PROGRESS.

VOL. XIII., NO. 653.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY FEBRUARY 9 1901.

AWAKE AT LAST.

The Police are Becoming Active-Several Haunts of Vice Raided During the Week.

The moral wave or crusade against vice | business at the corner of Water and which has swept over St. John during the Princess streets. He says he thinks it is years resided in St. John and his many past few weeks has caused quite a flurry an outrage and a scandal that a in police circles. The public were very person being arrested in such a place in police circles. The public were very person being artered in the property much astonished to learn on Tuesday morning that the heuse formerly kept by Kate Brown had been raided on Monday when the police were aware of his proper name. Mr. Brennan, so rumor says, is night and that the new proprietress Hattie Smith, with three ct her "boarders," Marguerite Fraser, Bertie Patterson and Nellie Deering, had been placed behind the bars.

A man giving his name as Henry Brennan, was also scooped in by Captain Jen-kins and Detective Killen who were instrumental in making the arrests.

The quartette of women were brought before Police Magistrate Ritchie on Tuesday morning. They were fined $99 and $1 costs, each. The Deering girl is a wayward miss about 17 years of sge. She is still in short dresses but did not seem in the least abashed at her position. It appears that she is incorrigible and her relatives have given her up as a bad job. The other females took the court's verdict as an everyday affair.

When Mr. Brennan was called upon the magistrate to use a slang expression, "cut loose." In passing sentence upon Brennan his honor took occasion to remark that it he had been "among the favored ones" he might have received notice that a raid was intended Monday night, but he wasn't. The "respectable" young men-sye, and married men of St. John-who have their regular evenings at these resorts, generally know when the police are to swoop down. The common vagrant, his honor continued was treated just the same as the most "respectable" citizen when before him in such a case. What he wanted was to get some of these fine, "respectable" young men of St. John's better classes before him.

Inspector Jones also operated upon two houses ot shady reputation on Monday night. Liquor was seized by him in the "boarding houses" conducted by Ada Wilson and Beatrice Field. They contributed $50 each to the city's exchequer.

The inspector incidentally remarked to the reporter that "this business was not going to stop here, but that he would wipe out every place where liquor was illegally ald."

Ritchie in open court regarding the social evil at present existing in St. John, have to aid their companion, and with the aid been the cause of much comment during of Detective Killen succeeded in capturing been the cause of much comment during of Detective filmers of whom Policeman chance while on duty on Mill street, to se-the week. An imputation has been thrown the men, only three of whom Policeman chance while on duty on Mill street, to se-cure a hair cut. But this was one of the cure a hair cut. But this was one of the filmer of the men only three of the cure a hair cut. on the police force and the politics. The election of Mr. Allen is a decided addition to our Provincial House. He is a speaker of rare ability, in fact it is doubtful it he has his superior in New Brunswick. Mr Allen is elected as a supporter of the government. He is a brother in-law of Mr Hazen, the leader of the opposition. Though connected by family ties these gentlemen politics run rent directions. Mr. Allen for in diffe friends hear of his success with pleasure. It is probable that the day is not far dis-contemplating taking action in this matter, so as to place the name of himself and family beyond that stigms of shame which has recently been attached to it. This giving of assumed names in court is an old business, and one; no doubt, with which the police are fully acquainted ROUGHLY HANDLED.

Policeman Geline Severely Beaten by

On Thursday night Police officer Goslin while in the discharge of his duty on the Water street beat was murderously assault ed by a crowd of sailors from one of the steamers lying at Sand Point.

At about ten o'clock just as the bars were closing, a crowd of these tars came rushing out of one of the saloons in the vicinity of the ferry-house, Policeman Gosline, kindly advised them "to move on." One of them became very violent and made some very prolane replies. As a result the policeman took him in charge and vainly endeavored to land him in the lockup in the ferry building, Water street.

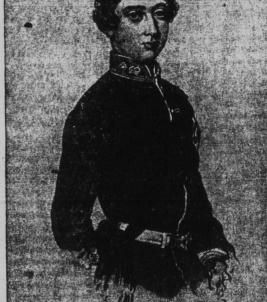

The mates of the drunken sailor rushe to his rescue, then ensued a scene beyond description. The officer gallantly tried to use bis "billy" and hold his prisoner, but the odds were all against him. The intoxi cated rabble of drunken tars pounced on bim, took his baton from him and pummeled him in murderous fashion.

When Gostine lost his baton, he made vain efforts to use his revolver, but he could not extricate it from his pouch. About this time terry gateman Baxter came to the policeman's rescue, and it was lucky he did or there might have been a murder added to St. John's criminal annals.

The men who are members of the Ship Laborer's Union were leaving their hall, just as the fracas was in its height and hurrying out to the scenetound the belligerent sailors having the upper hand. They at once went to the York Point beat and secured assistance from offliers Rankine

The charges made by Police Magistrate and Anderson, who were doirg duty on the King Square. These cfficers at once hurried Albert loward Nonice of Wales.

KING EDWARD VII. As He Appeared When He Visited St. John in the Sixties.

denly dropped.

charges under bail.

tant when the new representative will occupy a front seat in the government of the country. Keepers and inmates of disorderly and dis-reputable houses. A few weeks ago proscoal merchant and a law student were sub-

"Mike" and His Hair Cut. Everybody knows the song of "Johnny, Get Your Hair Cut," but no one ever ac cused a St. John policeman of being fattidious to the degree of a Beau Brummell, yet, such is the fact. On Wednesday of this week officer M. J. Collins, "Handsome Mike", as he is generally termed, saw a chance while on duty on Mill street, to se-Power and W. J. O'Hearn. The former is

