LONDON WELCOMES THE CANADIANS

Lord Mayor Dines Queen's Own Rifles GREETING HEARTY

Toronto Employers Praised for Spirit Shown in Trip of Their Soldier Men to England—British Cadet Team May Tour the Empire

Times' Special Cable
London, Sept. 17.—When the Queen's Own Rifles reached London yesterday the Coldstream Guards Band played them through the streets and a guard of honor was furnished by the London Rifle Brigade.

Among the Canadians present at the dinner in the Guildhall were Hon. Mr. Lemieux, Lord Strathcona, Sir J. Whitney, Hamar Greenwood, J. G. Colmer and Williams Taylor.

After the usual loyal toasts at the Guildhall, the lord mayor proposed the Queen's Own Rifles, extending to the corps a hearty welcome to London. Their visit would be both useful and instructive. They were pioneers of a great national movement in joining hands with the mother country for protection of the common empire. The lord mayor congratulated Col. Pellatt on the honor conferred upon him by King George.

Col. Pellatt who received an ovation, thanked the lord mayor for the magnificent entertainment given the Queen's Own One object of their visit, said Col. Pellatt, was military education, another was to show exactly what could be counted on from Canada. He said he was glad to see hundreds of thousands eager and willing to respond to the first call. Col. Pellatt referred in the highest terms to the generosity of the employers of Toronto, granting employees leave to go to England in the regiment.

Hon. Mr. Lemieux thanked the lord mayor on behalf of the Dominion of Canada for the splendid reception given the Queen's Own Rifles, the first of the kind in the country and the crack corps of Canada. Sir J. Whitney, proposing the health of the lord mayor said, in referring to the Queen's Own Rifles, the French Canadians stood loyally by British institutions and the desire of the Canadian people was the permanence, perpetuity and continuance of British institutions in Canada.

The lord mayor and shortly after the luncheon were kept busy signing menu cards as souvenirs of the visit. The return march of the Queen's Own to the barracks through Chelsea was marked by quite as enthusiastic a reception as that of the morning.

The Daily Graphic says:—"Col. Pellatt told us yesterday that the employers of all men of the Queen's Own are paying their wages during this trip. Clearly there are some things they do better in the colonies. The Standard says the reception represents a very genuine feeling in which the whole nation unites. The Times says "It is because all Englishmen regard the Queen's Own as a component and valuable part of the 'imperial army' that they are so warmly welcomed. The zeal they have shown during the manoeuvres, their discipline and the soldierly qualities have made a deep impression."

The boy scouts cadets who have returned from Canada, speak warmly of their reception there. The Imperial Cadet Association proposes to extend the 1911 invitations to teams from all the British dominions. It is hoped to send a British cadet team around the Empire.

There were 265 bales of Danish bacon landed today. The market was firm owing to shortage, and closed quiet; Canadian was 73 to 78, Canadian hams firmly held at 88 to 90; lightweights, 75 to 77; Canadian cheese, quiet and firm at 53 to 55; Canadian butter 114 to 116.

Liverpool, Sept. 17.—The market for Liverpool cable today that in the Birkenhead market there was a reduction all round from 12 to 34 cent per pound. Although prices were lower the trade was brisker owing to the increased demand brought in by the reduction. Full quotations being States steers from 13 1/4 to 13 3/4 cents per pound, Canadians from 11 to 12 cents.

South Africa Elections
Johannesburg, Sept. 16.—The position of the parties in the elections now is: Nationalists, 52; Unionists, 36; Labor, 4; Independents, 10.
The report that Botha has resigned the premiership is not confirmed. For several minutes after the declaration of the poll General Botha was speechless and livid. Minister of Commerce Moor was also defeated.
The defeat of three ministers has caused consternation among the Nationalists. The result of the elections terminates a fear that the extremists will rule and has probably dealt a deathblow to Hertzogism. The Unionist majorities are large. Sixteen of the seventeen seats in Orange Free States have gone solidly. The Orange unit will probably refuse to support the government except on its own terms, each man being pledged to extend Hertzogism.

THE NEW HOME OF THE ST. JOHN KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Will Enter Into Occupancy On May First FINE PROPERTY

Hatheway House in Coburg Street Will Make Ideal Headquarters—Plans For Work That Will Add to Attractiveness as Council Home For Local K. C.'s

In connection with the purchase of the historic Hatheway property in Coburg street by the Knights of Columbus, recently, it is announced that after May 1st, the local council, already in possession, will enter into occupancy and that there are in view a number of plans to provide for the purposes of the organization.

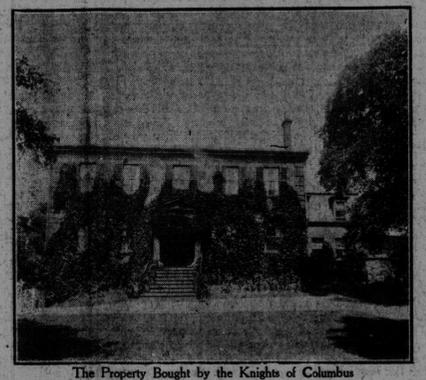

The house at present is occupied by Mrs. James B. Miller, whose term as lessee will not expire until May 1. A Times reporter was permitted by Mrs. Miller yesterday to make an inspection of the premises and he found it a very interesting place indeed. The house was built more than 100 years ago and is probably one of the oldest in the city. It is, however, in excellent repair, and in its location almost in the heart of the business district, yet in a fine residential section and with its spacious grounds at the side and rear, it stands almost in a class by itself, as a St. John dwelling. As a home for the Knights it could hardly be surpassed.

The commanding position of the house and its old colonial style of architecture mark it for more than a passing glance by visitors. Passing through the iron gate at the entrance to the grounds, one has first to climb a half dozen stone steps before reaching the broad walk leading to the front entrance to the house which faces toward Union street. Another short flight of stone steps brings the visitor to the doorway of the house which is a massive door of solid walnut fittingly ornamented with a big brass knocker, though there is also an electric bell at the side of which suggests more modern conditions.

On the first floor is a large reception hall with wide entrance, a large dining room on the right side, a kitchen on the left side, a bathroom and an unused room on the right side. At the rear of the hall is the entrance to the spacious dining room and to the right a winding stairway leads to the upper floor, while at the left of the stairway is the entry to the kitchen, which is situated in a separate building. The main part of the house are very roomy. They have recessed windows and French fireplaces and are fitted with crystal chandeliers and electric lights. The woodwork above the front entrance and around the arches is hand-carved and much of it is of old and rare woods.

