COAL EXPORT FROM BRITAIN THREATENED

MINE MEN FEAR AN EMBARGO BY TRADE UNIONS

Canada and U. S. May Be Affected By Lock-Out

OTHERS HOPEFUL

German and Belgian Firms See Prospect of Obtaining New Markets

By HERBERT BAILEY
British United Press.
LONDON, July 11.—The export of coal from Britain to Canada and the United States cease automatically in case of a lock-out of the miners?

This is the question which the big colliery men are asking with considerable anxiety since they realize that not only their own profits but one of the basic industries of the country will be seriously damaged in case the embargo is put on export coal by the trades unions.

The leaders of the miners and transport workers are unable or at least unwilling to haunt an answer to this question. It is agreed that steps will be taken to prohibit the importation of coal from any source outside Britain, save across the Atlantic, but whether the embargo will be extended to the export across the Atlantic is seemingly not determined.

SEEK NEW MARKETS.

German and Belgian firms have already made enquiries with regard to coal and are asking the colliery owners here whether there is any likelihood of a demand being created for their coal in the event of a lock-out.

At present the owners are standing very firm. They maintain that losses at present are so heavy that it is impossible for them to continue to mine coal at the present rate with any expectation of profit and the demand continues on all sides for a more direct and more energetic initiative by the government than they have hitherto shown a disposition to exercise. It is agreed that the effort should be made to prevent the break-up of negotiations.

He was born in Woodstock and preached there for many years in the Reformed Baptist church. He went there to Moncton, where he preached for 20 years, retiring last year. He went with Mrs. Baker to reside in Grand Manan, near Miramichi, where Mrs. Calvin Scott, and they came up for the camp meeting, where Rev. Mr. Baker died suddenly. He had been in comparative good health. He was outstanding in his church as a preacher and evangelist. No message has been received since.

United Press.
FEZ, July 11.—The situation along the front where the French forces are holding the Rifian invaders in check appears calm for the moment.

Abd El Krim's principal activities are of a political nature. ### Texan Ends Six Year World Hunt For Seven Swindlers

KANSAS CITY, Kan., July 11.—The revenge of J. Frank Norfleet, Texas ranchman and merciless pursuer of seven men who fleeced him of $45,000 in 1919, was consummated here when Judge Kimbrough Stone, in Federal court, denied W. Spencer a permanent writ of habeas corpus. This decision will permit Texas authorities to return Spencer to Texas to serve an eight-year sentence imposed on his conviction of the swindle.

Spencer was the last of the seven men whom Norfleet had hunted down. All of the others are important. To accomplish his revenge Norfleet travelled many thousands of miles through-out the world.

Norfleet's chase to round up the gang of confidence men who victimized him took him into 18 states, Canada, Mexico, England, France and Germany. The swindle occurred in Dallas during an oil stock boom. Norfleet was "approached" by a member of the gang in a hotel lobby. He returned a wallet the man had dropped on a lounge and was "rewarded" by being admitted to a "sure thing" in stock speculation.

Through ostensible "wiretapping" schemes Norfleet was first induced to believe that he had won several thousand dollars, and then was prevailed upon to put up $45,000 to make an oil stock "clean-up." When the swindlers got the money they disappeared. Norfleet went home, put the management of his property in other hands

15 RUM BOATS LAY LOADED AT PORT COLBORNE

ONE MAKES BREAK

Indications Point to Armada Trying to Run Blockade Tonight

PORT COLBORNE, Ont., July 11—

Fifteen boats, loaded to capacity, lay at anchor last night here, waiting a favorable opportunity to slip into the lake in the darkness. They worked hard yesterday, in the broiling sun, loading the boats with their cargoes of beer, whiskey and wines. Car after car load of liquor was unloaded onto the boats, some of which carry from 1500 to 1500 cases.

A United States coastguard cutter, with lights doused, lay about three miles outside Port Colborne harbor last night, to watch the runners come out. Nine rum boats were loaded waiting to make the trip, but a lookout reported the presence of the revenue cutter, and the rum fleet started in.

ONE GETS THROUGH.

One boat, however, the largest of the fleet, successfully ran the blockade of the Federal officers, and with muffled engines landed her cargo last night. Indications, however, point to a big rush across the lake tonight.

Colborne citizens are all stirred over the treatment of newspapers by rum runners, and Chief of Police Crowe yesterday declared war on smugglers and gangsters with the rum fleet. His action followed the ordering of a reporter to "get out of town and stay out because it ain't healthy for you here."

Thomson Co. Shareholders Here Receive Damages for Detained Vessels

STEAMERS SEIZED AT HAMBURG DURING WAR

Battle Liners Were Discharging Cargo and Under Repairs at Outbreak

Through the efforts of P. W. Thomson, who accompanied by his solicitor, W. G. Pusley, of Montreal, presented the claim of the Thomson Company for compensation for two vessels held by the Germans during the war period, that company will receive next week from Germany the sum of $1,350,000 in settlement of their claim.

SEIZED AT HAMBURG. The two ships, the Pandosa and Tebia, were in the Port of Hamburg when war was declared. They had completed discharging cargo and were undergoing repairs at the time, and the German authorities seized them and kept them until after the armistice. The claim set forth by Mr. Thomson and his counsel is that the vessels had been held in contravention of international law, which allowed vessels of enemy countries a port at the time of the declaration of war an opportunity to clear for their home port, and as the Germans had prevented these vessels from leaving the owners were entitled to damages.

PLAYED HEROIC PART IN WEST

Senator De Veber of Saint John Braved Many Hardships

Traveled Thousands of Miles in the Saddle on Missions of Healing.

Referring to the late Senator L. G. DeVeber, who was born in Saint John and who died in Aylmer, Quebec, on last Thursday, the Ottawa Journal says: "A weary, travel-stained figure, tired and worn from days in the saddle, riding into the wilderness with his doctor's kit slung over his shoulder, and a grim determination within his breast to reach a dying man in the far outposts of the north-west!"

"This is only one of innumerable such pictures taken from the life of Honorable Leverett George DeVeber, M. D., Liberal Senator for Lethbridge, Alberta, who died on Thursday at his summer residence, Aylmer. For Dr. DeVeber will be remembered by the men and women of Canada's Northwest as one of a few long-suffering, fearless and self-sacrificing souls, who dared to brave the sufferings and privations of the great long landings of the West in their effort to bring relief and help to the isolated people of the country, when in sickness and distress."

