THE BEAVER CAN WORK NOW ONLY AT LOW WATER

Most of the High Water Dredging in Sand Point Basin is Done—Delegation Will Go to Ottawa Tonight to Ask for the Shift

The dredge Beaver, engaged in dredging Sand Point basin, has now completed all the high water dredging and has yet to do a strip running along almost the whole length near the Sand Point wharves, a stretch of about 300 feet in the centre of the basin and a section near Union street, practically all of which is to be carried on at low water.

There is still a great deal to be done on the site of the Clarke and Adams wharf. Efforts are now being made in view of the present circumstances to have the Beaver put on the Clarke and Adams site for the purpose of assisting the Eugene and rushing matters so that the basin may be opened as early as possible. None of the sites for the Clarke and Adams wharf are yet quite ready, although it is claimed that some of the crib work is sufficiently completed for staking.

Although it is realized that if the Beaver were put with the Eugene greater progress would be made on the Clarke and Adams wharf, the Star has talked with a number of citizens who feel that there are reasons why this should not be done. They fail to understand how it is that the Beaver is not in such a position to meet the men's work a day it is possible, for in most dredging contracts work is carried on so that high and low water cuttings are run together, and there is always work no matter what the state of the tide may be.

It is understood that Dr. Pugsley and John E. Moore will go to Ottawa, probably this evening, but at any rate some time in the next few days. The minister of public works and impress upon him the necessity of permitting the Beaver to do this other work. The Sand Point basin contract is at 50 cents per yard, while the Clarke and Adams wharf is at 90 cents per yard. The basin is now down to a depth of twelve or fourteen feet at low water, and to thirty feet in a stretch nearest the channel.

Dr. Pugsley, when seen about the mission to Ottawa by the Star, said they would interview the public works department in reference to continuing the dredging at Sand Point.

The boulder which was taken up by the Beaver on Friday, and which broke the mouth piece of the dredge bucket, measures 18 feet in length, 8 feet high, and 9 1/2 feet thick. It is the second largest ever brought up. The boulder will be broken up today.

Mr. Fife will remain in this country for three weeks. His purpose in coming here is to attend the races for the Canada's cup which will be sailed the middle of August in Lake Ontario, off Port Charlotte, N. Y.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 22.—The note sent to the Porte by Mr. Leishman, the American ambassador, regarding the explosion of a bomb in front of the U. S. Embassy at Thessalonica on the night of July 2, has brought a reply from Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish foreign minister. The minister assures Mr. Leishman that measures will be taken to cover and punish the guilty persons who have been inaugurated and steps to prevent the recurrence of such an outrage have been taken.

ANOTHER VICTIM BRINGS DEATH LIST TO THIRTY TWO

DETROIT, Mich., July 22.—Banner Hughes, aged 74, of Iowa, Mich., one of the injured in the St. Mary's wreck at Caledon, Mich., Saturday, died late Sunday night at St. Mary's Hospital, bringing the total number of dead up to 32.

EMPRESS GOT SCARED AND LEFT THE CAR

William's Wife Felt Safe in a Carriage Knowing the Horse Would Not Explode

BERLIN, July 22.—The empress who is noted for her pluck on horseback apparently is not so courageous when in an automobile. She intended to visit Koenigsberg Saturday in her touring car and was within three miles of her destination when loud and repeated explosions in the motor led her to believe that her life was in danger. Assurances by her chauffeur that there was not the least danger, was of no avail and no other vehicle being available the empress proceeded in a wagon to the railway station nearby.

SEVERAL DROWNED BY BREAKING OF A BRIDGE

A Score of Men Thrown Into the Water—Majority Were Rescued But Several are Still Missing.

LORANNE, C. July 22.—A score of men were precipitated into the river here this morning and several drowned, a bridge crashing beneath them. Two bodies have been taken from the water. Another is known positively to be in the river and several more are missing. It is probable that they were also lost.

The men were employed in the shipyards. They used Nichol Plate Railroad bridge to cross the railroad to their work. This morning the pontoon of the foot bridge was open to permit a vessel to pass. The men were leaning against a railing waiting for the bridge to be closed when the rail broke and about 20 fell into the water.

PROF. ROBERTSON SPEAKS ON EDUCATION

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., July 22.—Dr. J. W. Robertson, C. M. G., principal of the MacDonald College, addressed a meeting here on Saturday evening on "Education for Improvement of Rural Conditions." After dwelling on the essentials of the ideal rural school, where manual training, nature study and domestic science are taught, and which stand for intelligence, ability and good will, he spoke of the work of the MacDonald College, which is the permanent headquarters for the better education for the improvement of rural conditions. He made a powerful appeal for increased salaries for teachers.

Tomorrow Dr. Robertson will leave on his return to the mainland.

MANCHURIA IS BEING OPENED TO COMMERCE

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.—The custom houses at Antung and Tatung on the Chinese Korean frontier were opened today. The Japanese leased territory on Liao Tung peninsula is in operation, the latter since July 1, cablegram has been received from the American legation at Peking informing the department of state that Chinese imperial maritime customs houses are about to be opened on the Chinese-Russian frontier. The state department feels that these practical steps towards the restoration of the "open door" in Manchuria, in which the United States is so deeply interested, should be encouraging and gratifying to American merchants.

IS SWIMMING ACROSS THE ENGLISH CHANNEL

DOVER, England, July 22.—Jabez Wolfe, the amateur swimmer of London, inaugurated the Channel swimming season this morning. He entered the sea at the south foreland at half-past ten o'clock and struck out for France. Wolfe swam to within five miles of Cape Grise, France, 1906. At this point he sprained a tendon and was forced to give up the effort.

DIED FROM INJURIES.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Miss Helen Madison, who was injured in a collision between an automobile and a Long Island train at St. Albans last night, where her fiancée, Dr. Edward J. Gallagher, was killed, died early today in the hospital.

FIVE HUNDRED WERE KILLED IN MINE EXPLOSION

Terrible Disaster in a Colliery in Japan—Nearly Everyone in the Mine Met Death.

TOKIO, July 22.—There was a Fatal Explosion last Sunday in a Colliery, at Toyooka, in Bungo Province. It is reported that nearly all of the 500 Miners were Killed.

ONE HUNDRED LIVES LOST IN A STEAMER COLLISION

The Columbia Sunk by the San Pedro on the Pacific Coast on Saturday Night

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—News has just been received here that the Steamer Columbia and San Pedro were in Collision off Shelter Cove, Mendocino County, at Midnight on Saturday Night.

The Columbia was Sunk and One Hundred Lives Were Lost.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—More than one hundred lives were lost Saturday night when the steamer Columbia bound north from the city for Portland, collided with the lumber steamer San Pedro, off Shelter Cove, Mendocino County. Eighty other persons who were on the Columbia were rescued after being in the water several hours. There was a heavy fog at the time and the San Pedro heavily laden with lumber struck the Columbia on the port bow with such terrific force that she was cut down to the water's edge and sank in about five minutes. Of the 180 passengers many succeeded in reaching the San Pedro, many others remaining afloat. Only eighty of them remained, however, when after many hours, the steamer Roanoke came to their rescue. The captain of the Columbia went down with his vessel. The San Pedro was picked up by the steamer George W. Elder and is now being towed into Eureka.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The only steamer named Columbia listed in shipping registers as sailing from a Pacific coast port is owned by the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Co. and hails from Portland, Ore. She is 210 feet long, registers 1,746 tons and was built in Chester, Pa., in 1880. The San Pedro hail from San Francisco and is 183 feet long, registers 659 tons and was built in 1899 at Aberdeen, Washington.

HAS PHOTOGRAPHED THE CANALS ON MARS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 22.—Prof. Percival Lowell, director of the Lowell Observatory has sent a despatch to the Harvard Observatory in which he says: "Martian double canal photographed by Lampland and also by me."

WHICH WILL HE SERVE FIRST.

HAMBURG, July 22.—A murderer who was tried at Hamburg yesterday was convicted and sentenced to hard labor for life. He was tried subsequently for another offense and sentenced to eighteen months' hard labor. The prison officials have not decided yet which sentence he shall serve first.

FIRST RHINE STEAMBOAT.

