a long hill past an alshouse known as the Plough, and reached a little church, more like one which you would find on the Manitoba prairies, than on a hill in England. It was of iron, on a foundation of red brick, and was very low and small.

A little beyond it, near a grove of English oak, there lay all that remained of the German raider and close beside under a tarpaulin, were the bodies of the crew, 16 German soldiers. There were four or five big military lorries on the spot, and vans of the Red Cross. The balance of the debris was a mass of tangled wire, with very little to indicate the wonderful product of human genius, which had carried the crew and the load of bombs through the air across the intervening water and land to the heart of London.

The official report indicates that there were 18 Zeppelins in the raid and that it was designed to be much the same as that Germany has inflicted on Britain. As it happened, little harm was done and few lives were lost. One man and one woman were killed and eleven adults and two children were wounded. Not the slightest military damage was done and the loss of property was nil.

It would appear from the results of this affair that Britain has little to fear from the German fleet of Zeppelins. There are two sources of protection. One of these is found in the fact that all Britain is now kept dark at night and the other is the steady increase and betterment of the British aeroplanes service and the improved guns. In all, 86 Zeppelins have been now accounted for since the struggle began, and if the report that a second one was lost today, the total is 87.

LAST NIGHT'S CASUALTIES

The midnight casualty list contained the names of nine New Brunswick men: Killed in action, Arthur Arb-son, Upper Blackwater; Joseph Hickey, Miramichi.

Eben M. Langille, Madagog; Henry D. Morton, Harcourt; Eugene Palk, St. Stephen; Frank Purton, St. Andrews. Wounded—Joseph James Arsenault, Bathurst; Dossy Arsenault, Rogersville, and A. Bassa, Moncton. Lieutenant H. F. Bennett of the No. 9 Siege Battery was yesterday appointed second in command.

Colonel J. J. Sharpley, officer in command of military hospitals in Canada, arrived in the city yesterday from Ottawa, accompanied by Colonel Alfred Thomson, medical superintendent of the Military Hospitals Commission. They are here for the purpose of gathering material for the establishment of a systematic plan of looking after the returned soldiers from coast to coast.

Coates-Stevens.

A quiet wedding of interest took place last evening, Oct. 2, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. F. A. Wentworth, when Miss Violet T. Stevens became the bride of Herbert C. Coates, deputy superintendent of the Metropolitan Life. The happy pair left immediately by train for Boston and New York. On their return they will reside at 51 Summer street.

The Efficiency of the British Navy —is due to the fact that it wasn't afraid to discard obsolete ships, methods—and men.

When Lord Fisher started to revolutionize the British Navy—not only did he scrap useless ships which could neither fight nor run away—but he also scrapped useless men. It is this courage to wipe out ultimate waste by the "scrapping" of obsolete methods and machinery—that stamps "efficiency" on the man of to-day.

But there are thousands of business men who strive for 100 per cent. efficiency in the factory or office who are still content with 40 or 50 per cent. in the morning toilet.

The demand for more speed, less mess, less of the tedium of re-lathering, rubbing-in, and slow difficult shaving, and less smart, bite and irritation, has caused many men to discard successively the mug, the stick and the powder as they would discard a wasteful, antiquated machine in the factory.

Mennen's Shaving Cream overcomes every objection to mugs, sticks and powders. It wipes out waste, "rubbing-in," and re-lathering. It is sanitary. It actually softens the beard. It leaves the skin soft, cool and refreshed. There is not a bite or a smart in a tube of it. Mennen's Shaving Cream costs but little more than bar or stick and lasts longer than powder. A 25-cent tube, if used according to directions, will deliver a shave a day for months. It is without free caustic; its healing, soothing properties make lotions unnecessary.

Mennen's "Talcum for Men." —Delightful after shaving—neutral tint—invisible—antiseptic and protective. Has the distinctive perfume and package that make a hit with the masculine.

Hot Time These Two Days In Ball Fight, Says Joe Page Neck and Neck Race Between Brooklyn and Phillies; Jack Coombs' Great Feat; What Has Occurred Since Saturday

JOE PAGE

(By Joe Page) The New York pennant workers dropped the final game of the series with Boston after a straight run of twenty-six victories, while the Phillies were making two out of three from the Brooklyn leaders in the National League race. In splitting even on the double header on Saturday, the Phillies won the first game and went into the lead for the pennant. Losing the second game, however, they then took one and a third per cent. The exact score being:

Table with 3 columns: Team, W, L, Pct. Philadelphia . . . . . 91 59 606.100 Brooklyn . . . . . 89 55 605.650

no one, least of all the Giants' leader, expected the famous Coombs not only to stack up against his world-beating combination, but actually come through and give one of those old time exhibitions of his that have well earned the famous Jack the name of Iron Man. And his victory will please not only the Brooklyn fans but one and all of the fans throughout the maritime provinces, many of whom should Brooklyn win be on hand at the series at the Boston end to give him a hearty hand clasp and every good wish.