WITH MOUNTED POLICE. "Dr. DeVeber acted as surgeon for many years with the Royal North West Canadian Mounted Police and many are the members of that force today who can testify to the efficacy of his medical and surgical knowledge. In those early days a doctor might be living in a part of the country where for hundreds of miles about was the only organized medical practitioners. Long journeys by horse were daily occurrences with Dr. DeVeber and many times he was called to attend patients living at distances which necessitated the use of three or four horses in relaying."

"For years Dr. DeVeber stuck to his post in the west practicing the greatest of all humanitarian arts, the art of healing, and in the commission of that he so freely gave to help the pioneers of the North West he has received payment three-fold in the good will, respect, and devotion which his friends of the North West have always extended to him."

42 YEARS IN THE WEST. "His practice in the west extended over a period of 42 years, during which time he was active in treating patients far and near. He was the founder of the medical college at Saint John, N. B., known as the "Campbell, Roy, Bryan, Craig and Shillington," which company had offices in Lethbridge. He is survived by his wife, formerly Rachel Ann Reagan; one son, Lovett, formerly Dr. E. H. Thomas, of Saint John, but now of Ottawa; one daughter, Mrs. Francis Dunn, of Newcastle, England; one brother, LeBaron DeVeber, of Nelson, B. C., and one sister, Mrs. Walter Creighton, of Brantford, Ont. Two sisters, Mary and Ella, predeceased him."

Her eyes had the dull expression of inflamed eyes, but so strengthened her eyesight that she was able to dispense with her distance glasses. In this instance, I should say her eyesight was improved 100 per cent."

POLICE COURT CASE OVER AUTO SPEEDING

George Parlee is Reported and Some Evidence Taken—Adjournment For Tonight.

George Parlee, reported by Policemen Ross and Corner for exceeding the speed limit on the night of July 8, appeared in the Police Court this morning and after the evidence of the officers had been given, the case was set over for two weeks until Policeman Corner returns from his vacation. G. Earle Logan, appearing for Mr. Parlee, said he had five witnesses to call.

Policeman Ross testified that the defendant drove his car at a speed of about 20 to 25 miles an hour down Duke street into Prince William, taking the corner at a fast rate. On going down Prince William the witness saw Policeman Corner and the defendant in an argument just past Princess street. This happened near midnight.

Policeman Corner said the defendant drove his car along Prince William street at a speed of approximately 25 and 30 miles. He stopped the car. The defendant wanted to know why he was stopped. The witness replied because he was going too fast over the crossing. The defendant told him he was in a fruit store and could not possibly have seen him, and when he told Parlee that he was not in the store but on the sidewalk, the defendant called him a "liar." The defendant then got into his car with a remark that he would return to the store and get his license. To Mr. Logan the policeman denied that he referred to occupants of the car as a "bunch of hoodlums."

OTHER CASES. Edward Curran, reported by Policeman Corner for exceeding the speed limit, was fined $5. He said he had no money and did not think he could pay the amount. He was given 20 days in jail. Samuel Jackson was fined $5 on a report of making a wrong turn with his auto.

The brush that combs. MEN with thick hair find it rather difficult to get their hair down into position with very little effort, brushing and combing at the same time.

Until you try it once you would scarcely believe a brush could make so much difference in the looks of your hair. Hair that sticks up stubbornly in the morning will fall into position after a few strokes with this brush. It brushes every strand of hair, touching the scalp so that the scalp is stimulated enough to send a fresh supply of blood to the roots of the hair.

Stiff bristles set widely apart in the construction that makes this the kind of brush that a man requires. Examine this brush at any store where brushes are sold. Always sold in the yellow box.

Presentation Made At Lodge Meeting

Dominion Lodge L. O. B. A. met in Simonds street hall last evening with Mrs. T. H. Bird in the chair. On account of her expected departure for the United States on July 18, the meeting presented to her a handsome club bag, as a token of esteem. Mr. J. Brown made the presentation. Mrs. H. Brown, Mrs. H. Dryden and Mrs. D. Jewett, visitors from sister lodges, made short addresses, eulogizing Mrs. Bird. It was announced by the ladies that the lodge picnic would be held on the Loch Lomond road grounds next week under the convenship of Mrs. J. Brown.

Service will be conducted at the house at 3 o'clock, by Rev. George B. MacDonald, of Victoria street Baptist church. Many beautiful flowers have been presented. Rev. John W. Meisner, brother of the late Miss Meisner, and Mrs. Meisner, from Nictaux Falls, N. S., are here for the funeral. A quartette composed of Messrs. Lingley, Lanyon, Rippy and Long will sing.

AUTO ASSOCIATION MEETING. The monthly meeting of the New Brunswick Automobile Association was held in Fredericton last evening with T. P. Regan, K. C., president, in the chair. Mr. Regan reported on attending the recent convention of the American Automobile Association in Atlantic City and said that one of the most important items decided on there was the decision to adopt a uniform system of danger signs for the roads, similar to those in use in New Brunswick. Other Saint John men attending were: J. Charlton Berrie, Secretary, G. G. Murdoch, and D. L. McRobert. There was a good attendance of Fredericton members.

BOYS IN LEAD. The birth rate this week was again high, as 32 births were recorded at the Board of Health office, 20 boys and 12 girls. Ten marriages were also recorded.

BLIND WOMAN "SEES" VOICES

Beam of Colored Light Is Sensed as Musical Sounds Are Made

Miss Longbottom, of Bristol, Eng., Possesses Other Mystifying Qualities.

LONDON, July 11.—Have people born blind a sense of color? The experience of Miss Eva H. Langbottom, a young woman of Bristol, who has been blind from birth, suggests that the brain may have other methods of perceiving color than by the ordinary means through the optic nerve, for she "sees" voices and other sounds.

Miss Longbottom provides an extraordinary example of the great accomplishments that can be acquired even by the blind.

She is the British Helen Keller. She is an L. K. A. M. and A. R. C. M. is not only a ballad singer but has appeared in oratorio—a great feat for a totally blind person who cannot see the conductor's bat.