The first steamboat on the Rhine was made in 1816. The boat failed to reach its destination, Frankfurt, because of insufficient supply of fuel. It belonged to an English company, which applied to the government for a monopoly of Rhine navigation.

TANGIER, July 22.—The bandit Raisuli has forbidden Caid Sir Harry MacLean to write to the outside world, fearing that if this privilege is continued the Caid will disclose Raisuli's retreat.

PREMIER ROBINSON IS IN THE CITY TODAY.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 22.—The military balloon, which ascended from the Aeronautic Park at Tzarevskoe Lake last Friday manned by four army officers, has been picked up at sea in a water-logged condition. It is believed that the aeronauts perished.

BUMPED ON THE HEAD WITH A CAST IRON CIGAR CUTTER

Man Who Said Money Was Stolen from Him in Shoe Shining Shop Got Into a Fight—A Big Bunch of Prisoners Today

NEW YORK, July 22.—A letter has just been received at the headquarters of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church from one of the medical missionaries of the board now in China, describing the conditions around Canton.

According to Dr. J. W. Swan, the writer, only a leader is necessary for a widespread rebellion in that part of China. He says that certainly before 15 months have passed a decided change in the government may be expected and that whether it will be accomplished by force of arms is not as yet to be determined.

IRISH AFFAIRS.

DUBLIN, July 22.—The Sinn Fein Society evidently is preparing for a trial of strength against the Irish Nationalist Party in the pending miniature Irish general election. The resignation of Edward Blake, Irish Nationalist for the south division of Longford, makes the fourth vacancy, and if the Nationalists challenge Sir Thos. Henry Gratton Edmonds and contest in North Wexford five seats will be vacated. Sir Thomas has declared himself flatly as a Sinn Fein. At a big Sinn Fein demonstration held by his constituency at Ennisceorthy today a letter from him was read denouncing parliamentary agitation as worthless, "since England would never give Home Rule or any other concession for the asking."

"Ireland," the minister continued, "is no colony, she is a sovereign nation and should give up begging with bated breath and whimpering humbleness in a foreign legislature for the restoration of her stolen liberties."

A meeting was arranged to be held in Phoenix Park here Sunday in support of Sinn Fein policy. It was attended by 500 persons, although the Park was crowded with Sunday visitors.

At a meeting today of the executive committee of the Irish League at Manor-Hamilton, the centre of Charles J. Dolan's constituency, Mr. Dolan's action in joining the Sinn Fein Society was condemned and resolutions calling upon him to resign his seat in Parliament. The prospects of the Sinn Fein of carrying any constituency except North Wexford are remote.

INCENDIARY SUSPECT REMANDED TO 27TH

HARTLAND, N. B., July 22.—Lorne McNally arrested on Saturday charged with setting the fire at Hartland, was brought up for examination before Justice Barrett and remanded to Woodstock Jail till the 27th instant.

PUMPING OUT THE OVERTURNED STEAMER

BREMEN, July 22.—The work of pumping out the North German-Lloyd steamship Kaiser Wilhelm II. and of shifting the coal on board so that she can be righted is being continued with energy. The company does not venture to fix the date when the steamship is likely to resume her sailings. The Kaiser Wilhelm II., while coaling at Bremer Haven on Saturday evening suddenly listed, because of faulty trimming with the result that the water poured into her bunkers through the open coal ports and the vessel careened and lay on her side on the bottom.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Augustus Rodney MacDonough, son of the late Commodore MacDonough of the U. S. Navy, who was in charge of the United States fleet in the battle of Lake Champlain, September 11th, 1814, is dead at his home here from ailments due to old age. He was 87 years of age. For many years he was prominent in the practice of law in New York, and he was secretary of the Erie R. R. Co. up to 5 years ago.

PARIS, July 22.—A correspondent of the Matin, who was sent to Lisbon to investigate the situation arising from the strained relations between King Charles and the parliament, reports that conditions have been exaggerated, and the dissatisfaction is confined mainly to the political opponent of Premier Franco. Business interests endorse the directorship of the premier.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 22.—According to the Bourze Gazette the Russian minister of marine has ordered the Baltic yards to prepare for the prompt construction of several 22,000 ton battleships.

Mr. Fred. L. Fowke has accepted the Liberal nomination for South Ontario for the Commons.

WILL NOT RECOGNIZE THE TEAMSTERS' UNION

BOSTON, July 22.—The strike of the Teamsters' Union, No. 25, against eight big local firms, which began April 29, and has been marked by the issuance of an injunction against the union and by several arrests for disturbances and violation of the injunction has ended. The members of the union voided to accept the proposal of the merchants committee, which has interested itself in the matter and to declare the strike off. It is understood that while the firms concerned are willing to grant the wage increase asked, they still adhere to their determination to deal with the men individually.

ANOTHER PARTY OF AERONAUTS PERISHED

ST. PETERSBURG, July 22.—The military balloon, which ascended from the Aeronautic Park at Tzarevskoe Lake last Friday manned by four army officers, has been picked up at sea in a water-logged condition. It is believed that the aeronauts perished.

SEVERAL SERIOUS FIRES IN THE EASTERN STATES

A Severe Lightning Storm Experienced Which Did a Lot of Damage

LEWISTON, July 21—One of the worst electric storms in years prevailed in this section today.

The lightning flashed almost continuously while the rain fell in torrents and the wind blew a gale. In some sections there was a liberal pelting of hail stones which is believed to have badly damaged the crops and fruit.

Specials to the Sun give the following news of the storm in Androscoggin, Oxford and Franklin counties:—

At Poland, lightning struck on the buildings of the late Z. J. Frank, and burned them to the ground, together with live stock and other contents. The fire spread from the barn to the ell and then to the house. The henhouse, which was filled with hens, was the last building to burn, all of the hens perishing. A small amount of live stock, several tons of hay, the farming tools, carriages and harnesses were also lost. The total loss is placed at about $4,000; insurance $2,000.

At Mechanic Falls the Charles V. Tenney set of buildings were struck by lightning and burned. The bolt had scarcely struck the barn when an explosion occurred and the entire building was enveloped in flames. By quick work, however, they managed to save all of the live stock. Besides the farming tools, carriages, machinery, harness, etc., the barn contained 20 tons of hay. But few of the house furnishings were saved. The loss is estimated at $5,000; insurance $3,400.

At Hebron two barns, shed and carriage house owned by E. J. Whittemore, the well known apple buyer, were burned by lightning. The two barns contained 40 tons of hay besides all of the farming tools, carriages, machinery, etc. The carriage house contained several carriages, but the most of these were saved. Two calves and several hogs which were kept in one of the barns were burned. Loss estimated at about $3,000; paring insurance.

The entire set of buildings owned and occupied by Cyrus Edgcomb of East Livermore were burned to the ground. Twelve tons of hay were burned, several hogs and a large number of hens and chickens, and also a large amount of dry wood. But few of the farming utensils were saved and many of the house furnishings were burned. Mr. Edgcomb had a large supply of groceries on hand which were destroyed. Loss is estimated at $4,000; insurance $1,000.

The barn and shed at Allen's Mills, owned by Chas. Furbush of Farmington, were struck by lightning Saturday night and destroyed. The barn contained fifteen tons of hay, together with all of the farming tools. Three pigs and two calves were also burned. The shed adjoining contained several carriages and farming tools, wood and other articles of value, was also burned to the ground.

At Philips the storm was terrific.

JACKSONVILLE NEWS.

JACKSONVILLE, N. B., July 20—The funeral of the late Mrs. Joseph Sherwood was conducted by Revs. Phillips and Turner. Service was held in the United Baptist Church. The deceased lady was eighty years old and was a great sufferer for several years previous to her death.

Miss Rita Elliot of Newcastle is a guest of Miss Anna Tilley.

Mrs. Ruel of Montana, while visiting her sister, Miss Mary Johnson, has been ill. She is rapidly recovering.

Miss Annie Mallory of Boston is spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Brockie Yail.

The Misses Turner gave an at home on Thursday afternoon. A large number were invited.

Miss Ethel Turner is visiting friends in Gibson.