The second floor contains four large bedrooms, a bathroom and an unused room. This floor would readily lend itself for conversion into a commodious council room and reception room. There is also a large basement and also an addition at the back of the main house, occupied at present by John Henderson, and not directly connected with the main house, which could be thrown open in such a way as to give several more rooms.

The grounds in front of the house extend from the street back to a barn, which is also included in the purchase, and at the side of the house, away from Coburg street, is a yard separated from the main house by a fence and a stone wall. This extends back to the extreme rear of the lot and offers a fine site for a bowling alley. Several other buildings are situated on the premises. (Continued on page 8; sixth column.)

PROMINENT FRENCH JOURNALIST DEAD

Gabriel Marchand, Editor of the Canada Francais Stricken With Heart Failure at St. Johns, Que.

St. John's, Que., Sept. 17.—(Special)—While sitting at his desk in his office, Gabriel Marchand, editor of the Canada Francais, and member of the Quebec legislature, was suddenly stricken with heart failure and died at his home a few moments later. The deceased gentleman was the only son of the late Hon. P. G. Marchand, at one time premier of Quebec. He was prominently known in French journalistic circles and was a great liberal worker, besides being a most talented speaker. Mrs. Dandurand, wife of Senator Dandurand is a sister. He was 50 years of age and leaves a wife and three children.

At this meeting it is believed an informal discussion will be had regarding the fisheries and several other principal industries of Newfoundland in which the United States is interested.

MARCH OF PROGRESS

Double Barrelled Railroad Tunnel Between Detroit and Windsor, Ont., Opened for Freight Service

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 17.—The establishment today of a regular freight service through the double barrelled Michigan Central railroad tunnel under the Detroit river between Detroit and Windsor, Ont., marked the beginning of the end of the road's car ferry, one of the picturesque Detroit marine features.

Yesterday several preliminary round trips were made through the tunnel by heavily loaded freight trains drawn by electric locomotives. Passenger services under the river will be inaugurated as soon as the engineers become conversant with the handling of the motors on the tunnel grades. The $16,000,000 tunnel work will be augmented by the complete electrification of the Detroit terminals.

WALL STREET CHATTER

Something About Oscar Hammerstein—Shop Girls in Opera—The Divorce Mill is Still Grinding—Chinese Theatre Gives Way to Mission House

(Times New York Correspondence)
New York, Sept. 16.—Standing at the end of "Peacock Alley," the fashionable promenade of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel the other day two men were discussing the depression in Wall street. Each offered an explanation for it and sought to account for the present day aversion to the Street among small investors. Said one: "The public has been trimmed several times too often and they have got wise to the crooked ways of Wall street and the gentlemen of predatory wealth who grow rich and arrogant there on the good faith of the credulous. The unprincipled methods they employ in depreciating the market value of stocks of genuine merit and in boosting the price of stocks they are exploiting which have no intrinsic value, has sickened and disgusted the public."

Said the other: "Stand here with me fifteen minutes and I'll give you a visual demonstration of one of the most powerful reasons why the investing public has cut away from Wall street and is now buying on its own judgment. Take a good look at the first fifty men who pass down this Alley and see if you recognize them. If you do, try and recall their records and see if you can not reconcile them with the loss of confidence suffered by the public in the integrity of your so-called 'high financiers.'"

Of the first fifty men who glided by nineteen have been indicted in the last three years for illegally exploiting the public through combinations in restraint of trade, embezzlement, conversion and other transgressions of the law. In the group were representatives of Standard Oil magnates of the copper, cotton and wheat pools which have boosted the market quotations of these commodities to fictitious prices for their personal enrichment and others who looted national and state banks that they might continue their gambling operations on a gigantic scale.

All were well-dressed, over-fed, prosperous-looking lot of men, who might have been decorated with the Legion of Honor instead of having been made the subject of a grand jury indictment, so far as any outward evidence of concern was apparent. As they strode by, half a hundred hats were doffed in salute by that picturesque group of near financiers who make the Waldorf-Astoria their strolling ground and look upon the great capitulation of finance as examples of a class worthy of their consideration.

Chief of Police Clark So Describes the Pictures—D. Mullin, K. C. and E. P. Raymond Acting for the Men Reported

As a sequel to the presentation in the Queen's Rink last evening of the pictures of the Johnson-Jeffries fight at Reno on July 4 last, a report made against E. J. Armstrong, manager of the rink, P. O. Hooley, announcer and ticket taker; Charles Denzinger, ticket taker; Thomas Daley, operator of the machines, and Roy U. Potts, ticket seller. Reported by Deputy F. W. Jenkins. Signed W. Walter Clark, chief of police.

Daniel Mullin, K. C., appeared for Messrs. Armstrong and Potts, while E. P. Raymond acted for Daley, Denzinger and Hooley.

A. A. Wilson, K. C., Rev. W. R. Robinson, Rev. A. A. Graham, Rev. W. P. Gault, and A. W. Robb, of the Y. M. C. A. were present for the Moral and Social Reform Council.

Deputy Chief Jenkins told of having been at the Queen's Rink last evening and seeing tickets sold at 25 and 50 cents each for admission to the place where moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight were being presented.

Chief Clark asked the deputy-chief if he had served a notice of cancellation of the license for the show on any person, but on the objection of Mr. Mullin, the question was ruled out.

The chief of police produced a letter from the mayor addressed to himself and offered it in evidence but Mr. Mullin objected and it was withdrawn. The witness said he had told Mr. Armstrong that the picture show was being conducted illegally, as there was no license for it, but it was continued. Five paper passes for admittance to the rink were accepted in evidence. They were signed by E. J. Armstrong.

In answer to Mr. Mullin the chief said that in his opinion the pictures shown were clean and respectable in fact it seemed to be a "shuffling match" than a prize fight. He saw several prominent citizens present, among them Ald. Potts and Baxter.

Referring to the letter of the mayor, cancelling the license, Mr. Mullin said he thought His Worship had "jumped before he reached the stile."

In order to get more witnesses the case was adjourned until Tuesday at 10 a. m.

Trask Cup Race for Motor Boats

At a meeting held in the R. K. Y. C. rooms, German street, last evening it was decided to hold the annual motor boat race in connection with the Trask Cup trophy next Tuesday afternoon at Millville.

The race will commence at 2:30 in the afternoon, and will cover a course of 10 miles.

The race is open to all competitors in the maritime provinces, and for that reason, all the best boats are entered.

H. J. Fleming is at present the possessor of the cup, having won it last year, and he expects to bid high to retain it for another season. About 25 boats in all are entered, two being from New Glasgow.