STARTED AS CHILD. Miss Longbottom recently told her friends that it was as a child that she first became aware that sound was producing vision.

She had attended a concert at which Mr. Ben Davis sang. "As he proceeded with his song," she said, "I became aware of a strange and mystic light shining near me, and felt an impulse to stretch out my fingers and catch it. Never having from my earliest days beheld a ray of light, I marvelled much at what I now saw so clearly, and thought it must be some strange creation of my own brain."

Miss Longbottom made up her mind to encourage this light, for though she had no idea of light as such, yet she believed by comparative impressions with her friends, that this was what actually had appeared.

VOICES IN COLORS. Here are some main colors which Miss Longbottom sees, though she is conscious of infinite variations.

Red: Deep voice, contralto or bass. "Sometimes the red is almost painful."

Orange: A powerful voice with a full ring. Violet: High notes with rapid vibrations. A most pleasing color. It is peculiar to the violin and piano, and soprano and tenor.

Apart from her color sense she possesses many other mystifying qualities. She goes to "see" the films, has the captions read to her, apart from that, dislikes any further information. She visualizes the picture play for herself, and astonishes other people by the correctness of her descriptions.

JURY IS SELECTED IN EVOLUTION TRIAL

Defence Contends Biblical Story of Creation Not in Conflict With Theirs.

DAYTON, July 10.—Twelve jurors who will try the case of John Thomas Scopes, charged with violating the Tennessee law prohibiting the teaching of theories of evolution in the public schools of the state, were chosen today.

The 12 seats were filled with little effort. Nine farmers, one school teacher, a fruit grower and a shipping clerk were chosen.

No session of the court will be held tomorrow. The defence asked for a day in which to confer over the points they desire to stress in the contention that scientific testimony will show that the theory of evolution and the story of Divine creation as told in the Bible are not in conflict.

Miss Armstrong To Return to V. O. N.

The question of a suitable room for a night nurse for the Victorian Order Board room, with His Honor Judge J. G. Forbes, presiding in the absence of L. W. Simms, president. Two nurses, the Misses Kelly and Alice Gulliford, were reported to be absent on vacation and Miss Turner to be leaving the staff to be married. Much pleasure was expressed that Miss Armstrong, R. N., formerly of Saint John, who has been in Toronto, will come to the city to take up the work that Miss Turner has done.

It was thought by the meeting that a room should be obtained for the nurse who might be called on night duty and no room was available if it appeared. It would be necessary in such a room that a telephone be at hand for calls. It was stated that there was no room in the Health Centre and none at the Victorian Order residence on Princess street. No action was reported regarding the matter.

STREET DANGERS.

New Bedford is the only city in the United States with a population of more than 100,000 which has reported no fatal automobile accidents during the first five months of 1925.

Newspapers which are giving attention to the New Bedford record attach particular importance to the work that has been done through the schools.

Further work of education was done among young drivers of delivery wagons and trucks. Here, as among the school children, the problem was found difficult, but the work produced good results.

THE SENATE REFORMERS.

The Senate appears likely to continue to exist without important change in status, notwithstanding all the rumblings from advocates of Senate reform inside and outside the House of Commons.

The dispute between the House of Commons and the Senate over the case of the Home Bank depositors at the end of the session led Mr. W. F. Maclean, Conservative member for South York, to place his views regarding the Senate on record.

Fate

"The sky is clouded, the rocks are bare, The spray of the tempest is white in air."

The winds are out with waves to play, And I shall not tempt the sea today.

And the lion's whelps are abroad at play, And I shall not join in the chase to-day.

But the ship sailed safely over the sea, And the hunters came from the chase in glee.

And the town that was builded upon a rock Was swallow'd up in the earthquake shock.

Too Much and Too Many (Boston Transcript.)

One of life's little ironies is found in the recurring explanation that the reason we are likely to go without coal is because we have so much coal and so many miners.

John D.'s Birthday Story

This is John D. Rockefeller's story as related by him on his 86th birthday and reported by the Associated Press.

Down in Virginia, he said, a colored man was brought before a judge for stealing chickens. The judge asked him if he had any children.

"Yes, Judge," the culprit answered. "I've got a boy."

"Where did you ever get that name, Sambo?"

"Well, Judge, it was dis way. Dat boy was born just befo' de war, and he kept me out of de draft."

"The Perculator" in Milwaukee Sentinel

Canada lays claim to the North Pole, as you are aware. I fear that grave international difficulties may arise as a result.

America inclines to the belief that the Pole is hers, because practically everything else in the world is. Incidentally, the Pole was discovered by an American, and we 100 per cent. Americans have always held that when a man discovers something it is his.

When a prohibition agent discovers a jug of moonshine, he takes it. When Coolidge journeyed westward a few weeks ago and discovered Minnesota, he claimed that dismal hinterland as part of the United States.

Mr. Bryan is perhaps an exception to the general rule. When he discovered that the human race had a pair of monkey-like ancestors, he did not claim them as his ancestors, he did not succeed from the human race. Let us be thankful for small favors.

As to the North Pole, it might be possible to effect a compromise. Let Canada have it six months of the year—say from October to March, inclusive—and let the United States have it during the fishing season.

Those Dear Little Kids of Yours

LOOK at your little boy tonight when you go home and see the way he imitates you. Tries to walk like you, tries to talk like you; imitates your little mannerisms. You are his hero—that's why. He thinks you are one of the greatest men in the world.

Your little daughter does not care if you are the greatest man or not. She thinks you are the nicest—and she loves you anyway. Is there anything in your power you wouldn't do to make sure of their health, their happiness, their safety, and their future success in life?

Yes, there is, and you know it. And every day you wait makes it harder and riskier. Think it out, right now.

How long would the insurance you carry keep your little boy and your little girl and their mother if they had to depend upon what you have provided? Could they maintain their accustomed shelter, the comfort, the standard of living to which you have accustomed them—for more than one year?

Figure it out, right now. And then make up your mind to do one simple thing. Call the Mutual Life Agent tomorrow morning, or tomorrow evening—whenever you can best arrange it. Make a point of it to-morrow for sure. Do not let another day go by.

