LARGE CROWDS ENJOY NEW BILL

Vaudeville Programme at the Opera House Has Much of Interest—Participants Receive Appreciative Applause.

The usual large and appreciative audiences were in attendance at the two performances in the Opera House last evening and judging from their frequent and hearty applause they enjoyed the various vaudeville numbers. The new programme has much of interest and promises to attract capacity houses to-day and tomorrow.

The performance started with another interesting episode of the popular motion picture serial "Daredevil Jack", which is featuring Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion boxer of the world. The various chapters continue to hold interest and this serial is conceded to be one of the most popular shown for some time.

The opening vaudeville number was that of Valley Hand, who sang several songs. Her vaudeville numbers were well received and she received considerable applause.

Mills and Boland followed with a singing and piano offering. Their comic bits both vocal and instrumental, evoked appreciative applause.

Thompson and Griffiths brought the programme to a close with a clever acrobatic offering. They are good tumblers and perform some clever feats. They also intersperse considerable comedy, which makes the act very popular.

HENRY FORD BUYS BIG TIMBER TRACT

Plant to be Erected on 400,000 Acres in Upper Michigan.

Acquisition by the Ford Motor Company of 400,000 acres of virgin forest and mineral land surrounding Lake Michigan, in the upper peninsula, where the company will maintain a permanent timber preserve and erect a saw mill and closed-body plant employing 2,000 to 3,000 men, are announced by officials of the company in Detroit.

This announcement followed an official statement by the company that Henry Ford and his son also had completed terms for the purchase of the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton Railroad, a report current for a long time.

The 400,000 acres in northern Michigan was purchased from the Michigan Iron and Land Company and comprises 100,000 acres of hardwood timber and 100,000 acres of second-growth timber, besides showing pronounced indications of mineral deposits.

It was said that it is the purpose of the company to build a closed-body plant and sawmill of large size, probably near Republic, Mich., although the site has not definitely been determined. The Republic site is said to have been more generally favored because of its water power facilities.

Belgium's Example. Brantford Examiner—Visitors to Belgium are astonished at the recovery, outside of the Ypres section, which that industrious little nation shows. An economic survey recently completed by the British Department of Overseas Trade shows that in Belgium railroad tracks have been almost entirely restored to pre-war conditions; most of the canals are working; coal production is almost at pre-war level; devastated factories are re-equipped and producing; agricultural lands have almost fully recovered. Only an improvement in exchange rate is believed necessary to speed the country back to complete restoration. What is saving Belgium is less agitation and more work.

Since the war, horses have been so scarce in Spain that an order for immediate delivery is being placed for 200 tractors, 500 motor trucks, and farm machinery in proportion.

THE MUNICIPAL BUILDING.

The municipal council has done well to call for plans for a municipal building or buildings worthy of the city and county of St. John. It is suggested that the work may be carried on in a unit at a time, as part of a comprehensive plan which would eventually house all municipal, civic and provincial offices. The provincial government will be interested in regard to its participation in the project. The present may not be a favorable time to go on with a building project on a very extensive scale, but plans may be prepared and a portion of the work proceeded with when these are ready. The important thing at present is the evident desire of the municipal council to have when all is done a municipal building such as a growing city should have, and on a desirable site. We are to have a new railway station and a modern hotel, and with them should be a municipal building as adequately meeting the requirements as will these other structures. The new spirit of enterprise should find expression in work of a permanent character, along lines of civic improvement and steady progress. There will always be those who will doubt the expediency of projected forward movements, but if their views always prevailed the city would not grow, or become a better place to live in. In the matter of the municipal buildings the council is headed in the right direction.

NOW FOR THE HOTEL.

Highly significant of better things for St. John was the meeting of the Commercial Club last evening. It was an inspiration to see the large assembly of alert young business men gathered there to show their desire that the city be provided with a modern hotel. In spring the announcement also that a very limited canvas in advance of today's campaign had resulted in the subscription of $100,000 of the $275,000 required from St. John to make the hotel a certainty. Chairman H. Peters was able to say that Mayor Schofield had not waited to be asked but had sent in his subscription last week, the first citizen to back his faith in St. John in relation to this project by his check. Mayor Schofield in his remarks last night cited the case of Hamilton, where the erection of a great hotel had resulted not only in bringing very many more visitors but had proved of great benefit to the business interests of the city. It was impossible to listen to the addresses of the different speakers last evening without becoming enthusiastic over the hotel project. In this enterprise the citizens who are actually entering into a partnership with the biggest hotel corporation on the continent and with the leading spirits of the Canadian Pacific. The latter and their friends have undertaken the case of as much of the stock as St. John is asked to subscribe. They have faith in the future of St. John. Can its people afford to have less?

The advantages of being linked up with a chain of large hotels, and having the active interest and support of a great railway corporation, are too obvious to call for any comment. On the other hand, Mayor Schofield declared that the forts to induce tourists to come here unless more accommodations is provided, and other testimony was given to show that the city is actually suffering loss because of inability to house properly the travel that would come this way. Nor would existing hotels suffer. The mayor, citing the case of Montreal, declares that he believes the big hotel will eventually help the smaller ones.

But suppose the citizens do not accept the present offer—what would happen? When would they get such another opportunity to link up with great hotel and railway corporations on such advantageous terms for the city? The Commercial Club has done its part. The committee which took the matter up with the United Hotels Company and the C. P. R. has devoted a great deal of time to the works and the executive has also been very active. These citizens believed they were serving the best interests of St. John, and are themselves proving their faith by subscribing stock. Before the end of the week it should be possible to announce that the required stock has all been subscribed, and that King Square is to be adorned by a hotel worthy of St. John.

Bangor Commercial—"It is very encouraging to learn that the campaign against the great white plague in our state is proving wonderfully efficient. In 1899 there were 1,613 deaths from tuberculosis in Maine and the number has been gradually decreased year by year until the record for the past twelve months shows that the deaths from this cause numbered but 799. In a general way the deaths from this dread disease were reduced by one-half in this state, a vivid testimonial to the improvement of sanitary conditions and to the progress of science in dealing with disease. The work of the state authorities has been intelligent and has been supplemented by the labors of individuals and communities. The results thus far attained give promise that the future will continue to show material reductions in the ravages of tuberculosis."

INTERESTING FIGURES.

The St. John city council has done well in the matter of providing playgrounds this year, but it has to do a good deal in order to catch up. In a bulletin issued by the Citizens' Research Institute of Canada, comparing the expenditures for different purposes by different cities for the year 1917, which so far as St. John is concerned would apply to every year until this year, we find the revenue expended on recreation on a per capita basis as follows:—

Victoria	..... $0.69
Vancouver	..... 1.30
Edmonton	..... .18
Regina	..... .48
Winnipeg	..... 1.08
Toronto	..... 1.14
Hamilton	..... .49
London	..... .81
Ottawa	..... .25
Montreal	..... .22
Halifax	..... .17
Charlottetown	..... .18
St. John	..... .06

We have reason to be thankful that in 1920 a progressive city council has made a better showing. The new policy should be continued until the recreation needs of the people are fairly well met at every point.

But St. John was also the lowest in 1917 in the matter of expenditure for health and sanitation, estimated on a per capita basis. Here are the figures:—

Victoria	..... $8.02
Vancouver	..... 5.12
Edmonton	..... 1.97
Regina	..... 3.09
Winnipeg	..... 3.88
Toronto	..... 4.38
Hamilton	..... 1.69
London	..... 3.96
Ottawa	..... 1.61
Montreal	..... 1.22
Halifax	..... 1.22
Charlottetown	..... .41
St. John	..... .49

In matters relating to health as well as recreation St. John has made substantial progress since 1917, but there is still much to be accomplished.

The action taken by the prohibition central committee last evening was a logical result of the plebiscite. Government control of the sale of liquor is essential to better enforcement of the existing law, and that is what the people voted for. With regard to a special session of the legislature, if it were held and the federal government asked to order a referendum, this province could take that vote along with other provinces in October, and so keep up with the procession marching towards a bond-free Canada. In the United States special sessions of one or more state legislatures are to be called to ensure ratification of the woman suffrage amendment to the constitution before the November elections.

