Tt is said that the custom of having orange blosoms for bridal wreaths was derived from the Sarcens, among whom the orange branch, from the circumstance of its bearing fruit and flowers at the same time, was considered an emblem of prosperity. Not one bride in ten now-adays knows anything about tradition, however.

What scenes have passed in editorial dens: what scenes are passing there now! Editors are the centres of attraction. The world lies before them like a map. Its echoes are all around them. All professions speak to them. Every interest and prejudice passes before them in procession. They think rapidly, write foreibly, and speak boldly. They cannot long be the slaves of power in such an atmosphere. And that is why there is such a defiant and searching spirit in American newspapers. They find profit in disregard of party. Office has no charms to men who have better offices in their printing houses. Politicians are tolerable only as they are competent. J. W. Forney.

Larcenter.

Earnest Hodge made information at the Police Office on Saturday that a watch and a sum of money had been stolen from him, and that he had reason to believe the lost property was in possession lieve the lost property was in possessio of one Maud Ryan, who lived at a hous in Harding street known as "The Ship, and not bearing a very enviable character The police, Saturday evening, proceede to the house and found Miss Ryan in bed They made inquiries about the water and she denied having it, and follows the officers into the street demand satisfaction. She was under the influence of liquor, and, as the men could not ge her into the house, they took her to th station. Hodge was in court to pres the charge, and said that, on Saturday night week, he met Ryan, and she asked him to treat her to oysters. He consent ed, and they went into a saloon in Prince Wm. street. He had one or two drinks on board at the time, and fell asleep. When he awoke the woman money and watch were all gone, Mrs. Plank told him that Ryan had it. He wanted to get some vitnesses and was sent after them. "How much was the watch worth?" asked the Magistrate, "340," said Hodge. "Hew much did you pay fonit?" "$15." "Why, you got it alst as cheap as the girl did." The hearing of the charge was adjourned. John Kerr, Esq., is engaged to appear for her. It is said that she will prove an alibi on the oc. casion when the watch was stolen. The Chief of Police has received a letter from John F, Hamm, a Boston detective, about the Flemming who is to be tried for the larceny of the watch, etc., from Fowellis. He writes that the prisoner was charged with committing an indecent assault in Boston on a child. and held to bail in $2,000. He ran away leaving his bondsmen in the lurch. Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly flom the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of Vinegar Bitters?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the renearkable quanties of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Coigestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases. Dr. J. Walker's California Vin-

MRS. LESTER—Dear Madam, I have been troubled for the last fifteen years with kinds of medicines recommended for the cure of the above complaint, but received no material benefit until I commended using your DINNER PILLS, (now about eight months since.) I continued their use according to directions for about three months, and must say that I have enjoyed better health since taking the Pills than I have for the last fifteen years, and would recommend them, with all confidence, to any person similarly troubled. I am, Manam.