Mutuality is co-operation. The only Canadian insurance company doing business on the mutual plan is the Mutual Life of Canada. This company was organized to give its policyholders insurance protection at actual cost. Our agent will advise you as to what policies are best adapted to your requirements. He will not press you. Placards are being posted throughout Chicago announcing that a reward of $2,500 will be paid to any peace officer or bank employee who kills a robber "in the act of robbing a bank."

If the robber is taken alive the reward is $10,000. These inducements are offered by the Chicago and Cook County Bankers' Association. Some comment which is either diverting or cold-blooded, according to the point of view, is made by the Chicago Journal of Commerce, in urging that the placards be placed in bank windows where they may be read by criminals who may be examining the bank premises in preparation for an attack.

The Journal says: "The robber knows that a bank clerk who is trying to pay for a burglar is

Further Tests Hydro Cooking

The July numbers of both Goodhousekeeping and Woman's Home Companion contain further proof of the unmatched economy of electric cooking at Hydro rates. Tests made in New York, says the Woman's Home Companion, showed that with a family of eight the cooking of all meals averages one kilowatt per person per day (2c. per day at the lowest of all Hydro rates.) Families of five average 1.29 kilowatts per person per day. Families of 3 average 2 kilowatts. At that they found a medium size Range would have brought the small family cost down more.

In other words monthly meals for eight cost $4.80 in heat. Monthly meals for five are cooked on $1.93-1.2. All meals for three cost $1.80.

These latest independent tests settle the fact that truth will prevail. Isn't Hydro wonderful to match in economy its greater comfort and convenience? Ranges of all makes on easiest terms at

F. Maclure Sclanders Replies to Toronto Saturday Night Article

IT URGED WORK ON THE ST. LAWRENCE

Board of Trade Commissioner Makes Statement for Saint John and Halifax.

F. Maclure Sclanders, commissioner of the Board of Trade, has taken up the matter of a letter recently appearing in Toronto Saturday Night and calls attention to the need for consideration of the Maritime winter ports as well as the summer ports on the St. Lawrence. In a letter to that publication he points out some of the reasons. The letter follows:

MR. SCLANDERS' LETTER

To the Editor Saturday Night, Toronto, Ont. Dear Sir—May we venture general comment upon the reference to Canadian winter ports in your last interesting issue. For instance, you express the emphatic opinion that "of all things on which Canada can least afford to practise economy the St. Lawrence ports come first."

Now, we cannot help feeling that the exclusion of the winter ports of Halifax and Saint John from the application of the above opinion was inadvertent and not deliberate. This, because Canada's ocean-borne commerce proceeds all-the-year-round. Thus, it necessarily comes and goes through winter ports while the summer ports of the St. Lawrence are frozen up, as they are for almost one-half of each year.

It follows, therefore, that our summer and winter ports, like the blades of a pair of scissors, are complementary to each other, and, as it were, are the two indispensable factors that constitute the one single proposition, I call it, the year-round ocean commerce of this country.

For instance, during the war, what would Canada have done without her winter ports? In the winters of 1916, 1917 and 1918 commerce was valued at $554,816,624—or over half a billion dollars—passed through the Port of Saint John.

C. N. R. Earnings For Week Drop $117,754

MONTREAL, July 10—The gross earnings of the Canadian National Railway for the week ending July 7, 1925, were $1,593,874, being a decrease of $117,754 or 3 per cent from the corresponding week of 1924.

BRITAIN PLANS FIVE CRUISERS

The cost of the five "county" cruisers of 10,000 tons, already building, is officially returned as between 1 1/2 and 2 millions per ship. This, however, is almost certainly an underestimate. America is paying $16,500,000 per ship for her new cruisers of the same tonnage, and while ships are built more cheaply here, the difference in production costs is not great enough to explain this striking discrepancy.

NEW SAINT JOHN INDUSTRY SEES ITS BUSINESS MAKE RAPID GAINS

ELECTRIC LIGHT BULB OUTPUT MULTIPLIES 8 TIMES IN 10 MONTHS

Energy Electric Co. Started in September, Increases Manufacture from 200 to 1,600 Daily and Hopes for 3,600

FROM daily manufacture of 200 electric lamps, commonly known as bulbs, a short time ago, to 1,600 now, manufactured daily, is the proud achievement of the Energy Electric Company, Limited, housed in what was formerly the Fleming foundry in Pond street.

Operating under the unit system, this being regarded as the most efficient and economical method of manufacturing known in the business, this plant is the only one of its kind in the Dominion employing this system and is the sole lamp manufacturing factory east of Montreal.

Local Manufacture

The incandescent lamps made by this company are marketed under the trade name of "Hayes" and with the exception of the bulb, formed at glass-blowing factories and which every lamp factory purchases ready for the fitting of the stem, or inside of the lamp, the Energy Electric Company, Limited, manufactures the complete lamp at the Pond street premises.

Blueish Sign Lamps

This corporation also manufactures and markets the "Daylight Blue" sign lamp, the bulb part giving the effect of broad daylight. All sizes of lamps, from 10 to 600 watt, are made, and with the installation of another unit the firm will be capable of producing lamps ranging from 75 to 1,000 watt as well as automobile lamps.

CITY BOND ISSUE FOR METERS ASKED

Committee to Apply for $5,000—Various Matters Before Meeting Yesterday.

The Civic Power Commission decided yesterday afternoon to ask the city council for a bond issue of $5,000 for the purchase of meters, as some citizens had been complaining that the meters were not working properly and more were needed to serve customers applying for hydro.

The engineer, Barry Wilson, reported that the Millville extension had been completed and 20 of the customers on that line had been connected up. The street lighting system for that district was to be built at once. He also reported that good progress was being made in the survey of the interferences, under the direction of N. P. Nutting. The part of the city lying to the east of Sydney and Waterloo streets had been gone over and plans for the clearing of the interferences prepared.