SPORT NEWS OF THE DAY HOME AND ABROAD

BASEBALL. National League. "Sp" Wins His Game. Brooklyn, Oct. 2.—Jack Coombs pitched a shutout ball today and beat the New Yorks 2 to 0, and Brooklyn gained half a game on the Philadelphia. In only the first inning was the veteran twirler in danger. Then with the bases full and two out, he fanned Kauff. A sensational running catch by Cutshaw, with Holce on base, in the seventh, with two out, saved a run. Schupp was effective until the fourth, when Lambert scratched his hit to Fletcher, stole second and scored on What's single. The score: R. H. E. Brooklyn . . . . . 000000000—0 6 0 New York . . . . . 00010001—2 7 1 Batteries—Schupp and Anderson, Ration; Coombs and Miller.

THE ORDER OF ILLUSTRIOUS BONES The Order of Illustrious Bones, which has had a numerous membership ever since baseball was invented, is more extensive than most fans realize. There are very few players, great or little, who have not at some time or other qualified for this order. Who has not had reason to face the crowd, as did Mike Mowrey of the Robins not long ago, and tap his dome, significantly, while pensively murmuring, "Nobody home?"

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—Philadelphia enjoyed another brief stay in first place in the National League race today, the home team ousting Brooklyn from the lead by winning the first game from Boston, 2 to 0, and then dropping back to second place by losing the second contest, 4 to 1. The score: R. H. E. Philadelphia . . . . . 01001000—2 8 1 Boston . . . . . 00000000—0 6 0 Batteries—Alexander and Killifer, Nagan, Allen and Gowdy.

It was eight years ago that Fred Merkle failed to touch second in a game with the Cubs, and so had wished on him the far from honorable title of Chief Bone of the Order of Illustrious Bones. It was not that Fred's stunt was peculiar or unprecedented, but only that it lost a game which led to a pennant to the Giants.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The New York Americans easily defeated Washington here today in the first game of the final series of the year, 5 to 1. Shawkey held Washington to two hits. The score: R. H. E. Washington . . . . . 000100000—0 2 2 New York . . . . . 01010201—6 11 1 Batteries—Thomas, Gooden and Henry, Garrity, Shawkey and Walters.

With summer weather back for a spell the Imperial opened its week yesterday to generous patronage and a splendid programme. The outstanding feature of the bill was a delicious treat served by the Boston and the Hurst in a little comedy, entitled The Honeytons. Sidney Grundy, English author, is certainly a most intelligent and successful playwright. The Honeytons is a one-act play dealing with the first family jar in the household. The story is so simple and so humanly true that it is a masterpiece of the kind that is most laughable and exceedingly clever.

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—Philadelphia won the second game of the series from Boston, 2 to 0, and then dropping back to second place by losing the second contest, 4 to 1. The score: R. H. E. Philadelphia . . . . . 000000200—2 6 1 Boston . . . . . 00000000—0 6 0 Batteries—Johnson and Schang; Shore, Jones and Cady.

NEW BRUNSWICKS CLAIM TO BETTER FOREST GUARDING (Can. Forestry Association). The remarkable success achieved during the last summer by the forest fire organizations in parts of Quebec and all of British Columbia gives promise of much improved forest conditions in New Brunswick when the authorities complete the forest service reorganization on which they are now working.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The National League yesterday, President Tener journeyed over to Colonel C. H. Ebbets's ball yard in expectation of witnessing the second game of the Phillies series with the Robins, and when asked to state officially who determined the scale of prices for the world's series tickets, said:

Again there are many of the wise guys who are of the opinion that at the present time the Athletics would lose in order to save this ticket sale money, but their heads off. What happened? Connie Mack went out and won and turned back the sixty thousand dollars or more to the public. It not only showed the undoubted honesty of the game, but it is a standing monument to Connie Mack.

Old Athletics Plan Trip. New York, Sept. 30.—Bob Shawkey and Frank Baker are to take part in a series of games between the "Old Athletics" and a picked team at the close of the season. If the National Commission will sanction the short tour that is planned, the team will include Schang, Jack Coombs, Shawkey, Ben McInnis, Collins, Barry, 3-cker, Oldring, Strunk and Murphy.

PLEASED WITH LOCAL MANUFACTURING PLANTS Peter Bain, M.E., editor of the Canadian Machinery & Manufacturing News of Toronto, is in the city. Yesterday he visited the local plants engaged in making shells and expressed great satisfaction with what he saw there. He is a firm believer in Canada and said that after the war Canada will manufacture specialties and, under normal conditions, will enjoy great prosperity.

Sweden's peat fields are estimated to cover nearly 9,000,000 acres.

It has always been noticed that the closer the friendship of ball teams, the harder they fought to beat one another on the field. Leave it to John McGraw and his pennant reaching crew to do his best, not only to wreck other clubs' pennant chances.