REPORT THAT TAFT MAY STEP ASIDE

To Make Way for Roosevelt's Candidature in 1912

SAID TO BE UNFOUNDED

President Willing to Offer Again if the American People Want Him and Endorse His Administration Would Not Nominate Himself

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 16.—The publication of a story in certain newspapers yesterday afternoon and this morning purporting to come from Beverly and announcing that President Taft had decided to step aside as a presidential candidate in 1912 to make way for Col. Theodore Roosevelt brought many inquiries to the summer capital today. For a time an official denial was considered but it was decided not to dignify the story, which is reported to have been without any foundation, whatever, with a statement.

It can be stated that there has been no change in President Taft's attitude toward a second term since he told a number of friends a few months ago that he would accept a second nomination if his party desired to tender it to him, and that that portion of the American people represented by his party seemed to want him.

Mr. Taft, it is pointed out, does not know how to play politics, and he has been quoted as saying that he would not do so if he could. The fact that he has often in his speeches referred to the fact that he is only the remainder of his present term to serve, means, it is stated, here, that Mr. Taft does not feel that he should nominate himself and that he will not make a political bid for the nomination.

At the end of his term, his party feels he has been true to his trust and has carried out his pledges, in so far as he possibly could, it is no doubt very gratifying to the president to have his administration endorsed. That he feels it is for the country and his party to decide not himself.

SWEETHEARTS OF LONG AGO, EACH BEREFT, WED

Widow and Widower, Who Court-ed in Love's Halcyon Days, Go to the Altar

New York, Sept. 17.—There was a wedding this week in St. Monica's Church, Jamaica, L. I., which marked an old romance. The principals became engaged years ago. Then they drifted apart through misunderstandings following all legged interception of letters by a relative of the young woman. Meantime each had married. Death left one a widow, the other a widower.

In the ceremony this week the bride was Mrs. Mamie Bennett and the bridegroom Harry S. O'Neill. O'Neill is a veterinary surgeon and special agent for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Brady. Mr. O'Neill said that eighteen years ago he and his bride were engaged to be married. She was then Mamie Abrams, and according to Mr. O'Neill, one of her relatives, who did not approve of the engagement, intercepted their letters and caused an estrangement, so that the engagement was broken off.

O'Neill was graduated from St. Francis Xavier's College, in Manhattan, and then studied to become a veterinary surgeon. He said that he sent Miss Abrams an invitation to attend the graduation exercises when he received his diploma, but that this also was intercepted and she never got it.

In 1900 O'Neill married Miss Genevieve Maher, of Brooklyn, who died eighteen months ago, leaving a girl of nine years and a boy of five years.

Miss Abrams in 1884 became the wife of Harry Bennett, who died in 1904, leaving her with a son of fourteen years and a daughter of eight years. Since the death of the first Mrs. O'Neill the widow and widower frequently met and the old love soon revived.

FELL THIRTY FEET; MAY NOT RECOVER

Thomas Nobles Seriously Injured by Fall From Painter's Staging This Morning

Thomas Nobles, while painting on the machine shop of Fred J. Williamson, Inglewood, this morning, was seized with a fit and fell from the staging to the ground, a distance of 30 feet, receiving injuries which may prove fatal. He was taken to the hospital in the ambulance.

Mr. Nobles, with his brother, was working on a staging when he was seen to sway, and fall to the ground, striking a heap of stones and narrowly missing a woman who was passing at the time.

He was carried into the machine shop, and every assistance possible rendered. He was badly cut around the head, and seemed to suffer great pain in his back. Word was quickly sent to the ambulance and the man was taken to the hospital, where he now lies in a critical condition.

Nobles is about 25 years of age and resides at 173 Adelaide street. He is a brother of George Nobles, Victoria street, and came to this city only last spring.

He is said to be subject to fits and is just recovering from an accident which he received under somewhat similar circumstances.

It is not known at the hospital whether he will recover or not.

This is the first photograph of King George's eldest son since he became Prince of Wales. He may tour Canada in 1911, touring the dominion from coast to coast.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

Mr. Cornfield O'Hoo occupied a front seat at the Queen's Rink last evening and looked about him with a degree of satisfaction and pride that could only be born of close contact with a high-life.

He looked and select audience of hand-picked citizens, inspired by a holy desire to uplift humanity.

Mr. O'Hoo informed the new reporter that every time Mr. Johnson gave Mr. Jeffries another punch he felt a thrill of ecstasy and wanted to shout for joy. It was sublime, it was soul inspiring. It gave him a new and nobler sense of the meaning and purpose of life. The longer he gazed, and the more giddy Mr. Jeffries became, the taster the tariffs followed each other. It was almost as exciting and exhilarating as a visit to the slaughter house on a killing day.

"I don't understand," said Mr. O'Hoo, "why some people take so little interest in prize-fighting. It is a noble art. Have you ever attempted to compute the number of beneficiaries of the human race the prize ring has given to the world? I expect to live to see the time when the churches will have a prize ring in front of the altar."

The Greatest Cure For Rheumatism In The World

For many years, I suffered from Rheumatism, and the attacks were very distressing and prevented me from doing my ordinary work. I tried many remedies and physicians' treatments, but nothing seemed to do me much good, and I was becoming very anxious to fear I would become a permanent cripple from the disease.

Such a statement could not be bought from a man like Mr. Mills. He thinks too much of his good name, to sell it or sign it to an untruth. Mr. Mills tried "Fruit-a-tives" after all other treatment failed—and "Fruit-a-tives" cured him of Rheumatism.

It is a case like Mr. Mills' that proves the marvellous powers of "Fruit-a-tives" in relieving and curing disease. It may be stated, without fear of contradiction, that "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit juices and is the greatest Rheumatism cure known to modern science.

FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE ADDRESS TO THE SOLDIERS

By Jacob M. Manning

SOLDIERS from the army and navy, once soldiers but now again citizens, we hail you today as our benefactors and deliverers. We welcome you home from the fatigues of the march, the wearisome camp, and the awful ecstasy of battle.

With a soldier's generosity you wish they could be shared with the hard-earned welcome. Possibly they are here from many a grave in the quiet of the night, and you are here from many a grave in the quiet of the night.

By fairly hands their keel is swung, By forms unseen their dirge is sung; To bless the turf that wraps their clay, And Freedom shall awhile repair.

AMONG THE FISHERS ON THE NORTH SHORE OF MASSACHUSETTS

(The Springfield Republican)

Many a vacationist along the beaches of the northern Massachusetts coast while away from his office or his school, has seen the fishermen on the north shore of Massachusetts.

The fisher folk of Gloucester have been so long before the public that many forget that there are other ports along our coast which have their stories to tell.