Cuts Gasoline Cost to 10 Cents a Gallon

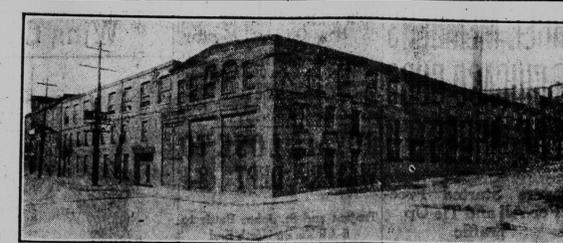

SIoux FALLS, S. Dak.—James A. May, of 4006-K Street has perfected an amazing new device that enables car owners to cut their gasoline bills in half by doubling their mileage from gasoline used. Many owners have made over 40 miles on a gallon. It also removes carbon, increases motor power and pep, prevents spark plug trouble and overheating. Anyone can install it in five minutes. Mr. May wants agents, and is offering to send one free to any auto owner in each locality. Write him today.

Home of Thriving New Saint John Endeavor

This is the building formerly known as the Fleming foundry in Pond street, and in which the Energy Electric Company, Limited, manufactures 1,600 electric lamps daily. The offices are on the first floor, store rooms on the second floor, and the factory is located on the top story.

This is an interior view of the Energy Electric Company factory. The machine on the extreme left is the first one used in the making of the stem of the lamp. Packs of bulbs ready for the stem, may be noticed in the extreme rear is the inspection table. Here also the finished lamps are labelled and wrapped.

Equipped with this product. Frosted lamps are also a product of this factory, the plain lamps being dipped, 30 at a time, in an acid-filled vessel. The action of the acid on the glass results in the frosted appearance of the bulb. The lamp machinery is the latest modelling, each unit having its own individual motor. The dipping, air blower, gas and vacuum pumps are capable of taking care of three complete units with a total production of 6,000 lamps a day.

Manufacturing Process

The preparation of the wire, which in the finished product is inside of the bulb, is the first process in the manufacture of the lamp. The mantle wire is sent through a coiling machine and Tungsten wire is automatically wrapped around it. As it is wrapped, it is also heated and the temper is taken out of the Tungsten wire. There are two of these machines—one to take care of the wire to be used in 40 to 50

Ready For The Bulb

The stem is then sent to an annealer which coars it gradually and insures that it remains unbroken when pressed. It follows into an inserting machine, by the operation of which the wire is inserted, tip-to-tail fashion, in the end of the stem. The stems are now prepared for mounting, namely, further inserted to permit of the insertion of the filament, which is but a spring of tungsten wire. The filament is placed under the tiny hooks of the frame. The bulb is simply heated by the first jet. The second jet shapes the bulb to make a shoulder to which the filament is attached. The stem is dipped in a solution of glass and slipped into the exhaust machine. This machine extracts every vestige of air from the bulb, the electric light color re-

Prepared For Basing

With the stems "exhausted" and placed in the bulbs, the lamps are now ready for the basing process. A brass cap, covered with a small piece of glass surmounted by another section of brass, the latter brass quantity holding the positive and negative wires, is affixed to the shoulder of the bulb. When they are finally taken from the machine and unnecessary wire is removed. Where the positive and negative wires emerge from the base of the lamp, solder is applied.

Directed by a Pink Nature

When the color has become sufficient, the stem is finally prepared for the lamp. The glass tubing, from which the stem of the lamp is made, is imported from the Corning Glass Works, Corning, New York, and comes in both small and large sizes. It is cut into lengths which are then fitted into the lamp and is cut by a machine glass cutter. The unfinished stem is then reloaded to the base machine and is kept in contact with the flame until it narrows. The flare unit serves the purpose of holding the stem in the bulb when it is melted into the latter. The subsequent process is done by the action of the stem machine. The flare and lead wires are placed in a tube which is melted and pressed. A small note is blown in the stem by the action of this machine in order that the air may be blown from the inside area of the lamp.

Company Officials

With the raw material for manufacture available from many sources, with expert management, the plant working at capacity, the company is optimistic as regards the future, especially as their product is a present and ever-increasing modern necessity of everyday life for which there is a constant demand. Charles A. Foss is acting as the manager of the company; John Cray is foreman of the factory, and, besides Mr. Foss, the board of directors includes J. H. Miller, vice-president; F. N. Brodie, director; C. J. Melliday, secretary-treasurer, and Dr. L. M. Curran, M. L. A., director.

The manufacture of lumber and pulp brings many millions of dollars annually to New Brunswick and provides employment for thousands of the population. The industry is gaining in importance on account of changing conditions elsewhere. The booklet we are referring to has been carefully prepared; it is illustrated with many photographs taken especially for the purpose, and has been designed to furnish accurate information on one of New Brunswick's mainstay industries and one of the leading manufacturing enterprises of the Province. MISERABLE AND ALWAYS IN PAIN

Port Greville, N. S.—"I took your medicine for a terrible pain in my side and for weakness and headache. I seemed to float all over, too, and my feet and hands were the worst. I am the mother of four children and I am nursing my baby—the first one of four I could nurse. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before the baby's birth, so you can see how much it helped me. I cannot praise it too highly for what it has done for me. I took all kinds of medicine, but the Vegetable Compound is the only one that has helped me for any length of time. I recommend it to any one with troubles like mine and you may use my letter for a testimonial."—Mrs. ROBERT McCULLAY, Port Greville, Nova Scotia.

Before and after childbirth the mother will find Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a blessing. Many, many letters are received giving the same sort of experience as is given in this letter. Not only is the mother benefited, but these good results pass on to the child. No harmful drugs are used in the preparation of this medicine—just roots and herbs—and it can be taken in safety by the nursing mother. 88 out of every 100 women reported benefit from its use in a recent canvass among women users of this medicine.

Big Amateur Baseball Card Set For Both Grounds on Saturday Next

Along The Sport Trail

By RAY HANSEN

THE OLD CRY is out "unless the players in the City Amateur League stop their fighting they will kill the sport." This is an absurd statement. While it is true there are many fans who hate to see trouble on the field the vast majority just revel in it. The players in the City League are only human and when keyed up to a high degree of excitement are prone to forget themselves and engage in fistfights. The same thing frequently occurs in the big leagues. It is not the players who are apt to kill the sport but the fans themselves. Because a couple of players happen to lose their tempers and take a "swing" at each other there is no excuse for hundreds of fans rushing excitedly on the field. It may be that some of them have not got beyond the primitive man stage and want to get a ringside seat to see the gore fly, or are eager to get into the fray themselves. There are sufficient cool headed players, league officials and umpires to quickly squelch any trouble makers without any assistance from the side lines. If fans will let the players fight their own battles there will be no danger of any riots.