Canadians rejoice that Sir Thomas Lipton won yesterday's yacht race. There is also a feeling of universal satisfaction that Capt. Burton vindicated himself as a sailor and came off victorious. The American yacht must now win three straight or the coveted cup goes over the water. The interest in this royal sport will now be keener than ever until the issue is decided.

NOMINATION DAY
SPEECHES AT DIGBY
(Special to Times.)
Digby, N. S., July 21—Quite a crowd attended nomination proceedings here yesterday. It could easily be seen that the country people were in the majority. No doubt the novelty of nominating their first candidate drew a larger number from the county than usual. After the sheriff's court, Frank Jones was called to the chair. H. B. W. Warner, senior government candidate, was the first speaker and he was followed by Gilden Campbell, United Farmers' candidate, and J. Willie Comeau and Emmerich Robichaud, the second farmers' candidate. All the speakers were well received. W. J. Folger, who intended to run as an independent, has dropped out so the contest will be between the government and the United Farmers.

IN THE GOVERNMENT.
Moncton Transcript—Hon. Dr. Roberts of St. John, minister of health for the province of New Brunswick, will be in the city Tuesday and while here will be the guest of the Rotary Club at their luncheon at 12:30 o'clock at Hotel Brunswick. Hon. Dr. Roberts will address the club on matters pertaining to his department.

Improvement in England.
Marked improvement in port conditions in London and Liverpool are reported in steamship circles. Whereas a few months ago vessels might have to wait thirty days or more for a berth, now no or very little waiting is said to be necessary. The improvement is attributed to the passing of the season for heavy cotton receipts and partly to the improvement in the railroad and labor situations. Though large shipments of fruit will begin to arrive very soon, it is not feared that they will cause a recession of the congested conditions of a comparatively short time ago. Not only are all the facilities in better shape now to handle a rush of goods, but the fruit arrivals will not be as heavy as those of cotton in the cotton season.

POLITICS.
I like to talk of corking books, and motor cars and skillful cooks, talk of politics, and nothing else oo I bore the village Hicks, for they will and other things of worth; and sn earth. Oh, how I long for some sane wight who'll talk with me by day and night of set and dragon's teeth, of Science, and her great advances, and of that pugilist from France who people shun me as I pass, and sometimes hand me bricks; for I would talk of human things, of cats and cabbages and kings, and they'd talk politics. Oh, how I would tell how my new boot got the everlasting goat of any car I know, but none will listen while I prate; men talk of how some candidate will climb a luckless foe. And I would talk of Milton's harp, and of the bones in German cups, and of any steed's trick, but men won't listen worth a cent; they shoo me off—they all are bent on talking politics. And politics, that dreary theme! The failure's hope, the dotard's dream, that bore beyond compare! That makes men find the same old things, and talk forevermore in rings, nor leads them anywhere!

FOR LITTLE THINGS.
Last night I looked across the hills
And through an arch of darkling pine,
Low-sung against a limpid west,
I saw a young moon shine.
And as I gazed there blew a wind,
Loosed where the sylvan shadows stir,
Bringing delight to soul and sense
The breath of dying fire.
This morn I saw a dancing host
Of poppies in a garden wade,
And straight my heart was mirth-possessed
And I was glad as they.
I heard a song across the sea
As sweet and faint as echoes are,
And glimpsed a poignant happiness
No care of earth might mar.
Dear God, our life is beautiful
In every splendid gift it brings,
But most I thank Thee humbly for
The joy of little things.

TO SAVE THE ABBEY.
(New York Evening Post.)
Methought I sat in seat of majesty
In the cathedral church of Westminster
And in that chair where King and Queen are crowned.
—Shakespeare.
What Rhems Cathedral is not alone to England but to the whole English-speaking race. Here was crowned Harold, last of the Saxon kings, before the high altar, was crowned William the Conqueror on Christmas day, 1066, and the shrine and Tomb of Edward the Confessor, of Edward I and his "chere rene" Eleanor, as of many another king and knight. What a roster of greatness is this: Chatham, Pitt and Gladstone; Isaac Newton, Darwin and Hooker; Chaucer, Spenser, Shakespeare, Milton, Wordsworth, Tennyson and Browning; Johnson, Keats, Keble, Dickens, Scott and Dickens; Clive and Wolfe; Hakluyt, Wesley, Garrick, Henry Irving—all either buried here or with their memorials adorning the walls. We remember the gasp of horror that went up when the learned and reverend Dean of Rhems, and the dismay with which we read of the possibility that some Austrian might succeed in planting a bomb on the soft green beauty of the dome of San Marco in Venice. Surely it does not take a wit to make us appreciate what these things mean to the human race. Westminster Abbey, it appears, is in great need of funds to keep its fabric intact. In an appeal the Dean says that the whole Abbey building has steadily deteriorating and that in addition a number of structural repairs on a large scale cannot long be postponed without serious results. Great Britain will naturally wish to bear the chief burden of this task, but America's generous people have taken part in the work of preserving the most precious memorial of the English-speaking world.

POLITICALLY AT SEA.
Victoria Colonist—At a time when so many consider that the day of coalition governments is over it would appear that the very reverse is the case. In Manitoba there is talk of a coalition ministry, because no party has a clear majority over all the others. Ontario has a coalition government, and in a sense so has one at Ottawa and in London. Germany has had to resort to coalition, and it is the same in other countries. It could be named. It is quite possible that when further elections are held in other Canadian provinces, a coalition ministry will be shown as to be necessary to the formation of coalition governments for the purpose of carrying out which such involve. It may take five, or even ten years, for the mental attitude of people in recent countries to regain its balance, and then again there will be two outstanding political parties, what are they to do? What has become known as the silent vote, which as a rule decides elections, seems for the time being to have grown weary of the old time political parties, and it is casting about for something to take their place. It is quite possible that the present situation of the political situation. Eventually there will be either a return to the partisan manner or some new party will be evolved from the present chaos which will win their way into the imagination of the people.

SUNS OF NIGHT.
(New York Sun and Herald.)
Many of us do not consider the sparkling, fiery stars of night. Nevertheless, these stars shine upon our little earth by night in their remoteness, and by day in their comparative nearness. Therefore, he interested in these suns of night, particularly in the more brilliant suns of those first magnitude stars.

At the present session, when the clocks are announcing the hour of nine, there are six first magnitude stars, all of which are especially noticeable. Altair is low in the east, Antares is rather low in the southeast, Vega is about half way from the northeastern horizon to the zenith, Regulus is about half way from the southern horizon to the zenith, Spica is not quite half way from the southern horizon to the zenith, and Arcturus is not far from the zenith southward.

These six first magnitude stars are in the order of their brightness: Vega, Arcturus, Altair, Spica, Antares and Regulus. In the order of their distance from the earth, they are: Altair, Vega, Arcturus, Regulus, Antares and Spica. Respecting their constellations, Vega is situated in Lyra, Arcturus in Bootes, Altair in Aquila, Spica in Virgo, Antares in Scorpio, and Regulus in Leo. And with respect to colors: Vega is blue, Arcturus is yellow, Altair pale yellow, Spica white, Antares red, and Regulus white.

THE NEW DOCTOR.
(W. J. Mayo, in N. American Review.)
The physician of the old school with his top-hat and double-breasted frock coat, who practiced as an individual in all branches of medicine and surgery, has practically disappeared. He has given place to a new type of physician, who works, not as an individual, but as a part of an organization in which the state, in one way or another, has become his partner and aids him in his work. Civilization and intellectual growth depend largely on preventive medicine. We pride ourselves upon our advance ing civilization and intellectual superiority. If we are to continue to advance the public health service must be made the first function of the state. In the work of the medical profession lies the best hope of the future.