From the beaches, when the moonlight silvers the sea and nothing but the creak of the combers breaks the stillness of evening, an occasional interlude is heard.

Beyond is moored the fleet which varies even more than it does. And it is doing every day of the year, in the days when the blazing sun beats down on the rolling only seas and blisters the faces of the men in the pitching dories.

PRINCE OF WALES IS TO TOUR EMPIRE

It is Said He Will Begin By a Visit To Canada

AFTER CORONATION

British Army Horses to Calgary For Stock Purposes—Compulsory Service in Army—Tariff Reform and Other Topics of Interest in Old Country

(Times London Correspondence) The young prince will, it is reported, visit Wales, will of course, follow his father and grandfather in the grand tour of the empire, details of which are already being considered.

The Canadian Rifles at Aldershot are winning the admiration of their British colleagues for their grit and cleverness in the military manoeuvre. So far they have had a good time, notwithstanding the uneasy suspicion of some that the sun never shines for a whole day in England.

There is something of irony in the fact that following upon the Canadian demonstration at Aldershot, the Imperial Parliament in the coming session is to be asked to debate a motion by Lord Roberts, in favor of compulsory military service.

Lord Roberts will then have an opportunity of explaining his article which the Liberal press understand as a friendly warning rather than a condemnation.

The depression in trade and unemployment for a few years had spread discontent and a decrease to the extent of 17,000, and the number of unemployed to whom relief has been granted in the same period, show a decrease of 49 per cent.

The very elaborate preparations for the great Town Planning Congress and Exhibition are now complete, and the promoters expect that a great impetus will be given to improved inexpensive houses.

Among the chief features of the housing exhibition next month will be a model of the newly planned Prince Rupert City which should be an example to the rising towns of Canada.

The garden cities near London are offering prizes and are buying some of the prize houses. There seems to be a determined effort to make slums and congested town districts things of the past.

Manchester, which one of the worst built towns in England is being roused to join the town planning movement. Under the Town Planning Act a district outside the city, near Middleton comprising eight square miles is to be opened up and model residences built—some twelve to the acre.

Improving the Tower Eight-hundred in London will be interested to learn that it is contemplated to make improvements in the structure of the historic buildings of the Tower of London.

The main entrance it is expected will be made worthy of the finest fortress in Europe, the main houses now occupied as Wardens' quarters and soldiers' barracks and the public refreshment rooms will probably be removed and the White Tower and the armory and the regalia room will be converted into a London historic museum for which abundant material is waiting to be housed.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

DOES it ever occur to you when something very unpleasant happens that it isn't as bad as it were twice as bad. Among my friends I have one incurable optimist. From every unkind blow that fate deals him—and it has dealt him several very harsh ones—he recovers himself with a smile.

And it isn't by any means the silly grin of the cheerful idiot—who doesn't know enough to be down in the mouth, either. It is the rainbow smile of—the man worth while.

The man who can smile. When everything goes dead wrong.

In sheer amazement at his refusal to appear at least disconcerted, just after a knock-down blow that would have made most men go about looking like walking tombstones, I insisted one day that he explain himself, and he gave me that first sentence as the key to his optimism:

"What's the use of being a boy and anything I didn't like happen. I always tried to comfort myself with that."

"Isn't as bad as it were twice as bad."

"No matter what the trouble was—whether I broke my leg or one of my pet rabbits died, or it rained the day of the Sunday School picnic, or I didn't get the skates I wanted for Christmas, I'd always cheer myself up with that 'Isn't as bad as it were twice as bad.'"

"And I still do."

A funny little notion, isn't it? But isn't there a whole philosophy of life in it?

There are two points of view from which to look on life, and I am more and more coming to think that the question of happiness and unhappiness depends far more on which point of view you take than on the circumstances of your life.

Seems to me as if all the world might be divided into two classes—the people who dwell on the mountain top of—"Isn't as bad as it were twice as bad," and the people who dwell in the valley of—"It's never as good as it were better."

The people on the mountain are always looking compassionately down and seeing folks less fortunate than they.

The people in the valley are always looking enviously up and seeing folks who have much more than they.

The people on the mountain top have a way of always looking at the good things they possess.

The people in the valley never seem to see anything but the desirable things they lack.

There was an epigram in Life the other day to this effect: "The feminine pessimist worries because she is not as young as she once was; the optimist rejoices that she is not as old as she will be."

The first, you see, lived in the valley of "It's never as good as it were better," and the second lived in the valley of "Isn't as bad as it were twice as bad."

Of course they're both right. They both see things as they are.

The only difference is that the mountain dwellers are happy and the valley dwellers are not.

Which class do you belong to? Or as you apt, like me, to migrate from one to the other? If you are, why don't you do as I think I shall—have the motto of the mountain dwellers printed and hung where I can daily see it and daily be reminded into optimism by it: "Isn't as bad as it were twice as bad."

Daily Hints for the Cook

DELMONICO POTATOES. Reheat 2 cups of boiled potatoes in 1-4 cups white sauce. Put in a buttered baking dish, cover with buttered crumbs and 1-8 cup of grated milk cheese, arrange potatoes and cheese in alternate layers before covering with crumbs. Bake on ceiling grate until crumbs are brown.

RHUBARB CUSTARD. Stew about 1-2 pounds rhubarb and 1 cup of sugar. Make a soft custard of 1 plain milk, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup sugar and 1 tablespoon corn starch in a double boiler. Let both cook, then pour custard over the rhubarb. Rhubarb is much better stewed in double boiler, too, using no water.

ENGLISH APPLE PIE. Butter a shallow tart dish. Slice apples into dish to fill it. Sprinkle on one cup sugar, half teaspoon salt and a little grated nutmeg. Fill on two teaspoons butter in little bits; two tablespoons water and cover dish with pie paste in which has been cut several slits. Bake about forty minutes. Serve hot with cream.

PEACH CHUDDY. Three peaches and quartered, five large apples, one large onion (Spanish), one red pepper, one pound seeded raisins, one pound currants, two teaspoons of ginger, two teaspoons of cinnamon, half teaspoonful cloves, two teaspoons salt, two pounds sugar (light brown), one quart cider vinegar; boil one hour. Use firm peaches. Seal in jars. Chop onions, apples and pepper.

JOHNNIE'S DOUGHNUTS. 1-2 gills of sugar, 1 egg, pinch of salt, 2 heaping teaspoons cream of tartar, 1 heaping teaspoon soda, half a nutmeg, 1 cup of milk from the top of bottle without stirring. Stir until sugar is all dissolved. One quart of flour makes 30 doughnuts. Knead as little as possible.