REPORTS THAT Charlie Mathewson is seriously ill have been emphatically denied by his wife, Judging from this Saint John he is not the only place in the world where weird reports are circulated. "Big Sis" is well remembered by local fans and they would sincerely regret to learn that he had suffered a relapse. He is still manager of the Braves.

OLD FATHER TIME has at last taken his toll and now "Iron Man" Joe McGinnity announced that he has retired from baseball. Joe is 56 years of age and was formerly one of the leading pitchers in the major leagues. He is part owner of the Dubuque Mississippi Valley League Club and announces that his stock is for sale. Joe had some trouble with another large stock holder and decided to quit. According to records he was in baseball for 35 years. This season he pitched seven games and won five—some record for an "old timer." There are few men living today who can boast of participating in any sport for such a long period so it would seem that Joe is entitled to his cognomen "Iron Man."

ACCORDING to all reports Babe Ruth is beginning to look like himself at the bat. It is said that the rhythm of his swing is returning and he is now getting the weight of his body into his efforts. He has only made seven homers so far, but he will undoubtedly boost his mark considerably before the close of the season.

ACCORDING to a writer in the Boston Post the Braves are eager to land Freddie Maguire, former star of Holy Cross. He is the property of the Giants and was farmed out by them to the Toledo Club. The New York club apparently appreciate his worth for they have refused an offer of $40,000 for him and have boosted their price to $50,000. The Braves are anxious to land the young star to plug up a bad gap on their infield. Weakness at the keystone sack has been bothering Manager Bancroft all season and he will have to land someone to strengthen his defense. While $50,000 is a lot of money it looks as if the Boston team magistrates will have to dip down and produce it or else look elsewhere for a promising recruit.

these errors, is to put a premium on headsup baseball. Otherwise there would be no incentive for the smart ball players.

BASE BALL

WHAT plays in baseball require an appeal to the umpire before a runner is declared out? What is the reason for not compelling the umpire to give an immediate ruling when the error is made?

THERE are three plays in baseball that require an appeal to the umpire, otherwise he will overlook the mistakes just as if none had occurred. One of the plays is the failure to hold one's base before starting to advance on a caught fly ball. The baserunner is legally liable to be put out if he fails to hold his base until the fly ball strikes the hand of the fielder making the play.

Another play is the failure to touch a base in advancing or when returning to an original base as called for by the rules.

A third play is any situation involving a batting out of order play. These errors must be discovered before a ball is pitched to a succeeding batsman otherwise there is no chance for redress.

In failure to touch a base or hold a base on a caught fly ball before advancing, the play to the base in question must be made by holding the ball on said base and calling the attention of the umpire to it. He should then declare the baserunner out if that base. When a player bats out of order and the mistake is properly discovered and an appeal made to the umpire, the official should then declare the proper batsman out.

The reason for making it necessary for the team in the field to observe 6-3 and 6-4.

Satisfactorily Proved. "You say, professor, that tobacco is an aid to thought and a stimulant to the reasoning faculties; but Professor Dullham declares that tobacco is in every way injurious. How do you account for this difference of opinion?" "Easily enough, madam. Professor Dullham does not smoke, and consequently he can neither think straight nor reason correctly."

This joke imported from India. "Isn't radio wonderful?" said the first man. "Only last night I heard the wife singing in America, and mine is only a crystal set!" "Oh, that's nothing," replied his companion; "this morning I heard my wife, sitting her tea in 'China,' and mine is only a gas set."

THREE MEMBERS OF CHICAGO CUBS WERE ARRESTED

Players Started Free-For-All and Tie Up Traffic

NEW YORK, July 11.—Walter (Rabbit) Maranville, manager of the Chicago National League baseball club, with pitcher Herbert Brett and Shortstop Pitterger of the same club and George Werner were locked up on disorderly conduct charges just after participating in a free-for-all fight at Times Square caused a complete paralysis of traffic during the six o'clock rush hour last evening.

Argue Over Fare The Cub players had been riding in a taxicab operated by Werner and just alighted when an argument started which reached its climax in a pitched battle which drew a crowd of thousands. None of the participants in the fight was seriously hurt. Maranville, police say, seemed to have been acting in the role of peacemaker when they arrived. The trouble arose over a forty-cent taxicab fare which was charged them for "riding around the block." The ball players told the police.

Were Discharged Failure of Werner to press charges against the Cub members when they were arrested in night court caused Magistrate Barrett to dismiss the case.

ROYALS LOSE TO WATER DEPT 8-1

Trojans and St. Johns Battle to 5-All Tie on North End Diamond.

For seven innings, the Royals and Trojans and Saint Johns battled to the greatest games of the season on the South End last night, with Earl Nelson holding the league leaders to two solitary bingles. In their half of the eighth the Royals jammed a run over. The Watermen came back strong and had scored two runs when a decision by Umpire Morrissy, the Royals walked off the field, protesting strongly against the umpire. Later they returned, and the Watermen scored six more runs before being retired. Lloyd Sterling pitched a fine game for the winners, allowing five hits and receiving good support. "Dick" Bartlett made a wonderful leaping catch that featured the game. Paul got two hits in three times up, and both Gorman and M. Sterling got two in four times up. The St. John the Baptists being idle, the Watermen moved into the lead.

Play Tie Game. On the North End grounds, the Trojans and Saint Johns battled to a five-all tie. The Saint Johns used Tibbetta, a newcomer, in the box. MacGowan, third baseman for the Trojans, was injured in the last inning, when L. Griffin slid into him.

North End—3 p.m., Trojans vs. St. Johns. 7 p.m., Water Dept. vs. Trojans.

Can Also See Race. At each of these games, these tickets will be issued and as all four games are strong drawing cards big crowds are expected. An added feature for the afternoon game on the South End is that the fans will be able to see most of the sealing race that is planned for July 18 on Courtenay Bay to pick the candidate who will go to the Canadian Henley at St. Catharines the latter part of the month.