The arch enemy of middle age and beyond is cancer, and our measures both for prevention and cure have not advanced in proportion to the increasing need.
Who the people, as a whole, once understand that they have a right to health, they will demand that hospitals be standardized.
SEES OWN HOME ROBBED.
Burglars Ring Door Bell to Gain Entry to New Jersey House.
Riverside, N. J., July 21—Mrs. John Bruno of 590 New Jersey avenue, answered a ring at the front door bell and told a young man, who asked for Mr. Bruno, that he was not at home. He was starting to explain what his business was with Mr. Bruno, when there was a loud rap at the back door.
Mrs. Bruno asked the front door visitor to step in and wait a minute. When she opened the back door, a man pointed an automatic revolver at her and said: "If you scream, I'll shoot you."
He ordered her back into the house and kept her quiet on threat of death while the first visitor robbed the house. The two men drove off in a brown touring car with $400 worth of jewelry.
Mrs. Bruno's daughter, who was in her room upstairs during the visit of the burglars, heard nothing. There was a bulging in the house which failed to realize that the situation called for aggressive conduct.

$100,000 SUBSCRIBED ALREADY; BIG DRIVE ON FOR REMAINDER

Commercial Club, it is Declared, Should be Strongly Supported in New Hotel Campaign

C. P. R. Takes $375,000 Stock on Condition That St. John Citizens Take Equal Amount, United Hotels Co. Doing the Rest—A Fine Chance for Citizens to Show Their Faith in the Town.

The Commercial Club at a smoker held in the Seaman's Institute last evening, launched its drive to obtain $375,000 in preference stock from the citizens of St. John in order to insure the erection of the "Hotel Champlain." The organization for the drive is all completed, and it will be run on the same lines as the last victory loan with the same team captains so that the success of the drive is practically assured. When the meeting closed last night there was already more than $100,000 subscribed and the first subscriber was His Worship Mayor Schofield, who sent in his application about a week ago when he heard that the campaign would be started. It was announced at the smoker that the Canadian Pacific Railway had agreed to take in preferred stock $875,000 on condition that a like amount was raised by the people of this city, and the United Hotels Company will receive fifty per cent and one share of the common stock. The name of the company is to be "The Hotel Champlain Co., Ltd.," and the full amount must be subscribed by August 1, as the option on the proposed site expires at that time.

The meeting opened with the vice-president, C. H. Peters, in the chair. He read a telegram from the president, S. E. Elin, saying that the latter regretted his inability to be present, and he then explained the proposition which was before the people of St. John. He said that $375,000 had been promised by Mr. Beatty, president of the C. P. R., and his associates, on condition that a like amount be subscribed locally, and he told of the reputation which the United Hotels Company had established for themselves as the premier hotel managers on the continent. There would be no promotion charges and no commission on the sale of stock so that the whole amount would go to the company. It was a good proposition as none of the hotels managed by this company were paying less than ten per cent, and Messrs. Dudley and O'Neil had looked over the situation fully and this would be one of the best cities in Canada for such a hotel as there were no big towns on either side to draw the trade from it. St. John had all the things in summer that the great resorts in Florida, etc., had in winter, and the fact that the hotel would be one of a chain would help considerably as the patrons of one other hotels in the chain would doubtless patronize it. In the winter time there would be all the transatlantic trade which would be increased next winter. He spoke of the Royal Connaught in Hamilton, which was owned by the United Hotels Co. and how it had benefited that city in every way. He thought this a real opportunity to show what St. John can do and he felt sure the necessary money would be forthcoming.

A Good Start.
The chairman then announced that already $84,000 had been subscribed and of this, three were subscriptions for $10,000, while seven were for $5,000, others for $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000, etc. He called upon W. H. Golding to explain how the Imperial Theatre had been launched. Mr. Golding referred to the other chain businesses that were going on in the city, of which there were only the Woolworth store and the Imperial Theatre, both of which were excellent propositions. The proprietors of his theatre had shown faith in the city when they erected the theatre and the fact that it was doing well, as was also the Woolworth store, should be a good argument in favor of the chain hotel system here. All the work on the theatre had been done locally with the exception of some of the decorating, and a few pillars. He spoke of the film men, saying that St. John was the maritime centre, having thirteen film agencies, so that often one hundred and forty film men in the maritime provinces were brought to this city, all staying at hotels. These agencies were considering moving to Moncton and he thought they should be induced to stay here as they left a lot of money in the city.

The mayor, after reading a letter from Hamilton, in which a citizen praised the hotels there and another letter he had received from a St. John citizen knocking this city, suggested that the meeting get down to business and subscribe all the prospects in the hall. As the members filed forward, the mayor disclosed himself in a new role—that of an entertainer, telling a story in a very interesting manner so that the meeting applauded very vigorously.

The secretary said that he understood there were several wrong impressions abroad. One was that the citizens would not be offered stock on the same basis

HENRY FORD HAS PERFECTED HIS NEW TYPE CAR

(Wall Street Journal)

A new automobile bearing the hall-mark of Henry Ford has just been perfected, a machine which is almost ready to be used as the pattern for millions of the new type well known Ford motor car. Announcement of the new type automobile followed the payment of $3,000,000 made by Ford recently to clear up the $60,000,000 commercial note issue arranged by the company a year ago.

One of the biggest differences between the new car and the present Ford in the motor, in which Ford has aimed to do away with every particle of vibration. The body of the car will be entirely of metal, no wood entering into its construction at any point.

In a workshop close to the Ford mansion in Dearborn the work of perfecting the new Ford car has gone forward for some time. The body of the car will be entirely of metal, no wood entering into its construction at any point.

The new model automobile was one of the ideas of Henry Ford when he started to obtain control of the entire Ford Motor Co. stock within the Ford family.

The Ford ideal is a threefold plan and to bring it to fruition the motor magnate has plunged into his enormous wealth which have given him control of his own lumber, coal mines, steel blast furnaces and even railroads.

Ford's aim, as confided to those closest to him in his enterprise, is to perfect and secure to every corner of the world three articles—a tractor, a truck and a passenger automobile. In recent years he has been tirelessly experimenting to make his ideal a practical fact.

GREAT MOTOR TOUR

The most spectacular event in motordom this year, either in Canada or the United States, will be the International Good Roads Tour to travel through Ontario and the state of Michigan this month. The mammoth motorcade, consisting of more than 300 good roads boosters and ninety-two cars, will leave Windsor, Ont., next Thursday morning. They will pitch camp at London Thursday evening, and proceed to Toronto Friday morning, taking luncheon at Hamilton, and arriving in Toronto in the afternoon.

At 8 p. m. Friday the city of Toronto and the province of Ontario will tender a banquet to the visitors at the King Edward Hotel. After dinner the band of the Ford Motor Company, which accompanies the tour, will lead the parade and the entire touring party up Yonge street, along Queen street west, and thence up University avenue to Queen's Park, where a good roads mass meeting will be conducted and addresses given by a battery of speakers.

5,000 to Assemble in Park.
On that evening Queen's Park will be the centre of attraction of all car-owners and others in the city. It is expected that there will be 5,000 people present. Chief Dickson will have a squad of policemen on hand to superintend the parking of cars, and discipline. The meeting and musical programme commence at 8 o'clock.

Toronto citizens will not have an opportunity of viewing the wonderful tent city which will house the entire party every night en route, for that city is the only place where they will sleep under roof. Four hotels here will accommodate the tourists overnight next Friday. Leave City Saturday.

Saturday morning the party will leave Toronto at 7 o'clock over the Great Northern Highway to Sault Ste. Marie. They will encamp at Bracebridge Saturday night, tour Muskoka Lakes Sunday, and proceed to Huntsville for the night stop. From there they will continue on their journey to North Bay, Espanola, Spanish River, Thessalon and Sault Ste. Marie.

In all places of importance stops will be made and meetings held in the interest of the good roads movement. In this way the good roads message will be imparted, and everywhere the utmost effort will be put forth to enthuse the people with the improved highways idea. Everywhere the object of the officials in charge of the tour will be to leave the people thinking and talking about good roads.

The Thrift of a MAXWELL comes from its special steels

Nearly 400,000 owners know well how thrifty a Maxwell really is. Men in the trade in selling other cars often use the expression "as thrifty as a Maxwell." Special steels are the underlying cause of Maxwell's thrift. These are steels made to Maxwell's own formulae, after years of tests, analysis and study, which make possible the ideal construction of great strength and light weight. They give a Maxwell the ability to stand wear, strain, twists and jolts that other cars much larger and heavier would have difficulty to resist. But they make a Maxwell light. They eliminate useless weight; they ease the burden of the engine, and thus gas, oil and tires render long mileage results. Hence, the ever-growing respect and admiration for Maxwell the world over; and its consequent fast growing numbers. Nearly 400,000 in use to-day; a year hence 500,000.