AMBULANCE ASSOCIATION FOR PROVINCE

Decision to Organize Reached at Meeting Here—Gov. Tweedie Honorary President; Col. G. W. Jones President

Lieutenant-Governor Tweedie presided at a large and enthusiastic meeting in the board of trade rooms yesterday afternoon, at which it was decided to form a provincial branch of the St. John Ambulance Association. Col. G. Carlisle Jones, D. G. M. S. and Capt. R. J. Birdwhistle, of Ottawa, delivered interesting addresses, outlining the aims and objects of the association and the details of its organization. Following these several resolutions were introduced and carried unanimously. The meeting was representative of all ranks of the community. Medical men, clergymen, school teachers and members of the city council.

The objects of the association are: "1. The instruction of persons in rendering first aid in cases of accidents or sudden illness, and in the transport of sick and injured. 2. The instruction of persons in the elementary principles and practice of home nursing. 3. The instruction of persons in the principles of domestic hygiene and sanitation. 4. The carrying out of works of relief of suffering, of the sick and injured in time of peace and in time of war. 5. The organization of auxiliary voluntary aid centres to be utilized in time of war."

The membership in the Canadian branch shall consist of two classes, namely: Ordinary; (2) Life. (1) Any person may become an ordinary member on payment of an annual fee of $2 to be paid to the local or railway centre; (2) Life members are persons who pay a single subscription of $25 and upward to the local or railway centre; (b) Medical practitioners who have given four courses or lectures gratuitously; (c) honorary members elected by unanimous vote of the general council; (d) Persons who were at the date of the organization of the Canadian branch members of any recognized centre in Canada.

The first resolution was introduced by Dr. J. W. Daniel, M. P., seconded by Lieut. Col. Sturdee, and unanimously carried. It was as follows: "That this representative meeting of citizens of the Province of New Brunswick heartily endorse the aims and objects of the St. John Ambulance Association, and would strongly recommend that a provincial branch of this organization be formed, to more effectively carry out the principles of the organization in New Brunswick."

Mayor Frink moved, seconded by Jas. F. Robertson that a nominating committee of eight members be appointed to select officers for the provincial council. This was carried and the following were named members of the nominating committee: Mayor Frink, Lieut. Col. Sturdee, Dr. Murray MacLaren, James F. Robertson, William Downie, Hon. R. J. Ritchie, Dr. Thomas Walker and Dr. J. W. Daniel.

A resolution of thanks to the lieutenant-governor for presiding at the meeting, introduced by Mr. Downie, and seconded by Robert Thomson, was carried. It was as follows: "That the hearty thanks of this meeting be tendered to his honor, the lieutenant-governor, for his attendance today, and for the interest he has shown generally in the work of the St. John Ambulance Association."

The last resolution placed before the meeting was one thanking the officers and members of the board of trade for the use of the room, after which adjournment was made.

A meeting of the nominating committee was then held and the following selected: Patron—His Honor Lieut.-Governor Tweedie. President—Col. Geo. West Jones. Vice-president—D. Pottinger. Hon. secretary—Henry Harris. Hon. treasurer—E. M. Shadnor. Provincial council—Snowball, Clatham; Col. E. T. Sturdee, W. F. Ganong, St.

Tips

On Buying or Selling a Second-Hand Musical Instrument

Shakespeare knew human nature. He believed music was one of the most essential things in the make-up of a person. So it is. Teach your children to love it. Have it in your home. Buy a second-hand instrument and save money—for instance, a Photograph. Maybe you have some instrument that you are tired of. Trade or sell it. "Isn't it a treat to have salt that does not get damp and cake?"

Well, I suppose it would be a treat to those who used it for the first time.

But you see, Mother always had Windsor Salt at home, and naturally I use it now in my own home.

Windsor Salt never cakes or hardens, so I don't know anything about the kind that does.

I would not think of keeping house without Windsor Tablet Salt."

HOW THE EDITORS VIEW THE DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN MAINE

(Portland Argus)

The Republican party of Maine has gone to wreck. The turning of the people against it is not a revolt; it is a revolution. It is a revolution which all the forces of staidness and special interests throughout the country, will do well to take heed. It drives home the lesson of the revolution in the Fourteenth Massachusetts district. It means that this old-time stronghold of horrid protectionism, is a stronghold no longer. It means that even the course of the country, so long held back in its old-time Republicanism, is responding to the universal demand of the people for relief from protection graft, and tariff-borne high prices. The election of three Democratic congressmen from Maine, at this time is a national event of first class importance. It is significant of far-reaching consequences. It spells Republican disaster in the Congressional elections in November. It forecasts the loss to Republicans of several states and probably many United States senators. It is the brightest, most encouraging omen that the National Democracy has had in years, and its influence throughout the nation will be electric.

(Lewiston Journal)

Has Roosevelt been a candidate for president and had Roosevelt been voted for in this state on Monday, the ex-president, in our judgment would have received 90,000 plurality. What explanation is there for the Democratic victory in Maine on Monday, but the betrayal of campaign pledges and of platform promises by highly officious Republicans in office? Had Taft vetoed the Aldrich schedule, and had congress faithfully responded to downward revision, Maine on Monday would have gone Republican. Local issues did not defeat Governor Fernald, but the universal and reasonable indignation elicited by the mistakes of the extra session of congress, in which a majority of Republicans and a minority of Democrats united to promote a trust-builders' tariff.

(Washington Post)

The overturn in Maine was to an extent made possible by the efforts of the Republicans to vitiate the obsolete prohibition law. This policy was resolved upon five or six years ago, since when the old-time majorities have "divided" to the vanishing point. The means employed to stamp out the liquor traffic, produced widespread dissatisfaction in the towns,

HOLD BUGS MARQUIS AS A SHARPER

De la Ramee, Arrested at the Hague, Obtained Thousands by Swindling

IN INTERNATIONAL GANG

Took Name of Adopted Parents and, With Friends, Forged Patent of Nobility - People in Good Society Among Those Swindled

Berlin, Sept. 17.—The "Marquis de la Ramee" has been arrested at the Hague at the request of the German police. He is wanted here on charges of fraud, obtaining money by false pretences, using a fictitious title and practicing card-shipping.

When arrested the "Marquis" was living at a hotel with his wife and a number of servants. He attracted much attention from the other guests by frequenting the corridors and lounge in an ornate dressing gown. The police have discovered that his real name is Bela Klimm and that he is the son of a former lecturer at the Technical College at Budapest.