Most Valuable Player. The name of this most valuable player will not be announced until the night of the banquet and the gold watch trophy, which will be suitably inscribed with the player's name and the reason for his selection, will be presented by a prominent citizen. As this will be something every player will prize most highly for the rest of his life, the "Sporting Life" trophy is arousing considerable interest and much speculation is taking place as to who will be the final choice.

The drawing will be made by Mayor Potts, if possible, on Saturday night, immediately following the games, and the holder of the ticket will be announced on Monday. Ticket holders are asked to retain their stubs so there will be no delay in securing the name of the winner.

Next Week's Games. Some great games are carded for next week in the league, the high spot being reached on Friday night when the Baptists and the Watermen clash for the final time this season on the North End. On Monday night, the Royals meet the Trojans on the North End, while on Tuesday in the South End, the Watermen meet the St. Johns. These two teams play a postponed game on Wednesday in the South End, while in the North End on the same night, the Royals meet the Baptists. On Thursday night on the South End, the St. Johns and the Trojans clash. A double-header is carded for Friday night, the Watermen meeting the St. John the Baptists in the North End, while the St. Johns and Royals clash in the South End.

Memoirs Writer Tells of Meeting When Submarine Warfare Ordered

The Work of King Edward as Peacemaker is Related and Praised.

BERLIN, July 11.—A pathetic picture of Bethmann-Hollweg, the German Chancellor of "a scrap of paper" memo—disgraced and vainly opposing the impetuosity and arrogance of German naval authorities—was drawn by Baron Hugo von Reischach, the last of the Kaiser's court chamberlains, in his memoirs just published here under the title "Under Three Kaisers."

Von Reischach relates in his book how he found Bethmann-Hollweg, a picture of melancholy and despair, seated alone in a room in the castle of Fieser after an extended Cabinet meeting presided over by the Kaiser on January 19, 1917.

The "shoot at sight and leave no traces" submarine warfare had been decided on at this meeting.

"What is the matter, Herr Chancellor?" I asked him. "Have we lost a battle?"

"No, but it is the Germans," replied Bethmann-Hollweg. "We have just finished the Cabinet meeting, and extensive submarine warfare has been decided on. For more than an hour I protested that it would bring America into the war, and that the enemy's anti-submarine methods would prevail in the end. But Admiral von Holtzendorf sprang up and said: 'I shall vouch for it on my word as a naval officer that not a single American shall land on the continent!'"

Von Reischach declares that he shared the view of the Chancellor, and urged him to resign as a protest, but Bethmann-Hollweg feared that such a step would have a disastrous influence on public opinion, and decided to remain at his post, officially supporting the new war of "necessity."

Baron von Reischach, from his knowledge of political events over a great number of years, subscribes to the peaceful intentions of King Edward. He certainly never desired war, says the baron, adding that had war come during his reign King Edward would have used every means in his power to localize it and prevent a European shambles.

Buy this Studebaker Coach—Now!

Studebaker will have no annual announcement of new models to make July cars obsolete in August

YOU may buy the new Studebaker Standard Six Coach today—or on any day of the year—with the confident assurance that no act of ours will stigmatize it as a "last year's model."

The new Studebaker Standard Six Coach is vastly different from the ordinary type of coach.

Coach price—Sedan quality. Compare it with other coaches and you will realize its difference in materials and craftsmanship. Doors are broad, seats full-width. There's room to enter or leave without causing occupant of folding seat to get out.

Is 50 horsepower engine is the most powerful in any car of its size and weight. Lightning in pick-up—unusually flexible—and dependable with all of the in-built stamina and sturdiness of every Studebaker.

Another "One-Profits" Closed Car. Above all, this Standard Six Coach is different in the value offered. Its price is exceptionally low. This is because it is a "one-profit" car, built complete—body as well as chassis—in Studebaker plants. This Studebaker saves the extra profits which other manufacturers have to pay to outside parts and body makers and gives the benefit to purchasers.

In July we will build nearly six times as many Standard Six Coaches as we made in February—an increase of 450%.

Month after month, all records have been broken, until today the Standard Six Coach is one of the most popular cars in our line.

Buy now—No need to delay. Now you can buy this new Studebaker Standard Six Coach with positive assurance that its value will not depreciate through annual announcements of new Studebaker models.

Come in NOW and see the value Studebaker offers in this sturdy, dependable, "one-profit" car. Today, more than ever, a Studebaker is a big money's worth.

Up! Up! Up! Jewett Coach Sales Climb Like the Car Itself

Sales records unequalled in the history of our business. Performance records unequalled by any car in the industry.

That's what Jewett Coach has done in just a few weeks of sensational achievement.

Roominess for the Wise! A Coach at $1930—with the renowned Jewett chassis—unchanged in the slightest degree. Thousands have proved its sturdiness in year after year service. The greatest moderate price chassis ever built!

A Coach $1930—with advanced features in design. Wise buyers want roominess! We proved it. The skin-barking, small interior type of Coach is going. Roominess is today's demand. So Jewett built a roomy Coach. Gave it yard wide doors. And a studied seating arrangement. You enter or leave the rear with those in front undisturbed! And the proof lies in the sales. Up—up—up—because of roominess.

Style—You Bet! In outer appearance—Jewett Coach is the ultimate in advanced design. Beautifully colored in blue permanent lacquer—an ornamental double belt moulding—gracefully curved back—low-slung and long appearing. Not a square corner on it.

A Coach like this at $1930! Hardly possible until you've spent a half hour back of the wheel. Then—easy to understand. So easy to drive you almost forget it's a motor car you're handling. And power to outperform any car within $750 of its price.

PARADE PLANS OF ORANGEMEN ARE ANNOUNCED

Two Sections to Join at Dock and Union Sunday Afternoon

FLORAL TRIBUTE AT SOLDIER MONUMENT

Service in St. David's Church—Lorneville Demonstration Is Today.

Tomorrow, "The Glorious Twelfth," will be celebrated in Saint John by a church parade of Orangemen to St. David's church. The members of all the city and many of the county Loyal Orange Lodges will take part. A floral anchor in honor of the order's departed heroes of the war will be laid at the base of the soldier memorial in King Square during the parade. On arriving at the church the Orangemen will be addressed by Rev. Hugh Miller. Plans are also made for a special excursion to Fredericton on Monday to the provincial celebration of the day scheduled this year for the capital city.

PROCESSION PLANS.