OUR SISTER CITY

Halifax Has Its Immoral Troubles and is a Competition With St. John.

~~~~~~~ The pith of the whole matter is that the HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 6th, 1901. The moral sentiment of Halifex which has teen dormant so long has broken out agein, and threatens vengeance on the people are getting tired of the corruption that is existing in certain circles. Heretotore prosecutions have been started only against, keepers on Albermarble streets, but the fashionable resorts were never

PRICE FIVE CENTS

The chief of police is of course indignant. He thinks that the matter has been taken out of his hands. It has, for many believe it never was safe there.

Some thirty or more witnesses have been summoned, and they include men in all branches and walks of life-from the professionali man down to the idle, sporty young man about town.

A very well known gentleman objects strongly to proceeding being teken, and in fact endeavoured to thwart them. This seemed strange, but some persons thought that the gentle man might be called to give evidence as to the character of the house.

TOLD OF THE QUEEN. Rev. Mr. Rainpie's Valuable Possession-St. John Fire.

The fatories that are beirg told in connection; with our late Queen as far as our own city and people are concerned, would, it all (published, form some very interesting reading. It is not generally known that the Rev. W. W. Rainnie, the esteemed pastor of Calvin Presbyterian church, served with the British troops during the Zulu war. It was his misfortune to be invalided. home. During his last illness he was visited otten, by Her Majesty, the hospital being quite; handy to the Balmoral Castle where the Queen was then residing. The sovereign used to spend many hours in read. ing to her invalided heroes and on one occasion Mr. Ramie asked the Queen if she would, allow him to have the paper knite used by her in cutting the magezine she was then reading she giadly consented and the gtit was received with much gratification. PROG-RESS learns that Mr. Rainnie still has the pretty knife and as is quite natural values it most highly among his possessions. Another story told in connection with Her Majesty's thoughtfulness is that of the very large number of cablegrams of sympathy received here atter the St John fire, the second one to arrive was from the Queen. A circumstance like this goes more than anything else to show the deep teeling the beloved Monarch had for her people everywhere though some Reformists have taken matters in hand and of them may be thousands of miles away. It is no wonder that Victoria was loved by her subjects in all lands. as a result twenty-four women have been arrested, and are awaiting trial on these

-----nown throughout the province as a PROGRESS

ars as to passage ratas and train Northwest, British Columbia.

Rev W F PAL

23, by Rev A McNi

IHD.

7ynn, 28. Logan, 65. I. Hunt, 28.

White, 64.

Catherine, 56. in Donald, 24. hillip Eagash.

hilip Eagash. Hugh Fisley. a Whitney, 69. rick Hobis, 30. man O'Neill 31. nis Steeves, 21. John Gilbert, 61 Patrick Bodger, wis Kurland 52.

dward Pover, 74. harles Doane, 27. Mary Weston, 18.

Pan Hamilton, 79. Harry Kulcup, 78. Daniel Upusm, 86. Irs Jarvis Pothier.

s Robert Williams Tr Chas Doane, 27. W Ross Forsyth, 27. Ada Nickerson, 91.

James Jellison, 89 Balph Pritchard, 91. Mrs John Elderkin.

Catherine Murray, 81

, Mrs Jeseph Trott, 65. s Willard Stillman, 80.

s Florence Harlow, 30 , Annie B Titcombe, 3

an S.Edgar A Morrison, 38.

an 3, Edgar A Morrison, 38, 122. William J Palsifer, 41. Ser, Jan 6, Mr Hugh Forbes. 53, Willie George AuCoin, Jan 24, Mrs Roderick Frase In 13, Mrs Jessie McDonald,

1416 ale to 1416 a file

RING WOMEN

d, P.O. Box 996, Ma

AILBOADS

DIAN

NTREAL

FIC COAST,

BY THURSDAY.

-10-

THE PARTY IN DESIGNATION

ACIFIC

Sleepers.

the Rev Fr L'Archeveque,

Rev J Mac

LIFORNIA. d pamplets descriptive of journ. D. P. A., C. P. R., St. John, N.

he Canadian Northwest

over 18 years of age. Send for

A. J. HEATH. D. P. A., C. P. R. St. John, N. B.

lonial Railway

ONDAY Nov. 26th, 1900, train

LL LEAVE ST. JOHN

at du Chene, Campbellton .12.15 .16.40 .17.05 .22.1 ec and Montreal... or Halifax and Syd r will be attached to the train at 17.05 o'clock for Quebec and agers transfer at Moncton.

will be attached to the at 22.10 o'clock for Halif ning and Sleeping cars

LL ARRIVE AT ST. JOHN

Bez..... Bebee and Montreal...... lifax, Pictou and Point du C from Pt. du Chene and Mo

e run by Eastern Standard

D. POTTINGER, CKET OFFICE,

self which he should not let pass unnoticed. He has been accused by the judge on the bench as having full cognizance of the existing conditions of affairs in the homes of the outcasts. The force under his immediate control have been accused of informing these dissolute women of mediated raids upon the premises ; the Magisrate boldly asserted that some young. unmarried men and some married men ot "respectable families," visited these places, and were always fortunate enough to get a "tip" as to the expected arrival of the pol-

The Evangelical Alliance has also made a move on the question of the "Social Evil." That body held a meeting on Monday when Rev T. F. Fotheringham spoke of the recent declaration of the chief of police regarding houses of ill fame, and moved the following :

"That, with reference to the question raised during the recent police investigation as to whether certain houses of illfame should be tolerated under police supervision, as a matter of expediency and a means of minimizing the evil which they represent, this alliance is emphatically of the opinion that a Christian community cannot compromise with sin, and that the constituted guardians of public morals abould exert themselves to suppress the notorious houses referred to and all similar places.'

There is one very indignant citizen in St. John at the present time. His name is Henry Brennan. This gentleman dees broughout the Province irrespective of put up a plucky fight, but was by no means any match for such a crowd of drunken and cowardly ruffians. Policeman Gosline is one of the quietest and most unassuming men of the force. He can thank Ferry Gateman Baxter for his promptness in aiding him in beating off these men and saving him from death at their hands. The men from the Ship Laborers did all that was possible to quell the riot and help the officer from receiving such a unishment. The lack of proper police precautions in this vicinity and, in fact throughout the whole city, is sgain exemplified as a re-sult of Thursday night's fracas. More men are needed on this beat. The city should be properly patrolled and not left at the mercy of a lot of drunken sailors and others who may take charge.

There has been much talk lately of in crease in policemen's pay, etc., but what is most needed is a larger torce, competent to cope with such cases as that of Thursday night. Prudence is a good thing but when carried too far, we may wake up some morning to read of some policeman or perhaps a citizen who will have been waylaid and maybe murdered by some such gang of cowardly ruffians as these who participated in Thursday night's assault.

Mr. Allen, M. P. P.

The election of Geo. W. Allen as a representative for York to the local Legisla-that Mike got left. Capt. Jenkins happened to be passing and saw the brass-buttoned official in the chair. He reported the officer to Chief Clark, who, as a consequence, suspended him for two days. This is quite a sentence for a hair cut. The genial secretary of the Police Relief Association must feel sore and hurt at the ignominy of the affair, to say nothing of the time lost in suspension and the price of the hair cut. As this is the twentieth century and the time of innovations, there is no doubt that the popular refrain will be revised to read :

Mikey, get your hair cut just like mine, It will cost you fifteen cents and two days time

Cold Friday Auniversary. Yesterday was the 40th anniversary of that "Cold Friday" which one hears so much about nowadays. Yesterday was cold enough in itself to free ze an ordinary individual. The mercury lowered in the vicinity of zero, while the windows took on that glacial aspect which is supposed to exist in the North Pole. It was a cold enough Friday for the man who had to go to work early in the morning, and the little tots of children who went plodding on their way to school.

Bordon as Leader.

The selection of Mr. Bordon as leader of the Dominion opposition is another of the many compliments, showered on the Maritime Provinces. The men down by the ses are always found in the front ranks, whether it be in politics, war or anything also alse.

lawyer, while the latter, although a young man has had considerable criminal practice, and makes a splendid mate for his older counsel. The pair promise to make things interesting for the tenderlionites.

ecutions were started and a well known poer æd, but the prosecutions were sud-

This time, however, several well known

The prosecution is represented by J. J.

The defence is being conducted by Mr. F. J. Conidon. a leading member of his profession. The "Crusade" as it is popularly called met with several hitches First when the warrant were handed to the chief of police, he objected to executing them on the ground that the persons there in were not fully described, and it was not till the informant accompanied the officers in order to identify the accused that the arrests were made. Finally the "birds" were secured and taken to the station, They were arraigned in turn. First came "the Jewess." She glanced forcely at the innior counsel for the persecution, which caused this gentleman to smile blandly. Then came the others.

Meanwhile the officers of the law were getting in their work, and soon brought before the court a large number of well known characters.

The last two kept up a pititul wail during the proceedings. At last they were released on bail to appear on a certain day for trial.

They were not without friends, however as two gentlemen has been to the rescue. and they were quickly bailed. But they are not their only friends as CONTENTS TODAY. PAGE 1 .- This p age + peaks for itself. Read PAGE 2 .- Mothers of Famous Sonsmen whose influence has helped to make noble careers possible. PAGE 3 -- Musical and dramatic news of the PAGE 4 .- Editorial, poetry and other tim ly topics. PAGES 5, 6, 7, and 8 .- Social happenings il over the provi PAGE 9.-She Knew the Queen-A resident of the States gives some anecdo of our late sovereign. A sad tale of the South. PAGES 10 and 15.-First instalment of a new serial entitled 'Sweet Violet.' PAGE 11.-Sunday Reading- Jonathan Long's Ordeal-A hero of the se war. PAGE 12 .- Mourning in China-The peculia, ceremonies at their bu PAGE 13 .- Facts and fancies from the PAGE 14.—An interesting article on how commercial travellers protect them selves against robbery.

PAGE 16 .- At sea in a wagon- A tale of

Births, marriages and deaths

Umbreilas Made, Re-

PROGRESS, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1901

------Mother of Famous Sons.

my mother.'

George Peabody's Mother.

carned the name of a mother-boy.

mether, a refined and intel"igent woman, who taught him to 13ad at four, and who

William Lloyd Garrison.

*****************

Copyright 1901, Christain Hersld, New York. A lovely picture, dear to all hearts, is that of the mother keeping the cradle sjog with her foot, while her hands are busy in the new England Magazine, 'seems to have inherited from his mother the deep and earnest piety and intellectual strength with the tiny socks or the bigger socks, whose mending is sometimes the mother's only touch upon the household understanding. But the mother who would keep her hand upon the growing life must learn to deal with other points than those at the end of a needle, to weave stronger bonds than can be made of day sing-cotton, and to sing the music to which the young new life keeps step, after the cradle is deserted and lullables have ceased to charm. That mothers have been doing these greater things all down the centuries is proved by the record of the noblest men of and the homeless. When he went out into the world at eleven years of age to every nationality. The list is so long that a tew names which it is possible to choose should be considered suggestive of the riches of the field rather than as illustrative of the great, amply proven fact that the dominent factor in most great lives has been the influence of the mother.

early discovered his child's love for books, Washingtin's Mother. shielded him as far as possible f. om pick-Nothwithstanding everybody's familia: ity with her history and characteristics, the ing up stones and weeding cold, and kep him i om the hard work of farm life by name of the mother of Washington bas rightful precedence in our list. She was a claip ing his help in roel ing the baby, that thus she might be cee for other household beautiful girl, called the 'Rose of Epping Forest.' She married Augustine Washtasks. ing on, a widower and a gentleman of high standing and noble character, of !- "ge was a noble woman, deeply re gious, willing to bear sil and brave all for conscience property and a considerable personal ations. She was brought to the large sake. Very poor, there was no chance old-fashioned colonial house on the barks for William, either in school, or college. of the Potomac, where we can fancy the When he was seven, his mother, having blide covertly exploring her new home and found work for herself as a nurse for the scanning the tootprints of her predecessor. sick, placed the child with a descon of the In this voyage of discovery she was arresttown. At s'ateen he wrote an a...icle ed by a small but rare treasury of books. for the Newburyport Herald, signing The fly-leaf of one revealed the name of it, "An Old Bacheler." It was his the owner, the first wife, 'Jane Washingmother who, six hradred miles away ton.' Finding the inkhorn she wrote firmly engaged at the sick bed of a patient, beneath. 'And Mary Washington,' proshared his delight and surprise when he bably the first time she had written her saw it really in print. It was she who, new name. We all know how she read through her long and loving letters, kept this book-it was Sir Matthew Hale's Contemplations-to her ster sons and her own sons; how it was reverenced by George Washington, and how it is t. sasured today at our national Mecca, Mount Vernon, where both as moteer and mistress Mary Was! ngton led and guided her boy into the manhood that made him his country's leader and gr'de. Here, also, as the Revolutionary War went on, and her neighbors thronged her with plaudits and praises of her noble son-their idol and hers-she restrained their extravagant words, saying simply, 'George seems to have deserved well of his country, but we must not praise too much ; George has no torgotten his duty.'

When she hand of the surrender at Yorktowa she raised her hands and ferventiy tharked beaven that all was overhad not seen her son for seven years. Now he was coming home. No word of "glory" or "honors" fell om his "ps or Yet this Fing among men had his reward. His mot ther had lived him back! One has only to recall the fariliar story of this noble mother's life to recognize its moulding power upon the patriot, the soldier and the statesman. His Figh temper and his habit of self-control were like hers as were his principals of equity and justice, his power of dealing with great and L ave, issues, and his habit of practical business detail. It was like her and like him, when she knew the world was regarding him as head of the nation, leader of victorious hosts, to say, "He has been a good son. I believe he has done his duty as a men."

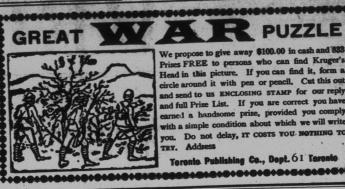

Beary Ward Beecher's Mother. Henry Ward Beecher says of his moth er : 'I have only such a remembrance of her as you have of the clouds of ten years ago, yet no devout Catholic ever saw so much in the Virgin Mary as I have seen in my mother, who has been a presence to me ever since I can remember. Do you know why so often I speak what must seem to some of you rhapsody of women? It is because I had a mether, and Jf I were to live a thousand years I could not exprese what seems to me to be the least that owe to her. From her I received my love which have always been his characteristics. of the beau+iful, my poetic temperament, from her also I received simplicity and child<sup>1</sup>:ke faith in God.' She studied liter-Mys. Bolton says: 'Motherlove was al ways a strong force in the heart of Philips Broeks. It is related that when someon ature and history while she spun flaz, asked him if he was not s. aid when he tying her books to the strff. No wonde first preached before Queen Victoria, he then that her g. eat son was an omrivorous replied, 'Oh, no; I have preached before reader. She wrote and spoke the French anguage fluently, painted on ivory, sang and played on the guitar, and was an ex-George Peabody was a poor Hille Leocer-boy in a New England country store, pert with her needle. So meag.e was the salary for the increasing household, only $400 a year, that she started a select who yet crine to the place where he was able to leave rine millions to the needy school in which she taught French, drawing, painting, and embroidery, beside the higher English branches. With all this cara his Fring, he had already, through work she tound t'me to make herself the his beautifal devo 'on to his noble mother idol of her children. Of Bayard Taylor it is seid +at bis

Of Wendell Phanips, it is said that hi love for his mother way a passion. 'Her earliest 6.18 to him,' says Carlos Marty, 'was a bible. Her one counsel for him was, 'be good, do good.'' That bible was his beat upon by wind and storm, he never forgot to keep his trust where his mother first taught him to place it. From her knowledge and common sense in political and mercantile affairs, he judged that other women must be able to take part in the world's work and therefore through life be saked for them an equal place in home and state.

The Mother of Edison.

The mother of the distingrished scientist, says a recent biography, was a woman of sweet and strong individuality, equipped with a solid, if unpretentious education and endowed with rare abilities as a teacher. She was eminently qualified to deal character, the little good that belongs to with the plastic mind of her son, and it was mine P Often; zwaidst the most arduous scenes of my tumultuous life, when I have to her judicious efforts, ra'er than to those of his father, that Edison owed that passed unharmed through the breakers of early impetus which gave such admirable him in courage and gave him the inspira-tion to battle, that lasted long after the hand that perned them had ceased its work.

from over-consciousness, was the woman who could bestow not only the do'lars.

"A Model for Mothers."

rned a handsome prize, provided you comply th a simple condition about which we will write you. Do not delay, IT COSTS YOU MOTHING TO Torento Publishing Co., Dept. 61 Torento for the life of her son, and I have believed imagination and perverting their mora in the efficacy of her prayers.' Give me who can find Kruger' sense with ashy and sensational fiction Edison, pertly from inclination, partly you may do what you "ke with the boys," Wading was one of his favorite mexims. through such ponderous tomes as Burton's Anatomy of Melancholy, Gibbon's Dec<sup>1</sup>ne In all the touching exemples of the in-fluence of motherhood, there is no story and Fall of the Roman Empire, Hume's more tender than that of the devotion and History of England and History of the Rethe prayers that were rewarded finally by formation. We are justified in the inferthe conversion of St. Augustine. The heart ence that through such books as these, no con a-- on of son rad mother was indeed boy, however remarkable, waded without the encorragement and comprisonship o

the mothers of the nation to educate, and

'a fellowship of kindred minds." The Mother Of Napolean

"structor's git, but the mother's sym-The mother of Napoleon Bonaparte was the mother a'so of twelve other children, pathy and love. It was Samuel Johnson's mother to eight of whom were living when she was whem he said in his last letter; 'You left a widow, at the age of thirty-five, Napoleon srid of her: 'She managed everyhave been the best mother, and, I believe, thing with a prudence which could neit the best woman in the world. I thank you have been e pected iron her sex nor from prized treasure for seventy years, and, giveness of a'l *hat I have done ill, and of says Mrs. Bolton, 'Yer's after, when he steod up like a 6-cat oak in the forest, was to defray her funeral expenses that every ungenerous effection, was discouraged and discarded. She suffered nothin the evenings of one week he wrote Ras ing but that which was grand and selas, for which he received five hundred elevated to take root in or" youthful Bishop Hall sperts of t's mother's "te undertakings. She abborred falsehood, and would not tolerate the slightest act of. as saint. I've. Never any lips so preached piety, never any soul that more accurately disobedience. None of our farits were practiced it. He gave her credit for much of the (baracter and influence 'at made him a power in the church overlooked. Losses, privations, fatigue, .d no effect upon her. She endured all, "at made braved a''. She had "'e energy of a man, combined with the gentleness and delicacy It was Garibaldi who says of his mother, of a women.' Such was Napoleon's love a woman of humble station: 'She was a for her that he contessed to he friend. model for mothers. Her tender affection when in exile at St. Helena, that in all his for me has, perhaps, been excessive; but I vicissitudes, only once had he been temptdo not owe to her love, to her angel like ed to suicide, from which he was saved by the loan of a srm of money, from a friend, which sum he sent abonce to relieve the distross of his mesher. character, the little good that belongs to

Betraying Buckles

the ocean or the bailstorms of battle, she General Drhesme was a cistinguished French veteran, slain by the Prussians after the route of Waterloo. He was fulh of resource, and had great skill and presence of mind. At Pescara, when he was in great danger, a large fortress in front and a savage insurrection in his rear, his own common sense saved him. 'Who commands at Pescara?' he asked a ## soldier.'

.There are two ' What is the grade of the chief in com-'A brigadier-general.' "His name?" 'De Pietramaggiore.' 'H's title?' 'A marquis.' ·His age? About seventy.' 'Is he well preses sed? Does he keep his 'He is thin and pallid.' 'Is his voice strong and manly?'

Music The TONES AND Nell Gayone wit

Wednesday and Th will without doubt as a production. pear as principals tee of excellence. anductor assures i Mme. Albari is in March. The tax ate queen's tavorit day she sang at a p by King Edward a m. at Windsor C Edna May bas q

. .....

Æ

1

11,00

grip and is able t "The Girl from up Sullivan occasion his own compositi Practically the wh opera "The Sappl atilized. It is rep a number of songs them unfinished an from his juvepile of is hardly to be des Sullivan was distin would not have be looked anything enough for the pri

Boito received of Verdi's Falstaff, $25,000 for the o the acting rights a and separated num formance of this wrote the price of to $50 each. A nessed the rehears It is well nigh rehearse's began, gan to supervise e di's original idea v in a small theatrestage-so that the munication betwee public, or, as B public might vibi view of this plan and written, and it deal of pressure th to give his worl wants every effect realized as he contell in the treme stage as they would

The true acce thing to Verdi, an the artists underst for more accent, when he screams t all inflexions; and rehearsal, they ha then they have no For they are kept except to be sworn accommodated w every day until does not seem to h head that the peop footlights might not, that wonderfu he goes at the or knows exactly who eagle's eye he has he slaps the violin there? Repeat th good. Do it on th the third. Right an artist : 'What interval? [Mind nine with full orch good-non sts ber Here he corrects. lightning, halt a p tion. Now he ren in the orchestramakes changes ag done all that, Da the same ground i over again. The greatest di effects of detail ar avllabication and speed of articulat from his artists ; singing that he rea on of one satisfaction-thes sing, those sing Here the quality the written phrase after day.

The Mother of Lincola.

Abraham Lincoln's Mother, says Mrs. Bolton, to whose sketches we wish to acknowledge our debt, possessed but one book in the world, the Bible; and from this she taught her children daily. Of quick mind and retentive memory, Abre ham soon came to know it by heart, and to look upon his gentle teacher as the em bo diment of all the good precepts in the book. Alterward, when he goveraed thirty million people, he said : 'All that I am or hope to be, I owe to my angel Bleesings on her memory !' When he was ten years old, this saintly mother. mother died of consumption, and was bur-ied in a plain box under the trees near the cabin. For her boy the loss was irre parable. Day after day he sat on the grave and wept. A sad, far away look crept into his eyes, which those who saw him in the perils of his latter life well remember.

Philips Brooks' Mother

In the career of Philips Brooks we have the tribute of a noble life to the infuence of 's noble mother. 'The son

'Is he lively, gay?' Neither the one nor the other.' What does he wear on his head? 'He is pewdered, and his hair is done in locks. 'Has he boots and spurs?' 'No; he wears silk stockings, shoes and great buckles." "Great buckles!" cried Duhesme. "Bring up the gens and begin firing. The place is mine."

Hard Onestio

"The world is round, and it goes round, Uncle 'Rastus,' said the small grandson of the old colored man's former owner. 'Don't you understand about it ?' 'No, honey, I cyan't say I does,' admitted Uncle 'Rastus, surveying the well-varnished apple with which his little guest bad illustrated his argument. 'W'at holds de world up, dat's w'at I'd like to know, chile P' 'Why, it goes round the sun Uncle Rasius,' said the boy, eagerly, 'and the un holds it up by the law of attraction.' 'Um, honey, I reckon you ain' gone quite far 'nough in yo' reasoning yet, 'said the old man, with a smile of patron good nature. 'In dat case, w'at would ke de world up !when de sun's do down? Answer me dat, chile.'

H. -1 believe that my father and your aother were once very fond of each other. She-Yes, I have often heard mamma say she was more than half soury they got divorced.

ow will dye a splendid gr Megaetic Dyes. Io cents ge and the results are sure.

TALK OF

An event of in this week was the members of the V Messre. Benjam Bowman, A Soci medium through ed to the public,

PUZZLE

100.00 in cash and '833 ho can find Kruger ou can find it, form a r pencil. Cut this out STAMP for our reply are correct you have provided you comply at which we will write STS YOU NOTHING T

Dept. 61 Terente ----

on, and I have believed her prayers.' 'Give me nation to educate, and ou "ke with the boys," rite mexims.

ing exemples of the in-hood, there is no story that of the devotion and ere rewarded finally by St. Augustine. The heart and mother was indeed indred minds.

er Of Napolean

Napoleon Bonaparte was f twelve other children. re living when she was r: 'She managed everyence which could neither ed fron her sex nor from tched over us with a solid. Every low sentiment, s effection, was discourded. She suffered nothwhich was grand and e root in or youthful the abborred falsehood, olerate the slightest act of lone of our farlts were sses, privations, fatigue, on her. She endured all, had the energy of a man, he gentleness and delicacy ach was Napoleon's love contessed to his friend. St. Helens, that in all his once had he been temptom which he was saved by n of money, from a friend, ent at once to relieve the mether.

caying Buckles nesme was a cistinguished p, slain by the Prussians of Waterloo. He was fulb d had great skill and pre-At Pescara, when he was r, a large fortress in front nsur section in his rear, his ense saved him.

wo ' grade of the chief in comands at Pescara?' he asked a r-general.' aggiore.

enty.'

presei ved? Does he keep his and pallid.'

e strong and manly?' and

PROGRESS, SATURDAY FEBRUARY 9 1:01,

ing successes and their work won warmest approval and recognition from the audience of the week. A Social Highwayman is a play in four acts, elever and interesting but with that undercurrent of sadness in-separable from crime and its consequences. It is a play that sets one thinking and try-ing to markle out the questions involved. ing to puzzle out the questions involved, the interest never flags for one minute and when the finel curtain falls there is a queer l'ttle feeling round your heart which con-andnotor assures its success.

Music and

m. at Windsor Castle.

enough for the printer.

nessed the rehearsal wrote :

of Verdi's Falstaff, and Verdi bimself got rehearse's began, and four since Verdi began to supervise everything himself. Verdi's original idea was to give his "Falstr ff'

in a small theatre-or, at least, on a small stage-so that there might be more com-public, or, as Berlioz puts it, that the realized as he conceived it, and naturally

The true accento means almost every thing to Verdi, and unfor unstely not all

彭

. . . .

.

Æ

v

T

11,000

"1

The Drama

CONSS AND UNDERTONES.

Nell Gwyone will be given on Tuesday,

Wednesday and Thursday of next week and will without doubt have wonderir! merit vinces you that you have been watching a as a production. These names which applay with elements of realig-that the mirror held up to nature has given back a pear as principals in the crit rea gurr antee of excellence, and that Mr, Ford is ven / reel story. Mr. Willard Bowman portayed the Mme. Albar' is to give a concert here in March. The famous songstress was the late queen's favorite singer and !ast Sunpart of Courtice Jaffrey, a man of bigh social position, with a proclivity for appro-priating jewels in other than the legal way. day she sang at a private ser ...ce attoaded by King Edward and the Emperer Wil-Mr. Bowman was disappointing in the first act because of his stiffness, and a disagree able nasal tone in his voice. The first dis-Edna May has quite 12cover. . irom the appeared as the play went on, and he grew grip and is able to resume her role in "The Girl from up There." stronger and s.ronger and sironger, more powerful and forceful in every act, until Sullivan occasionally worked up some of only one opicion was held by the house and that is that he is a good actor. The his own compositions into newer works. Practically the whole of his abandoned nasal tone, harsh and grating still rewsins. Mr. Bowman certainly had not a symp? opers "The Sapphire Necklace" was thus atilized. It is reported that Sullivan leid thetic part, and it augurs we" for his future a number of songs and part-songs, some of standing here that he got it just the same. them unfinished and most of them dating from his juverile days. Their pub'ication Perhaps it was something in the man's personality that won it for him However that may be the main fact is that on his is hardly to be desired for as a song writer Sullivan was distinctly second rate and he would not have been likely to have over-looked anything he considered good first appearance he established brmselt a tavorite.

As Jenkins Hanby, the valet of Jaff.ey. Mr. Berjan in Horring had a difficult role to play. It called for the most careful Boito received $2,000 for the libretto treatment, and that was just what it received from Mr. Holling; qu'et, unas-suming. but with a whole world of repres-$25,000 for the opera plus 4 per cent of the acting rights and of the price of scores and separated numbers. At the f-st persion about him he was the faithful se ent formance of this opera, the last Verdi asted confidante and would be savior of wrote the price of parquet seats went up his master. It was a magnificent piece of to $50 each. A correspondent who witwork, and the actor need have no doub*:

as to his future popularity here. There was a spoutaniety about his Mon-It is well wigh seven weeks since the day night audience's approval, a genuine desire to give the new men a hearig reception, if they merited it, that had been wanting up to that time this season. Since Christmas there has been a restraint over ication between the artists and the Opera House audience that must have affected the company's work in no small degree, but on Monday night the barrier public might vibrate with the artist." In view of this plan was the opera conceived of it was melted somehow and let us hope and written, and it was only after a great that not even the tiniest chill will be perdeal of pressure that the master consented to give his work to the Scala. Now, he is a young man-two young men in factwants every effect, vocal or othe wise. who are not en rapport with the audience, to say the least. Now that Mr. King has the artists find that endless details will not been banished it might be as well to use tell in the tremendous area of the Scala the p. aring kaife in other quarters. Both stage as they would on a smaller one. Inde these men have I believe other talents which would make them usefal behind the scenes and according to patrors of the company that in the proper place at least, one of them who on Monday night, persistthe artists understand him; when he asks for more accent, they give more voice; when he acceans then "Piano !" they lose self," "everybuddy," "kin" for can and all inflexions; and when, after four hours' once or twice he even got down to "feller" rehearsal, they have got the real accents. but drew himself up with a sharp turn and reheareal, they have got the real accounts, then they have no more voice to sing with. For they are kept without a moment's rest except to be sworn at—the ladies not even accommodated with chairs—i.com 12 30 simply teizible in its flat uncultured disaccommodated with chairs itom 12 or every day until 4, 5, or 6 p. m.; and it does not seem to have ever entered Verdi's head that the people on both sides of the head that the people on both sides of the footlights might be tired. He is not, that wonderful old tyrant. The way he goes at the orchesis is! And how he knows exactly what he wants, and whit an ion of beauly. A soldier of the Empire is to a function of beauly. A soldier of the Empire is organ the nose is. It is the first of the organ of respiration, and voless its Waller. There is to be a revival of "Masks and Faces" the play by Tom Taylor and Charles Reade in London in order that Marie Tempest may have the opportunity of sppearing as Peg Woffing.on. Frank Cooper will play tonight

The Climbers, Clyde Fitche's new play has been received with favor in New York It is an uncommonly interesting play and is skillully presented. Since the opening it has been subjected to a course of revision by which it has profited a catly. The rights of a new society comedy written by Lady Laura Troutoridge in Cillaboration with Mr. B. C. Stephenson and named "A Great Lady" have been ac" quired by Mrs. Lang*, y, whose intention it is to produce the play at her new theatre. "When I was a little girl," said Julia Marlowe, "my greatest regret and anxiety was my retrousse nose. I was in the habit of stating to my ferily that I shor'd some day become a great tragedienne. This amused them not a little, for neither they, nor I knew anything of the stage or actresses. The idea was plairly my own, but the family laughed at me. and assured me that such a "hing as a tragediene with a pug nose had never been heard of. I was impressed with the statement and it occured to me that it might be remeried. So I sought our fam''y physician, and con-fided my troubles to him, and begged him to operate on the offending member. He was vastly smused, but reassured me on the subject of noses. For years I was would with the idea, but I have lived to

to success." Says the Boston Transcript Mr. Tree has been engaged lately in a newspaper dispute with one or more of his critics. 'I have never contended,' he says, 'that the actor should not be subject to c. iticism. I should, for instance, trke no objection to the s'atement that I am quite incompe to fill the parts I play, or "hat I depend entirely upon scene: , for dramatic effect. But when it is stated that the managers of today, as a body, sre inspired by the most sordid motives, such as mere 'financial prospenity,' 'personal advertisement,' and social sgg. and zement'-when it is de clared that the productions of the modern stage are contemptible; when the actors of to-day are compared with those long dead and gone, whom the writer of today cor'd not pocsibly have seen-then I venture to submit that such remarks are outside cilticism, I maintain that an actor has as much ...ght as any other man to defend his craft fro charges which he considers to be unfs and based on ignorance of fact.' Of course, he has. But is Mr. Tree certain that these charges are 'unfair and based on ignorance?' He is the first man who has ventured to deny them in the gross. He would be wiser to let the galled jade wince, so long as his own withers are unwrang, and not rashly undertake the defence of a desperate case. About the merits of dead actors there may be much uncertainly; about those of living managers there is none, or very little.

the most important contribution which he than the local. One who is a mouth has yet made to stage literature. His next breather never gets nough air. Duan breather never gets . nouge air. Duing work will be a romantic comedy for Lewis the day he ar flers less in this respect, for the nerve centers are more active and force the respiratory muscles to act more energetically; but at right this vig.lance is relaxed, the amount of inspired air is greatly reduced, and all the 'issues softer for want of oxygen. For this reason the outh-breather always feels tired and out of sorts in the morning. The mind suffers as well as the body and mouth breathing children are al always backward in their studies.

The question of the cause of mouth breatbing, or rather of nasal obstruction, on which the mouth breathing depends, must be reserved for another article. As a rule, it is easily found on examination by the physican, and can be removed without difficulty. What we would insist upon here is the absolute necessity of its sarly removal.

A child who always breathes with open mouth, and whose voice has a nasal i.rang, month, and whose voice ins a facat track, should be examined and treated at the earliest possible moment, for the longer the rouble exists the worse it is for the child mentally, morally and physically.

Sweening the Elephanis.

Elephents are blessed with a good apetite, and would est a'l day if they could. But although they could slwsys eat more than they get, they do not consume all the hay provided for them. Some of it they use as a guard against mosquitoes and flies by throwing it thickly over their bodies. Leaning over the railing in the elephant house in Central Park, New York, the other day, talking with Keeper Snyder, was a tall sailor of the American ray, on the libbon of whose hat was the name of liscover that even a nose is not a brier the battle-ship Kearsarge. The sai'or was interested in elephants, and for his benefit Keeper Snyder made Tom, the larger of the park's two elephants, kneel, and when he was down and his back was thus within reach, the keeper took a broom and swept from the elephant's broad back the thick layer of hay that was upon it. The sweeping of the elephont's back caused the visitor some amusement, for, as he remarked, he had seen houses and sid walks and steamboats swept, but he had never before seen snybody sweep an elephant. Yet sweeping the elephants is in all

Yet sweeping the elephants is in all shows a regular pail of the duty of the keeper. If the show gives a street parade, the last thing done before the elephants come out into public view is to sweep them off. It is just so at the Zoo in Cent al Park. Before the menagerie is opened to the public in the morning, the last of the preparations in the elephants' house consists in making the elephants kneel to be swept.

Scales, and Dandruff by Shampoos with

3

PROGRESS

Some time ago there was a notable automobile procession in the city of Bui-falo, N. Y. It was notable for its size, and also for the fact that it was entirely com-automobile procession in the city of Buffalo, N. Y. It was notable for its size, and also for the fact that it was entirely composed of automobile wagons (like that in the cut above), built to distribute the advertising literature of the World's Dispensary Medical Association, proprietors and manufacturers of Dr. Pierce's medicines. In many a town and village Dr. Pierce's automobile has been the pioneer horseless vehicle. These wagons, ent to every important section of the country, are doing more than merely advertise Dr. Pierce's Remedics—they are pioneers of progress, heralds of the country, are doing more than merely advertise Dr. Pierce's Remedics—they are pioneers of progress, heralds of the country, are doing more than merely advertise Dr. Pierce's Remedics—they are pioneers of progress, heralds of the country, are doing more than merely advertise Dr. Pierce's Remedics—they are pioneers of progress, heralds of the country, are doing more than merely advertise Dr. Pierce's Remedics—they automobile age.

 And this is in Leeping with the record made by Dr. Pierce and his famous programations, which have always kept in the front on their merits. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is still the leading medicines for disorders and digestive and nutritive systems, for the purifying of the blood and healing of weak lungs.
 Women place Dr. Pierce's Reworlds predicines specially designed for women's use. The wide benefits this medicine has brought to women have been well."
 The reputation of Dr. Pierce's Pieas-ant Pilets as a safe and effective lazative for family use is international.
 It may be asserted without fear of combrady efficient to prove this supremacy. Here is a great modern hospital, always filled with patienta, where every day successil operations are performed on men and women whose diseases demand the aid of surgery. Ne hospital in Buffalo is better equipped, with respect to its modern appliances, or the suffer on sulting physician of thi of some special form of disease. The offer that Dr. Pierce makes to men and women suffering with chronis diseases of a free consultation by letter, is really without a parallel. It places without cost or charge the entire re-sources of a great medical institute at the service of the sick. Such an offer is not for one moment to be confounded with those offers of "free medical advice" which are made by people who are not physicians, cannot and do not practice medicine, and are only saved from pro-secution by artfully wording their adver-tisements so that they give the impre-sion that they are physicians without making the claim to be licensed. Those who write to Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N.Y., may do so with the assurance that they will receive not only the advice of a competent physician, but the advice of a physician whose wide experience in the treatment and cure of disease, and whose sympathy with human suffering leads him to take a deep, personal inter-est in all those who serie first parallel. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (in peper covern). 1005 mayers is sent force on me

v, gay?' e one nor the other.' is he wear on his head?' dered, and his hair is done in oots and spurs? ears silk stockings, shoes and ....

ckles!' cried Dahesme. 'Bring and begin firing. The place

Hard Question

d is round, and it goes round. us,' said the small grandson of olored man's former owner. understand about it ?' ey, I cyan't say I does,' admit-'Rastus, surveying the well-pple with which his little guest ted his argument. 'W'at holds , dat's w'at I'd like to know, goes round the sun Uncle aid the boy, eagerly, 'and the t up by the law of attraction.' ney, I reckon you ain' gone hough in yo' reasoning yet, 'said n, with a smile of patronizing re. 'In dat case, w'at would keep p'when de sun's done gope nswer me dat, chile."

believe that my father and your ore once very fond of each other. es, I have often heard mamma as more than half soury they ever ced.

will dye a splandid green by gastic Dyes. I0 cents buys a and the results are sure.

he slaps the violins. What are you doing there? Repeat this figure. Well, it is no Fredericton the Neptune Rowing Club good. Do it on the for th string instead of the third. Right now.' Then he turns to of Ne'l Gwynne. an artist : 'What is the matter with this interval? [Mind you, in 2n ensemble of nine with full orchestra.] Do it again. No good-non sts bene. Give me your part.' Here he corrects, with the rapidity of the lightning, halt a page of the part in question. Now he remembers something again in the orchestra-the oboes this time-and makes changes age in. And when he has done all that, Da capo is the order, and the same ground is gone over and over and over again. The greatest difficulty besides those o effects of detail are in the rapidity of the syllabication and in the extraordinary speed of articulation which Verdi exacts from his artists; It is the parlare sciolto in singing that he requires ; but, with the exception of one artist, nobody gives him satisfaction-these speak more than they sing, those sing more than they speak. Here the quality of the voice suffers, there the written phrase. And so it goes day after day.

TALK OF THE THRATER

An event of interest in theatrical circles interest in the strict of interest in theatrical circles interest in the strict of interest interest in the strict of interest interest in the strict of interest int An event of interest in theatrical circles eagle's eye he has for everything! Here the bill of today's performances. Next having secured the house for a production

The Institute will be occupied the latter part of next week by Edward D'O ze who was here last spring tor a short engage-ment. Mr. D'Oige is a Shakespearan actor of more than ordina. y menit and is ikely to receive good patronage.

Next week Ada Reben will come to Boston with sweet Nell of Old D rury. Joseph Jefferson will resume acting in April and will play for five weeks.

Sol Smith Russell will revive the quaint and comic play of "A Poor Relation."

There is a possibility that Mr. Gilleth will present Sherlock Ho!nes in the Lon. don Lyceum next autumn. Mande O'Dell is miting a big Fit as leading lady of the Baldwin Melville Scotch company in New Orleans. Mr and Mrs Robert Fitzsimmons and their son are appearing in a "comedy draws of sporting life" in Boston.

Another female He nlet is at hand Mme. Be, da Kalich being the lady who now aspires to present the melancholy Dane. Blanche Walsh is said to have made a great personal success as Josephine in "More then Queen." Joseph Brooks and organs of respiration, and vuless its functions are well performed the whole breathing process is deranged. The nos trils are not open cavities with smooth walls through which the air passes in and out, as it would through a rabber tube. They are divided juto several compariments by bony projections covered with mucous membrane, and the volume of air in entering is broken up into several siceams, so that ell of it comes in contact with the lining membrane.

Mouth-Breatbing.

Few people realize what an impoliant

This warm and moist membrane catches the dust and other impurities, and warms the rir so that it will do no has m when coming in contact with the more delicate membrane in the bronchial tabes and lungs.

When the nose is stopped up f.om any cause one must breathe through the mou'h, and if this is continued for any length of time the general her'th will inevitably sufier.

The mouth itself suffers "fo-st. The mucous membrane loses its moisture and becomes ir famed. The si- is neither lining membrane of the air passages all the way down to the lungs, so that a condition of sluggish inflammation is excited.

But the general effects are more selions

E H Smor

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that curves a cold in one day

And light dressings with CUTICURA, purest of emollient skin cures. This treatment at once stops falling hair, removes crusts, scales, and dandruff, soothesirritated, itching surfaces, stim-ulates the basic folliciae surplies the ulates the hair follicles, supplies the roots with nourishment, and makes the hair grow upon a sweet, wholesome, healthy scalp when all else fails.

Millions Use Cuticura Scap Millions Use Cuticura Scap Assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preserv-fing, nurfying, and beautifying the skin, for druft, and the stopping of falling hair, for and sort hands, for baby rashes, itchings, and sort here for all the purposes of the support of the form of baby rashes, itchings, and sort here or offensive perspira-tion in the form of washes for ulcrating purposes which readily suggest themselves we women, especially suggest themselves we women, especially suggest themselves be compared with it for all the purposes of the complexion song, and heats. No other for sites is the complexion song, and heats.

toilet and baby soap in the world. Complete Treatment for Every Humour, consisting of CUTICURA Soar, to cleanse the skin of cruste and scales and soften the thick-end of the scale of the scale of the scale of the skin of the scale of the scale of the scale of the skin of the scale of the scale of the scale of the skin of the scale of the the scale of the scale of the scale of the scale of the back of the scale of the scale of the scale of the scale of the back of the scale the scale of the sca Sold throughout the world. British Depot: 27-26 Charter.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (in paper covers), 1008 pages, is sent free on so-ceipt of 31 one-cent stamps, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound volume, to pay es-for the cloth-bound volume, to pay es-pense of customs and mailing only. Ad-dress Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

News and Opinions OF National Importance.

ALONE

CONTAINS (BOTH:

Daily, by mail, - - $6 a year Daily and Sunday, by mail, $8 a year

The Sunday Sun

is the greatest Sunday Newspaper » the world.

Price sc. a;copy. By mail, $2 a year? Address TH & SUN, New York the starting

PROGRESS: SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9 1901

PROGRESS.

PROGRESS PRINTING; AND PUB-LISHING COMPANY,- LIMITED.

gress is a Sixteen Page Paper, published every Saturday, at 39 to 41 Canterbury street, St. John, N. B. by the Pacenses Panyrine WAND S. CANTRE, EDITOR AND MANGER, SUb-ward S. CANTRE, EDITOR AND MANGER, SUb-scription price is Two Dollars per annum, in altiances.—Persons sending remittances! to his office must do so either by P. O., or Ex-press order, or by registered letter. Ornma-tran, we will nor is assessment. The trans, we will not as assessment of the tame. They should be made payable in every mase to Phocemas Faurtures and PORLISHING

ances.—Remember that the publi notified by letter when a subsc is paper stopped. All arrearages it the rate of five cents per copy.j

All Letters sent to the paper by persons having no business connection with it should be accom-panied by stamps for a reply. Mauscripts from other than regular contributors should always be accompanied by a stamped and addressed

Letters should be addressed and drafts made payable to PROGRESS PRINTING and PUBLISHING CO., LTD., ST. JOHN, N. B.

Agents in the city can have extra copies sent then if they telephone the office before six P. m.

SIXTEEN PAGES.

ST. JOHN, N. B. SATURDAY, FEB. 9 Subscribers who do not receive their pape Saturday morning are requested to com municate with the office.-Tel. 95.

A KING'S OPPORTUNITY.

50

T

Y

Never in the history of the British nation and we might say never in the history of any nation, has a monarch ascended a throne, where so much respect and con. fidence were placed, as in the case of the new king, EDWARD VII. When VICTORIA became queen it is true that people held Her Majesty in the highest regard, but being youthful and her character and mind yet untried, the future was one of uncertainty. Not so at the present time. The new king brings to his high position a fountain of knowledge, experience and wiedom. He is a man ripe in years and one who understands the teelings and desires of his subject. This belief is felt not only at home but abroad and therefore he stands in the position of undertaking great things, as would be beneficial to the Empire and the world. In this connection there is a very general feeling that no man could do more to terminate the war in South Africa. The Beers are an educated class in many particulars, but the one great characteristic of their make up is obstinacy There is nothing so bard to drive out of a Boer's head than an idea once formed and the idea is strongly formed among this class of people that the surrender of South Africa territory to the British means loss have been at times the distasteful task of temporarily enforcing French claims, which their own government had not conceded, against needy colonial fisherman. The modus vivendi expired on January arise. These officers have had what must

1st. The Newfoundland government renewed it a year ago because it was reluctant to raise a difficult question when England was fully occupied in South Atrica; it refuses to renew it for another year. The whole question is thus reopened. Unless ome new arrangement is agreed to before the fishing season opens in May there may be collisions between colonial and French fishermen, with serious consequences.

The colonial population along the shore is in great destitution because its natural means of support are so curtailed. It is of the utmost importance to Newtoundland that the French rights should be extinguished. France cannot be expected to give them up for nothing; but if the French and British governments approach the question in a friendly !spirit, it ought not to be impossible to find some adjustment which will satisfy France, while it gives the unhappy Newfoundlanders a air chance. New York state, a time ago decided that it would be to the advantage of the young to have hung on the walls in the school ouses suitable pictures. To carry out the plan the university of the state was requested to prepare a list of one hundred pictures. After the selection was made the next step was the submitting of the list to a committee of seventy five for approval This committee consisted of men of all classes and creeds. Why such a large number was chosen is not apparent, but it was clear that among so many there would be much difference of opinion. The result quite justified the anticipation, for by the time the committee got through their work, but few pictures remained. Paintings on religious subjects were thrown out because they would offend the Hebrews. Further it was decided that the nude should have no place in the list and so such famous pictures as the Venus de Milo had to go. War pictures were rejected on various grounds and so on through the whole category. The result was that the list remaining embraces little that is of interest save pictures of landscape and architecture, as pointed out by a New York paper, both scarcely appeal to children. The pictures that are expected to impress a child's mind must relate to something that he understands. Bistorical Chairs.

There is no doubt several persons who possess articles of furniture as well as other articles of historical interest and the stories heard in this connection are various and numerous. The new king has several mementoes in Canada, but the late erroneous grounds, and it has been tormed Qenen very few. This is owing to the altogether from a lack of knowledge of the fact that the former once visited this coun-British form of government. As soon as it try and he could not have done otherwise can be shown the Boer that the Anglothan leave remembrances. A family in Saxon will give him greater privileges and Fredericton PROGRESS learns is the owner more liberties than he has ever had of his most historical arm chairs. These under KRUGER, he will lay down chairs were once the property of the late his aims willingly. King EDWARD is the Duke of Kent, the father of one being who has the opportunity of teach-Queen Victoria. The late Duke at the ing of the last century lived in Halifax, as Commander of the British forces. Before his return to England he parted with some of his furniture and among other purchasers the father of the late G. E. Eenety of Fredericton, became the owner of the two above mentioned chairs. These chairs have remained in the Fenety family ever since and are of much valuable interest on account of their his torical connection. In parting with the chairs the Duke made the remark at the time that he did so with considerable re gret, as he and his wife had used them so many years at their private dining table. 'Has she accepted you?'

VERSES OF YESTSEDAY AND TODAY Asphodel, Flower of Life. ing in old England's homes for years, Outliving brightly every changing scene; I lay you dripping with an Empire's tears, Upon the tomb of England's greatest Que

The light has all gone out of Britain's sky, Her sorrow doth the midnight darkness tell; Bo where Her Msj sty in State doth lie, And sing Eternal Life my Asphodel.

Take ye my flower as ye wind along, O great procession bearing forth the dead; O great procession bearing forth the dead and let its leaves immortal have their song, Then lay it reverently above her head.

With muffled music and the tolling bell, The solemn pageaut where great mourners tre There to all trembling souls your message tell, Ehs lives beyond our requiems o'er her bed. CYPRUS GOLDE.

New York. The Coon's Swear-off

I dance all day An I'm in 10' fun, An' I cai de posum When de posum well done. E' dat am wicked Do yo' blame dis coto; Gimen little mo' time, Gwine to swear off soon.

I chaws ma bacca An' I still drink rum, Kase I does fo got Dat de New Year's come Ma boss says dough Excuse dis coon, E! I ain't swore off Hwine to swear off soon.

G wine to swear off, say Bout next July, Bout next July, When de mule gets stubborn An' de sun weeds grow high, An' de sun sbines hot Fo' to plague dis coon. Bi I don't do it den, Gwine to swear off socn.

Night in The City.

The curfew tolls the knell of parting day, The evening shadows blacket all the town, The weary busband home-ward takes his way In fear his waiting wife may call him down? Behind the billboards on the vacant lots The hold-up crouches with his bas of sand, And clostered 'round the corpulent i cropts Sit anxious men with pictured cards in hand, And lovers stroll henseth the startik skies And feed each other's ears with honeyed lies.

The arc lights spit and spinuter overhead, The noisy tramcars roll along the street, The big policeman of the unoral tread Swipse peanots from the stands along his beat, Within the washy house the snowy shirt With spray from puckered month Wan Lungee wets.

wets, And prowlers pick cigar stum is from the dirt, Which later we will get in cigarett a, And o'er his fragrant greasy, steaming can O: mystery stands the hot tamale man.

In moisture joints where glasses click we hear, As through the dimly lighted streets we walk, Mee o care expansion of er their lager beer, with tongue's expanded till they scarce cas talk, and heelers, fiash with cash of candidate, To drink with them the red-nosed rounders press, Ard in their slancy eloquecce dilate Upon the ballot's guarded sacredness, And ask the bummers to do all they can To land their pure, unspetted, honest man.

To inducting they subject to be a mark The night creeps on, the hackmen at the call Their sleep banked eyes with chilly fingers rub. Then men with angled legs home from the club, The men with angled legs home from the club, The bank with angle and lock their doors, The bank of in darkened hallways mores The wery cop in darkened hallways mores An dick town relanguishes its sins To catch a map before the day begins.

Sesfarers.

The traders that hail from the Clyde, And the whalers that sail from Dundee, orth in the season on top of the tide To gather the grist iron the sea, To ply in the lanes of the sea.

By fairway and channel and soutd, By shoal and deep water they 50, tessing the course by icel of the ground, Or chasing the drift of the fibe-Nor west, in the track of the fibe-