His father left him $20,000 when he was eighteen years old. He soon became involved with a notorious card sharper named Hauer, who used him as a decoy to attract wealthy victims in Continental cities. Hauer, after winning $7,500 from Klimm in one night, generously remitted the debt on condition that Klimm would join the gang and utilize his good appearance to enter society.

Forced Patent on Nobility

Hauer made a careful search for an extinct title and that of De Ramee was selected. The last member of the family having died more than a century ago.

Hauer discovered in Paris a man named Marie de Ramee, whose wife was the daughter of a shoemaker. This couple formerly adopted Klimm and authorized him to call himself Le Ramee. Hauer and Klimm, by bold forgeries, changed the legal documents certifying the adoption of the name Le Ramee into a patent of nobility, bearing the title Marquis de la Ramee. A second document was then forged, which made it appear that Klimm really was entitled to bear the title of Marquis.

This equipped Klimm found no difficulty in obtaining access to the best society circles in several Continental capitals. After becoming a conspicuous figure in Paris he settled money and obtained the entrée to the homes of leading families and exclusive clubs. Last Spring the "Marquis" finally married the late Berlin millionaire, and married her in London, despite the opposition of her widowed mother.

Bugus Widow Got $50,000

Instead of the huge dowry he expected, Klimm found that his bride had only $5,000, not enough to pay his tailor's bill. He got desperate in the end and named Margolin, one of a gang of international swindlers, who was arrested two years ago in St. Petersburg for debts and forgeries amounting to $200,000, came to his aid. Margolin got an obscure actress, wearing a thick veil, to the house of a well known money lender, where she pretended to be the widow of the late millionaire Hecht. She signed a mortgage on Herr Hecht's property and the money lender advanced her about $50,000, which Margolin and Klimm shared, leaving the country together.

A number of people in good society have been swindled by Margolin and the "Marquis." The latter's trial will be one of the celebrated cases of the year. Much sympathy is felt for the luckless Alice Hecht.

BIG INCREASE IN THE NUMBER OF CIGARETTES SMOKED IN CANADA

Ottawa, Sept. 16.—The customs and excise returns for the last fiscal year show one indication of an inflating tide of prosperity which will not be greeted with general enthusiasm.

The production of cigarette consumption in Canada for the fiscal year ended March last totalled no less than 460,711,001, an increase of a little over 100,000,000 cigarettes, as compared with the preceding year and representing an output of probably over $4,000,000 for "coffin nails," principally by boys and young men of Canada during the twelve months.

The comparative figures for the last three years are as follows:

1907-08—Domestic cigarettes manufactured, 384,890,344; entered through customs, 13,268,000; total, 398,158,344.

1908-09—Domestic cigarettes manufactured, 368,756,130; entered through customs, 11,238,690; total, 379,994,820.

1909-10—Domestic cigarettes manufactured, 457,603,138; entered through customs, 12,618,233; total, 470,221,371.

GOSSIP OF GOTHAM FOR THE TIMES

"Of the whole nineteen," said one of the men, "but a few have been brought to trial, and not one has been convicted through the offenses with which they have been charged have enabled them to fleech millions out of the public. Can you blame the public for giving Wall street a wide berth?"

Hammerstein

When he dies, Oscar Hammerstein, the grand opera impresario, says he wants to be buried to the strains of "The Meditation," the exquisite intermezzo from Massenet's beautiful opera. "Think," which he produced two years ago with Mary Garden in the title role. During the period it formed part of his repertoire, the manager headed every performance of the opera given in either his New York or Philadelphia opera houses. Seated in an old arm chair in the first scene opening from the footlights on the left of the stage, coatless and hatless, the grizzled old man felt a sense of spiritual exaltation as the "brilliant musical fabric that dazzled the multitude and entranced the esthetic."

The Hammerstein of today and that of eight months ago are two different men. The sale of all his grand opera interests to the Metropolitan Opera Company, by his sons while he was abroad, the impresario says has broken his heart. He is going to Europe the end of this month and will start at once to build a big opera house in London, where he intends presenting grand opera in opposition to Covent Garden on a scale he says that will make the production in that hallowed institution of music look like a side show. Covent Garden's season, opens in the spring, inverting the practice in this country where it starts in the fall.

In his new home Hammerstein is going to introduce the American custom. He says there is no reason why London should not patronize the opera at the period as well as in the spring. His agents abroad are now recruiting singers. It will be interesting to Americans to watch the development of his Yankee invasion of the English capital, with his aggressive method, his million dollar opera-house and progressive conception of how opera should be staged to be most effective.

Shop Girls in Opera

With a fund of $100,000 and the moral support of some of New York's most prominent society matrons behind it, the Municipal Opera Company of which Albert Mildenberg is the director and promoter will begin rehearsals soon.

In many respects this is unique, recruiting its forces exclusively from among the employes of the large department stores of the city. How many—if any—Geraldine Farrar's this company, which is at the vanguard of development of the company quite a number have said to be unusually gifted and to hold out the promise of a brilliant future.

Under the direction of Mr. Mildenberg all applicants who qualify are trained in voice culture free of charge. When they have become sufficiently proficient in their art, they are given part suits to their ability, in public presentations of La Boheme, Cavalleria, and other standard opera, produced at one of the local theatres, at fixed periods during the season.

The Metropolitan Opera Company has maintained a school very similar to this for some years, but its activities have been so restricted, and circumscribed that many deserving young women have been unable to participate in its advantages. Geraldine Farrar and a number of other well-known opera singers have been products of this school. Mr. Mildenberg's organization is on a much broader scale, and it is expected will fill a much more helpful and useful need in the musical world.

Chinese Theatre Goes

Chinatown's long-time famous theatre in Doyer street is going the way of other landmarks in New York. This time it is not to make room for a skyscraper, but in its present capacity, will serve as a mission to convert the Heathen Chinese, and other habits of the oriental underworld. It will be placed in commission as soon as the health board has explored and cleaned the bowels of mystery, extending three stories below the ground, which it is suspected contains the bleaching "bones of many a naughty Tom," who was "sub-tracked" down below as soon as the "old-time" theatre was found out that he would not be good.

The old building has been leased for a period of two years by J. J. Noonan, superintendent of the Rescue society. The aback, which has been the scene of so many big theatrical stunts, a la John Chinaman and which has been visited by the "rubber-necks" for years, is said to be in a condition that might suggest a disease brought about by the proximity of the former actors used to sleep and cook in the foul-smelling precincts down below the ground.

In place of the little celestial orchestra that used to scrape out weird tunes upon one string, there will be a hundred voices of mission people ringing out songs of joy and inviting the way-faring to come to God.