Every preparation has been made for tomorrow's parade. The members will assemble at 2 o'clock at the Orange Hall, German street, and the Orange Hall, Simonds street. Two parades will start, one from each hall and will unite at the corner of Dock and Union streets at 8 o'clock. There the lead will be taken by the German street section and the march will be continued to St. David's church. The German street contingent will be led by the Saint John Killie and Pipe Band after which will come Queen's Black Preceptory, Trinity Black Preceptory and Scarlet Chapter, followed by Veterans L. O. L., No. 1, York L. O. L., No. 8; Johanson L. O. L., No. 24; Havelock L. O. L., No. 27; concluding with the District Lodge officers and the Grand Lodge officers. The Simonds street section will be led by the Fairville Pipe and Drum Band, followed by Courtyard Bay L. O. L., No. 8; True Blue L. O. L., No. 11; Willis L. O. L., No. 70; Carleton Cornet Band; Dominion L. O. L., No. 141, and the County Lodge officers.

ROUTE OF PARADE.

The parade will proceed along Dock street and up King to King Square, where the march will continue straight up the middle path to the fountain and down the walk leading to Breeze's Corner enclosing the triangular plot containing the soldiers' war memorial. Grand Master J. Starr Tait on behalf of the Grand Lodge will then place the floral tribute at the monument while the Carleton Cornet Band will play a hymn. Rev. George Knight and Rev. G. B. MacDonald will offer prayer.

Mayor Potts and the members of the city council have been invited to attend the ceremonies. The parade will then continue along King Square to St. David's church and thence to St. David's church, where the members of the Loyal True Blue Association and Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association will assemble. The entire contingent will occupy a specially reserved section in the church.

AFTER SERVICE.

Following the church service the parade will re-form and proceed down Sydney to Duke street, along to German and thence to Orange Hall in that street, where the city members will open ranks and permit the other contingent to pass through. The latter will march back to Simonds. Both sections will disband at their original starting points.

On Monday the Order will run a special excursion train to Fredericton to the celebration there which will be attended by members of the institution from all parts of the province. The Carleton Cornet Band will accompany the excursion from Saint John. The train will leave the Depot at 8:10 a. m. daylight time. The return train is due in the city at 11:15 o'clock Monday evening.

AT LORNEVILLE.

REMEMBERED HERE

The Halifax Mail publishes a picture of the young girls who came from College Street School, Halifax, to sing in the musical festival put on in the Opera House here by Rev. C. J. Cloran, S.S. R. They have won much attention in their expert rendering of music and their pretty rendering of harmonies. Their voices, too, attracted notice for their fine control and easy technique. Miss Elzior DeWolfe sang in solos, which were much appreciated.

HELPED ORPHANS

The sum of $10 was realized at a concert and bazaar held at 84 Sydney street recently given to the treasurer of the N. B. Protestant Orphan's Home, H. Usher Miller, for the benefit of the orphans. The children who carried on this good work are Gene Plummer, Margaret Plummer, Annie Plummer, Phyllis Plummer, Anita Plummer, Frances Williams, Patricia Williams, Mabel Williams, Charles Williams, Premie Stegmann, Emery Sewell and Dorothy MacFarland.

WAS LOSS OF $100.

A financial statement on the recent musical festival, held in the Opera House, is presented in the New Free Press today. It shows a loss of $100.22. The paper says it was the "first venture of its kind and held solely to inculcate a greater love of music in the public mind. The statement shows that public support was not what might have been expected, and that if the idea is to be carried out, a greater measure of support must be accorded. Like all big projects, public appreciation and public backing are essential."

IS GIVEN SHOWER.

Miss Laura Spence, who is to be married next week to Kenneth MacLachlan, was surprised by 20 of her friends, who called at her home, 78 Chesley street, last evening and gave her a novelty shower of useful and pretty things for her future home. Little Miss Nancy Morrison, dressed as a fairy, hauled into the room a fairy wagon, containing the gifts. Miss Spence thanked her friends in a pretty speech. Refreshments were served by Miss John Howe, Mrs. George Hartshorn, Mrs. Fred Snider and Mrs. Hugh Tait.

COMING TO SAINT JOHN

Having covered thousands of miles during the last four years in quest of good health, four khaki-clad young men, who called at the Fredericton Hotel last evening, are expected to be Albert Carter, Detroit; Edward Carter, Fredericton; George Crawford Cart, Columbus, O.; and George Reeves, El Paso, Tex. They started out on June 29, 1921 and have visited nearly every state in the Union, Mexico, Panama, the British Isles, France and Germany, and are now wandering through Canada. Carter enlisted in the Canadian Expeditionary Force and served with the ammunition column in almost to the complete percentage. The comrades while in Fredericton, including Thomas Owens and Ted Owens, were in the hospital for a number of days of every description and from every clime. They expect to visit Saint John before returning.

Good Community Spirit Is Shown

The work of laying sewer connections along the Bellevue avenue line to the north-west of Indiantown and in line with Pokok heights, which was completed late last fall, at considerable expense to the city, appears to be much appreciated by property owners in that part of the town, according to civic officials. Since the early spring most of the home-owners have of their private means and by personal work made connections to this new sewer main, which implies into Indiantown harbor. The rocky formation which made the job so expensive to the city has also imposed a lot of hard work on the contractor.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to today's reporter. "I'm sorry for some folks, I see where a meetin' away up country had to listen for more'n three hours to fellers makin' political speeches in a hall on a hot night. I'd like to ketch myself gittin' into a lather of sweat over politics."

"You'll catch yourself," said the reporter. "The bug will bite you. Just wait till things warm up in the Settlement."

"They ain't a-gonna warm me up," said Hiram. "So's I forget the prettier folk 'll git for a spell in election time 'n' call one another names—and after it's over they set down an' play poker together just as if nothin' had happened. I guess politics is nothin' but a game of poker for a hull lot of 'em."

"at one another in great shape when the game is goin' on. Was you thinkin' of comin' out to the Settlement for Sunday? Hanner'll be awful glad to hev you."

"All the berries I can eat" queried the reporter.

"More," said Hiram. "Order the hearse," said the reporter.

Overdraft Interest Will Now Disappear With People Paying 1925 Taxes.