And we steer them to harbor afar, At haz ard we win them abroad. When the coral is forrowed by keels on the bar, And the sea floor is swept by the Lord, The anchorage dredged by the Lord. To the placid, palm skirted bayon To cossis that are drear and forlorn We follow the courses the admirals drew In the days when they doubled the Horn, When Drake lost the mouth of the Horn.

about so big,' illustrating with one finger on the desk, 'and it had a dark green cover. Now can you tell me what it is? Some day, when I have time, have it in the library > turned away, saying to her companion : 'There! That just shows what all this alk about their being examined for pesitions in public libraries amounts to! Three perfectly simple questions, all on literary subjects, and she couldn't answer one of them.'

Close Buyiog.

Some women are good mathematicians, others are 'weak in figures.' The Ba'timore Sun tells of one who prided herself on her economy and close bargaining. Her husband used to banter her sometimes about what he called her 'stinginess.' One day Mrs. S, as she may be called for convenience, invited her husband to go to market with her and witness her prowess in the line of close buying. At the market Mrs. S. made several purchases, and then at one stall inquired the price of eggs. 'Sixteen cents a dczen!' she repeated. employed, and his result was 259,853 kile-

'That's too much. I am sure I saw them meters per second. ess somewhere this morning.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK shoe electromagnet suspended on spiral springs, and hung in such a manner the poles of the magnet are directly over poles are forced downward so that the shoe of the brake grip the rail. By a system of levers connecting with the wheel rim hand brakes of the car, the reaction of the shoes brakes also. The new brake is not actuated by the current which drives the car, but by an independent current derived from the momentum of the car, and the interruption of the driving current, instead of preventing the action of the brake, causes it to act automatically.

BAKING

POWDER

Fined For Selling Alum Baking Powder. At Bradford, on Thursday, Walter E. Sugden, grocer, Wakefield road, Bradtord, was summoned for selling adulterated baking powder. Mr. Herbert Hankinson. deputy town clerk, who prosecuted, said the inspector called at the defendant's shop and purchased samples of baking powder. There were two kinds on sale. The article described as the best was sold at 2d. for 4 ounces, and the cheaper kind was sold at 2d for half a pound. The cheaper sample when analysed was found to be adulterated with 20 per cent of alum. The use of alum in making bread was injurious to health, and it was used as a cheap substitute for tartaric acid. Alum in bread liberated the gas and made the bread rise, but it was injurious to children. The Bradford Corporation were determined to put a stop to these adulterations, which pressed especially hard upon the poor. The defendant said that he purchased the baking powder ready made up in packets, and did not know that it was adulterated. A fine of £2 and costs was imposed .--London Grocer, Dec. 15.

The Velocity of Light.

The latest determination of the velocity of light is that announced by Monsieur Perrotin before the French Academy of Sciences on November 5, 1900. It was obtained by the Fizeau method, in which the rate of rotation of a toothed wheel, between whose cogs the light passes on its way to a distant reflector, furnishes a means of measuring the speed with which the light moves. In this case the distance between the stations was nearly 12 kilometers, or a little less than seven miles and a half. The deduced velocity was 299.900 kilometers per second. This is 40 kilometers greater than the estimate of Newcomb, and differs about as much from the measurement of Michelson an Annapolis in 1882. Michelson used the Foucault method, in which a revolving mirror is and wishing to marry Rochester, who has n and who rejects the m the court. On her s cousin Islbot; but the refusal, will hear of n Clare appeals to her now beginning her su Theatre, and in high i also a slight to aveng court masque, in whic the leading character ged to little Moll Day to alter his caste. He his contumacy; and bestow Clare on her o his assent that Ro Clare's feet, and that as his leading lady. manoeuvres to out-tr Buckingham form t drama. The action o let of the New Forest are playing at inn kee to Jessamine, niece o broker, The little ru

The pretty comic or nanagement of the

the attraction at the choruses have been full dress rehearsal w at which everything ] tions are that the Ner ful with their product with their Zephra.

The story of the Gwynne as told in so

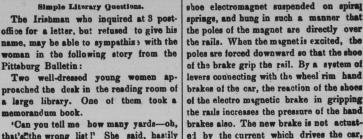

Act I. discioses an ueaths to Charles II child, Clare. Her roy

esday and Thur earsals of the lover, a strolling p village comedy is co Beadle and Marjorie, house. To further and get into her hous Buckingham a suit o the dress of a rat-cate grand ladies visit the two young girls, po service. The two lor selves have played th new servants, Gillian In the second act set's pawn-shop in an and the comic imbro and the country arranged with and see her, disguist with Rochester similathem in the field. suit is there estensibl against thieves, and to comes to court Marjo to escape with her low her dress and take the premises. What Beadles, and two Je many and confusing; the diagnise of Roche ively baffles their de Jessamine and Falcon appointments with M Jessamine, and the B own stocks for the Buckingham. A glade in the new in the third act. Ch with hawk and hou after her kine, and let

of the Rochester and approaching, resolve is resumed and then throws himself at th Gillian, little dreamin number one. Buckin Joan (otherwise Ne she sings and dance nobleman rushes to rushes to nobleman rushes to found a rustic prodi-take her to London a dition number two. actress to do but turn over the assignation way peachment of Roch they are unwittingly Beadle, who since th house of the one w other was clapped in wandering distraugh notes they find that catcher were the land and summoning the and Buckingham be scamps are confound

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Makes the food more delicious and wholesome

that's the wrong list !' She said, hastily bringing forth another slip of paper. 'Here Will you please tell me who is it is. Rudyard Kipling's favorite author ?'

'I am unable to tell you, never having heard that he had one,' answered one of the librarians.

'Dear me !' said the young woman, in a tone of irritation. 'It's one of the questions for our next club meeting. Well, which one of Thackeray's books brought him the largest income?'

.That you can probably find out by consulting a book the number of which I will give you,' said the official. 'Oh, I can't stop to look it up!' the young woman said, hurriedly. 'I thought you would tell me at once. Well there's one thing more Bessie Cummock, my cousin in Manchester, had a splendid book when I was there last year for the anecdotes of famous people. I can't remember the name of it, or who wrote it, but it was

I'd like to get it out. Of course you must

For the third time the attendant was obliged to confess her inability to give the desired information. The young lady looked at her with a piercing gaze and

ing the South African this. A peace commission appointed at his request would have little officality in submitting terms acceptible both to Briton and to Bosr. On such an occasion as this comes his sole opportunity for direct action concerning matters usually within the province of his ministers and parliament alone. By acting to avert further war the King would begin his reign more anspiciously and with a bigher place in history than could be secured in any other way. He could pay no better or nobler tribute to the memory of the great Queen, in whose chair he is One word from him to day would to sit. go far towards ending the war in South Africa.

of liberty. This impression is formed on

THE "FRENCH SHORE" QUESTION.

Newfoundland is in the anomalous position of a British colony with a "French shore." British soversignity over the is land is not disputed, but under the treaty of Utrecht, almost two centuries ago France acquired certain fishing rights on the eastern and western shores.

The precise extent of these rights h s been in disjute for many years. As France interprets them, they give her the exclusive right to catch and dry fish along eight hundred miles of ses board, and to control that persion of the coast for halt a Ten years sgo she extended mile inland. her claims to the canning of lobsters. England disputed the claim, and, pending a definite settlement of the dispute, a "modus vivendi" was agreed upon by which the existing lobster facto ries, colonial and French, were to continue operations, but no others were to be established. To legalize this arrangement, the Newfoundland parliament passed a bill giving British naval officers wer to adjust all disputes which might 'Well, not in so many words, but what she said smounts to the same thing.' "What did she say P"

'She advised me to be economical and try to save up a little money, instead of buying flowers and theatre tickets.'-Chicago Post. **

The Northwestern Elevated road of Chicage, which has been in operation siz months, reports an average daily traffic of 46.606 passengers for that period, and in the last three months an average of 50,404. A preminent medical journal says the best treatment for nervous dyspepsia, is at least three weeks of absolute rest in bed in some institution away from home, with a full diet.'

The oldest bonnet was found upon an Egyptian mummy-that of a princess who was interred about 2000 years before Christ. The present debt of Chicago is $28,882,. 157. In 1892, before the Chicago fair, the debt of the city was $12,476,000.

For venture ye bore overseas? What of the treasure ye put forth to wring From the chances of billow and breeze? In spite of the billow and breeze.

And what of the cargo ye bring For venture ye bore overseas ?

Oh, we carry the keys of earth, And the password of Empire we bear! even the beaches held promise of worth We 'stablished your sovereignity there, We planted your flag over there.

We planted your your ame? And the guerdon for blood we have shed ? The glory that haloes your name? a grave where the dipsy is dim overhead, and the stermash tribute of fame, A chip from the flotsam of fame. —Perceval Gibbon Oh.

Result.

Out of the old world's error, Out of its loss and pain, After the passing of terror, Cometh the whole world's again.

Right for a time must languish And peace be a mocking word, But strengtheued by awful anguis Reason shall speak and be near

It shall speak to each land and nation, Saying 'Put by your guns! Hence forward let arbitration Settle the strifes of your sons.

"The world is too old to be fighing As it lought in the days of the Hun There are better ways to be righting Its wrongs—put by your guns."

It is writ on those fields of slaughter, The lesson we waited for, It is blazoned on land and water-Loi war shall be slain by war.

Pneumenia Prevalent.

Pneumonia was never more prevalent in St. John than it is at the present time and the ravages made by this dread disease is very widespread many families have sustained losses during the pas month. The season has been a most trying one, especially to the poor, with th high price of coal and the changeable weather, their fight with disease has been a bitter one. It was a hard day for many in St. John where the piece of coal went up. Manhattan-I wonder why it is that so nany society wemen go on the stage ? Broadway-Perhaps, it is because they are crowded out by the actresses that marry into society.

She dragged her reluctant husband after her from one stand to another, still inquiring the price of eggs , and always receiv. ing the same answer, until she was near the upper end of the market. Here she found a dealer whose eggs were filteen cents a dozen.

'There, I told you so !' she exclaimed to her husband. 'Those other men were trying to get the advantage.' Turning to the salesman, she ordered halt a dozen eggs, gravely handed hum eight cents in payment and went away well satisfied with her shrewdnesss. Her first doubt came when Mr. S. quietly asked ber how much she had really saved by the transaction. Since then she does not like to hear her husband speak of her economies.

New Welding Process.

In the new process of welding invented by Doctor Goldschmidt of Essen, a compound called 'thermit,' made of aluminum and certain metallic oxides, is employed to obtain an extraordinary degree of heat. With the aid of a melting-pot, rails and pipes can be immediately welded at any place. The pot being filled with an in fammable mixture and ignited, a few spoontuls of thermit are added, and the temperature quickly rises as high as 8000 <sup>o</sup> Centigrade. An aluminum oxide is to n poured on the part of the rail, or pip. to be welded, and the work is done, so quickly that the pot is cold and can be taken into the hand atter being emptied.'

Among recent inventions of general in terest is the electromagnetic brakes for street cars. In the form known in England as the Newall brake, it consists of a

Fantastic Work of an Earthquake

The great earthquake that shook India on June 12, 1897, was remarkable for the curiously distorting effects it produced up on standing objects. Similar effects have been noticed from other earthquakes, but seldom to so striking an extent. In a report of the Geological Survey of India there is an illustration showing how this earthquake twisted a lofty monument at Chhatak. The monument wasjan obelisk ot brick, coated with plaster, more than 60 feet tall and 12 feet square at the base. About six feet on the top were broken off and thrown to the south, and nins feet more were thrown to the east. Then piece 20 feet in height was separated, 28 feet above the ground, and twisted in a direction opposite to the motion of the hands of a watch but without falling.

Victoria's Stores Of Gold.

The colony of Victoria. the smallest division of the continent of Australia, has produced, during the last half century, more gold than 'any other country in the world, with the exception of California. Mr James Stirling recently informed an audience at the Imperial Institute in London that there is a gold-mine at Bendigo in Victoria which has reached a depth of 3.434 feet, and that deep leads of gold ex-ist over an area of about 400 miles. Vic-toria also posseases extensive coal-fields.

Teacher-What made you so late ? Tommy-I had to wait for me mother to wrap up a bundle for me to leave at Mrs.

Teacher-Surely, it didn't take your nother nearly an hour to do that.

Tommy-Yes'm. You see, the paper she was wrappin' it up in had a love story in it.-Philadelphia Press.

Electromagnetic Brakes

PROGRESS, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9 1901 PABRABORO.

KING VDER

lesome

natically.

suspended on spiral such a manner net are directly over magnet is excited, the nward so that the shoe rail. By a system of h the wheel rim hand e reaction of the shoes tic brake in gripping e pressure of the hand w brake is not actuatwhich drives the car, dent current derived of the car, and the inving current, instead ction of the brake,

Inm Baking Powder. Thursday, Walter E. sefield road, Bradtord, elling adulterated bak-Herbert Hankinson. who prosecuted, said at the defendant's shop les of baking powder. is on sale. The article t was sold at 2d. for 4 per kind was sold at The chesper sample ound to be adulterated t alum. The use of ad was injurious to sed as a cheap subacid. Alum in bread made the bread rise. us to children. The n were determined to adulterations, which hard upon the poor. that he purchased the y made up in packets, at it was adulterated. costs was imposed .--. 15.

ty of Light.

ination of the velocity nounced by Monsieur French Academy of er 5, 1900. It was au method, in which of a toothed wheel, the light passes on its eflector, furnishes a the speed with which this case the distance was nearly 12 kilos than seven miles and d velocity was 299,900 d. This is 40 kilothe estimate of Newout as much from the chelson an Annapolis used the Foucault revolving mirror is esult was 259,853 |kile-

The preity comic opera Neil Gwynne under the management of the Neptune Rowing Cub will be the attraction at the opera house on next Tuesday. Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Rehearsal of the principal parts and of the choruses have been c. noncted by Prof. Ford. A full dress rehearsal was held on Thursday evening at which everything passed of smoothly. Indica-tions are that the Neptune Club will be as : nocess-ful with their production as were the R. B. Y. club with their Zubra. ith their Zephra.

The story of the beautiful and romantic Nell Gwynne as told in song is indeed most interesting. Act I. discisses an old royalist noble, dying, be-Act 1. discusses an old royalist noble, dying, be-queaths to Charles II., the guardianship of his only child, Clare. Her royal tator, bored by the trust and wishing to marry her off, proposes her hand to Rochester, who has never seen the country heiress, and who rejects the match. For this he is banished the court. On her side, Clare secretly loves her cousin Talbot; but the king, chafed by the favorite's schael will hear of no other match. In this dilema refasal, will hear of no other match. In this dilema Clare appeals to her foster-sister, Nell Gwynne, now beginning her successful career at the King's Theatre, and in high favor with Charles. Nell has Thestre, and in high favor with Charles. Neil has also a slight to avenge. Buckingham has written a court maque,in which the king wishes Neil to play the leading character; but the noble author is pled-ged to little Moll Davies, Neil's rival, and declines to alter his caste. He is also banished the court for his contum acy; and Charles importuned by Neil to bestow Clare en her cousin, makes it a condition of his assent that Rochester shall be brough to his assent that Bochester shall be brought to Clare's feet, and that Buckingham shall accept Nelj as his leading lady. The actress accepts; and her manoeuvres to out-trick and cajole Bochester and Buckingham form the groundwork of the little drama. The action of the first act passes in a ham-let of the New Forset, where the two exiled lords are playing at in a keeping, and making violent lore to Jessamine, nicce of old Wessel, the village pawn to Jessamine, niece of old Wessel, the village pawn broker. The little rustic, however, has her own lover, a strolling player named Falcon. The village comedy is completed by the loves of the ovening. Dancing was the chief anuse-ment although games of all kinds were provided for thouse. To further their courtahip of Jessamine, and get into her house, the two lords get disquise: Buckingham a suit of the Beadle, and Bochester the dress of a rat-catcher. At this point two very Buckingham a suit of the Beadle, and Mondestor the dress of a rat-catcher. At this point two very morning. Among grand ladies visit the inn, with a view of placing two young girls, poor relations of their own, in service. The two lords accept enthusiastically, and at the end of the act, Nell and Clare, (who them-selves have played the grand ladies), appear as the new servants, Gillian and Joan. Net we can be action is builted to Was.

at the end of the act, Nell and Clare, (who them selves have played the grand ladies), appear as the new servants, Gillian and Joan. In the second act the action is shifted to Wes-sel's pawn-shop in an eld and-rickety masor-house, and the comic imbrogilo begins. Jessamine has secretly arranged with her lover Falcon to come and see her, disguised as a rat-catcher- action against thieves, and the real Beadle, his double, comes to court Marjorie. Jessamine to, resolving to escape with her lover, persuades Marjorie to put on her dress and take her place till she is clear of the premises. What with two rat-catchers, two Beadles, and two Jessamines, the mistakes are the disguise of Rochester and Buckingham, effec-utively baffes their designs on Jessamine. Finally, Jessamine, and the Beadle is sized and put in his own stocks for the pranks really commit.ed by Buckingham. A slide in the aw forest is the principal scene

Buckingham A glade in the new forest is the principal scene number of friends at her home on Monday evening. Dancing, music and games were the amusements of the evening. About midnight a dainty supper was in the third act. Charles and his court, hunting with hawk and housd, fall in with Nell looking after her kine, and learning that the denouncement of the Rochester and Buckingham comedy is fast approaching, resolve to wait and see it. The hunt is resumed and then the inflammable Rochester throws himself at the feet of the pretty waitress Gillian, little dreaming that it is Clare. Condition number one. Buckingham then has a scene with Joan (otherwise Nell) in which, discovering that the evening. About midnight a dainty supper was served, after which dancing was resumed for a short time and the affair brought to a close at an early hour in the morning. The ladies of St. Mary's church are prep aring for a high tes and concert on the evening of St. Val-entine's day. The proceeds will be for the plano fund and the affair will no doubt beas enjoyable as The ladies of St. Mary's church are preparing for a high tes and concerton the evening of St. Val-estine's day. The proceeds will be for the plano fund and the aflair will no doubt be as enjoyable as the other entertainment furnished by the ladies of 'You say that it is hard to wo she sings and dances charmingly, the mercurial nobleman ranhes to the conclusion that he has found a ratic prodigy, and actually proposed take her to London and crush Nell Gwynne. Conthis parish Mrs Wm Kilpatrick of Newark, N J is at pres-ent visiting in the city. She was called home by the serious illnes of her father Mr R McConaghy. Mrs J E Irvine of Garden street is in Sussex staying with her father. Miss Katherine Greaney is visiting friends in Mission State Sta dition number two. Nothing now remains for the actress to do but turn the two lords into ridicule over the assignation with the supposed Jessamine, and then hurry away with Clare to share in the imand then hurry away with Clare to share in the im-peschment of Rochester and Buckingham. In this they are unwittingly assisted byold Weasel and the Beadle, who since the night of terror, where the house of the ene was turned inside out, and the other was clapped in his own pillory, have been wandening distraught, in the woods. Comparing notes they find that the false beadle and false rat catcher were the landlord and waiter of the Drago and Buckingham before the king. How the two acamps are confounded by Nell, how Talbot gets the hand of Clare, Falcon that of Jessamine, and how all ends happily except perhaps for the amateur inn keeper) need not be detailed. An event which will attract much attention the skating competition among the members of the Monday Evening Skating Club, which takes place at the next meeting. Judges have been appointed and suitable prizes will be awarded.

The annual meeting of the Women's Coun-il was hold yesterday atternoon. Is the evening there was public meeting in the Orange Hall. Sanitation was the subject of discussion. An able paper was prepared by Dr Wm Bayard. Dr Mary McLeed and Dr Clara Olding also took part in the discus-sion.

On Tuesday evening a number of ladies and gentiemen drove out from the city to the home of Mr and Mrs Frank Raftary, at Brookville, where a pleasant surprise party was held. The young people took complete charge of the house and soon cleared the large rooms for dancing, which amuse-ment was the principal issture of the evening. A bountiful supper was served at midnight and the return to the city was made at an early hour in the morning.

The marriage will take place at the Cathedral on Tuesday February 19th of Miss Gertrude Dever, daughter of Senstor Dever and Capt J Lealle, who has recently returned from South Africa. Miss Dever is one of our leading society ladies and her coming marriage is causing much interest in social circles.

Lady Tilley leaves today to meet her niece, Miss Howland, who is returning from Devey, Switzer-land. Miss Howland will probably remain here for the remainder of the winter. Mis J. V. Ellis has been quite seriously ill with la grippe, but is now convalescent. The many friends of Mrs James (Senator) Dever are pleased to hear that she is recovering from her recent serious illness. Miss Mowatt of St Andrews, who has been the Miss Mowatt of St Andrews, who has been the guest of Lady Tilley for the past tew weeks, return-ed to her home on Saturday last. Miss Babbitt of Fredericton, is visiting her sister Mrs J V Ellis, Princess street. Major Markham, secompasied by his daughter Miss Lillian Markham, left this week for New Varb.

York. Miss Markham will remain for some weeks

York. Miss marking will remain for some weeks with friends. Mrs Robert Thompson went to New York last week. She was joined this week by Mr Thompson and together they will proceed to the West Indies, where they will remain for a few weeks.

On Wednesday evening of last week a party of and the party resultance to the start were, morning. Among those present were, Miss Reberts Miss Stack Miss Shaw Miss Florme McKean Miss Dunlop Miss McDonald Miss A Adams Miss L McCormack Miss E Munford Miss T McManus Miss M Case. Mr. H Hughes, Mr. Frank Greauey, Mr. A McLaughlin, Mr. H Roberts, Mr. P. Shaw, Mr. Harry McDonald, Mr. Percy Sceley, Mr C Lake, M. J. Seree Mr. W Wright, Mr. Frank Best, Mr. Walter Irvine, Mr. A. Irvine.

 $F \Delta$  pleasant event of the week was the sleigh drive and dance given on Wednesday evening for the students in attendance at the Currie Business the students in steendards at the Currie business University. After driving out some distance from the city the party returned to the college, where some hours were pleasantly spent in dancing, the large business rooms being used for that purpose. Light refreshments were served by several of the young lady students.

Miss K. Dawning of Fairville entertained quite a

[PROGRESS is for sale at the Parrsboro Book Memorial services were held in several of the churches on Sanday evening, St George's and Grace Methodist church being appropriately draped. The rector of the St George's preached an interesting rector of the St George's preached an interesting sermon from the text 'David huving served hig generation in the wisdom of God, fell in sleep." 'On the Resurrection Morning', was one of the hymns and the congregation stood while Tae Dead March in Saul was played. There was an elaborate sor-vice in the Medodist church. The "Recessional" and "Crossing the Bar" were sung, the latter as a solo, very sweety, by Miss Florence Corbett. The Hon J W Longley's lecture on "The Three Parliaments" gave much pleasure to a fairly large and en St George's hall on Friday evening. This is the first lecture of the school course and the proceeds go to the school library fund.

proceeds go to the school library fund. The Waragraph as the Opera house on Thursday and Friday evenings drew good autiences. Capt Nordly and Mr & W Copp have both been for some time under the doctor's care. Mrs A W Weid gave a party on Wednesday evening and Mrs H McKenns on Saturday evening. Mrs B L Tacket was one of the hostesses of the previous week. Mr. and Mrs N Killam are guests of Mr Killam's sister Mrs Price Miss Agnes McCabe hav taken Mr C H B Hillcoats place as organist of St George's church. Mr Hillcoat having resigned the position and returned home to Amberst.

home to Amherst. Mr and Miss Thompson 'of Oxford also Mr T Thompson lately returned from South Africa, are guests of Dr and Mrs Smith at hotel Evangeline. Mrs Smith's iovitations were out for quite a large dance for last evening, but she was unfortunately seised with an attack of infigures, in consequence of which the invitations had to be cancelled. Mr and Mrs Newton Pursley are in St John this weak week. CAMPBELLTON.

Feb. 7,-Miss Kate Currie, one of our popular school teachers, has been called home to Frederic-ton owing to the illness of her parents. Mrs Sproul is in the meantime taking up the school work for Miss Currie. Mr. Frank Allard of Carleton, was in town this week.

Miss Aggie Patterson left Satarday morning| to spend a few weeks' vacatioo, visiting in Moncton and parts through Kings county. Miss Creasdale of Moncton, has been visiting

Miss Ruth Chaudler. Miss Nash is visiting at Mrs Reynolds. Mr John E stembre was very sick with la grippe

Mr John Estembre was very sick with is grippe last week, but he is improving. Mrs D L Getchell arrived on the express on Saturday. Mr. Getcheil has been back from Port Fairfield for some time. Rev. J. Spencer is ill with is grippe. Mr. E W Chandler of the Telephoee is thaying his turn of la grippe but is on the mend. Dr. and Mrs Crocket of Daihousie, entertained a number of their Campbellton friends on Tuesday evening, a very pleasant time being spent.

ST. GEORGE.

Feb. 5th. 1901,-The funeral of the late Mr. Wel-lington Douglas took place from his home on Sun-day afternoon and was very largely attended. The services at the house were conducted by Rev. H. A. Savers and at the grave by the Foresters. Miss Dick accompanies her grand-parents. Sen-ator and Mrs. Gilmor to Ottawa this winter.

Mr. A. Meating has returned from ]a trip to New Mr. At Meaning as to the transmission of transmission of the transmission of the transmission of the transmission of transmiss

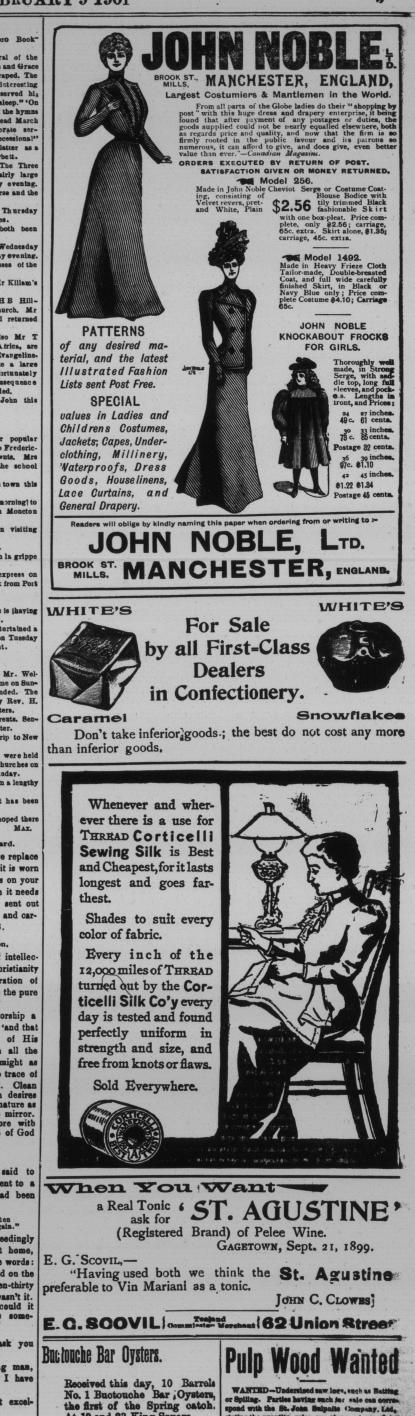

Miss Fannie Smith has returned ;from a lengthy wisit in Digby. Mrs. William Mersereau of Eastport has been visiting her parents for a few days. The mails are still very irregular it is hoped there be an improvement beforv long. MAX. Young and Old Men That Board.

Let us impress upon you that we replace the neck band on your shirt, when it is worn out. Darn your socks, sew buttons on your garments, repair your shirts, when it needs it, all free. No saw edge collar, sent out by us. Ungars Laundry Dyeing and carpet cleaning works, Telephone 58.

A Chinaman's Good Sermon, The Chinese character is full of intell of an Barthquake. ake that shook India as remarkable for the effects it produced up Similar effects bave ther earthquakes, but g an extent. In a re-ical Survey of India ion showing how this a lofty monument at nument wasjan obelisk th plaster, more than eet square at the base. e top were broken off south, and nins feet to the east. Then a ht was separated. 23 and, and twigted in a to the motion of the t without falling.

tores Of Gold.

ctoris. the smallest dinent of Australia, has the last half century, other country in th eption of California recently informed an erial Institute in Longold-mine at Bendigo s reached a depth of deep leads of gold ex-bout 400 miles. Vic-extensive coal-fields.

nade you so late ? wait for me mother to or, me to leave at Mrs.

it didn't take your ur to do that. You see, the paper up in had a love story Press.

"No flaw in its claim ' to be aBSOLUTELY PURE "

oure concentrated

OCOA

200 OLD MEDALS

DIPLOMAS

STRUNGEST

BEST

RY'S

tual surprises. A convert to Christianity was called upon to give an illustration of the sacred Scripture, 'Blessed are the pure

'You say that it is hard to worship a God who cannot be seen' said he, 'and that you have no inward evidence of His actuality. A mirror from which all the quicksilver had dropped away might as well complain that it could find no trace of wen complain test it could had no trace of the objects placed before it. Clean thoughts, clean affections, clean desires have the same function in human nature as the quicksilver on the back of the mirror. When the heart is filled once more with holy thoughts, the perfect image of God will again be seen there.'

Perplexingly Funny.

One of those persons who are said to 'hear with their elbows' recently went to a country entertainment which had been announced by the postic effasion :

"From half past eight to half past ten You'll laugh and laugh and laugh again." This announcement was exceedingly leasing to the visitor, who went home, and burst in on the family with the words : 'And what do you think they had on the program ? 'From eight-thirty to ten-thirty you'll laugh and laugh'-no, that wasn't it. Why, it was so funny! What could it have been ? Well, anyway, it was some-thing like that, and we did laugh !

'Ardface-I have called, sir, to ask you for the hand of your daughter. Old Bullion (teelingly) —Young man, her mother is dead, and she is all I have left. I assure you, sir, these are most excellent recommendations.

Chairs Re-seated Cane, Splint, Performined, Duval, 17 Waterlee

At 19 and 23 King Square.

J.D. TURNER.

or Spiling. Parties having such for sale can spond with the St. John Sulphile (Jompany stating the quantity, price per thousand sup-lest, and the time of delivery.

M. P. MOONEY.

PROGRESS. SATURDAY FEBRUARY 9 1901.

TOR ADDITI NA. COCINTY NEWS, SHE FIFTH AND wile will follow him next week, when they futer TH PAGES

6

LIPPORD CO.

parties

today.

BALIFAX NOTES

PROGRESSIS for sale in Halifax by the pews asd at the following news stands and centres.

The bride was attired in a tailor made suit o brown cloth with hat to match, and ca. ried a hand some bouquet of roses and carnations. She was at-tended by her niece, Alice Hillis. The groom's present to the bride was a gold bracelet and to the ittle maid of honor a ring. The happy ccuple left on the Marilime Express for a short : our and will reside in Sydney. Mr and Mrs Harry Fataam, who have been spending some days in the city, returned to Truro

Capt. Guerney, who has been ill for some tim has recovered. Miss Hattle Christie of Truto, arrived here Saturday on a visit to her sister, Mins Lottie Ch sile night supervisor of the Victoria General Hespital. Mins Addie Duncas, daughter of Conductor Duncan, Willow Park, leaves in a few days for Boston, where she will enter one of the large hospi-tals to undergo training as a nurse. Her many friends wish her every success in the work she has

Mrs J B Bennett leaves early next week on a mits J D Bennett leaves early next week on a visit to Windsor, She will remain about a month with her daughter, Mrs W A Hendig. Mrs Alexander Moody, and little daughter, Haz el, accompanied by Miss Kate Trider, leaves in a few days tor Bos's no an extended visit. A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr James Hillas, Bichmond, on Thurs-day, when his only danshter, Miss Mabel Wills

Beginning with next week, concerts and similar us postponed events will then materialize. Lieut Governor Jones has been quite ill, but is now receiving congratulations upon his recovery. The ohief recreasion during the past week has been skating and the excellent condition of the ice on the Dartmouth lakes has been taken advantage of by the young people on both sides of the harbor Miss Jordan of Woodstock, N B, is visiting Mrs

DIGBY.

quiet performances will be continued and numer

eir trip to New York.

R J Wilson, Bruns wick street

naking their home in Ostario. Mrs Edward and Mis Barry Ruggles of Bridgeown spent a day in town this weak, the guests of Mrs J Bitchie. Miss Eils Riler spent Sunday in Digby. Miss Ruperts Weare is visiting i.ends in Mil-

ora. The Oddfellows around sleigh drive to Millord which was to have trken place last night has been ostponed indefinitely.

YARMOUTH.

Feb. 6,-Mr Alex Murray went to Ottawa Satur-iay to enter upon his 1 ew duties as sessional clerk. Hon. David McPherson is registered at the Mrs John H Killam went to Sackville yesterda on account of the illness of her daughter Mabel Miss Addie Richards went ') Weymouth yester-day to take charge of the Western Union Telegraph Co's office there. Miss Jessie Pulley has gone to Halifax for Vist* Mr F A Nickerson went to Bos'on Saturday last, Cerase Doucetie, and Nelvie, daughter of Amand Potier and sister of Albea: Potier, were married ;Wednesday evening at Et. Michael's church, Tucket Wedge, by Bev. Dr. Foley. In the evening wedding festivilies were enjoyed at the C M B A hall.

Mr and Mrs Edward Meehan are receiving their A very pleasant and successful children's carnitiends this week at 26 Bauer street. Mr and Mrs Atkinson of Sydney are visiting in ral was held in the skating rink on Monday even ing. Some pret.y columns were word and a good time erjoyed by the young skaters. Much interest is felt in the grand carnival, which is to be held next welk It, of course, promises to be most suc-Mrs Liddle of New Glasgow is spending a short me here with friends. Mr and Mrs Thos J Locke have returned from

Capt Frank Cosby, of steamer Storm King, a Capt Frank Cosby, ar, ived in Yarmouth of their wedding tour and are staving at the Carleton companied by Mrs Crosby, ar. lved in Yarmouth on Friday afternoon on a brief visit to relatives. Thos Robertson, Esq., M PP went to Halifax

Amone the passengers per Evangeline for Lon-den were: Mrs Fletcher, Miss LE Fletcher, Mr and Mrs C C Gregory, Mr and Mrs R E Spillet, Mrs Greasley, L J Meehan, D E Read. The marriage of Miss Mabel, daughter of James Hillis Esq., of this city, to Mr Einest C Scott, of Charlotterer P. F. black the bine science state this week. Mr D D Sinclair of steamer Bonav ista, and bride, arrived by steamer gBoston on Saturday morning and spent Sunday in Yai nouth. They left yester day morning for Halliax. Charlotteown, P E Island, took place yesterday atternoon at the residence of the bride's father. The certmony was performed by the Rev N LoMoine, rector of 8 Mark's, in the presence of a number of guests, principally relatives of the contracting

WOODSTORR. Col Vince and Mrs Vince are visiting at Boston, J B Bowser and Mrs Bowser. Victoria, was at

"he Victoria Monday, Dr Sprague is corfined to b's house from a sever attack of grippe. Mr and Mis J A Phillips, I ovidence, B I, regive are at the Carlisle Tuesday. Mr and Mrs L P F.sher retuined / om the'r Bos-

m visit on Wednesday. Mr Wm A McGinley and wife, St John were here last week. Mr and Mrs W W Ross and R W Richa Hartland were at the Victoria Wednesday. Mr and Mrs G W Vrowart have been confined to their house from a serious illness for some weeks. Miss Hazel Perkins, Centreville, has been visit. ing Woodstock for a week, the guest of Joseph ing Woodstock for a week, 'te guest of Joseph Fewer. Miss Mildred Carvell, 'he only child of F B Oa; e<sup>31</sup> who was soriously ill wi'h pneumonia is we are glad 'o arounce, recovering and is now out of danger. Mrs Reuben Robinson, a.ter an absence of two years, visiting her sons at Winniper, returned to her home, Lower Brighton, last week. She likes the western country very well but has not lost her love for Carleton coruty. Harry Dysart returned, Thursday, form a visit to Dr Sprague, who has been ill for a week is some

Mrs J T Allan Dibblee returned home Saturday rom Boston. Miss Lizzie Day, of Boston, formly of this tow.

day, when his only daughter Miss Mabel H"lis, was united in mainmony to Mr. Edg: Scott og Sydney, Cape Ercton. The wedding was a very quiet one, only the immediate relatives of the s home on a visit. Dr G B Manzer, who has been confined to the contracting parties being present. Mr and Mrs J F Shatford have returned from brows with the grip, is recovering. Kenneth Shea, Houlton, was among the Houlton folks who attended the ball Friday night. Mra A D Holyoke went to Fredericton, Monday, where she will visit Mrs C W Hall for a few weeks The des'h of Mr Fred Munro, which occurree on last Thursday evening has cast a gloom over the community. The deceased who had been in failing health for the past few months contracted pru-monia about two weeks ago and in his weakened condition was unable to haft with the disease. Hu was but 19 years of age and was very popular with the young people of Woodstoch. Miss (Glidden entertained the members of her dancing class and their miends on Tuesday evening. A few hours were pleasantly spent in thipping the

A Case of Law. Law is a complicated thing, and so ions seem not to be founded in equity. Probably most readers will pass that criticism upon the case recorded below. Basutoland, being broken and mountain ous, was until recently the resort of lions, leopards and other wild animals. Now, however, the billsides which were once the resort of these savage creatures are the pasture grounds of tens of thousands of cattle. Nearly all dangerous animals have been driven away from Basutoland, but not long ago a leopard appeared on the outskirts of a village. The animal soon became as badly frightened as the villagers and sought sate(y in flight.

The next moraing the inhabitants turned out for a hunt. One of the hunter was climbing a steep rock when he suddenly found bimsel! tace to face with the eopard, whose retreat was cut off by the rock itself. Neither the man nor the animal could escape the encounter.

The dilemma was an awkward one, for the climber was unauned. Recognizing his danger, he put torth bis hands and in desperation caught hold of the leopard on each side of its jaws, holding it at arm's length and calling for help. The leopard clawed and tore his captor, but the man held on til help arrived and the beast was speared.

Now came a question of law. By Basu-to law the skin belonged te the chief, who must reward one of three claimantsmust reward one of three clamants— either the man who speared the leopard, or the man who held it so that it was possible to spear it, or the man who, being warned by the barking of his dog, first discovered the animal in the village. The Rasuto Solomon decided the case tollows. The man he mane dit could as follows: The man who speared it could not have done so but for the man who held it, and the man who held it could not have It, and the man was held it could not have known of its existence if the dog had not first warned the villiage; therefore the credit for the killing belonged to the dog, whose owner was entitled to the reward. An Inconvenient Bottle describing to bis triends the splendor of the hotel at which he stayed. 'Everything was pertect,' he said, 'all but one thing. They kept the light burning all night in my bedroom, a thing I ain't used to.'

'Well,' said one wag, 'why didn't you blow it out?' 'Blow it out!' said the farmer, 'How could IP The pesky thing was inside a bottle!'

To Dye

At Home

operation. Brill dye of highest ISC. for mm

MOTHERHOOD

frets and moans in their arms. Motherhood is prepared for and provided for by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It Prescription. It cures nausea, tranquilizes the nerves, gives a healthy appetite and promotes rest-ful sleep. It makes the baby's the mother abundant strength to nurse her child.

her child. Accept no substitute for "Favorite Pre-scription." There is nothing "just as good" for weak and sickly women. "Two years ago I was very sick and began taking your 'Favorite Prescription.'" writes Mrs. Ed. Hackett, of Chardon, Geuga Co., Ohio. "When my baby boy came he weighed twelve pounds and a half. Have had good health ever since, until about three weeks ago, when weaning my baby. I contracted a heavy odd. An taking your 'Golden Medical Discove end, I at taking your 'Golden Medical Discove end, I are taking your 'Golden the beath her wang Dr. Pierce's medicines. It would take pages to tell the good it has done in our family, and in a great many more families under my observation.

"I thank you for your kind medical advice." Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser in paper covers is sent free on receipt of 31 cents in one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

FROM NEWSPAPER EDITORIALS.

fiction and special articles.

Articles by WALTER A. WY. KOFF, author of "The Workers".

Henry James, Henry van Dyke,

Best Combination, three or more more for Best Ladies' Original Character. For Best Gentleman's Original Character. For Ladies' Handsomest, Cos-tama 5.00 For Best Laters Original Character. For Best Gentleman's Original Character. 5.00 For Ladies' Handsomest. Cos-tume. 5.00 For Gentleman's Handsomest Costume. 5.00 Best Representation of a Char-acter From Any Author. 5.10 Best Expresentation of a Char-acter from Any Author. 5.00

HAYMARKET SQUARE

ANNUAL CARNIVAL

POLYMORPHIANS.

eatures and Big Attract R. D. WOODROW, R. J. WILKINS, President,

5.1

Program Weedie I Mrs Fre fcCully. Miss Mc

Sherrard, Mr and irom their A novel of the Cei February days of the appertaini tainmeat v Mr Pat 1 Miss Mc W E Sher Mr J M Monoton'u chort trip. Dr B F

where he ness of hi Mrs He ective her her father Miss J Shedisc. Senator left today A musi Moncton the opera well know Robisson LeBlanc, concert c

Many far preity yo

. ] oter

an now and at a address

Feb. 6 of Mr an Mr H ing a few Miss A spend a d and othe Miss A Baker, a week. Miss I

Lansdov

ing tor

course in Mrs B

Dr.) Do RNI

day and

Rev.

an attac

Abject

native

the A

had 1

more

be fo

world

taken

sickne

the n

Eagle

Wale

region and it

fall.

regio

and t

from

or G

tc am

ation

fires.

miser

they

the H

seal,

lime

....

and

T

most of,

star

the .

and not

Esqu time

wim Sea

peri

at i

and

Isla ot a

fere sou Bes bos

WAR

tim the

ma

boo

dru E,

Jn

The

The

----Eugene Given Free to each person in-terested in subscrib-ing to the Engene Field Monume at Souvenir F an d, ubscriptions as as$1.00 will en-donor to this infly artistic vol-Field's Poems A $7.06

ame FIELD FLOWERS (cloth bound, 8 x 11) as a certificate of Book. THE Book of the century, H a n d-somely illustrated subscription to fu Book contains a lection of Fiel best and most rep sentative works of Field's by thirty-two of the World's great-est Artists. est Artists. Sentative works and is ready for delivery. But for the noble contribution of the world's greatest artists, this book could not have been manufactured for less than $7.00. The Fund created is divided equaly be-tween the family of the late Engene Field and the Fund for the building of a monu-ment to the memory of the belowed poet of childhood. Address

Chicago. If you also wish to send postage, enclose 10 cents. **********

Feb 5-Miss Jennie Beaman returned home from St. John on Wednesday.

Rev H A Devoe has been spending a few days t Halifax this week. Miss Nel'he R'ey, of Avnapolis, was the guest of friends at Digby this week.

Mrs J W Beck with of Bridge' wn, is the guest of Mrs McCormick, Queen steet. The whole town of Digby has been overcast with the deepest gloom and for the past week flags at halt mast sud trappings of black are to be seen in every direction. But during the present week things are begining to assume their usual cheerful appearunce and many social events which had been postponed, and which promised 'to be ex. place within this and the coming week.

KENTVILLE.

Feb 5 .- Mr and Mrs Heber Pattilo, of Bridgeter, were in tow a recently the guests of Mr and water, were in tow a recently the guests of Mr and Mrs JC Starr. On Friday of last week a number of Woliville people drove to tow a and had dirver at the Aber-deen, returning home about uselve. Miss Crockett, who had been visiting at 'Jere-point,'the guest of Miss Ida Beat, returned to her home in Halifax on Friday last. Miss L Macdonald is the guest of Mrs A D Me-

Miss Laura Elliot of Halifax, is the guest this week of Miss Winnie Belcher. Miss Ella Bigney, a former teacher in the Acadmiss fail of given, souther teacher in the Acad-emy, is visiting in towa. Miss Farrell and Miss Eleanor Farrell, who has been speading the past four months in Boston, returned home on Wednesday. Mr Will & Begg, of Windsor, was in town on

Mr Ernest Barnaby, of Shelburne, is in town th

Latest styles of Wedding invitations and mnouncements printed in any guantities and at moderate prices. Will be sent to any Progress Job Print.

ANNAPOLIS.

FRB, 5-Mrs R & Smith, who has been ill is improving. Mr and Mrs Prat returned from Winds Tuesday, and Mr Pratt left on Wednesday.

light fantastic. Oa last F.iday evening the Opera house here was the scene of a very pleasant event, when a benefit dance was given for Col. Hai.y Dysai. who recent-ly returned from Bouth Africa. About six., couples were present and enjoyed a good programme of dances, music for which was farnished by the Woodstock orchestra. The dance was brought to clean shoul? 2 a m. A mother much durae in a new close about 2 a. m. Another such dance is a pos sibility of the near future. Miss Blaache K Dibblee has returned from onth's visit to Boston, where she was the guest of Mara Geo F Bockwith, A. hur Everst, son of W H Everet, who retura-ed to Boston after spending the holidays here, is back at home again, sick.

Noison P Grant, who is attending McGill Medical Schoo! Montreal, was in Woodstock last week at-tending the funeral of Miss Edith L Grant.

tending the innersi of Miss Edin L Grant. Mrs Joseph McGee of Somerville, N B, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs Ealph Seeley, returned home on Friday last. Mrs Heward P Weimore, St John, is the guest of her mother, Mrs David Munro. She was called to Woodstock suddenly by the death of her nephew, D Fred Murro.

Woodstock suddenly by the death of her nephew,D Fred Marro. Among those who attended the inneral of Miss Edith L Grant last week wers: Henry W Birming ham and wite, Haddep Birmingham and wite, and Frank 85 hew of Victoria Corner, Rainsford Birm-ingham, and Wallace Birmingham of Hartland. Among the Houlton people who attended the ball in the opera house last Friday night, was Miss Mary Michaud. Miss Jessie Shields, Miss Victory and Messrs Frank Dempsey. Thes Furse, Gus Clarke, John Allan, William Clark, J H Obey and Kenneth Shea.

Kenneth Shea.

ST. STEPHEN AND OALAIS.

[PROGRESS is for sale in St. Stephen at the book store of O. B. Wall, T. E. Atcheson and J. Vroom & Co., in Calais at O. P. Treat's.]

The earsystemant of Mr. Loring Edmund Holmes of Eastport, Me., to Mary Linzetta Brainard, of Robinston, Me, is announced, and wedding is take place Monday, Feb 18th, 1961 at Robinston. Mr and Mrs J Fred Douglas have returned from a trip to Fredericton. Mr and Mrs Frank Todd returned from Washing-ton last week. Mr Todd has since been confined en ill is im-to his home by illness. A concer. will be held Thursday evening Feb 14 Windsor on by the Harmony club, for the benefit of the Fablic seday. His Library.

Perfection Tooth Powder.

Use

For Sale at all Druggists.

6 A Im.

It's All Right!

There's nothing wrong with any part our laundry work. Better than that—every part of it is the best that can be done anywhere Colored shirts do not fade-woolens do not shrink—collars do not shrink—collars do not acquire saw edges-but-ton holes are left intact when we do your work.] BILE Where shall we send the wagon, and when ? Phone 214. AMERICAN LAUNDRY, 98, 100, 102 Charlotte St.

ODSOEjBROS., - Proprietors Agents B. A. Dyeing | Co., "Gold Med-Hit Dyers," Montreal.

RUSSELL P. HOYT. Moncton, N. B., Dec. 11, 1900. BRANDIES!

Landing ex "Corean." 100 Cs. Vrilland XXX 100 "Tobitt & Co. 100 "Morst, Freres. 10 Octaves " Quarts or Pints For sale low in bond or duty paid.

THOS. L. BOURKE 25 WATER STREET.

Ernest Seton-Thompson, Edith Wharton, Octave Thanet, William Allen White

SPECIAL ARTICLES The Paris Exposition.

FREDERI IRLAND'S article s on sport and exploration.

"HARVARD FIFTY YEARS AGO," by Sena-

NOTABLE ART FRATURES THE CROMWELL ILLUSTRA TIONS, by celebrated American and foreign artists.

Puvis de Chavannes.

by JOHN LAFARGE, illus trations in color.

Special illustrative schemes (in color and in black and white) by WALTER APPLETON CLARK. E. C. PEIXETTO, HENRY Me-CARTER, DWIGHT L. ELMEN-DORF and others.

Illustrated Prospectus sent free to any address. CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, Publishers, New York.

In all the long winter he saw only two fires. The natives were the most adjectly miserable people he had ever seen, for they are far removed from the coast where the Esquimarx "we on fish and waltus and seal, and their sole subsistence at some times in the year are the birds which they are able to catch with their native slings and snaves. The Kuskokwim, he declares, is the most desolate region he ever saw or read of, and he is no novice in Alaska. To starve to death slowly is bad enough, but the count y is almost totally unwooded, and in meny perts of the territory there is not wood enough for a smudge fire in an Esquimau igloo. Even a native is some times cold. Next to the census taker of the Kuskok wim the enumerator assigned to Bebring Sea Islands had the most interesting experiences. Here was less destitution, but at two or three points the natives were ill and many of them had died. At King Island, a mere dot on the map, consisting of a steep rock less than a mile in circum ference rising up out of the sea a few miles south of Behing Strait, the revenue outter Bear, with the census enumerator on board, called early in July. The work was not completed at that time, and the vessel called agein in Argust. At that time not a "ving soul was to be found on the island. The dogs belonging to the little Esquiman settlement on the side of the cliff were there, and so were more than twenty bodies of Esquimaux, lying about near the

SQUARE OLYMORPHIANS. CARNIVAL ia Rink

28th, 1901 RIZES-$40

, three or $10.00

ation, three lore, Ladies' Original aracter. Heman's Original 5.00 5.00 5.00 5.00 5.00 aracter. Handsomest, Costume. nen's Handsomest estume. entation of a Char-n Any Author. sentation of British Micer in Boer War

R. D. WOODROW,

----Given Free

to each person in-terested in subscrib-ing to the Eugene Field Monum en t Souvenir Fund, ubscriptions be ELD FLOWER loth bound, 8 x 1. a certificate of

LD MONUMENT 180 Monroe St., Chicago,

ner's

1900 UDES

ROOSEVELT'S ll" (serial).

E'S "Tommy and

ARDING DAVIS'S al articles.

IAN'S The Russia

ALTER A. WY. "The Workers"

RIES by n Page, yke,

Processes is for sale in Moncton at Hatt weedle Bockstore and M B Jones Bookstore. Mrs Fred Ryan of Sackville is visiting Mrs F A trade. When the vessel had made a third call in September the inhabitants had re-turned and the enumeration was made. It Miss McLeod of Woodstock is visiting Mrs W E was found that about 135 souls lived on Progress Job Print.

MONOTON

CAMPBBLLTON.

Miss Dot Creasdale of Moncton, is a guest at the

WHERE LIFE IS HARDEST.

Alaska

the American islands of Behring Sea, have had remarkable experiences, and seen more abject misery and suffering than can be found perhaps anywhere else in the world. It happened that the census was taken in a year when almost unprecedented sickness and destitution were afflicting all the native communities from Unalaska to

Eagle and from Valdez to Cape Prince of

The enumerator in the Kuskokwim region began his work nearly a year ago, and it was not completed until the recent fall. In all the months he spent in the region he saw only two or three white men and these were miners going over the trail from some of the river settlements to Nome or Golovin Bsy. He travelled with dog tcams, and he took long chances of stars-ation and freezing.

Wales.

Miss McLeod of Woodstock is visiting Mrs W E Sherrard, Robinson street. Mr and Mrs Henry B Farrington have returned irom their bridal trip to Boston. A novel entenishmassi will be held in the vestry of the Central methodist church on the evening of February 13th called 'A week in a night.' The days of the week will be represented and articles appertaining to each day will be sold. The enter-tainment will be novel in character. Mr Pat King of Halitax is in the city on a visit. Miss McLeod et Woodstock is the greet of Mrs W E Sherrard, Robinson street. Mr J M Wallace of Winniper formerly one of Moneton's well known citizens, is in the city on a short trip. poverty The en surgeon of the Bear. It was found that nost of the sickness was measles, and in many cases this malady, combined with the condition of poor nourishment found at almost all of these settlements, was severe

It is a curious fact that among the hort trip. Dr B F Reads returned yesterday from Sackville where he was called Saturday last owing to the ill names of those on the census rolls this year Mrs Henry E Purington will be at home to re-ceive her friends on Wednesday and Thursday at her father's residence, Upper Luiz street. Miss Florence LeBlanc has returned from Shedisc. for St. Lawrence, King and the other Behring Sea Islands very few correspond with the names reported f.om the same places by the census taker in 1890. Dr. Hawley, this year's enumerator, explained Senator McSweeney and Miss Mina McSweeney that this might be because of the f.ee and Sensor McSweenev and miss mins motively left today for Ottaws. A musical event appreciated by the people of Moneton was the Bouthern Melody concert, held at the opera house on Tuesday evening. With such well know a talent as Mrs Lyman, Miss Peters, Miss Robinson, Miss Cook, Miss Lawrence, Mr Will LeBlanc, Mr L LeBlanc and Mr Percy Higgins the concert could not be otherwise than successful Many fancy drills were performed by twenty four pretty young ladies. A good sum was realized. easy method white men have of spelling E:quimau names, but he doubted if very many of the natives who were on these is-lands ten years ago are there now. They are not nomadic, but there is naturally some moving about 'rom place to place, and it is a sad fact that

· J oter rights of Wedding institutions an announcements printed in any quantitie and at moderate prices. Will be sent to any address. man population dies off every year. Of his age the Esquimau knows absolutely noth ug. He has no conception of num bers about five or six, and the only way he ca: indicate the number even of concrete things is to group them and represent Feb. 6,-Mr and Mrs P Baker were the guests of Mr and Mrs J B Benedict, Gatarday. Mr H P Matquis, has retm.aed home after spend-ing a tow days at his old home in Chatham. Miss Aggie Fatterson las. Saturday, morning to spend a couple of months with friends in Moncton them by some familiar group of objects. One might suppose that they would be able to indicate their a. e by specifying a certain number of symmers or winters, but this is not the case although they are far and other pais of the province. Miss Alice Mowst was the Luest of Mrs Percy Baker, at Metapedia, for a couple of days this trom being on ignorant people, considering size of King, midway between Cape Prince Miss for the set of th of Wales and East Cape, Siberia, in Behring Strait, a tew natives were found. These Esquimavx are constantly going back and torth between their island and the American mainland, where they associate with the natives under the tutelage of day and returged Saturday. Rev. Mr. Spencer is confided to the house with an attack of la grippe. Miss Eva Spencer is also Mr Loop, the progressive missionary at Cape Prince of Wales. They also go over to Big Diomed, immediately west, and geographically within the dominion of the Abject Misery of the Kuskokwim Region of Czar of Russia, making their visits m oumisks and kysks in summer and on the The census takers who have counted the native inhabitants of northern Alaska and dirty faced children on the statuway. "Oh, well, those belong to the jushfor " There never was, and never will be, a universal panaces, in one remedy for all ills to which fiesh is heir-the very nature of many curstives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated that were the germs of other and differently seated that were the germs of other and differently seated that were the germs of other and differently seated that were the germs of other and differently seated that were the germs of other and differently seated that were the system of the patient-what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, nowever, in Quinine Wine, when obtainable in a sound unadilterated state, a remedy jor many and grievous ills. By its gradmal and indicous use, the trallest systems are ied into con-valescence and strength. by the inflaence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. If relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a cisease, and, by tranguilising the nerree, disposes to sound and refreshing alsep - imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which. being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy suima functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, arengthening the healthy anima functions of the logatian of Toronto, have given it is to used substance-meant, improved appetite. Northron & Lyma of Toronto, have given to the public their superior Quinine Wine as the usual rate, and, stategists sell it.