Mrs. Frank Good of Fredericton is visiting friends here and taking a vocal course at the Woodstock School of Music.

Major and Mrs. Good, with immediate relatives, gave a small family picnic at Hillsdale on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Frank Good and their guest, Miss Grace Peters of St. Mary's.

Mrs. John N. Harper was hostess for a large gathering of young people this week.

HISTORIC CASTLE FOR THE PUBLIC.

LONDON, July 20—The Bishop of Stortford Town Council yesterday purchased for the public the site and ruins of Weymouth Castle, a fort which was built by the East Saxons to defend Mercia, and which later became the property of the Bishops of London, until it was demolished by King John. The price paid was $500.

IN FRONT OF A MIRROR HE CUT HIS THROAT

AUBURN, Me., July 21—John Royal, aged 42, a farmer living at 508 Auburn, committed suicide early today by cutting his throat with a case knife, which he had previously carefully whetted on a grindstone. Royal is said to have quarrelled most of the night previously with his wife and early this morning she, with their small son, left the house and went to a neighbor's house. A boy sent to the home found the body of Royal, who had cut his throat while sitting in front of a mirror placed on a chopping-block in the yard.

GASOLINE TANK BURST; MOTORIST WAS BURNED

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 21—Dr. Edward J. Gallagher, a New York physician, was burned to death in an automobile accident on Long Island tonight, while his fiancée, accompanied him, was perhaps fatally injured. Dr. Gallagher accompanied by Miss Helen Madigan, was driving his machine over the Locust Avenue crossing of the Long Island R. R. in Jamaica, L. I., when the car was struck a glancing blow by the Narragansett flyer. The machine was thrown a considerable distance and turned over upon its occupants. A moment later, the gasoline tank exploded and shot the burning gasoline over the hat-topped motorists. The physician died in a few minutes. Miss Madigan was also frightfully burned and badly battered. She is hardly expected to live until morning.

THE FADS OF ST. JOHN.

St. John is a city of fads—of epidemics—which like many diseases are violent while they last, but which do not afflict the people for very lengthy periods. That this is true is amply proven by experiences during the past few years. For instance four years ago Seaside Park became the attraction. A street car line was built to this pretty little breathing space on the bay shore, and people found out that there was nothing like an afternoon spent away from the city. They crowded to Seaside. Mobs gathered at every white spot along the car line on each fine summer day, struggled and fought for places on the cars, and put up with much inconvenience for the sake of doing what everyone else was doing. Seaside was an attractive little spot in its way, and received a large share of patronage—for a time. "For a time." That represents popular ideas in St. John. People are always seeking something new, and adults, like children, soon tire of their toys. Seaside Park reigned supreme for a very few seasons, but a rapid decline set in, and nowadays no one hears very much about the Bay Shore. It is not deserted, for in fine weather some of the faithful still find their way over to enjoy the refreshing breezes and a day in the open. But its old time popularity has vanished. New ideas have been developed, and St. John has gone in for other fads.

Roller skating was introduced here, and immediately became the only thing worth bothering about. A rink was opened on Charlotte street and shortly afterwards another was fitted up on City Road. These two amusements were the last summer and autumn crowds to the doors every evening. Men, women and children all went in for the exercise which was declared to be more enjoyable than anything previously attempted. Such was the enthusiasm of the people that one rink, last year devoted to rollers, but these days there is little said about roller skating. The Charlotte street rink is at present closed, but will reopen if business is promising. The City Road rink like Seaside Park attracts the devotees of the sport, but the great crowd is not in evidence.

Vandeville theatre became the rage, and the amount of money taken in at the various performances given was simply enormous. The proprietors of the principal house, observing the tendency of the people, very wisely decided that cheaper entertainments at sturdily larger earnings, and accordingly the vandeville house was transformed into a moving picture theatre. Success attended the change, and every day thousands upon thousands went to spend five cents for a good hour's amusement. Realizing the profitable business being done, other persons have decided that it may well be shared, and today there are three or four moving shows in continuous operation, while two or three others are projected. Lots of people attend, but the crowd for seats is not as great as it was six months ago. The fad still prevails, and the managers of the various theatres have so far found no fault with the people for lack of patronage.

A few weeks ago Rockwood Park, east St. John's greatest institution, was transformed from a quiet pastoral resting place, to an amusement park, and now countless thousands are day after day enjoying the delights provided. Rockwood itself was never a fad, but always managed to attract a small, but strong share of attention in spite of strong competition. It has been at a disadvantage in being out of easy reach, but now when special attractions are provided, distance is forgotten, and St. John is most eagerly taking up this latest idea. Rockwood, like beauty, unadorned is adorned the most, but as fortune hunters are invariably drawn towards the pretty girl with money, so are the crowds diverted to the park with amusement features. The man who can think out a new idea which will prove popular for next winter, has the chance of earning a small fortune.

THE BAPTIST UNION OF CANADA.

The Baptist committee which has been in session in Montreal has decided that if the different conventions give consent, "The Baptist Union of Canada" will be formed. The proposed scheme of union will be submitted to the various conventions for their consideration, and if adopted, the newly organized governing body of the church will be called to meet in May of next year. This assembly will, it is said, include a representation of 2,500. The points chiefly enlarged upon in the committee's discussion as of special importance in the proposed national asclamation were the economy in the working expenses of the different departments of the administration and the benefit which would accrue from the mission and evangelizing fields.

Rev. Thomas Marshall is now no doubt gaining an insight into the working of the temperance law in P. E. Island. He has an advantage over the two commissioners yet to be appointed, but with his increased opportunities he will be in a position to work up a strong case for presentation to the New Brunswick Government. Mr. Marshall may also learn how low some people can fall in their methods of enforcing the law.

At the Women's Council in Vancouver, laws for the protection of women and children were discussed. A resolution was introduced to make the age of freedom to marry eighteen instead of twenty-one years. The names of most of those who supported it were prefaced by "Miss." Is this some deep, dark plot?

WAYMATES.

Over the hills and through the weather—
All in the merry midyear weather—
Under the sky
Of dear July,
Wandering, just we two together.
You and I through the green leaved ways,
You and I in the golden days—
The ways of youth,
The days of truth—
Young life and love and tuneful lay!
Over the hills to the western strand,
Over the waves to the fairy land—
Beyond the dim
And gloaming rim
Of the old gray world go, hand in hand—
Hand in hand (for the dice are thrown),
Heart of my heart, my love, my own—
Blue sky o'er us
And before us
Luring lights of the far Unknown.

One day some Americans on a visit to Wales expressed a wish to see a certain old and historic church. The incumbent was only too pleased to show them round, especially as he believed it would end in a donation being given to his parochial fund. He is as proud of the school as he is of the church, and finished up by asking them to there also, and inviting them to question the scholars.
One of the party accepted the invitation.
"Can you tell me, little boy," said he to one lad, "who George Washington was?"
"Es, surr," said he, "he was a 'Merryan' gen'ral."
"Quite right," said the American. "And can you tell me who George Washington was remarkable for?"
"Es, surr; 'e was remarkable 'cos 'e was a 'Merryan' an' told the truth."
The American didn't question further.

Mark Twain assured King Edward VII. that he approved Windsor Castle with its grounds, and would like to buy it. "The King entered into the spirit of the occasion." Thus did Mark Twain again follow in the footsteps of Artemus Ward, as he has followed for forty years.

When Artemus was in London, writing articles for Punch, he visited the British museum and he punched the walls with his umbrella to see if the masonry was all right. "A man with a gold band on his hat said, in a harsh voice, that I must stop poking the walls with his umbrella to see if the all means. 'You see, I said taking hold of the tassel which waved from the man's belt, and draw him close to me in a confidential way. 'You see, I'm lookin' round this Mooseum, and if I like it I shall buy it.' Instead of laughing heartily at these remarks, which was made in a goading spirit, the man frowned darkly and walked away."

A little boy to one of the Manchester schools of the other day described the greatness of Canada with all the magnificent richness of certain schools of imperialism. "Canada," he wrote, "is such an extensive country that it stretches from east to west."

LONDON, July 20.—Clacton-on-Sea yesterday celebrated the silver wedding anniversary of its union by rail with the rest of the world. It was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the opening of the Great Eastern line from Thorpe to Clacton.