Musical Comedy Draws Big Crowd

"When Dreams Come True" Fills Opera House and Delights Audience; A Bright, Clever and Wholesome Show

St. John dearly loves a musical comedy and the Opera House was filled last evening with an enthusiastic gathering ready to welcome the opening performance of "When Dreams Come True." The audience was not disappointed, and an evening of solid enjoyment followed. The production is clever and bright and is given a creditable presentation. One of the most gratifying features is the wholesomeness of the fun and the lack of vulgarity which marks and mars too many musical productions.

Coming back to the game itself, while Brooklyn was winning from the Giants, the Phillies were having a double header with Boston and managed to get an even break on the day. The consequence is that this a. m. the champions are one full game to the rear of Robinson's crew, or five points in the pennant column.

THE SHIELDING SHADOW OPENS AT THE UNIQUE

Beginning of Thrilling Serial; First Appearance of the New Banjo Orchestra. After seeing the programme at the Unique Theatre yesterday, one would come to the conclusion that the management were very modest in their advance notice of the splendid attractions prepared for the opening bill of the week.

and if the succeeding chapters of the "Shielding Shadow" are but one half as good as the introductory episode, fifteen weeks of rare enjoyment may be looked for. The picturing of the fire at sea was one of the best that has been thrown on a moving picture canvas. The spectator actually sees the unfortunate passengers enveloped in flames dashing for safety from the deck of the ship to the water below.

Soon after, the precious necklace is being shown to the guests, when the lights suddenly go out. When they appeared, Farrell carries out his assumed role and searches for the thief, who really is a member of the household. The detective whose name Farrell has assumed arrives in the midst of the excitement and of course recognizes the "Phantom." How the latter escapes from his serious predicament makes one of the most striking episodes ever enacted before the camera. It had everyone in the theatre last night intensely interested. The picture is remarkable not only for its story and good acting, but for excellence of photography.

Their efforts do not result in the stereotyped orchestral work, for it is really a novel musical organization. Miss Mae Davis presides at the piano and is also the director. She is a composer of some renown, her musical compositions being well and favorably known in St. John.

IN HOSPITAL IN MALTA; DOWN WITH MALARIAL FEVER

Staff Sergeant McMenamon of New Street writes home to Mother

Mrs. Charles McMenamon of 211 Newman street, received a letter on Saturday from her son, Staff Sergeant Thomas who is in a hospital in Malta recovering from a severe attack of malarial fever. He left St. John with a medical unit attached to the first Canadian contingent in England some months ago. He remained for a short time. He was then sent to the Dardanelles and later transferred to Saloniki, Greece.

Some weeks ago he contracted fever and was placed on board a ship which was to take him back to England, but for some unknown reason was landed at Malta. He said he would give a lot to be home for just two weeks and then he would willingly return for another couple of years.

While in this city Sergeant McMenamon was employed at the various firms. He has a host of friends who will unite in wishing him a speedy recovery.

FOR THE RETURNED WOUNDED SOLDIERS

An excellent opportunity will be given the citizens tomorrow afternoon to hear something of what is being done and to be done for returned wounded soldiers. Col. Thompson of the Returned Soldiers Commission, with Col. Staples, is in the city in connection with matters relating to returned soldiers, and Col. Thompson has accepted an invitation to speak at the Soldiers' Club tomorrow afternoon at half past three, on the welfare of Returning Soldiers. This is a subject concerning which there is much discussion, and the citizens should embrace the present opportunity to hear Col. Thompson and to ask any questions that may occur to them. Ladies as well as gentlemen are invited and it is hoped there will be a large attendance. Lt.-Col. McArthur will take the chair.

NEW BATTALION IS BUSY AT ARMOY

The army is once again the scene of military activities and from the officers down all were busy this morning making ready their quarters for the coming winter.

The officers' quarters are not yet in readiness and Lieut. D'Aigle and other officers are at the Victoria.

It will be a few days yet before the battalion gets down to routine work. Lt.-Col. D'Aigle expects to be able to fill his unit in a very short time. A few members of the 140th and 148th battalions, now overseas, had been transferred to the 160th, having been medically unfit when their respective units sailed.

POLICE COURT.

Joseph King was fined $16 for being drunk in the I. C. R. station and using profane language. I. C. R. Policeman Roberts testified.

Pte. Louis Dumphy, of the Field Ambulance Corps, was again before the court, this time on charge of wandering about Water street at three o'clock this morning and not answering satisfactorily the questions of a policeman. He is out on suspended sentence for breaking and entering a saloon in Water street. He was informed he was liable to five years in Dorchester and was sent below.

Peter Christensen, for leaving his vessel without leave, will spend until next Friday in jail, when the time is set for the sailing of the vessel.

Peter Weley, a sailor, on charge of lying and lurking in a hall way at an early hour this morning, was fined $5 which was allowed to stand, as his captain was willing to take him back to the ship again.

Another individual, arrested on charges of drunkenness and loitering around the station, told the court that he had authoritative papers from Ottawa to give him permission to be where he was when arrested. The papers were produced and apparently looked O. K. He was remanded as he wished to get witnesses to prove further who he was and the mission that he is on for the government.