APPLICATION will be made to Legislature at its next session for the passing of an act to incor-porate a company by the name of THE COTIAGE CITY PARK, Limited, for the purpose of acquir-ing, owning and managing Real Estate, and im-proving the same, and the erection of cottages and other building thereon, with power to lease, mort-rage or sell the same, and with such other powers as may be juckdent thereto.

as may be incident thereto. St. John, N. B., Jan. 14th, 1901.

to please you. We have lately added new type to our already well-equipped plant, and are prepared to furnish estimates on all classes of work

Thompson, n,

White.

RTICLES

position.

LAND'S article s ploration.

RD FIFTY )," by Sena-

RT FEATURES LL ILLUSTRA brated American

sts.

vannes.

AFARGE, illus.

ative schemes (in k and white) by LETON CLARK, O, HENRY Mo-HTL. RLMENrs.

ated Prospectus address,

BNER'S SONS New York.

TO CURE A COLDIN ONE DAY Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. 240

'Some people,' sighed the disappointed one, 'are so lucky that it seems as it they simply can't lose, no matter what happens.' 'Any still the people who lose,' said the amaten philosopher, 'are not always happy. I know a far yoman who would like to lose about 601bs and can't, and it makes her hopping mad every time she thinks of it.

Bore Feet -Mrs. E. J. Neill, New Armagh, F. Q. writes: "For nearly six months I was trouble with burning sches and pains in my feet to such a extert that I could not aleep at night, and as m feet were badly swolles I could not wear my bool for weeks. At last I got a bottle of Da. THOMAN EOLECTRIC OIL and resolved to try it and to ma stoulabment I got almost instant relief, and the on bottle accomplished a perfect cure.

Mrs. Henpeck-G sorge, have you read "An Snglishwoman's Love Letters ?" Henpeck-No; one woman's love letters wor nglis Henpe ugh.

enough. NOT A NAUSZATING FILL.-The excipient of pill is the substance which unfolds the ingredier and makes up the pill mass. That of Parmeles Vegetable Fills is so compounded as to preser their moisture, and they can strength. Many pil i under to keep them from adhering, are rolled powders, which norve nameating is the taste. Fa-meles's Vesetable Fills are so prepared that the are agreeable to the most delicate.

"I suppose 'D. D.' stands for 'doctor of div 'Usua!(y; but not if they're tw e small! 'd's' dash between teem.'

A dash between teem." How yo CLEANSE THE STOTEN. — Parmelee's V table Pills set the genuit of scientific study of iffects of ex racts of certain roots and herbs up the disestive organs. Their use has dem itra'ed a many instances that they regulate cilon of the Laver and the Kidneys, parify blood, and car, y off all the morbid accumulati . om the system. They are easy to take, and the scion is mild and beneficial.

is mild and the Bedink, you got of yesterday ployer -- Mr Bedink, you got of yesterday and the play of being ill. I saw noon under the ples of erward going to the rat ar at all unwell.

Clerk-You ought to have seen me after the of race, sir. I was had enough then.

The great lung bealer is found in that en medicine sold as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive is conthes and diminishes the sensibility of the

'Yes; he's quite a lion in so 'H vd better keepront of Bo

AN BOITON'S LIFE. rtin Butler's Numerous Trials and Triba-

New Brunswick has possessed many er editors of various make-ups artin Butler of Fredericton, edi-of Butler's Journal must be given the for originality and peculiarity of "Martin" as he is familiarly known nothing if not original. He has the to have but one arm, he is deficient ulties, he certainly is not vo if mental capacity. Martin is the happy seor of a wife and a son, the latter, ways keeps the public well informed as to his good wife and the Martiboy. In the last issue of the paper he tells of the several gifts bestowed upon his family during the Christmas season. There was that for the good wife and this for the Marti boy and Martin himself is protuse in his thanks for all the kindness received. Martin in es past has had many grievances but the greatest one seems to have been the annoyance he received from the small boys. Some way or other the Editor and Fredericton's youthtal fraternity did not seem to harmonize. Things became so desperate that Martin had to threaten them with all the powers of the law with the Police Magistrate down to the smallest constable on force. Martin, however, now takes pleasure in informing the public at Cairo and Constantinople possess excellent being established between the warring ele. He says, "we believe that the warning given to our boys last month, a conference with some of them and a disposition on our part to act more sensibly, and better respect their feelings, has greatly enlightened their minds as to the difference between shouting out insulting and scandalous names to us, and indulging in harmless chaff and hanter. The boys of Fredericton are, as a rule far from being bad or malicious, but they are very thoughtless, and when they get hold of any rig they run it forever Bat they are unable to reason, at least the most of them, naturally genial and affectionate, and we don't expect much trouble from them in the tuture. If they only knew that we have always loved them, and would at any time imperil our own life to save theirs, they would not be so hasty in condemning us for our politics or peculiar. ities."

Cailyle As Schoelmaster.

A writer in the Scotsman has uncarthed an amusing anecdote of Thomas Carlyle as a country schoolmaster. It is told by a Cupar lawyer and provost, who was one of Carlyle's pupils in Kirkcaldy. As a teach er, Carlyle is described as a strict and gloomy disciplinarian whose large, glowing eyes constantly shot forth wrath. His fierce scowl would hush the whole school, and he had a laugh that was a series of chuckles and loud guffaws, wherein he displayed his teeth like the keys of a piano. One morning, just as we were entering the schoolroom, a donkey appeared on the playground, and Bill Hood rushed to nount the animal and attempted to ride it into the schoolroom. The donkey was induced to carry its rider over the threshold amid shouts of laughter and cheers from the boys. Just as Bill was purring the donkey into the master's desk, Carlyle appeared.

movable types was set up in the Tabriz, and a certain number of books were print-ed. The effort met with no encourage ment, however, and had shortly to be shandoned

The same taste which makes a Persia esteem so highly the great calligraphists makes him deplore the absence of character in a type printed book. What most delights him is a well-written manuscript and he takes the same delight in the copyist's work that we take in the touch of an old master. Failing this, he contents him self with a lithograph, which is usually a facemile of the writing of some fairly good be calls Marti Martin in his journal al- scribe, and has, at any rate, a human ele ment about it. It is hard for us to credit the w amount of attention that is paid to calligraphy in the East, where men of learning devote years to its acquirement and hi best days to making artistic copies of class ical works. Although this art is to a certain extent dying out, owing to the cheapness of lithography, a man may, even yet in Persia, become as famous for his writing as a poet for his verses. A writer in the North American Ravie contrasts this clinging of the Persians to written books with the spread of typeprinted books in other parts of the East where printing, bookselling and journalism have in the last twenty years been develop ed to a comparatively high degree. Both large that there is a fair prospect of peace printing presses, which turn out numberless books and journals.

Sport in Lapland.

Wonderful as are the recorded feats of the Scandinavians with snow shoes or skees, they will not bear comparison with those of the Lapps, described by Mr. Paul Du Chaillu in his recent book, 'The Land of the Lorg Night.' The Lapps not only make perilous descents, but they dart at full speed across wide chasms and rivers with the simple aid of their snow-shoes. It is a grand sight, but one with a fearful thrilll in it for the uninitiated observer. On one occasion, as Mr. Du Chaillu stood on one side of a chasm near the line of a descent of some star performers, he expressed bimself as a little anxious about possible accidents. His Lapp companion heard him with a smile, and replied : 'Do not be afraid ; they will guide their skees as skilfully as a skilful boatman steers his boat. I think, perhaps, the foremost means to touch you with his hands as he passes by, so do not be frightened; do not move an inch. He is one of the most expert among us.'

The speaker had barely finished the words when the foremost Lapp, with railroad speed and dangerously close, bore down upon upon Da Chaillu, and before he could realize it passed in front of him within three teet, although without touch. ing him, as his companion had predicted. Still it took his breath away, his heart beat so quickly. Before he had time to recover he saw the Lapp in the air, over the chasm ; then in the twinkling of an eye he had alighted on the other side. Others followed. Their momentum was very great and in less than a minute they had leaped over the river and continued their forward course, which they could not stop, on the gradually with the help of sticks, the ends

"Brevity is the Soul of Wit."

PROGRESS, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9 1901

Wit is evision. Blood is life. Impure blood is living death. Health depends on good blood. Disease is due to bad blood. The blood can be purified. Legions say Hood's Sarsaparilla, America's Greatest Blood Medicine, purifies it. A brief story but it tells the tale.

Nervous Weakness-"I suffered from nervous weakness and loss of appe-tite. My blood was impure, my stomach red and I could not sleep. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me entirely." Mrs. E. Lockwood, Belleville, Ont.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints

sign himself 'your very humble servant, as usual, and only put your humble ser A Soldier's Thought Winston Spencer Churchill, who was was rrespondent during the late campaign in Africa, says that once, in the interests of ately these morbidly sensitive reople of the the Morning Post, he promised to follow the scouts for a day. The English had past have their counterparts today. To be talked about and written about is still one made a rapid advance into the heart of the of the most prevalent and pernicious Boer position, disturbing; and alarming their adversaries, who attempted to out-flank the outflanking cavalry, and rode cravings of society, and there seem to be few depths of renunciation and selt-abase-ment which go untried. The heroine of the dime novel type who into the open to make for, a white stone kopje on the British right. An English soldier rode up to his gen-

'Sir,' he asked, 'may we cut them off ? I think we can just do it.' The scouts pricked up their ears. The eneral reflected.

'All right,' said he. 'You may try.' It was a race from the beginning. They reached the kopje to find a quad of Boers there before them.

'Too late!' said the British leader. steadily, 'Back to the other kopje! Gallop! 'Then,' says Mr. Churchill, the musketry crushed out, and the swish and whir of bullets filled the air. I had dismounted. Now I put my foot into the stirrup, The entire seminary was in question, and there horse terrified at the firing, plunged wildly. had been some especially pointed criticism The saddle turned, and the animal broke of the new protessor from the West. AWAY. 'Yes,' replied a member of the committee

'Most of the scouts were already two he went into the army from college, and hundred yards off. I was alone, on foot, quickly rose to the rank of second lieuten. at the closest range, a mile from cover of any kind. - I turned and ran for my life nt, though he was a mere boy.' The old chaplein was among the corfrom the Boer marksmen, and I thought as ervatives, but he had a warm place in his I ran, 'flere, at last, I take it.' heart for a comrade. He resolved, how-

'Suddenly as I fled I saw all scout. He ever, that sentiment should not swerve him came from the left across my track, a tall 'No doubt he did his duty,' he remarked, man on a pale horse. 'Give me a stirrup!' carelessly. I shouted. kindness and courage,' said the other

'To my surprise, he stopped at once. "Yes,' he said, shortly.

'In a moment I found myself behind him on the saddle. Then we rode. I put my arms about him to catch a grip of the name. My hand dabbed in blood. The borse was hard bit, but like a gallant beast he extended himself nobly. The pursuing bullets piped and whistled overhead, but the range was growing longer.

'Don't be frightened,' said my rescuer They won't bit you.' Then he groated affected. 'Go on,' said he. 'My poor horse, oh, my po r horse ! Shot with an explosive bullet ! Oa, my poor orse !

out of doors, you know, and they did soon the little that they could do for him. But when they thought him nearly gone, he rallied, and in a lull of the battle began to sing, 'Jesus, lover of my soul.' They say 'Never mind,' said I, 'you have saved sing, Jeaus, lover of my soul.' They say his faith and courage pulled him through. He was past fighting, but he resumed his studies, and distinguished hi self in them 'Ah,' he rejoined, 'bnt it's the horse I'm as he had done on the bat'le field." as he had done on the bat le field." Two or three members of the committee were wiping their eyes, and the old chap-lain blew his nose hard. Then he said, "Gentlemen, patriotim is one thing and theology another, and it is theology we are looking after now. But you can't make me believe there's any serious hereey in a man with that kind of religion. His theology is good enough for me it theology is good enough for me !'

'He won respect for his religion by his member. ' and he would have risen higher but for his wound."

Where was he wounded?'

surgeon, who was unbuckling it.'

•The field hospital was close at washed with SURPRISE -a little Surprise Soap and still bor-are not only clean but un-> ur clothes. Don't have by poor soap-use pure soap

PRISE to a pure hard Son

FOR ARTISTS.

WINSOR & NEWTON'S OIL COLORS. WATER COLORS. CANVAS,

etc., etc., fetc. Manufacturing Artists, Colormen to Her Majest FOR SALE AT ALL ART STORES.

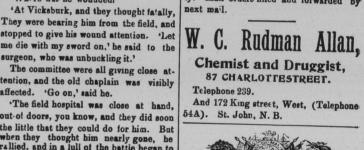

A. RAMSAY & SON, - MONTREAL Wholesale Agents for Canada.

Accuracy, Purity and Promptness

ARE THE RULES OF MY DISPENSING DEPARTMENT

Every care is exercised in procuring the purest Drugs and Chemicals, which are accurately prepared by ompetent Pharmaciste.

Telephone and I will send for your Prescription and return it, Dispensed promptly. Mail orders filled and torwarded by next mail.

Pages

AS

In a cell in th ney, Ia., under a woman not have found her crippled busbar appeals grants spend the rest the state penite youngest of her such a [senten strong revulsion her guilt has are confident of the court to rec prosecutor decl opinion the ver Sarah Kubn She is of Englis She bas the av born and broug that is to say, s has a smatterin ed up in an irre 16 she was sent and then began has left her beh when Sarah fell a broad should more than her means so much year or so they the farmers' wi girl. Then th ment cooled : a Sarah is now ac into the story. Charles Kub Inflammatory r legs so as to br matter how he a cork screw ga ease had left of useless. He w working Germ lete in his shoe of the money h once he was pas district often at gesting that he often as they di gnarled legs. Who would would ask and laugh. Nevertheless think of marry asked his neare and the friend shouldered you 'I want a F others afterwar strong. The request was growing thought over help the old ma he told him tha and at a For Delta, near who troduced him to later Kuhn ask She told him he away. The cobb Smith again. W to his sweetheau has told, but th the girl were m is a justice of and the only parents, when clared that th daughter again she was in jail. With the ma changed. He she asked for a say that she all. The only pled husband s she might leave threatened to d and asked the he could do for lager met him fice in Sigourne 'I've just fini in my life,' said What was th 'I've just w mas the reply. A month late ascended the throne of England this In-diana girl quarreled with her lover, and declared their engagement at an end. That evening, and at intervals for sixty years thereafter, the man faithfully renewed his offer of marriage. She chose to abide by her foolish resolution, to which she added

Human vanity takes many forms. Poor

ady Coventry, who had been world famou s one of the beautiful Gunnings, spent her

ast days on a couch with a pocket mirror in her hand. When a caller hinted how greatly she had changed, she took to her bed, had no light in her room, and finally took things in through the bed curtains without suffering them to be withdrawn.

History says that ten thousand persons

Horace Walpole affirms that Lord Fane

kept his bed six weeks because the Dak

of Newcastle forgot in one of his letters to

This all seems very silly, bat unfortun

went to see ber coffin.

vow never to leave her home.

We expected a tremendous explosion of wrath, but instead he burst into a roar of were somewhat bent, and as they struck laughter-such a roar, however, as produced a sudden and complete hush; and that the snow they righted themselves. While in the air they maintained their skees roar was renewed again and again. Finally parallel, as it they had been on the snow, the master spoke.

and when they slighted the skees were on 'That,' he said, 'is the wisest and best a perfect level with each other. No man scholar Kirkcadly has yet sent me; he is looked to be more than two or three fit to be your teacher.' feet ahead of another.

ride up and down before the school for an

Books in Persia.

The straightness of the lines offends the Persian's artistic sense, and he feels that in printed books the character of the letters is entirely lost. Persia is today entirely dependent upon lithography for its own behind the perplexed looking ass.

scorn and fury.

He tapped the donkey's head, as he was They seemed to give a spring as they won't to do ours, and continued, 'These's came near the brink of the chasm, bending something here, far more than in the skulls their bodies forward, straightening themof any of his brethern before me.

selves as they struck the snow, and con-He the gave some hard taps on Bill Hood's bent; and would not allow him to dismount, but for penalty ordered him to tinuing their course as if nothing had happened.

Forest Wealth of the Philippines.

hour, while the boys who had been most active in helping Bill ; to go through the The Spaniards were not insensible to the farce had to march in pairs before and great value of the vast forces in the Phillip. pine Islands, and 35 years ago a govern-

The other scholars were permitted to ment forestry bureau was established at stand as spectators of the grotesque pro-Manila. Captain Abern, now in charge of cassion. Meantime, seated within his pulthis bureau, is seeking to recognize it, and pit like desk. Carlyle surveyed Bill and his calls for technically educated foresters company with a strange mixture of mirth from the United States to assist him. More than 400 species of trees are known in the Philippines, and it is believed that a careful survey will reveal nearly 100 more Type-printing is unpopular in Persia.

species. At least 50 of the known species, including the celebrated ihlang ihlang tree, which produces an oil forming the base of many perfumes, are valuable. Many species are of medicinal value.

ction of books and journals. Natur-Count that day lost whose low descending ally these are very rare. At the begin-

Finds Tesla with no novel sche ning of the nineteenth century a press with of which were thrust deep in the snow. tion. As the Lapps leaped over, their legs my life.

thinking about !'

Mistaken Sepsibility.

'That was the whole

There lately died in Indiana a little old lady who for sixty-five years had not stepped outside her door. Although village station was within a few blocks of her home, she had never seen a railwaytrain. Yet she was not blind, nor a cripple, nor a bedridden anfferer.

A few years before the young Victoria

Portal of Entry.

Influenza or the Grip .- Caused by one of the smallest known bacilli; discovered in 1892 by Canon and Pfeiffer. Infection spreads by the scattering about by air currents of the dried nasal and bronchial secretion of those suffering from the disease, and its portal of entry is by the nose and bronchial tubes .- N. Y. Sun. The use of Dr. Humphreys' Specific revenue "77" destroys the bacilli or germs and breaks up the Grip or Cold, while its tonicity sustains the flagging energies during and after the attack. At all Drug Stores, 25c., or mailed. Pocket Manual mailed free.

Humphreys' Homeovathic Medicine Co., Cor.

The Danish West Indies.

Three small dots on a map of the West Indies, two of them directly east of Porto Rico, the third and largest southeast of that island, represent the Danish West Indies.

It is not an imposing group. Altogether the three islands have barely one-tenth the area of the State of Rhode Island. Their combined population is but a little more than thirty thousand, mostly negroes Frequent earthquakes shake them, and hurricans sweep over them. Sugar, rum and tobacco are the chief products; but there is so little prosperity among the people that it costs Denmark to take care of them more than she gets back in Small and unimportant as these little islands of St. Thomas, St. John and St. Croix are, the United States came near buying them from Denmark more than thirty years ago, and recently has made a new offer for them. It is not the size of the islands nor their fertility which gives them value, but their position. St. Thomas lies less than forty miles from the eastern coast of Porto Rico. It has an excellent harbor, which would be useful as a coaling and naval station. When a canal is cut

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the under-signed, and endorsed "Inder for Bay du Vin Whari," will be received at this effice until Friday, February 15th 1901. inclusively, for the reconstruc-tion of the outer end of the Wharf, at Bay du Vin, Northumb-rland County, Province of New Brans-wick, according to a plan and a spec facation to be seen at the offices of E. T. P. Shewen, Eiq., Resi-dent Engineer, St. John, N. B., and C. E. W. Dodwell, Eeq., Resident Engineer, Hallin x, N. S., on application to the Postmaster at Bay du Vin. N. B., and at the Department of Public Works, Ottawa Tenders will not be considered unless made on the form supplied, and signed with the actual signa-tures of tenders.

An accepted on que on a Chartered Dank payable to the order of the Minister of Public Works, for eight hundred doilars ($800,00), must accompany each tender. The cheque will be torfeited if the party decline the contract or fail to complete the work contracted for, and will be returned in case of non acceptance of tender. The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender. By order, ¡JOS. B. ROY, Acting Secretary, at of Public Works, Ottawa, January 17th, 1901. Newspapers inserting this advertisement without authority from the Department will Lot be paid for across the isthmus, the possession of these islands by the United States will be more important than at present. The inconvenience of having them in the hands of some rival and possibly hostile power would be very great.

126, 8 t.

These, presumably, are the considera-tions which have led to a renewal of the negotiations for the purchase of a group. Both houses of congress must act before the arrangement can be completed, so that the policy will be adopted, if at all, only after a full discussion of its advantages and disadvantages.

Pages 9 to 16. PROGRESS. Pages 9 to 16.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1901.

A Sad Tale of

-----

In a cell in the little stone juil at Sigour- | her trial the will was made to tell strongly ney, Ia., under a life sentence for murder is a woman not yet 20 years old. A jury have found her guilty of poisoning her crippled husband, and unless the court of action by a single word and it was pointed out by her lawyers that under the laws of appeals grants her a new trial she will the State of Iows, where a will is made and the wife is the beneficiary in whole or in spend the rest of her life at hard labor in the state penitentiary. She is perhaps the youngest of her sex in this country under such a [sentence, and since her trial a part, and it is proved that she took the life of the testator, the will becomes inopera strong revulsion in the public feeling as to her guilt has taken place. Her lawyers are confident of being able to prevail on the court to reopen her case. The county prosecutor declares, however, that in his opinion the verdict will stand.

Sarah Kubn is the woman's name now. She is of English parentage and her maiden name was Crane. She is quite pretty. She has the average education of a girl born and brought up on an Iows farm; that is to say, she can read and write and has a smattering of other knowledge pickdrive only the wife has told. ed up in an irregular career at school. At she told the sheriff afterward, 'Charlie 16 she was sent out to earn her own living and then began the sordid romance which opened a bottle of beer and we both drank some. He was in a good humor and after finishing that bottle he asked me to sing has left her behind prison bars. It began when Sarah fell in love with Andrew Smith, him a German song I knew. I held the a broad shouldered young farmer of little reins and I sang while he opened the second bottle. He joined in the chorus. more than her own age, who was by no means so much in love with her. For a He drank from the second bottle and then year or so they went about together and he passed it to me saying that it tasted the farmers' wives said no good of the girl. Then the young farmer's attach-ment cooled; and here the cripple whom bitter. I drank a little, but not much, and he drank more. Then he set the bottle down and I saw that something was wrong. Sarah is now accused of murdering came He lay on his side mumbling. I thought the beer had gone to his head. When we into the stery. Charles Kuhn was wofully deformed Inflammatory rheumatism had twisted his legs so as to bring the knees together no matter how he stood, and he walked with a cork screw gait. Besides this the dis ease had left one of his long arms entirely useless. He was known as a miserly, hard working German, who toiled early and Kubn was crying 'Come quick, my hus-band is dying.' He went to the buggy late in his shoemaker's shop for sheer love of the money his lator brought him and once he was past middle age the wags of the district often amused themselves by sug-gesting that he take to himself a wife. As often as they did Kuhn would point to his gnarled legs.

"Who would have me with these !" he would ask and then his tormentors would about taking the reins. His wife said she laugh. didn't know what was matter with him,

Nevertheless the old man did begin to but he'd been drinking beer and eating think of marrying. Two years ago he bologna, so I climbed into the buggy and drove towards the doctor's. When we got asked his nearest triend to find him a wite. and the friend he asked was the broad pretty well to the place where you turn I asked whether we should go to the doctor's shouldered young farmer Andrew Smith. 'I want a pretty woman.' Kubn told or home, and his wife said it would be bet-others afterwards 'that he said to Smith, ter to take him home. Then he cried, 'and she must be single, young and 'No, take me to Dr. Busby's, she's poison-testimony. To the last the wile has pro The verdict of the jury brought no tears to the woman's eyes. She walked as if dszed out of court and to the juil. In the crowd, on the corner of the street as she passed, stood a broad shouldered male the South. on-looker. It was Andrew Smith, now married to a girl he knew when Sarah Crane and he were sweethearts. HE WAS TRACKED BY A DEEAM.

Clergyman's Deserted Wife Causes His Ar

A wonderful story of the capture through detective work done by a woman in a dream islinvolved in the arrest at Ogden, Utab, of Rev. W. H. Springfield, a Baptist minis ter of Dunton, L. I., who, it is said, deterted his wite last July.

At the time Springfield went away his wile's niece, Mary Frances Kershaw, a beautiful school teacher, 22 years old, disappeared. She had with her $3,000, her own money.

The missing clargyman, whose movements were revealed to his wife in dreams, was run down with the belp of the Rebek-abs. They tracked him from state to state. Five hundred women in all worked on the case and succeeded in locating the man.

at Ogden. Where his missing niece, Mis Kershaw, is, was not known to his wife. It has happened that several members of the Kershaw family have been murdered, and her cousins fear that she has been killed for her money. There is nothing, however, on which to base such a beliet.

of them travel through the west.

'We went to Oklahoma City,' Mrs. Springfield said, 'and there my husband bought a prairie schooner and horses. We went out on the plain to rough it. We trekked through Oklahoma, Indian territory, the northwestern section of Texas "We lived in a tent and in the wagon could do was to go up to Cape Nome and make his fortune, I cried and said he'd get mallpox there and not gold, but he said he was determined to go. He wanted me to stay at Rawlins, but, as I knew no one there, I said I'd go back to my friends at

'When Miss Kershaw said that, as we vere breaking up the party, she'd go to Ogden and get a position as a school teacher. We separated five days later.

dream that my husband was in California. I saw him riding on a wagon. Then I reShe Knew

Queen cared more about toilette than she did in later years, and bowed her royal head to the snpremacy of French fashions.

Visiting Paris on frivolous thoughts intent, she noticed a charming French girl em-ployed at the dressmaker's. The Queen was a young woman of quick impulses. She conceived a violent fancy for the pretty girl, talked to her and found that she was

The change was a striking one, but ried to M. Boeringer in 1845 she was never separated from her royal mistress for longer than a day or two, and even when her Swiss lover loomed up on the

to leave the Queen, whom she adorned.

The courtship hung fire until the queen,

who was never too queenly to be womanly,

saw that something was bothering her com panion, and asked questions. Then the murder came out. Mme. Boeringer never tired of telling how good her mistress was about that old time love affair. The queen grieved at losing a devoted triend, but urged the friend to marry and be happy.

Mile. de Lanois wept and protested, but finally decided that she could get along without Queen Victoria better than sh

So she was married and came to America carrying with her good wishes and a handsome wedding present from the queen.

She promised to revisit England in a tew years, but she never went back. She lived in Orange county and had several could get along without M. Boeringer.

The Queen.

In a country home near Goshen, N. Y., | be ing to her when she was young, and lives a little old lady who knew Queen Victoria as no other woman in the United the queen always wanted her to wear blue and while. it's pititul, this growing old States knew her. For years she was the ion't it ?'

-----

Then Mrs. Coleman repeated the follow. Queen's constant companion and her de-votion to her mistress was sincere; yet to ing story of Queen Victoria, which her mother had told her:

Mother always travelled with her mistress,' she said, 'and in those days, you know, they usually travelled by coach. One summer the queen set her heart upon a trip through Switzerland. Everybody wanted her to go somewhere else, but Switzerland she would have. Mother said the little lady had a fine stubborn will of her own, so she had her way. 'Some of the family went with her to Geneva, but there she shook them off and strrted out with only a few of her personal attendants. Mother said the queen was as irrepressible as a runaway school girl. I can't quite imagine it. It always seemed to me that Oneen Victoria's virtues had crowded out her sense of humor, but mother told another story and said the girl was just bubbling over with fun and good spirits whenever she could get rid of the everlasting ceremony and state that belonged to her positi

'On this Swiss trip she was pos larky, and mother entered into her mo I fancy that was why the two were such good friends. Mother was just French enough not to be easily shocked, and that must have been a tremendous relief to an horizon and she fell in love with him at English queen. first sight, she could not make up her mind

'Of course the queen rode inside the coach, and the servants and attendants had places outside. The queen was trav-elling incognito, but you know what that means. Everybedy enroute was expecting her, and at every village the people crowded round and stared and thre= flowers and cheered and kissed her hand.

'It bored the queen dreadfully. After a while she stopped the coach and ordered my mothhr to climb down.

You are having all the fun, she said. 'and I'm shut up in this stuffy hole where I can't halt see or feel, and then the people make me so tired, because the things want to pay their respects to the queen of England. Now I positively will not stand it another minute. It's bad enough to be Queen in England. I won't be queen in Switzerland. I am going to ride on top.'

'Every body was shocked ezcept mother. She thought it was beautiful.

'Of course it would scandalize people if 'I was brought up upon Queen Victoria they knew it,' said the Queen, 'but they Mrs. Alorzo H. Coleman, Mme. Boerinneedn't know it. Mile. de Lanois, you ger's only living child, said to a Sun recan just get in here and play queen. You porter. 'She was my ideal of all the virthe poor things who kiss my hand are so embarrassed that they don't know what I look like anyway. You will make a very good queen, and I'll ride where I've be longing to, outside.'

against his widow though it was not show that she inspired, urged or sanctioned the day she is not mourning. The news that once would have meant bitter grief for her cannot reach her heart through her clouded brain. Mme. Boeringer, nee de Lanois. was a mere slip of a girl when she met Queen Victoria in 1840. In those days the young

Springfield is in the hands of the police

well educated and of good family, and ended by carrying her off to England as French companion and personal attendant. Mlle. de Lanois had good French blood in her veins, and fitted into her new nich with the utmost grace and composure. From the time she left Paris until she was mar-

In February last Miss Kershaw's uncle Samuel Wansey, died, leaving about $3,-000 to her. The fellowing month Mr. Springfield announced that his health had broken down, and suggested that the three having the kind of time gypsies might have. On July 4 last we were at Rawlins, Wyo. Our money was nearly gone, and we were tired of our prairie schooner life.

'Mr. Springfield said the best thing he children, to whom she told wonderfui stories, all about courts and queens and kings. When I came back to Dunton, I had a White Things washed with SURPRISE ttle Surprise Soap and still are not only clean but un-lothes. Don't have then poor soap-use pure soap ISE to a pure hard Soap

STS.

R & NEWTON'S IL COLORS. TER COLORS. CANVAS. tc., etc.,[etc.

Artists, Colormen to Her Majesty oyal Family.

AT ALL ART STORES. & SON, - MONTREAL

ale Agents for Canada. lCy, and

tness

LE RULES OF MY

G DEPARTMENT exercised in procuring the

and Chemicals, which are ared by ompetent Phar-d I will send for your Preturn it, Dispensed prompts filled and torwarded by

udman Allan, and Druggist, LOTTESTREET.

street, West, (Telephone . N. B.

village the husband purchased a dozen bottles of beer, which he placed in his buggy. He left his wife alone in it later, while he wandered about the streets. Then they started home. What occurred on the Labor Day, about a month after the will

'When we were a short way out of town,' got near old man Snider's house he began to cry that I had poisoned him. Then I shouted, too, and Snider came out into the Snider was the p.incipal witness against the woman at her trial. He testified that when the buggy reached his house Mrs.

and Kubn told him to take the reins and drive as fast as he could to the doctor's.

'What else did he say?' said the county

"Well,' said the witness, 'I Lesitated because he'd been poisoned.

was made, was the cobbler's last. On that day he and his wife drove to an entertainment at What Cheer, a neighboring village. Nothing was developed at the trial to show that the wife planned or suggested the trip. While the couple were in the ERS addressed to the under-ed "Inder for Bay du Vin elved at this effice until Friday. Inclusively, for the reconstruc-of the Wuarf, at Bay du Vin, unty, Province of New Brans-plan and a specification to be E. T. P. Shewen, Etq., Resi-John, N. B., and C. E. W. Ident Engineer, Hallix X, N. S. Posimaster at Bay du Vin. N. tment of Pablic Works, Ottawa e considered unless made on ad signed with the actual signa-

e on a chartered bank payable e on a chartered bank payable inistor of Public Works, for-rs ($300,00), must accompany acque will be torfeited if the tract or fail to complete the and will be returned in case tender.

JOS. R. ROY, Acting Secretary. Works ary 17th, 1901. ng this advertisement without partment will Lot be paid for

126. 8 t.

s, the possession of these ited States will be more present. The inconvenem in the hands of some hostile power would be bly, are the consideraled to a renewal of the he purchase of a group. ngress must act before can be completed, so-be adopted, if at all, cussion of its advantages ed me !' I thought not, and told him so, strong.

The request came at a time when Smith | and she said, 'What makes you talk so, was growing tired of Sarah Crane. He Charley P What will people think of thought over it and finally promised to you talking that way ? He kept saying : help the old man to a wife. A month later She poisoned me, Snider ; she did. Then she would say again that she did not, and he told him that he had found him a girl and at a Fourth of July celebration at for awhile he wouldn't say anything. One Delta, near where the cobbler lived, he intime during the drive he turned to her and asked: 'Why did you do it ?' troduced him to Sarah Crane. Six months road.'

The doctor was not at home and the later Kuhn asked the girl to marry him. cripple still crying that he had been pois-She told him he was crazy and ordered him oned, died in the buggy on the way to his away. The cobbler appealed to his triend cottage. An autopsy revealed traces of strychnine in his stomach and in the beer Smith again. What persuasions Smith used to his sweetheart nobody knows, for neither left in the bottle in the roadway was found has told, but three months later Kuhn and the girl were married. Smith's father, who enough strychnine to kill a dozen men On the roadway over which the couple is a justice of the peace, married them, and the only witness was Smith. Sarah's had driven there was discovered a small parents, when they heard of the match, dephial half filled with strychnine. It bore clared that they would never see their the name of a New York firm. At the trial it was brought out that this was daughter again. They kept their word till found on the side of the roadway on which

and therefore inadmissable. The jury

With the marriage the cobbler's habits the wife had driven. No evidence of a purchase of poison by either husband er changed. He bought his wife everything she asked for and her neighbors began to wife was discovered. The prosecution argued that the woman, say that she had not done so badly after The only thing that troubled her criptired of her crippled husband, poisoned the pled husband seemed to be the fear that peer in the wagon in the few moments the might leave him. One day she lightly when she was left alone by him in the vilage. The defence showed that she had no threatened to do so. He sought his friends and asked them what more they thought neans of uncerking the bottle and argued that Kuhn himself, fearing that his wite he could do for Sarah. The next day a vilwould carry out her threat to leave him. lager met him coming out of a lawyer's office in Sigourney. 'I've just finished the best job I ever did had bought the poison contemplating murin my life,' said the cobbler.

she was in jail.

"What was that P' asked the villager. "I've just willed [all own to my wife," awas the reply.

composed of solid farmers, however, re-A month later the old man was de arded it as the essential feature of the mbered that Miss Kershav box of her effects at Centreville, Penn. wrote to the woman there who had them and she replied, saying that a few days before she had sent the box to Antioch, Calif., at Miss Kerskaw's request.

'I am a member of the Rebekahs, a wo man's society. I wrote to the noble grands of the order in Antioch. Rawlins and Ogden, asking men to try and find some trace of the missing ones. 'At this time I had a remarkable dream. Miss Kershaw came to me in my sleeppale, with long hair streaming down her back. She said that she had lost all her money and that her life was wrecked. She ried pitcously and asked me to take compassion upon her.

At the same time I saw a stout man in my dream arresting my husband.' When a reporter told Mrs. Springfield that her husband had been arrested she wept bitterly. She did not knew what the charge against him could be. A few days ago she sent to the chief of police of Ogden photographs of both the missing ones, saying that she would like to have them tound.

The Man Behind the Mules

An echo of the South African War come to us by the way of Collier's Weekly : During General White's sortie Ladysmith, the British battery mules on the left were stampeded. The captain of one of the batteries, seeing his first sergeant der and suicide on his way home. It was flying by with. the first gun, shouted urged that Kuhn's dying declaration was an opinion rather than a statement of fact, angrily: "Hi, sir! Where are you going?" To which the gunner curtly replied : 'Hangen if I know! Ask the mules!'

-a wonderful, perfect, far off sain Mother was always talking of her goodness, gentleness and consideration for others, no matter what their station might might be.

'In all the years I was with her she used to say: 'I never knew her to do a selfish, ungenerous, or even a discourteous thing.

'All of mother's stories began with When I lived with the queen,' and I loved them ; but I'm alraid I was a sturdy little democrat and didn't stand properly in awe of royalty. The stories went in one ear and out of the other. If my brother were living he could tell them to you word for word. He simply drank them in and dreamed abont thrones and crowns, and always wanted to play kings and queens. He couldn't understand why I wasn't more impressed by mother's old glories, and he used to be areadfully disgusted with me because my tastes were so low. My oldest daughter, Henriette, has some jewelry that Queen Victoria gave to mother.' Mrs. Coleman showed two worn moroe co cases stamped with the royal arms. In one was a beautiful brooch of turquoises and pearls, that reflected more credit upon the queen's taste than the brooches with which famous singers who sang before her in late years have been favored. In the second jewel box were great turquoise and pearl earrings in leaf design.

'I suppose Henriette will never wear the earrings,' said Mrs. Coleman, 'but it is nice for her to have the things. Mother thought the world and all of them and

'So into the coach mother climbed, and there she queened it all day. All the villagers stared at her and threw flowers and kissed her hand, and she put on a great many more airs than the real Queen would many more airs than the real Queen would have dreamed of. And all the while Queen Victoria and the others were shouting with laughter, outside the coach. 'Mother used to tell that story over and over and laugh until she cried. I can see her now wiping tears of mirth out of her eyes, and asying: 'Oh, les beaux jours l' 'Well, Queen Victoria had a good deal of sadness in her life, but her 'beautiful days' lasted better than mother's. Mother is four years older than the Queen but her real life ended years ago.' Queen Victoria's Death.

Queen Victoria's Death.

There never was such interest aroused over the death of one monarch and the accession of another as in the case of Victoris and Edward VII. The Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, is being widely complimented on the splendid way it reported and treated of these two important events. No other paper on the American Continent even approached the Family Herald and Weekly Star in the completeness of its reports and profusencess of its illustrations. The circulation of the Family Herald is increasing by lesps and bounds. It is no wonder. A paper that is so superbly equipped for all emergen wanted the oldest granddaughter to have them. She said they were wonderfully deserves success

PROGRESS, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1901.

Sweet Violet.

IN TWO NSTALMENTS-PART II.

'Yes, that is quite right,' replied the porter, struck by the sound of the voice. The woman came closer to him and stood on the threshold of the door, so that the samp in the ball fell upon her feat-

'James,' she'said sadly. 'I see that you cannot remember me.' The porter started back with a cry of

CHAPTER I.

Alas I for the rarity Of Caristian c arity Under the sun 1 Oh 1 it was pitiful, Near a whole city full Home she had none 1-HooD.

The ponderous bell of 'Big Ben' had slowly and solemnly pealed out the hour of midnight, and the Great City was wrap-ped in slumber.

It had been snowing off and on for two or three days or more, and now the snow lay piled up like ministure mountains on other side of the newsmonts.

ay piled up into ministure mountains on sither side of the pavements. The night of which we write was a cold and particularly wild one. The wind groaned and howled through the streets, and establing up the loose snow sent it fly ing in every direction. It was a night when not even a dog should have been a broad, let alone a

The porter started back with a cry of amazement. 'Miss Vio--' he commenced. 'Hush I' replied the woman, raising her hand warningly. 'Yes, James, it is in-deed me.' The hall porter, a very old servant of the tamily, placed his hands upon his eyes and seemed to wish to shut out the sight. 'Oh,' he said in trembling tones, 'what would your poor mother say if she saw you like this P And her last words were for her preity violet. Oh, cruel Sir Arch-ibald. May God help you and your poor child, for his heart is as stony as ever.' 'James,' said the woman,' I have come to see him. I have written to him scores of times, but he has never replied to me. I must see him. Not for my sake, but for chis poor child.' 'If 1 go to him and say you are here, he will tell me--Oh, what shall I do ? He is in his study as usual; you go there and knock. He will think it is me, and will tell you to come in. Go, and may Heaven met hus heart.' The woman did as desired, heaving many c deep sich as the passe. passed down the hall should have been a broad, let alone a buman being. But, alas ! even in this great and wealthy city, it is not all of us who are blessed with homes. No matter what the weather is, someone—some 'poor un fortunate'—bas to tace it. It was so on this particular night. The last notes of 'Big Ben' had hardly died away when a woman, leading by the hand a little child of about nin- years of age, passed wearily round by the Homes of Parliament, now silent and deserted, and walked in the direction of Victoria street. More than one policeman paused on his beat, and looked curiously into the face of the woman—more than one of them muttered, melt his heart.' The woman did as desired, heaving many a deep sigh as she passed down the hall she knew so well. Arrived at the study door, she knocked best, and looked curiously into the face of the woman — more than one of them muttered, 'Poor unfortunate creaturel how ill she hooke — and that little child—ugh!' And then they thought of their wives and child-ren, so comfortable at home. And, oh, mercitul father! how awful was the look upon that woman's face! By no means. It was a face which at one time had evidently been very beautiful; but trouble, misery, and want had changed it into that gaunt, haggard look which is the result of actual startartion. had evidently been very beautiful; but trouble, misery, and want had changed it into that gaunt, hsggard look which is the result of actual starvation. Her attire and that of ber child was of the poorest description; yet a close inspec-tion would reveal the fact that every had been carefully patched, and that every part was perfectly clean. Her steps were very slow, and more than once she paused and placed her hand upon her sching head. Mamma,' said the child, as her mother paused, as if uncertain as to the direction she was to take, 'are we near it now? Oh, Godl grant me but the strength to

"Yes, my child, yes. Very near it now?" Oh, Godl grant me but the strength to reach him, if only for the sake of you, my sweet Violet?" 'Stay ! I am no father of yours !'

sweet Violet!" 'And you, too, mamma. You, too. Look how ill you are; and your poor hands tremble so—and you are so hungry. Oh, mamma, 1 do so wish you and I were in the snug bed we had before papa died der's mamma?

'Stay ! I am no father of yours !' 'Have pity upon me and this poor help-less child !' she cried, raising her hands in supplication. 'Oh, let me call you father; let me ask you to give me shelter for a little while-only a little while-for I am not long for this world-.' 'Mamma ! mamms !' cried the child; 'do not say so. Oh, do not say so !' 'I know that I disobeyed you years ago. But, oh, you did not know how I loved him ! He is dead now-.' 'Dead ?' in the snug bed we had before paps died don't you, mamma?' Yes, yes my love,' replied the woman, as the tears rolled down her wasted checks I do, indeed. But it is not to be, Violet, because your nother is unfortunate.' 'No, no. It is because grandpa is such 'Dead ?'

Hush, Violet. You must not say a word against him. He is my father, you

'Dead r' 'Yes,' bursting into tears, 'he is dead and buried, and what little home we had has been seized for rent. We are home-less, penniless ! Father, for the sake of my dear dead mother, I implore you to give me some shelter for a time. Think, I am your own deuchter, your own field, and Arriving at the end of Victoria street, Arriving at the shu of victoria street, and eventually paused before a magnificent stone mansion, the brilliant brass plates on the pillars of which made it known to all that it was 'Chester House.'

But Miss Vic—I mean Mrs Loveridge— times will change perhaps. See, I have been up and got a little money, which I beg you will take as a loan. It is only a few pounds, bu!----' 'No, James; I thank you for your kind--nees, but I don't need it--indeed. I do not. Good bye, James. Come, Violet.' 'James was too fall for words, his checks were wet with tears, and as his master's only child crossed the threshold and totter-ed down the snow-covered steps, he mean-'No, James; I thank you for your kindness, but I don't need it--indeed. I do not. Good-bye, James. Come, Violet.'

'James was too full for words, his cheeks were wet with tears, and as his master's only child crossed the threshold and totter.'
'Ab, Sir Archibald, you will have to answer before the Almighty for what you have done this night.'
'Mamma,' said the child, after they had proceeded a few yards, 'have we no home to go to to-night?'
'Nose, child, none.'
'And I am so very, very tired, mamma;' so tired and sleepy. Are you not tired, mamma ?'
'Yes, my pet, very tired-very tired;' and she mattered, 'tired of my lite.''
'How cruel grandpa spoke to you.''
'Yes, very cruel, Violet-very cruel.
But," and here she stopped and clutched a railing for support, 'I can go no further mamma ?' Yes, my pet, very tired—very tired;' and she muttered, 'tired of my life.' 'How cruel grandpa spoke to you.' 'Yes, very cruel, Violet—very cruel. But," and here she stopped and clutched a railing for support, 'I can go no turther yet. Let us sit down awhile, my child; my limba ache ao "

my limbs ache so." She scraped the snow from off the steps of a large house, and sitting down, took her child-her pretty blue eyed Violet-in her arms, and covered her tender form with her shawl:

with her shawl: 'Rest yourselt, my child,' she said, 'and then we can go on again.' 'I she'n't go to sleep, mamma,' said the child, 'because I wan't to talk to you. And talk she did, but only for a few moments, for the warmth of the shawl in-vited sleep. Her pretty prattle became less and less; and at last pressed tightly to her mother's breast, she slept calmly and peacefully.

peacefully. For over an hour did Mrs Loveridge sit yon that step, thinking and watching the starlit skies, but at last exhausted nature gave way, and leaning her back against the railings, she too fell into a sound sleep. . .

Three hours passed away. It was a strange thing, but it was a fact, that the policeman on duty here arrived at the spot where Mrs. Loveridge sat with her child icr the fact time for the first time. He walked slowly round, trying the doors on his way, until at last he stopped short. 'Hem I' he muttered, 'this looks well. Why she's fast asleep,' he said, turning on his bull's-eye. 'and-yes, so it is-a child as well, Foor things! In this awul weath-er, too. I say, my good woman, touching her on the shoulder, 'you will catch your death if you stay here.' No answer, no more meet

No answer, no movement. 'I say, my good woman, 'he cried in louder tones, 'wake up !' No answer from the woman, but the child started from her sleep, crying out, 'Mamm'- namma !' Alas I the loved voice was not answered.

'Good God !' exclaimed the policeman, what is this ?' taking her hand and look-

"what is this ?' taking her had and look-ing into her face. 'It is death !' 'Nc. no ?' cried the child; 'she is asleep. Mamma, mamma ! Oh, do seak to your own Violet. Do open your eyes, dearest mamma.' And as she said this she took her mother's pale face between her little hands, and burst into a flood of tears. 'Oh, mamma, do not leave me all alone. Speak to me.' But no, never more would those lips part to utter words of endearment to that pret-ty child; never more would those wasted hands clasp her 'sweet Violet' to her broken heart, and had called har to him self; but what of the child ! Alas, sweet Violet, who knows what troubles are in store for thee.

Two days after this the newspapers con-tained reports of this terrible case, and it came to the knowledge of Sir Archibald one? came to the knowledge of Sir Archibald Blackmore. Now Sir Archibald was well known as a man who gave away a large amount of opportunity of speaking to anyone of the

Sir Archibald turned hastily away. 'Your name is Violet!' he said. 'Yes, grandpa ' 'Who taught you to say grandpa?' 'Mamma and papa,' replied Violet sim Hem ! Well, mark this

-you are old

"What do you want?" he asked.

aitting. "What do yon want?" he asked. 'Mamma said that one day yon would love me like she did, and that you would kiss me. I have no one to kiss me now but you. Won't you hiss me ?" Sir Archibald looked into the sweet earnest tace, and as he looked. the face of his child-she now lying peacetully under the cold ground-rose up before him, and for one instant a tear trembled in his eyes. 'No, no,' he cried hastily; 'I never kiss anyone. Yet stay-come here. I will kiss you, but you must not tell anyone.' 'No. sir.' Sir Archibald pressed a kiss upon the red lips, lett his seat, opened the door, and Violet passed out. She had looked her last upon her grand-father for many years to come.

She had looked her last upon her grand-isther for many years to come. And no sooner had the door closed be-hind her than Sir Archibald flung himself into his chair and bured his face in bis hands, and in that position he remained tor hours.

CHAPTER II.

Seven years have passed since Violet Loveridge was sent to boarding school. Seven years—and during that time she made wonderful progress. She had been sent to a good school, and had been well looked after. The governess bad grown to love hav like her own child, and no wonder, for Violet was a very at-fectionate girl. And besides that, she was not like other and desides that, she was not like other girls. When the holidays came round she did not leave school, like the others, and go to a home where parents. brathers, and sisters were awaiting her. No. So far as all that was concerned, her till such as the blass. She concerned,

No. So far as all that was concerned, her life was a bitter blank. She could only stand at the window, and with a full heart watch the preparations going on for the departure of her schoolfellows. She had no relatives, and with the ex-ception of her governess and schoolfellows, no friends. o friends.

Once a quarter, when her fees were paid and her pocket money was sent by Sir Archibald, the letter contained a short

Archibald, the letter contained a short note to this effect: 'I am glad to hear you are obeying my instructions. Do not alter that line of con-duct. Learn all you can.'

This was all. But Violet—'sweet Violet,' as she was called, even by her schoolfellows—was not doomed to go unloved for long. No, no. Her beautiful face, expressive blue syes, and golden hair had attracted the attention of more than one young fellow in the immediate neighborhood. The governess was not aware of this; neither was anyone else, so far as Violet neither knew.

We say she had attracted the atteniton of more than one. But did she favor any.

5

At this moment a servant entered the 'Mies Violet.' she said softly, 'you won't

RONALD ' "Mary,' said Violet, as she flung her 'Mary,' said Violet, as she hung her book from her and started to her feet, 'run, and bring my parasol and hat, and—it Miss Jones, the governess, should want to know where I am, say I have gone for a short walk.' 'Yes miss,' replied the servant, whose heart had been made glad by the receipt ot a sovereign. ol a sovereign. She soon procured the desired articles, and off went Violet, happy as a lark. Oh, so very, very happy ! So happy indeed, that when she got fairly out in the fields her full heart seemed ready to burst, and presently found vent in a song—a light, increase and presently found vent in a song—a light, iyyous song. Some people say, what is love ! Ab, who shall attempt to describe it ? Arrived at the Abbey Violet turned up the grand old entrance and walked rapid-ly round the churchyard until she came to the usual place of meeting, and that was by one of the old tombstones. Rather a strange place, some people may be inclined to say; but it must be recollected that leve requires a secluded spot—always. Never, until 'far from the maddening crowd.' does the voice of love lend its ears to soft whisperings.

to soft whisperings. Violet had not stood there ten seconds Violet had not stood there ten seconds before her lover, bandsome Ronald, came round the Abbey, and in a moment they were in each other's arms. 'Oh, Ronald,' cried. Violet, 'do you really mean that you are about to leave me?'

'My dear Violet, I have received a sum-'My dear Violet, I have received a sum-mons from my mother, who desires my immediate attendance. But, come, let us seat ourselves on this old tombstone and talk. There! Now, Violet, you are listening to me?' 'Listening? Why, yes.' 'I have never told you where my resi-dence is '

dence is.'

ience is." 'Yes, you have—Harton Court.' 'No, my dear, that is not my residence —it is only the residence of my friends.'

.Yes?

'My residence is a much larger place than that 'Larger? Then it must be an immense place. "It is an immense place; and, Violet, before I go there tonight-"

'To-night?' in surprise. 'Yes, I start tonight. Well, before I go, I want to tell you a secret.' 'Oh, I am so anxious—tell me this sec-

bome: no

41

14.

WAL .

251 worn with m Even now, w finitely-'pre tavor, inces quired to hol the things sh money ! Water, p