ISLE OF MAN'S NEW LAW.

LIVERPOOL, July 20.—The only law passed at the recent session of the Manx Legislature, which has received the royal assent, was proclaimed yesterday at Tynwald Hill, in accordance with the custom for 1000 years. The law abolishes the compulsory viewing of bodies by coroners' juries.

DESERVED TOWN.

LONDON, July 20.—In a little more than two hours, twenty-two special trains, made up of nearly 350 carriages, and carrying 25,000 persons, left Swindon yesterday for all parts of the Great Western Railway system. The occasion was the annual week's holiday of the Great Western Railway employees.

ACTOR STEALS GEMS WORTH $75,000

Deposited in Charge of Berlin Hotel Manager, They are Confiscated by Police

BERLIN, July 20.—Last night a packet containing jewelry to the value of $75,000, which had been deposited in the care of the manager of a Berlin hotel, was confiscated by the police. It forms part of the proceeds of a robbery perpetrated a few days ago at Nuremberg by a young actor named Felix Luette, who had been appearing at a theatre in that town. The thief himself, together with his supposed accomplice, Fritz Horschel, has disappeared, and his personality is at present engaging the close attention of the police of the old and new worlds.
So far as his record has been investigated, it suggests that Luette's most recent exploit was only the last in a comparatively long career of international crime. While yet a boy he attracted the notice of a wealthy man, who loaded him with presents of jewelry, and with these he seems to have procured himself a trade connection. At any rate, he was entrusted by a Nuremberg jeweler with pearls and other gems to the value of $75,000, for which he gave bills. The jewels he took to Vienna and pawned. He then sold the pawn tickets to another jeweler, who redeemed the notice of a wealthy relative in Nuremberg who wished to make a large purchase of goods, and persuaded him to allow his sister to accompany him to that town with a box containing not only the redeemed jewels, but others in addition, to the value of $5,000. While they were in Nuremberg he had no difficulty in obtaining possession of the case and making off with it.

For some reason not yet fully explained, he returned to the Nuremberg jeweler the gems which he had originally obtained from him, but persuaded him to trade in the office which, he assured him, the merchant left the jewels with his manager. The remaining $25,000 worth Luette pawned for his bill, and the jeweler, as the result of previous transactions, had come to regard him with confidence.
It has already been discovered that Luette has been discovered that he was at Monte Carlo and other fashionable pleasure resorts, and that he shared with Horschel.

USE OF LOUST.

PRETORIA, July 20.—Ex-Commander Potgieter, speaking at a meeting of farmers in the Grugersdorp district of the Transvaal, expressed his regrets at the various South African governments to exterminate the loust on the ground that it was a judgment on the people for their sins, and that to interfere with the Divine decrees was to invite further punishment.

TELL-TALE PHOTOGRAPH.

TOWNS WITH TROUBLES.

LONDON'S trouble is her foe. Tokyo's trouble is earthquakes. In her streets 200,000 residents were killed. The misral is the trouble of Marcellus, an east wind that increases the city's death rate 50 per cent. Calcutta's trouble is cholera, and the bubonic plague is the trouble of Bombay. Each city pays to her trouble an annual tribute of 3,000 souls. Bagdad's trouble is the "Bagdad rally every resident and visitor, leaving a button-shaped permanent scar. Madrid's trouble is the solano, a summer wind from the southeast. It is exceedingly hot and is accompanied by blinding, choking clouds of dust, so that notwithstanding a temperature of 105 or 110 degrees all windows must be closed.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

SPECULATED WITH HIS CLIENTS' MONEY

Paris Business Man Arrested in Athens for Series of Hoax Frauds

ATHENS, July 20.—A Frenchman of business, aged 38, and settled in Paris, has been arrested at Athens on a charge of swindling. According to the accusation brought against him, he specculated with money intrusted to his keeping by several clients, and when all was lost bolted. He is described as being a man of very pleasant manners, and as having succeeded, even when his affairs were becoming complicated, in giving plausible answers to many anxious inquiries, thus staving off the day of reckoning.
But in the middle of last month complaints were lodged against him by a well-known family, he having left Paris on the previous day. One of these persons is a gentleman who says that he has lost more than $600,000; another is from this gentleman's mother, who states that she has been done out of $120,000; a third is from his mother-in-law, who is troubled about a sum of $60,000, and a fourth is from a relative, also a woman, who does not know what has become of a matter of $40,000.
An investigation having been opened by the authorities, it was ascertained that the man of business had gone to Aix les Bains, where he had left his mistress, and then he was traced to Brindisi, and so on to Greece. An examining magistrate accordingly sent a warrant for his arrest to Athens, and the alleged swindler was taken into custody yesterday.

So far only the four complainants mentioned have been lodged, but it is thought that the announcement of the arrest may perhaps bring in more. The gentleman referred to is the son of a former Dutch diplomatist, and it is said that when he attained his majority he confided most of his fortune, amounting to $600,000, to the man of business, and that since his marriage, ten years ago, he has left his accounts entirely in his hands, even to the payment of tradesmen's bills, so implicit was the trust which he reposed in him. Now he is believed to be completely ruined.
It seems that it was only this year that suspicion began to be entertained. It is a question whether the extradition treaty between Greece and this case, as the law ratifying it was yesterday gazetted, in the Journal Officiel.

IT WOULDN'T GO DOWN. It is often claimed that artists and scientists should not marry. A wife and family, the contention runs, divert a man's thoughts from pure art or pure science to money making, and in other ways besties they distract and constrain him.

Henry Jafes, who is usually serious, defended the above claim rather trivially at a dinner in New York on his last visit.
"For example," he said, "a friend of mine declared one night that he believed in study."
"Nobody can learn in a lifetime all that should be known," he said. "A man ought never to assume that his education is complete. I must and will keep abreast of the times, and I propose to begin the study of anatomy at once."
"Jerome," said his wife calmly, "you'll have to think of some better excuse than that for staying out all hours of the night.—Buffalo Enquirer.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

A well known Harvard professor was one day travelling by trolley from Cambridge to Boston, where he desired to call upon a friend. He asked the conductor to transfer him to the city cars at a certain point.
Soon afterward the car stopped and the Harvard man, on looking out of the window, was surprised to see the very friend he was seeking. He started to leave the car, but the conductor stopped him.
"You can't change here," he said brusquely.
"You can't change here, I tell you," persisted the conductor.
By this time the professor was on the rear step. "Here, you old jay!" exclaimed the conductor, "haven't I told you that you can't change here?"
At this the good man flushed. "Well, I can change my mind here, can't I?"—Lippincott's.

WRONG SHOES

Artemus Ward once remarked: "There is one thing to be said in favor of tight shoes—they make a man forget all his other troubles."

It isn't always the "size" of a shoe that causes a mischief. It's the make of the shoe, the material, the shape of it. Your feet are "traveling companions" that carry you everywhere you want to go. They are valuable servants and expect to be treated well. Easy, glove-fitting shoes are the greatest comfort your feet can have.

These are the only kind of shoes we sell. No matter what kind of foot you have, we'll fit it. Crushed feet are neither useful nor ornamental, but they are painful. We are not shoe sellers, only—we are foot fitters as well.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

There is one curious fact that not everybody notices about the common, finger-long, green caterpillars of our larger moths. Their hearts, instead of being in front as at the back of the body and extend along the entire length of the animal. One can see the heart distinctly through the thin skin and can watch its slow beat, which starts at the tail and moves forward to the head. Hearts of this sort reaching from head to tail are not at all uncommon in the simpler creatures. The earthworm has one, and so have most worms, caterpillars and other crawling things. Hearts in the middle of the body are quite as frequent as those in the rear. Many animals, the lobster for example, and the clawfish and those of the beasts and birds, nevertheless have them placed just under the shell in what, in ourselves would be the small of the back.—St. Nicholas.