County Council Calls For Plans for a New Municipal Building

First Step Towards New Civic Centre, With Court House Section as First Item on Building Programme Committee to Investigate Possibility of County Producing Sufficient Milk for Local Needs.

At the mid-summer session of the municipal council, held yesterday afternoon in the county court rooms, Germain street, and there were also present Councillors Schofield, Thornton, Jones and Frink, representing the city; Councillors W. M. Campbell, John O'Brien and William Goding of Lancaster; J. M. Donovan, J. P. Mosher and J. T. Dalziel of Simonds; S. J. Shanklin, W. B. Bentley and Robert Bowland of St. Martins; J. E. O'Donnell and George A. Anderson of Musquash, and J. King Kelly, K.C., the county secretary.

After the minutes of the last regular meeting of the council were read and adopted Councillor Schofield read the report of the committee on finance and accounts, which covered the meetings held on June 7, June 22, June 23 and July 16, which dealt with the disposal of bonds to the amount of $100,000, the payment for the erection of Nurses' Home and which were later taken up on the part of the Eastern Securities Company, J. M. Robinson & Sons and the Malton Bond Corporation.

The board and maintenance of patients at River Clyde Sanatorium, there under permits from the municipality, were ordered to be paid monthly and assessed for in 1921.

East St. John Hospital.

With regard to the intention of the federal government to spend $16,400 for improvements to that part of the St. John County Hospital used by soldiers and war veterans under treatment, H. B. Schofield, of the board of commissioners, said that there might be some difficulty in getting the amount, and in order that the contemplated work at the hospital might not be retarded, he recommended, through Councillor Jones, that the original grant of the amount of $12,000 for capital account and $4,400 for maintenance, be approved. The work contemplated includes an ice-making plant, garage, barn, laundry, additions to the kitchen and the nurses home, and a new piping system. The recommendation was carried.

Councillor Schofield, continuing, read the reports of the finance committee meetings held last Friday, when Andrew D. Gault was made honorary assistant to the parish clerk of Lancaster; adjustment to the amount of $100 was authorized in the claim against the county by the Fernhill Cemetery Company; the councillors from the different parishes requested to meet not later than September to plan a better method of assessing and collecting county taxes; the assessors asked to define the boundaries of the various properties in arrears for taxes for two years; provision for the Musquash assessors to make up the shortage in the tax collection this year by adding the amount to the warrant for 1921; the issue of bonds under the Lancaster Sewerage Act sufficient to net $4,000, interest six per cent, for term of twenty years; the loan of another $1,000 to the Lancaster and Indiantown Ferry Commission; and the issue of bonds sufficient to net $2,118.48 for the payment of installation of a diet kitchen in the County Public Hospital. Recommendations at the mid-winter session of the county council regarding the need of proper sewerage facilities in East St. John was read by Mr. Dalziel, who also submitted a report from G. Hare, city engineer, showing that the sum of $500 would be needed to provide a survey and proper drainage of the district. The councillor recommended prompt action in the matter and his motion that the sum of $500 be used for the work and charged to contingent fund, was adopted.

Upon question from Mr. Thornton, Mr. O'Brien said that the last loan to the Lancaster ferry commissioners would be the last. Some timbers had been found to be entirely unreliable in the hull of the ferry and the extra expense was absolutely necessary.

$49,000 Already Paid.

Authority was given the county secretary and the county treasurer to pay to the firm of B. Mooney & Sons all the costs for the erection of the Nurses' Home in White street as they come due and to charge the expenditure to the Nurses' Home bond issue. More than $49,000 had already been paid, the secretary said.

Mr. Thornton, chairman of the buildings committee, read the report of the meeting held on Monday night, when the sum of $500 for repairs to the jail and registry office was recommended and the council asked to declare a policy in connection with the future development of a court house and municipal buildings on the site of the old county court house and adjacent lands, to include accommodation for the law courts and county offices in co-operation with the offices and equipment of the city of St. John.

New Municipal Building.

The committee also recommended, with the provision that the provincial government take up space for its offices and provincial courts, that the building committee should be empowered to negotiate with an architect or a company of architects for detailed plans of the first unit, which will include the court house, as outlined in the sketch plan and draft report submitted by the Engineering Institute of Canada, and also for a sketch plan and report on the larger and more comprehensive scheme embracing a building or buildings to include all the county and city offices and city equipments, at an expense not to exceed $5,000.

Referring to this, Mayor Schofield said that architects would not submit competitive plans and that a working plan would cost from $3,000 to $5,000. He thought the erection of the municipal building might be deferred for twenty years, but the present resolution gave the committee authority to go ahead and Mr. Dalziel submitted a petition from residents of St. John, Lorneville and Simonds, asking that the watergates in Miramich dam be opened to allow salmon to go through to Loch Lomond and other lakes. Mr. Jones said that the matter had been brought up in common council and that he was willing to act, if so requested.

The Milk Supply.

Mayor Schofield, with the idea of fostering milk production in the county of St. John, and making the county self-sustaining in the matter, moved that a grant of $1,000 be made to cover freight rebate and transportation expenses of approximately five cents per eight-quart can on all milk brought to the city from within the county from a distance greater than seven miles. He said there were 912 milk cows registered in the county now and there was no reason why the dairy industry in the county should not be greater.

JOBS THAT SPELL DEATH

The lives of many civilian workers today are fraught with far more danger than are those of soldiers or sailors, or even airmen. Civilization demands that men should engage in coal mining, lead working, tile cutting and quarrying, for example, and every year many lose their lives from these causes.

Science has for a long time been trying to find a way in which the stone-cutter may carry on his work without inhaling mineral dust. These workers, through constantly breathing in an atmosphere laden with fine particles, rarely live to see their fortieth year, while consumption, again, carries off scores of the cutlery makers and others similarly engaged at a comparatively early age.

Many needle grinders suffer from what is termed "grinders' asthma," while polishers and grinders of cut glass are extremely liable to contract a disease similar to lead poisoning, the first symptoms of which are evidenced by decaying teeth and gums.

Diamond cutters are frequently attacked by "wind-drops," a disease which is the outcome of the use of solder—containing lead—in the cutting process. Miners and sawmills suffer from the effects of the impure atmosphere in which they work, while glass blowers are invariably affected by the extremes of heat which are inseparable from the task of shaping molten glass.

But of all forms of dangerous employment there can be no doubt that that of the worker in lead is the worst. Lead poisoning affects no fewer than a dozen different trades, of which the production of white lead is the most fatal. Science has lessened its ravages, but has not abolished it.

Lace makers suffer from a kind of inflammation of the eyes, and it is for this reason that many employees of lace-making firms wear colored glasses. If the trouble is neglected, as unfortunately it often is, a serious breakdown ensues, and, sometimes, death, as the result of nervous exhaustion.

SIMMS' CONVENTION.

The fifth annual convention of T. S. Simms & Co. Ltd., was formally opened yesterday by a discussion of "Our Weak Spots" by the salesmen and others. "The Silver Lining" was considered by A. L. Foster, S. D. Purdy and W. E. Roop.

After an inspection of Falls View cottage, salesmen's reports were received and J. L. Brown discussed the market outlook. The visiting salesmen were entertained at the Royal at dinner, after which they attended the Imperial theatre.

At the Olympic trials in Montreal on Saturday one of the contestants in the 5,000 meters event was Cecil J. Leath. The following regarding him appears in a Montreal despatch: "Leath, who is champion of New England, though a Nova Scotian by birth, put up a fine struggle in the 5,000 meters, and is correct insofar as his place of birth is concerned. He was born in St. John and while very young moved with his parents to New York. Of late years he has made his home in South Milford (Mass.). That he has not forgotten the land of his birth is evidenced by the fact that he elected to represent Canada on the Olympic team, and also that during the war he was a member of the Royal Air Force."