~~~

SUN

RE/

000 Copyright 190 Rev Jonat

his sermon. his head on t

O, Lord,

a sermon, I o yet, would it

God-a man

I believe, he

.Yes, it wa

door. For t hung in the

The Rev. It was an effe together. H Water, pa 'Yes, dear.

In the cool dark-grey b knelt over it, blanket and 1 jar, This co number of tin as come from holding con

Mr Long ros big jar; and feeding-cup v his daughter's last drop. The Rev. J of Yale. He school of smi honors with] erator arrang to minute que

In the next poor Mary ! doing duty as chamber at n than had kep ing the past v during office l preacher but People came

Yes, he had mother, who

that her child

man whose whose busine

wanted to c

drink : to a w her; to a girl strong, slothi work; to a bruises on he pray that she husband who

God would he and long-suff

them all, pra

establish their would plead :

'O, Father

The house was very quiet, and it seemed certain that everyone in it had retured to rest. It was very evident that no one had been up the broad steps for a very long time, for the snow lay upon them perfectly smooth mooth. The child looked up at the house in wonder, and her bandsome blue eyes opened to their fullest extent as she said :

to their fullest extent as an essid ' 'Is this the house, mamma?' 'Yes, my love.' 'Oh, how grand! How nice everything must be in there. And you lived there once, msmaa, did you not?' 'Yes-once-a long time ago. Come, my child '

my child ' And the woman mounted the steps.

Sr A: chibald Blackmore, the proprietor of the Chester House, the owner of imof the Chester House, the owner of im-mense estates in the country, sat on this might in his study. It was his habit to sit up, after all in the house had retired, and go over his accounts, and to persue the various items of important news he had marked during the day. A fine, noble specimen of an English man was Sir Archibald, but his teatures were stamped -ay, in bold reliet-with an air of determination. He was a man with an iron will, a sian to rule with an iron hand, and, withal, a

He was a man with an iron will, a man to rule with an iron hand, and, withal, a man who would never torgive an injury. The hall porter was the only person awake in the house besides Sir Archibald wake in the house besides Sir Archibald and that worthy's astonishment may be imagined when he suddenly heard a low tap at the street door. For some moments he could not be-lieve his ears, and so he remained in his great chair, until, the knock being repeat-ed, he was assured that someone was act-ually at the door, then he dragged himself to his teet, and cautiously opened it. 'My good woman,' he said, 'what on earth do hyou want ? Surely you have come to the wrong house.'

come to the wrong house.' 'No, I have not. This is the residence of Sir Archibald Blackmore, is it not ?'

And Sir Archibald Blackmore's unhappy daughter fell upon her knees before the

And Sir Archibald Blackmore's unhappy daughter fell upon her knees before the stern parent. Sir Archibald made no reply for a mo-ment, but presently he left his seat, and standing by the fireplace, said: 'Listen to me. Ten years ago you, in defiance of me, married Edmund Love-ridge, a man, I admit, of good education, but of no fortune. His income, which you knew well enough would cease with his death, was not enough to enable you to dress respectably, let alone to live. I dared you to marry him, and of what use were my threats ? I might as well have spoken to a stone wall. No doubt he, and you too, thought that after a time I should torgive you and welcome you with open arms. You were mistaken. When I make up my mind to do a thing, I do it, as you know. Your conduct broke your mother's heart, and sent her to her grave. When you married Edmund Loveridge, I swore that you should no longer be a daughter of mine. I have kept my word, and I intend so to do. This is all I have to say to you. Go, and I need not tell you that I have no desire to see you again? 'Mercy,' again pleaded the kneeling supplisht, 'if not on me, at least on my innosent child !' And her eyes turned with loving anguish cent child !'

And her eyes turned with loving anguish on the wondering girl beside her. 'No,' was the hard rejoinder. 'Yeu have flown in the face of duty, and you have no claim upon me. I have no daughter now.' A low wailing cry of despair escaped her

A low waiing cry of despair escaped aer lips. But Sir Archibald was inexorable. His face never relaxed its starnness, nor his eyes their unforgiving gaze. The unfortunate daughter rose to her feet, and, taking her child by the hand, passed blindly irom the room into the hall. The porter met her, and the loek upon her face told him that her errand had been fruitless. 'What will you do ?' he asked in a hearse voice. 'Oh, what a cruel father !

man who gave away a large amount of money to charity, and therefore, when he offered to defray the funeral expenses of 'this poor unfortunate creature.' as the newspapers put it, and also offered to adopt the child, every one was loud in their praises of his benevolence. The inquest upon the body was duly held, and a verdict of 'death from expos-ure to the cold and want of proper nourish-

urs to the cold and want of proper nourish-ment' was returned. The next day the body which had been placed in a splendid oak coffin, was taken to the undertaker's, and from there it departed on its journey to its last resting-place; and in the coach sat two mourners —Violet. and James, the hall-porter, whom Sir Archibald had sent to take care of her. Poor little Violet! Her very heart seemed burgtime

And James was almost as bad. He re-membered his master's un'ortunate daugh-ter in the days of her youth,' when he had romped with her for hours together. And now! oh, it seemed almost impos-sible !

James, previous to his setting out to take care of Violet, had been spoken seriously to by Sir Archibald. 'James,' he said, 'no one knows that she came here but you and I. Beware you say nothing of it, for so sure as you do-but you know what I mean.' And James bowed his head in silence. He had received instructions from Sir Archibald that, after the funeral, he was to bring Violet back with him, and bring her into the study, where he would await her, as he had something to tell her. This he did, although it was a long time before he could persuade Violet to enter

*Close the door,' said Sir Archibald as 'Close the door,' said Sir Archibald as Violet timidly entered, 'and then come and stand here,' pointing to the opposite side of the fireplace. And there she stood, looking into his face with his large tearful eyes—so esra-estly did she look, so representully, that opportunity of speaking to anyone of the male species; but when you come to con-sider that every holiday time she was left alone, and that the governess allowed ber to take an occasional quiet walk, you will say that it was not to be wondered at. Her 'quiet walk' was always to one par-ticular spot. A very secluded spot in-deed, and that was to the long disused Bayeut Abbey. a Dicturesque structure, ret, Ronald.' 'Oh, but I want to be paid for it,' laughed Ronald.

ed Ronald. 'Paid? Then I have no meney. 'Oh, not in money, my sweet Violet, I want to be paid lover's dues.' 'What are lover's dues. Ronald?' 'Kisses, my love; and my secret is valued at four. 'Is it really worth it?' laughed Violet. 'It is, indeed. You will give me four kisses for my secret, will you not. Violet?' and as he said this he drew her pretty face to bis. deed, and that was to the long disused Bayeuth Abbey, a picturesque structure, built in the early English style, but fast falling into rack and ruin. It was here where Violet had always met the young gentleman whom she had learned to love with all the strength of her young heart. And it was no wonder either, for young Ronald Radetock was indeed a fine speciman of English manhood. He had been on a visit to a friend at Harton Court, a noble structure situated about two miles from the abbey. Twelve months ago he came there, his intention being to remain for 'a month or so.' But he had met Violet. It was indeed a case of love at first sight on both sides, and in-stead of his visit lasting a month it extend-ed to twelve.

and as ne said this he drew her pretty face to his. 'Yes,' smiled Violet. 'And if you don't consider the secret worth it' laughed i Ronald, 'well, then—in that case I will return them.' 'Very well.' The benalty having been paid, Ronald said: 'Violet, I have often told you how well and truly I loved you, and you have as often told me how you returned it; and that being so, I am sure you will forgive me when I tell you that for twelve months I have been deceiving you.' 'Decriving mel' cried Violet, starting from her seat. But Ronald gently drew her back.

ad to twelve.

ed to twelve. One fine summer's evening Violst was seated in the schoolroom. Four days previous the girls had left for their homes, and Violet, as usual, was doomed to amuse herseli as best she could. She had takes a book and seated her-olt nore the one mindow the labed from her seat. But Ronaid gently drew her back. 'Yes,' he said, 'deceiving you. I am not, as you have been led to believe, simp-ly Ronald Radstock. My real name is Lord Ronald Radstock. That is my

She had taken a book and seated her-selt near the open window that looked upon the green fields, and from whence she could see the tower of the Abbey rising in the distance. She attempted to read, but it was a failure. Her eyes were not violet was silent for some few moments and tears stood in her eyes. 'What is the matter. Violet ? My de-

CONTINUED ON PAGE FIFTHEN

CANCER

and watchest and art able t most--'

And all the what he was falsely inform wail for water with much Then he wou passionate fer give these pe with more pa with agonywhether their Papa !'

He was asl unwritten. H cream, gave it ed bimself to The Rev. J his sermons shut out inter his subject, c and, keeping struggles and his people a course-a go would not cau to tremble in tionings and large congreg derstand why, gave such goo John, dear, his head 'I bat time for church It was only co wish I had an He looked a but it was a failure. Her eyes were not fixed upon her book, they were directed to the Abbey. 'As me !' she sighed, 'what a strange life in mine ! I wish I had a home to go to-I wish poor mamma was alive. Poor dear mamma ! How happy these girls ought to be ! And they are very good to sak me to go to their homes. I wonder why it is that Sir Archibald forbids my going ? Well, well, I must not complain, for I am receiving a good education—and —and there's Romald who loves me. I.—.'

1AL

4.

rvant entered the softly, 'you won't coming past Gai-entleman stopped ign in my hand— hat ?'

r to you. ' I' cried Violet, ls red. ing, Miss Violet ?' s she drew the procket. How stupid I d it Mary.'

ter and drew out note It ran : ght flower, I am me, and for a very been summoned bour from this at ad lib., my sweet as she flung her rted to her feet, arasol and hat, governess, should am, say I have

e servant, whose

e desired articles, ppy as a lark. Oh, So happy indeed, out in the fields ady to burst, and a song—a light, t is love ! Ab, who e it ? Violet turned up and walked rapid-until she came to ing, and that was ple may be inclined ecollected that lave —always. om the maddening of love lend its cars there ten seconds ome Ronald, came violet, 'do you re about to leave ve received a sum-, who desires my But, come, let us old tombstone and , Violet, you are

., u where my resiton Court.' not my residence ce of my friends.'

h larger place than

ust be an immense

lace; and, Violet, Well, before I

-tell me this sec

PROGRESS SATURDAY. FEBRUARY 9, 190,

 Jonathan Long's Ordeal. 9999999999999999999999999

'I have no sermon ready, he said,

'A rare opportunity to help many souls,' don't know what to say to my people."

Sunday morning.

Copyright 1991, Christian Herald, New York. Rev Jonathan Long was trying to write his sermon. It was a hard task. He laid very young ; she had been little more than very young; she had been little more than a child when they had married. Had she his head on the table and moaned :

40, Lord, if it were a prayer instead of a sermon, I could write fast enough— and yet, would it be a prayer that a minister of ed a choice between a comfortable country God-a man of faith-should write ? Lord, parish and this struggling city mission and believe, help thou mine unbelief l' 'Yes, it was hard. The wolf was at the lowed his Master's guidance in working I believe, help thou mine unbeliet !'

door. For the past week Beth's life had hung in the balance, and the minister was vorn with much watching and nursing. Even now, when the scale had turned de-finitely-'prayer-tipped,' be said-in Beth's favor. in the things she needed ! And he had no money ! istry, I'm a failure in it.

Water, papa !' The Rev. Jonathan had dropped asleep It was an effort to wake, to pull himselt now, there's a together. He was so weak and so tired ! to the mission.'

Water, papa !' 'Yes, dear.

SUNDAY

READING

In the coolest corner of the room was a 'Just tell them the truth, then, John dark-grey bundle. Rev Jonathan Long Say Beth's been sick and God's making knelt over it, and from many unfoldings of her well, and how good God is. God wil blanket and newspaper, withdrew a stone jar, This contained, embedded in ice a for your sermon today, John.' number of tiny, large-mouthed jars-such 'God bless you, Mary.'

as come from the apothecary's or grocer's. A tew minutes later, as looking bis best bolding concentrated food for invalids. in his worn, black suit, he kissed her good Mr Long romoved one, re-wrapped the by, he felt a quiver run through her form ; big jar; and from the little one filled a she gave a sob and caught herself, saying feeding-cup with cream, which he held to 'God is so good. Beth's better. We'll his daughter's lips, coaxing her to take the take courage and be more faithful than last drop. ever.

The Rev. Jonathan Long was a graduate But he went out with his brain in a whir of Yale. He was a graduate, too, in the He had no sermon. He could think of school of small economies, taking equal nothing to say to his people-nothing to honors with Mary, his wife. This retrig-.... erator arrangement and division of milk in-to minute quantities prevented waste. The mission was full-an unusual thing

In the next room Mary was sleepingpoor Mary ! It was a tiny apartment.

he said, 'and I'm not ready. I have no doing duty as study in day-time and bed-chamber at night. There the Rev. Jona-The hymns, The hymns, the prayers, the lessons were than had kept his regular office hours durfinished : and Jonathan stood up and looking the past week. He always had callers in the faces of his people. Everybody who during office hours. He was not an eloquent had called on him during the pest two weeks-and there had been many, for it preacher but he was a popular pastor. People came to him with their troubles. had early gone abroad that the minister Yes, he had sat there listening to the was unusually 'full of the Holy Ghost' and mother, who asked him to pray with her prayed 'powerful strong' with troubled tolks-were there. All regarded him with peculiarly kind that her child might be converted; to a man whose wife had a bad temper or whose business was going to ruin; or who eyes. The story of Beth's sickness and -as carefully as he had sought to hide wanted to conquer a thirst for strong drink; to a wife whose husband neglected them-of severe economies practiced in her; to a girl unhappy at home; to a great his home was known now. strong, slothful fellow who ceuldn't get work; to a woman who shewed black ready. My child has been ill-at the bruises on her face and who asked him to point of death, as you all know. So, I pray that she might be able to forgive the stand before you unprepared today. I husband who had struck her-pray that am depending on God to give me some God would help her to be more patient message that will help you. And I fee and long-suffering. He had talked with called to choose as my text 'Have taith in [1'll lay the matter before them and we'll them all, prayed with them, and tried to God.' I feel that in answer to prayer establish their faith. On his knees he God has saved my child just as surely as time trying to do housework and to save carry. The precious message, written very would plead :

"O, Father, we know that thou lovest years ago; and so I can say with a full

St. Matthew's Mission was the offspring f a rich but indifferent parent. St. Matthew's up town had a fine organ and a choir of glorious voices, it had cushioned pews; wonderful stained glass windows by La Farge, and a reredos by St. Gaudens. St. Matthew's was run by one man people said: Mr. Richmond, who had paid off a debt that hung over the church who gave the reredos and who always paid cff a debt that hung over the church who gave the reredes and who always made up deficits out of his own pocket.