ALL RED ROUTE ACROSS CANADA MUST BECOME THE CHIEF ARTERY OF THE WHOLE WORLD'S TRAFFIC

Great Britain and Colonies Will Never Give Up Fight for Blue Ribbon of the Atlantic and Pacific

An All Red Line Under the British Flag Will Pass Through King's Dominions from End to End

Awakening of Alien Powers in the East, Necessitates Swifter and More Frequent Intercourse With Australia

The interest taken in the proposed All Red Route shipping enterprise in Canada seems duplicated in Great Britain. The more important sections of the British press continue to discuss the matter, the government organs usually going against the scheme, and the opposition supporters of it. The issue of the London Daily Telegraph has the following important leading article:—

Canada has signalled the fortieth anniversary of Federation, and a brilliant phrase of her development by heading a new Intra-Imperial enterprise, which is likely to be little less epoch-making than the preference movement itself. At the Dominion banquet Lord Strathcona reviewed the results already measured; Sir Wilfrid Laurier devoted himself rather to the future than to the past, and his most emphatic and important of his utterances during his present visit to this country. There is no doubt whatever that the daring plan of an "All-Red Line" of communication faster than any that has yet put a finger round the globe has entered definitely within the pale of practical politics. Not only so, Canada has not taken her definite stand without support. She has secured the firm adhesion of the Commonwealth and New Zealand, who are, if anything, even more resolute in their scheme since they felt the handicap of distance more. South Africa, now as always, though more remotely connected with the initial possibilities of the work, is at once in supporting every effort to secure swifter and more efficient connections with the Mother Country, and with every part of the Outer Empire.

MORE IMPORTANT TO MOTHERLAND.
 Each of the great self-governing states more nearly concerned in willing to dip into its own purse, and they felt the need to be so urgent—though the definite establishment of an All-Red Route must be even more important to this country than to any one of the colonies—that they would proceed alone should the Home Government refuse assistance. The New Lands, then, are at once. Shall the Old Land stand apart? We do not think so. We venture to believe that neither party in Great Britain can afford to incur the odium or responsibility of refusing to help a scheme so vital to them where they are pledged and willing to bear an equitable proportion of the expense and to stand by the principle of fiscal independence. Upon this matter the mass of Englishmen desire something better than that advantage should be gained by one side or the other in our party manoeuvres.

CANADA'S INTEREST.
 Canada's interest is politically less urgent, but economically greater. The Dominion is assuming more and more the character of another United States—Laurier said in his fine peroration at Monday's banquet—and applying American energy, initiative, and driving power to the work of Imperial organization. The Dominion has now no less than seven million inhabitants, or is on the point of attaining that figure. Before another generation is out it is practically certain that there will be as large a population in what is now called British North America as there are in the United States. Nothing can prevent Canada from becoming, within the present century, as great a power as the United States. The means are now, consider what this means, and the stupendous character of the new state which will be the result of this year's yield of wheat is estimated at one hundred and twenty million bushels. No expert doubts that the weight of these enormous harvests can and will be increased at least five-fold. Canada is bound to take the commanding place in the import trade of the United Kingdom. If we are wisely guided she will become in return the chief outlet for our manufactures. But the purview of statesmanship at Ottawa ranges wider, and the Dominion desires to make the best of its unrivalled geographical position. Canada has two long fronts upon the two main oceans. She offers the shortest route between Europe and the Far East—that is between the two chief centres of population upon the globe. Western Canada looks across the Pacific, and from her opposite shores across the Atlantic, with harbours on both oceans, where the coal is mined under the very keels of the vessels in which it is shipped. But this is not all. For all purposes of through communication Canada is already what the Mother Country once was: the geographical centre of gravity of the British Empire. She offers the shortest route to Japan and China, as we all know. But it is by no means generally realized that if better connections are to be established between this island and the Antipodes than those now passing through the Suez Canal, the All-Red Line must pass through the Dominion. The termini of her great transcontinental railways would hold the keys of the steamship routes across both oceans.

THE JOURNEY REDUCED.
 Sir Joseph Ward declared, at the Imperial Conference, that the "Empire Line," as we should prefer to call it, would reduce the journey between New Zealand and London to twenty days. If that expectation could once become a working fact, the greatest stride towards Imperial consolidation yet attempted would have been taken. The estimate astonished Mr. Lloyd-George, but further consideration showed no flaw in it. The All-Red Line, as we have said, would mean, we believe, four days across the Atlantic to Halifax, four more by railway across the Dominion from coast to coast, with twelve days across the whole expanse of the Pacific to Australasian ports. It is no longer doubted or denied that this thing can be done; the question resolves itself into one of expense. It must, of course, be thoroughly understood that the Empire Line would mean a chain of express services. The steamers plying upon both oceans would have to be liners of the highest speed. The ideal would be to make them equal in the end to the new Cunarders, and for the purposes of the Atlantic passage, at least, that would be advisable, perhaps indispensable from the start. The Canadian transcontinental railways would have to adopt every means of rushing the traffic, and transhipment arrangements would need to be organized with extreme efficiency. That respect the American spirit would be undoubtedly applied to Imperial purposes, as Canada knows how. These services could be of course, and would be used for heavy cargo, but would be confined to passengers and mails with a considerable amount of light freight. Detailed estimates are not yet before the country, but Canada, Australia and New Zealand have pledged themselves. As we have said, to bear their fair share; and it is in Mr. Asquith's power to see that they do. Willing the end, they will the cost, whatever it may have to be. The chancellor of the exchequer seemed to indicate at the Imperial Conference that the mere prospect of reviving the acquiescence of all parties must be taken for granted. But the new ships are meant exclusively to improve our connections with a country which we refuse to call foreign, but which is under its own flag, and not under ours. It is unthinkable that we can refuse the extension of the principle for the improvement of Intra-Imperial communication in concert with the colonies; and we are little doubt that the fight for the blue ribbon of the Atlantic will ever again be given up by the Mother Country once was: the geographical

TOKIO, July 22.—It is reported from Seoul that the retired emperor refused to acknowledge his complete non-interference with the new administration insisting that the new emperor was only his proxy. He was prevailed upon to withdraw from his position and to consent to the inauguration of a new epoch with a new name. In accordance with usage, Paik Yon Hov was re-appointed, Household Minister Ya, and Yio Chul, chief chamberlain, have been arrested with the approval of the emperor on suspicion of inciting riot.

KARL HAU'S TRIAL
KARLSRUHE, July 22.—The morning session of the trial of Karl Hau, who is charged with the murder of his mother-in-law Frau Molitor, in Baden-Baden, last November, developed little news worthy of note except the appearance of Wieland, the man who was the employer of the Molitor household as a servant at the time of the tragedy who came from Kiel upon seeing by newspaper reports that the defense was throwing suspicion upon him. Hau stated before Wieland's testimony that he attached no importance to it as he had never seen and named the defendant in his possession. Wieland told a straight forward story of his movements during the critical quarter of an hour and named the several places where he had discharged errands.

THE PREMIER IN MONTREAL

Sir Wilfrid Cheered by Thousands on His Arrival

Made an Address at City Hall and Spoke to Crowds from His Window at the Windsor

MONTREAL, Q., July 21.—Montreal extended to Sir Wilfrid Laurier an elaborate welcome Saturday night, and from the time the premier stepped down the gangway of the government cruiser Lady Grey to two hours later, he was the central figure in the demonstrations which were participated in by the thousands.

Sir Wilfrid appeared to be delighted with his reception. At City Hall, where an address of welcome was tendered by the city council, the premier, in the Chamber of Commerce and the Reform Club, Sir Wilfrid made a brief speech, in which he thanked the people for the manner in which they had greeted him. The premier appeared to be in excellent health, and after the first few sentences his voice rang out clear and strong, and his words were heard easily by the crowd which had gathered in front of City Hall. Although the premier was expected to arrive at 8 o'clock it was an hour later before the Lady Grey, accompanied by a flotilla of government boats, came alongside the Victoria pier. Long before that hour, however, the streets were lined with thousands of people waiting to catch a glimpse of the premier. The approach of the Lady Grey was heralded by a continuous discharge of rockets, bombs and fireworks from various points along the river front, and many of the ships in port were decorated with flags and bunting.