ARRESTS IN SHOP ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Alcohol in a Can — An Incident of the Dark Hours — Duck Cove Case Continued.

A liquor case in which James Demaine and Joseph Higgins were charged with having liquor in their possession at the late date of the trial, occupied the attention of the police court this morning. Inspector Merryfield, who made the arrest, said he was walking along Charlotte street this morning about one o'clock when he received information which led him to visit the pressing shop of the accused. He entered the shop through the front door, the lights were out and when he turned them on he said he saw Higgins on the floor and Demaine was bending over him. The place was in an upset condition generally and on the table there were a glass and bottle, and on the floor there was a gallon can which contained the same kind of liquid. While the inspector was at the telephone he said Demaine aimed a blow at him with a chair, but he succeeded in dodging and he put the handcuffs on the accused.

It was brought out in evidence that Demaine was before the court on a previous occasion on charge of ill-treating his wife. This remark apparently made the accused angry, for he used some harsh language to the inspector in the court room.

On having the contents of the can analysed later in the morning, the inspector said it was found to contain a trace of wood alcohol and ninety-one per cent pure alcohol. The case was postponed until other witnesses could be summoned and evidence of the analysis produced. The accused were remanded to jail.

A case against Joseph Sappier, charged with breaking and entering the summer home of Miss Margaret Wall, near The Ferns, and stealing a pair of field glasses and a flash light, was resumed. Alex. Phillips, an Indian, said the accused lived with him about a week near Duck Cove and one day he went out and came back with the goods produced in court. This concluded the evidence and the accused was remanded on this charge. Another case in which he is charged with breaking and entering the summer home of D. B. Pidgeon, Duck Cove, and stealing several articles, among which was a pocketbook, was also taken up this morning. Dominick Bradford told of seeing the pocketbook in the possession of the accused. The case was postponed until other witnesses could be summoned.

"TIP" O'NEIL DEAD

North End Ball Player, Who Had Been in Major League Game, Passes Away in New York.

John "Tip" O'Neill, once idol of the baseball fans of St. John, is dead. Such was the news contained in a telegram received this morning from his sister, Mrs. Jennie Pratt, wife of Captain Pratt, of Somerville, Mass., by P. J. Fitzpatrick. His death occurred in New York yesterday, but no particulars were given to the cause. Notice of his funeral arrangements will be sent here later.

"Tip" O'Neill, for many years an inspector in the local Board of Health. He was educated in the local schools and as a youth showed exceptional talent as a runner and baseball player. As a young man he joined the Blues and affiliated as a catcher, at times as a pitcher and occasionally in the field, although his regular position was at second base. His wonderful speed and hitting ability won for him popularity among the fans throughout the city as well as the province and when the Blues disbanded he went to Patterson N. J., where he played on a team. He was picked up by Minneapolis of the American Association and his fielding was so good that he was recommended to the Boston Red Sox. He played as a utility feeder for that club and was later sent to Washington where he continued his good work. He was purchased by the Chicago White Sox and was with them when they won the championship of the American League in 1906.

It will be recalled that he was given a fitting reception on his return to this city, being met at the station by a large number of friends and made the recipient of a beautiful gold watch suitably inscribed. In the following year he had some trouble with his arm and following a suspension was sent to Milwaukee, in the American Association where he played in such a sensational manner that he was termed "King of the Minors" a title which has never been conceded to any player prior to or since that time. He ended his days as a ball player in Milwaukee, although some years later he appeared in a game with the Marathons and on his first trip to the plate drove out a beautiful single. However, his former speed was wanting.

In addition to being a wonderful ball player he was also a fast runner and it will be recalled that he participated in many foot races on the old Shamrock and B. & A. grounds, against Kiley, Estman, Kean and others.

There was a report current here two years ago that he died during the first outbreak of the "flu", while working on a steamer plying out of Sydney, no official announcement was ever received regarding his illness.

JAS. C. BETTINSON IS THE HISTORIAN

Of New York Canadian Club — Native of St. John — Interesting Items from Maple Leaf.

The July issue of The Maple Leaf, published by the Canadian Club of New York, contains a fine portrait of James C. Bettinson, and this sketch: "James C. Bettinson, the oldest resident member of the Club, and sometimes called 'the Dean,' was recently elected historian. His duties require him to keep an accurate history of the club affairs and his retentive memory greatly assists him in reviewing the past good work of the organization. Mr. Bettinson came in with the first president, Mr. Betson, in 1901 and served on many committees in many capacities, and always most acceptably. The historian's former home was in St. John, N. B., and he is justly proud of his long membership in the club. He believes that there are 5,000 good Canadians in New York who ought to be members of this organization."

Mr. Bettinson's father lived on Brussels street prior to the great fire, and then moved to the West Side having some land on Bay Shore and building a house. The son married a sister of Mrs. Scott, wife of Rev. George Scott, lately visited them in New York. Mrs. Murray Campbell and Miss Julia Bettinson of West St. John are sisters.

The Maple Leaf has this other personal item:—Hedley Scovell, a well known and highly esteemed member of this club, sailed on the Olympic on Thursday, July 15, for England. He is the son of Mr. Waterbury, Conn., and her daughter, Miss Margaret Scovell, and her grand-daughter, Miss Margaret Scovell, were in the party. They will motor through England, Scotland, Holland, Belgium, France, Portugal and Spain, returning here in September.

In a letter to the Maple Leaf Hon. Josiah Wood of Sackville expresses the view that while the United States and Canada should remain independent politically, he sees "no reason why they should not in commercial, social and moral matters work together with great advantage and benefit to both."

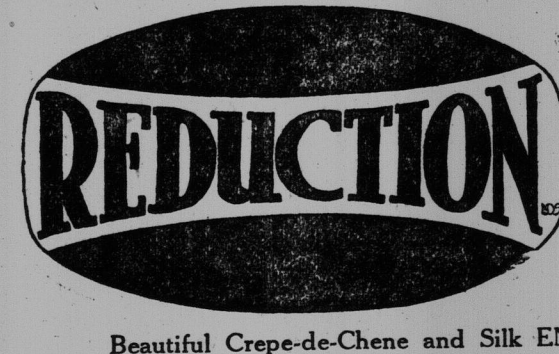

Contributors to this issue of the Maple Leaf are Sir Auckland Geddes, Vilhelm Steffansson the explorer, Col. J. S. Dennis of the C. P. R. and Lieut-Col. O. P. Brothers. There is also a paragraph about the Canadian Club of St. John, contributed by secretary Houmas.

RAW SUGAR DECLINES.
There is at least one cheering indication in regard to the sugar market. Raw sugar declined one cent in New York yesterday and the market was very heavy. This is a decline of seven cents from the highest point. Refined sugar, however, was never advanced to a parity with raws, nor has the Canadian market been as high as the American. The lifting of the embargo by the government at Ottawa on export to the states has jumped prices here, for in addition to a higher price the shippers got the benefit of the American exchange, which largely increases their profits and their desire to export sugar.

FATHER CARLETON HOME
Rev. C. P. Carleton, pastor of St. Joseph's church, Silver Falls, returned home yesterday from New York, where he underwent a serious operation. He is looking well although he has not as yet fully recovered from his illness. He was warmly welcomed by many friends.

The common council, in committee, yesterday morning heard the report of the trustees of the Tucker Park Fund, which was presented by Mayor Schofield.

The trustees of the Tucker Park Fund in acknowledging receipt of the resolution of the common council relating to the Tucker Park, desire in the first place to state, that they are not aware that Miss Caroline T. Tucker, as set forth in the preamble to such resolution, conveyed any land to the said city.

The late Colonel J. J. Tucker by his last will devised his farm premises in the Sandy Point road to the city for the purposes of a park to be called the "Tucker Park." Neither are the trustees aware that Miss Tucker as further set forth in such preamble conveyed to the said corporation municipal debentures to the amount of $10,000 or any other amount. If such was the case the trustees have no control thereof. Miss Tucker did transfer to the trustees as hereinafter set out certain securities, the interest of which is to be expended upon the Tucker Park. The trustees therefore feel that the common council are not within their rights in requesting the trustees to present a report of their stewardship in the terms of such resolution. The trustees, however, are perfectly willing to inform the citizens of St. John of the state of their accounts and will always be desirous of giving every information concerning the trust. They therefore take this means of rendering to the citizens an account of their stewardship. With this in view they enclose two copies hereof with the request that such be handed to the press upon this communication being read.