Father Morriscy's Liniment Relieves Pain

Aches and pains yield quickly to Father Morriscy's Liniment. It is absorbed quickly by the skin, and penetrates deep into the tissues, making it splendid for sore muscles, stiff joints, rheumatic pains, backache, sore throat or any deep-seated pain.

It eases a burn and heals surface hurts, such as cuts, bruises, burns, and frost-bites.

For toothache and earache it is an excellent remedy.

Father Morriscy's Liniment is exceptionally good as a "rub" for athletes. It takes out stiffness and soreness after severe exertion, and never blisters the skin.

Keep a little handy, for

"There's ease in every drop."

CANADIANS DECORATED BY KING GEORGE

Major Robert Rennie Lt. Col. P. L. Mason Col. Serg. MacDonald

At Balmoral this week King George decorated Col. Pellitt and Lt. Col. P. L. Mason, with the R. V. O., of the third class; Major Robert Rennie with the R. V. O., fourth class and Col. Serg. MacDonald with silver medal of the Victoria Order.

giving the name of that particular section, whether it belonged to Montreal, Quebec or one of the other provinces or to the United States, which was quite easy for an onlooker to distinguish one section from the other.

Now, the most interesting part of the parade is coming—coming very slowly, that part of it which the hundreds of thousands have been waiting to behold. It is the Holy Eucharist. Immediately pasted on the parade is the band of the Victoria Order.

There are a large number of them, too, all in their uniform of grey and red to the Sixty-Fifth regiment, the only military organization in the whole procession.

As it passed over the top of the hill out of view the great Eucharistic congress that had been assembled in Montreal came to an end, leaving its work to be carried on hereafter.

Whether or not this Eucharistic congress will have any effect on the other religious bodies, especially those in Montreal, remains to be seen.

One evening the mother of the boy who was the leading spirit in the movement, asked: "What are you going to buy for your teacher?"

"I'm not quite sure," replied the small boy, "but we saw something in the window today that we thought we'd like. It was a pillow, all made of white flowers, and right in the middle in purple flowers, it said, 'At Last'."

Liquor sets up inflammation and irritation of the stomach and weakens the nerves. The steady or periodical (spree) drinker is often forced to drink even when he has no desire to do so.

Thousands of Canadian homes have been saved from misery and disgrace by some devoted wife, mother, daughter through this wonderful Canada remedy.

"I can't repay you for your remedy. It's worth more than all the money I have, but I'll try to do it for you. My husband has been cured by your remedy several times, but I don't touch it. He said it had no effect on him now. May God's choicest blessings rest on you, and may your prayers ever be answered."

Now, if you know of any family needing this remedy, tell them about it. You have a friend or relative who has formed or is forming the right habit, help him or her. It's a noble thing to do. Physicians and Hospitals.

A FREE TRIAL PACKAGE of Samarra Prescription, with booklet, giving full particulars, testimonials, price, etc., will be sent absolutely free and postpaid in plain sealed package to anyone asking for it at mentioning this paper.

The procession part of the parade consisted principally of the different church organizations and societies with their organs, choirs and bands, the choir chanting and bands playing the accompaniments.

In front of each section a banner was carried, giving the name of that particular section, whether it belonged to Montreal, Quebec or one of the other provinces or to the United States, which was quite easy for an onlooker to distinguish one section from the other.

EXPULSION THE PENALTY FOR BOYS CAUGHT SMOKING

(Montreal Star.)

Boys who are caught smoking in any of the schools under the control of the Protestant School Commissioners will be immediately expelled.

It was decided to issue bonds amounting to $330,000 to meet expenses in connection with the building of new schools.

There is a grand total of 13,681 pupils attending the Protestant schools this year, according to the statistics which Superintendent Silver has prepared.

House Burned Down

On Monday at noon, Albert Walker's house on the Roxbury road was burned down.

Mr. Walker was in St. John at the time, and his wife and children were at home when the fire broke out.

The building was insured. At the time of the fire the building was blowing a gale and the wind was blowing from the west.

Mr. Walker is arranging to erect a temporary structure on the property.—Sussex Record.

THE MAGAZINES

THE CANADIAN HOME JOURNAL

The growth of the Canadian Home Journal has been an example, not only of material progress but of steadily increasing quality until it compares favorably with any woman's magazine in America.

With September number the size has been greatly increased and the magazine starts the sixth year of its existence much larger than ever before.

September is a wide range of choice in women's, girls' and children's clothes. The housekeepers' departments are excellent with recipes, suggestions for different departments of the household and for the dressing table.

"Jeane Of The Marshes," the serial, is one of Oppenheim's best novels. One of the September issues contains one of the most interesting and valuable contributions at least from a Maritime writer, the story by L. M. Montague, which is a continuation of "Princess of the Island."

There is a grand total of 13,681 pupils attending the Protestant schools this year, according to the statistics which Superintendent Silver has prepared.

THE TRAIL MAGAZINE

Regina as a literary center would not have been thought of, not many years ago. Yet there comes to us from this city the Trail Magazine, a handsomely illustrated monthly that deserves to be ranked among the interesting and valuable publications of Canada.

The September issue contains one of the most interesting and valuable contributions at least from a Maritime writer, the story by L. M. Montague, which is a continuation of "Princess of the Island."

SEPTEMBER BIRD AND GUN

The September number of "The Athletic World" magazine has just reached this office. It is up-to-date sport stronger than the August issue, which created such a favorable impression as a Canadian athletic and outdoor periodical, covering all branches of sport in Canada with a liberal number of sport happenings over the world generally.

One evening the mother of the boy who was the leading spirit in the movement, asked: "What are you going to buy for your teacher?"

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Gardiner, Maine.—"I have been a great sufferer from organic troubles, weakness, I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I was entirely cured after three months' use of it."

No woman should submit to a surgical operation for a cure of her troubles, until she has tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a fair trial.

This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and purgative for the female organism. It is a remedy in almost every case and town in the United States. Bear witness to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ill and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial. Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

A PLEASANT VACATION

Francis I. McCafferty, city editor of the Times, left this morning on the I. C. R. for a well-earned vacation trip to western Canada. He was accompanied by Mrs. McCafferty and their two children, Montreal and Toronto, and then proceeded to Saskatchewan to visit Mr. McCafferty's brother, Farnell, who has been located there for some years. They will be away about three weeks and will return via New York and Boston. Yesterday afternoon the staff in the composing room of the Times presented to Mr. McCafferty, a box of cigars wrapped in a silk flag and an address, wishing him a pleasant journey and a safe return.