On Victoria pier the harbor commissioners had erected an arch which was festooned with lights and flags and added to the picturesqueness of the decoration scheme. Along the top of the pier there was a string of red electric lights with the words "all red lights" picked out in glowing bulbs. "Victoria pier was a blaze of light and color, and festooned lights were strung along the entire length of the pier. When Sir Wilfrid landed he was met by the civic reception committee. After shaking hands he entered a carriage and was driven to the Windsor Hotel. He was accompanied by a large number of his Montreal supporters and cheered for some time. The Windsor was decorated with a huge electric motto "Welcome Laurier" blaring from the Peel street side, while over the door there was a maple leaf dotted out in lights.

Sir Wilfrid was holding his informal reception the large crowd outside waited patiently to hear something from him. There were loud cries for a speech, and finally Sir Wilfrid appeared at the balcony of his window. It was some time before he could make himself heard, the crowd cheering itself hoarse. Finally a comparative quiet was obtained and then Sir Wilfrid briefly thanked the people for their welcome. He had, he declared, been the recipient of many demonstrations surpassed anything he had ever experienced in the past. Then, after wishing them good night, Sir Wilfrid withdrew and the crowd, after cheering for some little time longer, melted away and the demonstration was over.

MUST PROVIDE SCHOOL FOR MODEL FARM

Some of the Results of the Recon- Agitation for Consolidation of Rothesay District Schools

ROTHESAY, July 21.—One of the results of the agitation for consolidation has been to wake up some of the people in the smaller districts where there has been no school for some time to demand that a teacher shall be engaged and their children given an opportunity to get some instruction. The facts are that in one district there are a few heavy taxpayers whose children are grown up and they do not seem anxious to provide an education for their neighbors who are not so well off. The education officers have taken notice of this disposition and there is likely to be a change. A meeting is called in Model Farm for next Wednesday night, to consider what the money was voted to carry on a school at the last two or three annual meetings and now the trustees, William McMahon, George Buckley and Howard Clark must provide a school or join with Quispamisit district and convey the children to the distant school house. This is one of the districts that turned down consolidation with Rothesay.

A city architect has been asked to begin upon an addition to the village school house in Rothesay and as soon as his plans are ready the ratepayers will be called together again to provide money for the expenses of the building. There is a distinct feeling in favor of reconsidering the consolidation question as many of the features of the plan were not understood when the matter came up before.

SUDDEN DEATH OF SUPERINTENDENT OF LIGHTS FOR NOVA SCOTIA

HALIFAX, July 21.—The death occurred Saturday at his late residence in Dockyard of Charles A. Hutchins, the superintendent of lights for Nova Scotia. Mr. Hutchins had not been well for a month or two, but no serious apprehensions were felt respecting his condition until the afternoon of Saturday when the announcement of his death will come as a surprise throughout the province, in every respect of which he was so well known. Mr. Hutchins was appointed to the civil service in connection with the marine and fisheries service on 15th February, 1884, and was promoted to the position held by him at time of his death on the 1st of July, 1904. The lights branch had no messengers attached to it, and he had had the benefit of a long nautical experience. A wife and five children survive. Deceased was 42 years of age. The sons are W. M. of the Bank of Montreal, Halifax; Alfred E. of the M. and F. department and Robert of Montreal; the daughters are Miss Jean Hutchins and Mrs. Ernest Geizer of Halifax.

THIRTY-ONE KILLED; MANY INJURED IN TRAIN WRECK

Fast Excursion Train Collided With Stores Buildings TO BE ENLARGED

Accident Happened in Cut at a Sharp Curve, and Impact was Terrific—Crew of Freight Train Held Responsible by Officials of the Road—

"We Forgot", They Say.

SALEM, Mich., July 20.—Thirty-one people are dead and more than 100 injured, many of them seriously, as the result of a head-on collision which occurred today when a Pere Marquette excursion train bound from Ionia to Detroit crashed into the Michigan Central freight train on the cut at a sharp curve of the Pere Marquette railroad, about a mile east of Ionia.

The passenger train of 11 cars, carrying the Pere Marquette shop employees of Ionia and their families to the Michigan metropolis for their annual excursion, was running at high speed, probably 50 miles an hour, down a grade. It struck the freight train, which was stalled in the cut at a sharp curve. The next moment the trains came together with a horrible crash," he said. "I was unamused and seeking the quickest exit to the open air. I jumped through the window to the ground. I found my sister several cars ahead uninjured, but my mother standing supported by a number of men with her head and her hands covered with blood. Father was sitting in the front car and he could see the wreck from his seat. One of the forward cars, his right arm and shoulder free and leaning outside the window, but his left hand caught fast up on the fret which had jammed together in the car. It took three or four minutes to get him free."

Just today, aged 20 years, from Ionia, had a most dreadful experience. He was sitting in a seat with his mother and when he regained his senses after the crash she lay dead beside him. They were in the first car of the train and young Eddy said he could see the freight train approaching as the excursion train swung around the curve.

The present stores building on the corner of Mill and Second streets, belonging to that branch of the Public Works Department that has to do with the erection of buildings for the Department of Militia and Defense, it having been found necessary some time ago to separate the purely civil work of the department from the military. He has recently been engaged in making plans for the improvements made to the Fredericton and Ottawa armories and also for the construction of the new armory in Truro.

The present stores building which is the great fire of 1877, which was built in 1880 is to be improved, was built early in the last century, about 1840 it is supposed. It is of stone and of that solid and permanent style of architecture characteristic of government buildings erected during the period mentioned. It is also of some importance in view of the fact that it is the only one of the military buildings once situated on the Barrack Green that survived the great fire of 1877. The building has been used as a store house for many years, but the great increase in the amount of military stores has necessitated an enlargement. An addition forty feet in length is to be made to the northern end and a third story is to be put on the entire structure. An electric freight elevator is also to be installed and the building made as modern as possible. It is likely that the roof of the building will be put on the altered building in place of the existing one of slate.

Tenders for the improvements will be called for as soon as Mr. Fuller's specifications are prepared and published. Tomorrow the architect, accompanied by Lt. Col. A. J. Armstrong of the Ordnance Stores Corps, will look over the building and the site of the proposed addition. It is hoped that the improvements which were asked for in the spring will be completed by the coming fall. The plans are already being approved by the D. O. C.

On being questioned concerning the long-awaited armory, Mr. Fuller said that the building which had been intended concerning this building had been heard in the Public Works Department for some time. Speaking of recent improvements to armories he said that the American style of armory-furnishing had been copied in the adoption of individual lockers of steel, which are to be put in all new infantry armories. These lockers, uniform and accoutrements complete of one soldier.

Mr. Fuller will leave for Ottawa tomorrow evening.

"The next moment the trains came together with a horrible crash," he said. "I was unamused and seeking the quickest exit to the open air. I jumped through the window to the ground. The crash of the colliding trains was heard for a great distance up the road by the houses of the surrounding towns nearby, realizing that a tragedy had occurred, hurried from their homes with their families, some on horseback, some in their cars, some on foot. Numbers of the uninjured women passengers tore strips from their clothing to help bandage up the wounded. ### HUSBAND SHOT HIS WIFE DEAD

SUNDERLAND, Ont., July 21.—Adam Ludwick of Valentines Corner, about four and a half miles west of this place, shot and killed his wife early yesterday morning. Ludwick had been in poor health during the last few months, and while his wife was in bed with a four-week-old infant, in her arms, he procured a shot gun and placed the muzzle close to the top of her head. Strange to say, the baby was not injured. The man was arrested.

HE HAD HAD SOME HELP.

The man who applied at headquarters for a "little help" from the charitable association set forth his case with so much tact and moderation that the secretary was beginning to be favorably impressed.

"I can't ask them to do too much," he continued in an outburst of delicacy and ingenuousness, "they paid for my wedding last month, and 'twas a real swell one."—Youth's Companion.

AUSTRALIA GETS KING'S PRIZE

Elkington Challenge Cup Goes to Graham, of Toronto

Made 132 Out of a Possible 150—The Bisle Meeting Ended Saturday Afternoon

BISLEY, Eng., July 21.—The Bisle meeting ended this afternoon with the most notable achievement to the credit of the Australian team being the win of the Elkington challenge cup, the emblem of the long distance championship by Sergeant Graham of Toronto. The cup goes to the man with the highest aggregate of scores made in the Secretariat of State for War, the Imperial Tobacco matches at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards. In these three matches Graham put on 132 out of a possible 150.