Miss Tucker's Gift.

In 1916 Miss Tucker, through her solicitors here, intimated that she desired to place $10,000 in debentures in the hands of trustees to hold the same and to expend the income thereof in the maintenance of the Tucker Park and asked the then mayor, now Commissioner Frink, the judge of the St. John county court and Lewden R. Ross, the executor of Colonel Tucker's will, to accept the trust, each of the first two named to cease to be a trustee on his ceasing to hold such office, but the successor in office from time to time to be appointed a new trustee by the remainder and in the event of Mr. Ross ceasing to be a trustee the remaining two to appoint one in his place. In accordance therewith a declaration of trust dated January 24, 1916, was executed by the three above named.

At a meeting of such trustees, all three being present, on February, 1916, Mr. Ross was appointed chairman and Judge Armstrong secretary-treasurer, and at such meeting Miss Tucker's solicitor handed to such trustees debentures which at their face value and accrued interest and the sum of $24,42 in cash amounted to $10,000, as set out below. Subsequently it was ascertained that these debentures were not of the saleable value of the sum stated, and on representation thereof made to Miss Tucker's solicitor a further sum of $1,025 was on July 25, 1916, paid to the trustees, the whole representing about $11,025 in value then, according to figures then given by a bond broker. The capital fund therefore may be said to have been $11,025 in cash and debentures at par but unfortunately among the debentures so handed over were two $200 sterling city of St. John debentures, four per cent, payable in London, England. The first half yearly coupons realized $95.55, less insurance on coupons $1 and British tax $12.16, the net being $82.39 or $164.78 a year, whereas the last half yearly coupons, owing to difference in exchange and British tax, realized only $88.55 or say $177.0 a year, a falling off of say $47.08 a year. This would be largely avoided if the city would cash these coupons here as they fall due, instead of remitting the money to England, thus saving the trust over $50 a year. This the trustees have suggested to the city but without avail.

The Securities.

All the debentures held by the trustees are in safety box No. 95 in the British Bank of North America branch of the Bank of Montreal, accessible to not less than two of the trustees present at the same time. The rest of this box has been paid by Mr. Ross.

All moneys of the trust are deposited forthwith on receipt in said bank to the credit of Savings Account No. 3367 in the name of the Tucker Park Trust and can be withdrawn only on the signatures of two of the trustees.

On Mr. Frink retiring from office, Mr. Hayes becoming mayor was appointed a trustee and on Mr. Hayes retiring the present mayor has been appointed a trustee.

The property is now rented to George W. Smith, who does some farming thereon, at $100 a year. No money beyond some slight repairs on the buildings has been spent on the property, the trustees considering it to be the wiser course to add income to capital until labor assumes a more normal condition.

The bonds and cash received on 3 February, 1916, were as follows:

Two city of St. John sterling debentures for 2500 each, 4 p.c., principal and interest payable in London, due 1934 with accrued interest.....	$ 4,983.92
Two St. John Alms House debentures, 3 1/2 p.c., due 1929, for $500 each and accrued interest.....	1,011.66
Eight St. John school debentures, $500 each, 4 p.c., due 1940.....	4,000.00
And cash.....	24.42
Total.....	$10,000.00
Subsequently augmented by the further sum as above of.....	1,025.00
	$11,025.00

The cash receipts from February 4, 1916, to June 30, 1920, including supplementary payments of $1,025, rents, interest, etc., totalled $3,486.96. During the same period payments, chiefly for investments, totalled $3,219.55, leaving $117.41 in the bank.

LUSCIOUS

ALL the lusciousness, flavour, delicacy that generous Nature imparts to the sugar cane—every bit of goodness in the cane juice is impressed for your enjoyment in luscious LANTIC Brown—if you get it fresh and moist!

Luscious LANTIC Brown—toothsome with the power, the stimulation of the tropical sunlight, and the glamour of the tropical atmosphere! The clever LANTIC refiners have preserved its health-giving properties for your enjoyment. So learn how to keep it luscious.

Like all delicate flavours or aromas, the natural LANTIC tang is most elusive; it lingers only as long as the moisture in the sugar. When LANTIC Brown dries out, its chiefest charm departs.

So keep it moist and fresh! Luscious!

LANTIC Brown must be kept in just the opposite way from LANTIC "Flow" Granulated (which should be stored in a warm dry place). Keep in a cellar or cool pantry. In a warm place, with a metal dish under the lid, LANTIC Brown will stay "luscious."

But all brown sugars are not LANTIC. If it isn't luscious when you get it, it isn't LANTIC Brown! Once you have caught the fragrance, you'll never mistake the sugar.

Send for luscious LANTIC Recipes. In cooking, the use of LANTIC Brown opens up a host of tempting menu possibilities that are as economical as they are delicious and wholesome. Send a 2c. stamp for LANTIC booklet, "Grandmother's Recipes."

BELGIAN PROTESTANT ORPHAN FUND.

In May, 1915, a little group of Montrealers, dreading that the terrible war conditions in Belgium would bring want, cold and starvation to the Protestant Orphanage at Brussels, decided to organize a campaign to interest the young people of the Presbyterian Sunday schools of Canada in the relief of those children.

Permission was given by the Presbyterian church authorities, provided the subscriptions should be closed one year after the signature of the peace. This anniversary coming to pass on June 27, the committee announce the closing of the "Belgian Protestant Orphan Fund" and beg that the Sunday schools which have not as yet sent in their last subscriptions, or those who would like to offer a parting good-bye gift, should address them without delay to our treasurer, J. H. Cayford, 60 Victoria square, Montreal, who would like, if he visits the Brussels Orphanage this fall to bring a love-offering with him, to meet the heavy expenses of repairs and refitting left over since the war.

The president of the orphanage committee, Rev. Kennedy Anet, D. D., has written these words in the Belgian Protestant Monthly: "The invasion of our country, the appalling advance of the enemy, the horrors committed by the German soldiers during those early months of the war were crushing blows, and for us, besides our anxiety for our own families, came a terrible sense of responsibility towards our orphans. With no patrons left, no money, no provisions, how were the dear children to be provided for? Suddenly a sum of $100 mysteriously reached us from an Amsterdam banker, and since then month by month, the heavenly manna never failed us, although no clue as to the origin of the miracle was revealed. At last, through Switzerland, we heard of the Canadian Sunday School Fund which, through Madam Charles Bieler, J. H. Cayford, J. T. Bost and other friends, had been the intermediary between the free, happy children of Canada and our war-torn little ones, bringing the bounty from overseas to meet the need of our orphanage.

Although our big orphaned family has during the fifty-one months of war-time been obliged to submit to countless restriction and privations it has never lacked its daily bread, nor any other necessity of life, thanks to the Heavenly Father's providence enacted through His Canadian children. We feel deeply grateful both to the inspirer and the workers of this wonderful intervention, and hope that every organizer and giver of the fund will hear of this most cordial and personal assurance of our heartfelt thankfulness.

The Belgian Protestant Orphan Fund of the Presbyterian Sunday Schools of Canada has collected during five years the sum of $6,122.03. Subscriptions came from every province and from the United States with Ontario and Quebec in the lead. The expenses have been only 9 per cent of the total.

WHERE WILL HALIFAX GET FUNDS IT NEEDS?

Has Embarked on Improvement Program Without Money.
(Cor. Financial Post)

Halifax.—The financial situation in Halifax, so far as city funds are concerned, are still in a decidedly unsettled state. To complete the street paving and improvement program which has been embarked upon will require the borrowing of a further sum of at least half a million dollars, but a strong section of the council opposes further borrowing this year.