He bad taken a dislike to Jonathan Long.
'The fellow's got no go in him,' he said, 'and he'll never make a success of the Mission.'
Meanwhile, Mr. Richmond and the other members of the up-town church came as rarely as possible to the Mission. It happened, however, that Mr. Richmond was in the Mission on the morning that Jonathan fainted; he was there as a critic; he was to report to the vestry next day, and they were to consider whether they should not ask Mr. Long to resign. Somebody repeated to him what the doctor said. The doctor, too, repeated his own words to Mr. Richmond.
'They are never practical.'
Then the doctor described the retrigera-

Then the doctor described the refrigerator arrangement, and a tew other devices "for making nothing go a long way" which he had seem in the Long home. from her husband, who is a missionary, and

The next afternoon. Jonsthan called on Mr. Richmond at his office in the bank of Pekin: which he was president. The banker had made up his mind to save the Long family from starvation, but before be could an nounce his intention, Jonathan said :

ome employment.

'Unless I am more successful, yes. But I did not purpose resigning just yet. I want to give myself another trial. But I haven't a right to expose Mary and Beth to privations when I'm able to work. I'm a good bookkeeper. Can you let me have a set of books to keep at night? I thought under your direction, you might be able to

Mr. Richmond was silent, and Jonathan went on : 'I think-since Beth's sickness -I know my people better, somehow, I think I can help them, new. I know the Mission has not flourished ; and I have not felt that I could look for the advance in my salary promised----

'I think that sermon when you fainted get through the lines of the Boxers. The was the best I ever heard. It wasn't much Chinese boy volunteered. of a sermon.but it went to people's hearts. again. Talk to people's hearts. Your people have been telling me about you. the wall, forty feet high, separated him from a l the friends he had in the world. hold as you have down there. I don't he-Before him was a walk of eighty weary would cost him his life it it was discovered. go as a beggar, he had been dressed in coarse bowl, such as the native beggars be healed the centurion's little daughter years ago; and so I can say with a full heart 'Have faith in God,' But if he bad

When Discouraged

Turn to Dr. Chase:

11

He Cures Every Form of Piles Thoroughly and Well Without the Danger, Expense and Pain of an Operation.

Danger, Expense and Pain of an Operation. It is surprising what a large number of men and women suffer from the wretched uneasuness and torturing itching of piles. You may be among those who, through modesty or fear of the surgeon's knite, have been prevented from appealing to your physician for a cure. You have tried the hundred and one things that friends have recommended and have become discourag-de. You say, as many have said before, you, that there is no cure for piles. Thow is the time for you to turn to Dr. Chase, whose famous eintment has given to revery form of piles. The real substant-ial value of Dr. Chase's Ointment and prise to night over as the only actual cure-tor every form of piles. The real substant-ial value of Dr. Chase's Ointment has given to a unique position among medicines. It is used in nearly every neighborhood on this of mouth from friead to friend and neigh-bor to neighbor. Ask your friends about bore about Dr Chase's Ontment, the only absolute cure for piles. You can obtain Dr. Chase's Ointment for 60 cents a box from any dealer. If you prefer, enclose this amount to these offices and the remedy will be sent, postpuid to your address. Edmanson, Bates & Co., Teronto.

would have been surprised it he could have seen how briskly his invalid walked when some distance from the house.

The boy reached Tientain to find it a scene of recent battle, with soldiers of the united nationalities standing guard everywhere. He wandered about for two or three days before he could get through the lines. He could not step up to the soldiers and say, 'I have a message for your general,' for they would not understand his anguage; but he finally succeded in getting through, and he delivered the message to the British consul on July 22d.

Very soon after a reply was given him, and he started on his return trip. This was the message which he brought on a tiny slip of paper, addressed to Sir Claude Macdonald at the British Legation.

'Your letter July 4th received. There are now 24,000 troops landed and 19,000 here. General Gaselee expected Taku to morrow. Russian troops at Peitang, Tientsin city under foreign government. Boxer power exploded. There are plenty o troops on the way if you can keep in food Imost all ladies have left Tientsin.'

Our little hero's return trip was less eventful than the one going down, but he sawBoxers in every village ; and on reaching Pekin on July 28th, having been only six days on the return trip, he found it difficult to get through without attracting attention. However, just before daylight, he managed to crawl through the sluiceway under can boys at home were beginning to fire their earliest crackers, he was led to the the wall, and a little later entered the British Legation. Perhaps no beggar ever received so hearty a welcome, but it did not puff him up with vanity. He modestly made himself useful in many ways, until the Legation was relieved by the arrival of the armies from Tientsin on August 14th. He is now with the mission aries in Pekin and it is to be hoped will receive a useful education. Then, with his brave heart and rags and tatters, and provided with a large, in the face of obstacles, what may he not accomplish for China.

Deadly La Grippe

among the poor and the outcast, she had sustained his decision. But again, had she realized what it would bring upon her? 'Mary,' he said, with sudden heat. 'I'm ter my family. I'm going to quit the min

'O, John, darling, hush ! you're tired 'They are never practical.'

and overwrought. Finish your breaktast. now, there's a dear! so you can hurry off

.Mr. Richmond, I want you to give me

Do you mean to retire from the min istry P keeper, 'and burn our house for harboring he saw in a crowd Doctor Ament, whose school he had attended. The missionary took him to the Methodist Compound, and as you have various branches of business when the refugees here abandoned the place and went to the British Legation, the give me a job?'

tion in Pekin. Some messengers had al-ready gone out and had been killed:

Don't ever try to preach an 'able'discourse You've been doing better pastoral work than I realized. It would take another the darkness. When he was on the ground, man a long time to acquire as strong a lieve that we up here have done our part by you. I don't want you to keep books. miles, and he carried a message which Yon have enough to do without it. Your salary shall be advanced I don't know just how much, but the vestry meets to morrow ; make you comfortable. Don't waste your

A Little Hero.

Youth's Companion the tollowing story went through the siege of the Legations at

'Our Little Hero,' as he was called by the 'Legationers,' was a Chinese Christian boy of about fitteen years of age. At the time of the outbreak in Pekin he was driv-

because he had formerly attended a mis sion day school, and had been known to

'The Boxers will kill you,' said the shop

He wandered homeless and aimless until Atter days of bombardment in the Legation there was a call for volunteers to take a message to Tientsin, and make known to the gathering armies the situa-others had returned, saying they could not

On July 4th, about the time when Ameri top of the city wall. There a rope was tied round his waist, and he was let down into

As it had been planned that he should to talk in favor of Christianity.

boy accompanied them.

en from the shop which had been his hon

Mrs. J. L. Whiting contributes to the e paid for it,' laugh-

no money. ny sweet Violet, I dues.' es, Ronald?' and my secret is

" laughed Violet. will give me four ill you not. Violet?' irew her pretty face consider the secret ald, 'well, then-in been paid, Ronald ften told you how you, and you have ou returned it; and re you will forgive t for twelve months you.' ed Violet, starting lrew her back. brew her back. siving you. I am led to believe, simp-My real name is bock. That is my some few moments eyes. r. Violet ? My de-

T

and watchest over us and our dear one: and art able to keep and save to the utter most---

And all the while be would hardly know what be was saying, his unstrung senses the trial that had so lately shaken him-falsely informing him that be heard Beth's 'could I still bid you 'Have faith in wail for water to a tired mother who, worr God?'' He paused long, as questioning with much watching, had fallen asleep. Then he would recover bimself, and with passionate fervor beseech the Almighty to give these people the thing they desired ; with more passionate fervor still-almost with agony-that he would give the best gift of all-belief in his love and wisdomwhether their desire were granted or not. Papa !

He was asleep again, the sermon yet ed himself to his task.

The Rev. Jonathan, as a rule, prepared his sermons with great care. He would shut out interruptions, give bimself up to his subject, compare texts and authorities. and, keeping the color of his own sorrows, struggles and trials out of it, construct for his people a carefully thought out discourse—a good academic sermon that would not cause any poor, doubting soul moments and no halting for us. There course-s good academic sermon that to tremble in these times of agnostic questionings and unbelief. He did not have failures. Our strength would always be large congregations, and he could not understand why, when he tried so hard and gave such good sound doctrine.

John, dear,' his wife's gentle hand laid on his head 'I bate to wake you but it's nearly time for church. Here's your breakfast.

It was only coffee and rolls no butter. "I wish I had an egg for you, poor dear.' He looked at her with wistful yearning taken my child-' the minister's voice fell almost to a whisper; for an instant his eyes were blurred with the agony of

> 'could I still bid you 'Have faith in himself. Then in a voice low but distinct : 'Yes, I could. It does not matter what the trouble may be, there is but one armour in which we may meet it safelyfaith in God.' If it be death, faith that what seems to be death is but entrance into a larger life. If it be poverty-if the wolf be at the door-if one have not food enough for his dear ones-taith in God is the one resource, the one cordial unwritten. He got out another jar of cream, gave it to the child, and readdress give strength to the fainting and famished give strength to the fainting and famished flesh. If friends be faithless-if your dearest has turned against you-then faith in God is your one city of refuge. your one security against madness. What is faith in God good for, you question, it it does not bring what we ask for ? It is enough in itselt !' His voice rang out, clear, sweet and triumphant. 'O, my friends, if we would be no weakness; that would be no equal to our task-' Even as he spoke, they saw him waver and sink to the platform. The doctor who attended Beth-a worldly man whom the people didn't like -bent over and said:

'He has only fainted,' and muttered, 'he hasn't had enough to eat for a month.' . . .;

quiet he thought they were asleep. He went soltly forward, put his arm about Mary and kiseed her. Her cheeks were wet. She slipped her arms around his neck .

'John,' she whispered 'have you given up the ministry P'

'No, my darling.' 'Thank God !'

'Dear, I'm bewildered. I'm overcom with joy; I can't believe it's true; I'm afraid to tell you-almost afraid I'm dreaming.'

'John darling, what is it P'

'Mr Richmond says I'm a help to my people-they've been talking to him-they told him so. He says I'm to stay here; to give myself to them more than ever; that the uptown church will stand by me." 'Thank God ! Thank God !'

'And they're going to pay me enough to ive on-enough to make you and Beth comfortable and happy.' She had slipped to her knees, sobbing tor joy. 'Mama !' Beth stirred. 'Yes, my darling.'

'Mama. God is good,' murmured the child, saying in her sleep the words that, waking or sleeping she had heard so often above her couch. 'Mama-papa-have faith in God.'

Gloomy Prospect.

'Mars can boast a much older civiliza tion than ours.' 'Say, how their first families will look down on ours when we begin to get chummy !'

he carefully fished out the tiny parcel from the porridge, removed the oil paper, and tearing a little piece from the ragged gar ment, wrapped it, with the tiny note inside. around his finger, as if it were sore. Later he ripped the hem of his garment and slipped the note into it. Before long the Boxers bailed and searched him, but finding nothing, they said, 'Let the little beggar go.'

His progress was slow, but always in the direction of Tientsin. Kind-hearted native women gave him food, and he slept under the stars. All went well until, when about half-way on his journey, he stopped at a farmhouse to ask for food. Now here dwelt a man whose farm hands had all left him and joined the Boxers; therefore he forced the boy to stay and work for eight davs.

By refusing to stay or by running away. the boy feared that he would excite suspicion; but while he was working he was thinking how he could escape without appearing too anxious to go.

On the eighth day he would not eat his breekiast, but lay groaning and shamming illness. No doubt the rice smelled very illness. No doubt the rice michael very savory to him before night, but he would not eat. Finally the farmer said, 'You'll have to clear out of here. I can't afford to die on my hands.' That man the bottom of the bowl, and covered with porridge. Even the most wily Boxer would hardly think to look there, and the boy had felt no cencern about it until he neared the bottom of the wall. Then his bowl struck against some projecting bricks and broke in pieces! He-could not call back to his friends,for fear of rousing some sleeping enemy. So gists, or by mail prepaid on receipt of price. N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn.

Mistress-Remember, Bridget, we want

Mistress-ikenemoer, Bridger, we want dinner served promptly at 6 What time is it now? Bridget-Tis S o'clock, joost. Mistress-Well, you'd better begin to make the trozen custard for dessert in that five-minute ice-cream freezer

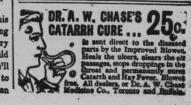

'This epidemic of grip,' said the drug-gist's friend, 'ought to be a benanza for you. what with prescriptions and all that.' 'Yes,'replied the druggist. 'I'm filling my own and the doctor's coughers.'

'There really isn't any difference be-tween a hospital doctor and a small poli-tician.' 'What !'

'No ; each one is a ward healer.'

Mistress-More bric-a-brac broken.

This is very annoying. Maid—Yes, ma'am That's just what I said when I knocked it over.

de.

PROGRESS. SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9 1901

Mourning

12 much.'

in China.

"We'll have a burial at sea,' said a first

'Not on your life,' said the mate. 'Do you think we'd throw away $25? Not

'What do you mean ?' asked the first class passenger. 'Mean,' said the mate, 'mean what I say

That passenger is worth $25 more dead than when he was slive. The doctor gets

'Why,' said the mate, 'no Chinaman wants to be buried away from his ancestors, and one of the things that the Chinese Six companies in San Francisco does is to insure Chinamen against that. When a Chinaman lands in America or in Canada

he pays a certain amount to the Six companies and that insures that his body shall reach home if he dies. The six companies has a contract with the steamship company and it pays $25 for every dead Chinaman

we deliver in China. So we never bury them at sea. The doctor embalms the body and the company allows him $12 as his share. Yes, sir, a dead Chinaman is 'Where in Chins do you deliver the worth $25 more to us than a live one.'

odies?' asked the passenger.

'How,' demanded the passenger.

class passenger to the first mate.

$12 and the ship $13.'

When a person dies in China, if the embers of his family have sufficient money to mourn for him properly, they send out and get professional mourners. These mourners come in and according to their pay enthusiastically wail for the departed. They keep it up day and night until the time set for the funeral, and then they follow the body to the field or to the river bank where it is to rest. But the burial doesn't take place then. The dead man has to wait for the arrival of the "auspicious time" before his bones are finally covered. The auspicious time is settled by the astrologors. They cast the horoscope of the deceased and then they study the heavens. The auspicious time dees not arrive until the particutar star or planet under which the man was born is at the proper angle with the sun and earth and is as near as possible over the spot where the burial is to take place. When the astrologers say that this time has arrived, the friends or the family of the deceased go to the field or the river bank and shovel earth over the coffin, making a perfect mound, which is supposed never to be disturbed. Any disturbance of it is a descration to be avenged by the descendants of the deceased.

Besides seeing that the deceased is properly mourned for and at the auspicious time is buried, it is obligatory on the rela-tives to provide proper clothing for the departed spirit and money to enable him to pay his way in the spirit land. There are dozens of stores in Chinese cities where one will see great bundles of silvered paper made up in the shape of little boots or shoes similar to the silver shoes that pass for money all over the Empire. This is spirit money. In the same stores if you inquire you will find paper clothing and paper trunks. When the coffin containing the body is taken to the spot where at the end of a month or six months, of perhaps a year, it is to be buried the relatives buy a lot of this spirit money and several suits of paper clothing and a trunk or so and take it out to the grave, where they burn it beside the coffia. Whether the spirit pockets the smoke or what it does, the Chinese say that the act provides the money necessary in the spirit land and the clothing that will make the spirit present able to his fellow spirits. Driving along a river bank near Shanghai a distance of about two miles the New York Sun correspondent counted eighteen coffins that were waiting for the "auspicious time." Some of them were new and some had been out so long that they were weatherbeaten.

On this subject of coffias it may be said here that a most acceptable present from a youth to his old folks is a coffia, or, better still, two coffins in which they may be buried when they die. The presentation is in no wise a hint that it is time the recipient should use the present, but it is

Wherever the corpse's ticket calls fo delivery,' said the mate. 'If he bought a ticket through to Canton we take him there. or if he bought a ticket inland we deliver him at his destination.'

About this time there was a commotion around the forward hatch, and a crowd of the whites among the ship's crew hauled up a coffin with the body of the dead Chinaman in it. It was dragged along the deck and hoisted up and put in one of the life boats, where it remained during the balance of the journey. 'Why don't you make the Chinamen help in pulling the coffin out of the hold and putting it in the bost?' asked the passenger. 'Those fellows?' demanded the mate, pointing to his Chinese crew, 'you couldn't hire a Chinaman to touch a dead body unless that was his regular business. The Chinese who handle the dead are looked on as outcasts by the other Chinamen." It is a law in China that no undertaken or a descendant of an undertaker to the fourth generation shall hold public office. In this undertakers are put on the same plane with barbers, actors and prostitutes. One of the most essential things for a man in China who dies away from home is a white rooster. A white rooster is needed to guide his spirit to the resting place of his ancestors. His friends will look after his body and will see that it is carried to the spot. but there must be a roos ter to guide the spirit. There are no hearses in China and the coffias are car ried on poles borne on the shoulders of coolies. When a body is being transport ed a considerable distance to reach th restin rooster is perched on the top of the coffig in front and the more it crows the less chance there is of the spirit of the departed losing its way. A chinaman would rather die than loss an arm or a leg, because all chinamen believe that it you are not fully equipped with members when you enter the next world you will never be sble to repair the loss there, and if you die minus a leg, for instance, you will go through eternity minus a leg. This is the reason that death by slicing is the most dreaded ot all forms of punishment, and bebeading is the next most dreaded. By the first process the body is supposed to be sliced in a thousand pieces, and usual ly it is, but it is impossible to sew it to gether sgain. A beheaded man must travel through eternity without any head. or if his friends succeed in getting his bead and in sewing it on spain, they must do so with the face to the rear, and that is the way the spirit has to wear it for ever.

Timid " Man-Raters "

To most people a timid wild animal would seem the safest representative of its species. The show companies think differ ently. They dread a timid lion, tiger or leopard, not only because in its panic it is liable to injure its trainer, but because it may at any moment take fright from the slightest cause and spoil a performance. More animals are lost to the stage through tear than through viciousness. McClure's Magazine recalls an incident which occurred at the Porte St. Martin Theatre in Paris, and which has become part of the annals of the show business.

The chief feature of the exhibition was duck."

, the casting of a young woman, securely bound, into a cage of lions. Unfortunate ly the woman who took the part of the victim was taken ill, and a substitute was found in the wife of one of the trainers. herself a trainer of some experience, but without acquaintance with these particular lions. As she was somewhat nervous, she carried a small club ready for use should

re

Amid the breathless silence of the spectators the ringmaster explained that the six lions in the cage were the fiercest and six lions in the cage were the forcest and most bloodthirsty of man-esters. Then the woman was thrust in at the cage door, but in the excitement of the moment the door was not see and which the six monarches of the ingle, seeing a stranger toreed upon them, raised a chorus of shuddering terror, bolted for the cage door, clawed it open, and with dragging tails and cringing flanks field through the rear entrance and tound refuge in a cellar. They were dislodged only after great difficulty, and it was a week before the terocious man-eaters were sufficiently terocious man-eaters were sufficiently recovered from their fright to respear in public.

Prepared to Carve The man who was diaing with the family for the first time began the conversation, reported by the Philadelphia Press. Wasn't that the dinner bell that just rung P' the stranger asked.

'Yes,' replied the old triand of the family.

Then where's the host going? I just saw him pass down the ball with his owarcost on 'That wasn't an overcoat; it was a mackintosh. We are going to have roast

................ Chat of t B

Wide flounces are ver among the early models and they aro both t inches from the top as son and gathered in manner. Two deep one set into a hip y skirt for the thin gown, is shirred on fine core below the hips to a litt The shirrs are set in a f that five or six are suff ness falls in a deep flou you see two deep flou band of lace insertion, end of a narrow front bu The hip yoke, evide

a distinctive feature of t it will vary in width as i to the figure. It is d ways, according to th favorite mode for dimit lingerie tuck set in all o Rows of lace inserti make a very pretty narr gown, while another co cal lines of lace insertion bands of taffeta silk. a bodice yoke or any of trimming for muslin di seline.

One of the new tor a summer gown is a over cream silk. The u skirt is in wide groups stitched with silk, and th the skirt in a deep flound wide insertion of black

Thin white wool veili much worn this coming of embroidered white cu mode of trimming. Emused for the blouse in or belt of silver tissue studd A short bolero of tucked the neck band over this, in front, so that the blou pearance of a vest. The half way down the edges being cut in scallops e embroidery.

A fanciful skirt trim ni the new blue crepes de diamond-shaped pieces of dour silk, edged all arou sertion, which is finished narrow black gauze ribbe

Applications of roses of taffeta silk and outlined are another tancy mode o is seen on a gown of pale de soie made with the shi trimmed around the skir bands of lace insertion. has the same applications

Still more elegant is th broidered in different flo silk a shade or two lighte the gown. A detail of fir pretty for the thin gowns insertion with three rows mark of filial affection that is always appreciated. The presentation is usually accompanied by a good deal of ceremony possibly by a band and clways by great rejoicing. The old for who receive the coffins put them away i be best room in the house and never loss an opportunity to show them to their friends. It your sons don't present a coffin to you it is not at all out of the way for you to go out and buy one for yourselt and put it aside for the day when you will need it. It is just as much the custom to provide yourself with s coffin before you die as it is in the United States to provide a family lot in a cemetery to receive your remains.

The most conspicuous thing in the yamen of the viceroy of the province of Chili when the civil government of the allies took possession in Tientsin was a handsome hard wood coffin that the viceroy had provided for himself. It held the post of honor in the yamen. But in his case the forethought had been all for naught. for the allies came to him so suddenly that he had to escape from his yamen through a hole in the rear wall and later he commit. ted suicide and his body went floating down the river along with those of thousands of other Chinamen who had been killed during the fight that accompanied the capture of the city or by the allies after the city had been taken. His coffin was thrown out in a woodpile in the rear of the yamen

One of the things that a Chinamen fears most is that he will die away from home and his body will not find its way to a resting place beside those of his ancestors. The ship on which the correspondent came to China carried a number of Chinamen as assengers. One day one of these died. brage pas

COMPACTOR STATE

THE SAILOR'S RETURN.

one side with a cluster of Lattice work designs various ways, with tiny ribbon, bands of taffeta ban is of fur, are a very I of deess trimmings, and tration of it is in tiny ban lace flounce. White ear in this way.

FRILLS OF FA

Shirt waists of Paisley a plain border add vari new models for spring squares are required for plain border is for collar, finish.

Belts of gold and silve with different semi-precio exactly a new fad in dres in decoration from time t now the larger and more els are the more desira Turquois are very popular next, with onyx, agate a in its wake. Shaped belt leather embroidered in with gold are another i summer we are to have g with painted blossoms of

Embraidered Henriette all colors for waists and n

Midwinter millinery is ummery in materials and ton, lace and flowers ar dients of the fashionabl wers are the height of el mess in crepe, velvet, a

PROGRESS, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1901.

............................. Chat of the ic.

nan. securely

Unfortunate

part of the ubstitute was the trainers.

perience. but

ese particular nervous, she

or use should

e of the spec-ined that the fiercest_and aters. Then he cage door, moment the hind her.

than the six or the cage ith dragging through the e in a cellar.

after great before the sufficiently reappear in ith the family

conversation.

bell that just

d of the fam-oing? I just

with his ovar-

t: it was s

to have roast

Press.

chorus of

g a strange a chorus

Boudoir.

Wide flounces are very much in evidence among the early models for summer gowns, they aro both tucked down a tew inches from the top as they were last season and gathered in the old-fashioned manner. Two deep flounces, the upper one set into a hip yoke, is one style of skirt for the thin gown, while another skirt is shirred on fine cords from a little way below the hins to a little below the knees The shirrs are set in a few inches apart, so that five or six are sufficient, and the full ness falls in a deep flounce below. Again you see two deep flounces headed with a band of lace insertion, beginning at either end of a narrow front breadth The hip yoke, evidently, is going to be a distinctive feature of the thin gowns, and it will vary in width as it is most becoming to the figure. It is decorated in various ways, according to the material, but one favorite mode for dimity and batiste is the lingerie tuck set in all over the yoke.

Rows of lace insertion running around make a very pretty narrow yoke for's mull gown, while another combination is vertical lines of lace insertion set together with bands of taffeta silk. This may also form a bodice yoke or any other form of bodice trimming for muslin dimity or silk mousseline.

One of the new effects in color tor a summer gown is a coral pink muslim over cream silk. The upper part of the skirt is in wide groups of tucks, cross stitched with silk, and the lower part of the skirt in a deep flounce is headed with a wide insertion of black Chantilly lace.

Thin white wool veilings will be very much worn this coming season, and bands of embroidered white crepe will be one mode of trimming. Embroidered crepe is used for the blouse in one gown, with a belt of silver tissue studded with turquoise. A short bolero of tucked veiling talls from the neck band over this, but does not meet in front, so that the blouse gives the appearance of a vest. The tucks extend only half way down the edges, falling free and being cut in scallops edged with silver embroidery. A fanciful skirt trimning seen on one of the new blue crepes de chine is made of dismond-shaped pieces cut out of pompadour silk, edged all around with lace insertion, which is fiaished with a ruche of narrow black gauze ribbon.

Applications of roses cut out of flowered taffata silk and outlined with gold thread are another tancy mode of trimming. This is seen on a gown of pale blue mousseline de soie made with the shirred hip yoke and trimmed around the skirt with two wide bands of lace insertion. The lace yoke has the same applications of silk.

Still more elegant is the lace yoke em broidered in different flower designs with silk a shade or two lighter or darker than the gown. A detail of finish which is very pretty for the thin gowns is a belt of lace insertion with three rows of black velvet vo, a tabloid with every thing compressed one side with a cluster of loops.

equal to the other extravagances of the Pale shades of chiffon are used for the entire hat, with a hand and a how of velvet but there is certain to be one or two big soft roses with leaves perched on the edge of the brim, or a garland of roses set a little back of the edge. Again, you see an entire crown of roses and a brim of lace and chiffon. A wreath of roses underneath the brim is another mode of using flowers

Pretty stocks to wear with dainty lawn waists are made of finely tucked white batiste with narrow colored hemstitched edges.

Dainty flowered silks are promised as fashionable fabric this coming season. They are in the Louis XVI. style with plain and flowered stripes in alternation. Narrow ruchings of chiffon is some color in the silk are a suitable trimming, and narrow black velvet ribbon makes a pretty contrast.

Surplice folded effacts are the feature of some of the new bodices, with a lace chemisette filling in the V space at the neck.

A HUNDRED YEARS HENCE. The Fearsome Future Woman to Who the English Look Forward.

This is what a writer in one of the English magszines predicts will be the state of affairs when another century rolls around : 'By that time women will be all six feet in height, many of them considerably over, while the average height of a man will be five feet nothing. Woman will be strong and lusty; broad and heavy in build, and will be very proud of her large feet, thick wrists, powerful limbs and great muscular development, while men will have grown vain of their trimly-corseted waists, nice pink and white complexions and soft voices. 'Love will not have been completely done away with, though sentiment will have given away to common sense. Every woman will be required to marry and sup port two husbands, one of whom must be a useful, domesticated creature. capable of tending the children and looking after the household (while the wife is away in the city earning good money to keep the home to-gether), and the other will be a better looking, and therefore more ornamental creature (not a 'general utility' man like the housekeeper) whose duties will be to act as companion or 'gentleman help' to the mistress and suler of the mansion, and keep things up to the mark generally. 'Women a century hence will all wear 'bloomers,' both literally and figuratively speaking: any woman transgressing by appearing in a long tailed skirt will be condemned to act as public street scavenger for as long a period as the local coun cil shall determine. Women will also wear a mustache, and the faces of men will gradually become smooth. Cooks will no longer he a premium. as tiny tabloids of food will take the place of elaborate dishes of the past. We shall be able to get through a six course dinner in about two minutes, a tabloid for each course, or if we prefer it, we can have, multum in par-

GIRLS LEARNING CARPENTRY. Out of a Whole Class Only One Has Injured Herself as Yet. Female students, of the state Normal

School who participate in the sloyd class at the school completely disprove the old saying that 'a woman cannot drive a nail straight.' The young women of the class not only drive nails, but handle saws, planes and other carpenter tools with a dexterity that would shame the awkwardness o many men. The whole system of education by sloyd teaching means to combine intel-lect with the handtraining, and educators the world over are interested in it.

The sloyd room in the basement of the Normal School is really a well-equipped carpenter shop. It contains about a dozen sloyd or carpenter benches, and a complete equipment of all varieties of carpenter tools. Befere taking up this part of the work, the pupils are instructed to mould certain objects, and do work in paper folding. This elementary part of the work i really very complicated. Working plans are made of all the work. Then con cardboard work, forming figures out of pieces of cardboard, representing geometrical solids. After this, preliminary work, the pupils are introduced to the carpenter shop. They display some little awkwardness at first, but soon become skilful in handling the tools, and become intensely interested in the work.

Only one girl has injured herself thus far. and that happened because of a shaving alighting on her nose. She was so interested in her work that she thoughtlessly brushed at it with her knife and cut h nose. The first tool handled is a sloyd knife, with an ordinary blade about three inches long. The first article made is a glove mender, requiring twenty-two steps in the making. The next article is a seed slick, introducing the use of the plane, and requiring eight different steps. Thus different articles are made each introduc ing har tools, until the use of all the tool is acquired. The pupils work in both hard and soft woods. All work is shellacked by the students, who, also, do all gluing and use sandpaper sparingly.

The tools used include different sizes and varieties of chisels, saws, planes, hammers, mallets, gouges and squares. The middle and senior classes participate in the work. Prof. W. C. A. Hammel is the instructor. He has studied sloyd training under Swedish teachers, and planned the system at the S:ate Normal School. -Baltimore American.

THE USE OF FUE.

It is so Fashionable That it is Worn Even i:

Fur dealers say that the remarkable aildness of the season has not materially affected their sales. Most of the fashion able women order their furs in the late summer and early fall, when exclusive models are to be chosen. Besides this, turs are becoming to most women and form an artistic and softening finish to a costume. This will make them always popular while the weather gives even an excuse for their wear. It is true that the heavy fur cloaks and coats are not so much in demand, their general sale having dereased much within the past half a d in setting off the curves of a beautiful figure, but it is extremely difficult to make, and is therefore a possibility with only the skilled dres:maker.

For the trimming of the skirt tucks and tucking are going to be used more than ever, and it is noted that groups will be the novelty, sometimes five and even seven together. In the black taffets suit, which is to be again the spring costume of the matron, lacing is to be lavishly used to trim both shirt and jscket, and small gold buttons like a man's shurt stud will be used in myriads, thickly set like beads. These will be used all around the skirt in combination with the tashionable braid trimmings.

In thinner gowns the rufflid fancies of the skirt will have an opportunity of asserting themselves, but the mention of rufiles does not signify that they will adorn the length of the skirt in the extravagan fashon of some seasons, but merely that they billow about the feet, sometimes i tiers of two or three.

The tucking observed of cloth costu will be still more a feature of the lawn and gingham dresses, and the wide flounce which is tucked half way will be popular as giving buoyancy to the ruffl s. Insertions will be used on the bottom, and laces for the dressier costumes will add to the fashionable flare.

BONEYMOON MOUNTAIN

The Unique One-Room Cottage on M Whitney's Lenox Place.

October Mountain, the magnificent Whitney estate near Lenox might change its name to Honeymoon Mountain, so many newly wedded couples have gone there to bill and coo as far from civilization as possible, yet surrounded with all its luxuries. When Mr Harry Payne Whitney married Miss Gertrude Vanderhilt they went there immediately to spend a unique honeymoon in camp, for the "big house on the hill was not then nearly completed, and only the old fashioned 'oneroom cottage was in shape to receive the newly married pair. Mr and Mrs Alfred Vanderbilt will visit the mountain before returning from their wedding journey.

The one-roomed cottage, which really has two rooms and a broad, newly added terrace pizzza, which almost makes a third room, is a unique building, one story high, with a gable root and a massive stone chimney. It is more than a hundred years old probably, and is furnished in antique style within. The new terrace is fitted up as a tea room furnished with wicker loung ing chairs and divans, cushions in great quantity, and rare green pottery bowls and iardinieres. The terrace overlooks the mountainside, and during the day is walled in with bamboo curtains.

The camp, which is nearby, is a luxurious arrangement of suites built on a wood en flooring, but walled and ceilinged in canvas. The furnishings are quaint, and the camp kitchens are in a separate canvas strncture.

The large house, which is now figished, is an elaborately laid out and luxuriously furnished mansion, and the place is reached by a two hours' up hill drive from Lenox village. About a mile from the house lodge keeper bars the trespass of visitors.

13 One Dose Tells the story. When your head aches, and you feel billious, consti-pated, and out of tune, with your stomach sour and no appetite, just buy a package of Hood's Pills

And take a dose, from 1 to 4 pills. You will be surprised at how easily they will do their work, cure your headache and biliousness, rouse the liver and make you feel happy again. 25 oents. Sold by all medicine dealers.

wear hairpins, as they prick his hand in he act of laying them on.

When Doctor Creighton, the late Bish of London, was asked some time ago how he solved a similar problem, he replied :

'I confirm all the boys personally, and transfer those yonng porcupines to my suffragan, who is an old varsity oarsman, with the cast iron hands of a blacksmith."

Convinced by Printed Testi-Convinced by Printed Testi-mony of the hundreds of the cured, Mrs. Benz, of 418 E. 8th street, New York, who was for years a great sufferer from Catarrh, procured two bottles of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder and it effected an abso-lute cure in a very short while. One puff through the blower will clear the head and stop headache. 50 cents.-113

Bryan-Why is the edition delayed ? Foreman-We had to send over to the ype-loundry for a fresh supply of person-l pronouns, especially 'I.'

Muscular Rheumatism, duced by exposure, if neglected, develops into the chronic form with almost incredible rapidity. South American Rheumatic Cure is a quick-acting, safe, simple and harmless cure, acts directly on the system, not a liniment to tem-porarily deaden pain. An internal treatment that will absolutely cure most acute forms in from one to three days.—114

He-I hear that you are studying photograp by? She-Yes; I've just got to high lights and (rises and turns down the gas) low lights.