The King's prize again leaves England, having been won by Addison of the Australian team with a score of 235, second place went to Hope, a London volunteer, and third to Fagett of the Yorkshire regiment.

The latter was first returned as the winner until it was found that he had inadvertently been credited with one shot too many, and deducting this set him back to third place. Sergeant Cameron of Victoria was the Canadian high mark, finishing in 21st place and winning 218, while Pte. Milligan of Toronto was 83rd, winning 25. The scores of the Canadians in the three stages of the King's were:

Sgt. Caven	...	50	50	100	Total
Sgt. Graham	...	55	55	110	Total
Pte. Milligan	...	45	45	90	Total

The second stage of the St. George's was also fired today. Canada had three representatives and they finished as follows:

Sgt. Graham	27th, Winnipeg, 48
Sgt. Bayles	65th, 44, and Pte. Stevenson	66th, winning 54.

Today's scores, together with the aggregate, were as follows:

Sgt. Graham	...	65	64	129
Sgt. Bayles	...	66	59	125
Pte. Stevenson	...	66	59	125

In the Singer, Corporal Snowball was second, winning 23 1/2.

HARTLAND MAN UNDER ARREST

Charged with Setting Recent Serious Fire There

Evidence Against L. G. McNally is Not Very Strong as Yet and Others are Suspected

HARTLAND, N. B., July 20.—As an outcome of the popular suspicion that the recent disastrous fire here was of incendiary origin and of the organized effort to discover the perpetrator, L. G. McNally of this place was arrested today and after a brief preliminary examination was remanded until July 27, pending further investigation. The evidence against McNally is not very strong as yet and rests largely upon the fact that he was seen near the source of the fire not long before it started and on his own stories of his whereabouts that night. Another local man is also suspected and is being kept under surveillance. It is said that McNally was trying to skip out when arrested.

The arrest was made by Constable Julius Myers and the examination was held today before Justice Burnett and Everett. Only two witnesses were examined, G. W. Green and Mrs. Watson. Mr. Green testified to having seen the prisoner about 10 o'clock the night of the fire in the store of the Hartland Drug Company in the Tracy block, where the fire started. He was accompanied with another man. Afterwards Mr. Green heard McNally give various and conflicting accounts of himself for that night.

Mrs. Watson said she had had certain conversation with McNally from a peculiar saying and action of his and one day she openly accused him in the street of being the incendiary. At that time, she said, McNally sniped with apparent fright, flushed and displayed general alarm and dismay. The examination will be resumed next Saturday. Some other sensational developments may occur before then.

TOO HASTY.

Harker was in a fierce humor the other morning when the front door opened and in walked a stranger unannounced.

"I came," began the stranger (taking off his coat and rolling up his sleeves), "What?" thundered Harker. "You didn't come in here to start anything, did you?"

"I did," replied the stranger coolly. "—"

"But he got no further. With a savage whoop Harker grabbed the intruder around the waist and deposited him on the sidewalk. Two hours later he was returned.

"William," she said, "was there any one here during my absence?"

"Yes," snorted Harker, "there was some lunatic here who said he came to start something, but I just bundled him out on the sidewalk before he had time to make a move."

"William, you are the biggest goosie in town!"

"In what way?"

"Why, the man came to start the clock that hasn't been running for a week. He is a clocksmith!"—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

SEVEN NEW PICTURES AT NICKEL

If diversity is an essential in motion picture entertainment, the show which commences at the Nickel today will be a remarkably good one. The big film reels which arrived by express on Saturday, contain an excellent program of pictures made by French, English and American concerns, and presenting a veritable travel tour aside from the humor and drama of the subjects depicted. Not only are adults deeply interested in such remarkably fine foreign views as the Nickel presents, but school children learn much of the customs and conditions of European, English and United States cities from the scenes thrown on the expansive white screen. Starting today at noon, the pictures are: Errand Boy Wanted, (French); Madame's Restaurant, (French); Cleaning an Ocean Greynound, (English); An Amateur Rider's Travels, (French); A Very Awful Man, (American); Out For A Quiet Walk, (French); Orange Peel, (English). This is a big long list and every picture distinctly interesting.

Mr. Austin will sing Come Take A Sail In My Boat, to stationary slides, beautifully colored, and furthermore to motion yachting views.

DISORDERS FOLLOW BOSTON TEAMSTERS' STRIKE

BOSTON, Mass., July 21.—The strike of the teamsters union against slight wage increases, which began April 3 and has been marked throughout by disorders between strike-breakers and others, resulting in an influx of troops issued against the union and several arrests for disturbances and violation of the injunction, came to an end today...

ELECTRICAL STORM DOES GREAT DAMAGE

LEWISTON, Me., July 21.—One of the severest electrical storms in years visited this section of the state Saturday evening, causing a large amount of damage, but no loss of life so far as reported. While Lewiston and Auburn proper escaped the worst of the storm, at Poland, Hebron, Mechanic Falls, East Livermore, Farmington and Phillips property losses are reported. At times the storm was terrific.

AUTOMOBILE WENT OVER AN EMBANKMENT

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 21.—John J. Wallace, a well known business man of this city, is dead with a broken neck, his wife is dying at her home with internal injuries, and J. S. Henner and wife, sisters of the Wallaces, are in a serious condition as a result of an accident to their motor car which plunged over a 150 foot embankment on the road to Butler tonight. The machine with the entire party plunged over the embankment and landed in a big tree. Wallace was dead when picked up. The others were unconscious.

ROME, July 21.—Fifty workmen are reported to have been suffocated as the result of a fire in a sulphur mine in Girgenti, Sicily.

door. Then followed an account of the struggle in front of the door, and Peter Fontaine running around the doorway hearing of shots. Cross-examined by Mr. Mott, witness said that she gave evidence at the coroner's inquest, but did not swear that she heard shots when the men were struggling on the ground...

Cross-examined by Mr. Mott, said: "I was in the field when I saw the men struggling. I saw Seeley and Jalbert lying down on the ground. I did not go any closer. I heard ten shots. I counted them." The next witness was Phenomena Fontaine, widow of the late Peter Fontaine. She said to Mr. Lawlor: "I am the widow of Peter Fontaine. We were married five years ago at Fall River. My parents live there now. I know him one year before we were married. I have one child, which died when fifteen months old. We lived happily together. He was never in jail as far as I know. I saw him last on the morning of the 10th of June last, when I left for Fall River on a visit. I lodged complaint against Seeley and Gallop. My husband left me not much support."

Here Mr. Mott protested against such questioning by Mr. Lawlor. Cross-examined by Mr. Mott she said: "I lived at Fall River two years after I left here. I cannot remember what year here. I cannot remember what year here. My husband was third man in a cotton factory." Court adjourned to 11 a.m.

SOCIALISTS' PLOT TO STEAL LAND FOILED

Conspiracy to Kill Landlords and appropriate Estates Among the Peasantry.

MILAN, July 20.—An agricultural strike is going on in an immense portion of the province of Ferrara. Agreement has been made impossible by the work of the peasants' leagues and labor exchanges, and particularly of the Socialist party, who controlled the municipality of the largest borough in the province and instigated the laborers to rebellion. The situation rapidly became very serious. Blacklegs who arrived from elsewhere were injured and driven off, and last night an agent of the blacklegs was shot to death.

RUSSIAN TERRORISTS SLAY GOVERNMENT SPY

Masked as One of Them and Disclosed Their Secrets to the Police.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 20.—The newspapers report the mysterious assassination of a man named Alexander Kazantsev, who was engaged by the government to report the doings of the revolutionary organizations. Kazantsev's body was found in a forest beside two loaded bombs and a blood-stained axe. A memorandum in one of the pockets of his coat contained a list of telephone numbers of high officials, including the governor general. The revolutionaries admit that Kazantsev masqueraded as one of them, while reporting their movements to the secret police. He occupied a luxuriously furnished flat, and received a heavy subsidy from the government. Kazantsev pretended to plan a conspiracy to assassinate Count Witte. He gave two terrorists bombs, which were to be thrown at Count Witte when he left his house to attend an imperial council. But the terrorists were killed by the police when they went to the appointed place, and when Kazantsev's treachery became known to the other revolutionaries they decreed his death.

