Yesterday's Elections.

terday were hotly contested; yet with the tinguished personage. The matter is not exception of some hasty words between two of the candidates in Duke's Ward, every but the News' telegram says :thing passed off quietly. The canvassing was brisk and the voting sharp; there was but little treating, at least in some of the Wards; candidates and canvassers appeared to be on very good terms; and not withstanding the unusual amount of interest manifested in the elections, half an hour after the polls had been declared through the evening papers the City had resumed its ordinary aspect of evening tranquility. In the early night a few bonfires blazed and parties met here and there

Clearing the Galleries!

On Monday we referred to the impro priety of continuing to individual members of the Assembly the privilege of excluding the public from the discussions of the Assembly. Yesterday there was another scene in that body, in which Mr. Napier figured, and that came near leading to the galleries being cleared at the dictum of that disreferred to in the Telegraph's despatch, Hanington made a short speech advocating the curtailment of the expenditure of the University and also referred to other matters. He was continually interrupted by Napier who was making a squeaking noise with his desk. Hanington called the attention of the Chairman to the matter but the member did not desist and said he would not.

Willis then got up to speak and Napier continued his conduct, whereupon Willis said Napier could make a fool of himself if Napier arose, declared himself insulted, and asked to have the galleries cleared

In the other Wards, the School question was not much heard of. In Prince, Mr. Fergusen, who, although a Roman Catholic, is understood by the electors to go for the School Act as it stands, was returned with a handsome majority, and Mr. Glesson, who seconded one of the Cathedral resolutions, was defeated. The old members were returned in Sydney and King's Wards, but in Duke's there is quite a before them, that the fascination this employment has can only be accounted for by absurd notions of its "gentliity."

The Value of Land Grants. The average price at which the twenty-six leading Land-grant Railroads have thus far sold their lands, is $7.04 per acre—the highest average of any grant being $13.98, and the lowest $3.07. With few exceptions, the average selling price has steadily increased from year to year. The lands of the Northern Pacific Road are admitted, by all who have seen them, to be better and more salable than those of most other grants, but, sold at the general average of $7.04 per acre, they will yield $25.00 to $1.00 to $1 than those of most other grants, but, sold at the general average of $7.04 per acre, they will yield more than $161,000 per mile of road—more than three times the possible cost of construction and equipment; or, at the lowest average of any grant ($3.07), they will produce more than $70, 000 per mile. These facts regarding Pacific Railroad earnings, and the market value of Railroad earnings, and the market value of Payson, Dunton & Scribner's Copy Books; McMILLAN'S MAP OF NEW BRUNSWICK.