$50 FOR FIREMEN

The following letter is self explanatory: St. John, N. B., September 16th, 1910.
John Kerr, Esq.,
Chief Fire Department, City:
Dear Sir—We appreciate the active and effective work of your department in saving the Vulcan Iron Foundry from total destruction on Tuesday night.
Kindly accept the enclosed check for $50.00 for the benefit of your department.
Yours, etc.
T. McAVITY & SONS.
The chief has returned thanks on behalf of the Firemen's Relief Association.

PERSONALS

Chief Kerr is leaving tonight for Lowell, Mass., where he will attend a meeting of the fire chiefs of Massachusetts.
Mrs. Charles Jones, of 80 City Road, will leave this evening on the steamer Governor Dingley for Boston. She will be accompanied on her trip by her son, Earle, of A. S. Hart's.
J. D. McKenna, proprietor of the Sussex Record, was in the city yesterday.
W. A. Duff, of the Transcontinental Railway department, Ottawa, arrived in the city last evening.
James J. Kelly, of Belfast, Ireland, is spending a few days with Samuel Aude at the latter's summer residence, Spruce Lake.

Marriage at Millstream

Millstream, Kings county, N. B., Sept. 15—An interesting event took place on Wednesday afternoon in the Methodist church here, when Miss Nettie Fenwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fenwick was united in marriage to Rev. Herbert F. Ball, of Monticello, Me. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Kirby. The bride was attended by two sisters, Mrs. Wright and Miss Blanche Fenwick and the groom was supported by Mr. Greig. The bride was gowned in white muslin with veil and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.
After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride and supper was served. Rev. Mr. Ball and Mrs. Ball then drove to Apohaqui where they boarded the Halifax express and went to St. John, enroute to Monticello where Mr. Ball is in charge of the Methodist church. Among the guests were Wilfrid Fenwick, of St. John and Mrs. George Douglas Fenwick, of New York.

Pressure of advertising on the columns of The Times-Star makes it necessary for business men to have copy in this office the evening before or very early on day of issue.

ST. JOHN ATHLETE WINS IN CALGARY

C. R. Merritt Capture Prizes in Calgary Sports and Nearly Equalled a Record

That St. John athlete can hold his own and even better abroad is instanced by the fine showing made by Cecil B. Merritt formerly of this city but now of Calgary, Alberta, in the Labor Day sports under the auspices of the Trades and Labor Council and Y. M. C. A., of that thriving city. Previous to going west a few years ago he was prominent in amateur athletics and did not come to the Algonquin Athletic Club of which he was a member, and then gave promise of a bright future on the track and in field events.

Not only did Mr. Merritt carry off a large share of the honors in the Calgary meet but previously had been successful in the Alberta championships which were held at Lethbridge, on Dominion Day, winning the 440 and capturing third place in the 220 and 100 dash.

At the Calgary Labor Day sports he was the runner head in the 100 yard dash, coming within a few inches of the Alberta record and won the 220 and 440. He lost the 100 yards dash to E. McLean by three yards. The Morning Albertan, of Calgary in its account of the sports says:

"The 100 yards went to E. McLean, while three yards behind him was C. R. Merritt. The time was very good considering that the conditions were not favoring the runners any. The 220 yards and 440 yards were easy for Merritt. McLean, through some misunderstanding was not entered in these events. C. R. Merritt added another to his list in the running broad jump. He covered 18 feet 9 inches which is only a trifle short of the Alberta record."
The following from the programme shows that Mr. Merritt also did well in other events in which he was entered. In all he carried off prizes to the value of $289.00 made up as follows: Running broad jump, 1st, medal valued at $7.50, 2nd, 1st valued at $10; 440 yards, 1st, medal valued at $15 and second place medal in the 100 yards dash, valued at $7.
220 Yards—1, C. R. Merritt; 2, H. B. Murray, Time 23 1/2 seconds.
440 Yards—1, C. R. Merritt; 2, S. J. Phillips, Time 56 seconds.
In a letter to a friend in St. John, he says, referring to the events in the Alberta championships at Lethbridge, "These events I ran faster than ever did before and the track was poor. It must be the difference in the air out here as I can compete much better than I did not seem to but me as it did in St. John."

BRUNDAGE FUND NOW

AMOUNTS TO $230.99
Substantial Sum Raised at Exhibition Grounds for Mother of Harry Brundage

There has been a fairly generous response to the appeal for assistance made on behalf of the mother of young Harry Brundage, who was fatally shot and killed on the exhibition grounds, on Thursday, September 8. The fund now amounts to about $230.99 which is made up as follows:
Collected by M. J. Keith, on the Pike $111.00
Collected in boxes on exhibition grounds 92.74
Collected from Commercial travellers, 100.00
Total $230.99
These amounts have been handed over to the law firm of MacEae, Sinclair & MacEae, who will turn the fund over to the family of Mrs. Joseph Brundage.
In addition to the cash donations listed there was a donation of two tons of coal from the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Co., and several individual donations, made direct to the family.

BOWLING IN ST. JOHN

Black's Alleys Re-opened After Being Made Anew—League Play Next Month

With the coming of the fall, and cool weather the thoughts of many of the sporting fraternity turn toward bowling, and this is especially so this year, indications promising that a banner year in bowling in this city may be looked for. Several of the alleys of the city are now in full swing, the latest to open being those of Messrs. Black, Main street, which have been greatly improved, and now appear better than ever. The alleys have been newly surfaced and their appearance is like polished glass.
The interior has been changed to be in keeping with the splendid appearance of the alleys, and the painter's brush has wrought many pleasing alterations in the coloring of the walls and ceiling. It is expected that about the early part of next month will see league play begin, and that there will be two leagues again this year, the Commercial, and the City league.

FEARED ACCIDENT

WILL RESULT FATALLY

A shocking accident occurred in Stevens mill at Highfield, N. B., on Tuesday afternoon, when Melvin Parks was thrown on the big saw and his left arm was completely severed and his left leg and leg very badly cut. He was carried to his boarding place at T. E. A. Pearson's and made as comfortable as possible till the arrival of Dr. Hebrington and Dr. Fraser. The doctors hold out no hope for his recovery.
He is nineteen years old and is the oldest son of Wallace Parks, of St. Martins, and nephew of Mrs. Jas. Sprout of Highfield. The affair has cast a gloom over the neighborhood, where the young man is a general favorite. Mr. and Mrs. Parks arrived from St. Martins on Wednesday morning.

To Ponder Over

To the Editor of the Times Star:
Sir—Someone has coined this phrase, possibly from his own experience: "Clients and patients generally have to suffer the costs, (as victims), for the professional blunders made by the physicians and all-round fakirs on their behalf."
Think this over seriously, whether this is correct or not.
Yours,
PAVING.