CAN'T SELL THEIR BONDS.

FREDERICTON, July 21.—Seventy thousand dollars worth of city debentures bearing interest at rate of five per cent. fell due yesterday. Authority was obtained at the last session of the legislature to redeem them with four per cent. debentures but a sale has not yet been effected. Several offers have been received but they are not quite as liberal as the civic authorities would like and are not likely to be accepted.

NOT SO CRAZY AS HE SEEMS TO BE

Wilkinson of Main Street Had a Queer Competition—He Wants to Take a Long Swim.

An eccentric Englishman named Thomas Wilkinson, is doing business on Main street, and his actions are amusing the North End people to a great degree.

When Mr. Wilkinson arrived here he opened a variety store and made his place of business conspicuous by placing odd signs in the windows. The boys of that locality soon became wise to the queer actions of the professor and nicknamed him "The Crazy Englishman." This name was shouted at him and he pretended to wonder why the kids thought he was crazy. To fathom the question Wilkinson placed a sign in his window which read: "Why am I the mad Englishman? I will give a prize to the person who answers the question best." A crowd of youngsters soon gathered about the store and the answers came in fast. The winner of the contest was C. Gibbons of Main street, who said that Prof. Wilkinson was an idiot to sell his goods so cheap. Several other answers were considered to be good and the professor decided to give prizes to the following: R. Kingston, Moore street; Jean Hatfield, Harrison street; Geo. W. London, Main street; W. Brown, High street; Miss Norton, Main street; and Fred Shannon, Main street. An answer which did not please Mr. Wilkinson very much was "Because you look the part."

Professor Wilkinson claims that he is one of the best swimmers in the world. He would be pleased to swim fifteen miles any day, just to let the people of St. John see what an expert he is. He thinks that he can lower the world's record in swimming the English channel.

FOUND THE BODY OF WM. A. GOLDSWORTHY

One of the Lord Kitchener's Crew, Missing Since July 8th, Met Death by Drowning.

The body of W. A. Goldsworthy, who was employed on the tugboat Lord Kitchener, was found this morning by Wilbert Turner. The body was floating near Leonard's wharf inside the I. C. R. trestle bridge. Mr. Turner towed the body to Reed's Point slip and notified Officer Ross of his discovery. Officer Crawford was called and the two policemen had the body taken to the morgue.

Coroner Berryman was also summoned to give permission for the removal of the body.

The body was badly decomposed and it was not until noon that Arthur Jeffrey, a shipmate, positively identified the body as that of William A. Goldsworthy who had been missing from the Lord Kitchener for over three weeks. It was thought at the time of Goldsworthy's disappearance that he had fallen overboard. He had only been working on the tugboat a short time. He was from Halifax.

Goldsworthy was known among tugboatmen as "Billy Lallfax" and was employed as a steward on the steamer. He was first missed on the night of the eighth inst.

THE BAPTIST UNION OF CANADA TO BE FORMED

Delegates Home from Meeting in Montreal

New Governing Body Will Deal With Missions and Printing—Scheme to go Before Conventions.

The meeting in Montreal of the seventeen delegates appointed by the Maritime Baptist Conventions of Canada to consider the scheme of organizing a Canadian union is now concluded.

Rev. Dr. McLeod, of Fredericton, who was one of the delegates from the Maritime Conventions, has returned home. Dr. McLeod said to the Star that the members of the committee were unanimously in favor of the formation of the new governing body. They will present their reports to the various conventions at the next meeting. Dr. McLeod said that the very fact of the Maritime Convention sending delegates to this meeting is indicative of the sympathy felt by the members of the church towards the formation of such a central body. The Maritime Convention will be held in Wolfville in August, when the reports of Rev. Dr. McLeod, Rev. W. E. McIntyre, Rev. D. Hutchinson, Dr. Creed and Judge F. W. Emmerston, the delegates, will be received.

The members spent four days in session in Montreal. The proposed scheme of a general convention was thoroughly discussed and a general plan of arrangement was made up.

The idea is to have the general convention held in the Maritime provinces and would not in any way interfere with the present conventions but would take over such work as could be better disposed of by the larger body. The chief work of the proposed body would be the charge of all foreign missions and the non-English speaking people and in the Yukon. Whenever a mission is to be started, the central body would take control. The missions in the west would be taken care of and further work along this line prosecuted.

Another very important duty of the proposed body would be the publication of Sunday school literature.

The members of the committee decided that in case the idea should meet the favor of the various Baptist conventions throughout the Dominion and should the new general convention come into existence it should be called the Baptist Union of Canada. The first meeting is to be held in May, 1908, at a place to be decided upon. Each church will be asked to send one delegate to the general convention.

The Maritime delegates had a most enjoyable time during their four days in Montreal. Dr. W. E. McIntyre will arrive home tomorrow evening. Rev. D. Hutchinson will remain away for several weeks.

THE ANNUAL METHODIST SUMMER CAMP MEETING

Will Open at Berwick, N. S., on August 6th—A List of the Speakers

The annual Methodist camp meeting and summer school for Sunday school workers will be held at Berwick, N. S., on August 6th to 15th. The meetings will be in charge of Rev. J. S. Cochrane, president; James E. Hennigar, secretary; Rev. W. R. Turner, superintendent of public worship; and Rev. W. J. Dean, director of music. The lines taken up this year are Bible study and the methods of Sunday school work. The summer school has secured the services of Mrs. Mary Foster Bryner, one of the international field secretaries, who is a specialist in Sunday school organization, especially in primary and junior work. Rev. Mr. Bartlett, associate secretary of Epworth League, will be present and a number of missionaries from China and Japan. The camp grounds are only a few minutes' walk from the D. A. R. station, the tents and cottages being placed in a very pretty grove of hemlock and pine. The programme is practically the same for every day, and includes the summer school for Sunday school workers, social services and sermons. Others who will take part, besides those whose names have been already mentioned are: Revs. John Craig, F. E. Barrett, Joseph Sellar, H. J. Indoo, J. N. Fisher, W. C. Parry, J. Phalen, D. Norman, W. H. Langille, A. Daniel, L. Daniel, and R. W. Weddall.

PROBATE COURT.

In the probate court this morning the hearing in the estate of the Countess de Furry was adjourned until August twenty-sixth; the hearing in the estate of William Jordan until September third; the hearing in the Litterer estate until August fifth.

In the estate of John Thompson, Dr. Silas Alward and J. D. Hazen appeared for Enoch Thompson. They said the estate was administered in equity on a will filed by Debora Thompson on a petition in this case.

In the estate of Charles Louis Corey an application was made for the sale of real estate. The application was by administratrix for an order for the sale of real estate in order to pay debts.

Two questions arose in this case. First, that the deceased had been dead only a few months and it was questionable whether the application could be made before eighteen months had elapsed since his decease. Second, that the debt for which the sale was sought was due to the administratrix, and it was questionable whether she could be a creditor.

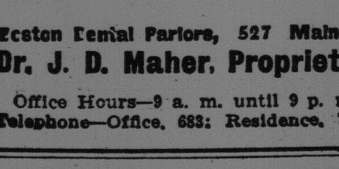

Judgment was observed until Friday.

TORONTO, July 21.—Adam Ludwick shot and killed his wife yesterday. He was in a demented condition, due to ill-health. Ludwick is now in jail.

UNDERWRITERS GIVE $100 TO TOURNAMENT FUND

Chief Kerr, of the fire department, is a pleased man today for in addition to the handsome donations he has already received from a number of business houses to aid the firemen's tournament in September he was made aware of the fact that at a meeting of the Board of Fire Underwriters held this morning it was decided by that body that they would donate $100 to the fund. The chief is on the war path for contributions and is finding ready subscribers wherever he calls.

It was thought that the Warwick salmon boat had been located on Saturday when some white paint was found on one of the grappling irons, but no trace of the sunken boat could be found. While grappling on Friday a seven hundred pound anchor, which had probably been lying at the bottom of the river, was found and brought ashore.