A Magical Life Saver is Dr. Ag-A magrical Live Saver is Dr. Ag-new's Cure for the Heart, After years of pain and agony with distressing Heart Disease, it gives relief in 30 minutes. Thos. Petry, of Ayl-mer, Que, writes: "I had suffered for five years with a severe form of Heart Disease. The slightest exertion produced fatigue. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart gave me instant relief, four bottles entirely cured me."-115

Mrs. Newriche—I believe our next door neighbors. on the right, are as poor as church mice, Hiram. Mr. Newriche—What makes you think

Mrs. Newriche-Why, they can't afford one of them mechanical piano players-the daughter is taking lessons by hand !

South American Nervine tones the nerves, stimulates digestion, all essen-tials to perfect health. In no case has its potency been put to severer test than that of W. H. Sherman, of Morrisburg, Ont. He says; "I was completely run down, nerves all agog, stomach rebelled at sight of food, constant distress and generally debilitated. Four bottles made me a well man.-116

Uncle Bill (the circus agent) -Yes. Johany, in Africa I've shot and captured hundrads of monkeys. Little Johnny (in astonishment) -Hully gee ! And didn't the organ grinders put up kick P

Not a Quarter-But 10 cents, and Lattice work designs accomplished in various ways, with tiny ruchings, velvet ribbon, bands of taffets silk and narrow ban 's of fur, are a very noticeable feature of d ess trimmings, and a unique illustration of it is in tiny bands of sable on a lace flounce. White caracal is also used in this way.

TRILLS OF FASHION.

Shirt waists of Paisley silk squares with a plain border add varity to the list of new models for spring wear. Three squares are required for one waist and the plain border is for collar, cuffs and front

Belts of gold and silver tissue studded with different semi-precious stones are not exactly a new fad in dress, but they vary in decoration from time to time, and just now the larger and more unusual the jewels are the more desirable is the belt. Turquois are very popular, but jade comes next, with onyx, agate and jet following in its wake. Shaped belts of black suede leather embroidered in star like designs with gold are another fancy, while for ready. ner we are to have gold belts covered with painted blossoms of various kinds.

Embraidered Henriette cloths come in all colors for waists and negligee gowns.

Midwinter millinery is very light and mmery in materials and effect, since chifton, lace and flowers are the chief inedients of the fashionable dress hat. The around the loops, which may be made to flowers are the height of elegance and rich-mess in crepe, velvet, and satin, quite satian effect.

whole. HAIR TO BE DRESSED LOW NOW.

New Fashion From Paris Likely to Bring Back the Chignon

In Paris, whence the fashion comes, the women are wearing their hair dressed low on the name of the neck and it is predicted that before long the chignon will be back again. The proprietors of the hair-dressing establishments settled it. They held their annual meeting and dinner not long ago and decided that the low style of hair dressing should prevail. Each year in this way the lords of the brush and the curling tongs set the fashion in hair and usually their edict is obeyed till a year later they amend it and set a new standard. But this is in Paris It is predicted by hair dressors here that it will be some time before American woman who are devoted at present to wearing their hair high comply with the decree. Whether the hair is dressed high or low, however, it must be beautifully waved and must be dressed with careless grase so that it may look as i it could be easily shaken down were the wearer to jump about very much. About this there will be no difficulty as the fashion has been tending in that direction al

A new ribbon loop coiffure is being successfully introduced by fashionable hair dressers and this is how it is arranged. Wave the hair all around the head and gather lightly to the top, fastening with tape or string. Divide the bair into strands and form into loops or puffs by doubling over the open hand and securing to the main fastening. Curl the ends and arrange ears; but no matter what the climate, heavy fur lined coat or cloak must form an item in the up-to-date outfit of belle or beau, the special use designated being for driving.

The evening cloaks of women have also grown far more luxurious as to their fur linings, selected ermine, chinchills and sable skins now being utilized for the purpose. Seal seems to be a discarded fur. Even for linings it is not popular. It is not made up in the smart collarettes and muffs that are worn so much, and while some of the Western overcoats that visit New York during a winter still show th sealskin finish throughout they are a relia ot old fashions when this fur was the only one possible .- New York Sun.

The Fashionable Skirt.

Despite the varieties of modishness which are authenticated this season, the smart romen are distinguished by certain out lines, especially the top line of their bats and the bottom ripple of the skirt drapery The soft foot ruffis of tulle or accordionplaited chiffon, which has been noted on all the evening gowns this winter, is an outline which is emphasized in the fashioning of street costumes as well. The hall mark of the well-built skirt is a close adjustment about the hips and a graceful five at the bottom, and sometimes the effect is heightened by a plain tucked or a plaited flounce, or cloth, or whatever is the naterial of the costume. The panel fronts are much in vogue, but the straightness there merely emphasizes or accentuates the fullness which appears on either side. The latest invention of the Parisi dressmaker is known as the 'jupe corce. lette,' or as the name signifies, a skirt with a fitted corselet top. It is most effective

PEARLS, A FAD OF DEBUTANTES Fancy for Odd Effects In Femilian Jewelry

Odd effects in jewelry are the fad just now and it is noticeable that the taste of romen who set the styles runs to the ir regular pearls called baroque, who price is out of all proportion to their irregularity. Debutantes and young matrons are the chief upholders of the pearl fad, as the pearls give a touch of elegance to simple costumes.

One of the favorite combinations is made of two rows of seed pearls with pendant jewels hung around at intervals and large baroque pearl pendant from the centre. The other jewels are oftenest to paz es, amethysts, moonstones and sapphires, and the whole gives a brilliant effect

Besides irregular pearls there is a craze smong the women who can afford such luxuries for uncut gems, particularly of turquoises, in belt buckles, waist brooches, cuff buttons and umbrells handles. Rough turquoises are set in rose gold and the stone is frequently inscribed with hieroglyphies in gold. . They give a barbaric touch to a costume, the effect of which is enhanced by the peculiar hue of the stone in contrast with the gold getting.

It will be a dainty picture of herself which the debutante of 1901 can show to her children ten years hence.

Hard.Handed.

A London paper announces that the Bishop of Laverpool has requested girls who are candidates for confirmation not te

TO THE DEAF .- A rich lady, cured of her Defineds and Noises in the Head, by Dr. Nichol son Artificial Ear Drums, has sent $1,000 to his Institute, so that deaf people numble to procure the Ear Drums may have them free. Apply to The Institute, 700 Eight Avenue, New York-

40 doses in a vial of Dr. Agnew's Little Pills. No pain, pleasure in every doselittle, but awfully good. Cure Sick Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, Nausea, Sallowness.-117

What a lot of acquaintances that man must have !' 'What man P'

'Why, the one all the other men have to go out and see.'

The Demon of all Disease.— Kidney diseases are rightly so-called—they're inexplainable, unaccountable and insidious. It is the function of the kidneys to filter out all impurities. If they're clogged South American Kidney Cure will put them to rights and defy the ravages of so grim a visitant as diabetes or other kidney com-plications. It relieves in six hours.—118

Teacher (suspiciously)-Who wrote your composition ? Johnnny-My father. Teacher-What all of it ? Johnny-No'm, I helped him.

Itching, Burning Skin Dis-cases relieved in a day. Eczema, Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, and all eruptions of Kneum, Barber's Itch, and all eruptions of the skin quickly relieved and speedily cured by Dr. Agnew's Ointment. It will give in-stant comfort in cases of Itching, Bleeding or Blind Piles, and will cure in from three to size picks. to six nights. 35 cents.-119

How is your Shakespeare club getting

'Oh, we talk about Shakespeare every Stomach "Scowls."-Ever notice the seams and furrows that steal into the face of the sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia and chronic stomach ailments? Watch the and chronic stomach ailments? Watch the sunshine break in and the lines vanish when Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets are given a chance to show their power. One lady, in writing of their efficacy in her case, calls them "A heaven-born healer." 35 cts.--

PROGRESS' SATURDAY, FEB UARY 9 1901,

They Guard Treasure Trunks.

East Side jewelry salesman York, whose streets are patrolled by thousands of police, brings to mind the risks run by the travelling salesmen of the great jewelry houses, who carry with them into all parts of the country stocks worth many thousands of dollars. These risks were so great and robberies were of such irequent occurrence as to lead to the formation several years ago of a powerful alliance in the jewelry trade, whose aim is to prevent robberies, or to precautions have failed. As a consequence it is a long time since the newspapers have been able to print the details of the thrilling robbery of a jewelry salesman. The organization which has brought about this great change is known as the Jewelers' Protective Union and although it has been in existence for more than twenty years and has been a power in its own field, very little of its workings has been generally known. It took a long time for it to gain the respect and tear of criminals. There was a struggle between the union on one side and the crooks on the other which extended over a long period, but in the end the union won and now it is a desperate robber indeed who will tackle one of its members.

14

The union was organized in 1878, large ly through the influence of W. J. Alling, then as now a jeweller at 170 Broadway. Two years previously one of Mr. Alling's salesmen was travelling through New England with a trunk containing $10,000 worth of goods. One night he went from Boston to Springfield, checking his trunk. When he got to Springfield he presented his check at the beggege room and got for it a valise instead. When he opened the valise he found it full of bad truit and waste psper. Mr. Alling was notified and went to William Murray, who was then an inspect-or of the New York Police Department.' 'It you can catch those thieves.' said Mr.

Alling, 'you'll yet sit in the big chair. Murray went at the job. He found that the check of the trunk had been exchanged in transit and that the trunk had been taken to Hartford, Conn., and thence to Then the empty trunk was shipped to Baltimore. After a long chase Murray fastened the crime on Landon W. Moore, 'Gussie' Raymond and George Briggs, well known crooks of that time, and they were sent to prison. Mr. Alling's prophecy that Murray would sit in the 'big chair,' had something to do with it.

After this robbery Mr. Alling made up bank sneak. He was found hanging about his mind that if all the men who sold jewel. a Brooklyn bank, with a view, it is sup ry about the country were united, they posed, of robbing it. He was convicted of would stand a better chance of fighting the the jewelry robbery and sentenced to thieves. Robberies were occurring at the prison. The stolen jewels were recovered. rate of ten or more a year and it was get- This notable case was a feather in the cap

The recent robbery and murder of an | stocks to remain in a railroad depot through the night nor lose sight of them for more than twelve hours at any one time and then only when they are in charge of a railroad company, in transit and checked or in charge of a hotel. In brief, they must take the same care of their stocks as it they were their own not insured.

'In case of a robbery having been perpetrated upon the stock in charge, the sales man is requested to observe the following : First-Notity by telegraph William R. Alling, president, 170 Broadway, New run down and punish the robbers where all York city, of the robbery and what has been done. Second-At once inform the local authorities and make every effort to get the property before it can be secreted and to catch the theif. Third - Telegraph Pinkerton's National Detective Agency or call in person, as the case may require, at one of the offices nearest the place of robbery, giving fully all the circumstances connected therewith and a general description of the goods stolen; also give route over which he has travelled, with places, dates and hotels where he has stopped, sign his name and the name of the firm for whom he is acting.'

It he tails to follow instructions he loses his standing in the union and it becomes very difficult for bim to get a place with a responsible house. All this is done to prevent robberies and get the machinery of pursuit started immediately, but these were only means to the principal end-the discouragement of the crooks by unceasing efforts to land them in jail atter the c.m. mission of a crime. The wholesome fear inspired was the growth of years. The very first case the union tackled was successful. This was in 1878, when it got sfter a crock who had robbed a salesman in Chicago. The victim was a drummer for the New York house of Max Fried & co. He went to Chicago in September of that year wi h a truck containing $30,000 worth of samples. He watched his trunk until it was safely in his room at the hotel and then he prepared to go down to dinner. He took his usual precaution of locking, not only his trunk with a patent lock, but also his room when he went out. On his return in half an hour he found that New York, where the contents were rifled. the lock of his door had been forced. He rushed into the room to find that his trunk had been broken open and $14,000 worth of the contents stolen. Then he realized that he had been followed all the way from New York by the men who had robbed him. He obeyed his instructions and noti fied the detectives of his loss. The union meaning that he would be at the head of determined to run down the thief at all the Police Department, came true and the costs and after two months' work on the old superintendent's success in this case | case the detectives struck a clue which led to the arrest of Thomas H Berry, a noted

wel- of the young organization, and from

One of the most desperate eusive men hand. He was evidently after no one else after long confinement in this cramped but Pollack, for he went straight to him and said: 'I want your diamonds.' Pollack had a wallet containing $15,000 worth ot diamonds in his inside coat pocket. He was so surprised by the man's demand that he made no move of any kind and the robber shot him in the shoulder. There was a panic in the car and all the passengers ran out the rear door. As Pollack sank down in his seat the robber hit him on the head with a slung shot, fired another bullet into his arm, grabbed the wallet and jumping of the train disappeared. The search for this man occupied nine montus, A half dczen suspects were arrested and held for identification, and finally the right man captured. Burke was located in Leadville, Col. When brought back to Iowa for trial, it fluential triends came forward and offered to make good the amount stolen, but the Jewellers' Union would not hear of it. Tney insisted upon prosecution and Burke was sentenced to seventeen years. After serving seven years of this sentence he was released on parole through the exercise of influences which the Jewellers' Union was never able to understand.

The fear in which the association came to be held by the crooks was, illustrated selesman for Parker, Sloan & Co., New York, in Covington, Ky. Carroll went into a drug store with a satchel containing several thousand dollars' worth of diamonds and placed it beside him while he gave an order to the clerk. When he went Began in Wasblogton by a Lobby for the to pick the satchel up it was gone. As soon as the detectives got to work on the case they were approached by the lawyers who had been retained by the thieves. The lawyers wanted to make restitution of the stolen property. The thieves explained to them that as soon as they found that Carroll was a member of the Jewellers' Union they were sorry that they had robbed him. In other words they didn't want the union in pursuit of them. Their offer was refused, but the diamonds were restored tinued and it having been learned that the men were arrested in New York by Robert A Pinkerton while walking along the street. He grabbed both of them, but Gurney jerked away and escaped. Meany was put under $2,000 bond, but jumped and fied to Europe. He came back two years later only to be captured and go to prison.

The success which has attended the ef. forts of the Jewellers' Union to protect travelling salesmen led to the formation of the Jewellers' Alliance, whose purpose it is to saleguard retail jewelry stores in the same manner as the union looks after the sample 'trunks and together they have made the life of the jewelry thief a most unprofitable and dangerous one.

MILLIONS OF WOMEN IN THE WORLD ACKNOWLEDGE THE GREAT ADVANTAGES AND SUPERIORITY OF

DIAMOND DYES.

position he gets very stiff, to avoid wh when giving the animals food and drink. In this way they may be kept in good condition for at least a week. The pigeons used in this work are taken from any available army station, and placed beforet he ride in the portable pigcon houses or in a special wagon skilfully arranged to prevent the birds from experi encing any shocks or conclusions on the road. The birds are trained to return to their own portable houses, even though the latter may have changed location since they lett it.

The messages sent by the patrols are tied to one of the tail feathers. Twelve men are detailed in the army each year to learn the methods for training carrier pigeons in all their details.

During the last fleet manoeuvres on the west coast of France 114 pigeons were let loose from the Ipbigenie at 7 30 a.m., and by 9 a m all but two had arrived later. Sixty-four pigeons were released on the cruiser Bruix and all arrived safely after the rebbery of Edward Carroll, a at their destination. The thunder of the guns did not affect the pigeons in the least, showing that they can be used in the midst of an action.

BATTLE FOR MILLIONS.

Preliminary skirmishing in a battle for about $450,000,000 has already begun in Washington, U. S. A.

Holders of the Cuban war bonds, issued by Spain to raise funds for the prosecution of the wars in Cubs, are sgain moving to get their money back. A lobby is already at work in Washington, and it has had representatives at the Cuban constitutional convention seeking to shape the constitution of the island so as to admit of a comanyway. The hunt for the thieves con- promise regarding this stupendous claim. In Cubs the bondholders bave met with they were John Meany and Pat Gurney defeat. The draft of the constitution now being considered shuts out any possibility of a compromuse on these bonds, but has left the way open for the payment of the bonds of the republic of Cubs issued by the Junta. This provision appears in the 23rd section of the draft. •The republic of Cubs does not recognize, nor will not recognize, any debts or compromises contracted prior to the promulgation of the constitution.

mulgation of the constitution. From the said prohibition are expected the debts and compromises legitimately contracted for in behalf of the revolution from and atter April 24, 1899, by corps commanders of the liberating army until commanders of the liberating army untilon which the constitution of Jimaguayi was ernment that an effort will be made when the constitution is submitted to Congress hotel you must certainly take off that [absurd lavender necktie !'

The White Plague.

ONE-SIXTH OF ALL DEATHS DUE TO CONSUMPTION.

lis Ravages Spares No Claus-Bich and Poor Alike Fall its Victims-How This Dread Trouble May be Prevented.

Consumption has been well named the Consumption has been well named the great white plague. One sixth of all the deaths occurring in Canada annually are due to the ravages of this terrible disease. Its victims are found among all classes; rich and poor alike succumb to its insidious advance. Only a low years ago the victim of consumption was regarded as incurable, and korror stricken friends watched the loved one day by day fade away until death came as a mercitul release. Now, however, it is known that taken in its earliest stages consumption is curable, and that by a it is known that taken in ite earliest stages consumption is curable, and that by a proper care of the blood-keeping it rich, red and pure-those who are pra disposed to the disease escape ite swages. Con-sumption is now classed among the pre-ventable diseases, and their who are pale, easily tired, emaciated, or show any of the numerous symptoms of general debility should at once fortify the system by en-riching and puriying the blood-thus strengthening not only the lungs, but all parts of the body. Among those who have escaped a threatened death from consumption is Mrs. Robert McCracken, of Marshville, Ont. Mrs. McCracken gives her experience that it may be of benefit to some other sufferer.

It may be of benefit to some other sufferer. She says: 'A few years ago I began to experience a general weakness. My appetite was poor; I was very pale; was troubled with shortness of breath and a smothering feeling in my chest. Besides these symptoms I became very

Besides these symptoms 1 became very nervous, at times dizzy and fant, and my hands and feet would get as cold as ice. As the trouble progressed I began to lose flash repidly, and in a short time was only a shadow of my former self. I had good medical treatment, but did not get any re-liet, and as a barch cough set in I began to fast that consumption had fastered it her, and as a paren cough set in 1 began to fear that consumption had fastened it-selt upon me. This was strengthened by a knowledge that several of my ancestors had died or this terrible disease. In this rather deplorable condition I was advised to try Dr. William's pink Pills. I at once procured a supply and had not taken them long when I noted a change for the better. By the time I had taken six or eight boxes I was sole to move around the house again and felt better and stronger in every way. I continued the use of the pills un-til I had taken a dozen boxes, when all my old time strength and vigor had returned, and I was as well as ever. During the time I was not well as ever. During the time I was using the pills my weight increased twenty six pounds. Several years have since passed,

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic and on which the constitution of Jimsguayi was promulgated and those which the revolut-ionary governments contracted, either by themselves or by their legitimate represent-atives in foreign countries, which debts and compromises shall be classified by Congress, and which body shall decide as to the psyment of those which in its judge-ment are legitimate.' It is said here by men high in the gov-ernment that an effort will be made when

For twenty-five years Diamond Dyes have been acknowledged as the standards of excellence for domestic dyeing in every to its approval to amend the constitution by the Caban government, when formed, by the Caban government, Downes-'I tell you Brown is a most de-

(CONTINUED F has not bee "Oh Ronald ! V this before ?' Because, my lo a lady whom I kn truly, one that wor alone. Such a one 'But—ab, Rons thought out this will never let you like me.' 'I am my own m 'That may be. the world, I admit, things are manage school. I know school. 1 know your position are; that their consect ' our marriage. An break my heart! Romald, that you d 'I know that you ter of Sir Archibal is quite sufficient f am sure, will welce am sure, will welco My father, as you 'You know best, all to you. You a you not?' 'For a time. T home, Radstock C 'II-if you meet don, you will not a 'No. no. Vielet; I promise.' 'Because I am a disobeyed him.' 'Even if he kne

you. Who could 'No, Ronald,' r her bead, 'you are bald never torgives ald you may meet better than me, an me stand in the wa me stand in the wa would rather remain 'Oh, Violet--Vi' My whole heart ar love can never chan 'Shall I hear fro 'Yes; I will dire office in your initia After a little r lovers navted. Rö

After a little is lovers parted. Ro station, while Viol left shoulder, and i right hand, walk

Will he be true! he forget me when London, where. the of great beauty? He says I shall alw Shall I? or shall I poor mother?' Ah time will sho

CHAH

'Sir.—In reply date, I am pleased Violet Loveridge h tion in all branches leave here at once although all of us w such a dear, kind

ture. 'To Sir Archibal So ran the let Violet's governess, departure. 'Hem !' muttered reading it. 'All is God, I can say I her. Now, what is I cannot have her think it rather strat Atter a few mom ed to have her at h until he could find governess or com view he called in directed her to prep 'You can see th rooms are prepared suppose they will ready ?' No, Sir Archiba is ready. I unders Lady Blackmore's r lers. They entered into the plan, elected time on its growth was assured. salesman. the instructions in detail :

Mr. Alling president and Ira Goddard, now the organization ever put behind the bars of 11 John street, secretary, and since then the union has been growing steadily. It was the notorious Fritz Diehm, who was a Cincinnati crook. In November, 1891, a now has 1.000 members and it serves not only as a check on thieves, but as a check salesman for the Cincinnati house of Her man Keck & Co went to Daytan, Ohio, on careless salesmen who never know when agents of the union may be watching them. A great deal of money has been spent by the union in the hunting and prosecut. ion of robbers. A detective agency is re-with a satchel containing $150,000 worth of jewels. At Dayton he stepped out of the train to get a sandwich and left his bag under the seat in the car. When he came back the satchel was gone. There tained to work up all cases and it has was a great row raised over this loss, oworders to get out after every robbery and never let up until it lands the guilty man. ing to the unusual value of the stolen goods. In the old days the usual scheme of the Atter a month's work the detectives ar rested Diehm and an accomplice, William crooks was to follow a salesman leaving his house with a treasure trunk until a good Hurless, on the tarm of Hurless's father near Jeffersonville, Ind, The jewels were opportunity came to nab it. Otten they found buried in four glass bottles on the would keep on the trail of a trunk for weeks, going from place to place with the farm. Hurless was arrested first and he The trick of exchanging trunk was landed safely in jail. Diehm was not checks was the most frequently worked. arrested until a day or two later. He was This was usually done while a trunk was in in the custody of the Sheriff on the way to the jail when a number of his friends set transit from one station to another or while it was piled up with a lot of other trunks upon the officers of the law and rescued in some baggage room. The first thing him. He escaped to Europe and nothing was heard of him for two years, but the done on organization was to instruct all detectives were always on the lookout tor drummers to keep the closest possible him, and in 1893 they caught him in hot watch on their trunks. Here is a copy of springs. He got a seven years sentence.

Another desperate man who was run down was James Burke, a crook with many "Salesmen holding certificates from the Jewelers' Protective Union are required to aliases and a most unsavory record. In November, 1892, W L Pollack of the New compare the check received with the one on trunks and see that the trunks are put York firm of Pollack & Co., was riding on the train and always to travel by the trom Omaha to Sioux City, Ia. Just besame train on which their trunks are part of the world. Jealous competitors have labored hard to foist their crude preparations on the public, and in their work of deception have imitated as closely as they dared, the style of package used by the majufacturers of Diamond Dyes. The manufacturers of adulterated dyes have decived many people in the next

"On arriving at their destination salesmen net at once claim and take charge of

However, one trial of the common dye-stuffs was enough for those who bought them. The deceptions sent home dyers back to the ever reliable Diamond Dyes, so easy to use and always successful. so easy to use and always successful. The new century comes in with Diamond Dyes leading the whole world, and the de-mand increases every day. While many crude dyes have died with the old century, there is still need to exercise care in buy-ing, as some merchants have still a stock of common dyes which they desire to dis-pose of. Home dyers who wish to save money, avoid failure, loss of goods and bitter disappointments, should insist upon getting the warranted Diamond Dyes when they ask for them.

CARBIER PIGEONS IN WAR.

accessful Experiments with the Birds by the French Army and Navy

The French army has interested itself of late in the question of using carrier or boming pigeons on reconnoissance duty with very satisfactory results. In the experiments the pigeons assigned to the patrols are carried in baskets on the backs of the cavalrymen, as the infantryman carries his knapsack. Inside the basket are tubes made of wickerwork lined with horse hair paddings, in which the pigeons are placed. It was found that without the tubes a long trot would render the birds unfit for ser-fore the train pulled into Sioux City, it stopped for a moment and a man appeared tin the back of the bird was seriously at the front door of the car in which Pol-chafed. The tube makes the bird hold his their baggage. They must not allow their ack was seated. He had a pistel in hi wings and feet close to his body. Of course George, darling, when we get to the gives relief in ten minutes.

of the claims under the Cuban debt.

The representatives of the bondholders will seek to have Congress act quietly, and these men are spreading the talk in favor of an extra session of Congress. They be lieve that if they can get the constitution amended they can make 'arrangements' with the Cuban government whereby com promise can be reached. With this end in view they will seek to hurry the withdrawal of the United States from Cuba, and the turning over to the Cubans them selves of all the affairs of the island.

Practicability.

Do you think the flying machine can ver be made a practical institution P' 'I don't see why not,' answered the man who measures everything by the dollar. If they can sell stock in Keely motors and processes for getting gold out of sea water I don't see why there shouldn't be money in flying machines

To Reduce Your Boot Measure One Size

Isn't half as hard neither is it as painful as before the introduction of Putnam's Pain-less Corn and Wart Extractor. In twenty four hours the corn is removed. Pretty and small feet are well assured on every-body, but it can't be done unless you use Putnam's—others are not nearly so good. Putnam's is the best. At druggists.

A Well-Kept Secret.

'Clara dear, we've been careful so far. and I don't think they suspect we are just married. You must scold me a little now as we get off the train.'

(Sharply and in a high pitched voice)

Uppers-'Well. I found him in that sort of mood once. He recalled a ten dollar loan he had made me.

Have you Moore's poem ?' inquired the Weet young thing. 'I think so miss. 1'll look in a minute.' replied the clerk in the bookstore. 'By the way, here's a fine new story just out. It's called 'Just One Kiss,' and ----

'I want Moore,' she interrupted, haught-

'Jes, think of it.' exclaimed Three finger-Sam. 'They only gave that embezzler that tuck near a million dollars 13 years in the penitentiary.' 'Xes,' answered Broncho Bob, pensive ly.' 'It's lacky for him he didn't live i Crimeon Galch an' stoal a hoss.'

Pedestrian-Do you go to school, little Little Boy-Yep; what do you wish to •Will nothing induce you to change your mind and marry ?? he asked. •Another man might,' she replied.

IF IT'S CATABBH

HERE IS A CURE

18

Relief in 10 Minutes.

Too many people dally with catarrh. It strikes one like a thunderclap, develops with a rapidity that no other disease does. Dr. Agnew's Catarchal Powder is the rad-ical, quick, safe and pleasant cure that the disease demands. Use the means, prevents its deep seating and years of dis-tress. Don't dally with catarrh. Agnew's d with.

interfered with." 'I did say so, b mind. Get all ther And the housekee ing: 'How strange t three splendid room Well, she is lucky, Sir Archibald too and wrote to the go 'I thank you for y beg to tender you i your kind treatment closed is amount du pound note, which bation at the way y girl. Tomorrow yo this address.'

this address.' This was a very b so Miss Jones thou, to 'pack her off' so harsh, indeed, that show Violet the lett her feelings. On the morrow, V had been her home It was a sad parting out one exception.

out one exception, the poor orphan—t not a friend in the w

Violet vis very i the coach which wa railway station move speeds' of her co dare look back for t

down. And as the schoo sight, her eyes wand and then for the firs and then for the firs down her pretty chi Ronald, and she wo post-office a letter ed to 'V. L.' She was started of the voice of the driv had been turned to h saw the tears roll do said cheerity :

said cheerily : 'Come, miss, chee not want to step at vice, and when the tubes were made of take off that Tab

Plague.

ALL DEATHS UMPTION.

ans-Rich and Peer Bow This Dread ented.

n well named the osciath of all the osciath of all the adda annually are is terrible disease. mong all classes; much to its insidious ars ago the victim rded as incurable, ends watched the o away muil death ends watched and e away until death te Now, however, its earliest stages its earliest stages , and that by a. -keeping it noh. are pra disposed its synges. Con-disting the pre-part who are pale, or show any of the general debility in system by en-the blood-thus te lungs but all bave escaped a Marshville, Ont. er experience that me other sufferer.

e luogs, but all

an to experienc y appetite was as troubled with smothering feel-

I became very nd faint, and my et as cold as ice. d I began to lose ort time was cole d I began to lose ort time was only self. I had good id not get any re-gh set in I began had fastened itgh set in I began had fastened it-strengthened by of my ancestors-disease. In this on I was advised Fills. I at once d not taken them ge for the better. ix or eight boxes ound the house strooger in every e of the pills un-zen boxes, when gth and vigor was as woll' as was using the steed tweoty six ave since passed, symptom of my tself apparent, so saying that my elieve Dr. Wilmy life, and I nen to give them ls are a tonic and e, Taey enrich close to the last and strength to 7. The genuine tes with the full the fulls for Pale rapper. If your send direct to ne Co., Brock-will be mailed x, or six boxes

ful. wn is a most de-

get him him in that sort led a ten dollar

TED FROM TENTH PAGE.) ception has not been very cruel, you mu "Oh Ronald ! Why did you not tell me see you.'

THE NEW CENTURY

BENEFACTOR.

Paine's Celery

Compound.

OUR BEST PEOPLE.

Been Long and Fully

Tested.

ED THE SICK.

Great Physician's Prescripiion

Is Recommended by the Ablest Doctors,

'On isolatic 1 why dia you not can be this before ?' 'Because, my love, I wanted for a wife a lady whom I knew loved me well and truly, ose that would marry me tor love alone. Such a one I have found.' 'But-ab, Ronald, you cannot have thought out this matter. Your friends will never let you marry a poor orphan like me.' boxes, when a footman, touching his hat, said respectfully: "Beg pardon-Miss Loveridge?" 'Yes," replied Violet timidly. 'Sir Archibald Blackmore's carriage is outside, miss, and will you kindly follow me? The luggage will be sent on.' Violet did so, and soon found herself seated in a splendid equipage drawn by two beautiful cheatnuts. It was the first time in her life that she had been in a carriage of this description, and she immediately realized how grand it was. like me.'

* 111 * 111

will never let you marry a poor orphan like me.' 'I am my own master.' 'That may be. I don't know much of the world, I admit, but I hear how these things are managed from the girls in the school. I know how proud people in your position are; and I fancy, Ronald, that their consent would never be given to our marriage. And oh, I am sure I should break my heart ! And you must recollect, Ronald, that you do not know my history.' 'I know that you are the adopted daugh-ter of Sir Archibald Blackmore, and that is quite sufficient for me. My mother, I am sure, will welcome you with open arms. My tather, as you know, is dead.' 'You know best, Ronald, and I will trust all to you. You are going to London, are you not?'

"For a time. Then I shall return to my home, Radstock Castle, at Arkwell." 'II-mi you meet Sir Archibald in Lon-don, you will not say anything of----' 'No. no. Vielet; not at present. That

I promise.' 'Because I am afraid that I have sadly

Even if he knew it he would forgive bad passed since she last saw him, and she had torgotten the man who sat by her on that day when she followed her mother's remains to their last resting-place. 'Miss Loveridge,' said the housekeeper, 'will you follow me, my dear? Your rooms are all ready, and beautiful rooms they are, too. Then, when you have rested and taken some refreshment, Sir Archibald will see you'

wards 'Will he be true?' she muttered. 'Will he forget me when he gets in glittering London, where, they say, there are ladies of great beauty? Oh, surely, surely not! He says I shall always be his sweet Violet. Shall IP or shall I be as unfortunate as my poor mother?' Ah time will show.

CHAPTER III.

'Sir.—In reply to yours of yesterday's date, I am pleased to inform you that Miss Violet Loveridge has completed her educa-tion in all branches. She is quite ready to leave here at once should you so desire it, THE CHOSEN MEDICINE OF although all of us will be sorry to part with such a dear, kind, and affectionate crea-Its Great Curing Virtues Have ture. 'To Sir Archibald Blackmore.'

So ran the letter from Miss Jones, Violet's governess, three days after Ronald's Violet's governess, three days after Ronald's departure. "Hem I' muttered Sir Archibald after reading it. 'All is as it should be. Thank God, I can say I have done my duty by her. Now, what is to be done with her P I cannot have her here. People would think it rather strange. What am I to do P' After a few moments' thought he decid-ed to have her at his house for a few weeks until he could find her an engagement as governess or companion, and with that view he called in the housekeeper, and directed her to prepare for her reception. 'You can see that Lady Blackmore's rooms are prepared for her.' he said. I suppose they will not take long to get ready P' -No. Sir Archibald; but the blue-room IT HAS NEVER DISAPPOINT-Paine's Celery Compound Being a

'No. Sir Archibald; but the blue-room is ready. I understood you to say that Lady Blackmore's rooms were never to be Weak Rundown and Fail. 'He said that you were a born kicke Weak Rundown and Fail-"I did say so, but I have altered my mind. Get all there in readiness." And the housekeeper went out, mutter-ing: 'How strange to have to prepare those three splendid rooms for an adopted child! Well, ahe is lucky, that's all !" Sir Archibald took the pen in his hand, and wrote to the governess as follows: "I thank you for your information, and I beg to tender you my sincere thanks for your kind treatment of Miss Violet. En-closed is amount due, together with a fity pound note, which expresses my appro-bation at the way you have educated the girl. Tomorrow you will pack her off to this address." ed with. The relative merit and efficiency of Paine's Celery Compound, in comparison with all liquid medicines and pills for mak-ing sick people well, is clearly shown in the intelligent character and standing of the people whe are using it at the present time to cure nervous debility, sleeplesmess, headaches, dyspepsia, neuralgia, rheu-matism and kidney and liver troubles. Taine's Celery Compound to day is the choice of physicians, clergymen, profession-al men, generally, bankers, members of parliament, business men and our best people. When ill health, sickness and auf-fering come to the old or young, the wise and intelligent use Paine's Celery Com-pound and basish their troubles. Its re-liability and efficacy have made it a prized home medicine. This was a very businesslike affair, and so Miss Jones thought it. The direction to 'pack her off' sounded very harsh—so harsh, indeed, that Miss Jones did not harsh, indeed, that Miss Jones did not show Violet the letter for fear of wounding her feelings. On the morrow, Violet left school which had been her home for seven long years. It was a sad parting—very sad, for with-out one exception, everyone there loved the poor orphan—the poor girl who had not a friend in the wide world. Violet 'de very much affected, and as the coach which was to convey her to the railway station moved off, amid the 'God speeds' of her companions, she did not dare look back for fear of utterly breaking down. with an established and unassailable rehome m And as the school disappeared from her sight, her eyes wandered to the old Abbey, and then for the first time the tears rolled down her pretty checks. She thought of Ronald, and she wondered whether at the post-office a letter was waiting, direct-ed to 'V. L.' sawed fish ! A learned gentleman read it, and in-formed the showman that he had made a ed to 'V. L.' She was started out of her reverie by the voice of the driver. His honest face had been turned to her for some time. He saw the tears roll down her checks, and he rid the voice of the driver. His honest face had been turned to her for some time. He saw the tears roll down her checks, and he self; the hadmission is only a tuppence, said cheerily: 'Come, miss, cheer up! Surely you do not want to step at school all your life!' Se the learned gentleman paid his 'tup-We all begin by being round pegs in time.