On two occasions this summer, Mayor Parker has given his personal check to avoid trouble with the civic workers and because of lack of complete harmony with the finance committee. On the first occasion there were insufficient funds in the city treasury to pay the weekly wage bill for labor, and just as the banks were closing for the Saturday half holiday he gave his cheque for $1,700. He thought this was preferable to seeing a lot of men hanging round the city hall for wages not forthcoming. On the second occasion a contractor had failed to produce to the city auditor the proper vouchers for work done and the city treasurer would not in consequence advance the funds. The amount was $1,800. The mayor's check had to be forthcoming to avoid a disagreeable week-end situation and he gave it.

There is this week no change in the situation as to the Nova Scotia Tramsways and Power Company taking hold of its paying contracts so as to allow the rest of the work on certain streets to proceed. The required funds have not yet appeared.

An armored motor truck is to operate between St. Paul and Minneapolis for the conveyance of valued securities between banks in the two cities. The danger of hold-ups of messengers in making the trip makes such a step necessary.

FIRE PREVENTION ACTS IN FORCE IN SEVEN PROVINCES

Nova Scotia Has Just Appointed a Fire Marshal - Ontario the Model. (Financial Post). With the appointment of Major John M. Rutland to the post of provincial fire marshal for Nova Scotia, a seventh Canadian province has fallen in line for organized fire prevention. The appointment of the fire marshal in Nova Scotia followed the passing at the last session of the provincial legislature of a fire prevention act, which was almost a copy of the Ontario Fire Marshal's Act. In fact, the fire marshal's department in Nova Scotia will be modeled after the Ontario department, which is recognized as one of the most efficient state or provincial fire marshal's offices on the continent, and this week the chief of the fire department of the province of Ontario co-operate with Major Rutland in the organization of his department.

Ontario the First

Ontario was the first Canadian province to have a Fire Prevention Act and to appoint an active fire marshal. E. P. Heaton was appointed to the post four years ago and his department has done a great deal for the work of fire prevention in the province. The three prairie provinces have appointed fire marshals, set through the west the post is usually given to the superintendent of insurance. British Columbia and Prince Edward Island also have fire prevention laws, and only Quebec and New Brunswick have no active fire marshals. Quebec has a titular office of fire marshal, but the work of the official consists mainly of the annual allocation of a small government grant to municipalities for the purchase of fire fighting apparatus.

Fire Marshal's Duty

The duties and powers of the fire marshal vary somewhat in each province but in Ontario they are as follows: To see that municipalities pass fire prevention by-laws. To require local fire chiefs to enforce these by-laws. To disseminate information and advice on the subject of fire prevention. To examine premises suspected of being a menace to neighboring property. To order the removal of dangerous combustible material and to remedy conditions dangerous to safety. To keep records of all fires. To investigate fires of suspicious origin. To report to the crown attorney any suspicious facts.

of the last week show that considerable clover hay has been cut throughout the province. The hay crop has thickened up considerably, which will increase the yield. On the high-land it will be short.
Taking the province as a whole, it would seem that a reduction of twenty-five per cent from last year's crop could be given as a fair estimate. Two weeks ago an estimate of one-third less than last year was given, but recent rains have thickened the crop up wonderfully, although coming too late to give it much more length.

Grain crops are doing well and give promise of a very satisfactory yield.
Early reports of misuses in the potato crop in Carleton and Victoria counties are constantly being confirmed. These vary all the way from twenty-five per cent to as high as sixty per cent of the

A Giant in Being

If one had prophesied the growth of the Canadian pulp and paper industry, it might have been called an enthusiasm bred of folly—
the "idle fancy of an idle brain."
Yet those who sensed its possibilities have reaped a wonderful harvest from their investments in it—as the progress of Abitibi, Laurentide, Brompton, Klordon and Spanish
River has demonstrated.
Yet the industry is, if not in its infancy, scarcely beyond adolescence. Giant strides are still to be made and those who travel the new paths should profit almost as much as those who blazed the early trails.
If you would share in this growth and in the profits to be made, write now and we will advise you when, and in what, to invest. Address:

of the goods he offers and calls him a
"profiler" because he knows no better," says Mr. Porter. "The way to bring about a better understanding between the purchaser and the retailer is to show the former just what industrial economic and political questions are bound up in the securing of the goods whose prices make many mouths at the mouth.
Hence the Porter store goes in for displays that will train the people to the truths of modern industrial production—that the war destroyed markets, diverted capital, killed producers in many foreign lands and hit the flax, wool, leather, rubber and cotton markets with special severity."

Curiosity was the lure.
A big business has been done and the boat store has been a genuine success.
Its proprietors state that they have discovered the one way of getting business.

Explanations Take
Sling Out of High Prices
"Wah, daddy, look at the little lamb!
It is alive!"
Educational displays are the specialty of the H. H. Porter store, and its windows are always dressed with this point in view. So when the lamb father also came up to examine the display, which was calculated to make the average buyer realize just what processes the raw material goes through before it becomes the finished product.

The Porter store utilizes every opportunity to present its displays, showing the cotton process from the cotton plant, through the pickers' hands to the gin and then through the weaving to interest buyers in its cotton, and now is pushing hard the "more sheep and more wool" movement by displays which are made of virgin wool.

We believe that the average man thinks the dealer is making a mist out of it.

PRICE REVISIONS.
(Toronto Globe.)

Financial and business people, who are watching the trend in prices, have at least the satisfaction that no violent changes are taking place. The average consumer has benefited little as yet, after his long wait, but tables of statistics show gradual changes in some of the commodities. A Toronto wholesale dry goods dealer said yesterday that business was quiet in woollens and dress goods, though other lines continued active. Perhaps more significant was his statement that production is catching up with demand, and that now he can get speedy deliveries for his orders in almost all lines.

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, JULY 21, 1920

SHAMROCK WINS THE SECOND RACE

Sandy Hook, N.J., July 20.—Sir Thomas Lipton tonight was near reaching the confessed ambition of his life—lifting the America's Cup. Today his "Irish sweetheart," Shamrock IV, ran up a tally of two races to none against the cup defender, Resolute, winning in a neck and neck contest by two minutes and twenty-six seconds, corrected time, and needing but one more victory to bear the bottomless pewter mug back to England.

There were cheers on Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht Victoria when Shamrock IV swept first across the line today, but there was a hush when her crew worked feverishly to free a jib topsail that fouled within the first few seconds of the contest. This fouling permitted the Resolute to glide into the lead. For part of the first leg the Resolute kept to the fore, but when she hit a soft spot the Irish craft slipped again into first place, edging along until she was half a mile ahead. To the surprise of yachting experts, a fancy little straysail rigged on the challenger served her better than the Resolute's big bellower.

The spectator craft grouped at the first turn greeted the Shamrock with tooting whistles as she rounded 600 yards in the lead. Away on the second leg she sped, with the challenger catching every cat-paw and the Resolute rolling in the doldrums. Captain William Burton, who it was reported might be removed from the command of the Shamrock because of his showing in other races, was evidently making every effort to stage a comeback.

Te Resolute made a brave showing at the beginning of the third leg and picking up at the turn fought her way home under the guidance of Charles Francis Adams, Jr., disputing every second. But it was no use and by the time the Shamrock crossed the line it was certain that she had won by a safe though narrow margin.

The summary follows:

Start	Finish	Elapsed Cor'd
Shamrock	12:16.48	5:28.06 5:22.18 5:22.18
Resolute	12:16.26	5:48.11 5:21.45 5:24.46

Although the Shamrock won today, the Resolute's supporters insisted that fickle breezes had given the victory to the challenger. Neither boat, they averred, had had an actual test of her sailing capabilities in the present series. Shamrock IV, today—so argued the "pro-Resolute"—not only got most of the puffs of wind while the Resolute was drifting virtually becalmed, but had the good fortune to see the wind shift so that the Resolute's favorite windward leg was entirely eliminated from the race.

Shamrock IV, tore her balloon jib top-sail slightly on the home stretch, but otherwise both craft came through in fine shape and before being towed into the "horseshoe" of Sandy Hook, both hoisted the pennant that indicated their readiness to race tomorrow.

THE OLYMPIC BOXING FINALS

McAdam, of Halifax, Defeated by Harry Platt, Toronto, in One Minute of Fighting.