Your tears will change to smiles when 700 reach London, depend upon it.' But it was all very well to talk. She had been very happy at the school; there, all loved her; when she was going te, there would be none. When she reached Victoria Station she stood for a moment upon the platform, looking wonderingly on the busy scene. She was about to turn to look after her boxes, when a tootman, touching his hat, said respectfully: pence,' went in, and was shown a large codfish sawn in half. 'Yer a'int the fust gentleman wot has tried to teach me 'ow to spell; but I tell yer l've'ad a good eddication, an' I'm runnin' this show jist to prove to people l'ave,' grinned the showman.

The learned gentleman left, deeply in-dignant with the world in general and the wman in particular.

PROGRESS, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9 1901.

BATING BY PEBBOIPTION. Novel Method of a Boston Cafe to Protect the Bealth of its Patrons.

Most people who are not in good health know in a general way what ails them ; some of them know what kind of food they ought to eat in order to overcome their bodily infirmities and prevent a recurrence of them. But people who have good health usually consider only their taste or their pocketbook when they order a meal.

and she immediately realized how grand it was. 'Ronald always rides in his carriage,' she thought, 'and if, some day, I should be Lady Radstock, I should do so. Ah me! Poor mamma used to tell me how she rode in her carriage, and that one day I should have a carriage all to myself. I wonder if I ever shall.' At that moment the carriage stopped, the tootman jumped from his seat, the car-riage door opeaed, and the stops were thrown down in so rapid a manner, that the poor girl looked hopelessly bewildered. The old hall porter stood upon the thres-hold, and as Violet entered he started back, and placed his hand quickly over his mouth. Had he not done so, a cry of as tonishment would have let his lips. Violet did not notice it, neither did she notice the hall-porter at all. Seven years had passed since she last saw him, and she had torgotten the man who sat by her on An experiment which one of the Boston hotels is making shows that others besides invalids are beginning to understand that it is important to have the right sort of a spite against them. tood as well as to have it properly cooked. The cafe of this hotel provides not only a bill of fare, but a diet list made out by a physician and intended as a guide to the patrons of the house. It prescribes the food best suited to various physical conditions. To the fat man it offers a variety of dishes that tickle his palate, and at the same time check his tendency to grow fatter. The thin and anaemic can procure the things which make blood and tissue and build up an enteebled system. The new way of looking at the food him. Most of his knowledge of the case from the Philadelphia detectives. Mr. question puts health first and reference Briest says : afterward. It considers the needs of the individual, and makes practical application of the old saving that 'one man's meat is adelphia and New York Police Departanother man's poison.' It tries to make

ments, and both supposed that they were the diet like a well-stocked wardon a boat plying either on the Delaware and Raritan or the Pennsylvania Canal, robe, offering plenty of variety, yet de-signed for and fitted to the person for the letters being posted from Trenton, whom it is intended. Lilac is a charming Bristol, New Brunswick and Newark tendcolor, but the red-haired girl does not need ing to confirm that theory. 'The detectives felt so certain that they

it to enchance her peculiar charms. Sirloin steak is a toothsome and desirable thing, but melons and coarse bread may be better for the full-blooded man who has a tendency to rheustism.

is a matter which the physician can best decide. It is certainly easier to preserve health by the use of proper food than to regain it by taking medicine; and the prescription filled in a restaurant is pleasanter to take than one compounded by the tricks that men of his caliber employ in a discussion when they are getting the worst of it. I just sniffed at him and continued druggist.

dent.

to drive my arguments home.' 'He called you an old traud and said that you never had a deal a man in your life that you didn't worst him.'

to ? That's flattery to me, for I hold that every man's first duty is to look out for 'He said that you were a born kicker.'

ed around Newark, Raritan and New York toe is disappearing. This is comtorting son river on marauding expeditions to maintain themselves. There he was secure from prying eyes and gossipy neighbors. street car. 'Charley Ross died not more than three

CHASE & SANBORN,

MONTREAL AND BOSTON.

15

'Douglas was only a weak man in Mosher's bands, and was under his subjection. The mistake of the detectives was in the kind of boat the kidnappers were on and in keeping within themselves the names and descriptions of the abductors. Full and general publicity at the start would have resulted in their capture, and the restoration of the boy to his loving and almost broken-hearted parents.

'On the night of Dec I4, 1875, Mosher rbout the kidnapping of Charley Ross. and Douglas broke into the house of Judge Van Brunt, at Bay Ridge, L L, and were discovered. Mosher was shot and killed. As Douglas lay on the grass plat where he wanted Mr. Briest's help in searching for had been carried. wounded unto death, he said: 'We stole; Charley Ross. He was urged to say more, being assured that Mosher was dead, but he would not believe it, and died before he could again ere was confined to the heads of the Philopen his lips."

Dyspepsia Pains,

arising from the formation of gas owing to improper digestion, is the source of great misery to many. A very prompt and effi-cient remedy for this trouble is found in cient remedy for this trouble is found in Nerviline It relieves the distention in-stantly, and by stimulating action on the stomach aids digestion. Good also for Colc, Colds, Rheumstism, Neurelgis and Headache. In medicinal power Nerviline has a value five times greater than any other. Test it and see if it is not so. Druggists sell it.

Progressive Economy

Mrs. Bargyn-Hunter-'Why, I saved wenteen dollars by buying these goods! Her Husband-'You don't happen to have the seventeen?

Mrs. Bargyn-Hunter-'Of course not!' Her Husband-'I thought not. If you had, you'd spend it and save some more.'

No Cause for Worry.

Tourist (in Frozen Dog).-'Heavens! Those two cowboys are quarreling violently and drawing their revolvers!'

Broncu Bill.-...Don't worry, Podner! They're only making a bluff at fighting, so as to accidentally shoot a few holes in your plug hat!'

An Artistic Distinction.

Mr. Sappeigh-'Mr. Woozen seems badly smitten on that young lady pianist. 'Music hath charms,' you know.'

Miss Gabbeigh-'Yes, and in this case it must be the music which hath the charms.'

A Loss That Will Prove A Gain. A medical journal says that man's little

How one can fit his diet to his own needs

ONE TOO MANY.

He Could Stand All But That of Being a 'But he called you a liar first,' suggested the good Samaritan who was trying to allay the feelings of a very irate old resi-

'Of course he did. That is one of the

'I know it. But what does that amount

'Mosher and Douglas no doubt kept would have the kidnappers within a few days, and receive the credit and reward. that their identity was kept a close secret among themselves. Had the matter been made as public as was the Cudahy affair, at Omaha the criminal abductors would the police officers of Newark, Jersey City or Bayonne. Their theory that the kid ing for, as it atterwards turned out.

square holes. Some of us make over the

Some can do neither. These say fate has

FATE OF CHARLEY ROSS.

Mistake of the Detectives in Their Pursuit of

Ex-Mayor John Briest of Trenton, N.

J., has made a statement of what he knows

He was brought into the case because it was believed at first that the boy was hidden in or about Trenton and the police

'The secret as to who the kidnappers

e, and most of us make over ourselves.

in Philadelphia, with a branch store in Trenton in charge of other parties. The wago 1 was one that had been used in the business. They brought Charley from to Hamilton avenue, and across the state to a yacht they had prepared for the purpose on Raritan Bay. The detectives had cities near it.

Charley Ross on that boat while they sail-have been arrested within a few days by nappers were on a boat was correct, but it was not the kind of a boat they were look-

William Mosher and Jeseph Douglas were the abductors. They had been pedlers and engaged in an oil and lamp store

Germantown to Trenton over the lower Deleware bridge, and through Bridge street

the right parties, but they were on the wrong scent for the boat, and the kipnappers kept them so by depositing their let-ters in the Trenton Post Office and jother

n ?' inquired the ook in a minute, bookstore. 'By story just out. errupted, haughtthat embezzler llars 13 years in o Bob, pensive-he didn't live in hoss.'

to school, little

do you wish to

you to change: asked. se replied.

S A CURE:

utes. vith catarrh. It rclap, develops er disease does. wder is the radant cure that the d years of distarrh. Agnew's ing to Perfect Health.

4

With an established and unassailable re-putation for 'making sick people well,' Paine's Celery Compound is offered to the weak and brokendown in health as the only medicine that can positively restore health, vigor and true life. Do not be in-duced by substituters to take the soms-thing called just as good; insist upon get-ting Paine's Celery Compound, the kind that cures.

Couldn't Teach Him.

A London showman had an announcement stating: 'Come and see the great mistake in the word 'sawed ;' that it ought self; the hadmission is only a tuppence.

'That's right.I am. The man who don't kick in these days is going to take the kicks, There's no getting away from that.' "He declared that you kept yourself sick

by worrying.' 'I wouldn't give three hurrahs in hades for a man who didn't worry. Show me a man who don't think and stew, and figure and worry over his affairs, and I'll show you a man who never does any better than nake a living. I considered that intended stab as a compliment.'

'What are you mad about, then ?' 'Good heavens, man ! You heard the conversation. You called me all the names he could think of, didn't he ?' 'Yes.'

'That cut no more figure with me than if he had been tossing nosegays at me, but when he said that I took the faith cure treatment for acute indigestion I went at him, and it I had been ten years younger he'd know what that cure would do for a spread nose and a broken jaw, confound him !-Detroit Free Press.

Seven Sententious Sentences Half truths make whole troubles.

Heredity and circumstances surround

strong man swims. Gessip scandal, slander—heart quake, heart ache, heart break.

The principal advantage of being marfind fault with you.

months after his capture, from]ineglect, home sickness, and disease, and his little body was buried in the waters of Newark Bay. The body of a boy about his size and age, dressed in clothes too large for him, as if they had been purchased at ran dom, was found floating on the bay, and turned over to the authorities of Jersey City. Mr. Ross was called over to see it. but he failed to identify it as that of his lost child.

'Whether it was the body of the boy whose fate had touched the hearts of millions of mothers and fathers throughout the land I am not prepared to say. But I feel just as certain that that was the end of of the unfortunate boy as'I am that he was kidnapped. They did not mean to harm him, but only to hold him, as Pat Crowe did the Cudahy child, until they could get the ransom money in their hands, and then he would have been sent home or placed where he could have reached there.

William Mosher was a man of ability. our little' lives like the ocean-but the He had children of his own whom he loved and for whom he had striven to earn honest dollars, but poverty had been the lot of bim and his, and his wife said they had always been poor, and he took that means ried is that only one person has a right to to secure money to secure some of the lux find fault with you. It people knew how to sympathize with us we should let them. Fortunately they don't. Whether is a state of the source of the the fault which he coveted. He had no idea of do-ing harm to the boy, but thought that he would be ransomed within a very short Genuine

Carter's Little Liver Pills.

Must Bear Signature of

Breut Sood

FOR BILIOUSNESS, FOR, TORPID, LIVER, PILLS. FOR CONSTIPATION, FOR SALLOW, SKIR., FOR THE COMPLEXIO a free Persety Togetable / Chan The

GURE SICK HEADAGHE.

news. There will be that much less for the conductor to tread on in a crowded

ABSOLUTE SECURITY.

PROGRESS SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9 1901

At Sea In a Wagon.

16

All my life I had wanted to make a trip to the Gulf. When Murphy, who was go-ing to move to the lower coast, well down toward Mexico, offered to hire me to hau part of his household goods, I worried inther into lefting me go. It was in the latter part of September that we set out on our journey, my team being Lep and Coaly, my father's oxen. Poss, Murphy's fifteen year eld sen, rode in my wagon most of the way. He was an oddity among boys, having a rather disagreeable temper the serious ways of a man of filty, and a pronounced lip. Mater nearly three weeks of alow trav-elling, we were following a winding road through a level country, overgrown with elumps of catclaw and merguit bushes, and widdenly we came to a buff. Below lay a wide expanse of water. The wagons were wide expanse of water. The wagons were stopped, and all gazed in open mouth 'And the tha'th the Gulf of Mokthico,

"And tho tha'th the Gulf of Mokthico, ith it ?" Poss remarked, as he looked sol-emaly down upon the bay. "Well, it'th a whooper ! Big ath all out-of-doorth." Travelling along the bay shore, we soon came to the house of some relatives of Murphy named Rogers, and this was the end of our journey. Before we had been here an hour. Poss and I and Al Rogers, a tall, cheerful boy of seventeen, went for a swim in the surf. We spent the next day or two fishing and swimming and sailing. Then we planned a visit to one of the inlands that lie stretched like the links of a chain along the greater part of the Texas coast. The Rogerses had not been living here long, and owned no boat. We might have borrowed a cathoat from one of their long, and owned no boat. We might have borrowed a catboat from one of their neighbors as we did several times when we wanted to go sailing; but Al did not like to ask for the use of it overnight. 'Guess we'll have to go over in a wagon,' he remarked. 'It's easy enough. You see, it's only five or six miles to the upper end of the island, and there's a bar all the way screes. In most please on the har the way across. In most places on the bar the water isn't more than hub-deep. At the deepest place it won't quite run into the wagon bed. I've been across twice in a wagon.' The next day we crossed without any difficulty, for the bottom was hard and smooth, and the water hardly up to the hubs. The bar was fully a hundred yards wide in most places, and could easily be distinguished, the shoal water being dark and the deep water green. Poss and I soon forgot our fears. We had expected Coaly to be wild, and so he was at first, but he soon splashed along indifferently. The day was a bright one, and but for the breeze would have been warm. The rip-ples gurgled against the wagon-wheels.

ples gurgled against the wagon-wheels. A schooner was coming up the lagoon. By the time we were halt-way between the island and the mainland she had reached the bar, a few hundred yards ahead ot us. 'She's going to cross there,' Al told us, 'and there's where we'll find our deepest water. That iron post marks the place. Only vessels of light drait can get over.' The water where the schooner had cross-ed came close up to the wagon-bed, and the oxen held up their heads to wade it. The deep place was only a few yards wide. Sometime in the atternoon we reached the island-a mass of sand, low and level on the lagoon side and piled up by the wind into hills on the gult side. We camp-ed on the shore of the pass, or strip of water separating this island from the one above it.

ed on the shore of the pass, or strip of water separating this island from the one shove it. For our camp fire we picked up drift-wood. There was grass for the oxen, and a pond of fresh water. We spent the siller, although still heavy enough to lays on the island, fishing, taking oysters, climbing over the sand hills, picking up shells and swimming in the surf on the morning of the fourth day; but in collect-ing pretty shells and investigating an old

The weather had been fine, but now we est when the waves seemed about to upset reached the place where boats crossed that I was about to stop the oxen, but Al called 'Put 'em through ! Get across as quick

I was about to stop the ozen, but Al called out: "Put 'em through ! Got across as quick as you can ? The waves dashed against Coaly's side and against the wagon-bed. We had barely reached the shallow watter when the storm swooped down upon us. A gust of wind and blinding rain, accompanied by an unusually high wave, met the oxen, and the foam was dashed into their faces. That was too much for the already fright-ened animals, and they began to turn? "Back, Lep ! Back, Coaly ! Back ! ba-ck ! ba-ack, you rascals ? I shouted emphasizing every word with a cut of the whap. 'Back' to the left so short that the wages nearly upset. Then I shouted. "Whoos ! who-o-cs ! who shouted "Grown themselves and us, too ? He jumped out, I followed him, and we succeeded in heading the ozen, alt-hough not till they were in water hall way up their sides. There were ropes in the wagon, and Poss handed them out. We put one round the horns of each oz. The wagon was now on bottom that sloped toward the deep sea. and the waves striking the rear end, were driving it out farther. We walked at the oxen's heads, leading them in a circle. They were terrified, and glad enough to keep near us. The rain was falling in torrents, the thund-er tolling, and every wave that came seemed higher than the one at followed. It was not easy to face or to make the ozen fact turned. There we had to stop. . . . Unitching the ozen, we led them back to the abeltered side of the wagon, the whole storm ; but we finally succeeded in getting the wagon back. Upon the back shout where it had been when the ozen fact turned. There we had to stop. . . . This de storm ; but we finally succeeded in getting the wagon back. We ourselves timbed up into the wagon and ast under the easet, still holding the ropes and look-ing out upon the raging sea. The wagon had been stopped so that the waves struck neither the end nor the side squarely, but the agh the wind was not so strom as at first, the waves k would split them. Perhaps it did. For an hour or two we sat there, while the storm raged over and around us. Al-though the wind was not so strong as at first, the waves kept getting higher, till they threatened to overturn the wagon. We were all badly scared, but there was such an uproar that it was not easy to talk. With every wave, the water poured in upon us between the sheet and the wagon-bed. The oxen stood with their heads close to the wagon. They were terrified, but real-ized their helplessness. With more and more force came the waves, till they began to lift the side of the wagon. We threw ourselves desper-ately against that side, but even our com-bined weight could not hold it down. 'If they keep getting beavier, the wagon's bound to go over,'Al said. With our heads close together, we de-bated what to do. I was in favor of get-ting out and taking our chances on the shallowest place we could find on the bar; but Al was sure we would be swept off if the storm became much worze. 'We'd better stick to this wagon-bed, whatever it does,'he said. 'Keep close to the end, so that we can get out it it turns over. But grab hold of something and hang to if for life. It's our only chance. The wagon bed will float off, and even it it's bottom-up it'll keep us from drowning' At last there came a wave as o hier that it's bottom-up it'll keep us from drowning.' At last there came a wave so big that the wagon was litted up on its side, as it seemed. We were about te tumble out at the rear end, when the wagon came down ed twenty or thirty yards in advance, while I also waded. leading oxen. We went slowly and cautiously. It was after midnight when we got ashore, and two hours later when we reached Al's home.

and breakers. The schooner was now safe across the bar, and we caught only a glimpse of her, rearing and plunging, be-fore she finally disappeared. 'Pretty close call !' said Al. 'Hope there are '' are many and and the state and pork and other food needed for the convicts and the state institutions and asy-

This system is carried out to every item so that there will, be no cash expense tor the payment of the officers, guards and others who operate the penitentiary. The Louisiana plan is wholly state management. The state convict farms cover, 18,-800 acres.

A novelty in the management of the convicts is the introduction of a system of physical examination for the purpose of determining what class of work the men

repe from Coaly's horns and tied him with the loose end of Lep's rope. The rain felt icy cold, but the sea water was warm. Coaly's rope was a forty loot lariat, new and strong. Leaving Poss to hold the oxen, I made my way to the fore end of the wagon. Al, with his boots off, was already in the water. Tying one end of the lariat to the wagon tongue and the other round his waist, he waited till the lightning showed him the post, then struck out for it. Standing on the tongue, I anxiously watched him struggling with the waves. Sometimes he was carried off his feet, but each lightning flash showed him a little nearer the post. Now and then he was hidden by a wave. At last I saw him at the post. The next flash revealed him half-way back, coming on the crest of a wave. Returning was easy. 'Now we're all right,' he remarked, as we climbed into the wagon, wet but ro-lieved. It was not long till we heard a shout. I are best suited to. Each convict is carefully examined by physicians and classified as 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5, in accordance with his strength, endurance and physical condition and is assigned to work on the basis of It was not long till we heard a shout. I this classification. It is the intention not It was not long till we heard a shout. I was at the rear end, and quickly put out my head. The lightning flashed and the sight it disclosed was startling enough. 'There's a boat coming across the bar!' I shouted. The others hastily raised the sheet to look. The schooner—the one we had previous-ly seen, perhaps—was still several yards away. The sailors must have found the crossing by catching a glimpass of the guide post. Probably they had to cross to keep irom dritting upon the bar. I could see only the maste and the bow, which was pointing skyward. to give a weak man work too hard for him to do, or to give a strong man a task which a person of less physical ability could per-form. Thus it is hoped to get the maxi-mum smount of work out of the convicts without taxing them too severely. Even the invalids or those recuperating from sickness in the hospital will have something to do.

Two Converts.

see only the mast and the bow, which was pointing skyward. The next lightning flash showed her somewhat nearer, the bow being down and the stern up. We could see men on board. She appeared to be driving straight toward the wagon. We heard a shout, but whether the sailors were shouting to us or to each other we could not tell. But we all shouted back. Auxiously we waited for the next flash. A minute must have passed before it came. Then we were half scarred out of our senses. The schooner's bow was almost overhanging us! "Look out! She'll run us down!' shouted Al. We all scrambled toward the front No man, it is said, is a hero to his vatet. The association is too intimate. But a man may be a hero to his reporter. There is a story of two brothers, shorthand reporters, working on different newspapers, one of the brothers being a Republican and the other a Democrat, which affords an illustration of this truth.

The Republican reperter was detailed. during the recent presidental campaign, to follow Mr Bryan wherever he went, and to take full notes of his speeches, sending

'Look out! She'll run us down!' shouted Al. We all scrambled toward the front end, intending to jump; but before we could do so, the schooner struck the wagon! the same by wire every night to the paper on which he was employed. To the Democratic reporter was given a imilar assignment, except that he was to

The man at the tiller had seen the dan-ger and shifted her course somewhat. As the bow came down and the schooner lunged forward, the sloping bow struck the rear end of the wagon a glancing blow with the result that the wagon was pushed forward a little. When the lightning flashed again, the schooner was a yard or two away. We returned to the rear end to watch her. Just then a loud fierce barking came from the darkness. The lightning shone. One man was steering and another stood by the toremast, while a big, sbaggy dog had his head over the side, barking furiously at the oxen. Lsp and Coaly were fright-end by the sudden appearance of the schooner and the dog, and tried to run. We had let go their rope, but it caught over the rear wheel, holding them fast although they nearly upset the wagon be-fore we could get them quieted. When the lightning flashed again, the man by the mast shouted something to us, but his words were drowned by the storm and breakers. The schooner was now The man at the tiller had seen the dan accompany Governor Roosevelt, whose peeches he was to report in full. After the campaign was over the two rothers met at the paternal mansion for the first time in many weeks, and they looked rather sheepishly at each other.

Well, George,' said one of the two. "atter campaigning with Bryan three months I've come back a Democrat. 'I've come back a Democrat. I'm of your politics now.' 'Not a bit of it !' returned the other. 'I've been campaigning with Roosevelt, and I've come back a Republican !'

BORN.

Nietanx, Jan. 25, to Mr. and Mrs. Hiltz, a daugh-Briarwood, Feb. 7. to the wife of Joseph Keefe, a Halifax. Feb. 3, to the wife of Setgt. T. Larder, a daughter. Amherst, Jan. 27, to the wife of W. L. Orm dsughter. Westport, Jan. 18, to the wife of Frank Cousins, a daughter.

Bridgetown, Jan. 18, to the wife of W. F. Gibbons, a son. Scotts Bay. Jan. 26, to the wife of E. M. Ella.

Westport, Jan. 28, to the wife of Barlow Suthern, a Anrapolia, Jan. 30, to the wife of R. I. Phinney, a Thety close call said al. Hope there won't any more vessels come along We're right in their course. Those men must have seen the wagon in time to keep clear of it, but I guess they didn't have the schooner under good conlfville, Jan. 27, to the wife of R. W. Ford, a daughter.

Bridgewater, Jan. 23, to the wife George J. Kelly. a daughter. Bridgetown, Jan. 22, to the wife of Allred Frizzle, a daughter. Nickar Falls, Jan. 26, to the wife of Jas. Narver, a daughter. Berwick, Jan. 23, to the wife of Capt B. C. Cocke rill, a son. MONTREAL _____ PACIFIC COAST. buch, a son. Watertown, Conn., Jan. 3, to the wife of Arthur Rose, a son. New Ross Road, Jan. 28, to the wife of Walter Welton, a son. benburg, Jan. 14, to the wife of Ja buch, a son. EVERY THURSDAY. For full particulars as to passage ratas and train prvice to Canadian Northwest, Britisn Columbia, mpbellton, Jan. 23, to the wife of Henry Intyre, a son. CALIFORNIA. th Sydney, Dec. 29, to the wife Knight's son. Also for maps and pamplets descriptive of journ. ney, etc., write to D. P. A., C. P. R., St. John, N. raboro, Jan. 22, to the wife of Capt. James Ogilvie, a son. Free Farms THE Canadian Northwest Bridgewater, Jan. 27, to the wife of Dr. Dugald Stewart, a son. For each adult over 18 years of age. Send for Yarmouth, Feb. 1, to the wife of Capt. Arthur W. McKinnon. a son. A.J. HEATH. D.P.A., C, P.R. St. John, N. B. Roxbury, Mass., Jan. 80, to the wife of George M Talbot, a daughter. North Sydney, Jan. 28. to the wife of J. Hector McDougall, a son. Intercolonial Railway Brocklyn, N. Y., Jar. 28, to the wife of Geo. A. Kinney, a daughter. ott's Bay, Jan. 16, to the wife of Jotham Mc Donald, a daughter. Clark's Harbor, Jan. 25, to the wife of Duncas Garland, a daughter. South Brooklyn, N. Y., Jan. 18, to the wife o TRAINS WILL LEAVE ST. JOHN St. Andrews, Jan. 29, to the wife of Wm. A Express for Point du Chene, Campbellton Robertson, a daughter and Halifax Express for Halifax and Pictou-Express for Sussex. Supress for Quebec and Montreal. Accommodation for Halifax and Bydney,... MARRIED. Milltown, Jan 4, John Dugan to Minnie Walker, A sleeping car will be 'attached to leaving St. John at 17.05 o'clock for Qu Montreal. Passengers transfer at Monctor Halifax, Jan 81 by Rev N LeMoine, Err to Mabel D Hillis, ec and Sydney, Jan 19, by Bev J F Forbes, John Burnet to Kate McKinnon Montreal. Fassengers transfer at Moneton. A sleeping car will be attached to the eaving St. John at 22.10 o'clock for Halif Vestibule, Dining and Sleeping cars o Quebec and Montreal express. Yarmouth, by Rev Fr Crozier, Albert Muise the Philomene LaFave. Iruro, Jan 30, by Rev Dr Murray, Harold Putm Sydney, Jan 16, by Bev J F Forbes, Andrew Ful-lerton to Bessis Hunt. TRAINS WILL ARRIVE AT ST. JOHN St Ann's, Jan 15, by Rev John Fraser, Angus Mc-Aulay to Mary McKilop. Brookfield, Jan 23, by Rev Geo Miller, Wm Henry Ford to Elis May Proctor. Quebec and Mo xpress from Halifax and Campbellton... New York, Jan 20, by Rev Dr Rn Johnston to Jessie Durkee. Sturgeon, Jan 29, by Rev Wm White to Minnie Campbell. *Da lly, except Monday are run by All trains North Sydney, Jan 17. by Rev J Sh Burridge to Harriet Bragg. Springhill, Jan 29, by Rev J W Ban L Patriquin to Alice M Collis. D. POTTINGER Moncton, N. B., Nov. 26, 1900. CITY TICKET OFFICE 7 King Street St Everett, Mass, Dec 31 by Rev W I Sweet, John S Waterman to Annie I Murray.

Clementsport, Jan 25, by Rev J Lockward, Arthur W Johnson to Ida May Jordan. Sydney, Jan 15, by Rev E B Rankin, McLeod to Johanna McRachera

Gabarus, C B, Jan 15, by Rev D Suth aid Munro to Mary A McDonald. Rozbury, Mass, Jan 15, by Rev J Her Wm V Patton to Cora May Cann.

Strathadam, N B, Jan 29, by Rev J D Murray, James Condon to Annie B Adams.

acton, Jan 15, by Rev J Kasturn Brown, Robert A Boyce to Marilla Maud Godace. Kinistino Park, N W T, Dec 26, by Rev Jas Bryant Chester Arthur to Gertrude Beatty, Friar's Head, C.B., Jan 21, by Rev T Richard, Merrick LeBlanc to Sophia Chiasaon. New York, Jan 17, by Bey Geo Calvert Carter, James P Deane to Lillian B Wardlaw.

DIED.

Picton, Jan 19, Alex Garvie, 87.
Dirby, Jan 6, Henry Classon, 74.
Crapaud, Jan 23, Mrs John Leee.
Pietou, Jan 17, John McLeod, 38.
Portauplque, Jan 15, Johiel Carr.
Pictou Jan 20, Bernard Flynn, 46.
Boston, Jan 24, Leus Cullinen, 30.
Halitax, Mrs. Francis J Ahern, 19.
Halifax, Feb 2, Margaret Grant, 78.
Waweig, Jan 23, Thes Sullivan, 72.
Weston, Jan 24, Louse Ilb ley, 22.
Shediac, Jan 27, Willie Mathecon, 38.
Stanbope Feb 9, Edward Douglas, 63.
Wallace, Jan 22, Winnie Dickson, 80.
Pittour, Jan 20, Waniel Lewans, 80.
Pittsburg, Jan 6, Henry Classon, 74. Picton, Jan 19, Alex Garvie, 87. Pitts burg , Jan 6, Henry Classon, 74. Springfield, Jan 28 Allan Cam Springfield, Jan 28 Allan Cameron 42. Yarmouth, Jan 19 Timothy A Doane-Parraboro, Jan 19, Edward Fower, 27. Lorne. Jan 24, Mrs James Dunbar, 90. Sunnyside. Jan 26, Hugh Manning, 70. Yarmouth, Jan 26, Edward Bridge, 43. Halifax Jan 24, Isabel A Stevenson, 3. Halifax Jan 24, Isabel A Stevenson, 3. Lyndale, Jan 23, Mrs Sarah McLeod, 45. Big Bras d'Or, Jan 22, Lillie B Steele, 3. Fredericton Jan 26, Mrs James Sillick,40. Friar's Head, Jan 17, Mrs M LeBianc 55. Fris's Licea, Jan 17, Mrs an LeBiances, Halifax, Feb 1st, Mrs Eilen Duegan, 84. Rridgewater, Jan 24, Angus McDonell, 97. Colchester, Jan 13. Mrs Samuel Creelman. Brookside, Jan 21, Mrs Donald McKinnor Brookside, Jan 21, Mrs Donald McKinnon, New Glasgow, Jan 29, Ellen H Walker, 80. Sydney Mines, Jan 14, Annie M. Dorsay, 4, Greedwich, Kings, Jan 10, Mary Tufts, 78, Scotch Settlement, Feb 1, Donald Duff, 60. Middle Simons, Jan 13, Elijah Ebbett, 76. Cumberland, Dec 15, Elizabeth Stevens, 72. Yarmcuth, Jan 26, Mrs Hannah Huesis, 71. Gunning Cove, Jan 19, Mr Dimothy A Doane. George's River, Jan 17, Mrs John Moore, 31.

altogether put i cal fraternity. O in the city said no consideration in his residence annoying than i all right belore use, and he as well new wi interrogated "Well he had u it is a great co but in our profe "You would be number of time necessary. So agreeable and u book could be which would be as they were at "I have been ca times after a ha rest was very m remark from a that baby was b question from a would be all right "I remember lady in whose and she asked n party that night. not as I had to a It was midnight that visit, very s was away at the bed, and lived in would rest easy soundly asleep t my lady friend wished to know gan telling me a ing at the party. lite, but standin with not too man ruffle the best about the very cared about liste I hung up the te still going on, bu to hang the instr it wouldn't ring to sleep and dres of how doctors v phones were inv wife called me te was rivging that could not under

VOL. X

E

Town To

~~~~

The telephon

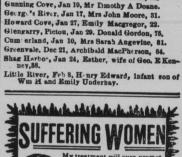

strument of con

now a-days ever its utility throug of people have doubt as to its class of persons

1

the wagon. There was still a little light when Al, who had taken a look out of the fore end came crawling back to us with a troubled could see a dark, purple cloud in the northeast, beyond the bay. As we were driving into the water, Poss stuck his bead out from under the wagonabeet to look at the cloud and and aid. the cloud, and said :

'I gueth we'd better thop! It ain't thate to croth thith thes when there'th a thorm in thight!'

face. 'Do you know what these waves are do-ing P he asked. 'Every time one strikes you can feel the wagon move a tew inches. They're driving it backward and sidewise at the same time. The bar is narrow here and if this keeps up long, we will be off in deep water. The wagon has already mov-ed several yards from where it stood at first. I can tell by that iron post. We are now near the west edge of the bar, and the bind wheels have already moved back into the deep place where the beats cross.' in thight!' 'Ob, you needn't worry about that rain,' laughed Al. 'Even it it's moving this way we'll be across before it gets here.' But when we had waded out on the bar about two miles, the cloud was rising tast. Poss demanded that we turn round and go back; but I only drove the faster, crack ing the whip over the oxen and shouting to them loudy. There was already some them loudly. There was already some wind from the northeast, and the waves were running over the bar with some little noise and foam. CTOSS. This was startling news-especially now

This was starting news—especially now that night was upon us. I went to the fore end and saw that what all said was true. The iron post had been a few yards north west of the wagon when we unhitched the oxen; now it was somewhat farther to the "We'll get across the deep place, any-way.' Al said, as he pointed to the iron post. "That schooner is hurrying to cross,

The schooner was a few miles up the bay, but was coming rapidly before the wind. Presently the wind died out, and north trace of day was gone, but without sug-gesting anything practicable. We were alraid to put the oxen to the wagon, again, lest in the storm and pitchy darkness they should break away from us and plunge into which is the wind the wind the out, and we could see her swing round slowly. The cloud was fast spreading over the sky. Jagged lightnings were daring across it, and the loud booming of thunder could be heard. Soon the schooner was obscured be the schooner was obscured the deep sea. 'It we had another rope, I believe I could fasten the wagon to that post.' Al finally said.

heard. Soon the schooner was obscured by the coming rain. Al and Poss were tying the wagon-sheet down. I sat on the spring seat lashing the oxen, and kept them going as fast as they could wade. The noise of the surf was in-creasing. There was a wild look in the oken's eyes. Knowing how prone they were to stampede, I kept talking to them Londly to quiet them. The rain was so close by the time we

AN BEPBBIMENT WITH CONVICTS. Louisiana Trying to Make the Penitentiary

Absolutely Self-Sustaining The new Penitentiary Board at New Orleans, has now 400 convicts at work at its new Angola plantation in West Feliciana and 400 at New Hope. The rest have not yet been disturbed. In time is is expected that the Louisiana State Penitentiary will be the only absolutely self-supporting community in the world, producing everything, manufactured or unmanufac-tured, it consumes.

The principal employment of the con-victs will be in raising cotton and cane, and manufacturing sugar and molasses, which industries are expected to give a net profit of about $250,000 or $300,000 a year. A large number of convicts will be employed in manufacturing and will pro vide for the prisoners who produce the We talked the situation over till the last money crops. Thus the Central Penitentiary at Baton Rouge is provided with all the machinery necessary to manufacture cotton goods and clothing.

In the same way instead of buying barrels for the sugar and molasses produced at New Hope, the Penitentiary Board has purchased a tract of wooded land, upon finally said. 'We can take Coaly's rope,' I replied, jumping at the suggestion. 'But do you think you can get to the post ? Won't the waves carry you off your feet ?' 'Maybe not. I'll have hold of the rope, and can at least come back to the wagon.' Getting out into the water, I took the ing I never I persevered for the brilliant thou tral. There I w me, "but the be "If that is the co got crossed. 7 patience and I in next time the wi me up. I belie told the truth for that two well-kn been celebrating ing over the telep I have no doub was sufficient "you see" sai physician's life in and the telephon out.' Ob yes it i great convenien it. but it is mons » you right.

her for of all the

Valentine's T much amusement of people, but th as much as some had their usual a were of the comi Of course there s John, but they d Jace and tinsel, i doves and roses make pretty play able exchange of they are quite be