Toronto, July 20.—It is officially announced tonight that the following will comprise the Canadian Olympic boxing team which will represent Canada at Antwerp:

Flyweight (112 pounds), Harry Turner, Montreal A.A.A.

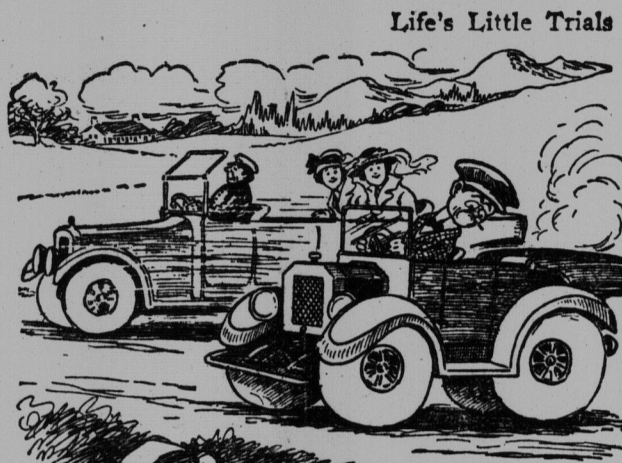

Featherweight (126 pounds), Walter Newton, Riverside Athletic Club, Toronto, and A. Rankine, Alberta.

Lightweight (135 pounds), Chris Newton, Riverside Athletic Club, Toronto.

Welterweight (147 pounds), Albert Schneider, Montreal.

Middleweight (160 pounds), Corporal Prudhomme, London (Ont.) and M. S. Herscovitch, Montreal.

Toronto, Ont., July 20.—The cream of Canada's boxing talent competed here tonight at the Olympic finals will not necessarily be chosen to go to Antwerp, a special committee having been chosen to decide this important question. However, it is understood that in most cases the winners of the finals will be selected if they are deemed to have a chance of making a good showing at the Olympiad. Toronto Athletic clubs won five of the final bouts tonight, the Riverside A. C. taking three and the Classic A. C. annexing two. Montreal had two winners and London (Ont.), one. The western centres failed to present a winner. The Newton brothers of the Riverside A. C. won in their respective classes.

Walter defeated A. Rankine, Edmonton (Alta.), in the 126 pound class and Chris Newton won from George Wittschen of the National A. A. Montreal, which was a plucky fight last night and undoubtedly the strain of the bouts in two nights proved too much for him.

Turner, of the Montreal A. A. A., was returned victor over George Blais, of the National A. A. Montreal, while McDonald, of Classes, found little difficulty in winning from Paul LeMay, Montreal, in the 118 pound class. Clifford Graham won from Percy Dubois, Ottawa, by a knock-out.

Albert Schneider, Montreal, was too good for V. Mckowan, also of Montreal, and won handily. Corporal Prudhomme, London, surprised the boxing followers by defeating Herscovitch, Montreal.

The Canada Boxing Olympic team will sail from Montreal on the Melita on Saturday.

In the 175 pounds light-heavyweight bout, Harry Platt, Classic A. C., Toronto, was awarded the decision over A. McAdam, St. Mary's Club, Halifax, after one minute of fighting. Platt opened a cut in McAdam's eye and the referee apparently thought that he was receiving too much punishment and awarded the decision to Platt. McAdam fought a plucky fight last night and undoubtedly the strain of the bouts in two nights proved too much for him.

THE EXHIBITION

A largely attended meeting of the executive of the St. John Exhibition Association was held last evening at headquarters in Prince William street, with E. J. Terry, the vice-president in the chair. Tenders for the tea room in the women's department of the big show were considered and the offer of the L. O. B. A. was accepted. It is understood that any profits the L. O. B. A. may obtain from the tea service will be donated to the Provincial Memorial Home for Children.

Tenders for the dining hall or restaurant service were also opened, but no action was taken other than to refer them to a committee which is to look into the qualifications of the various tenderers, as the executive realizes that service to the public is of the greatest importance in this regard.

A report was received from the building and grounds committee relative to the progress made. Another report was submitted by the committee on the exhibit of natural resources, which was able to announce that the provincial government is assisting materially in making this an important and effective feature of the exhibition.

As most of the members of the executive desired to attend a meeting of the Commercial Club, only matters of importance were considered and the meeting adjourned early.

BAPTISTS PLAN RECONSTRUCTION

A tentative plan for reconstructing the denominational work in the province was submitted at the meeting of the executive of the New Brunswick United Baptist Association in the parlors of the Germain Street Baptist Institute yesterday afternoon. The plan will be submitted to the association meeting which is to be held on September 22, at some place in the province to be named later. The moderator, Rev. N. A. MacNeill of Salisbury, was in the chair and others present were R. B. Wallace of Fredericton, secretary pro tem, R. J. Colpitts, D. C. Clark, James Patterson, Rev. S. S. Poole, St. John; F. L. Atherton, Woodstock; Rev. J. B. Ganong, Sussex, and Rev. Z. I. Fash of Fredericton.

Rev. S. S. Poole, as chairman of the committee, appointed at a previous meeting to prepare a tentative plan for the reconstruction of denominational work, submitted its report. The report recommended the establishment of four associational meetings in place of the present associational annual meeting, and it further recommended that for this purpose the province be divided into four districts as follows: The Eastern Association, to be composed of districts No. 8, 9 and 10, including Albert and Westmorland counties and the North Shore; the Northern Association to be composed of districts No. 1 and 2, including Victoria and Carleton counties and the Canterbury churches from district No. 8; the Central Association, to be composed of districts No. 3, 4 and 5, including the counties of York, Sunbury and Queens, and the Southern Association, to be composed of districts No. 6 and 7, including the counties of Charlotte, Kings and St. John.

A communication re the reading of the Bible in the public schools, received from Canon G. A. Kehrung, was read and was referred to the association with the recommendation that the action of the association at Maryville, in 1918, be upheld. At that meeting it was decided to decline to make any recommendation in the matter.

A committee to prepare a programme for the association was appointed with the following as members: Moderator, Rev. N. A. MacNeill, R. J. Colpitts, D. C. Clark and the secretary, Rev. S. S. Poole. Rev. S. S. Poole was appointed permanent secretary to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Rev. C. A. Beltra of Cross Creek, York county.

Dr. G. G. Melvin, chief medical health officer of the province, who was in the city yesterday, left for Moncton to attend the annual meeting of the New Brunswick Medical Society. From Moncton he will proceed to Bathurst to enquire further into the typhoid fever situation, where several deaths from the disease are occurring weekly.

Tomorrow Marks the Beginning of St. John's Greatest Mercantile Event Oak Hall's Annual Mid-Summer Sale

The Values offered at this sale this year are better and more numerous than ever before—and this is possible only through our great special purchases for cash at rock bottom prices as well as the drastic reductions made on our entire stock.

Although St. John has been full of "Sales" this season, yet the mere announcement of the commencing of Oak Hall's Great Annual Event, stirs up a feeling of anticipation among those thousands who know from past experience just what this event means to them. For those who don't know from past experience, we'll say that here's the greatest money-saving opportunity of the season, because—Large Volume at Minimum Profit is our motto—we do such an enormous volume at this time that we can afford to make each individual sale at a very narrow margin of profit, depending on the total turnover for final returns.

WE KNOW that all kinds of wearing apparel are from 10 p.c. to 25 p.c. higher in price for next fall, and yet, in spite of this fact we are following our usual custom of offering our entire stock at radical reductions on present day prices, meaning savings to you of 15 p.c. to 35 p.c. on wearing apparel for present needs and as an investment for future needs representing 25 p.c. to 50 p.c. savings. This is your real opportunity to save without sacrificing, and when you have the well known Oak Hall guarantee to back up every article you buy at such savings, you should not hesitate to take full advantage of it at the earliest moment.

EVERYBODY KNOWS that this is a bona-fide sale in every sense of the word—but let us emphasize one important point: The reductions are from original prices that were very low—they represent the lowest margin of profit on which this business ever operated; and that greatly increases the measure of value you get at these sale prices.
